COL. WYNNE SPURNS CHALLENGE OF WACO MAN TO DEBATE.

GOES AFTER DAVIDSON

Fort Worth Man Will Not Agree to a Substitute for Attorney General.

Special to the Times. Fort Worth, Tex., May 9.—Col. R. M. Wynne, candidate against Davidson for attorney general, today announced that he will not debate with Judge Gerald of Waco, who yesterday challenged the Fort Worth man to meet him in Waco on May 15. Wynne says that he is anxious to meet Davidson, but refuses to meet a substitute. It is not known whether Davidson will attend the banquet or not.

Wholesale Deaths Attributed to Mrs. Guinness Finds Parallel in Deeds of H. H. Holmes.

The wholesale killing attributed to Mrs. Belle Guinness of La Porte, Ind., finds a parallel in the deeds of H. H. Holmes, who was hanged at Philadelphia twelve years ago Thursday for the murder of Benjamin F. Pitzeel in 1894.

Holmes was born with absolutely no moral sense. He committed murder not for the love of killing, but for the money it brought him. His victims were known to be eleven. There were a number of other murders not fastened upon him, but there was strong reason for the belief that at least a score of lives were blotted out by him.

Pitzeel left his wife and six children in St. Louis when he accompanied Holmes to Philadelphia to swindle the Fidelity Mutual of Pennsylvania out of $10,000. Holmes had had Pitzeel insured for that amount and told him they would fix up a skeleton, collect the money and divide it. Instead, Holmes killed Pitzeel. The latter's wife knew he was involved in a questionable deal. When proofs of his death were demanded, Alice, one of Pitzeel's daughters, went from St. Louis to Philadelphia and identified the body.

A St. Louis lawyer was engaged by Mrs. Pitzeel to look out for her interests. She did not know her husband was dead. When the daughter of Pitzeel identified her father, Holmes feared to send her back home. He asked that Nellie Pitzeel be sent east. He took both children to Toronto, where he killed them, burying their bodies in Indiana. Howard Pitzeel was killed in Indianapolis. Mrs. Pitzeel received only $100 of the $10,000 insurance, the balance going to the lawyer and Holmes. The latter claimed Pitzeel owed him $7,000. Holmes maintained a large house at No. 701 and 703 Sixty-third street, Chicago, known as the "Castle."

Here he had many ingenious devices for taking life, many secret rooms and a pit filled with quicklime for disposing of bodies. Among those who entered and were never known to leave the "Castle" were Minnie Williams of Fort Worth, Texas, from whom he got $40,000; Emeline C. Cigrand of Lafayette, Ind., his typewriter, who "knew too much"; Robert E. Phillips, who married Miss Cigrand, and Mrs. Julia Conner, whom he forced to leave her husband and live with him, and her child, who disappeared, as Holmes said, with an old man named Belknap, going to St. Louis, but who was never after heard from.

Holmes' first known "job" was the swindling of an insurance company out of $12,500 in collusion with a fellow student in Ann Arbor University in 1890. He died saying he had been responsible for deaths of only two women.

Holmes at one time lived in Fort Worth and was reputed to be a real estate dealer and speculator. He built a hotel or rooming house there very similar in architecture to the "Holmes Castle" in Chicago. However, no one was killed in this house.

TAKES OATH IN GOVERNOR'S PLACE

By Associated Press.

Little Rock, Ark., May 9.—Allen Hamiter, speaker of the house of representatives in the Legislature of Arkansas today took the oath of office as governor owing to the fact that Governor Pindall had left the State for Washington to attend a conference of governors, thus leaving the State without an executive. Hamiter will probably call a special session of the legislature.

Pastors' Association Notice.

The pastors in their regular meeting Monday morning, May 4th, 1908, after a general discussion of the work, desiring to co-operate with one another

In all revival services, yet in view of the fact that the meetings already announced for the summer will cover a period of time to such an extent that a suspension of Sunday night services throughout all of these services would practically close some of our churches, it was determined that all should dismiss one Sunday night service for each meeting. All prayer meetings will be dismissed during the meetings, but not the business meetings that may need to be called from time to time.

The pastors desire that their respective congregations attend the various meetings and work together, showing a co-operative Christian spirit. All the churches will dismiss their morning service next Sunday morning in deference to the baccalaureate sermon.

All the churches will hold their regular services next Sunday night, dismissing their services in behalf of the revival of the Christian church Sunday night, May 17th, and dismissing the regular night services June 7th in behalf of the meeting of the Methodist Episcopal church and one Sunday night for the meeting of the Methodist Church, South.

J. J. DALTON, President.
R. E. FARLEY, Secretary.

A Candy House.

One of the neatest things that has been placed on display in Wichita Falls in many a day is a candy house built by W. L. Dillard, proprietor of the Crescent Candy Factory, and displayed at the Owl Confectionery.

The house is about two and a half feet in height and is built entirely of candy manufactured at Mr. Dillard's plant. The walls are made of blocks of peanut candy and combining very neatly with a roof of white coconut and windows and pillars are made of barber pole sticks.

The whole is set off with a pretty effect by a veranda of the same materials in which the floor is laid with blocks of brown fudge in imitation of tiling.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

Tulsa, Okla., Man is Missing and His Friends are Alarmed.

By Associated Press. Tulsa, Ok., May 9.—John Foster of the Tulsa Packing Company, went to Bennington, Okla., some time ago and has not been heard from. Foster carried a large sum of money and it is believed that he met with foul play. The officers are tracing him.

COUNTING THE COST.

Before a large audience at the skating rink last night Rev. George L. Bush, who is conducting the revival meetings now in progress there, delivered a sermon of deep inspiration and conviction upon the subject, "Counting the Cost."

He took as his text Luke 14:28-33, and developed the theme that those who come to Christ must surrender themselves unconditionally to his authority. He must be given the first place in their hearts and lives and the cross must be borne and Jesus followed in the daily life.

Counting the Cost of Salvation. In discussing the cost of salvation he said:

"Any man intending to build a tower will first consider the cost. If he finds himself able to complete it he will go on and build, otherwise he will not begin and avoid the ridicule that failure always brings. Great multitudes were following Jesus and were thinking of becoming His disciples. Jesus did not want them to follow Him to see miracles or to be fed on the loaves and fishes. He did not seek to have the cross and wanted them to consider the cost. Were they willing to surrender to His authority, bear the cross and come after Him? If so, he wanted them. If not, they could not be His disciples. Jesus did not desire to fill His kingdom with unconverted people. He was not possessed of this craze for members. He sifted and weighed his converts before counting them.

The call of Christ is to earnest, heroic souls. It is a call for soldiers to go forth to war with evil.

Counting the Cost of Being Lost.

"The king with 10,000 men found himself unable to go to war with the other king with 20,000. Hence he sent an embassy and made terms of peace. The sinner is at war with God. The history of the race demonstrates the helplessness of this contest. Old age, disease, care and toil get the best of us in this life and our defeat is sure in the end. The only escape from defeat and ruin, is in the peace with God, that is offered us in Jesus Christ. Christ has secured the conditions of peace through his cross. If we accept these conditions all is well, if we reject them we are lost. No one can afford to pay the price of being lost. It costs infinitely more to be lost than it does to be saved! It is the greatest cost to be a sinner and die without hope of heaven.

The Christian pays far less for salvation than the sinner pays for condemnation.

HOLDS CONFERENCE

ATTORNEY HAS A TALK WITH YOUTH ACCUSED OF GUINNESS CRIMES.

SUSPECT IS ARRESTED

Woman Taken in Charge By Syracuse Police is Not Mrs. Guinness.

Believes Mrs. Guinness Still Alive.

By Associated Press. South Bend, Ind., May 9.—A special to the Tribune from La Porte today says that Harry Long, two terms coroner of La Porte county, and who assisted in the post mortem examination over the body supposed to be that of Mrs. Guinness, declared today that the remains are positively not those of the arch murderess. He states that the body in the morgue is that of a woman who weighs at least fifty pounds less than Mrs. Guinness. He believes that Mrs. Guinness is still alive.

Suspect Arrested at Syracuse, N. Y.

By Associated Press. Syracuse, N. Y., May 9.—The woman arrested here as Mrs. Guinness of La Porte, Ind., has regular teeth, but one is gold crowned. The tooth is a molar on the left side. The La Porte description of Mrs. Guinness states that her upper teeth are heavily plated with gold. The suit case which the woman said contained maple sugar was found to be filled with woman's apparel.

Woman Arrested is Not Mrs. Guinness.

By Associated Press. Syracuse, N. Y., May 9.—The police say that the woman arrested here is not Mrs. Guinness. She gave her name as Mrs. L. A. Herron of Chicago and is accompanied by a woman whom she claims to be her mother.

Demands Interview With Accused.

By Associated Press. La Porte, Ind., May 9.—H. W. Worden, counsel for Ray Lamphere, accused of having caused the death of Mrs. Guinness and three children, it is said will file action in the court this morning with the object of compelling the authorities to abandon the policy of keeping Lamphere in seclusion.

A possible explanation of the refusal of the sheriff to allow Worden to see the prisoner is that he seems willing to break silence and the authorities fear that if Worden confers with him silence will again enshroud the prisoner. Many witnesses are being interviewed by the prosecuting officers and at least two more have been subpoenaed. This brings the present list of witnesses to twenty-one.

Mr. Worden, attorney for Lamphere, was later admitted to the jail and held a conference of an hour with the prisoner. He strongly denied that Lamphere wished to make a confession and also that a trunk had been found, containing letters from Mrs. Guinness.

Twelve Bodies Exhumed.

The total number of bodies now exhumed is twelve and a total of eighteen deaths can be directly traced to the farm of mystery. The first theory that she perished in the fire which destroyed her home, is being rapidly dispelled. There are many tangible reasons for this. First, the body was headless and no trace of the missing head can be found anywhere.

Equally important is the fact that the body found with those of the children is much smaller than that of Mrs. Guinness. In life it could not have weighed more than 130 pounds, while Mrs. Guinness weighed more than 200 and was much taller.

Neighbors say that the body taken from the ruins does not in any way resemble that of Mrs. Guinness. Furthermore, the clothing bore no blood stains, while the clothing of the children was saturated with blood.

The belief grows that the decapitated woman had been dead several days before the fire. The band ring found in the ruins would be much too small for Mrs. Guinness and there is no trace of her teeth, which were strongly marked by gold fillings. Fire would destroy neither teeth nor the fillings, at least a fire that left the clothing practically intact.

One Theory Falls.

The theory started today that the Guinness farm was owned by a physician and bodies buried by him, is dispelled by the fact that several of the bodies are comparatively fresh, three of them positively identified by relatives, while the physician relinquished the farm more than a quarter of a century ago. The disintegration of the bodies so far discovered is not due to age, but to the use of quick lime. Just a few days before the fatal fire, a young woman, whose description answers that of the body found in the ruins, was seen driving with Mrs. Guinness. No one knew her, and she was seen but once.

Looking for Providence Man. Efforts are now being made to learn the identity of a man supposed to have come from Providence, R. I., in response to a matrimonial advertisement, and also an Ohio man who drove from La Porte to the Guinness farm and never was seen again. The officials also are trying to clear up the mysterious disappearance of three farm hands employed by Mrs. Guinness. These men were Olaf Lindbom, aged 35, came from Wisconsin three years ago, worked on the farm from March to July. Disappeared at night. Announced by Mrs. Guinness that he had returned to Norway.

Eric Gerhalt, aged 40, also from Wisconsin, following Lindbom, worked for Mrs. Guinness five months. Disappeared at night. Left his trunk and costly fur overcoat, which Mrs. Guinness afterward wore.

Unknown man, presumably from Ohio, aged about 50 years, came to the farm after Gerhalt disappeared. He also dropped out during the harvest time, leaving a horse and buggy, which Mrs. Guinness claimed she paid for.

Mrs. Guinness' Letters. The authorities have opened communication with many persons who received letters from Mrs. Guinness, inviting them to the farm. Her statements in some of these letters were: "You will find it so pleasant here that you will never leave."

PUTOFF THE CAMPUS

SMALL RACE RIOT PRECIPITATED ON STATE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS.

NEGROES TOOK THE WALKS

Blacks Had Things Their Own Way Until the Students Got Together.

Austin, Tex., May 8.—Late last night a miniature race riot took place on the university campus, when a number of negroes were forcibly ejected from the campus by the students. The negroes, including some women, had congregated to the number of about twenty on the campus and were making themselves offensive in numerous ways, forcing white people off the sidewalks and otherwise making themselves generally disagreeable. The students learned of this and about twenty-five got together and soon had the negroes on the run.

Year before last it was an unwritten rule of the students that no negro should come on the campus except in the discharge of his duties, and this rule was rigidly enforced, force being employed where the persuasive powers of the students were not equal to the task. Last year this rule was not enforced, and last night's trouble was the first in some time. The students are determined to keep the negroes entirely off the campus.

The Allen Curtis Comedy Company will close their week's engagement at the Aldrome tonight and will leave tomorrow for Amarillo. Last night the company again pleased a large audience and the company is generally conceded to be the best that has ever played here. The closing performance tonight promises to be the best of their engagement. The play will be "A Merry-Go-Round." Next week the White Dramatic Company will open a week's engagement here. This company is said to be a high class organization.

Amarillo, Tex., May 9.—Wedded while whirling along at the rate of forty-five miles an hour was the experience of John R. So he annexed himself to the Rev. J. W. Terrell of Gage, and met him at Woodward and on train No. 281, coach, No. 510, of the Santa Fe, an interesting ceremony was witnessed by T. B. Elleberr and D. W. Anderson of Chicago.

The bride is spoken of as a young lady of refinement, well known and highly respected in the community wherein she is known. Conductor A. T. Hayden and brakeman W. C. Brainard were also witnesses of the event.

TWO MORE INVOLVED

ARTHUR TEAGUE MAKES STATEMENT IN CONNECTION WITH ROBBERY OF J. B. CHANEY.

THREE ARE BOUND OVER

Another Man Implicated Has Not Yet Been Arrested—Other Developments.

Two more men were involved in the robbery of J. B. Chaney through the statement or confession of Arthur Teague, made before Judge Rye in the corporation court last night. One of the two is Teague himself and the other is Will Fields, whose home is said to be in Dallas.

Teague, who is a home product, and whose parents are respected citizens here, was arrested yesterday evening after it was learned that he had been with Randle, one of the men first arrested when the latter was in the flats immediately after the robbery trying to sell the watch taken from Chaney.

Teague, after having been confined in the city calaboose for a few hours, sent word to the officers that he had a statement to make. Before Judge Rye he then made the following statement:

Teague's Statement.

May 8th, 1908.
Before the undersigned authority this day appeared Arthur Teague and voluntarily makes the following statement:

"I was with Will Fields and W. F. Randle on the 7th day of May between 9 and 10 p. m. at Roling's saloon, when J. B. Chaney was present and Chaney was drinking. I saw Chaney go off toward the Wichita mill, along the railroad, and Bill Fields, W. F. Randle and myself followed along behind.

"When Chaney was near the broom factory, Randle stepped up to Chaney and threw his arm around Chaney's neck and pulled his head back and held him while Bill Fields went through Chaney's pockets and robbed him of $5.95 and his watch, and they then turned him loose. Randle, Fields and myself returned to Roling's saloon and divided the money, and they gave me $3.00. We then, Randle and myself, went down into the flats and Randle tried to sell the watch to Harry Hart, but Hart would not buy it.

"I did not see either Fields or Randle after that.

"Neither Fields, Randle or myself struck Chaney when Fields and Randle robbed him.

"Bill Fields lives in Dallas. I have known him all my life. I never saw Randle before we met him at Roling's saloon."

This morning he was taken before Justice Brothers and waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $300.00.

Will Fields, who is implicated in the robbery through Teague's confession, has not yet been apprehended, but the officers are hopeful of effecting his capture. Randle and Phillips, the two men arrested on the night of the robbery, were bound over to the action of the grand jury. Randle's bond was placed at $1,250 and Phillips' at $300.

Owing to the small number in attendance, the mass meeting of citizens called to meet at the court house last night for the purpose of settling definitely the opera house proposition, was postponed until Monday, the 11th, at 10 o'clock, at which time all interested in the matter are urged to meet at the Chamber of Commerce hall. Wichita Falls is perhaps the only town in Texas with a population of 6,000 or 7,000 people that is without an opera house. In almost every other respect, in the way of enterprises, the city stands at the head of the list. She has six railroads, one of the largest milling plants in the State, a wholesale grocery house, the largest broom factory in the South or West, a cotton oil mill, cotton compress, twenty-five or thirty miles of cement sidewalks, has let the contract for eight or nine miles of sewerage, and various other smaller but substantial evidences of a live and growing city, and yet she has no opera house. The sum of $20,000 has already been subscribed for this purpose, but in order to build the kind of structure that will be a credit to Wichita Falls, at least $16,000 more will have to be raised in one way or other. Attend the mass meeting Monday-morning at 10 o'clock and do what is in your power to make up the $16,000.

In an editorial printed in the Louisville Courier-Journal and entitled "The Political Outlook," Henry Watterson says: "The time has passed for 'some one else,' Mr. Bryan retaining the field; it is too late for 'some one else,' the conditions what they are; and I confess that I am in sympathy with Mr. Bryan in refusing to be ruled off the track by a group of New York politicians, whose motives are, to say the least of them, suspicious, which will support no ticket except one framed by themselves, and which do not agree with one another touching the ticket to be named. Whatever his claims may be, Mr. Bryan has his rights, and no thoughtful man can, or will say, that he cannot be elected, the issue is equally of the unthinking, the interested and the prejudiced to the contrary being of no weight whatever. But among democrats, who know why they are democrats, there ought to be other and higher considerations; some arrest of the breakneck speed on the highway toward the centralization of power; some real and not spurious purpose toward tariff reform; some sure separation of the politics of the country from its partnership with high finance and the high financiers; some breaking up of groups and rings, of wheels inside wheels, always involved by a change of parties, even when made only for the sake of a change. The Courier-Journal is a democrat, not a republican, and, standing by the sincerity of its record, it will support the ticket to be headed by Mr. Bryan, as actively and earnestly as if it represented its original preference and opinion."

A Cleveland, Ohio, dispatch, following the passage of the street car ordinance tells of the celebration of Mayor Tom Johnson's victory in this way: "For the first time in the history of this city street car service was absolutely free today, not a fare being rung up on any car within the city limits. This action was decided upon late last night after the papers had been finally signed, ending the long street car war, in order that the occasion might be duly commemorated. It is proposed to celebrate the same date each year with free street car service. The entire street railway system of the city was today operated by the Municipal Traction Company, the new holding company. It was announced this afternoon that the three-cent rate of fare will go into effect tomorrow instead of at the expiration of ten days, as had been previously planned. It was also announced today that all the conductors and motormen employed on the old Cleveland Electric railway lines will receive an increase of one cent an hour in order to put them on the same wage basis as the men employed on the other lines taking over by the holding company. About three thousand men will be affected by the increase."

Cruelly Beaten.
A dispatch from Graham says that shortly before daylight yesterday, C. C. Mills of Throckmorton and his son, Arthur Mills, were beaten into insensibility, the elder man receiving wounds which it is believed will prove fatal. The assault was made at a ranch house in the vicinity of Belknap, where the two men were sleeping. The son was awakened by the attack upon his father and when he attempted to arise he was set upon in the darkness by the assassins.

Help was summoned from Belknap and a posse was organized to hunt down the assassins. No motive for the attack is known and no arrests have yet been made.

ODD THINGS IN A DAY'S NEWS.

George D. Chemoweth of Waukegan, Ill., has written the Lord's prayer 100 times on a piece of paper the size of a United States postcard, in all 7100 words.

Gearhart Oberdorf was pulled into the river at Danville, Pa., by a carp thirty-six inches long and weighing 16 pounds. It required an hour to land the fish.

A stranger drove off with a horse, the property of J. K. Henderson, living near Independence, Minn., and falling asleep after a long drive, the animal took the thief back to the old home of Henderson, where he was captured by Henderson.

In trying to unharness a mule Napoleon Yowell, a farmer, was attacked by the animal, which kicked him, stamped on him and bit him, and he was only saved from death by his daughter, who shot the brute with a revolver.

OLNEY, TEXAS,

YOUNG COUNTY

THE PRESENT TERMINUS OF

The Wichita & Southern Railroad

OLNEY Is just 44 miles south of Wichita Falls, Texas, on the delta of the famous and fertile Brazos River.

This is the Cream of the Agricultural Land of Texas.

That fact alone would insure the future success and prosperity of Olney. But the half is not told. Within twelve miles of Olney lies Thousands of Acres of Coal.

The greatest bituminous deposit of the Southwest in inexhaustible quantities underlie this entire region. Experts who have prospected and tested this field assert that is greater than McAlester, more extensive than Lehigh and compares favorably with Pittsburg, Pa.

THE THREE GUARANTORS OF GREATNESS FOR ANY CITY ARE

FUEL, WATER, TRANSPORTATION

OLNEY Has the fuel. There is enough high grade coal in this locality to turn the spindles of 1,000 looms for a hundred years.

OLNEY Has the water. From a few feet to the depth where Artesian wells overflow with a bountiful supply equal to all demands.

OLNEY Has the transportation facilities. "THE WICHITA ROUTE" running two ways out of Wichita Falls, Texas, making connection with the FRISCO on the Northwest and the TEXAS & PACIFIC on the south, leading to all marts of the world and to the gulf ports.

OLNEY Without a railroad has been one of the busiest inland towns in middle west Texas. Since the advent of the Wichita & Southern Railroad a new townsite has been surveyed to better serve the increasing demands of this growing city. Every citizen of Olney has his hand to the wheel. Every man is a walking, talking advertisement who has looked into the merits of Olney.

OLNEY Presents an unexampled opportunity for the investor to come in on the ground floor, secure these business and residence lots at first prices. Start with this future metropolis and keep pace with our wonderful civilization.

You will have to act quickly to get the benefit of this offer. He who hesitates is lost. The prizes of life go to the bold, the daring, where they go. Investing your dollars is the sure way that leads to the golden castle on the hill of life. The surest of all sure ways is real estate investment.

YOUNG COUNTY

THE PRESENT TERMINUS OF

The Wichita & Southern Railroad

OLNEY Is just 44 miles south of Wichita Falls, Texas, on the delta of the famous and fertile Brazos River.

This is the Cream of the Agricultural Land of Texas.

That fact alone would insure the future success and prosperity of Olney. But the half is not told. Within twelve miles of Olney lies Thousands of Acres of Coal.

The greatest bituminous deposit of the Southwest in inexhaustible quantities underlie this entire region. Experts who have prospected and tested this field assert that

The Coal Field Near Olney, Texas,

Is greater than McAlester, more extensive than Lehigh and compares favorably with Pittsburg, Pa.

THE THREE GUARANTORS OF GREATNESS FOR ANY CITY ARE

FUEL, WATER, TRANSPORTATION

OLNEY Has the fuel. There is enough high grade coal in this locality to turn the spindles of 1,000 looms for a hundred years.

OLNEY Has the water. From a few feet to the depth where Artesian wells overflow with a bountiful supply equal to all demands.

OLNEY Has the transportation facilities. "THE WICHITA ROUTE" running two ways out of Wichita Falls, Texas, making connection with the FRISCO on the Northwest and the TEXAS & PACIFIC on the south, leading to all marts of the world and to the gulf ports.

OLNEY Without a railroad has been one of the busiest inland towns in middle west Texas. Since the advent of the Wichita & Southern Railroad a new townsite has been surveyed to better serve the increasing demands of this growing city. Every citizen of Olney has his shoulder to the wheel. Every man is a walking, talking advertisement who has looked into the merits of Olney.

OLNEY Presents an unexampled opportunity for the investor to come in on the ground floor, secure these business and residence lots at first prices. Start with this future metropolis and keep pace with our wonderful civilization.

You will have to act quickly to get the benefit of this offer. He who hesitates is lost. The prizes of life go to the bold, the daring, where they belong. The man who works for wages gets all he asks, all he expects—his regular pay. The laboring class ever neighbor with poverty. No man ever made a fortune or even a competency working for wages. Investing your dollars is the sure way that leads to the golden castle on the hill of wealth. The surest of all sure ways is real estate investment.

The lots will sell cheaper on the day of sale than ever after. On that day your price is our price. The highest bid gets the lot. Positively, every lot goes.

One and one-third fare the round trip. Ft. Worth & Denver Railroad, Ft. Worth to Childress, Wichita Valley Railroad from Byars to Abilene, On the M., K. & T. from Sherman, Denison, Denton and intermediate points.

Seek Not Your Own Interests.

By Count Leo Tolstoy.

You live—that is, you are born, grow mature, grow old, and then you die. Is it possible that the aim of your life can be in yourself? Certainly not. How then? man asks himself. What then am I? And the only answer is: I am something that loves, at first, is seems, something loving only itself, but one need only live a little and think a little to see that to love the self which passes through life, and dies, is impossible and purposeless.

I felt that I ought to love, and I love myself. But, loving myself, I cannot but feel that the object of my love is unworthy of it; yet not to love is impossible for me. In love is life.

What is to happen? To love others—our neighbors, friends and those who love us? At first it seems that will satisfy the demands of love, but all these people are in the first place imperfect, and secondly, they change, and, above all, they die.

What is one to love? The only answer is: Love all, love the source of love, love God. Love not for the sake of the loved one, nor for one's self, but for love's sake.

It is only necessary to understand this, and at once all the evil of life disappears, and its meaning becomes clear and joyful.

"Yes," people say, "that would be well. What could be better? It would be well to love and live for love, if all would live so. But how can I live for love, and give all to others, while others live for themselves, for their bodies?"

What will become of me, and not of me alone, but of my family, and those I love and cannot help loving? Love has long been talked about, but no one follows this advice, and it is impossible to follow it. To yield one's life to love would only then be possible, if all men suddenly, by some miracle, changed their worldly, bodily life for a spiritual, divine life. But the miracle does not occur, and therefore it is all unpractical talk.

So say those who soothe themselves in their false accustomed ways, of life. They say this, but in the depths of their souls they know they are wrong. They know these reflections to be untrue. They are untrue, because only for the advantage of the worldly, bodily life it is necessary that people should all suddenly change their life, but not for the spiritual life—the love of God and man.

The loving man alone does not perish non-loving, or, if he perishes among men, as Christ perished on the cross, then his death is joyful to himself and important to others, not despairing and insignificant, as is the death of worldly people.

So the excuse that I do not yield myself to love, because not everyone does the same, and I should be left alone, is both incorrect and bad. It is as though the man who ought to work to feed himself and his children were not to begin, because others were not working.

One cannot know whether anything is good or bad, unless one tests it in life. A farmer is told that it is good to sow rye in rows, or a beekeeper that it is good to use frame hives, a reasonable farmer or beekeeper will experiment to find out whether what he has been told is true, and he will follow or not follow the advice, according to the degree to which his experiment succeeds.

So it is with the whole business of life. To know surely in how far the doctrine of love is applicable—try it. Make the experiment and you will see how, instead of a surly, angry and depressed condition, you will be bright merry and joyous.

WEATHERFORD EMBARRASSED.

Cason Hanging to Take Place During Press Association Meeting.

The fact that the Texas Press Association is to be in Weatherford on Friday, May 22, and the hanging of James B. Cason is scheduled for the same day is causing considerable embarrassment to our people, and a way out of the situation is being eagerly sought.

Members of the Twentieth Century Club took the matter up with Judge Patterson, who sentenced Cason to be executed on that day, in an effort to have him postpone the hanging for one week. But Judge Patterson says he is powerless to act, and such postponement can only be made by the governor of the State.

It is probable that an appeal will be made to the governor by leading citizens of the city to postpone Cason's execution one week, in order that the visiting newspaper men may not feel that the city of Weatherford pulled off a hanging for their special delectation.

As a matter of fact, however, if Cason is hanged, it will probably be about 1 o'clock in the afternoon, about two hours before the arrival of the newspaper men in the city. They will come in on the train that arrives from Mineral Wells about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and the execution of Cason should be over long before that time.

Our people feel the embarrassment of the situation very keenly, however, and desire to avoid the threatened contingency if there is any legitimate manner in which it may be accomplished.
