LOT SALE TOMORROW

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL BE RUN FROM FREDERICK, OKLA., TO OLNEY.

LEAVES HERE AT 8:15 A.M.

Big Auction Sale of Town Lots in Metropolitan of the Young County Coal Fields.

Schedule of Special Train.
Leaves Frederick 5:30 a. m.
Arrives Wichita Falls 8:15 a. m.
Arrives Olney 11:15 a. m.

Arrangements have been made by which a special train will be run over the Wichita Falls and Southern to Olney tomorrow to accommodate the crowd going down to take part in the lot sale.

The train will leave the Katy depot at about 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and the auction of lots at Olney will not be started until the train reaches that place.

On the return trip the train will leave Olney in time to reach Wichita Falls before supper.

This lot sale has been extensively advertised and prospective purchasers are already arriving here to attend the sale.

Many people from this city are planning to visit Olney tomorrow and to those who have never visited that section, the richness of the soil and the evidences of prosperity and development will be a revelation.

Olney, situated in the midst of a splendid agricultural country, with immense deposits of coal, the mining of which has now begun, lying almost at the very edge of the town, and a new railroad already in operation, and many other advantages, is regarded as one of the most promising new towns in West Texas and tomorrow will be a big day in the history of the town.

The sale will be conducted by the Conway-Henry Company of Oklahoma City, who have conducted successful sales in some of the best towns in this section of the country. In the towns of this part of the country in which this company has conducted sales the lots have since doubled and trebled in value, and it is believed that none of them have a better future or present value, for that matter, than Olney.

SHAW URGED TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR

Special to the Times.
Dallas, Tex., May 11.—A report was circulated here today that a number of Texas business men and farmers are trying to induce N. A. Shaw of Bowie county to make the race for governor this year against Gov. Campbell. His friends declare that Shaw is inclined to accept and a definite announcement that he will run is expected in a few days.

TO FIGHT PROHIBITION.

Liquor Men Enlist Support of Business Men in Fight.

The Times has received a copy of a communication in which the North Texas Business Men's Democratic Anti-State Prohibition Committee requests John L. Worham to assume the management of a campaign against the movement for State prohibition and also a copy of Mr. Worham's letter of acceptance, enclosed with the following:

To the Democracy of Texas: We believe that the laws of Texas regarding the liquor traffic form a basis for the most enlightened system of controlling the evils of the traffic yet devised, and that in their eventual perfection will be found the best and most satisfactory solution of this vexatious problem.

We declare our approval of the local option system, because it guarantees to the county and the subdivisions of the county the right of local self-government; and our approval of the principal of the Baskin-McGregor regulation law, because in its enforcement the orderly regulation of the liquor traffic is guaranteed to the law-abiding community where local option does not prevail, and where it is not desired by a majority of the qualified voters; hence we stand opposed to a general state prohibition election or the submission of a constitutional amendment.

1. Because it will but revive a copy of a dangerous to the peace and business welfare of the State, and which was decided by a vote of our people in 1887, which vote established the prohibition status of this State to be that of local option.

2. Because the experience of Texas under a system of regulation of the liquor traffic, of which the Baskin-McGregor law is a part, has demonstrated not alone that the traffic can be controlled and regulated, but that a regulated traffic is infinitely preferable to a surreptitious traffic.

3. Because it is desirable at this time, when the State is struggling against conditions that have suspended its commercial and industrial activities and has filled the stoutest optimist with apprehension, to effect a return to the happy and prosperous period that was so harshly interrupted by the recent panic, and it seems to us to be the patriotic duty of every thoughtful citizen to turn his back upon any agitation or controversy that, in the very nature of things, must plunge the State into a turmoil as fierce as any intestine quarrel that has ever threatened the peace of the State, or that tends to array county against county, community against community, citizen against citizen or neighbor against neighbor.

We therefore call upon the democrats of the State of Texas to join us and give us their aggressive and unremitting support in protest against this movement that will embroil the State in a fierce controversy that will destroy its tranquility and will delay indefinitely the return of peace and prosperity.

NEGRESS' 51 YEARS OLD CHILDREN NUMBER 25.

Special to the Times.
Corsicana, Tex., May 11.—C. Wells, who is taking the city scholastic census, found a negro woman who is 51 years old and has a family of twenty-five children.

The Christian Revival.

The men's meeting at the rink was well attended, some 300 men and boys being present and one made a public profession. A deep interest was manifested.

The sermon on the "Fight of the Faith" was treated in the peculiarly practical manner which characterizes Rev. Bush's sermons.

The speaker then made the point that companionship and associations make or mar men more than anything else. When these are hurtful they should be cut off at any cost.

The audience last night was large, filling the rink to its capacity and a deep interest was manifested.

The song, "The Holy City," was rendered with good effect by Brother Ridgour, and was illustrated by twelve pictures.

The sermon on "The Mission of Christ to Save Men," was presented in a clear and forceful manner.

Three responded to the message, making fourteen who have thus far made professions. We are hoping for a great meeting. Come and help us realize this.

Sermon at 8 p. m. each day this week. Don't fail to hear the afternoon sermons then you will want to attend the night services. I do not think I have seen more unshaken men at a service since I have been in Wichita Falls, than were at the meeting last night.

We were rejoiced at this and I am praying and hoping that many of these may be saved this week.

Let there be an united effort on the part of all the children of God to this end.

A. J. BUSH, Pastor.

ARE SELLING SEATS

MONEY TO HELP BUILD NEW OPERA HOUSE IS BEING RAISED.

NOT GOING TO LAY DOWN

Large Fund Should Be Secured From Sale of Seats For the Opening Performance.

At the mass meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms this morning it was decided to raise a part of the $16,000 necessary to carry out the building of the proposed new opera house by the sale of seats for the first performance. A number of seats were subscribed for at the meeting by different individuals and a good start was made.

A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions for seats and this committee is now at work and is meeting with substantial encouragement.

This committee was instructed to complete its work by tomorrow night, so that the success or failure of the project would be known at the earliest possible moment.

The citizens of Wichita Falls are not in the habit of laying down on any proposition that is for the benefit of the public and the Times predicts that the present case will be no exception to the rule.

LAY CORNER STONE OF PEACE TEMPLE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., May 11.—President Roosevelt today will lay the corner stone of the First International Temple of Peace, Friendship and Commerce, which is to be erected as a tangible evidence of the desire of twenty-one American republics that war shall be no more in the western world. Following addresses by President Roosevelt, Secretary Root, Ambassador Nabuco of Brazil and Andrew Carnegie, the cabled sentiment expressing hearty approval of each of the presidents in the twenty republics will be read.

Cardinal Gibbons and Bishop Cranston will pronounce the invocation and benediction on the work that is to be done, and on the United States.

The marine band will furnish music specially prepared for the occasion. The exercises are scheduled to begin shortly after 3 o'clock and will occupy an hour or more.

Superintendent McNew Resigns.

E. O. McNew, superintendent of the Wichita Falls public schools for the past two years, and who had been re-elected, and had accepted a third term had the board of trustees called together last Saturday afternoon and tendered his resignation.

His reason for this action was a desire to return to Mineral Wells and again take charge of the city schools, at that place at a better salary than he was getting here.

While the school board was loath to release Mr. McNew from his contract, it realized that to have him fulfill it would be a considerable loss financially to him, it accepted his resignation and will elect another superintendent.

The schools of this city have made great progress under the superintendency of Mr. McNew, who was popular with both pupils, teachers and patrons.

The President's Address.

The President spoke in part as follows:

This is a memorable occasion for all the peoples of the Western Hemisphere. The building, the cornerstone of which we lay today, emphasizes by its existence the growing sense of solidarity of interest and aspiration among all the peoples of the New World. It marks our recognition of the need to knit even closer together all the republics of the Western Hemisphere, through the kindly bonds of mutual justice, good will and sympathetic comprehension.

At the outset, on behalf of all of us I wish to thank Mr. Carnegie for his generous gift—a gift to all the nations of the New World, and therefore pre-eminently fitting as coming from one who has so sincerely striven for the cause of peace among nations; for while we have yet a long path to tread before we can speak with any certainty of the day when wars shall cease from the earth, we of this Western Hemisphere, by movements such as that symbolized by this building, have taken great strides toward securing permanent peace among ourselves.

In the next place, as president of this republic I greet the representatives of all our sister republics to the south of us. In a sense, you are our elder sisters and we the younger people, for you represent a more ancient civilization on this continent than we do. Your fathers, the Spanish and Portuguese explorers, conquerors, lawgivers and commonwealth builders, had founded a flourishing civilization in the tropics and the South Temperate Zone, while all America north of the Rio Grande was still unpopulated wilderness. Your people had founded American universities, were building beautiful cities, were laying deep the foundations of future national life, at many different points in the vast territory stretching from the Colorado to the Plata, before the ships of the Frenchman and the Englishman, the Swede and the Hollander, had found permanent havens on the North Atlantic seacoast. For centuries our civilizations grew each in its own way, but each suffered from the others. Now we are growing together.

More and more in the future we shall each give to and get from the others, not merely things of material value, but things that are of worth for the intellectual and spiritual welfare of us all. In the century that has passed the development of North America has, on the whole, proceeded faster than the development of South America; but in the century that has now opened I believe that no other part of the world will see such extraordinary development in wealth, in population, in all that makes for progress, as will be seen from the northern boundary of Mexico through all Central and South America; and I can assure you that the people of this nation look with the most profound satisfaction upon the great growth that has already taken place in the countries which you represent—a growth alike in political stability and in the material well-being which can only come when there is political stability.

Thornberry School Picnic.

The picnic given by the patrons of the Thornberry school at the Thornberry bridge last Saturday was a very enjoyable event and was attended by a large crowd.

In a baseball game between the Thornberry and Frieberg teams, Thornberry won by a score of 8 to 4.

Prof. E. P. Hanty, principal of the public school at Byers, was one of the visitors and made a talk that was much appreciated. Among the other visitors were Miss Daisy Camp of Stoneberg, and Miss Teresa Bentley of Wichita Falls.

Before the picnic was adjourned a resolution was unanimously adopted soliciting Prof. Kemp to take the school for another year.

A NEGRO TRAGEDY.

Gainesville, Tex., May 11.—Charles Hopkins, colored, shot and killed Maud Brewer, also colored, today and then took his own life. He placed the muzzle of the revolver in his mouth, pulled the trigger and blew out his own brains.

CAMP CROOK DESTROYED.

South Dakota Town Wiped Out By Fire Two Days Ago.

By Associated Press.
Deadwood, S. D., May 11.—Camp Crook, a town of 400 population on the Little Missouri river north of here, was destroyed by fire two days ago. The loss was $200,000. News of the conflagration was brought by a courier. The flames swept from one end to the other of the village and only a few buildings were left standing.

FORGING LINKS IN THE EVIDENCE

By Associated Press.

La Porte, Ind., May 11.—The picking up of shreds of evidence which are relied upon to connect Ray Lamphere with the death of Mrs. Guinness and three children and perhaps the fate of Andrew Heigebell will be the main object of the authorities today. It is not fully determined whether there will be further excavations for bodies today.

Yesterday the Guinness farm was visited by curious thousands, who tramped over the ruins of the burned house, gaped at open graves in the Guinness yard and struggled to tear down the doors of the barn, where the disarticulated remains lie.

Several of the out-of-town visitors were seeking information concerning missing friends or relatives and some further information regarding the possible identity of the unknown victims of the farm resulted from their inquiries.

The most definite information came from Olaf Lindboe of 610 LaSalle avenue, Chicago. He said that his brother, Thomas, worked for Mrs. Guinness three years ago, and that the last letter which he had from him contained information that Thomas intended to marry his employer. Olaf wrote to the woman a little later, and she replied that Thomas Lindboe had gone to St. Louis, and that she had had no word from him. Olaf Lindboe viewed the unidentified corpses, but was unable to find any likeness to his brother in the decaying bundles of bones and flesh.

Worldly Amusements and Methodism.

Editor of the Times:

After reading the article in Friday's Times entitled, "What Present Day Methodism is Expecting of the Young Person," and knowing how that this same article has put the church in a false light in other communities, being the official representative of this great body in this city, I feel it my duty to give to the public the real attitude of the church in this question.

There is not enough sentiment in either the laity or the ministry of the church against section 248 of the discipline to attract even the attention of the church press. While one of the New York conferences took some action recommending the rewording of the section, they never had the remotest idea of taking away any of its force. Last Wednesday our general conference met for a three weeks session in the city of Baltimore. While the delegates are assembling there from every quarter of the globe in what is the mightiest law-making body on the face of the earth, being composed of duly elected delegates from every State and Nation in the world, there will not be a single man or woman there that will raise a hand against this section.

The question of worldly amusements was forever settled when this section of the discipline was drafted at the suggestion of John Wesley at the organization of the Methodist Episcopal church in 1784, based, as every other part of the discipline is, on the Holy Scripture. At the last general conference held in Los Angeles four years ago, one party was foolhardy enough to suggest the "letting down of the bars" against theatres, dancing and card playing; and immediately our great hosts of young people from all over the world poured such a flood of cablegrams, messages, and petitions upon the conference, that the world might know the question should be reversed to read as follows: "What the Young People Demand (not expect) of Methodism."

Thank God, there is a mighty host of young people coming up from every Methodist Episcopalian home from every clime, reared around the family altar, schooled in the sacred principles of the primitive Christian church, the holy scripture and the faith of the fathers, that have had the courage of their convictions to refuse to do or say anything that cannot be said or done in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The church was called into being to spread Scriptural holiness throughout the earth, and every Christian knows that the Holy Ghost cannot dwell in the heart of a person that wastes their time and abuses their physical being with liquor, cards, theatres, dancing or any other diversion that is out of harmony with those Christian activities that stand for the development of the "Highest Testament Standard of Experience in Life."

We do not desire to deprive our

New Railroads Through West Texas.

St. Louis, Mo., May 11.—A special dispatch to the Globe-Democrat from Austin says:

It has developed as a result of the visit to Texas of Gen. G. M. Dodge of New York, chairman of the executive board of the Colorado and Southern railroad, that the Yoakum-Hawley interests which control that property, have in contemplation the building of a new north and south line in this State, which is to serve as a feeder for the main line between Fort Worth and Denver. This road is to be an extension of the Colorado and Southern branch line which now runs south from Wichita Falls to Abilene, Texas, a distance of about 150 miles. It has been decided by B. F. Yoakum and associates that the line will be extended south from Abilene to Uvalde, where connection will be made with the Southern Pacific. From Uvalde the new line will run southeast to a connection with the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico at Sam Fordyce. The distance between Abilene and Uvalde is about 200 miles and between Uvalde and Sam Fordyce is about 225 miles, making a total proposed line of about 425 miles, which is to be built as soon as the financial arrangements can be made.

Col. Dodge is a veteran railroad builder. He was at the head of the construction forces which built the Texas and Pacific, the International and Great Northern and the Colorado and Southern through Texas. He has been in the State for some time, making a careful investigation of the territory and probable traffic that will be afforded the proposed line. He visited Uvalde, where the new line will cross the Southern Pacific, and obtained valuable data bearing on the project. The route of the proposed line runs 150 miles west of any existing north and south railroad in Texas. It will traverse a territory that is rapidly settling up with farmers and which is now almost entirely lacking in railroad transportation facilities.

It has been frequently stated by Mr. Yoakum that that portion of western Texas through which this new line is to run is the most inviting field for railroad building that exists today in the United States. Col. Dodge fully agrees with him in this opinion.

LET US NAVIGATE RED RIVER.

A convention of serious importance is to be held at Shreveport, La., on June 19 and 20, denominated the Congressional Red River Improvement Association. A circular announcing the convention states the following as the objects of the association:

(1) To restore navigation to Red river; (2) to improve and develop the river, its valleys and tributary territory from mouth to source; (3) to study the various problems involved in the improvement and navigation of the river and the reclamation and cultivation of its valley; (4) to secure the construction of permanent levees and the protection of its banks; (5) to secure the enactment of a comprehensive engineering project under which appropriations may be effectively expended for the permanent benefit of the stream; (6) to organize the people of the entire Red river valley in behalf of these purposes; (7) to secure adequate appropriations from the Federal government and all other possible sources; (8) to see that appropriations are expended in the most effective and economical manner; (9) to secure the location of a Federal engineering office at some convenient point on the river in order that the government engineers may give as the government work thereon constant personal supervision, and the assignment of the river to a separate engineering district; (10) to do all other things necessary to make Red river what nature intended it to be, the fundamental trunk waterway of the Southwest, to the end that transportation rates may be reduced to a minimum and one of the richest sections of the earth brought into easy and profitable intercourse with the markets of the world.

Since the Federal government has taken up the Trinity river, a very small stream compared with the Red river, consistency would dictate that it also improve the Red. And since the government has failed to support the project of road improvement, the people of the Southwest are out of it if they do not secure development of their waterways at Federal expense. This organization proposes navigation of Red river from its mouth to its source—a non-partisan work in which the people of four States are interested.—Henrietta Independent.

That there will be an effort made to commit the democratic party of Texas to prohibition is a settled fact, but it will fail and should. The regulation of the liquor traffic is a moral, and not a political question, and is one that every citizen should be entitled to a vote on. Next year, in all probability the State legislature will submit to a vote of the people an amendment to the State constitution prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, and that will be the proper way to settle the matter. Many who voted against local option did so for the reason that the county adjoining licensed the sale of liquor, and therefore argued that it would be doing their own town and county an injustice by driving trade away from it. State prohibition will do away with that argument, and if those who voted against local option when the time comes or resort to an entirely different argument by saying that one county or section of the State should not be permitted to govern the will or public sentiment of another county or section of the State. If the movement to submit an amendment for State prohibition of the liquor traffic is submitted next year, there is good reason to believe that it will carry by a large majority.

The county commissioners are in session at the court house. The reports of the county tax collector and of the county treasurer are being examined and audited.

THE PRESENT TERMINUS OF

The Wichita & Southern Railroad

OLNEY Is just 44 miles south of Wichita Falls, Texas, on the delta of the famous and fertile Brazos River.

This is the Cream of the Agricultural Land of Texas.

That fact alone would insure the future success and prosperity of Olney. But the half is not told. Within twelve miles of Olney lies Thousands of Acres of Coal.

The greatest bituminous deposit of the Southwest in inexhaustible quantities underlie this entire region. Experts who have prospected and tested this field assert that

The Coal Field Near Olney, Texas,

Is greater than McAlester, more extensive than Lehigh and compares favorably with Pittsburg, Pa.

THE THREE GUARANTORS OF GREATNESS FOR ANY CITY ARE

FUEL, WATER, TRANSPORTATION

OLNEY Has the fuel. There is enough high grade coal in this locality to turn the spindles of 1,000 looms for a hundred years.

OLNEY Has the water. From a few feet to the depth where Artesian wells overflow with a bountiful supply equal to all demands.

OLNEY Has the transportation facilities. "THE WICHITA ROUTE" running two ways out of Wichita Falls, Texas, making connection with the FRISCO on the Northwest and the TEXAS & PACIFIC on the south, leading to all marts of the world and to the gulf ports.

OLNEY Without a railroad has been one of the busiest inland towns in middle west Texas. Since the advent of the Wichita & Southern Railroad a new townsite has been surveyed to better serve the increasing demands of this growing city. Every citizen of Olney has his shoulder to the wheel. Every man is a walking, talking advertisement who has looked into the merits of Olney.

OLNEY Presents an unexampled opportunity for the investor to come in on the ground floor, secure these business and residence lots at first prices. Start with this future metropolis and keep pace with our wonderful civilization.

You will have to act quickly to get the benefit of this offer. He who hesitates is lost. The prizes of life go to the bold, the daring, where they belong. The man who works for wages gets all he asks, all he expects—his regular pay. The laboring class ever neighbor with poverty. No man ever made a fortune or even a competency working for wages. Investing your dollars is the sure way that leads to the golden castle on the hill of wealth. The surest of all sure ways is real estate investment.

The lots will sell cheaper on the day of sale than ever after. On that day your price is our price. The highest bid gets the lot. Positively, every lot goes.

AMARILLO LIQUOR ELECTION CASE

Special to the Times.
Amarillo, Tex., May 9.—By decision of the supreme court this week, the application of Z. Z. Savage et al., of Amarillo, for a reversal of the decisions of the lower courts that the injunction granted early in January in the local option election case by Judge Lewis Fisher of Galveston be dissolved, is refused. The plaintiffs will have fifteen days in which to move for a rehearing before the court. The proceedings in the supreme court are the last resorts in sustaining the injunction secured by the saloon men of Amarillo to prevent the publication of the order putting prohibition in effect, but, although the plaintiffs have lost in the court every step of the proceedings from the lower courts through the various hearings, they have gained the chief consideration for which they were working and have prevented the putting of prohibition into effect till the trial of the contest. By the term of the original injunction, its provisions extend only to the trying of the contest and as this will begin next week before the district court here, the present decision of the supreme court does not shorten the time of the original injunction.

Alfalfa in Clay County.

Henrietta Review.
George King, superintendent of the county farm, was on Monday showing some samples of alfalfa grown on the farm that were in themselves fine, showing a thrifty growth. All over the country this plant has been for years growing in favor with farmers, and its importance is more and more recognized until now one of the questions of any region soliciting immigration is a question referring to this valuable feed plant.

The test of this first cousin of the clover family that has been made on the Clay county farm has been a severe one, and an experimentation that covers the ground as to our local soils—excepting as to the better qualities of soils that generally rule here. The first planting was on a nook of land next the creek of the most uncompromising quality. Mr. Bentley calls it "buckshot" land, a tough clay with a little gravel, which—in a dry time cracks badly and can hardly be marked with a pick. It is in every view from a farmer's standpoint an undesirable spot of land; but the alfalfa planted on that patch three or four years ago has lived, and has given up several valuable crops and now has a heavy growth over two feet high, rank and in bloom. Two or three times it has been burnt perfectly dry above the surface and apparently dead, but under succeeding rains has smiled forth again in healthy growth.

Crop Conditions at Electra.

Electra News.
Jos. Kirkpatrick invited the News editors to take a drive with him last Sunday afternoon to look at his crop conditions. On the trip we saw fields of wheat, oats and corn that were far above the average for this season of the year. Oats are headed nicely and it is no trouble to go into a field and get a handful of sample heads which will average over a foot long. The oat yield will be immense and no doubt there are fields in this vicinity that will go 100 or 110 bushels to the acre. We are not putting this as an average of the general oat yield, but it is safe to say that the average yield will be surprising.

Wheat has a long head and we are not going to try to estimate the average yield, but it is an assured fact that the three elevators in Electra will be taxed to their utmost capacity in handling the crop. Our largest elevator has a capacity of 60,000 bushels and two smaller ones have a capacity of about 25,000 bushels. We will be able to handle a large quantity of grain.

Summer Drinks.

The question of cooling summer drinks is of importance, perhaps, to most persons. The refreshing influence of acids is well known. From the amount of acids contained in a large percentage of our foods, it seems that they are essential to the human body. Many persons find relief from drinking sour lemon juice in cold water unsweetened. Others must have it more palatable. A person who has suffered long from drug poisons will receive wonderful benefits from sweetened lemonade. It acts like magic on the diseased stomach. There are persons, however, who have too much acid in the stomach, and these drinks are really injurious. The degree of acids to be used must be a matter of taste and physical condition. Hot drinks while aiding in the washing out of waste materials in the body, also tend to increase perspiration. The best sour drinks are lemonade, raspberry vinegar, orangeade, root beer, grape juice and some kinds of soda water. All of these drinks are non-alcoholic.

There are 25 Business Houses.

THE STETSON IS HIGH PRICED compared with the price of the common run of shoes, and there is reason in it. While their owner is wearing out one pair of Stetsons and enjoying them from the first day they went on, the owner of the other kind is wearing out several pairs and missing more pleasure than he begins to realize.

Get acquainted with Stetsons and find how low a high price can be.
