BRYAN AND BAILEY

ENDORSED BY FORT WORTH CONVENTION—SOLID BAILEY DELEGATION TO DENVER.

JOHNSON MAKES THREAT

Says Fight on Baileyism Will Be Renewed—The Platform Adopted.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 28.—The convention to select delegates to represent the Democracy of Texas at the National Democratic Convention, to be held at Denver on July 7th, has completed its work and adjourned.

Although several congressional districts in the State were carried by the anti-Baileites, representation from these districts was denied the anti-Baileites, and a solid Bailey delegation was sent to Denver.

One Johnson, Cullen Thomas, A. W. Terrell and E. G. Senter led the anti-Bailey forces, but as they were greatly in the minority, they did not accomplish anything.

A notable feature of the convention was the declaration of Mr. Johnson, who said that although his side hesitated to renew the fight on Baileyism, such action as inserting praise of the senator in the platform will undoubtedly lead the 100,000 Texas democrats whom he represented to open the campaign with gathered energy. Judge A. W. Terrell and E. G. Senter supported Johnson in his statement.

The convention was called to order by Clarence Ousley and Thomas Ball of Houston was made chairman and A. M. Kennedy secretary.

A sub-committee of eight was appointed by the chair to draft a platform, which was composed of Clarence Ousley, H. F. O'Neal, B. L. Jones, C. L. Brachfield, John G. Willacy, A. B. Storey and W. H. Burgess. The committee retired, and after being out an hour reported the following platform:

The Platform.
Upon the eve of a great national campaign, which shall determine the career of the general government for the ensuing four years, and in the issue of which is involved the fate of principles sacred in the history and fundamental in the structure of the republic, the democrats of Texas, assembled in State convention, renew their allegiance to the ancient doctrine of democratic faith and dedicate their services to the patriotic mission of upplanting republican misrule of national affairs with the beneficence of democratic administration.

In full control of the great departments of the government for more than a decade with a fair field and ample opportunity for the justification of its theories, the republican party has abused the trust of the people, prostituted its lease of power to unworthy ends and has forfeited its claim to the confidence and favor. In desecration of the great principles upon which the nation was founded it has engrafted upon our system the monarchical growth of colonial government, established the dual class of American citizenship and imbued the popular mind with the ideals of national greatness. In perversion of the taxing power by its power of tariff exaction it has put a premium upon the cost of the necessities of life, nurtured the growth of privileged interests, fostered the idea of class distinction and is directly responsible for the existence of the trusts and combinations of wealth that today menace American freedom in their challenge of the authority of the government. It has openly countenanced the usurpation of the functions of the executive, whereby the vigor of the legislative branch has been weakened, and has boldly promulgated the doctrine that the right of amendment may be exercised by the judicial authority, whereby the sovereignty of the people as the source of all power may be subverted. Its constant proclamation has been derision of the State governments. Its constant effort has been to reduce the limits of their jurisdiction, and in its ambitious designs their sovereignty is imperturbed. The effort of its administration has been the disastrous transformation of a federal republic of delegated powers into a consolidated government, impatient of constitutional restraints and jealous of limitations upon its province, pretentious in its splendor and boastful of its strength. Its extravagance and waste in the exploitation of the national resources have been reflected in individual life and the moral of its career and influence is found in the overwhelming financial disaster from which the country has just emerged.

Back to Simple Ways.
We desire, therefore, that for the preservation of the organic form of the republic and the constitution, and to the end that high thinking and plain living shall not depart from our people, the times and conditions demand a return to the simple and frugal government, administered in accordance with those fundamental principles that form the creed of democratic faith, in whose application and fulfillment our true mission will be accomplished and our best hopes attained, viz:

The support of the State governments in all their rights as the most competent administrations for our domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks against centralistic tendencies.

The preservation of the general government in its whole constitutional vigor.

The supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

Economy in the public expense.

Sacred preservation of the public faith.

Absolute acquiescence in the decisions of the majority.

Equal and exact justice to all men and special privileges to none, and

The maintenance in all its strength of the representative system.

Believing that through his nomination and election these great principles will again find expression in our laws, we endorse William J. Bryan for president of the United States, and instruct the delegates from this State to Denver to use all honorable means to secure his nomination, and to that end to cast their votes for him first, last and all the time. The delegates from this convention are instructed to vote and act as a unit in all matters.

We commend the principles announced in the platform adopted by the recent State democratic convention of Nebraska, especially the following paragraphs, viz:

"We favor the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people and regard this reform as the gateway to all other national reforms.

As to Trusts.

"A private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable.

"We therefore favor the vigorous enforcement of the criminal law against trusts and trust magnates and demand

BRYAN AND TAFT

AGREED ON ONE ISSUE

Washington, D. C., May 28.—Secretary Taft made answer to the telegram received by him from William Jennings Bryan yesterday, challenging the secretary to use his influence to have passed the campaign publicity bill. It is as follows:

Hon. William J. Bryan, Lincoln, Neb.—Your telegram received. On April 20 last I sent the following letter to Senator Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections of the senate:

"My Dear Mr. Burrows—I sincerely think it would greatly tend to the absence of corruption in politics if the expenditures for nominations and elections of all candidates and all contributions, received and expenditures made by political committees could be made public, both in respect to state and national politics. For that reason I am strongly in favor of the passage of the bill which is now pending in the house and senate to bring about this result as far as national politics are concerned. I mark this letter personal because I am anxious to avoid assuming an attitude in the campaign which it is quite possible I shall never have the right to assume, but so far as my personal influence is concerned I am anxious to give it for the passage of the bill. Very sincerely yours,

WILLIAM H. TAFT.

Since then I have publicly said that I hoped a bill would pass.

WILLIAM H. TAFT.

Mr. Bryan's telegram to Mr. Taft which called forth this reply to the secretary was as follows:

I beg to suggest that as leading candidates in our respective parties we join in asking congress to pass a bill requiring publication of campaign contributions prior to election. If you think best, we can ask other candidates to unite with us in the request.

W. J. BRYAN.

On account of a delay in the arrival of a shipment of sewer pipe, Derr & Early, the sewer contractors have not yet started active work on the sewer. Yesterday they had a force of men at the work digging ditches to drain the water from the flat near the river so that they could begin the excavation for the sewer as soon as the pipe arrives.

Minority Report Recommends Passage of Stevens Bill to Place Paper and Pulp on Free List.

By Associated Press.
Washington, D. C., May 28.—The special committee of six members from the house, appointed upon the complaint of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association to investigate the wood pulp and print paper situation in relation to the tariff and with regard to an alleged conspiracy in restraint of trade, today submitted a majority and minority report.

The majority report, which is signed by Representatives Mann of Illinois, Miller of Kansas, Stafford of Wisconsin and Bannon of Ohio, is a preliminary report and recommends that no legislation affecting the wood pulp and print paper be enacted until the committee has further investigated and reported.

The minority report, which is signed by Representatives Sims of Tennessee and Ryan of New York, recommends the passage of the Stevens bill, which would place wood pulp and print paper on the free list.

RECEIPTS GO DOWN

EXPECTS GO UP

Austin, Tex., May 28.—The State railroad commission issued a statement today showing that the railroad earnings in Texas had decreased $7,500,000 during the nine months ending March 31, 1908, and that during the same period the operating expenses had increased over $2,000,000. The decrease in receipts is ten per cent. The loss to the railroads has been over $10,000,000.

Commissioner Storey said that either the railroad tonnage must show an increase or it will be necessary to raise the rates.

Better Telephone Service.

A construction gang of forty-eight men in the employ of the Southwestern Telephone and Telegraph Company are in Vernon this week, stringing three new copper wires on a through circuit from Fort Worth to Childress. The line has been completed thus far and the connections were made at the local switchboard last Saturday. However, work for the present has been suspended until the line reaches its destination at Childress, when the gang will return to Vernon and re-wire the city and do away with our present grounded circuit and substitute the more modern metallic one, thereby giving us the best of service.

The construction gang is building the new line from Fort Worth to Childress at the rate of 100 poles per day and stringing wire on same.

The people of Vernon, and especially the business men, should feel the action of the Southwestern very keenly in the great work they are doing for the city in giving us such splendid service and with three copper circuits between here and Fort Worth, we are in direct communication with all points in the State.—Vernon Record.

CEMENT PRICE CUTTING WAR.

Manufacturers of Portland Article to Begin to Lower Schedule.

Chicago, Ill., May 26.—Manufacturers of Portland cement throughout the country are about to start a price-cutting war that, it is declared, will put some of the smaller concerns out of business. Prices which have been unusually low for the past two months are scheduled to take a further drop after June 1, when each manufacturer is to act independently and go after all competitors.

The storm has been gathering since the quarterly meeting of the Association of American Portland Cement Manufacturers, held in Philadelphia in the middle of April. At that meeting a row developed between Eastern and Western manufacturers of certain patent rights claimed by the former.

A party of students of the Baptist college at Decatur stopped off here last night on their way to their homes at Olney and Archer City at the close of the college year. Included in this party were Mrs. D. C. McClatchey, Wright McClatchey, Miss Viola McClatchey, Willie Graham, Horace Benson, and Wilbur Hunt of Olney and Jesse and Miss Elsie Pradeaux and O. J. Harmonson of Archer City. The party left this afternoon for Holiday, where they will take a stage for the remainder of their journey, it being impossible to reach either Archer City or Olney by rail on account of the washouts.

DYNAMITERS WRECK

COSTLY PIPE LINE

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Tex., May 28.—Dynamiters yesterday wrecked the big pipe line that conveys the water from the Bonita mountains in New Mexico to Carrizo, New Mexico, where all the engines of the El Paso and Southwestern railway system are supplied. The pipe line cost about $1,000,000.

Wheat Cutting Resumed.

Binders were started again in many fields of wheat and oats in this section today and the farmers are too busy to stop work to come town and report the damage from last week's storm. The grain is ripening very rapidly after the heavy rains and many fields will be dead ripe before the ground will be dry enough for the binders to run.

The damage to all crops is estimated from the reports that have been received to date to be less than ten per cent. Persons who are competent to judge and who have traveled in the country since the flood, estimate the average yield of the wheat crop now being harvested at from twelve and a half to fifteen bushels per acre.

INCREASED MAJORITY FOR

PROS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., May 27.—The returns of the elections of yesterday on State prohibition received today indicate that the "dry" majority in the State will exceed 40,000. It was impossible to give exact figures, as some counties are remote and no official returns were available. John A. Oates, chairman of the Anti-Saloon League organization, today gave as his only comment: "The people have spoken."

COMMANDER IS DEAD

DISPATCH FROM WICKSBURG ANNOUNCES DEATH OF COMMANDER OF U. C. V.

GENERAL STEPHEN LEE

Was Prostrated While Making Visit of Federal Soldiers at Vicksburg Pleasant.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., May 28.—A special to the Picayune from Vicksburg, Miss., says that General Stephen D. Lee, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, died at his home there at 6 o'clock this morning.

General Lee was seized with an attack of prostration last Friday, when in an attempt to make the visit of the soldiers of the Federal army at Vicksburg pass off pleasantly, he exposed himself too much to the hot sun and was overcome. He subsequently ate a hearty supper, which caused acute indigestion. Up until Tuesday evening his condition was not considered critical or even serious.

The next officer in rank in the U. C. V. is the adjutant general and chief of staff, Major General William E. Mickle of New Orleans, La.

General Stephen Dill Lee was born in Charleston, South Carolina, September 22, 1833. He graduated at West Point in 1854. He was first lieutenant of the Fourth Artillery of the United States army from 1854 to 1861 and was quartermaster in the same. He afterward enlisted with the Confederate States army and was successively a captain, major, first lieutenant, colonel, brigadier general and lieutenant general.

He participated in the battles around Richmond in 1862 in Second Bull Run; Sharpsburg, Vicksburg campaign, commanded the Confederates at Chickasaw Bayou, Miss., when Sherman was defeated, and in the battles at Tupelo, Miss.; Atlanta, Ga.; Jonesborough, Ga.; Franklin, Nashville and other battles.

After the war he became a planter in Mississippi and on February 5, 1865, was married to Regina Lillie Harrison at Columbus, Mississippi.

He was elected to the State senate of Mississippi and was a member of the constitutional convention of Mississippi in 1890. He was elected lieutenant general and commander of the department of the Army of Tennessee of the United Confederate Veterans and later in 1904 was elected Commander of the U. C. V.

Body to Be Taken to Columbus, Miss. Special to the Times.

Vicksburg, Miss., May 28.—General Lee died at the residence of Captain W. T. Riggsby. Over exertions last Thursday at the ceremonies attending upon the reunion of the Iowa and Wisconsin veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic at Vicksburg brought about General Lee's illness.

Following the reception of the northern visitors, in which General Lee took a leading part, he suffered an attack of acute indigestion, but later rallied and during the past week showed much improvement. Yesterday afternoon he again relapsed and grew gradually weaker until death relieved his sufferings.

At the time of his death, General Lee was the ranking officer of the Confederacy. Two other lieutenant generals of the Confederacy still survive. They are General Alexander P. Stewart of Tennessee and General Simon Bolivar Buckner of Kentucky. But by virtue of the precedence of his commission, General Lee outranked both of these generals. His body will probably be taken to Columbus, Miss., for interment.

EVELYN THAW IS RECONCILED

New York, May 26.—Coincident with Justice Morschauer's decision that Harry K. Thaw is still insane and that it would be a menace to the community to give him his liberty, Thaw and his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, have been reconciled. When the hearing in the annulment action is called in Referee Dye's office today, Daniel O'Reilly, representing Mrs. Thaw, will move to discontinue the suit. Very little testimony has been taken by Referee Dye and the action has not progressed much beyond the preliminary stages. The discontinuance of the annulment action will leave young Mrs. Thaw in the position of being the wife of an insane man; and as such it is understood that she will immediately make application to have herself appointed a committee of his person and property.

Fearing just such a move on Evelyn Thaw's part, it is understood that Thaw's mother is on her way to this city and that she will endeavor to circumvent the plans of her son's wife by having herself named as the committee of her son's estate.

Twenty-Four Years

We have passed the 24th milestone in our existence as a Bank in Wichita Falls. This Bank having been organized May 15, 1884.

Twenty-four years ago Wichita Falls was a frontier town with one railroad outlet via Ft. Worth. No farmers in the surrounding country, with practically no rural districts and surrounded by sheep and cattle ranches on all sides, and people looked upon the town as only a temporary stopping place.

The organizers of this Bank were among the first to foresee the future development of this country, and today Wichita Falls is a bustling City of 6,000 people, with railroad outlets in seven different directions, rapidly forging to the front as the commercial metropolis of this section.

During this time we have grown from a small beginning to a large and successful business.

We have endeavored to keep abreast of the times, providing for ourselves every modern appliance and up-to-date system to facilitate our office work, providing for our depositors every safe-guard known for their protection and security.

We have given freely to every deserving charity; contributed to every enterprise that would tend to improve or bring trade to our City.

We enjoy the confidence of the people of this community, and take this opportunity to thank our customers whose patronage has helped to make the last year the largest and best in our history.

WE ARE HERE TO STAY.

Work on Denver Shops.

Conditions at the Denver shops are gradually growing better. A number of blacksmiths and machinists are now doing regular repair work, while a large force of men is rapidly clearing the building site for the construction of the new shops.

Owing to the washouts at Vernon and other places a large number of men have been away this week assisting in rebuilding the broken bridges, but these have returned and the program now is to rush the work of reconstruction with all possible celerity. Vice President Keeler and Superintendent Cotter have been down the road looking after the flood damage, but are expected to arrive in Childress again tonight.—Childress Post.

ROOSEVELT AND HIS NOISE.

On reflection, there is more force in Mr. Bryan's answer to the republican who asked him if he did not think Roosevelt had talked too much and acted too little, than at first appears. "I answered him," said Mr. Bryan, "by asking what could a person do whose hands were tied behind his back by a lot of highwaymen and had nothing left but his voice. Would you not give him credit for making a noise?"

While fully answering his questioner's inquiry, Mr. Bryan himself propounded a query to which there can be but one answer.

Though the sincerity of President Roosevelt's advocacy of the reforms he has urged upon congress may not be entirely beyond question in some instances, the elements in control of the party to which he belongs are not in sympathy with his views, and they have rendered him impotent to interfere with their set program by effectually tying his hands behind him. In his rage, the president has perhaps made more noise than he would have made had he been handled in a gentler manner by the highwaymen to whom Mr. Bryan refers. For this noise, the democratic party as a whole, and Mr. Bryan in particular, is thankful and stands ever ready to accord Mr. Roosevelt due credit for making it.

In fact, the president, though not entered on the class rolls as such, has been an apt pupil in the teachings of Mr. Bryan, and some of the noise he has been making finds an inspiration in the salutary doctrines that have been handed down from the founder of the great party of which Mr. Bryan is such a conspicuous member. The exploitation of these doctrines by the executive head of our government, placed there by a party that has invariably contested their application to public affairs, has added emphasis to their soundness and secured for them a hearing in quarters whence prejudice has heretofore kept them excluded. And it has always been, and ever will be, that when men lay aside passion and prejudice, the grand old democratic organization grows. Whatever Republicans may think of President Roosevelt, the democratic party has reason to feel grateful that when the "highwaymen" of his own party bound his hands behind him, they did not finish the job by gagging him.

Hence the standing challenge of the democratic minority in congress to the republicans that if they will furnish thirty votes they will guarantee the enactment before the present session of congress adjourns of a number of reform measures advocated and repeatedly urged by the president.

President Roosevelt may "law down the law" as often as he pleases to the republican majority in congress, but as the enforcer of the will of that majority, Speaker Cannon just as often rules in effect that the law is null, void, inoperative and unconstitutional.—Houston Post.

From present indications there will be two sets of candidates for presidential electors to be voted for in the democratic primary election to be held on July 25. As the National Democratic Convention will be held on July 7th, every democrat will have an opportunity to read the platform of principles to be adopted at that convention and can by that time determine which set of candidates for presidential electors at large will best fit in with the national platform to be adopted—and the man who is to head the ticket.

Candidates for county offices, in order to have their names appear on the ticket to be voted at the primary election, must file their application with the chairman of the county democratic executive committee not later than June 13. After that date no applications of candidates to have their names placed on the ticket can be received, according to the provisions of the Terrell election law. The primary for the selection of candidates for precinct, county, district and State offices is to be held on July 25.

The Times has read with interest a report in the Vernon Record of the expenditures of both the city and county government for the year ending April 1, 1908. The report gives an accurate account of every dollar expended during the year by both the city and county governments, and shows for what service and to whom it was paid.—A report of that kind ought to be satisfying to the taxpayers of Wilbarger county and the city of Vernon.

Trouble has broken out at the A. & M. College over an article which appeared in the Battalion, the college newspaper. The seven students composing the editorial staff were suspended indefinitely at a meeting of the board of directors, the vote for suspension being 9 to 9 and the president cast the deciding vote. The article complained of gave offense to the president of the college and the board of directors.

SHOPPING IN CAIRO.

Where Bargaining is the Perfume, the Poetry of Trade.

"I entered Sidi Okba's shop in Cairo," said the man with the oriental labels on his luggage, "and a handsome carpet caught my eye. 'What is the price of that?' I asked.

"'That carpet is not for sale,' Sidi Okba answered. 'I bought it at great cost for my own delectation only. How beautiful it is! But will not monsieur partake with me of coffee and cigarettes?'"

"I partook. The next morning I was in that neighborhood again, and Sidi came forth and saluted me. He had changed his mind about retaining the carpet. Allah forbade selfishness among the true believers, and since I desired the thing he'd let me have it for $1,000.

"'I'll give you $10,' said I.

"He fell back, almost fainting; then in a weak, pained voice he offered me coffee again.

"Next day when I turned up he came down to $800, and I went up to $15, and we drank more coffee and smoked. Next day he dropped to $800, and I rose to $17.50. We were very cheerful over the coffee and tobacco that day. We had the carpet spread before us to admire. It was evident that we would strike a bargain yet, and just before I left Cairo we did strike a bargain. The carpet became mine for $50. It would have cost $250 at home. As we shook hands in farewell Sidi Okba said:

"'I love a good bargainer like yourself. Bargaining is the bloom, the perfume, the poetry of trade. I adore it.'"

Breaking Wire.

Anybody who has tried to break a piece of wire without the aid of a pair of pliers will probably agree that the operation is both a difficult and painful one. There is a method, however, by which it may be easily accomplished. By bending the wire into a loop and pulling both ends as tight as possible an injury will be caused to the wire, which on being straightened will immediately break. By this means wire up to No. 12 gauge may be successfully dealt with.

Rough Elbows.

Rough elbows are a great blemish to a pretty arm, and they should be avoided by every dainty girl. Avoid leaning on the elbows, as this tends to toughen and coarsen the skin. Probably the best remedy known is to rub the elbow with common table salt. The slight friction will stimulate the blood and skin and make it firm and smooth. At night rub a small amount of mutton tallow or cold cream into the elbow.

that although there was sought to be aroused against him a storm of passion and prejudice, it has broken harmlessly at his feet. We attest our unswerving confidence in his honor, our full faith in his devotion to the public interest, our unbounded appreciation of his distinguished public service. And we furthermore declare that in none of his private transactions, brought into question in the contest just closed, has he come in conflict with any principle announced in this platform. We declare, as the democrats of Texas declared in primary election May 2, that his public and private life exemplifies the ancient democratic standard of public and private virtues; that he has been triumphantly acquitted of the charge that he has served public service corporations while holding office or that he has accepted favors from interests, corporate or otherwise, sustaining a legislative relation; we hold with him, as frequently declared in his public speeches that not only should a public servant not serve a trust, but that a private citizen should not lend comfort to any interest seeking to evade the laws of the land. We rejoice that Senator Bailey's splendid powers may now be given fully to the duties of his high office, and in the full measure and quality of their discharge the wisdom and the justice of the democrats will be confirmed, and the cries of his enemies forever silenced. Upon his vindication at the hands of the people we place the final seal of democratic approval. And in sealing the result of the contest, we declare that in good conscience it should be, and that in the interest of party peace its further prosecution will not be countenanced or tolerated.

We endorse the administration of Governor Campbell for its adherence to the platform demands upon which he was elected.

We attest our appreciation of the services of Colonel R. M. Johnston to the cause of democracy and unqualifiedly endorse him for reelection to the position of national committeeman from Texas.

Come Johnson, when he secured the floor, said he realized how useless it was for him to object to the platform, which the majority proposed; that he came to Fort Worth only to stand by the primary result and ready to do Bailey full honor for his recent victory, that he could not but expect his opponents to take as much honor as possible. "However," he said, "there are some things which even we, though defeated, cannot and will not swallow, believing the endorsement of Bailey in a Texas platform to be undemocratic, uncalled for and against the wishes of 100,000 good democrats of this State, whom the convention has no right to muzzle. I now offer a minority report. If the opposition thinks we have dropped the fight against Baileyism it is entirely mistaken. We will keep up the battle whenever occasion offers. When the Galveston convention turned Bailey down in 1898, Bailey himself refused to drop the campaign, and we are but following his own course."

No Bailey man spoke in support of the platform. This was unnecessary, as it was known in advance that it would be adopted.

Committee of Sixteen.

The committee of sixteen to select the delegates from Texas to the national convention is composed of the following, who were selected by their own delegations:

1. W. A. Shaw, Bowie.
2. O. F. Parker, Jefferson.
3. C. L. Brachfield, Atoka.
4. C. L. Vowell, Grasshopper.
5. Tom Hill, Hill.
6. W. C. Davis, Brazos.
7. Miles Crowley, Galveston.
8. J. F. Wolters, Harris.
9. W. H. Campbell, Wharton.
10. J. H. Miles, Bastrop.
11. George C. Pridleton, Bell.
12. W. A. Hanger, Tarrant.
13. John A. Hulen, Cooke.
14. Chester Halle, McCullough.
15. D. B. Chapin, Hidalgo.
16. S. P. Hardwick, Taylor.

The Anti-Bailey Plank.

The following is the anti-Bailey plank submitted by the minority, headed by Cone Johnson, and which was voted down:

"The conscience of the nation is now aroused and will if honestly appealed to free the government from the grip of those who have made it a business asset of the favor seeking corporations. It must become again a government of the people, by the people and for the people; and be administered in its departments according to the Jeffersonian maxim, 'equal rights to all; special privileges to none.'"

"The public official is a public servant and owes to his people an undivided allegiance; and we are unalterably opposed to public officials accepting employment from or performing service for trusts, monopolies, and all other concerns whose interests are adverse to the interests of the people, or the representing of predatory wealth for fees, favors or financial advantage."

"This principle is fundamental and essential and the contention for it cannot be ended until all our officers acknowledge its supremacy and conform their conduct to it. And public officers, neither State nor national, have no right to appear before the legislature or department or boards as the paid representative or attorneys of any concern or interest which seeks favors at their hands, and such practices ought to be prohibited by law."

KANSAS MAN THANKS OFFICIALS FOR QUARANTINING HIM.

The following card of thanks recently appeared in a Kansas town:

"I wish to thank the city authorities for quarantining me and my family for two weeks recently, because one of the children had the smallpox. During that time my wife caught up with her sewing, undisturbed by callers just at meal time. We had three square meals a day, as no one came in and she was not permitted to go out. We enjoyed two weeks of good long night's sleep, and, best of all, a cousin with four children who arrived to visit us saw the smallpox sign on the door and left town so scared she will never come back again. I wish to thank the authorities, and hope they will be equally as thoughtful of our comfort some time again. Respectfully, Ly-sander Johnson."

MRS. GUNNESS AND HER THREE CHILDREN.

Mrs. Belle Guinness, the Indiana woman who is believed by the police to have lured to her farm home near Laporte several men on matrimonial pretenses and then murdered them for their money, is said to have been quite fond of her three little children, whose charred bodies were found in the ruins of the Guinness farmhouse, along with the headless trunk of a woman, who was supposed at first to be the body of their mother. The children were Myrtle Sorensen, aged eleven, and Lucy Sorensen, aged nine, daughters of Mrs. Guinness by her first husband, Max Sorensen, and Philip Guinness, aged five, namesake of his father, who, like Sorensen, is said to have died under suspicious circumstances.

VAST RESPONSIBILITIES.

A Short Extract from a Notable Speech by Gov. Johnson.

We are confronted by vast opportunities and responsibilities, and with lost ground to recover. A bad economic policy and political treachery cost us the benefit of commercial freedom with Canada. Had we been fair and decent with our sister country across the boundary, the trade of Canada would have been ours, and com-mercially if not politically the two countries would have been one. We are told it is now too late. Canada has grown away from us, instead of toward us. A false policy has robbed us of our own. Congressmen elected to represent our interests in reciprocity with Canada have gone to Washington in the interests of a pineland combine and worked to make reciprocity impossible.

The American flag ought now to float over all North America; but that union either politically or commercially can never take place until a larger patriotism can rise above political cant and private greed.—From a Speech by Gov. John A. Johnson.

The Mirage of Watered Stock.
False capitalization is one of the great causes that has brought a shock to the faith of the people. Watered stock is the mirage in the desert of our commercial life. The billion-dollar steel-trust, quoted at 75c on a dollar to-day and at eight cents to-morrow, typifies the class. Watered stock has become a common phase of legalized larceny. If the mad race is to stop before the runner falls, corporate business must be reorganized on a rational basis. No corporation should be permitted by law to issue a share of stock that does not stand for paid-in cash and certified to by state examination. Every dollar invested in a commercial enterprise should earn a fair profit and every investor is entitled to a fair rate of interest on his investment. But it is not entitled to a rate of interest and profit on stock which has no capital basis.

Another Kind of Guest.
"Won't you please write in my guest book?" said a woman to the friends she had entertained at dinner. And she brought out the treasured volume, with its record of hospitality. The names were inscribed.

"Why, what's this?" said the modern Eve as the pages were fluttered before the book was returned to its owner. "There are lots and lots of names in the back and all in your handwriting too."

The hostess laughed. "Do you want to know what these names are?" she asked. "Well, I suppose I might make a confession. They are names of guests, all right, but of another kind.
It's the list of the servants I have had since my housekeeping experiences began."—New York Press.
