NUMBER 264

PRESIDENT URGES SPEEDY REVISION OF THE TARIFF

TAFT SENDS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS RECOMMENDING RE-ADJUSTMENT OF RATES

ATTENTION TO DEFICIT

Is Called By President, Who Holds Tariff Responsible in Part Therefor.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Mar. 16.—President Taft sent a message to congress today, in which he called attention to the conditions affecting production, manufacture and business, which had so generally changed in the last twelve years as to require a readjustment and a revision of the import duties imposed by the Dingley tariff and which, together with other sources of government revenues, be so as to cause a deficit for the current fiscal year equal to a hundred million dollars. The successful party in the late election was pledged to a revision of the tariff and the country, and the business interests especially, expect it. It is of the highest importance that the new bill be agreed upon and passed with as much speed as possible, consistent with its due and thorough consideration. "In my inaugural address I stated in a summary way the principles upon which, in my judgment, the revision of the tariff should proceed, and indicated at least one new source of revenue that might be properly resorted to in order to avoid a future deficit. It is not necessary for me to repeat what I then said."

A Forecast of the Tariff Bill.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Ill., Mar. 16.—The Record-Herald today in a dispatch from Washington prints what purports to be positively known provisions of the tariff bill. It says in part that no tax will be levied on coffee. Lumber will be reduced from $2 to $1 per thousand. There will be free hides and lower schedules on shoes and leather goods. Steels will be materially reduced. The duties on sugar remain undisturbed, but special concessions are granted to Cuba and the Philippines. The wool schedule will be aimed at scoured wool in the fleece. This permits the cheaper grades of wool to get in at a less duty. Woolens are slightly reduced. Iron ore will be reduced and pig iron cut down.

Taft's Message on Tariff is Expected Today.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Mar. 16.—When the house meets today it is expected that the president's message on the tariff will be presented by Chairman Payne of the committee on ways and means. So far, the terms of the bill are securely guarded and there is much interest in its provisions. The first work today will be the drawing of seats.

Will Be Introduced Tomorrow.

By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Mar. 16.—The new tariff bill will be introduced in the house tomorrow, the delay in its presentation being to secure the approval of the new republican member on the ways and means committee to succeed Boylston of Colorado.

Decatur Young Man Graduates.

Paderewski is not to be outdone by Richard Strauss, who invented "super-bassoons" and the "heckelphone" for his "Electra." Ignace Jan came back with two new ones in scoring his new symphony. They are the "saxophone" and the "tonitruone." The first belongs to the saxophone family, while the latter is a noise maker, pure and simple. It gives the effect of distant thunder.

Richard Strauss never composes in the winter. He says he can't. Summer is his inspiration. He begins writing in May and when October comes he quits.

Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, Tex., Mar. 16.—Without visiting her husband in the county jail, where he is held for the killing of Otto Meyer Saturday night, Mrs. Fred Morris came to this city last night from her Denton home. This lot, with the house and lot one door south of it, was sold two years ago for a consideration of $4,000, which gives a slight indication of how property values have gone up during that time.

Of Interest to Students. College Station, Tex., Mar. 16.—Secretary S. E. Andrews of the A. and M. college of Texas is sending the following information to those who are making inquiry as to opportunities for students to earn a part of their expenses during college life: "We have a fund known as the Student Labor Fund, appropriated by the legislature for aiding worthy young men in their efforts to get a college education. "A limited number of students who have no other means of paying their college expenses are allowed to earn as much as $20 per month from this fund, provided they can do this without interfering with their regular college work. Very few, however, find it possible to earn more than $10 or $15 a month and at the same time give the proper amount of attention to the preparation of their daily recitations. It is rarely advisable for a young man to attempt to earn more than $8 or $10 a month during his first year at college. "The price paid for ordinary student labor is 12½¢ an hour and for skilled labor as much as 25¢ is sometimes paid. More than 100 students are now earning money by doing various kinds of work on the campus, such as waiting on the table at the mess hall, assisting in the laundry, firing boilers, doing farm work, milking cows, feeding hogs, assisting in the creamery, doing stenographic work, etc. Most of this work is done in the afternoon, at night and in the early morning. Except in extraordinary cases students are not employed under the student labor system between the hours of 8 a. m. and 1 p. m. "Men who are otherwise able to pay their college expenses are not entitled to the benefits of the Student Labor Fund."

Secretary Andrews is also sending out the following request to affiliated schools: "Please send me at your earliest convenience, on the enclosed postal card, the names and addresses of the young men in your graduating class; and of any other young men who you think would be interested in the work offered by this institution. We are anxious to get in touch with young men who desire the kind of training that is given at this college. "A copy of our catalogue will be mailed to you as soon as it is received from the printers."

Oilney To Have Light and Ice Plant. Oilney News. Messrs. Daugherty Bros. of Alpine, Texas, last Tuesday bought a lot 114x140 feet east of the Wichita Falls and Southern depot, and will install an early date an electric light and ice plant, modern in every particular. The work on this new enterprise will begin immediately with a view of having the plant in operation for the coming ice season. Mr. J. K. Daugherty left Wednesday morning for Wichita Falls to close the contract for the brick and other building material. This new plant will be one of the most important here, will be of much benefit to this growing town and will fill a much felt want. The News man was told that the machinery was, in fact, already purchased and that every possible effort will be made to get the plant in operation as soon as possible. These gentlemen are experienced men in this line and will give the people of Oilney the best service possible. The ice plant will keep a large amount of money in Oilney which would otherwise be sent to Wichita Falls and the electric lights will not be of the least importance either, not only a good thing for the town, but will save our merchants a good deal of expense in the way of kerosene and gas lights being much cheaper than the gasoline lights which are extensively used now.

MAKE TRIP TO FORT WORTH ON SPECIAL TRAIN—GOVERNOR AND SPEAKER AT AUSTIN.

Texas News Service Special. Fort Worth, Tex., Mar. 16.—On pleasure bent and for a day's rest one hundred legislators and legislative employes reached Fort Worth at 7:30 this morning and are attending the opening of the Cattleman's Convention and Stock Show. Investigation Probable Thorough Inquiry Into Affairs of all State Institutions and Departments Planned.

Texas News Service Special.

Fort Worth, Tex., Mar. 16.—On pleasure bent and for a day's rest one hundred legislators and legislative employes reached Fort Worth at 7:30 this morning and are attending the opening of the Cattleman's Convention and Stock Show. Neither Governor Campbell nor the new Speaker, Marshall, are in the party, both remaining at Austin.

Despite the Washington report that the new tariff bill will have hides on the free list, the executive committee is confident that it will be killed and the duty maintained.

The principal address of the convention was by President Pryor, enthusiastically praising the association, which has placed more and better cattle on the ranges than ever before.

Speaker Marshall and Gov. Campbell Remain at Austin.

REVIEW OF THE TARIFF HEARINGS

SUMMARY OF HEARINGS ON TARIFF SCHEDULES AFFECTING THE SOUTH AND WEST.

Washington, D. C. March 15.—Fully three hundred importers and exporters, manufacturers and agriculturists, and tariff experts appeared before the House Committee on Ways and Means at the various hearings which began on November 10th and continued daily until December 23rd and also at several supplemental hearings. Some of the most prominent men in the manufacturing and financial world presented testimony of a varied and interesting character. In addition to this testimony there were added to the statistics furnished by the various Government departments and agents sent abroad, together with special data compiled by Thomas J. Doherty, assistant counsel of the Treasury Department and Major Herbert H. Lord, who was clerk of the Ways and Means Committee when the Dingley tariff was framed, has given the Committee information more complete than has ever been at the disposal of a tariff framing committee.

Andrew Carnegie, Charles H. Schwab, Judge E. H. Gary, and other steel magnates furnished the most interesting testimony. Mr. Carnegie, who caused considerable discussion by proclaiming, in a magazine article, that the steel manufacturers of this country do not need any tariff protection, was before the Committee for nearly eight hours. His testimony, while witty and entertaining, did not offer the tariff makers much specific information regarding the cost of manufacturing steel rails and other articles of steel. He dealt largely in theories and deductions and avoided figures, claiming that he was not familiar with the details of the steel business at the present time, but spoke from his general knowledge gained in the business before he retired to private life.

Judge Gary, who was one of the best equipped and most satisfactory witnesses who appeared before the Committee preceded Mr. Carnegie by several days. He declared that the independent steel manufacturers require tariff protection and said that if the duty on steel should be removed, the United States Steel Corporation, of whose Board of Directors he is Chairman, would secure a monopoly of the market. The cost of labor would be reduced, he said, if the tariff on steel was taken off entirely. In the course of his testimony Judge Gary declared in favor of Government control of manufacturers to prevent them from charging a price which would give them more than a fair return on their investments.

Mr. Schwab, who was formerly President of the Steel Corporation, was one of the most earnest advocates for protection for the steel industry to appear before the Committee. His replies to the questions of members of the Committee were replete with figures and arguments. He declared that the Bessemer process of steel manufacture will, within five years, be superseded by the Open Hearth process, which, he predicted, will in turn, be abandoned for the electric system of manufacture being developed in Germany.

The agitation for free lumber by those in sympathy with the movement for the conservation of the forests of the country resulted in a strong appeal from the lumber interests of the South and the Northwest. Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, the Minority leader of the House, submitted the lumber magnates to severe cross-examinations and these hearings were among the most interesting. T. B. Walker and Edward Hines, two of the largest lumber dealers in the Northwest argued for the retention of the present duty on lumber, claiming that the United States cannot compete with Canada in facilities for cheap transportation or cheap labor. A number of Southern lumbermen also asked for protection, contending that the cost of production has increased.

A severe arraignment of the so-called paper trust by John Norris, representing the American Newspaper Publishers Association, and a defence of the International Paper Company, by Chester W. Lyman, assistant to the President of the Company, offered one of the sensations of the hearings. The Ways and Means Committee, while taking the keenest interest in the testimony, was predisposed to depend upon the report of the special committee which conducted hearings on wood pulp and print paper last year for the information upon which to base its conclusions regarding the paper and pulp schedule.

The proposition to have the values of articles upon which an ad valorem duty is imposed determined by the wholesale prices in this country as well as the cost at the hearings given the pottery interests. This method of collecting the duties would permit the appraisers to call upon witnesses in this country for information, which, under the present method of collecting

THERE IS A REASON FOR THIS

Chase & Sanborn Forever!

When the agent for Chase & Sanborn's High Grade Teas and Coffees at Brookfield, Missouri, went out of business, six merchants applied for the agency—four by letter, one by telegraph and one by long distance telephone. These men knew what they were doing. They had tried other teas and coffees, but they wanted the best—the kind that not only sells, but gives satisfaction every day in the year, and everywhere it goes. In other words, they had been "shown" a few things.

Chase & Sanborn's teas and coffees are winners because they have the quality and they always please the customer. But don't take our word for it. Try the goods.

ad valorem duties is not possible. The plan was advanced as a means for preventing under valuations, of which there has been complaint wherever ad valorem duties have been imposed. Several cases of undervaluation were presented to the Committee by the pottery manufacturers, who favored an increase in the duties on the better grades of china. The importers advanced arguments for a reduction of 25 per cent in the duties on pottery.

As at all former tariff hearings there was a fight between the shoe and leather manufacturers of New England and the cattle raisers of the West. The leather manufacturers were loath to admit that their industry could stand a reduction in the duties on shoes and other leather articles, but urged that the raw material should be placed on the free list. An amusing incident occurred when one of the shoe men admitted that with free hides the shoe manufacturers would be able to compete with foreign manufacturers without tariff protection. This caused the leather manufacturers to assemble their forces and present arguments to show that the duty on the manufactured article should not be reduced.

Elisha W. Cobb, a manufacturer of heavy leather, of Boston, Mass., told the committee that the tariff on hides accrued only to the benefit of the packers and not to the farmers and cattle raiser. He declared that the large packers of Chicago are engaged in the tanning business and look forward to the time when they will have complete monopoly in the hide business and in the sole and upper-leather business.

The Wool schedule was the occasion for more contention than any other and during its consideration there was much criticism of the methods by which tariff bills are framed. While William Whitman, of Boston, representing the National Wool Manufacturers was on the stand, Representative Clark, of Missouri, placed in the record a pamphlet which purported to inform the Ways and Means Committee "how tariff laws are framed." The name of the author of the pamphlet was given as Frank P. Bennett, of Boston.

The place you get in your work is in the House of Representatives or in the Ways and Means Committee, but is in the Senate, isn't it?" was one of the characteristic questions asked by Champ Clark, of Mr. Whitman.

The wool growers of Ohio and the Western states declared emphatically to the Committee that further protection must be given the industry or he wool growing business would be entirely wiped out. The woolen manufacturers also asked that the present duties at least be retained on their product. There were several supplementary hearings on the wool schedule, all of which indicated that the various branches of the industry differ as to the proper classification and differentials to be established in the tariff. The carpet manufacturers declared that the classification in the present tariff is unjust to their industry and similar claims were made by other manufacturers. There was much testimony which shed considerable light on the methods employed in the manufacture of woolen fabrics, indicating that much so-called pure wool clothing contains considerable shoddy and rags. This called forth the suggestion from Representative Clark that there should be a pure clothing law, similar in its objects to the pure food law.

The admission from the Philippines, free of duty, of 300,000 tons of sugar was the first proposition on which the Ways and Means Committee agreed. This action was taken by the Committee following a conference with Mr. Taft. The statement by Edwin F. Atkins, of Boston, that there was a great danger of an insurrection in Cuba if the tariff on sugar is not reduced and the arguments made by Claus Spreckles, of New York, in favor of a reduction in the duty were the striking features of the hearings on the sugar schedule. Secretary of War Wright appeared before the Committee in favor of free sugar from the Philippines. He declared that the so-called sugar trust was understood to own 51 per cent of the stock of the best sugar refineries and that that is possibly the reason why the beet sugar industry has not grown in this country. The Louisiana cane sugar growers claimed that the price to the consumer of sugar and the price paid to the farmer for his product is fixed by the "sugar trust."

The California fruit growers were arrayed against the importer and one argument advanced by the latter for produced duties on lemons was that the recent earthquake in Sicily had resulted in a scarcity of labor and the destruction of lemon groves. Senator Hale appeared before the Committee to ask that tapicca flour be specially provided for in the bill. The Committee found considerable information at its disposal in a volume giving statistics regarding imports and duties prepared by William W. Evans, assistant clerk of the Committee. William K. Payne is the clerk of the Committee.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and vicinity
Tonight and Wednesday, fair and warmer.

Truth, every member of the Thirty-first legislature who was elected as a Democrat and who failed and refused to carry out the democratic platform demands should have been dealt with in the same manner as was Senator Thomas, who was expelled because he failed to make good charges preferred. In the opinion of right-thinking people, a member of the legislature who willfully violates the pledges of the platform on which he runs into office, may not be in the strictest construction of the term a traitor, but he is not above suspicion, and even if Thomas failed utterly to show that the defeat of submitting the question of State-wide prohibition to a vote of the entire people of the State (a democratic platform demand), was accomplished by lobbyists and poker players sent to Austin for the purpose of playing bad poker with verdant members of the legislature, there is a strong suspicion that the charges could have been proven had every member of the legislature been placed on the stand and sworn to the truth. Whether the charges are ever proven or not, every member of the legislature who voted against that platform demand should be marked by his constituents as a man unworthy of the confidence of any great political party.

The Times wishes again to call the attention of its readers to "Tag Day" which will be observed next Saturday. In caring for the pretty little park near the Academy, and in making it more beautiful, the ladies of the Civic League are doing a work which merits the substantial financial encouragement of the business men and property owners of Wichita Falls. The man who fails to contribute to this cause is lacking in patriotism. On next Saturday the tag in Wichita Falls will be an emblem of chivalry and patriotism.

Ye men of Wichita Falls, forget ye not that Saturday, the twentieth day of March, is Tag Day. When the ladies importune you, deliver the sheekles. Their object is a worthy one.

FOR WOMEN AND THE HOME.
Keep a bowl of oatmeal on the wash stand and after washing the hands dry them in the meal. The skin will be kept white and smooth and less liable to chaps by this process.

Colored-bordered towels and table linen should not be washed nor boiled with a strong alkaline soap nor with any of the washing powders or compounds in the market. All these substances start the colors.

Kid gloves last ever so much longer if the wrinkles are carefully smoothed out and they are properly folded and laid in a long box each time after they have been worn. It is a very little trouble and soon become a habit.

The best cleaner for sponges is a strong solution of borax, in the proportion of a tablespoonful to a pint of hot water. It will not only thoroughly cleanse the sponge, but disinfect it, destroying all germs and parasites.

To cleanse black cashmere wash the material in warm soap suds in which a little borax has been previously dissolved. Rinse in very deep blue water and iron while still damp. If carefully done, the material should look just like new.

Persons who are suffering with perspiring feet will find great relief if they wash the feet every night with warm vinegar and water for several minutes at a time. Then dust the feet with a powder of one part salicylic acid to eight of talcum.

Have plenty of towels and of good size. Nothing is more aggravating than a small bit of a towel that is wet before one side of the face is wiped dry. Turkish towels are excellent and are much liked by some for toilet purposes as well as for bath towels.

Shaker salt, the kind that never gets hard. Packed in cartons. 10c each. Try one with your next order. 263-2t TREVATHAN & BLAND.

Eat Buckwheat Cakes Now

In a few short weeks it will be warm spring weather again and buckwheat cakes will be out of season. Eat them now. March is a buckwheat cake month because of the sudden changes that the weather man is apt to spring on us. Better get a sack or two of the flour now. We still have a small quantity of that genuine.

Real Maple Syrup

A solicitor who went from house to house at one time selling maple syrup said:

"This syrup is made from pure maple sap that came out of real maple trees, in the early part of the March run (you know the maple sap begins to run in March and it is then the real maple syrup is made each year) and I'll give you five dollars for every drop of anything but real maple syrup or sugar you find in it."

LAW STOPPING RACE TRACK GAMBLING

Following is the text of the new law passed by the state legislature, which puts a summary quietus upon race track gambling in this state:

A bill to be entitled: An act to prohibit the buying and selling of pools or receiving or making bets on horse racing; to prohibit the leasing of premises for pool rooms, and to provide a penalty for its violation and to repeal the act approved May 2, 1905, and published and known as chapter 165 of the laws of the regular session of the Twenty-ninth legislature, entitled, 'An act to amend sections 1, 2 and 3, and adding thereto sections 4 and 5 of chapter 50 of the general laws of Texas passed at the regular session of the Twenty-eighth legislature, entitled, 'An act to prohibit the buying and selling of pools or receiving or making bets on horse racing, to prohibit leasing premises for pool rooms and to provide a penalty for its violation, prohibiting horse racing and betting on horse racing on Sunday, and providing that a conviction may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant and exempting such witness from prosecution.'

Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Texas.

Section 1. That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons or any corporation, to at any place in this state engage or assist in pool-selling or bookmaking on any horse race or by means of pool horse race or by means of pool selling or bookmaking to take or accept any bet or taking or accepting any bet upon any horse race to be run, trotted or paced in this state.

Section 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person or association of persons or any corporation, at any place in this state by pool selling or bookmaking or by means of telegraph, telephone or otherwise to aid or assist any other person in wagering, betting or placing a bet or in offering to wager bet or place a bet of anything of value on any horse race to be run, trotted or paced at any place in this state or elsewhere.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for the owner, agent or lessee of any property in this state to permit the same to be used as a place for selling pools or bookmaking or wagering or assisting any person in placing any bet of or in receiving or transmitting any offer to bet anything of value on any horse race to be run, trotted or paced at any place in this state or elsewhere.

Section 4. That any person violating any one of the provisions of section 1, 2 or 3 of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $500, and by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days. And any corporation holding a charter or foreign corporation holding a permit to do business in this state, which shall violate any of the provisions of sections 1, 2, or 3 of this act shall thereby forfeit its charter or permit to do business in this state, as the case may be, and in addition thereto shall be liable to the state for a penalty of not less than $200 nor more than $500, and the person or persons acting for said corporation in the violation of any of the provisions of either of said sections, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $500 and by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days.

Section 5. If any person shall at any place in this state, buy pools or otherwise wager anything of value on any horse race to be run, trotted or paced at any place in this state or elsewhere, or shall offer to wager, or shall offer to place any money or other thing of value with any other person to be transmitted to any other place to be wagered on any such horse race, he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100.

Section 6. A conviction for the violation of any of the provisions of this act may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant, and such accomplice or participant shall be exempt from prosecution for any offense under this act about which he may be required to testify.

Section 7. That the act approved May 2, 1905, and published and known as chapter 165 of the general laws of the regular session of the Twenty-ninth legislature, entitled, 'An act to amend sections 1, 2 and 3 and adding thereto sections 4 and 5 chapter 50 of the general laws of Texas passed at the regular session of the Twenty-eighth legislature, entitled, 'An act to prohibit the buying and selling of pools or receiving or making bets on horse racing, to prohibit leasing of premises for pool rooms and to provide a penalty for its violation, prohibiting horse racing and betting on horse racing on Sunday,' be and the same is hereby repealed.

Swamp Fever in Horses.
Special to the Times.

College Station, Tex., Mar. 16.—A bulletin has just been issued by Dr. M. Francis, professor of veterinary science and surgery at the A. and M. college of Texas, and Dr. R. P. Marsteller, assistant in that department, which discusses an obscure, wasting disease of horses that is prevalent in Texas, for which there is no known cure.

Months of investigation prove that the mortality is very high, fully 80 per cent, and the direct cause of death cannot be determined, nor can it be decided how the disease is contracted. The following is a summary of the bulletin:

Infectious Anaemia (called also ladin distemper, swamp fever and river bottom disease) is a very fatal disease of horses and mules characterized by intermittent fevers and progressive emaciation with no apparent cause.

The infection occurs in the blood, and can be conveyed by sub-cutaneous or intravenous injection to other horses and mules. They have not been able to convey it to cattle, sheep, goats, pigs or dogs.

The clinical symptoms greatly resemble those due to trypanosoma and piroplasma, but they have not yet found organisms of this character in the blood.

Virulent blood which has been filtered through porcelain will reproduce the disease, therefore, they think the specific germ belongs to the group of so-called ultra-microscopic organisms. The blood of infected horses retains its virulence more than a year after the primary infection.

Healthy horses have mingled freely with sick ones for months without contracting the disease.

The bulletin contains reports on eleven cases in horses and mules which were submitted to both ante and post mortem examination and each case is illustrated. The bulletin will be sent free to all who ask for it. Dr. Francis would like to hear from all who know of such cases.

A bulletin on fertilizer test with onions has been prepared by S. A. Waschka and reviewed by H. Ness, horticulturalist at the A. and M. college. It sets forth some interesting results in regard to the growth, cultivation, harvesting and marketing of the onion crop.

Tests with fertilizers show that barn yard manure, when applied in large quantity, is the only fertilizer that will justify its use. Tests with irrigated and non-irrigated plots give results very much in favor of the irrigated ground. In a test to determine the relative value of irrigation by furrow and by flooding, the results were decidedly in favor of the latter.

The most significant result set forth in the bulletin is that onions can be grown at Beeville without fertilizers, other than a rotation of cowpeas, and without irrigation except 'a slight watering at the time of transplanting to start the plants.'

The bulletin will be sent free upon request.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Extract From Hygiene in the Household.
From the Designer.

The hygienic modern house has rugs. Much as we men detest rugs, we cannot deny their sanitary value. A well oiled or otherwise satisfactorily filled floor, with rugs of a size not beyond weekly shaking, marks the dwelling room of today. And with the dust and germ collecting carpet have departed the portieres, the "lambrequins" that smothered the homes of our childhood. The hygienic modern house is open and above suspicion; and when its scattering of rugs has been thrown out of the windows and its scant, diaphanous window drapings put into the wash tub, the remainder of it can be polished to the bones with a rag.

These are organic, impersonal matters, steps in the progress toward hygienic living which may appear to some of us as either too trivial of themselves or else as too radical for us to undertake. But if we cannot or will not alter our houses, we may and should alter ourselves; we can at least adapt our habits to a hygienic routine.

The practice of two bodies occupying the one bed, under the same covers, is abolished in many households, but persists in others. Husband and wife, parent and child, brothers and sisters, should occupy individual beds. The inclosure of two bodies, pore-excreting, pore-absorbing, each having its own chemical characteristics, in one pocket for eight hours at a time, as in winter, is shocking to any refined sensibility, when you come to think of it. Aside from the ethics of the topic, it is an accepted fact that the vital force which animates us like electricity is transferable; that the weaker body and the stronger body in contiguity set up a process like the process when two liquids or gases, in contact, transuse and mingle. The weaker body absorbs the stronger, as if a vacuum existed.

Therefore, youth and age, the well and the ill, should never sleep together. Separate sleeping results in additional vigor; it conserves and does not dissipate the vital force; it leaves one to one's own methods, instead of subjecting one to the methods of others; and it is the only clean way.

The theory of individuality should be extended. Hygiene advocates and insists upon separate towels in the bathroom, just as much as upon separate tooth brushes. The human being in civilization is entitled to be recognized as an entity, possessed, so to speak, of his own envelope or aura. We should not think of donning one another's soiled hose, nor of using one another's napkins, I hope, at table; but singularly enough, in many a bathroom of a refined household one towel answers for the family. Don't dispute me; I have seen. As a guest I was awarded a private towel, yet I am certain that it was merely honorary and not a confession of my superiority.

THE TOP O' THE MORNIN'.

Thanna Madae! but there it is,
The dawn on the hills of Ireland,
God's angels are lifting the night dark veil
From the fair, sweet face of my sire-land.

Oh, Ireland, isn't it grand you look,
Like a bride in her rich adorning;
From all the pent up love of my heart
I bid you 'the top o' the morning.

Oh kind, oh generous Irish land,
So leal and fair and loving,
No wonder the roaming Celt should dream
And think of you in his roving.
The alien home may have gems and gold,
The shadows may never have gloomed it,
But the heart will sigh for the absent land,
Where the love light first illumined it.

Now fuller and clearer the shore line shows.
Was there ever a scene so splendid?
I feel the breath of the Munster breeze.
Thank God, my exile is ended!
Old scenes, old songs, old friends again,
The vale and the cot I was born in.
Oh, Ireland, from my heart of hearts
I bid you the top o' the mornin'.
