SOME NEWSY NOTES FROM IOWA PARK

Special to the Times. Iowa Park, Tex., April 17.—Work is progressing on the Overbey and Troutman buildings and has begun on the Hester building. These are all of concrete blocks and will add much to the appearance of the business section of the town.

The building recently occupied by the White Front restaurant was moved to make room for a concrete block building, and has been added to and converted into a residence. Every available residence is occupied, several houses have two families in them, and the old printing office, the Gees building and rooms above the Hester harness store are occupied by families. All the new houses that are finished are occupied.

We must have more new houses before fall if we are to take care of those whom we may expect to desire to make homes here.

FOUR NEW BRICK BUILDINGS TO GO UP AT BYERS.

Plans were completed this week whereby Byers is to have four new brick buildings, to be built on the corner and three adjacent lots opposite the bank. Three of these buildings will be built by home people and the fourth one by a well known Wichita Falls man.

The building to be erected on the corner will be a two-story one and it is thought the upper story will be used for a hall, which will be 50x80 feet. This will give Byers another boost similar to the one last year, the only difference being that this one will be lasting.

The erection of these buildings will run into the fall of the year, at which time the marketing of the crops will begin and Byers will see the most prosperous time of her existence. The country is well able to support a large town and with this start Byers will forge rapidly to the front and hold its place among the most rapidly developing western towns.—Byers Sentinel.

GRAIN AND COTTON STILL GO HIGHER

WHEAT PRICES UNDERGO ANOTHER STIFF ADVANCE ON THE MARKET TODAY.

FLOUR $10.00 A BARREL

Is the Present Outlook—Wichita Mill Quotes Belle of Wichita at $7.50 in Carload Lots.

The prices of wheat, oats, cotton and corn went up in the big market centers again today, and as a result flour and all food stuffs are due for a stiff advance.

Sacked corn is retelling in Wichita Falls today at 80 cents per bushel and sacked oats bring 65 cents.

Wheat prices are soaring and the local mill has been compelled to buy wheat in New York city for shipment by vessel to Galveston, thence by rail to Wichita Falls. The Wichita mill now has many thousands of bushels in transit from New York.

Under the most favorable conditions from now on until harvest time the winter wheat crop would fall far short of the normal yield. In the Texas wheat growing area the crop will be very scant.

It is yet too early to make any predictions concerning the spring wheat crop in the northwest, but unless there is a good yield in the spring wheat, extremely high prices will prevail for wheat and flour until the early spring of 1910.

Flour is going up every day and an advance in the wholesale price of flour of 20 cents a barrel has been made in Wichita Falls yesterday and today.

The Wichita Mill and Elevator today quotes the Belle of Wichita in carload lots at $7.50 per barrel, and there is every indication of a still further advance. A Chicago dispatch says:

"Rise in the price of flour until the mills in America are selling spring wheat flour at $7 a barrel, or $1.30 more than a year ago, is brought to light as one of the effects of the present condition of the wheat market and the country's supply of the cereal, according to the Chicago managers of the Washburn-Crosby Company, the Pillsbury-Washburn Company and the Northwestern Consolidated Milling Company, which operate what are declared the largest mills in the United States and practically fix the price of flour. There is no relief in sight from present conditions, and every indication is that the price of flour will continue to soar and may go to $10 a barrel."

Receiver Appointed for Smelting Plant. Iola, Kan., April 17.—Upon the application of Alton B. Parker, acting in behalf of the Trust Company of America, trustees for the bondholders, J. O. Rogers today was appointed receiver for the Canyon Zinc Company, one of the largest smelting works in the world.

Rate Injunction Dissolved.

San Angelo, Tex., April 11.—Mrs. Wyatt, wife of Elder F. F. Wyatt, pastor of the First Christian church, died Friday afternoon at a local hospital, following an operation for a chronic ailment. Rev. Wyatt was formerly pastor of the Christian church in this city, being succeeded as pastor here by Rev. A. J. Bush.

Crop Prospects in Hardeman County.

"I have the best prospects of making a good wheat crop I ever saw in this country," remarked J. F. Agee, whose beautiful Groesbeck farm is attracting the attention of all passers-by.

"For four years in succession now I have made good wheat here, but as I said a moment ago, my sixty-five acres this year beat anything I ever saw before. The late snow left the ground in as good condition as we farmers could ask for."—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

CURETON BANK BILL PASSES IN HOUSE

NICKELS RAISES POINT OF ORDER HOWEVER, AND RE-PASSAGE IS NECESSARY.

COMPELS THIRD READING

This is Now in Progress and Another Vote Will Be Taken on the Measure This Afternoon.

Texas News Service Special.

Austin, Tex., April 17.—The Cureton bank deposit bill finally passed the house this morning, but because of a stumbling block thrown in its path by Nickels, the supporters of the bill asked for and secured a reconsideration of the vote and it must be passed for the second time.

The bill was finally passed by a vote of 70 to 12, seven present not voting. An attempt was made to expunge from the record the point of order raised by Nickels against the announcement of the vote, because the bill had not been read the third time as required by the constitution.

The supporters of the measure found themselves between two fires, fearing to vote to expunge from the record as that would disclose the facts to the world and fearing also to let the record stand undisturbed, as that would affect the legality of the measure.

Mobley, one of the bill's supporters, moved to reconsider the vote by which the previous question carried and his motion prevailed, putting the house back at the starting point.

Several motions to recess and adjourn were voted down and the clerk was then instructed to read the bill in full. This will take several hours, and the members are leaving the hall. At 1 o'clock only eleven members and the speaker were present.

Another vote will be taken when the reading is concluded. It is believed that the new vote is certain to pass the bill in legal form.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of the Wichita Falls Lodge No. 635 A. F. & A. M.:

We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our late Brother J. B. Walker, submit the following:

On April 11, 1909, while the great orb of day was darting its golden rays throughout the awakening world, the Angel of Peace with the white-winged messenger of Rest entered the home and bore away the soul of our brother into the Home of Rest, whose builder and maker is God.

Brother J. B. Walker was born in Mississippi near Ripley, on the 10th day of December, 1846, having spent his early youth in South Texas near Port Lavaca. He was initiated, passed and raised to the Sublime degree of Master Mason in the Moulton Lodge No. 298 in the year 1871 and was made a Royal Arch Mason in 1875. He moved to Wichita county in 1889 and affiliated with the Wichita Falls Lodge in 1894 and remained with us until death.

"Out of the shadows of sadness, Into the sunshine of gladness, Into the land of the blest, Out of the land very dreary, Out of the land very weary, Into the rapture of rest."

In the death of our brother we have lost a true Mason, a faithful friend, a strong and wonderfully rugged character, whose life has left its mark upon the memory forever everywhere he is known.

Therefore be it resolved, That in the death of Brother J. B. Walker this Lodge has lost a worthy and honored member, the family a faithful and loving husband and father, and the community a courteous citizen, who was always found upon the right side of questions pertaining to the welfare of its people.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, a copy furnished the family of the deceased, and a copy furnished the local papers for publication.

J. A. RICHOLT,
L. C. HINCKLEY,
W. M. MCGREGOR,
Committee.

Superintendent Toland is at Stamford, where he is on the program of the Central West Texas Teachers' Association for an address on "Means of Increasing the Efficiency of Our Public School Work."

WAURIKA OFFERS TO ADD $50,000

Waurika, through A. L. Walker, secretary of the Waurika Chamber of Commerce, wants to add $50,000 to the $75,000 bonus offered by Wichita Falls for the projection of a railroad from Oklahoma City to Wichita Falls, Texas, via Waurika.

A mass meeting of Waurika citizens held yesterday afternoon authorized the $50,000 offer to the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce.

Walker, by telephone last night, stated that when the road proposition was formerly considered, Waurika offered the promoters a bonus of $20,000 and ten miles of right of way. With Wichita Falls' recent offer of $75,000 the amount has been increased to $50,000 in cash.—Daily Oklahoman.

IS READY TO PAY FINE

Announcement Made That No Further Effort Will Be Exerted to Halt Payment of Penalty.

Texas News Service Special.

St. Louis, Mo., April 17.—At the office of H. S. Priest, counsel for the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, it was announced today that absolutely no further effort will be made to halt the payment of the Texas fine and that the money will be given to the State as soon as the State is ready to receive it. It is said that the loss of the money will not cripple the operations of the corporation and that the future course of the company in Texas is now under consideration in New York.

It is reported that the company may again re-incorporate under the Texas laws.

State Receiver Will Take Charge.

Texas News Service Special. Sherman, Tex., April 17.—Robert J. Eckhardt of Taylor, State receiver for the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, has gone to Dallas, where he is spending the day. He will take charge of the company's property during the next week.

CEDAR BRAKE FIRE IN PALO PINTO COUNTY.

Mineral Wells, Tex., April 16.—Fire broke out at Cedarville, ten miles west of here, on the Mineral Wells and Palo Pinto railroad in the cedar brakes, last night about 8 o'clock and has been raging ever since, burning a radius of about twelve miles, and at a late hour this evening was still raging.

The details of the disastrous fire are very meager and reports have it that so far one house has been burned, others threatened and the occupants vacating, taking as much of their belongings as possible with them.

The house reported to have been burned was that of Bob Lotzpeich, and those that are now threatened and may burn unless the wind changes are those of Lige Maddox and Cook Harris.

An estimate of the burning of the cedar brakes, which were very valuable, places the total damage at about $50,000. So far, no lives have been lost but it was reported by those fighting the fire, which consisted of all of the Palo Pinto people and the residents for ten miles around, that a few were hemmed in by the burning of the brakes and came near losing their lives but, by desperate efforts, escaped.

Injunction Hearing Continued. Pawhuska, Ok., April 17.—The injunction proceedings brought here in the county court restraining Texas cattle from being brought here, have been continued until next Tuesday without a hearing. The prospect for Grandfield making as large a town as Frederick within the next year or so are very flattering.

HE COMPROMISED.

A Story John B. Gough Told in His Temperance Lectures.

John B. Gough, the temperance lecturer, was noted as a story teller, and his stories were always well suited to his argument. W. A. Mowry in his "Recollections of a New England Educator" recalls one of them:

Compromise, compromise! What does compromise mean? I will tell you. A colored man met a friend one day and said:

"Sambo, Sambo, do you know dat toder night I was sorely tempted? You know I used to steal. Well, since I j'ined de church I stopped stealing, but you know Mr. Jonsing's shoe store? Well, toder night I was in dat shoe store, and I looked on de shelf and I see a pair of boots, jes' de nicest pair of boots—jes' my size, No. 14.

"Dere was de debil, and he say, 'Take 'em, take 'em.' Den de Lord say, 'Let 'em alone; dat's stealin'.' But I wanted dem boots; mine all out at de bottom and sides. Dere was de debil and we both say, 'Take 'em.' But de Lord say, 'Don't you take 'em; dat's stealin'.' Now, dere was a clear majority of two against one.

"Jes' den Mr. Jonsing he leeb de store, and he leeb me all alone. Den de debil say, 'Take 'em quick and skeaddle.' I could take dem boots and chuck 'em under my coat and go right away an' Mr. Jonsing would neber know notin' about it. But, bress de Lord, I stood de temptation! I compromised and took a pair of shoes instead."

HER LOST COAT.

The Sequel to a Ladies' Afternoon Card Party.

A number of women were putting on their wraps preparatory to going home from an afternoon card party in the upper residence district of New York one afternoon last winter when a valuable fur coat belonging to one of them could not be found. There was, however, another fur coat of inferior quality in the dressing room, which the hostess said had evidently been left by mistake by the woman who had taken the other garment. The available coat was taken away by the woman whose wrap was missing in the hope that the mistake would be rectified without much trouble.

Several days passed, and no claim was made for the coat the guest had worn away from the house, and the woman took it to a dealer, where her garment had been purchased, hoping that some mark on the substituted coat might be found by which the owner could be identified. The plan was successful, and, much to her amazement, she discovered that the inferior coat was the property of her card hostess.

The "lost" coat was found, and on its return the matter was to be hushed up, but the promise of silence was evidently poorly kept. No more invitations for afternoon card parties have been issued from the house where the "mistake" was made.—New York Tribune.

Maori Women.

Maori women of New Zealand know nothing about kissing. Nose rubbing is their form of salutation, and when two friends meet they hold each other by their hands, bend their heads until their noses touch and then rub them gently from side to side. This form of greeting is not confined to the women, but is practiced by the men. They seldom meet without rubbing noses. In times of lamentation the Maori women will sit for hours with their noses touching and moan for the loss of some chief whom they have in all probability never seen. The loss of a brother or friend is enough to start them off for days, all moaning and howling piteously. They are essentially a sympathetic race, and the sorrows of one are the sorrows of all.

Too Good to Waste.

A churchgoer and a backslider met on the hillside. The churchgoer was bound double quick for the church at the foot. The backslider, oddly enough, was going up.

"Hi! You're going the wrong way!" called the churchgoer.

"The backslider yelled back, but his answer was lost.

"Say," he demanded of the churchgoer the next day, "did you hear what I said?"

"No."

"Well, it's too good to waste. You said I was going the wrong way, I said you seemed to be going downhill pretty fast yourself."—New York Sun.

Gave Her Room.

A gentleman who had a very large nose while walking in a street in Leeds the other day was subject to a few remarks about it. The height of impudence, however, was reached when a woman stopped a few yards in front of him apparently to have a good look at it. The gentleman also stopped and, taking hold of his nose with his finger and thumb, pushed it on one side and calmly said:

"Now, then, missus, can you pass now?"

She went on.—London Tit-Bits.

A Pair of Bulls.

Here are a couple of Irish bulls. A son of Erin, seeing a very tiny coffin, exclaimed, "Is it possible that that coffin was intended for any living creature?" An Irish judge thus addressed a prisoner, "You are to be hanged, and I hope it will prove a warning to you."

Artificial Beauty.

One reason why women suppose the men are fooled by artificial beauty is that most of the men are too gallant not to pretend that they don't know the difference.—Chicago Record-Herald.

NOT RELIGION.

It Was Something Very Different That Animated Eliza.

Mrs. S. of New Orleans has for many years been faithfully served by two negro women who, although bound by the tie of common devotion to their mistress, yet detest each other cordially, so that the kitchen is the scene of continuous battle.

Martha, the cook, is a leading light in the church. At revival meetings she was always the first to occupy the mourners' bench, the first to shout "Hallelulah" and to fall into those contortions of body and outlandish of limbs that to the African mean "getting religion." Eliza, the maid of all work, on the other hand, had always been an unregenerate heathen, scoffing at religion, jeering at Martha and declaring no power on earth could induce her to go inside a church. Great, therefore, was Mrs. S.'s surprise on the occasion of the last revival to find that it was Eliza and not Martha who was attending the meetings.

"Why, Martha," she exclaimed, "aren't you going to church?"
"No'm," answered Martha sullenly.
"Why?"
"Cause dat Lisa she goes now."
"But isn't there room for both of you?"

"No'm, dey ain't."
All Martha's pent-up indignation emphasized the answer.

"Cause, Miss Mary, dat Lisa she jes' goes ter spite me. No sooner I gets up to go to de mo'bers' bench dan Lisa she follers me and sets down close beside me, and befo' I has a chanst ter git 'ligion Lisa she begins ter girate around and shout 'Glory hallelulah!' and she out wid her fists and hits me bim in de jaw, and she out wid her footses and kicks me spang in de shin. But, I tell you, 'tain't 'ligion Lisa's got, Miss Mary; hit's debility."—New York Times.

MONTAGNAIS INDIANS.

They Are Hunters in the Strictest Sense of the Word.

During nine months of the year—fall, winter and spring—the Montagnais Indians of Canada spend their lives in the "bush," hunting and trapping for pelts and meats. Then in June they rendezvous at the particular Hudson Bay company post where they belong, trade off their hunt and settle down for rest and recreation until the middle of August, when they are off again for the winter. They have absolutely nothing to do with the cultivation of the soil, being hunters in the strictest sense of the word. The Indians who hunt about Lake Mistassini form a subtribe by themselves, having the same name as the lake, and their summer rendezvous is at the Hudson Bay company post on the lake. Those who hunt south of Mistassini on the shores and tributaries of the Ashuapmochoan river bear the name of that stream. Those on the Nekouba river bear its name, and those who hunt nearer Lake St. John are known by the Indian name of that lake, Pikonaganai. All of these bands rendezvous on the west shore of Lake St. John, at Pointe Bleue, where the government has set aside a reserve and attempted to colonize the hunters and teach them to become farmers. East of Lake St. John is the Chicoutimi band, now much reduced, and southeast of them the Tadoussac band, both of which are to be found distributed over the French Canadian districts of the same names. There are several other bands farther down toward the gulf of St. Lawrence.—Southern Workman.

Bridled Brides.

Western brides have an easier time than their Abyssinian sisters. On the occasion of her marriage an Abyssinian bride has to change her skin. From ebony she has to become cafe au lait. To accomplish this the expectant bride is shut up in a room for three months. She is covered with woolen stuff, with the exception of her head; then they burn certain green and fragrant branches. The fumes which they produce destroy the original skin, and in its place comes the new skin, soft and clear as a baby's. The sisters of the family feed the young woman with nutritive force-meat balls.—Cape Colony Argus.

Dangerous Eggs.

A certain well known actor is always ready to assert that there are many untoward possibilities in his profession. "Really the public doesn't appreciate the vicissitudes of an actor's life," he said recently. "Now, there was Wisam Brown, who went toiling in South Africa. I met Wisam's cousin recently. 'Well, how is Wisam?' said I. 'Wisam' said the cousin. 'Why, man, Wisam's dead!' 'Dead?' I cried. 'How did he die?' 'Pelted to death with eggs at Cape Town,' the cousin answered. 'But eggs don't kill,' said I. He smiled sadly and murmured, 'Ostrich eggs do.'"

Financial.

"Mother, how big must I grow to be in a bank, like uncle?" asked the small boy.

"Not very much," said his father, "for I have often seen in the papers that cashiers are short."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Useless.

"Mildred," murmured a fashionable young man, sinking on one knee, "for your birthday gift I offer—myself."

"Thank you," was the cold reply, "but I only accept useful presents!"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Vigor is contagious, and whatever makes us think or feel strongly adds to our power and enlarges our field of action.—Emerson.

TRADING AT HOME.

Duncan (Okla.) Banner.

Just about now the large mail order houses of our big cities, with an eye for the spring trade of the smaller cities or towns and of the farmers, are sending out bulky and illustrative catalogues by the thousands. Experience proves that, taking all things into account, to buy of such houses costs more and brings greater dissatisfaction than to buy of home merchants. Money sent out of town to these houses for what can be bought equally as well at home is just so much check to the growth and prosperity of the home town, and of the farmers and others who find in the town a ready market for their eggs, butter and other produce.

But there is another side to the question. The merchant, too, must do his part. He must tell the farmer of the things he has to sell and show him just how and in what way he can save him money on his purchases. In other words, he must combat the publicity methods of the mail order houses by giving his own business publicity. Advertising is the key-note of success with the mail order houses. There is not a single one of them but would use the columns of the local papers if the owners of the papers would accept their advertising, which they will not do under any circumstances. On the other hand, they have never been known to turn down local advertising. There is a moral here that is plain to be seen.

The following appeared in the Sherman Telegram of April 12:

The stockholders of the company are not newspaper men and they have been running the paper at a loss for some time. However, they were actuated by a desire to give Sherman a good newspaper rather than make money out of the enterprise. But as the enterprise has proved a losing venture, no other course is left them but to suspend the publication. Subscribers who have paid for the paper in advance will lose nothing. Arrangements will be made to fill out the unexpired subscriptions to the end that no one who has patronized the paper may lose a cent. To those who have patronized the Telegram, the management desires to express its thanks. With good wishes to all of them, this is "Thirty."
There is a sermon in those few lines.

The Telegram was well born; it had, in the beginning experienced newspaper makers behind it, and all the mechanical equipment necessary. But it lacked a field. Its territory was already occupied by a paper that had gone on for twenty years or more—and is still going. The time has passed when political or other sort of whims are sufficient backing for a newspaper. It takes money, monthly, weekly, daily, hourly, to publish a newspaper, and those who have "put up" for a new venture if they line may as well make up their minds to "cough up" again and again before it can stand alone.—Dallas News.

Any city no larger than Sherman which makes the attempt to support two daily papers in a substantial way will find the burden a heavy one to bear, and before a great while the patronage which one good paper should draw will be divided between the two. It naturally follows that both will lose money and one or the other must cease to be published. It is far better that a town or city should have but one newspaper and it well patronized than to be bothered with two or perhaps as many as a half-dozen, and every last one of them waving a distress signal each and every time they are issued.

Comments on the Times Special Edition

We acknowledge receipt this week of a handsomely illustrated edition of the Wichita Times. It contains forty pages and relates some very interesting accounts of Wichita Falls from her early days to the present time.—The Munday Times.

The Booster edition of the Wichita Times came to hand last week, and is such an edition as that town can be proud of. The fine Italian hand of Fred Chase, our townsman, may be discerned throughout.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

The recent special edition of the Wichita Times is well worth the perusal of any man, no matter in what section of the country he lives, for it gives illustrations and facts concerning conditions of the greatest section of the United States. This special edition is both valuable to Wichita Falls and every town surrounding, as it gives full descriptions of all towns within a radius of several miles. The Times' management deserve great credit for their efforts in putting out so fine a paper.—Byers Sentinel.

4TH REGIMENT BAND

The Fourth Regiment Band of Weatherford is the acknowledged leader of musical organizations in Texas, and the band carries with it the best vocal talent in the State.

The Chamber of Commerce has contracted to bring this organization to Wichita Falls to crystallize the growing sentiment that Wichita Falls should organize a similar military band second to none in the State.

Sufficient talent to accomplish this object has been practically arranged for and all that is necessary is that the citizens of Wichita Falls attest by their presence their unqualified approval of the project, so that the necessary financing can be accomplished in short order. Free weekly band concerts at the court house square will be given after the military organization of musicians is completed.

Parquet seats are $1 and balcony 75 cents. Tickets can be procured by phoning the Chamber of Commerce, No. 390, these tickets to be exchanged for reserved seats at the Wichita Theater, beginning with April 21st.

Tickets can also be purchased at the theater box office.

A portion of the proceeds will go into a starting fund for the new band.

"Boost the Band That Will Boost the Boosters."

PRESS COMMENTS.

In the State contest for bands yesterday at Gaston Park, first prize was awarded to the Fourth Regiment Band of Weatherford.—Dallas News

The band as a whole is so well balanced, that to find fault or criticize intelligently, one would have to be a master of the musical art. It is, by far the best band that has visited Brownwood.—Brownwood Daily Bulletin.

The concert last night at the capitol grounds by the prize winning Weatherford Band of the Fourth Infantry, was without doubt the best ever rendered in Austin.—The Austin Statesman, July, 1907.

Lovers of good music were treated Saturday night at the Lyceum Theater to a program of classic and popular selections by the Fourth Regiment Band of Weatherford. Their music is equal to that of the best concert bands, and the boys have made many friends on their tour of West Texas by their gentlemanly conduct as well as their music.—Ablene Reporter.

In the Casino, at Elmhurst Park, last night one thousand people listened to the Fourth Regiment Band in one of their best programs. That the crowd was delighted was attested from the fact that an encore was demanded to every number. Texas is justly proud of this band.—Mineral Wells Health Resort.

Perhaps you have never tried anything better than the medium or low priced goods. If you have run out of your own canned fruits, that is, those you put up last fall, try a can of White Horse California Peaches.

The French Schoolboy's Hard Day.

French children are often on their way to school a little after 7 o'clock in the morning. If they have concluded their lessons by 9 o'clock in the evening it is only by dint of great application. Young men studying for the higher professions have appointments with their tutors at 5 o'clock in the morning in summer time; otherwise they cannot accomplish the mountain of work that lies before them. In all branches of art the labor of the tyro is immense. At the conservatory the strenuous life is carried to a point which provokes the astonishment even of laborious German students.—Fall Mall Gazette.

How High a Tiger Can Jump.

For the benefit of the prospective big game hunters a correspondent finally disposes of the theory that a tiger is unable to jump to any height from all fours. He records that he took refuge in a tree from a particular tiger. The beast, however, jumped up to him, "like an india rubber ball, a good seven feet," and it was only "by letting go with my right and ramming both barrels down his mouth that I did not have a very bad time of it."

The moral evidently is that when avoiding a tiger it is necessary to find a tree with its lowest branch at least sixteen feet from the ground.—India Field.

Dear lady of the passing throng,
So radiant and fair,
In stately ease you went your way,
Nor dreamed I followed there.

I lingered near your carriage wheel
All ready for the sight,
For just one glimpse to make my day
With happiness all bright.

And you upon your cushions there
How could you know the pain,
All mingled with the perfect joy
Of seeing you again.

And when our eyes a moment met
With coldly studied stare,
Your puzzled glance answered bold
For I had made your hair.
—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Unity Club.
Mrs. G. D. Anderson was hostess to the Unity Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Darnell was the leader. Music by Mrs. Paterson. Roll call, current events. The lesson study was Act V, scenes 1 and 2 of Romeo and Juliet. Very interesting papers were read. Mrs. Robertson read one on "Romeo's Mistakes, Their Consequences," and Mrs. Hunt on "Evolution of the Character of Romeo." Miss Kemp gave a character sketch of the Friar. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. T. Montgomery.

Easter Egg Hunt.
Mrs. Christensen of 1408 Austin avenue, gave an Easter egg hunting party in honor of her little son, Will Christensen. The feature was a hunt for Easter eggs hidden about the yard. Leslie Howard was the luckiest boy, finding thirteen eggs. Following the hunt came games and refreshments.

A Forty-Two Party.
Mrs. Frank Jackson gave her friends quite a nice treat Saturday afternoon when she extended her charming hospitality with a "42" party in honor of Mrs. H. B. Jackson of Orange, Texas. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and palms. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed.

New Century Club.
As our work for 1908-09 draws to a close we realize more and more just what the true meaning of leadership is. Never before has the club held with such force a loyalty to purpose as in the present term. There have been efforts put forth that have welded the mass to solidity. There are forces augmented to degrees never before known in its history. There are developments strong and true that shall be known and cherished in the hearts of our leading factors for all time hence. Then ask what is the outcome of club life? It is a place where one is able to study from real human nature the arts by which we are governed. Like Gideon's host, we are placed in a position when "drinking" time comes to watch the different positions taken and thereby become able judges of candor and strength, courage and loyalty. The place where we are tried for the future battles—should the walls of life and storming—when the command shall be given for the sounding of the trumpet and the breaking of the "pitchers" wherein the "lights" are hidden.
We were in full force Wednesday from 3 to 5 with Mrs. S. H. Burnside. The program was complete and carried out with perfect precision. The lesson was opened by Mrs. Ashmore with an instrumental rendition.
Mrs. McCune immediately followed with a lengthy talk on the life and inventions of Thomas Edison. She used but few notes and handled the story from points of searching inquiry.
Mrs. Schwab then soothed us with a song that was full of cheer and life.
Mrs. Kell read a paper of length about wireless telegraphy that gave many hints of value as to its future developments of other inventions, hitherto repressed, such as the airship, etc.
We were then brought back to the earth by the familiar touch upon the keys by our youngest and truest—Miss Lucile Brooks.
Mrs. Burnside read to us from the encyclopedia the "origin of surgery" with its many improvements that have proven beneficial to mankind.

Mrs. Walker then lent a playful warble to the time of the instrument that was an addition to be appreciated. After a refreshment of lemon ice and cake we were held enraptured by a reading by Mrs. Henry Jackson of Orange, Texas, whose presence with us is always felt.
We meet next Wednesday with Mrs. Farris.

The Floral Club.
The Floral Club met Tuesday from 2 to 4 with Mrs. Dr. Guest.

The program was hurried and all hands were busied wreathing a floral tribute of respect to the bereaved of our band. When the little offering was complete it showed myriads of dainty violets on a background of green foliage, flecked here and there by a white fragile spray from the vine now in season of bloom.

Our hostess proved tact of graciousness to her guests. The rooms were beautifully and skillfully arranged for comfort, and while the time was lent seriously there were many little pleasures derived that did the hearts of the members good in many ways. We learned that there is work to be done right at the door; that we need not go in search of mission, but that it awaits us at the very finger tips.
We meet next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Bean. MEMBER.

BEN WILLIAMS, Proprietor.

THE LEADING SIX CHAIR SHOP IN THE CITY

South Street.

Wichita Falls, Texas

We are informed that some of these days the city council is going to order a test of the hose. Let us also reclaim the fire hall from the bats and hobgoblins, and when the negro lodge rent contract expires why not take back the city hall? We can preach good times, good town, etc., until we are black in the face. We can meet and resolute about the many advantages this town has to offer the home-seeker. But "nary" a good result will show up. We will have to correct some conditions in this town before we can expect anything. With practically no fire department, an apparatus so rickety that a short run would put it out of commission; with a fire hall in the last stages of dilapidation, the city hall abandoned to a negro order, the streets in poor condition and sidewalks worse—what in the name of high heaven can we expect? With a city tax rate that is staggering and an equalization board's inflated valuation on the property, no wonder you can look about and see empty houses; no wonder the immigrant trains are passing up our town like the freight passed the tramp. We are for Decatur first, last and all the time; this is our home and has been since we first hit terra firma, so you can see we qualify as a judge as to the town's condition at this writing. Let us work together, remedy these evils, and if petty policies are cutting any figure in retarding the growth and upbuilding of Decatur, let us call a halt, patch up the differences and get down to the business of making the town prosperous.—Decatur News.

New Railroad Yards at Childress.

It seems that the Denver railroad officials always have something good in store for Childress, as no sooner than one improvement is completed another is practically announced.

While in the city yesterday Vice President Keeler and Superintendent Cotter went over the ground to select a site where permanent yards could be constructed and to be in working order with the old yards. The old yards have something like ten miles of trackage, but they are constantly blocked and in addition the company is using the siding running to the compress, which holds about fifty cars. The stock pen yards are also kept full most of the time with bad order cars.

It is said that the new yards will begin at the east end of the present yards and extend about fifteen hundred feet east. They will be built on the south side of the main line. About five miles of steel will be laid, which means ten or twelve additional tracks. The cost of the work will run into the thousands and will give employment to several men for about six weeks. Great is Childress.—Childress Index.

"Desecration," Not "Recreation,"

A typographical error in yesterday's Times makes the preachers of the city, in their protest against Sunday baseball, say that they are "opposed to any sort of recreation on the Lord's Day." This they did not say. The thing that they did say was that they were opposed to any sort of desecration whatsoever of the Lord's Day. And if excursions and baseball do not come under this head, then we would be at a loss to know what would.

FIVE MILES WITH BRICK.

Waurika, Ok., April 15.—At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night it was decided to advocate street paving work at once. All the members of the city council were present at the meeting and stated that they were ready to get busy and would begin at once to have all the guttering put in readiness for the paving. The first contract will be for five miles of brick paving, which will make Waurika the best paved town of its size in Oklahoma.

Twenty-five miles of concrete sidewalk has already been ordered by the council.

BAND CONCERT

THURSDAY NIGHT

The grand band concert at the opera house next Thursday evening gives every promise of being one of the drawing cards of the season, not only because of the fame of the Fourth Regiment Band for its entertaining powers, but because of the motive influencing the Chamber of Commerce to bring the band to Wichita Falls as the leading factor in organizing a similar military band in this city.

The public at large is interested in the band-to-be, for it means free open air concerts at the court house square once each week during the entire summer, where, after a trying day's work the strains of sweet music will drive away the cares of the present and the thoughts of the morrow.

A portion of the proceeds will be placed to the credit of the band fund and steps will be taken soon after the concert to secure the necessary support to obtain the leadership, talent and military attachment. All these have been verbally contracted for with a source that will be acceptable to everyone and all that is needed to secure a military band in Wichita Falls is a large attendance at the concert and in this wise encourage those who will be called upon to support the organization for the first year, after which the director will agree to make the band self-sustaining.

Tickets are being placed by Secretary Gohlke with committees to dispose of same. The prices are 75 cents for the balcony and $1 in the parquet.

The Fourth Regiment Band of Weatherford will arrive in Wichita Falls next Wednesday at midnight. There are thirty-five members in the band. Miss Bess Baker, a soprano soloist who has charmed many audiences with her highly trained and sweet toned voice, will accompany the band.

Director Harris stated that the members of his band had heard so much of Wichita Falls that they decided to arrive in the city early, so that an entire day could be spent here and a trip taken to the lake.

Ballast Work Nearly Ended.

The ballast trains running north of Childress will be pulled off in about five weeks. The gravel ballast will not be carried farther than the Pease river, as it is now costing the company as much to place this ballast as the rock ballast would from Alvord. The Vernon country is of a sandy nature and with proper ditching will keep the track in good condition. The ballast work will be carried on from the south end with all possible haste. After finishing the ballast to the river the north erews will be kept at work for perhaps a month on repairing some of the ballast already placed.—Childress Index.

The Phoenix Sanitary Duster

This duster is made from rope manilla. It will outwear any duster of any other material costing five times the price. Being of glazed rope manilla dust will not adhere to it as to other dusters, as it can be gathered upon it and readily shaken off. It will do the work other dusters fail to do, as it can be shoved into corners, shelves and crevices without being injured. It will not scratch fine surfaces as other dusters will. Moths or other insects will not destroy it as other dusters. It does not contain or will it convey any germs of disease, and is absolutely the only sanitary duster offered the public. The lasting qualities of the Phoenix are greater than any other duster, and it is sold under a guarantee to last ONE YEAR. The price is ridiculously cheap--15c with wire handle and 25c with wood handle, and are far superior to any feather duster made.
