Rains are Reported.

Fort Worth Record. Reports from the nearby towns, and from the various railroad and telephone offices of the city Friday night were to the effect that rain fell in torrents in Fort Worth for a few minutes...

In Arlington it was reported a light shower fell about sundown, but not enough to lay the dust. West, the rainfall did not amount to anything beyond Tarrant and between Fort Worth and Tarrant was comparatively light.

On the line of the Rock Island north, a good rainfall was reported as far north as Waurika, Okla., about 120 miles. All the country around Jacksboro and Bowie received a good rainfall. On the Santa Fe the report showed scattered showers as far north as Shawnee. All were local, however, and there were many places interspersed where practically none fell at all.

It was reported raining at Jamesville at 9 o'clock Friday night. The Texas and Pacific reported no precipitation 100 miles west, and only scattered showers anywhere.

The Fort Worth and Denver reported rain only at Rhome and Decatur. The rainfall, in the nature of a thunderstorm, lasted half an hour at both places.

The railway committee, Col. J. B. Simpson, H. B. Ford and Chas. E. Lawrence will leave today (Friday) for Lawton, where they will meet with representatives of the Lawton Chamber of Commerce in conference upon the projected extension of the Rock Island via Grandfield to Wichita Falls. CULBERSON BEATS SENATOR ALDRICH

GETS THROUGH A RESOLUTION DEMANDING PROOF OF STATEMENTS.

OPPOSED BY SEN. ALDRICH

Committee Made Statements That Retailers, Not Manufacturers, Responsible for High Prices.

Texas News Service Special. Washington, D. C., May 15.—Senator Culberson of Texas caused a stir in the senate today when he won a resolution demanding that the finance committee prove its statements that the retailers are responsible for the high prices of articles of general consumption instead of the protected interests.

Culberson's resolution was strongly backed by Senator Gore of Oklahoma.

Aldrich attempted to smother the resolution, but Culberson succeeded in getting it scheduled for consideration Monday.

Several republican senators supported the resolution.

Culberson declared that the proof of the allegation should be supplied to the senate immediately.

Malicious Mischief.

For the past several years Wichita Falls has been bothered with some contemptible person or persons who prowled around at night doing mischief of a malicious character, and the officers seem powerless to find a clue to the parties who do the mischief. Night before last Mr. K. E. Bauch was the victim. He had two of his fine shade trees destroyed, and from all indications the trees were cut down with a large pocket knife. This is not the first time that shade trees have been destroyed in this manner, and steps should be taken to run down the party or parties who are low-down enough to pursue such cowardly and contemptible tactics.

Mr. Bauch offers a reward of $50 for information that will lead to the detection of the cowardly whelp who destroyed his trees, and it is to be hoped that if this reward should bear results the guilty party or parties should be punished in such a manner as will cause them to either be better citizens in the future or leave town.

The Federation Convention.

As the southbound Denver pulled into Wichita Falls yesterday bringing home to children, husbands and friends the delegation of club women who left our city Monday for the club convention at Amarillo, one with the weakest auditory alertness was conscious of only one expression—"I'm tired to death."

We are still tired, but so full of our good time and trip that we feel we have been paid a hundred fold for our pains.

The people were so generously kind, we were so royally treated from business programs to pleasure excursions, thence to the cafe for refreshments, an auto race to catch the train, a long ride, then home and "so tired." However, we promise to give an account later of our trip in detail. Tell you of the splendid club meetings conducted with such order and preciseness, of the addresses of welcome tendered us, of the famous debates, good papers that were read, of the people in general so thoughtful of our welfare, of the city of Amarillo, of her possibilities, her wealth, her progress, her aspirations, of the trolley ride to Glenwood park and last, but not least, of our auto trip to the picturesque Palo Duro Canyon, across the plains where one beautiful mirage lake after another bound with trees, appeared on the landscape, causing us to realize that one could be a member of the W. C. T. U. and see sights that she might feel reticent to relate to one whose knowledge of nature's freaks is limited.

The canyon, into whose recesses we stroled for more than two hours, through marsh and glen to the fern-fringed crags, over the projecting boulders, up the shelving precipice, has beauties too numerous to mention today—next time, not now.

Clayton Surrenders to Officers.

Texas News Service Special. San Angelo, Tex., May 15.—J. B. Clayton, charged with shooting and killing Bob Mason, and Adolph Flores at Booger Red's Wild West show last Thursday night, this morning surrendered to the officers and is now in jail.

PLAN CELEBRATION OF FOURTH OF JULY

PROJECT WILL COME BEFORE DIRECTORS OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MONDAY.

CARS WILL BE RUNNING

On the Lake Wichita Line and Pavilion and New Boats Will Be Ready For Use.

At the meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce Monday one of the matters that will come up for action will be a proposal to hold a big Fourth of July celebration at Lake Wichita.

It is stated by the officials of the new street railway company that if there are no serious and unexpected delays in the construction of the line that cars will be running out to Lake Wichita before the Fourth of July. It is also stated that the big pavilion now being built at the Lake will be completed and that a fleet of row and sail boats and launches already ordered will arrive and be ready for use before that time.

In view of these facts it is proposed to hold the annual opening of the new amusement resort on the Fourth of July, and it is proposed to have a double celebration that will eclipse anything of the kind ever undertaken here.

Presbyterian Sunday School Picnic.

The Presbyterian Sunday School children, together with the superintendent and teachers, went over in Oklahoma today to enjoy their annual picnic. Two coaches were chartered from the Northwestern railway for the purpose of carrying the picnicers to and from the picnic grounds which are located in group of shade trees near Devol, Oklahoma.

Everything that will contribute to the comfort and pleasure of the occasion were loaded into a box car, and at 8:30 the special picnic train in charge of conductor Stearnes left the Katy station. The crowd is expected back at about 6:00 p. m.

At the Baptist Convention.

By Associated Press. Louisville, Ky., May 15.—The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary occupied the chief place at the morning session of the convention today. The report of the board of trustees stated that more than a quarter of a million dollars were accounted for in pledges and promises and that it is probable that the convention will vote many thousands more in raising a six hundred thousand dollar endowment.

The presentation and unveiling of a life sized portrait of Dr. Boyce, the first president of the seminary, and the home mission and laymen's movement, occupied the remainder of the session.

At 4 o'clock the monument to Dr. Eaton was unveiled at Cave Hill cemetery.

The International Tailors' Union has held only two conventions in sixteen years, the last being held in Bloomington four years ago. There is a move under way now to obtain the enactment of a law providing that conventions be held at Bloomington every four years, where the headquarters of the international body are located, and where these gatherings can be held at less expense to the general organization than elsewhere.

PROPOSE WICHITA VALLEY LEAGUE

Considerable interest is felt among the baseball fans here in a proposal to organize a league composed of towns on the Wichita Valley. Wichita Falls, Seymour, Stamford, Haskell and Abilene are among the towns mentioned in this connection.

It is pointed out that the various colleges are now closing and that the players on those teams are seeking engagements with amateur teams and that with a few salaried players enough to form local players can be recruited to fast local players can be recruited to form a splendid team. The organization of such a team is being agitated in all the towns named and the project is meeting with favor. It is probable that a meeting of those interested in having a team in this city will be called early next week and the matter taken up.

ASK TO SUPPORT BOND ISSUES

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ADDRESSES LETTER TO CITIZENS OF WICHITA FALLS.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

Must Not Be Halted. Letter Declares, and Both Bond Issues Must Carry.

The following circular letter is being sent out to the citizens of Wichita Falls through the Chamber of Commerce:

Wichita Falls, Tex., May 14, 1909.—To the Citizens of Wichita Falls: An election has been called for May 18th to authorize the issuance of $60,000 in bonds for the erection of new school buildings and $17,500 4 1/2 per cent bonds for paving the streets in the business section. Wichita Falls has now reached a development where additional and ample school facilities are needed for her increasing population and we unhesitatingly urge that every citizen vote to authorize the necessary school bonds for that purpose.

Moreover, we believe that the size of our city and its future prospects justify paving the streets in the business section and as we think the owners of property on our principal streets will co-operate to that end we ask the aid of every friend of progress to also vote for paving bonds. The tax levy both in the school district and in the city proper is now at the maximum allowed by law and the issuance of these bonds will not raise any citizen's taxes one cent.

Moreover, these bonds can be issued on the basis of last year's valuation and there need not be and will not be any inflated assessment on this account. The paving will be done like the sidewalks, as the owners on each side of the street get ready to do their share of the work. Our Chamber of Commerce on three separate occasions has endorsed both these propositions and a mass meeting of citizens called especially for the purpose of discussing them voted solidly (except on gentleman) in favor of calling the election and issuing the bonds.

It is not the intention of our city council or of the Chamber of Commerce to take extreme measures to force the paving of the streets, but we are absolutely sure we can depend upon every public spirited property owner to do his full share toward the advancement of the city by paving its principal streets.

There should be no halt in the onward march of progress of our city and the best way to keep it growing is to not let any enterprise fail we have decided should be undertaken. We earnestly ask that every voter interested in the progress of the city to vote "FOR BONDS" in both of these elections. Go to the polls and show by your vote in favor of the bonds that you want to keep Wichita Falls growing.

Robert E. Huff, W. M. McGregor, J. T. Montgomery, M. O'Reilly, H. M. Hughes, J. A. Rhebolt, Chas. H. Huff, Thos. R. T. Orth, Chas. W. Bean, W. Lee Moore, G. D. Anderson, J. A. Kemp, Frank Kell, T. J. Taylor, P. P. Langford, N. Henderson.

I endorse the statement made above that the voting of the paving bonds will not cause any increase in city taxes above the present levy of 65 cents.

T. B. NOBLE, Mayor City of Wichita Falls.

I endorse the statement made in the above that the voting of the school bonds will not cause any increase in the levy of school taxes above the present rate of 50 cents.

Jack was nimble, Jack was quick, Jack knocked over the candle stick. And there in the dark he hastily kissed her.

No, children, the girl was not his sister! "Why didn't you ask for the kiss?" she said.

"Such a churlish thing I never would do!"

Why, that would be putting the blame on you!

Florence Nightingale 89 Years Old.
London, Eng., May 15.—Florence Nightingale, the heroine of the Crimea, entered upon her ninetieth year this week and was the recipient of congratulatory messages that came from nearly all parts of the world. For close on to fifty years the famous nurse has lived in quiet retirement in her home near Park Lane. For the last fifteen years she has been confined to her bed the most of the time by illness.

Born at Florence, of wealthy English parents, Miss Nightingale at the age of twenty-two entered the institution of Protestant Deaconesses at Kaiserswerth to be trained as a nurse. From there she went to the Sisters of St. Vincent de Paul, Paris, to study there methods of nursing and hospital management. In England, before she started for the Crimea, she reorganized the Harley street hospital in London, and on her return from the war in 1856 she established training colleges for nurses at St. Thomas' and King's College hospitals. Despite her great age and physical infirmities her mind is still alert and active and she continues to follow modern developments in the nursing profession with the keenest interest.

Peter Ramming, wife and son, Richard, and a young man employed by Mr. Ramming became violently ill after drinking water from a cistern at the Ramming home, nine miles west of town, Sunday afternoon. A physician was hurriedly summoned and upon his arrival there found four persons in a dangerous condition. The farm hand was brought to this place for treatment that afternoon and was able to return to the farm Monday. Richard was quite sick all day Monday, but was able to resume his duties as book-keeper at the bank Tuesday. It is the opinion of the family that the poisoning resulted from the water in the cistern becoming soured as the rain water caught the night before was the first that had been caught for some time, and the supply of water in the cistern had gotten quite low previous to the rain of Saturday night. Later—All the parties, with the exception of Mr. Ramming have recovered, but he is quite sick yet. It is said that the cistern water drank by the people had nothing to do with their ailment.—Burkburnett Star.

Kelly and Papke Fight Tonight.

San Francisco, Cal., May 15.—Trained to the hour and ready for their battle, which promises to be one of the most notable pugilistic events seen hereabouts in some time, Hugo Kelly and Billy Papke await the call to the arena at Colma this evening. The conditions governing the fight are many and varied, and have been changed since the match was first made. Originally signed, the agreement called for a fight of twenty rounds. Later, by mutual agreement, the limit of the battle was increased to forty-five rounds.

Both fighters have trained faithfully since the articles were signed and appear to be in condition to fight the battle of their lives. Probably no two fighters in the ring today are more evenly matched and as a consequence likely to put up a hard and interesting battle than Kelly and Papke. In their previous encounters in the ring, it has been a case of something doing every minute from the first sound of the gong. Papke is a slight favorite in the betting, which fact is due probably to his winning the decision from Kelly in their last fight which took place in Milwaukee a year ago last March.

'This is My 56th Birthday.'

Hall Caine—or, to use his full baptismal name, Thomas Henry Hall Caine—was born in Runcorn, Cheshire, England, May 14, 1853. But though born in England, the famous novelist is in reality a Manxman. His parents were both natives of the Isle of Man and he himself has spent the greater part of his life there. He studied to become an architect, but soon abandoned his plans in that direction to become a journalist. He wrote editorials for a Liverpool newspaper for six years and then went to London at the invitation of D. G. Rossetti, the famous painter-poet, with whom he continued to live until Rossetti's death in 1882. Mr. Caine then began a literary career in London. His early work consisted chiefly of magazine articles and several historical volumes. His first novel, "The Shadow of a Crime," was published in 1885. It did not at first meet with popular favor. Neither did his second attempt, "A Son of Hagar," published in 1887. But fame came to him when his third attempt, "The Deemster," the first of a series of Manx novels which opened up a new realm in the world of fiction. Other well known novels of Mr. Caine, some of which have been dramatized with great success, are "The Manxman," "The Christian," and "The Eternal City."

WEATHER FORECAST.
For Wichita Falls and vicinity
♦—Tonight fair and cooler. Sunday fair and warmer.

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 15th, 1909.

The tax rate in Wichita Falls is now as high as it can be made under the constitution, which is 65 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, and the voting of $17,500 worth of street paving bonds will not and cannot under any circumstances raise the tax rate. As the Times understands the situation, the valuations placed on our city property by the city board of equalization in 1908 will permit the issuance of the proposed $17,500 street paving bonds, and under these circumstances the project should meet with but little or no opposition on the part of the taxpayers. The owners of the property on streets which it is proposed to pave will put down the paving to the center of the streets on each side and the money realized from the sale of the $17,500 worth of bonds is to pay for paving the squares, or where the streets cross. In the event any property holder refuses to comply with the ordinance to put down this paving, the city will have the option of doing it and charging same up to the property as a tax, and the owner will be given five years in which to pay for the paving at a low rate of interest. But as the city is not financially able to do this paving, it is not likely that any property holder will be forced to put down the street paving, and unless the property holder does the paving voluntarily, there is not the slightest probability of the city forcing him to do it. Under these circumstances, those who do not want the paving should not vote against the issue of bonds, and thus be a stumbling block in the path of those who want to pave. The building of our cement walks was accomplished under circumstances like the above and although more than thirty miles of walk were put down at a cost of more than $100,000 to the property holders, yet no one seems to have suffered in the least. On the contrary, the property in front of which these cement walks are constructed is easily worth double on an average of what it was before.

For Women and the Home.

A little water in the tubs or buckets will prevent them from falling to pieces.

Pastry brushes should be washed as soon as used and put in a warm place to dry.

Brine for pickling should be made strong enough to bear up an egg, or a small potato.

Prunes are greatly improved by adding a little cider to the water in which they are cooked.

Keep macaroni in air tight receptacles and plunge them into boiling water before cooking.

A few drops of coal oil added to the water with which windows are to be washed will save time and labor.

In turning a steak do not use a fork as the holes which it makes in the meat will cause the blood to run out.

Indian corn meal boiled with milk, sweetened with sugar and dashed with cream, is a good fattener for thin children.

Powdered borax applied after bathing and drying the feet and armpits has been found very good for offensive perspiration and cooling.

All fresh vegetables should be washed and soaked in strong brine, which will freshen the leaves and drive out any insects lurking among them.

To powder parsley, dip the bunch quickly into boiling water to make it a brilliant green, then put in a hot oven until dry. Break into fine flakes.

Lunch cloths for bungalow or country home fitted up with rustic or mission furniture are made of coarse linen, in gray or tan shades, with borders in some gay, contrasting colors.

To make tin kettles, etc., as bright as new rub them with a woolen rag dipped in kerosene. Polish with a soft newspaper. Kerosene will also remove stains of various kinds from varnished furniture.

Fruit stains of not too long standing may be removed from table linen by moistening the satin with sweet milk and then covering it with powdered common salt. Afterward wash in the ordinary way.

When serving fish, remember that lemon juice will bring out its flavor better than anything else can do. Boiled fish especially should always have lemon juice squeezed over it, and thin slices of lemon used as a garnish.

When a broom becomes shorter on one side and the ends of the straws become as sharp as needles, dip it into hot water, trim the straws evenly with the shears and you will have a broom nearly as good and serviceable as new.

Do you love to have your meats tender? Then never allow them to boil when cooking in water. Tough meats become tender by proper cooking, while the reverse of this is equally true. Indeed, hard boiling in salted water will toughen the best piece of meat ever sold. Consequently, always let the kettle simmer on the back of the stove, and your meats will generally become nice and tender.

Henrietta Citizen Meets With a Painful Accident.

Citizen John Miller met with a very serious accident late Tuesday afternoon, which was a close call for his life. Accompanied by Jessie Slager, he was out at his place just southeast of the city, and the two had a shotgun with which they had been shooting plover. The vehicle was a sput-bottomed cart, and while Mr. Slager was out opening the gate, Mr. Miller bent forward for some purpose, the gun slipped down between the slats, striking its hammer and was discharged. The charge struck Mr. Miller above the collar bone, tearing away the top of his shoulder and part of the neck muscle. This wound was a painful one and bled profusely. He was taken to a nearby house, where in a few minutes Dr. Puckett, having been called by phone came and dressed the wound. It was thought at first that the wound and shock would prove fatal but as we write he is doing well and bids fair to recover. This is very earnestly hoped, for Henrietta hasn't any John Miller to spare.—Henrietta Review.

Stray Topics

New York, May 15.—The suffragettes are still stirring up a great deal of dust with their aggressive propaganda in this city and are ably supported by a few ministers with an eye to free advertising. But the general public does not seem to take much interest in the matter beyond getting all the amusement it can out of the numerous ludicrous incidents in which this campaign abounds. The funny side of the campaign is apparent to everybody excepting the suffragettes themselves, who do not seem to possess any sense of humor.

A ludicrous illustration of this deficiency of the suffragettes was furnished the other day at a suffrage meeting attended principally by women of uncertain age and boys from the neighborhood. After one of the suffrage agitators in petticoats had finished her harangue in which she had metaphorically torn to shreds "the brutal and nasty things" called men, one of the youngsters, who with open mouth, caused the most profound indignation by asking, "What's the matter with Gints, Loid-ees."

The youngster did not know the suffragettes and had to pay dearly for his lack of knowledge and experience. The aforesaid agitator in petticoats, filled with ire, left the stage, marched down the aisle and, with a firm grip upon his right ear, yanked the youthful offender out of his seat. Thus she led the protesting boy out of the hall and turned him over to a policeman, demanding that the boy be arrested for disturbing the meeting. The policeman had no choice, and forcibly repressing a few uncomplimentary remarks that were on his tongue, took the boy to the station. That same boy may some day become a thorn in the shriveled flesh of the suffragettes.

If the sweep of reform continues much longer in New York this city will become a perfect paradise. Now the reformers have pounced upon the brotherhood or janitors, with the serious determination of transforming these autocrats into ideal beings filled with the sole thought of making the tenants entrusted to their care as happy and contented as they can. The plan of the reformers is to establish training schools for janitors and to have a law passed that only such persons may be employed as janitors who have passed their examination and obtained their diploma from the training school. Somebody suggested a similar training school for landlords, but the suggestion was considered somewhat premature. However, it is to be taken up later.

The Italians in this city are making frantic efforts to make themselves extremely unpopular. Nearly every day the newspapers record one or more outrages or crimes committed by some of the low-bred Italian outcasts which are coming to this country in swarms. The feeling against Italian immigration is growing stronger every day and the police authorities have already come to the conclusion that desperate means must be resorted to, to rid New York of all organized or unorganized Italian criminals of every kind. The deplorable assassination of the heroic Petrosino has by no means caused the discontinuance of the efforts of the police authorities to put a stop to the immigration of Italian criminals; but the work will be carried on with greater caution in the future.

It is not surprising that the sense of honor and integrity of so many members of the legal profession is becoming warped or atrophied, if the ethical callousness is taken in consideration which so many people display in their attitude toward bribers, falsifiers, forgers and all kinds of dishonest tricksters in the legal profession. The other day a certain lawyer in Brooklyn was found guilty of attempted bribery and sentenced to fourteen months in Sing Sing. Instead of treating the briber with the contempt he deserved and socially ostracizing him, his "friends" bribed a deputy sheriff to delay the return of his prisoner to jail long enough to enable them to give a banquet in his "honor." The action of the officer will be investigated and it is probable that he will be made to suffer for his disregard of duty. That will probably mean another banquet, with the disciplined deputy in the seat of "honor."

Several scientists are conducting a series of interesting experiments to test the intellectual powers of the higher types of monkeys and apes in the Bronx menagerie. The results of their investigation so far, has been astonishing and are said to have shown beyond a reasonable doubt that scientific methods of training remarkable manifestations of intellect may be obtained from these animals. Scientists are greatly interested in these experiments but are not ready as yet to discuss the results. Only one eminent anatomist, who also has quite a reputation as a wit, had something to say on the subject. "That is all quite interesting," he said, after his attention had been called to some of the remarkable achievements of the experimenters, "but our scientific friends are playing with fire. Before they are done with their experiments the monkeys will make a demand for latch keys and the right to vote."

If the Carnegie Hero Fund commissions continue to scatter medals broadcast every year it will soon cease to be a matter of distinction for a person to wear one of those "hero-medals." In a few years the point will be reached when newspapers will publish portraits of persons who have never received one of these medals. It has already been proposed that the "heroes" organize themselves into a society and one woman, with an eye upon the future has even suggested the organization of a society of the sons and daughters of heroes. The plan offers a vista of almost unlimited possibilities and deserves serious consideration. If the number of heroes increases at the present rate the association would soon be strong enough to elect a president of the United States upon their ticket.

Notes From the Labor World. The Cigar Makers' Union of Sacramento, has practically decided that it will make application to be admitted to membership in the Chamber of Commerce of that prosperous city. It is reported that efforts are now being made to reorganize the sausage makers of San Francisco, California, into a union. Since the great fire and earthquake in 1906 they have not been organized. By a referendum vote, complete returns of which are now at hand, the members of the International Leather Workers' Union have recently decided, not to hold a convention this year, as had been originally intended.
