Our First Week

UR FIRST WEEK'S BUSINESS was more than satisfactory. Our receipts almost doubled the amount which would have been satisfactory to us for the first week's business. ¶ 3792 represents the number of customers who made purchases in our store the first week we were open for business. Scores of customers who were the first to make purchases from us are coming back expressing themselves as being perfectly satisfied with the character of merchandise they bought from us and more than pleased with the price they paid. It is a very common expression to hear some customer say in our store: "Nothing like it has ever been in Wichita Falls before."

¶ Come to our store every day; come see the new things as they arrive—there will be something to interest you every visit. :-:

Young High-Roller on Trial.

Baltimore, Md., May 17 .- Willaim F. Downs, former stock clerk in the city register's office, was placed on trial today, charged with the larceny of large sums of money from the city. A crowded court room gave evidence of the great amount of public interest manifested in the case. Few persons in Baltimore were better known than young Downs, who comes of a good family and for several years had occupled a responsible position in the city offices. His downfall was the direct result of his extravagant mode of

On a salary of $1500 a year young Downs for several years past lived at a pace that only a millionaire could follow without going bankrupt. It is said that on more than one occasion ne spent in a single night an amount nearly equal to his year's salary. Hekept up an extravagant establishment and maintained a stable of fast horses. He was known as the best dressed man in Baltimore and when his rooms were searched after his arrest his wardrobe was found to contain forty suits of clothes of the most expensive make. One of his notable escapades was the taking of an entire troup of chorus girls to New York for a good time. The party traveled in a special car and during a week's frolic on the Great White Way of the metropolis all of the bills were paid by Downs.
