VERNON BUILDINGS GO UP IN FLAMES

PANHANDLE HOTEL IS ALMOST TOTALLY DESTROYED AS ARE ADJOINING STRUCTURES

NO INJURIES REPORTED

Guests in Hotel Were Gotten Safely
Out and Without Confusion—Cafe
and Grocery Badly Damaged

A Texas News Service Special.
Vernon, June 28.—Fire which originated on the second floor of the Panhandle hotel here early this morning destroyed the entire building with its contents. There were a number of guests in their rooms at the time but all managed to get out safely without any very little confusion. No injuries are reported, save that two negroes were slightly burned.

The fire also destroyed an adjoining building occupied by the Panhandle cage and badly damaged the structure occupied by Oscar Wright's grocery store. The three buildings are all the property of H. E. Crowley and the total loss, it is estimated will reach twenty-five thousand.

The local fire department did good work but the flames had gained two mch headway before the company arrived. All three of the structures are frame buildings.

SNATCHES PURSE FROM CAR WINDOW—ESCAPES

Somewhere in the hackberry thickets to the north and east of this city, there is hiding a young man, without a shirt, but with a well-garnished purse on his person. Yesterday afternoon when the Southbound Denver train No. 1, went through, the young man, whose identity is unknown, approached a lady passenger on some pretext, speaking to her through the open window for several minutes. Then as the train began to move out he suddenly grabbed the lady's purse from her hand and running through the adjacent marble yard, made his way to the woods beyond the baseball park.
The lady screamed, but the train was well under way before anyone realized what had happened. The pursesnatcher had two hundred yards start before the crowd on the depot platform grasped the situation, but fully one hundred and fifty men and boys were on his trail in short order. He had too good a start, however, and has not been caught. When about three hundred yards from the depot
he stumbled and fell in a mud puddle and stopped long enough to jerk his muddy shirt from his back. The crowd brought the shirt, a blue one, back,
but that was all.

The sheriff and city marshal entered into the chase but were unsuccessful. The purse is said to have contained eighty dollars, but owing to the fact that no telegrams have been received regarding it, it is not thought to have contained such a large amount.
The identity of the thief's victim is not known.

By Associated Press.
St. Michael, June 28.—The coroners inquest into the death of Edith Woodill will be resumed today with several element of truth in the letter left by Eastman to the effect that Mrs. Wood-ill was attacked with a champagne bottle and slain by a jealous woman. The jury will meet in the bungalow within sight of the grave where the body of

IS SHOT AND INSTANTLY KILLED BY SON-IN-LAW.

TOOK PLACE IN CHURCH

Minister Had Just Pronounced Text
When Fatal Shots Were Fired.
Domestic Troubles Cause.

Decatur, June 28.—As the minister at Sand Flat church, fourteen miles east of this city, finished reading his text Saturday night, two shots rang out in quick succession in the church and J. E. Mosher fell from his pew with two bullets in his brain.

Roy Burnham has surrendered to the sheriff here and is being held in connection with the shooting. He was Mosher's cousin and had married Mosher's daughter. Lately they were separated and it is stated on good authority that the tragedy grew out of this trouble.

Mrs. Burnham was sitting by her father at the time of the shooting and jumped out of a nearby window when Burnham fired, evidently thinking he was shooting at her. Mosher was found to be armed.

The shooting created a panic in the church and excitement is still high.
Burnham is nineteen years of age and Mrs. Burnham seventeen. They were married about six months ago and had been separated but a short time.

CARS TO MOVE BY THE END OF JULY

TRACTION LINE WILL BE IN OP-ERATION THE LATTER PART OF NEXT MONTH.

ROLLING STOCK IS HERE

Four Cars Have Arrived and Four
More Are Coming—Lay Steel Down Town Shortly.

That street cars will be running over the streets of Wichita Falls by July 20 if not sooner, is the prediction regarding the completion of the line now being built. Allowing for unforeseen delays, it is stated that the line will be in operation by the first of August at the very latest.

The rolling stock has arrived and is now in the freight yards awaiting the completion of the line into the business district. The steel has been laid between the city limits and the lake and before the end of the current week a force will be at work extending the line toward the business district along Tenth street.

Plans are under way for a sort of celebration when the first car moves over the line, though the real celebration will be held in September when the work at the lake is completed. The turning of the first wheels next month
however, will be an occasion for rejoicing and it is stated that the opportunity will not be overlooked.

In addition to the four cars already here there are four more on the way,
making a total of eight to be operated
over the line.

WHITWASH BRUSH FOR THE GAINESVILLE NINE

Wichita 13, Gainesville 0.
In the presence of over seven hundred fans, the Wichita team yesterday afternoon dedicated the new grand stand by defeating the Gainesville team by the above score. It looked like a good game at the outset, but in the second inning with two out, Wichita found Shaeck, the Gainesville pitcher, for a succession of hits, and the fireworks started. Gainesville never got a man around the circuit.

Sheffield pitched a masterly game
for Wichita Falls, allowing but four hits and fanning fifteen of his opponents.
Several times Gainesville showed a disposition to score, but Sheffield's pitching, together with the almost faultless fielding, prevented them.
Schaeck had plenty of speed and fanned eight Wichitans before he was replaced by Stanforth, but his control
was very poor at times.

Both the old and new grand stands were filled to their capacity yesterday
as were the bleachers and the crowd made things look like old times. Hereafter the management will charge an extra ten cents for a grandstand seat, as is done elsewhere. Ladies will be given general admission free,
but will be subject to the grand stand
fee. The bleachers are to be repaired and put in good condition for those who do not want to go in the grandstand.

Gainesville plays here again today
and tomorrow and promise to change things around some. Harrison, a new man here, will handle the pitcher's box for Wichita.

Games with Olney have been arranged for next Sunday and Monday, July 4 and 5 and on one of those days, an excursion will be run here from Olney for the benefit of the rooters from that town.

Yesterday's score:
Wichita Falls .051 200 41x-13 12 2
Gainesville .000 000 000-0 4 10

Sulphur Springs, June 28.—Senator Bascom Thomas received a message today from Rockwall stating that the committee had unanimously voted to renew the invitation extended to speak
there which was withdrawn for fear of a clash. Senator Senter will also

TO REHABILITATE BROWNSVILLE POST

TWO COMPANIES OF TROOPS TO BE SENT TO OCCUPY QUAR-TERS IN THE FORT.

TO BE WHITE SOLDIERS

Action Significant Following Station-ing of Troops by Mexico Just Across the Rio Grande.

Brownsville, June 28.—It was announced here today that the authorities at Washington in charge of army affairs have decided to send two companies of troops to occupy the fort and quarters formerly held by two troops of negro soldiers who were discharged from service following the notorious and still-echoing raid of several years ago.

This is the first move on the part of the government to fill the place of discharged soldiers and it is needless to say that white soldiers will be sent,
as Brownsville citizens would strongly and promptly resent the sending of any more negro soldiers to the Brownsville post.

eral companies of troops stationed.

TRUNK MYSTERIES HAVE BEEN NUMEROUS

New York, June 25.—When Leon Loo Lim, after his butchery of Miss Elsie Sigel, sought to hide his crime by packing her mutilated remains in a trunk, he but followed a precedent established by numerous murderers whose are famous in the police annals of America. The famous Maxwell-Preller case still lives in the public mind, though more than twenty years have elapsed since the crime was committed. Preller, an Englishman, murdered his traveling companion and left his remains in a trunk in a St. Louis hotel. The murderer was captured and after a trail that attracted international attention he was convicted and executed.

Probably the most sensational of the so-called trunk murders with which the New York police have ever had to deal was the one of John C. Colt, who murdered a man to whom he owed money. Having attacked his creditor with a weapon which was at hand and killed him, Colt put the body in a trunk and shipped it to New Orleans.

All of the wealth of Mr. Colt, who was the inventor of the revolver and who made a great fortune in manufacturing that and other arms, was at the disposal of the counsel retained for Mr. Colt's defense. These chief counsel retained many of the small political lawyers. They reached out all over the country and city, both for general and probably for specific defense, hoping possibly that some friend of some one of these lawyers might be found upon the jury.

But Colt was convicted and was presumed to have committed suicide an hour or two before execution. At the hour set for the execution in the toms fire broke out in the upper part of the toms and in the confusion, Colt was a few moments forgotten. What was said to be, and in fact what was generally believed to be his dead body was found in his cell as soon as the officers remembered their responsibility. Yet tradition has always prevailed that the fire was a part of a conspiracy by means of which Colt could escape and a substituted body was placed in his cell.

A case of comparatively recent date the scene of which was within a stone's throw of where the Siegel girls body was found, was the murder of Rev. Fr. Kaspar, the Armenian priest whose body was found in a trunk in a West Thirty-seventh street tenement house on May 26, 1907. The crime was at first attributed to members of the Alfarist section of the Hentchakists, an Armenian political organization. But later it was pretty well established that robbery furnished the motive for the murder. The room in which the priest was slain had been occupied by several Armenians who disappeared before the trunk and its ghastly contents were discovered. No trace of the suspects was ever discovered.

Warm spring days produce a feeling of drowsiness if the body is loaded with the impurities of winter diet. Cleanse the blood, liver and bowels with Prickly Ash Bitters. It creates energy and cheerfulness. Mater-Magner Drug Co. Quality Druggists.

M. S. Skinner.

M. S. Skinner, aged forty-five years, for a number of years a well-known business man of this city, died yesterday evening at 7:40 at his home in the southern part of the city. He is survived by a widow and four children. Mr. Skinner came here a number of years ago from Sunset, Texas, and many friends both here and there will regret to learn of his death. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, Red Men, Masonic order and Eagles.

The funeral will take place at the family residence this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock—conducted by Rev. J. L. McKee, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at the conclusion of which the Masons will take charge of the remains and inter them with Masonic honors in Riverside cemetery.

Deceased had been ill only a few days and his death came as a great surprise to his friends, many of whom were not aware of his illness.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of a great number of friends in their great sorrow and irreparable loss.

Sons of Herman Dedication.

On July 5th the Order of the Sons of Herman will dedicate their lodge hall, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public generally to attend on this occasion.

A large tent will be erected which will furnish ample shade for all who attend.

Refreshments and lunches will be served.

The lodge is located on the north side of the Wichita river just outside of the city limits.

The Key to the Situation

Do you ever wake up on a warm morning with the uncomfortable consciousness that you are expected to prepare three meals out of paper sacks for people who are worn out with heat and have no appetite? Do you sometimes have the headache from wondering what you will cook when the green beans are rusty, the tomatoes over-ripe, the cucumbers too old, the peaches wormy and hard and the berries cannot be picked on account of rain?

Don't worry—use Jell-O. That is the key to the dessert situation. Jell-O desserts are attractive, wholesome, delicious and easily prepared. They satisfy the summer appetite for something light and dainty.

Jell-O comes in seven flavors.

Three Pounds of "Monarch" Pure Jam For 60c—Worth 75c

The Monarch people certainly do put up some mighty fine fruit products, among which their jams are very high up in the scale.

Their Apricot, Damson Plum, Fig and Pine-apple jams are the standard for every other brand, in fact, you once in awhile hear some woman say that her preserves are as good as Monarch preserves.

Now that is paying a great compliment to the Monarch brand but it is deserved for there is no jam like it.

We have a few glass packers of these Monarch jams which hold about three pounds of the jam but it has for some reason proven an unpopular size. They are worth 75c per jar but as we have only a few left we have decided to close them out at which is really a very close price. We have the kinds mentioned above.

60c per jar

Do you like Apple Butter? Try a 3lb tin of Monarch Apple Butter at 46c.

A Question of Color.

The enormous difficulties of color terminology are illustrated by a customer's "exact statement of her requirements" in a large Deausgate establishment one day. "Something in blue taffeta silk, please. I don't want anything as dark as navy blue nor anything as light as Cambridge blue, but something darker than Eton blue and yet a little off from an electric blue and—hardly a sky blue—more like a robin's egg blue and yet not quite so light, but not an indigo blue, but something like this (that); I think they call it morning glory blue, which is something like a turquoise blue and yet not quite so light as that and yet not so dark quite as this aquamarine blue nor so light as baby blue. Now, if you have anything in the shade I have described, please show it to me." The intelligent assistant enroled a length, a cross between the blue devils and the deep sea, with the remark: "This is the shade of blue you require, madam. It is called 'London milk'."—Dyer and Calico Printer.

The Oriental Mind.

Frederic S. Isham, the author, told the following to illustrate the double-dyed duplicity of the oriental mind. Mr. Isham was in Peking. Passing the arch to the Baron von Kettler, supposed to be an arch of contrition for the foul assassination of a brave official, the novelist asked a Chinaman who spoke a little English: "You know why this monument was erected, I suppose?" "Oh, yes," was the ready reply in dialect, "to commemorate a triumphal deed, the death of a very powerful foreigner!" "Commemorate! And is that"—in amazement—"what the people generally think was the purpose of this monument?" "Why not?" The Celestial's face was immovable, but a suggestion of sardonic humor seemed to flash from his slant eyes. "Chinese people much likee monument!" And, indeed, they seemed to bask in the shade of it with much satisfaction.

Venetian Coffee Houses.

The first cup of coffee was drunk in Europe at Venice toward the end of the sixteenth century. The Venetian chronicler Morosini in his records of the events in the year 1583 mentions the beverage called "cavee" drunk by the Turks and noted for its anti-soporific qualities. In the year 1591 a Venetian doctor introduced the berries from Egypt, taught his countrymen how to crush them and brew the beverage, and the use of coffee soon became general—so much so, in fact, that Venice was full of coffee houses where the people idled away their days drinking the aromatic beverage. A peculiarity of the Venetian coffee houses was that their patrons did not pay for each cup of coffee they drank, but settled their bills for all the coffee consumed at the end of each year. The regular price of a cup of coffee was 5 soldi, about 2½ cents, and in some of the old cafes of Venice today the same price is still charged.—New York Sun.

Awkward Compliment.

There is such a thing as being too persistently complimentary. A candid and well-meaning professor who had witnessed the performance of a little play in a private house in which his hostess had taken the leading part met the lady as she came from behind the curtain. "Madam," he said, rushing up to her, "you played excellently. That part fits you to perfection." "Oh, no, professor," said the lady modestly. "A young and pretty woman is needed for that part." "But, madam," persisted the professor, "you have positively proved the contrary!"—Pearson's Weekly.

Blamed the Planets.

In the middle of the fourteenth century in Paris a new ordinance enjoining the cleansing of the streets and the shutting up of swine was carefully neglected, as usual, and a terrible plague was the consequence. The faculty of medicine, called upon for a remedy by the king, sent to inform him after long discussion that the plague was the result of a hostile conjunction of the planets Mars and Jupiter.

The Cause of Drafts.

Why is it that windows and doors are frequently ill fitting? There is nothing wrong with the wood itself, nor with the workmanship, as a rule, nor with the fit, at the outset at least, but the whole trouble is due to the wood being unseasoned, or, rather, only partially seasoned, at the time it is made up.—Timber.

Optimistic.

"Is Jones an optimist?" "Is he? He found a ticket entitling him to a chance in an automobile drawing the other day, and he is building a garage."—Boston Transcript.

Answered.

Bobby—What's the simple life, pa? Father—Doing your own work, my son. Bobby—And what's the strenuous life? Father—Doing some other fellow's work. Now run along and play.

Reminders.

Mrs.—He said I reminded him of a Greek goddess. Mr.—Hub! Mrs.—What do I remind you of? Mr.—Of every darned thing I overlook that you ask me to do.—Cleveland Leader.

WOMAN'S WOES

A Certain Cure for Female Trouble and That Tired, Nervous, Depressed Feeling That Makes Household Work a Dreary Burden.

Work, work; Nothing but work; Tiresome drudgery! Work used to be a pleasure, but now a few minutes effort leaves you weak, discouraged and irritable with a feeling that everything has gone wrong.

The liver and bowels are responsible for this.

The symptoms are, heart palpitation, faintness, suppressed, excessive or irregular periods, bad digestion, bearing down pains in the side and back, nervous weakness, poor appetite, costiveness.

Prickly Ash Bitters sweeps away these troubles like magic, because it strikes at the root of the disease—the stomach, liver and bowels.

Women who take medicine for female troubles that does not benefit these organs are wasting money and valuable time. The liver is diseased because the stomach is unhealthy, and both have produced a constipated habit. This stoppage of healthy action in the liver and bowels has filled the system with impurities which have brought on irregularity in the female organs; it follows therefore, that a medicine which will correct the liver, strengthen the stomach and promote healthy bowel operations is the remedy for menstrual difficulties.

The poor, tired, discouraged woman who has suffered silently and so long with the ailments of her sex soon feels the strengthening and exhilarating influence of Prickly Ash Bitters. It does its work thoroughly, beginning with the stomach and extending its purifying and stimulating influence to the liver and bowels. When the stomach, liver and bowels are active and working in harmony, there must be health and regularity in the female organs. As a result of this improved condition the patient takes a renewed interest in her household duties. Appetite and strength return, the eyes are brighter, the complexion clears, and before long she is transformed into a bright, happy woman with rosy cheeks and cheerful spirits.

"I suffered much from indigestion and constipation. I had a drowsy tired feeling and nervous headaches all the time. I began using Prickly Ash Bitters and it has helped me wonderfully. I now have a good appetite, sleep well and can do a greater amount of work than ever before."

Somebody is talking about putting in another daily at Wichita Falls and the Times tells them "to come on in, boys the water's fine." And so it is. Wichita is a live town, no doubt about that, but Wichita is not yet in the two-daily class and it will be at least a number of years before it will be. "The water's fine" and "there's always an opening," but the water has a very bad way of getting ice cold after a while and as for the hole—as Col. Sellers would say, "There's millions in it" and there will be more millions poured into it yet before it is filled. Wichita Falls is supporting one paper handsomely, but that's the present limit—Denton Record and Chronicle.

The Times is sincere in its cordial invitation to the new paper contemplated, and we know that the water is fine for us, though it may be pretty deep toward the middle of the pond. Don't say anything about the limit in Wichita; she took the limit off and its an open game—for anybody who has the ships.

A West Texas man went hunting in East Texas with a friend and seeing what appeared to be a flock of doves he raised his gun and fired.

"Hey, what are you shooting at?" asked the East Texan.

"I'm shooting at those doves," was the reply.

"Those aren't doves, they're East Texas mosquitoes," said the East Texan.

This story was told by a cigar drummer, so it must be true.

Governor Campbell has not yet attached Travis county to Wichita Falls for judicial purposes.—Wichita Falls Times.

No, but it wasn't his fault that Wichita Falls wasn't attached to Travis county for judicial purposes, and it was done in the matter of certain liquor violations—Mineral Wells Index.

Turn the patient over on his back, doctor. His mind seems to be wandering.

One west Texas editor says he knows a town in East Texas where the children run for the storm cellar when they see a automobile coming. And an East Texas editor says he was recently called to the bedside of a sick friend in a West Texas county where found the patient dying of pneumonia and the doctor treating him for pip.

The war grows crueler and crueler.—Dallas News.

The Times isn't acquainted with the city officials of Fort Worth, but judging from the crime record of that city for the past several weeks, Mayor Davis wasn't as far wrong as he might have been about the chief of police appointment.

"Show your patriotism by voting for good roads" says the Gainesville Register. But if a man's common sense and business judgment won't make him vote for good roads, the chances are his patriotism won't either.

The Dallas News reports that a Fannin county man thinned out his cornfield by shopping all the stalks bigger than telephones. A Wichita county man tried to do the same thing but the stalks grew so fast that he couldn't hit twice in the same place.

It is a matter for congratulations that in buying its rolling stock the Wichita Street Car Company bought real street cars. Instead of the abbreviated go-carts with which street car lines are usually begun.

A Newbraunfels man was injured by the bursting of a bottle of soda pop, according to press dispatches. In order to quiet uneasiness it should be stated that he was going to use the pop-as a chaser.

It has been established that Mrs. Gold never got on a "toot" after all, but that she merely took occasional drinks in a ladylike manner.

If the trunk lines won't build to your town, build railroads yourself. That's the Wichita way. Abilene has the right idea.

Give the devil his due. Bailey voted for free oil.

Wichitan need not break for their storm cellars when clouds gather in the Southwest hereafter. Nolan county has a county seat fight on and atmospheric conditions in that direction are about to be rudely disturbed.

A Henrietta man arrived in Wichita a few nights ago in a pouring rain and got soaked to the skin. He threatens to sue the city. One might expect a Bowie man to get soaked in Wichita, but not a Henrietta man.

If every town the railroads slight would wake up the way Abilene has, here's hoping they all get alighted. Abilene plans a million dollars worth of railroads of her own.

Wichita has her share of the new "proposed" railroads in West Texas. But then she has six steel railroads that are long past the "proposed" point.

The Star-Telegram ridicules Governor Campbell for talking about platform demands after vetoing the educational and health provisions in the appropriation bill. You rude creature.

It's too bad the murdered of Mrs. Woodill killed himself. Just think what a nice juicy scandal he robbed the people of by not allowing the case to go to trial.

REV. FRY WILL GO TO ACCEPT ABILENE CALL

After eighteen months of unselfish service here as the pastor of the First Baptist church, Rev. W. F. Fry will shortly resign to accept the chair of theology at Simmons College, Abilene. The following letter is self-explanatory:

To My Brethren and Sisters of the First Baptist Church:

After four weeks of the bitterest and most painful struggle of my life I have come to the place where it seems to me to be the leading of the Holy Spirit that I should ask you to release me from the pastorate of this church.

My reason for doing so is not that I want to leave the church. I do not. I love the church with all the fervor of my soul, and I believe that no church has a brighter future before it. No other church at this time could have induced me to leave you. Were I going to remain in the pastorate I should remain with you. Nor would I leave you to do ordinary work in the school room. That I would leave to others better fitted. But the unanimous enthusiastic and unsolicited call that has come to me to become the spiritual leader and Biblical instructor of the student body, both ministerial and lay, of what I believe is soon to be the greatest college in all this land, makes an appeal to my heart that I cannot turn aside.

I know that none of you will do me the injustice to believe for one moment that a larger salary is playing any part in the matter, for it is not but on the other hand am sensible of the fact that there will be many a courtesy that will be no longer extended and many a noble member's affection that of necessity will be lavished upon another man. In going from you I shall not cease to have you in my heart nor to pray earnestly and often that all of you shall apprehend that for which Jesus has apprehended you.

Lovingly and faithfully yours, W. F. FRY.

English Luggage Lifters.

English railway companies suffer severely through the pilfering of passengers' baggage and other articles by platform thieves, and in some cases it is a difficult matter to find out the miscreant. One of these luggage lifters was on an occasion some time ago seen keeping vigil over a barrow of luggage, and in his hand he carried apparently a good sized portmanteau. He walked up and down the platform several times and at last stopped opposite the luggage. Placing his bag on the barrow for a moment, he then picked it up and walked off. But the lynx eye of one of the railway officials had also been watching the barrow, and, going up to the man, had him arrested and searched. It was found that his apparent portmanteau was only a skeleton and inside had a set of springs, etc., which, when placed over a smaller bag, held the latter in position. Put for the smartness of the official another traveler's bag would have been missing.—London Answers.

The Hollow Bones of Birds.

The hollow bones of birds are frequently cited as beautiful instances of providential mechanics in building the strongest and largest possible limb with the least expenditure of material, and this is largely true, and yet birds, like ducks, which cleave the air with the speed of an express train, have the long bones filled with marrow or saturated with fat, while the lumbering hornbill, that fairly hurtles over the treetops, has one of the most completely pneumatic skeletons imaginable, permeated with air to the very toe tips, and the ungainly pelican is nearly as well off. Still, it is but fair to say that the frigate bird and turkey buzzards, creatures which are most at ease when on the wing, have extremely light and hollow bones; but, comparing one bird with another, the paramount importance of a pneumatic skeleton to a bird is not as evident as that of a pneumatic tire to a bicycle.—Exchange.

An Earl's Duel With a Butler.

About the middle of the last century the Lord Rosebery of that time was in Paris, and in paying a call one day he was received so rudely by the butler that he complained to his friend of the servant's conduct. But the butler had been a noncommissioned officer in the French army, and as such he challenged Lord Rosebery to a duel. The earl accepted, and two shots were exchanged without result. But Lord Rosebery was angered at his own conduct and afraid his antagonist might lay aside his military rank and resume his duties as a servant, thus exposing an earl to the reproach of having fought with a butler. So he settled an annuity of £250 on the man on condition he did not return to domestic service. The condition was faithfully observed on both sides.

A Profitable Crop.

The best crop of wheat that the reader has yet heard of during this harvest season was that of G. S. Hawkins, who lives on a quarter section six miles southwest of Frederick. Off of 150 acres he marketed his grain for $3,764. Mr. Hawkins purchased the farm last year for $6,000, and with his first crop half pays for it. That is not doing bad for a short crop. Mr. Hawkins is an old Wichita county man and his many friends in this section will be glad to learn that he is doing so well in the new state.

A Caroline Islands Legend.

The Caroline Islands group includes, besides coral islands, five mountainous islands of basaltic formation, beautiful and fertile with rivers and springs. Among the many queer legends of these children of the Pacific there is none more highly improbable than their theory as to the origin of these islands and their inhabitants. They think they themselves were very strong in the water—in fact, they lived in it. The story goes that a woman and her children were floating around on the reef when a man appeared from the west with a basket of soil on his shoulders. He had started out to make an island with a mountain on it. One of the children cried out to him, "Give us a little soil to make a place for our mother to rest, for she is very weak and cannot swim." He took out a handful of the earth and threw it down, making an island. As the man was going on his way over the water the son slyly made a hole in the basket, so as he proceeded on his way he left a trail of land behind. Suddenly he became conscious that the basket seemed light, and, looking around, he saw the land. In his anger he turned about and trod upon it, and thus the islands were formed.

An Apt Answer.

The dangers associated with the fishing industry on the Newfoundland banks are many and grave. Foremost among them is that the dories may be upset while fishing, which involves almost inevitable loss of their occupants. Callous captains, secure themselves from the necessity of going frequently over their men out when the weather does not warrant it, and disastrous are the results. One of these brutal skippers was aptly answered once by a bank man of whose courage or capacity there was no question. "Out with you!" shouted the captain. "Hurry up there! It's a fishing day!"

"Oh, no, skipper!" replied the dory man. "It's too stormy today for a boat to fish."

"Nonsense, man!" rejoined the skipper. "If my old grandmother was here today she'd get her dory out."

"Then, skipper," said the man, "if her grandson will come out with me now I'll haul my trawl!"

It is needless to say no dories were launched from that schooner on that date.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Barrie and Kipling.

Mr. Barrie was one day at Waterloo station in a hurry to catch a train. He was hastening from the bookstall laden with papers, "a good many six-penny ones among them," he dolefully relates, when, in rushing around a corner, he fell into the arms of Rudyard Kipling, equally in a tearing hurry. They turned on each other with scowling faces, then smiled in recognition and asked each other whether he went. Then Kipling, exclaiming, "Lucky beggar, you've got papers!" seized the bundle from Barrie, flung him some money and made off. "But you did not stoop to pick up his dirty halfpence, did you?" queried one of Mr. Barrie's hearers amusedly. "Didn't I, though?" returned Barrie, and added ruefully, "But he hadn't flung me half enough."—St. James' Gazette.

Rose Colds From Paper Roses.

"A patient of mine is subject to rose colds," a doctor said. "She caught a bad rose cold last week from a bouquet of artificial roses. That often happens. It is supposed to show the mystic, psychological aspect of disease, but as a matter of fact it is just as natural to take a rose cold from paper roses as from the real kind. Why? Because the paper roses that bring on rose colds are always perfumed. It is the fad, you know, to perfume artificial flowers. The scent used is the essential oil of roses, and it is this oil in the natural flowers that causes rose colds."—New York Press.

A Keen Observer.

Ethel, aged three, had been to visit her cousins, two fun loving and romping boys. She had climbed upon her father's knee and was telling him of her visit. "Papa, every night John and George say their prayers they ask God to make them good boys," said she. "That is nice," said papa. Then, thinking soberly for a few minutes, she said, "He ain't done it yet"—Delineator.

Nocturnal Tragedy.

It is a dark night. It is also a dark kitchen. The kind hearted man in his stocking feet is after a drink of water for his fretful youngster. He thinks he can find his way in theinky darkness. He is mistaken. He turns to the left instead of to the right and falls down cellar.

Another good man gone wrong—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Nice Wedding Present.

A reproduction of a picture called "The Coming Storm" was advertised for sale in a Berlin shop window, and under the title there were the words in large type, "Suitable for a wedding present."

Thinking Oneself Old.

If at thirty you expect to be an old man or woman at fifty-five you will be one, because the mind makes the material correspondence of whatever it sets itself permanently upon.—Health Record.

Columbus' Oversight.

That was a wise schoolboy who when the master asked, "Why was it that his great discovery was not properly appreciated?" promptly replied, "It was because he didn't advertise, sir."

DOWN AND OUT

That's where we'll put competition, if you will just give us a chance to make you a price on what lumber and building material you use, before buying elsewhere.

We want your trade and we are prepared to give you everything in the shape of quality, price and treatment in order to get it. All we ask is an opportunity to "show you." So next time you want a little jag of lumber or a large bill, for that matter, drop in and get our prices.

We can even make it to your advantage to drive quite a bit out of your way to buy your lumber here.

A PLUCKY LAWYER. The Way Stewart Returned a Desperado's Threat. "The late Senator Stewart believed in muscular Christianity, and many a rough and tumble fight did he have in the old days in California and Nevada," said a California congressman. "He was not quarrelsome, but he was never known to run away from an encounter, and as he was a powerful man physically there were not many who were keen to tackle him. On one occasion a noted desperado was interested in a mining suit and sept word to Stewart, who was attorney for the other side, that if he appeared to argue the case he might count on being killed. The fellow had slain half a dozen men, but his threat in nowise intimidated the plucky young lawyer. The desperado had a well known system of hiding a pistol in his coat pocket and shooting his man without openly drawing the weapon. This, Stewart knew, and so when he walked into the courtroom the first thing he did was to lay down a bowie knife about a foot and a-half long and a six shooter as big as a young cannon on the table directly in front of him. Then, sternly eyeing the bad man, he said: 'I hear you mean to kill me if I argue this case. That's a game we can play at. That pistol you have in your coat isn't worth a cent against this layout. The minute you put your right hand in your pocket I'll send a bullet into you and if that doesn't finish you this knife will.' "An old miner who was present and told me the story said the fellow turned white as a sheet and slunk out of the courtroom to appear no more." Baltimore American.

Southwest Texas Cat Claw Honey

We have just received a shipment of this celebrated honey direct from one of the best Aparies of Southwest Texas. This honey is finished. A great deal of Texas honey is taken before the bees are through with it and it contains a large percentage of water. The honey as gathered contains water and the cells are gradually sealed and more honey added as the water evaporates until a tiny hole, almost invisible, is left until the last vestage of water is gone, then, and not until then, the cell is entirely capped over and there is nothing but honey. This kind of honey retains its original flavor indefinitely--And this is the kind of honey we sell. Let us show you.
