WICHITA FALLS, TEXAS, TUESDAY JUNE 29, 1909

NUMBER 40

BOND ISSUE FOR WICHITA'S ROADS

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS IMPROVEMENTS IN COUNTY.

PETITION FOR ELECTION

It Will Not Be Circulated Until After Inauguration of Educational Campaign.

Plans for a hundred thousand dollar bond issue for Wichita county are being formulated and before very long a campaign will be inaugurated with this end in view. The plans are as yet very indefinite, but there is little doubt that the election will be called, probably some time next fall.

The roads of this county have for some time been a subject of much unfavorable comment and any organized plan to improve them will hardly meet with any serious opposition. It is proposed to first inaugurate an educational campaign, by means of advertising and illustrated lectures to show how the slight additional tax is more than made up for by the lessened wear and tear on machinery and by the time saved in getting farm products to town. For the sum mentioned above, it is believed that forty miles of excellent roads can be built, which will cover the leading thoroughfares between Wichita Falls, Iowa Park, Electra and other points in the county.

Illustrated lectures and similar means will be employed to bring home to the farmers the importance of good roads before the petitions are circulated for signatures. It is believed that the end of the next six months will see the good roads movement well under way.

Malone-LaBelle.

C. A. Malone of Abilene and Miss Kate LaBelle of this city were quietly married this morning at the home of Harry Robertson in this city, Rev. Fry officiating. They left this afternoon for Abilene, going from that city to Plainview, where they will make their future home. Mr. Malone is superintendent of the water and light plant in that city, having held a similar position in this city. Miss LaBelle is a popular young lady of this city, where both the contracting parties have many friends who wish them well.

PITTSBURG STRIKE IS DECLARED OFF

Pittsburg, Pa., June 29.—Street railway traffic was resumed at an early hour today, the strike having been officially declared off. It is estimated that the cost of the strike on Monday alone was a quarter of a million dollars. Both sides claim they gained the points at issue.

GREGORY'S BELIEF IS THAT LEWIS COFFMAN IS INSANE.

McKinney, Tex., June 29.—Dr. Gregory, superintendent of the Terrell insane asylum, is on the stand this morning in the inquest into the sanity of Lewis Coffman, charged with the murder of his wife. Dr. Gregory testified that it was his belief Coffman was insane. He is being given a rigid cross examination by the State's attorney. Testimony will likely be closed this afternoon, when the arguments will begin.

NEARLY TWO HUNDRED DEATHS FROM THE PLAGUE

Amoy, China, June 29.—One hundred and seventy-seven deaths are officially reported here, due to bubonic plague during the fortnight which ended yesterday.

MAKING A SURVEY OF GOVERNMENT'S BLOCK

County Surveyor, H. M. Snoddy yesterday received notice from the United States Government to make a survey of the government lot in this city and he began work this morning. This lot is 120x150 feet, at the corner of 9th and Ohio streets, directly across from the city hall and has been purchased by the government for a new postoffice.

It is believed that the survey is being made with a view to having plans for the new building drawn up. Fifty thousand dollars has been appropriated for the structure, but local people were anxious to get this amount doubled before plans were approved. It is possible that this can be done before it is too late. It is thought that fifty thousand dollar building makes sufficient allowance for the growth of the city and a larger one is wanted.

DYNAMITE IS USED IN EVANSVILLE CAR STRIKE.

Evansville, Ind., June 29.—Dynamiting was begun in the street car strike last night and a car ran over a stick of green dynamite which failed to explode. In a test by the police today, it went off with terrific force, which is said to have been sufficient to blow a car, motorman and conductor into atoms.

LEMON IS HANDED TO FIVE NEGRO BISHOPS

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Five bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, who complained to the interstate commerce commission that they were discriminated against by the Southern railroads and the Pullman Company, were today informed by the commission that their complaint was unwarranted.

INCOME TAX FIGHT HAS OPENED IN THE SENATE.

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Senator Aldrich today declared that he would support the corporation tax amendment as a means of defeating the income tax. He expressed the opinion that the corporation tax would be repealed after two years or that the rate would be materially reduced.

In spite of the hot weather there were many present in the senate today to watch the opening of the income tax fight. Beveridge demanded a roll call, showing fifty-five senators present.

MAIL CARRIERS WILL MEET AT AUSTIN NEXT WEEK.

Austin, Tex., June 29.—Preparations are already under way for the entertainment of the Texas Mail Carriers, who meet here in annual convention Monday. The postmaster general has promised to have a representative in attendance and a representative of the national association will also attend. Plans are being laid to capture the National convention for Dallas next year.

USE OF OIL FOR SPRINKLING URGED

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS THINK IT MORE EFFECTIVE THAN PLAIN WATER.

TO GO AFTER THE WEEDS

Frank Kell Donates 'Dynamite Oil' For This Purpose—Election for Road Bonds.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors this morning, being the regular weekly session, sanitary measures were put under way in the form of recommendations to the merchants. The most important of these recommendations are the use of oil for street sprinkling instead of water and the cutting down of weeds wherever they appear, especially in downtown alleys.

At present the downtown merchants bear the cost of street sprinkling, the expense being nominal upon each one. It is argued that the use of oil will be more effective and that it will not be necessary to sprinkle as often as it is with water. If the plan is looked upon with favor by the merchants, it will be adopted. The Chamber of Commerce directors endorsed it at the meeting this morning.

Apart from the weed question, Mr. Kell offered to give the city ten barrels of "dynamite oil," a compound used in killing weeds. This kind of oil will be accepted and the compound tried wherever it is needed. While Wichita Falls is much better off than other cities in this respect, there is undoubtedly room for improvement here.

Secretary Gohlke broached the good roads matter and he was instructed to go ahead with the plans for the educational campaign along that line. The suggestion was made that the bond election be called for Precinct No. 1 instead of for the entire county.

JUDGES REFUSE TO CONDUCT NINE YEAR OLD'S TRIAL.

Waco, Tex., June 29.—Justice Nat Harris this morning refused to conduct the examining trial of George Cohen, the 9-year-old slayer of Margaret Farrell, stating that Cohen was too young for such a trial in his court. Judge Marshall Surratt of the nineteenth district court also refused to conduct the examination. It is now believed that the case will go to the county court, which has been designated as a juvenile court.

PROMINENT PEOPLE IN SULPHUR SPRINGS DEAD.

Sulphur Springs, Tex., June 29.—Mrs. S. A. Foster, wife of former State Revenue Agent Foster, died at 4 o'clock this morning. At the same hour G. F. Wiles, a gallant Confederate veteran, well known throughout East Texas, next door to the Foster family, died suddenly.

TEXAS ECCLESIASTICS WILL INSPECT MISSIONS.

COTTON CONDITIONS APPROACH CRISIS

SITUATION IS GOOD NOW BUT MAY BE CHANGED AROUND IF WEEVILS GET ANY WORSE.

WEST TEXAS CROP LATE

Delayed Rains Put This Section Behind Other Parts of the State. Situation Hopeful.

Houston, June 29.—Reports from over the state as to cotton crop indicate that matters are in the hands of H. Weevils and the next two weeks will decide what the crop will be. Weevils are getting bad in many places and the situation is becoming critical at some points.

In general, however, it may be said that conditions are good, averaging between eighty and ninety per cent. West Texas cotton has been hampered by lack of rain and this will cause a short crop in many counties. In the other parts of the state the crop depends entirely upon the weevils' activities.

A very small per cent of the state's acreage has been abandoned, probably not over six per cent. The north and east Texas crop is ahead of South Texas, where the stands are small and the opening late.

RAVAGES OF CHARBON IN SOUTHEAST TEXAS.

Beaumont, Tex., June 29.—Charbon is appearing among the livestock in this section of Texas with deadly effect and the disease is spreading rapidly. Former Mayor Drummond of Port Arthur reports the loss of a number of mules. Efforts are being made to stamp out the malady and Governor Campbell has been appealed to for State aid and has promised help. Thousands of head of cattle and mules and horses have died from the disease in Southwestern Louisiana.

HANGMAN IS BUSY IN PENNSYLVANIA TODAY.

Emporium, Pa., June 29.—Joseph Pagano, convicted of the murder of John Kebe, who was shot last November, was hanged today in the county jail here.

Politics and Politicians.

Ohio has had four democratic governors in thirty years, Hagerty, Campbell, Patterson and Harmon. Edmund W. Wakolee, a member of the New Jersey senate, is being boomed for the republican nomination for governor in 1911.

At 76 years of age, John P. St. John, ex-governor of Kansas and prohibition candidate for president in 1884, still takes a keen interest in politics.

The platform adopted by the recent republican state convention in Pennsylvania contains a warm endorsement of President Taft and his administration.

Friends of Governor Patterson of Tennessee express the opinion that he will not only be re-elected governor next year, but will be the choice of Southern democrats for president in 1912.

William E. Chandler, former United States senator and ex-secretary of the navy, is out with a statement urging all progressive republicans to support President Taft in his attitude on the income tax.

WANTS OKLAHOMA MEMBERS TO DRAW OUT OF ASSOCIATION.

It is learned here that the Oklahoma members of the Commercial Clubs' Association recently organized are being worked upon in an effort to induce them to withdraw from the Texas-Oklahoma organization and form one of their own. The association now comprises the leading clubs of Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma, but one of the Southwest Oklahoma clubs is dissatisfied and its secretary is trying to induce his fellow-Oklahomians to bolt. Just how well he will succeed remains to be seen.

RAPID PROGRESS IS MADE IN CASE OF FRANK HICKEY.

The case of Frank Hickey, on trial for murder in the district court on a charge of venue from Throckmorton county, is being rapidly pushed and will probably go to the jury tonight. The State rested this morning shortly after 9 o'clock and the defense had made good progress up to noon.

The defense this morning introduced a human skull for demonstration purposes and the ghastly relic was used by the witnesses in locating the wounds found on the body of Tom Dixon, the murdered man.

GAINESVILLE TEAM PUTS UP POOR GAME

Wichita Falls, 8; Gainesville, 2. The Gainesville nine did a little better yesterday afternoon, but even then their performance was poor enough and with two pitchers and two umpires even, they could get but two runs. Schaeck held up a little longer than on Sunday, but went up in the fifth, when Wichita scored five runs after tying the score in the fourth.

Harrison, an Oklahoma boy, pitched his first game for Wichita and did handsomely, fanning several and allowing but four hits. Fifteen hits were chalked up by Wichita.

This afternoon's game has been called off on account of the poor showing made by Gainesville. The management here thought it was bringing a team to put up an evenly matched game, but the series has been disappointingly uninteresting, though, through any fault of the local management. Wichita will probably play at Bowie tomorrow and Thursday, Bowie being here Friday and Saturday and Olney here Sunday and Monday. Next week Ryan will be here for three or five games.

Yesterday's score:—Wichita Falls . . . 100 161 00x—8 15 2 Gainesville . . . 100 001 000—2 4 11 Batteries—Harrison and Law; Stanforth, Schaeck and Smith.

GALVESTON IN FEAR OF ANOTHER STORM

Galveston, Tex., June 29.—The director of the weather bureau here this morning hoisted storm signals as a warning to shippers and small craft, but it is not believed that there is any occasion for great alarm.

There is a storm out in the Gulf which has caused the high tide, but there has been nothing alarming. The wind held from the north all night and at noon today is still from that direction, while the barometer has been stationary for four hours. Rain began falling at 11 o'clock and the chances are that unless the storm shifts east of Galveston the velocity of the wind may increase to forty miles an hour. Reports sent out this morning as to apparent danger are unfounded.

WRIGHTS PLAN ANOTHER TRIAL FLIGHT FOR TODAY.

Washington, D. C., June 29.—Orville and Wilbur Wright today, accompanied by Lieutenants Lahm and Foulkes of the aeronautical corps of the signal service, inspected the country surrounding Fort Meyer. It is expected that a flight will be made late today.

BRADENBURG ACQUITTED BUT SOON REARRESTED.

New York, June 29.—Broughton Bradenburg was acquitted today of the charge of grand larceny growing out of the sale to the New York Times of an article purporting to have been signed by Grover Cleveland. He was at once rearrested on a charge of kidnapping his stepson, James Shepard Cabanna, in St. Louis.

Brownsville, Tex., June 29.—Following a report from San Antonio that a Chinaman answering the description of Leon Ling wanted for the murder of Elsie Siegel, had passed through that city en route to Mexico, federal authorities have received advices to watch for the girl's slayer. Guards at the ferry across the Rio Grande stopped several Chinese, but all proved their identity. It is believed Ling would try to cross here instead of at Laredo or El Paso, because there are not so many officials. The Mexicans are also on the watch across the river.

The Proof of Our Fidelity.
This is an age in which every phase of commercial activity is progressing. Yet each day we are reminded most forcibly of our transitory relation with it, and our life compared with the ages past, and no doubt with those to come is only ephemeral. The recent meeting of the old Confederate Veterans at Memphis is a strong reminder that we as a whole Nation are fast falling out of ranks; each day death claims some one that is near and dear to our hearts. Our daily and weekly papers and magazines tell often of the erecting of some beautiful monument to perpetuate the memory of some ennobling character, or some notable event. Its common proof of our fidelity to our countrymen, our history, our friends, and to our God.

Monuments are erected to our national heroes, our private citizens, our Union soldiers, and to our Confederate dead, for time with its onward flight claims—all from the greatest to the least. We go East, North or South, across the rugged mountains beyond the sea and still we see the same inexorable law, the strong reminders on every hand, in every country on this rolling sphere we see cemeteries, some of them dilapidated, neglected, and seemingly forgotten, others beautiful, artistic, and grandly imposing with their marble and granite monuments engraved with tender expressions of love and affection, of hope and remembrance. What man or woman so paganistic, so dwarfed by worldly and ambitious frailty, that will not bow in reverence before these sacred memorials of a mother's love, a father's devotion, a wife and children's silent supplication to the all-wise God that the interred may rest in peace. Who is so void of sympathy that they fail to feel some little emotion when viewing such sacred spots? Who so thoughtless and hard-hearted that they can pass a neglected grave, a forgotten mound, without shedding a tear of sympathy for the poor form that in life was perhaps as good as circumstances and environments would permit? Who is it that cannot forget the faults and say that they were a loving companion, a heart to heart friend, and who is it that is not forgiving enough, that death and the silent shroud does not cover even the faults of our enemies with a mantle of sweet charity?

Have you heretofore been careless and negligent concerning your duty towards your loved ones? Do you realize that the public eyes in your community city or hamlet in which you live are watching you and your attitude towards those that in life were near and dear and perhaps made many sacrifices for you? And do you know that this attitude of yours is determining your character in the minds of your friends, your relatives, and the public at large? We beg of you to relieve yourself of this last sad duty (but not the least), you owe to your loved ones. Call or phone us, we will be glad to assist you in any way possible. We are in our new location now across the tracks from the Denver passenger station, and are in a better position to serve you. All our work is guaranteed to be as good as the best and at prices that speak for themselves.

Nature as a Designer.
Not the least mysterious of all the wonders of the earth is the extraordinary cleverness of Dame Nature as a carver and designer. Her tools are air, rain, rivers, springs and frost. Any one who has ever seen the marvelous Queen Bees rock on the north Cornish coast, that wonderful presentment of Queen Elizabeth, who is seated so grandly upon the sands, must have asked himself the question as to how much a thing could have been accomplished. Continuous trickling of water wears away the face of the rock. Haphazard it was until at last a weird pattern is formed that sometimes resembles a man's face, sometimes an animal. All over the world Nature has placed her picture gallery and her collection of statuary, the biggest free show in the world.

Another work of Nature's that very often results in extraordinary changes being effected is a landslip. And landslips have arisen from the tiniest possible causes. A little underground flow of water had gradually undermined a hill or cliff until at last the earth became like a hollow out. Then the soft became top heavy. The sea beat against its foundations, and millions of tons of earth were dung into the sea, which proves the axiom that the tiniest beginnings often produce the mightiest ends.—London Standard.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity
—Tonight and Wednesday, generally fair.

Railroads are city builders and often they have absolutely in their power to stop the growth and prosperity of a thriving town by building a trunk line just far enough to one side of the other a few miles and establish a town of their own. This, evidently, was the purpose of the Santa Fe "cut-off" when it ran its survey so as to miss Abilene by just about eleven miles, but the citizens of that progressive hustling city do not propose to allow a big railroad corporation to block prosperity in that city by any such methods, and have determined to build a railroad of their own. The people in other towns outside of Abilene will watch with considerable interest the final result of their fight with the Santa Fe, and from the looks of things at this distance, the Santa Fe will be made to regret its action in failing to include Abilene as one of the towns in its new line.

The fact that the Texas editors and the Elks are to pass through Wichita Falls on their way to Western conventions will doubtless serve to increase the delegations from this State.

There is only one thing that will do Wichita more good than a hundred thousand dollar bond issue and that is a two hundred thousand dollar bond issue.

As further evidence of the modesty of our chief of police we submit the fact that none of the 4784 Leon Lings who have been arrested recently were captured by him.

Pugilist Jack O'Brien had a friendly boxing bout with Joe Cannon recently, but he overlooked the opportunity to make himself everlastingly popular.

Wichitans bear no hard feelings against Stamford and if they will pay their fare we will not in the least object to their riding on our street cars.

A Massachusetts woman shot at the father and mother of her husband, named Hare. Probably trying to get rid of superfluous hairs.

A South Texas minister contends that the world was made just like the Bible says it was. How unfashionable of him.

The Star-Telegram, perhaps did not intend to pay Tom Campbell a compliment when it compared him to Tom Flint.

Wichita Falls is metropolitan enough for street cars, but here's hoping she will never reach the street-car strike stage.

That Arkansas boy who tried to fool his father by making a noise like a fox succeeded wonderfully.

Vaudeville Tonight

At the Auditorium, Snyder and Vaughn, the celebrated song and dance artists, just off the lyric circuit. These entertainers played to capacity houses here and made good last night. Miss Naughtn's costumes are the handsomest ever shown here. She caught the audience as soon as she appeared on the stage. Mr. Snyder kept them in an uproar from start to finish. Don't fail to see them tonight.

Notice.

Owing to the advance in the price of feed stuffs, we are forced to advance the charge for cab fares from 25c to 50c. These rates will apply to-day as well as night work. These rates are effective on and after June 1, 1909. JOHN G. GILBERT, 17-eod-13t E. B. MORRIS.

In accordance with the custom of these conferences, the set speeches are limited in number in order to give every member of the conference an opportunity to discuss the various topics selected for the different sessions.

According to the program the following topics have been selected:

"The Social Progress of the Past Year," by Paul U. Kellogg; "The Whole World's Social Unrest," by William T. Ellis, a Philadelphia Journalist and sociologist; "The Negro in a Democracy," by Ray Stannard Baker, whose recent book, "Following the Color Line," has thrown so much light on conditions in the Southern States; "How Industrial Education Will Bring Social Reconstruction," by Robert A. Woods, head of the South End House, Boston; "The Cost of Crowding Women Workers," by Mrs. Raymond Robins, a social reformer of Chicago, and the first woman to speak at a Sagamore conference; "The Social Message of the Hebrew Prophets," by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Ph. D., of New York; "The Transition from the Present to a Co-operative Society," by Prof. Walter Rauschenbusch, D. D., of Rochester Theological Seminary.

Mr. George W. Coleman, the organizer and chairman of the Ford Hall meetings in Boston, will preside at the sessions of the conference and will also act as chairman at the discussions which follow the delivery of the main address upon each of the topics selected.

Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Bedford Springs, Pa., June 29.—Distinguished members of the bench and bar of this State filled the convention room at the Bedford Springs hotel at the opening session of the Pennsylvania Bar Association meeting today. The principal event of the opening session was the address of the president, the Hon. At the evening session tonight the annual address before the association will be delivered by the Hon. Amasa M. Eaton of Providence, R. I.

No More Greasy Doughnuts.

A lady in Greenville, S. C., recently wrote a friend as follows:

"For years, after preparing doughnuts with the utmost care, I was disappointed to see them come out greasy and unwholesome looking. However, with my first use of Cottolene for frying them, I was delighted, as they were brown, crisp and delicious."

"For making doughnuts, pastry light bread and flaky biscuits I prefer Cottolene to any other shortening on the market. We even carry a full lot of our annual camping trips through the mountains."

Cottolene is a vegetable oil cooking fat, made by The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago, and is much purer and more wholesome than lard. It is carried by all good grocers.

THE BOTTLE CONJURER.

An Old Time Hoax That Caused a Riot in a London Theater.

In 1748 there appeared in the newspapers of London an advertisement stating that on a certain night a remarkable conjurer would perform in the Haymarket theater. He would, the advertisement ran, borrow a common walking cane from any member of the audience and "thereupon play the music of every instrument now in use."

It was also promised that he would take an ordinary wine bottle, place it on a table in the middle of the stage, get into it—in the sight of all the spectators—and sing while in it. In the same issue of the newspaper was a second advertisement announcing the arrival of Signor Capitelto Juppado, "a surprising dwarf no taller than a tobacco pipe," who engaged to perform with and outdo the "bottle conjurer," contorting himself in all manner of shapes and finally "opening his mouth wide and jumping down his own throat." This feat, not without reason, Signor Juppado described as the "most wonderful wonder of all wonders as ever the world wondered at."

The night set for this dual display of "wonderful wonders" found the theater packed from roof to pit. But as the time passed and the curtain remained down and the music did not begin to be heard. Then a man in the pit stood up and in a calm voice announced that if double prices were paid the conjurer would get into a pint instead of a quart bottle. At once the audience realized that they were being hoaxed. Somebody threw a lighted candle into a box, and this was the signal for a riot. Benches were torn up and boxes pulled down, while the timid rushed for the doors, with great loss of wigs, hats, swords and canes. Those who remained, re-entranced by roughs from outside, completely destroyed the interior of the theater and finished up by dragging the scenery into the street, where it was burned in a huge bonfire. Nor was the author of this imposture ever discovered, although it was commonly attributed either to an actor who had been discharged or to a mischievous nobleman bent on winning a wager.—New York Tribune.

DISGUISES FAILED.

Experiences of Emperor Napoleon I. at a Masked Ball.

The Emperor Napoleon I. once announced to his valet that he intended on a certain evening going to a ball at the Italian embassy and requested that complete costumes should be sent in advance. The valet, Constant, obeyed and attended his imperious master and commenced to dress him in a manner which might, had the emperor followed the valet's advice, have defied detection. Constant had some trouble with Napoleon over one or two minor matters, but when it came to changing his top boots for shoes the emperor resolutely refused.

Going into the bathroom, Napoleon at once relapsed into his accustomed attitude and, wishing to engage a lady in conversation, approached her with his hands behind his back. To his first question she prefaced her reply with "sire." Turning away abruptly, he went back to his room and said: "You were right, Constant. I have been recognized. Give me another costume and shoes this time."

The valet redressed his master and warned him to keep his hands at his side. No sooner had he entered the room the second time than once more he relapsed into his natural attitude. This time a lady addressed him, "Sire, you are recognized." Once more the emperor left the room in disgust.

Returning to his room, Napoleon was disguised for the third time. His toilet complete, he went back to the bathroom, which he entered as if it were a larder room, pushing and swaggering. He was at once detected, and some one whispered to him, "Your majesty is recognized." Another disappointment and another change, still with the same result, and in the end the emperor left the embassy convinced that it was impossible to conceal his identity.

The Mathematical Problem.

Little Marion was busy at her "home work." After a great many perplexed frowns and much nibbling at her pencil she looked up and said:

"The only answer I can get to this example is 'sire' and three-fourths horses." Do you s'pose that is right, mamma?"

"Well, I don't know," answered her mother cautiously. "It sounds rather queer."

A long pause; then the small arithmetician's face lit up with a smile.

"Oh, I know," she cried; "I'll reduce the three-fourths horses to colts!"—Woman's Home Companion.

Missed the News.

Guest of the Doctor's (late home from the theater)—Hurry up, old chap, and let me in. Absentminded Doctor (who has forgotten all about his visitor)—Who are you? Guest—Mr. Trans. Doctor—Missed a train, have you? Well, catch the next.—London Fun.

A MALIBRAN VICTORY

The Great Singer's Lively Debut in an English City.

SHE DEFIED THE DIRECTORS.

Considering That She Had Been Shabbily Treated, Malibran Sang as Long as She Wanted to and Had a Most Satisfactory Revenge.

Quarrels between opera singers and managers call to mind an incident in the life of Malibran. It was in 1829, when Malibran returned to England from New York and made her debut at Birmingham at the music festival as Malibran Garcia. Miss Paton had already become a favorite there and was allowed to choose her own songs and sing as many as she pleased, whereas Malibran was compelled to sing only what was assigned to her. Garcia bore the indignity with such patience as she could command until one morning she saw the announcement that Miss Paton would sing six songs that evening and that she would sing but two. Then it was that, realizing that much of her success for the season in England depended on her having a better place in the program, she stormed the directors. In vain the directors endeavored to avoid receiving her, but she made short work of ceremony, and while they were framing an excuse to pacify her she broke in upon them in a magnificent rage. In a jiffy she asked the chairman:

"Sir, have you sanctioned this program?" And, receiving a nod in the affirmative, she sailed along further. "I had hoped," she said, "it had been issued without your sanction, for it assigns me two songs, both of which are hackneyed, while it gives my rival, Miss Paton, six. She has an established reputation here. Mine is yet to make, at least with your English audiences, and therefore if any preference should be given to any one it should be to me. On my success here depends all chance of my success in London. You forget this or do not care. You give me no chance of success, whereas all I want is justice. I want the same opportunity for displaying my ability as you allow Miss Paton. Here you advertise me for Romeo. But I performed that last night, and the public will say, 'Romeo on Monday, Romeo on Tuesday, Romeo on Wednesday—Romeo, Romeo, she can do nothing but Romeo.' I want fair play—no more, no less."

Well, it was a great fuss. The directors endeavored to soothe her, for she had talked herself into a great passion, but they made their mistake in pointing to the fact that the program was printed and could not be changed. In vain Malibran argued that she should sing six or an equal number of songs with Miss Paton, and finally she went off in a great huff, declaring if they would not right her she would right herself. The evening advertised came, and the theater was crowded with the rank, beauty and fashion of Birmingham, as every one familiar with English music festivals would expect. The performance commenced. Some one sang, then Brahm followed, and finally came Miss Paton. As usual, she was heartily received. Then Malibran came forward amid many plaudits, undoubtedly agitated at the applause, and stood for a minute with her arms folded and her eyes on the ground. There was a piano near the footlights, and the music stool stood at the back of the stage. Malibran stood near the piano, but did not touch a key, while in a manner until then unknown in England she warbled the well known aria "Una voce poe fa." Fear followed peal of applause, and when the conductor came to lead Malibran away the cries of encore were so loud as to make him retreat, and again Malibran was in the hands of the audience. For some time the applause continued and finally died away. When all was silence Malibran started up suddenly, made a pretty obeisance, hastily ran to the back part of the stage and brought out a piano stool. Then, motioning to the orchestra not to play, she played a prelude and then an accompaniment to the song she had just given. But that was not all. When she came within a note or two of the conclusion she paused, cast a look at the wings, where the mystified director stood, laughingly shook her head and to the delight of the audience and the amazement of the directors commenced a new song. She had been singing Italian; now she sang Spanish, and when this had been applauded she started to retire. The audience, however, would not part with her, and when the conductor came to lead her off, pit, gallery and boxes actually hissed the poor fellow. There never was a more enthusiastic ovation to a singer in Birmingham, and, thus encouraged, Malibran gracefully warded the conductor off and again sat down to play. She passed from Spanish to German, German to French and finally from French to English, and the result was that she occupied so much time that the nervously waiting Miss Paton sang only two songs instead of six! There was a lively scene behind the curtain when Malibran at length retired. But to the acting director, who fumed and cried, "Madam, you have played us an astonishing trick!" she only smiled and said, "I told you that I would right myself if you wronged me—and I did."—New York Post.

Georgia's State Chemist Praises Cottolene

J. H. McCandless, State Chemist of Georgia, before a recent gathering of Cotton Seed men, gave emphatic praise to the high quality of Cottolene. He said:

"The sale of this product and the proclamation that it is made of cotton seed oil have done more to bring cotton seed oil truthfully and favorably before the public than anything else in recent history."

Mr. McCandless then pointed out how a pure, refined, vegetable-oil basis, such as is in Cottolene, is the only assurance a woman has of a clean, digestible, cooking product.

It seems a positive wonder in the light of all that has lately been said and written, and of what is known of lard, where it comes from, of what it may be made, and how little chance there is to get pure lard, that anyone will continue its use, when pure, sweet and healthful Cottolene can be so easily obtained.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an airtight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

WASHINGTON HAS TEXAS SKINNED ON, FREAK LAWS.

Spokane, Wash., June 29.—Peace officers of the various counties and cities in Washington are experiencing what they mildly term "a monkey and parrot time" over the new criminal code, which classes as misdemeanors such things as "tipping," cigarette smoking or having them in possession, screening saloon windows and the presence of women in places where liquor is served. Many outside of Spokane county have been arrested and fined for smoking little paper sticks.

There are numerous opinions as to the constitutionality of the law, but the chief questions involved are. Had the commission created in 1908 by Gov. Mead authority to frame a new code; and may a bill contain many subjects, when the constitution clearly provides that no bill shall contain more than one, and that must be expressed in the title.

Prominent lawyers in Spokane say that if the anti-tipping law is constitutional, then Heman D. Hunt, a justice of the peace at North Yakima, is technically guilty, from the fact that he accepted five cents change in a case where a cigarette smoker was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $12.95, and, tending $13, remarked as he left the court room: "Judge, you may keep the change."

Leaders of the bar are agreed that many provisions of the code are unconstitutional, and George F. Vanderveer, chairman of the commission responsible for the law, which was rushed through during the closing hours of the last legislature, believes that some changes should be made during the extra session now sitting at Olympia. Many members are disposed to repeal the law in its entirety, as they look upon it as a monstrosity, designed especially for the county prosecutors, who, it has developed, are preparing to urge even more drastic measures than are now contained in the code.
