That are bringing in our

SRRRING STOCK

Our Mr. Allan Seale is in market now, and every freight train brings us more new, clean goods which we will sell powerful cheap, so flop over from high prices to close prices, from ordinary quality to the best quality. The change will be pleasing to you and a real blessing to your purse. The best goods at the least price will be our daily offerings.

We have just received a shipment of Shot Guns that are second to none and we are prepared to get you any kind of a Shot Gun you wish on short notice if we haven't what you want in stock.

We also have in stock now a line of the very best Pocket and Table Cutlery, Scissors, Razors, Razor Strops, Brushes, etc., and the inducements we offer are better goods for less money, better quality for less profit, better value with more satisfaction, and our ambition is to transact business with you on the basis of intrinsic merit. If we don't give you meritorious prices and meritorious treatment, we know our power to bring you here ceases. When you cease to come the business ceases to live.

We have such unbounded faith in our goods that we say to you, bring them back for your cash, if for any reason they don't suit, and we will show to you that what we say is true, and what we say we do, we do do, and what we promise is fulfilled.

We would not forget to mention that we have just received a shipment of the world's famous Hamilton & Brown Shoes—the best shoes on earth. Don't be deceived; you can't get $5 shoes for $2.50 or $2 shoes for $1. Shoes have their value, and dealers must live. Our aim is to give honest value.

A good home for you feet is a good investment. We have many such homes to show you when you come to see us. We sell and guarantee Hamilton & Brown Shoes that are made out of leather.

Bartlett and Cannover ball bearing sewing machines, Hibbard, Spencer & Bartlett table and pocket cutlery, and we are prepared to supply your wants in almost anything in the merchandise line. Come and see us when in town and you will never have reason to regret your visit.

Don't forget we furnish every baby born in Nacogdoches county this year with a pair of Hamilton & Brown shoes.

A Terrible Fall.

Mr. Hugh Thomas, a carpenter who has been with Mr. Rulf for some time past, met with an accident this morning which may cost him his life. He was at work at the top of Mr. Geo. W. Partin's new residence now under construction on North street just beyond the new residence of Col. B. S. Wettermark, when by some misstep he lost his balance and fell to the ground. The house is a two story building and he fell between the joists and the sleepers to the upper story and lodged on his back and the back of his neck across the sleepers of the first floor. He was unconscious when help reached him and has not yet regained consciousness. He was immediately brought to his room at Mr. G. H. King's, where he has boarded for some time, where he is now receiving every attention that friends and good nurses can render. Dr. Ford is in attendance upon him and is doing all in his power to revive him, but at this writing the chances seem largely against his recovery.

The Farmers' Institute.

Quite a number of farmers from various portions of the county came down yesterday to attend the meeting of the Farmers' Institute. Messrs. Doherty and Dixon of the H. E. & W. T. railroad, Prof. Mally, state entomologist, Prof. Connell, of the A. & M. College and Mr. Howard of the Southern Pacific railroad were present and did much to enlighten those who desired information on the soils, truck farming and gardening. The addresses of Prof. Mally and Connell as well as the other gentlemen, were very interesting. Prof. Connell with a plain diagram showed the value of the various fertilizers with reference to the various products planted thereon, and what each added to or took from the soil. Prof. Connell spoke at some length on the nature and adaptability of various soils for certain products, and his lecture was very interesting. He stated that there steps on foot to establish three experiment stations and that one would beyond question be established in East Texas.

Mr. Mally spoke at length upon the boll worm pest and how to eradicate it. Mr. Howard the representative of the Southern Pacific Railroad, gave an interesting talk on tobacco raising, and stated that it could be raised with profit in this county. Mr. Dixon, Judge Middlebrook, Mr. Edler delivered an interesting talk last night on tobacco raising.

Attention Truck Growers.

There will be a meeting of the truck growers association at the court house next Saturday at 11 o'clock a. m. All interested in truck growing expected to be present. It is absolutely necessary that there should be an understanding among the farmers, and some plan devised by which the profitable growing of tomatoes, potatoes, etc., may be reached. It requires an acreage of 50 acres to insure shipment in car load lots. So far only half that amount has been put down. Come out and discuss the subject and see what is best to do, and help set a move on foot to benefit the agriculturist, the horticulturist and the fruit grower, as well as the entire country.

H. S. EDLER,
Pres. Truck Growers' Assn.

Married at Rusk.

Miss Nettie Power and Mr. Gaston Crosby were married at Rusk yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was a run-away match, though unnecessarily so we are informed by Miss Nettie's relatives. Miss Nettie is the daughter of Mr. H. B. Power, one of the most substantial citizens of this community, and is an attractive as well as accomplished young lady. The groom is a son in dustrious young farmer, and we know of nothing worse of him than that he does not possess a great abundance of this world's goods, which after all counts very little, where there is pluck and get up and hustle in a young man's make-up. THE SENTINEL extends congratulations and trusts that the young couple will be as determined in facing the trials and difficulties of the future as they were when they set their heads to get married.

Obituary.

Little Jim Keefer Odell, son of Jeff and Lola Odell died at the home of his parents, Feb., 21, 1901, age two years, eight months and ten days. He was a beautiful, bright and promising child, a joy to the hearts of his parents. But alas! His sweet little self is gone, and no tongue or pen can describe their sorrows. They have only to console themselves with the hope that their loss is his gain, that he has escaped the trials and troubles of this world and won a home with the Savior where happiness has no limit. Blessed be his memory. M.

Mrs. O. D. Emmons died yesterday at her home near this city and was buried today at Fairview.

Austin Letter.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 20.—Hon. B. A. Calhoun has introduced four bills to-date and says he has six more to introduce. The four bills he has already introduced provide for a road law applying especially to Nacogdoches county; a seduction bill providing that the injured female may be allowed to testify as a competent witness and not be regarded as an accomplice; a bill defining assault with intent to murder and fixing penalty not less than two years and up to life sentence in the penitentiary; a bill to amend the stock law so that a district cannot be made smaller than a justice precinct.

The proposed road law provides for graded roads and an increase of the number of days work required of those eligible to road duty, for working county convicts on public roads and also providing for a tax of 15 c on a hundred dollars to be levied at the discretion of the commissioners court. For my part I am heartily in favor of this bill, and it is my opinion that nothing short of it will give the people of Nacogdoches county a satisfactory road system. If they want good roads, they must expect to go to some trouble and expense to get them. Mr. Calhoun is anxious to get the expression of the people upon this proposed law and if they have anything to say about it "they'll have to hurry." The bill provides practically the same system that is in now force in Harris and a number of other counties where it has been tried successfully and satisfactorily. The bill is entirely too lengthy for publication in the papers, but a copy has been furnished both THE SENTINEL and the Plaindealer, where they may be seen and read by any one interested.

There were some big speeches yesterday afternoon in the House over the Hogg amendments. The question is up again and has been discussed all day by the giants on both sides. There are some men on the opposition side that will probably have trouble when they go back to their constituents. Platform demands are not so easily over-ridden that they can be disregarded with impunity, and it is quite likely that some of the members are now serving their first and last term.

The Kennedy printing bill, which I mentioned yesterday, was killed in the committee room last evening. Another bill, I am informed, will be presented, but will be perfectly harmless, if there is no good in it.

Senator Beaty is on record as opposed to the Hogg amendments upon the question of constitutionality. Mr. Calhoun will oppose them for probably the same reason, and for the further reason that he does not want to antagonize railroad interests. He thinks the amendments, if adopted, would retard the development of the oil and other industrial interests of East Texas.

The redistricting bill that was introduced in the senate last week was intended as a joke, but it has put a lot of people to thinking upon the subject and may have the effect of bringing suggestions out that will result in the most satisfactory legislation upon this subject. It is generally believed that no action will be taken during the regular session, but that a called session will be held for the express purpose of redistricting the State.

Down With The Trusts!

There are no more disastrous trusts than the Patent Medicine Trusts. Look at the big daily papers and notice the fortunes they are spending out of the people's money that never gets home again. Dr. Blank's "Gehula," Dr. "Sell-em-out" humbugging compound, Dr. Swindler's "Kill-em-quick" man poison, all guaranteed to cure incurable diseases. Three-fourths of the money you spend for these quack nostrums never comes home again.

We put up a line of simple remedies that have real merit. If you do not believe us, submit our formulas, which are not secret, to your doctor.

We absolutely do not want your money unless we give you full value, and the moderate profit we make circulates a mon our own people.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 20.—In the senate this morning a bill was introduced adopting the referendum plan as to whether there shall be a constitutional convention held. At the noon adjournment the senate was considering the house bill appropriating $10,000 to make a geological survey of Texas. The house has spent the entire morning in a lively debate over the Hogg amendments.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 21.—The senate committee this morning reported favorably on the senate bill requiring fire insurance companies to deposit $50,000 as a prerequisite to doing business in the state.

The senate passed finally its bill providing for the consolidation of the Houston and Texas Central, Fort Worth and New Orleans, Central Texas and North-western Tap, Austin and North-western and Marble Falls road.

A Costly Affair.

A. Benson, of Shelby county, who by the way must have been on the county, died a few days ago and his funeral expenses as reported in the Champion were as follows:

Clothing, $3.87; digging grave, $5.00; care of corpse day and night, $4.00; burying corpse $4.00.

The amounts were allowed by the commissioners court, and it will be noticed that the dead man's clothing was the cheapest thing in the whole business.

Citation by Publication.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County Greeting:
Oath having been made as required by law you are hereby commanded to summon Simpson Ellen by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Nacogdoches County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Nacogdoches, on the 3rd Monday in March A. D. 1901 the same being the 18th day of March A. D. 1901, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 16th day of January A. D. 1901 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 729, wherein Sarah J. Hillen is Plaintiff, and Simpson Ellen is Defendant, and said petition alleging that she is an actual bona fide inhabitant of Nacogdoches County, Texas, and has resided in said county for more than six months and in said State for more than twelve months, and proceeding the filing of this suit, that Plaintiff and Defendant were legally married on the 24th day of July 1884, and lived together as man and wife until the 29th day of September 1886. That on the said 29th day of September 1886 the Defendant abandoned Plaintiff and has never returned to her, and that Plaintiff has never caused nor consented to said abandonment, and that Plaintiff after the most diligent inquiry has been unable to ascertain the residence or whereabouts of the Defendant, and that citation by publication be had, and the bonds of matrimony now existing between herself and Defendant be dissolved, and that she have a decree of divorce, and judgment for costs of suit.
Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Witness, Clifton Wells, Clerk of the District Court of Nacogdoches County.
Given under my hand and seal of said court, at office in Nacogdoches this 29th day of January A. D. 1901.
CLIFTON WELLS,
Clerk District Court Nacogdoches County.

There's no use in talking fellow citizens facts are facts and the people know it, and for this very reason the officials who are supposed to have the sanitary affairs as well as the health of the town and county in their charge should get a move on them and make more rigid and satisfactory provisions concerning this scarlet fever and smallpox business. It's really getting to be a serious matter, and without attempting or desiring to be the least bit impudent or meddling in the matter, THE SENTINEL on behalf of all the people of the town and county takes this method of dropping a coal upon the back of those whose duty it is to look after the prevention of contagion in any shape. It's now up to the physicians and officials of both the town and county to get a move on them.

BUGGIES AND SURREYS.

Who ever saw so many Buggies! What am I to do with so many buggies? Sell them of course. How on earth do you expect to sell those six cars of Buggies and Surreys you are just unloading? Expect to sell them cheap, of course. Is that the way you sell so many? Certainly, that's it. I was just wondering how so many people could ride in fine Buggies and Surreys when just a few years ago nobody could have a Buggy or Surrey. Yes, you're right. Just three years ago Buggies and Surreys were awful scarce through the country. I have only been selling them three years, so you can account for the change. Certainly I don't pretend to sell all the Buggies and Surreys that are sold in Nacogdoches, but expect to sell the most of them, and the way I expect to do it is to sell the best goods for the least money. Buy yourself a good Buggy or Surrey and go to Church, pay the preacher and do better every way. It don't cost much.

Furniture that is Furniture!

It's no use in saying anything about my line of furniture. Everybody knows that I have the biggest and cheapest stock in East Texas. When you get a bedstead from me you don't go through it the first pass you make trying to get an all nights rest. My furniture is all good. You look a whole lot better in one of those mirrors you get with those pretty dressers you get from me, than you look in other old cheap mirrors. Bed springs and mattresses, there is no end to them. I sell the best cotton mattresses as cheap as others sell cotton lap and bottom. My springs out spring anybody's springs, and at the same price. If you need a spring to spring on this spring come around and get two sets anyway. If you don't get them some one else will and you will be out that much solid comfort.

CHARTER OAK STOVES

These Stoves are a little high and I would quit handling them, but the women wont let me. They say when the time comes that they can't buy Charter Oak Stoves in Nacogdoches they will go to towns to trade where they can get them. Cold biscuits baked in a Charter Oak Stove are better than hot ones baked in any of the old cheap kind. That's what the people say who know the merits of the Charter Oak Stove. I will have a big car in this week. I can almost smell the good old biscuits and ham cooking now. Come and get one.

NO OTHER COOKING APPARATUS CAN COMPARE WITH THEM.

NOTICE:

I have a whole mess of all kinds of dry goods. I guess they are the best in town. We have no certain price, which I can get, but would hate to let the people know what they cost.

I have about 300 bolts of brown domestic and about the same of stripes. Calico all over the house. Shoes, any size and price. In fact anything in the dry goods business,

It's no trouble to show goods as the most of them are on the floor,

W. N. Bailey.

On The Wing.

EDITOR SENTINEL:
Wells, Texas, 2-19-1901.—According to promise I left Lufkin on the morning of the 13th, on my trip over the Cotton Belt Railroad.

The first thing of interest was the immense saw mill of "Kurth and Henderson" (commonly known as Kelty's Mill.) This mill is about one and one half miles North East from Lufkin. They employ about 300 men and cut from 75,000 to 100,000 feet of lumber per day. They also have a planer and other machinery connected with the mill. In fact they can take a "saw log" and in a few minutes have it converted into any kind of lumber any one may want—from a 12 x 12 sill down to a 1-4 round moulding. This mill has a narrow gauge railroad line from the Angelina River to the Neches.

The company has built several nice dwellings at Lufkin on the installment plan and is now offering to build for any one desiring a nice home on easy terms. Messrs. Kurth & Henderson have the good will of all with whom they have dealings.

Not feeling very well and being tired of walking, I took passage on an ox wagon as far as Wells. On our way we passed several mills, Clawson's, Baker's and Pollok and they all seem to be doing a thriving business.

At Wells my teamster had to "switch off" so I decided to rest a few hours before going to Forest. Whilst there

I met Messrs. Kemp Davidson, Wengel Hillencamp and Major McCall. All are jolly good fellows and claims to know the SENTINEL editor and every body else at Nacogdoches.

Wells is a "Pro" town, but it did not seem that way to me and I assure you, if you or Harris ever come over you will think more than I do.

The town of Wells, proper has a depot, drugstore and about eight general merchandise stores. It is located near the line of Cherokee and Angelina counties, but is very densely settled with thrifty farmers for miles.

In a day or two I will write you about Forest and Chronister Mills.

REPORTER.

Accidents to Children.

Timpson, Texas, Feb. 19.—While helping his older brother burn brush Monday last, Charles, the 4 year old son of Mr. W. R. Taylor, was badly burned, but it is not thought fatally.

The 18 months old son of J. W. Bryan fell from the porch Monday, landing head first in a milk crock, which was broken in several pieces, the child's head and cheek being badly cut. The little fellow is doing well.

Mose Harris' Good Luck.

Austin, Feb. 20.—Major Mose Harris, well known in newspaper circles of Texas, was to-day appointed deputy internal revenue collector for San Antonio. The appointment was made by Internal Revenue Collector Webster Flannagan and becomes effective at once.

Cold Storage.

A reporter of THE SENTINEL today visited the cold storage vaults of J. P. Popp in the new brick building at the corner of Main and North streets. The business is an enterprise of which the people of this town should be proud. In a large vault which is divided for convenience into three apartments, in two of which fresh meat of all kinds will be constantly kept on hand without regard to whether the thermometer on the outside registers at zero or 110 in the shade. Every piece of all the meat of all kinds is shipped to Popp's cold storage vault direct from Kansas city, and every particle is strictly first class in every particular. In a few days Mr. Popp will be prepared to deliver purchases made of him on short notice to any and all parts of the city. Beside meat, butter and eggs will also be kept. This enterprise is quite an addition to the business volume and needs of the city and the public will not be slow in appreciating the fact we feel sure.

They will be ready to deliver their goods Monday. Will handle anything in the meat line, and if it isn't in stock can get it in twenty four hours.

Will furnish frozen poultry orders to come in on Saturday and delivery will be made the next week—any day.

Some Old Books.

Mr. J. W. Vineyard has in his possession three books that are remarkable in more than one way. They are old and if the legend ascribed to them is true and we have no reason to doubt that it is, they were once the property of Lawrence Washington who was a half-brother of George Washington. It is barely possible that the books once belonged to Lawrence Washington unless he lived to an extreme old age. Lawrence Washington was the guardian of George and was a man of family while George was a mere lad, George was born in 1732 and died in 1799. The books now in the possession of Mr. Vineyard were printed in 1804 and if Lawrence Washington was any where from 12 to 15 or 20 years older than George he would, had he been alive in 1804, at least 85 or 90 years old, which is not impossible. The books are in three volumes and is a history of Mexico. On the 22nd page of all three volumes the name of Lawrence Washington is written in ink evidently by the same hand that wrote the name in the first part of the book. This is accounted for on the ground that with Washington's relatives, after his death the 22nd was a memorable date because it was his birthday. The books are a curiosity and no doubt of great literary value.

Fire Near Douglass.

The residence of H. W. Overall, north of Douglass, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday, together with all its contents. We are not informed as to amount of loss or as to whether the building or contents were insured.

A Costly Affair.

A few days ago Alfred Benson a negro died in Shelby county and was buried at public expense. We are not in possession of absolute facts as to the position Benson occupied in the body politic of Shelby county but infer that he must have been a pauper. If he was or was not, it is lucky for Shelby county that Benson was the only pauper that died at that time or else in disposing of all, the county would have been bankrupt. If ten paupers should happen to die at once over there the county is gone up. In the first place Alfred Benson, a negro died. F. M. Newton was allowed $5 for holding an inquest over his body. Dr. Spivey was allowed $10 for holding autopsy. Constable Williams was allowed $2.50 for helping in the inquest, W. E. Stephens charged $3.85 for clothing, somebody $5 for digging a grave, some one $4 for sitting up with corpse a day and night. B. F. Jones $7.50 for a pine box coffin and finally $5 was paid to have the corpse buried. It thus cost the county $42.85 to bury a negro that could have been decently put away for $10. From any point of view such charges as the above are simply outrageous and out of all reason. The main idea seems to have been: that the county has to pay the expense and so let's pile 'em on. This is not the only instance of the kind that has come to our notice in which the county is all but robbed. The legislature should enact a vigorous law modifying the charges to be made in the disposition of people who are buried at the public expense. Now for instance, the idea of paying $5 for digging a grave is preposterous. One dollar would have been sufficient by all means. In dealing with the county it should receive the same consideration as would a citizen and no more. The habit these days to charge too much when work is done for the county. The record of the commissioners court will show the truth of this statement. The matter needs adjusting by law and the sooner it is done the better off the people will be.

The Honeycutt Case.

Old Man Honeycutt, the fiend in human form, who one year ago stabbed his own daughter to the heart at his home near Center, is about to go scot free of his diabolical crime. The deed was and is one of the most diabolical crimes ever perpetrated, and any man with a speck of conscience would be haunted with remorse, bitter and excruciating, but Honeycutt is apparently in good health and enjoying life. The evidence in the case from beginning to end showed no excuse nor extenuating circumstances for the deed.

R. W. HALTOM, Editor.

There is a lot of work ahead for the enterprising people of Nacogdoches.

It is evident that the cotton market will be glutted next fall and unless there be some unusual influence upon the market to keep up the price, cotton will be awful cheap.

It would be powerful nice to see a big cotton mill with a thousand spindles buzzing in Nacogdoches. Can't we have it going in time to "grind up" a good portion of this year's crop.

S. R. WHITLEY, editor and proprietor of the Jacksonville Reformer, died at his home in Jacksonville a few days ago. He was well known in politics and especially in republican, and of late years in populist circles.

The smallpox situation is liable to become serious for Nacogdoches, if the utmost precaution is not exercised. It is just getting in good shape to become epidemic throughout the county, being scattered hither and thither by prowling, loafing negroes.

One of the latest novels of American authorship is a most thrilling romance in connection with the terrible Galveston storm, from the pen of Sue Greenleaf. It is a most interesting fiction coupled with many historical facts, statistics and reminiscences of the horrible disaster.

JUDGE PERKINS is making a strong effort to pass a bill in the legislature to reopen the iron mines and start up the iron industry again at the Rusk penitentiary. All East Texas is, or should be, interested in this bill and it is earnestly hoped that Judge Perkins will succeed in securing its passage.

The lone populist in the legislature must feel like a one-legged man at a kicking match.—Denison Gazetteer.

The "lone populist" at least commands the respect of his fellow-members, and is a daddled sight truer to principle than some of the democratic members, who are grossly violating the platform promises upon which they were elected.

If the people of Henderson will heed the Times and Bro. Milner's warning, they will wake up and "look a leetle about." They will learn to appreciate his words of warning some day, when it may be too late.

CONGRESS is about to pass a bill forging the last links to Cuban bondage. The provisions of the bill are satisfactory to the administration and prohibits Cuba from taking any public action whatever without the consent of Uncle Sam.

The frequent fatalities resulting from saloon raids in Kansas is making the matter a serious thing. One woman has been killed and several men have been almost fatally injured. The anti-saloon element are becoming equally as lawless as the blind tigers and liquor joints they are endeavoring to suppress. Kansas needs a set of officers that will enforce the law both ways, and put a stop to the saloons and their raiders, too.

A GENTLEMAN from Columbus, Texas, visited Nacogdoches this week registered himself from "God's country." A discussion of the boll weevil with this gentleman disclosed the fact that farmers in his section gathered on an average of twenty-five bales of cotton to every six hundred acres, and as cotton is one of the chief crops of that portion of the State, we could not help thinking he had misnamed it when he called it "God's country." East Texas is the real God's country.

The governor sprung a surprise on the prize fighters at Galveston Monday night. At the end of the fight between Choynski and Johnson, State Ranger Capt. J. A. Brooks jumped into the ring and arrested the pugilists in the name of the State of Texas. The fighters are now in jail and will, by order of Gov. Sayers, be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The sense of the people of Texas is very pronounced against this beastly practice, and the law against prize fighting has been placed upon the statute at great expense to the State. The action of Gov. Sayers will meet the hearty approval of all true and loyal citizens, and it is hoped that full punishment will be meted out to the violators.

NACOGDOCHES is a "natural born rival" to all towns competing for East Texas trade. She is mighty hard to "cut out," too.

If Mr. Calhoun's public road bill becomes a law, we can have better roads, if we want them. But there will be nothing compulsory about it, and we can also plod along through the mud if we prefer it.

The Texas press association is to be congratulated upon the selection of Houston as the place of holding its annual meeting for 1901. Houston is the birthplace of the association and she always kills the fatted calf upon the return of her offspring. There is no city in Texas where the boys feel so much at home as they do in Houston.

The "First Baptist Church" is a "leaflet" that will be published weekly henceforward by Pastor W. T. Tardy. It is for free distribution and will be handed out to the congregation at the Baptist church every Sunday morning by the ushers. The Leaflet is a new departure in the literary field, but we feel assured it is destined to be of great good and usefulness. The energy and earnestness shown by Bro. Tardy in his work as leader of the Baptist flock in our midst is worthy of encouragement and a hearty co-operation by all people who would promote Christianity and law and order in the community.

H. S. EDLER, chairman of the Nacogdoches county Truck Growers Association, has called a mass meeting of the people at the court house at 11 o'clock next Saturday. Let every man interested in the advancement of the agricultural interests of the county be present. An effort is on foot to encourage the raising of tomatoes and Irish potatoes for shipment. These products cannot be shipped profitably except in carload lots and it is important that an agreement should be entered into by a number of farmers so as to insure an acreage sufficient to guarantee shipments in large quantities. It is to this end that Mr. Edler is calling the farmers together and it is to be hoped that they will enter into the spirit of the movement with a hearty good will.

Mrs. A. J. Hyde Dead.

In a personal sense, as well as editorially, THE SENTINEL mourns the demise of this noble and most loveable lady. She was noted for her goodness of heart, and there are many people in this town who can testify to this from experience as well as observation. The writer is one of many who have been recipients of her gentle mercies, even from his infancy. Mrs. Hyde was born the city of Cincinnati in Ohio. She was about seventy-five years old at her death, which occurred last Saturday at her home on the lot where she had lived nearly half a century. In childhood she came with her family, whose name was Kendall, to Nacogdoches, La. When quite young she was married to a Mr. Hamilton, who died in a few years, and afterward she was married to Dr. Geo. S. Hyde, of a well known pioneer family. He died in 1888 and since then she had lived a widow in the care of Dr. F. C. Ford and family. She lived a short while at Alto after marrying him. Much of her life was spent in the boarding house business here, and her house was a noted place of peace and comfort. We oldtimers never tire of expressing our tenderest love for Mrs. Hyde, or speaking her praise. She had no children of her own but she was as a loving mother and a loving grand mother to many of us who came within her reach. All honor to the memory of Mrs. Anne Jeanette Hyde. A suitable obituary will appear in these columns.

JNO. C. FALL, SALESMAN.

Died at Pineapple, Ala.

Mr. Joe Gaston, who lives on the Simpson place East of this city, called in Saturday and informed THE SENTINEL that he had just received the sad news of the death of his wife's mother, Mrs. Martha Carter, which occurred at her home near Pineapple, Ala., on Feb. 17th inst. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Gaston, Mrs. Carter has a large number of relatives and friends in this county who have moved here from Alabama, all of whom will hear of her death with the deepest regret. She was a noble, Christian lady and was held in highest esteem by all who knew her.

Marriage License.

The following marriage license have been issued since our last report:

G. F. Johnson, and Addie Milstead.

W. C. Ferguson and Carry Thomas.

Albert Dicks and Amelia Beatty.

W. D. Johnson and Lavinia Scott.

Mack Jones, col., and Jane Anderson, col.

Ed Spencer, col., and Mariah Johnson, col.

Accidentally Shot.

Walter Doolittle, colored, who seemed to have little else to do, shot himself accidentally Saturday night, inflicting a painful flesh wound in the leg. The accident occurred in the little blue house on South Pecan street.

Accidental Shooting.

Jan Weaver accidentally let a "unloaded" pistol go off in his hands Saturday night and seriously wounded—Higginbotham. Both are negroes. The accident took place in the suburbs of the city.

Court is in session at San Augustine and several people have gone down from Nacogdoches.

Letter List.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the post-office for the week ending February 25.

Wm Bell, Jim H Burrows Jr, Harry Bowers, Mr Carson, K C Collins, Frances Greer, Fleming H. Lancaster, G W Lovelace, E Morley, J P Metteur, Frank Morgan, Jim Oliver, Jno Spencer, Floyd Swindle, Lewis Solomon, Rev F D Swindle, J C Smith, Sam Layler, F H Wood, Curtis Williams.

Juvenile Sports.

Felix, Will and Bud Weaver, sons of R. T. Weaver, ranging in age from 12 years down, are entitled to the prize as the most successful trappers of the county. Last year these boys caught and sold about fifteen dollars worth of mink hides, coon skins etc. but they broke the record last week by bringing in and selling ten dollars worth of mink hides at one time, all of which they have caught by trapping since the new year set in. They get up at 3 o'clock every morning, all three of them mount a mule and start for the bottom to see about their traps. It takes courage as well as industry for boys of their age to do this, and these boys are to be commended for their bravery and their energy.

For Sale.

A complete outfit for sawing wood. Also a good second hand two-horse engine and boiler. Will take $50.00 for the latter, and it is nearly as good as new.

EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-SIX . . . NINETEEN HUNDRED AND ONE.
1896 == 1901.

Five years of successful business among you brings us up to the present date. The year just passed eclipsed them all for business, and we are not yet satisfied. We want to make 1901 the banner year of the whole six. Watch and see if we don't. We have won your patronage and support by always giving you honest values for your money or your credit, and because you always meet with courteous treatment by both ourselves and our employees.

We want your trade--We appreciate your business--We are here among you and have come to stay.

No one is in a better position to sell you good goods at lower prices than we can.

No one can extend to you more courtesies or show you more accommodations than our firm.

For the cash we sell 'em as cheap as any store,

And on a credit we ask no more than our neighbors.

Our three Stores and Warehouse are Full of Goods and More Arriving Daily.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS Of all kinds. We carry in stock a very complete line.

GROCERIES. Hardware and Saddlery. Our stock fill up half our house and we want to sell them.

CLOTHING. Hats, Shoes and Gents' Furnishing Goods. In this line we are headquarters for the best trade that comes to our city.

DRY GOODS Both Stable and Fancy. Notions of endless variety, and Ladies' Furnishings of every kind. We carry in stock from which any one can always make a selection.

Listen: One thing more to our farmer friends: If you buy our goods in the spring and summer, we buy your cotton in the fall and winter. No customer of ours has yet to say he had to sell his cotton to our competitors in business and pay us the money for his account. You give us a market for our goods and we help furnish you a good market for your products.

To our old customers and patrons we earnestly ask a continuation of your valued patronage, and to those who have never traded with us we ask them to give us a trial for one season and see if we can't make it to their interest to give us at least a portion of their business.

We can always supply your wants, whether it be Goods, Wares or Merchandise, Chalk, MONEY or Marbles. Yours anxious to please,

TUCKER, ZEVE & CO.

Chill Tonic.

Please send me another bottle of Shindler's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is the only medicine that I have used that breaks the chills and keeps them broke.
T. K. HARVIN.
October 6, 1900.

Chill Tonic.

I have used on my son, 12 years old, one bottle each of Shindler's Chill Tonic. Used the same for three days and then started on Shindler's, which broke the first chill and kept them off up to date ten days ago.
J. A. BRUCE.
October 25, 1900.

Pills and Chill Tonic.

My wife had a very bad spell of malarial fever and chills. I gave her some of Shindler's Pills and at same time gave her a bottle of Shindler's Chill Tonic with Iron. One bottle of Chill Tonic cured her completely. Please send me another bottle of the Chill Tonic, I want to keep them off.
J. J. DOLLARD.
October 11, 1900.

Chill Tonic.

Give me another bottle of your Chill Tonic. One bottle has stopped two cases in my family and I want them to stay broke.

Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry.

I take pleasure in saying to you that Shindler's Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry is the best cough medicine I ever used. I recommend it to anyone who wishes a good medicine. It is the best medicine for bronchitis I ever used.
W. L. FUSSELL.
October 13, 1900.

Chill Tonic.

I have used Shindler's Chill Tonic in my family this year (which has been a very sickly year) and have found it to be the best chill and fever tonic I have ever used, and is a fine general tonic in addition to being the best for chills and fevers.
W. H. ROGERS.

Sarsaparilla.

This is to certify that I have used about one-third of a bottle of Shindler's Sarsaparilla on my little girl which was very badly broken out all over with sores, and that after one week's trial she is entirely well. I have tried nearly everything that I thought of, but of no avail. After using Shindler's Sarsaparilla I can recommend it very highly to anyone in need of a blood remedy. I cannot speak too highly of it.

Iron Tonic.

Your Iron Tonic has made a new man of me. I bought eleven bottles of last year which did not do me as much good as one bottle of your Iron Tonic. Since taking it I can eat anything.
H. R. BEAVERS.
July 11, 1900.

Soothing Syrup.

Our baby was low last January and for about one month it was fretful and bothered with colic every night. I tried Castoria and Paregoric and several other things without any effect. Finally I tried Shindler's Soothing Syrup and we had no more trouble with it. It is the best baby medicine I ever used. Have also used your other medicines with good results.

J. S. ALLEN.

Liver Regulator.

Shindler's Liver Regulator, besides being the biggest package, is also the best I have ever used. We want no other in our house.
S. A. OLIVER.

Condition Powder.

Give me a box of Shindler's Condition Powder, as my neighbors recommend it so highly I want to try it myself.
P. P. MYERS.

Liver Regulator.

I use Shindler's Liver Regulator in my family and find it the best in every respect.
B. H. MILLER.

Spectacles.

I have worn a pair of Shindler's Spectacles for one year and find that they have entirely relieved the eye strain that was so troublesome I could only study a short time. Now I have no trouble at all.
O. W. H. MCCALL.

Celery Compound and Iron Tonic.

I have used Shindler's Iron Tonic and found it good, also Compound Extract of Celery. These medicines have proved so satisfactory that I want all my friends to try them. In fact all of Shindler's Remedies will do all they are advertised to do.
S. E. BRUCE.

To R. C. Shindler & Son and the Public:
Under a true test I would advise all people who have chills and fevers to be sure and get Shindler's Tasteless Chill Tonic and Shindler's Purgative Compound Pills, and use them according to directions and I will assure a permanent cure, for I have given them a true test. When my family commenced having chills and fever, I tried all other Chill Tonics which had little effect. The first trial of Shindler's Chill Tonic broke them up and I only had twelve hours to commence before chill time, and the chill sure failed to come. Since that time my little twelve-year old boy was first taken with a chill in the morning, afterwards fever rose, at bed time that night fever still very high. I gave him one Shindler's Pill, at midnight one, at 4 o'clock one more and fever still very high. I still kept up the Chill Tonic according to directions, and the fever remained very high all that day. Wife said I had better go for a doctor. I said, "No, I will try Shindler's Tonic on till morning." So at 12 o'clock in the night the fever commenced going down and by morning he was clear of fever. By using Shindler's Purgative Pills and Chill Tonic, I know by experience that I cannot recommend those two medicines too highly. The best of wishes to R. C. Shindler & Son for preparing such good valuable medicines at home for the people.
J. A. BRUCE.

P. S.—Mr. Shindler, I can with safety recommend your Iron Tonic bitters as a good blood medicine and health restorer, for I have been trying it with my oldest son at home, who was in such bad health so long, and he hasn't used but about half the bottle yet and is getting back to the natural color, and looks better than he has for several months. I can also recommend Shindler's Electric Liment by experience, for after my mule threw me and hurt me so badly inside my breast I used nothing else but your Electric Liment, and in a few days I was healed all right. Yours as ever,
J. A. BRUCE.
September 10, 1900.

Shindler's Pills.

I have used Shindler's Pills three years and find them the best. I have used them for biliousness and find them a perfect success in every way.
S. A. OLIVER.

Liver Regulator.

I have used Shindler's Liver Regulator ever since it was first brought to this town and find it the best ever used. A one dollar package lasts my family about one year. A light dose night and morning and then another just before dinner will clear you of any cold. Too much cannot be said of its place, and its place is in every household. I have also used Shindler's Pills, Chill Tonic and Iron Tonic and they are the best remedies I ever used for what they are recommended.
W. B. STRAHAM.

Shindler's Pills can't be beat. I use them in my practice and find them the best I ever used in my experience as a doctor of forty-five years. I also use Shindler's Cough Syrup as it is the only medicine I have ever found to substitute my own cough syrup, which has been unexcelled for about thirty-five years. Shindler's Liver Regulator, Flux Mixture, Celery Compound and Sarsaparilla I have used in my practice and find them the best remedies obtainable.
(Doctor) JNO. M. SPARKS.

I tried Shindler's Liver Regulator and found it to be all O. K., and have tried Shindler's Pills and found them to be good also. I want my friends to try them and be convinced themselves.
M. A. STRIPLING.

Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry.

Shindler's Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry I have found to be better than any other cough medicine. I had coughing spells and cough until my nose bled, and since I have used Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry I have not had any more of those spells. I cannot say too much for your medicine.
W. EDISON.

Liver Regulator.

I want another package of Shindler's Liver Regulator. It is the best. I want no other.
E. C. MUCKLEBROY.

My baby had such a severe cough that I sent for the doctor, and not being able to get him "phoned" for a bottle of Shindler's Syrup of Tar and Wild Cherry which relieved her very soon. In fact it cured the cough.
W. H. HARRIS.

Sarsaparilla.

Shindler's Sarsaparilla cured eczema on my two-year old child. It is the best blood purifier ever used by me.
C. A. PARTIN.

Iron Tonic.

My mother used a bottle of your Iron Tonic last fall and it helped her so much I want another. Mother says it is the best medicine she ever used to give her strength and appetite.
W. A. STOKER.

Altonia, San Augustine County, Tex., Dec. 9, 1900.
Messrs. R. C. Shindler & Son, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Gentlemen:—My spectacles arrived yesterday in good order and are a joy forever. Your efforts to suit my eyes resulted in a most happy success. It is simply wonderful how you improved my vision. I can see to shoot a Winchester rifle well, and you know the right eye was very weak. You have my best wishes and may success crown your every effort. Your true friend,
T. B. BARKER.

THE Schley-Sampson controversy has been started anew in congress by an attempt being made by the president to have Sampson advanced in rank above Schley. Sampson was not present to direct the firing of a single gun at the battle of Santiago, and Schley jumped in and won the battle.

RUSSIA has just placed a high protective tariff on all machinery that is shipped into that country from the outside. Now, what will the big manufacturers do about it? We mean those of the United States who see or profess to have seen great opportunities for American manufactured products.

VEACH, of the Hemphill Messenger, writes that he wants all the numbers of THE WEEKLY SENTINEL that contain the complete story of Helen Jewet. Of course the papers were sent, and we hope our poetic friend will not attempt to paraphrase the story in verse, for goodness sake.

IN writing for the paper, correspondents would do well to leave out such expressions as these: "Bill Jones was seen going north last Sunday." Sally Swiggles is awful sorry these days 'cause she misses some one, wonder who it is?" Foolishness is not worth a cent and people don't care to know every nonsense that's going on anyway.

IN the bill for improvement of rivers and harbors which passed congress a few days ago Texas came in for a few hundred thousand dollars. Sabine Pass gets $150,000, Galveston Harbor Channel $112,500, Galveston Ship Channel $225,000, Trinity River $112,500, Brazos River $161,250, and in addition the following appropriations on continuing contracts: Restoration of Jetties at Galveston $666,667; Ship Channel at Galveston, $200,000; Trinity $566,665.

THE anniversary of Washington's nativity has rolled round again, and today in every county in every State in this great nation the name of him who sleeps at Mt. Vernon will be sung with praise and spoken with words of eloquence and affection. The name of Washington will live for all time. It is enshrined in the hearts of all the people, and written in marble, brass and iron, on mural cenotaph and monuments that kiss the sky. But more enduring still it is written in the hearts and affections of the nation, and has long since become a part of the warp and woof of our constitutional superstructure. May it ever continue to do so. Let us all turn from our labors for a moment and help celebrate the birth of him who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his fellow citizens."

Austin Letter.

Austin, Feb. 19. — The "Third House," as the lobby is commonly referred to here, seems to be the most important and significant body around the capitol during the present term of the legislature. Every trade, profession, corporation and calling must have its full quota of representatives in the lobby if there are any measures to come before the legislature effecting their respective interests. I have actually found myself a member of that mighty conclave, being drawn into it by my opposition to what is called the Kennedy bill, which materially effects the interests of country printers, and if passed will result in the county job printing being turned over to some big printing concern who binds books and does a class of work against which a country printing office cannot compete. Under the present law all printers may come in open competition for all printing which they are competent to perform and the book makers and binders have the same right that we do to enter this competition, but under the proposed law the book binders have it all their way, or practically so, if they should feel disposed to make use of their power. However, I am glad to say, the great printing establishments are fighting the bill as hard as the local printers are. The passage of the bill would practically take all stationary drummers off the road, and there would be no more open competition. Under such a law, in my opinion, the commissioners court could be grossly imposed upon without even the knowledge that they were being robbed in some classes of work to make up for the low prices at which they might obtain work that was taken out of the hands of the local printer. There are a number of amendments to the bill, however, and it is probable that if it passes at all it will be shorn of most of its objectionable features. But there is no occasion for a change in the old law and for my part I hope the whole bill, amendments and all, will be defeated. But I have digressed from the subject of lobbying. As a rule the lobby wields a powerful and a dangerous influence upon the legislature, and with a close observation of its movements it does not take long to convert one to the Hogg amendments, especially that part effecting lobbies. Some of the brainiest and most influential men of the State—and some from the outside—are in constant attendance and they are never idle when the interest of a client, whether for good or bad, is at stake. They are after the interests which will best serve them, and the people are not considered. Speaking of the Hogg amendments, I think it is safe to say they will be killed as dead as Hector, slaughtered by the hand of the "constitutional lawyer" and the lobbyist. They are practically dead now, if the whisperings that I hear passing around are any omen.

It is surprising what a great number of "constitutional lawyers" have broken into the 27th legislature. Some of them probably never read forty pages in a law book, but they can talk a man's arm off on the unconstitutionality of the Hogg amendments. This is not intended as slur upon all those, who oppose the amendments but is simply the truth in regard to a large number of the "little fish" who are swimming near shore, swallowing with avidity the nice little bits of bait tossed out to them by the wary lobbyist, who knows how to feed and flatter their vanity to carry his point. The self-importance of this set is as disgusting as the poor figure they cut among the big brained, broadgaged members is amusing. The only redeeming trait that they possess is that they toady after the big fellows and flit about them like flies around an arc light, and half of them don't know any more "where they are at" when an important measure comes up than a June bug after he has been swallowed by a turkey gobbler. But these remarks are not intended to apply to the legislature as a body. Taken as a whole, the 27th legislature is the best assemblage of talent, brains and integrity that has ever assembled in the Texas legislature since the days of the Republic. There are men here who are making great sacrifices of individual interests in the service of their constituents, who have called upon them to represent them because of their superior ability, their honesty and integrity. It is this class that are the real watch-dogs of the affairs of state, the true guardians of the people's interests.

My observations of the past two days have convinced me that the people should choose their representatives from the highest walks of life, from among men who are most successful and who have attained the highest degree of intellectuality, morality and integrity. Such men are badly needed to fill our public offices, and if we would save the country from the 'demnition bowwows' and "everlasting perdition" we must call them out and push aside the horde of frisky fellows who have learned to recite "Custer's Charge" or some other school-boy declamation, pose as orators and imagine themselves politicians.

The House is wrangling over the Hogg amendments while I write this letter, but it is clear to see that nothing definite will be done with them yet awhile. HALTOM.

It would be a very good idea perhaps for Texas to tear up her present constitution and write a brand new one on progressive and up to date lines. Constitutions often outlive their practical utility even if they are constitutions. The present constitution is getting to be entirely too bunglesome for this day and time and needs repairing considerably.

GOMPERS, of the American federation of labor, is urging and ordering organized labor to defeat the compulsory arbitration bill. Gompers is altogether wrong.

A RELIC OF BARBARISM.

The great boxing match that was extensively advertised to come off at Cincinnati, last Friday was in the very nick of time indefinitely postponed. The chances are that it will never be pulled off anywhere in Ohio as long as Governor Nash remains in the executive chair. All people everywhere who place a higher estimation on morality and the gentle virtues of our present civilization, than this barbarous and vulgar relic of a brutal age will heartily applaud Governor Nash upon the decisive measures he has pursued in preventing the human bull fight from taking place on Buckeye soil.

Jeffries and Ruhlin are what is known as pugilists and they proposed to enter the ring in Cincinnati and fight each other to a finish with gloves. If they will select six-shooters, shot guns or axes and get into a ring and close the matter out, they will no doubt be given permission to do so. The public would at least be rid of two gentlemen who are a nuisance to law and morality. The attorneys of the pugilists, say they will carry the matter to the supreme court. A few years ago Governor Culbertson, convened the legislature in special session to prevent a pugilistic fight from taking place in Texas. The Governor of Arkansas did the same thing, and immediately afterwards the New Mexico delegate in congress introduced a bill prohibiting prize fighting upon territory belonging to or under the jurisdiction of the United States. Then the mob of rowdies who had been trying to pull the fight off in Texas, New Mexico, and Arkansas, skipped across the Rio Grande into Mexico and had it out. It took about five minutes and the outfit barely escaped capture at the hands of Mexican soldiers under orders of President Diaz.

Mr. E. C. Branch has sold his interest in the telephone exchange and electric light plant. He still retains his interest in the long distance lines. After March 1st he will devote his entire time to the practice of law. We hope he has been successful financially in these various enterprises. We know that by his effort this town has a telephone exchange and light plant that is not only second to none in the State in the way of service but the people have the benefit of the very cheapest rate.

What he has done for himself and the town is an example of what any of our energetic young men with fair ability and a little money can do. We need many more such enterprises as the telephone exchange and light system. We have the young men with the ability, let us encourage them, push them on and patronize well such enterprises.

Have the Linstroth and Improved Espenchied wagons, both with malleable skeins that wont break. They run light and wear well. No advance in prices.

Thursday's Locals.

Jesse Page of Pilgrim Rest was in the city today.

Read the jury list and see if your name appears thereon.

Leak Y'Barbo, of Mountain Ridge, was in town this morning.

J. N. Wilson, of Melrose, was in town today on a short business trip.

Bob Crawford, of Martinsville, came up to the city late yesterday evening.

Parties from Melrose report the road still in bad condition especially at the branch crossings.

The district court at Hemphill adjourned last Friday and will hold at San Augustine next, and then Nacogdoches.

J. C. Clark, Jeff Peddy, Chas. F. Bell, of Lufkin, were in the city yesterday and paid THE SENTINEL a pleasant visit.

Mrs. T. J. Stack and two children are visiting the parents of Mr. Stack and taking in the Carnival in New Orleans.

By the time scarlet fever and smallpox kills a dozen or so children, people will perhaps learn to be a little more particular.

Report says Joe Clevenger has taken a big tie contract on the T. & N. O. between Nacogdoches and the Angelina River. He is to deliver ties.

The recent report of the commissioners court of Shelby county shows that D. P. Lawson, a citizen over there, was allowed $4 for wild cat scalps.

John Y'Barbo, of Chireno, came up last night to meet his son returning from A. & M. College where he has been very rich with pneumonia.

Prof. Hargis will leave tomorrow to spend a few days in Shelby county. Prof. Hargis received the sad news Tuesday of the death of his brother, which occurred at his home in Nacogdoches county Sunday morning. He was about twelve years old.—Livingston Local.

News from Austin intimates that steps will be taken during the present session of the legislature to have the State purchase the old "Stone Fort" at this place and adopt some measure whereby it may be preserved as a monument of the heroic days of Texas as a Republic and State. The idea is a good one and we hope will meet with success.

In the report of the last session of the commissioners court of Shelby county, which appears in the current issue of the Champion, we notice that D. R. Counts was declared to be a pauper and ordered to be placed on the county and taken care of at the poor farm. By reference to Wednesday's SENTINEL, which contains a report of the commissioners court of Nacogdoches county, it is seen that the same D. R. Counts is a pauper over here and drawing $6 per quarter. How is this? Is Counts being supported by both Nacogdoches and Shelby county?

The case of Squire Tynes versus J. J. Shirley has been decided and "flung out of court," that is the commissioners' court. The squire failed to have his bond fixed up in the time prescribed by law, and also clear forgot to have it acknowledged, so when the commissioners court struck it a few days ago it was turned down. It follows therefore that J. J. Shirley, the man who lived in another community, and had been so living when elected, will serve as Justice of the Peace for Shady Grove beat. Of course the first lawyer that loses a case in Shirley's court will test the matter and the upshot of the whole business will be the final appointment of a man to succeed Shirley.

Remanded Without Bail.

Lopez, the Mexican who a few days ago murdered Joe Bustamente on the Loco, had an examining trial before justice Peevey yesterday and was remanded to jail without bail. The evidence adduced at the trial proves beyond doubt that the murder of Bustamente was cruel and bloody in the extreme as well as without any circumstance of excuse or mitigation. Lopez had hired to Joe Bustamente to do some clearing, in payment for an overcoat which Bustamente had sold to him. On the night preceding the killing, Bustamente was at Dan Pasche's setting up with one of the family who was very sick. Bustamente was away all night and in his absence Lopez made a criminal assault upon Mrs. Bustamente. When Bustamente returned the next day his wife told him all about the affair and he immediately went to the woods where Lopez was clearing and told him he must hunt another place as he could tolerate his presence no longer. Lopez still owed for the overcoat and Bustamente told him he would keep it till he—Lopez could pay the debt. Lopez and Bustamente went to the house where Lopez secured his clothes and left, at the same time threatening to return and kill Bustamente. After leaving the house Lopez never stopped till he secured a double barreled breech-loading shot gun. He then returned and about dusk secreted himself behind a tree beyond Bustamente's house in the lot. A little before dark Bustamente came out and started to the lot to feed his stock when Lopez stepped out and fired; the load taking effect in Bustamente's right hand shattering it in a terrible manner. Bustamente turned and ran to the house and into the kitchen over the door of which he had a double barreled shot gun heavily loaded with buck shot. Lopez followed and fired upon him at least twice before he reached the house. On account of his shattered hand Bustamente could not use the gun and Lopez rushed upon and knocked him down and would probably have cut his throat had not Mrs. Bustamente seized her dying husband's gun and dealt Lopez a powerful blow addled him and staggering and running together the murderer bled from the scene of his awful work. He was captured as heretofore stated and if justice is meted out old man Smith will not be the only man ever hung at Nacogdoches.

Friday's Locals.

J. L. Power, of Garrison, is in the city.

J. C. Fall, of Chireno, was in town this morning.

W. A. Barry, of Linn Flat, was in the city to-day.

Dr. Ireland, of Swift, was in town a short time this morning.

Lawrence Power, of Woodville, came in last night for a few days visit.

Doc Messec, of Toliver, was in the city on business to-day.

L. Wheeler, of Aiken, Shelby county, brought cotton to town yesterday.

Jesse Fuller and J. D. Muckleroy, of Melrose were in the city with cotton to sell.

Houston Gunning was laid up with rheumatism yesterday but is able to be out to-day.

Herschel Sitton and Bob Baxter, of Looneyville came down yesterday to attend the Institute.

Carlton Smith, of Mountain Ridge came up to the city to-day. Nothing of interest reported down his way.

Hon. B. A. Calhoun came in from Austin last night and went out to his home at Chireno, to-day.

Henry Lewis, Jack Garrett and Jack Jessup, of Sar Augustine were in town on a business trip today.

Jack Walters, of Toliver, came in last night and left on the mid-night train for Hillsboro, where he will live in the future.

Bill Denman, Sid Wisener, Bill King, Mr. Dallard and a score of other farmers were at the Institute and went away favorably impressed.

Mr. A. Y. Matthews informed THE SENTINEL to-day that he had during the present cotton season weighed 6,000 bales of cotton.

J. W. Buyers, of Swift, was in the city to-day and paid us a friendly call. He reports the death of Mr. Finn Barbo, who died last night at Swift at 3 o'clock.

Russell Chandler, Jeff Mason, Jim A. Williamson, Jeff Pitman, Tom Grisham, and Jim Lucas all of the Indian creek country spent last night in the city.

Yesterday at the Institute quite a number of questions were asked Prof. Mally, concerning bugs, and various garden and agricultural pests and their remedies. If there is any man in the county that understands the bug business that man is Mally, and every farmer should have heard him yesterday.

The talk of Prots. Mally and Connell, and Mr. Howard at the opera house yesterday evening and last night was particularly interesting and it is a pity that every practical farmer in the county could not hear what was said about the soils, insects etc. THE SENTINEL expects to speak at length later on about some of the subjects that were handled at the Institute.

FEBRUARY Will be a Month of Bargain Giving Here.

But that is what really interests the February buyers, and there'll be no disappointment in this stock. We make February a bargain month—one of slightest profit to us—a month of lowest prices, and that means always the superb sort of values—values that give you certain assurance of the economy of this stock.

UNDER QUICK MARCHING ORDERS.

And then these values drift along in the month that the weather makes them seasonable—just when they are of interest. You'll like the goods—they're the "first water" kind, but you'll be unable to match the prices.

DAVIDSON SAYS THE PRICES ARE RIGHT.

DRY GOODS, ETC.

A few pieces Jeans left over at 10 cents per yard and up. Good Linsey at 8 1-3 cts per yard and up. Good Gingham at 5 1 2 c per yard and up. Good Cotton Flannel at 5 1 2 c a yard and up. Woolen Dress Goods. I make prices to close them out. 8 1-3 cents per yard and up. Call and see them before they are all gone. Greystone Graniteware, 20, 25, 30 and 35 cents. This price is right.

SHOES.

Shoes for ladies, misses, children and boys. Shoes for men, hand made and machine sewed. "Seltz" shoes that make your feet glad, why not wear them. Robinson & Co. bench made shoes in all styles, shapes and colors. Boys' shoes to suit the boys. Work shoes. Come and let me shoe you, one and all.

GROCERIES.

Good coffee, 8 pounds to the dollar. The best coffee you ever saw in this old town 7 pounds for one dollar for one week only. 18 pounds good sugar for one dollar for just one more week. White Loaf best high patent flour at $4 per barrel. It cannot always remain at this price, but now's your chance.

TRUNKS AND VALISES.

Come to this store every time for these goods, if you want the lowest prices, for these lines are sold at the same reasonable margins as all others here, and that means the kind of values that suits the careful buyers. 26-inch fancy metal covered, iron bottom trunk, $1.75. Cheaper trunks but not guaranteed like above. Satchels, Gladstones, Suit Cases and Telescopes at prices to please. Call and ask for what you want.

DAVIDSON SAYS THEY ARE RIGHT.

I want your cash trade and influence besides. I will accommodate you if you need assistance, provided we can agree. When in town call around and see me. Come to see me even if you trade with other houses, for its not all dollars or all business with me. I have seats for you to sit and rest on, and besides I have the best water in town and will give you a drink. Tobacco for those who chew and snuff for those who dip, and cigars for the smokers. Call and see Mrs. Grundy, the talk of the town, to be found at Saturday's Locals.

W. S. Satterwhite, of Linn Flat, was in the city yesterday.

The number of tax receipts issued to date for taxes for 1900 is 4,280.

Mrs. K. P. Branch and Mrs. R. H. Irion returned from Garrison this morning.

Dr. Campbell, who has been laid up with la grippe for several days past, is reported better to-day.

Ellis Hall has returned from Attoyac and reports the roads much better than they were a week ago.

Deputy Sheriff Hall is busy summoning jurors for service in district court which will convene here early in March.

R. H. Fall and W. N. Bailey have dissolved partnership in the business at Chireno and the business will be continued by R. H. Fall, who will conduct a general merchandise business.

In the case of John Pleucker vs the T. & N. O. Ry., the jury allowed Mr. Pleucker $60, which is $3 more than he was allowed previously. The case was decided in county court this morning.

Mr. Schweers, the sexton, is all right. This cold weather doesn't bother him, because his house is fixed. It is built upon a rock and the "winds may blow, the rains descend and the floods beat against it etc."

Rev. S. F. Baucom passed through the city this morning on his way to his Melrose appointment. It rarely gets too cold or hot for Bro. Baucom and as an old negro once remarked he "ingenerally" fills his pintments.

Joe P. Clevenger has sold his lumber on the mill yard to C. C. Galloway and will begin tearing up his machinery in a few days and moving it to Dorr creek on the T. & N. O. railroad where he will put in a much larger mill and proceed to cut some of the fine pine timber heretofore mentioned in THE SENTINEL.

Dick Hall came near having a serious accident yesterday evening. He rode up to Mr. Stephens out on Dorr Creek and in alighting from his horse, his foot hung in the stirrup. The horse became frightened and started to run, jerking Dick down, dragging him about fifty yards and kicking at every jump. Dick says he thought his time was up sure, but he was saved by his foot slipping out of the stirrup as the horse was jumping a log.

Dr. Mayfield reports that he ran in upon a case of smallpox this morning. He says he didn't have long to stay there, and as he had not lost any such case he did not take time to look around, but hurried home where he was needed to change clothes and clean off for Sunday in advance. The case is Josephine Jackson, colored, who is at her home beyond Bart Burke's one mile west of town. She says it is chicken pox and that her children have had it. That is the usual blunder that spreads it around. This matter of infectious diseases needs intelligent and vigorous management. It is getting next to folks.

Get your blood in perfect condition. One bottle IX E Sarsaparilla will do it. w4m

From Stoker.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

Miss Mary and Luella Edson attended the party at the Herrin Mill Thursday night.

William Edson and J. T. Atwood went to Nacogdoches Friday. They report only one bad place in the road, that is from Stoker to Nacogdoches.

M. D. Stoker had a log rolling Monday. A good crowd and lots of lifting.

Miss Lula Edson spent Saturday and Sunday with her brother Will.

There was a dance at J. W. Smith's Tuesday night.

Miss Nevada Stoker attended church at Mt. Moriah Sunday.

Robert Stoker spent Sunday with his brother Mack.

We'll vote for rural delivery. It may help our roads. This would be one of the grandest counties in the state if we would all pull at one end of the rope and not at both ends. I think we will soon have the largest crowd at our end and then I guess all would come our way.

The farmers are busy burning logs and getting ready to plant cotton and corn.

Monday's Locals.

There are 144 road districts in Nacogdoches county.
L. H. Knight, of San Augustine, was in the city yesterday.
A. E. Mills, of Chireno, was in the city Saturday and remained over until yesterday, the guest of Mr. J. D. Thrash.
Our friend, Dr. A. M. Hooper, of LaNana was in the city to-day, accompanied by his family, on a shopping tour.
Rev. S. F. Baucom was in the city this morning. He preached at Melrose yesterday and reports a splendid meeting, a good collection and a good time generally.
M. F. Chandler, of Stoker, was in the city this morning. He reported the death of the baby of Mr. and Mrs. Will Barr, which occurred suddenly last night. The child ate hearty supper and was taken sick a few minutes later and died in two hours.
THE SENTINEL is pained to hear of the death of Mrs. J. W. Law, which occurred at the family home at Appleby yesterday. She leaves a husband and several children to mourn her loss, with whom the entire community in which they live as well as a large number of friends in this city deeply sympathize.

The Power Nursery.
If you are fond of fruits and flowers, I want your attention. I shall not make a canvass of this county at present, but if you want fruit trees, shade trees, roses etc., you will be benefitted by seeing me or waiting for my man. I am here to stay and therefore must do a straight business. Best skill and talent employed to propagate stock. None but reliable men on the road and I hold myself responsible for their deals with you. Nursery is located three miles north of Nacogdoches, on the Smith old place, which is of the most desirable quality of fruit land. Send me your order for next fall and I'll show my appreciation by giving you healthy trees true to label.
Respectfully,
J. B. POWER.
Closing Exercises.
Appleby, Tex, Feb. 25 '01.
To THE SENTINEL.
The Pleasant Hill school will give an intertainment March 8, 1901, beginning at 7 p. m. Music by "The Wilburne boys" and Mr. Marrion Bailey. This band is well known all over the county. We feel sure of good music. All lovers of fun and good music are invited to be present.
ETTA RAWLINSON, Teacher.

Tuesday's Locals.
J. P. Mangham, of Melrose, was in town this morning.
The school at Trinity has been suspended until summer on account of sickness.
Geo. F. Fuller, Esq., of Martinsville, spent yesterday in the city on business.
T. F. Richardson, a substantial farmer and good citizen, of Appleby, was in the city yesterday buying plow tools, grain, garden seeds, etc. preparatory to beginning a new crop.
Judge Ingraham has so far recovered from his long spell of sickness as to be able to come down town.
These cold, crisp mornings are bracing and will doubtless prove conducive to the general health of the people.
M. J. Dooley, local agent of the H. E. & W. Ry., has gone to Fort Worth to bring his family to Nacogdoches.
Mr. W. W. Nettles, of Linn Flat, was in the city this morning. He brought in the last of his cotton crop of 1901, and says he sold it for less than he got for the rest of his crop, yet it brought 8 1-4 cents. Mr. Nettles also sold 96 pounds of lard which he obtained from one hog. He reports an epidemic of measles and whooping-cough in his community as well as a great deal of the gripe.
Mrs. Stanley, the woman who was reported dangerously sick in the little house in the Davidson pasture, died yesterday afternoon and was buried to-day in the City cemetery. In her last illness she had the tender care and ministrations of kind, christian ladies, as well as the best of medical attention, but her malady was beyond the control of human hands. She leaves a sorrowing husband and a motherless babe to mourn her untimely death.

Cotton Statement.
There is now on hand in the various cotton yards of Nacogdoches 5791 bales of cotton as follows:
Compress 1386
Sturdevant's yard..... 1634
Sanders' yard..... 680
Alliance yard..... 1150
Heath & Muller's yard... 15
Taylor's yard..... 411
Matthews' yard 515
Total 5791
The total shipment to date is 24,140 bales, which includes 2319 bales of transient cotton, shipped here from other points to be compressed.
It is estimated that there are still 2500 bales in the country yet to be marketed.
Cutting Scrape.
Alex Davis and Frank Johnson had a difficulty yesterday out on the Loco, in which Johnson received a severe gash under the jaw extending across the throat, barely missing the jugular vein. Davis was arrested by Deputy sheriff Hall and put under a two hundred dollar bond for his appearance for examining trial before Justice Peevey next Tuesday.
D. A. Bridwell, of Toliver, was in the city today.

That Douglass Row.
The telephone message from Douglass that was mentioned in THE SENTINEL and created a good deal of uneasiness here, proved to be in part a false alarm. There was no serious row at Douglass, but there had been a serious cutting scrape among some negroes on the farm of R. O. Moore, three miles from Douglass, and a message was sent from Douglas for Sheriff Spradley to come out there. Sheriff Spradley returned to town this morning bringing with him two colored boys named Barrett, who are charged with cutting another darky named Whitaker. Sheriff Spradley reports that Whitaker is the worst cut up negro he ever saw, but that the wounds may not prove fatal. The Barrett boys were placed under bond to await an examining trial.

EDITOR SENTINEL:
Nacogdoches, Texas.
Hello! How is every thing in Nacogdoches by this time? Received my paper this morning which was, and always is, gladly received. From some cause I failed to get my paper last week, probably being lost after delivery at the Hall mail box, such cases happen very often.
I look forward to the coming of THE SENTINEL, which day is Saturday, sometimes not till Sunday, with much anticipation. It's like a letter from home. In fact THE SENTINEL is the paper to say the least of it.

Jackson sustained a loss of $100,000 last Monday night, 18th inst., caused by fire. The opera house building burned in which were the Second National Bank, the two Express Companies' offices, American and Southern, and several law offices and insurance agents offices and the Pythian barber shop.
We are kept under very strict rules in school, but Friday being a national holiday we were turned loose to run wild. Friday night a reception was given at the Hall and every one present reported an enjoyable time.
Am making very good progress in my work. Well pleased with my surroundings.
Hope to be back to dear old Nacogdoches before very long better prepared to fight the battles of life.
Yours Respectfully,
DAVID GREER.
Dick Head, Lee Hand, Jim Legg and Tom Foote, were visitors in the city yesterday.
T. P. Chorán, the woodman had the misfortune to loose a fine mule yesterday. It died of colic in Ish's wagon yard. Mr. Chorán wants to buy another good mule immediately.
A long distance telephone has been established at Black Jack, also one at the railroad camp on the Angelina river. The telephone at Mr. Hayter's was taken out some time ago but has been put back again.
