AWFUL SCENES OF ST. PIERRE.

Lava Honeycombed With Dead and Debris Remain to Tell the Tale.

New York, May 12. Cables reaching here today from the West Indies show that the Martinique disaster surpasses all that the most imaginative can conceive.

Searchers on the former site of St. Pierre find only a huge mass of smoking lava beneath which the residents of the town are entombed in death.

It will require many weeks to clear this away, if it were done.

In some places the lava solidified and only a mass of impregnated rock composed of pebbles in the heart of which rest the remains of the victims. In other places the lava is so hot that it is still molten.

The lava, Mount Pelee volcano, set at work with the awful havoc of death reaped on the town and even those at work endeavoring to save the debris of the town. The lava is now so hot that it is still molten. The lava is now so hot that it is still molten.

THE ST. PIERRE HORROR

Fifty Thousand People Perish Beneath Molten Lava.

Each message for adds to the frightful picture.

The government this morning received dispatches from several of the islands near Martinique, and these have forever driven from the breasts of people the last vestige of slight hope that anything so terrible might be possible.

Governor Merin cables from Guadeloupe today that only thirty persons were rescued, and these were taken from vessels in the harbor and are said to have been connected with shipping.

The gunboat Suchet, which brought the first tidings from the island, he wires will leave that point today with sugar for Martinique.

The vessel has been hastily loaded with supplies, and she is manned to the limit with rescues.

A London cable reaching here this morning says Lloyd's agent at St. Lucia, West Indies has fully confirmed the destruction of St. Pierre, as well as a good portion of the entire island, along with the whole population of the city and all vessels in the roadstead.

This agent places the loss of life in St. Pierre alone at 30,000.

He also says that relief has been dispatched, and every effort will be made to effect a landing today.

Charged With Robbery.

Three men were jailed yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Walters, who were arrested near Mahl on a charge of robbery.

It is said that the victim was relieved of about eight dollars. There were four men arrested but one succeeded in making an appearance bond and was released.

Robt. Burk had a close call yesterday evening when the ice wagon, horse and himself were all jerked off the bridge near the compass.

The cause of the accident was the runaway horse hitched to J. H. Thomas' delivery wagon, which collided with him on the bridge. There was no chance, nor even time, to get out of the way. Both horses were hurt and both wagons demolished, and it is miraculous that Robert escaped without serious injury.

THE KARNIVAL OF KOMMERCE.

The committee are now at work and nothing will be left undone to make the carnival a success. Already the railroads have expressed a willingness to cooperate with us as the following will show:

Houston, Texas, May 6.
R. W. Haltom:

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of 5th, inst requesting rate to the Carnival of Commerce to be held at Nacogdoches May 21 23 inclusive.

My telegram of even date to our agent in Nacogdoches relative to these dates interfering with rates we have already announced to the Neptune Carnival at Galveston.

After considering your letter I thought possible it would be better, if convenient to you to change your dates. I am very grateful to know that you have done so, as per receipt of telegram I have just received from our agent at Nacogdoches.

When we are through with our Galveston Excursion, if you will advise me of what dates you will have the Carnival of commerce in Nacogdoches. I assure you of my hearty co-operation in your enterprise.

I will make the very lowest possible rates I can consistently do for your Carnival. I hope So P. Ry. will do like-wise from points on their T. & N. O. line.

Again thanking you, I remain,
Yours truly,

WM. DOHERTY,
A. G. P. A.

Especially low rates will be given by the railroads and increased accommodations will be put on the passenger service for this occasion. It may be that special trains will run so as to arrive in the morning and depart in the evening. All this will be looked after later.

There will be no objectionable nor dangerous features in the programme. The management profiting by past experience will exercise all due caution for the safety of the public.

There will be special attention given to the public comfort. Camping grounds will be provided for those who come from the distance and hotel accommodations will be provided for those who may want to "board" with us a few days. The program will be enlarged and planned on a more elaborate scale and the festivities will be better, brighter, and more enjoyable.

It is every individual duty to help make the Carnival a success.

BRET HART, the renowned American author, died in London on the 5th inst.

THE Beaumont brokers and oil men are stoutly denying the report that the oil gushers there are weakening.

The excursion rate to the Neptune Carnival at Galveston May 17th has been fixed at $2.50 for the round trip.

The secretary of state has granted a permit to do business to the Texas petroleum and Liquid Fuel company of London, England; capital stock $1,250,000.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON is dead. He passed away at his home in Washington Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The immediate cause of his death was a severe hemorrhage.

THE result of the election on the bond question shows clearly that the people of Nacogdoches county are not ready for the question of building a new court house yet, and they don't seem to care much whether we have any jail or not.

THERE will be hot times in the ranks of the Texas republicans pretty soon. The summary removal of Dr. John Grant from the marshalship of the Eastern Texas District is calculated to raise a rumpus that will make Teddy show his teeth some more.

THE attention of the editor has been called to a discrepancy which appeared in our report of the democratic primaries, in giving the vote in the race for county attorney and justice of the peace of Prec. No. 1. The exact vote is as follows: For county attorney, Strong, 1554; Layton, 626. For justice of the peace, Peevey, 510; Jones, 481.

STRANGERS coming to this city will judge us by these two points, of lights and cleanliness, or the lack of them, and if these matters are not attended to the Carnival will be useless as an advertising medium for Nacogdoches. Before we hold the Carnival the town should be cleaned up and lighted. The street leading to the depot ought to have had electric lights long ago.

There is very little danger of overproduction of farm crops this year, for the general scarcity that exists will make a demand that can only be fully met by full crops of everything. People and domestic animals are subsisting on short rations, and that is good for the appetite, so that when production and the demand for products meet on a normal basis more will be consumed. Therefore let us tickle the soil and make it smile with gladness and laugh abundance.—Farm and Ranch.

It is stated that more than half of all the newspapers in the world are printed in English, and in the United States newspapers are printed in 24 different languages. It thus appears that while the English have been scattering themselves all over the world in a Journalist way we have been absorbing everything into our own country. If newspapers in every other part of the globe were suppressed, the United States could furnish every race with a live Journal printed in its own language.—Galveston News.

THE press dispatches announce that the peace situation with South Africa is developing encouragingly. We have heard this a few times before.

JOHN AYCOCK, the missing printer has turned up safe and sound at Lake Charles. If John don't quit playing these pranks his friends will have him sent to the lunatic asylum one of these days.

WITH her oil, rice, fruit, tomatoes and cabbage, added to her corn, cotton, wheat, oats, etc., to say nothing of her timber, iron and coal, is enough to make Texas the greatest commonwealth in this Union, which she is.

BEAUMONT turned on her gushers Wednesday to prove that the report that they wouldn't gush was not true. Of course a great deal of oil was wasted, for they all gushed, but the lie was nailed and the Beaumont boom was "oiled" again.

THE new wholesale grocery company organized in Nacogdoches is attracting attention of our Shreveport neighbors. Uncle Buck Lacy says Shreveport thinks it will cut that city out of a great deal of trade. He thinks the influence of the railroad commission laws give Nacogdoches considerably the advantage over Shreveport in the East Texas territory, and only the fact that Shreveport is situated so as to get a water freight rate from the distant markets will enable her to compete with Texas wholesale concerns such as the one in question.

Holds Up A Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and week, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Stripling Hazlewood & Co.

EAST TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The time for holding the second meeting of the East Texas Press Association is drawing near and Lufkin can begin to prepare for a rousing time. "Us" editors are anxious to see the sights surrounding a penitentiary and also to pay Jacksonville a brief call during the great fruit shipping season so that we can tell our people all about the wonderful incomes to be secured from diversified farming. It is now up to Lufkin to name the program and the boys will do the rest.—Logansport Journal.

It is due Lufkin the right to name a date most convenient to that city, and as president of the association we shall be pleased to issue the call in obedience to her wishes, for any date in June. It is proper that the executive committee should hold a meeting a month in advance of the meeting of the association, therefore the said committee are hereby notified to meet in Lufkin on Saturday, May 17th, 1902, for the purpose of transacting such business as may come within its duty. Said committee is composed of the following members of the association: V. V. Daniels, Lufkin Tribune; R. E. Yantes, Athens Review; John McLendon, Timpson Bulletin; and S. H. McGary, Beaumont Journal.

Members who have not paid their dues will please forward $1.00 to J. D. Ford, secretary of the association, Timpson, Texas.

R. W. HALTOM,
Pres. E. T. P. A.

THE Mexia Evening News wants to organize an East press association, and has writ a piece about it and has sent this office a marked copy. We have to inform Brother Houx that East Texas already has a well organized press association, of which the editor of this paper is president. It will hold its next regular meeting at Lufkin in June, and our esteemed brother is invited to come over and join us. There is no way to keep us from having the biggest time he ever saw.—Nacogdoches SENTINEL.

If Brer Houx ain't agoin, ter use that invitation he might give her to us; we'd be jest tickled ter death ter set around an watch yeh have that big time.—Houston Post.

Of course The Post is included, but as the East Texas Press Association is for "white folks," the question as to whether or not the cullud porter in the Post office wrote the above will have to be settled before the solicited transfer of invitation can be made. It is up to Lufkin.

THE Farm and Ranch says, "The truck and fruit growers of south Texas are anticipating a rousing and enthusiastic meeting at Victoria on May 6th and 7th. Every local association affiliating with the South Texas Association is expected to have a delegation there. Dr. S. A. Knapp, of Lake Charles, is to be there, and will probably tell the people something about rice. S. F. B. Morse, of Sunset-Central lines, will be there and will talk, and while doing so will say something. If John Howard fails to attend the meeting will be short a volume of facts, and a large information about the tenure of land and what the country needs to getrid of in order to prosper. Victoria is a good town for such meeting as this, and the country around there is as good as the town. The business men of that town also know a thing or two, one of which is that their prosperity depends upon that of the farmers and stock-raisers, and they will welcome this meeting and do all they can to make it bear fruit."

FRIDAY'S LOCALS

I. N. Buckner, of Chireno, was here today.

J. M. Payton, of Keachi, La., was in the city last night.

Eugene Harmon, of San Augustine, was here yesterday.

Mr. A. J. Harris of Melrose, is in Nacogdoches today.

Mrs. Ida Cottingham leaves today for Wells after a short stay in the city.

Mrs. C. B. Patton and sister, of Melrose are in the city shopping.

W. W. Mason, of Dallas, is in the city. He is canvassing Nacogdoches county for a lightning rod company.

W. T. Skeeters, a leading merchant of Appleby, spent yesterday in the "hub" on a business visit.

Mr. J. C. Ammons and lady, of San Augustine county, were in the city this morning on a trading trip.

The brick work on the Perkins block is getting up above the foundation. The Hall building is advancing rapidly.

John Noel Roberts, of Alazan, was in town this morning. He says it is almost as dull out there as it is in Nacogdoches.

Mr. German Kennard is able to be in town again. He still uses crutches, but there is no danger of his being permanently lamed, as was feared at first.

J. H. Parks, the railroad contractor, came in off the line of the T. & N. O. this morning. He is now camped away out beyond Mahl. Mr. Parks says the rain this week set railroad work back about seven days.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Clifton, who are still in Dallas, says that Mr. Clifton is able to be out again. They will remain in Dallas a few days et.

The Board of Trade will meet at the opera house tonight at 8 o'clock.

The rubbish on the burned block will soon be moved off to give place for new buildings.

J. O. Martin, of Martinsville, was in the city on a short business visit this afternoon.

E. A. Blount is figuring on plans for the new building on corner of Church and Main street.

Mrs. H. A. Tilman, of Longview, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Richardson, and will remain here two weeks.

Mayer & Schmidt are moving their heavy hardware, etc. into the big warehouse of Seale & Donegan, which they have leased.

Mrs. Gerald left this morning for Beaumont.

Commissioners court will convene in regular session next Monday. They will count the votes of the bond election and see exactly how deep the bond proposition was buried beneath the snow.

Tobe Garrett, of Dallas, passed through Nacogdoches yesterday on his return home from a visit to San Augustine, his native home. He was called there by the death of his mother, mention of which has been made in these columns.

H. S. Edler left this morning for Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago, where he will remain in the market until the tomato crop along the H. E. & W. T. Ry. is disposed of. It is estimated that the crop this year along this line will bring the snug sum of at least a hundred thousand dollars, the bulk of which comes to Nacogdoches. This will be a nice little "wad" to help run through the dull summer season.

Mrs. S. C. Kelley left yesterday for Arp, Texas, to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lacy and daughter returned to their home in Crockett today.

B. N. Pleasant, of Union City, Tenn., returned home this morning after a two weeks visit to relatives.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Perkins Bros.

NET LAST NIGHT.

The committeemen appointed by Manager H. F. Tucker held a meeting pursuant to call of the leader, at the office of Lindsey & Harris last night.

There will be an entertainment by home talent at the opera house on the second night of the Carnival and an old fiddlers' contest is billed for the third and last night.

George King was placed at the head of the committee on public comfort and was instructed especially to provide seats around the public walk and all along the side walks for the comfort of visitors.

An invitation has been extended Gov. Sayers to visit Nacogdoches during the Carnival and other noted persons will be invited.

Nearly every business house and office in town has already been listed among those who will decorate their premises.

Floats enough to make a procession a mile long have already been put down, and there will be a score or so of decorated buggies and bicycles.

All the different lodges in the city will be invited to go in the parade, and the Red Men have already promised to get in the procession.

There will be many attractive features that will be named as the committee progresses with the formulation of plans.

Tribute to Mr. Hood.

"Mr. Hood was our friend and neighbor in the days of our childhood, he taught our class in Sabbath school, and when a small boy he wanted to take our sack of corn off, and place it back when ground. We knew him to be an upright, true, and Godly man.

Six Big Ships.

The report of the House naval committee, accompanying the naval appropriation bill gives the naval program for 1903.

The total number of vessels in the navy built and building is 138, the cost of which is $235,083,209.

Provision has been made for two first-class battleships of the highest type, having a displacement of 16,000 tons. Exclusive of armor and armament, the cost of these will be $4,212,000 each.

The bill contemplates increase of the enlisted force by 3000 men and an increase in the number of cadets at the naval academy to 500.

An important provision in this bill is that the secretary of the navy may, in his discretion, build all the new ships in government yards, but it is mandatory upon him to build at least one battleship or one armored cruiser in such yards, and he must keep an accurate account, so that the cost of government work may be compared to that done by private contractors.

The Tomato Crop.

At the meeting of the truck growers last Saturday afternoon quite a number of tomatoes in clusters of a half dozen or more were exhibited. Some of them were larger than a hen egg, and it is said by those who have been in other sections that the tomato crop around Lufkin is as promising as was ever looked upon.

Green Hogan Dead.

Mr. E. Hogan was in the city today and informed The SENTINEL of the death of his brother, W. G. Hogan, which occurred at his home near Appleby last night. The deceased was 73 years of age and had been an honored citizen of Nacogdoches county probably half a century.

Miles and His Reputation.

The Providence Journal, a republican paper, referring to General Miles, says: "His course has not been dignified and it has caused him to lose steadily in reputation." Well, General Miles said the beef was bad, and it developed that the beef was bad. Shafter was pursuing a waiting policy at Santiago. Miles took the bull by the horns and ordered him to "wade in."

Schley as "the hero of Santiago bay." It is true the president and the secretary of war rebuked Miles for the reference, but the fact remains, nevertheless, that in the opinion of nine-tenths of the American people, Schley was and is "the hero of Santiago bay."

Miles said that "the war in the Philippines was being conducted with marked severity." Secretary of War Root said it was being conducted on "humane lines," rebuked General Miles for his statement, and to the rebuke by the secretary of war was added an even stronger rebuke by Mr. Roosevelt.

But within a very few days after this rebuke was administered to General Miles, revelation showed not only that the war in Philippines was being conducted with "marked severity," but that the secretary of war knew that to be the fact for at least several weeks before he rebuked General Miles for stating the truth.

General Miles may have been altogether too plain and blunt in his statements of fact, but with all his bluntness he has not lost anything in reputation so far as concerns the opinion of the American people.—The Commoner.

A Plea For Two Umpires.

Now that there is a prospect of base ball being played a good deal in Nacogdoches, would it be possible to have two umpires, as in the Northern League? There are three reasons in their favor. First, it is impossible for one man to see all over the grounds at once. At one of the games with Beaumont, while the umpire was looking after a ball in right field to see if it was fair, a runner was coming home without even touching 3rd base. Fortunately the ball was foul or the grand stand would have been after that umpire.

Second, it is almost impossible for people to keep from thinking the umpire favors one side or the other. With each side choosing one that would not be possible.

Third, and most important, is the humanitarian side, which should always be considered in all questions. An umpire is the most lonesome and friendless man on the face of the earth. If one side isn't calling him bad names the other is. There he stands, alone and in peril, both nines hating him and the spectators blaming him with everything, he reminds one of the dying gladiator or Casibiamica, or anybody in danger and no one to help. Now if there were two they could at heart sympathize with each other, and if they are mobbed, fight together. Under the one umpire system no man will umpire more than one game; he cannot, under the awful strain of bearing alone the hate of a multitude without one eye to show a gleam of pity, his mind would give way. Give him one comrade and the case would be different. This is not even a suggestion, we merely ask, is it possible to have two umpires in Nacogdoches.

JUDGE INGRAHAM

Nacogdoches, May 6.

ED. SENTINEL:
I notice in today's paper, and some others, on the third page a double column piece with a picture. The first lines are "A Shabby Representative," and at the bottom, "Haltom & Haltom," on the right is a picture that has struck my fancy. I have mused over it several times and have wondered which one of the editors it was and have satisfied myself it is not Giles and therefore have concluded that it is the senior editor, R. W. Haltom, and the picture strikes me as being the most delicate way of hinting at political aspirations I have ever seen. The man in the picture is nicely dressed and stands with his feet apart, illustrating that he covers the ground he stands on. He has on spectacles and a far away look in his eyes as though he was deeply meditating on some mighty plan of saving the government. The book under his arm bothers me some but the surroundings show that it is a copy of the Congressional Record. Out in front of him is the capitol of the United States of America. In his hand is a small book, which I think is a way bill from Nacogdoches to Washington City and which he seems to be intently studying in order that his feet may not wander from the straight and narrow path that leads from one of these places to the other. Now, I am in favor of the Hon. S. B. Cooper this time, but if my interpretation of the picture is correct and your aspirations are such as this picture indicates to me, then I will be for you and support you as assiduously as you seem in the picture to be studying the book you have in your hand.

Wishing you all success, I remain your friend,
GEO. F. INGRAHAM.

PARRISH-LINDSEY.

On Wednesday night, May seventh, 1902, surrounded by flowers and with the Baptist church crowded to its utmost capacity with their friends, Mr. Clyde Parrish and Miss Goulder Lindsey were married, Rev. William T. Tardy performing the ceremony. The wedding was beautiful. Above the white silk cushion on which the bride and groom knelt was a bell of Magnolia blossoms and crimson roses, the roses festooning into garlands on each side. As Mrs. Robt. Lindsey began softly playing the wedding march, the first bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Bowers and her escort, Mr. Homer Kennard entered, each by a separate door, meeting at the altar steps and grouping back of the altar. They were followed in the same order by Miss Gusta Ray and Mr. Rives, Miss Mary Weeks and Mr. Jim Seale, Miss Clytie Harris and Mr. Ben Wilson. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Rosine Shindler, bearing an immense bouquet of La France roses. The notes of the wedding march grew louder. Tiny little Geneva Harris, with a basket containing the ring, took her place on the left of the group. Maggie and Ellice Harris, flower girls, followed, strewing roses on both paths.

The wedding march rang out a triumphant peal, and advancing up one flower strewn aisle came the groom elect, escorted by his best man, Mr. Eugene Blount, and on the other side, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Robt. Lindsey, came the fair bride elect all in misty white. On reaching the altar the music ceased and in an impressive silence Mr. Tardy began the ceremony. As the couple knelt to receive the ring, softly and sweetly "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" was wafted from the organ. The prayer of benediction was uttered and proudly and happily Mr. Parrish led his girl wife from the church. The bridesmaids were all in white organdie, as were the flower girls and little Geneva, who were fairy like little figures.

The bride's dress was white silk tissue over white silk with veil and orange blossoms. As she stood in her timid child-like beauty at the altar, "she was a sight to make an old man young."

The bride and groom were the recipients of numberless beautiful presents, attesting the popularity of the young couple.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered by Mr. and Mrs. June Harris to the bridal party and a few other guests. Thus ended one of the prettiest weddings Nacogdoches has ever seen. That the flower strewn path may be typical of their path through life, and that light, happiness and friends may always surround them, is the wish of all who know them.

Mr. Irion was chief of ceremonies, ably assisted by the two manly little ushers, Wilson Rettig and Audley Harris.

THURSDAY'S LOCALS.

Mr. Leonard, of Muhl, is in the city.

Mr. W. F. Whitaker, of Nat. is in the city today trading.

J. G. Ross who lives near Mt Enterprise is in town today trading.

M. M. James, Mrs. Wallace Ireson's father, is in the city today.

B. Paine of Nat, one of the most prosperous farmers in the county, was in the city yesterday.

Col. E. M. Weatherly, of Appleby, was in the city this morning.

Mr. R. Klease is in town again, he has been absent about a week on a trip for his house.

Mansfield Crawford was in town today, and added another name to THE SENTINEL'S subscription list at Linn Flat.

R. O. Ferguson returned at noon today from a business trip to Chireno. He says crops were never more promising in the eastern portion of Nacogdoches county than at present.

The Daisy Club have already planned their floats for the Carnival. If it doesn't take first prize it will tie for it, for fifteen Daisies are going to decorate it, and they are clever little Daisies.

Our friend Robert Brewer, of Looneyville, was in town last night. Mr. Brewer is himself quite an old man, considerably past 60, but he brought us a message from his father Uncle Johnny Brewer, and said the "old man" was hale and hearty as "as peart as a cricket".

The little old wooden saloon on north side of the public square is another old landmark that will be a thing of the past after today.

Will Bridwell came near meeting with a serious accident at the box factory this morning. While operating the saws one of his hands was slightly cut. The hand was injured so that Mr. Bridwell will not be able to work for several days.

All the committees will get down to work on the Carnival from now on. None of them will be permitted to take "no" for an answer.

Jesse Bruton, of Douglass, who has been in town several days for treatment of his lame foot, returned home this morning, his foot having improved so he can walk with little pain. A week or more ago, Mr. Bruton stuck a thorn in his toe resulting in almost necessitating the amputation of the injured member.

Miss Alice Schmidt entertained the Chataqua Club last night after the wedding.

Why don't you join the Nacogdoches Brotherhood Association? It is good life insurance.

Two of the Rathbone Sisters met at the Temple last night—the Most Excellent Chief and Mistress of Records. It is presumed all the other Sisters went to the wedding. This not the best way to build up an interest in the order, which is one of the very best organizations and merits more thoughtful consideration.

Chas. Perkins has gone to Dallas on a business trip.

L. C. Brown, of Martinsville, was in town this morning on a trading trip.

W. N. Bailey returned this afternoon from Tenaha where he closed out his vehicle and dry goods business to O. H. Polley & Co.

Mrs. Felix McKnight, of Douglass is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dode Sanders.

Mr. John C. Lacy, of Crockett is here visiting his daughter Mrs. D. H. Barnett. His wife and daughter, Miss Hertense, are with him.

Jas. Mullens left this morning for Omen, Smith county, where he will spend several days visiting his mother and friends.

R. H. Baxter, of Looneyville, spent last night in the city. He came down yesterday on business.

Obituary.

C. C. Rogers, sr., a long time citizen of Lillbert community, died at his home on Sunday, May 4th. Mr. Rogers was a good man and well respected by all who knew him. He has raised a family of children, all of whom are grown, that reflect the honest characteristics of their father. Six children and his wife are left without his loving counsels, protecting care and guiding hands. He was a christian gentleman, a member of the Missionary Baptist church and always at his place in his church on preaching days. He was a true friend, a good neighbor and just and fair in all his dealings, even with those men and things to which he stood opposed. But he is dead—gone to his reward. Let him rest in peace until the resurrection day, when he shall awake with all the sleeping nations of the earth.
G. W. C. SELF.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our older little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkey Hall, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by Perkins Bros.

Move Them Logs.

I wish someone who owes me a big bill and don't have much idea of settling it today would go up North street between George Partin's and Mr. Baker's and move a log pile that is in the middle of the street and I will give them a receipt. There were some children out driving yesterday evening and run into the log pile and came very near having a serious runaway. Grown folks can get out and lead their teams around such things, but children don't think to do it.
Respectfully,
W. N. BAILEY.
