Trusses

That Do Not Chafe.

A truss that chafes is a nuisance. If it were fitted properly it would not chafe. As we fit them, they fit so perfectly and comfortably that you almost forget that you have a truss on at all. Come and let us examine your old truss and see what's the matter with it.

RURAL FREE DELIVERY.

Nothing Definitely is Given out Officially As to Our Prospects.

It will be some little bit perhaps before anything definite is known as to what disposition will be made of the petition for free rural delivery for Nacogdoches. Mr. A. L. Thompson, special agent for the establishment of rural free delivery routes, left yesterday afternoon after spending several days here looking into the matter, inspecting the roads and making examinations of several applicants as carriers. He would give out nothing in the way of information, however, and we will have to remain in darkness as to final results of his visit until the government sees fit to enlighten us.

Mr. Thompson's visit could not have been timed to find the roads in worse condition than they are at present, but it will doubtless make allowance for the damage done by the recent rains. He did remark that we had two routes to our credit, whatever that means.

MILITIA AT HENDERSON.

Three Companies Called Out to Protect Negro from Mob.

Henderson, July 21.—For the first time within the history of Henderson it became necessary on yesterday to call out the State militia for the protection of a prisoner. Briscoe Frederickson, the negro charged with criminal assault upon the 17-year-old daughter of a prominent citizen of Rusk county, was placed in the jail Sunday evening under escort of the Henderson Rifles. The negro had been kept in hiding for several days, and such demonstrations had been made that Sheriff Hale thought more troops would be necessary, and the Governor ordered out the military companies of Tyler, Marshall and Henderson. Within thirty minutes after receiving orders the Henderson Rifles were ready for service, and by 12 o'clock Sunday night both the Tyler and Marshall companies were on the ground. Major Rains, of Marshall, is in command of the troops and a strong guard has been posted around the jail. The trial is set for this evening and so no demonstrations have been made today.

THE JAIL MIDDLE.

Sheriff Spradley Speaks His Opinion Upon The Situation.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

In matters of public concern, like the "jail middle," as you see fit to term it, I presume you want to do your duty as a lawabiding citizen, and be governed by law and facts surrounding the question. If I am direct in the discharge of my official duty as sheriff, or if I am violating the law or the mandate of a legal order I am anxious to know it, as I want to do my full duty to the best interest of the people. I am acting in good faith and keeping in the path of the law and will forfeit $100 to any one that can prove to the contrary.

The commissioners court has no authority to make an order for the sheriff to remove prisoners to another county for safe keeping, and I would violate the law and lay myself liable for a damage suit in case of an accident to the prisoners. Someone has said, "Campbell removed Smith to Rusk jail." That is true, but it was done on the order of the governor, and the county was two years paying for it. I am standing by the law, my oath and my bondsmen.

Somebody is wrong about this jail proposition. The law says that the commissioners' court shall provide safe jails and keep them in good repair and in clean condition. Our old jail has been in bad condition for four years or more and no effort has been made to repair it, and the court wont discuss the matter.

The jail was full of prisoners before the last term of district court, many of whom were sentenced to the penitentiary. I put a guard at the jail to hold them till court, and when the commissioners met they ordered me to remove the guards. The sheriff cannot legally keep guards at the jail without the consent of the commissioners court or county judge. When a person is fined and committed to jail he is then the subject of the county judge and he alone has jurisdiction over them. Most of the prisoners that escaped from jail were county convicts and were hired to the city by the Judge and were worked daily under a guard and put in jail at night. In such cases the county is losing its fines and the officers their cost. Again I ask who is to blame for it and who can remedy it?

Mr. Barron offered to repair the jail and put it in a safe condition but the bid was promptly rejected. The steps to the rear of the courthouse rotted down and you could not climb into the courthouse. In vacation I had new steps made and the bill was two dollars and fifty cents, and the commissioners held a court of enquiry before they would pay the bill.

Read articles 3132 and 3133 of the statute and see if the commissioners court are doing their duty. The judge of the commissioners court has license to practice law, and he certainly is not acting in ignorance. Take a peep and a smell behind the courthouse and around the jail. It is a garbage pile and a wilderness of weeds. Go to any other jail yard in the State and you will see the cleanest place in the town or city. A picture of the rear of Nacogdoches' courthouse and around the jail ought to be taken and hung up as a warning, like Dante's sign that was hung over the gate of hell. "Abandon hope, all ye that enter here."

Now, let us change the picture, repair the jail, put in sewer pipe, tear away the stinking old closet and build another with water attachments to keep it clean, and connect it with the jail sewer. Build a new fence around the jail that will prevent loafers from placing tools in the jail for prisoners, to break out with; haul away the garbage from the jail yard, cut down the weeds and make it as clean as a city park, which can be done with the convicts that are loafing around town and will change the stench yard with its death-breeding germs to a place of beauty. No one can do this with authority but the commissioners court and in failing to do so are violating their oaths and their obligations to the people. No one doubts that there are wrongs to rectify and whoever is to blame should be held responsible for it.

Very Respectfully,
A. J. SPRADLEY.

[We publish the above for the sake of discussion, not argument. We take it that the county judge and the commissioners are just as honest and earnest in the desire and effort to do their duty according to law as Mr. Spradley is. It strikes us that he is exacting everything of the court and county judge and nothing from himself. If all these duties are to be performed by the county judge, what's the use to have a sheriff? Why not abolish the office altogether? As the custodian of the courthouse, we always thought it the sheriff's duty to keep the premises clean. If this duty was made compulsory, which it really ought to be, we'll venture the assertion that not one of the present candidates will withdraw from the race.]

SAN AUGUSTINE NO. 306

Is the Name of the New Lodge K. of P. at San Augustine.

C. W. Butt, J. D. McKnight, Chas. E. Davis, F. H. Tucker, G. B. Engledow, D. K. Cason, Chas. Hoya and B. S. Wettermark returned yesterday afternoon from San Augustine, where they instituted a new lodge Knights of Pythias. They had a great time and a barrel of fun, though they worked hard to get through in one day and night. Thirty-one "strangers" were initiated in the Bank of Page; sixteen pages were advanced to the Rank of Esquire and then charged in the high and chivalric Rank of Knight. These sixteen having "reached the summit," were left to put the finishing touches upon the fifteen pages who were not advanced for want of time. The new lodge starts out with a membership of 34 and under favorable auspices. The entire membership is enthused and as lodges are not so numerous in the Red Land City, we expect to see San Augustine rise rapidly to the front ranks of Pythianism.

Following officers were elected: R. C. Burk, C. C.; W. J. Garrett, V. C.; S. M. Davis, P.; J. N. Aldridge, W. of W.; Larkin Day, K. of R. & S.; Eugene Harrison, M.

at A.; Mack Cartwright, M. of E.; J. W. Slaughter, M. of F.; W. E. Hicks, I. Q.; Floyd Matthews, O. G.

The Nacogdoches team were assisted by four Knights From Logansport and two from Center.

The Nacogdoches crowd speak in loudest praise of the people and the hospitable treatment bestowed upon them while in the Red Land City.

Dallas had another hundred thousand dollar fire Sunday. It took the main exposition building and music hall at the fair grounds. This is a severe blow to the State Fair; as the buildings were not insured for half their cost. The origin of the fire is not known.

S. W. MALCOM, Editor.

The oil field at Jennings, La., is on fire and all attempts to check the furious flames are fruitless so far. An attempt is being made to smother the flames with the steam from 25 boilers.

The strike among freight handlers at Chicago has ended and the congestion in traffic has been relieved. The men returned to work without an adjustment of differences, and a more stubborn strike than the one just closed may be looked for almost any moment.

TIMPSON is holding railroad meetings in the effort to secure the proposed road from Tyler, Texas, to Alexandria. Wonder if it ever occurred to the people of Nacogdoches that it might be possible to induce the proposed road to run its line through Nacogdoches?

The strike situation at Houston is growing more serious. The S. P. tinner have walked out, and it is feared the complications will include the local organizations in a short while. The shopmen at Beaumont are threatening to strike out of sympathy for the Houston strikers.

THERE is to be a railroad built from Tyler, Texas, to Alexandria, La. Why not make an effort to have the line run through Nacogdoches and on to San Augustine? It would be better for both places than to have it run through Timpson and Center. Those places are making a big effort to secure the new road.

THE typhographical errors that appeared in yesterday's Daily created as much mirth as Miss Crace's smelling contest. It was so dark that we had to bend over the case near-sighted fashion, and it was impossible to read the stick.—Timpson Times.

What's the matter with your electric lights?

WHILE Nacogdoches now has two railroads, she practically has but one, both being under the same system. If there is any chance to get another there should be no effort spared to secure it. It would do us good to have several more. We ought to try for that Tyler and Alexander road, or an extension from the Cotton Belt.

THE nominating convention at the 2nd Judicial district will meet in Nacogdoches next Monday. All it has to do is to nominate Wiley Mangum Imboden for District Attorney, pass a Galveston resolution and adjourn. The convention is called at a date that conflicts with so many other things, like the district court at Center, the insituting of a K. of P. lodge at San Augustine, etc., that the attendance is likely to be very poor.

It may be the Schwab idea that a mansion in the skies will not be in it with Schwab on earth.

THE PLATFORM.

The State democratic platform embraces the following outlines:

The majority report declares faith in the Kansas City platform.

It favors proper regulations regarding county roads.

Favors the reenactment of uniform text book laws.

Calls for generous appropriations for all educational institutions.

Favors the taking of schools out of politics.

Reiterates the demand for a constitutional amendment making trustee appointments for two, four, six and eight years.

For a textile school at the A. & M. College.

Opposes trusts and mergers.

Favors a riparian law to foster rice and other great industries.

Favors a constitutional amendment for chartering State banks of discount and deposit.

Favors such laws on child labor as may be deemed necessary.

Approves the labors of the World's Fair commission.

Favors such laws as will prevent the evils of free passes.

Declares against the dismissal of subordinates without adequate cause.

Demands uniform primaries in stringent terms.

Favors Galveston relief for 13 additional years.

WE have builded wisely for the future of Nacogdoches in our schools. We are providing for the needs of a larger city than we now see, in the street car line. And now should we not look into the future again and enlarge the water works system, putting hydrants in the business portion of town, so the water supply will be adequate for the growth of the city, and for fire protection even now. The mains and piping were too small even when first put in, and the amount of water used has nearly doubled since then. We need good fire protection, the expense cannot be urged against it for an instant. One might just as well urge the expense of a physician when ill. Fires and funerals come higher. Besides which it will be no expense, but an absolute saving in the matter of insurance. This matter of safety from fire lies too near the best interest of our people to be dropped until it is settled and settled right.

Well dressed America last year wore out over $10,000,000 worth of collars and cuffs and $5,000,000 worth of shirts. The reports of the census bureau, just made public, show that each shirt outlasted twelve collars and cuffs. It is believed by the San Francisco Bulletin and all suffering wearers of the 121,000,000 collars and cuffs which invariably come back from the laundry with sawtooth edges that 117,000,000 of them are worn out by the laundryman. He "does them up," in more senses than one.—Houston Chronicle.

Sharpe-Shindler.

Friday's Daily.

Christ church was the scene of a brilliant society wedding last night when Mr. Frank Sharpe and Miss Mamie Shindler were married, Rev. G. L. Crockett performing the ceremony.

Bride and groom belong to two of the oldest families in the state, and the church was crowded with their relatives and friends.

Miss Shindler is a most lovely girl, one of Nacogdoches' fairest, and a society favorite. Mr. Sharpe came here a few years ago from San Augustine and is one of the most popular young men in the city.

The attendants were: Eugene Blount and Miss Rosine Shindler, Charley Shindler and Miss Ettie Lou Cox, Frank Tucker and Miss Martha Ingraham, Geo. Meisenheimer and Miss Ethel Hughes of Dallas, with little Laura Blount Chapman and Willie Blount as flower girls. Miss Helen Mims played the wedding march.

After the ceremony a reception was given the bridal party at the residence of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharpe left on the midnight train for Colorado on a wedding journey. On their return they will reside for the present in Nacogdoches, but will make San Augustine their home later on. They were the recipients of innumerable and valuable presents, with the wishes of all that their life may be as cloudless as their wedding day and their golden wedding as happy.

ANOTHER RAILROAD WRECK.

Wild Engines Run into a String of Cars at Center.

Garrison, July 12.—An engine got loose near Center this morning and went wild, dashing up the track at the rate of a hundred miles an hour. It ran into a string of cars on the track and smashed up things generally. No one was hurt.

Base Ball.

Wednesday's game.
Nacogdoches, 021032003—11
Houston, 000001100—2

Nacogdoches' victory was due to fine playing in box, field and at the bat. The only errors made being in the 3rd, when the home team had three runs earned; of the 11 runs scored, 7 were earned.

Wilson pitched a fine game, only allowing 4 safe hits and 3 bases on balls, while the home team batted Morman at will. It was decidedly an off day for Houston. However, the men were not playing in their usual form, and some good playing, notably, Ollery and C. Riley, showed what they can do.

The features of the game were Ingraham's fielding, which was faultless, and the heavy batting by the Nacogdoches team.

C. Riley was spiked in the fifth inning and seemed to be painfully injured; he continued the game, however.

NOTES.

Hardy placed the prettiest safe hit of the season right between short stop and 2nd base and neither could touch it.

Wilson stopped some balls in fine style, and knocked a 2 base hit that counted.

The game ended by a grand stand play. Ingraham making a running jump, catching the ball, putting the third man out and winding up the 9th inning with the game in his hands.

The scarlet suits of the Houston team are striking and attractive.

Hays and Foster made the two runs for Houston.

THURSDAY'S GAME

Nacogdoches, 000 000 101—2
Houston, 033 101 00*—8

Houston rallied from the first days defeat too entergetically for the home team. The game started favorably with Benett getting a safe single, followed by Werner, but a double put both out. Hardy was caught out by left field and Wilson died at second. Houston went out in 1-2-3 order, with two fans to Partins credit. In the 2nd inning Nacogdoches retired in the same order.

Houston went to the bat and with two men out, C. Riley made a safe hit, Childres got to first on an error and two 2 base hits by Riley and Morman scored 3. In the 4th three safe hits and a base on balls gave Houston 3 again. Nacogdoches changed pitchers in the 5th inning, Ingraham going in the box. In the 7th and 9th the home team scored, Stevens making both runs.

Foster was in the box for the visitors. While Nacogdoches got a good many safe hits, the team had hard luck stealing bases and the infield did not play as errorless game as the day before.

Both teams made two doubles.

Foster gave 10 safe hits, fanned 5; no bases on ball.

Partin, 8 safe hits, fanned 4, 1 base on balls.

Ingraham gave 2 safe hits fanned 3, 2 bases on balls.

Errors are not counted; they are accidents, when the home team makes them, and the thing to do, when the other side makes them, and we dont know what head falling over a dog comes under.

Mr. Josey umpired both the first and second games and performed the thankless task with very little dissatisfaction.

Ingraham pitches for Nacogdoches today and Smith for Houston.

FRIDAY'S GAME.

Houston, 10022040*—9

The Nacogdoches team simply went to pieces yesterday. Wilson pitched a pretty good game the first few innings, but seemed to become discouraged by the lack of support and got wild. Bennett played steadily till after the 7th, when nothing made any difference. Ingraham played another errorless game in left field, this time because Houston did not place a single ball in that direction; there was nothing doing in left field.

There was nothing wonderful about Houston's playing that they should have won; Nacogdoches just played worse.

Henry Stack returned from College Station Saturday, where he went to attend the Farmers Congress. He says Hens Burrows took the blue ribbon over all the watermelons on exhibition there, the melons he took with him outweighing by twenty pounds the best sent there from any other place.

OUTLAW TRACY is still at large, though he doesn't especially seem to be hiding out. He drops in on some family whenever he gets hungry, takes a horse back ride or a boat ride whenever he is so inclined, though he is not particular whose horse he rides or whose boat he charts. He keeps out of the way of his pursuers, or rather they have kept out of his way for the last few days, and still he has not gone many miles from the place where he escaped from prison. Nine men have lost their lives in the effort to capture him. $6,500 reward has been offered for him dead or alive. He is a terror to the people throughout a portion of Oregon and Washington. Whenever he bobs up and says "I'm Tracy," they give him what he calls for. At one place where he called for something to eat, the lady of the house managed to let the authorities know where he was through a boy who called to deliver something from town nearby. A posse surrounded the house and the result was four men killed and Tracy escaped without a scratch.

If the public spirited men of Nacogdoches were to go after that Tyler and Alexander railroad, we would have it. There are many such men in our city; men whose energy and acumen have already done wonders, and when this force is added to the many advantages that our town has to offer a railroad, the combination is almost irresistible. Two things are essential to the development of a city. Men who with their capital and head and heart, work for the public good, and that the town should possess natural advantages, of position and good farming country back of it. Of these two the first is the more important. Many a cross roads settlement has grown to a large city in a most unpromising locality because of the pushing energy and the ability of its citizens. But never yet has the most favored spot on earth developed into a city where its inhabitants slumbered. These two essentials we possess. Are we going after that other road, either the T. & A. or an extension from the Cotton Belt?

In the rather chestnutty tradition "Mahomet had to go to the mountain because the mountain would not come to Mahomet," the case is queerly reversed in Nacogdoches. The city has to move out to the people because the people can't move into the city. That is, the city limits have to be extended so as to include those outside that want to sure enough live in Nacogdoches, as the little patch that is incorporated won't accommodate many more.

JUNE corn has gotten a splendid start and is doing well. If a good crop is made the farmers will be helped out considerably.

NACOGDOCHES IS ALL RIGHT.

San Augustine is getting awfully jealous of Bronson, the new town on the Kay See about fifteen miles south of the Red Land City. The Visitor has its bristles up and talks scrappy every time it mentions Bronson.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

And Nacogdoches is getting awfully jealous of San Augustine. The Stone Fort City has controlled the principal part of San Augustine's cotton and trade for these many years, but the tide will turn when the Red Land City gets a road of its own.—Tenaha New Era.

Not so awful jealous. We expect to lose a nice handful of trade, but we hardly think Nacogdoches will go out of business. The ridiculous idea seems to prevail with the New Era, the Visitor and the Lufkin Tribune that with every stride either of those towns takes forward, Nacogdoches must retrograde one step. They have been waisting space in mock sympathy for what they imagined Nacogdoches' troubles that would have yielded better returns in some other cause. Don't fret about Nacogdoches any more, boys. There is plenty for you to do at home. We have two firms in Nacogdoches that do more business in Shelby county than the whole town of Tenaha, as much in San Augustine county as the whole town of San Augustine, and more business altogether than Lufkin, San Augustine and Tenaha combined. They will find a way to mighty near get the big end of the trade still, after you have secured your Kirby road. Nacogdoches will not lose everything in the completion of a railroad to San Augustine. She will not lose her enterprise and pluck. She will not lose her fine farming lands and thrifty farmers, upon whom she has always been dependent. She will not lose her natural advantages and facilities for home enterprises, factories, mills, etc., and she will not lose sight of the fact that a few manufacturing enterprises will add more trade to Nacogdoches than she will lose by a railroad going to San Augustine. She will find a way to hold her own; so you fellows needn't lose any more sleep on our account.

The peach crop is unusually heavy this year, and there seems to be no market beyond the local one for it. The peach growers should organize or join the organization already in existence, and see what they can do in the way of shipping, next year. This county will produce everything on earth—almost. The main point is, to get the produce in marketable shape and then go after the market. We are learning how, and in a few years, Nacogdoches bids fair to rival Tyler and Jacksonville in shipping fruit and truck.

THOSE who went from Nacogdoches to the Farmers Congress say the congress must be attended to be appreciated. They can't begin to describe what they saw and it would take a book to tell what they learned.

OUR CITY'S WEALTH.

The wealth of the city of Nacogdoches, is rapidly increasing. The assessment rolls of City Marshal Spradley show an increase during the past year of nearly one-third of a million dollars in taxable values.

The assessed values for 1904 were $982,311, against $1,294,907 for the present year, an increase of a fraction over 31 per cent.

The total collections of taxes for the past year from all sources amount to $3,393.47, as against $2,502.86 for the year previous, a fraction over 30 per cent increase.

A fine tract of land has been secured near Diboll, Angelina county, by a stock company for a commercial orchard, and five hundred acres will be set out in fruit trees this fall. The promoters of this enterprise tried to locate this orchard in Nacogdoches county, but our land owners got so greedy and ran the price of land so high they drove them away.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Still another reason not stated in the above: When the promoters of this enterprise decided to go into the orchard business on a large scale they naturally desired to invest in lands best suited to fruit growing and recognized that of Angelina as having no superior and few equals.—Lufkin Tribune.

The last is no reason at all. The lands of Angelina county, in fact, will not begin to compare with the lands of Nacogdoches county, generally speaking, for fruit and truck growing. The land desired by this company were more desirable than the land they obtained, but there was not enough difference in the land to justify the difference in the price. Another thing: lands in Nacogdoches are harder to purchase in large bodies than it is in Angelina, and the syndicate referred to wanted land in a large body.

THE quarterly report of the Secretary of the Board of Control of the Endowment Rank Knights of Pythias, of the resources and liabilities on June 30th, 1902, shows liabilities amounting to $312,621.10; resources, (not including monthly dues of $161,219, due July 1st) $393,898.31, leaving a surplus of $127,730. The statement of receipts and expenditures for quarter ending June 30th, shows receipts from all sources $501,022.69; expenditures $339,060.90.

The following certificate is appended to the report: "This certifies that at (the close of business June 30th, 1902, there was on deposit with this bank to the credit of Board of Control, Endowment Rank, Knights of Pythias, the sum of one hundred eighty-five thousand, six hundred eight and 30 one-hundredths dollars ($185,608.30.) First National Bank of Chicago, by C. M. Gillett, assistant cashier, Chicago, July 1st, 1902." Those who hold insurance certificates in the Endowment Rank are as absolutely secure as they could be in the best old line company in the world, and it is a great deal cheaper.

THE weeds are about as diversified as the crops, in town just now. There is an astonishing variety and all thriving.

SUNDAY BALL PLAYING.

The hardest thing on earth for a human being to strike is an average. He either goes too far one way or the other, when the point between the two is the golden mean. There are grave objections to the Puritanical Sabbath, or indeed to the Puritanic way of looking at life. The old blue laws that fined a man for kissing his wife on Sunday called it a christian act to burn witches and whip Quakers, and the strict Sabbatarian is apt to have a bad case of perverted conscience. On the other hand there are graver objections to turning Sunday into a day of the most absolute worldly amusement and having it countenanced by Christian people. Far be it from us to cast one slur upon the National game, to even remotely suggest that it could be improved upon, but this habit that we have gotten into of playing base ball on Sunday is directly responsible for its having fallen into disrepute among a good many people who love the game. It is of no use to argue that the teams would not make money if they did not play Sunday, for, judging by the crowds they draw any day they play, a good game would crowd the park if it was played at midnight by moon light. There are no arguments in favor of the practice of playing Sundays. Like lying, "no good comes of it," and it demoralizes alike those who play and those who go. Nacogdoches, we are proud to say, does not countenance Sunday ball playing at home. She might go farther however, and not lend her support to Sunday games played by her teams abroad. They would not lose a dollar by omitting that day, and they would gain in the opinion of all right thinking people.

ONE of our intelligent contemporaries asserts that the reason a man squeezes a dollar and licks a stamp is, that there is a woman on the dollar and a man on the stamp.

THE head waters of the mighty Mississippi are flooding the country from Koekuk Iowa, southward, and it is estimated that over six million dollars of damage has already been done. The most of the loss is on the Missouri, side between Koekuk and Hannibal.

IT seems that some few folks haven't got a bit more sense than to ride horses across the foot bridge on South Fredonia street. If there is no ordinance against this sort of conduct there ought to be, and it ought to be rigidly enforced to teach such people what common sense has failed to do.

TO WAIT until a railroad is going to come our way just anyhow and hit the town is very much like the man who hunted the woods over for a piece of hickory, bent just right for a grass blade. He died an old man and he never found a limb with just the right crook; and yet there are no lack of scytile handles. The thing is to know how to end them.

THE fire in the oil field at Jennings has been extinguished and the oil men are jubilant. The fire was brought under control by steam and water from a number of engines, and the experiment having proved effectual it is expected that future fires can be managed and quickly extinguished by this process.

THE SENTINEL acknowledged receipt of an invitation to attend a Farmers Institute with an old time Southern barbecue, under the auspices of the Business League of Logansport and Fruit and Truck Growers Association, on Wednesday, July 30th, 1902, at Logansport. If possible we will be glad to help them eat up the barbecue. Maybe we can send a hand any how.

THE East Texas Fruit and Truck Journal says it is not too late to plant June corn. May be not, but it is too late to plant corn in June, and there is mighty little show to make corn in this country planted later than July 1st.

JOHN MACKEY, the California millionaire died at his London home Sunday. Thus closes the life of another mortal who bought his way into society, rising from obscurity to prominence through the influence of the great wealth he attained by accident, as it were. At his death he was surrounded by his wife and her daughters, Countess Telfer and Galatro Colonna. It took a great many millions to get Makey's name mixed up with these high sounding titles.

Skidmore Baptists are conducting a protracted meeting.

MONDAY'S LOCALS.

County court convened today with a large crowd of jurors, witnesses and litigants present.

Dave Bruce, of Garrison, is attending county court.

J. H. Parks of Muhl was in the city Saturday.

W. H. Doggett, of Lutkin, was in the city yesterday.

Last night about 10 o'clock one of the largest meteors ever seen in Nacogdoches passed over the city. Starting from zenith, it swept to the west with a glare like a flash light, and as it disappeared behind the trees was still burning. It evidently fell somewhere instead of burning up and out, as meteors usually do and we will probably hear of it further in the papers.

Dave Parish is in the city today trading.

The meeting at Trinity has been very successful up to date four having joined the church already. Bro McCall came in this afternoon to assist in the meeting.

C. A. Hodges was examined at Center Saturday and was granted license to practice law. He stood a creditable examination and is now ready to practice in all the courts of the 2nd judicial district.

Will Garrison, of Garrison, is attending county court.

The wife of Mr. Jos Mims died at their home two miles southeast from Nacogdoches last Thursday and was buried Friday at Melrose. She leaves a husband and several small children to mourn her death, with whom the entire community sympathizes in their bereavement.

Rho Garrison, of Garrison, is in the city.

Jno. W. Hill, of Appleby, was in the city today.

Quite a crowd from this place went to Melrose yesterday to attend the campmeeting in progress there.

Real Accident.
A deplorable accident occurred on the Texas and Louisiana railroad last Friday afternoon near the Lutkin Land and Lumber company mill, in which Mr. E. A. Carter, fireman on the passenger engine of that road lost his life.

Mr. Carter attempted to board the engine while it was moving, and in doing so slipped and fell under the wheels and was instantly killed. The remains were buried this afternoon at 4 o'clock. He left a wife and three small children, the oldest about five years and the youngest only 14 days, and on Saturday morning to add to the mother's grief her darling infant passed from earth to heaven and was laid to rest beside its father.

Mrs. Carter has the sincere sympathy of the entire community in her great loss and affliction and the Tribune joins in extending condolence.—Lutkin Tribune.

Obituary.
William Anderson Partin son of Thomas and Nancy Partin, was born in Grundy county, Tenn., Oct. 14, 1844, and died at Zavalla, Angelina county, Texas, while on a visit to his daughter, July 10, 1902. He came with his parents to Nacogdoches county when a small boy and lived on the same premises from then till his death. He was the last of four brothers. His mother, his wife and a number of children survive him and he has numerous other relatives who, with his many friends, mourn his loss. He was an honorable, upright man, a kind neighbor, and a loving husband and father. Peace to his memory.

Base Ball.
The score for Saturday's game at Beaumont was 6 to 2 in favor of Beaumont of course we had rather Nacogdoches had won, but this is good ball, for the Beaumont team is admitted to be the strongest team in the state outside of the leagues.

Judicial District Convention.
The democratic convention for the Second Judicial district met this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the office of County Judge Middlebrook. Chairman A. E. Davis, of San Augustine, not being able to be present on account of pressing business elsewhere, at his request J. C. Harris, Esq., of this city called the convention to order. J. C. Harris was elected chairman of the convention, and Robt. Berger was elected secretary.

There was a small delegation present, though every county in the district was represented.

The session was unusually short, the only object being to nominate a candidate for District Attorney.

Hon. W. M. Imboden, of Cherokee county, was nominated by acclamation, having been unanimously instructed for in in the democratic primaries.

Mr. Imboden was present and received the honor of his nomination with his usual grace.

I. D. Fairchild and C. M. McConico were the delegates from Angelina county.

June C. Harris, Esq., represented San Augustine county by proxy.

Cherokee county was represented by Sheriff Reagan and Sam Freidman.

Nacogdoches county's delegation consisted of the democratic members of the bar.

I. D. Fairchild, of Angelina county, was elected chairman for the ensuing two years.

The Visitor's First Born.

There arrived at the home of your humble servant last Friday a brand new editor, weighing 10 pounds, stout, healthy and strong—especially his lungs. The young gent bids fair to make it interesting for all persons living in the same neighborhood with him and to keep his attendants constantly on the alert. The position of the new editor on the Visitor has already been assigned as night editor, and while he is on duty the senior editor will sweep the floors, make up beds, cook and clean—the dishes. Verily, he is a dandy. He sleepeth all the day, but waketh up at night fall for his routine. The light of the candle charmeth him and he layeth awake for hours. He heedeth not to the pettings of his mother, or his grandmother, or his dad, but squalleth the louder. Neither catnip nor paregoric abate his wailings, but he notheth the dawn of day and forthwith goeth to sleep, but the fond parent has to be up and going to provide for his capacity.—San Augustine Visitor.

Wild Man at Many.

It is reported that a wild man has been frequently seen near the Alford mill, five miles south of this place, and that he flees from the approach of any one. Some two months ago a like character was frequently seen on the farm of Mr. Mack Duggan, two miles east, near the Robeline highway.—Many, La., correspondent to Shreveport Times. C. C. Gallaway says the wild man referred to above is Hi Ki, from the Beck Thicket. The very same wild man that got away from him just after the carnival.

MR. HUNTLEY SOLD HIS FARM.
A Lucky Purchaser Secures a Bargain in Land.

Natchitoches, La., July 16.

While the cotton crop throughout the parish is in a fairly good condition, that at Allen and immediate vicinity, is an exception. The crops there are being literally parched, not a drop of rain having fallen since the 1st of May. In consequence the farmers are discouraged. H. A. Huntley yesterday sold to C. E. Greneaux of this town his place near Keniworth, in Red River parish, in its entirety consisting of 900 acres, of which 450 acres are now under cultivation with fine horses and mules, dwelling, out-houses, cabins, store building and contents of stock of merchandise, a fine gin plant, and other accessories of a first-class Red river plantation, for the small sum of $20,000. Mr. Greneaux is being congratulated on his success in making such a bargain. But for the fact that Mr. Huntley was anxious to sell out and go elsewhere to recuperate his health it is doubtful if one could have bought the place for double the price for which it was sold to Mr. Greneaux.

Mr. Huntley has recently made large investments in Nacogdoches real estate and will make this city his future home. He will open an extensive grocery business here as soon as he gets his business affair in Louisiana so that he can concentrate his efforts upon his Nacogdoches interests.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Richardson died Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock and was buried in the city cemetery Sunday afternoon at 5:30. The little one spent only six short days of life on earth, but left quivered hearts that suffer over the loss. THE SENTINEL extends sympathy to the parents in their bereavement.

MOTHERS

TESTIFY TO THE BENEFITS THEIR SICK BABIES HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE USE OF

LAXAKOLA

Having received your sample of Laxakola, was very much pleased with it, and have purchased a bottle for my baby. The Laxakola did wonders for my boy in case of bowel troubles. I have given up castor oil and give my baby nothing but Laxakola. I got it from C. H. & H. A., 215 North Union and Purchase Sts., Nacogdoches, Texas.

CLARENCE CARWELL,
Smith Mills, Mass.

Enclosed please find ten cents in stamps for a bottle of Laxakola. I used your sample bottle and it did all you claim for it, as it helped my baby wonderfully.

Mrs. JOHN PARACHY,
Union Deposit, Duphine Co., Pa.

I wish to thank you very much for the good Laxakola has done my little niece, Marion Louise Bess. She is only two and one-half years old, and has suffered something awful from constipation. She has never had what you would call a natural movement. Sometimes we were almost afraid of convulsions, it hurt her so much, and she would be so frightened.

LAXAKOLA is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties, which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhoea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongues, any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, it is invaluable.

Try it Today. Send for a Free Sample. It may Save your Baby's Life or Prevent a Long and Serious Illness. It Costs Nothing; Send For It and mention Your Druggist's Name.

For Sale by
All Druggists and Retail Stores will express to you a free sample of LAXAKOLA. Address THE LAXAKOLA CO., 215 N. UNION ST., N. Y.

Our neighbors are talking about Nacogdoches' mosback in connection with the new court house and jail proposition in most uncomplimentary terms. It looks a little queer that prisoners arrested on felony charges should be permitted to go at liberty without even an effort to restrain or confine them, as is the case here now. The people have repudiated the proposition to build a new jail; the commissioners court refuses to pay for guards to keep the prisoners and the sheriff refuses to obey the order of the court to transfer the prisoners to an adjoining county. Consequently a half a score of jail breakers are now stalking about with impunity and no effort is made to confine them or re-arrest them. There is seemingly a play for campaign blunder in some of this, but the "lightning rod" has been set up too soon. Of course the people know nothing of the situation among local authorities and are blaming the voters for this state of affairs because of the overwhelming defeat of the proposed issue of all bonds. To say the least of it, Nacogdoches is in a most unenviable attitude just at present.

The citizens who live on the hill known as the "Blount addition" are making an effort to get some new streets. Dr. Campbell has agreed to donate the street through the entire length of his premises to the Aqua Dulce brook, where the street touches June Harris' place. Mr. Harris has promised to move a tenant house at his own expense and donate the street to the end of Virginia avenue, making a continuous street from Cliff Wells' place through to Virginia avenue. W. H. Harris has agreed to give a street extending from Virginia avenue eastward through his place and Mr. E. A. Blount promises to donate half the width of the street through to the railroad, or to give all if the lay of the ground will permit of its use. Now if they secure Mr. David Lee's consent the street will go to Pecan street. This will give a splendid direct route from town to Mr. Wells', avoiding the steep hill and will be of immense value to those who patronize the hill school from the neighborhood of Pecan and Fredonia street, avoiding the hill and switchyards altogether. Let it be done.

J. P. METTEAUR, of Colmesneil, sent up a box of peaches from his orchard at that place, as a sample, showing that the section around Colmesneil is well adapted to fruit culture. The lands in that immediate vicinity, which have been designated of the timber will be brought into use and vast orchards will soon take the place of the state pine.

COME to think about it, it does look a little peculiar that the usual liberal rates were not given by the railroads to the State democratic convention this year.

Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured and which is always kept on hand at the home of ye scribe. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer time.—Lansing, Iowa, Journal. For sale by Perkins Bros.
