NEGRO SHOOTING LAST NIGHT.

Homer Collins Shot Three Times By Bob Hollis.

A shooting took place last night about ten o'clock in the rear of Hartman's restaurant in which Homer Collins was shot twice by Bob Hollis. Both are negro boys about 18 years of age. Three shots were fired by Hollis before Collins could get his gun out, the shot taking effect in the arm and one in the groins, neither of which is considered fatal. The wounded boy ran out through the rear door of the kitchen of the restaurant and fell in the street near the Hotel. The boys had had a falling out for some cause not known and Collins had threatened to kill Hollis. They met in the restaurant and Hollis asked Collins if it was true that he had threatened to kill him. The latter replied that he had and that he would promptly put his threat into execution if he ever caught him in a certain part of town. Hollis then went and got a pistol and returned and opened fire on Collins. The wound in Collins' groin is considered dangerous, but not necessarily fatal. Hollis was a boot black in Jerry Baldwin's barbershop and Collins worked at Will Reid's soda factory.

Committee report adopted.

We reaffirm our faith in the principles of the democratic party as expressed in the platforms of the Kansas City convention and the State convention recently held in Galveston.

We rejoice in the fact that Texas is and will again be represented in the national congress by a delegation composed solely of democrats, and we commend the course of the representatives and senators from this State, and regard them as faithful servants and efficient and safe legislators.

We particularly endorse the course of Honorable Sam Bronson Cooper, as the representative of the 2nd congressional district. We regard him as a safe, consistent, faithful and conservative democrat and commend him to the democracy of the nation as a stalwart, steadfast and powerful exponent of the best principles of good government. His efficiency and ability as a legislator, his fidelity to the democratic party, his profound and conservative judgment in affairs of national and international importance, his earnest and successful labors in behalf of this district is sufficient testimony of the magnificent character and unquestioned ability of the standard bearer of the 2nd district democracy and the citizenship of the 2nd district through its representatives in convention assembled finds pleasure in measuring his future by his past record, and trusting to his judgment for the expression of true democratic principles. The democrats of the 2nd congressional district of Texas therefore find in Honorable Sam Bronson Cooper and his faithfulness a sufficient expression of democratic principles and policies.

Wedding at Appleby.

Monday's Daily.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at last night at Appleby, when Mr. W. W. King, of Timpson, and Miss Addie Stroud, of Appleby, were married. The church was beautifully decorated, white bridal roses being the principal flower used, relieved by other blossoms and vines. Miss Doolittle performed the wedding march with charming effect. To its soft strains first advanced up the aisle, Mr. Mart Marshall and Miss Hunt, followed by Mr. John Slay and Miss Eva Lloyd. Then came four fairy flower girls, Tannie Stinson and Daisy Stroud, strewing white periwinkles and bridal roses; the other two, Clara Blake and Dora Stroud saving theirs. Then came the handsome groom to be and the beautiful girl he had won. They were a striking looking couple, both dark. The bride's brunette beauty enhanced by the misty white. She was dressed in white organdie over silk, trimmed with beautiful lace and chiffon, and carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses tied with white satin ribbon. The bridesmaids also wore white, one carrying a bunch of Marechal, and the other of La France roses, held by satin ribbons. Rev. Mr. Fears, of Timpson, performed the ceremony. When it was ended and the groom turned to lead his bride from the altar, the second pair of flower girls stepped forward and strewed flowers before them till they reached the door. It was a beautiful idea.

Over the altar swung a marriage bell of white roses, while vines formed an arch beneath which the wedding party stood.

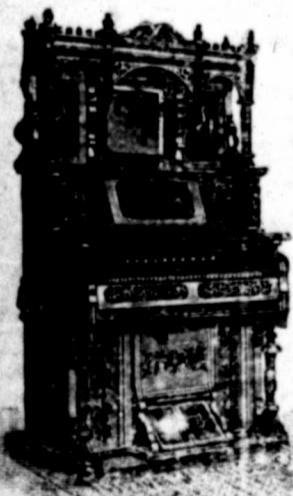

A large dining is given today by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stroud, and the happy couple leave this afternoon for Timpson, where they will make their home, followed by the best wishes and congratulations of all their friends, both in Appleby and Nacogdoches, among which latter is THE SENTINEL.

R. W. HALTOM, Editor

THE press of all Texas sympathizes keenly with Bro. H. L. Roberson, of the Grape-land Messenger, in the loss of his wife, who died last week.

THE congressional convention for the third district met at Tyler yesterday and went through the formality of nominating Hon. J. Gordon Russell for congress.

HOUSTON had another shooting yesterday. It must have been just to "keep her hand in," as nobody was killed. One man, however, is in the infirmary, having been shot by his own brother, whom he tried to beat with a club.

J. PIERP MORGAN has arrived in New York from Liverpool and has had the audacity to positively decline to be interviewed by the press. The world may never know what great chunks of wisdom and information J. Pierp is withholding, and the people cannot be contented until he is interviewed. It is to be hoped that he will resent his stubbornness and give us a few tips on finance, trusts and the like.

ONE of the fixed institutions of the city and county of Nacogdoches is THE DAILY SENTINEL. The paper has demonstrated its usefulness beyond question and is so well established in the affection of our people that everybody looks for it. The constant effort of its owners is to increase its interest and efficiency, and one of the sure things is that it will keep pace with Nacogdoches and make itself a welcome visitor in every home.

AT last a white man has been fined twenty-five dollars in a Houston justice court for carrying a pistol, and it is admitted that it was due to the influence of the press. The case was tried before a jury and it took the jury three hours to agree upon a verdict. The prosecuting attorney called the attention of the court and jury to the fact that the press was waging a relentless war on the pistol toters and had a keen focus on all the courts and urged that it was time to begin teaching the pistol toters some lessons of warning.

THE Texas republicans are in a "muss" and republican State politics are arriving at boiling temperature. There is a general "rumpus" up and there will be hot times before matters are straightened out. About half a dozen prominent republicans are up for state chairman and general pie distributor and jealousy is apparent on every hand. Harmony is nowhere in sight, and even Teddy is powerless to extend an olive branch. Hon. Geo. W. Burkitt, of Palestine, is the fifth aspirant who has publicly declared his candidacy, and with five candidates for leadership, all determined men of influence and strong backing, there is promise of a tumult, compartmented to which the proverbial "Kilkenny cat" affair will not be in it.

IF the Post-Dispatch is good authority on the subject St. Louis is governed by a city council made up of hoodlums, toughs and sports who would be more useful to society in some penal or reformatory institution than as lawmakers for a great modern city. And all this is the work of "good citizens" who feel themselves too good to go to the polls on election day and help vote decent and capable men into office.

THE Texas prohibitionists have nominated Hon. Geo. W. Carroll, of Beaumont, as their candidate for governor and he has formally accepted the nomination in a well worded open letter through the press. The successes attained in local campaigns during the past year has stimulated the prohibitionists to renewed activity and they will make a vigorous fight in the ensuing State campaign. Many counties in Texas have been placed in the local option column since the last general election, and the prohibition party leaders are counting on many of these counties remaining in the ranks during the approaching struggle. In this they will be disappointed. Voting for local option and supporting a prohibition political ticket are two things in the eyes of the voter who is already wedded to some one of the old political parties. Thousands of men will vote for local option who will not tolerate prohibition in politics, and such a thing as electing a governor of Texas on a prohibition ticket will be an impossibility for a hundred year hence. Mr. Carroll is a clean man, conscientious and earnest in the cause and is a good selection for the head of their ticket, and will add strength to the party organization.

A NEW industry is being introduced in Southwest Texas. Five hundred plants of the Carob, or "St. John Bread Tree," have been secured from the government agricultural department at Washington and will be distributed throughout that section. The Carob tree, or St. John Bread, (Ceratinia siliqua), is described as a long-lived evergreen tree, growing as high as thirty to forty feet and sometimes fifty to sixty feet. It is wonderfully resistant to drouth, but will not grow on low, wet lands. The tree will endure slight frosts but is killed by a freeze. It is valuable as a shade tree for avenue and for its pods, which make excellent feed for horses and cattle. Carob trees are either male or female, and the odor of the male flowers is not pleasant. However, the male trees when they appear can be grafted with scions from female trees. It strikes us that this tree is a questionable improvement upon the old fashioned East Texas Honey Locust, which is as sturdy as the giant oak, bears prolific and unailing crops of long beans, of which stock are very fond, which, after thoroughly matured yield a sort of honey or candy, found inside the pod, that is not unpleasant to the taste of man. Why not cultivate this tree for the same purposes?

COL. LANHAM, the next governor of Texas, is having the time of his life going around talking to his old comrades at the various Confederate reunions. It is ideal campaigning and rather different from the kind he first experienced with the boys in gray.

THE press of Texas should be constant in its reminders to legislative candidates that the democratic party stands committed to a radical change in our system of roadworking. There's a great opportunity for some now unknown statesman in the next legislature to link his name with fame forever by evolving a bill for a new road law that will command general approval and rescue us from the present antique and absurdly ineffective system.

SENATOR HANNA makes no bones of saying that the solution of the Cuban problem will only come with the annexation of Cuba to the United States. The little mongrel republic whose independence was so quickly won for it by its big neighbor, and for which it has no more gratitude than a hog, will gasp and wheeze as a free and independent nation for a few years, perhaps—and then Uncle Sam with his benevolent assimilation—and Cuba Libre will be heard of no more.

"THE gentleman outlaw" is a phrase happily coined by the Houston Post to describe the well dressed genteel pistol toters who habitually violate the laws of Texas and are never punished for their offense. If there is any virile sentiment in Texas it should concentrate itself on this particular type of "gentleman" and make him dissolve partnership with his "gun" or be classed as a coward and a criminal unfit for the association of sure enough gentlemen.

You can't keep a good man down. Uncle Russ Alger, supposed to have been permanently canned and embalmed as a Spanish-American war relic, now bobs up in serenity in Michigan and blandly announces himself as a candidate to succeed the late Senator McMillan. And why not? The new senator must be a republican and there are worse men than your Uncle Russ, who has a thousand lies told on him while he was Secretary of War, along with a good deal of wholesome truth.

UP around Denison where they do things on a large scale and where they already have vast orchards, they are too well posted to be troubled with fears about overdoing a good thing and making the supply larger than the demand. Hence they are preparing to set out fully 100,000 more Elberta peach trees this winter; and we should be making preparations on a similar scale right here in Nacogdoches county. The picayune policy never wins out in great industrial movements and we must do business on a big scale if we want to stay anywhere near the head of the procession.

THERE is no good reason why the campaign of Nacogdoches county this year should not be a decent one, without any offensive personal element in it, but THE SENTINEL will not neglect any challenge to make it interesting for the adversary. There is no necessity for the challenge, but we shall not hesitate to pick up the glove.

IN the Houston Post, of Sunday, Mr. E. C. Branch, of this city, who, like thousands of other good citizens, is deeply concerned over the pistol toting evil, discusses the question thoughtfully and presents the following drastic remedy which he thinks is necessary to eradicate the ruinous habit:

1. Make killing with a pistol murder in the first degree, regardless of the provocation.
2. To draw or attempt to use a pistol in a difficulty, a penitentiary offense for the term of ten years.
3. To carry a pistol, two years imprisonment.
4. Do away with the exemptions as they now exist, such as "broken main springs," carrying home after purchase, etc.—making the law cover the pistol or any part of one. Define the length of the "gun" and make it so long that the longest legged man with the longest hip pocket can't carry it.
5. Make it a penitentiary offense for any one to sell a "gun" shorter than the established length.

Now wouldn't that jar the pistol toter, sure enough? And if it would only jar the pistol out of his hip pocket and keep it out, we could accept it as law and reconcile ourselves to the cruel abridgement of his ancient rights.

FROM an interview in the Houston Post with a prominent man concerning the recent trip of Mr. Hefner, the government tobacco expert, to Nacogdoches and other points in East Texas to see if the soil was suited to tobacco culture, the following extract is taken:

He said that so far as that section is concerned the problem of tobacco raising is already solved. The weed grows to perfection, just like corn. What is needed is the establishment of experiment stations. Continuing he said: "The farmers know that tobacco grows to perfection, and that the Texas smoking leaf is superior to the Northern article. The common run of Texas farmers, however, are woefully ignorant of the best methods of curing it. They now look to the government for instruction. They are enthusiastic enough. They know, as well as anyone, that tobacco can be made the money crop of Texas, but they have suffered loss through ignorance of curing methods and a burnt child dreads the fire." The farmers lack experience in raising tobacco. Some of them cure the filler for wrapper and the wrapper for filler, and thereby spoil both and lose their profit. They do not know how to classify and grade. Some Texans, however, have grown it successfully. These men may be found at Nacogdoches, Napier and Lufkin. The average farmer, however, shakes his head when tobacco is mentioned. He needs instruction, and if Uncle Sam provides it his benevolence will be gratefully remembered. It is worthy of note that any plant raised in this country, is besieged by a worm or weevil of some kind from the time it peeps from the ground. Farmers do not spray their tobacco and much of it is destroyed. It must be cared for with the utmost diligence. It is as tender as the tomato and must be closely guarded."

Local railroad officials and business men are confident that the tobacco crop will be wonderfully developed within the next few years.

THE SENTINEL is always quick to recognize ability in its contemporaries, and for this reason we would like to know something of the personality of the man who writes those bright and deep and philosophic articles in the Texas News, published down at Kountze. Own up to it, old man. We know you are a thoroughbred.

THAT was a great compliment to John H. Kirby and also to Texas when Mr. Kirby was elected president of the Trans-Mississippi congress, in session yesterday at St. Paul, Minnesota. This congress in its annual sessions, is fairly representative of the best intellectual and progressive forces of the entire country West of the Mississippi river, and no ordinary man can be elected president of such a body.

THEY are advocating in Washington a new system of distributing seed, and the plan seems about to be carried. The new plan is to give every school child in the United States five packets of flower seed to plant its own self at home, and also a tree of any kind it wants which it is to set out and watch grow. Seed are to be sent to the schools, and the teachers are to have the children watch the growth from day to day. All this sounds very philanthropic and "higher-culture"-ish, but is practically the most egregious nonsense. Of the school children of the United States at least one-half come from the country. They know more about plants and seeds already than the average teacher, from a practical experience in helping drop corn and chop cotton and cultivate the gardens. As to the remaining half, half of them dwell in slums or flats or city homes according to the degree of wealth—places where no tree flourishes but a hall or family tree. Probably one-fourth of the children are in a position to be benefitted by the new plan of distribution, and they do not need it, for it is the duty of fathers and mothers to instill correct tastes in their children, and not the U. S. government. This plan is literal paternalism as to the plan of making already overworked teachers superintend the raising of plants in the school room. It is worse than foolish; it is cruel. Teachers now are expected to be "nurse, seamstress and cook" under the new plans of teaching in the cities. The result is that trying to teach everything at once, from metaphysics to practical botany, the children come out of school worked to death and knowing nothing. The department of agriculture had best stick to the old plan which, while it does no good does no harm.

A preacher used to tell the following story, says an exchange: He said he was in Appanoose county, Iowa, preaching on one occasion when he stopped at a farm house to get dinner. While eating, the lady inquired his business and he replied: "I'm hunting the lost sheep of the house of Israel." She left the room and in a few minutes returned with her husband when she said, "This man is hunting lost sheep and I'll bet that old long wool ram that's been around is his'n." "No, sister, you don't understand me, I'm hunting sinners, those for whom Christ died." "And he is dead?" she asked. "Yes," replied the man of God, astonished at her ignorance. "And buried, too, I reckon?" "Oh, yes, long ago." "There now, old man, there now, I told you we'd die in ignorance for not takin' a newspaper."

MOTHERS SICK BABIES HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE U.S.G. LAXAKOLA

Having received your sample of Laxakola, was very much pleased with it, and have purchased a bottle for my baby. The Laxakola did wonders for my boy in some of his troubles. I have given up the idea of giving my baby anything but Laxakola. I got it from C. H. & H. A. Union Drug Store, Nacogdoches, Tex.
— ARNOLD CASWELL,
Nacogdoches, Texas. — SMITH MUM, M.D.,
Union Drug Store, Nacogdoches, Tex.

I wish to thank you very much for the great Laxakola. It has done my little niece, Marion Lurline Bass. She is only two and one half years old, and has suffered something what from constipation. She has never had what you would call a natural movement. Sometimes we were almost afraid of convulsions, it hurt her so much, and she would be so frightened.

She is a good girl, but I think it doesn't hurt her so much, and she will take Laxakola without a fuss. I am very pleased to think it helped her so much.
— MRS. GEA MARRIOTT, Colman, N. H.

My baby is four months old and is teething. He was very sick, and I had a good deal of trouble. I had a doctor, who said it was inflammation of the bowels, and that I would never get him through, perhaps, if he were not my baby. When I saw he was getting worse, I stopped giving him his medicine, as he would keep nothing on his stomach. He was troubled with colic very much, and used to scream when he had a touch of it. I did not know what it was to do my eyes day or night. I gave him a few drops of Laxakola and it relieved him. I gave it to him a few times, and he worked like a charm, and he now eats pretty fair all night. He is a great deal better looking baby since I gave him Laxakola, and I think if all mothers knew how good it was, they would give nothing else to their sick babies.
— MRS. MARY DALRY,
57 1/2 First St., South Boston, Mass.

LAXAKOLA is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties, which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhoea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep; For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongues and any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, it is invaluable.

Try it Today. Send for a Free Sample. It may Save your Baby's Life or Prevent a Long and Serious Illness. It Costs Nothing; Send For It and mention Your Druggist's Name.

R. W. HALTOM, Editor

THE recent meeting of the South and West Texas press association at Gonzales was productive of an innovation in the shape of a very vigorous resolution passed by the association denouncing the pistol toting habit and calling on the officers of the law to spare no effort to break up the practice.

In the apportionment of the available state school fund for the coming term, ending August 31st, 1903, Nacogdoches county gets $27,297.60, and in the enumeration of children over 8 and under 17 years old the figures for this county are as follows: Male whites, 2,058; female whites, 1,809; male colored, 945; female colored, 875.

It may well be doubted which is the worst enemy of the cotton crop—the boll weevil in the field or the cotton bear in the market. The latter is just now beginning its annual ravages and no man can tell the amount of injury it will do before it leaves off. Bugs and bears seem to be the two incurable forms of sin and sorrow that afflict the cotton farmer.

THE republican party in Texas is showing more signs of life and purpose just now than for years past and it is worthy of note that in its various county powwows the big mouthed colored brother has ceased to be conspicuous as a leader and is "totin' his skillet" in the ranks. Acting on the advice of Roosevelt, the Texas republicans will make a determined effort to capture at least one congressional district this fall, but there is little prospect for success.

WE seriously object to the statement of the Beaumont Journal that the Houston Chronicle is entitled to the credit of having inaugurated the war on the pistol toter. That war was inaugurated a decade or two before the Chronicle was born and no living man can say which paper started it. Texas papers generally for many long years have been laboring to organize public sentiment against the Texas hero with his little gun, and the indications are that they will be laboring in the same good cause for many a year to come.

THE democrats of the 8th congressional district of Mississippi saved themselves at the eleventh hour from an act of folly which would have reflected very seriously on their intelligence and done great harm to the party in congress. After coming very near not doing it they have renominated John Sharpe Williams for congress and thus retained in service one of the ablest of Southern statesmen and the strongest man Mississippi has given to public life since Lamar. His defeat would have been an awful blunder and would have made the republicans chuckle with joy.

THE COUNTY'S INCREASING PROSPERITY.

Tax Assessor Hall has just completed his rolls for this year, had same approved by the commissioners court and received a receipt therefor from H. L. Turner, tax collector. The rolls of this year compared with those of last year show a substantial and encouraging increase all along the line, and especially along the lines that are now attracting the attention of the outside world to the great natural advantages of East Texas, and Nacogdoches county in particular.

The assessed valuation of the resident tax roll this year is $1,435,925; last year it was $1,339,180. The increase is therefore $96,545 in favor of this year. This indicates that more houses are being built, more fields cleared and more improvements of every kind generally. The rate of increase is about 7 1-2 per cent over last year. This is a good showing, and taken in connection with other things soon to be mentioned shows conclusively that a spirit of energy and prosperity is abroad in the land.

The pessimists and moss backs who have been so industrious in relegating this county to the rubbish heaps of the rear will find little consolation in the facts and figures contained in the tax assessor's report.

The rolls of 1901 showed the assessed valuation of city property in this county to be $510,840, while the rolls this year give a value of $634,895, which is an increase of $124,055, or something over 20 per cent. The rate of increase is therefore about 13 per cent more for city property than for property in the country. This is easily understood when all the brick houses and other enterprises are taken into consideration.

The valuation of horses and mules last year in the county was $248,475, while the value this year is $246,800, being a decrease of $1,675. The valuation of cattle last year was $142,390; this year the valuations placed at $151,685, being an increase of $9,295. Jacks and jennets last year, $1,635; this year, $2,225; increase, $590; sheep last year, $1,760; this year, $1,750; decrease, $10. Goats last year, $1,305; this year, $1,332; increase, $27. Hogs, last year, $20,390; this year, $15,778; decrease, $4,592. Dogs, last year, $230; this year, $90; decrease, $140. Carriages, buggies, etc., last year, $70,845; this year, $75,400; increase, $4,555. Goods, wares and merchandise of every description, last year, $279,170; this year, $302,340; increase, $23,170. Manufacturers' tools, implements and machinery, last year, $140,525; this year, $159,690; increase, $19,115. Money in banks, etc., last year, $93,110; this year, $123,585; increase, $30,475; money other than bank, etc., last year, $53,885; this year, $36,810; decrease, $17,075; amt. of credits other than bank, last year, $174,010; this year, $194,760; increase, $20,750. Amount and value of bonds and stock other than U. S.

bonds, last year, $2,930; this year, $250; decrease, $2,680. Value of shares of capital stock companies and associations, last year, $250; this year, $500; increase, $250. Value of property of companies and corporations other than hereinbefore enumerated, last year, $8,030; this year, $10; decrease, $8,020. Miscellaneous property, last year, $70,400; this year, $69,910; decrease, $490.

By adding and comparing the above statements, we find the property valuation of last year to have been $3,169,390, against $3,453,540 this year, being an increase of $284,150.

Last year the State ad valorem tax was $5,282.31; this year the amount is $5,755.90, an increase of $473.59. The State school tax valuation last year was $570,490; this year, $621,637; increase $51,147. Poll, last year, $6,516.00; this year, $6,603.00; increase $87.00. County ad valorem, last year, $7,023.47; this year, $8,633.85; increase, $710.38. County special, last year, $4,754.08; this year, $5,180.31; increase, $426.23. County poll, last year, $1,086; this year, $1,100.50; increase, $14.50. Total State and county taxes last year, $31,266.76; this year, $33,489.93; increase, $2,223.11.

The total valuation of the non-resident roll last year was $2,321.67; this year, $2,659.33; increase, $337.66.

The unrendered roll shows an increase of $462.12 over last year.

The total valuation of all railroad, telephone and telegraph lines in the county last year was $348,634; this year it is $436,098; an increase of $87,464.

A general summary and comparison of taxable values, amount of taxes and number of polls with last year is as follows:

Tax. val. last year.	$4,016,180
" " " " this "	4,524,660
Increase.....	$508,480
No. polls last year.....	4,344
" " " " this "	4,402
Increase.....	58
To. tax col last year.	$37,689.44
" to col. this "	41,487.63
Increase.....	$3,798.19

It might be added that the increase in tax this year will pay the assessor's salary for more than two years. The office of tax assessor is one of the most important and responsible positions of public trust in the county, and should be filled by none other than men who are thoroughly well qualified to look after and attend to all the duties of the office. The county's finances are based upon the proper assessment of all property in the county and when a proper assessment fails to be made, the financial condition of the county suffers in consequence thereof. In order that the business of looking after matters of this kind, none but first class business men should be employed; and just such a man as our present assessor, Dick Hall. His record from the first has been satisfactory in every particular, and besides showing a yearly increase in taxable values and the number of polls, he has never yet asked the commissioners court for time in which to complete his books.

It has happened as we predicted. Col. Frank James is writing the true and only authentic story of the late Major Harry Tracy's life and handing it out to an eager public by the installment system. The Colonel will find plenty of material in that life to point a moral, but not much to adorn a tale.

EVERY time a few white people and negroes in some Southern community get into trouble of the shotgun variety the esteemed headline writers of the daily press herald it to the world as a "race war." Don't do it, gentlemen. It inflames and misleads public sentiment and exaggerates a local feud of no special interest to the outside world to proportions it is not entitled to. We can't afford to have a race war in the South and we don't intend to.

COLLIER'S WEEKLY, a New York paper which gets much Texas patronage and is too often edited by "fine writers" with reckless disregard for Texas facts, and whose chief stock in trade is brilliancy and smart phrasing, has been uncommonly brutal here of late in slandering Texas. The Houston Post says very truly that the only way to bring the paper to a realizing sense of its shortcomings is to promptly shut off its Texas patronage. We have known this method to work most effectually and quickly with several big Northern journals during the old days of sectional bitterness and it is good medicine right now for Collier's Weekly. Stick it to 'em.

OLD GROVER CLEVELAND still has a vote, even if he has been deposed from leadership, and if Henry Watterson can be induced to let up on him and cease painting him as a monster of evil, he may be persuaded to vote the democratic ticket in the next national election. And, by the way, didn't Henry and Grover both lie down snugly in the same bed and do what they could to defeat the democratic party when Messrs. Palmer and Buckner were masquerading before the country some years ago as national democratic candidates? If Henry has since reformed and found better company, he should give Grover a chance to do likewise and not seek to make him a permanent outcast.

THE ORANGE TRIBUNE has completed its up-to-dateness by installing a Mergenthaler linotype. Leaf by leaf the roses fall. One by one the old time prints sadly drop their sticks, take their coats down off the nail, seek the business office for a brief interview, and then meander out into the cold and heartless world, sometimes by way of the nearest saloon, to find some other solution of the problem of life than in the old familiar way "at the case." This old time compositor is a pathetic and vanishing figure in the strenuous hurlyburly of the modern world, and some elegist like Gray can do no more than justice to his memory when we shall have seen the last of him.

No matter which way the prohibition election goes in Smith county next Friday, there will be a lower temperature over the county after that date, doubtless most agreeable to both pros and antis.

THEY are getting the hot stuff sure enough down in Montgomery county and all on account of the report of a recent grand jury which seems to have exploded unexpectedly and with uncomfortable force under some prominent county officials long entrenched in power, and great is the perturbation and crimination and recrimination now in progress as a consequence. Also they have a prohibition campaign on hand at the same time, and now if the county commissioners would only bring on a hog law election, Bro. Frazer, of the Conroe Courier would have about all he could stand up to to properly adjust the situation and harmonize the warring factions.

C. H. Howard, of Newton county, is in the city. He is a delegate to the convention.

Another Negro Killing. Monday's Daily.

Henry Randall and Lige Price, both colored, had a row at Sand Hill, a negro church between Melrose and Chireno, yesterday, which resulted in Price being shot in the back, the bullet passing through the stomach and inflicting a mortal wound. Price was brought to town yesterday evening to be treated by Dr. Tucker, but was past the aid of medical skill and died early this morning. The killing, it is said, is the result of a falling out about a dog some time back. Randall is a tenant on the farm of Basset Haltom, while Price was working on the farm of J. H. Haltom, Jr., in the vicinity of Swift and Blake's school house, and both went to Sand Hill yesterday to attend a big meeting.

Taken Up. One pair dark bay mules, one horse, one mare mule; small in size, 6 or 7 years old, one branded H. P. on hip. Pay for this notice and come and get your mules. Four miles west of Garrison.

LINDSEY & HARRIS,

Immigration Agents Southern Pacific Ry. Second Floor Hazel Building Nacogdoches, Texas. Real Estate Agents.

THE many candidates just now for the Texas legislature heartily agree with the Austin Statesman that Austin can be made a highly desirable winter resort for nice people.

THE GALVESTON NEWS is determined to stand well with Texas, and in a very emotional paragraph claims in effect that the State is an earthly paradise. But what about that brutal democratic majority, old lady?

EVOLUTION is endless. The famous Texas Elberta peach is not the final achievement in peach culture, great as it is, but with the development of our horticultural interests will come other and better evolutions of the Texas peach that will make the Elberta a back number. But meanwhile it is a mighty fine article to stick to and we will not anticipate its successor.

THE gentleman who telephoned in frantic haste and more or less indignation to THE SENTINEL office that we were wrong in saying that General Russell Alger was a candidate for the United States Senate from Michigan, giving as his reason for his message that Gen. Alger has been dead and buried for quite a while and is consequently ineligible to senatorial honors, is hereby challenged to produce the proof. General Alger is all right and so is THE SENTINEL in saying that he is still in the flesh.

NACOGDOCHES county has more thoroughbred people in its limits in proportion to population than any county in the State, and the reason is not far to seek. This county with its neighbors was settled more than a generation ago by the best stock from the old Southern states. These people came out here under tremendous difficulties and they settled in an absolute wilderness. We who have come after them will never appreciate their difficulties. But it is enough to know that their descendants are here to respond to the best impulse of modern civilization and to take care of modern opportunities. They have done so and they will continue to do so. Blood will tell.

CAPT. JNO S. DOUGHTIE, of this city, is now connected with the land and immigration department of the H. E. & W. T. Ry. Co., and the company has done well to secure the assistance of so well informed and useful a man in their great work of developing the country along the line of their road. For many years past Capt. Doughtie has been connected with the land interests of this part of East Texas and during that time he has accumulated an immense amount of valuable information of a specific character, which will give him special facilities to aid land investors in this part of the State. THE SENTINEL is glad to know that he is now attached to the railroad company in this connection and feels sure that his work will vindicate the wisdom of his appointment.

RAILROADS IN AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENTS.

Remarkable changes have taken place in railroad management during the past few years. These changes have resulted beneficially to the roads and to the people. The spirit of unrest has been superseded by one of more liberal ideas. The railroad manager was regarded a few years ago as a hindrance to general development. In some cases they were. 'Twas only a few years ago when Mr. Hutcherson, of the Southern Pacific railroad, was requested to allow the building of sidings and a depot at Crowley, La., to allow the rice industry then just being developed to enlarge its scope. He answered the company engaged in this new industry that his company would not be a party to any scheme to induce people to go to that death hole, as he styled this locality. The enterprising company were not discouraged by this answer. They went ahead and put in their own sidings and switches and depots at their own expense. Look at Crowley today! The pride of this great corporation! This is one instance but it represents the spirit that held sway in those days. What a change. This corporation is spending thousands of dollars annually encouraging this very same kind of development at a hundred places, which a few years ago were denominated "death holes."

Another instance of more recent date: Last year one of the general passenger agents of this company in Texas refused to grant a rate to the joint session of the State Horticultural, State Truck Growers and Nurserymen's association that was regarded by these bodies as low enough to insure anything like an attendance the interest they represented merited. As a consequence the meeting was abandoned. These associations are the backbone of the State Farmers' Congress, which meets annually at College Station. Every year since the organization of this great body of real farmers they have plead with the railroad management for a rate that would allow the common people to attend this congress. Just as often were they refused. But this year marked a new era in the policy of this company. Mr. C. H. Markham was placed in charge of these properties in Texas less than a year ago. One of the first things he did was to investigate the claims of this grand body of, representative farmers and producers, and this year the lowest rate ever given to a similar meeting was given to this meeting in July. Mr. Markham did not stop here. He wanted to see this congress of farmers a permanent part of the general development he proposed to encourage. He secured a list of prominent and successful farmers over the state and presented them with transportation to and from the meeting at College Station, thus giving his emphatic approval of the objects and aims of this organization. Of course the farmers of Texas appreciate such liberality. The people of Texas are to be congratulated that the highest railroad official in Texas—for such is Mr. Markham—takes such an interest in their affairs, their successes and their achievements.

All praise to Mr. Markham and the system of railroads he so ably represents. It indeed means much to Texas.

The editor of the Henderson Times seems to be worried about religious problems and is quoting Paley to confound his enemies. Apparently some peculiar sect whose doctrines are offensive to him, is seeking the scalp of the philosopher of the Times and he is delivering some knockout blows in return. The country editor should always be a good and pious man—and he generally is, but don't "rile" him by insisting that he shall be a religious specialist and a champion of your doxy as against the other fellow's. Stay with 'em, Brother Milner.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Editor Milner is as free of annoyance on religious lines as any man in the world. No one has sought his scalp; no peculiar sect has in the least taken issue with him; he is on the most friendly terms with all the denominations in these parts; he has no sect of his own to offer superior to the sects of his neighbors. But the great fundamental principles of truth he seeks to uphold. He believes that integrity is the chief corner stone of all true religions and governments. If the truth makes you free, you are free indeed. He is merely promulgating a few great truths for the benefit of posterity—that's all.—Henderson Times.

Sam Lanham ran for governor eight years ago. This year he walked.—Waco Times-Herald.

The next governor will be John H. Kirby, or the people who love him are mighty badly mistaken.—Orange Tribune.

Several other Texas papers have made the same suggestion but we doubt if Mr. Kirby will ever be governor of Texas. Most certainly he would make a good governor and our people would be fortunate in his selection. But the point is that John H. Kirby is now a well developed and highly distinguished "captain of industry," and in that relation he is very much more valuable to the people of Texas than he could be as chief magistrate. We have abundant material out of which to make good governors, but of "captains of industry" we are perhaps a little short. Who ever thinks of J. Pierpont Morgan as a candidate for president of the United States? No more should we think of John H. Kirby as a candidate for governor of Texas.

WE have our opinion about some of those wood cut photographs of Texas congressmen now appearing in a pictorial serial in the Houston Post, but we say nothing because we know that THE Post means well and its intentions are entirely honorable.

It seems almost cruel for the prohibitionists to ask Tyler to shut off her beer such weather as this.

DOWN in Houston the papers are emphasizing the fact that the mankillers of that community carry their guns in defiance of law even when they are known to be "picking a row" and not only ready, but eager for murder. There are other Texas towns afflicted in the same way. God give us brave and conscientious officers to break up such a vile and disgraceful state of affairs!

WE observe that Uncle Russell Sage agrees with THE SENTINEL about the folly of the over strenuous life and the inevitable collapse of the gigantic trust system with all its resulting and wide-spread ruin. Uncle Russ is mighty good authority on such subjects, and while he hoards his dollars and curtails his personal expenses to a degree we can hardly approve of, nevertheless he represents and speaks for the true conservative business conditions which must prevail in this country when we are through with the trust nightmare.

THE sudden and mysterious illness of Mr. Schwab, the million-dollars-a-year president of that corporate monstrosity, the steel trust, is not surprising. Mr. Schwab has been carrying more business under his hat than any man in all the world's history for some time past and his breakdown was inevitable. And it will happen to you, too, Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, and sooner or later overtaxed plutocratic brains generally will break and down, then perhaps a general crash and readjustment of modern business conditions on more rational lines.

EDITOR SENTINEL:

I desire to say to the people of Commissioners Precinct No. 1, that I am a candidate for Commissioner, by reason of the indorsement of the voters in the Independent primary, and I am now before the whole people of said precinct for their consideration at the November election. I have ever tried to be a conservative man in all things, and if I am elected commissioner I will try and discharge the duties to the best interest of all concerned. I consider the office of commissioner a very important one to the people and should I be elected I would realize that I am the servant of all the people and will discharge the duties of said office to the best of my ability as I would understand it. Trusting that the people will consider my candidacy fairly and impartially, I am,

A Cure For Infantum.
"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Perkins Bros.

It Wasn't Our Frank.
Frank Bridwell's friends are joking him today about the loss of some of his hair. He played Absalom with the pine knot last night. During the day the sun draws the juice out of pine planks wherever exposed, and a gallery is a fine place to sleep at night—it one is careful. When Frank waked this morning he found his head glued to the floor; his hair was matted and held as in a vice by the resin from a pine knot in the floor. He had a hard struggle to rise, with all ends loose except his head.—Timpson Times.

All Were Saved.
"For years I have suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and 1.00. Trial bottle free at Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

The Jacksonville Banner of August 22 has the following concerning the T. & N. O. railroad: If the weather is reasonably good, Mr. Robertson will probably complete his grading contract by Dec. 1st, and we suppose Mr. Tansy will finish about the same time. It will take several months more to lay and surface the track, so there is every probability that the road will be completed from Dallas to Beaumont in the time allowed by the special act of the legislature—the 22nd of next May. We hear nothing in regard to the location of the terminal yards and shops, but this matter will likely be taken up pretty soon by the railroad officials, and we think Jacksonville will be given a chance to secure their location.

Mr. Summers is a prominent young business man of Nacogdoches, being associated with the well known lumber business of J. H. Summers, who is his father. Mr. Summers' host of friends will overwhelm him with congratulations when he comes in with his bonny bride who is the daughter of one of the leading lawyers of Rusk, and a young lady whose beauty and loveliness make her a favorite in Rusk society.

THE SENTINEL tenders the young couple its heartiest congratulations, and wishes them a long life of happiness.

In Memoriam.
To the Most Excellent Chief and members of Banita Temple, No. 38, Rathbone Sisters:

Whereas, on the second day of July, 1902, the Supreme Ruler saw fit to call from our midst to his Temple above, our beloved Manager, Sister Augusta Ray. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That Banita Temple No. 38, R. S., has lost a faithful and devoted member; her parents an obedient and dutiful daughter; Nacogdoches a most lovable girl, whose amiable disposition and tender heart won for her the admiration of all who had the pleasure of knowing her. And be it further

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with her bereaved parents, brothers, sisters and affianced, and tender them our heartfelt sympathy and love in the sad hour, and admonish them to grieve not, for she now rests in her Celestial home above. And be it

Resolved, That a page be set apart in the book of records of Banita Temple for these resolutions, that a copy of same be furnished the family and that the city papers be asked to publish these resolutions.

That our Charter be draped for thirty days.

Weep not, dear sisters though our loved sister be dead.
She lives again in Heaven's unclouded life
With other angels that have early fled
From these dark scenes of sorrow, sin and strife.

Weep not, dear ones, though thy yearning love
Would fondly keep for earth its fairest flowers;
And e'en deny to bright realms above
The few that deck this dreary world of ours
Though much it seems a wonder and a woe,
That one so loved should be early lost,
And hallowed tears may unbidden flow,
To mourn the loved one we cherished most.

Yet, all is well, God's design we see,
That where are treasures are, our hearts may also be.

One point was overlooked in writing the telephone directories, and that point is so important that we mention it here. That is, always give your name to the person you are talking with before proceeding to business. This should be done, no matter how well known you are to the individual you are conversing with. Especially should this be remembered when ordering goods from stores, for frequently the phone cuts off before the name is given and the store has the order and no place to send the goods. Cases have been known where people rang for the doctor in terrible haste and gave no name. Get in the habit of turning in the name first.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kennard leave today for San Marcos, where they will make their permanent home. Mr. Kennard having accepted a position on the road with San Marcos as his headquarters. THE SENTINEL job office prints and numbers cotton tickets, etc., nicer than any other printshop, and does the work just as cheap.

Mr. John Weatherly, of Appleby, is in the city today and paid the office a pleasant call. He reports a good deal of sickness in that part of the county, and that it is hot.

We ate a most luscious great big apple that weighed within a small fraction of a pound to-day. It was presented by Mr. W. R. Baker a week ago and was saved over until it got mellow.

A letter from Jim Seale says that everything in St. Louis is under water but the Union Trust Building, and that is 18 stories high. We will get fuller particulars when Jim comes home.

Rev. Jno. N. Wilson, of Melrose, was in the city to-day. He has been near Douglass on a surveying expedition this week and is on his return home.

Miss Anna Camp, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Sturdevant to Garrison, returned to her home in Longview, after spending a few days in Garrison. Mr. and Mrs. Sturdevant have returned to the city.

Emory Ray came home from Mahl yesterday. He will keep books in the cotton office of H. E. Dyson the present season.

Will Taylor has returned from his "hermitage" down on the Angelina and is now at his cotton yard again ready for the new season's business.

Miss Zillah Langley, of Nacogdoches, was the guest of Miss Lizzie Wright several days last week.—Rusk County News.

Messrs. Lloyd Bowers, Sr., Geo. H. Weaver and Mat Turner, and Masters William and Felix Weaver and Maury Halton left this morning for a week's fishing on the Angelina.

Mrs. Geo. P. Garrison returned to her home in Austin this morning, after a visit of several weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Perkins, of this city.

The cotton yards are now all cleaned up, ready for the business of the new season.

George Matkin, of Appleby, was dangerously hurt late yesterday evening at Sterne. He was trying to get on a moving work train and was thrown off. It is not known at present whether he will recover. Mr. Matkin is married.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Cason and the children returned yesterday morning from a visit to Mrs. Cason's parents, of Newton, Miss. They report a most enjoyable visit, having been in attendance at a reunion of Mrs. Cason's family. The occasion being the forty-sixth anniversary of her parents marriage.

Mrs. Geo. F. Ingraham, died at Nacogdoches, Texas on Wednesday, August 20th, at 6 p. m. Mrs. Martha Cooper Ingraham, wife of Judge G. F. Ingraham, in the 58th year of her age.

Words cannot express the grief of the entire community on hearing the terrible news of Mrs. Ingraham's death. It is felt in every quarter, old and young feel alike that they have lost a loved friend in the gentle little woman who in every relation in life was so loving and warm hearted. A devoted wife and mother, she lived only for the loved ones who are so bereft today. She was an earnest christian, being a member of the Methodist church.

There is hardly a person in Nacogdoches who does not hold a memory of some kindness done by her loving hands. That she has been taken from the circle that need her so, seems incredible, and every heart that knew her, aches with sorrow and will not be comforted. No one ever lived who ever kept her spirit more unspotted from the world. Nothing of earth had touched her but its sorrow. For her the sorrow is lost in the radiance of eternal light, and the sorrow is ours, who mourn "the passing of the sweetest soul that ever looked with human eyes."

Mrs. Ingraham was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Cooper; she was born in Alabama. The family moved to this county in her early youth and here she grew into lovely girlhood, celebrated for her beauty and loved for her angelic disposition. She married Judge Ingraham at the age of 22, and leaves beside her devoted husband, a large family of children and grandchildren and many relatives. To these it is useless to attempt words of consolation, but their friends share their grief with a keen personal sorrow, and with them live in the hope of meeting her in the halls of a higher life beyond these shadows.

She was laid to rest in the city cemetery this afternoon at 5 o'clock by the little daughter and grown son that have gone before.

MALARIA AND YELLOW JACK

(From N. Y. Herald, January 14, 1903.)

"The widow of Dr. Lazear, who, in the employ of the Government, went to Cuba, was inoculated with Yellow Fever through mosquito bites, and died, applied to Congress for relief to-day."

The above tells of the sad culmination of a series of experiments by the Government, all of which proved conclusively that the familiar mosquito is a dangerous vehicle for carrying Malaria, "Yellow Jack," and other malarial fevers.

Those who are exposed to mosquito or other malarial influences should take warning. Iron is the fighting element in the blood and provides nature with sufficient resistance to ward off disease. But if the blood is impure or impoverished, or if there is weakness, it means that the fighting qualities of the blood have been lowered, and consequently there is danger. If you would escape, keep the blood pure and properly nourished with

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic

It supplies the blood with iron in a natural way. It is recognized everywhere as the best blood purifier and tonic in use, and it has been used for half a century.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 1, 1901.

"I have used Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic myself and in my family for over twenty five years, and can heartily recommend it. I regard it as particularly valuable to ward off malarial and other fevers."

Died.

At Melrose, Saturday, Aug. 23, Mr. D. M. Pate. He was buried Sunday at Melrose.

Mr. Pate was one of the old pioneers of Texas; one who helped make her history, and it is to such men as he that Texas owes a debt it can never pay except by holding their memory in reverence. He came to this country in the 30's, was a veteran of the Mexican war and for fifty years has called the Melrose community his home. He was a good man and one of deep religious convictions. A prominent citizen, he is mourned by the entire community, and by hosts of friends in other sections. He leaves a good example behind him: a long life well lived, and it is well with him now.

Mrs. M. G. Hazel, of Nacogdoches, is his daughter.

Everyone in Nacogdoches knew and liked the fine old man, and there are many sincere mourners that he is gone. THE SENTINEL is among them and extends its sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Died.

At Attoyac, Aug. 26th, 1902, Capt. John F. Pleasant, aged 65 years. He was buried this afternoon at four o'clock at Cold Springs. Capt. Pleasant was one of the sterling old pioneers of Texas that we are losing so fast, and that are missed so sorely when they are taken!

He was born on Jan. 1st 1836 in Tennessee, and his family moved to Texas when he was ten years old. Making his home in the neighborhood of Attoyac, there he remained all his life, a good man, husband and citizen; failing in no duty in life and loved by all. He won his title of Captain in the civil war, marrying Mrs. Crawford, nee Miss Martha Pack, in 1865. In 1882 he joined the Methodist church, of which he has been a constant member ever since. For the last two years Capt. Pleasant has been an invalid, and while the malarial fever from which he had suffered lately, had been conquered; he seemed to have no strength to rally, and sank gently into the sleep that wakens in Paradise.

He leaves his loving wife and five daughters to mourn his loss, Mrs. R. A. Hall, of this city, Mrs. E. E. Leak and Mrs. Barrett, of Center, Mrs. Murray, of Shreveport, and Miss Wille May Pleasant.

To the family who are stricken consolation is of no avail, but all the community mourn with them the inestimable loss, and to them THE SENTINEL extend its most earnest sympathy.

Married at Jasper.

The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents.

The best wishes of everybody in Nacogdoches county go with the bride and groom on this occasion, wishing them now and forever the fullest measure of all life's joys and pleasures. Mr. Y'Barbo is a young man of sterling business integrity and the highest moral standing, while the bride is an accomplished young lady whose lovable disposition and nobleness of character have long been the admiration of her friends without number. Last of all we extend congratulations to the young people wishing them joy unalloyed as well as a long and happy life.

A FRIEND.

Died.

At Appleby, Sunday, August 25, 1902, Mr. Robt. Crawford, son of Col. Simon Crawford. The funeral took place today at Bethel. Mr. Crawford was a good man and a good citizen. He leaves a wife and several little children to whom his loss is irreplaceable. THE SENTINEL joins with all in sympathy for the family so sorely bereaved.

C. S. Baines, of Garrison, was in the city today.
