Leg Broken.

Monday's Daily. Mr. John Matthews, who lives near Melrose, while on his way to Nacogdoches yesterday afternoon to be present at the opening of district court this morning, had the misfortune to get a leg broken. In crossing a bridge his horse stepped on a broken plank or in some way got his foot hung causing him to fall, Mr. Matthews being caught in the fall in such a manner as to sustain a broken limb. The bridges all over the county are in bad condition, many of them dangerous, and if the county commissioners and road oversees do not look after them at once there is liable to be many accidents of this kind reported.

Pretty Tough to Scratch

For a living and relief also. Hunt's Cure will cure you of Itch, Tetter, Ringworm, Itching Piles and Eczema. Guaranteed by all dealers.

AROUND THE COURT HOUSE.

Proceedings of District Court and Other Items of Interest.

The district court ran out of work yesterday and adjourned for the remainder of the week. The officers and attorneys have all gone home for a rest and the juries and venirees have returned to their cotton patches and various other occupations. It is said that more business has been dispatched by the present term than ever before during the first two weeks. Judge Davis has had a move on himself ever since court opened and he has had everything else around the court house hustling.

The grand jury is still in session and has several important cases to investigate yet before it can adjourn.

Following divorces have been granted:

Edna B. Hall vs W. B. Hall.

H. L. Austin vs N. C. Austin.

Geo. T. Walker vs Lavenia Walker.

Betty Carry vs Wm. Carry. Susie Devereaux vs Antonio Devereaux.

May Henly vs Bob Henly. Jim Ann Dixon vs John Dixon.

Albert Johnson vs Tempie Johnson.

L. H. Russell vs Kimmie Russell.

Allie Smith vs Emmett Smith.

Quite a number of special venirees who were summoned in the Elliott cases were here today from all parts of the county, not being informed that the cases had been dismissed and court adjourned for the remainder of the week.

Tuesday's Daily.

S. W. Brigman was tried yesterday and convicted in four cases for forgery, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years in each case. He was indicted by the grand jury Saturday, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Waters at Tenaha Sunday night, brought back yesterday morning, was arraigned yesterday, pleading guilty and receiving his sentence. If all the work of the court could be done with as much dispatch as was done in this case it would not take six weeks twice a year to do the business of Nacogdoches county.

Shiloh Lampkin was tried for assault to murder yesterday and was adjudged not guilty. The case of Tony Hyde, for assault to murder was the first called today.

The cases of the State vs Mayfield Elliott were dismissed today on motion of District Attorney Donley. An effort will be made to have the grand jury reindict him on one count instead of two, as the cases formerly stood.

Fruit and Truck Growers.

A meeting of the Nacogdoches Fruit and Truck Growers' Association was held in this city last Saturday afternoon, with an average attendance. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

Report of Treasurer B. S. Wettermark was received and approved, showing balance on hand of $87.24.

Several members present indicated the amount of acreage they would plant in cabbage, potatoes and tomatoes for the season of 1903.

Dr. J. E. Mayfield, J. B. Taylor, J. D. Bell, C. J. Shotner, G. W. Shofner and J. M. Turner were duly elected to membership.

Following officers were elected for the ensuing term of one year:

T. E. Burgess, president.

R. F. Davis, secretary.

E. A. Blount, treasurer.

Following delegates were elected to attend the Central East Texas Fruit and Truck Growers' Association at Timpson, Oct. 17th, inst: Robt. Berger, H. Dial and H. S. Edler.

President Burgess requested all members to give in the amount of acreage each will plant in the various truck crops for 1903 at the next regular session, Nov. 1st, 1902.

Robt. Berger, delegate to the Athens meeting, gave an outline of the work done at that meeting.

Dues and initiation fees to the amount of $3.00 were paid in to Acting Secretary Edler. Association adjourned to meet again in regular session, Saturday, Nov. 1st, 1902.

Horse Mysteriously Disappeared.

Saturday's Daily.

A horse belonging to Frank Palmer, of Black Jack, disappeared mysteriously from the Clifton wagon yard last night. The horse was placed in a stall loose yesterday evening with a rope tied across the entrance to the stall to keep him from getting out. This morning he was gone and the rope had not been disturbed. The gate to the yard had been securely locked and no one except Uncle Jake, the yard keeper, had had the key during the night. There is a theory, which is possibly correct, though it appears almost unreasonable, that the horse climbed out over the trough and over a high plank fence which forms the back of the stall.

R. W. HALTOM, Editor

The majority for the prohibitionists in Panola county was only 46, showing the most closely contested of any of the recent local option fights.

TODAY in Macon, Ga., the National Farmers' Congress meets in annual session and it is expected that 2500 delegates will be present, representing every State in the Union. Texas will be there, of course.

The recently defeated saloon men in Tyler have secured an order from Judge Russel restraining the officers from enforcing the prohibition law until their contest of the election can be heard by the court.

LAST Saturday, at Columbus, Colorado county, a mob of 125 men from Eagle Lake stormed the jail and took from it a negro who had been arrested for criminal assault on a young lady in the telephone office at Eagle Lake, and hung him from a telephone pole in the suburbs of the town.

The national encampment of the G. A. R. is in progress in Washington City, but Teddy's sore leg will prevent him from doing his celebrated Rough Rider act for the benefit of the old soldiers and showing them just how he won the battle of San Juan hill.

The campaign for speaker of the house in the next legislature has opened early. Judge Schluter, of Marion, and Pat Neff, of McLennan, are both in the field for the position, and George Griggs, of Harris county, is said to be ambitious in the same direction.

The government telegraph operator at Zapata, in this State, has brought suit for $20,000 damages against Cecil Lyon, republican State chairman, alleging that the latter had written a libelous letter concerning him to the Secretary of War and sought to procure his discharge from the government service because he wouldn't let Lyon buldoze him into supporting the republican State ticket.

The recent killing of Capt. Duovant by W. T. Eldridge, of Eagle Lake, seems to be calling for more blood. Last Friday night, in that town, two unknown men concealed themselves on the premises of Mr. Eldridge and as he mounted his front steps a load of buckshot was fired at him, which fortunately missed him, but gave him to understand that assassins were dogging his footsteps.

THAT remarkable young man, Hearst, of the New York Journal, perhaps the most enterprising newspaper man in the world, got the democratic nomination for congress the other day in one of the districts of New York city. It would be just like him to get elected, no matter if the district be normally republican, and if he does get to congress he will be a strong force on the democratic side.

In the Fifth congressional district of this State the socialist party has nominated M. C. Scott, a Dallas newspaper man, as its candidate for congress. There are many socialists in North Texas and their numbers seem to be increasing.

THE TRUCK FARMER, published in Dallas, says: "Towns give fancy premiums for the first bale of cotton, but excepting the thriving towns of Lufkin and Nacogdoches, we have failed to hear of any premiums being offered for the encouragement of the truck business. Probably it is because the truck business is able to get along without the premiums."

In the Confederate Home at Austin are 305 inmates crowded into quarters intended for only 255, with applications for 100 new admissions now pending. This state of affairs is arousing the veteran camps in Texas, and the next legislature will be urged to make an appropriation to enlarge the Home.

The anti-trust laws of Texas seem to have hard luck before the juries as well as the courts. Up in Quannah where the State brought suit against a mercantile company to recover $1,500,000 penalties for alleged violation of the anti-trust laws, the jury wrestled with the question for two days and then gave it up and were discharged.

HOUSTON has at least one police officer with the right idea about going after pistol toters. He is Officer Higgins and he has declared himself against "humps" under a man's coat, where the hip-pocket is located, rightly considering such humps to be a pretty good sign of pistols. He vindicated his theory last Saturday when he chased and captured a darkey with a "hump" and discovered a big revolver as the cause of the protuberance. Here is a pointer for other officers who want to do their duty in the growing crusade against the pistol toter

FOR some reason not founded in fact Nacogdoches county has a bad reputation in some parts of the State for an unusual amount of lawlessness and crime. This is gross injustice to one of the most law-abiding counties in Texas. Our population ranks with the best in the State in obedience to law and in all the other qualities of good citizenship. Criminal assaults upon women are almost unknown, also theft, arson and burglary, and until within a few months past the county could challenge comparison with any other in the State for its freedom from homicides. There have been a few killings during the past six months, but they were not of a character to indicate the prevalence of crime, and in every case the law has promptly asserted its authority and will do justice in the premises. No part of the country has yet succeeded in entirely preventing crime, but our county is right in the front rank in its record for law and order and it will be kept there.

THE HARLEQUIN, of New Orleans, pays deserved tribute to Frank Stanton and other special writers on the big dailies who grind out so much fun and philosophy for their readers. We second the motion of the Orange Tribune that Lewis, of the Houston Post, belongs in that company.

AFTER the most careful investigation Prof. Malley, the entomologist at the Agricultural College, gives it as his confident opinion that the boll weevil, the boll worm and other insects have destroyed cotton in the fields of Texas this year to the amount of half a million bales.

THE troubles resulting from the great Pennsylvania coal strike have reached the acute and dangerous stage and the situation is full of peril. The efforts of the President to bring about a settlement have utterly failed, and the coal barons have given a formal reply so insolent, heartless and defiant in its refusal to submit the issue to impartial arbitration that the indignation of the country has been aroused and public sentiment is going over in a body to the miners. Meanwhile at the North the weather grows rapidly colder and with the chief coal supply cut off, matters are getting wild and woolly in that section and a veritable crisis is at hand. And it is all the evil work of the trust system. The Pennsylvania coal barons constitute one of the strongest trusts in the world, and it is up to the administration to enforce the Sherman anti-trust law in this case or take the consequences in the almost certain defeat of the republican party in New York, Pennsylvania and other North-eastern States. The situation is making capital, daily and hourly, for the democratic party.

MUSCULAR Christianity is hardly after the example of the meek and lowly Nazarine, but in this strenuous age it has its uses and comes in mighty handy on occasion. The other day in Tyler while discussing some church matter on the street with one of his members, Bro. Scruggs, the popular pastor of the North Tyler Methodist church, heard himself called a liar by the aforesaid member. What Bro. Scruggs did for him right then and there was a plenty, even from the pugilistic point of view. He enforced his argument with "apostolic knocks and blows," and when the other fellow managed to finally get away from the irate minister, he was mighty sorry that he had used the word "liar" in the heat of argument. Is this incident to stand as an approved precedent, a new departure in the relations of the Christian ministry to secular questions? Have we fallen upon such degenerate times that we can't call our local preacher a liar to his face in the presence of witnesses, without being immediately knocked down and otherwise treated in a rude and unbecoming manner? If the example of Bro. Scruggs shall become "catching" we may look for strange, not to say perilous times ahead.

Our esteemed contemporary, The Sentinel at Nacogdoches, is rejoicing over the return of Col. Thos. P. Ochiltree from Europe to his native heath. Nacogdoches lays claim to the noted colonel; this is true only in part; he first discovered light in Tennessee and came to Nacogdoches when a lad of about twelve years of age. He grew up at Marshall where he practiced law with his father, under the firm name of Thos. P. Ochiltree and father, Attorney at Law. Tom, it is said, had a sign worded that way, painted and nailed up over their office door at Marshall. Correct your history, neighbor.—Texas News.

It is perhaps true that the famous Tom was not born in Nacogdoches, nor even in Texas, and to that extent we stand corrected, but what of it? The great Napoleon was not born in France; nor Alexander Hamilton in the United States; nor Thackeray nor Rudyard Kipling in England; nor S. S. Prentiss in Mississippi; nor St. Patrick in Ireland. The fame of Nacogdoches in association with Thomas Porterhouse Ochiltree cannot be impaired by the paltry circumstance that the latter wasn't actually born right here in our city. It is enough to know that he got here as soon as he was permitted to, even while the freckles and the down of adolescence were in full evidence upon his blooming visage, and he will go down in history as Tom Ochiltree, of Nacogdoches. Glory enough!

If Prof Malley's figures are correct the boll weevil is a close second to the pistol toter as an enemy to the best interests of Texas.

THE New Orleans street car strike has reached the blood and agony stage, and the defiant strikers on yesterday practically defeated the entire police force of the city and prevented the running of cars by non-union labor. Unless one side or the other promptly backs down, New Orleans will be given over to bloodshed and rioting.

The excursionists that were expected to arrive in Nacogdoches next Tuesday will not be here until the 20th. The route has been changed by which they are touring Texas, and throws the excursion nearly a week later in reaching Nacogdoches than was contemplated. In the meantime let us proceed with the preparations for their reception.

Perkins Bros., in keeping with their general reputation, sell nothing but the best. You will find John R. Dickey's Old Reliable Eye Water there. The genuine is always enclosed in a red folding box.

LIKE A FAIRY TALE.

Picturesque People Have Not Disappeared
—Many Still To Be Seen In America.

The young should be taught history, strategy, valor and patriotism, and should be taught it in a manner to indelibly impress it on their minds. Primitive people from our own world and people from every part of the old world, when brought together, form an object lesson that is not soon forgotten. They all tell the tale of how they live; they tell it as nothing else could. To see the Red Man at home, the cowboy hurl with amazing accuracy his never failing lasso, the Mexican in his favorite sports and occupations, the Gauchos, soldiers from different countries, and the hundreds of other interesting things that go to make up Buckskin Bill's Wild West, which will be in the city of Nacogdoches, Wednesday, Oct. 15th, leaves a vivid impression that never dies, and causes one to wonder after he has witnessed this startling realistic exhibition, if he hasn't just stepped from a chapter of Arabian Nights.

COMING, FIVE HUNDRED STRONG.
Will Nacogdoches Receive the Honor In a Manner Befitting Her Dignity?

On Monday, Oct. 20th, at 8 o'clock in the evening, an excursion train in two sections filled with home-seekers and others with money to invest, from the Northwestern States, will reach this city from Houston, and after remaining all next day inspecting Nacogdoches and its environs, will leave for Beaumont that night. These people are touring Texas under the joint auspices of the Illinois Central, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Southern Pacific Ry. Cos., and they come on a serious business mission, directly promoted by the railway companies. They want homes and other investments in Texas if they are favorably impressed with the State and its advantages, and they are of the class to make the most desirable citizens.

We need just such people in this city and county, and we need them more perhaps now than ever before. The development of the railroad system of East Texas, while helpful to us in many ways, is undoubtedly taking from us some part of the trade territory that has been securely ours heretofore. This can be made up to us—vastly more than made up, by some well directed and timely enterprise on the part of our people. We must draw capital to establish new local industries, and we must draw immigration to settle up these large areas of our country now unsettled, and consequently contributing nothing to the trade of this city and the common prosperity. This is clearly our right policy, and existing conditions make it imperative that we should begin work vigorously and immediately. South Texas, with natural advantages decidedly inferior to ours, has been permitted to get ahead of us in the matter of immigration and we must begin to hustle lively along the same line. The opportunity is just ahead of us to make a big start. All next Tuesday our city will have hundreds of visitors, men of superior intelligence, all with means and here looking for investments, many for homes. They will take away either good or bad impressions of Nacogdoches, depending for the most part on how they are received and whether they see a clean or a dirty city. They should receive an official and cordial welcome, and the streets and alleys be cleaned for the occasion.

A full stock of leather and rubber belting, shafting, pulleys and all kinds of pipe and steam fittings.
Cason, Richardson & Co.

A millinery opening is always an attraction for ladies, and a large crowd attended the one given by Kaplan Bros. yesterday and day before. ### Something That Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.—Camden (S. C.) Messenger. For sale by Perkins Bros.

Farmers' Institute.

The Nacogdoches County Farmers' Institute met in regular session this morning at the office of Ralph Bateman adjoining Wettermark's bank, with a rather small attendance, owing to court being in session.

The meeting was called to order at 10:30 by President H. S. Edler. Secretary J. D. McKnight was in his station. A list of the members was read and several names added.

A library committee was appointed by the president consisting of J. J. Dollaré, C. W. Harvey, R. W. Haltom and Dr. J. E. Mayfield.

A committee on solicitation of membership was also appointed, the President naming J. S. Doughtie, A. F. Henning, C. W. Harvey, R. Mosby, S. C. Windham and H. Burrows.

On motion it was decided to leave the membership roll open for charter members until after the next regular bi-monthly meeting, after which time members will be elected by ballot.

On motion the county papers were requested to publish a synopsis of the proceedings of each meeting.

There being no further business the Institute adjourned to meet in next regular session on the first Saturday in December.

Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanish before it. The strong endorsement by the bar of this judicial district will be of great benefit to our friend Donley in his contemplated effort to secure the office of assistant attorney general under the Lanham administration. If he "goes in" we sincerely trust he will "win out."

Watterson Last Night.

Thursday's Daily.

A large audience gathered at the opera house last night to hear Henry Watterson in his lecture on "Money and Morals." It was a fine company of the intellectual men and women of Nacogdoches assembled to listen to one of the most intellectual men of this country, along with a sprinkling of others drawn there by the fame of the lecturer, but who went away disappointed because they expected to hear something very different. Mr. Watterson is no spectacular orator; no ranting demagogue of "the stump;" no pompous mountebank in dress suit to "itckle the ears of the groundlings" with broad jokes, cheap philosophy and sonorous platitudes. If he were he would not be the Henry Watterson of national fame, who has delighted and instructed the people of his native land—and especially of his native South—for more than thirty years past by the splendor of his genius and the wisdom of his counsels. It is entirely out of the question to attempt even a synopsis of Mr. Watterson's lecture. It was a structure of the strongest logic adorned with wit, humor, philosophy and rhetoric. The subject suggests the matter to thoughtful people. He went the whole gamut within the wide limitations of his theme, and while he told us some things we knew before, he told us a whole lot—lying fallow in our minds, perhaps,—we never thought of before, and told it with a charm and diction all his own. He preached a pure and noble gospel, grounded on the cold facts of modern life, and no one could listen to him without feeling the better for the listening. Mr. Watterson was introduced to his audience by Hon. S. W. Blount in a brief but appropriate and graceful little speech, and when the lecturer walked down to the front the audience saw a white haired, white mustached man of average stature, strong chest, and shoulders surmounted by a massive head, with a face in which was a curious blending of sternness, firmness and keen appreciation of a joke. Sincerity was written on every line of his features, and the strong chin and jaw suggested how the man had come up from an obscure "rebel" soldier of nearly 40 years ago, through a thousand battles of pen and tongue, to the sure and unique distinction he holds in the hearts of his countrymen now, everywhere, North, South, East and West. We won't say another word about Watterson or his lecture. When he had finished, two of the most intellectual men in Nacogdoches said in the hearing of the writer that Henry Ward Beecher and Ingersoll equaled but did not surpass him. Thanks to Mr. John Schmidt, proprietor of the opera house, for bringing Mr. Watterson here, even though he lost money in doing so.

Orr Has Been Located.

Sheriff Spradley informs The Sentinel that J. D. McKay, alias J. C. Orr, who escaped from jail here several weeks ago, and who is under charge of criminal assault upon the little five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cubbins, had been arrested at Clarksville, Red River county, for a similar crime, and is now in jail at that place. Orr has been indicted for assault to rape by the present grand jury and Judge Davis will demand that the prisoner be delivered to the sheriff of Nacogdoches county, and he will be brought back here and tried at the present term of district court. It is alleged that Orr has been picking cotton around Clarksville and that he stole a little girl five or six years old away from her blind parent and kept her several days, accomplishing a most hellish deed.

Sheriff Spradley says that in correspondence with the sheriff of Williamson county he has discovered that Orr is wanted in that county also for a similar offense.

MOTHERS SICK BABIES LAXAKOLA

Having received your sample of Laxakola, was very much pleased with it and have purchased a bottle for my baby. The Laxakola did wonders for my baby in case of his troubles. I have given up my baby nothing but Laxakola. I find it cheaper and a great relief to my baby than any other medicine I got from C. H. & H. A. I have given him and purchased six.
Mrs. JOHN FAYAT, Duquoin, Pa.
I wish to thank you very much for the good Laxakola has done my little niece, Marion Louise Bass. She is only two and one-half years old, and has suffered something awful from constipation. She has never had what you would call a natural movement. Sometimes we were almost afraid of convulsions, it hurt her so much, and she would be so frightened.
LAXAKOLA is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties, which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhoea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongues, any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, it is invaluable.

Try it Today. Send for a Free Sample. It may Save your Baby's Life or Prevent a Long and Serious Illness. It Costs Nothing; Send For It and mention Your Druggist's Name.

Mr. K. P. Branch is now connected with R. T. Shindler Drug Company. He has been in bad health and has been out of active business for some time. Mr. Branch is no stranger to the trade of Nacogdoches county having conducted a successful grocery business here for several years. He will no doubt carry a good trade to the Drug Company, as he has built a reputation with the farmers and people generally for honesty and fair dealing.

Through her attorneys, Blount & Garrison, of this city, Carrie Fields, colored, has obtained a judgment in the district court here for $1500 damages against the T. and N. O. Ry. # OCTOBER

Is here, the month in which you usually commence to do your fall purchasing.

For the last month we have been busy receiving and opening our Fall Stock in order to be ready for you. They are all in now, and never before was our stock more complete in every department and we are ready to give you the glad hand of welcome and show you through.

Dress Goods and Ready-to-Wear Department.—This department is chuck full of bargains this season, and we have all the latest weaves in Dress Goods with trimmings and linings to match, and are prepared to figure your dress pattern complete very low, but if you are weary of sewing we can fit you up with an up-to-date Tailor Made Suit in the very latest novelties, or Tailor Made Skirt and Shirt Waist cut and made in the very latest style, and guaranteed to fit. We have in this department a full line of Ladies' Capes and Jackets that cannot be excelled in style or workmanship, and the price isn't much. You will also find in this department an elegant line of Ladies' Underwear, both in muslin and knit goods, in separate garments or combination suits, fleeced cotton or wool, at prices that will tempt the closest buyer.

Shoes.—These cool mornings no doubt remind you that the Shoes you have been wearing all summer are getting rather thin. You know we handle the famous Hamilton-Brown Shoes for men, women and children. The kind that give satisfaction. They lack nothing. They have all the requisite popular features, good leather, well put together, forms an enduring combination. This is the principle on which they are built, and that's why they wear so well. We didn't forget anybody when we made our shoe purchases, and we have them to fit all size feet, and to fit any size purse.

Clothing.—If your old suit has begun to look "seedy," come and let us fit you with a new one. We can do so, and the price won't be enough to "chew the rag" about. We sell the kind of Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits, Pants and Overcoats that fit and give satisfaction.

Hats.—Change your appearance. A new hat will do it. You have worn that old straw long enough. It no doubt has that faded "last rose of summer" look. Store it away as a souvenir of the good times you have had at picnics and barbecues this summer, and come to our store with $1 to $2.50 and we will do the rest for you.

Come in to see us, and make our store your headquarters when in town, and we'll always welcome you with a hardy handshake and a warm stove.

Returning to Chreno.

On account of extreme ill health and continued sickness in our family, together with a lack of a desirable residence, we return to our home in Chreno. Through The Sentinel, I wish to thank the ladies of this city that have contributed to my pleasure; for the consideration shown and hospitality accorded me while sojourning in their midst. That I have not been physically able to return your most pleasant calls, or attend your social functions is a source of real regret to me. Perhaps "Had we known each other better, we would loved each other more."

I feel constrained to say that Nacogdoches is blessed with many pure and noble women. Your kindness to strangers is a rare trait of character and cannot be too highly commended.

With best wishes for you all, good bye.

Mrs. Littleton Smith.

Baucom & Son.

Miss Maude Mize, a niece of Mr. Z. F. Mize, died yesterday at Mineola, of consumption, and will be buried at Logansport beside her father, mother and sister. The only one living now being her brother Willie. Miss Maude came from Logansport to make her home with her uncle about 18 months before he moved to Mineola, and in that short time had won the love of all for her sweet disposition and lovely Christian character. She was an earnest member of the Christain Church to her death, was only "going home." While the news of her death was not unexpected owing to her long illness, it was none the less a shock and grief to those who loved her. She was like another daughter in her uncle's home, and the sympathy of all their Nacogdoches friends is extended to the family in their sorrow.

Strayed.

One dun cow and one small red cow. Both branded on right hip with J T A connected. Will pay reward for information. J. M. Avery.

Mr. Joe Clevinger is building to his home on Irion Hill so extensively as to make practically a new house of it.

WORKING MEN,

We want to see you at our store. While here, if you want anything in our line dont hesitate to call for it. Our clerks may not be up on society and may not be able to talk to you as fluently as some, but they can get you what you want and they have strict instructions to misrepresent nothing. So come right in and make yourself at home in our store, whether you want anything or not. You needn't be particular about dressing up or knocking off the dust when you come in, as our furniture is all of the common kind. You can't hurt it. We have nearly all our money invested in drugs and very little invested in furniture. In the course of a few years, when we make enough off of you to afford to do an exclusive city business, we will then put part of our profits in diamonds and the most elegant fixtures you ever saw.

OCTOBER

Is here, the month in which you usually commence to do your fall purchasing.

For the last month we have been busy receiving and opening our Fall Stock in order to be ready for you. They are all in now, and never before was our stock more complete in every department and we are ready to give you the glad hand of welcome and show you through.

Dress Goods and Ready-to-Wear Department.—This department is chuck full of bargains this season, and we have all the latest weaves in Dress Goods with trimmings and linings to match, and are prepared to figure your dress pattern complete very low, but if you are weary of sewing we can fit you up with an up-to-date Tailor Made Suit in the very latest novelties, or Tailor Made Skirt and Shirt Waist cut and made in the very latest style, and guaranteed to fit. We have in this department a full line of Ladies' Capes and Jackets that cannot be excelled in style or workmanship, and the price isn't much. You will also find in this department an elegant line of Ladies' Underwear, both in muslin and knit goods, in separate garments or combination suits, fleeced cotton or wool, at prices that will tempt the closest buyer.

Shoes.—These cool mornings no doubt remind you that the Shoes you have been wearing all summer are getting rather thin. You know we handle the famous Hamilton-Brown Shoes for men, women and children. The kind that give satisfaction. They lack nothing. They have all the requisite popular features, good leather, well put together, forms an enduring combination. This is the principle on which they are built, and that's why they wear so well. We didn't forget anybody when we made our shoe purchases, and we have them to fit all size feet, and to fit any size purse.

Clothing.—If your old suit has begun to look "seedy," come and let us fit you with a new one. We can do so, and the price won't be enough to "chew the rag" about. We sell the kind of Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits, Pants and Overcoats that fit and give satisfaction.

Hats.—Change your appearance. A new hat will do it. You have worn that old straw long enough. It no doubt has that faded "last rose of summer" look. Store it away as a souvenir of the good times you have had at picnics and be a success this summer, and come to our store with $1 to $2.50 and we will do the rest for you.

Come in to see us, and make our store your headquarters when in town, and we'll always welcome you with a hardy handshake and a warm stove.

Returning to Chreno.

On account of extreme ill health and continued sickness in our family, together with a lack of a desirable residence, we return to our home in Chreno. Through The Sentinel, I wish to thank the ladies of this city that have contributed to my pleasure; for the consideration shown and hospitality accorded me while sojourning in their midst. That I have not been physically able to return your most pleasant calls, or attend your social functions is a source of real regret to me. Perhaps "Had we known each other better, We would loved each other more."

I feel constrained to say that Nacogdoches is blessed with many pure and noble women. Your kindness to strangers is a rare trait of character and cannot be too highly commended.

With best wishes for you all, good bye.

Mrs. Littleton Smith.

Stalk cutters have begun to move, we sell the "Deere" none better, many not as good—though high in quality yet moderate in price. Call and see them.

Notice.

Up to Saturday night, flour will remain at reduced prices, after that it will be advanced to suit the market.

Baucom & Son.

Miss Maude Mize, a niece of Mr. Z. F. Mize, died yesterday at Mineola, of consumption, and will be buried at Logansport beside her father, mother and sister. The only one living now being her brother Willie. Miss Maude came from Logansport to make her home with her uncle about 18 months before he moved to Mineola, and in that short time had won the love of all for her sweet disposition and lovely Christian character. She was an earnest member of the Christain Church to her death, was only "going home." While the news of her death was not unexpected owing to her long illness, it was none the less a shock and grief to those who loved her. She was like another daughter in her uncle's home, and the sympathy of all their Nacogdoches friends is extended to the family in their sorrow.

Strayed.

One dun cow and one small red cow. Both branded on right hip with J T A connected. Will pay reward for information. J. M. Avery.

County Tax Notice.

I have received the tax rolls for this year, (1902), and same is now open for collection at the office. H. L. TURNER, Tax Col. Nac. Co.

Mr. Joe Clevinger is building to his home on Irion Hill so extensively as to make practically a new house of it.

WORKING MEN.

We want to see you at our store. While here, if you want anything in our line dont hesitate to call for it. Our clerks may not be up on society and may not be able to talk to you as fluently as some, but they can get you what you want and they have strict instructions to misrepresent nothing. So come right in and make yourself at home in our store, whether you want anything or not. You needn't be particular about dressing up or knocking off the dust when you come in, as our furniture is all of the common kind. You can't hurt it. We have nearly all our money invested in drugs and very little, invested in furniture. In the course of a few years, when we make enough off of you to afford to do an exclusive city business, we will then put part of our profits in diamonds and the most elegant fixtures you ever saw.
