NACOGDOCHES, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1902

NO 14.

WHEN it comes to furnishing the people with "fresh" as well as "well-seasoned" drugs, we can't be beat. We have in our new building a large cellar where the temperature is the same summer and winter. In this cellar we keep all drugs that would be affected by cold or hot weather. No drug store can well afford to be without such a place if they want to keep their drugs in good condition. Don't see how we got along without one so long, but we have one now and if you want drugs that are drugs and that will cure you when you are sick come and see us at the Old Stone Fort Corner.

Yours for health,

Married at Attoyac.
Attoyac, Texas, Nov. 2nd, 1902. Last Wednesday evening at the church at 8 o'clock, Mr. Ervin Rentroe marched up to the altar with Miss Docia Wheeler. Rev. Mr. Mitchel spoke the words that united them in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The bride and groom's attendants were Misses Emma Sayton and Ruby Hodges, Messrs Wayne Crawford and Taylor Perritte.

After the marriage a reception was given them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Palmer. Here the young people spent a most delightful time, until the hour came for them to bid each and all adieu. The bride is one of Attoyac's charming young ladies, and has many friends here. The groom is a most excellent young man of New Hope, and is worthy of the young lady whom he has won as his bride. May they be surrounded by peace and happiness, and their pathway be strewn with flowers; and may there be just enough clouds to cause a glorious sun set.

A friend.

The Arnold Stock Company.
The Arnold Stock Co., who begin a week's engagement at the Opera House on next Monday night, Nov. 10, come with the highest endorsement of both press and public. The Company this season is unusually strong and comprises some of the best known performers in the theatrical profession. The following people comprise the company: J. J. McDonold, Chas. J. Sommers, Walter Lacy, Latimore and Leigh Clayton Macklem, Harry Hall, Earnest and Bert, Foster Ball, Misses Jeannette Miller, Margaret Bower, Lee Glover. The plays the company will present are all entirely new to popular prices. Ladies free to the opening performance Monday night.

Repairing is our specialty. Bring us your harness and saddles to mend.

THE ELECTION RETURNS

Are Not All In. But Democratic Ticket. Except Campbell, is Safe.

The returns from all the boxes in the county except Martinsville, Sterne, Syna and Toliver, were received up to 12 o'clock today, giving the total vote for the county ticket as far as heard from as follows:

Calhoun, 1,260.
Middlebrook, 1,773.
Fuller, 1,184.
Berger, 2,041.
Boynton, 968.
Weeks, 2,130.
Rawlinson, 1,304.
Wells, 1,317.
Murphey, 1,366.
Ray, 1,805.
Spradley, 1,518.
Campbell, 1,072.
Moore, 1,008.
Turner, 1,850.
Birdwell, 1,118.
Hall, 1,807.

Peevey, Watson and Byrd are elected by good majorities.

While these figures are largely speculative, yet they may be counted on reliably as a forestallment of the result.

The report came in about noon that Martinsville had gone largely for Spradley for sheriff, which reduced Campbell's majority to such an extent that the election is conceded to Spradley. With that exception, the entire democratic county ticket is elected by a safe majority.

Later—Reports received from every box in the county gives Spradley the election by a majority of 98 votes.

Texas Committee at Large.

The following letter and Col. Wettermark's response thereto are self-explanatory.

Ft Worth, Oct. 30, '02.
Mr. B. S. Wettermark,
Nacogdoches Texas.

Dear Sir:
You have been appointed Chairman of a committee from Nacogdoches for the purpose of meeting a party of prominent Chicago merchants, manufacturers and bankers, who will visit our state next month.

It is impossible for them to visit your section, and you, and a committee of say five or six of your prominent citizens are requested to meet them in Houston on Monday night, November 10th. They will be in Houston on the 11th, from 2 p. m. until 5 o'clock the following morning, and if you will send this letter, together with your request for transportation, to Mr. C. H. Markham, Vice Pres't. H. & T. C. R. R. at Houston, with the names of the committee, he will send you the transportation for them from Nacogdoches to Houston and return, for this occasion.

Yours truly,
R. D. BOWEN,
Chairman.

Pursuant to the above, I appoint the following committee, who are requested to notify me at once if they can attend,

in order that I may secure transportation as directed

John Shmidt.
Robt. Lindsey.
E. A. Blount.
R. W. Haltom.
D. K. Cason.
W. U. Perkins.

I regard it for the best interests of our town and county to meet these men of money and enterprise, and talk to them of the great future for capital invested in our county, and I hope a full attendance of the committee may be had.

Respectfully,
B. S. WETTERMARK.

Walker-Roberts.

Married at 6:30 p. m. Sunday Nov. 2nd, 1902, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. M. Roberts, Maj. Geo. T. Walker and Miss Joe Roberts, Judge W. D. Peevey performing the ceremony. Maj. Walker came to Nacogdoches from Galveston about two years ago. He is an ex Confederate and has a splendid record. Miss Roberts is known to every one in Nacogdoches, having lived here all her life, and having hosts of friends. Maj. and Mrs. Walker will remain in the city a few days before leaving on their wedding journey. The Sentinel joins with their many other friends in the heartiest congratulations, wishing them an unclouded future.

Shooting this Afternoon.

About 1:30 this afternoon quite a sensation was sprung upon our quiet city by the ringing of two pistol shots in the vicinity of the Wallace (Belk) Hotel. A few moments afterward, Miss Maud Cubley was arrested, and it is alleged that she made an assault upon Oscar Slay with intent to kill. The Sentinel is not in possession of the details of the trouble, but it is understood it is a case of unrequited love and the consequent desperation.

Miss Cubley promptly gave bond to await examining trial.

Tom Mims In Trouble Again.

Houston Chronicle.
Tom Mims has been arrested on two charges of embezzlement, and the amount of money alleged to have been appropriated by him aggregates almost $1900. He was allowed to give an appearance bond of $1000 pending his preliminary hearing, which is set for Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The complaining witness in the case is Mrs. Bettie Hogue. She alleged that in February, 1901, she gave a piece of property into the hands of the accused to sell for her. He realized $1100 on its disposition. Again, a year later, she turned over another lot to him for the same purpose, and on this he obtained $800. Of this money, the witness claims, not a cent ever reverted back to her.

THURSDAY'S LOCALS.

Will Morgan, of Black Jack, was in the city today.

Mayfield Crawford and Sam Watkins, of Linn Flat, were in the city today.

Uncle Jack Allen, of the Lucas farm brought Luke Lucas a sweet potato weighing 3 pounds.

Dr. Brown and wife, of Linn Flat, were in the city today, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Drewry.

Jesse Fuller, of Melrose, was here today on a visit to his brother, H. C. Fuller, and on business.

J. M. Robertson, a prosperous farmer of this county, was in the city this morning on a trading trip.

Mr. J. W. Thompson, of Melrose, brought to The Sentinel office yesterday some fine sweet potatoes as a sample of his crop. He left the potatoes in the office, too, which is the best part of the story.

Miss Ruth Shaw, daughter of Mrs. H. J. Patterson, has returned to Nacogdoches to remain. Miss Shaw has been book keeper for a drug firm at Crockett, Texas, for the past year.

Ed Stephens and family, of Attoyac, were in the city today on their way to Jacksonville, to visit Mrs. Stephens' mother, Mrs. A. P. Stephens, who is now making her home in that city.

Hense Burrows and Arthur Christopher are making preparations to put out hot-beds for tomato plants. They will grow plants for sale, and desire orders from all that will want them as early as possible.

Henry Harris is having his house turned around to Virginia Avenue. When he built there was no street there and he set his house to front town, but when the big street was opened he found that his back doors opened to one of the prettiest thoroughfares in the city, hence he had to "right about face." Mr. W. G. Barron is bossing the job.

Mrs. Heyward arrived last night from South Carolina where she has been visiting relatives the past six months. Mr. Heyward is the nephew of Gov. Heyward of that state and is connected with the telephone company here. He met his wife in Shreveport yesterday. They have rooms at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Locky, and we bespeak for them a cordial welcome to hospitable Nacogdoches.

One of the most interesting old gentlemen in the county, Mr. E. A. I. Evans was in the city yesterday from Appleby. Mr. Evans is 85 years old. His father was in the war of 1812, and when his little son was born in 1818 named him "Etheldred American Independence," and the boy lived up to his name and is still doing it. Mr. Evans explained his presence in town by saying that he had taken the Sentinel for years, and that it had gotten to blowing so much about the way Nacogdoches was growing and spreading out, that he just came town to find out whether the paper was lying or not, and when he got here he found out it hadn't told half the truth. That the half of the progress of the town had not been chronicled. Mr. Evans has been an inhabitant of Texas since 1840 when he moved here from Missouri. May he live long to read the Sentinel and find it true; for it is to such men as he, that Texas owes her greatness,—her brave pioneers.

The Hallowe'en Party.

From Saturday's Daily: The cemetery Association have cause to congratulate themselves on the success of the Hallowe'en party last night. Everybody came and had a good time, while as for the children, they fairly took the place. All present entered into the spirit of the frolic, and serious business men claimed a tortune as eagerly as the children, and dived after apples with as much glee. The witch was a most realistic representation, and the part splendidly acted. The ladies of the Association wish especial thanks given to the orchestra, who refused any remuneration for playing, and, by the beautiful music added the greatest part to the success of the evening. The music committee did their work nobly, and some lovely vocal solos during the latter part of the evening, put the finishing touch to a delightful entertainment.

Oscar Baxter returned yesterday from Galveston, where he attended the Laundrymen's convention.

Mrs. J. R. Seale and Miss Rebecca Fowler, of Melrose, spent yesterday in the city shopping.

Mrs. Eliza Baxter returned to her home in Loneyville, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Burke, of this city.

Mrs. B. Moscovitz, of Hot Springs arrived in Nacogdoches yesterday to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. S. Kaplan.

Messrs. John Teutsch and Will Gray, of Chireno, are here today on business. Mr. Gray is speaking of moving over to San Augustine.

J. C. Aldridge, a substantial farmer of the Mt. Enterprise district in Rusk county, and a good friend to Nacogdoches, was in the city on a business trip today.

Mrs. Finnie Schoner and little boy, of Hot Springs, are visiting in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kaplan. They will spend about two weeks in Nacogdoches.

Miss Mittie Roberts has returned from Corrigan, where she spent a few days. She accompanied her sister, Miss Bessie, who has a music class in that place and will remain some months.

A. A. Sanders, a farmer living near Pine, Texas, says "I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble for thirty years. Have tried every thing on the market for that disease, and received no relief until I tried a bottle of Bak-Ake Specific. I can recommend it to anyone suffering from any form of kidney trouble." Stripling, Hazelwood & Co.

A phone message was received from Dr. J. E. Mayfield, who is at Alto, this morning stating that his wife's mother, Mrs. T. L. Fairris, died this morning at 3:30 o'clock. She will be buried at Alto tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Mrs Fairris has been in very low health for many months and death has relieved her of a long and tedious suffering. She was a patient Christian woman and bore her affliction with fortitude. Her death, while not unexpected, is a deep affliction to her family and near relatives, with whom legions of friends sincerely sympathize.

The Old Stone Fort.

There was a meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. Urwitz, corner of Preston Avenue and Fannin Street, of San Jacinto Chapter, Daughters of the Republic, for the purpose of preparing for an entertainment to be given for the benefit of the movement to restore the Old Stone Fort at Nacogdoches. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. McKeever. The committee on arranging a programme was appointed. It was composed of Mrs. M. Urwitz, chairman of one of the other committees. It was decided to give the entertainment November 5, at the residence of Mrs. R. M. Johnston. The meeting was well attended and the affair will be made a big success.—Galveston News.

The Cemetery Association took in something over fifty dollars last night—including a contribution from one gentleman who after spending the evening at the party, sent the manager a dollar, saying he had had a dollar's worth of fun. The expenses were heavy, so that not above half that amount will be cleared, but the ladies are justifiable in feeling that they have done well, because every one is pleased.

One or two doses of Bak-Ake Specific will relieve kidney trouble. One bottle guaranteed to cure, by Stripling Hazelwood & Co.

Good Health

and pure blood are indispensable. If your blood is bad, your health must suffer. Poor blood allows the body to lose vitality just as a poor fire under the boiler allows the steam to run down. From poor blood to impure blood is but a step, and impure blood is mother to a large percentage of human ills. Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is an antidote for both poor and impure blood, for it is both a builder and purifier—a food and a medicine. It is the best combination of the kind known to medical science, and its success for nearly half a century has led to its endorsement by thousands of medical men who have been unable to find a substitute.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic

will insure you against the many evils resulting from impure blood. Scrofula, pimples, blotches, kidney disorders, rheumatism, gout, dyspepsia, female weakness, anemia, chlorosis, etc., are a few of them; but the greatest evil, the greatest danger, is the general weakening of the whole system, which affords an opening for every passing disease.

The following is only one of the thousands of testimonials we have received:

"I commenced using Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic when prostrated from a severe attack of rheumatism. After using three bottles all traces of this disease were completely eradicated from my system, and my general health was restored. As a blood purifier Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has no equal, and I most sincerely recommend it to all persons suffering from indigestion, fatigue, rheumatism, and the many weakened conditions of the system produced by impoverished blood."

A pair of the smallest mules alive were to be seen on the streets this morning, unhitched from the wagon. Meek-looking, gentle and sad in appearance, they seemed to be a refutation of all the harsh things ever said about mules. But looks was as far as it went. Any one approaching those mules to try to cheer them up, was apt to reproach himself for lack of judgment, and to sadly remark, "Is dis here me or not me? was dat a cannon shot me?" They were b-a-d mules. The men in town were amusing themselves seeing how close they could go, and not get killed. No casualties were reported up to the time of going to press.

The Court's Quick Work.

The District Court of Nacogdoches county deserves the blue ribbon for quick and effective work. Last Friday the negro charged with killing the Hicks family in that county was brought in to court at 10 o'clock, tried convicted, sentenced and hanged before 12 o'clock same day. The entire proceedings were orderly and the results satisfactory. If this was the rule, instead of an exception without a precedent, we would have far less of mob law and a more wholesome regard for the courts. While we rejoice at the result of this trial, we shudder when we think what the results might have been if this negro fiend had have had a few hundred dollars to employ counsel to take advantage of the law's many delays.

The people of Nacogdoches were thoroughly aroused and the opinion is general that not enough soldiers could have been stacked about the jail to have saved that negro for even 30 days. What would have happened while they were getting him would have depended largely upon the action of the soldiery.

We are opposed to mob law on general principles, but it has never occurred to us that a hellish fiend, susceptible of such a crime as the one committed by this negro, has any right which half way decent people should respect.

No punishment, however severe, could meet the demand of justice in a case like this. And, while the law is satisfied, the wrath of an outraged public sentiment must forever go unappeased.—Grapeland Messenger.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadly, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50c at Stripling, Hazelwood & Co's drug store.

Jim Buchanan, the negro who murdered Duncan Hicks and family near Nacogdoches last week was hung at Nacogdoches last Friday. He was tried, convicted and hung within four hours. This is the quickest work we have ever heard of and if this process was practiced there would never be any need for mobs to interfere.—Troupe Banner.

It is estimated that the great coal strike which lasted five months, and which President Roosevelt has the credit of settling, cost somebody $126,000,000. Who paid it?

At midnight last Friday night prohibition went into effect in Smith county and the Tyler Press rejoices in the fact that Smith county and Tyler is without a saloon.

THE Center Daily News is out according to promise and is square up to the "plans and specifications." Bro. McLendon starts off with a newsy little sheet and a bright editorial page, and if the Center people will encourage him his "little daily" will do a great work for Center.

THE "settling" of the coal strike is a good deal like an old sore soothed with a little salve. The "salve" was applied just in time to bring the sore to a passive stage for the election, but the "old sore" is liable to break out again worse than ever after the returns are all in.

DUN'S REVIEW says "speculation waits upon politics, but legitimate business is not disturbed." We didn't know before that speculation was not legitimate. But the truth is, "legitimate business" is even disturbed, and always is, just on the eve of an election, though speculation may be a great deal more effected.

WE are informed by a gentleman from Bronson, Mr. P. K. Williams, that Bro. Fields has received the material, press, type, etc., for his paper and Bronson will be a newspaper town within the next two weeks. Mr. Williams reports that quite a number of store houses and residences have already been erected at Bronson and that place is becoming a town as rapidly as one can be built.

IF the Farm and Ranch knew how many hundreds of new residences there has been built within two miles of the courthouse the past year or two it would say Nacogdoches had already "regained her prestige." Nacogdoches has spread out until its outskirts extend to the Ireleta on the west, the Mitchel branch on the south, the Eggnog branch on the East and all the way to Appleby on the North. Nacogdoches isn't any village.

IT is figured that a bridge across the Attoyac between Chireno and San Augustine would cost $2.00 a foot or about $400. San Augustine county refuses to help build it and it will be necessary for the business men of Nacogdoches to "chip in" pretty freely if we get the bridge built. The commissioners' court will meet in a few days and it will be in order to find out how much the county will give and then go to work and raise the balance of the amount necessary. This matter should not be delayed. Nacogdoches needs that bridge.

BRO. PADON, who went up from Black Jack some weeks ago to take charge of the editorial and business management of the Timpson Bulletin, has entered into partnership with Ernest Weaver and they have purchased the Bulletin. Mr. Padon will continue to edit the Bulletin and will soon move his family to Timpson. Nacogdoches county loses a good citizen and an interesting family by this move, while Timpson is to be congratulated.

AND now the Christian Scientists claim that not J. Pierp nor Teddy ended the coal strike, but they, and they alone did it, by thinking hard about it. And it is in staid old Philadelphia that this is claimed. We have always had an idea that the heavy thinking for the country was done at Boston, but it seems that Philadelphia has the pennant. If the claim of the Christian Scientists is correct, the country ought to claim damages against them for not thinking sooner.

WE wish flatly and positively that the deep thinkers who discuss the Bible from the "Higher Criticism" standpoint, would not print their news, or if they insist on doing so, would put them in a book where none but the learned would read it, (maybe not them.) The way it is now, one cannot pick up a news paper with out being confronted with the statements from college professors that this part of the Bible is a myth, and that an allegory. Men not trained in thought along logical metaphysical lines (and better men because they are not) only see that the Bible is being doubted, and going to the other extreme doubt it all. The Bible believed from "kiver to kiver" has helped more men, saved more souls, done more good than all the higher criticisms since the year one. And if the learned professors could ever grasp that fact they might shut up.

A WRITER in the Farm and Ranch administers a patronizing pat on the head to Nacogdoches that reminds us of Koko's "How de do, little girl," in "The Mikado." He says: "Who knows but that in time Nacogdoches may regain her former prestige?" Our friend is behind the times. Nacogdoches has her "former prestige" has never lost it, and has it now on a sounder basis than when the spot Dallas is on was a howling wilderness, (no offense is intended—all wildernesses howl.)—Nacogdoches was the only safe spot in the surrounding country. She held her prestige then by war; she holds it now by peace. For a time, spent with battle and bound by untavorable conditions, she slept, when all Texas was sleeping, fettered too, but she slept only to dream of the future, and she waked to make those dreams come true. Much remains yet for Nacogdoches to accomplish, much to do; but we do not feel that one who knows so little of our city as to say "at one time the Old Stone Fort was occupied as a saloon," is competent to give an opinion on its past, present and future "prestige"

One hundred new cottages could be rented in Center right now at $8 each, per month. Why on earth don't our capitalists go to building houses? No town can build up very fast unless there are houses for the people to live in.—Center News.

Capitalists can't build houses that most white people want to live in and rent them at $8 a month. If its the eight-dollar kind that are in demand in Center there is not much capital coming into your new metropolis.

THE day is coming when this whole country will be as "dry" as a powder horn. But the prohibitionists will not hasten the day by dabbling in politics. They will lose by the course some of them are pursuing in the present election. Their inconsistency in supporting a man who actually owns a saloon and fighting another who has been only an employee in one is an inconsistency that looks curious to some of us who are prohibitionists for prohibition only, and not for the elevation of one man over another. If we were going to carry our vote that far we certainly would vote against the saloon owner as well as the bar tender.

THE best argument in favor of the bridge over the Attoyac (if any argument is needed) is the fact that San Augustine don't want it. That unbridged Attoyac river is a condition to be met, not a theory to be philosophised over, and in every day that goes over our heads now San Augustine gets the cotton and we—get left. It is not too much to say that every year every cotton merchant will lose more than the entire bridge would cost in the loss of trade. The bridge question should be brought up at the next commissioners' court and not allowed to flag until the cotton wagons can cross the river on the new built bridge. No city can afford to recklessly throw away trade. And that is what Nacogdoches is doing by her delay.

THACKERAY says "Yesterday is the philosopher's property," and it is about all the property the philosophers have, too. This is not a philosophic age. It is a practical one that measures people and nations by what they have accomplished, and the town or the man that is first under the wire usually win what they go after. Nacogdoches county won the tobacco station and several other important things, by going after them, but one thing more it must have—good roads and bridges—or some day we may find the philosopher's prosperity all that is left us. The election is over, and now for developing our county and town. Two floods, a fire and two elections in one short six months, are excuse enough for side-tracking almost every other subject, but now that they are safely over, the next thing is something else, and that something is to work with head, heart and pocket-book for the good of Nacogdoches. Rest assured you will make back all the money you spend on Nacogdoches with her glorious future.

It seems that Texas is attracting unusual attention at present from outside capital. Large parties of excursionists looking for investments are becoming numerous. They can't see the whole State; Texas is too big, and it takes too long to explore it from center to circumference. So some of them have adopted the plan of meeting delegations at some appointed place in order to hear from those sections they cannot see. To this end, a delegation of Nacogdoches people have been invited to meet a party of excursionists from Chicago in Houston next Monday night, the 10th inst. Col. Wettermark has been appointed chairman with request to select his committee and meet these people, as stated, in Houston next Monday night. Col. Wettermark announced his appointments yesterday. It is hoped that the committee will respond in the full spirit of the move, and show these capitalists that Nacogdoches is not indifferent to outside capital and that her people are ready to extend every courtesy to strangers, even to the extent of traveling to Houston to prove it. There may be a great deal for Nacogdoches to gain by this course.

Why, in the name of reason, can a Texas negro vote against the democratic ticket? Texas, with her 'brutal' democratic majority, has done more to educate and elevate the colored people than any other State in the Union.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Nacogdoches is certainly an authority on the "elevation" of the negro.—Houston Post. No joking about this thing, now. We are serious. If the negro would give more heed to his democratic friends in the South, there would be fewer of them "elevated" in the manner referred to in the Post's sarcasm. The negro problem is a hard one—no mistake about it—and it is a fact that the meanest negroes that are still "unelevated" are those that persist in voting any ticket on earth except the democratic ticket. Scheming white men who take advantage of the negro's prejudices against the democrats, because Lincoln was a republican, are responsible for more "mean niggers," than anything else outside of the naturally depraved nature of the utterly ignorant negro. We sincerely believe that if the negroes of the South would vote solid for the democratic ticket and stick to it, it would come nearer solving the race problem than anything that can be done. They are cast among democrats, they have to deal with democrats, live off of them, get favors from them when they can get them no where else. Then why should they not be obligated to vote that ticket, which they would have been doing now, if they had been let alone. The best and most contended negroes in the South are those that have always voted the democratic ticket.

Tom Brady, a private in the Fourth United States infantry, was killed in a row at Browns-ville.

THE magazines and papers have developed a habit of beginning a lot of articles on the first pages, and finishing them all together on some other page. This is slightly confusing to careless readers, and calculated to cause them to form false impressions. Reading an article on the coal strikers in a late magazine, it is all right as far as "The coal strikers should—(finished on page 24)—over to page 24 one goes to find, "be put in a wire pen and fed on young lettuce, etc." On investigation it is found that an article on the rearing of rabbits has also been concluded on the same page. In another magazine an able article on the causes of railroad disasters is interrupted at "The rear car" by the fateful words, "continued on page 1003." Turning the pages hurriedly, you find that it "would be more becoming turned up sharply at the sides with a feather pompon." The Railroad article had had a rear end collision with a piece on how to trim hats. Its all right of course when one gets it straight, but it is liable to leave the impression that the new fall hats ought to slow up and whistle at the crossing. (And some of them ought.) With the newspapers it is even worse, for one is liable to get the conclusion of one murder, sensation or speech, on the beginning of another, and never find out the difference. It is a matter that needs reform.

Rice-Growing in Smith County.

Another valuable crop can now be added to the diversification of crops in Smith county. This crop is upland rice. That is, rice which grows well on upland. Mr. Geo. M. Johnson, of this city, planted one and one-half acres of rice this year, and it matured a fine crop. It is well and fully grown, with full-grown grains, that show it to be fine rice. This rice has grown on upland, and stood the drought, being green all the spring, when other vegetation was parched by the hot winds and sun. It is a species of Honduras rice, and it is said to be especially adapted to uplands, and Mr. Johnson's experience seems to fully establish the fact that it is. Mr. Johnson says that one acre of this rice is worth five acres of oats for feeding stock, and it will grow when oats will not. Smith county farmers should investigate it, for this is the day of diversification among progressive and up-to-date farmers. We haven't the least doubt that this rice can be made a very valuable crop in this county, and we hope our farmers will take hold of it. We have some specimen heads in our office which we will take pleasure in showing.—Tyler Press.

"Snapshots" remarks, apropos of nothing in Heaven or earth, that we can see.—"One rarely sees a name on a tombstone parted in the middle," but snapshots should remember that one so rarely sees a tombstone parted in the middle.

Now that Nacogdoches has got the government tobacco station, it is to be hoped that she will not smoke and spit her life away.—Houston Post. Have a "chaw" with us.

Dear Mr. Sentinel: You are just right, when you say it is very necessary to drop a little lump of charity in what we think, say and do. Of course there are special exceptions to social as well as other questions.

I had two negro chums once. One of them was the best negro I ever saw and the other one is now in the pen.

You know when we talk about the negro question, like all other social and political issues we have to deal with it as a whole. We have lots of negroes who have as big souls and could take on as much intelligence as Brooker T. Washington, but I can't get use to inviting them to dine with Mrs. Hayseed and her three lasies.

You see, Uncle Sam started out with a most excellent high spirited, patriotic stock of wellbreads, who were the better fitted to rule than to be ruled, and when he got busy one day some of the Hayseed boys stepped over into Africa and fetched back some of Aunt Dina's girls and boys and put them in the kitchen and cotton patch. This, of course, aroused Uncle Sam's animus and he gave these rude boys a flogging and opened the kitchen door and pulled down the cotton patch bars, and says he: "Now Dina, you and Sambo be one of us," and dont you see Sambo and Dina are trying to obey orders. Now you see Uncle Sam said this while in the heat of passion, whereas, if he had been in a cool stage of mind he would have said, "Now Sambo, whenever you and Dina get ready to go back home I'll give you a free pass." Just as it is, we aint only got to annul, but repeal some of the primary laws of nature before we can effectively use the 14th amendment. Yes, Mr. Sentinel, it's going to take a long time to rub out that opaque neature and remove that bump of animal passion in the back of Sambo's head.

It would take the buzzards a long time to learn how to fly and build as high as the eagles and if a bunch of buzzards was corald in the same coop with a bunch of eagles, you know a "survival of the fittest" would soon take place. You know what a time every nation has had, that tried to make it's slaves some of it. Look at Hayti. Look at Rusia. Instead of making citizens out of her slaves, she has made nihilist and anarchist.

Moses raised the largest, best, well regulated family of citizens of any other statesman and he kept all foreign and ill-bred stock weeded out.

Hayseed.

A couple of Center children decided to clope and get married last Wednesday night, but the father of the girl overtook them before they reached Lognsport and escorted them back home. Neither of the children were more than 15 years old.—Center Daily News.

TEXAS NEWS NOTES.

Col. J. R. Beath, aged 74 years, an old resident of Travis country, is dead.

Rev. Lawrence Wyer, an aged Catholic priest of Victoria, who was very popular and well known in South Texas, is dead.

Denison and Sherman have taken the initiative in providing for displays at the world's fair.

In a quarrel at a roundup near Colorado City a cattleman named Johnson was shot and instantly killed.

Gas is so bad around some of the oil wells on Spindletop that men cannot be hired to work in their vicinity.

The first cold wave of the season has struck El Paso.

Oil specialists from Holland are studying the Spindletop field.

Citizens of Logansport will endeavor to have the Sabine river made navigable as far up as their town.

Directors of the A. and M. college ask for more money to make it a first-class institution of learning.

Walter Peay, a car repairer of the Cotton Belt road, was run over by a boxcar and died two hours later.

Paulist fathers of the Catholic church are conducting a two weeks mission at Houston with great success.

Insurance agents in El Paso have been arrested, charged with insuring consumptives and dividing the money.

George Holcomb, a resident of Conroe who was out near Brantley Switch with a hunting party, was run down by a Santa Fe train and instantly killed.

Kissing the "Cook."

One of our neighboring papers relates the story of a lady in their locality who being of a jealous disposition thought that her husband had been in the habit of kissing the hired girl, and resolve to catch him in the act. After watching him a few days, she saw him coming home one evening and the kitchen was quite dark. Burning with jealousy the wife took a few matches and hastily placed a shawl over her head as the girl often did; she entered the kitchen by the back door, and immediately she was seized and kissed in a most ardent manner. With a heart almost bursting the wife prepared to administer a terrible rebuke to the faithful spouse, and tearing her self from the fond embrace, struck a match and stood face to face with the hired man. The husband says his wife has been exceptionally good to him since the eventful night.—Longview News.

The Chatauqua Circle met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Clyde Parrish. In spite of the unfavorable weather there was a full attendance, and the meeting was a most interesting one. The meeting next Tuesday will be held with Mrs. George King.

Mrs. A. W. Grimes is still quite ill.

Benton Wilson has moved into the old Nelson place on North street, formerly occupied by Mrs. Wallace.

Mrs. Arnold, Miss Minnie and Mr. Louis, will leave tonight for Shreveport for a week's visit.

Stripling Haselwood & Co. had one of their large plate glass windows arranged as a bulletin board yesterday. It is in tabulated form, and is one of the most appreciated pieces of work done during election. People interested in the returns, actually feel under obligations to this firm for the thoughtfulness displayed, and the convenient way the board is arranged. Last night it was almost impossible to get past, or into the drug store owing to the eagerness of the crowd to get the latest returns, and today it was almost as much crowded. The town owes the firm thanks for their courtesy and consideration.

Manager J. F. Arnold, of the Arnold Stock Co., who appear at the Opera House in this city for a week's engagement, commencing on next Monday night, has the proud distinction, of being the only manager in the repertoire business presenting an absolutely continuous performance. He has always carried the best vaudeville obtainable and introduced between acts. He has every reason to be unusually proud of this portion of the Company this season, his specialty people for the greater part coming from the leading continuous Show Houses of this country. Ladies free Monday night.

We don't care where the capital comes from, it would be truly gratifying to see a hundred thousand dollar cotton mill in operation in Nacogdoches.

There really seems to be something in the rumor that Judge Davis intends to resign the office of district judge, and candidates are becoming numerous. The latest mentioned is the Hon. H. B. Short, of Center.

Our Red Land rival, San Augustine, is suffering from a smallpox epidemic. That's too bad; just as she is starting off on a big boom. But it won't last long, and everything will be all right as soon those railroad camps move out.

Speaking of the hanging of Jim Buchanan, the Jacksonville Banner says: "It's a pity the mob didn't get the brute in the beginning; he would have reached his destination several days sooner, and the state would have been a few thousand ahead." Then what would the Gal-Dal News have done for a hero and a patriot and a candidate for governor two years ahead?

Our friend, Geo. F. Fuller, in his little "speel" through the Plaindealer, quotes Henry Watterson as saying "beware of the man who loves his party more than he does his country, and money more than his morals." Perhaps Henry didn't think of it, but if he had we do not doubt he would have also said "beware of the man who loves office better than party or country, and runs for office for the money there is in it." Fuller quit the democrats because they wouldn't give him an office.

There is complaint that there is not enough independence in the management of the State Experiment Station at Troupe, and consequently it is likely to be a failure. Everything done must be sanctioned by the officers at College Station, and as there is such a diversity of soil, mode of cultivation, etc., between the two sections of the State that it is not believed that an experiment in East Texas can be successfully under the direction of a head superintendent in South Texas station.

Every once and a while, the Alto correspondent to the Jacksonville Banner gives us a scare like this: "Alto has received a large number of bales of cotton this week from a distance. Farmers from Houston, Anderson and Nacogdoches counties bring their cotton here. They claim that they can get as good price for it as they can at some of the larger towns, and they find goods cheaper." There is always a scattering remnant of trade that will go any where, but the bulk of the cotton between the Angelina river and Alto comes to the "larger towns."

MORE ROT.

We publish the following from the Jackson, Miss., Clarion Ledger, reproduced in part in this week's Plaindealer, without comment. It is only a sample of the slush that is going the rounds of the outside press, and is just about as near the whole truth as anything else we have seen from this source. Under the caption of "Spradley a Mississippian," the Clarion-Ledger says:

"John Spradley, the Texas sheriff who dodged all around over several counties in his efforts to save the negro Buchanan who had murdered the Hicks family near Nacogdoches, from falling into the hands of a mob, is a native of the state of Mississippi, having been born and raised in the neighboring county of Simpson. Thirty years ago Spradley was living near Fayette Hill, now the gravel pit, on the Gulf and Ship Island railroad, and a highly respected young farmer. He might have been there yet, but for an unfortunate difficulty, in which he shot and killed two young men—Jim and Jack Hays, Spradley left for parts unknown, and the next heard of him he was the Sheriff at Nacogdoches Tex., and one of the most influential citizens of that section of the country. He has held the office for fifteen or twenty years, and is so popular, because largely of his fearlessness, that no man can beat him for the office to which he may aspire.

It is stated that in the discharge of his duties as sheriff he has been forced to the necessity of killing three desperate characters in Texas, and has wounded several others. During the administration of Gov. Lowry Spradley returned to Mississippi and walked into the governor's office, where he made himself known. The governor had been his attorney in the Hays killing case back in the early seventies, and recognized him after a few moments' conversation. The indictments against him in Simpson county were long ago quashed, but the man is not forgotten, and he has a number of old friends and neighbors who are happy to learn that he is prospering and doing his duty as an officer, though the criminal he was protecting from the mob was only a negro.

Mississippi has furnished a number of brave men to Texas, but none braver than John Spradley. The writer has been informed by a gentleman who lived in Nacogdoches some six or eight years ago, when the Populites were at their strongest, that Spradley became involved in a difficulty with the editor of the Chronicle, a man by the name Haltom, who was a populite, while Spradley was a democrat. Meeting Haltom on the street, Spradley pulled two big pistols out of his pocket, threw both on the ground in front of the editor and told him to take his choice and go to shooting. The invitation might have been accepted, but friends jumped in and separated the two men, so there was no fight."

THE redoubtable James Hays Quarles has returned to Texas. Couldn't stay away. After a brief career in Virginia, where he achieved notoriety and was elected secretary of the State democratic executive committee, he has come back to Texas and is now managing editor of the Gainesville Messenger. Quarles is noted for the noise he makes and we all expect the Messenger to be a loud democratic organ while the Colonel is connected with it.

Since the report gained currency that Judge Davis would probably resign his position as district judge, we have heard two names mentioned very favorably for the place—Judge Geo. F. Ingraham, of Nacogdoches, and Judge Sam P. Willson, of Rusk. Either of them would honor the bench.—Timpson Times.

Truly, we have to go away from home to get the news. Judge Davis has been right here in Nacogdoches the past six weeks and this is the first we have heard of his contemplated resignation. Surely Judge Davis wouldn't take such a grave step without consulting The Sentinel.

There is a circular out, which the author is evidently ashamed to acknowledge, that is utterly vile and slanderous toward the democratic ticket. It accuses the democrats of flooding the county with mean whiskey and asserts that there are democratic nominees whose veins, if punctured, would run whiskey, and so on. And this comes from a side that has placed great stress upon its promise of a clean campaign. As to flooding the country with whiskey, a saloon man was heard to say the other day that "there is a hell of a lot of whiskey being sent out" from his place, (of course he didn't know what for,) and if there is anything on earth that we could not be made to believe it is that a democrat would send out whiskey from that saloon for campaign purposes.

Nacogdoches has secured the government tobacco station and Beaumont will likely get the government tea experiment station. Orange might have secured either one or both of these public enterprises, but there was no one to ask for them. If we had a progressive league it would at least make an effort to capture all such plums as these, and then if it were not successful we would not have ourselves to blame.—Orange Tribune.

Business leagues, boards of trade and such organizations are good things, but the whole people of Nacogdoches are a "progressive league." When we want a thing here right bad we all go after it—just like an old fashioned house-raising or a log-rolling. There wasn't any committee sent out to ask for the tobacco experiment station. The government sent a man here to examine the soil and he said it was good and announced that Nacogdoches had an even chance with several other localities. That settled it. Nacogdoches never loses anything when she has an even chance at it.

A proposition has been made to the Austin city council to rebuild the dam.

AS TO RESPONSIBILITY.

The condition of the jail is responsible for the murder of the Hicks family, as well as the deeds of other escaped jail birds. Sheriff Spradley begged the court to either repair the jail or employ guards to keep prisoners from walking out, but they flatly refused the request. If anybody is responsible for the triple murder and all the consequent unpleasantness, it is the bull-headed commissioners' court, which has appeared to favor the criminals all the way through. It has cost the taxpayer more money to capture, try and execute Buchanan than it would have cost to make the jail building absolutely safe or to guard it a year. The Plaindealer has raised its "we sma" voice many times anent this subject, but the court "would not listen; pleading was in vain." Result: Three newly made graves and a skeleton for some medical college.—Plaindealer.

The Plaindealer discusses this question only from Sheriff Spradley's standpoint. It ignores the fact that the commissioners court, well knowing the condition of the jail and the impracticability of its being successfully repaired, submitted the proposition to build a new jail to the people, which they rejected overwhelmingly with their votes. The next best thing, then, the court could do was to make arrangements with some neighboring county for the use of its jail until something could be done to relieve the situation. To this end a contract was entered into with Angelina county, and at the May term of said court the following order was spread upon the minutes:

"It is ordered by the Court that the County Judge draw specifications, and advertise for bids for putting a wood floor in the jail, said floor to be six inches thick, and also for fixing side next to sewerage, and it is further ordered by the Court, all members concurring, that the guards at the jail be dismissed, and that all parties in the custody of the sheriff, or who may come into his custody, charged with a felony, be sent to the Angelina County Sheriff for safe keeping, arrangements having been perfected with the authorities of said county to that end, and the misdemeanor cases remain in the jail."

And right here is where the bull headedness comes in. The commissioners' court was doing its level best to get out of the dilemma, but Sheriff Spradley was so "bull-headed" that he "flatly" refused to obey the order of the court, and when the prisoners, Buchanan among them, broke out again he let them stay out. Buchanan evidently never left the county, yet he was never recaptured until after he committed that awful crime. It appears to us that the Plaindealer is shaking its "gory locks" in the wrong direction, and that no living man is more responsible for the murder of the Hicks family than the sheriff of Nacogdoches county.

The government weather bulletin predicts that killing frosts will fall in this vicinity between the 1st and 10th of November.

From Judge Ingraham.
To the Editor of The Sentinel:
In your paper yesterday I notice the rumor that the Hon. Tom C. Davis may resign, and my name used in connection therewith, in the article you quote.

I know nothing of the truthfulness of the rumor, but desire to say that in no contingency that I now can see, will I be an applicant for appointment to the position, even if the rumor is true.

Respectfully,
GEO. F. INGRAHAM.

By sending 13 miles Wm. Spirey, of Walton Furnace, Vt., got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that wholly cured a horrible fever sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures bruises, fells, ulcers, eruptions, boils, burns, corns and piles. Only 25c. Guaranteed by Strippling, Haselwood, & Co.

Died, Oct. 30th, 1902, at 4 p. m. Katie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Wells. She was only eight years old when she died, and her bright and winsome ways made her the pet of every one who knew her, and the idol of the household. She was only ill a few days and as she lay in her little coffin, "she seemed a creature fresh from the hand of God, and waiting for the breath of life, not one who had lived and suffered death." Eternal life is hers, and death, with its terrors is past for her forever, but to those who loved the happy child, the world is dark. The friends of the family extend their loving sympathy, and amid a large gathering of those who knew and loved little Katie. She was tenderly laid to rest in the Nacogdoches cemetery this afternoon at 3 o'clock. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Startling, But True.
"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dempsytown, Pa., "you'd sell all you had in a day. Two weeks use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at Strippling, Haselwood & Co's drug store.

Telephone message from Dr. P. G. Swearingen, at Center, the county health officer, says that he is having trouble with smallpox in the lower end of the county, between Patroon and East Hamilton. The Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel of Monday, October 20th, came to us this week. It was of twenty pages well filled with ads and interesting matter incident to the rise and progress of that interesting town. Nacogdoches in some respects is one of the most interesting spots on earth. Its beginning dates back to the time when it was a Spanish outpost on the frontiers to watch the French in Louisiana some three hundred years ago—more or less. The history and traditions of Nacogdoches are practically the history of Texas. It was here that Haden Edwards, Frost Thorn, Ellis P. Bean and a host of others first planted and began the work of rescuing a wilder ness country from the hands of wild savages. Following close in the wake of these sturdy pioneers came Sam Houston, Thos. J. Rusk Pinckney Henderson, Ochiltree, Lipscomb and Hemphill, on down to Orim M. Roberts, the "Old Alcalde," and all the other old-time state-makers. No spot in the western world ever became noted as this old historic town has in giving home and asylum to so many historical celebrities. The awful shades of her illustrious dead seem yet to cluster in every nook and cranny of the old town, and there spirits marching on to the clank of modern civilization. The wild man in buckskin has given way to a hustling thriving little city, nestling in the midst of beautiful hills, beside lovely waters and in the shade of many trees, including the historic old elm. May her days be long and prosperous and her shadow never grow less.—Kountze Texas News.

In issuing its special edition the Journal takes pleasure in noting the splendid one, sent out from the Nacogdoches Sentinel's office on the 20th of this month. Many larger papers in larger cities have issued within the last few weeks some very excellent specials, but when the size of Nacogdoches and the limitations of The Sentinel are taken into consideration not one was better or more flattering to the city of its publication than the Sentinel's and not one more deserving of praise. It was large, it was excellent in make-up and appearance, and contained, besides a great deal of good matter, a wealth of advertisements that promised well for the financial result of the undertaking. The Journal congratulates both the Sentinel and Nacogdoches on the achievement.—Beaumont Journal.

MOTHERS TESTIFY TO THE BENEFITS THEIR SICK BABIES HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE USE OF LAXAKOLA

Having received your sample of Laxakola, was very much pleased with it, and have purchased a bottle for my baby. The Laxakola did wonders for my boy in case of bowel troubles. I have given up Castoria and give my baby nothing but Laxakola, and find it cheaper and a great deal better. I got it from C. H. & H. A. Union for Union and Purchase Sts., North Bedford, Mass.

Mrs. CLARENCE CARWELL,
20th Dartmouth, Smith Mills, Mass.

Enclosed please find 50 cents in stamps for a bottle of Laxakola. I used your sample bottle and it did all you claim for it, as it helped my baby wonderfully.

Mrs. JOHN PARNAULT,
Union Deposit, Dauphin Co., Pa.

I wish to thank you very much for the good Laxakola has done my little niece, Merion Lurline Bass. She is only two and one-half years old, and has suffered something awful from constipation. She has never had what you would call a natural movement. Sometimes we were almost afraid of convulsions, it hurt her so much, and she would be so frightened.

LAXAKOLA is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties, which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhoea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongues, any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, it is invaluable.

Try it Today. Send for a Free Sample. It may Save your Baby's Life or Prevent a Long and Serious Illness. It Costs Nothing! Send For It and mention Your Druggist's Name.

MONDAY'S LOCALS.

Ben Linz, of Dallas, was registered at the Banita yesterday.

John Perkins returned from a short trip to Timpson this afternoon.

Willie Sanders spent yesterday at the old home place near Alazan.

C. Vohmann returned from Galveston on Saturday, where he has been the past week or ten days.

Zeno Cox, Jr., is visiting J. E. Ryan's railroad camp, over in Cherokee county.

Several Nacogdoches sportsmen came in this morning with a fine lot of ducks.

J. F. Risinger of Tenaha visited our city on Saturday and was shaking hands with his Nacogdoches friends.

Harry Deutschner, of New Orleans, spent Saturday in Nacogdoches in the interest of his house.

Mrs. Will Smith of Lufkin and the baby, are in the city on a visit to Mrs. Smith's sister Mrs. B. F. Hardeman.

Mr. R. F. Kronauer has lately arrived in Nacogdoches from Switzerland, and will be associated with Mr. C. Vohman at this place during the remainder of the cotton season.

Lit Herrin returned Saturday from another visit to his "folks" at Omen. We'll bet he has to buy two tickets on his return from up there one of these days.

Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Jim Seale of this city, and Miss Allie Fleishel, of Tyler. The wedding will take place on the 12th of Nov. at the residence of Miss Fleishel's mother, Mrs. Florence Fleishel.

TUESDAY'S LOCALS.

W. T. Wilson, of San Augustine, is in the city.

John Johnson, of San Augustine, is in the city.

Miss Clyde Paine is now an attache of The Sentinel office. She is learning the "art preservative."

Mr. J. G. Orton and Miss Zula left last Monday night to attend the Baptist convention at Waco.

Frank Tucker has returned from San Augustine. He just came up for the day, returning this evening to San Augustine.

E. L. Ruark and R. H. Coston, of Mt. Enterprise, brought cotton down yesterday and spent last night in the city.

R. F. Faine paid the Sentinel a pleasant visit this morning, and brought with him some exceptionally fine stalks of cane.

Col. Wm. Burrows, of Poe, was in the city today to vote. He says Poe is for sale or rent—for the tobacco station, or any other good thing.

Mrs. Jennie B. Holms arrived last night from Waco, to visit friends and relatives in this city, she is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. C. Shindler.

Colonel Dabney White, of Henderson, spent last night in the city on a hurried business visit. He returned to Henderson this morning.

Mrs. Robt. Lindsey left last night for Tyler where she will visit her many relatives and friends in that place. She will remain in Tyler until after the Seale-Fleishel wedding.

Mrs. E. M. Dotson left last night for Waco where she will attend the Baptist Convention at that place, and also visit her daughter, Miss Pauline, who is attending Baylor University. Mrs. Dotson's little twin boys accompanied her.

The cemetery Association cleared $37.45 at the Halloween party. This was only possible by the generosity of many who made the expenses lighter than they otherwise would have been. To all who helped, the ladies are thankful, and they appreciate both the attendance and the many kindnesses shown.

A letter was shown to the office this morning that has done more traveling than falls to the lot of most people. It was mailed on the 26th of last July, by Mr. E. A. Blount to a party in Sydney Australia. Not finding the man when it reached the Antipodes where it arrived on Sept. 29; it was started back, reaching home via San Francisco, this morning, having traveled 20,000 miles. It was none the worse for the long journey. A close inspection of the envelope to find out all about Sydney that we could, reveals the fact that they do not use as good post office stamps as we do,—not as good as Nacogdoches does, and that the man who redirected the letter, writes a first class hand. That's all the Sydney news we could learn.

We have a great many goods in stock that people must have, and now as money is scarce, we will make it to your interest to come and see us, and get our prices.

Dotson Bros. Eucaline is without an equal.

J. F. Buckner, of Glenlawn, Rusk county, was in the city today.

Mr. S. C. Southern has gone to Swift to paint and paper the new Masonic Hall, and will be there a week or two.

Mrs. Nora Wallace took charge of what is known as the Belk Hotel on the first, and will undoubtedly be a most successful manager of the Hotel as she is experienced in the art of pleasing boarders.

Mrs. Nora Cole died last night at eight o'clock after a long illness. Her death is one of the saddest, for she leaves six fatherless children, the youngest an infant. The heart of everyone goes out to the orphans left to battle with the world alone. The funeral took place at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the city cemetery.

The infant son of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Lockey died yesterday afternoon at ten minutes past three o'clock, after a long and painful illness. The little one was only about two months old. His short life had been full of suffering, but his tiny fingers were twined around hearts that ache today, because of the baby that went back to Heaven before he had learned aught of earth. The funeral took place this afternoon at three o'clock. The sympathy of all their friends is with the parents in their heavy trial, and The Sentinel extends its sincerest condolences to the grief stricken household.

Peach Seed Wanted.

Any one having peach seed gathered, or who can gather good seed will be well paid for them in cash or in exchange for trees if they will apply to me and state the number they have or can get together. Remember also that I still have a full line of peaches, apples, pear, plum and fig trees of the leading varieties adapted to this section and will be glad to have your orders while they yet last. Ladies do not forget the rose garden this fall. I have a specially selected list which is best adapted to East Texas conditions and the plants are stocky out door grown and will be sure to give the best results. Rush the matter of peach seed as it will be too late to use them soon. Apply to me at Garrison, Texas.

President W. G. Ragley of the Timpson Northwestern railroad was walking into town last night, and when he was about a mile from the city a footpad stepped out from the roadside and commanded him to halt. Instead of obeying the command, Mr. Ragley knocked the robber down with a stout stick he usually carried at night and "hotfooted" it into town.—Timpson Times.

The Curtiss company is an organization of clever stage people, and they grow more in popularity at each performance. Miss Dale will be remembered in future as one of the brightest "stars" that has appeared before the footlights of the Nacogdoches opera house.

Preferred Hanging.

Fort Worth, Nov. 2.—The jury which tried Robert Goettche, who shot and killed George Foegle three months ago, after being out since yesterday evening, today returned a verdict giving the prisoner a life sentence. Or learning his fate, Goettche sent the jury and judge word that he preferred hanging and asked to have the verdict changed if possible. Goettche was enamored with the wife of Foegle, and on the night of the killing went to Foegle, who was a bartender, and told him if he did not consent to divorcing his wife he would kill him. Foegle refused, and Goettche fired several shots at him. Foegle lived several days after the shooting, finally dying at Galveston.

Twenty-five years ago the writer saw on several occasions, immigrants from the Pan-Handle pass through this city with buffalo calves tied to their wagons. The sight excited only a passing attention. At that time they were numbered by the millions. But they have all passed and gone. The latest estimate is that there are only three hundred buffalo in the United States. They are dying out on account of in-breeding. The rapid decline of the Indian tribes began with the extermination of the buffalo. The animal supplied them with nearly all the necessities of life, raiment, shelter, war implements, etc.—Denison Gazetteer.

Burt Casley and Jim Sims, alleged outlaws, were trapped and shot dead in Oklahoma.
