MURDER AND ARSON AT LIVINGSTON

Attempt to Burn Stores and Citizens Fired On While Extinguishing Flames.

Livingston Local:

Monday night, about 8 o'clock some one shot into the residence of Pat Laramore, completely demolishing a window. Mr. Laramore and family and brother, Enoch, were in the house but were not injured.

The officers were summoned to the scene and while they were investigating same the alarm of fire was given in town and upon investigation it was found that fires had been built under the stores of J. W. Cochran & Co. and C. J. Gerlach & Bro.

Every body rushed to the above named stores and the fire under the store of Cochran & Co. was put out at once, but just as the crowd got to Gerlach & Bro's, they were fired upon with shot guns, inflicting a mortal wound on Mack Zimmerman, a buck shot striking him just above the left temple entering the brain, and sprinkling about half dozen others with small shot.

Mr. Zimmerman lingered in an unconscious condition until Thursday morning when he succumbed to the wound. He was a hard working young man, a faithful son and loving brother, and if he had an enemy it was not known to his friends here.

Guards were placed around Mr. Laramore's house and about 11 o'clock were fired upon from ambush, one shot striking the lock of Oscar Wilson's gun, breaking the pin that holds them on causing them to fall from the gun. Oscar's finger was bruised some, but otherwise he was not hurt. The rest of the guards shot in the direction of the would be assassin, but so far as known, without effect.

It is thought by many that the trouble grew out of some negroes being whipped Saturday night for peddling whiskey on the streets. This practice of whiskey peddling has, we understand, been going on for some time and should not, and we believe will not, be tolerated longer by our citizens.

This is one of the worst deeds ever perpetrated upon this community and if the guilty party or parties are found, should and no doubt will, be placed where they cannot again commit such deeds.

Sheriff Spradley came down Tuesday morning with his dogs to help investigate the matter, but as the officers have kept everything to themselves as far as possible, we are unable to state what they ascertained. The grand jury returned bills for murder, assault with intent to murder and arson against John Henry yesterday and his bond was fixed at $2,500 in the murder case and $300 in each of the other cases, which he gave.

The same bills were returned against Bill Singletary (colored) who was placed in jail.

To Those Who Owe Us.

Nacogdoches, Texas, Dec. 15, 1902.—We think we have written to every customer on our books, asking for a settlement of their indebtedness to us. In our anxiety to hear from every one, we may have written to you more than once. If we have, it indicates our need of the money you were owing us, and our anxiety to know just what we could realize on what we had out. To those who have responded to our request for a settlement, we wish to extend our thanks; to those who have failed to come in and make satisfactory arrangements, we wish to say that we now insist upon a settlement of your indebtedness and ask that you make same before January 1st, and relieve us of the expense of sending to see you or taking such other steps as may be necessary to collect from you.

One letter to you and this notice are measures we were forced to resort to by the demands of our business, and we trust you will decide to consider same in a business like way and come in at once and settle with us.

Very truly,
Mayer & Schmidt.

Accidental Killing.

From Monday's Daily:

A. Chesnutt, Esq., of this city, received a telegram yesterday evening informing him of the accidental killing of his brother, Joseph Chesnutt, of Bee county, which occurred yesterday morning. As near as The Sentinel can get particulars, it appears that Mr. Chesnutt and a friend had gone out deer hunting, and that his friend mistook him for a deer while they were in a clump of bushes and fired at him with fatal effect. His brother left on the early train this morning and will arrive in Bee county this afternoon in time to attend the funeral. Joe Chesnutt, the unfortunate victim, was formerly a citizen of this county and was quite well known at Chireno. He was justice of the peace in the precinct in which he lived in Bee county.

Accident at Oil Mill.

The name of the negro, who had the misfortune to lose an arm at the oil mill yesterday afternoon is Pleas Matthews. It was one of those accidents that will happen now and then in the operation of big machinery, and was more due to carelessness of the unfortunate victim than anything else. The negro loses an arm and a warning is given to others to be careful.

Killing at Clevinger.

A negro, commonly known around Nacogdoches as "Pat," was killed at Clevinger's mill yesterday afternoon. The killing was either accidental or suicide, as the fatal shot was fired from a 44 pistol in the hands of the victim. The report of a pistol was heard, and upon investigation the negro was found dead with the pistol in his hand. It will never be known whether the negro's death was a suicide or an accident.

Colored Fruit and Truck Growers.

The colored farmers of Nacogdoches county met at the court house Saturday and organized a fruit and truck growers' association, electing the following officers: R. J. Fuller, president; D. C. Thompson, vice-president; M. H. Harris, secretary; N. E. Campbell, assistant secretary; Wm. Sanders, treasurer; T. C. Ayers, P. E. Walton and Stout Ham, executive committee.

Another meeting will be held at the Colored Baptist Hall in this city, Jan. 10th, 1903. All colored farmers of Nacogdoches county are requested to be present.

MELROSE LETTER.

Newsy Notes Jotted Down By The Sentinel's Correspondent.

Melrose, Dec. 14.—Luther Switt, who was wounded here the other day, is doing very well, so say his attendants, and the excited and alighted citizens are gradually resuming their normal nervous status.

The school here, under the management of Prop. Brown, and Miss McClure, his assistant, is progressing well. I don't know how many pupils are attending the school, but judging from the number I saw when they were turned out in the evening their homes and the woods were full of them when they got there.

There has been within this year considerable improvement made in and about Melrose in putting up new buildings, repairing others, fences etc.

No serious sickness among the people. Some old people are as usual gouting, but they would not feel right unless they had some thing to make one grunt.

L. T. Barrett.

Miss Clara Guynes and her little sister Emma of Appleby, were in the city yesterday shopping.

MALTON & HALTOM, Publishers.

R. W. HALTOM, Editor.

THE Center Champion complains of the raffle nuisance. That is one of the biggest "industries" in East Texas.

TIMPSON is going to have a compress in operation before another cotton season opens. A company of stock holders has already been organized.

THE Gregg County News says: "Sherman has a proposition from parties in Illinois to establish a glass bottle factory there." There must be great risk in putting money in that sort of a factory. They break so easy.

THE fruit and truck growers' exchange is an assured thing now, and it will correct many evils that have annoyed the fruit and truck growers heretofore. Experience is teaching the people much and they are profiting by it.

THE Jacksonville Banner complains of "notoriously bad roads" in Cherokee county. We are willing to put Nacogdoches county's roads against any body's and if we can't show worse roads than Cherokee, or any old county, we'll quit bragging about it.

HEMPHILL was left out in the cold by the Kirby road and she has found out after it was too late that railroads are not to be fooled with. An effort is now being made to secure the Orange & Northwestern road, which is heading in that direction.

THE prospects of war has harmonized the factions in Venezuela, and it may be that President Castro is not as mad in his policy as he is said to be by unfriendly critics. Possibly he had rather be at outs with his neighbors than with his own family.

MR. POPE, the great bicycle manufacturer, a man surely in touch with business conditions and who is no theorist, attributes the great falling off in the demand for bicycles to the cessation of advertising. This statement is significant and will bear thinking over by those who have wares to sell.

THE papers are moralizing over the conviction of Col. Ed Butler, a millionaire politician of St. Louis, who has been sentenced to the penitentiary for three years on a charge of bribery. They can't understand how a man with so much money can be sent to the penitentiary. It will be time to express wonderment when they get him in the pen.

J. E. McFARLAND has again assumed entire ownership and control of the Jacksonville Banner. Mac is a good deal like some of our East Texas farmers who sell out and leave their homes. He did not know how dear the old paper was to him until he sold it. He is making a fine paper of the Banner, and is no doubt making money out of it.

WE read of a man once—quite a philosopher, he was—who consoled himself when sentenced to have his head cut off, by reflecting "It is the fate of kings." This is carrying philosophy to an extreme, and yet a little of it is a very good thing. It keeps people from taking life and themselves too seriously. The Christmas fireworks, with their accompanying danger of fire, are almost ready to go off, and the town, except for the amateur bucket brigade, is still unprotected. The only thing to do is to reflect that as nothing happened last year nothing will this. "What's to come is still unsure," however, and our growing little city should not be left to the chance of an accident while we philosophize.

DICKENS speaks of the spirit of the Christmas present. It has turned into the spirit of "Christmas presents." May be you have all resolved that it's hard times this year and you won't spend much money Christmas. But just wait till the Christmas feeling gets in the air and the shoppers begin to fill the street, and you will catch the contagious spirit of giving and will rush out and spend all your money and several dollars more buying presents, just because you want to give them. You will act precisely as you have acted every Christmas since you can remember, and your Christmas bills will be cheerfully run up. A bad resolution is better broken than kept. What a cross old crank you would feel if you kept tight hold on your pocketbook at a season of jollity and mirth and refused to help the children have a good time.

THE editorial columns of the leading journals betray the fact that there is nothing absorbingly interesting in the public world just at present. We are forcibly reminded of one of Lewis Carroll's famous verses: "The time has come, the walrus said, To speak of many things. Of why the sea is boiling hot, And whether pigs have wings." The Washington Post devotes half a column in a leader as to the necessity of college young women being able to cook and dust, asserting that till a woman can do both she is not educated. Another editorial in the same paper discusses bears vigorously, but from a very pessimistic standpoint, and winds up by saying that he is sick and tired of bears; that their recent behavior in Mississippi had destroyed his faith in them. We hope that this frame of mind is only temporary, for a man without faith in bears is a very saddening spectacle to a thoughtful person. Our esteemed contemporary, the Dallas News, in recent editions has editorials on "Football," "Elevating the World," and, saye the mark, "Georgia Politicians." All other metropolitan papers contain versatile dissertations on widely varying topics, ranging from Zola's death to good manners. A little leisure to "speak of many things" is a rest from the strenuous life that should be appreciated by hard working editors. But "I doubt it, said the carpenter, and he shed a bitter tear."

THERE will be a State convention held at the Commercial Club Rooms in the city of Dallas, Texas at 10 o'clock Wednesday, December 17th, 1902, for the purpose of determining the best method for the cotton growers of Texas to pursue in their fight against the boll weevil, and also what laws and appropriations should be requested of the next Legislature to assist in accomplishing the same result. Mayor Nelson, of this city, has been requested to appoint a committee of three representative citizens to attend this convention.

The News congratulates Nacogdoches on securing the next meeting of the East Texas Fruit and Truck Growers Association. If those of her people interested in these two industries will attend the session they will receive information and instruction that will be of inestimable value to them. The men who compose largely the membership of this association are men who have spent years in the study and practice of truck growing and fruit culture, and by reason of their knowledge and experience are recognized authority on matters pertaining to these industries, industries that are so full of promise, particularly to this section of the state.—Rusk County News.

THE Jacksonville Banner discusses the fruit and truck subject evidently from a selfish standpoint, regarding every peach tree or tomato plant put out as a rival to Jacksonville. We believe there is room for all of us and in spite of the Banner's night mare of overproduction, will urge Nacogdoches county to equal Cherokee in the production of both crops. Jacksonville's success has been in fruit and truck farming on the large scale. There is a market for a thousand times as much of peaches and tomatoes as Jacksonville can ever produce, and we see no reason why the Banner should be constantly frightened over the prospects of over production. If the fruit and tomato business is good for Jacksonville, why should it not be good for Nacogdoches?

THE city council, upon investigation and deliberation, can see no cause for great alarm in the smallpox situation, if the people will only use the necessary precaution and vaccinate. Smallpox is a preventable disease, but only through vaccination; and where the people neglect to avail themselves of this protection they are open to contagion. Until the first of January next, if the people will call on Dr. Ford, Dr. Smith, or Dr. Nelson, at their offices, from 8 to 9 o'clock in the morning, 1 to 2 in the afternoon, or 8 to 9 in the evening, they will be carefully vaccinated free of cost. It is earnestly hoped that the citizens, black and white, will avail themselves of this opportunity to protect themselves; or else have their family physicians vaccinate them. When desired, instructions as to isolation and disinfection will be given.

THE last cotton picking machine invented, the originator of which is P. P. Harring, of Goliad, seems to be enough of a success for a stock company to be organized for its manufacture. Cotton pickers have been invented before, but none that would not gather trash or injure the growing plant. It is claimed the new picker does neither. It is on exhibition at Houston, and The Chronicle is enthusiastic in its praise. If it will stand the practical and crucial test of field work under all sorts of conditions it means fortune and fame to the inventor, and incalculable good to the entire South.

THE last Quarterly issued by the Texas State Historical Association is a magazine that, while it is particularly interesting to Texans, would be read with pleasure by any one, regardless of the state from which he comes. Texas is peculiarly rich in historical traditions, which are really facts, and the Historical Association, in verifying and preserving them, is doing grand work. Any one who has read "Phillip Nolan's Friends" with its plot of tragic truth, the incidents of which took place when Texas was French and Spanish, knows that the early days of the Republic were days of romance and injustice, days when knights rode out and were slain for the truth, and in the rush of those perilous times almost forgotten. Praise and honor to the Texas group who are helping restore these heroes to their rightful place in the minds of men, to be honored and remembered. There never was a time a Texan would back down. To that fact we owe—Texas. Mr. E. C. Barker in an article in the Quarterly, entitled "The Slave trade in Texas," tells of General Memucan Hunt's answer to Secretary Forsythe, when, on July 18, 1837, he informed the Secretary by a formal note that an attempt would be made to land slaves in Texas, contrary to the law. Mr. Forsythe wrote back asking, for more definite information, what grounds Texas had for thinking so, who were the actors, and when and where was the landing to be attempted? Gen. Hunt answered to the effect that small as Texas' naval force was, if she had ascertained where and what time the landing was to be made, the assistance of the U. S. would be quite unnecessary." Mr. Forsythe seemed to see the point, for he sent the gun boat. Nacogdoches has the honor of the first news paper published in Texas, "The Texas Republican," published the first year Texas was free. The St. Louis Inquirer of Sept. 28th, 1819 contains mention of the first copy published and quotes from it. Mention is made in The Republican of a meeting of citizens to be held at the house of Mr. Cargill to elect school Trustees; and that Mr. Maden was building a saw mill. Energetic, wide awake little city that she was Nacogdoches was headed the right way then, and she has been going right ever since.

SALT-MAKING IN WAR TIMES

BY JNO. S. DOUGHTIE.

Before the war all the salt used in Alabama and Georgia was imported from Liverpool, and all the planters along the rivers would buy their supply from the steamboats or from their commission merchants and have it delivered at their respective landings. After the war commenced, this indispensable article became very scarce. In the latter part of 1861, my father made a trip to Wilmington, N. C., and bought one car load of salt. When this was used, no other alternative presented itself but to go to the coast of West Florida and make it by evaporation. So, on the 10th day of December, 1862, forty years ago last Wednesday, my father fitted up an outfit composed of two four-mule teams and one ox team, six negro men, four 100-gallon kettles and one evaporator which held about 100 gallons, and placed me in charge of the expedition. I was then fifteen years of age. We were seven days on the road before we reached our destination on the west prong of St. Andrews' Bay, known as West Bay. We pitched our camp and commenced to build a furnace for the kettles and pan. I put two of the negro men at work digging pits at the edge of the big marsh, which was the high water mark at flood tide. The seep water in these pits was much stronger with brine than the salt water in the bay. In 24 hours after our arrival we were ready for business, and the manufacture of salt commenced. Salt made by this process is very fine grained and as white as snow. In a few days I started one of the mule teams home loaded with fifty bushels of salt. We kept up operations until the 1st of March, 1863. One wagon, and sometimes two, were constantly on the road hauling the salt home. I received a message from father to suspend operations and come home, as he had enough salt to last him four years and he thought by that time the war would be over. All was not smooth sailing during our stay at the salt works. Twice while we were at work, a Federal gunboat came within three miles of us and scared the negroes nearly to death by shelling the coast. In both cases a detachment of mariners were sent out in small boats from the man-of-war, armed with their small guns and sledge hammers, and they played havoc with the utensils used for making salt, for the entire coast was lined with salt-makers. Our camp being both times at the farthest point from the landing, we had time to jerk our kettles out of the furnace, cool them down, load them on the wagons and scamper out. On our way home from the coast, we met Mr. Nicholas Crawford, a good man and citizen of Harvey county, Ala., in the public road near his home. Finding our wagons loaded with salt he bantered me for a trade and offered me a pound of sugar for a pound of salt. I took him up and received 300 pounds of sugar for 300 pounds of salt. Sugar was a very scarce article at that time and was worth sixty cents a pound; salt $100 per sack, Confederate money. Up to this time our money had not depreciated so much in value, but before the war closed it could not be obtained for $500 a sack. At the time of my first and only experience at salt-making, West Florida was very thinly settled. After we left the settlement in Jackson county, Fla., for 45 miles there was but one house on the road to St. Andrews bay. It was a fine stock country, wire grass being the principal feed and the country abounding in ponds. One of these ponds would put all our East Texas lakes to shame. Some of them cover ten thousand acres of land. The world cannot beat West Florida for fish and deer, and black bear were plentiful. I am told that this game still exists in the Florida thickets.

In all people some superstition is inherent and can no more be gotten rid of than the family nose or temper which is bequeathed by ancestors, without the consent of the individuals burdened therewith. One can always see the superstition cropping out in the universal dread of "hoo-doo's." Nearly every person in the world has his or her omen of ill luck, which is avoided with a seriousness often shamed of. The best known hoo-doo's are, singularly enough, alike in every country. The bad luck of meeting a cross-eyed darkey, and the Italian "evil eye," are the same, as is the counter charm to cross one's fingers or to wear a coral. To criticise the conduct of one's immediate ancestor, deceased, is to bring down more bad luck than the ordinary mortal can stand up under. There is no counter charm for this. Like "Huckleberry Finn," when he killed the spider: "I knew something awful was bound to happen and I just sat down to wait for it." To talk of one's bad luck is to keep it with him, and many a man refuses to admit his luck is good for fear he will drive it away. A very ancient evil spell, (we mean no pun,) and one that does not seem to be very well known in Texas, is, that to spell a name backwards is to call down all manner of crisis on the luckless owner of said name. It's a hoo-doo right. In the old countries it is said that repeating the Lord's Prayer backwards is homage to the evil one, and renders the one doing so invisible. But the bad luck of spelling names backwards existed from long before the Christian era, and is as old as that an inverted torch signifies death. Perhaps spelling cotton backwards is responsible for the boll weevil. In that case, the way to set things straight is to spell the boll weevil's name backwards and annihilate the pest.

A large number of new towns are springing up along the route of the T. & N. O., but none are enjoying a more rapid growth than Cushing, in Nacogdoches county. This station has had a remarkable growth in the last three months and is destined to be a town of much importance.—Jacksonville Reformer.

New Telegraph Office.

The Western Union telegraph office is now conveniently located up town, the office being in the Wettermark bank building next door to post-office. Mr. G. C. Felton, assistant Superintendent explained to The Sentinel yesterday that he had had a vexatious delay in getting the new office in operation on account of failure to get the necessary supplies and equipments here. The delay was chiefly in the transmission of supplies. The building was secured three months ago and the office should have been ready for business by Nov. 1st at the outside, but failure to get the material, supplies etc has interfered and it was only yesterday that the Company began operating the uptown office.

The local office will be under the management of Mr. C. J. McDougall.

MOTHERS SICK BABIES

TESTIFY TO THE BENEFITS THEIR SICK BABIES HAVE RECEIVED FROM THE USE OF LAXAKOLA

Having received your sample of Laxakola, was very much pleased with it, and have purchased a bottle for my baby. The Laxakola did wonders for my boy in case of bowel troubles. I have given up laxatives and find it cheaper and a great relief. I got it from C. H. & H. A. Leaven, our Union and Purchase store, Bedford, Mass.

Max, CLARENCE CARWELL, 208 Dartmouth, South Wills, Mass.

Enclosed please find 50 cents in stamps for a bottle of Laxakola. I used your sample bottle and it did all you claim for it as it helped my baby wonderfully.

Max, JOHN PARSONS, Union Depot, Dauphin Co., Pa.

I wish to thank you very much for the good Laxakola has done my little niece, Marion Louise Bass. She is only two and one-half years old, and has suffered something awful from constipation. She has never had what you would call a natural movement. Sometimes we were almost afraid of convulsions, it hurt her so much, and she would be so frightened.

LAXAKOLA is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties, which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhoea, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongues, and any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, it is invaluable.

Try it Today. Send for a Free Sample. It may Save your Baby's Life or Prevent a Long and Serious Illness. It Costs Nothing; Send For It and mention Your Druggist's Name.

For Sale by

All Druggists 50c and $1.00. Or write to the nearest Wholesale Dealer for a large supply of LAXAKOLA. Address THE LAXAKOLA CO., 100 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The Weekly Sentinel

MALTON & HALTOM, Publishers.

R. W. HALTOM, Editor

A WRITER to the Sentinel signs himself "A Man Up a Tree." All right, old boy; just stay up there until we find out who you are.

THE agricultural department at Washington has been aroused over the boll weevil pest, and will push experiments toward its total extermination.

THE matricide, Virgil Galbraith, was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty-five years. He pleaded temporary insanity.

THE prospects are a little more favorable for "the possibility of a disturbance" than they were when Teddy wrote his last message to congress. He may find cause for strenuous activity, if Germany and Great Britain keep on playing over the deadline.

BOLL weevil or no boll weevil, Texas continues to raise about one-third of the cotton of the United States. The fact is, Texas raises too much cotton. The best way to kill out the boll weevil is to quit raising cotton in the districts wherever the pest appears.

SENATOR MORGAN has succeeded in interesting President Roosevelt in a scheme to colonize the negroes of the United States in the Philippine Islands. The Senator will push legislation to that end while the war department has sent a negro envoy to the Philippines make investigation as to the feasibility of the plan.

THE tariff bill recently passed by the German Reichstag, will, it is estimated by them, deprive packers of the United States of almost 25 per cent of their provision export trade, exclusive of fresh meats. The United States government will be urged to take some action to give them relief. The tariff gun hurts, when fired in the wrong direction.

WE have no objections to Senator Morgan sending all the negroes to the Philippines he can, but isn't the way open to take them as it is? Can't they go there now, if they want to? It might help a little if he can provide some way for Uncle Sam to pay the traveling expenses and take them over there free. In that case they might be coaxed to take the excursion, but in no case could their going be made compulsory.

WEEKS have elapsed since it occurred, but the subject of Roosevelt's bear hunt is like Panquo's ghost—it will not down. The papers still contain article after article on the Mississippi hunt. We regard the tour especially unfortunate, for his failure to kill a bear has evidently embittered the president toward the South; but, as a brilliant punster of our acquaintance remarked, "It is all his fault. When he wanted to kill a bear, why did he come to Miss?"

THE VENEZUELAN BUSINESS.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: Matters have proceeded so far in Venezuela that the origin of the quarrel is lost sight of.

Nations do not destroy fleets, bombard custom houses and blockade ports to collect trifling debts. By their barbarous violence Germany and England have disclosed, at least, that they are not on a collecting trip to South American waters.

It is more reasonable to suppose that it is a venture in imperialism, a speculation in "high politics." Germany wants South American territory for colonies. England wants territory wherever she can pick it up without danger of being brought to book by an equal or superior power. Together they are "running a bluff" on the United States. They are testing the temper of the Washington government and want to find out just how far they may go without incurring the hostility of the American people.

Mr. Chamberlain represents this variety of imperialism in England. It would be interesting to know if the initiative in this wretched enterprise came from him or the German Emperor.

It seems time for the Washington government to find out what these two worthies are after. It is plain they are not acting as a collecting agency. Wouldn't it be good policy to make them define their aim and at the same time remind them that American patience, humanity and policy may be tried too severely?

Julius Runge, president of the Cotton Exchange and Board of Trade of Galveston, says cotton will be worth 10 cents a pound by next May. Suppose that should be true, what good will it do the cotton raiser? It may be beneficial to the cotton speculator, and doubtless will, for all the cotton will be out of the hands of the farmers by the first of May.—Tyler Democrat and Reporter.

There is nothing new in the Runge "prophecy." Don't everybody know that cotton comes up in May?

LEIGH HUNT's grand niece, living in England, has come to the front with a very strenuous plan for living to be one hundred years old. On reading her method, which includes strict vegetarianism, abstaining from salt, taking all the windows out of the house to insure fresh air, and going in heavily for gymnastics, we'd as lieve to be dead at 99. We don't care to be 100 at the price. Editors, however, according to the Chicago Chronicle, have a soft snap when it comes to achieving the beauty of extreme old age. It says that men of thought and mental force have always been distinguished for longevity, and quotes a long list of wise men, from Colon to Kant, to prove the point, who worked as easily at 90 as at 30. Comparing the two systems, the evidence is in favor of erudition, for Mrs. Leigh Hunt Wallace's idea has not been proved true yet, no one having had time to reach the century mark under her regime.

ALMOST a state of terror has existed for the past two weeks out on the line of the T. & N. O. extension, in the neighborhood of the Cherokee county line. A "white nigger" has killed two men and a woman out there and has shot twice at John Ryan, a railroad contractor. The desperate negro has so far eluded capture and is still at large. Blood hounds and vigilant officers have been on his track, but so far without success. It is quite likely that should he fall into the hands of others than the officers of the law, he will be the principal in a neck-tie-party, of the ancient and approved Texas style.

The farmers of East Texas should not become so enthused over diversification as to forget to raise a few hogs. A few hogs are a mighty good thing to have on hand.—Tyler Democrat and Reporter.

The trouble is, hogs are harder to raise now than any other crop. The ravages of disease, scarcity of water at times, lack of range and scarcity of corn, etc., are as hard to overcome as the ills that interfere with the crops. Hogs are valuable and the farmers of Texas realize it, and down in this East Texas section the hog question is a great problem. The farmers here would idolize the man who could discover to them something that will keep their hogs alive until they can be made ready for the slaughter pen.

We read that the latest thing in Christmas novelties, is a manufactured Christmas tree. It can be ordered from the toy store ready decorated, presents already hung, every thing complete. It is made—think of it—of goose feathers, dyed green, looks very much like a fir, and can be rolled up and saved till the next Christmas. We haven't words to express our indignation at this innovation. Its like listening to a phonograph, instead of Paderewski, like talking through a telephone, like reading a novel instead of having a best girl of your own. Its an imitation, a make-believe, a fraud, a humbug, and the spirit of Christmas lies dead in the heart of any child who would have a goose feather Christmas tree, or any grown up person who would buy one.

THE SENTINEL has been requested to print the law relating to hog law elections, but as it is a rather voluminous document, and would take a "Philadelphia lawyer" to find it in the statutes, we will have to beg off this time. But we will state this much for general information, that if the hog law is once voted in a precinct, district, county or state, it stands in force two years. This county is to vote on the question as to whether or not hogs, sheep and goats shall run at large next Saturday. If the election carries it will take a petition signed by a majority of all the voters in the county to get an election at the end of two years to set it aside. If it loses, another election can be held within twelve months. We get this information from members of the Nacogdoches bar. We have no personal knowledge of the law and have not time to look it up, not having the latest Revised Statutes at hand.

Trip to Rowl Springs.

On Friday, a hunting party made up of the following gentlemen: Geo. H. Weaver, Frank Dunson, Robert Burk, Elmer Weaver, Conrad Rusche, Jim Weaver, Roy Ramey and Deacon Tol Scott, (as driver and cook) left the city at an early hour for a weeks' outing at Rowl Springs, reaching their destination about 3:30 p. m. of the same day. Camps were quickly arranged, and an ideal camping place it is, though the woods were clothed in their wintery garb and a thick carpet of autumn leaves rustled beneath our feet, it was yet beautiful to the lover of nature, and can best be described in the words, "Tis the land of the cedar, the myrtle and vine, Where all save the soul of man is divine."

After a hasty lunch, each one shouldered his gun and plunged into the forest in search of Bunny, whose frequently barking was but sweetest music to the eager ear of our Nimrods. A short time after leaving camp, the frequent crack of a 12 or deep boom of a 10 gauge gun, tolled the death bell of many, and as George Weaver expressed it, "It simply meant meat in the pot." After an hour of this sport, as the sun imprinted its good night kiss upon the forest and stream, and sank to rest behind gorgeous clouds of glittering gold and Royal purple, the musical note of a horn ringing ore hill and dale echoed and re-echoed by the deep wild woods, to be finally taken up, and last upon the chill breeze of fast approaching night, warned us that "Deacon" was prepared to serve supper of which we felt keenly the need. On all arriving a camp it was found the first day's kill, numbered fifteen. After a hearty supper, the evening was spent as all such evenings in camp must be. The witty sayings, ready repartee, rag-time music and ruddy faces of the boys who made up the crowd were to even a novice "Prima facie" evidence that in packing the provision box, a visit to Scogin Bros. had not been forgotten. After a time spent thus around the camp fire, all retired to rest and dream of another day's sport. Each succeeding day was but a repetition of the first, and were equally enjoyed. The only incident which occurred to damp the pleasure of the week was the early departure of that Prince of good fellows; Elmer Weaver but the Star of "Hope" appeared unto him as did the Pillar of fire unto Moses and the children of Israel and guided him safely out of the wilderness into the land of Nat. We bid him a sad farewell, but each evening as we gathered around the fire,

"Where pleasure filled up to the highest top sparkle; Each heart and each cup." All wished him present to enjoy it with us. But all things must end, and on Saturday morning when Robert Burke glanced at his watch (a thing Robert frequently does, as was often noticed, and we think oftener to view a picture in the case than to note the passage of time) announced the hour for de-

Campbell's RACKET STORE.

West Side Public Square.

A. W. Hunt, of Appleby, was in town this morning.

I. N. Buckner, of Chireno, is in town with cotton today.

G. H. Muckleroy and his boys are in town today from Martinsville.

Mrs. J. E. Murph is now convalescent after a severe attack of fever.

Frank Nelson, of Douglass, was a caller at the Sentinel office this morning.

Orrin McKnight, of Center, was in the city on business the early part of the week.

W. M. Collins, the jolliest old soul of the Sterne community, was in the city today.

O. C. Dotson left yesterday for Garrison after spending two or three days in the city.

Col. Dabney White, of Tyler, is in the city. He is on his way to the "Big Thicket" on a bear hunt.

W. N. Bailey returned yesterday morning from Dalhart. His health is not improved, and he is confined to his room.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, of San Augustine county, parents of our townsmen, Bob and "Slim" Collins, are visiting in the city.

A. W. Eddings has moved back close to his old stand on South-east corner public square. He now occupies a portion of John's chilly stand, fronting on Pillar street. He is equipped for any and all kinds of gun-smithing and light machine repairing.

Mrs. E. M. Weatherly and children of Garrison, are in the city for a day or two, visiting Mrs. Weatherly's parents.

Lewis Beard, of Huntington, spent last night in the city on a business trip, returning to Huntington this morning.

Mrs. O. H. K. Goff left yesterday for San Augustine where she will make her future home with her niece, Mrs. John Lynch, of that city.

A Beautiful assortment of ladies writing desks, fine book cases, china closets and hall trees at summer prices.
Cason Richardson & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Branch left for San Antonio last night to spend the winter. They went by way of Galveston where they will spend a day or two, and then go on to San Antonio. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Seale have taken charge of their house here, and will keep house until they return.

Mr. J. N. Lucas was in Rusk Monday and says his town, Sacul, on the T. & N. O. railroad, in the edge of Nacogdoches county, is making a nice start, and he expects to see a lot of two story houses going up there before many moons. He says, also, that farmers who have fat hogs are strictly "in it," as mast is good and pork sells readily at 10 cents a pound at the railroad camps. Who says railroads do not help the country?
—Rusk Journal.

Parties are notified to keep their children away from the hull and seed houses at the oil mill. They play too much around the machinery and it is very dangerous.

The colored farmers of Nacogdoches county have organized a fruit and truck growers association with a good membership to start off with. It is a good move and they deserve to be encouraged by the white people.

Messrs. John Tucker and W. H. Gray, of Chireno, are in the city today on business. These two gentlemen constitute the new firm of Gray & Tucker at San Augustine, where they will open a general store on January 1st. They have sold out their business in Chireno to Messrs. Buckner & Birdwell. Mr. Gray intends moving to San Augustine.

Messrs. W. W. Nettles and W. A. Barry, two successful farmers of Linn Flat community, were in the city last night. They are both ardent in their views upon the hog law election. Mr. Nettles being anti and Mr. Barry being in favor of the election. But they don't fight about it. In fact they roomed together last night—really slept in the same bed—without a calamity.

FURS WANTED.
1000 coon and 500 mink for January 1st delivery. Will pay equal to St. Louis prices.

Killing at Sexton.

A killing occurred at Sexton, in the northern end of this county, last Monday. As yet we have been unable to learn the particulars, but as far as we can learn it is something like this: There has been trouble brewing between the Britians and Wiggins at Sexton for seven years and the parties interested in this hadn't even spoken to each other in this length of time. On Monday morning Lige Britian walked into S. J. Wiggins store with a revolver in his hand which was held behind him and as he entered the house Wiggins shot him. It is stated that he then tried to shoot Wiggins but the shot he received was so effective that he could not. He then turned to walk out of the store and as he reached the ground he fell dead.

Wiggins gave bond to appear before the next grand jury.—Hemphill Times.

Rail Road Excursion Rates.

On account of the Bricklayers and Masons International Union of America meeting at Memphis Tenn., Jan. 12th to 24th, the H. E. & W. T. will make a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip on the certificate plan for the meeting.

On account of the Mid-winter Carnival at El Paso Tex., the H. E. & W. T. will sell excursion tickets from Nacogdoches to El Paso and return Jan. 11th, 12th and 13th, good to return Jan. 19, at the rate of $ 19. 15 for round trip.

On account of the Charities Carnival at Houston Tex. Dec. 26th to Jan. 3rd the H. E. & W. T. will sell excursion tickets from Nacogdoches to Houston and return on Dec. 29th good to return Jan. 2nd at a rate of $4.55 for the round trip, in addition to the attraction offered by the carnival an address at the auditorium by Brooker T. Washington on the night of the 29th.

The Assassination of Lincoln.

Samuel Bland Arnold, one of the men charged with being a party to the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln, and who was convicted and was sentenced to imprisonment in the Dry Tortugas, but subsequently pardoned, has made a statement under oath to the effect that he had no part whatever in the assassination and no knowledge that it was to be committed. He admits, however, that he had previously been a conspirator to abduct the president and convey him as a prisoner to Richmond. Knowledge of this plan to assassinate the president he confines to Booth, Payne, Atzerodt and Herold. Arnold is now 68 years of age.—Bronson Bulletin.

Found.

Between town and the railroad crossing on North street, a pair of spectacles. Owner can have them by identifying property and paying for this notice.

Mrs. Rosine Ryant consumes considerable space in the Houston Post of Sunday in eulogizing the late Tom Ochiltree, and suggests that his remains be placed beside those of his father and Thomas J. Rusk. And just think of it! Her effusion on Tom Ochiltree appeared on the same page that recorded the death and told of the sterling qualities of Tom Reed.—Bronson Bulletin.

Foley's Kidney Cures All Kidney and Bladder Diseases Cure

Foley's Kidney Cure will positively cure any case of Kidney or Bladder disease that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.

If you notice any irregularities, commence taking Foley's Kidney Cure at once and avoid a fatal malady.

A Merchant Cured After Having Given Up Hope.

Foley & Co., Chicago.
Gentlemen:—I was afflicted with Kidney and Bladder trouble for six years and had tried numerous preparations without getting any relief and had given up hope of ever being cured when FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE was recommended to me. After using one bottle I could feel the effect of it, and after taking six fifty-cent bottles, I was cured of Kidney and Bladder trouble and have not felt so well for the past twenty years and I owe it to FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. James Smith, Bentons Ferry, W. Va.

A Veteran of the Civil War Cured After Ten Years of Suffering.

R. A. Cray, J.P., of Oakville, Ind., writes:—
"Most of the time for ten years I was confined to my bed with some disease of the kidneys. It was so severe I could not move part of the time. I consulted the best medical skill available, but got no relief until FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE was recommended to me. I am grateful to be able to say that it entirely cured me."

THURSDAY'S LOCALS.

W. J. Garrett, of San Augustine, is in town today.

Rev. G. W. Henderson, of Jacksonville, was in the city today.

A. K. Layton, of Melrose, was in the city today on a short business visit.

Messrs. T. J. Lowery and Jack Lock, of Etoile, were in the city today trading. They got 8 cents a pound for cotton.

Bob Briley, of Swift, has returned from Tyler Business College, and is in the city today.

Mr. Elisha Roberts of Geneva, is in Nacogdoches on a visit to relatives. Mr. Roberts is an uncle of Mr. Hal Tucker and Dr. Felix Tucker of this city.

Jno. N. Gilbert has just returned home from a business trip to Waco, Dallas and Kaufman, and brought back with him his niece, Miss Flossie Wilkerson, who will keep house for him.

Oft in the stillly night a racking cough doth rob us of that sweet sleep which nature seeks to give. Simmon's Cough Syrup is an infallible cure; untroubled sleep and pleasant dreams it doth assure. Guaranteed. Price 25 and 50 cents.

Sheriff Spradley returned from Livingston this morning. He says court is in session at Livingston and that five bills of indictment, growing out of the shooting there a few nights ago, have been found by the grand jury. No arrests have been made yet, but all the names are known and are living in and near the town, some of them being merchants. As at first intimated the trouble is an outcome of factional feeling.

An illustration of what may be done in truck farming was given today by Mr. Harvey, who has a farm on Eggnog branch, about two miles from town. This spring he planted an acre in Irish potatoes, realizing $40.00 on the crop. He then raised early corn on the land, which he sold for $10. After the corn was taken off, he again planted Irish potatoes on part of the same land, and is selling them now in town at $1 per bushel. More than this, he has radishes planted between the rows, and has already netted quite a little amount from the sale of them.

Shooting at Melrose.

From Thursday's Daily: Luther Swift was shot and seriously wounded yesterday afternoon at Melrose, by Ed Kendrick. The shooting was a great surprise to all, and to no one greater than the victim. The weapon used was a shotgun loaded with No 5 bird shot. The two men had always been friends and had never had a falling out. Kendrick, it is said, was drinking, and rode into town, going directly to Swift's store. Swift was standing on the front gallery of his store when Kendrick hailed him in some way to attract his attention, and fired immediately. The load from the gun took effect in the left side front. The wound is not considered fatal.

Deputy Sheriff Walters was telephoned for and started to Melrose about 4 o'clock, but met a party in charge of Kendrick already on their way to town. Kendrick's statement is that Swift had made some remarks about his family, which he felt it his duty to avenge.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Sterns, druggist, Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle, they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1 at Perkins Bros.

Our friend and former citizen of this county, G. P. Evans, writes from his new home near Laneburg, Ark., that he and his family are well and satisfied with their new location. They made the trip through by wagons without incident except one short lay up on account of high water. Mr. Eyans has bought a home near Laneburg, which cost him $2,000, well improved, with good orchard, plenty of good water and conveniently situated as to schools and churches. Corn is 50 cts a bushel, meat 6 cts a pound and flour from $2.50 to $3.90 per barrel. A heavy snow fell there on Dec. 5th.

There is a time for all things. The time to take Simmon's Cough Syrup is when afflicted with sore throat, hoarseness, coughs or colds. It is guaranteed to cure you. Price 25 and 50 cents.

FRIDAY'S LOCALS.

R. R. Loy, of Indian Creek was in town trading.

B. F. Hargis, of Attocay is in the city today, trading.

Bird Gatin is in town today from Mt. Enterprise, doing some Christmas trading.

J. G. Watkins, of Henderson, is attending the Presbytery now in Session here.

L. W. Furbow, of Mt. Enterprise, was in the city today with cotton.

Dr. E. D. Williams, of Chireno, is in the city on a business visit for a day or two.

For all forms of kidney trouble take only Bak-Ake Specific. Sold and guaranteed by Stripling Hazelwood & Co.

Messrs. C. C. Holloway, A. J. Piles, Ike Willis, and Sam Edlen are in town today from Denning, and dropped in at the Sentinel office.

Residence Burned.

From Friday's Daily: At 11 o'clock last night the residence of Mr. M. A. Campbell, at corner of Main and LaNana streets was destroyed by fire. Everything in the house was burned, including a fine piano belonging to Mrs. Gary. The family barely had time to escape before the whole house was enveloped in flames. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp.

The dwelling was the property of Mr. D. Ruffs and cost about $1,000. It was insured for $700. There was $200 insurance on the household goods and $250 on the piano.

Mr. Campbell was severely burned about the head and face, and also had one hand badly burned in the effort to save some of the contents of the building.

SATURDAY'S LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Alec McClure of Minden, are in the city attending the Presbytery.

R. L. Synnoth, formerly editor of the Livingston Local, was in the city last night. Mrs. Synnoth has been in the city several days, the guest of Mrs. Robt. Hall.

The city council held a called session yesterday afternoon to discuss the smallpox situation. Nothing was done except to pass an order recommending universal vaccination.

Coughs, Colds and Constipation. Few people realize when taking cough medicines other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure and will not constipate. Sold by Perkins Bros.

The Texas Construction Company, the owners of the Nacogdoches telephone exchange, are spending a great deal of money in improving the local system. The work they have done recently and will do before they have fully carried out their plans will require an outlay of about $25,000, which amount is invested in the city service alone. The service will be equal to any in existence when the new system is put in operation.

Report From The Reform School. J. G. Gluck, Superintendent, Pruntytown, W. Va., writes: "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless." Sold by Perkins Bros.

Tie Makers Wanted. Also wood choppers and laborers, or contractors, to cut and clear about two hundred acres of land, work to begin as soon as possible. One hundred acres lie at Fitzie Hill and the rest at Garrison, Texas. Write me at Garrison, Texas.

Fred W. Mally.

A Timely Topic. At this season of coughs and colds it is well to know that Foley's Honey and Tar is the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures quickly and prevents serious results from a cold. Sold by Perkins Bros.

KIDNEY CURE.

There is no disease so insinuating, so slow but sure, as kidney disease, or so wide-spread. The symptoms are so slight as to generally escape notice.

The first indications appear in the urine, with varied effects. The quantity may be increased or decreased; it is likely to be highly colored and scalding; it may be pale or thin, or thick and milky with a sediment. Later on more pronounced symptoms will be present, such as dizziness, bloating, etc., with marked bladder and urinary disorders.

Poisonous waste matter is carried by the blood from all parts of the system and carried to the kidneys, where it is separated and cast out through the urine. The kidneys deal with the blood only, deriving nourishment therefrom. Hence, if the blood is bad the kidneys are not only overworked, but underfed. How necessary is it, therefore, that the purity and vitality of the blood should be maintained. It is plain why the great blood purifier and strengthener—Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic—has been successfully used in treating kidney disease and in preventing same. In purifying the blood the kidneys are greatly relieved, while, at the same time, new strength and vitality are given these organs. The following letter tells a very old story:

PINE KNOW, KY., June 26, 1902.

The Dr. Harter Medicine Co., Dayton, O.

GENTLEMEN: I had a severe case of typhoid fever six years ago, which left my kidneys in bad order. I have tried a number of remedies and taken treatment from doctors, but Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has done me more good than anything else. C. CORDELL, Merchant and Mine Operator.

There are thousands of just such cases as the above that are treated without results because they are wrongly treated. Mr. Cordell's condition resulted from an exhausting fever; the kidneys, as well as the rest of the system, had been wasted by disease. No wonder Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic promptly cured, because it purified and enriched the blood, and such blood carried new strength and vitality directly to the kidneys and to all the organs.

THEY ARE GOING.

We are having unusually good sales on our holiday goods. There are only two reasons for this. One is, we had what was wanted. The other is, the price was right. We still have lots of pretty little things—just the kind you are looking for—at a very small price. We were careful in making our selections, and again were careful not to ask too much for them.

We are having new things to arrive most every day, and you will always find some few little articles new every time you come. So come every day until Christmas. In the rush we cannot give you all the attention we would like to, but make yourself at home with us, look all you please, and we will give you the best attention possible.

MONDAY'S LOCALS.

Messrs. James Kelly and John Adams, of Garrison, spent yesterday in the city.

Capt J. H. Garrison stopped in the city yesterday on his way home from Houston, leaving to day for Garrison.

Mrs. Maurice Wright, of Little Rock, Ark., is in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson.

Profs. Thos. Lee and J. D. Burgess, of Livingston, were in the city today prospecting, and were pleasant callers at The Sentinel office.

Jas. Derrick has bought the Church street blacksmith shop, former stand of Charley Thomason, and asks his friends and the public to give him a share of their patronage.

J. H. Gray, of Desota Parish, La., was married Sunday in this city to Miss Lillie Coker, of Alazan. Judge Peevey pronounced the ceremony while the young couple sat in a buggy.

Revs. G. W. C. Selt of Looneyville, and W. S. Neal, of Rusk, were friendly callers at The Sentinel office this morning. They have been attending the Presbytery, which closed last night.

The county commissioners met in special session Saturday, accepted the jail from Mr. Barron, who had the contract for its repair. The court and other officers expressed themselves pleased with the job and it is thought the jail is now safe and good for many years use yet. The court also passed an order for opening the new Martinsville road and bridge across the LaNana on said road.

Messrs. Isaac Harris, W. X. Pressler, J. W. Law and J. E. Floyd, Woodmen of the Nacogdoches camp, went to Timpson Saturday to participate in the unveiling exercises. They returned last night, and report that the ceremony was impressive, and that they received a warm welcome from the Timpson Camp. Mr. Jim Floyd accompanied the crowd as a spectator.

The Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church which has been in session in Nacogdoches, closed yesterday, and the Ministers and delegates have nearly all returned to their homes. It was well attended, and satisfactory in every respect. Rev. L. C. Kirkes preached an able sermon last night at the Methodist church. Rev. S. A. McPherson preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning. The new Cumberland Presbyterian church, a source of pride to both our city, and to the energetic church members, was dedicated Sunday morning. A large crowd was present, and the services conducted by Rev. L. C. Kirkes.

Saturday night, a poor old mule, turned out to die by owners possibly too poor to feed it longer, when its days of usefulness were over, wandered into a mudhole on South Fredonia street and bogged up. It was so nearly dead yesterday morning that the city marshal ended its suffering by shooting it, and it was dragged off this morning. Such things ought not to happen in any civilized community. The S. P. C. A., if it does nothing further than to see that worn out and useless animals are put speedily out of pain, is an organization that should exist in every town.

We have a house full of goods and want to reduce the stock. All parties wanting pianos, organs, small musical instruments, sheet music, or anything else in my line, can get it until Jan. 1st 1903, at factory prices. Now is the time to make a Christmas present that will be appreciated for years to come.

Mr. W. H. Overall, of Looneyville is in the city today, selling cotton and trading.

Mr. Henry Sublett, of San Augustine, is in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs. Felix Tucker.

A crowd of men took to the fields this morning with dogs and guns. Its fine weather for hunting.

Mr. Carlton, of Cincinnati, is in the city, putting in the new switch boards for the local telephone system.

Mayer & Schmidt are putting three windows in the side of the store which will make the rear of the house much lighter.

Geo. W. Cavin, of Garrison, was in the city yesterday on a business visit, and was a friendly caller at The Sentinel office.

Chiffoniers, side-boards, hall trees, pedestals, plain and fancy rockers, all marked down to suit the time.

Cason, Richardson & Co.

Mrs. W. J. Sechrest, arrived yesterday from Moscow where she has been visiting her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Sechrest are keeping house in part of Mrs. Gaines residence on Pillor St.

Alfred Chestnut, Esq. returned from Houston yesterday. He did not go to Bee county, finding that he could not arrive there in time to attend the funeral of his brother, whose tragic death was mentioned yesterday.

The most elegant assortment, pictures in all colors, for your parlor, dining room or bed room. Come and see them.

Cason, Richardson & Co.

Mr. T. Brosseur, from Cleveland, Ohio, is in the city superintending the putting in of the underground cables for the Nacogdoches Telephone. Mr. Brosseur is a cable expert, having done the same work in Beaumont before coming here.

Cash Linthicum, of Libby, was in the city today. He complains of the irregular arrival of The Sentinel at his post-office and says it comes two at a time with one copy two weeks old some times. This fault is in transit somewhere. Not ours.

What's In a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counter-fits. Mr. Jester, the traveling representative of a northern syndicate that is now establishing an immense pickling works at Ft. Worth, has been in the city a day or two. Mr. Jester is making inquiry as to lands suitable for growing such crops as are manufactured into saleable goods by his factories with a view to establishing farms in this locality, and also to encourage farmers and truck growers to produce these crops. He proposes to buy everything they will raise in his line. We will have more to say of Mr. Jester and his mission when we are better informed.

Jasper Donegan is in town today from Looneyville.

A terrible railroad accident occurred in Nacogdoches late yesterday afternoon. The engine on the R. T. S. Drug Co's. R. R. blew up, disabling the fireman and utterly wrecking the train. The snow-covered village disappeared from the show window when the train could no longer make trips on the circular track, but the R. T. Shindler Drug Co. has just as many holiday gifts for sale, if it has gone out of the railroad business.

Things We Like Best

Often Disagree With Us

Because we overeat of them. Indigestion follows. But there's a way to escape such consequences. A dose of a good digestant like Kodol will relieve you at once. Your stomach is simply too weak to digest what you eat. That's all indigestion is. Kodol digests the food without the stomach's aid. Thus the stomach rests while the body is strengthened by wholesome food. Digesting is unnecessary. Kodol digests any kind of good food. Strengthens and invigorates.
