Collins all made good and instructive talks, for the good of the order. A team was then appointed to consist of the President, Secretary, and Treasury and two delegates to the State Convention to compete for the loving cup to be awarded to the Post securing the greatest number of members.

Tacky Party.

It was left for the school boys and girls to have the howling success of the year in the way of a reception. Others that wished could be "swell" and stylish, but the juniors scorned such an ordinary method of having an entertainment. Mrs. Edgar Wade received the crowd, the entire house was turned over to the merry invaders, and about seventy-five guests in every style of tacky dress that could be invented by limitless imagination, made the scene resemble the Queens Croquet party, in "Alice in wonderland" Misses Maud Weeks, Ethel Barron and Gladys Butler had to cut for the girls prize, the judges being unable to decide between costumes of such fantastic and peculiar cut and finish, and Miss Maud won the chocolate set. Herbert Shindler won the boys prize, a jack in the box, though there were those in the audience who thought Jarrell Brown ran him a close second. Fruit, stick candy and ginger bread were the refreshments, the tacky guests not leaving a crumb. They had a good time all right.

KILLING NEAR ALAZAN.

Negro Filled With Buckshot By White Neighbor.

J. Y. Stone, who lives near Alazan, came in this morning and gave himself up stating that he had killed John Finley, a negro who lived only a short distance from Stone. Mr. Stone gave bond for his appearance at examining trial, which was set for next Friday.

The particulars of the killing, according to Mr. Stone's statement and that of neighbors who came to town with him, are that the negro went to Mr. Stone's residence yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock and raised a row with Stone, becoming so abusive and threatening that Stone got his shot gun and shot the negro. The shooting took place in Mr. Stone's yard, the whole charge of the gun, which was loaded with sixteen buckshot, taking effect. The negro walked home, a distance of about half a mile, and died shortly after he arrived.

The negro, it is stated, had hired to do some work for Stone, about which a misunderstanding had taken place, or probably which the negro had failed to do, and had got on the war path because he was requested to carry out his agreement.

Stone is a young man of quiet disposition, and it is believed the killing was purely self defense. It is stated that Finley was running onto Stone with an ax when the latter shot him.

KAPLAN SELLS IT FOR LESS.

SPRING OF ETERNAL YOUTH.

A Prohibition Gusher and Equals the Pool of Saloom.

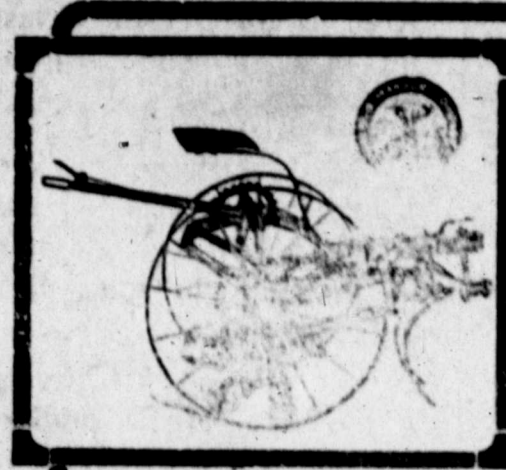

Situated in this county, about ten miles south from town, is one of the most remarkable springs in the State or United States. It is known as Shawnee spring, and is about a quarter of a mile east from old Shawnee crossing on the Angelina river. It is unknown outside of the town and county and has no reputation abroad. The water from this spring has made some of the most wonderful cures known to medical science. The water trickles out at the base of a hill which stands over 100 feet above the valley below, in a stream not over half an inch in diameter and has never been known to decrease or increase since its discovery, which was ten years ago. Several prominent parties who had been told they were afflicted with Bright's disease of the kidneys, after trying the various watering places and had come home to die, were told of the waters of this spring and after using the water a short time were pronounced well and have remained in good health since the trial of the water. Several parties who were addicted to the liquor habit and had been on continued "sprees" have repaired to this spring and in a few days were eating and sleeping as natural as babes. Two parties who had been under the influence of liquor for years and were in almost dying condition with gin or whiskey liver, were taken to this spring and in ten days were well. The only drawback to the spring is the locality, the Angelina swamp being only a short distance away and a well man would get sick if he stayed in the neighborhood long enough.—Nacogdoches Correspondent in Houston Post.

Not so Bad as That.

On the T. & N. O. railroad that is being constructed from Jacksonville to Nacogdoches there was a wholesale negro killing a few days ago, the murderers being negroes themselves. It seems that a large crew of negroes were at work on the road, and while at their camps during the wet weather, when work was impossible, they became involved in all sorts of contentions, which finally precipitated a little war, thus exemplifying in a very high degree the rapid strides the average negro is making in civilization. It is reported that about eight negroes were killed and several wounded.—Henderson Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thomason have moved into the cottage on North Fredonia street, formerly occupied by Mr. John Burford. Mrs. Thomason is better known to her Nacogdoches friends as Miss Mary Hale. She has many friends in the city who will be glad to know that her home is now among them.

MRS. BULLOCK RELEASED

Was Charged With Murdering Her Husband.

Shreveport, March 18.—Mrs. Josephine Loggins Bullock who has been in jail on a charge of murdering her husband by administering numerous doses of croton oil, powdered glass and other poisons, has been released. Her dismissal was recommended by the district attorney, who decided that there was absolutely nothing against the woman except her own testimony. The death of Bullock, from acute diarrhoea and the woman's own statement that she had caused his sickness by giving croton oil and powdered glass in capsules caused a sensation in Shreveport and led to her arrest. These statements she afterwards denied, and as there was no other evidence she was released. The grand jury will be asked to further investigate the case.

Mrs. Bullock is the mother of a large family of children, and her fondness for them was very demonstrative during her incarceration.

Mrs. Bullock is related to a number of influential people in Texas, her maiden name being Loggins. She is originally from Hempstead, Tex., but has relatives in Nacogdoches and Logansport. She has lived a miserable life with her late husband, according to her own story, and the testimony of neighbors, which fact led to suspicion that her story was true when she stated that the "medicine" she had given him was the cause of his deaths.

The basket system has been in operation in city stores for over twenty years, and is nothing new to people who have been there, but as far as Nacogdoches is concerned, will be something right up to the minute.

"The intelligence of the death of Capt. B. N. 'Nob' Boren at Dallas last night of heart disease was received here, his boyhood home, with genuine regret. He was born in Nacogdoches when Texas was a republic, but was reared and educated in Tyler. For a number of years he was in business here and at Galveston, removing to Dallas in 1886, where he established the firm of Boren & Stewart. He was a captain in the Confederate army, being in the Walker Texas division. His remains will reach here tomorrow and the funeral will take place the following morning from the residence of Dr. Lotin at 10 o'clock."

Capt. Jno. P. Davidson, of this city, was for several years a partner with Capt. Boren in the mercantile business in Dallas.

For Plainer Living.

Milwaukee Journal.

Greed for gold is a conspicuous evil of our time and country. We want money to burn; wealth to squander. It appears as if some men, and women as well, vie with each other in thinking out original and striking ways in which to make their wealth conspicuous. They imagine that they thus aggrandize themselves. It is something to be grateful for, that there is a growing sentiment in favor of saner living. There is a strong influence at work for greater simplicity and more genuine lives. There is gain in respect for the "plainer living and higher thinking" manner of life. By the truest standards, parade of wealth is deemed vulgar.

To dress, to act, to order our households and our lives by how it looks, by the opinion of others and to make an impression, betrays a shallow mind and a weak character.

The legislature may believe that the amendments to the constitution of Texas, desired by Ex-governor Hogg, are not what is needed, and their rejection of them is excusable, but there is no justification in showing him the discourtesy recently evidenced. The Press has always feared the result of his amendments to the growth and permanency of democratic ideas and policy, but it believes Jim Hogg is honest, has the best interest of the people at heart and some day soon will occupy a place in the U. S. senate. The Press will welcome the opportunity to aid him to that end.—Rusk Industrial Press.

To Local Associations.

Since the Union was organized at Nacogdoches and an Inspector General was elected, it seems to be the impression of all the local associations that the Inspector General will appoint his assistants in the different local associations, and that the Union will pay their salaries. The Journal does not so understand this matter, and we take this liberty to notify you that you are expected to select your own local inspector and pay him yourself, but the appointment must be approved by the Inspector-General and Board of Directors. (see constitution and by-laws.) Should the Union undertake to bear this expense, coupled with the other necessary expenses, which are very heavy, they will not be able to survive one season. Suicide (at Andy).

Joe Brown, a farmer living near Andy, committed suicide at his home Wednesday morning by discharging a load of no 6 shot into his temple, the charge passing entirely through his head and breaking out a window light. He accomplished the deed by tying one end of a string to the trigger and the other to his toe. Ill health is supposed to have been the incentive, as he had just returned from the field and told his wife that he was feeling bad. He leaves a wife and six children.—Jacksonville Banner.

Plant Orchards and Chickens.

A fruit dealer from New York was at the Truck meeting in Nacogdoches the other day, and in speaking of the probability of glutting the market said that he handled the crop of Florida, Georgia, Alabama and several other states. That he had never handled any of the Texas product, but that it was given up to be superior to that grown in any state. That when Texas was able to ship over 500,000 per annum she might become alarmed about glutting the market. All Texas shipped less than 1000 cars last year, so you see she has 499,000 cars to play on. He recommended special care in gathering and handling the fruit and the sending out of nothing but the very best. He also said that in large quantities, (lots less than a car) he would pay 25 cts. each for chickens, f. o. b. Now go to work and plant out orchards and raise chickens—Timpson Star.

THE CUBAN TREATY

So far as the Cuban reciprocity treaty is concerned, the democrats have won a signal victory over the republicans. It was the intention of the democrats to talk the treaty to death unless they could get all they contended for, and when the republicans saw them line up as one man under the able leadership of Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman, they capitulated and came down like "a thousand brick." It is the first time in years that the democrats in the Senate have presented an unbroken front to the republicans. When they have done so in the past they invariably have won a victory. The trouble has been that in the recent past they have had no leadership in the Senate worthy the name. They have it now, and the results are apparent to the most casual observer. The democrats said to the republicans that they must add an amendment to the Cuban reciprocity treaty that would give the House of Representatives the right to pass upon it before it became operative, because it was legislation that affected the revenues of the government, and that all such legislation must have concurrent sanction of the House of Representatives, or else it would not be constitutional legislation. It would be practically eliminating the House as one of the legislative branches of the government and legislation by the Senate exclusively. It will be remembered that the House at the first session of the 57th Congress passed a law giving Cuba this reduction in the rates of the Digley law that is asked for, but it also tacked on to it a clause that eliminated the differential on refined sugar, which would save the consumers of this country millions of dollars annually that now go into the pockets of the sugar trust. For that very reason the Senate refused to consider the measure and let it die. It now comes to the front with the treaty, giving the same reduction in the Digley rates, but it does not remove the differential on refined sugar which gives the consumer in this country a chance, and clearly is an attempt to play into the hand of the sugar trust. The republicans have been forced to agree to the amendment to allow the House to pass on the treaty when it meets next winter. If they had not agreed to it they would not have got away from Washington here all summer, or else would have been forced to abandon the treaty altogether. The net result of this democratic victory will be that the House next winter will either add the amendment again, eliminating the differential on refined sugar, or if it passes the House as sent to it by the Senate, then the democrats in the Senate will open up the tariff debate in its entirety and consume the whole session in speeches that will be made in open session, and will go to the country as democratic campaign documents. In either event the trusts will get it in the neck and the people will be benefited. Score one for the democrats.

THE President has declared his intention to discuss the race question on his western trip, and the republican leaders are considerably worried about it. Senator Hanna is urging him to leave the question alone, but Roosevelt declares it is one that has to be considered by the republican party and he has no desire to dodge it.

THE probability of seating colored women in the meeting of the National Council of Women at New Orleans next week has aroused the indignation of the ladies of New Orleans and they declare they will not entertain the National council if it is done. It might work in Boston or Washington, but it "can't be did" in New Orleans or any other true Southern city.

THE frequent outbreak of revolutionists in South America is dispelling a great deal of the fascination that country has heretofore possessed for the North American. The depredations of alternate bands of revolutionists and government forces are terrorizing foreigners and the property of neutrals is being confiscated in Honduras, where a full grown revolution now exists.

IN Horace Greeley's day, it was all right to advise young men to "go west," but Russel Sage gives them advice more suitable to the present in the following: "I have a sincere word of advice for any young man who desires to succeed, and it is this: Under no circumstances should he yield to the temptation of gambling in stock. I do not mean by this he should never seek success through the medium of speculation, but he should always observe business methods in all his dealings. When sound, good paying stocks are low it might do well to buy them as an investment only, but not otherwise. The fever of speculation has been the ruin of thousands of young men and the wreck of many fortunes. It will continue to cast wrecks by the wayside so long as most of us are mad to get rich quick."

LETTER FROM AUSTIN.

Notes of Interest From the State's Capital.

Editor Sentinel: Austin, March 21.—It is still muddy down here; how is it in East Texas?

Examination week at the University has just passed. A large percent of the students have taken advantage of the short inter-term vacation and have gone home for a few days. The regular spring term work begins Monday.

The law-makers are rushing legislation just now. Every fellow seems to have a pet measure which he is anxious to get through, so he is willing to vote for almost anything else, in order to dispose of it and take up his own bill. The body has held a few night sessions recently. It is now the unanimous opinion that the body will adjourn April 1st, and then be reconvened at once.

Judge Middlebrook has introduced and had passed to engrossment a bill which provides for the appropriation of $2000 by the state to assist the Daughters of the Republic in having the Old Stone Fort reconstructed. He has also introduced a bill having for its object the establishment of a more efficient road system in Nacogdoches county. The new road bill has some novel features which it seems to the writer ought to commend themselves creditably to all friends of good roads. Among other things it changes the age limit from 21 to 45 and provides that those subject to road duty may not be required to work more than eight days in the year, also that they may escape road duty for the year by paying $400 into the county treasury, taking the treasurer's receipt therefore. This bill is carefully framed and seems to offer a good solution to the road question. Just at this juncture the man who solves successfully the good (or rather bad) roads problem will undoubtedly win a place in the hearts of his countrymen.

Last Friday, Davis, of San Augustine, Ramsey, of Shelby, and Judge Middlebrook came out to Breckenridge Hall and ate dinner with the University boys. The boys send them an invitation to come again.

Last Friday night Captain Hobson, of Merrimac fame, lectured in the University Auditorium on the United States as a World Power from the stand point of the Navy. He is a fine speaker and his lecture was instructive and entertaining throughout. He is an earnest enthusiast on expansion. He praised the Americans in the highest terms, pronouncing them a race of giants towering above all the peoples of the world, physically, mentally, socially and morally.

He argued the maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine, not only in the Western Hemisphere, but in parts of the Eastern as well. He asserted that the doctrine applies to the Philippines now and will apply to China. The great mission of America is to carry liberty and Christianity to all the oppressed nations of the earth. He asserted that the call is from High Heaven itself; that the path of duty is clear and cannot be avoided.

He looks upon the maneuvers of Emperor William of Germany with grave suspicions. The great rapidity with which Germany is strengthening here already strong navy has no other ultimate purpose than the breaking the Monroe Doctrine. The great nations of Europe are going to league together in the near future and test that historic doctrine vigorously.

The only safety lies in the U. S. navy, which is now only a fourth rate one. Every effort must be expended to make our navy superior to any other afloat, and this must be done with all dispatch. There is no other safe course to pursue. This is expensive, but not halt so expensive as the war which will certainly follow any neglect in this matter. In ten, fifteen or twenty years at most the earth will run gory. The Monroe Doctrine will be seriously imperilled if not entirely destroyed, unless America's navy is made so strong that the whole world combined will not dare attack it.

He pictured America in the image of fair Columbia standing midway between Europe and the Orient, the supreme arbiter of the nations of earth, her arms extended, her face, Heavenward,—her mission, highborn, heaven-achieved—"Peace on Earth, good will to men."

W. F. MARTIN.

O, Lord let the sunshine in and let it come down like a thousand of bricks for weeks and weeks and weeks. In fact we don't want any more rains this year! and part of next.—Shelby Democrat.

Remember, Mac, Bro Eastering, of the Orange Tribune, told you to call upon some one else, for you had lost telephone connection in that quarter.—Timpson Daily Times.

Put it in poetry, Mac, and possibly your manuscript will not be returned marked "unavailable."

O, Lord, be good to Mac once more; Send sunshine through his sanctum door; Yon windows flood with mellow light, These clouds are hateful to his sight. Be kind, O, Lord to little Mac, And steer him up to mud-less track.

Like bricks.—Orange Tribune.

The dearly beloved Orange Tribune will please observe that we have re-established telephone connection and that we are now walking in the straight and narrow path. This gratifying state affair is possible only because Bock beer never gets ripe up here.—Shelby Democrat.

This talk of paths, mudless tracks, sunshine and beer, sounds like a pipe dream to us. We want to add just one more line to the Tribune's poetry thought:

If Mac gets on the cinder track, Be kind to us and bring him back.

Thirty-two retail stores under one management and a wholesale stock in the city of Galveston of over $1,000,000 goes to make the largest combination of dry goods distributors in the South. This firm is Mistrot Bros. & Co., a name familiar to more than one half the people of the entire State of Texas, and known by them to be the originators and leaders of the lowest prices on Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Men's and Ladies furnishing goods, notions, etc., in Texas. Colored Quarterly Conference.

The second quarterly conference for the Nacogdoches station was held Saturday and Sunday at St. Pauls Colored M. E. church. In the conference every interest of the church was looked after with care. The spiritual, moral, and financial state of the church is fairly good, everything considered. The presiding Elder preached Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, after which sixty persons knelt at the altar and received the Lord's supper. It was a spiritual feast.

At night Rev. A. K. Hawkins preached a great sermon.

The following is the stewards report for the past quarter:

For pastor in charge,	$72.45
For Presiding Elder,	$24.00
General funds,	$11.00
Incidental expenses,	$10.50

FOR days past we and several others have had an eye on an exceptionally fine bunch of cattle that were being fattened in Nacogdoches. "At last," said the eager truckers, "we will have beef that is tender and juicy; beef that can be eaten." Imagine the disappointment, the shattered hopes, the agony of unfulfilled desire, when, a day or two ago, the bunch was shipped to Kansas City. Why is this? Kansas City meat markets find it profitable to establish meat markets all through Texas, and to ship the meat that is shipped to them on the hoof, back in refrigerators, (along with preservatives that are more or less unhealthy.) Kansas City makes money at this, and yet Texas towns are forced to take culls from local markets, to eat the uneatable beef furnished them, while the pick of the market man's stock is shipped. Why is this, and what the remedy?

JOHN MCLENDON, in resuming editorial control of the Shelby Democrat, wrote a masterly salutaory. It was full of sound sense, closing with the following beautiful sentiment, which is worthy of reproduction a thousand times: "Sometimes a baby comes to bless a home, and I write an item about it, and I know that item is going to be cut out of the paper and tucked away between the leaves of the old family bible, and, sometimes, when black robed death comes into the homes of my readers, their grief is my grief, and I feel it a secret privilege to be allowed to write words of sympathy and consolation. Nearly all the readers of this paper know me—at least they know of my faults. A man is known more by his faults than his virtues. But there are some who will say that with all my faults as a man, that as an editor my work has been always clean—and it will ever be. I expect my paper to be read around the firesides of Shelby county, and I will not write or print a line unfit for a child to read."

THE trip for President Roosevelt's two months outing has been arranged, but Nacogdoches, nor even Texas, is not on the itinerary. He doesn't come further South than St. Louis.

THE Marlin correspondent to the Galveston News, wants every thrifty citizen of Marlin to put his shoulder to the wheel, and push with a vim. That's all right as long as they don't push in different directions.

THE Sentinel man will make "hash meat" of Bacon, of the Logansport Journal, if he doesn't quit crediting clips from The Sentinel to the Nacogdoches Plaindealer. He has been guilty of this little "discrepancy" about 'steen times of late.

ANOTHER fatal shooting took place at Houston Tuesday. W. F. Webb shot his brother-in-law, Alex Erickson, six times with a Winchester for alleged insult of Mrs. Webb. This seems to be about the only way to make some men respect women, but its bad all the same.

GOV. LANHAM has notified the legislature that it must pass the general appropriation bill before it adjourns sine die. The Senate has adopted the house resolution to adjourn April 1st, which will preclude the passage of the appropriation bill and render necessary a special session.

THE W. O. W. must be an easy mark for the "gold brick" fellows. Another fraud has come to light in the "pin gratt" scheme. A Kansas city jeweler is the "grafter" and very few Camps have escaped being worked. Nacogdoches Woodmen were "took in" and the editor of The Sentinel has actually been beat out of a quarter. Woe is us.

A PRINTER in Carthage, Mo., has invented a stove that by friction produces 150 degrees, Fahrenheit, with one small generator. Necessity is the mother of invention. He must have had hard luck, if he couldn't get wood on subscription. We don't want that stove though. We don't believe in making it too easy for subscribers.

The smallpox, chickenpox and measles are prevailing in Tyler, and The Democrat Reporter says it is hard to distinguish "which from 'tother." The situation is improving and that paper thinks there is no cause for uneasiness.

If every century adds great men to the list, whose birthdays are to be celebrated, and if legal holidays keep on increasing, how long will it be before we have a straight year of legal holidays in the United States with no working days intervening? For the first correct answer we will give $1,000,000. Money to be paid when the year comes, so we can be sure the answer is right.

The Nacogdoches Plaindealer is offered for sale for five thousand dollars. Up to the next one. The Lord knows if we had that much money we wouldn't be out buying newspapers with it—especially at this season of the year when Bock Beer is in the state of active eruption. Seriously, however, the Pd. is one of the best pieces of newspaper property in Texas, and we are surprised to learn that Bro. Henning wants to sell it—Shelby Democrat.

NORMAN G. KITTREL made a brilliant speech at the celebration of St. Patrick's day in Houston. Judge Kittrel had evidently kissed the Blarney Stone, for he sung the praises of Ireland in measures as musical as Ossian. If England does not take it back, Ireland's bitter troubles is past, and hope is no longer an emotion to make her children heart sick. The universal and unusual celebration of the great Irish holiday in every portion of the United States shows that we rejoice with her, to a man, in her bright hopes for the future.

THE president sprung another surprise at Washington by appointing S. N. D. North as successor to W. R. Merriam as director of the census. North is a New Englander and is a pronounced enemy of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture, which means that the fight against statistician Hyde will be continued and the cotton raisers and other producers of the South will not be benefited by the resignation of Merriam as it was hoped they would. The South is getting little recognition from Roosevelt these days, except when he has an opportunity to offer us an insult.

THE city Dailies all race for the last murder, suicide, man that had two wives, and what Teddy is going to do next; hence they are so startlingly alike that they could swap names and no one would ever be able to tell the difference. Read one paper, and the hair raises up like prickles on the fretful porcupine at the wickedness of the world,—especially Ted. Read the next and its the same set of horrors; read them all, and the reader is apt to be disgusted because more can't be rustled up in a country the size of this; enough anyhow not to make every paper a duplicate to every other. Moral if you are determined to commit a crime, get copyrighted.

We observe that the big bugs are in town.—Tyler Courier.

What kind are they? It is too early for June bugs and Hogg says all the next size bugs are at Austin.

THE Shelby Democrat has a railroad poem that is twice as good as the Times and Bulletin poems, because it is only half as long. We say it modestly, but our poem is twice as good as the Democrat's, for the same reason. It is out of sight.

The Statesman doesn't make many claims, but it arrives seven times a week, and when it arrives it is greeted with a smiling welcome.—Austin Statesman.

That's true, for the Statesman is a good paper. But we put the exchanges in a bushel basket and smile at them collectively. We mightn't be able to look them over if we didn't.

THE Nacogdoches Plaindealer is advertising itself for sale. If we thought Friend Henning wanted to leave East Texas we would object forthwith, but as we suspicion that maybe the "Nacogdoches Printing Co." would be put in better shape by the deal we will offer no resistance.—Tenaha New Era.

The Nacogdoches Printing company isn't needing that money. If anything was needed to put it "in better shape" it would be forthcoming immediately or sooner.

Speaking of the advisability of inviting the commission to locate the East Texas Baptist Institute at this place, one gentleman proposes to donate the ten acres of land upon which to erect the buildings, and in addition donate every alternate building lot facing the college grounds on three sides. Now, let somebody speak out and perhaps enterprising Timpson can give them everything they could ask for. S. W. McCarty is "long-headed" and knows a good business proposition when he sees it.—Timpson Times.

Just hold up now, till Nacogdoches quits nibbling at that bait.

At last the Panama canal treaty has been ratified. The press dispatches inform us that "Without dotting an 'i' or crossing a 't,' even without changing a single punctuation mark, the senate voted to ratify the treaty with the republic of Colombia for the construction of an isthmian canal. The vote for ratification was seventy-three in the affirmative to five in the negative. The senate was in executive session when the result was announced, so that only the senators themselves and a few confidential employes were present. All the senators announced themselves as gratified to have the long struggle terminated, but none of them manifested their appreciation by cheers or clapping. On the contrary, all of them seemed more concerned about getting away from the chamber than anything else, so that by the time the senate could adjourn, which it did almost immediately after the result was announced, most of the senators left their seats and some of them had donned their hats and overcoats." The Cuban treaty comes next.

A GREAT scandal is expected to follow the summary action of President Roosevelt in demanding the resignation of the assistant attorney general to the postoffice department. Some officials in high stations will look like "5 cents worth of dirty ice" after the search light has been turned on. It is alleged that the aforesaid high officials have been using this position to extort money from illegal and fraudulent concerns that have been using the mails to promote their schemes of robbery.

If the great state of Massachusetts is to put into the World's Fair only $10,000 more than the territory of Oklahoma, she will scarcely escape a little western ridicule.—Post Dispatch.

It has begun. The states are going to be judged by the amount they appropriate for the Fair, and as Texas is foremost in the eyes of the world today, so will the greater obloquy be hers if an adequate display of the resources is not made. These World's Fair displays are not to exploit state vanity, as some solons seem to think. It is a case where the state reaps what it sows a hundred fold.

Toads at 25c a piece! That's what some of our enterprising truckers have been known to pay for them, so great is the demand and scarce the supply during the cold frame season. A few toads turned loose in a plant bed with a shallow vessel of water to drink from, is said to successfully settle the cut worm and other insect problems. No telling, in a little while toad culture itself may be a good business.—Jacksonville Banner.

THE Texas Fruit and Truck Journal, published at Jacksonville, offers this advice: "The East Texas Fruit and Truck Growers Union is now permanently established, has been granted a charter, the manager has been selected, one of the best men in Texas, and if all of the associations will come forward and take stock they will be able to get good prices for what they raise, because the distribution will be the best. Let us go to work, friends, and success is assured. Because you have done very well in the past, don't be afraid to turn your business into the Union for fear you will not do as well. You will do better, there is no doubt about this. Put your shoulder to the wheel and help make your business, and the business of your neighbor, a success."

Sam H. Dixon was in the city Tuesday, having returned from Jacksonville where he attended a meeting of the board of directors of the East Texas Fruit and Truck Growers union. The meeting was held for the purpose of electing a manager for the union, and Mr. Dixon was congratulating himself upon the election of Wesley Love of Jacksonville. Mr. Love is the largest shipper in the state, a man of unquestionable business, is an energetic and tireless worker with unbounded faith in the ultimate success of the exchange plan, and a better man for the place would have been hard to find.—Lutkin Tribune.

DREADING lest the unprecedented wet weather be what the old darkey called "a sign'er sumpin," we have been delving deep into the archives of the past to see if there ever was such a spring as this one since the year Jonah swallowed the ark. We learned that in England in 1594, the months of June and July were "very wet and wonderfully cold like winter," and that up to the 10th of July "it was scant two days fair together all that time, but it rained every day more or less." It was so bad that a preacher said, "God amend it in His mercy, and stay this plague of waters." Notwithstanding all this, in the month of August, there followed a fair harvest, for the whole, the quaint old chronicle is encouraging, as they did manage to raise a crop, but we have a fellow feeling for the poor 16th century farmers, with the "fold standing empty in the drowned field."

THE Houston Chronicle, in an editorial, which has for its text the suicide of a young lady in Chicago, who killed herself because her lover's affection had waned, leaves the personal side altogether, and reaching far beyond pity for the girl and anger at the man, strikes the key note of love in no uncertain tone. It says: "The main object of love, as of every event that comes into man's life and the object of man's life itself, is the testing of the man. When God gives a woman's love to a man, as James M. Barrie says in one of his last novels, he stands back and watches the man. The love of a woman comes to a man in the guise of a gift. It may be a gift and a great gift, but it is also supremely a test. As he treats the woman so is the man. If he betrays her, deserts her or is cruel to her, he strikes down his own character with the same blows, real or figurative, he levels at the woman." Hard truths these, and they set an impossibly high standard perhaps, but at the last of a man's life when it is God and man, it will be well he has remembered.

April 1, the day set for final adjournment of the legislature, is drawing near. Speed its coming! When the solons go to their homes possibly members of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce can sleep at nights without having legislative nightmares and seeing visions calling them to the lobby rooms at the State capitol. Sleep will then become refreshing and they can rise of mornings and put in a few hard licks toward securing industrial enterprises, which Beaumont must have if the Southeast Texas metropolis' dream of greatness is to be realized. Indeed, it would be a good idea to henceforth permit the business interest in other cities of the state devote a little time to killing legislation. Beaumont is not the only place that would suffer in the event bad laws are enacted.—Beaumont Journal.

"Mystery of the Red Automobile" is the title of a new novel. It should go rapidly. The mystery may be, why it is "read."

THE New York correspondent of the Houston Chronicle asks, "Where is the National flower of America?" Then it proceeds to make a poet's eye roll in a fine frenzy by saying that the Carnation Society, in session in Brooklyn, is taking steps to secure official recognition. Glance over the list of flowery emblems of other countries; how literature is enriched with legend, tradition, vivid bits of history, the glamour of romance over all; and we,—want to call an election, and secure "official recognition" for this that or the other flower a club may be supporting. India's emblem is the blue lotus, selected because baby Buddha was found floating down the Ganges in its blossoms. The Nelumbo bud, that floats forever with Indian cupid down the holy river. England's roses, forever date the time when York and Lancastrian met in the old English garden. York's suggestion "Let him that is a true born gentleman, if he suppose that I have pleaded truth, from off this briar pluck a white rose with me," is followed by Somerset. "Let him that dare maintain the cause of truth, Pluck a red rose from off this thorn with me." Not history perhaps, but is it any the less beautiful? Scotland's thistle has given humor connected with its adoption. England was besieging a Scotch castle, trying to steal upon them by night. The soldiers found the moat had dried up and the bed of it grown up with thistles which pierced the invaders' feet so cruelly that the vigorous Anglo Saxon used, roused the sleeping castle, and saved it. The grateful Scotch claimed the thistle as theirs from that minute,—no election either. Ireland's Shamrock, and its story is well known. The German Korn-blumen, our "ragged robin," was William the Great's favorite flower; he said it looked like the little German children's eyes. The list is too long for further notice, but in the United States is to enter the flowery Kingdom let it be by some blossom that has a bit of our history that we are proud of attached to it, not by a club election or official recognition."

Judge Davis Enjoying Life. Judge Davis, in company with his pipe and walking stick, started for Tenaha a foot at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. He was heard from at 12 o'clock and had made five miles of his journey. Late in the evening he phoned from Tenaha and said he had made it safely, and was preparing to leave for Nacogdoches to open court Monday—Center Champion.

The Judge came through on time, or very near it, opened court, empaneled the grand jury, adjourned court "subject to call," bought a new supply to smoking tobacco, substituted a fishing pole for the walking stick and disappeared for two days. He took the Nacogdoches "Bar" with him when he left town and we know he had a good time.

THE Cuban treaty has been ratified, too. The Senate must really want to "get loose."

A HEALTH POLICY

The system is from natural causes, debilitated or run-down both in the spring and fall. The necessary changes are always a part of the human organism. The blood becomes impure in the winter, and vitality lags in the fall. In such a case, a little assistance, and you will do the rest, as it is necessary to maintain health. The system is the weakest organ will be the most disorder, and this leads to wrong treatment. The debilitated conditions of the system or fall, or any other for that matter, the right thing to do is to build up the system. It is not your stomach, or liver, or nerves alone that cause the trouble; you are weakened all over and must have renewed strength and vitality. These you cannot get so quickly or surely or safely as by using

DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC

When you use Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic you are helping to renew the vigor of every fiber of your body. You are cleansing and enriching your blood; you are strengthening your stomach and increasing the digestive fluids; you are building up and renewing the activity of your kidneys and liver; and you are feeding and revitalizing your nervous system. You cannot do this without getting well, and you cannot take Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic without doing it.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 28, 1901.
The Dr. Harter Medicine Co., Dayton, O.
GENTLEMEN:—I unhesitatingly recommend Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic, as I firmly believe it is the best tonic on the market to-day. Every spring and fall my system seems to be in need of a tonic, and for the past three years have taken a bottle of your tonic twice a year.

Because we overeat of them. Indigestion follows. But there's a way to escape such consequences. A dose of a good digestant like Kodol will relieve you at once. Your stomach is simply too weak to digest what you eat. That's all indigestion is. Kodol digests the food without the stomach's aid. Thus the stomach rests while the body is strengthened by wholesome food. Dieting is unnecessary. Kodol digests any kind of good food. Strengthens and invigorates.

Pin Sent Out by Scalloped Grippled Woodman a Fraud.

Shreveport Journal:

Woodmen all over the country have been made the dupes of a smart trick worked. It is said, by a jeweler of Kansas City. Shreveport has not been overlooked as a Woodman stronghold, and it is said nearly every member of the three local camps received the "graft" proposition in the form of a pin and a request for 25 cents to help a disabled and helpless Sovereign. Some of the local Woodmen sent the pin back without the quarter, and the latter now have the laugh on their fellow Sovereigns.

That the game was worked all over the United States is shown by the following clippings from various papers:

"Some time ago many of the Modern Woodmen camps in the state received a letter enclosing a small Woodman pin and stating that the sender was a cripple, minus several arms and legs, and if each neighbor would send him 25 cents for the pin, it would assist him in supporting himself. The letter was accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the man was a cripple as had been stated in the letter and a half-tone picture showing his condition. The sender was a jeweler of Kansas City who made up the story as a means of disposing of his wares. The United States authorities are investigating the case."—DeWitt (Minn.) Herald.

Another clipping from the Bay City (Texas) Visitor says:

"The members of the Bay City Woodmen of the World lodge all received one of these, sent in their 25 cents as requested, while a few returned the pin."

Still another clipping is from the Crowley Signal:

"A number of Crowley Woodmen responded to the appeal and forwarded the amount asked for. It now turns out that the disabled sovereign was a rank impostor."
