UNCLE BILLY'S PICNIC.

Will Take Place at Lockland May 2nd.

Editor Sentinel:

Lockland, April 9.—I want you to make a note in your paper that my picnic will be on the second day of May at E. L. Kuark's mill at Lockland. This is my 35th annual picnic. I shall be glad to meet all that can come, and we will all be merry once more, as it is likely that I cannot be in many more. I am now 84 years of age.

I want everybody to come and bring a nice dinner. There will be lemonade and cold drink stands on the ground, the net proceeds to be used in cleaning up the cemetery and for charitable purposes.

We expect a large crowd and good order. We most earnestly invite the editor.

As usual we expect to have a great time.

Accident at Tiber.

Tiber, April 11.—A sad accident occurred here this morning.

A boy named Fred Patter-son, while making an attempt to board a moving train was thrown under the wheels and one leg cut entirely off. Dr. Cherry, with the assistance of Mrs. Whitman and Mr. Brackin dressed the wound as best they could. He was then put on the west bound passenger train and taken to his home at Beach.

Dr. Campbell received a telegram yesterday from Tyler to the effect that Miss Fannie Campbell his daughter, who is attending business college at that place is dangerously and alarmingly ill. Dr. Campbell left yesterday afternoon via Alto across the country and Mrs. Campbell left last night for Tyler. Miss Campbell has measles and was not thought at first to be seriously ill.

Nacogdoches Has Another Narrow Escape From Total Destruction

Once more Nacogdoches has passed through an ordeal of fire with a miraculous escape from total destruction. Nothing but sheer luck and favorable winds are to be thanked for our deliverance from the fire fiend.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning someone discovered smoke emanating from the upper story of the Huntley building on the South side of East Main street. As to who made the discovery it is hard to say, as we have seen at least twenty-five men today who "saw it first." The regulation fire alarm was promptly turned on, and from the fusillade that took place we are ready to swear that there must have been 25 people who "saw it first"—and as soon as it was safe to venture out several hundred men, boys and women rushed to the scene of the fire. As usual, for want of organization and someone to direct, the crowd stood and gaped and stared at the smoldering, smoking building until the suspense became painful. Experienced men with cool heads, however, soon arrived on the scene and fire ladders were put to work. Ladders were obtained, buckets were brought out of the stores and the hose cut was hauled out.

By all the water pressure and the bucket brigade combined could not save the Huntley building. There was no way of reaching the fire, and it could only be fought back as the hissing flames shot their forked tongues through the one window on the west side, on which joined the Tucker Zeve & Co. buildings. The Huntley building finally burned out completely inside and if it had not been for the west wall falling on the one story building adjoining and crushing in the roof the other buildings might have escaped injury. As it is, the one story building adjoining immediately on the west, which was used as the grocery department of Tucker, Zeve & Co., is a complete wreck and is damaged probably more than half its value. The stock of groceries it contained is completely ruined by water and the debris.

The Huntley building and its entire contents are a complete loss. The building is valued at $8,000, and the stock at about $8,000. Insurance on building and stock $10,000.

Tucker, Zeve & Co.'s loss is $10,000, covered by 60 per cent insurance.

Geo. W. Blackburn's loss on meat market, which was situated on the east side of the Huntley building, is about $500.

Loss to C. W. Butt on removal of stock about $300. Insured.

Loss to Mr. D. Lee on building occupied by Tucker, Zeve & Co., as grocery department, $1,000, fully covered by insurance.

The three story warehouse in the rear of the Huntley building escaped by a miracle and was not even injured to any great extent.

The only theory advanced as to the origin of the fire is that a large quantity of matches had been stored in the upper story and in the exact location where the fire was discovered, which it is believed were ignited by rats. The fire first made its appearance in the southeast corner of the building, upstairs, and was discovered in plenty of time to have saved the building had there been any fire protection.

The telephone exchange and electric light works were damaged several hundred dollars.

NOTES

The hardware department of Tucker, Zeve & Co. is a perfect chaos, with the roof fallen in on top of it. John Smith and C. E. Davis and other left the building not two seconds before the roof fell. Mr. Smith said he felt as if it were going to fall, so they went out side to take a look at it.

The door ways between the clothing and dry goods room of Tucker, Zeve & Co.'s store were packed solid with sacks of salt which was wet. This precaution probably had a good deal to do with checking the progress of the fire as it cut off the draught.

A NEGRO FIEND AT SHREVEPORT

Assaults and Murders White Woman and Daughter

Shreveport was Saturday the scene of an atrocious crime. One of the victims dead, another dying and the perpetrator was slain by the police as he was trying to make his escape. There are few crimes in police annals the equal of this in heronousness. Mrs. Alice Matthews, wife of Frank Matthews, a civil engineer, was killed with an axe after being outraged by a lustful brute. Her ten year old daughter, Aline, was assaulted and almost beaten and dashed to pieces by the wretch who slew her mother. The police pursued a negro named Ed Porter, a lunch house tender, to a point about five miles from Shreveport and shot him dead while he was attempting to escape. There seems to be no doubt that Porter was the murderer. His clothes were bloodstained, his shoes fitted the bloody imprints found in the Matthews home, and in his pocket was found a setting supposed to have been torn from a ring on the hand of the unfortunate woman. The crime

Dr. Sturgis' Office was visited the Past Week by Great Numbers Who are Availing Themselves of His Liberal Offer--This Opportunity will End April 22nd.

Only until Wednesday, April 22nd remains for the sick and suffering people of Nacogdoches and surrounding country, afflicted with chronic diseases to avail themselves of Dr. W. E. Sturgis' liberal offer for free service, consultation, examination and advice, with the medicine for a cure furnished by him at actual cost. After April 22nd the usual charges will be made.

Much comment has been excited by the liberal offer which this distinguished specialist has made for the past week to treat patients free, charging simply for the actual medicine used for a cure. He does this for a twofold purpose. First, he has come to Nacogdoches to permanently locate in the practice of his specialty and he wishes to become rapidly acquainted with the sick and afflicted of this city and surrounding country, and, secondly, to prove to all such that he can cure the most stubborn cases of which he makes a specialty, and he wants to convince all having dealings with him that at last they have secured the services of a true specialist who will remain permanently in Nacogdoches, that the latest and best means for a cure known to medical science is used in every case, and that under his treatment patients begin to improve almost from the first day. Backed by many years of practical experience exclusively as a specialist in the following diseases:

Catarrh, Deafness, Rheumatism, Paralysis, Throat and Lung Diseases, Kidney and Urinary Troubles, Heart Affection, Nervous Diseases, Skin and Blood Disorders, Ulcers, Piles, Eczema, Special Diseases and Weaknesses of Men, and Diseases peculiar to Women.

How do your thoughts run on the Karnival question today.

If Roosevelt is really hungering for bears, why doesn't he go to Wall Street.

THE trial of Tillman for the murder of Gonzales at Columbus S. C. has been continued until July on application of the defendant.

SHALL we have another Karnival, to pay off the deficit of the last, or shall we make up the money, pay up and go out of the Karnival business? That is the question.

A CARLOAD of strawberries, containing 695 crates, was sold on the track in Alvin Tuesday at $3.75 per crate. The total price paid for the berries was $2,505.25.

Expect to talk Karnival $350 deficit of last year. We want everybody to come across on one side or the other—or

Not a republican nor an independent candidate was elected in the whole state of Arkansas in the municipal elections of Tuesday. Everything went democratic.

THE Bowers ticket was elected in the recent election at Palestine and the Herald lost out. The Visitor was more fortunate in getting on the winning side.

THE governor of Texas has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest of A. S. Busby who is charged with embezzlement while assistant financial agent of the Rusk penitentiary.

THE newspapers have discovered that a Texas Storage elevator just completed in Montreal, is the largest and best one in the world. Of course, but it is a long way from home.

J. M. LEWIS, is poet as well as tritler, and his last poem, "I was born in I-o-way," is a gem that every man will read twice, for the music in the lines and the graceful beauty of the idea. It is as pretty as a dogwood blossom.

THE editor of the Sentinel is individually "in the hole" for sixty-nine dollars on last year's Karnival, and we expect to do five hundred dollars worth of talking or get that money back. There are four other individuals stuck for the same amount each, and none of us are able to pay it and lose it. The people must help us out or we will talk them to death.

THERE has been an entire absence of rainfall throughout Texas for the past ten days, according to the Climate and Crop Report, issued by the U. S. weather bureau at Galveston, and crop conditions are greatly improved. In many sections of the black land districts it is still too wet to permit cultivation. Conditions throughout East Texas are encouraging.

STONE FORT BILL VETOED.

The following unwelcome news was sent out among the press dispatches from Austin yesterday:

Austin, Tex., April 7.—Governor Lanham to-day filed his sixteenth veto, disapproving Middlebrook's bill, which was meant to appropriate $2000 for the purpose of aiding the Daughters of the Republic of Texas and the Cum Concilio Club of Nacogdoches in the rebuilding of the old stone fort at Nacogdoches. It was vetoed on the ground that it was in contravention of that section of the Constitution which prohibits the Legislature from appropriating money to aid any person or association of persons.

The constitution is an awful bugbear to Gov. Lanham. What got the appropriation for the San Jacinto battle ground, or the Alamo appropriation, or the money to build monuments on the State Capitol grounds, or any other public and patriotic move that the State has aided in, except an "association of persons." The appropriation asked in this instance is not for individual enterprise or profit. We have no doubt but that the ladies urging the scheme would be willing for the State to own the property if it takes that to make the appropriation constitutional. In any event it is a public and not a private enterprise. We feel that in his indifference Gov. Lanham has not given this matter the consideration it is entitled to, and the people of all East Texas have a right to feel indignant over his peremptory exercise of the veto power in this instance.

THE last report from Teddy is that he is now hunting lions up in Montana.

THOSE who are willing to help pay that $350 Karnival deficit will please come a-running.

TEDDY is fighting the trusts away out West, while the trusts are safe and comfortable at the other end of the continent.

SOME lime and carbolic acid would be a good thing to sprinkle some of the back alleys of Nacogdoches with. They certainly do stink.

HOGS are worth $7.00 per hundred pounds on foot at Fort Worth. A few acres in hogs would beat raising cotton mighty bad.

THE Karnival last year brought lots of business along with the thousands of people that came to Nacogdoches. It is a good thing to perpetuate.

THE "steal" industry swamped the iron industry at Rusk. If the rascals are all out now, maybe there is a brighter outlook for the iron furnaces of the Rusk penitentiary.

THE Nacogdoches Karnival of Kommerce is a permanent organization, with the following officers: President, J. C. Harris; Secretary, E. E. Baldwin; Treasurer, Fritz Ingraham. The stockholders are the people. The Stockholders will be called together soon to arrange a program for the 1903 Karnival.

THE public interest of Nacogdoches should be as the business of one big firm. We are all members of the firm and it is the duty of everyone of us to do all we can to enhance the business. Do you see the point?

CARTER HARRISON has been elected the fourth time as Mayor of Chicago on the democratic ticket. Notwithstanding the city council will be republican by a small majority, Harrison was elected by a majority of nearly 7,000.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Senator Mark Hannah's home, went democratic in the recent city election. It is funny how everything goes democratic in an "off year," and how solidly they show up republican when the presidential election is on and the republican campaign boodle is in circulation.

By the time the 117,000 Elberta peach trees set out last season within a radius of ten miles square, with Nacogdoches in the center, begin bearing, there will be business in the fruit line in this vicinity. The acreage is doubling and trebling every year, and within a short while Nacogdoches will rival Jacksonville as a fruit center.

THERE is a deficit of $350 against the Karnival of last year. We have "stuff" left over that can be used in future that cost about that much money. Shall we get up another Karnival and pay the debt, or shall we make up the money, pay off the debt and quit? Everybody speak at once. This deficit must be met some way.

THE Easter edition of the Orange Tribune is good for the sore eyes. The best feature of this number is that it is printed on paper manufactured at Orange. Editor Rein is looking forward to a day when he can print his edition every day from paper made right at his door, and we are as impatient as he is to see the day arrive. Nacogdoches isn't so very far from Orange and we are both in Texas.

ROOSEVELT, in his speech at St. Paul referred to his letter on race suicide, and said he believed the discussion it had raised would have a marked effect on the race. A race that would be effected by Roosevelt's speeches ought to commit suicide. Teddies letter was like Hobson's kissing, pie for the irreverent paragrapher: only that. And that he takes the breeze it raised seriously is—well wouldn't it electrocute you?

FOSTER, the "weather witch," has moved from St. Joseph, Mo., and has taken headquarters in Washington. He will find advantages and facilities for promulgating his forecasts from the National capitol that he could not have at St. Joseph. The wonderful accuracy of Foster's long range forecasts has been a matter of surprise to everybody, and they have been of great benefit to farmers who have been guided by them.

RAILROAD TALK

We know no especial authority for it but the report is current that there is a quiet move on foot that means that Nacogdoches may soon have another railroad. From a recent issue of the Houston Post we quote the following:

"Several gentlemen who have the means to operate with and are not given to much street talking are figuring on a road from Nacogdoches into the pine forest to the south-east of this place.

It is said some parties residing in Davenport, Iowa, who own 40,000 acres of pine land in this county will establish a large mill at this place and will be largely interested in extending said road, which will be well built and standard gauge, utilizing to begin with, the ten miles of grade which was built some years ago, and is in a good state of preservation, and which practically extends into the holding of said Iowa parties.

Other parties are building out in this section from a point west of here on the Cotton Belt, and as they own timber lands up to within a few miles of town on the west, it would appear that these movements may mean another line for Nacogdoches in the near future."

The sale of the property of the old Red River Sabine and Western Railway company under execution, which occurred here yesterday has revived this talk and there are some who have confidence in the ultimate consummation of a scheme that will carry out these plans.

Let us hope that it is not a misplaced confidence.

Rural Free Delivery

Beaumont, Apr. 7, 1903.

R. W. Haltom,

Nacogdoches, Texas

Dear Sir: I beg to hand you herewith self-explanatory letter, which will be of interest to you and your citizens.

Yours very truly,

S. B. COOPER.

Washington, Mar. 31, 1903.

Hon. S. B. Cooper, M. C.

Beaumont, Texas.

Sir:—I take pleasure in informing you that in accordance with your request Rural Free Delivery has this day been ordered established from Nacogdoches, Nacogdoches county, Texas, with two carriers, to commence on Friday, May 1, 1903.

Respectfully,

J. J. HOWLEY,

Acting First Assistant Postmaster General.

The above means that rural free delivery for the two routes heretofore mentioned is an assured thing and will be in operation within three weeks from now. It would be a good idea for the citizens living along the routes to be established to go over the roads and smooth them up a little, as an officer of the Post-office department will be here at the beginning of this service and will make a tour of inspection over the routes. If the roads are in bad condition an unfavorable report will be made, and if the same condition exists when subsequent inspections are made it will not take long to have the service abandoned. Good service is dependent upon good roads, and if the service is unsatisfactory it will ultimately be abandoned. The people who are to enjoy the convenience of this rural delivery cannot fully appreciate it until they have tried it.

Too much booze often makes a man lose his head.—Palestine Herald.

A man has lost his head already when he has taken too much booze.

Marvin McKee, of Center, won the nomination for the appointment to Annapolis, in the examination at Nacogdoches on the 4th inst.—Timpson Times.

There were only two applicants, the other being Charles Koenig, of Rusk. Both passed creditable examinations.

WHENEVER any set of men are allowed to hold office too long they are certain to become proud and arrogant, and consider themselves the masters instead of the servants of the people.—Palestine Herald.

Nacogdoches county has had a practical demonstration of that fact. No man ought to be permitted to hold the same office over four years in succession.

The newspapers of Texas ought to inquire when John H. Kirby expects to load up his anti-trust paper mill and offer battle to the paper trust. If Mr. Kirby makes paper in Texas out of the shavings, he ought to be able to sell it to the country press at a rate that would make appreciate more keenly than ever real live competition for the trust.—Denver Times-Herald.

We would not be surprised to see some chuckle-headed editor wanting Kirby to give his paper away. So far as we are concerned, we will take an obligation to buy paper from Kirby at trust prices if he will put the mills in operation in Texas.

A WASHINGTON man, Mr. Julius Emmer, has invented an apparatus to utilize the electricity of the sun and make it do the world's work.

We are going to believe it if we can. If his invention is practical, it means doing away with coal fields (for of course heat can't be developed if force is). It means no more of men staring in the dark for others no better, only more fortunate, to be warm in the light. No more mine horrors, but all of the work of the world done in the light of Heaven. To a certain extent, the idea has already been experimented with; the heart of the sun has been used by means of convex glasses, but, near as we remember, while the experiment was successful, the scheme for general use was impractical, as often happens with inventions. We are afraid, though, that the man at the head of the invention is a crank, as a few years ago he patented a machine to record and give out again human thoughts as the phonograph does words. His failure to make this machine go may be attributable to the fact that so few people think, but the memory of his last wild flight of fancy makes it impossible to take his later experiments as seriously as otherwise would be done.

KARNIVAL talk is in order now.

BROTHERHOOD INSURANCE

The East Texas Brotherhood is being organized in this section for the mutual benefit of its members. Upon the death of a member, his beneficiary receives an amount equal to one dollar for each member, thus giving relief to his family when they most need it.—Timpson Times.

This is the most equitable, safest and cheapest plan of life insurance, but if you can't get up more confidence than exists in the Nacogdoches Brotherhood Association, which is the same thing, you had as well drop it. We started out very nicely and paid the first benefit, amounting to $272. The next death certificate was only worth $180, and on the last assessment only about $90 has been paid in. It is too cheap, and has not enough of the ring of speculation to catch rich folks and poor folks, for whom the is inaugurated, went to the head.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

The Sentinel hits the nail on the head. There is enough speculation about

There are no salaried officers and no commission allowed on assessments. The money is left in the hands of the members until it is needed, and when it is paid out it goes to those who live in the county. The trouble is this. It is a home affair. It is misleading in nothing. It is simple and comprehensive throughout. It is home-like and home-made, and its membership includes largely persons who never before carried insurance, and when a dollar is called for to pay a death benefit the suspicion of many members is aroused. They wonder why the patient died or why in the first place he was permitted to join if death was so close at hand. These members do not stop to consider that life is uncertain and that if there are to be no deaths there is no need of insurance.

Insurance is bound to cost something to the insured, for only the insured pay the death benefit. Life insurance costs three times as much on the average as this Brotherhood system. People take out life insurance as a business proposition, but the average farmer is not educated up to the point or he would never think of remaining out of a local benefit association which is so much cheaper than regular life insurance.—Tyler Courier.

Certain vegetables, notably tomatoes, cabbages, cauliflower, celery, lettuce and some others, need to be started in cold frames and transplanted for the practical business of growing. For this purpose there is a plant-setting machine, which will handle a sprout as if it loved it, establish it in its new environment, gather the earth tenderly about its roots, give it a copious drink of water from a tank it carries, and cover from four to six acres in a day.—Washington Post.

The next invention needed is a machine that will clean up a house while the housekeeper rests. Then, while the plant setter works the garden, and the patient house cleaner sweeps and dusts, the farmer and his wife can go fishing.

JUST A LITTLE SLEEPY.

Nacogdoches Is Still the Metropolis of East Texas.

Yestereay we were hard up for copy and felt a little blue, so we indulged in a few lines of a halt pesimistic strain in reference to the present dullness of Nacogdoches. We were promptly called down and given to understand that such talk would never do, or we would soon kill the town deader than H—Henderson. Today we take it all back and if any body believes we meant to insinuate that Nacogdoches is a dead town, just let him be careful how he says so. We never meant to convey any such idea. It is simply a little dull here at present and we said so. Both the plaining mills and the box factory are running, but the compress, the oil mill and iron foundry are idle, which makes things dull in their respective localities. There are but few houses being built, which makes it dull for the carpenters. But these things don't mean that a town is dead. If one thinks the town is on the decline, let him price real estate around here. The same rents are obtained and there are no vacant houses, either stores or residences, in the corporation limits. No, sir, Nacogdoches is not dead by all sorts of odds. She just happens to be a little bit sleepy just at present.

Similar cure of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Stripling & Haselwood & Co. GAMBLING IN ROOSEVELT HOME

President's Former Residence Raided by New York Police.

New York, April 8.—The house at East Twentieth street, in which President Roosevelt and eight generations of his father's family had lived, has been visited by police, who were informed pool room had been there.

After slight delays in gaining an entrance, the officers found 60 men watching a game of checkers. "It's your move," said one of the players when the officers, headed by Captain O'Connor, entered.

"You're off, my friend," replied the captain; "it's everybody's move, to the sidewalk, for you."

The men took the hint and filed out with alacrity. A tablet recording when President Roosevelt was born was there, set in the wall of the first floor hall.

GE has subscribed one dollar for a Texas paper for the St. Louis Exposition next year.

Wonderful how often the newspaper reporters have found Busby, and yet an officer can't get hold of him.

McLEEMAN county is to issue $40,000 in county bonds for road improvement. That seems about the only way to do it.

Of course a free man must be left to part his hair in the middle if he likes; but, surely, there should be an age limit—Snap Shots.

Don't fret, there is; and instead of parting his hair he parts with it.

THE colored people of Tyler county are endeavoring to secure a colored normal school for this summer at Woodville. They have the cooperation of the colored people of several adjoining counties.

THE churches and city officers of Beaumont are working with a zeal to elevate the moral condition of that city, says an exchange. From reading the Beaumont papers one would conclude that the aforesaid churches and officers have undertaken a herculean task.

THE Snake Editor has explained the mystery of the numberless keys at the Sentinel office an owner for which, was advertised for some days since. He says that they are keys that he lost while singing cheerfully at his arduous work. To any one who has ever heard the snake editor warble, this is an explanation that really explains, especially as the keys are all flat.

MRS. KATE WOLSEY, of Covington, Ky., resigned from the Daughters of the Republic, of which she was a charter member, during the meeting at New Orleans; resigning because the Government doesn't grant equal political rights to men and women. Wonder if the advocates of Woman's rights ever remember that jury duty goes with voting. It's a circus to watch the average man dodge jury duty, but we'd hate to see ladies trying to

THE editor acknowledges an invitation to attend a "blowout" at San Augustine on May 5th. The Red Land city has no superior when it comes to public outdoor entertainments—even from a picnic to a hanging—and on this occasion she expects to spread herself. We should like awful well to be on hand and see her "spread." We would enjoy the "spread" immensely in times like these.

Hon. Lee Blanchette of Beaumont, Clerk of Jefferson County, is a candidate for comptroller. The people of this section are unanimously in favor of his nomination. His long experience in business and public affairs especially qualifies him for the place.—Woodville Gazette.

Of course we will bring up a solid front for Lee. But isn't he getting in the race rather early? It is an awful long run from now until the next State convention.

THE Beaumont Journal has been hurting Bowley O'Quinn's corns and Bowley is trying to get the legislature to resolve a resolute or do something to vindicate him and punish The Journal. But the trouble is Bowley has talked himself to death during the 18th legislature and there is a sort of hidden relish down in the hearts of a majority of his colleagues for the "skinning" the Journal administered to the Angelina Statesman. So when Bowley asked for an "investigation" he was literally laughed out of court. The moral to this incident is that the most conspicuous is not the most influential.

"And Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted up his voice and wept."—Gen. xxxix. 11. Why did Jacob weep?—Anson News.

Not having the pleasure of meeting Rachel we can't say.—Houston Post.

For the sake of suffering humanity don't start that old gag out again. It was a gag four thousand years ago—and that was why Jacob wept.—Orange Daily Tribune.

You have to be charitable and remember that four thousand years ago we were still in the lap of the gods.—Houston Post.

That was tough on the gods.

SOME of the newer books are of more than usual interest. "The girl at the half way house," will never be laid down half read, and "Lovey Mary" is a fine sequel to the famous "Mrs. Wiggs." The best however is the latest. The theme of Crawford's new book "Cecilia" turns on hypnotism and as the subject is of the greatest interest and handled with great subtlety, the book is of thrilling interest from the first page, where the two heroes are introduced, to the last where the dreams come true. To lovers of the strange in fiction, The Fifth String, by John Philip Sousa, while not in the strictest sense a new book, having appeared last year, will prove fascinating in its wierd weaving of music, love and death.

THE cabbage growers of the coast country haven't much to encourage them this season. We notice where one trucker sold an entire load for 35 cents. It seems that with good distribution cabbage should net them better money than they have been receiving. Notwithstanding the low price of cabbage down there, we are still paying 5c per pound for it here.—Texas Fruit and Truck Grower.

THERE must be something wrong when conditions like this arise. There is no doubt a lack of understanding among the cabbage growers. They need an exchange similar to that of the East Texas Truck Growers to fortify them against such disasters. The exchange is created for this very purpose and there is no other way to protect the trucker and fruit grower against such ruinous prices. The very cabbage that sold for 35c a whole wagon load will bring just the same price in the retail market as if they had brought a remunerative price to the grower. The "middle man" made the profit.

NOTHING but "nigger luck" has saved the whole city of Nacogdoches from total destruction by fire for the third time within the past twelve months. This kind of luck won't stick to us always. With adequate fire protection the Huntley building could easily have been saved this morning with but slight damage.

WHAT we need is a fire hose that can throw a two inch stream 100 feet high and water pressure to back it up.

OUR APPLEBY LETTER.

The News From Our Flourishing Little Neighbor.

Appleby, April 12.—As the dark clouds of despondency have been overshadowing our little town and vicinity for several months occasioned by a crop failure, bank failure and the continued rains for several months it seemed as though everything was too dismal, dark and gloomy to report to a newspaper for publication, because we didn't care to burden other people with our troubles. But now, as it seems like the misty clouds were being rolled away and a brighter day is coming over us we do not hesitate to render our little events for publication.

Spring, with its many pleasant scenes and fragrant odors, has brought forth peace and pleasure to the entire community.

THE saw mill men are filled with new vigor and saw mill business revived, and this brings glad tidings to so many families who are dependent on the prosperity of this business—for not only those who work at these mills are invigorated but scores are engaged in hauling the products to the railroad and loading same in cars, and by this support their families.

MR. E. J. Hunt has a planer attached to his saw mill and is now shipping first class finished lumber.

MR. Adam Caraway will soon have a planer at work on his mill yard.

MR. Wm. Red Scroggins got his hand caught in his shingle mill a few days ago, contusing it so badly that he had to have one finger amputated.

MR. T. W. Duncan, whose arm was broken in two places, and very badly bruised last week, is now getting along O. K.

MR. W. B. Melton, who is attending school at Timpson, is at home for a few days.

SOME of the negroes on section 15 became boisterous last week and Robt. Foster struck Jno. N. Rison on the head with his spade and inflicted a considerable wound. Rison was brought to town, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. W. G. Hart, Local Surgeon for the H. E. & W. T. railroad.

There is one case of small-pox about one mile east of Appleby. It is a negro, Mat Whitaker, on W. D. Slay's farm.

ROADS that have been almost impassable for several months are again in very good condition.

THE farmers are getting along nicely with their work. About one half of the cotton is planted. Corn looks well. Fruit is about all killed.

WE still have preaching at the Baptist church on the 3rd Sunday in each month. The Holliness have preaching once each month and prayer meeting weekly. The Christians have no regular day appointed for services. Sunday school at the Methodist church every Sunday 10 a. m.

THE W. O. W. meets Saturday night after each full moon, and Tuesday night after each 2nd Sunday. We have about 45 true enthusiastic members of woodcraft here. Will organize a Lady's Circle soon.

THE land is getting very dry and the farmers are wishing for rain.

Modern Railroad Advertising.

Commenting editorially upon the matter of modern railroad advertising, the Houston (Texas) Chronicle says in part:

"A novel feature in up-to-date railroad methods is the recent move of the Southern Pacific in the matter of pictorial advertising. The striking advertising feature which is important both to Texas and the Southern Pacific, is the work of Mr. M. B. Trezevant, the recent appointed chief of the literary bureau of the road, whose unique qualification among railroad literary chiefs is that he is an excellent, artist originating and completing his own designs.

Col. S. F. B. Morse, passenger traffic manager of the Sunset Route, whose original and aggressive policy has done much for Texas in the service of his road, is to be congratulated, not only on his general broad policy, but on this special feature of artistic advertising so excellently begun, which, on account of the sure appeal of the picture to the eye of the average man is certain to produce very broad results.

GRIST FROM GARRISON.

Two Assaults to Murder and Attempted Incendiary.

Deputy C. M. Walters went to Garrison yesterday to arrest Tom Haynes upon charge of committing an assault to murder upon a negro. While in Garrison, and as Mr. Walters was about to leave for the country in search of his man, fire broke out in the Pounds Hotel, now being run by Mrs. Johnson. The fire was extinguished before a great amount of damage had been done, and an investigation was begun to see from what cause the fire had started. It was soon discovered that the fire was of incendiary origin, says Deputy Walters. A rich pine splinter was found sticking in the roof which appeared to have been placed there while burning and from which it is alleged the fire started.

Deputy Walters arrested his man and also brought back with him a young man named Elliott, who had been terribly beaten over the head with a pistol. Elliott's wounds were dressed by a physician, and the young man is now resting comfortably at Mr. Walters' home in this city. It is stated that the man who made the assault upon Elliott was the section boss, a man named Johnson.

Veterans of the Grey.

Pursuant to call of Adjutant Doughtie a meeting of Camp Raguet U. C. V., was held at the court house in this city last Saturday. The meeting was called to order by Adjutant Jno. S. Doughtie and the convention at once proceeded to business.

THE following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Captain, H. V. Fall. Adj., J. E. Mayfield. Treasurer, A. J. Murphey. 1st Lieut., T. J. Hill. 2nd Lieut., W. E. Winston. Chaplain, J. B. Rushing.

FOLLOWING delegates were elected to the reunion at New Orleans: Jno. S. Doughtie, J. C. Fall, G. W. Bell, J. M. Turner, D. Lee, Henry Thurston, W. A. Roden, A. J. Murphey, J. E. Mayfield, G. B. Crain, J. J. Hill, H. V. Fall.

Camp Raguet will be allowed only two votes in the convention at New Orleans. It was decided that new members may be admitted to this camp upon payment of 15 cents admission fee.

Herbine Cures.

Fever and Ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mrs. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for la grippe, bilious fever and malaria." 50c at Perkins Bros.

An inopportune guessing contest was held the other day as to the population of Nacogdoches seventy years ago. The guesses varied from one to five hundred. On referring to David Crockett's book, it was found that at that time the actual residents of the town numbered a thousand, and this was doubled by people from the interior that traded here. There never was a time in the existence of Nacogdoches that the old town wasn't "it."

Walks Without Crutches.

I was much afflicted with rickets, writes Ed C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedwick county, Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefitted by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1 at Perkins Bros.

Mr. F. M. Langley of Mahl was in the city yesterday and was a caller at this office. He reports killing a pig a few days ago which was only about six months old and weighed 185 pounds net.

The careless tossing of a match stub, which happened to fall into the waste basket unobserved, came near causing a conflagration yesterday. The accident occurred in the office of Judge Ratcliff, over Stripling Hazelwood & Co., and the fire was making good headway when it was discovered and extinguished.

Died, this morning at five o'clock, Mrs. Nettie Sparks, wife of Ben Sparks and granddaughter of C. M. Walters, at the family residence on Indian Creek. Mrs. Sparks had been a sufferer with consumption for some months and the end was known to be near at hand for some days. Her death leaves her loved ones terribly bereft, and the Sentinel extends the most earnest sympathy to the afflicted family. The funeral will take place tomorrow at Toliver.

Save the Loved Ones!

Mrs. Mary A. Vliet, Newcastle, Col., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horehound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Perkins Bros.

This weather would be hard to improve upon this season of the year, though a nice shower of rain would not be objectionable.

A Story Worth Telling

We never tire of telling the story of Uneeda Biscuit. We do not believe that lovers of good, wholesome food ever tire reading it.

Uneeda Biscuit are the result of two ideas. That soda crackers could be made better than they had ever been made before. That it was possible to convey them to the home fresh, crisp and clean.

The importance of the soda cracker as an article of daily consumption, made this worthy of extraordinary effort. True, many people laughed at the idea of so much thought—time—labor—capital, being devoted to a soda cracker. But the greatest industries of the greatest country in the world have been developed from smaller things than a soda cracker, and so it seemed worth while to make the best soda cracker that could be made and to place it on the table as good as it had been made.

To do the first required the selection of the best materials, of the best equipment, the highest skill. To do the second upset all traditions. The oldest bakers said there was no way to keep a soda cracker good.

That no one expected it any way. That people were satisfied to eat them stale, as they had been in the habit of doing. And so it fell to the lot of younger minds to do this unheard of thing—to keep a soda cracker good until eaten.

The result was the creation of the In-er-seal Package with red and white seal. An invention that kept out the air, moisture, dust germs, that first retained the natural flavor of the biscuit, keeping it crisp and fresh until it reached the table, and so Uneeda Biscuit became a reality. The little thing that seemed hardly worth while became a great thing that seemed hardly possible.

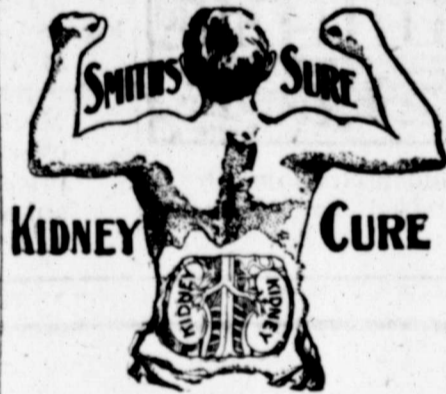

To-day over 300,000,000 packages have been consumed by the thoughtful people of this country and the demand is ever increasing.

That is the story of Uneeda Biscuit. Some day we will tell it over again for the benefit of those who are still "satisfied" with the stale and broken crackers that come in a paper bag, when they can get Uneeda Biscuit whole, fresh, and clean.

NACOGDOCHES TRUCK ACREAGE

Will Probably Reach Three Hundred Acres.

Mr. Sam H. Dixon, of the E. & W., who has been in Nacogdoches for the past two days securing a house to house report of the truck acreage, was called away today on important business. He had not completed his canvass, but will in all probability return in a few days for that purpose. He spent yesterday among the growers and secured the following total acreage:

Tomatoes, 95 acres.
Potatoes, 42 "
Other truck, 64 "

Total, 201 "

He secured the acreage of the following growers: Jas. D. McKnight, W. H. Dial, R. F. Davis, G. B. Phillip, C. W. Harvey, J. K. Latham, L. W. Lyles, J. C. and J. J. Dollard, A. D. Rawlinson, T. Thorn, M. Davis, W. R. Baker, H. S. Edler, B. F. Feild, Chas. Shoffner, & Bro., Christopher, W. A. King, T. Booth, E. Cordova, A. Burrough, Merchants Auxiliary, J. M. Abery, Andy Tridall, T. E. Burgess, A. Reed, A. Chestnut, A. W. Eddings, G. B. Layton, M. W. Hall, R. L. Bentley, W. S. Beason, C. G. Monzingo, W. A. Bell, G. W. Tillery, Jno. Sanders, Hense Burrows, J. J. Millard, W. B. Grubbs, O. Murphy, S. C. Windom and N. P. Neel.

The acreage of about twenty growers has not been secured. Mr. Dixon thinks that when the acreage has all been tabulated it will aggregate about three hundred acres, with the tomato crop leading with something like 150 acres.

The work being done by the H. E. & W. Ry. in this matter is very commendable, and every grower should render every possible assistance in making the final report accurate. When the work of collecting this data has been completed the true situation can be presented to the buyers of truck, and the railroads handling it will know exactly what they will be called upon to do in the way of supplying equipment, etc. for its transportation to the markets.

Growers whose names do not appear above should send in their acreage at once to the secretary of the local association, Prof. R. F. Davis.

is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet." Perkins Bros.

with us and let us tell you something about the care eyes.

Mr. Shindler has been fitting eyes scientifically for several years and is not only a graduate but having all the latest instruments, his experience is large and his patrons have the benefit of it without extra charge.

It is extremely sad that so many overlook the fact that the eye is the most sensitive and delicate of all the organs. The nerves that govern the sight and the muscles of the eye are intimately connected with the stomach, and of course with all parts of the head. While headache and neuralgia are frequently the result of other causes than eye strain, it is well known by the medical profession that studious persons or those whose occupation requires constant and severe strain upon the eye are much more subject to headaches, dizziness and other ills than others whose occupation does not demand constant use of the eyes for close work.

Book-keepers, seamstresses, school children, students of all kinds, artists, draughtsmen, especially if doing their work in a changing or insufficient light, almost invariably suffer more or less with headache, vertigo or other troubles resulting from constant over-use of this wonderful organ, and in a very large percentage the strain can be alleviated, and in many cases entirely relieved by glasses properly fitted and adjusted.

The writer when a young man once had a sick horse—a drugstore was handy, and friends and neighbors around, with help and advice. One suggested a remedy for colic, which was given, but he got sicker, another called it bots, and he was drenched with another sure cure, and so on from drench to drench and the poor animal was dosed, and with the best intentions, tormented until he died, when probably if he had been left alone he would have recovered, and no doubt an experienced veterinary surgeon would have soon brought him around, sound and well.

In the same way many persons go into a store and buy a pair of spectacles, trying one pair after another until they find a pair they can see through, perhaps with one eye, sometimes with both, and if the frames accidentally happen to be the proper width, both eyes alike, the glasses properly focused, the purchaser goes off and recommends Jones & Co.'s, spectacles as being the real thing.

Other purchasers, however, find something wrong with the spectacles bought of Jones & Company, and as their eyes have been irritated by misfit glasses, they either return them or go away dissatisfied.

Now, what is an optician? He is not a doctor, but a person who has made a careful study of the refraction of the rays of light with the purpose of correcting errors of refraction in the eyes of those calling upon him. If he is intelligent, experienced, patient and honest, and has all necessary instruments for accurately measuring errors of refraction, or to say, detecting the strain on the eyes, it is well to call on him, as he makes no charge for examination, and if glasses are not needed he will take pleasure in saying so to you. In fact, he would be the last man to recommend glasses, except where benefit would accrue to the wearer.

The writer finds his eyes benefited by the constant wear of glasses, yet he assures all that if he could go along reasonably without them, he would not go in forty yards of a pair of "specs," except to benefit someone who really needed them, for a "consideration" or otherwise.

All intelligent physicians, oculists and opticians agree that no person reaches the age of fifty years without having needed artificial aid for perfect vision either near and at a distance.

One who has done without spectacles and can read fine print without them at the age of fifty or more, was short-sighted in youth, and still remains so for distant objects. In our southern country this error of refraction is rare, and in many cases of this kind a diseased condition of the eye exists, though not in all.

The most common error of refraction is Hyperopia, mis-called farsightedness. Many, like the writer, reach manhood and early middle age without discovering the trouble, but oh! the headaches, dizziness and other worries that might have been avoided by going to a competent optician if such had been known thirty years ago.

Persons suffering from this trouble frequently do without glasses until the age of forty, and if the error is slight, perhaps forty-five, but their occupation demands anything like constant use of the eyes at the near point, suffering ensues in proportion to the error, and the constitution of the sufferer.

Astigmatism is an error of refraction much more common than Myopia or nearsightedness, but far more uncommon than Hyperopia, the latter often combined with it, and studious persons, or those compelled by their occupation to constantly use the eyes for near work and are afflicted with either or both of these errors, suffer more or less intensely according to their temperament or the amount of error of refraction.

Strabismus, or crossed eyes, is usually the result of an error of refraction, which ordinarily if taken in time, can be permanently cured by properly fitted glasses.

A competent optician can correct with spectacles all of the above troubles, which are not diseases, and if expert in his profession can also detect diseases of the eye, in which case he invariably advises the patron to go to the nearest competent physician or oculist.

The object of this writing is to explain that the optician while in no wise setting himself up as a Doctor of eyes, or one who can operate on, or treat with medicine, diseases of the eye, or eyelids, yet by his knowledge of refraction, or diverting the rays of light by properly fitted glasses in many cases relieves troubles of the eye that no physician or oculist could help unless himself expert as a refractionist.

Mr. Shindler has just received a new Geneva Ophthalmoscope, which enables physicians to examine the eye for disease, without the use of a dark room, and is an immense improvement over the old-fashioned instrument. The profession are cordially invited to examine and use it at any and all times.

R. C. SHINDLER, Optician.

A DREAFTOUS CYCLONE

Swept Over a Portion of Arkansas Yesterday.

Little Rock, April 8.—A cyclone three miles wide passed through Cleburne and white counties North of here at 9 o'clock last night razing to the ground everything in its path. The scene is remote from telegram and details are hard to obtain.

At Little Red, 18 miles from Judsonia, seven or eight persons in one house were instantly killed. The survivor being an infant.

Near Pangburn an old man named Williams was blown off a mountain side and killed.

Hundreds are reported injured and it is feared that the loss of life will be large.

Horses were picked up and carried several hundred feet.

Two were killed at Heber, Columbus County.

Town Blown Away.

Birmingham, Ala., Apr. 8.—The little hamlet of Hope-well, forty miles from here, was swept away early this morning by a cyclone, which cut a path of destruction a mile wide and two miles long. Eleven persons were killed and many others injured.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. Perkins Bros.

Nacogdoches Underrated.

Mr. C. S. Southern, who is the official bill poster of Nacogdoches, has just shown us a copy of the Bill Poster, a monthly paper published in New York. The Bill Poster quotes the population of Nacogdoches at 1,100, while it gives Timpson 1,200. The misquoting does Mr. Southern an injustice inasmuch as the literature which he is supposed to handle would be cut down fifty per cent by those who are not aware of the error. The last census gives Nacogdoches a population of 1,862, which in reality is not over 50 per cent of the population of the city, because the census is only given for the incorporate limits, which do not include more than half the town. Mr. Southern proposes to cover the entire school district, which is three miles square, and it is safe to assert that within that radius the population is not less than 5,000.

The establishment of a regular bill posting and distributing business here has proved a great convenience to the business people and the universal verdict is that splendid results have been obtained through Mr. Southern's agency.

ORDER OF COMMISSIONERS COURT

Forbidding the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors in Justice Precinct No. 7, Nacogdoches County.

Whereas, on the 14th day of March, A. D. 1903, an election was held in justice precinct No. 7, Nacogdoches county, Texas, to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors should be prohibited in said justice precinct No. 7, and whereas on the 28th day of March, A. D. 1903, the commissioners court in special session, all members being present, opened the polls and counted the votes of said election, and said court passed the following order, to-wit: "March 28, 1903. The court having this day met in special session, and having counted the votes in a local option election that was held in justice precinct No. 7, Nacogdoches county, on the 14th day of March, 1903, and having ascertained that 134 votes were cast in favor of prohibition and 73 votes were cast against prohibition; it is therefore ordered by the court, and so declared, that prohibition has carried in said justice precinct No. 7, and the sale of intoxicating liquors in said justice precinct No. 7 is hereby prohibited, except for the purpose and under the regulations specified in the law, until such time as the qualified voters therein may at a legal election, held for that purpose, by a majority vote decide otherwise."

Therefore, I, Robert Berger, county judge of Nacogdoches county, Texas, have caused the foregoing order of said commissioners court to be published in the Nacogdoches Sentinel, a newspaper published in Nacogdoches county, for four successive weeks, the first publication being on the 1st day of April, 1903, and after the publication of the foregoing order for four successive weeks as aforesaid, the sale of intoxicating liquors in said justice precinct, shall thereafter be prohibited, except for the purposes and under the regulations specified by law.

Given under my hand this 30th day of March, 1903.
ROBERT BERGER,
County Judge of Nacogdoches county, Texas.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Stripling Hazelwood & Co. Druggists.

Mr. Tom Sharp has secured the contract as carrier of route No. 2 of the rural free delivery from Nacogdoches. His route runs out the Logansport road and by Shady Grove and back to town over the Martinsville road. Mr. Sharp will take the census of his route next week.

After two months trial of trade conditions we have decided to continue business in Nacogdoches through the remainder of this year, and we are sure this announcement will be received and heralded with great delight by every CASH BUYER of merchandise who trades in this market. We know that we own this stock of merchandise cheaper than the same class of merchandise was ever owned in this city before and that together with the fact that we will do positively a spot cash business will warrant us in asserting that we will continue to make prices that Nacogdoches competitors are refusing to meet and will continue to refuse to meet. We started out without any bad debts to collect, therefore the cash buyer may not fear he is helping to pay the loss we sustained by misplaced confidence in his neighbor, but every transaction is based on the merits of the article offered for sale and to be paid for in spot cash. Our line of Groceries and Feedstuffs will be kept up and will be sold practically at wholesale cost. New goods will be added in all lines necessary to keep our stock complete and these new goods will be sold as though bought in the John P. Davidson stock at the GREAT DISCOUNT.
