To Be Seen With the Gentry Show.

Here are a few of the brand new acts to be seen with the brand new Gentry show this year which is coming to Nacogdoches, Friday, Oct. 21st, on Friday afternoon at 2:30, evening at 8. Magnificent troupe of Colley dogs, in an exhibition of sagacity and intelligence absolutely unequalled; curious company of dog, cat and chicken comedians in clever and laugh making feats; Walter Stanton, Jr., in his unrivaled Giant Rooster act, direct from his European triumphs, troupe of monkey aerialists on the flying trapeze, the obstreperous and intractable trick mule, whose apparent knowledge of things to come causes merriment for the little folks; flying and leaping Russian wolf hounds in many gigantic leaps and far flights over elevated obstacles and impediments and through the air; Don Juan monkey daredevil, desperately riding down a steep incline and successfully looping the loop; the juvenile mounted Hussar band; a herd of elephants demonstrating their superior intelligence and remarkable cleverness in many wonderful ways; and dozens of other unique and finished animal performances never before seen under canvas.

Rose Lake trees grow.

Mr. Menton, the broker, who recently came to this city from Linden, Texas, has purchased a home on North Fredonia street with the intention of making Nacogdoches his permanent home.

J. C. Y'Barbo, of Chireno, was a friendly caller at The Sentinel office today. Like every one else who calls he complains of exceedingly dry weather in his section of the country.

W. H. Gray, of Chireno, was in the city on a business trip.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Doc Watson, Sunday, Oct. 16th.

J. F. Tucker, of Chireno, was here today on a business visit to the hub.

Sheriff Noble, of San Augustine, was in Nacogdoches yesterday on official business.

Our readers can depend upon any statement Cason & Richardson make. They are perfectly reliable.

Capt. H. A. Harris, of Attoyac, spent last night in the city with his son, Isaac Harris. He returned home this morning.

Capt. Z. B. Garrison, of Garrison, is looking after business matters at the hub today, and visiting his children, Mrs. Dr. Barham and Henry Garrison.

Messrs. J. B. Wooten, Vernon Miller, Jim Dickinson and Bud Paron, of Etoile, were in the city today trading. Mr. Wooten was a pleasant caller at The Sentinel office while in the city.

Mr. Thrasher came up from the Nacogdoches oil field last night and left at once for Beaumont. He stated that he had brought in a good shallow well on his property but gave out no particulars.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The patient should have no much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

BROUGHT IN THE BONES.

Remains of Isaiah Mayfield Exhumed by Sheriff Spradley.

Sheriff Spradley returned to the city yesterday after spending a day or two working on the Isaiah Mayfield murder which was unearthed last week. He found the remains of Mayfield buried in a shallow grave near Sacul just as the slayer, Simon Spencer, had confessed. He took up the bones and what remained of the clothing and placed them in a box and brought them to town where they will be carefully kept until the trial comes up. He also secured other evidence to corroborate the confession made by Spencer, and unless something new develops in Spencer's favor he will have a hard fight to escape the supreme penalty for murder in the first degree. Spencer is still in jail and wants to be tried at the present term of court and offers to plead guilty and throw himself upon the mercy of the court.

Cupid Plays Fantastic Tricks.

Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Sallie Wyatt, on South Broadway, Rev. J. C. Dickson united in marriage Mr. C. A. Sterne of Palestine, and Mrs. Cornelia Camp of Houston, but temporarily resident in this city where she has been engaged in teaching Spanish. The groom is a prominent and popular citizen of Palestine and is at present its city secretary. He is a most affable and intelligent gentleman, and a Confederate veteran—one of those knightly Texas spirits that bared their breasts to the storm of battle in defense of the Southland through the bloody drama of the early sixties.

Though 74 years of age, he is as active and vigorous as the average man at forty five. Like all true Confederates his gallantry has not dulled, but has only grown more courtly and chivalrous with the flight of years, and now at the age of 74 he blithely leads to the marriage altar a worthy woman to bless and brighten his remaining years.

May they be many and may each succeeding year add new pleasures and new joys to their united lives, as hand in hand they journey toward the sunset of life.—Tyler Democrat and Reporter.

The Simon Spencer Case.

The case against Simon Spencer, colored, charged with the murder of Isaiah Mayfield, has been set for trial next Wednesday, Oct. 26th. A venire of fifty men has been ordered and summoned, and there are few witnesses to summon. As the defendant is anxious for trial and offers to plead guilty, there is no doubt that this case will come to trial on schedule time. The crime for which Spencer is indicted upon his own confession is one of the most horrible and diabolical on record in Nacogdoches county and it is probable that this county will witness another legal hanging in the near future.

Obituary.

Death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burk, Sr. on the 7th inst. God's angel reached down and took their baby girl only 1 year, 11 months and 11 days old. Her suffering was long and severe, but she was resigned and patient, her last hours seemingly anxiously awaiting the summons to come to be at rest. She passed away peacefully as when sleeping on her mother's bosom.

The dear one, "Lucile" had a loving and welcoming disposition, and was the attraction of the whole family, but God saw fit to take her with the redeemed.

May we all live upright to the end and we will meet her in that sweet by and by.

Hurt In a Well.

George Reed, of this city, received a telephone message yesterday afternoon from Shady Grove urging him to come at once to his brother, W. P. Reed, who lives in that vicinity, and was badly hurt while cleaning out a well by the earth caving in upon him. It is not known how badly Mr. Reed is hurt, but from the meagre information received he is thought to be in a critical condition.

To comply with the new election law it requires fifty four thousand election tickets for Nacogdoches county at the ensuing election, there being six party tickets in the field. This does not increase the number heretofore used however. The Sentinel printed sixty thousand tickets for last election, to say nothing of those printed by The Plaindealer and Garrison Gleaner.

For President
ALTON B. PARKER
of New York.
For Vice President
HENRY G. DAVIS
of West Virginia.
For Congress
of San Augustine.

CARRIE NATION has announced her purpose to invade San Antonio. If she goes there to smash she will probably get smashed for San Antonio saloon keepers are a reckless lot.

OUR Senator Bailey has joined Mr. Davis, the democratic vice-presidential candidate, in the great campaign he is making through West Virginia and Maryland; and is doing splendid service for the ticket.

SPEAKING of the deficit in the state treasury, ex-Governor Hogg says it is better to have a rich people and a poor treasury than a poor people and a rich treasury. Very true, but that doesn't excuse the poor treasury in Texas.

OUR unflinching faith and best wishes are still with the Japs, but their picnic is over and they've got tough work before them from now on. Well informed people have never doubted the courage of the Russian soldier, but Japanese courage and mobility combined will win in the end.

MISS HELEN GOULD has reached Texas and will make a tour of the state. There's nothing too good for Miss Helen. All men and all women speak well of her and she uses her great wealth as a trust fund which she administers for the betterment of the world she lives in.

In Governor Lanham's speech at the Dallas banquet he emphasized the fact that some remedy must be found for the failure of tax payers to render their property at a fair valuation so that sufficient revenue may be raised to maintain the state government. The next legislature will undoubtedly have to tackle this question and it is a difficult one.

A LOT of big democrats of Texas had a big feed in Dallas Wednesday night at which Governor Lanham, ex-Governor Hogg and Governor Davis, of Arkansas, made speeches. Hogg made the best speech he has made in years although he confined himself generally to state issues, ridiculed "harmonice" and again exploited his well known stock and bond law hobby.

In order to win, Judge Parker must receive 80 votes in addition to those which are sure to be given him by the solid South. The national committee believes that the following states can be carried, which will give him a majority: Colorado, 5; Connecticut, 7; Indiana, 15; Montana, 3; Nevada, 3; New York, 30; Utah, 3; West Virginia, 7. They also believe there is a fighting chance to carry New Jersey, Wisconsin and Delaware. Jacksonville Banner.

NO LAW AGAINST SCRATCHING TICKET

There seems to be uncertainty in the minds of some citizens of this county as to the provisions of the Terrell election law on the subject of "scratching the ticket," and the impression has somehow gone out that the ticket must be voted as printed, that is that the democrat must vote the straight democratic ticket, the populist the straight populist ticket and the republican the straight republican ticket, whether he wants to or not—provided, of course, he votes at all. This is an entire mistake. The Terrell election law does not in the slightest degree abridge or limit the ancient and time-honored privilege of the citizen of Texas to vote for just whom he pleases and to scratch every name on the ticket if he feels so disposed. The law simply prescribes how the scratching shall be done so as to avoid confusion or mistakes and secure uniformity. On this point paragraph 79 of the Terrell election law says in describing the form of ballot to be voted: "Underneath the name of each candidate there shall be a space wide enough for the insertion of a written name therein." That is, if you don't want to vote for the candidate whose name is printed on the ballot, scratch that name out and write in the vacant space below the name of the candidate you do want to vote for, no matter who he is or what party he belongs to. This is the only way the ballot can be changed, paragraph 74 of the same law declaring that "no ballot which bears the name of a candidate pasted over the name of another candidate shall be counted for the name so pasted."

ENTHUSIASM is not less enthusiasm because it is stern and serious rather than gay and joyous. Peter the Hermit was an enthusiast and so was Oliver Cromwell, but they were not merry men who went to their work in joyous moods. If defeating Roosevelt and his shameless and infamous theory of social equality between the white and negro races doesn't call for enthusiasm deep, stern and solemn on the part of the democratic party, particularly in the South, then no cause in the annals of this nation has been worth enthusiasm. Go to, Brother Cooke, go to! Your pen slipped when you wrote that there was nothing to enthuse over in this campaign, but all will be forgiven if you'll whoop it up from now on and give our brethren in the doubtful states the moral support they need and richly deserve in the grand fight they are making peculiarly in our behalf.

THE present owner of the "Jefferson Davis plantation," in Mississippi, is Isaiah F. Montgomery, a colored man, says the Augusta Chronicle. He was a bright youth, and Joseph Davis, the brother of Jefferson Davis, owned him. Mr. Davis, attracted by the boy's sprightness and good qualities, had him educated, and he was a famous pet on the plantation. He was always respectful, grateful and obedient as a bondman. He was faithful to the persons and interests of the Davis family, during the war and after it. He was permitted to purchase the old plantation, and nobody objected. He has the esteem of all Mississippians, and is now worth about $300,000. He is a type of many good old time negroes, and all white people who know him wish him well.

WE love to print good things about Judge Parker, for we believe that fate co-operating with the national democratic convention brought to the front one of the greatest, strongest and best men of modern times when he was nominated at St. Louis. Senator Gorman, one of the giants of democracy, ought to be pretty good authority and he said of Judge Parker the other day in Washington city: "I have met strong men and able politicians, but the strongest man and the ablest politician I have ever seen is Judge Parker. He is a great manager, and the ten days when he was in New York no one brought in contact with him could help but admire his methods. He is a wonderful harmonizer, the faculty for bringing men together and reconciling differences, being developed in him to a high degree. He is much of a mixer, too, and has the quality of drawing men close to him. If he could get out among the people, I believe he would attract to himself thousands of votes."

In a circular just issued the Department of Agriculture at Washington warns farmers throughout the cotton belt that in their efforts to produce an early crop of cotton to avoid damage by boll weevil they must not overlook the great prime factor in the control of the pest, the destruction of stalks in the early autumn. This destruction of the plants in the fields is stamped as the most effective method of reducing the numbers of the weevil and concerted action is urged.

THE republican state nominees in Texas are about to inaugurate a speaking campaign and will fire the first oratorical fusillade at Austin. The democratic nominees, sure of the result, maintain everywhere a monotonous silence. The "brutal majority" in Texas will not be so brutal always if this policy continues to prevail.

In an interview at Dallas Governor Hogg gave it out that he wanted no office now or hereafter and must not be considered a candidate. He thinks the railroads and the trusts will have the state grabbed in the near future the way things are going now, and that he can fight to better advantage as a private citizen.

THE citizens of Henderson are indignant over the result in the trial of Burton at Athens charged with criminal assault on a young woman in Palestine and have raised $500 to aid in the prosecution of Burton and Stafford at the next trial.

GREATER THAN POLITICAL ISSUES

What this country really needs, and needs badly, is a great enthusiastic campaign regardless of party, state or sectional lines against the monster, Crime, now ravaging the land and blighting it as neither war nor pestilence has ever done. Murder is so common that it has almost ceased to shock the sensibilities of the public, and the law has none of its old-time terrors for the murderers because its old-time enforcement no longer prevails. Our courts, once dreaded by criminals, have lost their old significance and are now the subjects of jest and derision and spoken of as "temples of justice" only in tones of contemptuous irony. And this contempt for law because it has become so weak and so exceedingly discriminating in its enforcement, is infecting all the younger generation, with the result that the land swarms with hoodlums in the tadpole stage, coarse, insolent, defiant of restraint and ripening for criminal careers later on. The nation is sick—rotten—stinking with crime, and only those who keep themselves uninformed of the daily history of the country will deny the statement. When we restore the old-fashioned home life—now nearly obsolete—in which parental authority took a more virile and effective form than moral suasion; and when we get back the old-fashioned juries composed of God-fearing, crime-hating men with plenty of iron in their blood and the invincible hatred of lawlessness and love of justice in their hearts, we will have made good progress in checking the fearful epidemic. Immeasurably more important than politics and all its issues or money-making and all its toils and gains is this menacing, monster problem of crime which involves the very existence of civilized society, and its solution can be stated in three simple words—enforce the law. How easy to say it, but how impossible to do it until a mighty revolution which must commence in the home life of the nation and take stern, corrective measures there, has swept through every community of this land and re-established in the mind and soul of every citizen the old ideals of law and order and truth and justice!

GEORGE BRUCE, chief of the advertising bureau of the Southern Pacific is taking steps to organize a tobacco growers association of the Texas tobacco raisers. Mr. Bruce thinks that such an association can operate effectively to secure congressional opposition to any measure to remove the duty on tobacco coming here from the Philippines.

DOUGLAS, the shoe man, got the democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts, sure enough. We love Douglass for the advertising he has done. His head is level as well as his and he's fine timber for a governor.

The Colored School.
The colored school opened Monday, Oct. 17th, in the new colored school building in the eastern suburbs of the city, with appropriate ceremonies conducted by the teachers. There was an attendance of 117 pupils. "Nearer My God to Thee" was sang by Mrs. Crain, colored, and prayer was offered by Pro. W. W. Frazier.

Supt. R. F. Davis was present and spoke encouragingly to the colored teachers and the school. Also spoke favorably of the building and the good attendance with which the school opened, in response to which the colored principal and teachers spoke thankfully for the splendid building and the increased school advancement which it gives the colored people of Nacogdoches.

The merchants are receiving syrup barrels by the carload in anticipation of the heavy cane crop, which will soon be converted into the finest syrup.

Mr. J. W. Mitchell, of Denning, San Augustine county, was in the city today and called at The Sentinel office. He says it is as dry over in San Augustine county as it is here, and rain is badly needed both for crops and live stock.

The Great Van Amburg Show.

Our citizens will soon have an opportunity of visiting one of the good shows of the country. The Great Van Amburg Show will pitch its tents in Nacogdoches on Oct. 29th. The show promises to come this year larger and better than ever before. The many up-to-date features presented by this show are novel and startling. The horses and trained ponies are the best. Elephants, camels, lions and a large collection of trained animals are to be seen in the grand free street parade, in the forenoon on the day of exhibition.

Both Legs Broken.

Mr. J. H. Ham, who has been assisting in erecting a stand pipe at the Hayward mill, had the "misfortune" yesterday to get both legs broken. The accident was caused by the falling of a heavy piece of iron, which barely missed the victim's head, but fell in such a manner as to break a bone in each leg below the knees.

Farmers in the vicinity of Switt are nearly through gathering crops. The cotton has turned out moderately well and corn is fairly good. From the signs in that section the people will have hog and hominy and good clothes for another twelve months.

OLD DOWIE, the Chicago reincarnation of the Prophet Elijah, is out for Roosevelt. Frank James is also legging for the rough rider.

At present the war in Manchuria is somewhat ahead of American railways in the monthly output of killed and wounded, but it must be recollected that the month is but little more than half gone.

MR. BRYAN is talking so hard and fast for Parker up in Indiana that symptoms of baldness are beginning to appear on the top of his head. And yet some people say he lacks enthusiasm in the cause.

BOTH the German vote and the organized labor vote in this country are giving out signs of going over in a body to Parker. If they do the man of Esopus will ride up Pennsylvania avenue on the 4th of next March in a carriage with Teddy.

It is reported from New York that a powerful combination of speculators has been formed to force down the price of cotton. As the crop is not excessive it looks like the farmers could checkmate this bear movement by simply holding back their cotton.

PICKENS BURTON, who was in jail at Dallas charged with attempt to criminally assault a young woman in Palestine, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $5000. He gave the bond and is now at liberty. Stafford, the other fellow in the case, is still in jail charged with rape.

DR. ROBERTSON has retired from the Grapeland Messenger and is succeeded by Lee Satterwhite as editor and proprietor. Mr. Satterwhite is a gentleman of prominence and experience in politics and newspaper work and will doubtless continue to keep the Messenger a good paper.

THE Japs are licking the Russians right along now and Kuropatkin's great offensive movement has ended in defeat for him all along the line. We feel sorry for the gallant general and brave soldiers, but Russia is getting what she deserves, and when she is whipped out of Manchuria and her fleet destroyed, perhaps she will be ready to admit that Japan has some rights in Asia as well as herself.

THE man-killing industry seems to be in a particularly thriving condition in Texas just now. The state is full of as good people as the sun shines on who deeply deplore this unhappy condition, but they are helpless because of the absence of a brave and determined organized public sentiment that will compel the enforcement of the law. At present it seems to be but a temporary inconvenience attended with some expense, for a man of means and standing to kill his enemy in Texas even though he shoots him in the back.

THE one bright spot for Russia in the prevailing gloom is that in a street fight in Chicago Monday between a gang of Russian hoodlums and four little Jap employes in the stockyards, the Japs were routed and one of the four badly beaten. It is the only decisive victory Russia has won since the beginning of the war. Carry the news to Kuropatkin!

WE know, of course, that W. R. Hearst himself has never contounded Thomas Jefferson, statesman deceased of Monticello, Va., with Joseph Jefferson, actor, alive, of New York, Palm Beach, and other places, but one of Mr. Hearst's writers on one of his papers just received at this office, painfully lacerates our sense of historical accuracy and geographical exactitude by referring to Monticello as "the estate of Joseph Jefferson." This looks bad, very bad coming from one of the trained writers of W. R. Hearst, the ardent and uncompromising disciple of Thomas Jefferson, the sage of Monticello. Unless that young man is restrained he may get George Washington confounded with Booker, and be detected in the act of referring to John Quincy Adams as the founder of Adams Express Company.

STATE TOPICS, like The Sentinel, wants to know what objection union labor in Texas has to the poll tax, and on this point says: "We should like to read some authentic statement of union labor's reason for desiring the repeal of the poll tax law. Curiosity has been sharpened by an inability to conceive what its objection could be to a requirement which, in theory and practice, is so potent as a measure to purify our politics. That this its tendency is undeniable, we think. Of course the purchase of poll tax receipts has not been made impossible, but as the poll tax requirement adds to the value of a vote, corruption is made more costly to those who are guilty of it. Therefore, while the poll tax requirement does not preclude corruption, it has the inevitable tendency of limiting that crime. To fancy that in this effect is the cause of union labor's opposition would an insult be equal only by the absurdity of it. For we know on the contrary, that no interest can suffer more from a corruption of the ballot box than labor does."

FRANK ANDREWS, chairman of the democratic state committee, denies the soft impeachment of ex-Governor Hogg in his Dallas speech that he, Andrews, is a professional lobbyist for Southern Pacific interests every time the legislature meets in Austin. Mr. Andrews didn't give weight and emphasis to his denial by denouncing Hogg as a liar, a scoundrel, a coward, a slanderer, and a deep-dyed, all-round villain as some Texas papers seem to think he should have done in order to make his innocence perfectly clear, but he nevertheless in a gentlemanlike and dignified way effectually met the charge of the ex-governor and puts it up to that gentleman to either produce the proof or "dry up." To lobby for a given measure is not wrong, per se; to corruptly lobby for it is, of course, wrong, and Mr. Andrews will stand acquitted in the minds of impartial men as the case now stands.

SOME of the orchardists are uneasy because of the premature blooming and budding of certain varieties of peach trees. We have been shown a limb which had a number of peaches on it, and but for cold blasts of winter which are sure to come soon we would have a second crop. As it is, these buds will be killed and none will come to take their places next spring. If a cold spell doesn't come soon next year's crop will be in serious danger.—Jacksonville Banner.

AT the big political gabfest in Dallas last Wednesday night Gov. Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, made a coarse, intemperate and perfectly unprovoked attack upon the negro race, speaking of them in insulting terms which could not fail to wound the feelings and arouse the resentment of all respectable negroes who read the speech in the papers next morning. In the course of Gov. Hogg's speech he justly rebuked the gent from Arkansas and on that point he said: "We don't want any race issue in the Southland, my friends. I am here a native born, loving my race as every man loves his race, but I never want to see a race issue raised in this country, and whenever it is undertaken from any source, it is done through ignorance or through malignity that ought never to be encountered. Let us have peace, domestic tranquility within the borders of Texas and all move on to common end of success for the benefit of the great mass of people. We have got the negroes among us and I don't want to build up the prejudices of my children against them and let them be the murderers of the black race. I don't want the young men of this country to understand that they are to make any attack upon any human being unless it is by due process of law. There is no danger of social equality in Texas. Never! There is not a white man in this audience, there is not a white woman in this audience, there is not a person within the sound of my voice, who ever had a negro to try to social equalize with him. (Applause.) This race sentiment has been stirred up by those down East who want to blind you with prejudice so that they can get the Federal treasury in their hands. For my part, I believe the negro is a good fellow in his place, and he will stay in his place unless some mean white man makes up with him, and whenever you see a mean negro in Texas, you will find him mighty close to a mean white man. I am telling you white people this and there isn't a negro in this audience. The governor of Arkansas is a good fellow, but I don't want him or any other man to build prejudice in Texas."

Jeff Sees a Light.

"If I was a betting man I would put up my last cent on Parker's election," said Hon. Jeff McLemore of Austin, editor of State Topics, at the Oriental Hotel last night. It is well known that Mr. McLemore was a supporter of Mr. Hearst before the St. Louis convention, but he is now an advocate of the election of the New York Judge, and is seemingly confident that victory is to perch upon the Democratic banner. "I base my prediction upon several things," said Mr. McLemore. "In the first place I recall the fact that in 1900 a very good friend of mine wired a mutual friend to bet his bottom dollar on Bryan. This mutual friend lost his bottom dollar and 599 top dollars with it. Now the advising friend is predicting the defeat of Parker. This makes me think that Parker will win."

"In the next place, there is a little bird that tells me things. Two weeks and one day before the primaries in Texas, I knew that Hearst was defeated in Texas. This same little bird has told me that Parker would be elected, and to look out for the fireworks to open good and strong on Oct. 21."

"In the third place, I have private advices from New York, through a prominent Hearst man and a prominent Tammany man, both of whom state that Parker will carry New York. If he carries New Jersey and Connecticut, I believe Taggart will land Indiana for him, and I feel that we have a good chance to win Illinois. Mr. Hearst is throwing the influence of his papers to Parker, and this will prove a powerful factor in Illinois, especially among the German voters."

"Finally, I believe that the business interests of the country feel that they can not afford to permit the election of Roosevelt, because his election would result in a political upheaval in 1908, the result of which no man can foresee. The business interests do not want political upheavals, and whenever possible they nip them in the bud."—Dallas News.

HARRIS county has between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000 in cash, most of it in bank, subject to taxation under the state laws, but only $300,000 was rendered to the assessor. The Chronicle explains the discrepancy by saying that the owners of the unrendered money lied to the assessor. And this form of falsehood is not confined to Harris county.

DOWN about Willis, in Montgomery county, they have an oil boom and it is reported that Miss Myrtle Loggins, the young lady editor of the Willis Saxton, has made $2500 in options and purchases.

MILES CROWLEY, ex-member of congress from Galveston and the present democratic nominee for county attorney in that county, has gone back to his old trade and is earning his living loading cotton on the Galveston wharves until the election next month lands him in office. Here is an example of swell loafers who are convinced that honest manual labor would degrade them while sponging their living off others wouldn't.

A FEW days ago The Sentinel remarked that if the barbarous crime of lynching in this country didn't cease, the Federal government, responding to the aroused sentiment, of the law abiding element would find a reason for interfering. The following dispatch from Huntsville, Ala., concerning a recent mob murder in that city indicates that The Sentinel was right. And it should be borne in mind that this Federal Judge Jones is a lifelong democrat, an ex-Confederate soldier of the highest type and one of the high-grade public men of the South. This dispatch, dated Oct. 11th, says: "Judge Thomas C. Jones in opening United States court at Huntsville today, delivered a vigorous and sensational charge to the grand jury with regard to the recent lynching of Horace Maples, colored, and the firing by the mob of the jail in which were confined federal prisoners. Judge Jones said in part: 'If you are fairly satisfied that the mob would not have murdered Maples if he had been a white man, then every dictate of humanity and justice demands that you return true bills against the members of the mob.' The grand jury was instructed to probe to the bottom the action of the mob in firing the jail which held in custody persons accused of crimes against the United States. The judge also explained what constitutes a conspiracy and directed that the phase of the lynching be investigated. In conclusion he declared: 'A conviction or acquittal in the courts of Alabama for what these parties did is no bar to prosecution under the laws of the United States. The United States owed a duty of protection to its citizens, which was the more imperative, since it has rendered him helpless to resist the efforts of the mob or save himself from the flames. It would be a grave reproach to its justice, if such an offense went unnoticed and uncondemned.' Judge Jones arraigned the mob in the severest terms and insisted that every citizen must set his face against lynching for any crime."

WHAT THE HOME FOLKS THINK OF DR. FANNING

The Famous Magnetic Healer, Who is Now in Nacogdoches and Will Remain Two Weeks--Office at Boger House.

San Antonio Light.

Dr. Frank Fanning, the genial magnetic healer, in whom San Antonio evidently takes more stock than she does in railway subscriptions and smelter bonuses, took his departure for Houston yesterday, very much to the regret of scores who were anxious to have his powerful hand of healing laid upon them. Frank Fanning is magnetic in more senses than one, and that truth has been abundantly demonstrated during the years he has been in this city, giving out from his own vitalizing life currents those healing streams by which so many have been restored to health and physical soundness. The great secret of Dr. Fanning's popularity lies in his unobtrusiveness, in the transparency of his nature, in the entire absence of all pretension, in the ingrained sincerity and honesty of the man. These characteristics are apparent to the most casual observer. The impression of this truth upon every one who meets him is instant and vivid. These traits are recognized in this city. They have commended him during the years of his practice here to our best citizens, whose hospitality has been tendered him in a marked friendliness. Social distinction, testimonials of regard, receptions, valuable gifts suitably inscribed, these and many other things attest the high esteem and genuine regard in which he is held here in San Antonio, where he is so well known and where he is claimed as a citizen. His large frame and the fine physique are only the outward signs of an inward largeness of heart and sympathy of nature to which few can lay claim. The personal relations existing between the doctor and his patients are peculiarly close from the very nature of his treatment, and it is a mark of the innate nobility of the man that the most refined and cultured of our citizens come from under his hands so strongly impressed, not only with his marvelous powers of healing, but also with his great gentleness of manner, his inexhaustible patience and deep sympathy. No higher tribute could be paid any man than these persons pay Dr. Fanning. As of old, it is asked whence hath this man this power? and as of old, the answer comes not. Without pretension of any sort, disclaiming any knowledge of materia medica, and but little of anatomy, wrapped in no shroud of mystery, but open as the day, genial as sunlight, companionable as humanity itself, he is open to approach and welcomes all. In quiet unostentatiousness he lays his hand of healing, hand as broad as that of providence, almost, upon the seat of pain, and agony that murders peace and crucifies sleep dies out at his touch; the palsied limbs receive strength; the unused and stiffened joints come into wonted play; the stagnant currents of life in the deep recesses of the body resume their flow; the blood courses strongly through veins that flutter feeble pulse but an hour since; the bloom of health is restored to wan cheeks and pale, emaciated faces; the brightness shines again in dull, despairing eyes, and a miracle of healing is performed. No greater gift could nature give to mortal than this gift of healing. No higher ministry in life is there than to become the wise dispenser of such gifts. Dr. Fanning loses his work in San Antonio and goes to Houston. He carries with him the very best wishes of hundreds in this city and the sincere regrets at those who, yesterday, thronged his office in the unavailing attempt to secure treatment at his hands. Even a giant frame like his needs rest, and if ever mortal did need it that man was Frank Fanning, when he closed his work in this city.

The above is from the San Antonio Light, one of the leading daily newspapers of Texas. It is in itself a valuable recommendation, coming as it does, from the editor who presides over the destinies of a widely circulated journal published in Frank Fanning's home. Dr. Fanning is now located at the Boger House, Nacogdoches, Texas.

WILL RIVAL CUBA.

Says a New York Expert of Nacogdoches County Tobacco.

No more noteworthy and conclusive tribute to the superior quality of the tobacco grown at Redfield, six miles North of this city, has ever been given to the public than the following letter received at the passenger department of the Southern Pacific at Houston. The testimony of this letter is of a character to remove all doubt on the subject and gives the Nacogdoches county tobacco a very high and assured standing in the markets of the world. Here is the letter:

Mr. George Bruce, Houston, Texas.

New York, Oct. 6.—I am having made into cigars for Colonel Morse about 60 pounds of fillers raised from Cuban seed at Redfield, Texas.

The experienced cigarmakers who are now making up this tobacco in my office express great surprise that such high grade filler has been grown anywhere in the United States, and it has been very difficult to convince them that this tobacco is the product of Texas soil. Many other seed men have been to see me recently, and they are all of one mind, and that is, if Texas can produce regularly and in sufficient quantities such filler, the state will not only carry off the banner for domestic grown cigar tobacco, but will soon prove a rival of Cuba, and there will be an industry opened up in the Lone Star State that will prove of immense value to that part of our country.

As you are aware, I have been handling all kinds of tobacco grown in this country for the past 40 years, and I wish to say now that I would be glad to take the New York agency for all the tobacco now at hand that Texas can produce and will guarantee to find ready sale for it. Will be pleased if you will write me at your convenience giving full particulars with regard to the future possibilities of tobacco growing in Texas, and to say also whether or not in your opinion tobacco of as high a quality can continue to be grown in the Redfield district. Your early attention will be appreciated.

Yours truly,
N. W. Queen.

In commenting on the above, Mr. Bruce, tobacco expert for the Sunset route, stated that Mr. Queen represented one of the largest and wealthiest tobacco leaf houses in the country, and that his opinion, after an experience of 40 years, ought to have great weight. Mr. Bruce formed his opinion some time ago in regard to the Texas tobacco industry, and still claims, with the best of evidence to back his opinion, that this state will, within a few years, be a strong rival of Cuba and Sumatra in the production of first class cigar wrappers and fillers.

"We can have no rival in the United States," said Mr. Bruce, "because no other section of this country has the soil or climate—two essentials that can not be created by man."

This is the fourth week of district court. There is still very little doing and the present term will go on record as one of the dullest sessions ever held.

KILLING AT JACKSONVILLE.

Len Hawkins Shot Unaware in a Crowded Street.

Jacksonville Banner, Oct. 15th.

At 11:30 this morning, Walt J. White shot and instantly killed Len Hawkins, the affair occurring on the side walk next to the store of L. E. Frank & Co., the place being better known as the Morris corner, at the intersection of Commerce and Main streets. Five shots were fired, four of which took effect, and death was instantaneous. The first shot entered the back, just under the shoulder blade, and went entirely through the body, coming out near the heart. Another passed entirely through the side of the neck. Another penetrated the cheek, and lodged in the head, while a fourth passed through the hand. Two and perhaps three of the shots were sufficient to have caused death. The weapon used was a .38 calibre Colts pistol.

The body of Hawkins was carried to Frank Devereux's undertaking department, where it is being held subject to the order of relatives, who have been notified. The deceased was 21 years old, and was a half-nephew of J. J. Felps, well known throughout the county. His father is living, but is out of the county, and he also has an uncle, Al Hawkins, living somewhere near Gent. His mother, who was a half sister to Mr. Felps, is dead. Hawkins will probably be buried tomorrow at the Felps burying ground near the residence of C. B. Harris.

After the shooting White made no effort to escape, but was taken in charge by Deputy Sheriff Will Forrest. He waived examining trial, and Justice I. H. Thompson allowed bail in the sum of $3500, which was promptly given.

The circumstances of the killing so far as we have been able to learn are about as follows: Hawkins was standing near the corner, on the Main street side, figuring on a small blank book or piece of paper, when White came across from the First National Bank corner, drew a pistol and fired on him from the rear. Hawkins fell and White stood over him and fired four more shots into his body.

J. W. Manly, a farmer living near town, was standing within a few feet of Hawkins, but was not in conversation with him, being a stranger. He observed White approaching with pistol in hand, and at that moment the first shot was fired, which was so close to Manly's head that his cheek was powder-burned. Manly says that Hawkins did not see White, and perhaps never knew what killed him.

The cause of the trouble is not definitely known, and it was first reported that it came up over a settlement between the two men, in connection with a tomato crop. We have it from good authority that such was not the case, but that it arose over a more serious matter. The circumstances are such that White will probably be indicted by the grand jury for manslaughter, and not murder. Hawkins lived with White last year and the year before, also part of this year, and worked on the latter's place. A month or two ago White moved with his family (wife and two children) to St. Joseph, Mich., intending to make that place his home. He came back a few weeks ago on business, but returned in a few days. Last week he brought his family back, and since that time has been stopping temporarily at the home of J. W. Blackburn in the Cratt neighborhood, near his old home.

The affair is greatly to be deplored; the only fortunate thing about it is that no bystander was injured, as is so often the case in shootings on public streets. Most of the shots were toward a brick wall or the sidewalk.

Only Did His Duty as He Saw it.

"I deem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Park, the well known merchant and post master at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me they would not be without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge, one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you please." For sale by Perkins Bros.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose I was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." Nacogdoches county is wide awake on education. This great interest has increased wonderfully in two years. Parents and teachers alike have great responsibilities, so let us all remember that the art of saying appropriate words in a kindly way is one that never goes out of fashion, never ceases to please, and is within the reach of the humblest.

All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. Miraculous cures have been effected in thousands of cases pronounced as hopeless in the following diseases: Neuralgia, Paralysis, St. Vitus' Dance, Epilepsy, Blindness, Deafness, Insomnia (sleeplessness), Loss of Memory, Nervous Prostration, and Nerve Diseases in all their complications.

All cases of Female Complaints and Irregularities, including Tumors and Ovarian diseases.

Blood Diseases, Rheumatism, Stiff Joints, Muscular Contractions, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout, Lame and Weak Back, Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Spleen, Kidneys and Bowels.

Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat including all forms of Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma and Lung Troubles. In fact all chronic diseases yield to the phenomenal power of the healer. From whence comes this mysterious power or how derived, is not known—but that wonderful cures, miraculously almost in their effect, have been made, has been demonstrated by Dr. Fanning too often to be successfully contradicted by even the most skeptical.

U. S. Senator Reagan's Son.

To whom it May Concern:

Palestine, Texas, January 11, 1887.—This is to certify that I was for four months last winter in an almost hopeless condition caused from rheumatism in both my legs and what little walking I did was painful and slow, both legs being so drawn from the effects of disease that I could not straighten them. With three or four treatments by Dr. Fanning the pain left me, and I am now as well as ever I was, and walk as well as ever I did. John E. Reagan.

Mr. John E. Reagan was seen a few days ago with reference to the above testimony. He not only corroborates it, but declares that he has not suffered from a single rheumatic pain since Dr. Fanning cured him over fifteen years ago.

CONSULTATION FREE.

A FEW TESTIMONIALS FROM GRATEFUL WOMEN.

The great healing powers of Dr. Fanning are in nothing more marvelously demonstrated than in his treatment of diseases peculiar to women. His success in this branch of his practice borders upon the wonderful. He has treated thousands of such cases, and today thousands of the womanhood of Texas bless and thank him for the relief they have experienced at his hands. Testimonials innumerable could be produced expressive of grateful and loving and kindly remembrance, but the few here presented on this page must suffice. The originals are in Dr. Fanning's possession, and he will be pleased to show them to any desirous of examining or reading them.

Remained Cured Fourteen Years.

Dr. Frank Fanning:

Houston, Texas, October 27, 1901.—Dear Sir: Please accept my testimony as to the wonders you did for me. For nine years I suffered from prolapsus of the worst kind. Had two of the best physicians in Houston, but was relieved only temporarily. Then tried patent medicines with no better result. Could not rest day or night; in agony and distress unbearable. Was a burden to myself and family.

Having heard of your wonderful power to relieve pain, my husband induced me to consult you, but I had no confidence. After six treatments I was well and soon did all my housework. In fourteen years there has been no return of those conditions. I wish all suffering women could have your wonderful treatment and be cured. Will gladly answer any inquiry regarding my case. May God spare you for years to come to heal suffering humanity.

Yours gratefully,

MRS. CLARA A. LANG.

A Houston's Lady's Endorsement.

To Whom It May Concern:

Houston, Texas, January 9, 1902.—For three years I suffered continually with a heavy pain in my right side. Employed two of the best physicians in the State, who could do nothing for me. Always had to make hot applications at night; impossible to sleep without. Through one of my cousins I learned of the wonderful power of Dr. Fanning as a healer. As a last resort commenced treatment. After five treatments was completely cured; no pain left nor has there ever been in that side since, and that is over ten years' freedom of pain of any description.

Four years ago he entirely cured my cousin, Mrs. Kate McGown, of Dallas, of a dislocated hip joint and paralyzed limb, caused by a fall, besides liver complaint and suffering beyond words to express.

Respectfully,

MRS. M. B. BROWN.

To Suffering Humanity.

Houston, Texas, November 9, 1901.—I write this testimonial to inspire others when all hope seems to have fled. Over two years ago I began suffering with enlarged and torpid liver, producing indigestion and constipation. During this time I suffered great agony, in fact, had no hope of living. Stomach was at times so weak it could not retain food. Two weeks ago I came to Dr. Fanning in great pain. With his first treatment I experienced great relief, and now find myself well. No pain. Enlarged liver reduced to natural size. Indigestion cured. Can eat anything and it agrees with me. Constipation completely remedied. Sleep well, and the terribly bloated condition of stomach has been reduced at least four inches.

It gives me great pleasure to endorse Dr. Fanning, and in thankful appreciation say he is one of the greatest blessings to suffering humanity. I am truly grateful.

MRS. DORA KNIGGE.

Inexpressibly Grateful.

To Suffering Women:

Waco, Texas, June 15, 1887.—For over two years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia of the heart, ovaries and womb. For the last two months I grew worse, and was confined to my bed with three other female troubles, suffering excruciating pains, and had no hope of life. All skill and medicine had failed when I was carried in a carriage to Dr. Fanning's office. After his first treatment I was relieved and able to walk, which treatment only lasted thirty minutes. The next day I was able to walk to his office. After three more treatments I was entirely cured and a well woman. I owe this acknowledgement to my afflicted sex, and to Dr. Fanning I owe my life. May God spare him to do unto others as he has done unto me. With inexpressible joy and gratitude I can never pay, I am truly, Mrs. Eva Kuttner.

Never Heed the Cant's

Against certificates of cure... It is inhuman to refuse the sick a knowledge of a power of healing you have found so full of blessing... As Thomas K. Beecher so pertinently said: "I am glad that the doctor cured me. I am glad that the doctor put it in the paper that he could cure me, and it that doctor is certain that he can cure such diseases and does not put it in the paper, I am sorry."

THE BLIND MADE TO SEE.

Houston, Texas, January 20, 1902.

Nearly thirteen years ago I was taken to the Hutchins House for treatment by Dr. Frank Fanning. Some years previously I had been prostrated with heat, which resulted in total blindness of the right eye. I suffered excruciating pain—could not bear a ray of light; was in such distress and misery that death was the only relief hoped for; was very melancholy and hopeless. Of course confined in a room darkened by draperies so that not a ray could penetrate, I felt like a caged bird or prisoner condemned to penance. The pain was so intense that it produced paralysis of the optic nerve and eyelid. Eyeball was so inflamed and swollen it looked as though it would burst. Had employed some of the best physicians in Houston without relief, and had almost given-up in despair; had about arranged to go to New Orleans and have my eye operated upon when my husband took me to Dr. Fanning. After two weeks treatment my eyesight was completely restored—pain all gone—with nothing to indicate that there had ever been anything the matter. Now, after more than twelve years have passed, my eyes are perfectly well and strong. Never has been a recurrence of the trouble.

I give this testimony with heartfelt gratitude, that it may perhaps be the means of bringing some other sufferer to this fount of healing I found so full of blessing in my case.

Most gratefully yours, MRS. FLORA E. COONS.

The Deaf Made to Hear.

Houston, Texas, February 2, 1902.

As a little child I had catarrh, which produced deafness. After suffering four years my mother took me to Dr. Fanning, who was then in our city. I was under his wonderful treatment only nine days when he was called away. I was so marvelously helped that I was enabled to attend school and complete my studies. This was over thirteen years ago. For six years my hearing was perfect. Cold and catarrh caused deafness again, four years ago. I placed myself under the treatment of one of Houston's best specialists, and while under his treatment lost my hearing completely in one ear and almost in the other; was so deaf that I was kept from enjoying company and all kinds of amusements. Two months ago I placed my case in Dr. Frank Fanning's most wonderful magnetic hands, from which I had received such benefits thirteen years before. I now hear all conversation, attend and enjoy entertainments, and will ever feel most thankful and grateful to Dr. Fanning for restoring my hearing.

The Dumb to Speak.

Houston, Texas, March 3, 1902.

To Afflicted Humanity:

Twenty years ago I lost my hearing in one ear totally, as I could not hear thunder, caused by taking quinine, which produced paralysis of the auditory nerve. Ten years ago I began suffering with hoarseness and losing my voice. On the sixth of January I lost my voice; could not speak a word. I tried my home physicians, who were of fine skill and most honest and good. They failed to do me any good after six weeks treatment. They advised me try some specialist, which I did, and one of Houston's finest specialists told me I would never get my voice back and would not promise to cure me. Then I was advised to try Dr. Fanning, and I shall always praise God I did, for to my great surprise he made me hear and speak in ten minutes by his wonderful method of healing. I at once telegraphed my husband at Liberty, Texas, that I could hear and speak again. I also suffered with pains in my lungs; could not get a long breath, and was bloated. In nine treatments by this wonderful magnetic man I can truthfully say I go home a cheerful, happy woman. My dreadful sleepless nights are turned into restful sleep. The horrid dreams are all gone. I had lost my sense of taste; salt and acids had no taste. Now my taste is perfect, can hear as well as I ever could and can speak as loud as I wish. The bloat has gone from my waist, which was reduced over four inches. To any one afflicted I most heartily endorse Dr. Frank Fanning as the greatest healer of the age. My husband and myself will gladly verify the above. Address Liberty, Liberty county, Texas. With a heart full of gratitude we are, gratefully, MR. AND MRS. W. H. GIVENS.

We, the undersigned, are personally acquainted with Mrs. Givens and cordially corroborate the foregoing testimonial. We knew her case before and after treatment, and know her testimony to be true.

Mrs. Givens is a cousin of mine and I know that her cure is true. MRS. JAMES McMURTRY, Liberty, Tex.

Mrs. Givens is my nearest neighbor, and what she testified I know to be true. I saw her every day while she was sick. NELLIE B. LUM, Liberty, Texas.

I am Mrs. Givens' mother, and was with her through her sickness and know what she testifies to be true.

MRS. A. A. WOODWORTH, Liberty, Texas.

Houston Post, Oct. 19, 1902:

Mrs. Givens was in Houston on Monday last and in the presence of a reporter for the Post and John J. Givens and wife and Mrs. George Givens of Houston and several other persons she reiterated the above statement. She stated that words could not express her feeling of relief, nor could she say too much in appreciation of the marvelous cure effected by Mr. Fanning's wonderful treatment.

A FOUL MURDER

Unearthed After a Lapse of Twelve Months.

From Saturday's Daily:

Deputy Sheriff A. D. Wall brought to town his mchoug and lodged in jail Simon Spencer, colored, on a charge of murder. Last October in the northern part of this county Simon Spencer and Isaiah Mayfield, both colored, engaged in a game of cards and Spencer being the loser to the extent of four dollars and a horse, Mayfield agreed to give Spencer a chance to win his horse and money back. Spencer suggested a lonely spot in the river bottom near a canebrake for the game. Spencer lost again and picking his charge debt Mayfield a terrific blow on the head with a heavy seasoned oak stick which crushed his skull, and which was followed with several other blows. No one was present. Spencer left the dead man where he was slain, but three days later returned and dragged the body into a dry branch and covered it up with dirt and trash. The relatives of the dead man suspected foul play and Deputy Sheriff Wall, with some private assistance, has been working on the case. By accident Wall overheard a conversation between Spencer and another negro, which confirmed the suspicion that Spencer was the murderer of Mayfield. Wall went to the place where the overheard conversation designated the place where the murdered man had been buried, and there it was found with part of the clothing still wrapped around the carcass. The skull is crushed in three places. When Spencer was arrested he confessed to the whole transaction. Before Sheriff Spradley and Deputy A. D. Wall, Spencer made a full and complete confession to District Attorney Imboden and wants to plead guilty and take a life sentence. Sheriff Spradley went back to where the man was buried to secure the carcass and preserve it that it may be used as evidence of the murder and such things as will identify it as the body of Isaiah Mayfield.

Saves His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Lintiment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Lintiment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Perkins Bros.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Grover, 101 N. Main St., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got for her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c, $1.00 at Perkins Bros.

Many Good—One Best.

"So many oils and liniments are advertised it is hard to decide which to buy. I tried a number before using Hunt's Lightning Oil. After using it once, however, I realized I had found the best there was, and it was useless to look further. If it fails its 'all off.' No other liniment will hit the spot in Hunt's Lightning Oil fails."—C. G. Young, OKeene, O. T. 25c and 50c bottles.

It Will Stay There.

"In my family medicine chest no remedy is permitted to remain unless it proves beyond doubt the best to be obtained for its particular purpose.

"For treating all manner of skin trouble, such as Eczema, tetter, ringworm, ect., Hunt's Cure has held its place for many years. I have failed to find a surer remedy. It cures itching instantly."—R. M. Swann, Franklin, La. 50c per box.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur, Springs, Texas, writes, July 19th, 1889: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Lintiment and Horehound Syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. PHYSICIAN'S GOOD LUCK

Dr. Hart's Fortunate Experience of Special Interest to Many in Nacogdoches.

The happiest man in New England today and one who is receiving congratulations from his friends, is Dr. Philip Z. Hart, of Laconia, N. H. For years he suffered with catarrh in its worst form.

Although he resorted to the latest scientific treatment, and consulted many of his brother physicians, Dr. Hart finally said, "I might just as well have thrown my money in the river for I grew worse and worse. My wife and I will swear that Hyomei cured me of the worst case of catarrh that ever existed. I used to cough constantly at night, and had a dropping in the throat, which kept me awake a great deal; I raised thick phlegm and was in a horrible condition. However, I am entirely cured, solely through the use of Hyomei." Stripling, Haswood & Co. are the local agents for Hyomei, the famous treatment which cures catarrh without stomach dosing. A complete outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles 50c. They sell it under guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

Appeal Dismissed.

The court of appeals has dismissed the appeal of R. W. Parrish and the judgment of the lower court is sustained. This is a case in which the appellant was convicted in the lower court on a charge of taking orders for liquor in violation of the local option law and was fined fifty dollars and sentenced to jail for a term. The ruling of the appellate court in this instance may serve as a warning to those who may be misled by advertisements for salesmen to sell liquor in local option towns. Parrish did nothing more than to receive an order in Nacogdoches which he forwarded to Lufkin and which was filled by a liquor dealer of that place and shipped to the purchaser in a local option town.

Cures Chills and Fevers.

G. W. Writt, Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "His daughter had chills and fever for three years; he could not find any thing that would help her till he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it." 50c at Perkins Bros. w

Mr. J. T. Watson has just returned to the city from a tour through the southeastern portion of Texas, including Houston, Beaumont, Orange and other prominent points. He found it dry everywhere, except at Orange and Dayton. In these places it has rained during the past week. At Beaumont it is unusually dull, in spite of an immense crop of rice, the price being so low that very little of the crop is being placed on the market. By comparison, Mr. Watson is convinced that Nacogdoches is the best town and Nacogdoches county the best county in East Texas, and with a little more enterprise and hustle on the part of the farmers and business men we can soon lead the entire state.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased. Mr. D. Knuble of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state of mind for four months and it cured me." Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure. Obituary.

Philip Teusch was born in Germany, Dec 23rd, 1826. Came to the United States at nine years of age and lived in several different states. He was a member of the church known as the Seventh Day Adventist and was so far as we are able to judge, a Christian gentleman. His death was sudden and unexpected to all. He had started from Nacogdoches, Texas to Melrose, Texas and fell dead in the way Sept 24th, 1904. He leaves three children and many relatives and friends to mourn his departure. But they can live such a life that they can all meet in the sweet by and by. May God help them to so live.

Consumptives Made Comfortable.

Incipient consumption is cured by Foley's Honey and Tar, but we do not hold out false hopes to consumptives by claiming that it will cure this dread disease in the advanced stages; but if the lungs are not too far gone Foley's Honey and Tar will effect a cure, as it stops the racking cough and soothes the inflamed air passages giving them a chance to heal, and even in the advanced stages it always gives comfort and relief. A A Herren, of Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the preparation for coughs and lung troubles. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." Sold by Perkins Bros.

The Florida Havana and Sumatra Tobacco Co. is packing and shipping its tobacco at Redfield to its headquarters in Quincy, Fla. The experiment of this company has proven a perfect success and judging from the delightful fragrance of the broad silken leaves of the tobacco being shipped, Nacogdoches will soon gain an enviable reputation in the tobacco world.

Confessions of a Priest.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from yellow jaundice, I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It's guaranteed by Stripling Haselwood & Co. Only 50c.

D. C. Braton, who formerly lived in this county has resigned his position as justice of the peace at Mt. Enterprise in Rusk county and will go into business at Cushing.

Broke Into His House.

S. Le Quinn of Cavenish, Vt. was robbed of his customary health by invasion of chronic constipation. When Dr. King's New Lite Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he is entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at Stripling Haselwood & Co.'s drug store.

Zeno Cox has purchased the entire interest in the dry goods establishment of Cox & Wade, and Edgar Wade has retired from the firm. Mr. Cox will continue the business alone at the old stand.

A Love Letter

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed salve for sores, burns or piles. Otto Dodd, of Ponder, Mo. writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best salve on earth. 25 cents at Stripling Haselwood & Co.'s drug store."

Oak Ridge Notes.

One by one our young folks have dropped out, until our little literary circle is sadly thinned. Some have gone to school and some have gone to take charge of schools. Those who remain, are still holding together, and will continue their work in connection with their school work.

School will begin at this place Oct. 17th.

An interesting Sabbath school, with about fifty pupils enrolled, has been organized, and for the purpose of promoting its welfare, a supper will be given at the Oak Ridge school house, Saturday evening. Refreshments will be served from 3 o'clock in the afternoon, till 10 at night, Oct. 15th. Ladies and children who do not care to attend at night, will be served and entertained by the young ladies of Oak Ridge from 3 to 6 o'clock. We extend invitations far and near, and earnestly hope for a large attendance.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. M. K. Haviland, Armonk, N. Y. "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by Stripling Haselwood & Co.
