TO OUR FRIENDS AND THE TRADE

Nacogdoches, Texas, February 18, 1905.

In another column of this paper, you will note the change in the Drug business of Perkins Bros., wherein Mr. Chas. Perkins sells his entire interest in the stock to M. R. Kleas, Hollis Mast and John Perkins.

Perkins Bros. have served the public in the capacity of Druggists for the past 26 years, and in the advent of the new firm of Perkins, Kleas and Mast, we wish to say that our object shall always be to make the service just as complete as possible, and wish to request each of the old customers, and all our individual friends and acquaintances to give us their patronage, assuring you that we shall at all times endeavor to accord you such treatment that we will merit it and you may have no good reason to regret the extended favor.

John Perkins will come over from Henderson and take his place with the new firm in a few weeks, and Hollis Mast will come actively with us at the expiration of his contract with Mr. D. K. Cason.

Now, earnestly soliciting your valued favors and continued patronage, we are, yours very truly,

COTTON ...SEED...

We have been very fortunate in securing a car load of the

from the extreme northern portion of Oklahoma Territory.

We secured these seed a very large planter, having tried these seed himself at Shepard, Texas, for two or three years, making good crops right in the boll weevil hot bed. He assures us that it will make one-third more than King's Improved, and is easy to pick. We can sell you these seed at 75 cents per bushel.

Can also furnish you with the very best Fertilizer at the right price.

CHAS. TAYLOR MUST COME

Chicago Promoters Starts for Nacogdoches in Custody of Officers.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 25.—Judge Chetlain today refused to free Charles F. Taylor, indicted with Mrs. Alice Webb Duke by the grand jury of Nacogdoches county, Texas, on the charge of obtaining $5,000 under false pretenses.

The case came before Judge Chetlain on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by Taylor's attorney through the representation that the Texas indictment was faulty. The lawyer contended that in all the five counts in the indictment were not sufficiently clear to warrant holding him a prisoner for the offense, but the court held the indictment was good.

As a result apparently, Taylor will have to face trial in Texas.

It was stated that he would start for Texas with Deputy Sheriff Moss Adams this evening.

Moss Adams returned at noon with Chas. F. Taylor who stands charged with alleged swindling as has been stated in these columns before.

BOND GIVEN.

Chas. F. Taylor Released Last Night.

Chas. F. Taylor who is here under an indictment charging him with alleged swindling, was released last night, having given bond in the sum of $5,000, with A. L. Spradley, L. H. Shelter and J. R. Buchanan as sureties.

Mr. Taylor stated that he would prepare an article for publication and would give it to the Sentinel, perhaps tomorrow.

Israelites Here.

Yesterday a mysterious-looking wagon came down East Main street drawn by two little mules. The wagon was stopped on the corner of Main and Fredonia streets, and in a short while a good crowd had gathered about the wagon to see what it contained. Two men came out of the wagon followed by two women and after song and prayer the gentlemen stated they were Israelites and quoted freely from the scriptures concerning their faith. They are gathering together the twelve tribes of Israel. It is claimed that ten tribes have been found and that missionaries are now out looking for the two lost tribes.

The Israelites have quite a lot of literature explanatory of their faith, which is given to bystanders who can contribute just what they wish.

If it is a bilious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by Perkins, Kleas & Mast, dw

WISHES OUR FACTORY SUCCESS

A Victoria Banker Writes to Mr. L. P. DeMouche.

Since the publication in The Sentinel of the notice of the first cigar made in the new factory, the manager of the factory has received many letters from friends over the state wishing the enterprise unbounded success. The Sentinel asked permission to publish the following:

A LEAL COMPANY,

Victoria, Tex., Feb. 24, 1905.
Mr. L. P. DeMouche,

Nacogdoches, Texas.

My Dear Sir:—I received your copy of "The Daily Sentinel" indicating that your new cigar factory is launched forth under most favorable circumstances, and I hardly need assure you, that not only I, but your many Victoria friends wish you every success, for with your superior ability as a cigar manufacturer, and your tireless energy merits the highest success. When the people of your town learn to know your value as a citizen, they will appreciate you as do your legion of Victoria friends, who hated to see you make a change of base.

Your sincere friend,
G. A. Love.

Here's an extract wishing Mr. DeMouche "bad luck" it is dated at Victoria, Feb. 24.

"Wishing you unbounded prosperity in your new field, assuring you that the only bad luck to you is that you will soon be a millionaire and come back to the City of Roses to live, and sincerely hoping that I will see you here at our 'tremen' celebration May 1st and 2nd. I am."

Yours very truly,
L. A. Thomas.

Mrs. Arthur Travis Dead.

Mrs. Arthur Travis and infant son died this morning about 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Travis' mother, Mrs. Henry Horn on Iron Hill. Mrs. Travis and her infant have been sick for several days past and this morning death released them both from their sufferings. The little one dying just ten minutes after its mother.

Mrs. Travis leaves a husband, a little daughter, a mother, and several sisters and brothers, to mourn her loss.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 p. m. o'clock from the residence of Mrs. Henry Horn on Iron Hill.

The Sentinel extends its heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved, especially to the husband and father, who buried his four year old son less than a month ago.

REDUCING ACREAGE.

Land Owners Agree to Accept Farm Products For Rent.

A recent news item sent out from Atlanta, Ga., shows how the land lords of that state propose to help their tenants cut down the cotton acreage, and as the farmers will hold meetings in Nacogdoches on Saturday, March 4th, to discuss the cotton acreage problem, it might be well that the land holders be present and take action similar to the land holders of Georgia. "One of the greatest problems concerning the reduction of cotton acreage has been that of large land owners who do not actually farm themselves. To have a large number of tenants and expect of them so much rent in the fall, and then expect them to reduce the acreage and at the same time pay rent and make a living for themselves was a question that was causing those in favor of reducing the acreage much concern, but Hon. Dudley M. Hughes, president of the Georgia Agriculture Society, has come forward with a plan, which, if adopted, will be a great help to the reduction of acreage movement.

Mr. Hughes, who owns several thousand acres of land in Middle Georgia, and whose tenants operate about two hundred plots, has agreed to accept corn, peas, oats, fodder, cane or any other farm product at its market value in lieu of cotton for rent, provided each tenant will cut his cotton acreage fifteen acres to the plow.

Mr. Hughes made this announcement several days ago, and as it seems a very feasible idea there is no doubt but that it will be carried out to a large extent.

In speaking of the matter Mr. Hughes said:

"All of my tenants have agreed to the plan. Last year they had an average of about twenty five acres to the plow. This year they will have only fifteen. The amount of fertilizer purchased has also been reduced one half. I hope that every land holder in the cotton belt who does not actually farm himself but who has a large number of tenants can adopt this plan or one similar."

"Mr. J. W. Stafford of Barnesville, Ga., who is also a large farmer, has adopted a similar plan."

Women's Kidneys.

Women are more often afflicted with kidney disorders than men, but attribute the symptoms to diseases peculiar to their sex, while in reality the kidneys are deranged. Nervousness, headach, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, pain in the back are signs of kidney trouble that must not be ignored, or a serious malady will result. Foley's Kidney Cere has restoreh the health of thousands of weak, nervous, broken down women. It stops irregularities and strengthens the urinary organs. It purifies the blood and benefits the whole system. For sale by Perkins, Klease & Mast.

MANY SIGN PETITION.

Plenty of Oil Men Want Investigation Into Standard's Methods.

A large number of signatures have been already secured to the petition being circulated, calling upon Congressman Pinckney to request an investigation into the methods followed by the Standard Oil company in the Texas fields. Within the next few days the message will be forwarded to Washington for action on the part of the representative of the Houston district and consideration on the part of the authorities.

The announcement of the move served to arouse no little interest among oil men. Those who have been benefited by the operation of the trust and hope to benefit still more are loud in crying down the action. Those who have suffered through the alleged manipulation of prices are equally as loud in their acclaim.

In some quarters the operations of the trust are said to be perfectly legitimate and conducive to the development of the fields. Others enter a direct denial.

It is probable that, in the event of an investigation, a number of companies will be directly related to the monopoly. It has long been a notorious fact that the oil men on the inside have encountered little or no difficulty in their work while those known to be outside of the select ring are beset with accidents and failures. —Houston Chronicle.

Stubborn Coughs and Colds CURED BY FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

Obstinate, racking coughs that make your head ache, your throat and lungs sore and inflamed, that rob you of sleep until your system becomes so run down that you are in grave danger of Pneumonia or Consumption, are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR soothes and heals the inflamed air passages, allays the feverish conditions, stops the cough and prevents serious results from a cold.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is the only prominent cough medicine on the market that does not contain opiates or harmful drugs of any kind and on this account is safest for children.

It is unexcelled for Croup and Whooping Cough and will quickly cure the racking cough which follows measles and leaves so many children with weak lungs unless properly treated. Remember the name — Foley's Honey and Tar — and refuse substitutes that cost you the same as the genuine. Do not take chances with some unknown preparation.

Consumption Threatened.

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar; it cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

Three sizes — 25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Your Life and Health When a Cure is so Easy.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness and stiffness in the back; why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them? Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work. That Doan's Kidney Pills cure, and cure permanently, is proven by a Texas citizen's statement. If you have any, even one, of the numerous symptoms of kidney complaint, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Texas testimony.

C. H. Hoencke, of 2319 McKinney Ave. Houston, Tex., manufacturer and dealer in barrels since 1872, says: "For about a year I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. It was caused by a cold, or by straining my back. I had much lumbago, and whenever I made a sudden movement I felt a sharp darting pain through my kidneys. My back was often so lame and sore that I could not stoop without suffering severely. The kidney secretions scalded and were scant in quantity. I used remedy after remedy but found little benefit until I got Doan's Kidney Pills on the advice of a friend who had been cured. By the time I had taken half the box the backache had disappeared and the secretions were clear and natural. I have advised many others to use this remedy and always keep a supply in the house."

A Diversification Freak.

A large number of towns in Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory have bought over 100 cars of Irish potatoes each for local planting. Sundry other states east of us are doing the same. What will be the result? Unless a wonderfully efficient system of distribution to small markets in the North and East be agreed upon, gluts will occur at St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver and other central points, that will prove most disastrous to the smaller and the inexperienced growers, unless unfavorable seasons cut off the crop. Growing all the potatoes we can possibly plant is not diversification—it is far from intelligent diversification. Do not overlook the minor market vegetables this season, such as beans, beets, roasting ears, carrots, turnips, spinach, radishes, early cucumbers—not forgetting onions, watermelons and cantaloupes.—Farm and Ranch.

A Grateful Customer.

I suffered for four years with eczema on the ends of eight of my fingers. Had it so long my fingers drew up and could do nothing at all at times, and I tried almost everything that I ever heard of, including several largely advertised ointments, spending many dollars for them. Never a thing did it any good at all. At last I saw in a home paper Hunt's Cure was being advertised and tried only a part of one box, which cost me only 50c, and it cured them. Now I can wash or do anything which before I could not without my fingers bleeding, burning and paining me very much. If this ever comes back I surely will know just what to get. I wish every friend and stranger that had anything of the kind could have seen my fingers before I used this and see them now. It is the best Ointment on earth. That 50c box was worth a hundred dollars to me. You deserve all thanks that can be given you for that wonderful salve, Hunt's Cure." Mrs. J. I. Blalock.

Will Use Telephones.

The Southern Pacific has decided to install the telephone on its system for the operation of trains and the general conduct of company business. This decision was reached in New Orleans on Monday at a conference between officials of the Southern Pacific and of the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company. It is understood that the placing in of the telephone equipment will be started at once between New Orleans and Houston, and in time is to spread over the entire system, ultimately displacing the telegraph service.

TAINED BLOOD

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903.
Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and had an all-gone tired feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S., and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "tired feeling" which worried me so much disappeared, and I was once again my old self. I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine. VICTOR STEUBINS, Cor. Barthman and Washington Aves.

JOINS OIL FIGHT

TELEGRAM CONVEYED TO ROOSEVELT.

Standard is Game—Battle Royal Will be Waged by the Octopus.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—Indications here are that Texas will take several chips in the big game which is soon to be on with the United States pitted against the Standard Oil Company. Representative Campbell of Kansas, the author of the resolution providing for an inquiry into the operations of the oil interest of the country, has had an extended conference with President Roosevelt, regarding the investigation. Mr. Campbell presented to the president considerable information, which he has received since the adoption of this resolution.

He informed the president that he had received from the speaker of the house of the Texas legislature a telegram urging him to request the president and the department of commerce and labor to extend the proposed inquiry to the methods of the Standard in the Beaumont field of Texas. He also told the president he had received hundreds of telegrams and letters daily from all sections, regarding the investigation.

The Standard Oil company, Mr. Campbell informed the president, already was preparing its defense, and would resist to the utmost the government's information. The resumption by the company of the purchase of Kansas oil, he said, undoubtedly was decided upon in view of the action taken by the house of representatives, in requesting an investigation. It would not surprise him, either, he said if the price of crude oil should be advanced gradually on account of the present agitation. Mr. Campbell assured the president that neither he nor the people of Kansas desired that any injustice should be done on either side of the question.

The president will have a conference soon with James R. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, who will direct the inquiry. At that conference a general plan of procedure in the inquiry will be mapped out. The president already has directed that it be made as rigid as possible.

President Roosevelt assured Representative Campbell of Kansas today that all of the power of his administration necessary would be used in the investigation he is undertaking through the bureau of corporations into the affairs of the Standard Oil company, to the end that the small producer, dealer and consumer alike shall have fair treatment, and that at the same time no injustice shall be done the Standard Oil company or any other concern.

"The president realizes," said Mr. Campbell, "that this is the most important investigation of the kind which has been undertaken, and he is going into it with the determination that it shall be thorough and successful as the machinery of the government can make it. He wants nothing but exact justice and fair play, but is determined to have both."

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Sherrick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop. As I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in council." This remedy is for sale by Perkins, Klease & Mast. dw

Legislators Touched.

In a special to the Houston Chronicle under date of Thursday appeared the following paragraph:

The members of the lower house returned this morning from Laredo. Many of them were the victims of crooks. One senator was touched for $70, a Panhandle representative for $105, State Revenue Agent Bell for $55, and Curtis Hancock was robbed of his pocketbook containing return passes and $5.

KILLED AT A DANCE.

Negroes Have a Wedding Dance and Shooting Bee.

From Friday's Daily:

Last night near Appleby the negroes had a wedding, dance and festival. Quite a quantity of bad booze was in evidence. Sometime during the festival which followed the wedding ceremony, Henry Johnson in some way gave offense to the Sparks brothers and bad blood was raised in a short while, matters grew worse until Rowlen Sparks it is alleged proceeded to fix Johnson—he fixed him and as a result Rowlen Sparks was arrested on the charge of murder, and the other two brothers were arrested as accomplices. Sheriff Beckner went to the scene of trouble and returned today at noon.

The examining trial will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All Lufkin was shocked last Thursday morning when the news reached here from Livingston that Miss Jessie McConico had attempted self-destruction by shooting herself with a pistol. The news proved only too true, the unfortunate occurrence taking place at the home of Hon. J. C. Feagin just as she and her father, Mr. J. B. McConico, were preparing to leave and take the train for Lufkin. The ball penetrated the right side passing below the heart on the left and making a decidedly painful and dangerous wound. Dr. A. M. Denman was called to her bedside in the afternoon and on Thursday night she was conveyed to her home in this city, where the best possible care has been given her. She is doing as well as could possibly be expected and her early recovery is anxiously hoped for by the numerous friends of the family. Without attempting to go into details leading up to the affair, the Tribune will say that it was a most deplorable occurrence and the unfortunate young lady and her family have the sincere sympathy of everybody in this terrible hour of affliction.—Lufkin Tribune

A HEALTHY OLD AGE OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. Mary Koehne

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth.

When everything becomes a burden and you cannot wait a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration, Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headache with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders."

Mrs. Pinkham, M. Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

Strange Injury?

With his life hanging by a slender thread E. I. Chastine, living two miles south of Shreveport, is at the Shreveport sanitarium, suffering from a serious and unusual accident. While harnessing a mule Saturday morning the animal struck the bars of his stall with his feet, forcing a jagged splinter, six inches in length through Chastine's left eye, destroying the sight and ranging downward, grazing the lower edge of the brain and coming out behind the left ear. After an interval of unconsciousness Chastine was removed to the hospital where his condition is pronounced critical.

COTTON MEETING.

County Judge Robt. Berger has issued a call asking all interested in the growth of cotton to meet at some convenient place in each voting precinct in the county Saturday, March 4th, and discuss the subject which is now of so much importance to the South; to elect delegates to a general county convention to be held in the court house at Nacogdoches on Saturday, March 11th.

The Sentinel would like to see every precinct in the county represented at the county convention. If ever there was a time when the farmers throughout the cotton belt should put forth some effort to protect themselves, that time is now.

Last year demonstrated beyond all reason of a doubt, that the cotton crop was entirely too large, and when the crop began to move in volume, the price immediately slumped down to a price that was below the value of production. The previous crop was just about large enough for consumption—no surplus—what was the result? A very fair price was paid all around and in some instances fancy prices were received by a few who held cotton over.

We all know that the high price of cotton in the latter part of last season caused an increase in acreage, and to head off the boll weevil a large per cent of the planters used commercial fertilizers which caused an increase in the yield.

The point to be considered now is will the South cut down the cotton acreage and raise a crop large enough to meet the demands and at a living price, or will another 12,000,000 bale crop be raised at ruinous prices?

Older heads than the writer have predicted that the market would be "buled" just before planting time which would cause the farmers to plant heavily, thinking thereby that the same conditions would exist when the 1905-6 market opened. The market may be "buled" but The Sentinel is of the opinion that "experience is the best teacher," and as the South has just passed through a post-graduate course in the school of cotton "experience that the farmers will resolve, just once, and abide by the resolution, to cut down the cotton acreage, reduce the amount of commercial fertilizers used, and endeavor to raise more of the things for home consumption.

Attend the county meeting on March 11th.

THERE is a market already established for cured tobacco in Nacogdoches. If you have the right kind of soil to raise filler tobacco, make arrangements right now to put in a few acres. Don't try too much at once, but put in a small amount as an experiment on your own account. You can sell it.

Don't overlook the tobacco proposition.

NEW ORLEANS had a $5,000,000 fire Sunday.

THE house judiciary committee Monday morning reported favorably the Griggs bill providing that failure to pay poll tax does not disqualify voter from jury service.

JUDGE SWAYNE against whom impeachment proceedings were pending in the United States Senate, was acquitted Monday. One very noticeable feature about the vote is that democrats voted him guilty on all twelve charges, but were in "the hopeless minority."

FOLLOWING the announcement that the government proposes to look into the records of the Standard Oil Company's method of doing business, the stock of that corporation declined $36 per share. Wait until the investigation is over, (if it is thoroughly investigated) and the price of stock will look like thirty cents.

SET apart among the many mansions of the Pearly City is one more beautiful than all the others, more favored by the white angels who linger round the heavenly throne blending the music of their heavenly harps with the sweet songs of the redeemed souls, a mansion of divine perfection reserved by the great Builder for that girl who loves, protects and respects her mother. Earth has no sweeter nor a more perfect representation of genuine goodness than a girl who favors her mother above all others and who scorns the frivolities, pleasures and amusements of her surroundings and devotes herself to mother. She indicates in that one attribute the possession of all that tends toward purity of heart, gentleness of manner, truth, honesty, sincerity, unselfishness, gratitude; in fact, every characteristic commonly enumerated as qualities of the perfect being. The girl who shares her mother's interests and who places her mother's happiness and comfort above every other thing, even her own pleasures, combines qualities which can only be felt and which lose value by description.—Beaumont Journal.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in council." This remedy is for sale by Perkins, Klease & Mast, dw.

SMOOTH SWINDLERS.

Are Thought to Be in Texas. Traced From Memphis, Tenn.

Several Texas cities have been advised to look out for a set of swindlers who are using the United States money order department to work their game, which is about as follows: A well dressed man purchases a money order at the window of a postoffice in one of the larger cities for an amount not exceeding thirty-five cents. His object is to get possession of a money order sheet. He then proceeds to raise the order, and so delicate is he in his work that the difference in the lines is barely noticeable under a microscope.

In another city a well dressed woman appears, and after making a few minor purchases offers a money order for a large amount as payment, casually remarking that she thoughtlessly left her room without bringing any change. She takes occasion to mention that she is stopping at some place where prominent people live, and in many instances succeeds in inducing the merchants to cash the order, inasmuch as the postoffice does not happen to be open at the time.

At the office next day it is found that the postmaster has received no advices from the issuing office and further inquiry shows that the order is fraudulent.

To prevent just such misuse of the order the department changed the paper from the white that used to be common to the delicately tinted blue that even water will discolor, hoping thus to prevent the use of chemicals, and to head off any changing or alteration. But the thing is done, anyhow. It has been found, after the persons have gone that they put up at the best hotel in the city visited, that they had a good time, though usually they took their meals in their room and had very little to do with other people, and that when they have been found out they are far away, no one knows in what direction.

It is said these people have been traced to Texas from Memphis, Tenn., and it is thought that they have visited Dallas and Ft. Worth. Inasmuch as Houston has been a mark recently, it would be well for people to be on the lookout.—Houston Post.

Cigars for The Department.

L. P. DeMouche, manager of the Nacogdoches Cigar factory made a lot of cigars, of the Nacogdoches stuff, today and forwarded same to Secretary of Agriculture Whitney, with the compliments of the Nacogdoches factory.

If Mr. DeMouche puts up the same grade of "smoke" for the secretary that he has made on several occasions for the Sentinel staff, secretary Whitney will have an opportunity to pass judgment on something good.

THE office of county superintendent of public instruction has been created in Nacogdoches county. One by one the counties of Texas are falling in line for educational advancement.—Center News.

TOBACCO CULTURE

It may be of some benefit to the tobacco growers of Texas to call their attention to a few of the important points on the culture of the weed. Tobacco seed are very small and are very delicate while germinating and getting started. After it passes this stage it is a very hardy and healthy plant and this is the most important point for a new beginner to study, for if he raises good plants and has plenty of them he is nearly sure of a good crop. Any good truck grower that can transplant and raise good cabbage or tomatoes can cultivate tobacco and grow it up to the toping stage. This begins the important work, but at the same time can be easily learned. If you top too low the plant is inclined to grow the leaves too heavy, and will not have the desired mild flavor and rich aroma for a filler, nor the thin texture for a wrapper to make a high grade cigar. On the other hand if you should top too high and leave too many leaves the result would be smaller leaves and trashy, as the soil could not develop all that was left on the stalk and then it would not all ripen even. The bottom of the plant getting too ripe and the top too green and you cut the stalk with all the leaves remaining until cured on the stalk. The next point is keeping the suckers off; that comes as soon as the top is taken out of the plant which must be kept pulled out as fast as they come out and not let them get any size so as to take the strength from the leaf. These suckers come two above each leaf left and is very easily pulled off.

Now as to insects and pests. Any one can keep them off by using poison at a small cost and do away with the old hand picking style to get the worms off the leaves. The next point is to tell when to harvest or to tell when the plant is ripe and at a stage when to cut to get the best results. This is also easy to learn by the grains of the leaf, as when Cuban tobacco gets ripe it has a grainy look that is easy to learn by feeling of the leaf as well as the look with the eye. When the stalk is strung on a barn and hung under a shed or barn to keep off sun and rain. Of course it is best to have a good building built for the purpose where you can close up or open as desired, as to the atmosphere to get the best results but the most of the small farmers who do not desire to go to the expense to build a barn can use such shelter room as he may have on his farm for stock and other purposes, as the time he needs it for tobacco is in July and August when his crib and shelter are empty. Any way a little experience will teach the good farmer how to soon make a complete success.

Below I give some points in detail which may help you. For seed bed select a gray sandy loam, as warm natured soil as can be secured, moist but not wet. Select a location near water for convenience during drought, but avoid land that overflows. Uncleared land is preferable as the soil is more loamy and weeds less numerous. If uncleared land be used the forest growth should be cut off early in the winter.

When time comes to sow your seed begin preparing beds by thoroughly burning with dry wood or brush the area to be made into beds. Thoroughly scorch the soil in order to kill all vegetation, both weed seed and the grass sods. After burning, rake off all trash, charcoal and the ashes where they occur in piles. Spade up the soil three inches deep, raking out all roots and trash. If the soil be poor, broadcast a light application of any fertilizer, and rake this in. Care should be taken to avoid stirring up the cold sub-soil, as this has not been warmed and pulverized by the fire.

In some sections the beds are sown and covered in a solid area, while in other sections it is laid off five and one-half feet wide, and of any desired length. The latter method is most convenient. A 12-in. board or two narrow ones are set up on all sides of the bed, or a small log will do as a substitute.

Two tablespoons of seed sown on 100 square yards will produce plants sufficient to set out one acre of tobacco.

In order to distribute this small amount of seed evenly, it is mixed with sawdust, sand, ashes or similar substance. If a rain immediately follows the sowing, or if the bed be watered at once, no covering of the seed is needed, as the water will beat the seed in sufficiently. There is no danger of covering too deep if a rake be used. If the bed remains dry, either tramp it or use a small roller.

The beds are at once covered with cheese cloth supported on strips about 15 inches above the ground. The widths of this cloth should be sown together, and it should be carefully stretched and tacked down to the strips, and to the plank or logs at the sides, thus making a tight covering which keeps out insects, and also serves as a protection from the weather. This covering of thin cheese cloth remain on the beds until the plants are large enough to set out, being removed only to weed the beds.

The Guinea-Pig Proved It.

Drs. Lassar and Bishop, both noted scientists, took dandruff scales from the head of a student who was losing his hair and having made a pomade of them of vaseline, rubbed the same upon a guinea-pig and the pig became bald. (See George Thomas, Jackson, M. D. on disease of skin, 4th edition.) Nebro's Herculicide should be used at the first suggestion of dandruff or itching scalp. It prevents scalp infection, robs the public hair brush of its power to do harm, and never fails to cure dandruff and stop falling hair.

When your hair is going, Herculicide will save it, but when your hair has gone, it is too late for Herculicide. In other words, baldness is incurable. Therefore save your hair while you have hair to save. Stripling, Haselwood & Co. Special Agents.

A VALUABLE COW.

Is in Continuous Commission as a Milker.

Rev. J. A. Williams, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at this place, has a cow which is a curiosity to a great many people. A few years ago a friend of his gave him a thoroughbred Jersey heifer calf which will be five years old in April next. At 4 years of age he commenced to milk her, and has continued the milking process up to this time. The cow gives two gallons of rich milk per day and eight pounds of butter per week. The remarkable feature of the cow is that she has never given birth to a calf and is a perpetual milker.—Nacogdoches correspondent in Houston Post.

Put Up or Shut Up.

The city council should make Ollie Campbell build a brick and shut up "expostulating" hot air. The very fact that he himself is afraid to build a fire in the shack he is doing business in is evidence enough to condemn the building and it should be done. It would not be quite so bad but Ollie has been saying for the last 15 years that he was going to build a brick, and another thing is the house might fall down on him and kill him, which would be a great loss to the town and county, an irreparable loss; one that it would take years to overcome. Really, there should be some action in the matter at once—there is entirely too much risk at stake, and the only remedy that we can see is for the city dads to condemn the house, thereby forcing Ollie to build a brick.—Garrison Gleaner.

The Truck Growers.

At a called meeting of the Truck and Fruit Growers association last Saturday it was decided that for the growers to get good results from their labor, a more compact organization for the purpose of distributing and selling the product must be formed. The association elected J. B. Power as delegate to the meeting at Palestine, to be held for the above mentioned purpose on March 2nd, and instructed him to use every effort for the establishment of such an organization.

A resolution to reduce the dues for this season to 50c carried and same is due now. The next regular meeting is next Saturday, March 4th, at 2:30 p. m. and every one interested in truck or peach growing is expected to be present to give in full acreage and hear report of the Palestine meeting. At this meeting we should also arrange a reception for the commission men and buyers of the North who will spend a few hours in our city March 13th. All these things are important. J. B. Power, Sec.

Examining Trial.

Roland Sparks the negro charged with the murder of Henry Johnson near Appleby last Friday night at a negro dance, was given an examining trial before Judge Jones and was bound over in the sum of $750 to await the action of the grand jury.

THE WORLD'S COFFEE CROP.

More Than a Billion Pounds Consumed in United States.

Washington, Feb. 27.—More than one billion pounds of coffee, valued at $88,000,000, came into the United States last year, practically all for the use of the people of the United States. The total quantity of coffee imported from foreign countries during the year, as shown by figures recently issued by the department of commerce and labor through its bureau of statistics, was 1,112,703,546 pounds valued at $87,427,099, and from Port Rico 2,119,524 pounds, and from the Hawaiian islands 1,827,391 pounds. The total value of the coffee from these two island divisions of the United States is $515,853, bringing the total quantity of coffee brought into the country up to 1,117,000,000 pounds, and the value to $88,000,000. During the same period (the calendar year 1904) there was exported from the United States 64,256,947 pounds of coffee of foreign production, valued at $6,468,592, so that the consumption of coffee during the year was approximately 1,053,000,000 valued at about $81,000,000. The figures of the world's production of coffee in the coffee year 1903-4, which has just reached the bureau of statistics, show that the coffee exported from the various producing countries of the world's markets during that year was, in round terms, 2,260,000,000 pounds, or barely double the quantity brought into the United States alone during the calendar year.

MELROSE LOCALS.

Melrose, Feb. 27.—Sunday Rev. John Wilson left home for Black Jack, one mile this side he met a surrey and two buggies filled with young men and ladies coming to meet him, all halted for a few moments, and with the sacred ceremony Mr. Eugene Sanders and Miss Bulah Gaston were joined as man and wife. The license were passed to the minister with a five dollar bill enclosed. Eugene and Beulah are so worthy to begin life together. We heartily wish them a long and happy life, entreating them to take Jesus as their counselor and guide in all the many responsibilities that await them with the assurance that all will be well with them.

A "Whiskeranium."

An Iowa barber runs an ad in his home paper, which is, to say the least, unique. He calls his place a "Whiskeranium," and solicits trade in this way.

"If you want your soup strainers pruned, we will block them out in any pattern—lip ticklers, fantails, billy goats or peacherinos. Hair cuts of all kinds, from woolly wiles to ring-around-rosey. Wash your ears without extra charge."

APPLEBY LOCALS.

Appleby, Texas, Feb. 27.—

On last Friday night the doors of the Appleby high school were thrown open to a very large and enthusiastic audience to listen to one of the most interesting programs had for years, in honor of the father of our country. The music was just simply rare and fine. The welcome address was eloquently delivered by Mr. Willie Fezell the professor of vocal music in the school. There were quite a number of interesting compositions on Washington as he appeared in the different phases of life.

Resolved that the pen is more powerful than the sword," was most ably discussed by six of the boys of our school. Affirmative, Eddie and Walden Day and Herman Sullivan. Negative, Geo. Adams, Jno. Hunt and Jno. Helflin. These boys all did credit to themselves and the school.

Rev. Mr. Fondren, of Nacogdoches, delivered a very able oration on "Citizenship."

The teachers course in the Appleby high school begins today and our town has been full of strange faces of nice looking young men and ladies who have just finished teaching their school in different parts of this county and adjoining counties and are here to attend our school. We gladly welcome them all.

Our country and town is just full of gripe.

Mr. Ed Greer, night clerk for the Houston East & West Texas railroad, is quite sick with pneumonia.

Mr. Jessie Crawford who has been quite sick for several weeks, was buried here yesterday. We all sympathize with his mother, brother and sister.

SUPREME COURT

UPHOLDS TEXAS ANTI-TRUST LAW.

Suit of Texas Against Oil Companies Sustained by Supreme Court.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 27.—Justice McKenna in the supreme court today rendered a decision which upholds the anti-trust law of Texas.

The cases in point were docketed under the following titles: National Cotton Oil Company et al., plaintiffs in error, versus State of Texas, and the Southern Cotton Oil Company et al., plaintiffs in error, versus State of Texas.

It appears that the above-mentioned companies were chartered under the laws of New Jersey, with a permit to do business in Texas, and entered into an agreement with the Taylor Cotton Oil Works, a corporation organized under laws of Texas, whereby these three entered into an agreement with each other and altogether agreed to regulate and fix, they did regulate and fix, the price at which they would buy cotton seed throughout Texas at $14 per ton, and agreed that they would not give more than that sum per ton for cotton seed in any of the towns or communities of Texas.

By creating this pool, trust agreement, combination, etc., to regulate and fix the price of cotton seed the laws of Texas were distinctly evaded and the companies complained of have forfeited their permit to transact business in Texas.

The opinion handed down in the supreme court today upholds the contention of Texas.—Houston Chronicle.

Nacogdoches Boys in Trouble.

From Tuesday's Daily: Yesterday's Shreveport Times contained quite a lengthy article of a "yellow" nature in which it appears that two young men from Nacogdoches are in trouble of a serious nature. The report alleges that the boys had administered "knock out" drops to a woman in Shreveport and stole about $700 worth of diamonds. The last paragraph of the article is as follows:

"At the station the men were 'sweated,' but they would not confess. Ruby Dixon was notified and as soon as she saw the prisoners she identified them as the men who were with her last, and just before she fell asleep under the influence of the drug. They gave their names as Joe Roquemore and S. L. Brutton and were locked up without bail."

Charley Bruton of this city, wired the Shreveport authorities asking for particulars, but up to noon had not received a reply.

Woodmen Meeting.

Quite an interesting convention of Liberty Elm Camp W. O. W. was held last night and the meeting was largely attended. One candidate was initiated into the mysteries of woodcraft, and today he is very proud of the lessons peculiar to the order.

Must Pay the Doctor.

At a recent meeting of the physicians of Nacogdoches, the following resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote:

1st. Every physician that signs this agreement shall furnish to every other physician that signs it, on the first of March 1905, and the first of January each year hereafter a complete list of all those, regardless of social or financial standing, that have failed to pay or secure him for his services since January 1st, 1904, and each physician shall keep a complete alphabetically arranged list of all such names made up from the reports furnished him by other physicians.

2nd. That no physician that signs this agreement will go to see or render in any way a professional service to any who is listed by himself or another physician who has signed this agreement, as not paying his doctors bills for any year since Jan. 1st, 1904, unless the applicant pays the cash in advance, gives good security or shows a clear receipt from the physician or physicians that have reported him as in arrears.

3rd. That it shall be the duty of each physician who signs this agreement to report immediately to every other physician that has signed it the name of every one that has been reported as in arrears and has paid his bill and put himself in good standing, and then each physician shall be at liberty to go to see such persons if he desires.

Plague of Rabbits.

Sheiman Tex., Feb. 27.—Orchardists throughout North Texas have suffered a heavy loss as a result of the depredations of the rabbits, which were forced by the snow and sleet to "bark" the trees as high as they could reach by standing on their hind legs. Not only the young trees but old ones were nearly or entirely ruined. There is an unusual number of the rabbits, though the slaughter has been great. There is a big demand for the animals by the cold storage companies and thousands of carcasses have been sold all over this section of the state, yet the number of rabbits does not appear to have decreased very rapidly. The orchardists are welcoming gunners with open arms, though some of them have hitherto had their orchards posted during the quail season.

John S. Kerr, secretary of the State Nurserymen's association, is now securing data as to the best methods for meeting the situation, which will be issued as quickly as they can be put in proper shape.

FRUIT AND PRODUCE BUYERS SPECIAL.

They Will Visit Nacogdoches on Monday Afternoon. March 13th.

Fruit and produce buyers from Kansas City and that vicinity will visit Nacogdoches on a special train on March 13th.

The party is making a tour of Texas and the truck farming section of Louisiana and will arrive here from Houston at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The object of this trip is to afford the buyers an opportunity to meet the fruit growers and produce raisers throughout the territory with which they desire to do business, and to bring both ends into closer mutual relation.

Besides the men actively engaged in buying fruit and produce, there are a number of other prominent men of capital in the party who are desirous of getting acquainted with the opportunities that are afforded in the southwest for investments, and they took advantage of the special train arrangement to attach themselves to it.

The train has been officially chartered by the Packers' Trade Extension Association, of Kansas City, and practically all of the gentlemen in the party are members of that organization. The Houston East & West Texas Railroad in handling the train has arranged for short stops at Cleveland, Corrigan, Lutkin, Nacogdoches, Timpson, Tenaha and Shreveport.

Representatives of the railroad company are accompanying the members of the party. This is being done for the purpose of assisting in introducing the members of the party to prominent growers and producers along the line of roads, and to insure comfort and pleasure to those on the train.

The party will remain in the city about two hours, and the Nacogdoches Fruit and Truck Growers Association will have an opportunity to meet the most prominent fruit and produce merchants in the largest cities during their short stay over here.

Good Situation Open.

The Milwaukee Dustless Brush Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., want an active representative, man or woman for Nacogdoches and surrounding territory to sell the "World's Only Dustless Floor and Carpet Brush." Winner of the Gold Medal at the St. Louis Exposition 1904. This brush sweeps without dust and is rapidly taking the place of other methods of sweeping. Its durability makes it cheaper than a broom. This is an excellent opportunity to secure a good paying position and permanent employment. References required. If interested write the Milwaukee Dustless Brush Co., Milwaukee, Wis.

WHEN ITS TOO cold and sloppy outside to work the East Texas farmer can put in some good time repairing harness and getting farm implements in shape for business when spring opens up.

NACOGDOCHES has a cigar factory in which only Texas grown tobacco is used, and the people of that town smoke only Texas cigars. This is the proper spirit, and it is bound to win in the end. Patronize home industries if you expect to build up factories in Texas.—Beaumont Enterprise.

IT should be borne in mind that Col. A. J. Houston will receive good big pay, provided by law, for contesting the seat of Congressman-elect Brooks in congress. From the day he filed notice of contest until the case is decided he will be entitled to pay, win or lose, and maybe if this was not the case there would have been no contest. There was certainly nothing on the face of the returns to invite a contest, and it is not probable there is anything behind them that gives Mr. Houston the slightest hope that he will ever warm a seat in congress.—Beaumont Enterprise.

THE validity of the Kansas anti-trust law was Monday upheld by the United States supreme court in an opinion by Justice Brewer in the case of Edmund J. Smiley, plaintiff in error vs. the State of Kansas. Smiley in 1900 was secretary of the State Grain Dealers' association, and the allegation in this case that he organized the wheat dealers in the town of Bison, Rush county, into a trust to control the price of wheat at that place. The supreme court sustained the prosecution against him, and Justice Brewer's opinion upholds the verdict. He based his decision on the ground that the law was in harmony with the power of the state to control its own police affairs, and, therefore, not antagonistic to the Federal constitution.

ITS THE SAME HERE.

The express company at the Tyler office is recklessly indifferent to the wants of many of its customers. It flatly refuses to deliver packages that contain liquor, to the citizen at his office or the place designated by him. Yet he does not get mad, but goes to the express office with a smile on his face and lines up for his turn. Signs for his package, lugs it to a place of safety, tests it, and smiles again. Yet this same citizen will become dangerously furious if, after it had been ordered, his grocer does not hurry up and deliver at his home ten blocks down the street that package of grape nuts. It may be the groceryman, is a poor country man who drifted to town and fell into the grocery business in the belief that it was a soft snap. This though does not cause the citizen to be less mandatory. He is going to defend his wife by seeing that the grocer sends his grape nuts at once; and pretty soon you will observe all teams and vehicles on that street hurrying to the right, and then the cause of it is observed in the flying movements of a mule followed by a wagon add a negro driver with the package of grape nuts bouncing from one side to the other of the wagon. Understand, mind you, that the Courier wouldn't think of encouraging any delay in the delivery of the grape nuts; but it appeals to the citizens for fair play. It wants the express company disciplined and brought under command, like the grocer. It wants the citizen to flatly refuse to go after his package. Let him stand firmly and forever, rather than yield one step towards this soulless corporation and finally it will deliver the goods.—Tyler Courier.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

When you have occasion to speak of other's faults—Don't.

Cure the defects in your own self before pointing out those of others.

The desire to ape after those who can afford to keep up with fashion's decree is the cause of keeping many men poor.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. For sale by Perkins, Klease & Mast. eod dw

Unique Graft Being Worked.

Those who live by their wits always find exceptionally good picking by playing upon the credulity of the ignorant and the fears of the superstitious. As long as suckers are born every minute fakers will continue to wax fat on their hard earned sustenance.

A new species of graft is being systematically and successfully worked in Houston at present by the "seventh daughter of a seventh daughter," who peddles palm reading and incidentally, dips her talons into family tills by the following methods:

Once in a home she sizes up the most gullible member and evidences a sudden infat-uation for her. So deep is this feigned affection that she offers to reveal the secret receipt of a talisman which will make the holder's lover more devoted, or make her husband true, or procure riches, health and wealth. It is the "same" to success, the Aladdin's lamp which transforms every wish into reality. "Go to any first class drug store and secure $1.50 worth of he-stone, $1.50 worth of she-stone and 25 cents worth of powdered steel, mix and put in a sack and wear over the heart."

Here the faker pauses to watch the effect. "Of course," she continues, "if you dislike to call for these drugs I will get it for you."

As no woman, no matter how earnestly she desires the love of her sweetheart, would go into a store and ask for he-stone and she-stone, the faker is told to make the purchase, and she returns the next day with a harmless and inexpensive mixture, costing a few cents and receives the $3.25.

How many victims the faker has secured in Houston, is not known, but the number is very large as several have been known to "bite" in one house.—Houston Chronicle.

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anaemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs Belle H. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." 50c at Perkins, Klease & Mast's. w

BOOTLEGGING BAD BOOZE.

Negro Near Appleby Doing Thriving Business.

Sheriff Buckner is right in behind the "bootleggers" and violators of the local option law. Andy Whittaker, a negro, was arrested yesterday on a charge of selling whiskey by the quart, and when the grand jury gets busy next month there will be quite an array of whiskey indictments.

Sheriff Buckner says he was born and raised in Nacogdoches county and that he is a member of the Methodist church, and that he proposes to have all violators of the law, both white and black, brought before the courts for trial if within his power to do so.

From Saturday's Daily:

This morning Tom Meeks who is employed at the Hayward Lumber Co's., mill south of town met with quite a sad and painful accident while operating a moulding machine. In feeding the machine Meeks in some way got his hand caught in the knives and the hand was cut off.

Medical aid was summoned at once and the unfortunate man was carried to the home of Dr. Tucker, on East Main street, where proper attention can be given the wound.

Withdrawal Notice.

In withdrawing from the drug firm of Perkins Bros. I earnestly thank the many customers and friends of the old firm for the many favors shown us in the past twenty-six years.

TWO MEN BADLY CUT --ONE DEAD.

A Wedding, Dance and Festival Near Appleby Ends In a Big Fight.

"Two negroes cut; one dead and the other in a very precarious condition" is the story that comes from Appleby as a sequel to a wedding, dance and festival.

Thursday night Sheriff Buckner was on the trail of some "bootleggers" in the vicinity of Appleby when he run into a community where a negro wedding, dance and festival was being pulled off. He had been informed that certain negroes would be on hand with "bad brands of busthead booze," a smell of which being guaranteed to raise a row and one drink sufficient to make a man commit murder.

Just as the sheriff had arrived he heard a pistol shot near the house where the dance was in progress; hitching his team he ran to the fence and on opening the gate he found a negro in the last throes of death. He shook the negro thinking perhaps he could tell something about the trouble, but finding the man about dead passed on when he met another negro who had been terribly slashed about the head and body and was suffering so intensely that no intelligent answer could be obtained. The sheriff then ran to the door of the house and commanded the negroes to surrender; seeing it was the sheriff several started to leave via the window route, but Buckner told them there would be more dead negroes around there if they tried to escape.

When quite had been commanded the sheriff asked who had done the cutting; receiving no reply he asked if the dead man had any "kinfolks" in the room, when one negro replied he was a brother to Henry Johnson, the dead man. The negro then told the sheriff that Tobe Sparks, Rawlin Sparks and Henry Sparks had raised the row and had put on the finishing touches with their knives. A negro woman said that Rawlin Sparks was the one who done the cutting.

Bud Fears was the negro that was so badly cut about the face and body, but his wounds are not necessarily fatal.

The sheriff then started out after the Sparks brothers and after a lively chase which took nearly all night the negroes were captured and brought to Nacogdoches and placed in jail.

The preliminary trial has been set for Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

KILLS PAIN KILLS GERMS

Sloan's Liniment is sold only by druggists and dealers, never by peddlers or street hawkers. NONE GENUINE WITHOUT DR. SLOAN'S PORTRAIT AND SIGNATURE ON EVERY BOTTLE. DR. EARL S. SLOAN, 615 ALBANY ST. BOSTON, MASS.

THE Washington Post has seen the "handwriting on the wall" and speaks the following truth: "Export grain seeks the southern outlet because it can go that way more quickly and more cheaply. It is a question of miles and minutes, and freight traffic, like most other things in this world, moves along the line of least resistance. The South is destined to get an increased amount of grain shipments from the great agricultural states of the Mississippi valley, just as it is certain to play a dominant part in the manufacturing industries of the country as its resources are developed and its natural advantages appreciated and developed."

By the Tonic Route.

The pills that act as a tonic and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure headache, constipation, biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Perkins, Klease & Mast dw

CURES CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

One Week's Use of Hyomei Did More Than Six Months' Treatment by Specialists.

In the treatment of deafness which is often a result of catarrh Hyomei acts almost immediately upon the inflamed membrane and the hearing begins to return at once. A few days treatment will bring relief, and in three or four weeks, according to the severity of the case, a cure will be accomplished.

Miss Weeks, of Mattewan, N. Y., says: "Hyomei is truly wonderful. I have used it but a short time and see a great change in my condition. My hearing is improving rapidly, and I had no idea I would improve so rapidly in so short a time. My breath which was so offensive to myself and others, has lost its bad odor entirely. I have spent a great deal of money with catarrh specialists and can say that six months of their treatment is not equal to one month of Hyomei."

Stripling, Haselwood & Co are selling Hyomei upon the usual plan of agreeing to return the money if the medicine does not cure.

A complete outfit costs only $1 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler will last a life time and there is enough Hyomei for several week's treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50 cents. Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists and then if Hyomei does not cure Stripling, Haselwood & Co., will refund your money.

MONTHLY MEETING HELD YESTERDAY.

The Paper for Discussion was Pneumonia—Attendance was Good.

The regular monthly meeting of the Nacogdoches County Medical Association was held in the Business League parlors yesterday afternoon, and while the attendance was very good yet all the members were not present.

The physicians from out of town who were in attendance were more than repaid by the discussion "Pneumonia." Dr. Lockey, of this city, read the paper and the subject was carefully prepared.

The Sentinel is proud of the progress being made by the association, and believes that the entire state would be greatly benefited, if the physicians in every county would organize; meet regularly and discuss topics that the entire medical world is interested in.

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo, from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter, he says: "I was nearly dead, of these complaints, and although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure, dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., druggist, at 50c a bottle. dw

Farm for Rent.

Sixty-five acres in cultivation, good house, barns, etc. Known as the H. M. Miley place, 13 miles southeast of Nacogdoches. Liberal terms, T. J. Williams, Nacogdoches, Texas.

If you want to buy a mule or horse see Cason.

Attend the Meetings.

The Sentinel hopes that every farmer in the county who possibly can will attend the precinct meetings called for Saturday, March 4th, and elect delegates to the county convention which is to be held here on March 11th. Judge Berger is very anxious that these meetings be well attended.

The Sentinel trusts that the agreement to reduce cotton acreage and fertilizer will be generally signed as upon the action of the farmers of the South on this proposition depends the future of cotton. If the agreement is made to reduce and the reduction is made in good faith then cotton will advance to a living price. If another such crop as the last one is made or one that comes within a million bales of it, then goodbye to anything above five cent cotton. This is the situation in a nutshell—will the farmers raise more cotton and get less for it in the aggregate or will they raise less and get more for it in the aggregate?

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at Stripling, Haselwood & Co.'s drug store, price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. dw

At the Compress.

Yesterday the reporter called on Supt. C. R. Dickens, of the Nacogdoches Compress and Warehouse Co., and found every one connected with the press quite busy getting out a shipment of 650 bales for Loeb, of Shreveport, and Lloyd Bowers Sr. Up to date only 8000 bales have been pressed this season, while last year on same date 18,200 had passed through the compress. Mr. Dickens is of the opinion that there are about 9000 bales in the hands of the farmers of Nacogdoches county.

Won't Turn Loose.

"I insist on saying that Hunt's Lightning oil takes hold quicker and lets go slower of aches, pains and sore places than any other liniment I ever saw. It just want turn loose till you're well." New York Girl Died From Lockjaw Caused by Creasote.

New York, Feb. 24.—Martha Helms, 10 years old, after suffering intensely from tetanus, is dead at a Harlem hospital. The surgeons assert that the fatal lockjaw could be traced directly to some "tooth-ache paste" which the child used last Saturday. They assert that the paste contained creasote, which inflamed the girl's gums, and, being absorbed, so excited her sensitive nervous organization that tetanus resulted.

Keep your eyes open for ladies day at the cigar factory. The little souvenirs to be given away that day are well worth going after, to say nothing of the attractions of the factory. Our courteous manager, Mr. DeMouche, will be glad to show the guests through the building.

You can spot the crops where Diverse Cultivators are used as you ride past on the cars. They are free from grass, the earth is mellow and loose, and the plants healthy and strong.

It's easy for the man with the Diverse Cultivator to keep it that way, because at one plowing he cultivates the row on each side and cleans out the middle, just half the time it takes to do the same work the old way. . . . .

This is one of the positions in which the DIVERSE CULTIVATOR does its good work.

It is easily set as "V" Harrow, "A" Harrow, Right or Left Side Harrow, Straight Harrow or Rake. . . . .

It thoroughly turns and pulverizes the earth its full width, up to 33 inches.

It does good work in rough new ground, the teeth are of best implement spring steel, and will trip over roots and stumps.

It is the best Orchard Cultivator in use.

It is the best Cultivator for potatoes and truck generally.

It is the best Cultivator for cotton and corn.

It is cheap in price, easy to use and will last for years. See them at the store of your dealer or write to us about them.

You need them right now to prepare your land.

A Successful Institution.

We are glad to hear of the success of the Tyler Commercial College. This institution is managed by business men of business experience as well as experience in handling a commercial school. Their enrollment during the past month has increased more rapidly than perhaps that of any other school in the South. Our people realize the necessity of a thorough, practical course of shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping and telegraphy, such as this school is prepared to give by use of the Byrne Simplified Short hand, practical bookkeeping and its original methods of teaching typewriting and telegraphy.

Some merchants are able to do twice the business of others with the same capital invested, because of the system, energy and push they throw into their business. The same is true of Business Colleges; the methods, system, energy and push put into the Tyler Commercial College is enabling its students to finish thorough, practical courses in much less time and expense than has ever been accomplished by other schools. They maintain a well equipped employment bureau through which worthy graduates are placed in good paying positions free of charge.

Ambitious young men and women who are anxious to succeed should write the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, for their large free catalogue describing the work of this successful institution.

If you want the only good spring trip cotton and corn planter see D. K. Cason, he's got 'em.

Northern Settlers.

The industrial department of the Southern Pacific railway is working over time these days sending out literature and other data bearing upon the Northern settlers' convention to be held in Galveston next April. This meeting is certainly being advertised throughout the North and East, and if a great crowd fails to show up there is going to be considerable disappointment. While the convention is going to be held in Galveston, special arrangements will be made by which the visitors will be enabled to take in Houston as well as other points in the state. All the great lines are co-operating in this affair, and the Texas heads of each will see to it that no section of the State is discriminated against in the matter of rates and stop over privileges.—Houston Post.

It would be a good idea for the business league, or real estate men to have a representative to go to Galveston and extend the visitors an invitation to visit Nacogdoches, the tobacco center of the South. The visitors while in Texas will make trips to different points, and if we go at it in the right way there is no reason why we should not get a good crowd to pay us a visit. We have a great country and it has been demonstrated beyond all possibility of doubt, that the lands around Nacogdoches are the finest tobacco lands in the country.

I am in the market for all kinds of country produce. Also hides, furs and beeswax, and will pay cash for anything that is worth buying.

M. G. Hazle.
