WANTS IT BAD.

Del Rio, Texas.—The following is the first paragraph of an editorial from a recent issue of the Beaumont Enterprise:

Hon. S. B. Cooper, candidate for congress from this district, is home for the day to see his family and is off again to meet the people, tell them of his twelve years' record in congress and answer any questions that may be propounded to him by the voters who have heard his record discussed. Mr. Cooper has been almost continually on the go for the past month and will keep the work up for another month, speaking in every county in the district and at as many different points as possible.

My! but don't Cooper want it bad this time? Only a few years back he was too dignified to do the scrambling act, but he is hungry for it now, and I guess he will get down to a house to house canvass before the thing is over. A few years ago he ignored the press gang to a freeze out, but I see he has put some of them mighty busy this time, some how or some how else.

John Henry Kirby has been "fiddling" in our politics in the 2nd district ever since Cooper was incubated as a congressional possibility, but this is the first time he has actually "gathered the gourd under his chin" to coax the convocation to the Cooper column. It seems awful hard for Kirby to get rid of that debt to Cooper for taking him in as an office boy long time ago.

I have read the Cooper literature; at least a good deal of it, and about all I can make out of it is that all roads have heretofore led to Beaumont, and must in the future lead to Beaumont, or there will be the devil to pay when it comes time to elect a congressman. Haltom.

WAREHOUSE FOR TIMPSON.

Hardy Dial Returns from His Trip and Reports Results.

Saturday was a red letter day for the Farmers' Union in Timpson. Hardy Dial met with the Union of Timpson on that day and explained the plan of the Union warehouses over the state. The matter was placed before a committee of the Union and the result was that a warehouse company was organized, and the application for a charter was forwarded by Mr. Dial to Secretary of State.

The application calls for $5,000 capital stock, and at the meeting Saturday one-half of the stock was subscribed and over ten per cent of the amount paid in. The directors of the Timpson Farmers' Union Warehouse Company, for the first year are as follows:

H. C. Ritnour, T. A. Pass, J. R. Lemmons, W. A. McKinney, W. A. Baker, Dan Stephenson, Hardy Smith, John I. Shepherd, and L. N. Crawford.

M. L. BROOKS' REPLY TO THE UNSIGNED CIRCULAR.

Tell the Whole Truth—Don't Distort the Record.

To the People of the Second Congressional District:

Before the primaries, I hope to mail to every voter in the District a letter in answer to one dated April 19, 1906, which was written by the Hon. S. B. Cooper, my opponent for the Democratic nomination for Congress, and sent to the voters throughout the District in the interest of his candidacy.

It is my purpose to make answer herein only to certain attacks made, presumably, by Mr. Cooper upon my record as a member of the 23rd Legislature of Texas, and sent out to the voters of the District in pamphlet form, the latter being unsigned. Some of the charges embraced in said unsigned pamphlets are true and others are untrue. In one of these pamphlets the following statement appears to wit: "Congressman Brooks, when a member of the State Legislature, voted against separate waiting rooms for whites and negroes in passenger depots. See House Journal 23rd Legislature, page 680. At that time there was no primary elections in East Texas and the negro vote counted as much as any one's. The negroes voted last year in the Democratic Primary in Mr. Brooks' home county San Augustine and voted solidly against S. B. Cooper." The foregoing statement is only half the truth and is worse than false and the man who made it knew it was a flagrant misrepresentation when he did so, and he made it with the deliberate intention of prejudicing the people against me and in the hope, as I believe, that the effect of the deception could not be counteracted before the Primaries on the 28th day of next July, and that it would lead to my defeat for renomination to Congress.

It is true that a law providing for separate waiting rooms in passenger depots for white people and negroes was up for consideration during the session of the 23rd legislature of which I was a member. When this bill was called up for engrossment the ayes and nays were demanded. Forty-one members voted for the engrossment of the bill, and eight members, including myself, voted against engrossment. After the vote on engrossment was taken, and on the same day it was taken, a motion was made to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to engross the bill and the motion to reconsider prevailed by a vote of sixty-seven ayes to twenty-two nays. Twenty-one members, including myself, who had voted against the engrossment of the bill, voted to reconsider, and thus supported the bill and brought it to its original status before the House. So my action not really in support of an was against the bill. I do not now remember why we at first voted against the engrossment of the measure, unless we failed to fully understand it when the vote on its engrossment was taken. It has been more than thirteen years since this matter was acted upon and my memory is not clear as to the details of the action had upon it, save to the extent it has been refreshed by reference to the House Journal of the 23rd Legislature. I see by the Record that when the subsequent votes, after reconsideration and reinstatement of the bill, were taken, I was not present. I do not remember why I was not, it having been a long time as aforesaid since the matter was considered. I wish to say emphatically, however, that I was not absent for the purpose of avoiding a vote upon the bill. I never dodged the responsibility of a vote upon any measure in my life. It is made certain by the record that I did not vote against separate waiting rooms for white people and negroes as the author of the unsigned pamphlet aforesaid charged me with having done. On the contrary I favored the bill, as my vote to reconsider as hereinbefore explained, clearly shows.

If the gentleman who prepared and circulated the unsigned pamphlet bearing this and other charges against my record in the 23rd Legislature had wished to act fairly and honestly with the people of the District and with me, he could not have failed to call the people's attention to the whole record upon this bill. He saw fit, however, to refer you to one vote of mine only in connection herewith, and I now, respectfully, call your attention to another, which is shown on page 683 of the House Journal of the 23rd Legislature, only three pages following the reference made in the unsigned pamphlet to my vote against the engrossment of the bill. Thus you will readily see that the author and circulator of the unsigned pamphlet, by calling your attention to one of the votes cast by me upon this measure and by his omitting, purposely to call your attention to the other vote immediately following has designedly misrepresented to you my attitude upon a very important public question. The following are the names of some of the gentlemen of the 23rd Legislature who voted exactly as I did upon the engrossment of the separate waiting-room bill, to wit: Congressman Jack Beall of Ellis county, Congressman James L. Slayden of Bexar county, Hon. Travis Dashiell of Leon county, who was elected speaker of the House of Representatives of the 24th Legislature, Hon. John King of Ellis county, who has since been Assistant Attorney General of the State, Hon. John D. Rudd of Harris county, Hon. W. J. Townsend of Angelina county, Hon. W. W. Turney of El Paso county, who has since served as a member of the State Senate, Hon. B. F. Rogers of Anderson county and Hon. James Feagan of Polk county. Besides these are many other distinguished members of that Legislature who acted with us. It can be safely said that not one of these gentlemen was opposed to separate waiting rooms for white people and negroes and that each stood ready to aid in the enactment of a law requiring the railroads to furnish the same, if it required the enactment of such a law to obtain separate waiting rooms. Up to the present time there is no law upon this subject, but the railroad companies have voluntarily prepared separate waiting rooms.

The law requiring the railroads to furnish separate coaches for white and colored people is, of course, a different thing. This law was passed by the 22nd Legislature of which I was not a member.

The author of the unsigned pamphlet, if I am not mistaken as to his identity, and I do not think I am, knew full well, when he brought forth this charge against me, that I have always been in favor, not only of separate coaches for white and colored people, but in favor of separate waiting rooms as well. It may be that I never told him so, but he knows me too well, generally speaking, to even doubt that I always favored separate accommodations for members of the two races in both particulars. If he did not know it, then he may well know it now, for such is absolutely true.

In connection with the false assertion contained in the unsigned pamphlet that I voted against separate waiting rooms for whites and negroes, it is also asserted that the negroes voted last year in the primaries in my home county of San Augustine, and voted solidly against S. B. Cooper. It is a fact that some of them voted in my county in the last Democratic primaries, and I think it is also a fact that the most of them who voted cast their votes for me and I appreciate their votes too as much as Mr. Cooper doubtless appreciated the votes of the negroes in Hardin County. I beg to state however, that I did not in any way whatever, participate in preparing the rules governing our last primary elections in my home county being absent from home at the time engaged in my canvass. I am sure every member of our executive committee of that time will bear me out in this assertion. Neither have I in any way had anything to do with the action of the present executive committee of my county in reference to the coming primary, being in Washington at the time. I never try to play the role of dictator, but I am in favor of leaving every officer free to exercise the legitimate functions of his own office. San Augustine county's Democratic Executive Committee, every member of which is a high toned gentleman, prescribed the rules within the law, governing primaries in my home county.

The author of the unsigned pamphlet, hereinbefore referred to, failed to call your attention to the fact that negroes were admitted into the Democratic primaries of Hardin county in 1904, and that they voted solidly, so far as I am advised, against me.

Does it not therefore seem extremely inconsistent for the author of this unsigned pamphlet to complain of what happened in my favor on one hand, and fail to mention a similar thing which happened in favor of my opponent, the Hon. S. B. Cooper, upon the other. He seems perfectly content throughout all the references to my course and matters concerning me in his unsigned pamphlet, with telling you half of the truth only. Would it not be more manly in him to give you the whole truth in every instance? My abiding faith in your sense of fairness and justice leads me to the conclusion that your answer to this question, if given, would be in the affirmative.

Again, since the author of this unsigned pamphlet raises the race question, he should call upon Mr. Cooper to explain this circumstance. Mr. Cooper, I am informed, was appointed by President Cleveland in 1885, Internal Revenue Collector, with his office at Galveston. He found Joseph Cuney, the brother of the negro Republican boss, Wright Cuney, a clerk in the office at a salary of $1400.00 per annum. Mr. Cooper retained Joseph Cuney as a clerk under him for quite four months or more before he applied for Cuney's removal, the application to remove coming in after a storm of public criticism, as I am informed. If there is ground for criticism on the race question of either of us to whom should it apply?

MY LABOR RECORD.

The author of the unsigned pamphlet, so full of wilful unfairness seeking to create prejudice against me among organized labor, makes the following further statements:

1. "Mr. Brooks voted against a bill to be entitled an act to protect employees and guarantee their rights to belong to labor organizations, and to provide penalties and punishments against persons and corporations and violations of this act. See page 862, House Journal 23rd Legislature."

2. "Mr. Brooks voted against a bill to create a Board of Arbitration to settle disputes between employers and employee. See page 1188 House Journal 23rd Legislature."

3. "Mr. Brooks against a bill to create a Bureau of Labor and Labor Statistics. See page 636, House Journal 23rd Legislature."

These measures are all upon proper subjects and judging from the name or captions alone, they had worthy purposes, and I should now support any measure, with proper provisions, with such worthy purposes in view, if the purposes were not already in some way accomplished.

But who knows what these measures were in their detail? The public knows the names of them alone from this unsigned pamphlet. Any one with legislative experience certainly knows that one must see and know the bill itself, with its provisions, to tell whether or not it is worthy of support; and that a measure, very bad and extreme in its details, may be framed on the most worthy subjects. The pamphlet does not seek to inform the public of the provisions of these bills. This would have been too fair to subserve the mean purpose intended.

It is deception and unfairness merely to point out to you the name of the title of a bill that was offered thirteen years ago and say that a man voted for or against it, without informing you of the provisions and the conditions existing at the time.

So far as I have been able to ascertain, the facts from the House Journal of the Twenty-Third Legislature, they are as follows:

The first statement quoted above and marked (1) was intended to convey the impression that the record disclosed that I voted against that bill.

This is a deception. The record does not show on page 362 as the statement alleges, or elsewhere, that I voted against the first measure, but shows on page 362 that I voted against suspending the constitutional rule, which vote the author of this pamphlet certainly must know, does not necessarily mean opposition to a bill; such vote being cast frequently to prevent hasty action. The House Journal fails to disclose how I, or any other member voted on this particular measure, either on engrossment or final passage, the vote being taken viva voce, and there being no record of those votes. I have no affirmative recollection how I voted on this measure, and the record does not disclose. However, if I did vote against that particular bill, I feel sure that it was not on account of any unfriendliness to the purpose indicated in the title (which was a good one) but on account of the provisions of the bill itself, which was very extreme. Judge for yourself. A copy as it appears in the House Journal is set out below, and marked "Exhibit A", from which you will perceive that the practical operation of the bill would have been to make it a crime, punishable by a very heavy fine, to discharge an employee who belonged to a labor organization; and, whether justifiable or not, the under employers intent such a law would have always been a subject of serious question and subjected him to probable prosecution.

EXHIBIT "A."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, That if any person shall by means of threats to discharge, or by discharging, from employment in the services of himself, or of any other person, or of any corporation, wilfully prevent or attempt to prevent any employee from joining or belonging to any labor organization, or shall by any other means wilfully coerce any such employee for the purpose of preventing such employee from joining or belonging to any labor organization, shall be punished by fine of not less than $200 and not more than $500.

Section 2. If any railroad or telegraph company, or other corporation, shall by means of threats to discharge, or by discharging, from employment any employee in its service, wilfully prevent or attempt to prevent such employee from joining or belonging to any labor organization, or shall by any other means wilfully coerce any such employee for the purpose of preventing such employee from joining or belonging to any labor organization, shall for each and every such act forfeit to the State a penalty of five hundred dollars, and the same may be recovered by suit in any court having jurisdiction, instituted in the name of the State by the Attorney General or district or county attorney. And any such suit may be instituted in the county where such unlawful act was committed or in which such corporation may have an office or an agent.

This measure went to the Senate; there was a favorable report by the Senate Committee, dated April 20th, 1893, recommending an amendment to punish members of labor organizations for interfering with others seeking employment from corporations. The bill died on the calendar in the Senate without further action. No such measure was ever before or has ever since been enacted into law, and was probably never on any other occasion introduced in the Legislature. I feel certain that my honorable opponent, though in the 17th and 18th Legislature, never sought to enact such legislation.

As to the second measure, providing for a Board of Arbitration to settle disputes between labor and capital, it appears that 35 members of the House, including myself, did vote against the measure. Why, I cannot now say, as I have been unable to get a copy of the bill as it appeared in the House, and have no affirmative recollection on the subject. I can only say that my vote on the subject represented my honest convictions then; yet I am free to say that if the bill was proper in its details and provisions, (which no one can tell without an examination of the bill itself), I was in error in opposing it as the matter now presents itself to my mind. The principles involved in the bill to settle labor disputes by arbitration was a correct one, and one, I have long indorsed, and heartily favor, and no one would more zealously and readily than I support a proper measure, with fair and reasonable provisions, looking toward that end.

As to the third measure, so far as I can gain information from the House Journal, it appears to have had a good name and title, but not to have been otherwise specially deserving. I did vote against this bill to create a Bureau of Labor and Labor Statistics, which provided for the appointment of a Commissioner of Labor at a salary of Two Thousand Dollars per annum; with a Secretary at a salary of Fifteen Hundred Dollars per annum; which was a useless bureau, and a useless expense as the purposes proposed by this bill were largely already being carried out by the commissioner of Agriculture, Insurance, Statistics and History, and any additional duties prescribed by it should have referred to that department already in existence. The bill failed of passage in a Democratic legislature, doubtless upon considerations suggested above. No such

HARDIN COUNTY TEST NOT SOUGHT BY DIES

HARDIN COUNTY CANDIDATES FAVORS WHITE PRIMARIES.

Judge Dies Disclaims Any Connection With the Matter and Says He Stood Out for White Man's Test.

Advertisement.

Hon. W. W. Dies of Kountze, candidate for state senator from the Fourteenth senatorial district of Texas, is spending the day in the city. In conversation with a representative of this paper, he outlined his views on public matters and emphasized the statement that his views and expression with reference to the test adopted in Hardin county for participation in the democratic primaries had been placed in a false light before the people.

"In speaking along these lines, he said:

"With respect to the Hardin county test, my position has been designedly misrepresented. I was and am in favor of a white man's democratic primary. And I believe that the man who votes in the democratic primary should be a democrat. We are a minority party. We must have recruits from the other political parties, but need and should encourage only such accessions to the ranks as have become genuine converts to the cause of democracy. I have never been accused of being a stoddler or a trimmer. I am willing for all the people to know my views at all times. I advocated a white man's primary for Hardin county until assured by the committee that no such test could be prescribed, and then I sought to accomplish the same result by suggesting that each voter pledge himself to support the national as well as the state and county democratic ticket.

"My political enemies have seized the opportunity to misrepresent my views and injure my cause. To the negroes they proclaim that I favored a white man's primary, and to the democratic voters they assert that I advocate an open test. Since the negroes are to vote in the primaries in several counties in the district, I hope to get my share of their ballots, but I shall solicit their support upon the distinct understanding that I favor a blanket primary with a uniform test which will exclude from the counsels of democracy all but white democrats. The Terrell education law is sorely in need of amendment along this and other lines, and, if elected, I shall take pleasure in helping to make the change.

"Space forbids me to discuss at length my views upon all public questions, but I hope to be able to meet the people of the district and give them the benefit of my views in full during the progress of the campaign.

"I believe that public honesty is the crying need of the hour. No free government can long exist without the confidence of the people in those who make and execute the laws. Every student of history must look upon the tendency of the times with a feeling of dread for the future of this republic. Every voter should go to the polls determined to constitute himself a committee of one for the purpose of stamping out graft and civic vice.

"The people are long suffering and slow to anger, but once they lose all confidence in their public servants, they will become harsh and terrible masters.

"I believe in a 'square deal,' and to this end I would abolish the wholesale issuance of free passes by railroad companies. And especially should they be forbidden to give free rides to those who make and execute the laws.

"I believe in the repeal of the occupation tax on useful and necessary occupations.

"The question of equalizing taxation for the support of the state government has grown to be a question of the greatest importance. The constitution makes the commissioners' court of each county, a board of equalization to fix the value of all property to be taxed for state and county purposes. As a result, the wealthy county that is free of debt places a low valuation upon its property because the needs of the county are not great. Hence the state gets but little from such counties. The county that is poor and in debt must place a high valuation upon its property in order to get sufficient revenue for county purposes. As a result, those least able to pay are compelled to contribute most to the support of the state government. Our constitution should be so amended that the commissioners' court of the several counties are empowered to value the property of their county for county purposes only, and there should be created state or district equalizing boards whose duty it shall be to see that purposes of state taxation. Under such a system, fairly administered, the rate of taxation for state purposes could be cut in half, and equal and exact justice be done to all."—Beaumont Journal.

Ambitious Young Man or Woman.

You'll find plenty of old logies who claim that every young man or woman ought to have a business or literary education of some kind or other.

We know better. You know better.

There's precisely one kind of an education you can afford to consider and that is one that will serve you.

That is the best education you can find. Thus building the foundation on which a man's whole life career depends is worth taking pains with. It points to failure, or mediocrity, or to success.

LITERARY COURSE.

The usual work in the primary and preparatory department—Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Language Lessons, Geography, History of Texas, etc., will be given.

SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING.

No man or woman, in whatever walk of life, will ever find knowledge of shorthand and typewriting amiss. About every business concern employs a stenographer. The demand is keen for office stenographers and the pay is liberal. The field open to the expert writer is broad and inviting and very highly remunerative.

We teach the Pitman and Shorthand system—the recognized systems of the world.

The time for a complete course is from four to six months. The tuition, including typewriting, is $40.00 for a scholarship.

A scholarship allows the holder to re-enter the college and review the course any time afterward.

BOOKKEEPING.

Branches taught in the business course are: Jobbing business, wholesale grocery, wood and coal, flour, business, hay and grain, hardware, retail and wholesale lumber produce and provision business, commission business, dry goods business, banking, rapid calculations, business arithmetic, actual business practice, commercial law, business correspondence, practical grammar, penmanship and spelling.

Anyone well versed in English branches, may, by applying themselves, finish in three months time. This is not usual, though.

Time required by the averages pupil varies from four to six months.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution Relating to Certain Exemptions from Taxation.

JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section 2 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to certain exemptions from Taxation.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 2, of Article VIII, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be so amended that the same shall read as follows, to-wit:

"All occupation taxes shall be equal and uniform upon the same class of subjects within the limits of the authority levying the tax; but the Legislature may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes; actual places of religious worship; places of burial not held for private or corporate profit; all buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes and the necessary furniture of all schools, also the endowment funds of such institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been and shall hereafter be bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages; that such exemption of such land and property shall continue only for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer, and institutions of purely public charity; and all laws exempting property from taxation other than the property above mentioned shall be null and void."

Section 2. The governor of the State shall and he is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at the next general election for State and County officers.

Section 3. The qualified electors for members of the Legislature of the State of Texas shall vote upon this amendment on the day of —, at which election all persons favoring said amendment shall have written or printed on the ballot as follows: "For amendment to section 2, Article 8 of the Constitution exempting from taxation endowment funds used exclusively for school purposes." And those opposed to said amendment shall have written or printed on the ballot as follows: "Against amendment to Section 2, Article 8, of the Constitution exempting from taxation endowment funds used exclusively for school purposes."

Section 4. The sum of $5000 or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication, proclamation and election.

Legislature, so that the said Section shall read as follows:

Sec. 24. The members of the Legislature shall receive from the public treasury such compensation for their services as may from time to time be provided by law, not exceeding one thousand dollars for the year succeeding their election, payable in equal installments, on the first days of January, February, March and April of the year succeeding their election, and five dollars per day for each day of every special session held during the second year of the term for which said members shall be elected. In addition to said compensation the members of each house shall be entitled to mileage going to and returning to the seat of government, which mileage shall not exceed three cents per mile, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel by land, regardless of railroads or water routes; and the Comptroller of the State shall prepare and preserve a table of distances to each county seat, now or hereafter to be established, and by said table the mileage of each member shall be paid; but no member shall be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after the adjournment of any regular or called session. It shall be unlawful for any member of the Legislature during his term of office to accept any free transportation over any railway line or lines in this State, and any member of the Legislature violating the provisions of this Act prohibiting the acceptance of free transportation shall forfeit the office to which he has been elected. And it shall be unlawful for any of such members to accept, receive, have, use or enjoy, directly or indirectly, for themselves or any other person, any free pass, frank, rebate, privilege or advantage not accorded to the general public from any railroad company, telegraph company, telephone company, sleeping car company, or other corporation, or any persons, firm or corporations acting as a common carrier in this State. Any member of the Legislature violating this provision shall forfeit his office. And the necessary laws shall be enacted to carry out the provisions of this Article.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution Authorizing the Levy of a Tax to Pay Jurors.

JOINT RESOLUTION amending Section 9, of Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for the levying of a tax of not exceeding fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, to pay jurors.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: That Section 9, of Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 9. The State tax on property, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed thirty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation; and no county, city or town shall levy more than twenty-five cents for city or county purposes, and not exceeding fifteen teen cents for road and bridges, and not exceeding fifteen cents to pay jurors, on the one hundred dollars valuation, except for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the amendment September 25th, 1883, and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, water works and other permanent improvements, not to exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, in any one year, and except as in this Constitution otherwise provided; and the Legislature may also authorize an additional annual ad valorem tax to be levied and collected for the further maintenance of the public roads; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, not to exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such county. And the Legislature may pass local laws for the maintenance of the public roads and highways, without the local notice required for special or local laws.

Sec. 2. The governor is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for submitting this amendment to the Constitution to the qualified voters of the State of Texas, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1906, at which election all voters favoring this amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots, "For the amendment to authorize the levy of a tax to pay jurors." The voters opposed to this amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots, "Against the amendment to authorize the levy of a tax to pay jurors."

At Smith's Chapel.

Very flattering reports come from those who attended the picnic at Smith's Chapel yesterday. A light rain fell directly after dinner but not until every body had eaten all they wanted and perhaps a bit more for they say "it was simply a grand good, dinner those ladies had prepared" to good to stop eating at the right time. Most of the candidates were there and speeches were demanded, as it were, from all of them and each responded with brief talks full of wit built on a logical foundation of reason and views concerning the office for which they aspire.

Shooting Saturday Night.

Sheriff Buckner made a raid on a gambling tent near Lanana Saturday night, and has in the county jail this morning seven of the knights of the green cloth. One white man, a Mexican, and five negroes.

The sheriff was accompanied by Deputy Will Stone. When they arrived at the place where the men were gambling they discovered that there were about thirty in the bunch. The officers approached and commanded the men not to run that if any attempted to do so that some one would get shot. One negro, Arthur Mason, decided to try the running act, and as he started to run Sheriff Buckner sprinkled him with a load of shot from a shot gun, this brought the negro to a standstill and he returned to the officers.

The officers started with the men, but in passing stacks of lumber they would drop off and hide. The following are the prisoners in the jail this morning charged with gambling.

Henry Johnson, Andrew Arrearo, John Waller, Jim Caton, Gip Hoad, Arthur Mason, and a white man named C. A. Lasper.

The wounded negro is doing well as his wounds are slight.

The officers say that they have the names of the other men and that it will be only a matter of a few days before the entire lot are arrested.

With bumper crops and the farmers of Nacogdoches virtually swimming in prosperity, there is no reason why the county should not build a new court house. The present old "bat roost" is too small, and from a sanitary view point is totally unfit for men to stay in. Then, too, the jail is not a safe place for prisoners and the grand jury has recommended that a better place be provided for the safekeeping of prisoners. Every citizen in the county should be interested in good public buildings, and especially those who have to spend court as jurors.

PRaise for a Famous Medicine

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words."

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, I became regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day."

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of an organ, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

For 25 years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction, and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

MUST KILL THE MOSQUITOES.

If the Safe Is to Be Assured Immunity From Fever.

Austin, Texas, June 28.—State Health Officer George R. Tabor has issued the following:

To all Texas Health Officers:—Austin, Texas, June 27.—I am sending to you today the most excellent paper, prepared by the city health officer of Galveston, on "Mosquito Extirmination" and a paper on "General Information for the Prevention of Yellow Fever Epidemics and Destruction of Mosquitoes," issued by this department, with the urgent request that you put them before your citizens and endeavor to secure their immediate co-operation in sanitary matters and especially for the destruction of mosquitoes and the prevention of their breeding.

Yellow fever now prevails in almost all the tropical countries. Cases are being stopped at the quarantine stations on the gulf coast and great danger exists of some cases getting into the United States. Should a case enter any place in Texas, let us be in condition to take care of it without danger of others resulting therefrom. Accomplish the destruction, completely, of the yellow fever mosquitoes and you need not fear an epidemic and you will also remove the necessity of a quarantine.

Texas was free of fever last year. Let us keep it free this year—and every other year. It can be done. It is so much easier to keep it out by preventive sanitary measures than to stamp it out after it gets into an insanitary community.

Now is the time for every citizen to do his duty. Get your people interested. Don't read this and throw it aside. Remember what one single case of yellow fever means to a Texas city or town.

Remember also, no mosquitoes, no yellow fever, no quarantine.

I earnestly beg the co-operation of every man, woman and child in Texas. George R. Tabor, State Health Officer.

T. J. SMITH

measure has ever since been enacted although six Democratic Legislatures have since convened.

There is no more reason to censure or condemn a member of the Legislature for voting against a measure with merely a good name and title, than there is to censure a juror for convicting a man who bears the good and worthy name of Washington, regardless of the facts in the case and the surrounding conditions.

This all occurred over 13 years ago. That I may have made mistakes I freely admit. Further, that I was in error in voting against the Board of Arbitration measure, provided its details and provisions were reasonable, I freely admit.

Further, it must be borne in mind that labor problems and questions at that date were not developed in this state as they are now. That I was then like most other people in this State, poorly informed on these subjects is freely admitted. It is doubtful if any man in Texas at that date was as well informed on labor problems as now.

Labor questions have developed in this State, in the main, within the last ten years, that I wish to state that what mistakes I may have made on these or on any other subjects were honestly made. I am grateful of the consciousness that I have never in public life done what appeared to me at the time to have been wrong, yet I have frequently, both in public and private life, done those things that afterwards appeared to me to be errors. Am I alone in this?

The living question now is; what are my present convictions on the subject of the rights of organized labor?

Not what my mistakes may have been over thirteen years ago.

I believe in the right of labor to organize, and to be protected in all proper ways in its organizations. I believe in the principle of arbitration of disputes between labor and capital, and have for years so believed, and would support any proper measure looking to that end.

That my friendship for labor at present does not consist merely in words, I refer you to my action in the present session of Congress, on several subjects affecting labor, as follows:

(1) I voted for a bill affecting the rights of employees of railroads, which modifies the defense of contributory negligence, so that such employees, if they have worthy claims for injuries, even though there be slight contributory negligence, may recover. Under this measure slight contributory negligence is not a complete defense by the corporation, but only constitutes a question of lessening the damages.

(2) I also gave to the minority Democratic Leader, the Honorable John Sharp Williams, my hearty co-operation in his efforts to extend the eight hour law to the Government work on the Panama Canal.

(3) There was pending before the House, when I left Congress a few days since, a measure known as the "Littlefield Anti-Pilotage Bill," which was opposed by some of the representatives of organized labor, as I am informed, in that District. I opposed this measure, and left with a friend of mine an arrangement to pair me against the bill.

One word before concluding this subject. Without vanity, I think I can state that until I was 23 or 24 years of age, I did as much hard manual labor as is given to the average farmer boy to do; perhaps more than the average. Certainly my whole education, experience, training and a sociation would incline me to sympathize with any proper and honest efforts of labor to protect its rights; and if I know my own heart and intention it is my purpose in public life to accord to labor every right to which it is justly and fairly entitled.

THE HOGG MEASURES.

I frankly confess to having cast some votes while a member of the 23rd Legislature against some very wholesome measures which were advocated by the late Governor James S. Hogg, who in my judgment was a great man and whose memory I revere. Among these measures was the Stock and Bond law, and the Alien Land Law. My opponent from every stump upon which I met him during our campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress in 1904, called attention to my vote upon the Stock and Bond law, and I answered him then as I now answer the same criticism, that I made a mistake in voting against this law, and one which I deeply regretted long before I had any idea of becoming a candidate for Congress. My vote was a thoroughly conscientious one, and I think it was in response to the will of the people whom I then represented. I then thought that this and some of the other measures advocated by the lamented Gov. Hogg, if enacted into law, would frighten capital then looking to Texas for investment, and retard for many years the development of our State. I was firm in the opinion that the Stock and Bond law would stop railroad building in Texas for many years to come after its enactment. Eastern Texas had, up to that time, been almost left out of the railroad world. Not a county of the District I represented in the 23rd Legislature, was then touched by a railroad, and the people longed for railroads as they did for nothing else in a material way. The people of Eastern Texas had contributed in as large a degree men who fought for the independence of the Republic as any other section of the State. The immense acreage of land which was a common heritage to the people of all parts of the State, years before had been freely given by the State government to railroad corporations to secure the building of lines of railway through other parts of the State. The extreme part of East Texas had gotten none of the benefits before this policy of the government had been suspended. I do not complain of the suspension of the policy because it was right in my judgment. But, as suggested above, when this Stock and Bond law was being discussed, East Texas had been practically left out of the railroad world. I with many others thought its enactment would long deter the building of additional railroads in the State, and for this reason I opposed the bill. Happily it to become a law, and its effect has been agreeably disappointing to me, except for a brief period after its enactment. Instead of its having discouraged, I rather think it has encouraged the building of railroads. In one instance only, has my attention been called to its adverse effect on railroad building in the State, and that was shortly after its enactment. I was informed by a gentleman who was then upon confidential relations with the Kansas City Southern Road, which runs from Kansas City, Missouri, to Port Arthur, Texas, that they kept out of as much of Texas as they could in reaching Port Arthur, on account of their fear of our laws relating to railroads, but that after getting better acquainted with our laws those same parties regretted that they had not come down the west side of the Sabine River after reaching the State line, coming south from Shreveport, La. I am not only now a strong believer in the wisdom of this law, but also of the Alien Land law, and some others the enactment of which I opposed.

The Hogg-Clark campaign occurred 14 years ago. Its issues are with the past. I with thousands of others sup-

MR. COMMON SENSE.

EVERYWHERE, U. S. A.

DEAR SIR: If your neighbor sells you a horse, giving you the privilege of a thorough trial, agreeing to take him back if he is not entirely satisfactory in every respect, you are bound to know two things:

1st. That he believes the horse is all right.

2nd. That his intention is to give you a square deal.

That is exactly the way we are selling our goods.

We don't want your money unless you are pleased.

We believe that we can please you, or we wouldn't make that offer, but the decision rests entirely with you.

REGISTERED DISTILLERY NO. 7, FIFTH DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY and the CLERMONT DISTILLERY OF WARREN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, are the main sources from which our goods come and we are on the "ground floor" in our business.

When you get ready to buy, think over our proposition before placing the order.

Very truly yours, ported Clark; this fact I do not see it to. Oh hold, I too with thousands have changed my views on some of the vital questions then involved; and my change was long prior to my race for Congress. Am I to be judged by my present views and acts or by those of the far gone past on these important subjects?

This man who attacks me in the unsigned pamphlet seeks to create sentiment against me for my views and acts years ago. Is this fair? When I was supporting Bryan in 1896 on the stump, Mr. Cooper's good friend Mr. Kirby was opposing Bryan on the stump, and I had the honor on one occasion to answer Mr. Kirby who was supporting McKinley and I supporting Bryan. (Some citizens of Silsbee will doubtless remember this). The Democratic party has forgiven Mr. Kirby for his opposition to the Hogg measures in 1892 and for his opposition to Bryan and Democracy in 1896, and has shown its confidence in Mr. Kirby's democracy by electing him Chairman of the San Antonio convention in 1904, and doubtless Mr. Cooper approves this treatment of Mr. Kirby, yet it is sought to have me condemned for what I did in 1892 and 1893, although my conduct and work have shown my devotion to Democracy as announced in every party platform since 1893.

I submit my cause to that sense of fairness which will ever assert itself in the great mass of common people. I appeal from the deception, misrepresentation and unfairness contained in this unmanly pamphlet that tells only half the truth, to that love of the full and whole truth which rests in every human heart.

Yours respectfully,
M. L. BROOKS.

STATE TOPICS says "there are many reasons why Mr. Colquitt should be elected governor of Texas." There maybe, but there is one reason why he should not be elected governor of Texas that caps them all, and that is his total unfitness for the place. He is too erratic impulsive and for the position he now holds. What would he be placed in the exalted seat of governor of Texas?

THE FARMERS' Union has taken hold of the cotton warehouse proposition and it is the intention of the Union to have the house in operation in time for the cotton season. This fall. The venture will prove a profitable one and every stockholder will be proud of the investment. Now, after the Union has tried the warehouse for a few seasons, The Sentinel hopes they will take up the matter of a cotton mill. A cotton mill in Nacogdoches would be a good investment; other sections where cotton mills are located report that the mills are making money and are declaring good looking dividends.

For Twenty Years.

Other chill remedies have sprung up, flourished for a brief season, then passed away—even from memory—but twenty long years Cheat-ham's Chill Tonic has been in the field of action. The reason is simple. It has merit. It actually cures Chills and Fevers while the majority of others merely promise to. One bottle guaranteed to cure any one case. w Strayed.

One sorrel mare 4 years old, blazed face, both hind feet white, fore top been clipped out; medium size. Left my place March 8th, 1906. I will pay a reasonable reward for any information that will lead to recovery of said animal.

THE NEW TOWN OF WODEN

Although in its infancy it has one 25,000 capacity saw mill with three other saw mills of similar capacity adjacent thereto, all putting out the cut of their mill there. These mills are working a large number of men.

Mr. Frank Lindwell has bought property upon which to erect a large planing mill.

Woden is the terminus of the Nacogdoches & South-eastern Railroad, having daily freight and passenger trains.

Woden has two general merchandise stores with two others in sight.

Woden has one of the best schools and school buildings in East Texas, having an independent school district.

Woden has a first-class physician and surgeon.

Woden has a good shingle mill.

Woden has twelve residences with others being erected.

Woden has two long distance telephones in operation.

That prince of good fellows, Hardy Dial, is erecting a commodious hotel and livery stable.

Woden has a progressive Woodmen lodge with an elegant hall.

Woden has fine farming lands—as is evidenced by the present good crops to back it up—as will be found anywhere.

Woden is bountifully supplied with as fine water as can be found on earth.

Woden is situated in the oil fields of Nacogdoches county and when this field is developed—which will be in the near future—promises to be a town of 5,000 population.

The town has been laid off in lots and blocks and are going fast. If you want a good investment—one which will be entirely safe with the promise of very large returns—you had better get busy and nail some of these lots.

Best of All.

R. J. Mayher, No. 466 South Clark St., Chicago, writes as follows:

"I have kept and used Hunt's Lightning Oil for the last ten years in my family. It is the only kind to have and the best of all.

It cures Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sprains, Aches, Pains, Stings and Bites. It kills Chiggers, too.

It's Fine.

C. M. Johnson, Louisville, Ky., writes:

"I have used your Hunt's Cure and it is fine."

We have many similar letters. Hunt's Cure is a strictly guaranteed remedy for any variety of skin diseases. It stops itching instantaneously.

J. R. Hobbs of Woden was in the city Saturday and paid The Sentinel a pleasant visit. He reports the prospects of a very fine corn crop, and that the cotton crop is looking good. The acreage in this part of the county is not as large as that of last year.

If you want to save $5.00 to $10.00 on a wagon and as much or more on a buggy, read Cason's ad and buy before July 20th.
