L. M. SHEPHERD DEAD

Will be Buried Tomorrow With Masonic Honors.

Mr. I. M. Shepherd, one of the most prominent and best known citizens of Nacogdoches county, died at his home in Garrison last night at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. Shepherd had been confined to his bed about eight days, and for several days before his death he was totally paralyzed and unconscious.

Though not unexpected, his death came as a great shock to his family and friends. Mr. Shepherd was about 54 years of age and leaves a wife and several children.

The exact cause of his death is not definitely known, and to determine this the family has decided, it is said, to have an autopsy made.

He will be buried in the family burial lot four miles from Garrison tomorrow and the casket will be carried at morning at 10 o'clock, when his body will be consigned to the dust with Masonic honors, under the auspices of Garrison lodge, of which Mr. Shepherd was an honored member.

To the Public.

We wish to announce to our friends and former patrons that we have sold our grocery business to G. W. Morris, who will continue the business at our old stand, and we ask for him the same liberal patronage and generous treatment that was accorded to us. We retained all unpaid accounts due the firm of King & Harris and will thank our friends if they will settle such bills as soon as possible. For the present we will keep our books at our old stand.

Thanking one and all for their kind and courteous treatment of us, we are,
Respectfully,
304 W. King & Harris

FARMERS' UNION BANK.

Significant Utterances of a Union Voter of Nacogdoches County
Man at Fort Worth Want no New Court House.

A special from Fort Worth, Texas, not exceeding 25 percent of the tax payers of Nacogdoches county, expressed their report of the state convention of the Farmers' Union now in session.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon John F. Garner of Winfield, chairman of the business agents committee, addressed the county agents at the parlors of the Mansion hotel. In his annual address, Chairman Garner advocated the purchase of heavy machinery and trust made goods by county business agents of the union through the state business agent but he strongly opposed any competition with the retail merchants of the state. He recommended the building of cotton warehouses and urged the formation of a real estate bureau.

One departure that attracted attention was his advocacy of the organization of a Farmers' Union bank. Mr. Garner said the farmers must transact business along business lines and to do this the union must have its own bank to enable the cotton growers to finance the cotton crop and to do it with cheap money. He was applauded by all and his recommendation appeared to be well received.

An "Inch" of Rain.

Few people have an adequate idea of the amount of water that descends from the clouds during a rain storm. We read in the weather bulletins that two or three inches of rain, sometimes fall in a day, and that in our last rainy spell nearly five inches fell in forty-eight hours. But these figures really convey very little information to our minds and give us no idea of all of the prodigality of nature.

An acre of ground, 4,840 square inches of surface, and an inch of rain means, therefore, the same number of cubic inches of water. A gallon contains 231 cubic inches of water, and an inch of rainfall means 22,022 gallons to the acre, and as a gallon of water weighs ten pounds, the rain on an acre is 220,220 pounds. Counting 2,000 pounds to the ton, an inch of rain means a down pour of about 220 tons of water on every city block. Globe Democrat.

Strayed.

When in need of spectacles properly fitted, see the optician, W. N. Burris, who is again at the Stone Fort bank, with a full line of goods.

BONDS DEFEATED.

Not exceeding 25 percent of the tax payers of Nacogdoches county expressed their opinion on the question of issuing $75,000 in bonds to build a new court house and jail.

Considering the importance of the question voted on, and the further fact that the people were asked to vote on six constitutional amendments at the same time, the vote was remarkably light.

The vote as far obtained is as follows:

Nacogdoches East Box	100
For bonds	34
Against bonds	66
Nacogdoches West Box	34
For bonds	18
Against bonds	16
Nacogdoches South Box	68

Chreno	34

Melroe	29

Unofficial reports have also been received from Douglass, Abilene, Shady Grove and Woden, but the exact vote at these boxes could not be obtained. No report has been received from Talbert and Etzels, but enough is known to justify the assertion that the bond issue has been defeated by perhaps 500 votes.

All the constitutional amendments were defeated in the county.

New Firm

Having bought out the firm of King & Harris, I will continue the business at the old stand, and on a strictly cash basis. The public is courteously invited to give me a trial and I will demonstrate to all that I am prepared to order some special bargains on all lines of groceries. I will pay highest market price for chickens, eggs, beeswax and other country produce. Thanking you in advance for your liberal patronage, I am yours to please.

When a fellow takes a bottle of "Bad" he may feel "Wiser;" but is he?

They have discovered a diamond mine in Pike county, Arkansas. The Texas Five Million club will have to get busy.

The Center News heads an item, "Two More Bricks," but it had no reference to "Garrison bricks" made of water at a nickel a brick.

A society item says that the first thing a woman requires when she takes up the study of art is a mirror. And the next thing is paint.

Our R. W. is almost a "heavy weight," or rather a hundred weight. He tips the beam at 98 pounds, about six of which he has gained since he came back from Del Rio.

The Clarksville Times asserts that the best way to kill the boll weevil is to kill him. Of course the Times has not forgotten the old custom of "catching before hanging."

There is more music in the song of the huckster selling his home raised vegetables than all the brass bands in Christendon. Still no town should be without a good brass band.

The Mount Enterprise Herald is a new candidate for public favor, and it starts out with a liberal patronage and strong evidence of newspaper ability. Reid & Shook are the publishers.

The Pleasanton News announces that cotton pickers are wanted in Atascosa county, and that the farmers need them badly. Nacogdoches county has none to spare. Everybody is busy.

A noted physician has asserted that a baby is worth one thousand dollars. The Sentinel has been careful to withhold this announcement until the equalization boards of finished their work.

The Cotnamer asserts that one of Mr. Rockefeller's near relatives says he lives in the clouds. It has long been known that the oil magnate owns most of the earth, but no one had suspected that he would lay claim to the clouds.

A woman in the New Orleans States declares that "hot biscuits are passing away." They have always passed away, especially when accompanied by Nacogdoches county ribbon-cane syrup and fresh country butter. Yum, yum; keep the hot biscuits passing.

The Sentinel is in receipt of the premium list of the fifth annual fair of the San Antonio International Fair association, to be held November 9 to 24, inclusive. Nearly $400 in premiums is offered in the goat department. Nacogdoches county goat raisers ought to "butt in" and secure all those prizes.

INTERESTING COMPARISON.

The Sentinel is in receipt of a card, a small blotter through the courtesy of its friend, C. C. Galloway of Dallas, which gives some interesting data on the price of ice in Dallas. On the enameled side of the blotter is a picture of a block of ice mounted on a pair of legs and labeled "25 lbs." Leading this figure is another with "one dime" for a head, indicating that the company whose advertisement the blotter represents, is selling 25 pounds of ice for 10 cents. On one end of the card is printed this statement in plain English: "Coupons 30¢ per 100 lbs., 100 lbs to book $1.20." What a contrast these prices are when compared with what the people of Nacogdoches have to pay for ice. Here we get, or are supposed to get, 6 pounds of ice for 5 cents, 12 pounds for a dime, and not one in twenty is given full weight at that price. One lady phoned The Sentinel today: "It is now 10 o'clock and we have had no ice since last night. The last 50 pounds we bought only weighed 36 pounds. Roast 'em some more." This is a common complaint, and notwithstanding the fact The Sentinel has roasted and roasted until everything in the shape of ice melts when it comes in contact with a copy of the paper, still the people are given no ground; to hope for relief from the Nacogdoches Ice company. But the relief will come from another source, and for the present we can only advise the suffering people to be patient just a little while.

The Timpson Times has handed State Press of Galveston Dallas News an East Texas tomato. In acknowledging receipt of the gift, State Press gives notice that while a few vegetables will be accepted occasionally, he draws the line at all kinds of bugs. It is evident that State Press is not acquainted with the East Texas ladybug. They were never known to bite, and they subsist only on green bugs.

The Nacogdoches Sentinel has a grievance against the ice man and is making it exceedingly hot for that individual. It appears that the Nacogdoches people have been getting bad treatment from the ice factory and The Sentinel has a kick coming—Center News.

The only bad treatment the people have received from the ice man is the small quantity he gives them for their money. There is no kick coming on the quality of the ice, but the quantity is something fierce. The people had a kick coming, and they turned the job over to The Sentinel. Hence, these tears. And they do say the "bricks" are getting bigger, though the ice man denies it.

The Beaumont Enterprise makes this pertinent comment on future conditions in Nacogdoches county: "That Nacogdoches county will next year increase its tobacco acreage and will enter upon peanut culture is good news for East Texas. The more diversification and the larger acreage the better. Tobacco and peanut culture, too, will lead to manufacturing in both lines."

Every newspaper writer in the state will be glad to know from a statement that gentleman has issued that Editor R. W. Haltom of Nacogdoches Sentinel is greatly improved in health. Haltom is a loveable man and his brethren of the craft will hail with delight this glad news of marked improvement in his health.—Austin Statesman.

This will be a memorable day in the history of Mississippi. The state democratic primaries are being held, which are to determine whether John Sharp Williams or James K. Vardaman shall be United States senator. On the eve of the election odds were in favor of Williams, though both men expect to win.

Several towns in Texas and Louisiana are complaining of a shortage of ice, and of the outrageous prices charged for what is offered. It's a great blessing to have plenty of ice at reasonable rates.—Lufkin Tribune.

Nacogdoches once enjoyed that blessing, and will enjoy it again or The Sentinel will make it so hot for those responsible for the present condition here that the water in the vicinity of the factory will refuse to congeal.

The Center News tells of the contract having been let for a one story brick building to be used and occupied exclusively by that paper and the Champion. In describing the building, the News says: "It will contain three rooms; a 'sanctum' for the pencil pusher, a composing room in the center of the building for the typesetting, with the press room in the rear on a concrete foundation." The Sentinel "pencil pushers" cannot resist the opportunity to offer congratulations to the News and Champion upon the arrangement of its office. It is an annoying and hazardous task for a newspaper man or woman to produce copy intelligently in the midst of all sorts of noises and the hum and whirr of machinery.

There is a young doctor in this town who has learned a lesson. Having taken a young lady to the theater, while the house was in semi-darkness she suddenly complained of feeling faint. The doctor took something out of his pocket and whispered to her to keep the "tablet" in her mouth, but not to swallow it. She did as she was told, and soon felt all right again. The tablet, however, showed no signs of dissolving, and in the end, being curious to discover what the tasteless, indissoluble substance—that had proved so efficacious could be she slipped the undiminished substance in her glove for future inspection. When she got home she took it out of her glove again and examined it. It was a bone trousers button!—Western Publisher.

Mrs. Sam Houston's Grave. Houston Post. Mrs. Houston, the wife of the greatest Texan, still lies in an unmarked grave near the old Baptist church at Independence, Texas.

The lot upon which she sleeps once belonged to Mrs. Houston's mother, Mrs. Lee. Negroes now live in the old house and the laughter of pickaninnies is all that breaks the solitude of this little family "grave yard," which contains only Mrs. Houston, her mother and an old colored servant.

The lot on which they are sleeping is fenced with barbed wire and cedar posts and is about the size of an ordinary country garden. This inclosure is a perfect jungle of trees, bushes, briars, cane, weeds and thorns.

Texans, believe me, and I would to God that no stranger could read these lines, Mrs. Houston's grave is perfectly matted with the jungle and can only be found by parting the bushes to where a little sand stone, unchiseled, not bearing even a name, projects slightly from the earth. This is all that marks our "mother's grave."

I pushed into this thicket at sunset and stood alone over this grave. My eyes filled with tears as I recalled the hardships, the privations and the struggles of her husband of whose glory she deserves at least a part. My heart said to me: "Proud Texans, boast no more of bluest skies, of broadest fields, of richest soil, gushing wells, of growing cities, and of fabulous wealth, while your most deserving benefactors sleep in unmarked and unkept graves."

There is not a convict or a pauper in the Lone Star State whose grave is more neglected than the one of which I am writing.

I have cut from this grave a small tree. Its roots must have fed from the dust of the heart that loved our chieftain most, for it was growing almost directly over that heart.

From the root of this shrub I am carving a gavel and a handle from its branches. I wish to present this gavel to our next legislature with the hope and prayer that Texans may soon pay their debt of gratitude.

Oscar E. Bryan. The democratic primaries in Mississippi resulted in the nomination of John Sharp Williams, minority leader of the national house of representatives, over Gov. Jas. K. Vardaman for United States Senator to succeed H. D. Money.

THE MAD DOG SCARE.

Not Every Dog That Bites Has Hydrophobia.

Now that the hot summer days are here, the readers of newspapers in all parts of the country are regaled to satiety with countless stories of mad dogs that are supposed to run amuck at this season of the year.

To controvert the many sensational stories that appear in print concerning these alleged mad dogs, the Department of Mercy of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union has issued a new edition of its little pamphlet, entitled "The Mad Dog Scare," in which it asks its workers in the department and the daily papers to assist in stamping out this false impression.

The pamphlet gives signed statements from several prominent physicians at the head of hospitals, in both England and America, to substantiate its claims.

The record of the London hospital a few years ago showed—2,668 persons bitten by angry dogs. None of them developed hydrophobia. St. George's hospital, London, records 4,000 patients bitten by dogs supposed to have been mad, with no cases of hydrophobia. The records from nearly all the leading hospitals in the U. S. show equally convincing figures as to the exaggeration of the number and seriousness of hydrophobia cases from dog bites. Many physicians testify that the average dog bite is no more dangerous than any other wound, providing it has equally careful treatment; and Dr. Charles W. Dulles, lecturer on the history of medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, declares that after sixteen years of investigation he has failed to find a single case on record that can be conclusively proved to have resulted from the bite of a dog. The pamphlet contains some valuable facts and suggestions on this subject and tends to prove quite conclusively that much needless anxiety and fright is experienced by people and unnecessary cruelty practiced upon dogs in connection with the subject.

From the physicians cited in this little pamphlet we find the following statements: Dr. Hiram Carson, whose practice extended over seventy years never saw a case of hydrophobia. Dr. Traill Green, an aged physician, makes a similar statement. Dr. Matthew Woods, after searching for twenty years, and who during the summer visited every case reported in Philadelphia, never saw a case of hydrophobia. He has offered one hundred dollars to any person who will bring him a case, and no one ever claimed the reward. Many physicians whom he has questioned on the subject have never found a case either in man or animal. At the Philadelphia dog pound, where, on an average, over six thousand vagrant dogs are kept, no case was ever known. Dr. Edward C. Spitzka, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence and of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Nervous System in the New York Post-Graduate School of Medicine, and President of the New York Neurological Society, says that not a single opportunity has offered itself to him to see such a case. Various other famous medical professors give similar opinions in this pamphlet.

Timpson women and maidens have braved public ridicule and are riding right. It is said that necessity is the mother of invention; false modesty played step-mother when the side-saddle was invented.—Madam Editor in Timpson Times.

Hurrah for the Timpson women and maidens, and for the madam for her encouragement. It will be a blessing to woman-kind and a panacea for health and comfort when the side-saddle becomes as great a curiosity as the old pad saddle now is. There is no comfort in sitting doubled up on a side-saddle, neither for rider or horse, and continuous horseback exercise in such a position is bound to be injurious to health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Burriis have returned to Nacogdoches after an absence of a few weeks at Jacksonville, and they have again opened up their stock of optical goods at the Stone Fort bank corner.

The Hall Remedy Co., Dallas, Texas. Iowa, La., July 9, 1904.

Dear Sirs:—I have tried a great many Chill remedies, but have found none equal to Hall's Chill Cure for Malaria. A few years past I had a severe attack of Chills and Fever and tried many Quinine and other cures, but they did no good and I just had to wear them out. They commenced on the last year the same way, but in a worse form. A friend recommended Hall's Chill Cure and I took it. It broke up the Chills and Fever and stopped them entirely. Whenever I hear of anyone having Chills or Malaria, I tell them Hall's Chill Cure will make them well if they will take it. I never can say enough for Hall's Chill Cure. Yours truly, Mrs. FRED LIGHTNER.

THE taxable values of Nacogdoches county have increased over 55 per cent in twelve months. What other Texas county has done better?

WISCONSIN educators are agitated over the question, "Should teachers smoke." There is no statutory law against women smoking.

"HER anger melted in an instant," avers the novelist. Like two-bits worth of ice in Nacogdoches.—Beaumont Enterprise.

Qwell, Nacogdoches is not so warm; and besides, the "bricks" are bigger now.

ONE little town in North Carolina, it is said, manufactures 15,000,000 cigars per annum. That explains the promptness with which North Carolina's governor sat down on the decision of a federal judge.

AND old Nacogdoches is growing in wealth. Nearly a hundred thousand dollars increase in taxable values in twelve months and over $250,000 in property has been destroyed by fire in the past eight months.

THE fine assessed against the Standard Oil company by Federal Judge Landis at Chicago, was more than three times greater than the total taxable values of Nacogdoches county, and still the company is talking about paying it off without appeal.

THE tax payers of Nacogdoches county have had an opportunity to say by their votes whether or not they want a new court house and jail, and at least 75 per cent of them refused to express themselves on the question. Who have they to blame for their negligence.

WITH peaches in East Texas, apples in North Texas, strawberries in South Texas, iron and oil everywhere in Texas, hot and mineral waters in North and Central Texas, honey at Uvalde, onions at Laredo and El Paso, and pumpkins in Austin—my, what a wonderful state Texas has come to be!—Austin Statesman.

ADD to the above enumeration ribbon cane syrup, tobacco, potatoes, cabbage and cantaloupes and water melons, and then say that all of these are produced in Nacogdoches county.

AN exchange says that if a man was a bootblack or a janitor before he rose to success and eminence, he never fails to refer to it and boast of his rise. But suppose a woman who now belongs to the leading set in town at one time worked in some one's kitchen. Do you suppose she would ever refer to it? What would she do to any one who dared mention it in her presence? Man is proud of his work, but woman is ashamed of hers. A woman is an economic factor when she has to be, but not from choice.

SEVERAL newspapers are speaking as if they had just heard of Col. Leon Jastrimski, a prospective candidate for governor of Louisiana. Col. Jastrimski has been the editor of the Baton Rouge Capitoline for 30 years, and is one of the best known newspaper men and prominent democrats in the south. He was minister to one of the foreign countries, we believe Russia, under Cleveland's first administration and made the race for governor of Louisiana against Blanchard four years ago. His name may look like pied pipe, but the Colonel is all together in politics.

WHEN a newspaper man has "the blues," and gets to feeling that after all "the game isn't worth the candle," a mighty change comes over him when a friend steps in with cheery greeting and the remark, "Say old man, that was a nice notice you gave me last week. Here is a box of cigars to show my appreciation of same." Such was the Mercury man's experience the present week. If friends now and then would occasionally drop a word of appreciation into the newspaper man's exchequer, life wouldn't seem such a thankless job.—Weimer Mercury.

THE Sentinel man has just finished smoking a box of cigars that was mailed to him by an appreciative friend. Too many people are prone to regard favors done by the newspaper man as matters of course—as part of his duties to the public—and they often neglect to even express thanks.

SINCE The Sentinel began the fight for cheaper ice and correct weight we have had frequent interviews with Mr. Marshall, the manager of the Nacogdoches Ice and Cold Storage company. Mr. Marshall assures us that his company cannot and positively will not reduce the price of ice, but that it is their desire that customers shall have all that is coming to them and that hereafter each delivery wagon will be provided with scales and the drivers required to weigh the ice as it is sold. It is now up to the customers to see that this ice is weighed and that he gets all he pays for. This seems to be about as far as The Sentinel can go in the matter. The ice people will not give us cheaper ice but promise to give full weight hereafter. It is now with the people to take the step necessary for cheaper ice. Competition will do the work. The people can encourage competition by pledging their support to some responsible person who will open a cold storage business here and handle ice, which it seems can be shipped here cheaper than it can be manufactured here. The Sentinel will have no more to say upon the subject unless something arises to call for further discussion.

MR. and Mrs. J. J. Baker and children left today. Mrs. Baker and the children will visit her mother in Shreveport while Mr. Baker is away in the shoe market at St. Louis and Chicago, buying Mayer & Schmidt's fall and winter shoe stock.

NO TENTS IN CAMP.

Fort Worth Failed to Furnish Accomodations to Farmers.

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 6.—This afternoon the annual convention of the Farmers' Union, Texas division, settled down to the transaction of business. There are now 500 to 800 visiting farmers and delegates in the city, and more are coming on late trains. The politician is strongly in evidence, but it is apparent that the anti-pass law has served to reduce the attendance of gentlemen of the salt-spreading trade.

President Calvin called the open session to order in a pavillion at the far end of the convention grounds, and addresses were delivered by F. Evans of the Tarrant county union, C. W. Woodman of Fort Worth, on behalf of the American Federation of Labor, and Mayor Harris of this city. Mr. Woodman advocated the general use of the union label by the farmers, and Mayor Harris eulogized the insurance company laws passed by the last legislature and was roundly applauded. Vice President Wheeler responded for the state organization.

Keen interest is being manifested in the coming election of officers, with D. J. Neill and F. W. Davis receiving the greater portion of consideration from the delegates. Mr. Neill appears to have the larger following at this time.

Much disappointment is being expressed over the total failure of the encampment feature of the convention. Not a tent nor a cot had been placed on the ground, nor will any be in evidence this week. Facilities for feeding the delegates are also meager, and the result is that the farmers are compelled to make the long journey from Lake Comó to the city several times a day.

THE Fort Worth Factory Club, which had the convention arrangements in hand, was given the double cross by the Seventh Day Adventists, a religious sect now holding a camp meeting here. The Adventists hustled out a week ago and rented every available tent in Fort Worth and Dallas. When tents were sought for the Farmers' Union none were to be had, and the result is the forced surrender to the Adventists and an abandonment of the farmers' camp at Lake Comó.

Back to the Old Home.

THE Sentinel received another card from Mr. John Schmidt this morning, written at Villa Kauffman, Germany, and dated July 24. He says:

"We are stopping at this place for a few days rest. It is only 30 minutes ride by rail from my old home where my good old mother still lives. Success to The Sentinel. We read it from beginning to end, although the local news is two weeks old."

Mr. Schmidt and party will visit Italy and France before returning.

Miss Myrtle Pullen of Rusk is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Polk Roberts.

SCHOOL FUND EXHAUSTED.

State Board Has No More Money to Buy Bonds.

For the first time in many years it may be said that the state of Texas is out of the market for bonds. More strictly speaking, the board of education which has the investment of the permanent school fund, has succeeded in investing all of that fund which at one time not a year ago amounted to nearly $1,000,000 waiting to be invested. There is, it is true, about $150,000 in the fund, but this sum is to be loaned to the state for improving the state's railroad out of Rusk, which has been authorized by an act of the Thirtieth legislature.

The reason that the state board of education has succeeded in investing all of the permanent school fund on hand is primarily because the present administration is following a more liberal policy in the investment of the fund. The old state board, that is, under the Eapham administration, rarely invested in bonds unless they bore 5 per cent interest, but under the Campbell administration, the board buys bonds bearing as low a rate of interest as 4 per cent. The law on this subject has been slightly amended by the last legislature, which has also given the board more latitude.

The comptroller's department and also the state department of education are daily receiving offers for bonds, but these offers have to be declined. This state or affairs gives private bond dealers a good chance in Texas to buy bonds, as under the law the state board of education has an option on all bonds, issued by cities, towns and independent school districts, for whatever purpose.—Austin Statesman.

Married.

Frank Hairston and Miss Vivian Booth left on the 4:32 train this morning for Shreveport to get married. There was no parental objection, but the young folks thought it less trouble to go away and be married quietly. Mr. Hairston is a member of the Timpson Pharmacy and is City secretary. He is very popular with those who know him. Miss "Vivian" is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Booth. Her life has been spent in Timpson, and she is loved and honored by all who know her. The bride and groom will return to Timpson on the 10:57 train tomorrow.—Timpson Times.

Miss Booth is a cousin of Mrs. T. B. Hardeneman of this city and has visited here often, making many friends who congratulate her.

Hon. R. W. Haltom, of the Nacogdoches Sentinel, came back home to die, and then changed his mind and refused to croak. Since coming home his health has steadily improved and he is now able to go to the office and participate in the publication of that most excellent old paper. May his days on earth be many is our fervent wish.—Center News.

Announcement
About September 1st we will move into our new quarters in the Perkins building, but before we go we desire to thank our friends for their very liberal patronage during the four months we have been in business. We are neither boasting nor exaggerating when we say that that our trade has been far beyond our expectation, and we hope to do a larger business with a more complete stock. Come and see us now and after we move to our new home. Gratefully. Thomas & Richardson One Price to All

NO PENALTY ATTACHED.

Robertson Insurance Law Found To Be Defective.

Before the taking effect of the Robertson insurance law, there were forty-nine life insurance companies doing business in Texas. Out of that number twenty-one have withdrawn from the state on account of the requirements of the Robertson law, leaving twenty-eight companies doing business in the state, and out of that number twenty-three have reported to the state insurance commissioner, leaving five companies still to be heard from.

Strange to say, while the Robertson law makes it a requirement for the insurance companies to make such reports, the act does not provide any penalty for failure on the part of the insurance companies to report. Chief Clerk Thweatt said yesterday that he believed that the department would have recourse to the general insurance laws in this instance.

Adequate penalty, however, is provided in the Robertson insurance law for companies which fail to make a deposit of 75 per cent of their reserve fund on Texas business in the state treasury and to invest such fund and securities in Texas property of securities. Should any company fail to comply with this feature of the law, the commissioner of insurance will report such failure to the attorney general's department, who shall institute suit in the district court of Travis county to forfeit the charter or permit of the delinquent corporation or company.

Saw Mill Burned.

Report reached the city this morning that the saw mill of the Waterman Lumber and Supply Company, located at the terminus of the Texas Gulf railroad, 16 miles east of the city, burned last night. No definite particulars could be learned, except that the mill burned and machinery was destroyed. This was a mill of over 50,000 feet daily capacity, and the loss is estimated at about $10,000.

PLAN FOR ORCHARD.

Will Be Convicted of Murder in First Degree.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 6.—Peter Breen, an attorney sent to Boise by the Butte miners' union to watch the Haywood trial, has an idea about the state's intentions toward Orchard.

"Orchard will be convicted of murder in the first degree," said Breen. "The community will not stand for anything else. But he will not hang, according to present plans. The plan is to have him sentenced to hang. Then Governor Gooding will commute his sentence to life imprisonment."

Orchard, who is to be provided with money from unknown sources, will then make his escape from prison. The details include a ticket to England. No mention of the escape is to be made for six weeks so that he will be safe from pursuit.

Breen does not reveal the source of his information other than to say that Orchard told him about it in the penitentiary.

Irons In The Fire.

An amateur authoress who had submitted a story to a magazine waited for several weeks without hearing from the editor concerning it. Finally she sent him a note requesting an early decision, because, she said, she "had other irons in the fire."

"Shortly after came the editor's reply: "Dear Madam—I have read your story, and I should advise you to put it with the other irons."—Harper's Weekly.

DR. BILL SMITH.

Noted Scientist on Beginnings of The Osteopathic Profession.

I was in Kirksville, Mo., in the month of June, 1892. In an office on the south side of the square I met Dr. McCarthy, who was bitterly expressing his feelings at the decline of medical practice in the town, stating that "an old quack had killed business."

I found an office in an old log cottage, which was simply filled with persons reciting to one another wonders which they had either experienced themselves or seen others experience.

At the appointed hour the Old Doctor entered my room. Our conversation lasted not half an hour, but four hours. I sat entranced; the theories he introduced were so novel, so contrary to all I had ever read or heard, that I failed to follow his reasoning.

To make a long story short, we sat and talked on the stoop of Dr. Still's house till four o'clock, and when I went back to the hotel it was with the understanding that in July I would come to Kirksville to teach Anatomy to a small class myself to learn osteopathy.

Our little class opened in September. I can shut my eyes now and see that gathering in a small back room at the tumble-down cottage. Eighteen students were there (the class subsequently had twenty-three members), and each and every one there was there not for the money there was in it, but had either been a sufferer and was cured by osteopathy or a close friend had been.

In the Globe-Democrat one Sunday in October appeared the first newspaper notice of osteopathy. A page article headed "A Missouri Mecca" gave a fair statement of the condition of matters at Kirksville. The reporter who came was a sensible and thinking man; he saw there only a beginning, but he was sharp enough to see that much.

In March, 1893, I left Kirksville, and shortly afterwards went to Kansas City. In 1896 I returned to Kirksville at the request of Dr. Still, and then began the true work by all of building up a truly scientific institution, which should be able to withstand all criticism.

In 1898 there were over 700; instead of two teachers, the faculty had a membership of eighteen; every subject taught in a medical school, save Materia Medica, was taught. Surely a marvelous record. But it was no marvel.

I had prophesied that ten years would see that frame cottage replaced by a handsome brick building; that the class of eighteen would swell to a school attendance of over five hundred and that there would be five hundred practitioners in the field.

My experience in osteopathy, my knowledge of it, leads me to look for a great future for the science to which the best years of my life have been devoted.

RIGHT OF CONTRACT.

Judge Kittrell Renders Valuable and far Reaching Decision.

Judge Norman G. Kittrell of the district court at Houston Saturday afternoon rendered a decision of the Wells-Fargo Express company vs. the Texas and New Orleans Railway company knocking out that portion of the anti-pass law said to apply to contracts.

Two points were advanced by Judge Kittrell showing why the law should not apply to this contract. These points are as follows: "First - Even the most casual reading of the act will show that it was intended to prevent free transportation, carrying free of charge passengers and property; or giving any person the right to travel free or transport property free."

"This being true it is manifest that the bill does not apply to nor can not affect the contract between the plaintiff and defendant."

"Second - The act of 1887 required all railroads to give all express companies equal privileges over their lines. This contract was not exclusive, and if the act of March 26, 1897, were held to so operate as to prevent the carrying out the contract of the plaintiff and the defendant such act would have the effect to impair the obligation of a contract and would be in direct contravention of article I, section 10, of the federal constitution and article 416, of the state constitution."

It is announced that the railroad company will appeal the case, but in the meantime will restore the express company pass until the supreme court has passed on them.

A deal has been closed whereby Mr. George Shaw, late manager of the Lynch hotel at San Augustine, will, on August 10, take charge of the Redlands hotel. Mr. J. E. Frymier, the former lessee and manager, who has had charge of the Redlands since the house was completed and opened to the public, has succeeded in building up a splendid patronage, but owing to failing health has been forced to give up his lucrative business and move to a higher altitude. Mr. Shaw is a thoroughly experienced hotel-man and is very popular with the traveling public.

Fixing Responsibility.

The following letter from a well known and popular Nacogdoches citizen recently appeared in the Houston Post: To the Editor.

Why so much fuss about the attorney general's connection with the anti-trust law? Suppose he had written every word of it, or suppose you or I had written it, could the attorney general or you or I pass a law?

Is not the legislature solely responsible for the law? I am sure the members of that body will not plead guilty to having been coerced by the attorney general to passing it. W. U. Perkins. Nacogdoches, Texas.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION.

Chairman Jones Claims Whole Country Will Follow Georgia.

Charles B. Jones, chairman of the National prohibition committee, is credited with having made the assertion that "Every state in the Union will, at a comparatively early date, be free from the legalized liquor traffic."

Mr. Jones bases his optimistic prediction on the action of Georgia in enrolling itself among the "dry" states on Tuesday.

"The winning of the battle for prohibition in Georgia is the opening gun of the final assault on the liquor traffic in all America," said Mr. Jones. "It is the direct result of the persistent and intelligent educational campaign throughout the nation."

The first effect of the Georgia victory, Mr. Jones thinks, will be felt in the other southern states.

The prohibition leader is sure that the republicans and democrats will be fighting over the liquor question as their main issue at an early date, giving a back seat to the tariff and other matters.

A new law has just gone into effect concerning ginners that is liable to be neglected. Hon. R. T. Milner, commissioner of agriculture, states that the county clerks are beginning to send in their reports of those who have qualified as public ginners.

The new law creating the bureau of cotton statistics in the department of agriculture requires every person or corporation that desires to engage in custom ginning to obtain first a certificate from the county clerk of the county in which the gin is located. The county clerks are required to report to the commissioner of agriculture (1) the number of the certificate issued to each ginner, (2) the name and (3) the postoffice address of each ginner. Some of the reports received omitted to state the number of the certificate issued to the ginner.

Cures Woman's Weakness.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator... makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system... He continues: 'In Helonia we have a medicinal which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent.' Dr. Fyfe further says: 'The following are among the leading indications for Helonia (Unicorn root): Pain or aching in the back with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) condition of the reproductive organs of women, marked depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the thighs; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppression or absent monthly periods), due to an accompanying abnormal condition of the digestive organs and aemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen.'"

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, of Helonia, and the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions and general debility, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful to all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal root:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

DIED IN THE DEPOT.

Jack Hughes Succumbs to Blow on the Head.

Jack Hughes, a negro whose home is at Shreveport, died in the union depot here Saturday night from the effects of a blow on the head, struck by another negro known as Joe Crackshot.

The two men were employed on the Gulf pipe line near Cushing, and Friday morning, while Hughes was at work in the ditch, Crackshot is alleged to have struck him on the head with a shovel. His skull was crushed by the blow, and he fell face downward into the ditch half filled with water and came near drowning before he could be lifted out.

Saturday evening the injured man was brought to Nacogdoches and intended to go to his home at Shreveport. At about 1:30 a colored man who was accompanying him went to call him to get ready for the train, when he discovered that the man was dead. The remains were buried here Sunday afternoon.

Crackshot, the negro who did the killing, also lives at Shreveport, and has not yet been arrested.

MALARIA A SYSTEMIC BLOOD POISON UNDERMINES THE HEALTH-LAYS THE FOUNDATION FOR DISEASE

Malaria comes from the absorption into the blood of germs and microbes which destroy the rich, nutritive qualities of the circulation and reduce it to a weak, watery, disease-spreading stream. The healthy color of the skin is given to it by the millions of little red corpuscles which are in the blood. These are the carriers of nourishment and health to all parts of the body; in other words the very life and vitalizing essence of the circulation. The destruction of these corpuscles by the malarial poison takes the color from the cheek, and in the first stages of Malaria we have pale, sallow faces, poor appetite, a bilious condition is set up, and we feel "out of sorts" generally. But Malaria means more than this; it is a systemic blood poison, which undermines the health and gives rise to innumerable and sometimes serious disorders and diseases if the poison is allowed to remain in the blood. As the blood becomes more and more polluted with the malarial poison, the digestion becomes deranged, chills and fever are frequent, skin diseases, boils and carbuncles, and sores and ulcers break out on the flesh, and after awhile the foundation is laid for other diseases which either prove fatal or permanently undermine and wreck the health. Malaria can only be worked out of the system through the blood. Purging the liver and bowels with strong, nauseating cathartics can never remove the trouble because they do not reach the blood where the germs are constantly multiplying. The only hope for a cure is a remedy that can destroy the germs and microbes, and neutralize the bad effects of the poison, and S. S. S. is the medicine to accomplish this, because it is a perfect blood purifier and a general systemic remedy of unequalled value. S. S. S. searches out and removes every trace of the malarial poison and puts the blood in such rich, healthy condition that sallow, anaemic complexions take on the ruddy glow of health, the liver and digestion are righted, the appetite improved, the system vitalized and strengthened, and every symptom of Malaria passes away. Malarial persons will find S. S. S. not only a prompt remedy but a gentle, pleasant acting one, as well as a certain cure for this disease. Besides removing the cause of Malaria S. S. S. builds up every part of the system by its fine tonic effects. Persons living in a malarial section should, at this season, fortify their systems against this insidious disease by purifying their blood with a course of S. S. S. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free of charge.

VOICE FROM LUFKIN.

No Reason for High Charges for Ice in Nacogdoches.

From the Lufkin News.

For some time there have been appearing articles in The Nacogdoches Sentinel regarding the extortionate rate being charged the people of Nacogdoches for ice, saying a piece about the size of a Garrison brick was given for five cents and only 12 pounds for a dime.

A representative of The News called on Mr. Phillips, manager of the Lufkin ice plant, yesterday and informed him of the condition existing in Nacogdoches, and asked for an interview regarding the matter, and the following is the reply: "I understand that the Nacogdoches people have a good supply of pure water and I see no reason who such prices should be charged, especially in a home town. Their expenses should not be such that it would increase the price, in fact if they have a modern plant, which I understand they have, the 'people of' Nacogdoches should get ice as cheap as those of Lufkin."

In speaking of the water question in this city, Mr. Phillips had the following to say: "I think the most important thing for the city to do about the water business right now would be to clean out the standpipe. I informed the manager of the water plant a few days ago that I would be willing to close down my plant for the time necessary to clean it, although it would cost me a great deal of money. The water has gotten so bad of late that the filterers we are using are continually clogged up with old green mud, and if something is not done immediately to relieve the existing conditions, it will mean a great deal of sickness and deaths in the city. I think it should not take more than half a day to clean out the standpipe and if this is done the water we have will be adequate until something else is decided upon."

The following parties left yesterday for the Jamestown Exposition: Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Meador and son, G. H. Davidson, and Lee Gaston.

A STRONG FIRM.

The Mast Brothers and Smith Drug Company Organized.

A change of more than passing importance was consummated a few days ago when the drug firm of Kleas & Mast was changed to that of Mast Brothers & Smith, those constituting the new firm being H. T. Mast, L. R. Mast and A. H. Smith.

Everybody knows Hollis Mast, the senior member of the firm, he having been a part of the old firm of Perkins, Kleas & Mast, then later the junior member of the firm of Kleas & Mast. Blum Mast is also well known to the people of Nacogdoches, he and his brother Hollis both having been born and reared in Nacogdoches county. Having been connected with the H. E. & W. T. railroad at Nacogdoches, Tenaha and other points on the line also gives him a wide acquaintance. Mr. Smith, the junior member of the new firm, is by no means a stranger here, having been connected with the business as pharmacist and prescription clerk for a long while.

These boys succeed to the oldest drug business in Nacogdoches county, that of Perkins Brothers, then Perkins, Kleas & Mast, and later that of Kleas & Mast.

Mr. M. L. Kleas, who retires from the business, it is said will engage in business elsewhere; but wherever he may go he carries with him the friendship and best wishes of the people of Nacogdoches.

Mast Brothers & Smith will move into their new quarters in the new Perkins building on the old Stone Fort corner in about 30 days, where they will have one of the hand-somest and best equipped drug stores in the state. Their elegant new fixtures are being built by the Nacogdoches Show Case and Manufacturing company, and they do say that it will be their best job this factory has ever put out.

At Trinity School House.

There will be a big rally of the farmers at Trinity school house, four miles east of Nacogdoches, on Saturday afternoon, August 10, at 2 o'clock. All the farmers and their families are urgently requested to be present. The meeting will be addressed by a state lecturer of the Farmers Union and a local lodge of the order will be organized.

Power a Pedagogue.

John D. Power is now a full pledged pedagogue, and has been elected principal of the Sacul public school. Prof. Power attended the Nacogdoches summer normal, and was granted a certificate to teach in the public schools of the state.

What is medicine for? To cure you, if sick, you say. But one medicine will not cure every kind of sickness, because different medicines act on different parts of the body. One medicine goes to the liver, another to the spine, Wine of Cardui to the womanly organs. So that is why has proven so efficacious in most cases of womanly disease. Try it.

Mrs. Wm. Turner, of Bartonville, Ill., writes: "I suffered for years with female diseases, and doctored without relief. My back and head would hurt me, and I suffered agony with bearing-down pains. At last I took Wine of Cardui and now I am in good health." Sold everywhere, in $1.00 bottles.

Letter From Dr. Mayfield

A private letter from Dr. J. E. Mayfield, dated 2nd inst., states that he and Mrs. Mayfield will probably leave San Angelo on the 7th or 8th and make a trip across the country 210 miles northwest via Big Springs to Lubbock, to spend a few weeks there with the Fairris family. He wants The Sentinel sent there regularly.

Doctor Mayfield says that he and his wife have not fattened up much but are a good average in health, and have had an enjoyable trip thus far, in spite of the unusual hot weather, and that San Angelo is on a big boom. He expects to return home via Mineral Wells in latter part of September.

Mrs. J. W. Fisher and two children, who spent the past two weeks visiting Mrs. Fisher's mother, Mrs. Horn, returned to their home in Beaumont Saturday.

Mrs. M. R. Kleas left for Houston today to join Mr. Kleas and spend some time visiting home folks before locating in their new home. Mrs. Kleas will be missed by every one who knew her, for she was a woman of such friendly charms she won every acquaintance as a friend who loved her, and their best wishes go with them to their new location.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by Kleas & Mast. dw

"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to everyone without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dw

This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dw

DISAPPOINTED COURTSHIP.

Bride Came From Minnesota But Met No Groom.

A romantic courtship between a prominent Nacogdoches county citizen and a beautiful Minnesota widow is being related by the gossips about town.

As the story goes, a certain well known widower entered into correspondence with the lady, and after a time it was agreed that she should come to Nacogdoches, where he would meet her and marry her.

Last Tuesday the lady came all right, but the expected groom failed to appear upon the scene of action. The prospective bride was not to be outdone in that manner, however, nor did she intend to submit to having her affections trifled with.

So she repaired to the courthouse and had County Clerk Spears issue a marriage license for herself and the foxy widower, and securing a team and rig from Cooker's livery stable, she went in search of her fellow. She drove to his home, but imagine the brave woman's disappointment, if you can, when she was told that the object of her affection was not at home and no one knew when he would return. She was not to be put off in this manner, however, so she ordered the team driven back to town and announced her determination to remain until her intended came home. When last heard from she was still holding the fort, armed with a marriage license, a big roll of bank notes and a determination to marry the man of her choice.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists and unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity.
