HORRIBLE DEATH.

Little Child of W. I. Harrell Burned to Death.

Etoile, Tex., Feb. 10.—On the morning of Feb. 1, little Lena Harrell, the little three year old daughter of Mr. W. T. and Mrs. M. C. Harrell, who reside near Chireno, met her death in a most horrible manner. While its mother was absent from the house she caught on fire and before its mother could get to her rescue the child was in a dying condition. It lingered between life and death for about seven hours then its little soul left the body that the angry flames had coiled about, and went to rest safe in the arms of Jesus.

Little Lena was born near Etoile, Oct. 27, 1904. She was the only child and was as a ray of light that sent beams of joy into that home that is now so sad and lonely. It is hard to give her up and to know that she is forever gone, but the grandest of all is that she has only gone from this world of sin and sorrow to dwell in a land of pure delight, where she will await the day when she can look out through the portals of heaven and see father and mother coming to again unite with her in that land of peace and happiness.

Little Lena's body is laid to rest in the cold and silent clay; But her soul is at rest with Jesus, In that land so far away.

Read This Without Fail

You may not think seriously of this matter, but we do. The question of Fertilizer and Seed is the matter we think seriously about, because it means money to you, and whatever is money to you will help us too. This will be so, provided you get the very best of both.

At the request of quite a number of our farmer friends who know the value of these articles, we are putting in the Celebrated Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co's Fertilizer, and the Genuine No. 1 Mebane Triumph Cotton Seed.

Please note that we are not going to handle the cheap grades of either fertilizer or seed. It will not pay you to use cheap articles of this kind, as you well know you will not only lose the money you pay for the same, but at the end of the season you will find that you have lost your year's work and, worse still, what you might have made by using the very best.

Remember we have the very highest grades. These are facts to be considered when figuring on your year's crop. In this, as in all things else, it is economy to buy and use the best.

Yours for prosperous times,

His remains will be interred in the family burying ground at Linn Flat tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

SENATOR CULBERSON has Secretary Cortelyou on the run, but not for the presidency.

THE Tyler Courier and Times has discovered evidence of the existence of a flour trust in Texas. Why not hand it over to the attorney general?

THE Laredo Times has discovered that Bermuda onions eaten raw will cure the worst case of grip. If onions are good, Nacogdoches garlic is better. Try it.

A BILL providing for state prohibition has passed the lower house of the Mississippi legislature. One by one the states are dropping into the dry column.

A FIFTY thousand dollar federal building would look good in the center of the public square, and besides it would be a convenient location for the postoffice.

ACCORDING to the report of Hon. R. T. Milner, state agricultural commissioner, there had been 4079 bales of cotton ginned in Nacogdoches county up to January 1, 1908, of the crop of 1807, and the total ginned in the state was 1,670,922 bales.

THE Beaumont Enterprise remarks that "if the Windom was built at Dubuque, Iowa, a thousand miles inland, why not have a ship yard and build a few Windoms in Beaumont." That is a pertinent question. The Windom is a United States revenue cutter, and has crossed the seas.

ONE of the brightest and most promising hopes for the future welfare of the farmers is the fact that they are learning the value of good seeds for planting as well as the best methods of planting, cultivation and harvesting. Especially is this true of the farmers of Nacogdoches county.

EDITOR Jim Lowry of the Honey Grove Signal has organized a buttermilk club. While The Sentinel editor is not much of a club man, he is willing to have his name enrolled on the roster of Editor Jim's organization, provided the buttermilk is thick and sour and is rich in peanut butter. Good buttermilk cannot be made without peanuts.

THE Garrison Gleaner says: "Rho Garrison is continually being bombarded with requests to run for representative, but owing to private affairs which he doesn't feel justified in neglecting he has about decided not to enter the race." There is not better legislative timber in Nacogdoches county, or in Texas for that matter, than Rho Garrison, and our people will be fortunate if he can be induced to run.

BRYAN.

Whatever any man may think of William Jennings Bryan, says the Philadelphia North American, upon whatever low plane he may place the Nebraskan's judgment of the great immediate questions one of those facts that slap the critic in the face and make his standards totter is the undeniable truth that it needs only the presence, the personality, the utterance—the something we know not what that is the accompaniment of this man's coming among anybody of Democrats—to send all opposition to him slinking into silent hiding.

Three years' persistent and organized effort to force his retirement culminated in New York in a boom for Lieut. Gov. Chandler. Bryan spent a day or two in New York and all anti-Bryan sentiment evaporated.

The southern conservatives asked their northwestern brethren to aid them in making Johnson of Minnesota the new leader. Bryan took two railroad trips and Johnson and Watterson are now loyal Bryanites.

A congressional campaign was started among the minority statesmen for a new deal in candidates. But Bryan carried a while in Washington and the only name cheered at dinner tables and applauded on the floor of the house by Democrats is Bryan's.

The North American is not in agreement with Bryan. But that is no reason why we should not acknowledge honestly the presence of a true leader of men when we size his stature beside Lilliputians.

The man twelve years in the limelight of public life, twice defeated and never counting a victory carrying patronage, who still can by his mere presence in any part of the country, stifle all semblance of opposition in his party and hold the tealty of six millions of American citizens is no ordinary man.

The man who sneers at William Jennings Bryan simply constitutes himself a Dogberry and writes himself down an ass.

THE Lufkin Tribune says: "Judge Perkins has at last got himself located politically and will make the race for re-election to his present position." Judge Perkins has a perfect right to run for district judge, or any other office if he wishes, but the judge is assuming too much if he presumes that no one else should run for that office when he runs.

COINCIDENT with the announcement of the production of "When Knighthood Was in Flower" in this city next week, it may be stated that Mr. Charles Major, the author of the story from which the play was written, was recently on a visit to Texas with his wife, who is a sister of Mrs. Charles Dolan of Jacksonville. Mrs. Dolan's husband being one of the dispatchers for the Texas and New Orleans railroad. Mr. Major's "Knighthood" book has netted him a nice fortune, and he and his wife have just returned from Europe, where they visited the scenes of the main incidents depicted in his great story. Mr. Major's home is at Shelbyville, Indiana.

EDITOR Green of the Tyler Courier and Times is for Dies for congress in the second district, rather he is against Cooper. Unfortunately for Editor Green Tyler is not in the second district — Beaumont Journal.

There is no shriveled localism in the makeup of Editor Green. Yet he is likely to cut very little ice in the second district congressional race.

A NEW YORK lady, Miss E. L. Todd, has invented a war balloon or airship that can be folded up like a fan and carried on a wagon. It is also equipped with wheels and can travel over-land as well as through the air. That feature ought to commend the new invention to the war department of all governments, as it will be quite convenient in cases of retreat.

THE fellow who is always finding fault with his local paper would shine if he were conducting it, wouldn't he? — Tyler Courier and Times.

Never compare yourself with the chronic kicker, Bro. Green. As a rule the self-appointed critic knows less about the person or thing he criticizes than anything else in his vocabulary, and the less he knows about it the more vehement his criticism.

WE live in a good corn country, but corn is shipped to us a distance of from 300 to 500 miles. What's the matter anyhow? Do you know? — Tyler Courier and Times.

The answer is plain enough. The farmers of East Texas are in the habit of planting just enough land to corn to produce barely enough to do them under the most favorable circumstances, and the consequence is all corn used by the thousands of citizens who are not producers must come from elsewhere. And in many instances the farmers themselves run short and have to buy corn from their more progressive brothers in other states. If the farmers would plant more corn they would raise more corn. That's why.

No Cause for Surprise.

Beaumont Journal.
Some of the papers in the Second Judicial district express surprise that District Judge Perkins has decided to abandon the idea of becoming a candidate for congress and will stand for re-election for district judge. Those papers seem to think the judge has obligated himself to become a candidate for congress, but they are in error. When in this city Judge Perkins said he was considering making the race for the congressional nomination but would not reach a definite conclusion until he made inquiries the answers to which would enable him to gauge his chances for the nomination. As he has announced for re-election as district judge it is presumed the encouragement for him to make the race for congress was insufficient.

LOCAL OPINION VARIATIONS.

The Court of Criminal Appeals Says it is Good.

The following opinion recently rendered in the local option case of Tom Hardy, appealed from the county court of Nacogdoches county, destroys all further grounds for attacking the validity of the local option election last held in this county. The opinion in full is as follows:

"Appellant was convicted of violating the local option law. We find two bills of exception in the record. The first bill relates to the introduction by the State of the order of the commissioners' court ordering an election, the contention of appellant being that there was a variance in said order to the charge alleged in the bill of information; the information charging that the order made by the commissioners' court ordering an election for the purpose of determining whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors should be prohibited in said county; whereas, the order introduced ordered an election for the purpose of determining whether or not intoxicating liquor should be sold in said county—it being contended that this is a variance.

"The next bill relates to the refusal of the court to allow appellant to prove by the county clerk that he, the clerk, did not at any time post or cause to be posted any notices of an election. In explanation of this bill the court says that the record shows that the copies of the order of the commissioners' court were issued and certified by the county clerk, and that the same were posted by Buckner, the sheriff, in the manner and for the length of time required by law.

The prosecution was commenced on the 29th day of July, 1907. The bill shows that the state objected on the ground that it was immaterial, and was offered in the nature of defense to contest the legality of the local option law at a time more than sixty days after the taking effect of the act of the 30th Legislature, passed May 14, 1907. We hold that this objection is well taken. Said act provides, that contests of elections that had theretofore been had must be contested within sixty days from the taking effect of said law and not otherwise. The matters complained of would be mere irregularities at best, and this act makes valid and noncontestable anything pertaining to irregularities in the adoption of the local option law. The act itself provides that we shall conclusively presume that said election as held was valid in all things and binding upon all courts. We accordingly hold, that said act is valid, and applies to all local option elections, and it clearly applies in this case.

The judgment is accordingly affirmed.

REFERENDUM IN THE STATUTE.

It is remarkably true that few people in the state are familiar with the state election law. A few years ago the populists were clamoring for the referendum, and the democrats were fighting the proposition as hard as they knew how. Yet three years ago the 29th legislature composed almost exclusively of democrats, in adopting the Terrell election law, says, the Dallas-Galveston News, recognized the principle of referendum and provided for its application in certain cases. For instance, Section 140 of the election law of 1905 contained this provision for referendum.

"Section 140. Whenever delegates are to be elected by any political party to any state or county convention by primary election or primary convention, or candidates are instructed for or nominated, it shall be the duty of the chairman of the county or precinct executive committee of said political party, upon the application of 10 per cent of the members of said party (who are legally qualified voters in said county or precinct) to submit at the time and place of selecting said delegates, any proposition, desired to be voted upon by said voters, and the delegates selected at that time shall be considered instructed for whichever proposition for which a majority of the votes are cast; provided, that the number of voters belonging to said political party shall be determined by the votes cast for the party nominee for governor at the preceding election; and provided further, that said application is filed with the county or precinct chairman at least five days before the tickets are to be printed, and the chairman may require sworn statement that the names of said applicants are genuine."

The 30th Legislature in amending the election law tacked this provision onto Section 120:

"Any political party in this state in convention assembled shall never place in the platform or resolutions of the parties they represent any demand for specific legislation on any subject, unless the demand for such, specific legislation shall have been submitted to a direct vote of the people, and shall have been indorsed by a majority vote of all the votes cast in primary election of such party. Provided that the State Executive Committee shall, on petition of 10 per cent of the voters of any party, as shown by the last primary election vote, submit any such question or questions to the voters at the general primary next preceding the state convention."

In calling attention to the above provisions in the statutes, the News says:

"It will be seen that this provision is also mandatory, and that the State Executive Committee is not clothed with discretion. If 10 per cent of the voters of any political party in Texas desire to submit any demand for legislation of any character whatsoever, the State Executive Committee is obliged to submit such proposition. Not only is it its duty to do so under the statutes, but the party itself has gone upon record as favoring the referendum principle, and it would seem that from a party standpoint the matter is scarcely open to debate."

For County Fair.

There is nothing that will advertise a town and county more than a fair. It is a paying proposition also. You would see finer stock and better agricultural and horticultural products as a result, too. Persons who had never bred fine stock or thoroughbred poultry would learn that it is as easy to raise the best of anything as it is to raise a scrub and the county would profit thereby. Many things could be said in favor of Nacogdoches county having a fair next fall; which might interest those concerned, but the which is most likely to sink deep into the promoters' hearts is that investigation will prove that county fairs are invariably profitable. — Garrison Gleaner.

GOOD DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE.

On January 31, President Roosevelt sent to the congress a special message. We have had repeated requests to publish the message in full, but the document is too lengthy to admit of its publication in full in The Sentinel. For the edification of our readers, however, we have compiled from the message the following most salient features of the president's recommendations, and it will be seen that it contains some very good Democratic doctrine. The president explains the occasion for this message by saying:

"The recent decision of the supreme court in regard to the employers' liability act, the experience of the interstate commerce commission and of the department of justice in enforcing the interstate commerce and anti-trust laws, and the gravely significant attitude toward the law and its administration recently adopted by certain heads of great corporations, render it desirable that there should be additional legislation as regards certain of the relations between labor and capital, and between the great corporations and the public."

The president begins by recommending the passage of an employer's liability law, to apply only to men engaged in interstate traffic. Then he warms up to the main subject and discusses the whole corporation question, and the attacks that have been made upon the administration.

He says there has been abuse of the injunction in labor union disputes, and the abuse is beginning to bring discontent and disrespect for the federal judiciary.

Stock watering is denounced.

The federal government must assume a certain measure of control over the physical operation of railways.

Corporations, he insists, have duties as well as rights, and they must be taught that fact.

Gambling on the stock market is no better than with cards and on the race track.

Corporation lawyers are declared largely to blame for delay in justice; and equally culpable are men who oppose enactment of just laws.

The man who seeks to corrupt legislatures or less important lawmaking bodies is in the same class as the black-mailer, the bribe-giver, the gambler and the thug.

The judges who fined the Standard Oil company and the Santa Fe Railroad company are defended.

The president charges certain rich men with banding together to evade the law and discredit the administration.

He denies any attack on law-abiding wealth, but says the most efficient instrument of corruption is in purchased politician and the purchased newspaper.

He singles out the Standard Oil company as a law-defying corporation, which controls books and pamphlets and speeches by public and private men.

The president says his purpose is to put the real wrongdoer in prison, and this is what has been done with some wealthy criminals and what he hopes to do with others.

He does not believe the acts of the administration have brought about business distress, but if the panic was necessary at this time to expose corruption, he has no misgivings.

Mr. Bryan, in commenting on the message, says:

"It is a brave message and is needed at this time. All friends of reform have reason to rejoice that the president has used his high position to call attention to the wrongs that need to be remedied. He has discovered the running sore in our national life. He has pointed out the corrupting influences that flow from predatory wealth and the monopolistic enterprises which have given unearned riches to the few, who, by controlling the great industries of the nation have levied tribute on the whole country. His warnings are entirely in harmony with the warnings which democrats have been uttering for more than a decade, and I hope that the democrats in the senate and house will promptly challenge the republicans to meet the issues that have been presented by the president."

The president of the Farmers' Union declares that at the next State meeting all persons who are not actually engaged in farming as their principal business will be excluded from the Union. He says this will be done because of the fact that all the troubles of the Union have come by reason of the action of members who are attempting to further their political ends or business success.—Bonham News.

There is no doubt but that President Neil has discovered the real cause of the alleged friction in the union, and if his declaration is lived up to there is hope for the long life and success of the organization. One who is not a farmer has no more business in a farmers union than a barber would have in a butchers union, and the sooner the Farmers Union weeds out the politicians and professional agitators the better it will be for the success of the organization.

AND the democrats have a Leake in the house. He hails from New Jersey, and in harmony with his name he made a speech the other day in which he sprung a leak of venom against the nomination of W. J. Bryan. New Jersey democrats should stop the Leake.

A NOTED physician is quoted as saying that cheerfulness will cure the grip. What a cheerful lie that is!—Bonham News.

Yes, and a cheerful liar. Cheerfulness indeed. Umph.

The improved methods of farming now in vogue in Nacogdoches county strongly suggest a county fair.

WANTED—A CREMATORY.

One of the Crying Needs of Nacogdoches.

One of the problems which has confronted the city authorities of Nacogdoches is the most satisfactory and economical disposition of the garbage and trash that accumulates daily on the streets and vacant lots. Time was, when Nacogdoches was a village, that this stuff could be hauled off and dumped promiscuously in any old place, but the owners of land tributary to the city are getting tired of this method, and are beginning to protest.

The time has come when Nacogdoches should have a garbage furnace, or crematory, and burn all garbage, waste paper and trash. This is needed from a sanitary standpoint as well as from a point of economy.

Waco has recently inaugurated a crematory plant, as the following will show:

"Waco, Texas, Feb. 7.—Eight members of the city council and a number of citi-

CULBERSON AND CORTELYOU.

Texas Senator After the Scalp of the Secretary.

A recent dispatch from Washington says:

Figuratively speaking, Senator Culberson today snatched off the chaplets which Secretary Cortelyou wove around the brows of the New York bankers in his report to the Senate and sought instead to crown them with shame.

Senator Culberson in a speech of much vigor and fire assailed not only the New York bankers, but the Secretary of the Treasury, whom he indicted on six counts of having violated the law by this operation during the financial stringency.

But, though there were six counts in the indictment, Senator Culberson restricted his speech to the last, which was that the secretary had not distributed the treasury funds in accordance with the law and that the money he turned over to the New York banks, instead of being used to discharge their obligations purpose of meeting such expenditures' for constructing the canal.

"4. That the secretary violated the law in issuing the 3 per cent certificates, because they were not issued 'to meet public expenditure,' as provided by the statute, there being ample funds in the treasury for such purposes.

"5. That the secretary violated the law in permitting national banks to issue circulating notes on the 3 per cent certificates, as the law limits the basis of such notes to registered bonds of the United States Panama bonds.

"6. That the secretary violated the law and abused his official discretion in distributing deposits of public money under the act of March 4, 1907, the distribution being unjust and inequitable, whether regarded from the standpoint of population or capital and surplus of banks and much of said deposits being used by New York banks for speculative purposes."

Ca' for a Report.

A strange condition of affairs must exist in Center, at least such is implied by a petition, signed by 124 taxpayers, addressed to the mayor and city council, from which the following is taken: "We ask that you (the mayor) call a meeting of the board of aldermen at your earliest convenience, and as the law directs, for the purpose of appointing a competent person, or persons, to audit the books of said corporation; or if no books are kept, the receipts, papers of any accounts that might be available from which the desired statement of the resources and liabilities of said corporation might be obtained." The petitioners say the object of the auditing is to get the business and financial affairs of the city in a condition which will permit the opening and keeping of a regular set of books. Upon reading the petition one naturally wonders the kind of system and policy which have prevailed in the municipal government of Center.

There is hope for the corporation, so long as the district judge does not declare the statutes of the state unconstitutional and nullify the charter or fundamental law of the city.—Beaumont Journal.

Talking Municipal Ownership.

The suggestion has been made that the city buy the electric light plant, rebuild the whole thing, light the streets and give good service to the subscribers. Times has not thought much about the matter, but mentions it now that people may begin to think about it and study it in all its phases. The light plant can be made a valuable asset and a revenue-producer for the city.—Timpson Times.

THAT necessity is the mother of invention has again been demonstrated in Georgia. Since the adoption of prohibition in that state they have learned to make whisky of collard leaves.

SEESAW IN ARKANSAW.

Remarkable Experience of Esau Buck With a Buck Saw.

The following, which has been going the rounds of the newspapers for more than a quarter of a century, has been handed to The Sentinel with request to publish. The author long since died of old age, yet the production still lives as a remarkable piece of literature. Here is the story:

An old farmer of Arkansas whose sons had all grown up and left him, hired a young man by the name of Esau Buck to help him on his farm. On the evening of the first day they hauled up a small load of poles for wood and unloaded them. The next morning the old man said to the hired man:

"Esau, I'm going to town today, and while I am gone you may saw wood and keep the old ram out of the garden."

When the old man had gone, Esau went out to saw wood, but when he saw the saw he wouldn't saw. When Esau saw the saw he saw he couldn't saw with that saw. Esau looked around for another saw, but that was the only saw he saw, so he didn't saw. When the old man came home he said to Esau:

"Esau, did you saw the wood?"

Esau said: "I saw the wood, but I wouldn't saw it."

The old man went out to see the saw, and when he saw the saw he saw that Esau couldn't saw with the saw. When Esau saw that the old man saw that he couldn't saw with the saw, Esau picked up the ax and chopped up the wood and made a seesaw.

The next day the old man went to town and bought a new buck-saw for Esau Buck, and when he came home he hung the buck-saw for Esau Buck on the saw-buck by the seesaw.

Just at that time Esau Buck saw the old buck in the garden eating cabbage, and when driving him from the garden to the barn yard Esau Buck saw the buck-saw on the saw-buck by the see-saw.

When the old buck saw Esau Buck looking at the new buck-saw on the saw-buck by the see-saw, he made a dive for Esau, hit the see-saw, knocked the see-saw against Esau Buck, who fell on the buck-saw on the saw-buck by the see-saw. When the old man saw the old buck dive at Esau Buck, and miss Esau and hit the see-saw and knocked the see-saw against Esau, and Esau Buck fell on the saw-buck by the see-saw, he picked up an ax to kill the old buck. But the buck saw him coming and dodged the blow and countered on the old man's stomach, knocked the old man over the see-saw on Esau Buck, who was getting the see-saw, crippled Esau Buck, broke the buck-saw and saw-buck and the see-saw.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

After April 1st, according to the ruling of the Postoffice Department, we will not be allowed to extend over one year's credit to our Weekly subscribers, and three months' credit to subscribers to The Daily, on penalty of forfeiting our second class mail rate. Therefore we will ask our subscribers who are one year or more behind to come forward and settle up.

It has always been the custom of this paper to extend credit to its subscribers and let them pay as suited their convenience, but this new ruling makes it imperative that we send out bills to all those who are in arrears, so don't feel offended when you receive your subscription account, for we must get all of our subscriptions collected to date by the first of April, or else we will have to cut you off, or put a one cent stamp on every paper we send you, and we can't afford to do that. Uncle Sam says come through, boys, and we guess you'll have to do it.

The aldermen were very much pleased with the demonstration given them and so expressed themselves. Absolutely no odor could be detected during the cremating process, the manufacturers of the furnace guaranteeing that such would be the case, and the test made yesterday afternoon verified their statement. The new furnace has just been completed."

MRS. ELIZABETH H. "I found that a cold left me with catarrh of the head in a very bad form. My head was stopped up, I had frontal headaches, my eyes bothered me, and there was a nasty dropping in my throat which nauseated me and made it impossible many times for me to eat my breakfast. "As soon as I began to use Peruna I found it relieved me, my head soon cleared up and in a remarkably short time I was rid of catarrh. "I can, therefore, give my personal experience with your valuable medicine, and am pleased to do so." "People who prefer solid to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets, which contain the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Man-a-lin the Ideal Laxative.

CLUB NOTES

Mrs. Roland Jones was the delightful hostess to the Cum Coecilio Club Thursday, February 6. Twelve members gave in response to roll call interesting items relative to "Modern German Artists." Mrs. Dotson, Stone Fort treasurer, reported that Mr. E. C. Branch had generously offered to advance for six months funds sufficient for completion of the Stone Fort, donating interest on same. If at the expiration of this time there remains any of this indebtedness, Mr. Branch will be one of ten men to liquidate this amount. The club with many expressions of gratitude instructed Mrs. Dotson to accept this magnanimous offer. Mr. Branch has ever shown himself a friend to the C. C. Club women in their efforts to rebuild the Old Fort. For such kindness he will always be remembered with gratitude. In a well written paper on "Gluck, The Father of Operas," Mrs. Geo. H. Matthews showed by thoughts and facts, not acquired by a casual reader, that she had made research into his life and works. Mrs. Marcus Smith had prepared a paper on "Stuttgart, Weimar and Dusseldorf as Art Cities," which Mrs. Price read. This in an interesting manner, related the efforts that the Germans had made for the betterment of German Art, how they even went to study Italian Art, in that they might improve not only by their own efforts but by other's superiority. Two instructive talks on the "Gems of the Galleries of Dresden and Munich" were given respectively by Mesdames Branch and Young. The history lesson was Napoleon's Germanic career. Many audacious feats exposing his boundless ambition were discussed. Never failing to show herself the ideal hostess, Mrs. Jones assisted by her lovely daughter, Miss Genevieve, served a much enjoyable two course collation, after which the ladies departed hoping to meet with Mrs. D. K. Cason February 13th, 1908. Cor. Sec. Pro. Tem. Mount Moriah Musings. Stoker, Feb. 10.—With this wide-awake day and busy times men never stop to think of true value of a few moments of rest, and happiness. We as a people never know the good things we have and are blessed with in this world unless we would stop our race for riches and fame and look around us. We ought to be the happiest people in the world. When we begin looking and studying the wonderful skill and ingenuity of man we are made to think of the true value of knowledge and the great things that have been wrought by man. His work has changed the incorporation on the monument of time, and with the records of the past and a close study of the present man can tell what is in the near future. In spite of the rain and blustery weather Saturday and Sunday, we had preaching here by Rev. W. L. Heflin. Mr. Emory Pleasant, who has been very low with pneumonia, is much better. Mrs. C. H. Crawford is on the sick list. R. E. Mills went to the city on business today. Mr. W. H. Harrington says the wind Saturday night blowed down trees in his field until he is going to give another log rolling. Now, when times are as hard as they are, if a man will give a good dinner and supper we can all give him one good days work. Commissioners Court. The commissioners court has been busy up to this time passing on claims and petitions, and today they are engaged with reports of county officers. One of the important matters yet to be passed on by the court is a petition signed by 80 qualified voters in the vicinity of Caro, asking for the creation of a new election precinct, with a voting box at Caro. Several petitions for stock law elections have been granted. The court will likely be in session all of this week. Doctors May Be Tardy. Under the law every practicing physician in Texas is required to have his diploma, or certificate from the medical board of examiners, registered in the office of the district clerk of the county in which he resides. District Clerk R. W. Murphey informs The Sentinel that only 13 physicians in Nacogdoches county have so far complied with this provision of the law, out of a total of about 60 physicians in the county. While the doctors have until the 19th of next July to register, Mr. Murphey suggests that they be reminded of this duty, lest they forget.

How to Prepare Simple Mixture to Overcome Disease.
To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime. Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses. This prescription, states a well-known authority in a Cleveland morning paper, forces the clogged-up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism. As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief. It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism. Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly. Our druggists here say they will either supply these ingredients or make the mixture ready to take, if any of our readers so prefer. Nacogdoches Citizen Visits Center. Mr. Joe P. Clevenger of Nacogdoches was a visitor to Center this week and while here honored the Advocate with an appreciated visit. Mr. Clevenger is one of the most prominent business men of Nacogdoches county and is at present engaged in the mill business at Clevenger, Texas, but he informs us that if he can secure a sufficient amount of stumpage near the line of some railway in Shelby or Sabine county, he is considering the advisability of moving. To an Advocate reporter Mr. Clevenger expressed surprise at the rapid and permanent growth of Center and predicted that the town is destined in future to be one of the largest and most important of the East Texas cities.—Center Advocate. Bert Barber of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder pills. They are sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. The Reason Why.
A San Antonio Gazette Reporter asked the management of the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, why it was that they had the largest commercial school of day attendance in America. The following satisfactory answer was given: "We teach the famous - Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Byrne Practical Bookkeeping and Business Training, by which we are enabled to turn out more practical bookkeepers and stenographers in three months than other schools teaching other systems can in six months. We teach telegraphy by using every record book and blank used by the railroad, and also have a train wire of the Cotton Belt - Railroad, which gives our students practical training in railroad work. We use a $300 Burroughs Adding Machine in our Banking Department, a McCaskey and a Hubor Account Register in our Retailing department, card systems, loose leaf ledgers, latest improved mimeographs, a $265 Gammatot Multigraph; the latest and most modern styles of filing cabinets are used in our model office training department. We place every graduate in a good position through our well-organized Employment Bureau, with over 150 agents throughout the Southern cities; every student we place in a good position is a living enthusiastic advertiser for the Tyler Commercial College. He advises his friends to attend our school because he is proud of the success he himself is achieving." This reporter advises everyone interested in a practical, money earning education to write for their 162 page beautiful and instructive catalogue. All the members were present, for it takes something really serious to keep us away, and all reported "one of the best times yet." The time was spent in playing "42," talking, singing and having a jolly time generally, as the Just For Fun girls are always capable of doing. ## Coughs of Children Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

Ayer's

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

Case Reversed.

The court of criminal appeals at Dallas yesterday reversed and remanded the case against Octavia Sanders, who was given two years for killing Charley Slay.

A Household Necessity.

I would almost as soon think of running my farm without implements as without Hunt's Lightning Oil. Of all the liniments I have ever used, both for man and beast, it is the quickest in action and richest in results. For burns and fresh cuts it is absolutely wonderful. I regard it a household necessity. Yours truly, S. Harrison, Kosciusko, Miss.

Sam Greer and family from Vernon, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Greer's sister, Mrs. Dr. Williams, of this city.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

SENSATIONAL ARRESTS.

Prominent Citizens of Trawick Charged With Theft.

Several days ago all the belts at J. H. Summers & Sons' saw mill at Trawick were stolen. The fact was reported to Sheriff Blackburn, and he went up to Trawick to investigate the matter.

As the result of his investigation, complaint was made against Dr. E. W. Dunn, Frank Baucum and John Norris, charging them with theft of the belts, valued at $200.

Each of the accused gave bond and was released.

Their examining trial is set for next Saturday, February 15, before Justice F. D. Huston in this city.

All parties concerned are prominent citizens, and their arrest on such a heinous charge has caused a decided sensation, and the public is requested to withhold judgment until the facts are learned.

It gives strength and quiet to tired nerves, tones the digestion, improves the appetite, brings restful, refreshing sleep, regulates every function, rids the system of malaria, puts roses on the cheeks, and joy in the heart. And it does it in a way so different from that of ordinary medicines that it calls forth the loudest praises. Pleasant to take as lemonade. Try it now. 50c, six for $2.50. For sale by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

THE HUMAN STOMACH.

Many and Grievous Abuses to Which it is Subjected.

Many and grievous are the abuses to which the average person subjects the stomach. The wonder is, not that so many, but that so few stomachs smarting under provocation do not strike.

When the long-abused stomach does turn, life is made miserable by sick headaches, nervousness, distress after eating, sleeplessness, coated tongue, specks before the eyes, general debility and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

Then the weakened muscles of the stomach need strengthening with Mi-o-na. The use of this simple remedy for a few days strengthens the whole digestive system so that it can take care of all the food that is eaten without pain or distress.

Stripling, Haselwood & Co. sell Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes under a guarantee to refund the money unless it does all that is claimed for it.

Editor Living High.

The Sentinel man is living high now, on peanut butter, through the kindness of Mr. L. G. Small, manager of the South Texas Telephone exchange. A few days ago Mr. Small's father-in-law, who represents a Chicago grocery concern, sent him two jars of peanut butter, and Mr. Small gave one of the jars to The Sentinel man.

The only regrettable features about the butter is the fact that it was manufactured in Chicago instead of Nacogdoches, and that there was not more of it.

Even From the Mountains.

Ballard's Snow Liniment is praised for the good it does. A sure cure for Rheumatism and all pains. Wright W. Loving, Grand Junction, Colo., writes: "I used Ballard's Snow Liniment, last winter, for Rheumatism and can recommend it as the best Liniment on the market. I thought, at the time I was taken down with this trouble, that it would be a week before I could get about, but on applying your Liniment several times during the night, I was about in 48 hours and well in three days." Mast Bros. & Smith.

GOES AFTER GERMS.

How Hyomei Does Its Work in Curing Catarrh.

The natural way of curing disease is always the scientific way, and the scientific way of curing catarrh is the simple way, with Hyomei.

Catarrh is a germ disease and can be cured only by using Hyomei, the treatment that reaches and destroys all catarrhal germs.

Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the Hyomei medication reaches the most remote air cells of the nose, throat and lungs, going after the catarrh germs wherever present, destroying them and preventing their growth, thus curing the disease.

Stripling, Haselwood & Co. sell Hyomei under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. Begin its use at once. The cost of a complete outfit is only $1.00.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Wm. Keely, convicted of violating the local option law, was overruled by Judge Mims, and his attorneys gave notice of appeal.

Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colo., Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by Mast Bros. & Smith.

At times when you don't feel just right, when you have a bad stomach, take something right away that will assist digestion; not something that will stimulate for a time, but something that will positively do the very work that the stomach performs under ordinary and normal conditions, something that will make the food digest. To do this you must take a natural digestant like Kodol for dyspepsia. Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. It is sure to afford prompt relief; it digests what you eat and is pleasant to take. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.
