ALICE WEBB GUILTY.

Former Texas Tobacco Queen Convicted of Fraud.

Chicago, Aug. 12. — Mrs. Alice L. Webb, divorced wife of Brodie L. Duke, millionaire tobacco manufacturer, today was found guilty of defrauding the Great Northern hotel by passing a worthless check. A motion for a new trial was made, to be argued later. If it is not granted, sentence will then be passed by the court.

Judge Kersten's court room was filled with a crowd of eager spectators when it was expected a verdict would be returned, but the opening of the sealed document was delayed nearly an hour, awaiting the arrival of the defendant. Garbed in black, as she was yesterday during the hearing of evidence, Mrs. Webb wore a composed expression of confidence that the verdict would be in her favor. Her plea was that the check, which was for $50, was written while she was under the influence of stimulants and narcotics taken to alleviate pain due to an attack of pleurisy, she believes would be sufficient to influence the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal.

At the word "guilty" the woman who a few years ago was mistress of millions flushed and trembled, but only momentarily. She recovered quickly and apparently was perfectly composed while her lawyer, Alfred E. Case, made the motion for a new trial.

The extreme penalty for the crime of which Mrs. Webb was found guilty is a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment in the county jail for one year. Mrs. Webb was once known as the "Tobacco Queen" and it was she who really started the tobacco industry about Nacogdoches.

Arthur H. Pierce Dead.

From Tuesday's Daily:

Arthur H. Pierce died this morning at 10:30 at the home of his mother on South Fredonia Hill. Deceased had been sick for a good many months and in the hopes of benefitting his health a trip was made to Western Texas. He was born in Mississippi September 18, 1884 and had lived in Nacogdoches the past two years. The past two school terms he had been in attendance at the college of Dentistry at Houston, having completed half of the entire course. He was a young man of sterling worth, industrious and well liked by all who knew him. Besides his mother, four brothers survive him, Dr. C. C. Pierce and two younger brothers, Homer and Emery of this city and Lee, a married brother who resides in Mississippi. Announcement is made that the funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, services at the city cemetery. Services will be conducted by the Liberty Elm-Camp No. 210, W. O. W., of which he was a member.

With Woodmen Honors.

The remains of Arthur H. Pierce were interred this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the city cemetery, the services being conducted by the Woodmen.

MRS. DAVIDSON, DEAD.

After Lingerin' Illness, Covering Many Months, Good Woman Passes Away.

From Tuesday's Daily:

Mrs. John P. Davidson, after a continued illness extending over many months, died at her home in this city last night at 9:30 o'clock. Her death was not altogether unexpected, as she had been sick a long while, at times seemingly much better and at others growing much worse. Mrs. Davidson, nee Mariah Sutphen was born in Tennessee April 19, 1848, at the time of her death being past 60 years of age. When she was four years old, her parents moved to Texas, locating near Appleby. There she resided until 1866, when on January 11th, she became the wife of John P. Davidson. Since, they have called Nacogdoches their home, though they have lived at other places, including Dallas and Galveston for short periods. Surviving the deceased besides her husband, are two brothers, Sam Sutphen of Eastland county and Jack Sutphen of California and two sisters, Mrs. Clammy and Mrs. Christopher of this county. Mrs. Davidson became affiliated with the Methodist church when but a child and all of her life since has been a consistent, hard working member, loving her church duties and attending to such closely until ill health forced her to remain away from them. A large number of friends were with her when she passed away. Funeral services are announced to take place at the city cemetery at 5 o'clock this afternoon, interment at 5:30.

Remains Interred.

The remains of Mrs. John P. Davidson were buried yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the city cemetery. A large concourse of friends and acquaintances were present and the services were very impressive. A noticeable feature was the pall bearers, all "old-timers"—men who had spent the majority of their years in this county. John P. Davidson and the deceased too, have been residents of Nacogdoches county for more than half a century.

THE SAN ANTONIO FAIR.

Arrangements Being Made for the Largest Meet in History.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 13.—Everything is being placed in readiness for the great International Fair which will open in San Antonio this year on September 26th, and will close on October 11th, and all indications promise that one of the greatest crowds that ever attended any Fair in Texas will visit San Antonio during the exposition.

A large force of men have been engaged for some time in putting the big exposition buildings, and the spacious grounds in order, and this work is almost completed.

The race track, which is the Mecca of tens of thousands during the Fair meeting, has been thoroughly renovated, and experts have pronounced it to be one of the best in the state in its present condition. Two hundred thoroughbreds and about half as many quarter horses are already training on the track for the race meeting, and it is expected that at least 600 thoroughbreds and from 200 to 300 quarter horses will take part in the racing program.

Live stock owners from all over the United States have entered their cattle, horses, goats, sheep, poultry, mules, bees, etc., for the premiums offered by the San Antonio International Fair Association, and judging from the number and quality of the entries thus early received, this feature of the present year's Fair will exceed all previous expositions.

Farm implement manufacturers of the North and South, have also acquired space to exhibit their wares, and even the large and representative exhibit in this line at last year's Fair, is already surpassed in the entries thus far received.

High class amusement attractions from New York and several of the other large cities of the country have been secured by the Fair Association, and included in the number are several free attractions, to which the patrons of the Fair will be welcome gratis.

Convention rates of one and one-fifth fares for the round trip, will be in force during the entire period of the Fair, and in addition to this low rate, a very much lower special rate, of a fraction of a one way fare for the round trip, will be in effect on a half a dozen or more special days during the exposition. One of these days will be September 30, which is "San Antonio and Mexico Day" and on which the largest crowd of the Fair will be in attendance.

Democratic Convention.

Notice is hereby given that a convention of the duly elected delegates to the Democratic Convention for the 2nd Judicial District is hereby called to meet at Lufkin, Texas, on Saturday, August 22nd, 1908, at 2 o'clock p. m. to declare the results of the recent primary election in said district and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.

S. W. Blount,

Chairman, Dem. Ex. Com. 2nd Judicial District.

A Correction.

In the official returns of the second primary, which appear on another page, there is a typographical error in the count for constable. The figures should have been exchanged to read:

"GOOD cigars" are "Nacogdoches grown."

WHAT'S the matter with a monthly trades day?

The "Boosters club" is hatching slowly but surely.

THE "tillers of the soil" would also appreciate a Trades Day.

BRYAN now knows that he is a candidate for the Presidency.

AND soon the cotton bales will be rolling into Nacogdoches.

NACOGDOCHES as a cotton market can't be excelled this season.

THE sentiment for fewer elections and longer terms is growing.

AND Mrs. Webb-Duke says she's coming back to Texas—to Nacogdoches.

DENISON is still boasting of her side walks—but then she's got them to boast about.

Some people haven't given up hopes of that fair yet. We hope they will realize.

DON'T complain about hot weather; sunshine is healthful for people and cotton too.

WE believe the band boys would gladly donate their services for a monthly trades day.

AT Beaumont, Ida Sauce has sued Lee Sauce for a divorce. A "saucy" couple, no doubt.

"EVERY little bit helps" of course, but in the matter of cleaning up, the more the better.

A LONG three months and not a meeting of the Commercial club, doesn't sound real well.

IT'S about time Brownwood was having another oil boom. Hasn't had one for some three or four weeks.

FIVE hundred acres of tobacco in 1909 would be a great thing for Nacogdoches. It may be "500."

NACOGDOCHES continues to do her share of building and gives promise of doing considerably more.

RAIN is needed in many sections, though cotton is said to be standing the dry weather splendidly.

A MAN who doesn't push for his town ought at least to tie a rag around his hands and claim he is crippled.

CUSHING has a Progressive League, nearly every citizen of the little city being on the membership roll. Hurrah twice for Cushing.

DON'T neglect to "boost" on every hand and all of the time, and while you are doing that, don't lose sight of the fact that "boosting" alone will not build a city.

A TRADES DAY

It is perfectly plain to everyone that Nacogdoches citizens should not procrastinate longer. There are many things that need be done and a slight exertion on the part of all, a concert of action, would mean success for all of them. The Commercial Club should be up and doing. Every citizen should be a member of this organization and every member should take an active part. One of the things that needs attention is "trade pulling" and "town advertising." Not only pull from away off and advertise in other parts, but right here at home. There is no better way to accomplish the desired end than by trades days. The cost would be small, the amount of work to inaugurate such would be slight, while the results would prove most gratifying. There are at least 50 business houses who ought to be willing to contribute from one to three dollars each month for such an enterprise. Suppose $75 is collected. Offer $30 or $40 of that in premiums for the best corn, best cotton, potatoes, hogs, cattle or any other products. Include in that list prizes for foot races, hurdle races, or any other things that would prove amusing and attract crowds. Take the remainder of the apportionment and spend it for advertising and put circulars etc in every home in the county. Then let each merchant take a certain article and quote a special price on it for that day. That would cause an immense crowd to come to town and of course business is good where there are people. That would be a trades day and one that Nacogdoches business men would be glad to continue. It is up to the Commercial Club to make a step in the right direction and do it now.

THERE is no more reason that you should neglect your town's interest than there is for neglecting your own business.

BELTON Commercial Club has launched a Bell county Fair the date for having it this year being Oct. 4-10.

ONLY a few weeks until the crop harvest are to begin and no concerted action by Nacogdoches yet, in the "trade pulling" line.

THE fact alone that Port Arthur claims John W. Gates as a resident, is not going to make that little town grow to be a city.

DUTY is deserving of no praise, yet we must commend the city authorities for the work that is being done on the streets.

THE Sentinel takes extreme pleasure in chronicling the fact that the big patch of weeds on North Fredonia street, near the Episcopal church, is being cut down.

LUFKIN folks seem to have gone into the poultry business for success. Several have nice pens of the real good chickens, and are disposing of their surplus at good prices. It pays to raise chickens.

A THREE story, brick tobacco barn, 60x100 feet, would look good in Nacogdoches. But it's needed. Keep your ear to the ground.

A CONCERTED action on the part of the business men would result in one of the biggest trades days in the whole of East Texas.

"AN act to make it a misdemeanor for any man to kiss his own wife or any other man's wife on Sunday" ought to cause lots of those Louisianans to come to Texas.

THE "city dads" have done nothing yet toward the building of street crossings, though Nacogdoches can't lay claim to even one. It may rain again some day and then—

CITIZENS of Nacogdoches should not longer put off the matter of inaugurating a Trades Day. It is almost a necessity, though it will prove a most beneficial one.

THERE are lots and lots of things that the Commercial club should be looking after, and unless that august body gets busy soon it will be too late to take them up this year.

THE fact that a firkin of butter has been dug up in Egypt, after being buried 3000 years, need cause no alarm. Chicago boarding houses have probably already contracted for it.

THE Beaumont Journal is complaining of the "knockers." We were of the impression that the only knockers that infested that city were the kind that use their "bills" and sing the "Doxology" as they work.

No such people as that bunch of "Gypsies" should be allowed to stop in this city. They are utterly indecent and the fakes they perpetrate on the people should cause them to either be "run in" or "run out."

THE sheath gown has made it's appearance at Beaumont. According to the Journal Editor one was seen on the streets there and the wearer thereof had to resort to a cab to get away from the gazing male population, and even admits that he liked to look in that direction himself.

TWO hundred and fifty farmers with a two acre tobacco crop each, in addition to their regular crops of cotton, corn, etc., would mean more than $10,000 added to the wealth of those farmers. And a two acre patch could be grown without any extra outlay for labor, material and buildings. Plant some tobacco next year.

WE are proud to see San Augustine taking such an interest in her tobacco industry. That's the proper thing to do and will mean success, but San Augustine folks should not forget that Nacogdoches is the hub around which revolves the important industry in Texas, and that hundreds of acres of the valuable crop will be grown in this county in 1909.

The Ladies at Work.

A FEW days ago The Sentinel suggested that some of the ladies organizations ought to take up the proposition of putting a nice fence around the college campus and setting out trees, shrubbery etc. We learn to-day that the matter has been taken up by the ladies—in a different way however. It is understood that the members of all the clubs and many others too, have signed a petition to the School Board, asking them to let the fence remain down—or at least not to put up another. This we believe now, a most commendable move, inasmuch as the stock law assures the people of no devastations or damage in any way, by loose cattle, horses etc. Again, too, the $300 or $400 that would be required to erect a new enclosure could, and no doubt will be, wisely expended in putting out shade trees, shrubbery, and in other ways beautifying the grounds. We are glad to know the ladies have taken an interest in the matter and unhesitatingly vouch for them, in any undertaking, the hearty good will and unqualified support of all. The need of the campus being beautified is perfectly plain to every one and the fact that the ladies of the city have taken hold, means that the unanimous wishes of all patriotic citizens, at an early date, will be gratified.

HAVE you thought about that Trades Day matter? If not, put your thinker to work, and follow up with a chat with your friends about such a feature. Nacogdoches needs a Trades Day every month, and every citizen ought to take it upon himself to see that one is inaugurated at once.

THE city authorities and the street force are to be commended for the excellent work being done on North and North Fredonia streets. The two thoroughfares have needed fixing for some time and the labors of the past few days is greatly appreciated, especially by the residents of those streets.

THE Denison Herald has sounded a warning, advising the people to examine carefully all $20 bills, and be sure they have not been raised from fives. Not being bothered with any of the stuff ourselves, we hereby tender our services to others who may have the velvet that needs examination.

MR. MERCHANT, are you doing your part toward boosting Nacogdoches? Are you doing what you should in the way of advertising your home city and county, to the world? Are you taking the interest in the industries, that is expected of you as a citizen and as a business man? Are you encouraging present enterprises and the getting of new ones? If you are, duty has been performed, but if you are not, you should turn over a new leaf, get real busy and enlist your services in the good work of upbuilding Nacogdoches and Nacogdoches county.

AN exchange speaks of a man who it is said always paid for his local paper in advance. As a result he has never been sick in his life, never had corns on his toes nor toothache; his potatoes never rust; his babies never cry at night; his wife never scolds, and he succeeded in serving three terms on the school board without being cussed.

EVERY farmer in Nacogdoches and adjoining counties would be benefitted by a trades day and every merchant and business man in this city would also be a beneficiary. Then why shouldn't such a feature be inaugurated. Without a doubt every body would be pleased and one would mean more. Let some hustling business man take the matter up at once. Nacogdoches would profit greatly.

In today's Dallas-Galveston News there appears a report of the cotton crop condition over the state. The information on which the News report is based, was furnished, of course, by correspondents. The News reputation for reliability, the past record along this line, and its absolute fairness in all matters, make it a great paper and one appreciated. Now as to the report. East Texas condition, as compared with last year the same date, is 118.9, or almost 19 per cent better than in 1907. For the entire state the condition is put at 119.5 as compared with last year, or nearly 20 per cent better. The acreage is only two per cent more than 1907. According to that report too, the crop is some earlier in sections and labor to gather it is plentiful; one or two instances however, the cotton is reported late as is also a scarcity of help to harvest it. In southwest Texas picking is in full blast, one town having already received 1500 bales and averaging more than 100 a day. All in all, the cotton over Texas is very flattering and gives promise of yielding a much larger crop than 1907.

General Weather Summary.

Galveston Bureau.
The past week was marked by generally dry and warm weather. Good showers occurred in the Panhandle and extreme western counties on several days, while light showers occurred in scattered localities in south-central, southwestern and coast counties, mostly at the close of the week. There was no precipitation in the greater portion of the State, and rain is needed in many counties. The sunshine was abundant.

The mean temperature was from one to three degrees above the normal, except in the Rio Grande Valley where it was either normal or slightly below. The days were unusually warm, but the nights were comparatively cool. The highest temperature reported was 103 degrees at Greenville, and the lowest, 58 degrees at Amarillo.

During the corresponding week of the previous year the weather was warmer, and good showers occurred in middle coast and south-central counties.

MR. BLOUNT HOME.

Returns Saturday From State Democratic Convention at San Antonio.

Hon. S. W. Blount returned Saturday from San Antonio where he went as a delegate to the State Democratic convention. Judge Blount took quite an active part in the proceedings and was prominently mentioned as a candidate for state chairman. This honor was declined by the Nacogdoches gentleman, and who was a supporter of Judge A. B. Storey of Lockhart for the position. Judge Blount seconded the nomination of the Lockhart statesman, a feat which the Galveston News said:

"Then a feature came in the speeches made by S. W. Blount, who had been the choice of the submissionists for the office of chairman, and by Sterling P. Strong, the leader of the submissionist forces. Mr. Blount was greatly cheered as he appeared upon the platform. He said the brightest jewel in the character and reputation of Gen. Grant was not the victories he had won in the battle, but the magnanimity he had shown to that great chieftain, Gen. Robert E. Lee. Remember this, as a representative of the submissionists who had won the final battle in this convention and as one whose name had been before the delegates unofficially as a possible opponent of Judge Storey, it afforded him much pleasure to refute the old Jacksonian theory, that 'to the victor belongs the spoils,' and to say in behalf of the submission caucus that they heartily endorsed and seconded the nomination of the man placed in nomination. Not to every man of the opposition would this honor have been accorded said he, but knowing Judge Storey to be fitted for this position, knowing that he is a Democrat and we are all Democrats regardless of submission (applause), we are pleased to place the machinery of the Democratic party in his hands, with an abiding confidence that he will use it with splendid ability and the utmost fairness and with the honor that has always characterized his life. (Great applause.)"

THE time was when farming was considered the most humble of occupations. If a young man made a failure in business ventures, or met with little success in the line of work he had taken up, his friends were apt to advise him to go to farming. Farm life and farm work was looked upon as a drudgery and the farmer was little more a beast of burden. But things are different today. The life of a farmer is the happiest, most contented and the only really independent life there is. Farmers have their conveniently built houses, telephones, and daily mail. They read and think. They have learned and are continuing to learn the best way to farm. They are practical. Farming now must be learned before one can farm.

Mr. Seale, while away, will visit St. Louis, Chicago and New York and expects to purchase the very choicest in the dry goods line. J. F. Summers & Son Buy P. B. Ligon's Furniture Store.

One of the largest business deals made here for some time was consummated last week, when P. B. Ligon disposed of his furniture stock to J. F. Summers and son, Link F. Summers. The new firm has already assumed charge and are doing business at the same old stand and where it will be continued. Mr. Ligon has built up a large and profitable trade, although in business here but a few years, while the new firm is not composed of new people to Nacogdoches county. J. F. Summers, the senior member, is well known over the entire county, having been a resident for more than half a century, 32 years of which has been spent in the mercantile business. In the early part of 1876 he engaged in business in the country, a few years later moving to this city where he re-entered the business circles and continued 24 years, until fire destroyed the Mercantile company. Mr. Summers has been identified with several firms, namely:—J. H. Summers & Bro., Summers & Tucker and the Nacogdoches Mercantile company, being secretary and treasurer of the latter. The new firm will continue to carry a full and complete stock of furniture and house hold furnishing goods.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untold Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until today we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them; and by the aid of this conviction he has gathered together the almost magical cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most powerful stomach tonic, liver invigorant, heart tonic, and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medicine. Dyspepsia, indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart which it cures. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., on all sending request for the same.

Not less marvellous, in the unparalleled cure it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and disturbing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of grateful testimonials contributed by happy patients who have been cured of catarrhal pelvic troubles, painful periods, irregularities, profuse and other displacements caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and ovaries, etc. After many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of the medicinal roots, processes employed in their manufacture were originated with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by the chemists and druggists who have been provided with apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol or all other harmful habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

Heartburn Comes From the Stomach

The heart is an organ that people are not inclined to trifle with, but a person may have fluttering of the heart, heartburn and similar troubles and yet have a perfectly sound heart. Nine times out of ten the disorder comes, from the stomach through dyspepsia, constipation or some other digestive ailment. So instead of taking "heart cures" or other such things that contain stimulants and narcotics, take a harmless but effective remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which will correct the digestive disorder and in that way cure the supposed heart trouble. The remedy is guaranteed to do this, and you can obtain it of any druggist in 50-cent and $1 bottles. As there are about the dozen to the latter the cure will cost you but a few cents. The experience of Mrs. Knight, of Bellevue, Tenn., in this regard should be of interest to all who suffer from heartburn, etc. She writes that for five years she suffered from indigestion and constipation, from fainting spells, fluttering at the heart and heartburn. She couldn't eat meat or anything seasoned with meat. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was recommended to her and after a few doses the indigestion and constipation was relieved and the fainting spells and heart trouble soon disappeared. She took a dose of the remedy after eating and now never feels any ill effects so master what she eats. It would be well for those who suffer in this way to do as she did and be cured. There is no question about Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin being the best and most effective laxative and digestant at the disposal of the American people. It is gentle in action and pleasant to taste. It never gripes. It is the ideal remedy for stomach, liver and bowel complaints, and owing to its gentle action is especially recommended to children, women and others who cannot stand the violence and griping of saline purgatives and cathartic tablets.

PULL, push or get out of the way.

CHAMP CLARK says Missouri is in line for W. J. Bryan. Here's hoping he knows.

"It's never too late to do good," and it's the same way about building sidewalks.

A GLIMPSE at the hotel registers will prove that they are coming to Nacogdoches.

"NACOGDOCHES is bound to build" is heard almost daily; but are the people going to help?

"ORGANIZED appetites conspiring for spoils" is the way one man defines political parties and partyism.

"A STRONG pull, a long pull and all pull together" is a good motto for the citizens of Nacogdoches.

THOSE people north who are making arrangements to find new homes in the south-land should be told of Nacogdoches.

THE fellow who falls out with you because all you do and say don't exactly agree with his beliefs, isn't worth cultivating the friendship and patronage of anyway.

THE man with a smile on his face, a good word and a hearty handshake, is not only a success himself but the influence he wields among others helps make them successful also.

THE Shreveport Times has been sold to a New Orleans company, headed by President Ewing of the Daily States of that city. Many improvements are promised by the new management.

Two hundred and fifty farmers with 2-acre patches of tobacco, with just a half crop would mean more than $50,000 wealth added to the holdings of those men. Nacogdoches county can easily have that in 1909.

If everything doesn't go to suit you, make the best of it and endeavor as far as possible to right matters. No man ever succeeded by contraries. Get on the right track, adapt yourself to existing conditions and the people around you; get in harmony with the world and you will find that things will go smoother, work will be easier and distasteful matters and petty grievances will be fewer and farther apart.

EACH year the State provides for a student labor fund in the A. & M. College of Texas, to be paid out to students who wish to do work while securing an education. The last legislature appropriated $6,000.00 for this purpose. The appropriation has proved to be a great blessing to boys who are poor and who would otherwise be unable to secure an education. The boys are paid by the hour and do all forms of labor from waiting on the table to acting as secretaries or stenographers.

TOO MUCH MONEY.

Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke Says She Has Coin in Many Banks.

Chicago American.

A jury in Judge Kersten's court was given a lesson in strenuous finance today during the trial of Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke, divorced wife of Brodie L. Duke, the multi-millionaire tobacco magnate, who is on trial charged with swindling the Great Northern Hotel Company by means of alleged worthless checks.

Testimony for the state closed two hours after the jury was sworn and witnesses for the defense were then called. The defense was based on the unique plea that Mrs. Webb-Duke had so much money in so many banks that she couldn't keep track of it all.

Needing $50, it was claimed, she instructed her broker, Leonard W. Giles, to draw a check for that amount. Giles took the witness stand and naively told how he had reached among a pile of check books, picked one out at random, filled in the body of the check and held the book for Mrs. Webb-Duke to sign.

And that little random act brought M. C. Parish, clerk in the Commercial Bank of Nacogdoches, Texas, all the way from the Lone Star state to swear that Mrs. Webb-Duke had no account in that bank.

Parish said he was clerk, teller and general factotum in the bank, and that he knew everyone, of its depositors personally.

Before Parish was called three employes of the Great Northern hotel were sworn. First came John H. Burnside, manager of the hotel, who said he had O. K.'d a check signed by the defendant for 50 dollars.

Then came Miss Rosa Ebler, the cashier, who said she had paid the check, and lastly came Joseph Quick, a bell-boy, who swore Mrs. Webb-Duke had given him the check and that he had taken it to the cashier, cashed it and returned the money to the defendant.

Mrs. Webb-Duke prepared to take the stand late this afternoon. Her defense is that she is a rich woman, that the check was drawn while she was in an irresponsible mental condition. Giles, the first witness, testified to that condition. "She was very nervous that day," said Giles.

"What was the matter with her?" asked Prosecutor Day. "I don't know."

"Wasn't it alcoholism?" "Well, I guess it was," replied the witness.

The woman, who at one time had a dower interest in an estate worth $20,000,000, when called upon to plead, lifted her head proudly as she replied:

"Not guilty!" to the charge of having swindled the Great Northern Hotel Company out of $200—an amount so petty in the estimation of the defendant that she smiled in derision as two checks were laid on the table in front of the jury.

"I've spent as much as that in one day for postage stamps," said Mrs. Duke, as she pointed to the checks.

The defense by as indicated by Attorney Alfred E. Case, will be that Mrs. Webb-Duke signed the checks while under the influence of narcotics.

As she sat in front of the jury box listening to the questions and answers during the examination of veniremen Mrs. Webb-Duke, in broken, whispered sentences outlined her life career and smiled as she said:

"I'm proud of what I've been and what I've done."

Just then Attorney Case asked her opinion concerning four veniremen who had just been tendered by Prosecutor Edward Day.

"Take them all but that young man. He looks like a prig. His hands are too clean and his linen too white. Those are the kind of men who have caused me all my trouble."

Then she resumed the story of her life.

"When I was a girl I wanted to make a fortune. When I was fifteen years old I began business. I was an expert judge of lands. I bought and sold thousands of dollars' worth. I started the tobacco industry in Texas and I married a man worth $20,000,000, who loved me. But his children wanted his money—all of his money—and they separated us and they have hounded me until I am here on trial like a common felon. But I am going to be acquitted," she predicted. "I'm going to win. Here is where my luck changes. Another thing—I am not penniless. I still have money and interests that will make a great fortune for me."

Mrs. Duke was dressed in a black lace and silk costume with a modest "Merry Widow" hat. She wore large pearl ear-rings and twirled a fan.

A feature of the proceedings of the first session of court was the playing of a hurdy-gurdy in Dearborn avenue in front of the Criminal Court Building. Several ancient airs were played and the wheezy organ was dolefully wailing the strains of "Dad's a Millionaire" when a deputy sheriff ordered the hurdy-gurdy man away. "That's lucky to hear that old tune. I had my millions once. The trouble was that as soon as I got them they always got away," sighed the defendant.

Gov. C. N. Haskell has caused a complaint, charging criminal libel, to be filed against the editor of the Oklahoma Times, a Republican paper. It is alleged that an editorial appeared in that paper some days ago, insinuating that the Oklahoma executive was playing to the Standard Oil Co.

To the Commercial club:—Nacogdoches county needs more people; the tobacco industry should be pushed; this city is entitled to free mail delivery; sidewalks should be built; a fair would be a great thing; more factories ought to be secured. Gen. R. E. Lee Born After Burial of His Mother.

Home and Church.

The one hundred and first anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee recalls the little known fact that he was born more than a year after his mother had been buried, furnishing to the world one of the most astonishing cases of reviviscence on record.

General Lee's mother was by no means an entirely healthy woman, and the physician at Stratford, Va., the home of Henry Lee (Light Horse Harry) was kept in constant attendance. Mrs. Lee suffered from catalepsy, and during a prolonged trance she was pronounced dead. The body was prepared for interment, and the morning of the third day after her supposed death, the remains were laid in the family vault, in the graveyard of that pretty little Virginia village.

Members of the family made frequent visits to the vault, and while the sexton was cleaning up and arranging some flowers to be placed on the caskets, he heard a faint voice, as though of some one calling for assistance. Of course, the old man was somewhat alarmed, but as he had seen many years of service in the "city of the dead," he did not leave the vault. He listened closely and the voice was distinctly heard again. Becoming satisfied the voice came from within the casket, he at once set to work and opened it discovering that Mrs. Lee was alive. Releasing the poor woman from her awful fate, assistance was soon summoned and with in a short-time she was safe in bed at her home.

Mrs. Lee's recovery was slow, but she did regain good health, and a little more than a year after she was buried alive, her youngest son, Robert E., was born, and thus came into the world one of her bravest men.

The Garrison Gleaner man evidently is not well pleased with the way his patrons treat him about news and says:

"The friends of this paper will please hand us in news items when they are fresh. We prefer not to publish a birth after the child is weaned, a marriage after the honeymoon is over, or the death of a man after his widow is married again."

Among the charters granted by the secretary of state at Austin we note the following: Tucker, Hayter & Co. of Nacogdoches; capital stock $20,000; purpose, to buy and sell merchandise; incorporators, F. H. Tucker, J. M. Tucker, R. H. Hayter and S. B. Hayter.

SECRETARIES TO BE REPRESENTED

All Progressive Organizations Expect to be Represented

The fourth annual meeting of the Texas Commercial Secretaries Association will be held at the rooms of the Board of Trade at Fort Worth on September 9-10-11th. The response to invitations to participate have been most gratifying in tone, and the recent work of the organization has so enthused the Secretaries that the attendance promises to be the largest of any ever held in the state, and the program will be the most comprehensive and complete ever discussed by any commercial body in this great empire. This is the regular annual meeting of Secretaries (only) and the reports of standing committees will be heard and results accomplished by the Association during the past year reviewed, and the future work of the organization outlined. This association met in Fort Worth a year ago and organized the following committee: Legislative, Good Roads, County Fairs, Public Parks and Shade Trees, Rural Relations, Transportation and Rates, Advertising, Publicity and Immigration. The Legislative Committee has been the most active, but there is a broad field of usefulness for all other committees, which they should occupy, and methods of organizing and encouraging concerted action along these lines will be open for discussion. The scope of the proposed work will be thoroughly canvassed and a system adopted whereby each unit can contribute toward a grand result in building up and developing the neglected and latent resources of the commonwealth. The officers of the Association will be elected for the ensuing year and standing committees appointed to carry on the work along the plans adopted until success crowns their effort.

There are in Texas about three hundred commercial organizations, with a membership of 100,000 of the most active and progressive men of their respective communities, who give direction and impetus to the material development of their localities, and the combined influence these leaders of thought wield in our affairs is being felt throughout the state today. The possible good to be accomplished by state association is ably illustrated by the results already obtained, and the appreciation shown of the small organizations is ample proof that the seed has been sown on good ground.

Rev. W. F. Davis was called to Nacogdoches today to attend the funeral services of Mrs. John F. Davidson, of that city who died last night. Mrs. Davidson was a most estimable lady and her death is deeply deplored in this city. Rev. Davis will return this evening.—Lufkin News.

Bridwell's Lake.

Several hundred people responded to Mr. Bridwell's invitation to come out and enjoy the pleasures of his popular lake Saturday night, and a good time they certainly had. Besides the usual past time of boating, bathing, other amusements had been provided, notably tables for "42."

An interesting feature was the selection of a permanent name for this little resort, in which everybody had a say, with the result that the appropriate and euphonious name of "West End" Lake was finally decided upon.

The Sewing Circle.

Mrs. Frank, Kiley, assisted by her two guests, Misses Nash and Greenwood entertained the Sewing Circle on Thursday afternoon, when as usual a delightful afternoon was spent. The members present were: Mesdames Geo. H. Barham, Oscar Matthews, W. H. Johnson, Misses Wade, Jones, Schmidt, Belle Zeve and were supplemented by the following guests, Mrs. E. S. Blount, Misses Zirlata Matthews, Lillian Davidson and Mintie Blount. The refreshments of pineapple ice cream and cake were thoroughly enjoyed.

I will be better prepared to take care of your cotton this season than ever, as I am building a shed to store cotton under and I expect to stay with it from season to season which I have not been able to do heretofore on account of not having any way to care for cotton through the summer season. Thanking you for past favors, and asking a share of your patronage this season, I am,

Texas' Place as a Tobacco Raising State.

Galveston News.

The following table shows the value of the tobacco crop by the acre in different states:

Florida	$416.24
Georgia	344.00
Texas	210.00
New Hampshire	198.00
Vermont	195.00
Connecticut	173.65
Massachusetts	167.75
Mississippi	142.50
Alabama	108.00
Louisiana	98.60
South Carolina	96.30
Pennsylvania	94.50
Indiana	92.12
Kentucky	90.78
Missouri	90.75
Illinois	80.00
Virginia	79.80
Tennessee	78.40
Ohio	75.60
West Virginia	72.00
Wisconsin	71.50
New York	69.00
North Carolina	68.75
Maryland	42.90
United States	85.75

Considering that Texas is, comparatively speaking, a new hand at the business, $210 per acre is highly encouraging. Georgia and Florida are just across from Cuba, where a very high priced quality of tobacco is produced, and enterprising citizens of these states have been at work for years in their efforts by scientific fertilization and cultivation to obtain the best results from the best Cuban stock. It is only during recent years that Texans have gone into the business in earnest, and the result is highly encouraging.

As the list now stands, Texas is third, and her product per acre is more than thrice as much in dollars as that of the "old reliables" among the tobacco states.

With the most scientific preparation and care, Texas can be moved up to the top of the column; where she belongs, of course. Sumatra wrapper and Vuelta Abajo filler can be grown in Texas just as well as in Florida.

In the great work of diversification of crops there must be no delay or failure in making the very best of tobacco growing in Texas. It we have gone up to third place in the list in a few years, at the first bound, as it were, there is no reason to doubt that we can easily lead all the other states in tobacco as we lead them in other products of the soil.

BAD NEGRO CAUGHT.

Sheriff Blackburn Makes Important Capture—Wanted for Murder.

From Friday's Daily:

Sheriff George W. Blackburn has added new laurels to his efficient record as a peace officer in the capacity of "high sheriff." This time the catch is a negro, wanted for the murder of his mother-in-law near Magnolia, Arkansas, more than two years ago. That the negro is the right one is admitted by himself and that he is a "bad one" is not only claimed too, but is seen on his countenance and in his talk.

GETS A DESCRIPTION.

On the Wednesday noon train Sheriff Blackburn received a circular describing the criminal and offering a reward for his arrest. The circular is:

$100 Reward—One hundred dollars will be paid for arrest and conviction of Fields Paschal for the murder of Anna Flanigan on Monday, July 2nd, 1906, twelve miles southeast of Magnolia, Ark.

Description as follows: A negro 25 or 26 years old, about 5 feet and 10 inches high, weight 150 to 160 pounds; black complexion, rough features, high cheek bones, skin of face rough, white of eyes very noticeable; tries to appear very pleasant to white people. Very talkative to white people when acquainted.

When last seen he carried a single-barrel shot gun, the gun he did the killing with.

The above reward will be paid by the Governor of the State. J. P. Machen, Sheriff of Columbia County, Magnolia, Arkansas.

SOME QUICK WORK.

That was just two days ago and in less than 30 hours after the description was read, the negro was in the clutches of the law. Sheriff Blackburn knew that a negro, fitting the description had worked several months down below Woden, so accompanied by Deputy Horace Wilson and Mr. Hampton, to identify the negro, he went to the neighborhood. It wasn't long until Pashal was located. Riding up near the house, the negro was called. At the time he was sitting on the gallery, having just arrived there and was picking a guitar. Thinking Mr. Hampton, or some of the others, wanted to hire him he went to them, was promptly arrested and handcuffed and brought here and placed in jail.

ADMITS HIS GUILT.

The capture was effected on Drivers place about eight miles from Woden. On the way to this city, the negro became quite talkative, admitting that he killed the woman, had been on the scout since, had been in the country south of here for several months and was afraid of nobody. He gives the details of the crime well, his statements coinciding with those of the Arkansas sheriff in almost every particular. He claims too that the killing was done in self defense, though admitting that he went to his mother-in-laws house and called her out. He claims too that his name is Harrison Paschal.

WISHED FOR HIS GUN.

That a shooting scrape was avoided in arresting the negro, was due strictly to the manner in which Sheriff Blackburn maneuvered. Paschal on arriving at the house when he was caught, set his winchester inside of the door, and sat down on the gallery. According to his own word, if he had had his gun or had thought the men were after him, he would have had some fun, as he termed it. He stated that he would not have given up but for the fact that he was taken wholly by surprise.

TALKED TO REPORTER.

This morning a Sentinel reporter, accompanied Sheriff Blackburn to the jail to see and talk to the prisoner. Paschal is a very talkative negro and when questioned gave the following account of the crime:

"About 8 o'clock of Monday morning, July 2 1906, my wife and I went up to my mother-in-law's, Annie Flanigan, house and my wife went in. In the house was my mother-in-law, another negro woman and a negro man I did not know. I called to my wife to come out of the house at the same time telling Annie Flanigan that I didn't want any trouble but wanted my wife to come on out. About that time all four came out on the gallery, Annine Flanigan and the man with an axe, hatchet and hoe in their hands. I shot at the man but killed my mother-in-law. The man ran and I tried to shoot him then but my pistol snapped."

COMES TO TEXAS.

The killing occurred 12 miles from Magnolia Arkansas. Paschal left that section as fast as possible and since then has been on the scout. He came first to the State Line Mill in Louisiana, then went to New Orleans; next came to Texas and picked cotton fall before last and last fall around Bryan, Grosbeck, Corsicana and near Frederick, Okla. Leaving there he came back to Texas, landing in the Hampton Front section. From there he scouted to Louisiana then back to that section a few months ago and where he has been since. He claims that he has never been in jail before and aside from a few fights, has never been in any other trouble. From a conversation it is evident that he has been a roustabout as he is well acquainted with the sections of the county he claims to have been in the past two years.

FITS THE DESCRIPTION.

The circular description of the negro could not have been better, though he claims to be 29 years old instead of 25. High-cheek bones, white eyes and as black as they usually get, weighing in the vicinity of 150 pounds and seemingly anxious to talk, especially to tell his own side of the story. His looks, too, show a stubborn, determined head, to the point of "soon be dead as alive." In fact he so stated that he only had one time to die, but now the officers had him and it may be best that he did not have the gun. His conversation, in the worst form of African English, as well as his looks, but act as an index to a semi-brutish human, strongly inclined to defy all and devoid of any law abiding nature.

MAGNOLIA OFFICIAL ENROUTE.

Immediately upon the capture of the murderer Sheriff Blackburn notified the Magnolia officer by wire and this morning received a reply from him stating that he would leave on the first train for Nacogdoches. About noon however Sheriff Machen called Sheriff Blackburn stating that he had arrived in Shreveport and asked if the negro could not be brought there. Mr. Blackburn, knowing the inconvenience and the loss of time to the Arkansas officer in coming on here, agreed to carry Paschal to Shreveport and left at 1:30 this afternoon with his prisoner. Mr. Blackburn also received a letter this morning from the Magnolia sheriff giving the details of the crime and thanking the local officer for his rapid and efficient apprehension of the much wanted and much searched for criminal.

MANY CONGRATULATIONS.

The many friends of Sheriff Blackburn are much elated over this most important catch and last night and today have been congratulating him for the quick and effective work. It is asserted by many that this is the quickest capture of a murderer on record, especially one that has been lost for more than two years. The Arkansas official is well pleased too and assured Mr. Blackburn that the $100 reward would be paid him when they meet. Sheriff Blackburn will return from Shreveport on the night train.
