PASSES AWAY LAST NIGHT.

Thomas J. Stack, After Very Short Illness, Dies at 10 O'clock—Interment Tomorrow.

From Tuesday's Daily:

Thomas J. Stack, senior member of the firm of Stack & Smith of this city, died last night at about 10 o'clock. The word that he was dead came as a distinct shock, and many this morning on being apprised of the demise, expressed much surprise and sorrow, in as much as his sickness was of such short duration as to be hardly known. Mr. Stack was at the compress fire Saturday night, got very wet and being exposed to the cold that night, is said to have been the cause of his sickness. Yesterday morning about nine o'clock, it seems, he complained of feeling very badly and went home and immediately took to his bed. Physicians were called in and worked with him all day but at about 10 o'clock last night he died. Mr. Stack has been a citizen of Nacogdoches for many years,—about 18,—and has always been considered a very successful business man. He was a member of the W. O. W. Lodge since July 1906, and was also a member of the fire department—one of the best fire fighters in the city. He was about 47 years old and leaves a wife and several children. The interment will not take place until tomorrow afternoon at 4:30, a brother and sister in New Orleans, Stripling, Haselwood & Co. w not being able to get here before tomorrow at noon. The services will be conducted by the Woodmen, the members of the Fire Department also to attend the burial in a body.

Somer Talks Death Plot.

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran of Kemp, Texas, that a plot existed between a desperate lung trouble and the grave to cause his death. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, or years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 178 pounds." For severe colds, obstinate coughs, Hemorrhages, asthma, and to prevent Pneumonia, it's unrivaled. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. w

BIG LOSS THREATENED.

But For Promptness of Fire Boys and Excellent Water Service, Compress and Patients Would Have Burned

Nacogdoches came near suffering a big fire loss Saturday night, and no doubt would have done so had it not been for the usual promptness of the Fire Department, together with the splendid water pressure. It was just a few minutes past midnight when the alarm was given that the compress was on fire, and in five minutes the fire boys were on hand with hose and had a stream of water playing on the blaze. The fire is supposed to have started from the stove flue in the office, the latter being located on the northwest corner of compress platform. The night watchman discovered the blaze and sounded the alarm. The damage resulting was small as only a portion of the office roof was burned. At the time there were something like 2000 bales of cotton on the wharf, in addition to several box cars which were on the compress siding; all of which with the big plant would have been burned had not the fire department been so quick and effective in its work. Luckily too, the wind was not blowing strongly and which added favor to the Nacogdoches fire fighters. The amount of property at stake would have easily exceeded $100,000. Many expressions of praise for the fire boys and the water works have been heard today and it goes without saying that every citizen is proud of both, and realizes greatly the importance of both to the city.

Mr. John Schmidt, secretary and treasurer of the company, in speaking of the matter today said that the run Saturday night was certainly a quick one and the work the best ever. He appreciates very much the fire department and the waterworks and the good service rendered Saturday night.

Women Bootleggers in Nacogdoches.

According to the Nacogdoches Sentinel Sheriff Spradley of that county has recently unearthed a nest of "women bootleggers." As the sheriff has never lived in Kansas or Maine he did not suspect the women bootleggers. He took on a road trip to the city of St. Louis and the property of the ages of sewing and made a matter how small, can have a system of good sidewalks. Sidewalks in the smaller towns are less expensive than

J. M. TAYLOR DEAD

Aged Track Man of South Eastern Railroad Succumbs to Pneumonia

After a spell of pneumonia lasting for several weeks, J. M. Taylor died at the Haywood Mill last night. He was fifty-eight years of age and had been a citizen of Nacogdoches for about forty years, during which time he was track foreman for the Southeastern railroad. He came here when the road was begun and superintended the laying of the steel. He was an excellent gentleman and had many friends in this city who extend sympathy to the bereaved family. Mrs. Taylor and son of Paris, Texas, were here when he died. The remains were shipped to their home in Paris last night, and will be interred this afternoon. Mr. Taylor was an Odd Fellow.

Negro Dies Suddenly.

Joe Matthews, an employe at the Haywood Mill, and a well known negro, around town, died very suddenly this morning. A physician was called in at previous and covered Mr. Matthews' head, but still administering some medicine, the negro seemed much better, and the physician left. In a few minutes he grew much worse and died.

Wanted for Swindling.

John Copeland, a negro with a record, was arrested here by Sheriff Spradley Saturday, on advices from Jasper county. Copeland was arrested at Cleveland, and is wanted in Jasper on a charge of swindling. Constable J. M. O'Connell says Sunday after the prisoner.

GILES M. HALTOM, Manager.

THOMAS D. CAMPBELL, father of Texas present governor, died Thursday at Dallas.

A PRETTY home without a sidewalk is like—well, it doesn't look real nice after all.

A PHILADELPHIA man coughed and—broke a rib. There are lots of people who had rather break all their ribs than cough up.

ACCORDING to the Galveston News estimate, there are about 380,000 qualified voters in Texas, besides the exemptions.

THE building of sidewalks, street crossings and good roads, are not so great problems as to get the people to the point of building them.

FARMERS are in better condition than any previous year in the history of East Texas. Watch the red lands and sandy lands and bottom lands make lots of farmers rich.

WHAT'S the use of grumbling when you can grin;—what's the use of sighing when you can smile;—what's the use of worrying when you can work. It's truth!

THE person who is thoroughly satisfied with his or her opinions, knowledge, conditions and surroundings, is in the pew of perpetual ignorance.

WHEN it comes to water works, Nacogdoches leads; when it comes to a fire department, Nacogdoches also leads; the two together have not a peer in the whole of East Texas.

THERE is no use worrying over the trials of the morrow, better look after those of today. Tomorrow's troubles may all be pleasantries, and then you would be disappointed.

D. L. WARDLOW of Reagan, Texas, is an applicant for the position of assistant financial agent at the Rusk penitentiary. Mr. Wardlow is an excellent gentleman and business man and here is hoping he'll make a land.

THE family with a nice, well cultivated little garden and a few good egg producers—her majesty, the American hen—will have more to be thankful for than the family who has to purchase such.

THE person who works incessantly, who puts all the energy and ability possible into that labor and who does it with an easy free will, may not be the financial or busi-

Now is the time for all good citizens of this city and county to get busy. Improve yourselves and Nacogdoches by talking, boosting, working. Fall in line and do a citizens part.

EDITOR Fryar of Beaumont is no spring chicken, if his name does indicate it. The way he is helping that big city grow some more, is evidence that he is a full-grown and a live wire. Pay your poll tax.

A YOUNG lady pupil at Baylor University was so glad to see her teacher on her return from a vacation, that she put her arms around the dainty waist of the pretty little pedagogical Miss, hugged hard, and broke a rib.

If the city of Nacogdoches doesn't build some street crossings; if the people of Nacogdoches do not build sidewalks; if the Business League does not do some extensive advertising—three excellent opportunities for making Nacogdoches grow, will have been neglected.

THERE is so much gaudiness, flippancy and aimlessness in the lives of some people,—it is no wonder that dissatisfaction trails their paths. To live is not merely to exist—and eat and dress and haunt the atmosphere of butterfly society. To live is something higher, better, nobler.

If you fail to help a neighbor or friend who is in trouble you have failed of an opportunity to do that duty which every person owes to every other person. A helping hand extended in the time of need is something beyond the worth of gold and silver and brings happiness and satisfaction—the real aim of real living.

THE Sentinel is in receipt of a handsome booklet "From an Interurban Car Window," sent out by the North Texas Traction company of Fort Worth. The little volume is beautifully illustrated showing scenes along the route of the interurban between Dallas and Fort Worth and contains some good information to all who propose a trip via that line.

THE tobacco industry is too well established in this county for question. The only feature at all is the extent of that industry. If the acreage doesn't increase by leaps and bounds each succeeding year,—the surprise will be great, for the ware house and packing house chapter is no longer speculation. Grow tobacco, Mr. Farmer; not an entire field, but a few acres.

GOVERNOR Folk of Missouri, in a recent after-din-

A COUNTY fair;—a creamery;—a cannery;—free city mail delivery;—a new court house;—side walks and street crossings;—just a few of the things that are within the reach of Nacogdoches people and that ought to be secured before Santa Claus comes again.

NO FARMER, at least no farmer's wife, should be without chickens. A flock of healthy, well kept hens is one of the most valuable things that can be had around a farm, and in addition to the home consumption feature, are money makers too. Eggs and chickens are always in demand and at good prices.

If such a thing should happen that you are displeased in anyway, shape, form or fashion, with affairs, don't become inflated and go off at a tangent. Investigate matters and then seek to right them in a common sense way. Be sure you are correct first too, and don't think, because the other fellow is crazy, that he hasn't got as much sense as you.

If Nacogdoches can land a factory each year and utilize the waters of the Banita and Lanana creeks that are now flowing idly by that city, she will begin to grow at a pace which will astonish her citizens. Will she do it, or will she continue to let the gentle waters flow?—Cushing Enterprise.

THE announcement is made in the new columns of today's Houston Post, that Congressman A. L. Burleson will be a candidate for governor next year. Burleson is anti-prohibitionist and an anti-Bailey man, being the only Congressman from Texas who took any side in the Bailey issue last year.

REGULARITY and promptness in meeting have a great deal to do with the success of any organization, and especially may this be said of a commercial body. The Nacogdoches Business League would be in line for more and better work if regular meetings, say once a month, were had and efforts made to accomplish a few things.

OUR ARKANSAS FRIEND (?)

The editor of the Sentinel denies that he has been stealing away softly to the secret fish hole to flirt with the wily perch, while his editorial columns have been filled up with the doings of the Cum Concilios of the ancient city. As asserts he has been employing his time getting acquainted with the good people of his county and collecting a mass of statistics to bombard us with about those wonderful red lands of his; which is all good and proper and it is hoped the Sentinel will be able to use the information thus gained to good effect. But the Sentinel's mistaken when it intimates that pessimism guides the typewriter that grinds out the dope for The Daily News. Optimism roosts above the sanctum door evermore. Pallus has been displaced with a bronze cast of "Alturist" and there is never a day no matter how dark the clouds may lower that we cannot see a silver lining on the nether side. Somehow these East Texas fellows don't seem to be used to giving and taking good natured railery—seem to drink it all down as lowbrowed calumny; fact of the matter is there has never yet been run across but one newspaper editor since The News drudge came to Texas who could give a swift upper cut and take one on the point of the jaw—so to speak—and that was George Newton. Newton could add to the gaiety of the nations with a quip that would flash like an electric spark—and take his medicine when the circuit was turned on himself. But Newton's down at Corpus now trying to get the newspaper smell out of his system and dallying with a fishing hook. Smoke up Haltom; your "Redfields" are all right. When our aeroplane comes we'll take off fifteen minutes and drop down on you some day, take you up out of that futile street crossing job, scoot you over the tops of the clouds and give you a bird's eye view of the liveliest town in Texas.—Lutkin News.

These East Texas fellows? Faith, and some of the folks of this wonderfully fertile county emigrated from other portions of the big state, (and Arkansas) having found the lands of opportunities mid the stately pines and mammoth oaks! Good natured railery! It's to smile,—out loud. The attitude of the gifted scribe of the Lutkin contemporary, we are prone to say, evidences pessimism while endeavoring to promote argument to the contrary. To be a pessimist is not pleasant, we surmise, and extend our condolence to any and all parties so afflicted. Still we don't like to be rash with them—some would be different if they resided in this city and county. The railery—is rather—despite adverse and the hope is in a new opera—sure the hall—are just revel—participation—of a—plane—and as—ed gentlemen.

from Arkansas (!) that we will hide all our statistics and tobacco dope until he returns to laughing, loose talking, "lovely Lutkin and gets back on the pencil pushing job.

THERE is a deal of real pleasure and satisfaction in work, provided of course such labor is congenial in all respects. And the person who does labor, menial or mental, simply because he has to do it, is the wrong fellow in the wrong pew. It should be the desire of every one to excel, or at least do the best possible, but neither can be done unless the worker is in love with the work. The success of men has come as the result of being thoroughly imbued with their particular duties, and doing them because they loved them, from details up. When that stage is accomplished, pleasure and a feeling of pride takes hold and gets the very best out of men.

THE Denton Record and Chronicle has been indulging in some historical research and wants to complete the political record of that staid old town.

Both Senators Culberson and Baily have announced their position on the question of submission. Both favor submission, but the junior senator goes a mile or two farther than the senior senator and says he will vote against statewide prohibition. Twenty-two years ago Senator Bailey was an advocate of statewide prohibition, stumped the state for it. Now he opposed to it. Senator Culberson has always been regarded as an anti, so this time he may favor the statewiders. Hon. Cone Johnson has also swapped positions on the prohibition question. When Bailey was stumping the state for prohibition Johnson was stumping the state against prohibition. Wouldn't it be a sad case of historical repetition if these two gentlemen should meet again in joint discussion on the prohibition question? They met here once, twenty-two years ago. Bailey spoke for statewide prohibition; Johnson against it. Now if we could only get them here and have Bailey speak against prohibition and Johnson for it, our historical-political record would be complete.

TYLER has pulled off her first trades day and the people of that hustling city are elated over the success of the affair. Tyler will have some more trades days and they'll all be good ones too. Watch her!

INTENSITY seems to be the slogan these days in every line, and if carried to full meaning and consequence for a period, the world will be better by it. Better if a small job well manned than a big one half attended to; better if a small business closely looked after than a big business loosely managed, better a small farm well tended, intensely cultivated, than a big farm poorly worked; better a few live stock of some worth than a cavalcade of scrubs. Intensity is right and proper and is becoming more the condition every day.

H. T. BURK

The Implement Man

NO MAN can be prosperous and always talk hard times, and likewise no town can grow as long as its citizens predict its demise and want to make arrangements to bury the entire municipality. Prosperity is like laughter; it happens just when you make it happen.

THE breaking of a young lady school marm's rib by a loving pupil, at Waco recently, ought to induce some of the Texas Legislators to frame up a bill against hard hugging and making such a jailable offense. Such a bill would be no more freakish than some already introduced.

A PHILADELPHIA Doctor has discovered a new species of flea. He describes them as being without eyes and with six rows of teeth and dangerous in spreading diseases. If they are worse than the common Van Zandt flea we hope he will keep them corralled.—Grand Saline Sun.

We did not think there were any fleas in Van Zandt county. This writer remembers that on the 19th day of August, 1871, beginning between 8 and 9 o'clock p. m. an army of bed bugs and an army of fleas had a fight over five travelers who were stopping.

Ask Her This Question

"Do you know of any woman who ever received any benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

If any woman who is suffering with any ailment peculiar to her sex will ask her neighbors this question, she will be surprised at the result. There is hardly a community in this country where women cannot be found who have been restored to health by this famous old remedy, made exclusively from a simple formula of roots and herbs.

During the past 30 years we have published thousands of letters from these grateful women who have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in all that time have we published a testimonial without the writer's special permission. Never have we knowingly published a testimonial that was not truthful and genuine. Here is one just received a few days ago. If anyone doubts that this is a true and honest statement of a woman's experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound write and ask her.

Houston, Texas.—"When I first began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had been sick for three years with female troubles, chronic dyspepsia, and a liver trouble. I had tried several doctor's medicines, but nothing did me any good.

"For three years I lived on medicines and thought I would never get well, when I read an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was advised to try it.

"My husband got me one bottle of the Compound, and it did me so much good I continued its use. I am now a well woman and enjoy the best of health.

"I advise all women suffering from such troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. They won't regret it, for it will surely cure you."—Mrs. Bessie L. Hicks, 819 Cleveland St., Houston.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolish surely not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Hicks.

Doing Promotion Work.

A letter to G. M. Haltom from R. T. Shindler at Daltart, Texas, states that he is with the Enid, Ochiltree and Western Railroad company, and in connection with the manager is doing promotion work. He stated that he has driven an auto 6,000 miles in the past three and one half months, in the work.

C. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." A most opportune time to do something for Nacogdoches is right now. There is a lot to be done, or that ought to be done. The Commercial Club needs 200 members and every one to boast and talk and advertise.

SOME BACK TALK.

NOT BLIND YET!

A syndicate has purchased a large body of land, in West Texas and has announced that it will come to East Texas for settlers. It's up to East Texas folks to get at least one eye open.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

That very same thing has been going on for the past fifty years. That is not not long enough for an eye-opener it looks to us like a case of total blindness.—Polk County Enterprise.

East Texas is coming to herself rapidly, and especially is Nacogdoches county undergoing a wonderful awakening. There are things in the air now that, if materialize, will cause some of the old-timers even to gape in astonishment. Keep your ear to the ground!

A STAPLE CROP

Good old Nacogdoches county, which bids fair to rival with the Blue Grass state in the growing of tobacco has added another crop to its system of diversification as is gathered from the following local notice taken from a recent issue of the Nacogdoches Sentinel: "Born to Mr. and Mrs.—a boy, Jan. 9."—Center News.

That's where you are wrong again. Nacogdoches county has always been prominent in that particular line, and the addition of tobacco, cane, etc. are merely necessary to supplement. And this old county has the finest children, little and big,—grown up girl children especially—in the broad land. Just ought to come over and take a birds eye view of the dainty damsels; my, but they are "good lookers."

GROW TOBACCO BEGORRA!

Garrison has got plenty of good dirt that would grow tobacco to equal that raised by the Nacogdoches grower, and there is no question about there being good money in growing tobacco. Then why not diversify? Raise some tobacco—Garrison Gleaner.

Look out! The Sentinel has a big stick hid behind the clock to swat every fellow who dares to say tobacco unless it's made there. Better plant turnips.—Lutkin News.

The "big stick" has been relegated to the junk house and the invitation is extended to all, to grow tobacco. Of course if you want the genuine, home raised, home cured, best flavored weed in the world, you are certainly expected to ask for the "Nacogdoches kind."

THEY'RE REAL NECESSITIES.

The Nacogdoches Sentinel is urging its readers to build more sidewalks. Every town cannot have a street railway system and the proper advantages of sewerage and paved streets, but every town, no matter how small, can have a system of good sidewalks. Sidewalks in the smaller towns are less expensive than in the cities and are better town builders. No town large or small, can afford to permit the movement for good sidewalks to lag.—Beaumont Journal.

Correct you are and a town without sidewalks cannot expect to do much growing until such are begun. Nice, wide sidewalks are "good impression makers" and will do more to incite the interest of both citizens and visitors than any other improvements. Some Nacogdoches folks have been talking sidewalks, lo! these many moons. They may be putting off the real thing in the hopes that sidewalks will build themselves.

Muckleroy-Parmeley.

From Friday's Daily:

One of the prettiest home weddings that ever occurred in this city, took place last night at the residence, four miles North of the city, of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Muckleroy, when Mr. Giles Parmeley and Miss Sallie Muckleroy were made man and wife.

The bride wore a pretty creation of white messaline, made en princess, her veil being attached with white blossoms and carrying a beautiful bouquet, while the groom, in conventional black, added charm to the handsome young bridal couple. The ceremony took place in the parlor, Rev. J. W. Mills officiating, under a huge wedding bell of white flowers. A large crowd of admirers, friends and relatives were present, and after the ceremony enjoyed refreshments of punch and cake. Mrs. Mert Blackburn rendered the wedding march.

Miss Sallie M. is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Muckleroy was reared in this section and has a long list of friends and acquaintances who join together in extending best wishes. The Praise That Comes From Thankful Nacogdoches People.

One kidney remedy never fails.

Nacogdoches people rely upon that remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Nacogdoches testimony proves it always reliable.

Mrs. J. B. Eaves, living on Pillar street, Nacogdoches, Texas says: "From the time I was 17 years old, I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint. On account of this trouble I would have to put forth all my energy and strength to accomplish my duties. A dull, tired aching across my loins unfitted me for work and every now and then I would be bothered by sharp pains through my kidney regions. The secretions were too frequent in action, at times copious, while again scanty. Reading accounts of Doan's Kidney Pills I thought if they carried out at least one-half of the claims made for them, they might help me. I procured a box at Mast Bros. & Smith's drug store, and began their use in accordance with the directions. Much to my gratification, I felt relieved from the first and continued taking them until I was benefited in a general way. I had known of them sooner, I would have been spared a great deal of suffering."

An Indigestion Remedy Free

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspeptics cannot eat the things they like; food sours in the stomach; then chronic constipation begins, or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and endangers your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your drug store and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich., did and he is well today. Others who did the same and are cured are Ida A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the drugist, and taken according to directions it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never grips, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have chronic constipation, should try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home, without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction, that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

If there is anything about your ailment that you do not understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. J. C. Caldwell, 113 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

GOOD roads, like good deeds, are the only kind that pay in the long run.

If you can't accomplish all you want to, just do the very best you can. That's all an elephant can pull—all he can.

The bill making "bootlegging" a felony has passed both branches of the legislature and is ready to be sent to Governor Campbell for his signature.

SAM H. DIXON, formerly a resident of this city and who has been inspector of nurseries for the state for sometime, has accepted a position as chief clerk in the Department of Agriculture at Austin. He entered upon his new duties February 1st.

At least a majority of the people of Nacogdoches county are qualified voters. About 3250 had paid their poll taxes up to Saturday night, out of the 5,000 assessed. Thirty-four hundred and fifty qualified last year. Nearly 400 voters qualified in the city—out of 505 assessed.

A $50,000 Federal building ought to be preceded by a $100,000 court house; the former is practically assured, the latter ought to be looked after at once. The people of Nacogdoches county are certainly in favor of a new court house and jail.

For the first time in history the "big thicket" in Hardin county is afire. The swamps are usually too damp to burn but the extreme dry weather of late has altered matters. Rabbits, snakes and other inhabitants are said to be leaving the swamps in droves.

It is within the power of every young man or woman to be of some service, or import in this life. It is within the power of every young man or woman to be a success and the degree of that success is just in comparison to the degree of will and energy put into their duties.

The grasses and flowers are beginning to poke their noses upward to greet the warm sunshine and in a short time glad springtime will come to grand old East Texas. What a pity 'tis those Panhandle folks can't come and view the choicest spots of this immense commonwealth.

Those legislators who are crying "A subsidized press" and making bold in their assertions that the country is under the thumbs of corporations and illegitimate business enterprises, are surely suffering from diseased minds. With such freaks in the Texas law making body, it is perfectly plain the insane asylums ought to be made larger.

BEAUMONT people are determined that their city shall continue to grow, and never miss an opportunity to push things along. Beaumont is in the race at a lively clip and the rest of the world will take notice. It takes work to build cities.

It is much easier to advise than to put into execution. This cold blooded fact is forcefully demonstrated every day of life, yet it is no excuse for not building sidewalks, nor is it any panacea for the numberless ills that the human race is heir to. Boost for Nacogdoches!

THERE is no reasonable reason for any people to be lukewarm toward their city or its interests. Nacogdoches citizens (not all of them however) are mistreating their own home town in lots of ways, not the least of which is the surface evidence of "no interest."—don't care a snap. There are actually people that call this place home, who would rather drive a nail in a municipal coffin, if Nacogdoches was the dead, than speak a single encouraging word. It's a wrong spirit; it's a rank injustice; but it's a fact.

The tobacco industry in East Texas is now attracting the attention of people in the far east as well as closer home. Nacogdoches county, the center of this industry in East Texas, is making some long strides and has acreage to supply millions and millions of pounds of this very valuable crop. The farmers have the future of this wonderful industry within their grasp as well as the opportunities for money making. It is almost exclusively up to them. The thing to do is "grow tobacco."

THE cow eats hay, with her main and might; she eats all day and she eats all night; as fine as silk is her bill of fare; when it comes to milk; then she isn't there. The hens loaf around all the sunny morn, and pound by pound they eat the corn; with their yellow legs they scratch and tear; when it comes to eggs they are not there. The damsel plays on the piano or spends her days where her dress will show; though many a dub may think her fair, at preparing grub, well, she isn't there. The young man's done with his days at school, and he bets his mon' on his skill at pool; he can smoke and chew a grown man's share, but when there's work to do, then he isn't there.—Denison Gazetteer.

ACCORDING to the confession of one of the Tennessee night riders, Capt. Quentin Rankin after being swung up, was let down and given five minutes to pray. Standing on the brink of the grave, looking across the dark river to fairer ones, he said: "I wish I were a praying man for thirty years and did not need to pray then, but as they insisted upon, granting him the time, he would use it to pray for them. Then he knelt down and invoked divine blessing upon the men who were waiting at the rope's end to crush out his life. Here indeed was a successful man, a philosopher wiser than the sages who have written so learnedly of life and its problems. We are prone to lionize the man who masters state craft, or builds a big fortune, but after all, the wise man, the successful man, is the man who lives that when life's evening sun is going down, he can say: "I have made all preparation and do not need to pray now." The peace and assurance of the final hour is more to be desired than the gold of the miser or the triumph of genius.—Honey Grove Signal.

START a vigorous campaign for a bigger membership for the Commercial Club. There are at least 200 citizens who are eligible and who ought to have their names on the roll book.

THE Austin Tribune last Sunday contained an article headed: "Congressman Dies Here." Naturally we immediately looked to see which Congressman had died in Austin. The article, however, only disclosed the fact that Congressman Martin Dies of Beaumont was in Austin. Czar Joe Cannon will fix him when he gets to Washington—and he might as well be dead.—Georgetown Commercial.

ALL who are in anywise interested in the growing of tobacco, are hereby reminded not to forget nor neglect the meeting of the tobacco growers of Nacogdoches county, at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Several things of importance are to be discussed, one among them, "the U. S. experiment station." Mr. McNess, the warehouse man, will also address the meeting. Don't fail to attend and bring your neighbor along too.

A WELL known newspaper man tells of the time when he conducted an "answer to correspondents" column for a newspaper. For the convenience of each subscriber as wished personal replies to their queries, the editor would send responses direct when stamped envelopes were enclosed for the purpose. One morning the editor was in receipt of two communications requesting personal replies, one from an anxious mother who wrote touching the proper rearing of twins, the other from a farmer who asked for a method of getting rid of grasshoppers. The editor out of the fullness of his knowledge, wrote the two replies, but in the press of business got them in the wrong envelopes. To the mother of twins went this interesting recommendation: "Cover them carefully with straw and then set fire to it. After jumping in the flames for a few minutes the little pests will be done for." The man who was troubled with grasshoppers was bidden to: "Give castor oil regularly in moderate doses and rub their gums with bone."

SPECIAL FEATURES, EFFECTS AND RESULTS.

(NEXT WEEK: "Improved Rural Conditions Already Established.")

It is of the greatest importance to confine the work to a few standard crops and the instruction to the basic methods and principals which stand for the best results and to repeat this line of instruction on every occasion until every farmer works according to some system and knows the methods that make for success instead of charging failure to the moon, to the season, to the soil, or to bad luck. It requires several years to so impress these teachings upon the masses, even when supported by demonstration, that they become the general custom of the country. The first year a few try the plan on small areas; the second year these greatly enlarge the area and some of their neighbors follow their example; the third year possibly 40 or 50 per cent adopt some of the methods, and so work progresses by the force of demonstration and public opinion until its general adoption is secured. No one is asked to believe anything not clearly proved.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE WORK.

In most of the Southern States the average farmer works with one mule. The cultivation of cotton and corn is a slow process; too much of it is done with the hoe.

To remedy this, resort is had to demonstration. The agent in some cases drives a team of strong mules or horses hitched to a wagon filled with improved implements. At the field meetings this team and the improved implements are used to show how much more and how much better work can be done in a day by having good equipment. It is especially emphasized that cotton and corn should be grown without using the hoe, thus saving one-third the expense. It will be noted that the earning capacity of each worker upon a farm is almost directly in proportion to the number of horses or mules for the use of each. This is startlingly true outside of the rice, sugar cane, and market-garden districts. In North Dakota each farm worker has five horses, cultivates 135 acres, and has an earning capacity of $755.62; in Iowa each laborer has four horses, tills 80 acres of land, and earns $611.11 annually; while in Alabama each farm laborer has three-fifths of a mule, works 15 acres, and earns $143.98. In the case of tenant farmers the earning capacity (which is the total product of any crop in the state divided by the number of workers) should be divided approximately by 2.

One of the conditions of securing a greater net income is to stop buying food products and live on what the farm supplies. If greater variety is wanted, produce it. Another condition is to accomplish more in a day.

In the Southern states nearly one-half of the farms are tilled under the tenant system. In South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana more than 60 per cent of the farms are worked by tenants. The poor equipment of such farms and the low earning capacity of the tenant appeal strongly for help.

The tenant is urged by the demonstration agent to make a better crop and raise everything necessary for his support. He is shown that as soon as he proves himself to be a progressive and thrifty farmer it will add to his credit. He can then buy upon better terms—and will soon own a farm. The landlord is seen and urged to look more closely after his farm; to improve his farm buildings, because this is necessary to the securing and retention of the best tenants; to furnish better implements or assist his tenant to purchase them; and to insist that good seed shall be used and that there shall be better tillage of the crop. Many proprietors take the deepest interest in having their tenants taught better methods. They call meetings and scatter farm literature, thus creating a sentiment favorable to the demonstration work.

The agents of the demonstration work are thoroughly drilled in progressive steps. When the rudiments of good farming are mastered the farmer secures a greater income for his labor. An important part of this great net earning capacity is good farm economy and greater thrift. Farm economy dictates the production of the largest crop possible to the acre at the least expenditure of money and without impairing the productive capacity of the soil. It also includes the planting of crops of the greatest value to the acre, provided the cost of production is not proportionately increased, and it teaches a more economic support of the family, team and stock, which is based upon home production of all the foods and forage crops consumed. For the family more use must be made of milk, eggs, the vegetable garden, and fruits; for the stock there should be better pasture and hay, especially the abundant use of legumes. Thrift demands the proper housing of family, teams, and tools, and the more economic expenditure of the greater gains of the farm arising from greater earnings and more economy. The only way to successfully attack such problems is by an example.

Long time customs can not be overcome by writing a book. One might as well write a book to teach better sewing. Poor farming is the natural result of bad practices and must be treated rather as a defect in art than a lack of intelligence. It is not assumed, nor is it the intention to assert, that agriculture is not one of the greatest of sciences, but at the beginning it must be treated as an art and the best methods adopted.

Then it is shown that this greater income should be applied to the reduction of debt, the betterment of the family and the home, and the improvement of rural conditions. Cooperation is then taught in buying and selling, but cooperation is of but little avail in buying if the farmer has no money, and it is impossible in selling if his crop is mortgaged for advances.

The fundamental basis of the work of the Department of Agriculture is to increase the efficiency of the farmer.

COUNCIL BUYS A LOT.

Deal Closed for City Hall Site and Building Bids Asked For—Finances in Fine Condition.

The city council met in regular session last night, all of the members being present excepting June C. Harris, who is sick. Quite a deal of business was attended to by the solons, a chief matter being the city hall proposition. By an order of the council, the mayor and secretary purchased the site for the hall and fire station, paying therefor $1,100. The lot is located on the south side of the square on Pillar street, and is about 82x70 feet. It is proposed to erect the building at once, to cost $3,000 and enough money is on hand to build it for cash. The council will meet again tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock at the council room, to open the bids and consider the plans. If any of the bids are satisfactory, it is likely work will commence on the structure right away. The matter of printing the ordinances will be discussed at tomorrow's meeting. It was also ordered last night that the fire equipment be paid for and today Secretary Ben Wilson drew a voucher for $1,279 covering same. The city has just purchased too, a tract of woodland near the pumping station, paying for it $400. In addition there is a sum of about $5,000 on hand, all of which shows the finance of Nacogdoches to be in excellent shape. The Water works department is in fine condition, having about $500 over and above expenses and besides a sinking fund of $6700. Several improvements have been made of late too, including a hydrant and hose equipment at the pump house. Next month the quarterly collections for water rent comes again which will swell the receipts considerably. All in all the city's affairs are in much better standing than a year ago, and especially is the water works feature most gratifying.

They Are Different.

Readers have you ever noticed when reading the advertisements of the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler Texas, that the ads always said something definite? They did not say, "it will not, in our opinion" be thus and so, or "if you can see it as we do," it starts right at the point, it tells you positively that they have the best systems, the best teachers, the best employment bureau and that they secure for their students, the best salaried positions; they tell you why this is true. They do not stop at simply telling you, but they back every statement by a cash guarantee that not even a competitor has dared to challenge. A student at any time during his course or at its completion, not finding the school to be as advertised, can, by handing in a written statement to the office to that effect, receive every cent of his tuition back, and his railroad fare will be paid both from his home to the school and return. It is simply a case of genuine goods; the Tyler Commercial College delivers the goods so to speak; it has them to deliver, and there are no ifs and ands about it; that is why it is today the largest school of Bookkeeping, Business Training, Shorthand, Typewriting, and Telegraphy in America, and bids fair to soon be the largest in the world. We wish that more of our advertisers could guarantee their goods as does the Tyler Commercial College.

The Bridge Club.

Mrs. T. H. Nees was hostess to the Bridge Club last Friday afternoon. The high north winds that prevailed outside but accentuated the cheer of the pretty home within, and the three tables of players who assembled to enjoy their favorite pastime felt amply repaid for braving the weather.

Mesdames H. D. Garrison and John Baker were supplementary guests, from whom a table of euchre had been provided.

A delightful two course luncheon was daintily served at the conclusion of the several rubbers, chicken salad, waters, sugared pecans, olives, followed by cake with whipped cream and coffee.

Apropos of this pleasant and popular game, the following new rule that prevails in other clubs regarding cutting is sensible and is being adopted as fast as it becomes known, namely that suits shall outrank one another in cutting as in play, so as to avoid the delay in deciding ties by cutting again.

The suits rank of course hearts, diamonds, clubs and spades in the order of preference, so that if two players cut red eights, the heart eight would have the preference over the diamond eight. It must not be forgotten however that the odd cards which are not in the tie hold their right. If the cut is a four and three tens, the four has the deal and the preference among the three ten partner.

The S. Kaplan co. Hospital street is now in completion. Mr. and Kellogg will occupy the building.

Mrs. B. Mo... York City is daughter, M... She will be about two months.

EAST TEXAS GROWING.

I. L. Peeler of The Katy Road Paints Glowing Picture of This Section—A Great Future.

Dallas Times Herald.

T. L. Peeler, industrial agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, has returned from a trip to the Shreveport division of the road. Mr. Peeler has been meeting with the business men of the towns along the route and making efforts to secure the organization of commercial clubs for the upbuilding of each special community. Mr. Peeler reports that Sulphur Springs has organized a very strong club, employing a secretary at a good salary. Mr. Peeler said:

"There is a great future for that country. The fruit and truck business is developing very rapidly. There are many opportunities for manufacturing factories, woodenware plants, etc. In addition to this there has been considerable talk of enlarging the cotton mill industry of that section. The people of the East Texas towns along the Shreveport division of the Katy, are showing more interest than ever before in the upbuilding of their respective towns."

NEGRO SEVERELY BURNED.

Jesse Walker Happens to Painful Accident While on Fishing Trip—Bottle of Alcohol Falls in Camp Fire.

A very painful accident, and what came near being a serious one, happened to Jesse Walker, a well-known negro here, while on one of his fishing trips at the Angelina river, Friday afternoon. He, and two others, had just built a roaring camp fire and were standing near, when a bottle of alcohol fell from his hip pocket, some of the contents spattering on his clothing the other falling in the fire. Immediately the flames shot up and before Walker could make a move his clothing was a mass of flames. The wind was high and fanned the fire briskly, but assisted by the two companions, Walker finally managed to get his clothes off, but not until he had been severely burned about the hands, arms, legs and feet. He was carried to a nearby house where he remained until yesterday then was brought here and his burns dressed. His legs and feet are said to have been burned the worse, though the arms and hands are blistered to crisp.

Love is the only ray on life's dark cloud. It is the morning and evening star. It shines on the babe, and sheds its radiance on the quiet tomb. It is the mother of art; inspirer of poet, patriot and philosopher. It is the air and light of every kinder of every fire on the world with melody, for music is the voice of love. Love is the magician, the enchanter that changes worthless things to joy, and makes right royal queens and kings of common clay. It is the perfume of that wonderful flower, the heart, and without that sacred passion, that divine swoon, we are less than beasts; but with it—earth is heaven and we are gods.—Robt. G. Ingersoll.

Notice.

There is some money left from an estate in Rusk county for a Mrs. Mary Hicks, wife of Jim Hicks. This party is supposed to be living in Nacogdoches or Angelina county. MAKE IT YOURSELF.

Says Many Persons Here Can be Made Happy Again by Using It.

There is so much Rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice will be highly appreciated by those who suffer:

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces of Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisons, acids and waste matter, which cause not only Rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after while. Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

Nacogdoches Post-View Fancters.

The city noted for its historical features, pretty women, homely men, fruit growing, tobacco raising, is about to add another feature to its long list of products—fancy poultry. Already a number of citizens have entered the "fascinating" field and many others are talking it. The scarcity of real good, pure strain poultry, is very noticeable in this section, and the awakening of the "fancy chicken" industry will not only add luster to the crown of superior Nacogdoches, but no doubt will prove financially fascinating. There is considerable talk too, of organizing an association and holding a poultry show this coming summer or autumn. It is proposed to have the exhibition sometime during the Nacogdoches fair, should such a constitution materialize.

Negro Charged With Wife Murder Remanded to Jail—Confesses to The Crime.

The examining trial of Chester Williams was held today by Justice J. F. Perritte, County Attorney A. T. Russell representing the state. Williams had no attorney in the examining trial, but will have one in the final trial in the District court. Williams is charged with killing his wife here about November 16, by cutting her throat with a pocket knife. The negro admitted the crime and made a written confession to that effect. He also made a statement on the stand this morning and which was substantially the same as the previous confession. Justice Perritte, after hearing the testimony, ordered the negro remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury, stating that the case was not a bailable one.

The First Kiss.

The greatest surprise to a girl who gets kissed the first time there is no taste to it.—Pocahontas (Ark.) Times.

No taste to it? Well, by the hen feathers on Cupid's dart. But the times man must be color blind in the palate. They tell us, those who have tried it, that it tastes like a double distilled essence of honey spread thick on a piece of pumpkin pie. Away back in the dim joyful years before we lost our teeth and the clinch on the beautiful prize, the prettiest girl in all the world told us with her eyes that it felt like a covey of flying quail out of each ear and ending with a sensation like a flock of angels pouring molasses down one's back. No taste to the first kiss? Great Scott! It would make a wooden cigar Indian's hair curl and his nails quiver in ecstasy. The Times man must be an ice house.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

MAY BE CASE OF MURDER.

Story Going Rounds That Body of Harry Bell, Aged Negro, Found Floating in Red River.

A story was appeared in several papers the past day or two, to the effect that the body of an aged negro had been found floating in Red River, and which is supposed by some to be the body of Harry Bell formerly of this county. It is stated further that the negro found is thought to have been murdered. It will be remembered that some days ago—about two weeks—a story of Fall's disappearance was printed in the Sentinel. He and wife, after spending two years in Oklahoma, were coming back to Texas. Bell, with a negro boy, were enroute in their immigration car, and at Shreveport, according to the boy, the former disappeared. The negro boy was later arrested and is still confined in the Shreveport jail, awaiting further investigation of the matter. Bosen Bell, a son of the old man and who resides in this county, has made several trips to this city to enlist the services of the sheriff's department in the search for the missing man, and which was done. Bosen also made one trip to Shreveport in the hopes of finding, some trace, but to no avail. Fall's kinspeople, it is understood, offered a considerable reward for the finding of the old man, dead or alive.

The story of the drowned negro in Red River and which carries with it the belief that he was murdered, is entertained by many as being Harry Bell.

Hon. W. B. O'Quinn, District Attorney, made a most gallant fight in the Jno. W. Wright nepotism case, in the District court here this week. As opposing council he had Messrs. Johnson & Edwards and Marsh & McIlwayne, both firms of Tyler, and who stand at the head of the Texas bar, besides Messrs. Shook & Norman of our local bar. The case was most stubbornly contested from beginning to end, and yet O'Quinn acquitted himself as might have been expected of a veteran of the bar. Mr. O'Quinn is destined for something higher up in his profession, and it will afford the Press-Journal pleasure when that time comes to assist him to reach a higher perch on the professional ladder.—Rusk Press-Journal.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

No old sore exists merely because the flesh is diseased at that particular spot; if this were true simple cleanliness and local applications would heal them. Whenever a sore or ulcer refuses to heal readily, the blood is at fault; this vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are being constantly discharged into the place, feeding it with noxious matter and irritating and inflaming the nerves and tissues so the sore cannot heal. These impurities in the blood may be the remains of some constitutional trouble, the effect of a debilitating spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption by the blood of the fermented refuse matter which the bodily channels of waste have failed to remove. Again the cause may be hereditary, the diseased blood of ancestry being handed down to posterity; but whatever the cause, the fact that the sore will not heal shows the necessity for the very best constitutional treatment. There is nothing that causes more worry and anxiety than an old sore which resists treatment.

Every symptom suggests pollution and disease—the discharge, the red, angry looking flesh, the pain and inflammation, and the discoloration of surrounding parts, all show that deep down in the blood there are morbid and dangerous forces at work, constantly creating poisons which may in the end lead to Cancer. Local applications are valuable only for their cleansing and antiseptic effects; they do not reach the blood, where the real cause is located, and can therefore have no real curative worth. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the fountain-head of the trouble and driving out the poison-producing germs and morbid matters which are keeping the ulcer open. It removes every particle of impurity from the circulation and makes this life-stream pure, fresh and health-sustaining. Then as new, rich blood is placed the healing begins, all discharge ceases, the inflammation leaves, new tissue and healthy flesh are formed, and soon the sore or ulcer is well. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers and finest of tonics, just what is needed in the treatment, and in addition to curing the sore will build up and strengthen every part of the system. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

I want to recommend S. S. S. to any one who is in need of a blood purifier, and especially as a remedy for sores and ulcers. In 1877 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel, and having on a blue wooden stocking the place was badly poisoned from the dye. A great sore formed and for years no one knew what I suffered with the place. I tried, it seemed to me, everything I had ever heard of, but I got no relief and I thought I would have to go through life with an angry, discharging sore on my leg. At last I began the use of S. S. S., and it was but a short time until I saw that the place was improving; I continued it until it removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore. J. M. BROWN, 252 Navy Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

A Common Cold.

We claim that if catching cold could be avoided, some of the most dangerous and fatal diseases would never be heard of. A cold often forms a culture bed for germs of infectious diseases. Consumption, pneumonia, diphtheria and scarlet fever, four of the most dangerous and fatal diseases, are of this class. The culture bed formed by the cold favors the development of the germs of these diseases, that would not otherwise find lodgment. There is little danger, however, of any of these diseases being contracted when a good expectorant cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It cleans out these culture beds that favor the development of the germs of these diseases. That is why this remedy has proved so universally successful in preventing pneumonia. It not only cures your cold quickly, but minimizes the risk of contracting these dangerous diseases. For sale by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. w
