WATSON HOTEL DESTROYED.

Well Known East Texas Hostelry a Total Loss By Fire—Several Narrow Escapes—Valued at $7,000.

What was yesterday a well known East Texas hostelry, is now but a mass of ruins, ashes, and those seeking the "Watson Hotel" will have to look further. Just how the building caught is not known, but supposedly from the office stove. When the fire was discovered, the entire front of the big hotel was in flames and despite the good run of the fire boys, too great headway of the blaze rendered checking it impossible. The building and contents is a total loss and several of the occupants had very narrow escapes with their lives. One gentleman had his eye brows and hair badly singed and his hands burned while making his escape. He was awakened by the shouting and general uproar and on opening the door saw the hallway filled with a dense smoke and portions of it blazing. He had to crawl from his door through the hall to the stairs. Another gentleman, who was also sleeping upstairs, awoke to find himself cut off from all exits and was forced to let himself down from the porch with a rope. He escaped without any of his wearing apparel whatever. Miss Watson and niece, Miss Lois Wilson, saved none of their clothing. The fire was discovered about 4:30 o'clock but evidently had been burning several minutes. An alarm was immediately turned in and in a very short time, less than ten minutes, the Fire Department had the pressure on. Some difficulty was experienced in getting the hose cart to the scene, on account of the extreme cold, frozen ground and the creek. The water plugs were about 500 feet from the burning building too, which hindered matters some. The run was a most excellent one however, and the members did good service, despite the odds against them. The Watson hotel was comparatively a new building, having only been built about five years ago. It was elegantly furnished and one of the most popular houses in this section. The loss is a total one, the building and contents being valued at $7,000. Insurance was carried as follows: building $4,000; furnishings $1,000; piano $250. The hotel was the property of Mrs. M. S. Watson, for many years the proprietor of a similar establishment in Eagle Lake.

DRUG FIRM RETIRES.

Perkins & Cox Disposes of Business to Weeks & Ratcliff—Makes $10,000 Stock.

A deal has been consummated by which the drug firm of Perkins & Cox retires, the stock having been purchased by Weeks & Ratcliff. The deal has been pending for several days but was only closed last night. The stock is being invoiced today preparatory to moving it to the Weeks & Ratcliff building on the corner. The stock purchased amounts to about $3,000 and will give the Weeks & Ratcliff store a total stock of more than $10,000. The goods purchased are practically new and includes drugs, sundries toilet articles, books, stationary etc. The Weeks & Ratcliff store is to be re-modeled, new shelving put in and the ice cream parlor enlarged and re-papered. They have a floor space of 2700 square feet and about 1,000 feet of shelf space. Mr. Weeks in speaking of the matter today, said the interior would be without an equal in this section, almost, when finished and the stock would be as complete as possible to make it.

The firm retiring has been in business since September 1907. In October 1908, M. C. Parrish sold out to Sam Cox and a few days ago, Mr. Cox sold to John Perkins, the latter gentleman disposing of it to Weeks & Ratcliff. Mr. Perkins will go with this firm as prescription clerk. The stock is expected to be moved and in place by Saturday.

The Italian Party.

Mr. William Doherty, traffic manager of the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico road, spent Monday morning in Houston and went down Monday afternoon to Galveston to prepare for his trip over the road with the representatives of the Italian colonists.

At the present time only three Italians besides Mr. Nicolini will make the trip over the road. One is a representative of the Italian government, another is secretary of an immigration corporation in Italy and the third represents a similar syndicate in Italy that proposes to bring a large number of colonists to America. Land Commissioner Schmidt of the Frisco and Rock Island interests will probably accompany Mr. Doherty and the Italian commissioners over the road. Mr. Doherty did not know just what points would be visited until after a further conference in Galveston.—Chronicle.

Soldier Balks Death Plot.

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran, of Kemp, Texas, that a plot existed between a desperate lung trouble and the grave to cause his death. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that, stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, or years. My weight" ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 178 pounds." For severe colds, obstinate coughs, hemorrhages, asthma, and to prevent Pneumonia it's unrivaled. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. w

The Secret of Long Life.

A French scientist has discovered one secret of long life. His methods deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had proved Electric Bitters prolongs life, and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, rebuilds wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. Its a go-send to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c at Stripling, Haselwood & Co. w

HALTOM & HALTOM, PROPRIETORS.
GILES M. HALTOM, MANAGER.

BECAUSE a fellow has wheels in his head, is no sign he is a regular flying machine.

SOMETIMES the fellow who does the biggest howling is least hurt. Tonight at 7:30—come.

1909 will see more money expended in improving than has been spent in Nacogdoches for many years.

AN Arkansas man claims to have invented a device to prevent snoring. Great is progress, what a boon to civilization!

A CARD from the management announces that the fourth annual State Fair of Louisiana will be held at Shreveport November 1-6.

WHAT the Fire Department is worth to Nacogdoches cannot be counted in dollars and cents. Everybody knows that and no equipment and apparatus is too good or expensive for the boys.

TALKING one way and acting another, is not very confidence promoting. Hypocrisy is the most detestable garment a person can don and the practice causes more suffering than any other sin.

SOME physician in the great Chicago comes forward with the opinion that lace curtains are unhealthy, three meals a day are injurious and big hats conduce insanity. He failed to mention the calamities of lace stockings and ribboned petticoats.

IN the whole of Texas there are only 40 dairies, less than a dozen cotton mills and as few furniture factories. Texas folks send out of the state for $11,000,000 worth of dairy products, $50,000,000 worth of cotton goods and half that much furniture annually.

LOGANSPORT people are so well pleased over the success of their trades day, which was celebrated last Saturday, they have determined to have another. Not a single merchant in the town but contributed both time and money. That's why it was a success.

WITH a $50,000 Federal building located in the center of the square, nice lawns and side walks and flowers and paved streets around it; a pretty two story city hall and fire station on the corner and street crossings at intersections, Nacogdoches will have improved that even all her citizens will be proud.

"NACOGDOCHES has always done without a city hall and she doesn't need one now. The selling of the square to put a Federal building on will ruin things." That is a sample of some of the talk—thank goodness it's scarce though. Regrettable as it is, there seems to be some folks in this city who are "agin" everything, and especially where progress wants to cut a caper. Knockers hammers may be dangerous articles but some people would lose sleep to use them.

OF the ninety original members of the Commercial club, only thirty three paid their dues when called upon, and only eight were present at the meeting Saturday night. What great things can be accomplished by such unanimous attendance!

THE man who wants to go west and invest in lands for profit or home, will possibly wander back to old East Texas in the course of a few years to find this section worth more than he had ever dreamed. The choicest home places in the big state can be found here and for profit in after years piney woods soils are hard to go round.

BOUR the time the weather begins to hint for the ice man to get busy, long comes a warning to replenish the wood pile, and a store a fire can be built, ice and sleet and snow all comes a floppin' down. It's real pleasant though compared with the awful experiences those pernickious, pining, palpitating, pulsating, pessimistic Panhandle panhandlers, are going through.

FOR a good every day household angel, give us a woman who laughs. Home is not a battlefield, nor life one long unending row. A trick of always seeing the bright side, or, if the thing has no bright side, of shining up the dark one, is a very important faculty and one of the things no woman should be born without. We are not, all born with the sunshine in our hearts, as the Irish prettily phrase it; but we can cultivate a cheerful sense of humor if we only try. —Panola Watchman.

WHEN one hog gets an ear of corn every other hog will trot along behind and squeal and beg and is ready for a bite, but just let the hog get his head fast in the crack of a fence and every son of a sow will jump on a help tear him to pieces. Just so it is with men. As long as a man is prosperous and has money he can't keep his friends off with a baseball bat. The moment he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone, he is not only snubbed by his former friends, but they begin to do all harm possible. When a man starts down grade the world steps to one side and greases the track. —Leland (Ill.) Times.

TAKE stock of yourself. Make a mental inventory. Not of your business. Not how much goods on your shelves, stock in trade, cash on hand or business done. Get to yourself a few moments and think. Who are you? What are you doing for yourself? Your family? Your neighbors? Your home? Your own town? Are your best energies put forth in any of these matters, or any of your works? Could you do better or more? Answer to yourself, honestly. Don't fool yourself or try to do it.—you can't. When you have finished this few moments of deep study, make a resolution to change the method of doing business—and help Nacogdoches grow.

OVER in Lamar county a farmer has been feeding a hog on buttermilk, and now has a champion porker of the following dimensions: Three feet and ten inches tall, seven inches from snout to hams; measuring from end of snout to end of tail he is ten feet long. This hog weighs over a thousand pounds and is a living example of what buttermilk will do. —Honey Grove Signal.

THE dairying interests of Texas are occupying much attention these days and seem to be profitable. Creameries are already located in many towns of Texas and not a single plant but shows a growth and good returns from the investments. Aside from the profits in disposing of the cream, the institutions cause the farmers to raise better cows and attend to them as should be. Many farmers show cream sales of $7 to $9 per month per cow, making it extremely worth while. Nacogdoches and her people would profit by a creamery.

now hinderances of course; unless one allows them to be so; but too often is the desire for such a detriment and a menace to a young man or woman, who innocent of the craving, would prove of import.

THE farmer has no business with a big garden any more than he has business with too much of any one thing. A small garden well planted, and carefully cultivated will bring better returns. It should be sufficient to yield the produce for a family and also a small surplus, but there is little wisdom in planting a great big garden, expecting to supply the entire market.

NACOGDOCHES it growing, progressing,—talk to the contrary notwithstanding. Not a week passes by but what some improvement somewhere is noted and its all of a substantial nature. Look around and you will see the signs of the times, the forwardness—the upward tendency. It's a cause of pride and not a single bonafide and improvements of those sections, agriculturally and otherwise. There is much talk relative to a fair for Nacogdoches county,—and East Texas—this fall and indications point to an early organization for work. A fair would prove of much value and there is but little doubt that it would be well supported and patronized.

The Panola Watchman says to make reputation, take a ton of gall, half pound of brains, sixteen grains of truth, and fill up with alibitum lying. To make a friend, take half a pound of sympathy, a pound of flattery, two pounds of beneficial services; mix well and serve hot. To make an enemy, take an ounce of truth, put it on ice for a minute, and let them have it cold. To make love, take a pound of taffy, a hundred weight of sentiment, and 200 pounds of deception, artfully applied.

EDITOR GREEN, veteran newspaper man of East Texas, and for many years the guiding spirit of the Tyler Courier and Times, has retired. The gentleman has given that city an excellent paper, his editorials were strong and widely read, while his best energies have always been given to his home city. That staid old town of fame and progress will miss Col. Green and his boosting qualities—as well as the newspaper fraternity. The colonel has not announced his future plans but 'tis hoped that he will again take up the pencil, the scissors and the paste pot, as his work.

BETTER homes for the farmers and their families would add much to the pleasures of country life and have in tendency to prevent the exodus of young people to the cities. It is frequently the case that a well-to-do farmer lives in a ramshackle sort of a house while the man of equal wealth in town has a neat and comfortable home worth several thousands of dollars. The farmer who operates his farm on sound business principles nowadays is not the poverty-stricken man he has been pictured in the past and his family is entitled to as nice and comfortable a home as his finances will permit. Creditable homes not only add to the pleasures of the home life, but raises one in the estimation of his neighbors, and others are prompted to improve their houses.—Wills Point Chronicle.

J. T. Muckleroy of this city has sold ninety-one pounds of butter which he purchased of Nacogdoches dairy men. Now, that's lovely, isn't it, with Lutkin's streets full of wrapping paper cows! And not a pound of butter from the whole herd.—Lutkin Daily News.

"Butter" come over and patronize the Nacogdoches folks till you can improve your cow stock. Lutkin cows however, by confining their literary digestion to wrapping paper ought to be educated to give butter already wrapped. "Butter" investigate further Drake.

IT OFTEN HAPPENS.

The editor of the Belton Journal has been censured because he did not write up a local concert which charged for admission. The editor was not present because he did not care to spend the money, and he could not "write up" the concert because he was not present. The managers of the concert would doubtless have sent the editor and his wife tickets but for the fact that the managers looked upon the tickets as so much money which they felt they could not, in justice to the concert, part with. They wanted something nice said about the concert, but they failed to extend the editor a courtesy which would not have cost them or the concert one cent; the net money receipts would have been just as much. The Editor of the Journal served them just right.—Courier-Times.

HELP TEXAS GROW.

Let Texas grow. That's a fine sentiment. What a splendid advancement would be the result if the people would contribute to helping Texas to grow. The land would bloom with the beauty and glory of the rose and the mighty tread of the marching legions would not only attract the attention of the world, but would conquer the mightiest of the earth. A tribute would be levied upon the commerce of the world and Texas would take its place among the proudest and most powerful of the States in the American Union. Help Texas to grow. Contribute your part to its advancement. Be a State builder.—Greenville Banner.

The Implement Man

THE lowly peanut, heretofore regarded only as a commercial item to be retailed a five cents a few or to be put in toothsome sugars, is coming rapidly to the front in other capacities. As a forage crop the peanut is hard to excel, including the vines, and as soil builders the crop is excellent. In its old time role the peanut is ever in demand and brings a handsome profit making price. The Terrell factory this season paid from 60 to 90 cents per bushel and then was not fully supplied. Nacogdoches farmers would do well to plant a few peanuts, for forage or sale.

THERE is a great deal in life besides wealth, fine raiment and house servants. There is much to be gained aside from the glitter of gold, the display of silks and satins and the gaudiness of rainbow society. It is not those things that attest the true worth of a man or woman and it is not those things that are necessarily conducive to happiness. Wealth and clothes and flashlight spectacles are heart deep citizen of this famous old redland city, but what feels a sense of real gratification for it. The past is dead—gone—but the marks of the favored hand of progress and prosperity are evident, stand out high above else and speak the language of thrift. The present is but a preface to the future and bids fair to make the yet unknown, a history producing period. But rest not on laurels won; take a part and do a man's duty by pushing and working and aiding in every way to place Nacogdoches at the top of the column,—the position due her. It's up to the people,—men and women too.

In many counties of the state, agitations for fairs are already begun, and some have even commenced preparations for such. These institutions are great county and section builders and not one instance where good has not resulted, can be cited. County fairs are great things and to them is due much, for the progress

CATARHAL ASTHMA.

One Bottle of Pe-ru-na.

MR. F. L. BOULLION, 2818 State St., Little Rock, Ark., writes: "I have been a sufferer with the asthma for about four years, and I tried different kinds of medicines and could not find any relief for it. I tried your medicine, bought a bottle of Pe-ru-na, and after taking about half of it I found that I have not had the asthma since. Before I took the medicine I did not know what it was to go to bed without having the asthma."

Systemic Catarrh.
Mr. Samuel Burden, 701 Springfield Ave., Summit, N. J., writes: "In the fall of 1900 I had repeated attacks of cold, which developed into systemic catarrh. It left me very weak and all run down. When I got up in the morning it would take about an hour to get my head and throat clear. It also left me with a very weak, all-gone, empty feeling in my stomach, which I thought was dyspepsia, for which I tried different remedies with very little improvement. I finally decided to give Pe-ru-na a trial. I felt benefited with the first dose. After taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I cannot speak in too high terms of your wonderful discovery, Pe-ru-na."

Pe-ru-na is manufactured by the Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio.

The Lake Charles American is of the opinion that the papers of Louisiana will help out if the Orange paper will commence the making of news print, and there is little doubt but that they would. In fact should the Orange mill see fit to begin the manufacture of print paper it would find that it would have so many patrons in the South-west that it would soon have to enlarge its plant if it would care for all of them — Denton Enterprise.

That would seem to be a most likely proposition at first glance, unless perchance the Texas newspapers should assume the same attitude toward a home paper mill that some Texas merchants are said to have assumed toward home canned goods. In that case a paper mill at Orange would not pay. We assume, however, that the newspapers of Texas, being run by men of intelligence (not excluding the Nacogdoches Sentinel) would be able to see a thing so obviously to their own advantage, and would accord to a Texas paper mill a sufficient patronage to keep it going. — Lufkin News.

The Sewing Circle.
Had a pleasant meeting with Miss Emma Schmidt Wednesday afternoon, with a good attendance. In addition to the members present, were Miss Weiber of Texarkana, Miss Parker of Tyler, and Miss Buford of Henderson.

After a couple of hours profitably spent with the embroidery needles, delicious apricot ice cream and chocolate cake were served by the hostess, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Paul Gerard of Dallas spent a few days here last week on her way to Lanana to visit her parents.

A COMMON ECONOMIC ERROR

(BY A. KNAPP)

For many years it has been the custom of Southern farmers to make their crop upon the "advance system" and while this has been regarded as an economic error on the sides of the farmer, by many merchants it has been thought that it was very profitable way of buying cotton.

The farmer realized that as a matter of safety it was better to make the food consumed by his family and his stock upon the farm than to purchase it and especially when he had to promise payment out of a crop which had not as yet been made. I have been watching this phase of country life in the South for many years and have come to the conclusion that the "advance system" is just as great a mistake on the part of the merchant as it is on the part of the farmer, for the following reasons:

First, the merchant takes great risks, of course, he tries to cover by increased charges. But even though these charges are increased, the staples of life are not such articles as a high percentage of profit will adhere to, and the merchant is practically trading gold for a promise to pay. If the crop fails, he is obliged to carry and carry and possibly may ultimately as in thousands of cases, be obliged to take the farm, for which he has no use, and under the bell weed condition is difficult to handle profitably upon a tenant system.

Under a cash system there will be a great reduction in the sales of some staple foods such as bacon, potatoes, beans, lard, vegetables, canned goods, hay, corn, etc., all articles that carry low profits. The farmer is rarely a hoarder of money and if he saves two hundred dollars or more by purchasing all his food supplies at home he has that much more to spend when his crop is made, and it is cash.

Under a cash system the farmer will buy with his surplus more dry-goods, clothing, shoes, furniture, etc., for his family, better teams, farm implements, wagons, buggies, etc., on which there is a much greater profit for the merchant than on staple articles of food. The merchant can turn his money in thirty days, instead of a year. Ten percent clear profit turned monthly, is better than 120 percent gain received annually. Some of the farmers increased income goes into permanent improvement to enable the farmer to produce more and spend more annually.

Again, there is something about raising cotton, tobacco, etc., to pay a debt, that saps the vitality of the farmer and affects the quality of his tillage. It really lowers the grade of farming. If upon the other hand the merchants will join with us in urging farmers to raise all their food supplies and try to produce by better tillage, double the crop per acre they now produce, the result as it affects the merchant will be this:

All business will soon be on a cash basis and the volume will be three or four times as large from the farmers alone. The advent of more money will bring diversified industries among the farmers and eventually will attract manufacturers to the market towns.

If there are idle farms in the county, instead of calling meeting to encourage the farmers who know the country and are loyal to it, to universally adopt the following plan: First, provide their own food supplies from the farm. Second, double the average product on every acre under cultivation and let each worker on the farm by the use of better teams and tools, till three times as many acres as at present, not the one crop but in a variety of diversified and profitable crops. This would cause an immediate demand for more land and would provide the money to pay for it. This makes every man of the farm more than six times the industrial power he now is and gives him a love of the farm. This is better than to leave him in discouragement and secure migrants to come and buy him out.

I should not speak so positively, only I have observed for a quarter of a century that where the Southern merchants have changed from an "advance system" to a cash system, they have prospered very much more than in former years and the number of failures is immensely less. Of course, it is not meant that there should be no credit, but practically there should be little necessity for them until the drop is actually ready for the harvest, then trade becomes a cash transaction. Or better still, the farmer can get his money from the bank and pay cash in all cases, if there is a lack of ready money.

The advance system has set down upon the cotton farmer with special hardship. His crop is either sold at once or "weighed in" as "advance loans." If the cotton farmer is not forced to sell to give money or pay debts he will store his crop on his farm and market it his leisure, which is in the interest of all parties.

It appears to me, therefore, that the farmer will immeasurably gain when he produces what he has to live on bought in the way of living. He is not compelled to sell his crop immediately upon the harvest. When he does sell he trades for cash. The greater amount of money he has is very helpful to the family but the stimulus to his self respect is perhaps the most important item to be considered. The merchant prospers by the greater volume of business and by the quick return of his money. It seems to me that these points should be urged upon all the people.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterance regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

We have been, during the past month, agreeably surprised as the great demand for both new and old business concerns for stenographers, bookkeepers, and operators. There is a great extension of work going on; money that has been hoarded up for the past year is now being invested. 1900 will be a record breaker in opening when business enterprises and extending and enlarging old ones.

Over 75 of our graduates have been placed in good positions since January first, at an average salary of $60 per month. We have now practically every graduate placed, and within the next thirty days we will not be able to supply the demand for our competent bookkeepers, stenographers and operators. The Cum Conclio Club met with Mrs. Charles Perkins Tuesday noon, with a large number of the members present, and Mrs. Wilcox, and Mrs. J. B. Moore as guests. The club consisted of six young ladies, and was occupied most of the afternoon. Mrs. Wilcox read character sketch of List, which was enjoyed, and Mrs. Xres read a selection from Richter, which was unusual in its weirdness. Mrs. Charles Perkins sang Tostoi's serenade and responded most graciously to an encore. The lesson was heard by Mrs. Marcus Smith and was quite interesting. A salad course and coffee was served by the hostess, after which the club adjourned to meet next week with Mrs. John Perkins.

The Valentine idea was revealed, though out, the menu which consisted of delightful fruit salad served in grape fruit cups, with water, cheese straws and heart shaped sandwiches. The second course was fruit garnish in pink heart cases with fruit and white cake. The following guests were present: Misses Webber of Texarkana, Rachael Zeve, Allen, Jones, Schmidt, Belle Zeve, Mesdames E. H. Blount Isaacs, Pratt Matthews, Bay, G. A. How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens. Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking Adam and Eve.

Lilly Grove, Feb. 9th.—Hello Dad, how are you and the embroidery club getting along; I guess you still have to work all day and trot the baby at night. If you do I don't feel sorry for you for when God put Adam and Eve in the garden he told Adam to care for the garden and Eve. So if a man will let his wife go to a club he is the blame for he should rule over her. There are lots of Eves in the world today who are trying to do the men's work and I am sorry to say the devil and the snake are getting after them just like they did in old Bible days. Men are to blame for the whole thing, for after Adam and Eve were put out of the garden, the Lord said man should rule over woman, that was after he saw that she was not capable of taking care of her self. Now when a man lets his wife go to a ball or card party, or some society club and she comes home "beguiled by the devil" as we call it now, it is the man's fault for not looking after her as he was commanded to do.

Woman was created for a help mate for man to hold him up out of the mud hole.

I have seen lots of those "lady ladies" of the smart set that belonged to the social club and their names on some fashionable church book, but I never saw one of them that had corns on her knees caused from praying. Now Dad if you don't look after your wife and care for her and keep her from the clubs I don't feel sorry for you or any other man.

O, the gladness of her gladness when she's glad
And the sadness of her sadness when she's sad;
But the gladness of her gladness
And the sadness of her sadness
Are as nothing to her badness when she's bad.

Some claim the reason Lots wife looked back and turned to salt and lost her life while fleeing from Sodom, she saw a lady go by with a new dress on and she wanted to see how it was made. I have never heard of any other women turning to salt but I have known lots of them that if they could not get a new hat every time the fashion changed they would turn to red pepper and ginger and loose their religion.
Now Dad you read this and see if I am not right.

Does Not Color Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, does not stain or color the hair even to the slightest degree. Gray hair, white hair, blonde hair is not made a shade darker. But it certainly does stop falling hair. No question about that.

Does not change the color of the hair.
Formula with each bottle
Show it to your doctor
Ask him about it, then do as he says

Indeed, we believe it will stop every case of falling hair unless there is some very unusual complication, something greatly affecting the general health. Then you should consult your physician. Also ask him about the new Ayer's Hair Vigor.

DOTSON ASKS QUESTION.

Nacogdoches Representative Causes Committee To Laugh—In The Spot Light.

Houston Post.

Representative Homer A. Dotson of Cushing, Nacogdoches county, by one single question asked while the committee on civil and criminal law reforms was in session considering the nine-jury bill, has leaped into the spotlight as being a man with a mind as quick as the lightning's flash and here is how it all happened. Judge Phillips, of Dallas had just concluded a very able argument against the bill, during which he brought out the fact that when legislatures make mistakes they can be remedied at the next session, when mistakes are made in electing governors the harm can be repaired, but when a man's property is taken from him by the courts there is no means of restoring it, it is beyond revocation. This was to bring the need for great care being exercised in the last analysis, and to secure which and surround it with all safeguards governments are organized and maintained.

"Judge, may I ask you a question?" said Mr. Dotson. "Certainly," said Judge Phillips.

"I was just thinking if a man is convicted and sent to the penitentiary his friends can sometimes persuade the governor to pardon him if it is shown that the courts and the jury were in error, can't they?"

"Yes, that is a fact."
"Well, judge, let me ask you—if my friends can persuade the governor to have the man who won my property from me in a civil suit, even should I afterward be able to show that the property was won, with the aid of a forged title, restore it to me?"

That was enough to cause even the few proponents of the bill being considered by the committee to laugh heartily—and they did.

Worn Out

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

No old sore exists merely because the flesh is diseased at that particular spot; if this were true simple cleanliness and local applications would heal them. Whenever a sore or ulcer refuses to heal readily, the blood is at fault; this vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are being constantly discharged into the place, feeding it with noxious matter and irritating and inflaming the nerves and tissues so the sore cannot heal. These impurities in the blood may be the remains of some constitutional trouble, the effect of a debilitating spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption by the blood of the fermented refuse matter which the bodily channels of waste have failed to remove. Again the cause may be hereditary, the diseased blood of ancestry being handed down to posterity; but whatever the cause, the fact that the sore will not heal shows the necessity for the very best constitutional treatment. There is nothing that causes more worry and anxiety than an old sore which resists treatment.

Every symptom suggests pollution and disease—the discharge, the red, angry looking flesh, the pain and inflammation, and the discoloration of surrounding parts, all show that deep down in the blood there are morbid and dangerous forces at work, constantly creating poisons which may in the end lead to Cancer. Local applications are valuable only for their cleansing and antiseptic effects; they do not reach the blood, where the real cause is located, and can therefore have no real curative worth. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the fountain-head of the trouble and driving out the poison-producing germs and morbid matters which are keeping the ulcer open. It removes every particle of impurity from the circulation and makes this life-stream pure, fresh and health-sustaining. Then as new, rich blood is carried to the place the healing begins, all disease ceases, the inflammation leaves, new tissue and healthy flesh are formed, and soon the sore or ulcer is well. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers and finest of tonics, just what is needed in the treatment, and in addition to curing the sore will build up and strengthen every part of the system. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

I want to recommend S. S. S. to any who are in need of a blood purifier, and especially as a remedy for sores and obstinate ulcers. In 1897 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel, and having on a blue woolen stocking the place was badly poisoned from the dye. A great sore formed and for years no one knew what I suffered with the place. I tried, it seemed to me, everything I had ever heard of, but I got no relief and I thought I would have to go through life with an angry, discharging sore on my leg. At last I began the use of S. S. S., and it was but a short time until I saw that the place was improving. I continued it until it removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore. J. B. Referring to this most scholarly, classical, with artistic figures on the concert platform who is to give a concert here under the auspices of the Symphony Club, we cull the following from Shreveport Times, where Mr. Perry recently played to a most enthusiastic audience.

"His playing was faultless and exceedingly brilliant, and the program was charmingly diversified. The audience was a most enthusiastic one, and many of the musical critics present pronounced it the most notable musical event of the season. The literary quality of the charming preludes, to each number were very fine.

The lectures with which he prefaced each rendition showed great weight of thought, literary elegance of style and most impressive beauty of vocal delivery. This "inner view," this being introduced to the thought, the feeling of the composer was a delightful revelation."

A Common Cold.

We claim that if catching cold could be avoided some of the most dangerous and fatal diseases would never be heard of. A cold often forms a culture bed for germs of infectious diseases. Consumption, pneumonia, diphtheria and scarlet fever, four of the most dangerous and fatal diseases, are of this class. The culture bed formed by the cold favors the development of the germs of these diseases, that would not otherwise find lodgment. There is little danger, however, of any of these diseases being contracted when a good expectorant cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It cleans out these culture beds that favor the development of the germs of these diseases. That is why this remedy has proved so universally successful in preventing pneumonia. It not only cures your cold quickly, but minimizes the risk of contracting these dangerous diseases. For sale by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. w
