The Sunday School Rally.

Rusk School House, July 13.—As it is often the case one will wait for another, and I guess that is the case this time as I have not seen anything about our Sunday School Rally.

The Sunday school met in a body in front of Mr. W. R. Humphrey's residence in the beautiful shade and formed in line for march with our Superintendent, Bro. H. P. Lilly, in the lead, followed by the little people, led by their teacher Miss Emma Bentley. Next came the Intermediate class led by Mrs. Maud Bowden, the Junior class, led by Mrs. Clev Wratten, the Senior class led by their respective officers. Bro. H. L. Wratten, the Bible teacher, Mrs. Dora Avery, being absent, there were not but a few of her class marched.

All being in readiness the manager of the program, Mr. L. E. Wratten gave the order to march and on entering the house we marched to our respective places while Miss Vera Burrows played a march.

After a few remarks by Mr. L. E. Wratten the school sang the welcome song. After which we had prayer by Rev. E. C. Boss then the welcome address by Bro., H. T. Perrette.

Then followed the program consisting of songs and recitations. At 12 o'clock the school marched out and one of the best dinners that were ever spread under the beautiful shade, were spread on the bank of the White Oak creek on the very spot where the writer has spent a many happy hour 25 years ago playing marbles.

Right here we must say that that was the best behaved crowd of people we ever saw. Our visitors complimented us on our exercises and dinner.

Dinner being over the crowd were called together by singing led by Prof., Joe R. Day.

The singing was followed by short talks made by Mr. G. B. Layton, Prof., Alvin Harris, Bro. H. L. Wratten and Judge Charlie Hodges.

The boys with a few more class led by their respective officers brought to a close one of the best spent 4ths of July yet witnessed.

Prof., Joe R. Day will teach a singing school here beginning the 1st Monday in August.

Crops Not Very Good.

A letter received from D. K. Cason this morning states that he is having a most enjoyable visit in Mississippi. He further states that crops are not good in that section, in fact are the sorriest he has seen for twenty years. He reports himself and family well and having a splendid vacation.

Henry Taussig is here from Chicago, looking after the interests of his company. In company with Henry Weinberg, the local representative, he has been visiting the tobacco farms the past day or so.

TYLER FOLKS WERE PLEASED.

Famous Elks Bank Makes a Hit in Smith County Capital—Nacogdoches Delivers the Goods—Two Old Timers.

The Tyler folks were evidently as much surprised as pleased with the articles of stuff displayed at the Home-Coming by the Nacogdoches contingent. They are an appreciative people however and realizing the good things the metropolis of East Texas affords, and do not hesitate to say so in the plainest most straightforward way. Among the most prominent things we might mention that Nacogdoches furnished the biggest man in the entire city, had the prettiest girls (acknowledged by the Tyler young men), has the best Band in the state, the crack amateur gunner of East Texas and the fastest semi-professional ball team that ever donned a uniform this old Commonwealth.

These are straight facts and vouched for the people of Tyler, backed up by our own assertions. The folks who attended from here are mighty well pleased with the trip to the Smith county city, and express nothing but words of praise for the hospitality shown. The folks up there are a generous, who hearted, entertaining set, and left nothing undone, that might add in the least to the pleasures of the occasion. The Home-Coming was a splendid success and thousands of visitors were there to enjoy the festivities. Nacogdoches folks can hardly say enough in behalf of our East Texas neighbors and take this method of extending thanks for the general good time shown. Anent some things of Nacogdoches, the Tyler Courier-Times has the following complimentary notices:

"The thousands of citizens of Tyler and Smith county and visitors who have heard the famous Elks Band from Nacogdoches this week have been charmed by its splendid music. It is one of the best musical organizations in Texas and we are indeed fortunate in having them in our midst during Home-coming Festivities.

Mr. Robert Lindsey, a former Tylerite, is band master and manager of the band. Prof. A. Cruz is leader. Prof. Cruz is one of the best band leaders in Texas. He is a Spandiard and was a leader of one of the Spanish vessels captured at Santiago.

The band numbers among its membership some of the very finest, young men of Nacogdoches, and they are a gentlemanly lot of fellows. Our citizens are glad to have had them as our guests during the week.

Nacogdoches stands ready to deliver just any old kind of goods. It may be that it is such a dull town that the ball

This is a positive, clear cut proposition that we make deliberately and mean all that we say.

Our reason for such an offer is that with our present stock and with other goods that we have bought we know that no concern in Texas or out of it can sell you good vehicles at a less price than we can and we know that the people of this section of Texas are always willing to spend their money at home if goods and prices merit it. players and the members of the band don't have anything else to do, except practice. Anyhow, they are a lively bunch whether it comes to playing ball, playing music or shooting at the gun club. We hate to do it boys, but we guess we'll have to take off our hats to you—in these respects. They are all a gentlemanly set of fellows.

Bob Lindsey is an ideal band master. His gray hair and beautiful uniform go nicely together. Bob is an old Tylerite and we are proud of him. His good wife is one of the charming daughters of Mr. Ed Willis, a well known Tylerite who lived here many years ago.

Fritz Ingraham is just the same old Fritz; knows just as many jokes as of yore; tells them just as good as he used to; in love with just as

Some Hot Weather.

The folks of old East Texas have been enjoying some extra warm sunshine the past two weeks, and even old timers say it is the "hottest yet." Sunday two weeks ago the thermometer registered 97 in the shade, and every day since it has been playing hide and seek over and above 94 and up to 97 Sunday also registered 97 and yesterday topped the mercury for 95. Is it hot enough? Well, watch the tube take on a Summer attitude and climb. The weather man promises no relief today, and the only solace is that he may be mistaken.

HALTOM & HALTOM, PROPRIETORS.
GILES M. HALTOM, MANAGER.

The Center News came out yesterday with a special addition in honor of the completion of the Santa Fe through that city.

"MR. BAILEY'S mind works with the accuracy of a Corliss engine," said Mr. Republican Root. No one has ever questioned the "intellectuality of the junior Senator from Texas."

No city ever had too many people, too much hustle and enterprise, too many factories, too much business or too many railroads. Queer sounding maybe to some folks but a truth nevertheless.

SURE The Merchants and Business Men of this city need some kind of organization,—not for one man or set of men, but for the good of every one and the city as a whole. The time to get together is now.

That butter factory is causing some talk among the folks,—city and country people alike. The butter factory is a splendid thing and if this city would erect one, a fine market it would be for the man with dairy products as well as a good investment for the stock holders.

THE fact that some of the north and central Texas places are so much hotter than this section may be on account of the over supply of politics in those sections. Though if that be the case, a thermometer at Austin would burn itself out of existence. Don't forget the butter factory.

THE National Monthly is one of the very best magazines that is being put out. As handsome typographically as is possible, full of good reading stuff, and Democratic to the core. Norman Mack, the editor, is one of the brightest men in America today, and he knows politics to a fine point.

THE Cisco Round-Up says if the knocker must knock, fust let him knock. Yes, and if the boosters will, boost, the knocker will soon knock himself in the head,—or heel. And the sooner the better. Push 'em along,—they are good things,—the fair and the creamery propositions.

THE new vagrancy law seems to be giving some folks lots of trouble, and a few think it is being abused. A close inspection will probably find that it being abused more on account of lack of enforcement than anything else however. Not very many innocent people are ever punished after all.

IF the people of this county fail to get up that fair association, may as well lay it aside for keeps. The proposition has been talked and talked end agitated from man to man, and by man and man, until most every one in the county is well acquainted with the subject. Gentlemen, it is an opportunity to make this old county grow and the people should be interested deeply.

FROM this distance it looks as if the Santa Fe controversy, in which the folks of Abilene have raised a row, is merely a case of "if you don't do like I want you, you can't play." West Texas people are mighty nice but it seems that a concern ought to build a rail road anywhere it sees fit,—to the moon or otherwise.

"THE only way in the world to whip the pesky weevils, is to grow less cotton and more other stuff". That's what a farmer said this morning, and a farmer that has made a success at his work. Of course reducing the acreage is out of the question now, but it can be done next year and the year after. The problem to solve now is to save as much of the present cotton crop as possible. And the farmers are doing all that can be done.

THE fair proposition is being agitated more and more. It is interesting people who have never before given it a thought. It is causing some folks to talk and to boost who have not taken any hand or paid any attention heretofore. The county fair proposition is the liveliest issue at hand and every man in the county of Nacogdoches, who has the best heart for this section, should become identified with the movement. Push it along.

THE Galveston News feels thankful that a majority of the representatives at Washington from Texas are not Republicans. And it ought to be thankful that that same majority of representatives from Texas do not maintain residences in the Lone Star state,—own farms in Kentucky,—live in Washington,—and vote in New York. Most of them actually represent Texas.

"You have a splendid little city here, and a very bright future, if only the people would get together," said a visitor to Nacogdoches yesterday. "There is seemingly a lack of cooperation, of push, of real work for the town's sake," continued the fellow. And the funny part of the thing is the hot-shot is nothing new,—merely a repetition of the same old fable, told and re-told till thread bare. When the most essential thing in the world to small cities is realized,—co-operation,—then the "metropolis of East Texas" will make some strides that will surprise the outside world and take the breath of the natives.

IF the Merchants and Business Men of this city do not fight the mail order evil, and the proposed parcels post law how can they expect other people to take it up,—or even expect the evil to grow less. The mail order houses advertise year in and year out, and their business increases every month of the year. If a good organization was perfected in every city, town and hamlet, and uniform fight made, millions of dollars would remain in the South to be spent at home among the local merchants. The sooner something is done, the better it will be or all.

THERE are some places in this city that have weeds in the yards as thick as underbrush in the Big Thicket and ranging in height from knee high to a Bantam, to several feet higher than a man's head. These same places have people living there too. Such negligence, wilful or what ever it may be, ought to be looked after, and if the residents of these wildernesses haven't the get up to cut the weeds and clean up, they ought to be made to do it.

WE are in receipt of a booklet just issued by the Timpson Commercial Club. It is one of the best pieces of advertising we have seen of late,—is neat, attractive, well edited and contains a fund of information that ought to prove inducive to the prospective citizen of that county. The people of the little city of Timpson are to be congratulated on their hustle and push in trying to make Timpson and Shelby county grow.

SOME of the East Texas counties are already arranging and making preparations for exhibits at the Dallas State Fair. Others are still talking the matter and making believe what is going to be done, and some are doing their usual stunt—nothing. The first will nearly always prove winners,—the second class comes along sometimes with pretty fair results and the last mentioned continues to sit around and cuss conditions in general and the government in particular, about "hard luck," "discrimination," and wonder why things are always thusly.

SAY for instance that an investment of $3,000 only paid 10 per cent dividends—wouldn't that be pretty good? Don't you honestly think that a creamery would pay $300 in a 12-months? Certainly it will,—and more too. Possibly twice that much. But that is not the only thing about a creamery—that butter factory we've been talking about. Just think of the money it will distribute among the farmers, to say nothing about making a market for the products that are now thrown away, and the attention that it will cause to be given to cattle raising. The butter factory is the thing,—and the farmers should keep the ball rolling.

THE boll weevils are among the guests of the farmers of Nacogdoches county, as is the case in other places. The weevils are unwelcome, though that fact makes no difference with the pesky critters. The farmers of this section have had some mighty fine prospects for good cotton crops, and things look fairly well yet, it only the weevils can be induced to move on. Lots of remedies are being offered, and during the past week several have appeared in the Sentinel. They are all practical and will result in much good no doubt, if the farmers will heed. It is strictly up to the man at the throttle though, and if he fails to spend time and energy on his crop, that crop will likely be a failure. Invite the weevils to leave by getting right in after them now.

EDITOR Stump of the Port Arthur News had about decided to discard his shoes and go barefooted, when some very learned doctors in "Boston" stated that when a fellow prevaricated, one of his toes wiggled. That was too much for Stump, as all his toes exposed and wiggling at once might cause some nervous disease to set in. Better wear shoes Stump, till you get out of Port Arthur anyway, where you wont have to yarn.

THE Hon. Jacob Wolters of the big city of Houston is endeavoring to keep the record straight, and calls the Hon. Cone Johnson and the Hon. Bill poindexter to land for talking about "bolting" Democrats. Neither of these two learned gentlemen have any use whatever for the so-called bolters, yet according to Jacob these same two learned gentlemen sat in the Palmer-Buckner convention in 1896 and helped elect a Republican ticket. And the pot called the kettle black.

THERE is no place in the whole state of Texas that has more advantages than this section and especially this city and county. The people who reside here, and have always done so, do not realize this as others—visitors for instance. The mystery to them all is why a greater progress is not shown, and a more forward movement not made. A good, live-wire organization is the best tonic in the world,—but some people are in the habit of letting well enough alone,—and that ends it.

THAT butter factory. If even one half of the people of this city buy butter—that means seven hundred and fifty families. Say they use only two pounds per week,—that means fifteen hundred pounds. Say that butter costs only an average of twenty five cents per pound—that means three hundred and seventy five dollars per week,—fifteen hundred dollars per month—eighteen thousand dollars per year. And yet an investment of three thousand dollars, with five hundred cows supplying cream, will cause that sum of money to remain right at home—as well as the money paid for the cream that will go to the farmers. The point?

THE establishment of a creamery in Nacogdoches with 700 cows furnishing cream, will mean not less than $2,500 turned loose every month among the farmers—and will also mean thousands of pounds of butter made and sold at home. With an investment of $3,000 and 700 cows furnishing cream, this can be done. Make up your mind to supply some cream to a plant—and to take a little stock in the institution. It's coming.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

According to reports gathered by the Sentinel the boll weevil is doing more damage in Nacogdoches County than for several years. This fact alone should add a splendid argument in favor of the creamery movement. A few additional acres devoted to pasturage and the production of feed stuffs will enable the farmers to obtain splendid returns in the sale of butter, and at the same time leave ground for the cultivation of all the cotton that will be attempted in the county next year.—Dallas News.

THE tobacco crop of Nacogdoches county is said to be better this year than any year since this industry was started in that county. There is no question about the value of the tobacco crop, and there is no doubt that we have as good land around Mt. Enterprise for growing tobacco as Nacogdoches, and it is a little strange to us that the people here who have suitable land do not grow tobacco. This is not a perishable product like tomatoes and potatoes and can be held if the price does not justify selling.—Mt. Enterprise Herald.

THE question "what is whiskey" seems to be worrying a lot of folks and considerable time is being lost over the solution to the query. Granting that it is a momentous, important, vital, really perplexing question, the answer is "that whiskey is a combination of cheap corn at a high price, new rye and old rain water, with a generous mixture of pepper, spices, gypsum weed, some smoke and a little h— for good measure". Respectfully referred the anti candidates who are riding a pro rail for recreation,—and who have such a dear feeling for the dear people.

C. F. DRAKE, formerly of this city, and later of Kingfisher, Oklahoma, is now editor of the Dalhart Evening News, the recently launched afternoon paper of the "little city of the north pl—". The initial copies of the that paper sold from every 365 days and indicate a better reception by the people of that town and section. Drake is a good newspaper man and will make the News bright and interesting.

THE East Texas Press Association is now in reality, being organized at Tyler last Friday. J. E. Yantis of Athens is president, Mr. Whitley of Bullard is vice president and Editor Christman of Grand Saline is secretary.

EAST TEXAS NEEDS A FAIR.

TYLER has been bidding for leadership in East Texas. Why stand in doubt any longer? Her wholesale houses have splendid trade, her factories are successful, and her entertainments are attended by tremendous throngs of people. East Texas needs a fair to show her products and to bring people to see our activities and resources. Why not Tyler lead off with an East Texas fair? If the other cities of East Texas are consulted we can have their support and co-operation. A fair would do much for East Texas, and while it would be an expense to the managers, yet the city in which it is held can afford to finance the enterprise. We can get up plans for such an undertaking which will succeed and be self sustaining if the Commercial Club would like to consider such an enterprise.—Tyler Courier-Times.

DID you ever dream of eating something good? Wasn't the taste disappointing? Well, that's the way the East Texas cantaloupes generally taste. But they look good. When you size up an East Texas cantaloupe, your "mouth waters" like it does when you read about venison steak in Colonel Bonner's Harpoon. But when you fill your mouth full of the "mushmelon," there is too much reality in the water and not enough in the sugar and flavor. I want to do all I can to encourage Southwest Texas to grow "cants," and East Texas to quit growing them. She'd better trade some Elberta peaches and other things she can grow right for Southwest Texas cantaloupes.—Southwestern Farmer.

Editor Claridge must have had a bad taste in his mouth when he wrote the above, as he did when he partook of the "mushmelon",—or else he came from some section of Texas and was being palmed off as an East Texas product. This old county grows as fine flavored cantaloupes as can be found anywhere, not even exempting Southwest Texas. The fruit is large, rich color and tastes like more all the time. Nacogdoches is an exception however, and all the good things found in this section can not be located at every other point.—Even in East Texas.

STORE IS BURGLARIZED.

Drug House at Cushing Entered Last Night And Ten Dollars And a Number of Gold Watches Taken— Sheriff Spradley at Scene.

Word was received here this morning that a burglar or burglars had entered the drug store at Cushing, owned by Prof. B. S. Shirley, and about ten dollars in money and seven or eight fine gold watches taken. The entrance was effected some time after midnight last night, but just how has not been learned. The thief broke open the cash drawer and got the change, about ten dollars, and proceeded to ransack the compartment, taking by most by the above mentioned number of fine watches and possibly some cheaper ones and other stuff. Particulars are not known at this time, though it is stated that there is a pretty good clue to the burglar. Sheriff Spradley went to Cushing this afternoon to investigate the affair.

MORE ABOUT BOLL WEEVILS.

Mayer & Schmidt Firm Issues Circular to the Farmers of Nacogdoches County— Save the Cotton Crops.

The following circular has been issued by the firm of Mayer & Schmidt of this city, to the farmers of this county and section, in reference to the boll weevils, and how to save the cotton crops. The circular is along the same line as others that have been issued recently, some by the government agents, and it will be well for the people who have cotton crops, large or small, to heed the words and follow some or all of the plans. There is a way to beat the boll weevils, but it will require persistent fighting to do it. It is strictly up to every man to do his part. Those who have labored thus far, with bright prospects for a good harvest, cannot afford to lose. They must win, and to do so requires extra efforts. The circular mentioned is as follows:

To Our Farmer Friends: Report comes from many sections that boll weevils are getting plentiful, and as we have not the opportunity of seeing all of our friends in person, we have decided to issue this circular, urging the picking up of squares.

The German farmers of South and Southwest Texas have pursued this plan for years and find—coupled with frequent shallow plowing—it enables them to make good crops in spite of the boll weevils.

We urge upon you the necessity of picking up the squares and burning them, now,—do not wait until the ground is covered. Go over the ground at least once a week, and this will delay their coming until the crop is made.

Pick up the squares and follow with shallow plowing, with brush attached to the single tree. Light plowing keeps up the moisture. The time has come when the persistent man who fights the weevils will save his labor and make a good crop, while the man who lets it alone will almost surely lose his labor.

We have a fairly promising prospect for a good crop and we are very anxious to see our friends reap the reward of their labors, therefore this timely suggestion. Do it now—before it is too late.

With best wishes for an abundant cotton crop, we remain Yours Truly, Mayer & Schmidt (Inc.)

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Grubbs, who have been residents of Nacogdoches for the past several years left on the T. & N. O. this afternoon for Mr. Grubbs' home in Kemp, Texas and after remaining there for a month they will visit Mrs. Grubbs' home in Abbott, Texas. After an extended visit there, Mr. Grubbs will seek another location. They have many good friends in Nacogdoches who regret to see them leave and who wish them success where they may locate.

Obituary.

The subject of this sketch Monroe Grimes, was taken by the angel of death in his country home, June 25th, 1909. He was born in Monroe county Alabama, Nov. 4th 1827. He was married to Miss Sarah Scogin in Leek county, Miss., Aug. 2nd, 1848. There were born to them 15 children, 2 girls and 13 boys. Now living one girl and ten boys. He was the grand father of 47 grand children, 39 survive him and great grand children 15, only 2 of this number are dead. Bro. M. Grimes was a good husband. He loved his wife and his wife loved him so that the two lives were blended like that of one. He was an affectionate father, for he had the honor of endearing the entire family to him and by his wholesome councils and examples he reared a family of noble sons and daughters for those surviving him are among the best citizens of the country.

He professed and joined North Baptist church 4 miles north of the town of Nacogdoches, said to be the oldest Missionary Baptist church in Texas. If she be the oldest in Texas, her history connects her with line of Baptist churches, that can, perhaps follow a line of succession church by church for 500 years. The first Baptist church of Texas was organized by Z. N. Morrell, who organized and was a member of Spring Hill church in Gibson county Tenn.; the members of Spring Hill church were from Saw Mill Church, South Carolina; the members of Saw Mill Church were from Welsh Neck church on Pedee river South Carolina; the members of Welsh Neck church were from Welsh Tract church and Wesh Tract church came from Wales in an organized body on the ship James and Mary and settled near Penepeck in Pennsylvania (now Delaware.) The Wales churches had a succession that doubtless went back to a church Cheshire which existed as early 1487. C. of B. H. pp222-224, 277-278. This dear Brother lived a consistent member of this church until the time of his death, of course there were ripples in life, such as are common to the most consecrated, but his life was on the side of his church and the cause of his Master as he understood it. He was a Baptist to the core. His expression was "I know myself I am a Baptist." His zeal did not abate because of age or feeble body, for I have seen him come in church very feeble and I have often helped him on his seat after prayer. He was charitable in his views towards those differing from him, and was not much impressed with the new fads so popular with many in Christian work, but liked the old time religion better. He held to his convictions on the Bible.

Stops Hair Falling

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly stop falling of the hair. Indeed, we believe it will always do this unless there is some disturbance of the general health. Then, a constitutional medicine may be necessary. Consult your physician about this.

The reason why Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair is because it first destroys the germs which cause this trouble. After this is done, nature soon brings about a full recovery, restoring the hair and scalp to a perfectly healthy condition.

J. B. Cook, Caroway Ave., Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and consider them a grand kidney remedy. The imperfect action of the kidneys was very apparent in my case as I lacked control over the secretions and this gave me great annoyance both day and night. On account of of having to arise often, and as my rest was greatly disturbed, I was especially anxious to find a remedy that would give me relief. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly advertised, I went to Mast Bros. & Smith's drug store and procured a box. KILLED BY A BURGLAR.

Mrs. Sophia Staber Shot By Midnight Prowler While Aiding Her Son in A Struggle— Murder Confirmed By Wire.

The following special appearing in this morning's Chronicle is in reference to the mother of Herman Staber, who married Miss Martha Ingraham of this city. The story of the killing was confirmed this morning in a message to Judge Ingraham. Herman Staber used to reside here and has visited here a number of times with his wife, and is well known among the people of this city. No further particulars have been learned, other than those contained in the dispatch, which states that Herman Staber was in a struggle with a midnight prowler and when Mrs. Staber came to his aid, the burglar shot her and fled. The dispatch in this morning's Chronicle is as follows:

New York, July, 8.—Mrs. Sophie Staber, the wife of George Staber, an importer of Duane street, this city, was shot and killed in her home at Flatbush, L. I., while aiding her son in a struggle with a burglar today.

The burglar, shaking off the son, dived through a window and escaped.

THE sooner the people of this city and county take up small factories and get some of them here, the sooner will general conditions be better. There are a number of propositions that might be landed with the proper going after, and which would be wonderful things for the people and this country. For instance the butter factory would help for one.

Civic improvement is as much an index to a city as refinement is to a person. The lack of civic pride, civic improvement and civic progress is indicative of a don't care, shiftless attitude, while activity in this line shows quite the reverse. Nothing adds to a city like pretty homes, well kept yards and lawns, nice sidewalks (weedless) and clean premises, including the alleys.

SPRING time in East Texas is great. The country of fruits and flowers and vegetables, and before we can hardly catch up on these things, big old watermelons come rolling in. Can't be beat, folks—the best in the world. Don't forget the fair proposition. — Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Keep saying it, brother, for it 'tis a story that never grows old. And East Texas is the place for the man of means or without means; all can acquire homes, and a home here means a living.—Tyler Courier Times.

Creamery proposition—don't forget it. The institution is one badly needed here, and one that is going to come pretty soon. The farmers of this county should adjust themselves for one by getting hold of some good cows and saving up a little cash to invest. A creamery will pay good dividends as well as furnish a year-round market for daily products.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

It is an easy matter to present arguments in favor of the creamery, and the Sentinel is losing no time in pointing out the disadvantages the Nacogdoches section is laboring under on account of the absence of such an institution. If a creamery is not erected in Nacogdoches during the present year no man can charge it to a lack of enthusiasm on the part of the Sentinel. As another splendid example of the worth of the plant, State Press would direct the Sentinel man's attention to the following statement from the Goliad Advance:

At the creamery meeting yesterday the annual report showed about $10,000 paid the farmers for cream the past year. For May $1,101.55 was paid. An annual dividend of 10 per cent was declared on the stock of the company, and 5 per cent was carried up to surplus.

EDITOR Stump of the Port Arthur News had about decided to discard his shoes and go barefooted, when some very learned doctors in "Boston" stated that when a fellow prevaricated, one of his toes wiggled. That was too much for Stump, as all his toes exposed and wiggling at once might cause some nervous disease to set in. Better wear shoes Stump, till you get out of Port Arthur anyway, where you won't have to yarn.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

The only trouble with wearing shoes is that the constant revolution of our big toes wears out the ends of the shoes before we get much use out of the soles. And the tariff on shoes is going up, too.—Port Arthur News.

If the Merchants and Business men of this city do not fight the mail order evil, and the proposed parcels post law how can they expect other people to take it up,—or even expect the evil to grow less. The mail order houses advertise year in and year out, and the business increases every month of the year. If a good organization was perfected in every city, town and hamlet and uniform fight made, millions of dollars would remain in the South to be spent at home among the local merchants. The sooner something is done, the better it will be for all.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

If merchants would use the most available weapon at hand, advertising, they could drive the mail order houses from the field; but most of them expect the newspapers to fight their battles without cost to the merchants themselves. If the mail order merchants did not advertise they would never sell a dollar's worth of goods in Texas territory—folks would not know whether they were still in business or not. Center News.

THE editors of the East Texas country are in session today at Tyler, and for the purpose of organizing an East Texas Press Association. Such a movement has been, and is now, badly needed and the Sentinel expresses the hope that it will materialize today and that active work will begin, as is being done by other similar organizations.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

They met, but you were not present. Will not the editors and proprietors of the Sentinel join in the work? If only the few that were at Tyler act, nothing will come of it. Deeds, not words are needed in this work. What says the Sentinel? — Athens Review.

No one from this city was present, we admit, but the Sentinel joins heartily in the good work and expects the new organization to help East Texas grow. For more than a year this paper has agitated an East Texas Press Association, believing that much benefit would result, if properly and systematically run, and the belief is stronger now than ever. The officers selected at Tyler are right men in right places, and we predict a successful body from the start.

MISSIONARIES ARE BEATEN.

College Chums Beyond the Angelina, Administer a Drubbing in First of Series — Number of Costly Errors.

From Saturday's Daily:

After six consecutive chapters have been read, all of them looking alike in the little story book, the aggregation of ball tossers beyond the angelina Angelina, yesterday afternoon won a game from Nacogdoches. That the College Chums are bubbling over with enthusiasm, full to the brim and lopping over the sides, wouldn't be putting it too strong. They are tickled and the fans are likewise. They believe at last that the world is round and that "the sun do move." The pessimistic countenances have undergone a wonderful change, and now those one time graveyard fronts are smiling monuments to their innermost feelings. Nacogdoches won't charge it up to the umpire or to any other thing, but that the Chumps from the place called College Station, outplayed them. They played rings around the Missionaries, according to one fan's version, but there are so many kind of rings, and he didn't say which. Anyway Chase and Wade were batted freely, Richardson made some costly bobbles, others on the team made an aeroplane ascension, and a general around defeat took place. Bivens, for the Lufkin boys, pitched a pretty good game, though he allowed eight hits,—but still not enough to help the Missionaries from the best town in Texas, very much. The hits must have been widely scattered. Particulars were not gotten, further than ten hits were taken off Chase before Wade went in the box. The score board looked like this when the smoke cleared:

Nacogdoches 000 201 000—3
Lufkin 020 110 022—8

VISITORS WIN TWO GAMES.

White Sox Take First of The Series But Nacogdoches Gets The Others — That Fellow Called "Hogue."

From Monday's Daily:

What The Sentinel has been saying about the Nacogdoches Missionaries, a base ball aggregation of that place, proved only too true, for the games played here last week proved that they know the game and play fast ball, but still they like to "squabble" about as well as any ball players that have visited our city, but taking that part out they are a nice bunch of players.

In the first game the Sox walked off with the game by score of 6 to 2, but in the second game that fellow called "Hogue(?)" touched the ball out for a clean two-bagger when there were two men on bases and won the game 2 to 0.

In the third game Jacksonville got two scores in the first, and it looked like they would have a walkover until the 8th and the visitors got on to Spruill's curves and with two men on bases Crawford picked up the hickory and after two strikes had been called on him, rapped the ball over the right field fence scoring three men and the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the Missionaries. In the last part of the ninth Monk Jones two base hit scored Taylor, thereby tying the score.

In the tenth that fellow called "Hogue" again put it over the fence scoring two men, and winning the game by a score of 6 to 4, the Sox failing to score in the tenth. — Jacksonville Reformer.

Drummer Finds Some Pearls.

W. C. Shipe, a traveling man who has been in the city several days, made a find yesterday that made him several dollars richer, as well as teaches some of the people that "strangers discover where citizens pass by." Being of a rather searching disposition, and as is his habit too when business is over, the gentleman indulged in some walks around town. Hunting up "Uncle Charley" Bird yesterday he made a trip down the Lanana picking mussel shells here and there, "for curiosity sake." In them he found two beautiful pearls one valued at from four to six dollars and the other worth from ten to fifteen dollars. The latter especially is said to be a little gem.

COLLEGE CHUMS ARE VICTORS.

Boys Across The Creek Take Three Straight Games From The Missionaries — Another Series Here, Beginning Today.

From Monday's Daily:

The expected happened, but it was only by sheer force and up to stuff in every particular and laboring like Trojans, that it did happen. The College Chums took three games from the Missionaries on their own diamond, making it thus far, Nacogdoches six games and Lufkin three games. The team was crippled the two last days (and probably the first) and especially was yesterday's line-up a little hazardous, as Smith who pitched Saturday, had to do the twirling again. Despite over-work the man with the mysteries pitched an excellent game, and then lost by only one to nothing. The Saturday's game was lost to Lufkin by a score of three to two, and the first by eight to three.

"BONEHEADS" LOSE THE GAME

Missionaries Outplay The Visitors At Every Stage, But Errors And Air Performances Too Numerous — Hamilton Gets A Homer.

From Tuesday's Daily:

The initial game of the series went to Lufkin by a score of six to five, despite the fact that the Missionaries have the Chums outclassed and showed it at most every turn yesterday. Errors and bonehead plays were as plentiful as ought to happen in country baseball, and real work a critical stages was lacking. Adams, the new pitcher from Corsicana, did some splendid twirling, though somewhat wild. He lacked headwork too, due to the fact possibly that it was his first appearance on the local diamond and the first time that he had even seen the two bunches of ball tossers. He only allowed three hits, walked one and hit two. The support behind him seemed to have lost the habit of playing effective ball and made some costly bobbles. Holland for the visitors pitched a pretty good game, though the locals tapped him for eleven clean hits, including a three bagger and two doubles. His support was fine and but few errors were made by the Lufkin boys. The game started off briskly, and snappy ball was the habit for several innings, but he gap went down in the fourth and two scores were run in by the Chums, tying the game. In the fifth the Chums got another, in the sixth another and two more in the ninth. The Missionaries failed to do anything but the one score in the first, till the lucky seventh when two runs were made. The eighth passed off quietly and the ninth opened with two runs. They were really entitled to three, as Smith was called out on second erroneously. The first real bonehead was pulled off in the fourth, when with a man on third and one on second and two men down, Adams threw the ball to a Lufkin coach on first base, allowing two scores to be run in. Until that inning the game stood 1 to 0 in favor of the Missionaries, and after that the Chums kept the lead. Richardson hurt his hand in the sixth and Simpkins took the receivers end, doing some catching that was excellent. Several of the Nacogdoches boys are crippled, but they played just the same and did most effective work. Nearly all the scores on each side were made on bobbles or boneheads, and it such had been cut out, the final windup would have found it looking 2 and 2.

Club Gatherings and Social Doings for the Week in Nacogdoches

"The soul is fed by the books we read. We have our choice of the table d'hote, the best sellers; ambrosia, the great books of the world, and manna, which is the Bible."

Visitors Complimented.

Miss Jennie Hoya has as her guests two charming young ladies from Jefferson, Texas, Misses Collins and Benefield and for their pleasure is arranging a variety of entertainments, the first of which last Friday evening, while small in its scope as to numbers, (including only besides the hostess and honorees, Misses Mamie L. and Mintie Blount, Hester Buchanan, Messrs. Fritz Swift, Elbert Summers, Joe Dooley, Percy Blount, Edgar Ratcliff, and Blum Mast, was exceedingly pleasant from beginning to end.

The evening began with a visit to the Vaudette and was followed on the return to the home of Miss Hoya, with a most delightful supper. The table was exquisite in its appointments, pink and white being the color note chosen which was manifested in the centerpiece of pink blossoms resting on the snowy linen, in the white mints in pink baskets at each place, and in various other artistic and pretty touches. The place cards were Dudes heads, and bore humorously descriptive titles, the initials of the guests furnishing the theme, as for instance one of the cards had inscribed "Jolly Dude." He who runs may read that it was intended for Joe Dooley, and of course "Famous Scamp" could stand for nothing else than Fritz Sposition. "Everlasting Roamess it by apply to no one but Edgar Ratcliff, and so on, even the girls coming in for their share of good natured raillery, "Humming Bird" obviously meant for Hester Buchanan, the hostess herself not escaping and the cognomen of "Jolly Hoosier" while not being a perfect fit, passed muster. With this auspicious, mirth producing beginning, the dainty little midnight supper of chicken salad, watters, pickles, olives, sandwiches, iced tea, peach cream, fruit cake, white cake, mints, was thoroughly enjoyed, and the smart little function unanimously voted a perfect success.

Ladies Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Main Street Presbyterian church had their weekly meeting last Monday afternoon with Mrs. E. B. Williams.

Nothing daunts these energetic woman and torrid weather has no terrors for them when bent upon good works in which they find their reward as well as in the pleasant hour or two spent together with minds and hands employed.

Mrs. Williams served a most palatable little lunch at the end of the afternoon's tasks, consisting of stuffed tomatoes, sandwiches watters, pickles, iced tea.

The next meeting will be the regular monthly business meeting of the society.

Dance.

The dance with Miss Jennie Hoya complimented her guests, the Misses Collins and Benefield of Jefferson, Texas, on Monday night was a decided social success and so voted by the twenty five or thirty couples of young people who responded to Miss Hoya's pretty invitations posted last week.

Dancing and entertaining has no terrors for those who can avail themselves of the privileges of Aqua Vitae Park, with its pretty pavilion, its well lighted grounds and other facilities for comfortable entertaining. Good music was provided by the young hostess, one of her guests, Miss Helene Collins with Mr. Elbert Summers leading the grand march, at the conclusion of which pretty programs were distributed. Delicious punch in satisfying plenty was placed in an inviting and attractive place and was in the charge of Misses Clara Hoya and Dolphie Hillencamp, which they dispensed throughout the evening. The chaperones were Mrs. Chas. Hoya, Miss Didie Hoya and Mr. and Mrs. George Meisenheimer.

The list of those invited is too long for publication, but in addition to the pretty honorees, Miss Mamie Blount's house guests, Miss Tassie Polk and Miss Annie Gilbert of Beaumont, were out of town guests.

According to the Tyler "Daily Courier Times" of the 10th inst. the Nacogdoches contingent which invaded Tyler "Home Coming" week were "It" and the society page of that paper is full of the courtesies and attentions showered upon them.

On Tuesday afternoon, they were tendered a Base Ball party at Maxwell Park to witness the game between Tyler and Nacogdoches of which Mr. Marshall Smith, now of Houston, but formerly of Nacogdoches was the host and Mrs. Durst the chaperone. The party was driven to the ball park in a wagonette and on the way the Nacogdoches Elks Band (than which there is no better) met and serenaded them. The party was composed of Mrs. Durst, Misses Davidson, Matthews, Middlebrook, Stinson, Mamie E. Blount of Nacogdoches, Misses Polk and Gilbert of Beaumont, Miss Hughes of Dallas, Messrs. Frost Thorn, Vincent and Geo. H. Davidson of Nacogdoches and Marshall Smith of Houston. Of course the result of the game but added to their pleasure.

On Wednesday evening an impromptu dance at the Elks Club rooms were given the Nacogdoches party, and again on Thursday morning they were tendered a complimentary German at the same hospitable rooms, and they were also included in a very handsome function at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Ramey on Thursday evening.

Of the house party in its entirety, we quote from the Courier Times, as follows:

"Mrs. John Durst has been entertaining a large and merry house party during Home Coming Week. Mrs. Durst, who is always a gracious hostess, has entertained with lavish hospitality, and her guests have enjoyed every attraction and entertainment that the week offered. They have enjoyed the dances, the ball games, the carnival, drives, dinners, and a continual round of gaities throughout the week. Mrs. Durst's guests have been mostly from Nacogdoches, her girlhood home, and the house party was given complimentary to Mrs. Durst's niece, Miss Lillian Davidson of Nacogdoches. The following was the personnel of the house party. Mr. and Mrs. John Durst, Misses Lillian Davidson, Middlebrook, Tannie Stinson, Matthews, Mamie Blount of Nacogdoches, Misses Polk and Gilbert of Beaumont, Miss Laura Hughes of Dallas, Messrs. Frost Thorn, Vincent Davidson of Nacogdoches, Juan, Jack and Samuel Epes Durst."

Tennis Party.

The plan of entertainment with which Misses Mintie and Mamie L. Blount complimented the two house parties on last Tuesday afternoon and evening was exceptionally unique and enjoyable and a perfect success from beginning to end.

The girls were bidden from the hours of 5 to 7 and from the nature of the party, the healthful, exhilarating pastime of tennis was thoroughly enjoyed. The young men were invited for the hours of seven to ten, and following the assembling of the entire party, a "tennis" supper was enjoyed, for which tennis emblems were utilized to embody the unique sentiment of the party.

The long table seating the twenty four young people had for its central decoration a miniature tennis court, which effect was achieved with green foliage, the court marked off with white ribbons, and the nets made of interlaced lavender ribbons, lavender and white being the color motif of the supper. The color note was evidence also with the aid of Altheas, and both color note and scheme was noticeable in the place cards, which were tiny racquets and balls done in violet ink and were original drawings by the clever fingers of Miss Mamie L. Blount. The candies too, ornamenting the table, had tiny racquets outlined in lavender on their white surfaces, the chosen color being also developed throughout the dainty menu, which was fruit salad, sandwiches tied with lavender ribbons, watters, olives, iced tea, ice cream, angel cake.

Those seated around the table were, the two hostesses, their house guest, Miss Eula Mae Monk, Miss Mamie E. Blount, her guests, Misses Polk and Gilbert, Miss Laura Allen, Miss Jennie Hoya, her guests, Misses Benefield and Collins, Paula Garrison, the young men being Messrs. Joe Dooley, Albert Brewer, Mack Cason, French Murphy, Arthur Seale, Ben Sanders, Will Wade, Herbert Schmidt, Morris Bivins of Clawson, and George Bittle of Lufkin and Percy Blount.

After the perfectly served supper, there was a visit to the Picture Shows by the entire party and this was followed by a watermelon feast at the home of the young hostesses. It can easily be seen that from the hours of five to midnight not one moment was allowed to lag, every one being replete with enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Blount entertained at supper last evening, their guests being Messrs. Simpkins and Hogue, both former school mates of Mr. Blount's at Sewanee. It was a very happy occasion, no less for the hospitable entertainers than for the guests so complimented.

We append the following from the Houston Post of the 11th inst. concerning Prof. Rosser, whose recent departure for other fields Nacogdoches still deplores:

John E. Rosser, Ph. B., of Nacogdoches, Texas, has been appointed secretary of the university. Mr. Rosser is a graduate of Emory college, Oxford, Ga., where he took his degree with distinction. Subsequently he completed at Vanderbilt university and at the University of Chicago more than the required amount for the masters of arts degree. At Vanderbilt he held a graduate fellowship in English and history, and at Chicago he did the major of his work in sociology. CHASE WINS HIS GAME.

Twirls Splendid Ball And Has The Finest of Support Behind Him—Only Seven Hits By Both Teams—Equals Chellete's Strikeouts.

The prettiest game that Chase has ever pitched, took place yesterday afternoon, when he let the College Chums down with four hits and got sixteen of the boys for strikeouts. Support was the finest ever, making it possible for the good work, while his control of the horse hide was magnificent. Errors by both teams were scarce, though what few were made proved serious. The game was a fast one, much more so than the first exhibition, and clean, brisk, snappy ball was the habit from the first roll call till the curtain went down at the conclusion of the performance. Bivens was in pretty good form and pitched a good game, despite the fact that at times his backing was somewhat critical. The real losing proclivities of both teams are not errors and bobbles and fumbles, but under throws and wild pegs. The major portion of yesterday's scores were allowed just on the account of these latter things. "Rube" Smith led the batting with two nice ones, while Johnson got one, the only hits off Bivens. Gardner, Bivens, Moore and Hoffman were the hitters for the Chums, the latter party getting a two bagger. Several feature plays were pulled off, chiefly in the regular routine of matters, including outfield running catches and the base running of some of the fellows. Chase struckout the three first men that faced him, while Bivens slipped a noose around the necks of the two first on the Missionaries roll book, a fly to center putting down the third. In the second inning the three first up for Lufkin went to the initial on errors, the two head runners scoring while the trigger work for three outs was taking place. Thus it rocked, two to nothing in favor of the visitors, till the last of the fourth when Simpkins at the bat was hit with a pitched ball. Smith hit, Rusche first on error, Sanders put on bases and Chase to the initial sack on errors netted the locals three runs. Nothing was doing for either side till the last of the sixth, when Smith to the first on an error, Rusche sacrificed and Johnson hit, scored the runner and put the board like unto 4 to 2, and as it remained at the windup. In the ninth a rally was made by the Chums and at one time it looked as if the score might be tied, or at least another run made, but Stegall, who was running, took too long chances and was tagged at the home plate.

Batteries: Lufkin, Bivens and Hamilton; Nacogdoches, Chase and Simpkins. Hits: off Bivens 3; off Chase 4. Strikeouts: Bivens 5; Chase 16. Errors: Lufkin 5; Nacogdoches 5. Umpire, Livingston. Time, 1 hour and 20 minutes.

By innings:
College Chums 020 000 000—2
Missionaries 000 301 00—4

SOME DIAMOND DOE.

Forty-five games played—twenty-eight won—seventeen lost—percentage 622—up just "aw leetle" bit.

Chase made good yesterday and don't forget it. Sixteen strikeouts equals Chellete's record game.

Hogue made a splendid running catch in the center field, and eased the fears of the grand stand. It's a habit he has.

Hoffman surprised the natives again by getting a hit, and a two bagger at that. Hoffman is as sure as glue in that center position.

Sanders played a splendid game at first yesterday and his batting average is gradually going up.

Simpkins has them all outclassed behind the bat and would do that pegging but for a sprained shoulder. "Big John" will get back in the game one of these days and you'll see another that has them outclassed.

Crawford, Johnson and Rusche sewed that infield with thread that never wears out and is guaranteed not to rip. Watch them move around awhile and see just how it looks to be fast infielders.

"Rube" Smith is a good twirler, a safe outfielder, a hitter with a locomotive attachment for steam and hardly ever fails to connect. He's leading this month in hitting.

Akey made a spectacular running catch in the last of the fifth that looked good to the fans. The sun is against the fellow in left field, but somehow or some how else, "Mugsey" gets 'em. His Assyrianchinese-turkishrussian-swedish book lends "enchantment to the weary" when he's at work on the coach line.

John Henry Richardson has a pretty bad thumb and suffered considerably with it yesterday. May be o k today—and here's hoping 'tis true.

Representative of Leagues are already scouting for material for next year, and some of the Nacogdoches boys are listed for a try out. Of course they will make good.

Johnson has made two errors in nine games. If there is another that can beat or equal that record, trot him out and show the color of his eyes. Johnson is a fast infielder and fairly good with the stick.

Longview took three games from Tyler last week. The Cotton Belts probably realize at last that there are lots of real ball teams in East Texas, to the contrary, notwithstanding, however, and so forth.

Nacogdoches laughed a little too soon, didn't she? Eight to three in favor of Lufkin, "whoopie!" What does the Sentinel think of that.—Timpson Times.

Haven't thought of it at all,—been trying to forget it.

Keep Baby Healthy; Free

No child can be well and strong unless its bowels move regularly every day at the same hour. Such regularity promotes good health. One passage is absolutely necessary, while two are, not too many.

There is one remedy that is especially adapted to the needs of children, and which thousands of American mothers are using today, and that is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. Its gentle action, so free from griping, its tonic effects, and its perfect purity, vouchsafed for to the United States Government, makes it an ideal children's laxative tonic.

Mrs. M. F. Cash, of Webb, Okla., is an old-time friend of this wonderful child's remedy and she says she could scarcely keep house without it. She became acquainted with it through Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free trial bottle, which she found so effective on her baby that she now always keeps it in the house. Mrs. K. L. Stout, of Louisville, Ky., also first used it in a free sample, then bought it of her druggist at the regular price, which is only 50 cents or $1.00 a bottle. It gave her little girl a splendid appetite and a vigorous stomach. Where Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin once finds its way into the home it makes a life-long friend. They soon discard salts, pills and powders.

Those who have never yet used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should begin to do so, for they are missing a valuable household friend. In order to acquaint you with its merits at no expense to yourself the doctor will send you a free trial bottle on receipt of name and address. It has been justly called the nation's safeguard to health in the cure of constipation, dyspepsia, heartburn, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and similar digestive ailments.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, at Caldwellville, Monticello, Ill.

A Tribute to the Dead.

Elizabeth Bailes, daughter of A. P. Bailes was born in 1826. Her father settled in eastern part of Nacogdoches county about 1840. She was married to Thomas Gray in 1847, of this union there were born 8 children, 7 girls and one boy, W. H. Gray, all of whom are citizens of Nacogdoches county. Her husband preceded her to the world of spirits 8 or 10 years. Mrs. Gray professed faith in Christ in early life and joined the Methodist church and was a faithful consistent member of such until she joined the church triumphant on the 6th day of July 1909. She was a kind and loving companion. Not only to her husband and children but to all with whom she came in contact and especially was she a friend to the gospel ministers who always found a hearty welcome to her home. She was a neighbor to be loved always ready to assist and bless the weary and heavy laden. Among her many virtues, industry and frugality were prominent. Her patience through her long illness was very remarkable, never a complaint escaped her lips.

Her girls were with her and she never wanted for attention but that whatever want (as far as in their power) was met.

But her long useful and beautiful life has ended for this world. She has joined her husband and the blood-washed through where her many virtues shall expand and increase through a never ending eternity. Dear children and grand children weep not as those who have no hope but endeavor to emulate her example and lead your little ones to Him—who can save to the uttermost all who come unto God by Him.

The family extend thanks to the many friends who were so kind to them during the sickness of their mother.

May God's blessings rest upon the children and grand children of our deceased sister.

John N. Wilson.

"Obituary."

Death has entered the household of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Birdwell, and has taken their little son Henry, away from their care. He was taken sick Saturday and each day drew life nearer to its end, regardless of mother and father's tender care, or all that assistance could do, little Henry breathed good bye to dear ones, and shrank into the eternal bosom where immortal garments are worn.

This dear little, child has answered Jesus call to "come" and has pinned an everlasting registration in heaven.

Bereaved ones, pine not for those who await the family reunion in heaven, but cling to the massive pillars of truth which are taught in the Bible and strive to greet your precious ones after death.

Oh! consolation, you bring to each of us God's will. We know he it manifested where ours can never be touched.

God sees precious mortal buds which he can pluck making the bush and it's other parts freshen into a brilliant life, so he has taken dear little Henry from the family bush knowing it is for his and their good.

To you the flushes of love come swinging, and all past memories.

While little Henry in glory is singing his delightful songs of glee.

The hush of life has o'er taken him and his soul has gone to rest, so forget his smiles and kisses and think that our precious Savior knows best.

Strings of your hearts are broken, and your grief has been wrung.

But in heaven awaits the mending the heart of your darling son.

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth and free from all eruptions or disease, but when the circulation becomes infected with any unhealthy humor the effect is shown by eruptions, pimples, boils, or some more definitely marked skin disorder, such as Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, etc.

Humors get into the blood, usually because of an inactive or sluggish condition of those members whose duty it is to collect and carry off the waste matter and refuse of the system. This unhealthy matter is left to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the blood, and soon the circulation becomes filled with an acrid, irritating humor.

The blood then, instead of performing its natural duty of nourishing the skin, regulating its temperature and preserving its uniform softness, pliability and healthfulness, irritates and diseases the delicate tissues and fibers around the pores and glands and produces some of the various forms of skin eruption or disease.

The cause of all skin affections can be traced to some kind of humor in the blood. Healthy cuticles are only possible where the circulation is pure; and therefore the cure of any skin disease can only come from a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., cannot cure. True such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort, helps to reduce inflammation, and aids in keeping the affected parts clean, but it does not reach the blood, where the real cause is located, and at best can be only palliative and soothing.

S. S. S. cures skin diseases of every character and kind because it purifies and cleanses the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors that are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, boils, and all other skin diseases and affections. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots and herbs, a safe vegetable remedy.

When S. S. S. has driven the humors from the blood, and cooled and purified the acid-heated circulation, every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with rich, healthful blood, and comfort is given to disease-tortured skins.

S. S. S. cures Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, Nettle Rash, and all other troubles due to a humor-laden blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free to all who write. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

THERE is no excuse for knockers in any town, and especially is there no cause in the wide world for such things in Nacogdoches. Down with the knockers now,—and put them down for good. And by the way,—if a proposition doesn't suit you, pass it by without comment, and for the sake of little snakes don't pour cold water on it at least till you see the result. Then "I told you so" will suffice.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Surely there is no excuse for knockers in Nacogdoches and the editor of the Enterprise is surprised to learn that they exist there. Those addicted to the habit of knocking are invariably in a bad state of health, and in this fact lies the cause of their habit. In a city where mineral water flows freely, where the climate is as a rule most pleasant, where fragrant flowers bloom nearly every month in the year, where health giving breezes from the surrounding pine forests blow continually, where opportunities to engage in profitable enterprises and in healthful exercises are to be found on every side,—in a city where all these blessings are to be enjoyed, there is ab-

For six years I was severely troubled with Eczema, located principally on the shin bones, caused by a humor in the blood. The trouble would appear in the form of small yellow blisters, characterized by itching, etc. I tried sarsaparilla, so-called blood purifiers, salves, ointments, lotions and treatment under a local physician, but nothing did me any good. Becoming discouraged I left off all this treatment, and seeing S. S. S. advertised one day I decided to try it, and after taking it a short while the humor was driven from my blood and I was completely and permanently cured. Some seven months have elapsed since I was cured and have had no indication of a return of the disease. G. C. RECK. 404 Freedom St., Alliance, O.

A Tale of Fearful Assault.

A little negro boy, color like unto that of real darkness, with gleaming white eyes, almost breathless and an indignation that would do credit to Opie Read, made a run last night for the officers, relating to them a story of brutal assault. Hastily officers with dogs went to the scene of the alleged misbehavior, only to find that the aforesaid imp of blackness had either erred seriously or had lied outright. He claimed that a negro man had beat his wife unmercifully and was endeavoring to escape. The officers learned that the negro and his "better or worse half" had merely had one of those periodical spells of quarreling, snapping and snarling, and that no licks were passed. Everything was quiet along the Potomac and the atmosphere had entirely cleared of its blue haziness when the persons of peace left the situation.

THE MAIL ORDER EVIL.

J. Homer Gaddy Talks to The Merchants About The Greatest Imposition in America Today—The Parcel-Post Affair.

The crowd was disappointing to say the least of it—in size only however. The interest shown by those present made up to a certain extent for the lack of merchants who took advantage of the opportunity. J. Homer Gaddy, state organizer for the Retail Merchants Association, is without doubt one of the best, if not the best, posted man along his line, in the entire Southwest. The talk made yesterday afternoon at the city hall was a splendid one, and every solitary merchant, business man, farmer and wage earner would have been benefitted greatly by it. The points are of vital importance to all. The mail order evil is the greatest menace to the people of the South today. The concerns through the North and East that are doing business with catalogues, are taking from this state alone, enough profits to support half as many more business enterprises than we have now. There were more Sears & Roebuck catalogues shipped into Texas last year than there were democratic votes cast in the primary. There were possibly half as many from other houses, including everything from a soap and hosiery house to a furniture and stove factory. And yet the farmers and others keep on sending money out of Texas, to the detriment of themselves, their neighbors, the business men and to the state as a whole. These are merely a few of the things touched on. The parcel-post bill, now before Congress, will double the burden and diminish the value. It will eventually destroy the small towns and build up centers. It will sap the life blood from the ruralists and townspeople alike. Uncle Sam now loses money on his postoffices, and the bill, if it becomes a law, will make it loose still more. Another bunch of truths plainly stated. An educational movement must be started, reaching from center to circumference. No man ever made or saved anything by patronizing mail order houses,—but thousands have lost. Mr. Gaddy endeavored to make this all clear and he succeeded well. The business men who were present were well pleased and seem interested to the extent of taking hold in an effort to check the pending, growing evils. A committee has promised to get busy among the merchants and try to induce them to see these things as they actually are. A merchants association, or an organization of some kind, will be formed. Those who have been trading with mail order concerns will be shown the error of their ways. The only bad feature about the entire affair was the fact that every man and woman in this county did not hear the talk. Mr. Gaddy left last night for South Texas where he will talk to a crowd of business men and farmers this afternoon and tonight.

Miss Ila Pinkard of Houston is visiting friends in the city.

Ramey-Sanders.

From Thursday's Daily.

Tuesday evening the Baptist church was a veritable bower of evergreens interspersed with white and pink roses.

The occasion was the uniting of hearts and fortunes of Mr. Phil Sanders and Miss Annie Ramey, Rev. J. W. Mills, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

With Mrs. I. J. Roberts at the organ the opening strains of Lohengrin's wedding march announced the arrival of the bridal party. Little Misses Maurine Mills, (cousin of the bride) and Louise Moore of Chireno entered first, making an aisle of white ribbon through which came Rev. J. W. Mills, Mr. Clayton Wilson and Miss Bennie Powell of Center. Lastly was Mr. Sanders and Miss Ramey and in front of them was little Miss Mamie Wilson, a miniature flower garden, scattering roses symbolical of the happiness wished by their many friends.

The groom looked his best in a handsome suit of black, and the bride was never so charming. She wore with becoming grace a white messaline costume which was completed by a flowing veil of tulle. Both bride and groom looked the personification of happiness.

With Mendelsohn wedding march as a recessional the party left the church and repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Roberts, as Mr. and Mrs. Roberts had offered their home to the young people for a reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders.

Young lady friends had taken possession of the entire first floor and had transformed it into a combination of pink, green and white, the colors of the "Lily Class", (the banner class of the Methodist Sunday school) of which the bride is a member. The receiving party chosen from the members of this class, and the way in which they made it pleasant for the guests could not have been excelled by those of many years experience.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Mr. Will Conway and Miss Constance Burrows, and met at the parlor door by Mr. Oscar Mangham and Miss Willie Gramling, who directed them to a beautiful arch of pink, green and white, under which stood the bride and groom. Near them was the best man and maid of honor lending their efforts to the pleasure of the occasion. In the midst of congratulations an immense heart in the center of the arch opened as if by magic and to the astonishment of all a shower of rice fell in every direction. After this unique experience the guests dispersed to the library. Miss Prudie Wilson directed them to a bower of the prevailing colors, terns and roses, where Miss Emma Wilson presided over the punch bowl. The little ribbon girls in a most generous style passed punch to the guests throughout the evening. Miss Julie Amnette, as a future reminder of the occasion, presented each one a souvenir upon which was written the date of the marriage.

Cream and cake in pink and green was served in the beautiful dining room by two young ladies and two young men. Here the prevailing colors held sway and magnolias and asparagus ferns added to the decorations.

The entire affair was a success as is every thing else undertaken by Mrs. Roberts well known Sunday school class.

This class led the last six months at Sunday school in attendance and collection, and since the wedding reception of Tuesday evening its members have proved that their gifts in a social way are equal to their talents in other lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders yesterday received more honors at the home of the groom's parents. Today they left on a wedding tour and will be at home to their friends after July 22.

Mr. Sanders is a trusted employee of Cason, Monk & Co., and is well known for his qualities as a business man and his sterling worth as a gentleman.

Miss Ramey has been a resident of Nacogdoches since her childhood, and her many friends can testify to the fact that Mr. Sanders is fortunate in winning such a prize.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. W. E. Wilson of Center, Miss Bennie Powell of Center, and Miss Collins of Lutkin.

A rain that will take some sand out of our craws and settle the dust on the streets. Willing to trade a portion of the warmest sunshine extant,—for a reasonable wetness as described above.

Some Fine Peach-Fruit.

The first gatherings of the season off his orchard place were made yesterday by Captain H. H. Cooper. He brought to town several crates of his famous Mamie Ross variety of peaches, said to be the finest, flavored known. The Mamie Ross peach is as large as the Elberta, thin skin and a splendid eating and desert peach.

The Captain is somewhat disappointed in his crop however, and stated that the two thousand trees would hardly yield one hundred crates. There is a good demand though, and he has had calls already for his entire crop, at fancy prices.

The Hinged Top box is not a fad. It has come to stay because it won't stick, it won't leak, and it prevents the loss of the perfume—three unique advantages. The powder is fine and smooth—the perfumes, Violet & Carnation, are faithful reproductions of the odors of the flowers.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before. — Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. Bowel Complaint in Children.

When six months old the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, a well known merchant of Agnewville, Va., had an attack of cholera infantum. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was given and effected a complete cure. This remedy has proven very successful in cases of bowel complaint in children and when given according to the plain printed directions can be relied upon with perfect confidence. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Jail Delivery at Lufkin.

A jail delivery was effected at Lufkin Saturday night and some four or five prisoners escaped. Jailer King was assaulted, bound and gagged and his pistol and keys taken from him by the fellows who escaped. Other prisoners are said to have refused to leave, and some of them went to Sheriff Watt's home and gave the alarm. Two of escapes were captured yesterday and two are yet at large. One of them that has not been recaptured is Roy Shirey, a white boy, in jail pending an appeal having been sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary. Sheriff Watt's telephoned officers here yesterday to notify all officers in the county as the two men are supposed to have headed this way, en route to Louisiana. Jailer King was not hurt beyond a few bruises.
