The Ware House Bill

The action of the Senate in giving final passage to the emergency warehouse bill late yesterday afternoon, after a strenuous all-day session, added to the overwhelming majority which it received in the House, is regarded as a substantial victory for Governor Colquitt and those who drafted the legislation.

The bill will now be sent to a conference committee, where the final touches will be given. But slight changes to the bill as enacted by the House, were made and the friends of the measure say it will be acceptable to the House advocates in the present form.

The State guarantee and liability feature of the bill was not changed in the Senate, although vigorous attacks were made in an unsuccessful attempt to have this clause amended.

That the law will become effective during the current week, after having received the signature of the Governor, is the prediction of the more enthusiastic advocates.—Dallas Evening Journal.

Another Women Lawyer in Texas
Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 6.—Fort Worth now boasts a woman lawyer in the person of Mrs. R. E. Baker, the first female ever admitted to the bar in Tarrant County. When the last Federal Census of Texas was taken, Houston and Waco were the only two Texas cities that had women attorneys. Each city had one. In the entire State there were only three female lawyers at that time.

Coleman Risinger of Appleby was in the city yesterday on business connected with his school which he has recently resigned for the purpose of spending his time in the Medical College in Galveston. Mr. Risinger is a young man of splendid ability and the profession will be enlarged with his energies.

MAYER & SCHMIDT, INC. STARTS THE "BALL TO ROLLING"

Mr. Farmer:

We have heretofore always rallied to your aid. You no doubt know this from personal experience, and now today, not only when we need help, but you as well, we are going to ask you to rally to our aid and, in so doing, avail yourself of an unequalled opportunity to have a favor returned at a time when you need it.

Here is our proposition: At your earliest opportunity bring us one or two bales of cotton, as the case may justify—for which we will allow you on account 7c to 8c per pound, allowing you $5.00 to $10.00 cash. When we sell this cotton, should the price be more than that paid you, we are going to pay you the difference, and should we be forced to sell it for less, ours is the loss.

We believe you will agree that under existing circumstances, that the above proposition is exceedingly fair to your interests and we believe that it will appeal to you. We have always stood ready and willing to aid everybody and more especially the farming class of people, and have confidence enough in you to believe that you will come to our rescue.

Thanking you in advance for your kind consideration of this letter, we are,

Your friends,

MAYER & SCHMIDT, INC.

The above is a copy of our proposition sent out to all our customers.

Late War News

Paris, Sept. 7.—After the news of the fall of Lemberg became known in Vienna, the correspondent of the Havas agency says more than 20,000 men were set at work with feverish haste on the fortifications of Vienna, and many thousands of others began fortifying the banks of the Danube.

Brest, via Paris, Sept. 7.—Six hundred Germans have been captured on board the Dutch steamer Tambora. Among them are 33 officers and doctors who are in confinement at Chateau Brest. The Tambora sailed June 30 from Batavia for Rotterdam.

"The British cruiser Warrior stranded probably as the result of a fight with the cruiser Geoben when while escaping from the Bosphorus."

The dispatch contains nothing to amplify or explain.

Hookworm Work Gives Good Results.

Hookworm figures and facts, as applied to this county, have become very interesting and also beneficial. The general public should be wise and get on.

The response or patronage has been so encouraging that the management has decided to prolong the work in this county. It was first intended to end Sept. 23, but it will be continued till Sept. 30. The court house is where the office is operating.

There have been, in all, 1034 examinations made. Of these there were found 354 infected. This is a percentage of 33 per cent. Of children in the scholastic age there were 564 examinations, and of these there 339 infections or a percentage of 56.

G. E. M. HALTOM, Manager

From J. Thos. Hall
Editor Sentinel.

It was with interest that I read "Allan Seale on cotton" in Tuesday's Daily Sentinel. I was interested and endorse Mr. Seale's ideas as set forth therein. It is pleasing to see a prominent business man speak out on this, the south's most vital financial question, that of marketing our cotton crop. Others may have the same ideas or better; but so long as they are not vented we are none the wiser. Why keep silent in a free country? Harvest and market time are upon us. We cannot all speak at the same time and be heard, but we can act as a unit—and in union there is strength—under the leadership of a good man and organize under a system along the lines Mr. Seale suggests and in a short time the south will be selling just as much cotton at a living price as the world would use at starvation figures. The time to begin action is now. "Procrastination" is not only the "thief of time," but a robber of opportunities. The opportune time for making a market—none exists now—is at once and we should stand not on the order of our going. We are told that the south is to have $170,000,000 of the new currency to care for the cotton crop. This will take off 4-4 million bales of distress cotton at $40 per bale until it will bring more money. The thing we need to do is to be up and doing that we may be in a position to receive our pro rata share of the government assistance. We have not a bonded warehouse in the county from which we could procure the required warehouse receipt should our bank have all the money necessary to assist in caring for our crop and we are assured that they will have the cash.

Then, to be brief, I second Mr. Seale's motion that a meeting of the business and farmers convene at the courthouse Saturday evening at 2 o'clock and begin action. The legislature may act, it may not we should!

Wheat on Sandy Land

I have been asked many times the last few years, if wheat may be successfully grown in our great sandy land, woods country. And now that it seems we are to be called upon to feed the world, may be a good time to say that wheat may be successfully grown upon our sandy soils. Probably the only drawback to successful wheat growing on the "good old sandy land," is the fact that it is shy of lime as a rule. With this corrected by application of lime, along with due regard to keeping up the supply of humus and plant-food, wheat on a rising market should prove a very profitable crop in the "sticks."

Speaking of lime, it will benefit our sandy soils for nearly all crops that we grow or are likely to grow, and in my opinion, its application to our sandy soils will be enormous in the years to come.

The best form of lime to use, is the carbonated, or ground lime-rock. Requires heavier application, but cheaper and lasts longer.

The Great War

The greatest war of history is taking place. More than half the earth's population is directly concerned and the shadow cast by this world conflict.

No other war approaches it in numbers of men involved, in the tremendous sacrifice of life and property that the Nations are making, in results that will spread to the remotest corners of the earth.

It is an epoch in history that for suddenness and for stirring events stands alone. Those who are alive today will remember the great war always as the most remarkable spectacle of their lives. They will recall what they read of battles where armies as large as small Nations fought on a front miles and miles in extent. The stories of conflict, of heroism, will never leave the memories of this generation.

For the story of this war as it is being written Texans must turn to their newspapers. The Dallas Morning News, The Dallas Evening Journal and the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News have the sources of world news at their command. At a nominal cost the reader has collected and arranged for him the record of this momentous struggle.

Every Texan can keep thoroughly informed on the progress of the war by reading the newspapers named above.

Bulletin

What do those lured war clouds mean?

In Europe the answer is plain: "Death, Destruction, Disaster and Woe!"

And in America? The answer is not quite so apparent, but with half the world consuming and destroying we believe the result is absolutely inevitable in the end. The productive half will be called on to support the other half. The United States is the Colossus of the remaining productive half. Her acres must yield them food. Her looms must clothe them. Her factories must supply their innumerable demands.

What will the result be? In our opinion, work for everybody. A vastly increased demand and a vastly diminished supply. Unlimited markets and big prices. Business. Prosperity.

It has not yet reached this country strongly because Europe will live up her little surplus before calling on us. But we believe it is coming, coming soon and coming big. —Exchange.

Is A Reign Of Terror

The constitutionalist occupation of Mexico City is a veritable reign of terror. Churches have been desecrated, private homes invaded and between 600 and 700 of the old police force have been executed, as well as every officer of the old federal forces above the rank of sergeant who has fallen into constitutionalist hands, according to a statement made today by William T. Aldridge, a civil engineer and contractor. Mr. Aldridge, whose home is in Little Rock, Ark., returned from a visit to Mexico City today. He left the capital on Aug. 30.

"It was on the afternoon and night of Aug. 27," said he, "when between 600 and 700 of the old police force of the city were killed. The trouble began when a policeman stopped the automobile in which two drunken constitutionalist officers were riding and from which they were firing their revolvers into the air. The policeman was shot down. Another policeman fired upon the officers and in retaliation every policeman who could be found was dragged to the bull ring and other places and shot. Every federal officer above the rank of sergeant falling into the hands of the Carranzistas is being executed.

Peace Only Remedy

Washington, Sept. 3.—Restoration of peace in Europe is the only real remedy for the situation confronting the cotton industry, Representative Slayden of Texas told the house.

"The trouble is not lack of transportation," he said. "Traffic is now moving out of Galveston, New Orleans and Atlantic ports in a way that bids fair to force a return to normal shipping circles very soon. The trouble is the lack of buyers. European mills cannot buy cotton until they have men and money to manufacture. These can be secured only through the re-establishment of peace."

Warehouse Bill Passed

Austin, Tex., Sept. 4.—By a vote of 94 to 14, the House, a few minutes after 4 o'clock this afternoon, passed finally, under suspension of the constitutional rule, the administration bonded warehouse bill. As finally passed in the House the bill places the operation of the warehouses with the state under the direction of the commissioner of insurance and banking.

All efforts to amend the bill failed. It now goes to the Senate for action. This vote means that the act will go into immediate effect should it pass the Senate.

Denton Man Tendered A. & M. Presidency

It is stated that the directors of the local institution have offered to meet the advanced salary offered and that President Bizell has not as yet reached a decision.

Business Men's Meeting Held

A meeting was held yesterday, Friday, at 4 p. m. in the Elks Hall, called by Allan Seale for the purpose of considering the problems of business that now confront the country, especially the agricultural interests, which of course extend to commercial and financial interests, and affect the county in general.

The meeting was welcomed by Albert Brewer, representing the Elks and was called to order by Allan Seale. W. U. Perkins was elected Chairman, and Dr. J. E. Mayfield, Secretary. Following are the names of other gentlemen who were present, all being well known public spirited business men: R. W. Haselwood, Wm. Cox, W. T. Wilson, I. L. Sturdevant, J. F. Summers, Thos. E. Baker, Joe P. Clevenger, J. Thomas Hall, Chas. Perkins, J. N. Thomas, Henry Schmidt, N. D. Namman.

There was a random business talk engaged in by a number of those present. The trend of the discussion was along the lines of the cotton situation and its remedy, the planting of wheat being most prominent, and general diversification to displace cotton and take its place. It developed the fact that wheat has been grown in this county, the yield being from ten to twenty bushels per acre and flour has been made in considerable quantities for home use. This was back in the sixties when cotton was not a success. But cotton got up and wheat was abandoned.

The obstacles of wheat growing were recited in detail. Another product discussed was hay and stock feed in general. Hog raising too was spoken of with emphasis.

This meeting was designed as a starter for further meetings. On motion by T. E. Baker, a committee of three was appointed by the chair to investigate and report upon the subjects discussed, and to call another meeting pursuant to these purposes. Public attention is important.

Boy Scouts Returned

The local Boy Scouts returned Monday afternoon from their annual encampment at Camp Blount on Henson Island, twelve miles south of Nacogdoches. They were gone eight days, all concurred in the fact that this was the most enjoyable and beneficial outing the scouts have had since their organization. Every boy returned hale and hearty feeling doubly repaid for their long hikes and submission to strict discipline. Not a single scout was sick a minute nor was there a single accident to mar the pleasure of the occasion. This was largely due to the sanitary condition the camp was kept in and strict precautionary measures that were adopted by the officers in charge. Many benefits were derived from coming in contact with the beauties that are found in the midst of the forest away from the humdrum of city life. It was some thing exhilarating to bask in the morning sunlight or rest in the shades of the eventide. The boys were happy when sitting on the banks of the rippling streams angling for finey tribe or swimming in the turbid waters of the Angelina. Some have an idea that the Boy Scouts is a military organization but this far from the truth. They are taught to be lovers of peace and protectors of humanity, animals of all kinds infant to be citizens of the highest type, and to become factors in a higher civilization when peace will be universal and war will be unknown. They are taught not to destroy but protect the birds nests, not to kill the birds but to listen to their beautiful song and learn the purpose for which they were created. They are taught to realize the grandeur of the days and the beauties of the nights and to respect and revere the creator of all things. They make study of the tree and flowers of the forest, their uses, values etc. They study the topography of the country and discuss causes and results. They learn to be courteous, courageous, honest and truthful. Their motto is, "Be prepared" for all emergencies and at all times. Sunday was the day of this encampment and will go down as one of the most enjoyable days in the history of organization and will never be eradicated from the memory of the friends of the scouts whose good fortune it was to be present. It had been previously announced that the friends were expected to visit the camp Sunday and preparations were made for their reception. R. C. Monk, President of the Local Council had promised to deliver a lecture on the Sunday School lesson at 10:30 and Rev. McKenney was expected to make a talk at 3:30. At an early hour people began to throng in the camp from all directions. They came in auto's, buggies, wagons, horse back and on foot. Every one was elated to find the boys and their officers so eager to greet them and War.

Oh, somebody poisoned the emperor's dog, yea, gave it of arsenic more than a pound; at dawn it was lying out in the air and its tail on the ground. The emperor muttered, "This insult, by jing, most certainly calls for an ocean of blood; and now I shall climb on the frame of the king who banned my bow-wow a poisonous spud." The emperor summoned his three million men, and told them to scarp while the scarping was fine; the king, much offended, emerged from his den, and called for his soldiers, and got them in line. Ah, then there was war, and the sickening thud, and there was a soul searching chorus of groans; and travelers waded through rivers of blood, or twisted their ankles on hillocks of bones. The homes of the people made excellent fires and women were widowed widowed without their consent, and children were waiting in vain for the sires whose blood for a bow-wow was foolishly spent. And when it was over, and legions were slain, a horse doctor looked at the emperor's Spitz. "The beast wasn't poisoned," he muttered, "that's plain—the confounded dog was a victim of fits." —Walt Mason.

President Wilson To Seek Re-election

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2.—Vice President Marshall authorized a published statement here today that President Wilson would be a candidate for re-election. Secretary Tumulty said the White House knew nothing of the statement and would not comment on it.

The vice president's statement was made in the course of an authorized interview on the political situation which concluded thus.

"The Democratic party will have but one candidate for president in 1916 and his name happens to be Woodrow Wilson. He will have the entire and unqualified and united support of his party. Tyler Will Build Warehouses.

The city of Tyler held an interesting and consequential cotton ware house meeting last Friday night. Standing room was used and big guns were fired and great excitement prevailed.

The animus of the meeting was to build a big cotton warehouse at Tyler and smaller ones at three other places in the county, costing from one thousand dollars to ten thousand. The leading business men were present and all were loud and liberal in their support. Big speeches were made and big men stood up for the move. Discussions were forceful and practical. When subscriptions were called for there was a scramble to get in. Two hundred and fifty dollars each was subscribed by a number of firms and business men, lesser amounts were given in alibera spirit, totaling $5,100. In addition a committee was appointed to solicit other subscriptions, and thus the amount may be doubled. Besides all this the city council by vote of five to three donated $2500 to the Tyler warehouse and the county commissioners voted $5000 to Tyler, $1500 each to Lindale and Troupe, and $1000 each to Bullard and Winona, law or no law.

It was intended, as the leaders said, that these warehouses should be solid and responsible so that any cotton receipt issued by them would be valid and authentic. Then the banks would loan money on these receipts.

School Days

Oh, shriek with joy, you lucky boy, vacation's nearly ended, and soon you'll tolo yourself to school—the thought is surely splendid! We long have known how tired you've grown of fooling round and fishing, how for your books and slate, gads-zooks, you've ardently been wishing. We've seen you weep because they keep the schoolhouse closed all summer; you tired of play in half a day (which statement is a hummer!) The swimming hole to schoolboy soul gives little satisfaction; in dreams you see the Rule of Three, and eke the Vulgar Fraction. You think of maps while idle chaps are stealing unripe apples; your thoughts are all of learning's hall, of blackboards, desks and chappels. Ah, how you hate to dig for bait, or boating go, or gunning, when you might find food for your mind if school were only running! How you abhor the baseball war, and other pastimes dizzy, when you might strike some truths you'd like, if school were only busy! Now, sing and smile! A little while will see vacation ended; reward will come, the schools will hum—that thought is surely splendid!—Walt Mason

This salve is also unequal for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by all dealers. dw

A big safe was moved yesterday from the old court house to C. A. Hodges' office in the back room of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank. A big story belongs to this safe. It was bought by the county away back in the eighties, about thirty years ago. At that time the county Judge was probably W. G. Ratcliff, and Jim Campbell and Frank Nelson were commissioners. These data could be corrected and verified by reference to the minutes of the County Commissioners Court. The safe weighs 1500 pounds. When it was bought and brought here by railroad there was another safe like it that came with it, bought by San Augustine county, and there was then no railroad to that place. This safe had to be hauled over dirt road. Whig Rogers took the contract and used eight yoke of oxen to a big wagon. In crossing over a bridge on the way the bridge broke down and caused double trouble. Our county sold their safe to the Nacogdoches Abstract Co. and from them Mr. Hodges bought this safe with the abstract business.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for story free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. War Has Cost $1,870,000,000 and Still It Goes On.

London, Sept. 4.—The European war to date has cost the countries involved the vast total of $1,870,000,000. This total is based on the figures of $55,000,000 loss a day estimated by the most eminent French and English statisticians.

The daily estimate of $55,000,000 includes lost earning power, economic loss, loss by destruction of warships, destruction of ammunition, loss by normal bombardment of towns, economic loss through casualties, loss in animals and industrial and commercial loss.

It does not include such abnormal losses as the destruction of Louvain, which was approximately $100,000,000.

There is a case of small pox reported at the residence of Bud Campbell, one mile east of Appleby. It is a negro boy called Sam, that works about the house. As to where he got it, that is not discovered. There are a few persons who have been exposed to this case, but all precautions have been taken to prevent spreading of the disease, and no uneasiness is felt. The eruption showed up Saturday, and the diagnosis was confirmed yesterday.

HAPPY MOTHERHOOD

The happiness of motherhood is too often checked because the mother's strength is not equal to her cares, while her unselfish devotion neglects her own health. It is a duty of husband or friend to see that she gets the pure medicinal nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which is not a drug or stimulant but nature's concentrated oil-food tonic to enrich and enliven the blood, strengthen the nerves and aid the appetite. Physicians everywhere prescribe Scott's Emulsion for overworked, nervous, tired women; it builds up and holds up their strength. Get Scott's at your nearest drug store.

Wheat Higher.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Wheat prices today advanced to the highest point since the beginning of the European war. May wheat touched $1.25 1/4 surpassing by 1/4c the top-most level reached on the wide upturn some days ago. Increasing belief that Turkey and Italy would be drawn into the conflict was largely responsible for today's rise in the market. Trading was more active than has recently been the case and there was said to have been a notable enlargement of export demand.

Probably for the first time in the history of the organization of the Democrat party in Texas, the entire personnel of the State Democratic Executive Committee is composed of Anti-Prohibitionists. Every one of the thirty-one members of the Committee are Antis. And Paul Waples the newly elected Chairman, is likewise opposed to prohibition, being one of the state's strongest advocates of local self-government. Another interesting announcement made during the convention in El Paso, was that the Prohibitionists have a majority of one vote in the State Senate and a majority of three votes in the House of Representatives. The almost equal division of the Prohibitionists and Anti-Prohibitionists in the State Legislature, which convenes next January, insures close and interesting fights all the way through the sessions of the State lawmakers.—Dallas Democrat.

San Marcos Girl Dies; Using Acid on Teeth

San Marcos, Texas, Sept. 3.—Miss Maud Smith, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith, died here of acid poisoning. It is said she was using the acid to clean her teeth.

Miss Smith was a musician of ability and has been in the the music department of the San Marcos Baptist academy. She is survived by father and mother, one brother and two sisters.

There was a shooting scrape on the north bound H. E. & W. T. train that passed up last night, but who and why was not revealed. A man with a gun held up a boy with a grip. Then two shots were heard and an innocent passenger was wounded in the hand, but he went on to Shreveport. This all happened near Burke in Angelina county.

Capt. J. W. Ireson, Beaumont, is here. Everybody knows Wallace, but some may have forgotten that he was a captain of a Company in our war with Spain. He reports that in his new home he has fair prospects for prosperity.

Fair Called Off For This Year.

The East Texas Fair of Nacogdoches has been called off for this year.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors yesterday, September 7th, it was unanimously decided to deter the Fair for this season. The necessity for this action was very much regretted by every one of the directors present, but there was not a dissenting vote of all those present. The matter was presented by our President, Mr. Robert Lindsey, who has so zealously labored in the interest of this season's entertainment, but after a full and free discussion of all the conditions affecting the success of the Fair this fall it was decided definitely to postpone for one year.

We are all disappointed, we all deeply regret that in our judgment the conditions would not warrant the effort. We sincerely trust that all those who had expected in anyway to participate in the program this year will view our decision in a judicious and charitable manner, and credit us with doing what we thought was best for all concerned.

We have had good exhibits, good stock shows, good races and good crowds heretofore, but the local crop conditions and the poor market and prices for the cotton crop now being gathered, we consider prohibitive to either an exhibit or attendance this season.

Our people have always been loyal and strong in their support of our Fair. This year they were supporting us even more loyally than ever before. They came enthusiastically to our aid in agreeing to close all their places of business for three days and in assisting in the entertainment by practically every business house, all auto owners, and quite a number of other vehicles obligated for decoration in the Grand Parade we were going to have. For these reasons we regret the necessity of our actions.

This positively does not mean an abandonment of our Fair, but a postponement of this season's Fair, only.

In conclusion, we want to appeal to every farmer and stock raiser of our county to begin now to prepare something for next year's exhibits. We hope and believe that our farmers' success in the coming years depends largely on the fullest diversification of his crops. We earnestly suggest to you that you investigate and consider seriously a large decrease in your cotton acreage and a healthy increase in all those things you can raise and use at home that will help to keep you from debt and materially assist in making a better price for the cotton you raise.

Let's all get together and stay together. Let's look this crisis squarely in the face and determine not to be discouraged. Ours is the best country and best people in the world and now let's be a credit and honor to them by exhibiting that nerve that is characteristic of the American people.

We have digressed somewhat from the real issue, but we believe you will pardon us and agree with us after due thought.

Very Respectfully,
Committee.

Anniversary of The Great Galveston Storm.

On the 8th day of September, 1900, the ever to be remembered storm occurred at Galveston and the approximate surrounding section. The destruction of human life reached to about 10,000 deaths. The destruction of property was incalculable. The city of Galveston was a wreck, and Texas City and other towns were damaged, even Houston. In short, the calamity was appalling in many respects. Nearly every town in Texas had more or less direct connection with the event and many outside points were seriously affected. At this town alone there was great excitement, because there were a number of our citizens there in the storm. Two of the present employees of the Sentinel were there. School girls and boys from Nacogdoches were there, besides visitors, relatives, friends and residents from here. The same may be said as to other towns in Texas and elsewhere. These facts caused a rush of anxious friends and relatives to the scene, and as a result of the destruction of the city buildings and comforts, the survivors of the catastrophe rushed out of town. The situation was indescribably distressful and inconceivable. It was incomparable except to the subsequent earthquake and great fire in San Francisco 1906.

But things come back to those who wait. Galveston is greater now than before that destructive event, and safer too. She is like a gem set upon a charming mounting base. She is now the beautiful Island City with a sea wall worth seeing, a beach worth a visit and a climate and pleasures to enjoy.

Buy a Bale Munc.

The Sentinel is in receipt of The Atlanta, Ga., Journal of 5th inst. with its "Buy a Bale of Cotton" talk, in box car letters. Also the Houston Chronicle of similar tone. All this can be condensed into a word, but volumes might be written on the bearings and probabilities. The sentiment is wide and strong, for every one to buy a bale and hold it, and thus help the farmer and hold things down in general. It may get there, but it has been called sentimental moonshine.

To the Teachers Institute: Please teach us how to pronounce the word spelled here. Also the words ally and allies, as applied to the military uproar in Europe. If the word "here" be called hee-er how can a country boy call his dog like he usually does, "Here, Watch?" Or how can he call his marbles white al-lies instead of alleys? This will be a favor to be and I, or to him, and me. Teach us or learn us which is correct.

Mrs. F. A. Fuller Writes

Editor Sentinel:

As I have just returned from a trip to San Antonio, Houston and other points I thought a few lines in your paper might not be without interest to your many readers.

I left Melrose August 17 and went to San Antonio where I spent two weeks with my daughter, Mrs. Lora Weyermann. Between Nacogdoches and Houston crops of various kind appear to be very good. People were engaged in picking cotton and I also noticed that some were gathering corn. Corn appears to be very good and many new farms are being opened up, especially in the southern part of Angelina county and all through Polk county. Many large sawmills were not running and I was told that owing to the fact that the war in Europe has curtailed the demand for lumber, many mills will not run again till the scare is over.

Houston is building all the time. Many new buildings of large size are now in course of construction and one at least is to be twenty-five stories high. Think of that, and try to form some idea of how tall a twenty-five story building really is. Five times taller than the top of the courthouse in Nacogdoches. The new viaduct is also one of the industrial wonders of the city and many other great enterprises are being added to the commercial importance of the city. Many Nacogdoches people live in Houston, and all appear to be doing well.

San Antonio is also growing all the time, and will always be the largest city in that section of the state. It is headquarters for several thousand soldiers and they may be seen on the streets at any time of day. San Antonio is in the land of the mesquite tree and also cactus, huiaach, ratima and other beautiful trees.

Between Houston and San Antonio I saw several hundred convicts picking cotton with guards over them, and many of the convicts were women.

After all, however, I was glad to get back home at Melrose. Nacogdoches is the best section of Texas and is also growing and keeping up with other parts of Texas.

Success to the Sentinel
Mrs. F. A. Fuller.

Ship Channel is Completed.

At exactly 11:15, o'clock Monday morning the last grain of 36,000,000 cubic yards of sand was dredged from the Houston Ship Channel and the dream of half a century is realized.

The Ship Channel was officially delivered to the United States government Monday afternoon by the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Dredging Company, which is withdrawing its dredges from the channel. This is 14 months ahead of the contract for the completion of the channel.—Houston Chronicle.

All the county site towns in East Texas appear to have decided to build ware houses to operate under bond and hold cotton secure.

From Melrose.

Editor Sentinel—

We welcome Dr. Mayfield back to his friends and old home again, also as editor of our county paper, believing he will wield his pen for the interest and good of our dear old county of Nacogdoches.

Farmer's are quite busy harvesting the crop. The fall gardens are planted and the farmer has a living at home if that sad war does go on. Some times I get real anxious to move back to town, but when war's financial troubles and plagues all come, give me the sweet pure country home, where the pestilence that walketh in darkness is kept from our doors.

Benton Wilson and family made us a pleasant visit.

Mrs. Henry Thomas is very sick.

Our hearts are sad over the cruel war across the big waters and our mind carries us back to our civil war—on April 9th 1865—49 years ago—our brave and beloved general Robert E. Lee surrendered his precious tattered, worn, ragged, hungry men, the army of northern Virginia who never knew what it meant to be whipped or give up. They were victorious in most of the battles fought and were lead by the dearest officers that ever marched an army into battle, like Jackson, Hood, Johnson, Stewart with many others just as brave and noble. The shattered remnants of his once matchless army were surrounded on all sides. Then came the surrender to Gen. Grant. My sweetheart was there commanding company K. (Capt. Benton's old company.) He had only eaten two crackers in four days one of his men bought them from a Yankee. He owned a very fine gun but threw it in the river before he would give it up to the yankee's. Hood with his arm almost wrenched from his body at Gettysburg now hanging a withered motionless member by his side, minus a leg that had been shattered at Chicamauga with other wounds besides, yet willing to follow his country's flag to the death. Such men cannot be found. L. W.

The Farmer First.

The man who now needs help is the producer—the man who plants, grows and harvests the crops. He is the man who is behind all prosperity. Without his success the community must suffer. To hamper him because of lack of patriotism or cruel selfishness, is to do injury to community in general.—Gainsville Banner.

Depends on Charlie.

About a dozen men are planning to run for United States senator two years from now, but should Senator Culberson decide to continue in the service they all might as well save their time and trouble.—Granbury News.

Saving the Country.

At the rate at which Texas towns are organizing to build cotton warehouses the legislature will have to hurry if it wants credit for having saved the country.—Waco News.

Germans Ready To Stake Entire Strength On War.

London, Sept. 7.—A German official statement received last night by the Marconi Company from Berlin says:

"The North German Gazette denies the statement of Sir Edward Grey that the German official report dealing with the exchange of telegrams between England and Germany prior to the outbreak of the war omitted an important telegram.

"A conference of the members of the Reichstag was held today to demonstrate that the representatives who are entitled to speak on behalf of the entire population are prepared to stake the whole strength of the nation in the present conflict. The meeting advised the secretary of the admiralty that it would approve all measures the admiralty deemed it desirable to adopt. It also expressed its readiness to guarantee necessary sums required for the placement of lost ships and the immediate execution of all measures adopted in 1912. It also undertook to guarantee the immediate construction of substitute ships for 1915.

It is also reported that the French have evacuated Rouen.

"The protest against the transport of German sailors through Bulgaria has given rise to much ill feeling, according to a Sofia report."

A Golden Wedding.

On the sixth of September, 1914, Mr. and Mrs. L. Zeve reached the fiftieth milestone of their wedded life.

Characteristically averse to demonstration, the day was quietly observed, and was marked by a family dinner at the home of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Naman, followed in the evening by an informal gathering of the immediate relatives who came to offer felicitations. Telegrams and letters extending congratulations from distant kinspeople and friends, and telephone messages from nearby ones added to the quiet happiness of the day.

The wedded state is to many but a mirage. To a few it proves to be the heights from whence comes their strength. "The rising sun of Romance tips every blade of grass, every leaf and flower and twig with the miracle of color and perfume: the noon-day light reveals the truth, dimly seen in the half-light of dawn, but the evening twilight garners all the richness of marriage."

Such has been the half century of life together for Mr. and Mrs. Zeve. Begun in the land across the sea, forty-five of the fifty years spent in this beautiful Land of Promise, it has not been without its vicissitudes, its trials, its hardships and sacrifices (as must necessarily be any pioneer life), but it has also been a happy, wholesome, too-busy-to-worry life, with its full need of joys, its compensations, and with its fruition in the love and well being of their children and the respect and friendship of the community in which so large a part of their lives have been spent.

Fairview Items.

Times seem full since our meeting season has closed, but all are busying themselves gathering their crops.

Grandma White is much improved for she is able to make a visit to her granddaughter, Mrs. Jewel J. Smith at present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Muckle-roy, visited relatives at Blount's Chapel last Sunday.

Miss Ora Faulkner of Attoyac visited Miss Lela Smith Saturday and Sunday on her way to the Teacher's Institute.

Rev August Allen preached at Fairview last Sunday night. Come again into our midst.

Alton G. Smith is busy rebuilding his barn which was destroyed by fire this summer.

Sam P. Smith is in Shelby county at present attending a protracted meeting that is being conducted by Sisters Perdue and Bartlett.

On last Friday afternoon the remains of Miss Laura Jones were laid to rest in Fairview cemetery. She was a young girl just blooming into womanhood and was making every effort possible to prepare herself for the great responsibilities of life. When we think of this, it causes our hearts to ache, but one grand and glorious thought we possess is that if we live as the Great Creator would have us to live, we may have the pleasure of meeting her one and day, never separate. X. Y. Z.

Labor Day

From Monday's Daily:

This is the first Monday in September, a national holiday a state holiday, a day that counts for more than is known or appreciated by non union people. It is sacredly regarded by Union Labor members and by others who understand it. In all large cities where this membership is large and powerful there will be a parade with great pomp and show in uniforms and colors, with banners, flags, pennants and brass bands, a parade that is stunning and impressive, even to those who are familiar with the question. Every big daily newspaper will have a leading write up of the function in its own town.

As to the principles of the Laborers Union, and as to the magnitude of its membership and the withholds of its organization and its formal and official doings there is general ignorance and a large degree of silly and unjust prejudice. Our school text books do not instruct on this subject, as they do not appreciate the importance of it. The writers are generally ignorant of its magnitude, Knowledge extends beyond books.

Strikes are usually handled or guided by labor organization, and they hurt innocent people and give rise to disapprovals, and cause blame. But there's a reason for a strike, or it is so meant. There are two sides, and both may be wrong. So it is not well to pass judgement lightly. Celebration of Labor day will always prevail.

"WORLD AT HOME" AT COMING FAIR

plendid Amusement Attractions for Coming State Fair.

SHOWS ARE HIGH CLASS.

Twenty-Five Cars Necessary to Transport Mammoth Aggregation of Almost Every Amusement Device in Existence.

Dallas—Can you imagine a miniature World's Fair brought to your very doors? Well, that is what THE WORLD AT HOME will do when it arrives in Dallas for its stay of sixteen days at the State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17. It requires twenty-five double length solid steel railway cars to transport this mammoth aggregation. Almost every known amusement device in existence is carried by THE WORLD AT HOME, some of them have never been presented by a traveling organization.

In addition to the amusement features in the way of riding devices, etc., there are many shows of the highest order, included among them are the Garden of Allah (Arabian Village), California Frank's Wild West and Indian Congress, Mazepa, the horse with a human brain; Omar Sami's, the Human Butterfly and the Marvels of the Universe; Frank's Wild West and Indian Congress; Mazepa, the horse with a human brain; Omar Sami's, the Human Butterfly and the Marvels of the Universe; Frank's Wild West and Indian Congress embraces all that is interesting appertaining to the Far West in the early days. Omar Sami's last Indian Exhibitions are unique and Armstrong's Congress of Oddities will make you laugh as you never laughed before. The riding devices will afford plenty of amusement for the patrons who seek thrilling thrills. The Band Concerts are a musical treat. The World at Home is conducted along high class lines, perfectly equipped.

If you hear a big splash at the 1914 State Fair of Texas, don't worry. It's merely the elephants taking their daily plunge in the big tank provided for that purpose this year.

FARM IMPLEMENT DISPLAY.
That at State Fair Will Be Rich in Suggestions of Value.

Dallas—The implement and farm machinery display will be larger and more varied than in previous years, judging by the amount of space already signed up for exhibits of this class at the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, Oct. 17. Farmers will have an annual opportunity of studying the latest and the most improved machinery. Competent demonstrators will be on hand to display the latest improvements and explain the most effective methods of using the machinery.

Don't forget the big day, Monday, October 19. That's when the newspaper makers of Texas assemble at the State Fair of Texas for their day at the greatest of all exhibitions. E. J. Kient, a newspaper man himself, a director of the State Fair, is in charge of the program, and he sends the word broadcast that there will be more real enjoyment this year than ever before.

CHILD WELFARE EXHIBIT.
College of Industrial Arts Assembling State Fair Feature.

Dallas—Larger and more instructive this year than ever before the College of Industrial Arts exhibit at the 1914 State Fair of Texas, October 17-November 1, will not only include the regular class room displays, but will devote 200 feet of wall space to subjects dealing with child welfare.

That prevention is wiser than cure will be the motto in two sections dealing with children's diseases. The results of scientific research in the splendid results achieved through a complete physical examination of children attending school will be demonstrated. The importance of vocational training will be emphasized by facts received from the National Society of Industrial Education.

How bad home surroundings, bad recreation and low wages contribute to the delinquency of children will be dealt with in the section on children's institutions.

In fact the faculty of the College of Industrial Arts has assembled a splendid exhibit that will deal with every phase of the child's welfare subject, something that the fathers and mothers of Texas should not overlook.

New shows, new conveniences for the comfort of all, a striking change in exhibits, in other words "A Different Fair"—that's the program for the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17, and continues sixteen grand and glorious days.

BRILLIANT AUTO SHOW.
1915 Models Shown First Time in America at Coming State Fair.

Dallas—Dealers in automobiles are preparing for a marvelous exhibit of 1915 models in their own building at the coming State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17. This will be the first showing of 1915 models in America. Every make sold in Texas, every model and kind will be on exhibition.

Remember the dates: State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Saturday, October 17, to Sunday, November 1.

Style Show at Fair.
Dallas—A style show of the latest imported and domestic designs in women's wear and millinery will be one of the features of the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins in this city Saturday, October 17, and continues sixteen days. New York and Paris will be ransacked to bring to Dallas the latest and most beautiful creations in hats, gowns, frocks and dresses.

In the ladies' textile department of the State Fair of Texas, Dallas, rich premiums are offered for the work of school children of the state in domestic science, manual art, drawing, art and needle work. The 1914 meeting starts Saturday, October 17.

FARMERS OF TEXAS WELL CARED FOR

State Fair Offers Rich Premiums in Agricultural Classes.

A MAMMOTH DISPLAY.

Awards in Individual Farm Exhibit Class Increased to $300—Uncle Sam Will Judge Cotton.

Dallas—Farmers of Texas are well cared for this year by the management of the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17. Thousands of dollars have been set aside for awards for exhibits of farms, orchard and garden products.

The mammoth agricultural building has been equipped with new and modern exhibit booths for the farm and mill, cotton, corn and other divisions.

As usual cotton comes in for a rich share of the prizes and will be assembled and judged under the supervision of the United States Department of Agriculture. Cash awards around $300 and diplomas cover the prize offerings for exhibits of short and long staple cotton.

In the corn division, open to Texas only, prizes aggregating $500 are offered for all varieties of Dent corn, Laguna or June corn, prolific corn and gourd seed corn.

The big feature and one in which much interest is manifested is the individual farm exhibit class. The management regards this of such importance that the prize offerings have been increased to $300. Every farmer in Texas has a chance at this rich purse and by assembling an exhibit of corn, cotton, small grain and other products grown on his farm this year, his chance of winning a rich share of this purse is as good as the next one.

The Texas Land and Mortgage Company offers rich special premiums in the Agricultural Department this year.

ANGORA GOAT DISPLAY.
Record-Breaking Showing Promised For Coming State Fair.

Dallas—Texas furnishes half the goat product annually in the United States, or more than 3,000,000 pounds. The grade is just as fine in texture as the imported article, and there is about 4,000,000 pounds imported into the United States each year.

The management of the 1914 State Fair of Texas is going to impress upon visitors the fact that Texas can produce twice as much mohair if more attention is given to the Angora goat industry.

Hence the rich prizes offered not only by the Fair management but by the American Goat Breeders' Association and the American Mohair Goat Record Association.

The Angora exhibit last year was conceded to be the best since the St. Louis World's Fair and the exhibit this year promises to eclipse even that of 1912.

Breeders declare that while the Angora prefers rough pasture, and is particularly happy when clearing thick brush land, yet after a few years on the very roughest land the owner will be able to double and often quadruple the number of heads of sheep, cattle or horses on the same land, and not in the least interfere with the Angora.

BABY SHOW AT FAIR.
Five Hundred Youngsters Will Participate in Scientific Test.

Dallas—Five hundred babies all in a row, going through scientific inspection and a test that is bound to make some of them mad, is a unique exhibit for the coming State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17 and continues sixteen days.

It is held for the good of the babies of the state, our most precious asset, and great physicians in attendance will tell the mothers what is best for their little ones in the way of proper feeding, clothing, exercise and hygiene.

October 28 is Better Babies' Baby Day and all babies should be there. The contest is limited to 250 and it will be held in special quarters on the ground floor of the Coliseum.

Miss Rich of the Home Welfare Division of the University of Texas is in charge of the contest, which is held under the auspices of the university. The State Fair management contributes $250 in prizes.

BUSY BEE AT FAIR.
Exhibit of Great Educational Importance is Now Being Assembled.

Dallas—Down there in Southwest Texas, where the flowers are ever blooming, beekeepers are getting up an exhibit of bees and bee products that will be one of the most instructive features of the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, October 17. All the various varieties known in Texas will be shown to State Fair visitors in glass observatory hives, where their habits can be studied with the greatest of ease, and, while one is doing this, the expert in charge is adding other information that will convince the hearer that Texas is the home of the bee industry.

No department of the Fair is of more interest than this. The various uses that can be made of honey will be exceedingly instructive to the housewife. There will be a miscellaneous display, bees in every conceivable shape, curio hives and beekeepers' supplies. The motto of this exhibit will be that "every farmer should have a bee hive."

COUNTIES AFTER CUP.
Silver Trophy Up Again at State Fair For Best Showing.

Dallas—What county is going to win the much-sought trophy cup awarded at each fair for the best and most diversified county exhibit? Cooke, Hunt and Hopkins, winners of previous years, are all getting their exhibits ready for the 1914 State Fair of Texas, which begins Saturday, Oct. 17. Each has sent in word that the cup is already won. Meantime thirty or more other counties of the state are making the same preparations, not only to win the cup but to get a look-in on more than $1250 in cash prizes offered in the county exhibit division.

Saddle horse classes at the 1914 State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 17-Nov. 1, are exceedingly rich and will comprise the greatest quality exhibit in the annals of the Fair. The American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association $100 trophy will bring out the cream of the bunch.

Expect New Trouble in Carranza's Land.

Washington, September 7.—Despite administration assurances to the contrary, reports of prospective trouble in Mexico continued in circulation today. One report said Carranza had ordered suspension of train service to Vera Cruz and that General Funston had threatened reprisals. Rumors continued to suggest American intervention.

"It's a fine mess down there now," one diplomat stated laconically, refusing to be more explicit.

Unveiling of Monument.

The unveiling of the monument erected to the memory of Dr. Letcher W. Smith by the Woodmen of the World took place yesterday afternoon at Oak Grove Cemetery. He dwelt at length on the duties and obligations of Woodmen and on the life of Sovereign Smith. A large crowd was present.

Surprise Party

Mrs. Burrows Emmons planned a jolly surprise party for Mr. Emmons last evening in honor of his birthday.

The several guests played "42" the good old game that old and young alike enjoy.

'Tis said by some after they pass childhood, they are getting too old to have birthdays but when our interested ones plan such enjoyable surprises for us it brings back the young days when we loved to have birthdays for it is a pleasure to any age to receive the good wishes from our friends always expressed on such occasions.

Medical Society Meets.

The Nacogdoches County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting last night at Appleby. The next regular meeting will be held in Nacogdoches on the second Wednesday of the month, Oct. 14th.

Dr. Weeks is president and Dr. Blackwell secretary. There were ten physicians in attendance at this last meeting. There ought to be twenty or more at the next meeting. There were some interesting papers read, and some lively discussions, one being a paper on appendicitis. Also there was a case of pellagra brought before the meeting and examined and discussed with interest. Papers are to be read and discussed at next meeting, and cases presented in person, besides cases reported. These meetings are very instructive and elevating. One of the subjects for next meeting is pellagra, another is vaccination. Every body attend. Nobody excluded.

A move is on foot by the Sunday School committees to hold a meeting today, for the purpose of formulating a plan by which to take a church census of the town, by a house to house canvass.

The Buy a Bale spirit seems to grow and spread. President Wilson bought a bale. Our Texas house of representatives favors the move. It will probably help hold the cotton crop.

I have installed one of these machines in connection with my gin and will give it a thorough test this season. The ginning fee will be the same as heretofore, 60 cents per hundred pounds lint.

MANY RUINED LIVES.

Hundreds can point to the use of calomel as the cause of physical decay. Its strenuous effects upon liver, kidneys and the heart are known to every practicing physician. Medical science has found a vegetable compound that eliminates the poisons from the liver and accumulations from the bowels in a safer and saner way than does calomel and leaves no ill after-effects.

This remedy in the form of GRIGSBY'S LIVER LAX is a proven success. It is for sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., who guarantees to refund purchase price if you want it. It is always protected by the likeness of L. K. Grigsby.

The Chireno Firebrand.

Reports about the Chireno fire are almost startling. There seems to be suspicion of incendiarism. The people are agitated. It this fire had done as evidently designed, that is if it had burned out the Birdwell drugstore it would in all probability have also destroyed nearly all the business houses in the town, as they all are in a line and close together. This would have been a huge calamity to the town.

The rescued Birdwell drugstore was just about to move into new quarters.

It had no insurance.

It will be remembered that almost the entire town of Chireno was destroyed by fire only a few months ago.

Nacogdoches Accepts the Evidence and Many Nacogdoches Readers Will Profit by it.

Which is the more weighty proof—a few words from a Nacogdoches resident, whom we know and respect, or volumes from strangers in distant towns? There can be only one reply.

An automobilists Attention

Nacogdoches, Texas, Sept. 7, 1914

Mr. Editor:

I have just completed clay-ing one of the worst sand hills in the county the Aisleta Hill, three miles West of town on the Douglass Road. I got a nice donation on this works especially from the business men of Nacogdoches. I have a crew now at work claying on the Henderson Road at Banita Church. There is a piece of sand there that practically ruined the road. Now I feel like everybody that owns an automobile will help on this work. Mr. W. T. Whiteman of Caro gave me $10.00 to start with. Now who else will help? We must fix up all of our main roads before the fair.

Spur Farm Lands.

Many farmers are making a hard or doubtful living on high priced lands in localities cursed with insect pests, or floods, or drought, or weed plagues, or other enemies to successful farming. The end of each year finds time and energy practically wasted no progress made. Spur Farm Lands offer relief from these conditions.

The tenant on the high priced lands further east can make a payment and become master of his own acres here. Any good farmer can pay for them from the products thereof. The Spur Farm Lands offer productive, virgin lands easily cultivated, at low prices and on easy terms. Splendid crops are raised without irrigation. No boll weevil ever know here. Altitude 2000 to 2600 feet.

Considering the reliable production of these lands—prices are lowest in Texas; new country, settling fast; splendid climate, no malaria, chills or fever; good churches and schools. We offer the homeseeker a wide range for selection and are selling direct—no commission to anyone; the purchaser receives full value in his lands in dealing direct with the owner as opposed to paying a middleman several dollars per acre.

STOCK FARMS AND SMALL RANCH TRACTS.

We also offer fine grazing tracts, perfectly adapted to this purpose—one section to fifty, at prices from $5.00 per acre up. Free illustrated booklet, giving all particulars on application to—

Chas. A. Jones,
Manager for S. M. Swenson & Sons, Spur, Dickens County, Texas.

Crow Wheat.
Farmers, you are up against it hard, and must look around for relief. Cotton is not what it has been. It may not come back soon. The war may last a year, or even more. When it does end at last the cotton mills or others of the east may not resume at once. Don't wait for cotton. Don't plant cotton. This is the general verdict of those who ought to know. Cut cotton out now, quit it cold. Wheat must be had. Wheat is the leading staff of life, it is indispensable. It can't be cut out by war. It will be shorter in supply and all the more needed. It will be higher in price. Can't you get it? East Texas can grow wheat profitably, more so than elsewhere. Plant it. Do it now. Take to this suggestion. It comes from the best of sources.

GOVERNOR HALL AT FAIR.
Chief Executive Will Formally Open Big Annual Show November 4.

The Louisiana State Fair will be formally opened November 4 by Governor Leche. The visit of the chief executive, stamping official approval of the big institution, will be among the most important and interesting events during the fair.

According to the plans mapped out, there will be a street parade, led by the governor, and participated also by the staff, the Shreveport city officials, state officials, representatives of the fair association and others of importance and distinction. Many automobiles are expected to join in the procession, which will lead from the business section of the city to the fair grounds.

An address by the governor will be among the day's features. An official inspection of exhibits will be another event.

If there are any persons in the state who have not had the privilege of seeing the governor, this will be a splendid opportunity. It will also be a fine chance for his friends, acquaintances, ministers and those from curiosity, to make hands.

Don't forget the date of the fair, November 4 to November 11. Also, apply to L. N. Brueggerhoff, secretary of the fair, for catalog and premium list.

RATES TO THE FAIR.
They Are Made Unusually Low by the Railroads for November 4-11.

If you don't take advantage of the opportunity of visiting the Louisiana State Fair this year, it won't be the fault of the railway companies or the fair management. They came to an agreement early in the summer whereby reduced passenger rates could be authorized on all railroads operating to Shreveport. The rates will be as low as they were last year, and they were unusually reasonable then.

In addition to the general reduced rates, applying throughout the week of the fair, there will be special, one-day rates, when excursions will be run on the different roads. These trips will be so arranged that the round trip may be made within a day and night. The railways are interested in the fair. They realize that it means general development in the country, and that means better business later on for the railroads. They are showing their interest by giving such low rates that almost everybody will be enabled to make the trip.

The rates this year apply within a radius embracing East Texas, South Texas and Louisiana. Immense crowds are expected.

For particular information about the rates, schedules, etc., apply to the local railroad agent.

Dates of the Fair are November 4 to November 11.

Secretary L. N. Brueggerhoff will furnish free catalog and premium list upon application.

PARISH FAIR EXHIBITS.
Many Displays of Agricultural Products From Different Parishes.

Convincing evidence of a wonderful development of the parish fair movement in Louisiana will be furnished November 4 to 11 at the State Fair. It will be shown in the agricultural building where the State Fair Association provides an exhibit space of 10x20 feet for each parish association's booth.

Last year there were eleven parish fair exhibits, competing for $1000 cash premiums offered the parishes making the finest records. Decoration of booth, variety and quality of products exhibited and other features are considered by those judging these booths, and suggestions are made later that improvements may be made the next year. At the fair this year it is expected that the largest number of parish exhibits on record will be shown. There is a stronger feeling in favor of fairs than ever before, and it is expected to be demonstrated more than ever at this year's state show.

In addition to providing exhibit space for the parishes with parish fair exhibits, the State Fair will allow each of the associations $50 towards defraying the expense of getting the exhibits to Shreveport and installing them. The fair, also, will haul the products over their lines, one way.

The benefits to be derived by the parishes from this exhibit are innumerable. The parish fair department has become one of the most popular at the State Fair. The various exhibits are closely studied, and no doubt investments are made in different sections in account of lessons taught spectators in the fine exhibits of agriculture displayed.

The farmers whose products go to make up the parish fair exhibits may expect for the general premiums offered for individual specimens, and it is expected there will be scores of these individuals.

Catalog and premium lists are furnished free, upon application to Secretary Louis N. Brueggerhoff, Shreveport. Dates of fair, Nov. 4 to 11.

Resolutions of Respect.
To the worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Milam Lodge No. 2, A. F. & A. M.

Sooner or later every man must pay the last just debt; and when the summons comes be it in the days of youth and young man-hood when one is on the threshold of the Apprentice's Checkard Pavement, the more advance stage of the Fellowcraft Mid Chamber; the Zenith, or Master's carpet; or when the Sun of life has passed its meridian height and man's days of expectancy are in the past and the evening shadows of life has lengthened to full extent; when the silent Reaper, Death, comes it always leaves sorrow and bleeding hearts in its wake; but more especially, is the work of the Grim Reaper acutely felt when one in the very prime of life is called upon to answer the final summons, and this all the more true and therefore weighty when that one has been ever active in his walks of life in good deeds, ministrations of mercy and expressions, and actions of love for his fellowman.

Brother W. C. Chadwick was born October the 8th., and who departed this life August the 1st., 1914, was an honored member of Milam Lodge No. 2, A. F. & A. M., having been honored by his brethren to the office of secretary of the lodge, but above all he was a good man, a consistent Mason. Always ready to dare and do those things that enables manhood and makes a good Mason; and in his death our Lodge has lost a loved member whose every heart beat was for the good of humanity and especially for his brethren. He belonged to that class of Masons who not only revered the order; but loved its teachings and exemplified, in his daily walk and conduct, the tenets of the fraternity.

Resolved, therefore, that in the death of our beloved Brother Milam Lodge and the Fraternity has lost a valuable member whose place among us will be hard to fill.

Resolved second: His family has lost a husband and father worthy the name, whose fatherly provision, loving association and tender care will be continuously missed by them and whose absence is now mourned as only the true in heart can feel.

Resolved third: The community, county and state has lost a citizen whose action in life fully merits the award, "Good Citizen."

Resolved fourth: God in his wisdom, mercy, justice and truth always provides for the widow and the orphans; binds up the broken heart and pours the oil of gladness into the wounded spirit and makes his own to breathe back to him glory and adoration: therefore, we say to his bereaved family and loved ones, let the ministrations of the God of pity and mercy and love be to you a beacon light and gladness even in the throes of your great bereavement and to the brethren of the lodge, though our brother is gone from us and a vacant chair is

We recommend that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the lodge, a copy given to the Nacogdoches Sentinel for publication and a copy be given to the bereaved family.

A purse of money was found yesterday near the post office by Jim Horn. It contained $11.55 in different kinds of cash. Horn called in Carroll Holt to aid and witness the inspection. They found nothing whatever to reveal the owner or loser except a receipt for subscription to the Daily Sentinel in the name of H. T. Burk. They called him up by phone. He had not missed the purse, but he at once got wise and of course waked up and was glad he had paid up and kept the receipt. Moral: Always carry in your purse a receipt for subscription to the Sentinel.

Henderson County Votes Dry By 600
Athens, Texas, Sept. 3.—In the county prohibition election held here today Henderson county went dry by 600 majority with two or three small precincts to be heard from that will not change the result.

This is the first time the county as a whole has voted dry while every precinct has been dry for six years, being voted precinct by precinct at a time.

A double election was held in Athens, one for the precinct and one for the county. Each gave a big majority for prohibition.

The precinct majority was 293. Six years ago it went dry by 3 votes.

Women marched in the streets and made personal appeals to the voters.

New Pope Elected.
Rome, Sept. 3.—Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, Archbishop of Bologna and former Assistant Papal Secretary of State, was today elected Pope, succeeding the late Pontiff, Pius X.

The election was on the ninth ballot.

With all of the ceremony prescribed by the century—old traditions of the Catholic church, the new occupant of the fisherman's throne received the first adoration of the cardinals in the conclave, who had balloted since Monday in the election.

The new Pontiff choose to be known as Benedictus XV. and will later designate date for his coronation. With the conclave called while all Europe was involved in a devastating war, which was largely responsible for the death of Pope Pius X. from a broken heart, the election of Benedictus XV. will go down in history as taking place at one of the most critical times in history.

Several foreign cardinals have not yet arrived in Rome. Among those absent are Cardinal Gibbons and Cardinal O'Connell of the United States. In the conclave were fifty-seven members of the Sacred College, a majority of them Italians.

The election of Cardinal Della Chiesa to the papal throne is not only a tribute to the late Pontiff, but also to his closest advisor, Cardinal Merry del Val. As Assistant Secretary of State and later as a cardinal and archbishop of Bologna, Cardinal Della Chiesa was one of Merry del Val's most ardent supporters, and in return enjoyed the fullest confidence of the Secretary of State. Being on the best of terms with the Italian Government, it is considered certain that the new Pope will carry on the policy of Pope Pius X., looking toward the healing of the long-standing breach between the Quirinal and the Vatican.

Dress Reform.
Sherman, Tex., Sept. 3.—Acting on petitions which have recently been presented to the Sherman School Board, Superintendent J. C. Pyle has called a meeting for tomorrow at 4 p. m. of the mothers who will have daughters in the High School this year and of all women interested for the purpose of discussing the subject of dress in the High school. It has been suggested that a uniform dress of modest material be selected for the girls. It was also stated that some of the wealthiest women of the city are behind the movement and are meeting with the hearty approbation of the citizens generally as well as many school girls.

The movement for a simpler dress for school girls was started a few weeks ago by the Dallas Mother's Council in the The Evening Journal. Since then it has spread to all parts of the State and even New York City has given some attention to such a plan.

Sunday School Reception.

Last evening the Blue side, which was the losing side for the past quarter of the W. W. Bible class, entertained the Red side, the winners, with a reception at the home of Mrs. Merton Blackburn, one of the members.

The interest and pleasure with which the committee, (with Miss Virdian Barham chairman,) planned the entertainment, was strongly evidenced in every part of the programme, and their guests proved their appreciation and enjoyment in their responses.

The first pleasure was quite a modern and universally enjoyed "Motoring Party," partners being designated by the gentleman intimating what ever noise making instrument was given on their card, such as a train or car. This unique way of drawing partners caused no little fun.

When partners were all called the motoring party was off. This being a little romance, with blanks left to be completed with some parts of the machine, as Mr. "Hood" and Miss "Wheeler," started to "Cushion" (Cushion) ect. On the return fifteen numbers were distributed and the untornnates were called to the room singly or doubly and had to perform some most laughable function, as being blindfolded and feed each other post toasties.

It need not be repeated every guest each had their share of the fun and no less did they enjoy the good cream and cake.

But just as the guests thought they must be going there, a hush, and Mrs. Will Cox in a pretty speech presented a handsome linen piece "From her class" to Mrs. I. J. Roberts, who had been their teacher, "From her Class." This was a complete surprise to Mrs. Roberts, but she met the occasion with a most appreciative response. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are leaving soon for Dallas to reside.

A Birthday Celebration

Mahl, Tex., Sept. 7, 1914 Editor Sentinel.

Will you kindly give me space in your paper for a short say. I will promise not to stay long. Thanks.

On August 26th, 1914 at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smelley quite a jolly crowd of children and friends were present to celebrate her 80th birthday.

Her children that were there was Mr. Frank Buckner Mr. and Mrs. Buck Buckner Mr. and Mrs. Abbie Scogins, Mrs. W. R. Scogins, Mrs. Eddie Power, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Birdwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Smelley. And Miss Francis Smelley. But there was a vacant place. Mr. and Mrs. David Smelley were absent and our hearts were sad to know that there was one missing such treat.

Her friends that were present, was Dr. G. E. Samuels and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Holway Power, Uncle Willie Moore Uncle Mitch Weatherly Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hogan Sr.

Mrs. Doc Baker, Mrs. Carter Baker. Her sister Mrs. J. L. Baker was presented with her glad smiles, and to wish her mady happy return of the day and oh so many many more that space forbids me to mention.

She had 25 grand children present, and 8 great grand children. In all she has 44 grand children and 52 great grand children, quite a number to wish her many happy days. She was remembered with lots of beautiful presents.

In all there were 86 that ate at that bountiful board and such a good dinner, the writer has neve enjoyed before. It was spread in a beautiful grove of trees, and when all were fed there were several baskets full gathered up. Each one carried a well filled basket of good things to eat. In the afternoon we had some good singing which was greatly enjoyed by all. We made the welcome ring each one feeling in our heart we were glad to be there. Oh may Aunt Emeline live to see many more birthdays. She is hale and hearty, and trips about like a child.

I heard one of her grand sons ask her if she felt much old today. Her reply was "No" I feel just like I was 16."

Truly I believe she did feel young in her heart. She has been grratly blessed to be spared to see her 80th, birthday and may the giver of all good gifts spare her to see many more such days. As the sun was drawn west ward the guests began to disperse, each one going their way wishing to be remembered August 26th 1915, hoping to be present and that our hostess will still be spared to give us a royal welcome in her home again.
