Death of Mrs. Garrison

Mrs. Elizabeth Lacy Garrison died Monday at 2:45 p. m. after a protracted illness of nearly a year.

Mrs. Garrison is the mother of Mrs. J. H. Barham of this city and in the time spent here she has endeared herself to many friends who will regret to learn of her death.

Her life would fill many pages of the pioneer days of this section, she having moved here in her early teens, and soon joined as a member of a large prominent family whose name is well known throughout the state. Mrs. Garrison was born in Tennessee 83 years ago. Her own individual character a sweet gentle spirit, was a strong influence among her acquaintances and won of them the highest esteem and respect.

Her four children survive her; two sons, J. G. Garrison, of Fort Worth, H. D. Garrison of Austin and two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Barham of this city and Mrs. A. R. Gerhart of Garrison.

The little four year old daughter of H. H. Kendrick, of Melrose died Saturday and was buried there Sunday.

Editor Sentinel:
In your paper of June the 11th you asked for a correspondent at every postoffice in the county, especially such points as Sacul, Etoile and others. You said school girls were often the best correspondents, but I'll not give you my age or occupation for I am taking advantage of that request through your paper to thank the good people of Sacul, especially Mrs. Mollie Richardson, Mrs. Lula Bowliss and Mrs. Clifton for the many favors shown me during my long spell of sickness.
We are needing rain very much. The people here are shipping tomatoes but are very much out of heart with prices. A great many say present prices will not cover cost of making. Corn and cotton are small for this time of year. Vegetables are fine and the people are so kind in giving to those that haven't any.
Mr. Editor we are proud of our little town and believe you felt that we were, was why you made a specialty of this place you will hear from Sacul again. Correspondent.

Mrs. O. H. K. Goff Dead.
Mrs. O. H. K. Goff, who was Miss Mozelle Sossamon, died yesterday, June 14, 1915, at the home of her grandson, Dexter Muller, six miles north west of town.
She was born at Jackson, Tenn., Sept. 17, 1832, which would make her 83 years old.
She came to San Augustine, Texas in early life, and later in 1879 removed to Nacogdoches with her husband where they lived many years and followed hotel business.
Mr. Goff died many years ago. Their only child, Mary married Albert Muller, but has also been dead many years. Mrs. Goff was at one time well known in Nacogdoches, and was noted for her gentle tender nature, which made her greatly loved.
She was laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery today at 12 o'clock, in the presence of loving friends and a few relatives.

Secretary Bryan's Resignation.

The unexpected and sudden resignation of the president's chief aid at Washington, is the national sensation of the day. The press and the populace, in all positions, are discussing it, from every point of view.

One of the most rational and philosophic comments of the press may be found in the Houston Chronicle of the 10th. It is in accord with the general tone of public sentiment, but it is especially and pronouncedly complimentary to W. J. Bryan, but at the same time it does not take sides as to the difference between Secretary Bryan and President Wilson. This difference involves the question of how to prevent wars. Bryan wants to contend for some form of conclusive peaceful arbitration. Wilson, while favoring peace with all energy yet occupies or favors an attitude of defiance and demand. Bryan can not agree to it, and of course can not oppose it while in the cabinet. Therefore he steps aside. His patriotic purpose is beyond question, and there is no real friction between him and President Wilson, and nothing but the best of feelings. And there is no reason why Mr. Bryan should not stick to his peace policies. Yet, if we are forced to go to war with Germany, it is not easy to say where Mr. Bryan will stand. And, since president Wilson simply stands for the people, acting for their good and under their instruction, the people should back him up, in every sense of the word. Whatever he does is our work, and we are with him. This doctrine is not questioned, except by a few political adversaries. As to consequences, or as to the future, the United States will not go to war with Germany if there be any reasonable way to avoid it.

The Agricultural Department of Texas proposes to educate or instruct the people, and especially the farmers, in every way towards success in handling the problems of farm life, or in every direction that may influence or assist them along these lines. Mr. Paul Wipprecht says he will aid and demonstrate in civic work, as well as in agriculture and horticulture, free of charge. And the Department will send a man, at any time, to any point, on request.

The Herald believes the State Railroad will be extended, either to Dallas or to Waco, and it is persuaded that such a road would prove a good investment for the state, providing of course that it was well managed.—Palestine Herald.

The Sentinel agrees with the above, and would be glad to see the road built. At least, it would test the matter.

The Germans praise Bryan. The English condemn him. The point of view governs.

Robert Lansing

Robert Lansing, successor to John Bassett Moore as counsellor of the state department, becomes secretary of state ad interim today when Secretary Bryan's resignation takes effect. He is a son-in-law of John W. Foster, secretary of state under President Harrison. He is a life-long democrat and has been an international lawyer for many years.

Mr. Lansing has prepared memoranda for practically all of the important notes that have gone to beligerent governments since the European war began and is looked upon not only as an expert in international law, but as a clear thinker and adviser. For many years he has served on boundary commissions and arbitration tribunals. He is a comparatively young man, well acquainted with all the government's policies and has won the admiration of the president and Mr. Bryan by his loyalty to the secretary of state as his superior officer. On many occasions Mr. Lansing has submitted memoranda expressing his views differing from those of Mr. Bryan, but he has tactfully avoided embarrassments.

Wilson and Bryan

It called for, no astute diplomat to prophesy, that Germany's answer would be evasive, not because it was Germany, but because this is the usual course of diplomatic correspondence, and President Wilson's reply was foreshadowed by the language used in his fist note; there was to be no backing up. Mr. Bryan should have united with the other great commoners of the nation and stood by the president. We are bound to honor a man's principles and we are willing to concede Mr. Bryan's right to believe certain things and believe them thoroughly, but there was no sacrifice of principle, merely a bending opinion, and this Mr. Bryan has not been willidg to do, and must abide the popular verdict, which it is believed will not be in his favor. Galveston Tribune.

Father's Day.

June is the month not only of roses and weddings, but it is the month that celebrates a far less frequently sung fete. Fathers' Day comes this month on June 22. The rose, any kind of color, is the emblem of Fathers' Day, and all who wear one on June 22 will be known to be paying tribute to father, living or dead. Father himself was not the inventor of this celebration. It was a woman who devotedly admired her father and her husband who made the suggestion. Happy and admiring daughters and wives all over the country have taken it up. There is a slow but sure gathering feeling among women that in spite of the heavy artillery used against men in the fight for suffrage, after all, father is a pretty fine old fellow, and that we will tell him so once a year no matter how we ignore and maltreat him the remaining 364 days.—Austin American.

The Poor Town

You say that things are on the blink at Punktown-by-the-Dump; there's no chance there for any gink, no odds how he may hump. The town has moss all up its back, it isn't up to date, its outlook's poor, its trade is slack, you think you'll pull your freight. I've met some bright and hustling lads from Punktown, now and then; they say it is the best of grads for active, hustling men. They say you'll find the finest jail, the largest village pump, the longest list of men with kale, at Punktown-by-the-Dump. The Punktown climate has no taint, so goes, their joyous song. The Punktown girls are fresh as paint, the Punktown boys are strong. If you would join the boostful bunch, and shoo your grouch away, you soon would have a better punch, and put up for more hay. For when a fellow blames his town because he doesn't shine, the tired onlookers set him down as one who lacks a spine. There never was a town so bum it would refuse a prize to one who tries to make things bum, with ardor in his eyes. There never was a town so fine that it would give all good to one who springs, an endless whine, while others saw their wood.—Walt Mason

Sapp is Indicted for Wife Murder.

Another chapter in the famous Sapp case was recorded yesterday when it was announced that E. E. Sapp, the principal defendant in the cases wherein he and his brother are charged with the killing of Richard Watts and Frank Havard, had been indicted in Liberty county charged with killing his wife, Mrs. Ellen I. Sapp, which occurred in a camp near Rayburn November 7 last.

Mrs. Sapp was killed by a shot from a gun in the hands of Richard Watts which is said to have been accidental.

The indictment has not been officially made public because the papers have not yet been served on the defendant, but the rumor was current on the streets of Beaumont yesterday that the indictment had been returned, and stated that an application for habeas corpus would be filed as soon as the papers were served.

Sapp was denied bail in the case wherein he is charged jointly with his brother, Louis Sapp, with the murder of Richard Watts, whose body was found in the edge of the Big Thicket in Hardin county between Sour Lake and Nona on February 1 by L. P. Wright a farmer. The transcript in this case is now being prepared and the case will be sent up on appeal within a short time.

In the case wherein Sapp and his brother are charged with the murder of Frank Havard, whose body was found within ninety feet of the Watts grave, on March 27, E. E. Sapp was granted bond on habeas corpus hearing in the sum of $7500 and Louis in the sum of $1000.

The habeas corpus hearing in the Watts case lasted for five days and attracted wide

The East Wind

"The wind in in the east," the chronic croaker sighed; "that zephyr is a beast, it fill with pain my hide. Whenever east whiz across the dismal lea, eight kinds of rheumatiz begin to torture me." So he sits down to groan, and calls for the police, and rubs his old shin bone with linament and grease. When people thus are sure a certain wind will bring some ill beyond a cure, their guess comes true, by jing. For superstition makes of grief a vast amount, it brings more pains and aches than you and I could count. Now let the croaker greet the east wind with a grin, and say, "You can't be beat—the prize you'll surely win! You can't bring disease, or make my hock-joints sick; no blamed old tin horn breeze can play that sort of trick!" The wind will whoop and sizz, and try to fill his frame with jumping rheumatiz, and then give up the game. If you invite disease say it's sure to come, the germs will strive to please, knock you out of plumb. But if defiance hold you hand the microbe mob the feet of germs grow cold, and they throw up the job.—Walt Mason.

Quinn's Bitter Against Ware House.

Dallas, June 4.—Sharp opposition to the Texas permanent warehouse law was expressed by the Texas Ginners' Association in discussion today. President H. L. Quinn of Waco said the ginners will soon decide whether they will try to fly bodily in the face of the government of Texas and its law. The ginners say the law is unreasonable.

THE FEDERAL BUILDING

Nacogdoches Post Office

City Attorney C. A. Hodges has been corresponding extensively with the authorities at Washington about our proposed post office building in the public square, and at last he is confident that he has cleared the way to the satisfaction of these authorities, and they have so written him. They also state that the deal will now be closed and the building will be erected without delay.

It is interesting to note the lengthy and complex details that had to be handled before a final conclusion was reached.

These negotiations began about ten years ago and have passed through divers hands, both here and at Washington. Mr. Hodges says he does not know all this history, but when he saw that the scheme had gone to sleep he decided, for his own personal gratification, to see if he could wake it up, and he has been earnestly working at it for years.

Capt. H. H. Cooper, while he was post master, worked at it a great deal. Mayor Matthews and others have done so.

The first question was whether the city was entitled to the federal building. The requisites were hard to furnish, but this was done.

The next was where to locate the building. Several sites were offered. Inspectors came and turned down one after another, till the public square was finally accepted.

Then the title to this site had to be made in red tape style. At first the city council passed the desired ordinance. Then the land owners all around were required to sign the deed. Some of them refused. Then Condemnation suits at Tyler had to be put through. Then the site had to be measured. Then a new deed executed. Then the measurements had to be repeated and shaped to suit, which has at last been done, and the boundaries are to be just exactly as the cement curbing shows now, the four sides being of unequal lengths, viz. north side Main street 167 feet, South side Pilar street 170 feet, West side Pecan street 119 feet, and the east side Fredonia street 91 feet.

Mr. Hodges thinks the plans are now all agreeable and acceptable in every way. But several times heretofore he has been disappointed. Now he is looking out for results with confidence.

The federal building will soon arrive. But the preliminaries for its erection are to be worked out. The closing correspondence was with J. B. Bailey, Assistant Attorney, at Washington.

Praised By Colquitt.

Dallas, Texas, June 9.—Oscar Branch Colquitt, erst- political opponent of William Jennings Bryan, has sent a telegram to the former Secretary of State congratulating him on his course in resigning.

The ex-Governor today gave out a strong interview in support of Bryan's position in stepping out of the Cabinet because he could not agree with the President. This is the first time Colquitt and Bryan have been in accord for many years.

The Student Loan Fund.

The amendment which will be voted upon on July 24, should be adopted by the people. It is purely a local option measure. It provides that any county may, by a vote of the people, establish this fund for the benefit of the deserving boys and girls who desire an education but who have not the finances with which to get an education. In Georgia it is known as the Brown fund, for deserving students. Fifty thousand dollars was set aside by Joseph E. Brown in 1883 to assist students. Over 1000 have been accommodated by it, the fund has grown to more than $100,000 and the loss to the fund by students failing to repay the amount borrowed has been negligible, though no security has ever been taken on the loans. It is the purpose of Mr. Metcalfe, the author of this amendment, to follow closely the Georgia plan in the event it is favorably acted upon by the people. We need an educated citizenship, and there is no more meritorious work than assisting those students who are deserving. The amendment should be adopted.—Cherokee Sun.

The New Hat

Man buys himself a new straw hat; it often leaves him busted flat, when he has paid the price; and then, all swollen up with pride, he goes around with stately stride, and knows he's looking nice. He's thinking, when he's thus arrayed, that every widow, every maid, will say he's just too sweet; with vain imaginings like these he runs against the busy breeze that scoots along the street. That zephyr takes his virgin hat and slams it down and knocks it flat, and rolls it on its brim, and as he tries to run it down, most all the idots in the town are idly joshing him. Along the avenues and pikes, at record breaking gait he hikes, a cloud of dust behind; the widow and the winsome maid behold him as he hits the grade, and laugh until they're blind. The hat goes scooting forty miles with scores of other errant tiles, before he runs it down; and then it is a dismal wreck; the brim is flopping round his neck, his hair sticks through the crown. The lid that made him scorn the common crowd, is spoiled beyond recall while such disasters come to pass, plainly see all flesh is grass, pride goes before a fall.
Walt Mason.

The Sentinel was so dumb stricken by the news of W. J. Bryan's resignation that it was wholly silent. What could be said was not evident. But Woodrow Wilson is our leader, and we will follow where he leads.

The tone of the news from Washington is favorable as to no war between Germany and the United States. President Wilson's policies seem to win, and his Bryan episode is approved in general.

Pope Benedict Admires Mr. Wilson

Rome, June 9.—(Via Paris June 10.)—Jane Addams of Chicago, chairman of the special committee appointed by the Woman's Peace Conference at the Hague to visit the capitals of Europe in an effort to hasten the end of hostilities, has left Rome for Madrid, whence she will go to France and Belgium. While here, Miss Addams was received by Pope Benedict, Cardinal Gaeparri, Papal Secretary of State; Premier Salandra and Foreign Minister Sonnino.

Although the ministers of the Italian government listened respectfully to her peace propaganda, they gave her little encouragement. She was received with greater sympathy, however, at the vatican, where the pope has been laboring to bring about peace.

Miss Adams was told by Pope Benedict that he admires greatly the firmness and serenity of President Wilson. His holiness expressed the hope that the initiative for peace would come from America and he pledged himself to support such a proposal with all the influence of the Holy See.

The Editor Has Gone.

In view of the fact that the editor was able to exchange some advertising for railroad transportation, and the contract being approved by the railroad commission, we have left for Corpus Christi this morning to attend the annual meeting of the Texas Press Association. We have gone for several reasons. First, to get more new ideas as to editing a country newspaper; second, to take our annual bath in the bay; third, to see and mingle with that bunch of jolly newspaper men, and fourth, to see the beautiful young ladies of that magnificent little city once more. Good bye! We are on our way.—Polk County Enterprise.

The Sentinel will meekly say, let-er-go, West, instead of let her go, Gal-a-ger.

Press Association To El Paso Next

Corpus Christi, Texas, June 12.—El Paso today was chosen for the 1916 meeting place of the Texas Press association. Officers elected were: President, Walter B. Whitman, Dallas; vice president, Henry Edwards of Troupe; secretary, Sam P. Harben, Richardson; treasurer, C. F. Lehmann, San Antonio.

The Confederate Home and Pensions

The Henderson Times, in deploring the high tax rate, makes the statement that the Confederate home should be abolished and its inmates put on a pension, saying they could be supported in the country on a $10 pension, whereas it takes about $30 to $40 per man to support them in the home. The Times further states the men would be better satisfied in the country. There is not a man with a spark of love for humanity in his boam who has ever taken the car line West from Congress avenue and gone out in the country and visited the Confederate home, but that has felt a sense of gratitude to his state for its magnanimity in thus providing for its old and decrepit heroes. We take it for granted that The Times' editor has never visited this home. If he had he would know that a very large per cent of the inmates are in the hospital and could not wait on themselves. He would further know that many of the old men have no other place in the world can they go to and they could not pay board on a $10 pension. He would also know that 98 per cent of the old soldiers are contented in the home. The Sun believes in economy in the State government, but not at the expense of the old soldiers. We believe in giving them the best in the land during their few remaining years here. The place where the state could effect a real saving is in its judiciary. If our laws and codes of procedure were reformed to meet 20th century conditions and if about one third the new and useless courts were abolished the greatest drain on our resources would be stopped. Economize, yes. But not at the expense of the old heroes who are tottering on the brink of the everlasting morns.—Cherokee Sun.

Late Texas Laws

The laws passed by the Thirty-fourth Legislature at its regular session will become effective Sunday, June 20, which is ninety days after the adjournment of that session. They cover a wide range and affect a large number of persons and occupations, including, among others, hotels, hunters, automobile owners, builders, contractors, lawyers, doctors, employers of labor, employment agencies, landlords and tenants, loan brokers cities and towns, railroads, married women and all persons having children between the ages of eight and fourteen years.

The laws have been published in pamphlet form by the secretary of state and may be procured from him by mail for thirty-five cents or at his office for twenty cents.

Read the article by Geo. T. McNess about "Laying by corn" or plowing it the last time to death.

Laying By of the Corn Crop

To the Sentinel.

I noticed in one of our county papers last week, the following statement made by one of the local reporters. "Our Farmers Are Now Busy Cultivating Their Corn for the Last Time." This statement is true for I took a drive last Thursday east of town for the purpose of obtaining a general idea of the condition of crops as well as attending to the Stations business with its co-operators. I noticed during my trip that a good many of the corn fields have been laid by, and just at the time when they should receive careful cultivation so as to produce a maximum yield. The old custom of giving a crop of corn so many workings in spite of the varied climate, conditions and the state of the corns growth, is a mistake, yet a great number of farmers follow this practice, with the result that they do not produce enough corn to feed their stock until oats come in. The secret of success in producing a corn crop, and in fact any crop, is the conservation of soil moisture, this soil moisture can be held in the soil by deep plowing in the fall or winter and a thorough cultivation of whatever crop is planted.

It requires an immense amount of moisture to produce a normal crop of corn, and during the silking and and tassel stage of the corns growth, it consumes more water than at any other time, and it is at this time when the corn crop needs shallow cultivation in order to preserve the soil moisture and allow the plant to obtain all of the moisture it needs for the development of the ear that a large number of our people lay by their corn and thus reduce their yield under normal climatic conditions, and when a drought strikes us, like it did last year and in 1911, no corn is produced at all.

I do not advocate plowing corn with deep running plows such as half shovels, or even heel sweeps with a straight shovel, for a lead plow, after the corn has begun to show tassel, but a soil mulch should be maintained until the corn is in glazed roasting ear stage, by cultivating it with either a small 14 tooth V harrow, or if that is not available, a G. W. harrow, run shallow will also answer the purpose. These extra cultivations will consume very little of the farmers time, and as fishing is not very good this year, it will pay him best to spend a little more of his time on the corn. If a man has a full crib of corn he will also have a full smoke house, and with these on our farms this fall there will be no cries of hard times like I heard in the Court house in Nacogdoches last November.

The corn crop of the county is looking promising and let us make it the bumper crop of the county by giving it cultivation at the time it needs it most.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to call from labor our beloved, brother B. F. Chalker. And whereas, in the death of brother Chalker, Martinsville Lodge has lost one of its most valued members; one always faithful, always on hand, and ever ready and willing to guard against the approach of cowards and eaves droppers either ascending or descending. Therefore, resolved, that in the death of Bro. Chalker, not only has our Lodge lost one of its most cheerful members, but Nacogdoches county has lost one of her noblest citizens, Shady Grove community one of its best neighbors, and his family has lost a loving husband and father. But, while we can but deplore this great loss. And while we may not be able to see why Bro. Chalker should be taken from us when he was at the very zenith of his usefulness. Yet let us as true Masons ever remember that the Great Grand Master of the Universe doeth all things well.

That it is not for us to question but to obey. And while we can never labor any more with Bro. Chalker in our lodge below let us trust that through the strong grip of the Lions Paw of the tribe of Judia we may some day greet him in the Celestial Lodge above.

Resolved further that the Nacogdoches Sentinel be requested to publish these resolutions. That a copy be spread on the minutes of the lodge and that the family of Bro. Chalker be furnished with a copy.

Germany and the United States

An editorial in the Waco Morning News has this to say:

The friendly tone of the last American note and its friendly reception by some of the leading German papers indicates that the way is now open to a satisfactory settlement of the difference that have arisen between the United States and Germany over the treatment accorded American ships and citizens sailing upon the high seas. The German papers still cling to the idea of arbitration and declare they do not care to enter into negotiations where all the concessions must be made by one side, but the justice of the American demands is so clearly defined that we cannot see how the German government can do else than grant them, especially when those demands are couched in such unmistakably friendly terms.

President Wilson does not want war with Germany, nor does Germany want war with the United States. Possibly both nations have misunderstood each other. The very friendly, but no less firm note last Friday makes possible a better understanding between the two nations and there is little prospect of a sharp estrangement between countries just as between individuals, when a candid, honest effort is made to reach a full understanding with each other. It begins to look as if Mr. Bryan styling himself an unalterable enemy of war, has lost a splendid opportunity to help bring about peace.

A Glad Surprise

About five miles east of Nacogdoches, in the Trinity community, on a fertile farm, surrounded by beautiful shade trees, is the home of Rev. H. M. Hutson.

The children are all married, though none of them live far away, and the two old people live alone. Bro. Hutson has spent a large part of his useful life preaching the gospel. He and his faithful wife are loved and esteemed by all the good people of their neighborhood.

Last Thursday, the 10th inst was the 49th anniversary of their wedded life.

Six sons, two daughters, and forty-four grandchildren live to comfort them, as they near the golden tinted west. As a token of love and appreciation, their children made it up among themselves to give them a surprise and a day of joy and real pleasure.

The day dawned clear and bright. The balmy south wind gently waved the fields of growing corn and as the Great Orb of day lifted his stately head above the tall trees in the Carrisso bottom, causing the luscious tomatoes near by to blush more deeply, the devoted couple gazed down the road and wondered where so many people were going. "The Lord help my time, Henry, I do believe they are coming here!"

The wagons were soon at the front gate of the old homestead. Happy greetings were exchanged and peals of merry laughter from thirty-eight grand-children who were present, caused the hills and valleys to ring and reverberate and reverberate with notes of gladness. Tears of joy filled the eyes of the dear old couple.

Then the baskets and boxes filled almost to bursting with good things to eat were carried from the wagons and deposited on the back porch.

At 11:30 dinner was announced, and beneath the cool shade of a number of queenly china-berry trees, a table groaned under the weight of a sumptuous repast prepared by past masters in the art of cooking; while nearly ten gallons of well frozen ice-cream was ready to be served. The writer was glad that he had his wife and boy with him.

Shortly after dinner the company assembled in the spacious sitting room and sang a number of hymns and then a short devotional service was conducted by the writer.

Hours flew rapidly by, and as the sun approached the western hills painting the sky with gold and crimson, light-hearted, we wended our way homeward with a consciousness that the hearts of two old people had been made glad, and life to them worth living.

Rail Clerk Killed.

Temple, Tex. June 14 — Howard D. Gregory, 22, a railway clerk, was killed in the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad yards here today when he was caught between drawheads while sealing up cars. His parents live here.

The above mentioned gentleman is a nephew of Mrs. Geo. Barham of this city. Mrs. Barham went to Temple Sunday.

The reports from the Carranza and Villa headquarters are just about as unreliable as are those coming from the European quarters. Consequently the outside world does not know whether they are fighting much or not.—Jacksonville Progress.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CAUSES INTENSE SUFFERING

Sixteen years ago I was taken sick with Kidney trouble and suffered terribly for three months. I did not work during this time and was mostly confined to the bed. After using other remedies I finally tried a bottle of Swamp-Root. I immediately began to feel better, and after using seven fifty-cent bottles, was entirely cured and have had no Kidney trouble since. I can truly say that I owe my good health to Swamp-Root. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other people afflicted as I was with the hope of bringing to their attention this most wonderful remedy.

An Explanation.

June 16, 1915.

To the People and Citizens of the town of Nacogdoches:
Kind Sirs and Friends:

Will you extend your sympathy to my wife and children so far as to feed them until I am a free man again? They have provisions enough to last them probably two or three days and no money at all, except about 80c. I am only taken up on suspicion of taking some money which Mr. Baxter said he left in a grip on a back gallery at the Reeves Hotel in Lutkin. I can't explain all in this letter as I don't know whether the Sentinel will grant me the space or not. Thanking you all for any favor you might lend.

Yours truly,

R. P. Bickly.

THE CHEAPEST EATING-HOUSE IN TEXAS

Here's a line of boys who are working their way through the University of Texas, by cleaning up tables and serving in the University Cafeteria. Manager Veasey, at the extreme left, is not a student.

Fully sixty per cent of the student body of this great educational institution is either in whole or in part self-supporting, thus emphasizing the dependence of the poor student upon state-supported institutions of higher education. Meals here average but twelve cents each, and many students get their board here on the University campus for $8.00 per month, the average is about $11.00 per month. Rooms in University Hall nearby are obtained at from $1.50 to $3.00 per month, although there are not sufficient rooms to supply the demand at these prices. Not a cent is made by the management of the cafeteria—when it is discovered that a surplus is accumulating, the price of food is cut down. Here is actually board at cost. Besides furnishing cheap meals to over four hundred students per day, a half a dozen or more students are enabled to earn their board cleaning up tables, and otherwise serving the management.

A VISTA FROM LAKE AUSTIN

From University of Texas property, on south shore.

The completion of the gigantic dam across the Colorado River near Austin, supplies the one thing needed to make ideal the location of the State's greatest institution of learning, the University of Texas. The lake runs back winding among the evergreen hills of Edward's Plateau for 35 miles, offering students who are disposed to take their recreation out-of-doors, such wholesome sports as rowing, fishing, motor-boating, swimming, sailing and so on. A large part of the land bordering the lake near Austin is owned by the University, and the students have erected a boat-house at a convenient place where their canoes, rowing and motor-boats are kept at a nominal charge.

The Trotting and Saddle Stallion

Edgemont Ideal 38598

Record 2.15 1-4 Trial 2.08.

The breeding of Edgemont is the sort that delights the student of blood lines. His sire, the sensational young Stallion Beau Ideal 2.15 1-4, was a fast race horse and a grand show horse, winning everything at National horse show, New York, in 1904. Dare Devil 2.09 1-4, his grandsire, and Mambrino King, his great grandsire, both won everything before them at National horse.

Edgemont Ideal won three year old class and second in grand championship class at National show. He has also shown in six saddle rings and never been defeated. The above stallion is without doubt one of the handsomest horses in the country and good judges pronounce him an improvement on his sire.

Edgemont Ideal is making the season of 1915 at the Fair Grounds, Nacogdoches, Tex., at the reduced rate of $25.00 with return privilege.

Captain Craddock to Make Pen Probe

Austin, June 14.—Captain W. T. Craddock, personal representative of Governor Ferguson, was today detailed to make an investigation of the physical condition of the state penitentiary system, this being independent of the probe now in progress by the senate investigation committee. W. R. Dulaney of Williamson county, who was appointed by Governor Ferguson to succeed W. O. Stamps, reached here today and had a conference with the governor relative to penitentiary affairs. Mr. Dulaney with Captain Craddock leaves tonight for Huntsville, the former to get in touch with the affairs of the penal institutions for he is to qualify on July 1. The governor is gathering information for use in proposed penitentiary legislation at the special session this winter.

Yum-yum! Cantaloupes New

Houston, Texas, June 14.—The market was flooded with cantaloupes Monday, crates being stacked up high up and down produce row sidewalks. Several carloads have arrived recently from California and express shipments are coming in from the lower coast country. While there is a good demand and the melons are moving actively, the dealers had just about all they could sell yesterday. Standard crates sold at $1.75 per crate, while pony crates made around $1. The cantaloupe season is on with a vengeance now, and there will be no need of any one going without them.

A few watermelons were handled through the market, but no great display is made of them and nobody seems very enthusiastic over them. Some of the dealers said they were too high yet.

Governor Ferguson Will Be There

Late advices from Governor Jas. E. Ferguson are to the effect that he is making all arrangements to visit Center on the 29th instant and will address the people.

Governor Ferguson will be joined at Longview by Mayor Bodenheimer of that place, who will also have a place on the program of the Log Rollers.

State Senator T. H. McGregor and Editor Kalamity Bonner will be here and they, too, will have places on the program, which promises to be entertaining and instructive all the way through.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Nacogdoches Citizens Show a Way

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Nacogdoches citizen says:

C. Heitman, shoemaker, 111 N. North St., Nacogdoches, says: "I was bothered by kidney weakness and a steady ache in the small of my back. I was tired all the time, especially in the morning. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Swift Bros. & Smith's Drug Store, cured me.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Heitman had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Christian Revival

From attendance last night it appears that interest in the meeting is growing. The largest crowd of the meeting was out last night. The house was kept cool by electric fans distributed over the building. A most interesting and touching sermon was delivered by Brother Thompson on the subject of "When Jesus Was Lost," being based upon the Bible story of Jesus' mother losing him in the temple and again finding him there. "She did not lose him in the dance hall; for she was a mother and did not go there. She did not lose him at a card party, for she did not go there. But she lost him in the temple, the most unlikely place to lose him; and there she found him where she had lost him." Continuing he said, "If you have lost Jesus, my friends, you find him where you lost him. It matters not how far you have traveled from him, you must return to where you lost him." At the close of the service, another young lady made the the "good confession" and will be added to the church.

It was announced that, beginning today, there will be day services at ten o'clock every morning. The service this morning was another good one. The subject was "Anchored" just a little simple word, but was one of the best sermons the Nacogdoches people ever had the privilege of hearing. The singing gets better every service. The subject tonight will be, "Embroidered Evils." Brother Steele will sing another good solo tonight. Don't miss it for its about Jesus.

Brother Thompson is a young man and makes his appeal especially to the young people. He wishes us to urge them to come out and be benefited by the services.

Be on hand tonight promptly at 8 o'clock. You will not be kept long, and you will be comfortable and comforted while you wait. Reporter.

Its Coming and You Can't Hold it by the Tail.

Prepare to grasp opportunity by the horns, you can't hold it by the tail.

Opportunity is knocking at your door. You probably do not fully realize what this means; how much it means to you. What preparation have you made for the reception of your opportunity when it comes? Are you prepared? It will not take you long to make the preparation if you adopt the following motto "Dig" "Determine" "Deliver". To dig means to strive earnestly, conscientiously, diligently day after day, securing a practical training for which the business world pays cash, and then when you have secured this training, keep on digging—Dig, Determine, without determination you cannot make a success of your future. It takes determination to do anything, and with it you can revolutionize the world, you can accomplish everything. Deliver—that is the natural result after putting into operation the other two mottoes—Dig and Determine. Can you not embody these three words in your life to an advantage? Begin today to Dig by entering the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, for a course of Bookkeeping and Short-hand, Business Administration and Finance, Cotton Grading and Classing or Telegraphy. Secure a training that will help you deliver the goods. When we fail to make a success we have no one to censure but self, for we are the architects of our own future. It is far easier to fail than to succeed.

Do your best to begin on your practical cash producing education this month and finish your course before the beginning of the busy fall season, and then when the many demands for well qualified bookkeepers, stenographers and secretaries or operators are made you will be ready; not getting ready but ready. A whole lot of energy and a little cash will greatly increase your earning capacity. Write us for free catalogue; we have helped thousands and can help you. Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

Pre-Nuptial Musical

Saturday afternoon quite a number of the friends of Mrs. Robt. Lindsey and Miss Hester Buchanan were present at the musical given by Mrs. Lindsey, complimenting Mrs. Buchanan who is soon to be wedded.

A pretty tableau met the visitors eye as they took their places in the music room, in the center the bride-to-be was seated on an elevation and her dainty beauty was framed in a large heart outlined in delicate pink and blue morning glories, seated on each side in honored places were the mothers of the bride and groom-to-be, Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Henderson. Several little tots surrounded them in an array of white and pink and sang pretty songs of "Their love."

Interspersing the numbers on the beauties of the two lives about to be brought together.

Most of the numbers were home talent, of which Nacogdoches is especially gifted and a most interesting number was several pretty dances given by baby Elizabeth Gerard of Dallas. The little artist is only five summers old and has only been instructed since last November. Her extreme gracefulness and correctness in these dances prove unlimited talent.

Her little grecian ballet costume and dainty bare feet were sweet to the on-looker.

Mrs. Paul Gerard of Dallas Mrs. Balfour Patterson of Houston, Miss Eva Rateliff of Vinita, Okla., Mrs. J. H. Kerr of Rusk and Miss Kaleta McCarter of New Salem were out of town guests.

Refreshment ice and sandwiches were served.

When W. J. Bryan was wild about "Free and unlimited, 16 to 1," he was wasting words. The matter adjusted itself in due time. So, now he is opposing Wilson's war note. Let us watch out and wait for results, and war will not catch us. Germany will get right, and we will not fight.

Obit C. M. Walters.

From Monday's Daily:

The death of C. M. Walters which occurred Sunday, June 13, 1915, at 3 p. m. at his home on South Fredonia street, Nacogdoches, Texas, cast a gloom over the city, and over the entire county.

He was quite well known and being of a most kindly and sociable disposition, he occupied quite a tender place in the hearts of all. He was raised in the western part of this county, but he has lived in this city many years. He served as deputy sheriff several terms. He was, by occupation a blacksmith. He leaves a widow and two sons who all reside here.

He was 66 years old, and was a Confederate veteran.

He had been sick for more than a month having a peculiar hemorrhagic disease, from which he bled to death.

He was buried in Oak Grove cemetery today at 10:30 a. m. in the presence of a large assembly of sorrowing people. His funeral was conducted by Rev. C. A. Westbrook pastor of the Baptist church.

Mote Waters was a good man, always in favor of right, and human happiness. He was a man of a tender heart, and no enemies.

His sorrowing relatives have the sincere sympathy of all.

To Preserve Your Health

The kidneys are the great health preservers. Rheumatism, backache, headache, sore muscles, stiff joints come when the kidneys are out of order and fail to properly filter the blood. Foley Kidney Pills fone up tired and diseased kidneys, banish backache and stop sleep disturbing bladder troubles. Swift Bros. & Smith, eod

The Sentinel notes with regret the death of Wade Peavy, stepson of Mrs. W. D. Peavy, which occurred in a sanitarium at Greenville, Texas, last week. He lived here in his childhood days, and visited the Peavy family occasionally afterward, but his home was at Farmerville, Texas.

CITROLAX CITROLAX CITROLAX

Best thing for constipation, sour stomach, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Stops a sick headache almost at once. Gives a most thorough and satisfactory flushing—no pain no nausea. Keeps your system cleansed, sweet and whole some. Ask for Citrolax. Swift Bros. & Smith, eod

Grave Yard Working.

Everybody that is interested in the Shady Grove cemetery is asked to come June 25, and bring something to work with. Come early and come to work.

Sam S. Arthur.

Don't neglect a summer cold. A bronchial cough causes broken sleep and lowers your vitality. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soothes and heals raw, inflamed membranes, stop tickling in throat and clears stuffy, wheezy breathing. Contains no opiates; children like it; good for all colds, coughs, croup and bronchial affections. Swift Bros. & Smith, eod low loss of flesh, or emaciation. These come from impoverished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood, stops the waste of strength and tissue, and builds up healthy flesh. Thin, pale, puny and scrofulous children are made plump, rosy and robust by the "Discovery." They like it too.

In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

Graveyard Working.

On Friday June 18 there will be a graveyard working at Fairview. Everybody come and bring tools to work with.

A Medicine Chest For 25c.

In this chest you have an excellent remedy for Toothache, Bruises, Sprains, Stiff Neck, Backache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism and for most emergencies. One 25c. bottle of Sloan's Liniment does it all—this because these ailments are symptoms, not diseases, and are caused by congestion and inflammation. If you doubt, ask those who use Sloan's Liniment, or better still, buy a 25c. bottle and prove it. All Druggists. 3

Mowed His Sudan.

Oscar Murphey says he mowed his Sudan grass, when it was not 60 days old. Some of it was seven feet high. He had only a quarter of an acre and the best estimate he can make of the yield is near 2000 lbs. to the acre. His neighbor mowed his Johnson grass, and it is far short of that yield.

A Mistake Made by Many

When you suffer pains and aches by day and sleep-disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder should be restored to healthy, strong and regular action. It is a mistake to postpone treatment. Foley Kidney Pills put the kidneys sound, healthy condition and keep them active and strong. Swift Bros. & Smith, eod

The Polk County Enterprise announces the death of John Noblitt at Trinity last Sunday. His home was in Alto. He lived here in an early day, and his brother, Charley Noblitt located the H. E. & W. T. railway or was one of the civil engineers, and resided here at the time.

Only a Few Can Go.

Those who do not have to consider expense are going to health resorts to get rid of impurities in the system that cause rheumatism, backache, aching joints and painful muscles. If you cannot go, yet feel you need relief from pain and misery, get Foley Kidney Pills. They "restore the kidneys to activity and make you feel well and strong. Swift Bros. & Smith, eod

County Clerk W. T. Orton says business in the line of marriage licenses has been quiet for a whole week. But still water runs deep.

Smith—Smith.

Mr. Clark Smith of Gilmer and Miss Lucy Smith of this city were happily married at Longview Tuesday night.

Miss Lucy is one of Nacogdoches' sweetest girls. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith. She has been visiting in Gilmer for the past three weeks where they took the train for Longview Tuesday and got married.

Mr. Smith is a promising young man of Gilmer. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Smith of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Gilmer.

Her many friends here wish them much success and happiness through life.

Constipation Causes Most Ill.

Accumulated waste in your thirty feet of bowels causes absorption of poisons, tends to produce fevers, upsets digestion. You belch gas, feel stuffy, irritable, almost cranky. It isn't you—it's your condition. Eliminate this poisonous waste by taking one or two Dr. King's New Life Pills tonight. Enjoy a full, free bowel movement in the morning—you feel so grateful. Get an original bottle containing 36 pills, from your Druggist today for 25c. 3

Is Sickness A Sin?

If not, it's wicked to neglect illness and means of relief. It's wicked to endure Liver Ills, Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, when one dose of Po-Do-Lax gives relief. Po-Do-Lax is Podophyllin (May Apple), without the gripe. It arouses the Liver, increases the flow of bile—Nature's Antiseptic in the Bowels. Your Constipation and other ills disappear overnight because Po-Do-Lax has helped Nature to remove the cause. Get a bottle from your Druggist today. Get rid of your Constipation overnight. 3

M. D. Blanton, a merchant of Swift, was a pleasant caller at the Sentinel office yesterday, Thursday. He reports crops in good shape in his part of the county.

Your Cough Can Be Stopped.

Using care to avoid draughts, exposure, sudden changes, and taking a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, will positively relieve and in time will surely rid you of your Cough. The first dose soothes the irritation, checks your Cough, which stops in a short time. Dr. King's New Discovery has been used successfully for 45 years and is guaranteed to cure you. Money back if it fails. Get a bottle from your Druggist; it costs only a little and will help you so much. 3

THAT TIRED FEELING

Do You Continually Feel Sluggish, Disminterested?

If you do, it is probably caused by your liver. When the liver fails to perform its functions properly, the system becomes clogged with poisonous matter, that weighs you down mentally and physically.

The liver gets out of order very easily, and if neglected chronic trouble usually results. Don't delay if you feel badly. You knowingly lay yourself open to lite long pain, when you allow yourself to continue in a run down condition. Cure yourself quickly and harmlessly with the natural vegetable remedy, Liv-Ver-Lax. It has all the effectiveness, but not the effect of calomel.

Genuine Liv-Ver-Lax bears the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Insist on it. For sale by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

Cow Hides Wanted.

Hides are in good demand and are bringing good prices, and it is worth while to handle them right. In skinning try not to cut or score the hide. Spread it out, flesh side up, and give it a heavy shower of salt. This is absolutely necessary at this time of the year. Fold it up and put it in a sack. Write your full name and address on two tags. Put one inside of the sack, and one outside. Ship by express to A. Golenternek & Co., Tyler, Texas.

Until further notice we will pay 13 cents per pound for hides handled according to the above instructions. We remit the same day that we receive the shipment and we also furnish shipping tags. Horse hides bring from $1.50 to $3.00 each, according to the size. We also handle wool.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, washes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine, entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Nacogdoches, Texas, to be held at Nacogdoches on June 26, 1915, to fill the position of rural carrier at Sacul and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Huge Navy Advocated.

New York, June 10.—A hundred men, many prominent in the financial world, have accepted invitations to attend a luncheon given by the Navy league today where a conference was planned to develop methods of arousing interest throughout the country in a move to increase the navy. Invitations to the conference bore the signatures of J. P. Morgan, Gen. Horace Porter, and others.

Col. Robert M. Thompson, chairman of the executive committee of the Navy league announced that the most important matter to be considered in the conference would be a petition to President Wilson, urging him to a special session of congress to authorize the appropriation of $500,000,000 to be expended as quickly as possible in providing an adequate naval and military force.

Hear the Other Side.

The Sentinel has been requested by intimate neighbors of the woman and five or six children who were recently reported to be in a starving condition, to say that, as to the husband and father being to blame for the condition, such is not the fact, and that he is an industrious, moral man, who always did more than his duty for his family, and would gladly do so yet, and that his neighbors would all testify to these facts from personal knowledge. He lives near Swift, and invites investigation.

Doing One's Best.

One sweetly solemn thought comes to me every night; I at my task have wrought, and tried to do it right. No doubt my work is punk, my efforts are a jest; however poor my junk it represents my best. If you, at close of day, when sounds the quitting bell, that truthfully can say, you're doing pretty well. Some beat you galley west, and bear away the prize, but you have done your best—in that the honor lies. And, having done your best, your conscience doesn't hurt; serene you go to rest, in your long muslin shirt. And at the close of lite, when you have said good-by to cousin, aunt and wife, and all the children nigh, you'll face the river cold that flows to islands blest, with courage high and bold, if you have done your best. No craven fears you'll know, no terrors fierce and sharp, but like a prince you'll go, to draw your crown and harp. So, then, whatever the field in which you do your stunt, whatever tool you wield to earn your share of brunt, toil on with eager zest, nor falter in your plan; the one who does his best is God's blue ribbon man.—Walt Mason.

Lewis-Andrews.

Wednesday at high noon in Shreveport, La. in the presence of several interested relatives and friends a wedding occurred which will interest all Nacogdoches. Miss Berta Lewis of this city was quietly married to Mr. Castleman Andrews of Greenville Tex.

Miss Lewis is the daughter of Judge E. B. Lewis of this city. She was reared to that beautiful young womanhood in Nacogdoches and her sweet girlish charms have won and held everyone a friend whose best wishes follow her into her new life.

Mr. Andrews is a gentleman of the highest business and social attainments. He is in the cotton business, with extended limits.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left immediately for California, where they will spend several weeks visiting the exposition. They will be at home in Greenville, after they return.

Medical Society Met.

The Nacogdoches County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting last night, Wednesday in the county court room.

There were 15 regular M. D.'s in attendance, viz: Dr. F. C. Ford, president, Dr. T. J. Blackwell, secretary, Dr. J. B. Deal, Dr. Geo. S. Barham, the last three being chosen as a permanent program committee; Dr. A. R. Sholars, of Beaumont, Dr. T. A. Mast, of Chireno, Dr. R. P. Locky, Dr. W. B. Milner, Dr. W. I. M. Smith, Dr. Ellis Mast, of Chireno, Dr. W. T. Castleberry, of Sacul, Dr. F. R. Tucker, Dr. Arthur E. Sweatland, and Dr. A. A. Nelson, Dr. M. W. P'Pool.

A paper on Trachoma, or granulated eye lids was read by Dr. P'Pool, and discussed by others and himself.

Dr. A. E. Sweatland presented a paper on Estivo-Autumnal Fever, or the disease sometimes called slow fever, and continued malarial fever, or typhoid. This brought up the subject of mosquito intection, and lead to a general discussion of the various features of this disease, by several members present.

The meeting adjourned till the first Wednesday in July, that being a called meeting for special purposes.

School Fund is Apportioned.

Austin, Tex., June 10.—Apportionment of the available school fund for the month of June was announced today by Professor W. F. Doughty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The amount apportioned is $275,000 and the per capita is 25 cents based on 1,100,000 scholastics. This make a total of $6.75 thus far apportioned out of a total apportionment of $8 for this fiscal year, the remainder of $1.25 yet to be apportioned will be for the months of July and August.

Wilson Policy is Endorsed by Texas Editors.

Corpus Christi Tex June 10.—Unreserved endorsement for President Wilson in the present world crises was voted at the thirty-sixth annual convention of the Texas Press association. The following message was sent:

"The Texas Press association in convention assembled unreservedly endorses your policy for our country in the present world crisis, and we hope that when the horrible conflict is ended, guided by your unyielding love of righteousness and peace, she shall have passed through its frightfulness without so much as the smell of fire on her garments and that this nation as the friend of humanity, and as the one power in the midst of insanity that has remained sane will be turned by the world to shape the terms of universal peace and lead in the rehabilitation of mankind."

In the list of public lands to be sold by the Texas Land Commissioner, Nacogdoches has 97 acres. It may be all in scraps or in a marsh. Other counties have large acreages, such as it is.

Dr. J. H. Barham Dead

Our entire community is in sorrow today. Dr. J. H. Barham died this morning, Friday, June 12, 1915 at 2 a. m. He had been sick nearly a year, the last few months very low. And this was practically the only sickness he ever had.

He was born at Savannah, Tenn. on the Tennessee river April 22, 1847. His father moved to Texas while Dr. Barham was a small boy, and settled in Rusk county near Caledonia, living a farmer's life and raising a family there. Dr. Barham studied medicine and graduated at the University of Louisville, Ky. and again at Tulane University, La. He first practiced medicine in Rusk county and since in 1883, moved to Nacogdoches, where he died at home surrounded by his family and by other relatives and friends.

His long residence here had connected him with the general public to such an extent and in such a plausible manner as to cause the people to think of him as a leading factor in all their interests. He was regarded as always standing up for right and public good.

Dr. Barham was barely old enough to enlist in the Confederate army at the last period of the civil war. He was a member of the Baptist church from boyhood. His wife who was Miss Ruth Garrison, of Rusk county, Texas and his two sons, Dr. Geo. S. and Emmett, and two daughters, Miss Viridian and Miss Ruth, were all at his bedside the time of his illness.

He leaves a number of surviving relatives, being a blood relation of the Perkins and Cason families here, and of others in Rusk county and Tennessee, and other relatives by marriage.

To the people who knew him and who knew his reputation it is no news to say that Dr. J. H. Barham was a man of exalted character and purposes and of the highest sense of humanity.

He was a studious and scientific physician, standing up for the best principles of his profession. He was on the side of morality, religion and right, and with a tender hearted sympathetic nature, a true gentleman, and a man of excellent worth in all ways and at all times.

Funeral of Dr. Barham.

The last tribute of respect was paid to Dr. J. H. Barham today at 10:30 a. m. when his remains were solemnly laid to rest in Oak Grove Cemetery, by a large concourse of loving friends, who showed by their demeanor that their hearts were grieved at this parting.

An evidence of the appreciation and esteem that the people had for him was manifested by the profusion of beautiful and precious floral tributes. Their splendor baffles description.

The formal religious rites were begun at the family residence and concluded at the grave, under the guidance of the local pastors, H. C. Willis of the Methodist Church, and C. A. Westbrook of the Baptist Church. Sweet solemn vocal music was furnished by the Symphony Club.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

Dr. Axson of the Rice Institute says, "The educated man is one who can deal in ideas. No other is educated."

Many relatives and friends from a distance were in attendance. Every business house in town closed doors, and every body went to the funeral.

Dr. Barham's personality was such as to endear him to all, and his praise is heard on all sides—Rest in peace.

Villa's Brother in El Paso Jail.

El Paso, Texas, June 9.—Hipolito Villa, General Francisco Villa's brother and gambling manager; Hector Ramos, Villa's secret services chief; Carlos Juarez, and two other Mexicans were arrested on this side of the river this afternoon and are now being held in the county jail on the charge of conspiring to kidnap Jesus Guaderramo, an American citizen, who was lured to Juarez and only escaped execution by escaping from the Juarez jail.

Villa's brother and his secret service chief were arrested as they were depositing quantities of gambling money in a local bank. Guaderramo was one of twelve American citizens who was taken to Juarez and a number were executed.

From Woden,

Health of our community is very good at present.

Farmers are plowing their corn for the last time, and rain is much needed.

A large crowd from here went fishing and reported a nice time and good luck.

Quite a crowd enjoyed a party at Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith's last night.

Pete (Clarence) Nichols lost a fine mule last Saturday night.

There will be singing all day at Simpson Camp ground third Sunday in this month. Every body come and help sing.

Woden has at last won her high school, and will have the material on the ground by the first of July, so as to get it completed before the first of September. We wish them success.

Last Sunday afternoon Woden and Dorr creek played a match game of ball, Woden being winner.

L. C. Smith has moved back to Frost Johnson Camp.

Our Sunday School was completely broken up by the contagious disease, which the Doctor pronounced small pox, but will soon start up again if nothing prevents.

Shady Grove community was a visitor at Woden Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Edna Gaston has applied for Woden primary teacher.

There was a singing at Mr. and Mrs. Will Daniel's last Sunday night.

Kearley McKinly and Hal King called at Billie Butler's last Saturday night. We wish them success.

It was reported the other day that Guy Butler and Donnie Jacobs got scalded at Tom Chism.

Bye bye to the Sentinel and all its readers.

W. E. Baxter Robbed.

Our well known townsman W. E. Baxter, was at Lutkin yesterday, selling out a carload of bananas that he had bought, and as he sold them out he dropped his cash into a small grip. When his receipts had run up to about $75 and his bananas were about all gone, he happened to take his eyes off of his grip, and never has seen it since. It was stolen from him.

What makes matters worse, he lost money on his deal, and then lost all he had taken in. He is a poor man working hard for the necessities of his family.

What a pity that such thieves are in existence. To catch one is very poor satisfaction for the trouble caused.

Nacogdoches is entertaining many delegates this week, who comprise the leading women of the District Missionary. This meeting is in session here this week, led by the District Secretary Mrs. Frank Martin of Lutkin.

Obituary.

In the death of Dr. J. H. Barham we have lost one of our dearest and most loyal friends. Our hearts are filled with inexpressible sympathy for those who are even more deeply bereaved. Those of his friends who knew him best loved him best. He was a sweet spirited and modest man. He was a friend whom his neighbors trusted and loved.

In his character, in his conduct and in his life he was above reproach, and all who knew him well know that this is true. Those who knew him intimately know that he was always cheerful and kind, and they will never forget his gentle greetings to the children or his devotion to his family and his home. His death has brought grief to many who have loved him for the good within him and its expression through his labors for humanity.

Fired with ambition in early youth to study medicine, he was not content with less than the best opportunities could afford. He was noted for his brilliant deductions in medical science and research. Always he embellished his visits and addresses with reminiscences of humorous import, a rare and most appropriate and helpful gift to one in his profession.

His accomplishments reveal the intense love a man may come to feel for a work into which he has put the best years of his life, the best thoughts of his mind and the devotion of his heart.

The intensity with which he struggled with the malady that afflicted him that he might render further service to humanity was indeed dramatic and touching.

By example, influence and precepts, he was most potential in lightening burdens, comforting the sorrowing, giving hope to the despairing, lifting up the fallen, and feeding the hungry.

How truly and comprehensively has the poet portrayed his character in these lines:

"Along the village streets where maples lean Together like old friends about the way, A faithful pair oft and anon were seen— He and his nag, both growing old and gray;

What secrets lurked within that old soul's breast, Of mother-love, of throb of pains and ills, All safely kept beneath that buttoned vest.

Receptacle of powders and of pills, Thrice happy he when some fond mother's eyes Grew moist with love un-speakable to find Snuggled to her breast her babe whose paradised Within her soul and bosom were entwined.

How oft he held the wrist to mark the slow Pulsations of the feebly fluttering heart,

While his kind words, soft murmuring and low, Essayed to calm the mourners pain and smart.

He was to all a father, brother, friend;

Their joys were his, their sorrows were his own, He sleeps in peace where yonder willows bend Above the violets that kiss the stone."

Ripe in age, mature in well doing, those born under his roof possess a rich inheritance, a priceless legacy, a good name.

If Heaven needed a minister, Doctor Barham is already at work.

A Friend.

Birthday Party

Little Margaret Nell Ezell, celebrated her third birthday on Tuesday afternoon with a pretty party.

The tiny Miss proved herself a most accomplished hostess for one of so few years and the sweet manner in which she entertained her guests, was most pleasing to them.

A pretty birthday cake with the trio of tapers was a most enjoyable feature, for what birthday party is complete to the junior heart without the cake. Cream cones, also constituted part of the refreshments.

It warm weather makes you feel weary you may be sure your system needs cleansing. Use Prickly Ash Bitters before the hot weather arrives; it will put the stomach, liver and bowels in order and help you through the heated term.

Henderson—Buchanan

The quiet wedding of Miss Hester Buchanan to Dr. R. R. Henderson occurred at 11 a. m. Tuesday June 15th, Rev. C. A. Westbrook officiator and little Miss Mildred Buchanan (the only grand child of the family) was the ring bearer.

In the presence of a few relatives and friends the ceremony took place in the parlor of the pretty home on North Street. After congratulations were received, the guests registered in the brides book and the wedding party went to the station to speed them with best wishes on their trip to Galveston, from whence they will return June 21st.

Miss Hester (as she is best known, having been reared here) is the sweet, lovable daughter of Mrs. J. R. Buchanan, a young woman rich in the pearls of true womanhood, and she is held in highest esteem by Nacogdoches.

Dr. Henderson is more a stranger here, having moved here as a dentist several years ago, but in these short years his dignity and genuineness as a gentleman and thoroughness as a dentist has placed him in the highest ranks of opinion of the Nacogdoches people.

Dr. and Mrs. Henderson will continue their residence in Nacogdoches after their return from Galveston.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
