Atlanta is Now Quiet

Atlanta, June 23.—While the militia still was on guard at Gov. Slaton's country home quiet prevailed both there and in the city today and there was no indication of the exciting scenes of yesterday and last night which followed the announcement of the commutation of Leo Frank's death sentence.

In the city the near-beer saloons, which were closed by the authorities yesterday, were allowed to reopen this morning and there were no crowds in the streets.

At the governor's home it was stated that the militia probably will be withdrawn tonight.

There was a wild and furious mob agitation, and a most dangerous situation. Frank had been spirited away, and is now safely imprisoned. It was a brave and manly act of Governor Slaton, in many respects.

Patriotic Platform.

Our Country, — whether bounded by the St. John's and the Sabine, or however otherwise bounded or described, and the measurements more or less,—still our Country, to be cherished in all our hearts, to be defended by our hands.

Miss Annie Nash left Monday for Shreveport and other points in La., for an extended visit to friends and relatives.

School boys and school girls in distant parts of the county are solicited to write letters to the Sentinel.

Frank's Sentence Commuted.

A privated telegram received here this morning states that Leo M. Frank's, sentence was commuted. No particulars stated.

The majority of people will approve of this, because the evidence was not sufficient to justify his conviction, even if he were guilty, and many fair minded people believe him innocent, judging by good common sense, as we see it. He had nothing whatever to do with the crime, nor did he even know of it when it happened, but he chanced to be in close proximity. He never had a fair and impartial trial. Prejudice and persecution figured in it. He was not guilty and was unjustly convicted.

County Treasurer, J. C. Fall came down Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. T. E. Thrash.

Curtis Hardeman of Nacogdoches is the guest of his cousin, Bronson Smith.

Mrs. Wilton Blakey and son, Wilton Jr. of Nacogdoches returned home Saturday after a pleasant visit with relatives.

Mesdames Mattauer and Still spent the past week in San Augustine, guests of their sister, Mrs. Lon Thomas.

Annie Mast returned to her home in Melrose Saturday after spending a pleasant week with her little cousin, Gaynell Pack.

Mr. Causey of Doucette was in the city the past week.

Mrs. Lee Goldsberry of Caro is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Wilson.

Mrs. John Wilson of Melrose was a week end guest of her sister, Mrs. H. O. Fall, Sr.

Mr. T. E. Thrash, who died at his home in Nacogdoches, Sunday, was brought here for interment Monday. Quite a number of Nacogdoches people were in attendance at the funeral.

Gaynell Pack entertained her little friends on last Friday evening, in honor of her guest Annie Mast of Melrose.

The Missionary Society delightfully entertained the ladies of the M. E. Church at the home of Mrs. Sidney S. Moss on Thursday afternoon.

As requested all brought their needle work, and the hours all passed away too soon. Delicious fruit punch was served by Mrs. A. E. Moss.

The Mother's Club met on last Wednesday afternoon. A very entertaining musical program was rendered. Honorary members present were, Drs. Cohn and Blackshear. On July 9th a Better Babies Contest, also Better Babies Health Exhibit will be given under the auspices of the Mother's Club. The contest and exhibit will be conducted in the High School building. Five competent physicians will be in charge of different physical and mental examinations of children from six months to five years. A bronze medal will be awarded the baby who has the least mental and physical imperfections. Certificates and diplomas will also be awarded. The day will be an endless attraction for all visitors. Interesting programs are being planned and it is expected that all mothers within several districts around will be present at this great educational movement. Dinner will be served on the campus. From Sacul.

Editor of the Sentinel: Very little news in Sacul this week. But according to promise will let you hear from us again.

The people are busy shipping tomatoes, but very much discouraged over prices.

The women are canning beans, beets, berries and tomatoes. Some few canning peaches; but there are not enough for all.

Our Sunday Schools are progressing nicely, the attendance Sunday was small, as a great many went to Glenn fawn to the Unveiling of Mr. Spencer Clifton's monument.

Brother Florence filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church here yesterday. His sermons were very much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. B. F. Norwood was here today looking for mules for the army but found nothing that came up to the requirements.

There are several cases of Pellagra in this town.

The home of Tilmon Hopson was made glad last Thursday when a big baby girl arrived there.

Mrs. Crenshaw from Dalmon is visiting at the home of Henry Hargis.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Several tornadoes, which we erroneously call cyclones, have passed over different states this week. One was at Clarkdale, Miss. and was very destructive.

State Fire Insurance Inspection

Ben. F. Smith and Fred Wilson special inspectors for the State Insurance Commission were in the city last Saturday, and with fire marshal Pat Murphy, made an official inspection of the city as to fire hazards, the first inspection of this kind ever made here. They gave out the following statement:

"It is indeed a pleasure for us to say that we find in Nacogdoches an exceptionally clean town from a fire prevention standpoint. We have visited a great many towns in Texas in our official capacity and we can truthfully say that Nacogdoches ranks in a class by itself as to cleanliness and a lack of hazardous conditions usually found in towns of like population. This condition we attribute in part to the excellent service your fire marshal is giving the city.

"Your good fire record for the past several years is a result of the enforcement of your fire marshal's ordinance. The department has allowed you a credit of 5c in your key rate for doing this work, but this saving is very small compared to the great saving to your people in the matter of fire waste.

"The state insurance commission is endeavoring to reduce the fire waste of the state by means of a personal and thorough inspection of every town and city in the state. It is our purpose to reduce the losses by a thorough clean-up system. The business men wherever we go are anxious to co-operate with our department in this campaign.

"Under our insurance laws, rates are based upon a just and equitable basis, and each town, as an individual, is rated according to the risk or hazard found to exist.

"Every improvement made in our towns becomes a real investment and work to reduce the cost of insurance. As a result Texas towns are building better buildings paving their streets and otherwise bettering their conditions."

Women's Work Hours Law.

The new 54 hours a week law for working women is as follows.

"No female shall be employed in any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel, restaurant or rooming house, theatre or moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph, telephone or other office, express or transportation company, or any state institution, or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed, except as herein after provided, for more than nine hours in any one calendar day, nor more than fifty-four hours in any calendar week; provided, however, that in case of extraordinary emergencies, such as great public calamities, or where it becomes necessary for the protection of human life or property, longer hours may be worked, but for such time not less than double time shall be paid such female with the consent of said female; provided, that this act shall not apply to stenographers and pharmacists."

Another portion of the law provides that girls working in laundries shall not work over eleven hours per day and that they shall receive double time for all hours over nine put in each day. An exception provides that girls and women employed in cotton mills or other factories engaged in the manufacture of woolen or worsted goods may be employed ten hours per day but not more than a total of sixty hours per week. A penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $200 is provided for any employer who violates any section of the act.—Waco Morning News.

The Ball Game Yesterday.

Nacogdoches defeated Center here yesterday, in a fast game from start to finish.

The big features of the game were the pitching of Kerkley for Center, and the fast feeding of the home team, making a flat three double plays.

Following are the scores:

Nacogdoches, R2, H5, E5.

Center, R0, H2, E3.

Batteries.

Nacogdoches, Patillo and Rulfs.

Center, Kerkley and Dukes.

Umpire, Woods.

Baseball Tuesday

Nacogdoches defeated Center yesterday in the second game of the series by the score of seven to five. The game was fast from start to finish. Center made two runs in the first inning after which Drewry pitched air tight ball not allowing the visitors another hit until the eighth inning when Crawford hit for a home run.

The score— r h e
Nac. 000 124 00x 7 10 4
Center 200 000 012 5 6 5
Umpire—Brewer. Time of game an hour and twenty minutes.

Batteries—Nacogdoches, Drewry and Rulfs.

Batteries—Center, Witherpoon and Duke.

Warning to Automobiles

City Marshal Woodlaud says he is going to be compelled to pull some auto drivers who violate the laws. He says he gets lots of complaints some of them from drivers.

Autos must observe the speed limit, honk and slow up at corners, keep to the right keep lights, and keep out of pass ways when standing. Now then, all get good.

Has Thrilling Experience

Houston, Texas, June 17.—Mrs. Daugherty of Beaumont had a thrilling experience early Thursday morning when a burglar was discovered ransacking the home of Mrs. A. H. Lawrence, with whom she was visiting. Mrs. Daugherty heard noises about 8 o'clock in the morning and noticed the flash of a light in the hall. She believed then it was a burglar, but was confirmed a moment later when she heard Mrs. Lawrence scream. The latter's husband pursued the intruder in the dark, but he escaped.

Tobacco.

Washington, June 23.—The yield and the quality of tobacco can be improved, the Bureau of Plant Industry finds after a series of investigations, by the use of potash and phosphoric acid as a supplement to barn manure. This was proved in New York and Pennsylvania. In the dark tobacco district of Kentucky it was found the liberal use of phosphates will make tobacco growing more profitable.

Malicious Mischief.

Last Saturday night, some one went into the farm of Jim Smith, a well behaved colored man who lives near Nat, and pulled up every watermelon vine in his large patch, and destroyed other truck and also tore down the fence so that live stock could travel in and out. The perpetrator is suspected.

Polygamy Question.

Ogden, June 23.—The question of plural marriage in the Mormon church will be brought before the district court here as a result of Mrs. Margaret Geddes' effort to secure a part of the David Eccles $6,000,000 estate for her minor son, was stated yesterday by attorneys for both sides when the jury was being secured. Mrs. Geddes filed an affidavit stating she had been married by a Mormon, who had the right to perform a wedding ceremony, to David Eccles in August, 1898. Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon church, has been summoned as a witness.

Learn How To Swim.

Every boy who takes advantage of The Enterprise's offer made Sunday to learn how to swim must clip the coupon, fill it out and present it at the office of the Young Men's Christian association before Saturday night, July 5. Everyone who presents a coupon must be present Monday morning, July 5, to be assigned to his hour for lessons.

This course of swimming instruction will be given by the instructors of the Y. M. C. A., and will take place in the salt water pool of the local association, which is not excelled by any other in the state.

The June Bride.

Fair bride of June, white bird of June, as lovely as a summer moon, the sweetest pebble on the beach, a joy, a vision and a peach! A truth it is—I know not why—that brides of August and July, of gusty March and placid May, must yield to you the right of way. All brides are daisies, when one tries their divers charms to analyze; they all are nature's noblest growth; when I see two I want them both; but still there's something out of tune, when bride's loom up outside of June. The month's ordained and set aside and dedicated to the bride. In June the year is blithe and fair, and has no silver in its hair, the skies are bright, the roses bloom, the winds are soft, there is no gloom, and here's the newly wedded belle, who fits into the picture well! Ah, would it might be always June, when birdlets sing and zephyrs croon; but zephyrs fail and tempest shrieks, and roses fade, and so do cheeks; the fleeting summer day departs, and Father Time will test all hearts. And when bloom is gone away, may you be just as bright and gay as you are at your bridal noon, oh, bride of June, fair bride of June.—Walt Mason

Distinguished Visitors

State senators H. P. Brelford, of Eastland county, and Jas. A. Havley, of Guadalupe county, who are members of the penitentiary investigating committee with our Senator S. M. King, came by our city on the way from Huntsville to Rusk and spent Sunday here looking at the lay of the land. They came up in an automobile, and yesterday, besides taking a survey of the immediate vicinity of the town, they went out east towards San Augustine. They left Monday for Rusk.

These gentlemen were agreeably surprised at the beauty and fertility of our red land country, and tall timbers rippling streams and rank growing crops. Yes, more, they were amazed at the general well to-do appearances, and peculiar charms of the country. Their visit was at the personal solicitation of Senator King who was heartily backed up in it by leading citizens, and the gentlemen were delighted with their experience.

Emancipated June 19th 1847
 Decoy Texas, June 20, 1915.
 The Weekly Sentinel:

Nacogdoches, Texas.
 A social gathering, in honor of E. R. Ashley, pioneer of Nacogdoches county to celebrate his sixty-eighth year since he first saw the light of day, "in Ashville, North Carolina. All present can vouch and say that, that old and distinguished gentleman, was as spry and young in appearance as almost the youngest of his grandchildren, and he enjoyed the little surprise gotten up in his honor, as highly as the youngest boy.

To him and his good wife were born ten children all natives of Nacogdoches County, highly respected and all were present with the exceptions of Mrs. E. L. Sugg of Waco, Mrs. J. W. Arthur of Latexo, and J. W. Ashley, Ellinger, Texas, Kelly Ashly of Lutkin, Tex. grandson, son of W. E. Ashley deceased. Those present will long remember that happy event on the old homestead as it fairly rang with laughter, song and mirth by all those that could possibly make themselves be heard, it was one continuous round of pleasure from early morn until the dinner hour sounded the call to fall in line for dinner at 1 p. m. when thirty-three of that distinguished old pioneer with his bride of almost half century ago lead the grand march around the large spring's all covered with shade of its large oaks that surround them. When all were seated and photographed after which they all began to partake of that sumptuous food prepared in that good old fashioned home-made-way, and in the U. S. A. "unexcelled" * * * out on the farm of mein host Mr. E. R. Ashley. Beginning after the noon day meal sports for the younger set, were set in motion consisting of running, jumping and swimming. Refreshments were served during the evening until the first rays of the twinkling stars made their appearance in the clear and cloudless sky. All well pleased with a days outing down on the farm of the one that is not only honored but loved and adored by all those who were present.

The following are those of the family that were present:

Our hosts—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ashley.

Bridal Musicals.
 Mrs. Robt. Lindsey (who so pleasingly makes it her pleasure to entertain in honor of the brides) gave a charming musical on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Emma Blount the chosen guests being the attendants of Miss Emma's wedding, besides friends and out of town guests.

Mrs. Lindsey's best artistic taste was in display in the pretty arrangement of the bridal altar in the center of the music hall. Framed in a large heart, as a beautiful miniature, sat the honoree in her summery loveliness and attending her were Mr. Hulford, on one side and her sister, who will be matron of honor. Mrs. Acker on the other with a party of dainty little tots, who sang sweetly, surrounding them. In the cool white and green color scheme, the whole was an interesting and lovely picture.

Famous, of the several intricate and delightfully musical numbers of the program, were the selections by Miss Charlie Stinson, an accomplished pianist, just returned from long months study in Chicago.

Closing this happy afternoon with the bride-to-be and friends was the serving of cream, in white and green, and cake.

 I thought I would write a few lines from this part of the Moral vineyard, as I never see any thing from here.

Health is very good now in this vicinity. Rev. R. W. Nash filled his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday, and preached a fine sermon each time.

Our protracted meeting will begin on our next regular meeting day, being Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in July. We are praying for a great revival here.

Our summer school starts next Monday, 28th, for two months, under the management of Prof. Marshall and Alice Spinks. We expect a good school.

Crops look fine but need rain. If we can get rain in time we will have peas, peanuts and pigs, hog and horminy, and will live at home next year if nothing happens. We have peas to eat now. Every body is up with their work and laying by corn.

The young people pulled off a fine ice cream supper last night at E. A. Sullivans and report a fine time.

Harmony and Mineral Springs will cross bats next Saturday at 3:30 p. m. A good game is expected.

There is to be a grave yard working on the 30th of June. Every body come.

If this doesn't go into the waste basket I may write again.

Mrs. Emma Simpson, accompanied by her grand daughter, Miss Will Eva Simpson were welcome callers at the Sentinel office this morning, Wednesday.

The Sentinel had a pleasant call from Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boozer of Shelbyville Tuesday.

How can statistics show a back-to-the-farm movement, when cities constantly are annexing rural territory?

A species of tree of unlimited growth in Natal, heretofore regarded as worthless has been found to yield a juice that contains rubber in large quantities.

Peace Conference.

Philadelphia, June 16.—Five prominent Americans speaking here tonight at a banquet sounded the first notes of the peace conference which is to open tomorrow in Independence Hall.

Mavor Blankenburg presided, one of the speakers was an ex-President of the United States, two were members of The Hague court.

William H. Taft, Hamilton Holt, editor of the Independent; George Gray, ex-United States circuit judge; Oscar S. Straus, ex-minister to Turkey also a member of The Hague court, and A. Laurence Lowell, president of Harvard, gave expression to the first thoughts of a conference, which probably will be historic in its importance.

It remained for Mr. Taft to express the concrete thought of the meeting when he made the final speech.

Historical.

University Station June 14.—Mrs. L. N. Thoop, of Austin, has presented to the University of Texas Library a number of newspapers of the Civil War period and the Texas Almanac for 1857 and 1858. The most useful of the newspapers are scattering numbers of the Navarro Express for 1860 and 1861, published at Corsicana by R. A. Van Horn.

"It cannot be too strongly emphasized that everything of this sort—that is, pamphlets, old newspapers, letters and dairies written during critical periods of the past, proceedings of political conventions, etc.—should, in the interest of full and accurate history, be placed in public depositories; and it cannot be too strongly stated that no scrap of material is too insignificant for the historian's use."

Jefferson County First to Call Bond Election For Insane Ward.

Beaumont, June 14.—Jefferson is the first county in the State to take steps to provide for the insane who are held pending their admittance to State institutions.

The Commissioners' Court today passed an order calling for a bond election July 24 to vote $25,000 for the purpose of erecting a building for this purpose.

It will be two stories and will contain four wards, with necessary rooms for attendants and will be built of brick. It is to be erected on the jail yard. There is little doubt about the issue passing.

Air Fiends

The under-secretary said, replying to criticism, that it was universally admitted that the British airmen were superior to the Germans. There was much comment on the fact that within the last two weeks three serious air attacks have been made on England, each one of which has apparently been more serious than any preceding one.

Editor Sentinel:

Nacogdoche, Texas

As I saw mentioned in the Sentinel about my trip, I will give you a little history of it up to this time. I left Beaumont with the Albert Sidney Johnson camp of which I am a member in a special car.

We had a nice trip to Virginia. When I got there I got a nice private boarding house. The people of Richmond treated us with all kindness. There were lots of old soldiers there but I do not know just how many. The soldiers marched from the Capital up to Jeff Davis', Lee's, Stewart's and Jackson's monuments, which is about three or four miles. The streets were crowded on both sides with ladies, gentlemen, and children. And on our march we had every thing to drink for the soldiers as they pass by. They showed us all the hospitality that any one could have done. Had 3 or 4 fine bands of music. One of the best ones was from Mexia, Texas. They also entertained us at the different halls at night when they served ice cream, cake, lemonade, brandy and wine. After the reunion was over, I stopped over at Hamden-Sidney College, at my great grandfathers old home, (Dr. John Peter Mettauer) I went into the memorial hall at that college, and saw his picture on the wall with many other great doctors.

I stayed all night at his old home and visited his grave. I was told by the citizens who lived there that Dr. Mettauer always wore a tall silk hat that he never doffed to any one, that he was buried with his tall silk hat and his boots on, and in his carriage, which he rode in, in his old age. He was said to be a great doctor in his day, was very eccentric in his habits which you can see by this little sketch. He died in 1875. I was treated with all kindness, because of my name being John P. Mettauer and a relative of his, I drank water out of his old spring and it was the coldest natural water I ever drank in my life. This was the first or second college of Va., and he was the organizer and first president of this college. There are 13 large brick houses now enclosed in this college yard. They look to be very old but a most beautiful grove, green grass all over it, and has paved side walk. This college is seven miles from a railroad, but is a beautiful country. There is a large fruit crop in Va. and Ga., the largest I ever saw, of all kinds. I am stopping off at Gainesville with brother Joe and this is a beautiful town, and nice people. Joe has a nice place here and his wife is doing this writing for me. I am going back home to Rockland by the 30th of June and if you will write me there, I will give you the whole history of my trip I am going to stop over at my old home in Talbot county and see some of my old friends there. I want to stop at Mobile Ala. and see our old friend Dr.

W. R. Jackson's family. Oh how I wish you and many other Nacogdoches boys could have been with me on this trip. I am sure you never would regret it. Hoping to meet you in the future I am, Yours truly, J. P. Mettauer.

Mexican President

Washington, June 15.—Manuel Asquez Tagle, minister of justice in the cabinet of Madero, who has taken no part in revolutionary activity in Mexico since Huerta's coup in February, 1913, has been practically agreed upon by leaders of the Villa-Zapata coalition as acceptable to them for the provisional presidency should an agreement with the Carranza faction be possible.

Tagle was the only cabinet minister who did not resign when Huerta overthrew the legally elected Madero administration. He left Mexico City then and has since lived in the United States.

Astor Donates $100,000.

London, June 16 (4:33 p. m.).—At a meeting today on behalf of Red Cross funds, the Marquis of Lansdowne announced that William Waldorf Astor had opened the subscription list with a check for $100,000.

New peaches are not plentiful in town, and not apt to be plentiful. They are selling at 25c per basket. Two varieties are offered, neither being much larger than large hen eggs.

Henry Watterson Scores W. J. Bryan.

The noted Kentucky editor Henry Watterson, has been antagonistic to Mr. Bryan's politics from away back, and now he has reached a climax in a most scathing editorial in which he not only calls Bryan down on his latest blunder, but recites his blazing blundering career in the past, and includes his personality, his political morality and purposes, all in the hardest kind of lingo in which Mr. Watterson is a master, and in his characteristic dictatorial style, which has brought him the sobriquet of "Marse Henry."

As to the pith of what he says it is only necessary to state here that he sees in Mr. Bryan's latest act, a perfidious blunder, following upon a long list of previous ugly doings, and followed by an intended and designing outburst which is growing fast and is expected to grow greater. And, to put it in expressive slang, Bryan's name is mud in Watterson's vocabulary, or words to that effect.

To Inspect Buildings.

Austin, Tex., June 16.—Every city and county in the state will be affected, when the act passed at the regular session of the Legislature providing for state inspection of county and municipal buildings becomes effective on June 20. This law provides that an inspection shall be made by inspectors of the State Inspector of Masonry of every structure, costing $25,000 or more. This law specifies that one per cent of the contract price of such buildings shall be paid into the state treasury for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the inspector in connection with the work. This law was passed at the regular session of the Thirty-fourth Legislature and was opposed by many of the architects of the state. The enactment of this statute means the addition of several inspectors to the force in the office of the State Inspector of Masonry. All plans and specifications for such structures are to be made by the state inspectors.

Summer School Opens.

Austin, Texas, June 14.—The University summer schools opened today with an attendance of approximately 1000, and this number is expected to be augmented during the week. Dr. Eby of the University faculty is in charge of the summer school while Prof. S. E. Blair of Corsicana is in charge of the summer normal. The course will continue until July 31. There will be five recitations in each course weekly, Monday being given as a holiday. Instructors from prominent high schools in the state and men from first rank colleges of the United States compose the teaching force of the schools.

Youngest County Judge.

Shelby bears the distinction of having the youngest judge in the state to preside over her county affairs. Not only is this a distinction, but he also is a distinguished son of Center. Only twenty-seven years of age, yet he is ripe in legal lore; quick and just in his decisions, he possesses a wonderful clarity of vision in the legal intricacies of the law. Fearlessly he holds the scales of justice in which the cause of rich and poor are weighed aright, but if one could be favored it would be the poor, for it Judge Hoya B. Short has a failing it is that he leans "to mercy's side."—Shelby Optimist.

Penitentiary Probe. Senator S. M. King of Nacogdoches was in the city Sunday afternoon, shaking hands with his many friends. Senator King has lately been engaged with the committee in an investigation of the affairs of the penitentiary, and in substance says that he is finding a rotten state of affairs existing in the management of these great institutions. For instance over ninety thousand dollars a year is being paid in interest upon store accounts, and the whole system is being operated at a constant loss making it a constant drain upon the state treasury. The committee is not through with the investigation, but enough has already been seen to insure that some radical changes in the conduct of affairs will be recommended.—Garrison News

Big Log Rolling at Center, June 29

Letters have been received from Governor Ferguson announcing that he will be present on June 29, and deliver a speech to the members of the Fast, Texas Log Rollers' Association. The governor will come by way of Dallas, and will be joined at Longview by Mayor Bodenheim at the head of the Gregg county delegation, who will come in on a special train, chartered for the occasion.

State Senator T. H. McGregor will also be present and will deliver an address of "The Duty of the Citizens to the State." C. Lamity Bonner, the editor of K. Lamity's Harpoon, has also accepted an invitation and will sing several old time songs that were popular in the days of our grandparents, such as "Barbara Allen," "Sweet Belle Mahone," "Shoo Fly," and others.

Center is making preparations to handle possibly the largest crowd that was ever assembled in the history of the city. The International & Great Northern and the Houston, East & West Texas, and the Santa Fe railroads have announced a rate of one and one-third fare for the occasion.—Ex.

The Summer Task.

The days grown hot, and we must swat, with energy unceasingly, yea, we must rise and soak the flies, to keep them from increasing. If we pass by a single fly, it soon will rear a million and they will raise in summer days four hundred thousand billion. And they'll produce, while running loose such swarms of filthy critters, such host of flies, they'll hide the skies—so let us not be quitters. Go forth and swat in humble cot, and in the lordly palace, swat left and right, keep up the fight, until you break a gallus. Strike stalwart blows, and crush the toes, or later you will rue it, and I'll sit here throughout the year, and tell you how to do it. I'll sing you lays to cheer your days while you the flies are potting, I'll praise your zeal with gladsome spiel, but I'm too fat for swatting. I'll urge you on from golden dawn until night's shades are falling but, like most guys whose words are wise, my acts are mostly stalling.—Walt Mason

MRS. MABEN WAS MADE WELL

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Wants Other Suffering Women To Know It.

Murfreesboro, Tenn. — "I have wanted to write to you for a long time to tell you what your wonderful remedies have done for me. I was a sufferer from female weakness and displacement and I would have such tired, worn out feelings, sick headaches and dizzy spells. Doctors did me no good so I tried the Lydia E. Pinkham Remedies—Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash. I am now well and strong and can do all my own work. I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and want other suffering women to know about it."—Mrs. H. E. MABEN, 211 S. Spring St., Murfreesboro, Tenn.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for nearly forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why Lose Hope. No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Prof. Day Re-elected.

The people of Garrison Independent School District and particularly the student body, will rejoice to learn that Prof. Day has been re-elected superintendent of the schools of this district. At the time this report was prepared he had not filed formal acceptance, but it is not necessary, because it is not his nature to leave a people who love him so well and who are doing everything in their power to sustain him in the great work he is doing, so The News will take the responsibility to say that he will preside over the next session with the same or even greater enthusiasm than characterized his former efforts.

Prof. Shaver has also been re-elected as principal, but it is not known yet whether he will accept. He, too, has fallen very much in love with Garrison and her people, and we are sure that he will come back if it is practical for him to do so. The other teachers have not been selected, the superintendent and board of trustees preferring to take plenty of time and get the best possible for the money available.—Garrison News.

Some of the big papers, and smaller ones also, write long editorials about "Cut the Weeds," and "Swat the fly." It would do about as much good if they would try it out on "Weed the Cuts," and "Fly the Swat". Nobody heeds either, and every body needs neither.

Women Protest.

New York, June 16.—Many women suffragists who have forwarded checks to the city treasury in payment of taxes have inclosed with their checks protests on the historic ground that "taxation without representation is tyranny"
