Ex-Governor Colquitt has promulgated the platform upon which he expects the people of Texas to elect him to the United States Senate next year. Colquitt is a shrewd politician, loves a scrap and has never lost but one political battle; but it will surprise a great many of his past political friends if he is even close to successful in his present aspirations. However, the contest will doubtless narrow down to Mr. Colquitt and Congressman R. L. Henry.—

District Court From Monday's Daily:

The regular fall term of dist court in and for Nacogdoches county met today and was organized by presiding Judge L. D. Guinn, with C. C. Watson, clerk and A. J. Spradley, sheriff.

The grand jury is as follows:

V. E. Simpson, foreman; Ben T. Wilson, W. L. Burnaman, R. B. Walthall, L. C. Brown, J. M. Stalling, W. E. Legg, L. N. Liles, Joe R. Day, R. H. Baxter, S. H. Pittman, John S. Doughtie, Door bailiff, John Burrows, Riding bailiffs, M. S. Mucklevoy and J. E. Mattison.

Judge Guinn gave a brief verbal charge to the grand jury. He devoted it chiefly to the methods best calculated to aid in the investigation of offences.

He then turned the grand jury over to the sheriff, who was duly sworn, and instructed. The jury was then escorted to their room. They selected their own door bailiff and riding bailiffs.

The district attorney had arrived when the grand jury qualified.

Our City Water

There was a leak in the water main on North street, near Hospital street, that happened a few days ago, and in order to repair it, the water had to be cut off up about Power street, and the emergency pipes used carrying the water in a circuitous route. We are now using the artesian water.

Negro Man Killed.

From Tuesday's Daily:

A negro man named Thad Spurlin was struck on the back of the head yesterday, Monday evening with a heavy piece of iron, and he lived only a few hours later. He skull was fractured This occurred at the Frost-Johnson mill in the south-eastern suburbs of town.

Peter Jones came and surrendered to the shreiff and is in jail. The difficulty had arisen before this occurrence in a trivial dispute.

The plant of the Frost Johnson mill was closed today to allow all of Spurlin's friends to attend the funeral. He has been in the employ of the mill for a large number of years and was well thought of.

AN ATROCITY.

Under the above heading the Austin American comments upon the fact of twenty one insane people being taken from the Houston jail to the San Antonio Insane Asylum...

The point is that insane people are unfortunates who should receive the very kindest care, and should not be placed in a filthy uncomfortable jail.

Bexar county landed the first assessment rolls for 1915 in Austin.

What to say about the Mexican situation is a puzzle. But it looks like Carranza's faction is in the swim, and Villa is willing to quit.

The Hunnington Herald, Vol. 6 No. 1, is an anniversary issue, and a big one, too, quite a respectable one.

The state treasury, at the opening of the new fiscal year, Sept. 1, had a cash balance in the bank of $400,000.

The Bryan Eagle says that Dabney White, of Tyler, who is a leading ginner, is going to fight the new ginners law, and the Eagle wants him to win the battle against what it calls a freak.

And now the talk is that some European powers will send representatives to Mexico, and thus recognize Carranza as the de facto ruler.

Jacksonville is to send an exhibit to the Houston Carnival, and forward it from there to the Dallas Fair.

The Beaumont Fair, at Beaumont, Nov. 12 to 20th, 1915, has issued an attractive booklet, or Premium List, and rules and regulations.

You don't want to miss that fair, unless it rains down there, during the fair.

The Louisiana State Fair of Shreveport has issued an attractive paster. The dates are Nov. 8 to 8, and the admission is low.

Quite a squabble is going on in Texas relative to the enforcement of new warehouse and gin law, which requires the taking of three samples from each bale of cotton.

Russell on Warehouse

To the Sentinel:

It looks like there will be a greater demand for the South's cotton crop of this year than for several years before. The crop will undoubtedly be short and unless it is rushed on the market it ought to bring in the neighborhood of twelve cents.

It is within the power of the farmers now to fix a fair price upon their crop, or sacrifice it by rushing it upon the market.

The new warehouse law compels the ginner to prepare the cotton for warehousing. This will do but little good unless a bonded warehouse is operated within their reach.

No privately owned warehouse can answer the purposes of one operated under the supervision of the government.

Farmers should get together in mass meeting and the county should be canvassed for membership and subscriptions to stock.

Very sincerely, A. T. Russell.

Jess Willard and Temperance

Whatever any man thinks about the literary or other value of Jess Willard's series of articles, there is no question about his having demonstrated that where a man is naturally endowed with a strong body and internal organs and cultivates his physical powers, and most of all keeps free from whiskey, he has done much to teach a very valuable lesson.

The whiskey question has ceased to be wholly one to be made the basis of prohibition battle. It has come to be a question of hygiene and economics, and, leaving aside the good and moral question involved, it is as relates to health and efficiency destined to become every day a more important question.

COUNTY INSTITUTE.

The Teachers' Institute of Nacogdoches County Will Convene in The High School Auditorium in the City of Nacogdoches September 13, at 9:00 A. M. in its Regular Session As Is Required by the Laws of the State of Texas.

All teachers who are to teach in the county for the year 1915-16, are required under the laws of the State of Texas to attend this Institute five full days.

Last year the County Institute used Charter's "Teaching The Common Branches" and all the progressive teachers who were in the Institute then are supplied with this book. This book will be the basis for all work in the Section Meeting and is required by the State Department.

This book can be had now at the drug stores in Nacogdoches.

If you are a teacher who expect to stand in the front ranks and mean business in a professional way, you should have this book in your library as your own property and should become thoroughly familiar with its contents.

In the Section Meetings the leaders are expected to quiz you very carefully concerning the teachings of this book, and the leader will be requested to note your answer as to what Charter says about it and not what YOU THINK about it. In my opinion this is the only way for the leader to ascertain as to whether you have studied the book closely. In your study of this book I think it well for you to be able to quote verbatim the number of expressions in the book.

Let's come together in this institute as a band of teachers fully resolved to make it a success and thereby each teacher be benefited. With enthusiastic co-operation this institute can be made a success and thereby each teacher be benefited to a very great extent and no one will have occasion to feel blue or feel inclined to criticize what has been done or what has not been done.

Each of you remember that you are a part of the institute and are held personally responsible for its success. The most appropriate way for you to make it a success is to make YOUR part of it a success.

Thursday, September 16th, will be trustees day at the institute and on this day we shall be very glad to have every trustee in Nacogdoches county present the entire day, beginning at 9:00 a. m. and closing at 4 p. m. I realize that the trustees cannot attend this institute without a sacrifice but I believe it is worth the while and every trustee who would accept the responsibility as a trustee should be willing to sacrifice this much for the success of the school. Remember that signing papers is a very, very small part of the duties of trustees, and if you will come together with us in our institute we will be able to impress you of the broader and more important duties. If you should come to this institute let me urge on you that you do not come to town on other business and at the same time figure that you will drop into the institute for a few minutes to see what the teachers are doing.

If you do this you will get only enough from the institute to make you feel that the time is being thrown away by the teachers, since what you get will be only fragmentary and uninteresting to you. I will say to the teachers that your influence in your district will be noted in this institute by your success in bringing out your trustees. So let's see what you can do with them.

For the week spent in the institute the teachers in the county who have contract on file draw their regular pay as if they were teaching. The State of Texas does not propose to pay teachers for time merely SPENT in the Institute, but rather for faithful SERVICE for the ENTIRE WEEK of the Institute. This provision of the law has been criticised by a number of people as a mis-appropriation of the school funds. This criticism frequently comes from a teacher himself who feels that he is not being benefited and by investigation you will find the teacher who is in this frame of mind is not benefited, since he spends his time in taking a back seat and whispering to his neighbor and yawning. Another class of people who see fit to criticise this provision of the law are what we call "tight-wads" and their only means of classifying one school above another is the length of term, regardless of the quality of work done.

Just here let me say to the citizens of Nacogdoches county that the most important thing I see now for the school to look to is the quality of the school rather than the quantity, giving us comfortable houses, proper equipment, live, efficient teachers and let us do in four months what we are now doing in six months and let the child be back on the farm or in the home assisting the parents in earning a living.

In addition to the request on the part of the County Institute for the trustees to attend, the County School Board of Nacogdoches county has issued a call for you to meet them on that date and place your application together with your explanation of your fitness to do the work concerning your classification. The law requires that the County School Board do this and it also requires that you respond and in case you should not respond, the Board will be justified in giving you the lowest classification possible, since one of the main basis of classification is school interest in the district.

All friends of education are cordially invited to attend these meetings, view the work in progress, and get better acquainted with the loyal band of teachers who have pledged head, heart and hand in an earnest endeavor to raise the standard of education in Nacogdoches county.

Respectfully,
John B. Stripling,
County Superintendent.

BIG SWINE SHOW

IN NEW BUILDING.

Attracted by the premiums offered and the opportunities open to those with fine blooded stock for sale, many swine breeders are expected to exhibit at the Louisiana State Fair this year, November 3 to 8, as heretofore. There is every reason to look for a fine show of fine hogs from different parts of the country, for the competition in the general swine show is to be open to the world.

Besides the premiums and opportunities for sales, another big inducement to the swine breeders at the Louisiana fair is the accommodation promised. There is a fine new concrete building, with 24 pens and with flowing water and other equipment for keeping everything clean and sanitary, and it is at the disposal of exhibitors.

F. S. Hamilton of Downsville, La., will again be superintendent of this department. The judge is T. B. Pearson, Thorntown, Ind.

For catalogue and premium list apply to Louis N. Brueggerhoff, secretary, of Shreveport.

FOOTBALL GAMES

FOR NOVEMBER 6.

Football fans will be royally entertained at the Louisiana State Fair, November 3 to 8 inclusive. Two high classed college games have been booked, to be played on Saturday, November 6, which is designated School and College Day.

The contests will be between the Universities of Arkansas and Louisiana, and the Louisiana Industrial Institute of Ruston and the State Normal School of Natchitoches. The Ruston-Natchitoches game will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, while 4 o'clock is the hour set for the Arkansas-Louisiana contest. This will be the third battle on the Louisiana State Fair gridiron between these universities.

Both of these games will draw many rooters. Large crowds from all the colleges represented and from other educational institutions are expected as holidays at most of them are planned for that day.

There will be at least three college bands on hand, from Baton Rouge, Ruston and Natchitoches, and plenty of meritism is assured. For further information write to L. N. Brueggerhoff, secretary, of Shreveport.

PREMIUMS FOR CORN EXHIBITS.

Premiums aggregating $500 have been set aside for general corn exhibits to be made at this year's State Fair of Louisiana, November 3-8. The corn industry has become one of the leading agricultural industries of the state, and it is planned by the fair association to have its importance demonstrated through exhibits, lectures and other state fair features. The crop this year is the best in many seasons, and some extraordinarily good specimens will be shown.

The display will be made in the agricultural hall, and will be in charge of Prof. A. F. Kidder, as superintendent. Prof. Kidder is agronomist at the Louisiana University.

This exhibit does not include the corn of the boys' clubs.

For catalogue apply to Louis N. Brueggerhoff, secretary, Shreveport, La.

STATE NOMAL BAND ENGAGED BY FAIR.

Music at the Louisiana State Fair this year will be furnished by the crack band of the State Normal School of Natchitoches, La., which consists of about forty pieces. The members are well trained and under the direction of an able leader. They are all talented and are enthused over the engagement to entertain the visitors to the fair.

There will be concerts each day in the grandstand, and the band will also furnish the music at other parts of the grounds, and for various occasions. By engaging this band the fair association is encouraging home talent and aiding home institutions and at the same time promising the visitors to the fair something good.

For catalogue of the fair, which opens November 3 and runs six days, apply to Secretary L. N. Brueggerhoff, Shreveport.

LOUISIANA SWINE BREEDERS' DISPLAY.

Plans are splendidly developing for a large display of Louisiana raised hogs at the State Fair at Shreveport this year. There will be liberal prizes awarded, and the competition promises to be unusually keen owing to the spirit of rivalry that has been created among the swine breeders of the state.

E. L. Jordan, as superintendent of the Louisiana Swine Breeders' Department, will be in charge of all these exhibits, giving personal attention to hogs whose owners are not on hand. The owners are invited to ship their exhibit swine to him, and under his direction the animals will be unloaded, penned, fed, sheltered, handled during the fair and then loaded and shipped back, all this service being at a cost of only $2.50 per head.

For catalogue and premium list apply to Louis N. Brueggerhoff, secretary of the State Fair, Shreveport. Remember the date of the fair, November 3-8.

State Fire Inspector Visits Nacogdoches.

Mr. Fred Wilson, Special Fire Inspector for the State Fire Insurance Commission, has been in our city for the purpose of locating and reporting to the Commission at Austin all conditions that can be corrected or removed which experience has shown to be the most frequent causes of fires.

The State Fire Insurance Commission is now, and has been for some time, engaged in making a rigid inspection of practically every city and town in the State and, after the inspection of the city or town is completed, is taking up with its city official the question of eliminating or correcting the hazardous conditions found. Many dangerous fire hazards exist in almost every city or town of the State and, in many instances, they are due to lack of a proper conception of the latent danger that lurks in such conditions. For example, the careless and improper handling of volatile oils has been, and is now, almost daily the source of very destructive fires.

Poor electrical wiring, improperly installed gasoline lighting systems, gas engines gas heating devices; the accumulation of rubbish, paper, trash, empty boxes, barrels, etc., each and all create a hazard that may, at any moment, break out in a serious fire or even a conflagration.

The Commission believes that, if it can have the enthusiastic support and co-operation of the various cities and towns, manifested by the adoption and enforcement of the proper fire prevention ordinances and the carrying out of the instructions of the Commission, which is also making a close investigation of every suspicious fire brought to its attention, that the annual fire waste in this State can be very substantially reduced.

The commission will be very much gratified if fire waste can be reduced and kept to a point where a general reduction in the rates to the insuring public will be justified; however, the Commission must be governed by the scientific fact that whatever the fire waste is, so must be the rate. If the waste is high, the rate must be high; if the waste is low, then the rate can be low. The average loss ratio for all companies reporting to the Commission for the year 1914 was 81:6 per cent.; when we add to this the expense of doing business, the agreed average of which is 35 per cent., we readily see that there was an average underwriting loss to the companies doing business in Texas in 1914 of more than 16 per cent. It this kind of showing is repeated for 1915, a raise in rates will be the inevitable result. Therefore, it is to make such a showing as will preclude such a contingency arising that the Commission is now directing its energies, and to which end the support of all city officials, the insuring public and the citizenship in general is desired.

BANK BUYS BONDS

Commercial Guaranty State Bank Best Bidder

The Board of Trustees of the Nacogdoches Independent School District sold the $45,000 00 in bonds to the Commercial Guaranty State Bank.

This institution, it will be remembered, bought the $57,000 00 City Bonds issued a few years ago. They also in the past few days bought the $12,500 00 bond issue of the Woden School district. In each case the Commercial bid was the best submitted.

Nacogdoches is fortunate in having an institution with connections that enables them to handle these issues at part thereby saving money for the tax payers.

Baptists To Meet

Austin, Texas, Aug. 30.—Over 5000 delegates are expected to attend the state Baptist convention, which is scheduled to be held here for a six day session, November 16-27. The meeting will be held at the capitol, the men will meet in the hall of the house and the women in the Senate chamber.

The Army We Need.

To maintain an enormous standing army of the old fashioned kind would be too expensive, and would produce the incidental evil of militarism. But to make training for military, and other forms of public service a part of the necessary education of every boy, would not only entail comparatively little expense but would so heighten and intensify the efficiency of the average young citizen as to repay the expenditure many times over.

Beaumont Journal.

What is Preparedness.

There seems to be a great divergence of opinion in this country as to what constitutes preparedness for war. One man would have Uncle Sam don a suit of armor heavy enough to weight him down, make of himself a walking arsenal and spend all the money he can get his hands on for munitions.

The further progress of the European war makes it more certain every day that we have less cause to fear that some foreign nation can sail across the seas and land enough troops on our shores to thrash the stuff out of us before we can get started.

If any considerable number of troops have been conveyed by water and landed on the shores of an enemy's country during the present war, the press dispatches do not disclose it, and that such a thing will happen before the close of the war is hardly within the realm of probability.

Those brethren who are inclined to throw a fit every time they contemplate the danger of some foreign country sailing over and licking us should take a cold bath and think about something else.—Beaumont Enterprise.

State Railroad Commission

For several years the Texas Commission has been finding its powers gradually hampered by Federal Court decisions, by decisions of the Interstate Commerce Commission and by a general tendency on the part of the Texas railroads to disregard the Texas Commission and appeal for Federal rather than for State relief. The Texas Commission has sought to protect itself and yet it has failed to seek that protection with the proper degree of vehemence, and thus has it placed itself in a position to get into trouble, for time after time has it issued certain orders which have been disobeyed.

The Abilene Reporter is another Journal that thinks the Rusk iron furnace should be reopened, saying: "The Reporter has always believed that there were competent men whom the state could secure to operate the plants and industries that should be operated to make the penitentiary system self-supporting, and it is a reproach on the fair name of the state to fail to do it. Honest men can be secured to manage the affairs of any city, county or state if the right efforts are put forth and the right man at the head of institutions means success."—Beaumont Enterprise.

Belgium

It has been 100 years since the celebrated battle of Waterloo in which Wellington's British army vanquished Napoleon's brave French army. The battles of this day in Belgium can not be compared to that in any respect. The number of killed and wounded in one day now is beyond comparison with that time, and probably as great as the entire French army was there.

Bonded Warehouse for Nacogdoches County

In a recent issue of one of our county papers I read an article written by the Hon. Angus T. Russell on the bonded warehouse question. I agree with the gentleman, and believe that a bonded warehouse in Nacogdoches would benefit everyone living in the county. The reason, as far as I can see that this matter has not been discussed is for two reasons: The ignorance on the part of the rural population of the county as to what a bonded warehouse means for them and their cotton crop and the selfishness of the people who have made a business of taking crop-mortgages at 10 per cent interest and in a good many cases charging more than the legal rate on this kind of mortgage.

A bonded warehouse in this county would mean to the farmer that he would not have to sell on a low market in order to meet his debts. If such a warehouse was here, he could take his cotton there and receive a certificate up to 75 per cent of its value which would be good in any National Bank in the United States. The Secretary of the U. S. Treasury has placed in the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas five million dollars to be loaned on farm products through the local National banks at 6 per cent interest. This means that if our cotton was stored in a bonded Government warehouse, (no private warehouse would do) the parties owning the cotton could borrow money on it at 6 per cent interest with which to pay off their debts, instead of paying 10 per cent as is the custom here or having to sell their cotton on a low market and letting the other fellow hold it and make the extra profit, which by rights belongs to the farmer, and which through ignorance on his part he has allowed himself to be robbed of.

The local National banks need not use this money unless they want it, or unless the farmers of the locality insist on 6 per cent interest loans on their cotton, but this rate of interest can only be obtained on a receipt from a bonded warehouse.

If such a warehouse was in Nacogdoches the loans would be made through the Stone Fort National bank. If that bank, because of having other funds to loan, and upon which it could demand a higher rate of interest, refuses to accept the warehouse, receipt, then you can present it at any National bank in the state. I do not think however that the local bank would refuse the receipt from the bonded warehouse unless the holder was foolish enough to agree to the higher rate of interest.

The law requires that 6 per cent of the stock must be in the hands of the farmers, therefore the farmers have control of the business, but owing to the lack of business training of a large percentage of the rural population and their lack of interest in such matters, although they are for their good, it is doubtful if they organize, unless some public spirited citizen of the city having farming interest takes the lead.

We have heard a lot about co-operation lately in Nacogdoches especially at the recent meeting of the South and East Texas Progressive League at which several of our town people spoke. Now is a chance if our people are broad enough in their views to co-operate and save the cotton crop of the county. Our merchants and bankers must know that a mortgage ridden rural population will never bring prosperity to any town. We have that condition here and last fall when the cotton market went upside down the merchants not only of Nacogdoches had faces as if they were going to their great grandmothers funeral, and they had good reason for feeling that way, because the credit and mortgage system of doing business is all wrong. Therefore let Nacogdoches pull together and have a bonded warehouse. You 10 and 20 per cent money sharks be men and not parasites. Stop living off the sweat of little children and women working in the cotton fields to make a scant living, when the children should be at school getting an education which they are being deprived of through the present system of high interest crop mortgages and the sacrifice of their cotton crop. A bonded warehouse here will change these conditions and the Texas Experiment Station stands for everything that will help the farmer. Geo. T. McNess, Station No. 11.

Paternalism

In the old time political vocabulary, the word paternalism was largely listed among the bad. It seems to have been omitted in modern days. But it ought not to be forgotten. It means get the government to shoulder our personal burdens, to build our fences, dig our rivers and do our ditching

The Czar of all the Russias has taken personal charge of all of his great armies. He may become Nicholas the Great, like his predecessor became Peter the Great.

President Battle (pro tem president) of the University of Texas has returned and will contend for his office, which Governor Ferguson is opposed to his holding. There is other opposition. Whenever a school superintendent has strong opposition it is time for him to resign. Better step down gracefully than be kicked out disgracefully.

A GOOD ADVERTISER.

The Tyler Courier Times boasts of an advertiser in that town, who has never missed having an ad in an issue of that paper since its birth, eighteen years ago; and the firm mentioned is perhaps the paper's biggest advertiser, nearly always running half-page ads. The firm alluded to is that of Mayer & Schmidt. And for many years prior to that they were liberal users of newspaper space. For years and years, when the writer was connected with a Tyler publication, this firm ran half-page ads, and more, every day. And their monthly advertising bill amounted perhaps to more than the average merchant's house rent.

And it was not a matter of sentiment with them. They did not advertise as if they were handing the newspaper something, "to help it along, you know," but they helped themselves along, until they became the leading store, and the biggest store. And through advertising they have continued to hold that position.

And if you should ask the management of that firm today about it they would very promptly tell you that they had sooner close their doors than discontinue their newspaper advertising. We know, because we know the management, know the firm, know the store; and know them to be live wires, and standing well up to the head of the big merchandising firms of Texas.

And there are others who can bear strong testimony as to the value of newspaper advertising.—Palestine Herald.

The Sentinel takes special pleasure in the above comments, and in saying that they refer to our worthy business firm, Mayer & Schmidt, who started here in 1878. They were a couple of German boys, with no capital but pluck and fidelity to right, strangers in a strange land. But such men always have friends. And their business has grown into larger dimensions, and spread into other towns.

And we can confirm and enlarge upon their sense in advertising in their home papers. The Haltom papers were here then and they have carried liberal advertisements for Mayer & Schmidt from then until now, without cessation. Mayer & Schmidt's career has been remarkable in other ways than mere financial success. They have been notably public spirited and humanitarian. In proof of this they have always enjoyed the kind appreciation, as well as the confidence and patronage of the public. The lamented Abe Mayer left an enviable reputation here as a gentleman, and our John Schmidt is as highly esteemed here now as any man among us, or in East Texas.

Good roads is a topic that has become monotonous, but it ought not to be abandoned. Wherever good roads have been tried they have proved a god send and have been applauded by every body interested.

Free Scholarship in the School of Your Choice

The Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, is positively the only business college in the state which teaches a thorough course of practical modern bookkeeping and business training. Other schools teach theoretical bookkeeping some of them call it actual business, but it is not. The commercial room of the Tyler Commercial College is a community of business houses of various kinds, Banks, Wholesale, Commission, Real Estate, Retail, Insurance, etc. Each student is engaged in real, active business learning to do by doing. Every entry made by the student during his entire course is originated by an actual sale or purchase; it may be grain, it may be groceries, dry goods, real estate or stock in a corporation but the transaction, is really performed and every paper required in the transaction, whether check, note, draft, receipt, mortgage, deed or what not, is filled out by the student. Partnership contracts are drawn up and agreed upon between the parties forming the company. Articles of incorporation are drawn up thru these practical methods the student learns business as well as bookkeeping; they learn how to meet one another face to face and transact business in a business way, instead of copying theoretical transactions from a text book, as is done in every other commercial school in the state. It takes more teaching force and better teachers to teach our systems and methods; our teachers are not only teachers of Bookkeeping, but they must be well informed on business customs. When a student learns to do a thing by actually doing it, he learns it thoroughly, and with our practical face to face business methods we are able to give the student a thorough course of both bookkeeping and business training in less time than he could possibly get the theory, or so-called practical bookkeeping alone in other schools.

We will give a free scholarship in the school of your choice to anyone finding another school in this state teaching both bookkeeping and business thru practical business transactions as we do. Similar practical methods are used in teaching shorthand, typewriting, cotton classing telegraphy and business administration and finance. We believe in learning to do in the school room that which you must do when going into the business world, and it is this policy that has made the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, the largest school of the kind in America. Write for large free catalogue explaining our original methods of teaching and securing positions.

Obituary.

On Monday, Aug. 30th, at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Mary Muckleroy, wife of J. H. Muckleroy, died at her residence, about 1 1-2 miles north from Martinsville. She was buried at Swift cemetery Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a very large congregation, and it is probable that no funeral in Nacogdoches county was ever attended by as great a number of relatives of the deceased as was this. Her former pastor, W. L. Heflin, officiated at the funeral.

Mrs. Muckleroy had been afflicted for many years, and for the past few months had been in feeble health, but her death at this time was very unexpected. She and her husband had attended church at Mt. Moriah, Saturday and Sunday. She prepared dinner, as usual, Monday. After dinner she and Mr. Muckleroy took their customary siesta. At about 2 o'clock Mr. Muckleroy arose and went to the door of her room. She seemed to him to be sleeping soundly, and not wishing to disturb her, he started to go to his work, but after he got out, for some unexplainable reason, he decided to go back, which he did, and when he went into the room and up to the bed where she was lying, he found her dead.

Her maiden name was Mary Bentley. She was born in Nacogdoches county on the 28th day of December, 1847. She married J. H. Muckleroy Dec. 17, 1868. She was the mother of ten children, seven boys and three girls, seven of whom, six boys and one girl, survive her. She also had seventeen grand children, and two great grand children. She lived her entire life in Nacogdoches county, and all of her children are living here. At the age of sixteen she became a member of the Methodist church; but, in 1875, she and her husband joined the Baptist church at Melrose. A few years later they moved to Martinsville and transferred their membership to Pilgrims Rest church. When the Martinsville Baptist church was organized she became a member of it, and has been ever since. She was a devout christian, loved her church, and always attended the services; and next Saturday, for almost the first time, her seat in the conference meeting will be vacant.

As before stated she had for many years been afflicted with a sore leg, and no one knows how much she suffered, but she bore it all without a murmur. She found comfort in reading her Bible and to her sympathizing husband she would often say "God's will be done." Her greatest trial came only a few months ago when her son Tomie died very suddenly. After this, while she still retained her cheerfulness, and as of old, met every one with a smile, it was obvious to all that life here had few allurements to her, and she often prayed that when her time came she might die just as she did die.

While the death of Mrs. Muckleroy was a great shock and has cast a gloom over the entire community, and while we heartily sympathize with her husband, children, and numerous relatives in their great bereavement, still, when we reflect upon the ideal life that she led; that she had not an enemy on the face of the earth, that all who knew her, knew her as a good christian woman, it seems that to wish her back is to begrudge her the joys of Heaven. Let us therefore learn a lesson from her great patience and humbly bow to the will of Him who "doeth all things well" ever remembering that

When the sands of life are run
When all our labors here are done
We may meet her on that shore
Where sad partings come no more.

A Six Mile Swim at San Antonio.

A six-mile swimming race will be staged at Lambert's bathing beach, Monday, Labor day. W. Thomas Crouch has arranged the race and several local swimmers already have signed to take part. Advice

If you'd avoid fight
In your married life,
Be sure you are right
And then ask your wife.

Carranza denies that his men trespass upon Texas. Call trespassers what you please, just so they are silenced, on the spot.

We cannot quite agree with the statement that the woman of today outstrips all her predecessors. There was Eve—but why make comparisons?

Wishing for it is easier than working for it, although it may not get much in the way of general results.

Remember, young man, her old folks have an eye on you all the way from Will-You-Be-Mine to Bless-You-My-Children.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

The Armless Man Did It

San Diego, Sept. 2—The blind man visited the San Diego Exposition some months ago, and declared he derived as much pleasure from "sightseeing" as a person whose vision had not been destroyed. Now comes the armless man to the Exposition. The strangest part about his visit is that he arrived in an automobile which he had driven from Schenectady, N. Y. He is Albert Stevens, and when he pulled his machine up in front of the California Building at the Exposition to receive the congratulations of President G. A. Davidson, the speedometer read 5100 miles. On the run across the country Stevens was accompanied by his wife, and many side trips were made.

As result of an accident many years ago Stevens left arm was amputated at the shoulder and the right one at elbow. On his car Stevens had the gear shifting levers and breaks arranged so that he could operate them with his feet. He steers the car with the stub of his right arm the steering wheel having upright pegs into which the stub fits. Placing this half arm between these pegs, Stevens moves the upper part of his body so that he can steer the machine with ease.

Bailey Willing to Run in 1918, Not Next Year

Ft. Worth, Sept. 3—Joseph W. Bailey, addressing 200 friends at a private outing on the country place of John A. Stevens, near Covington, Hill County, Thursday afternoon, called socialism the menace of the hour, said there were men in Texas who could rid the democratic party of its influence and that if they needed his help he would be willing to make the race for the United States senate again in 1918. He said he would not be a candidate in 1916.

No newspaper reporters were present.

The war in Europe runs on the same. The German armies are pushing the Russians along slowly. And it seems as if this will not stop. There is now and then a word said about peace, but no ray of hope is seen. The great fight on the Dardanelles continues. So it looks like the allies will take Constantinople, and the Germans will take Petrograd, in the end.

Lynchers Not Found Out

The grand jury at Marietta, Ga. failed to find out who lynched Leo Frank. Every body there may know, but dare not tell. And to blame Georgia for the lynching is not fair. The governor who committed Frank's sentence said all good people approved his act, and the present governor condemns the lynching.

Is Making Good

Judge L. D. Guinn held a three weeks term of Court in Tyler during July, acting for Judge Heath, who has been sick for quite a long time and who has since died.

During these three weeks Judge Guinn almost cleaned up the docket, or rather all the cases that could be brought to trial. He disposed of sixty-three criminal cases, including 7 murder cases, and 29 convictions.

It every District Judge in the State was as conscientious in the discharge of his official duty as is Judge Guinn there would have been no need for the last Legislature creating five new district courts, as was done. In speaking of Judge Guinn's record in holding the Tyler Court, the Troup Banner says:

"The way Judge Guinn of Rusk, acting as special Judge at the present term of the Smith County District Court is cleaning up the docket and disposing of cases not only a "Caution to sinners" but it is a source of pleasure to his friends. He is setting an example which other District Judges ought to follow. There is a whole lot of talk about reforming the judiciary system of our State. That doubtless is needed, but it every District Judge in this State would "put 'em to the bat" like Judge Guinn is doing and not stand for any monkey business either from lawyers or those summoned to serve on juries, justice would be administered much better than it is."—Rusk Press-Journal.

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 1—A United States mail carrier at the San Antonio post-office who has been on the payroll of the government for the last 30 years has been suspended from the service for 30 days without pay by Postmaster George Armistead as a punishment for making the remark "That if the United States and Germany should engage in war, he would desert this government and join the German army."

New Industrial Board Qualities

Austin, Texas, Sept. 2—The new industrial accident board, composed of Senator T. H. McGregor of Austin; Henderson Fowler, Cameron and J. H. Fricke, Galveston, qualified today and entered upon the discharge of their official duties.

FAIR AND CLEAR—that's the way your skin will be, if you'll take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Pimples, blotches, eruptions, and humors are utterly banished by this medicine. It takes away, more thoroughly and certainly than anything else, the blood poisons or impurities that cause them.

For every Skin, Scalp, and Scrofulous affection, no matter how it came, the "Discovery" cleanses, builds up, strengthens, and invigorates every part of the system. Eczema, Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, and the worst Scrofulous Sores and Swellings are completely and permanently cured by it.

Mrs. W. L. YERKON, of 402 S. Tennessee Street, McKinney, Texas, says:

"I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and found it a wonderful medicine. Was greatly benefited by its use. I think it is a fine blood tonic—good for children. Hope it will do for others what it has done for me."

Use of School Building

"Unfortunately," says Dr. Perry, "a large number of young people, in the heyday of life, are devoting their ample margin of energy to passive amusements and degenerating satisfactions. What holds the young people back from profitable pastime is lack of meeting places and of leadership. Suitable meeting places and wise leadership would, for a vast majority of them, change the evenings of waste and drifting into times of unbuilding and character-strengthening. The opportunity which society need for this purpose it possess in the vast equipment of the public school which lies idle otherwise during the period of popular leisure."

Sulphur Mining in Texas.

Near Freeport, Texas, sulphur is produced from beds approximately 1,000 feet below the surface. The sulphur is melted in place and can then be raised to the surface by means of an air lift. Superheated water at a temperature of 386 degrees F. and under high pressure is forced out into the sulphur-bearing formation. The water penetrates the deposit and melts the sulphur (whose melting point is 239 degrees F) which then flows into a pipe from which it issues at the surface and runs into bins. These are constructed of boards which are raised as the mass increases the bins finally reaching a height of 30 to 35 feet. The sulphur promptly congeals on exposure and after a few hours assumes the true sulphur yellow.

The Hunters.

And already there are enough hunters in the field to keep the game wardens busy. Real sportsmen never make trouble for the game wardens, however. The game hogs pester them and they in turn pester the game hogs. Any man who does not respect the game laws of the State should be troubled. For the game laws have been designed to protect the various species. It is important for their conservation that they should be protected. It is the duty of the State to protect them.—Austin Statesman.

The Rio Grande border of Texas from El Paso to Brownsville, which is a distance of about 1000 miles, is in a great state of excitement and confusion, because of Mexican bandits, robbers and renegades, pretending to be revolutionists. There are not so many of these lawless devils, but they terrorize the entire land. They are rapidly disappearing, when they appear. There's a way and a reason.

Crops Not so Good.

Reports from farmers in different sections of the county are unfavorable as to the probable outcome from crops in general.

It is said that the rains of the storm on Aug. 17th, and succeeding days, were very damaging in several ways. One way was that cotton, peas and sweet potatoes all went to weed, and failed to fruit. The stalks and vines grew rank, but no new fruit comes on, and the cotton plant shed profusely. Peas are in the same condition. Hay and feed stuffs are not damaged so badly, nor corn. The corn crop was about all matured, but the winds blew some of it down, and the rains rotted some of it. A fair crop of corn will be gathered, but the yield of cotton and peas will fall behind, possibly 50 per cent. And the sample of cotton is yellow and dirty as now being picked.

To Extend Track

The Nacogdoches & Southeastern Railroad will begin work immediately on a spur track to the Nacogdoches Compress Co. This will greatly facilitate the handling of cotton to the compress from points on their line.

The general officers of the company were here Friday and after looking over the situation it was decided to begin work immediately so as to be able to handle cotton to and from the compress this fall.

Jews to Fast and Pray

New York, Sept. 1—All the Orthodox Jewish synagogues throughout the United States were notified today that September 5 had been set apart as a day of fasting and prayer. The proclamation revives the old Jewish custom of establishing a time to fast and pray on account of national tribulation.

The proclamation was made last night at the great synagogues of the Orthodox Jews here after imposing ceremonies attended by 100 rabbis from all over the country. Speakers told an immense congregation of the sufferings of their brethren in Asia and Europe.

It was ordained that on each of the Jewish holidays now approaching a silver collection should be taken up in every synagogue for the Jewish war sufferers. It is hoped that $1,000,000 will be raised in this way.

May be Cholera.

New York, Sept. 1—The results of bacteriological examinations were awaited today to determine the nature of the disease which has placed the Hamburg-American liner President Lincoln, under strict quarantine. Fifteen persons aboard the steamer are ill and extraordinary precautions have been taken because the symptoms resemble those of Asiatic cholera.

The President Lincoln is one of the German liners tied up in Hoboken since the beginning of the war.

Rail road trains are now running into Galveston. We expect early papers now.

NOT THE ONLY ONE

There are Other Nacogdoches People Similary Situated.

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Nacogdoches residents? After you have read the following, quietly answer the question.

The Timpson Fair management are contemplating setting aside a Nacogdoches day. The Nacogdoches High School Football team will probably play with Shreveport that day, if the plans turn out with favorable weather an excursion will be run from Nacogdoches on that day and no doubt many of our citizens will take advantage of it.

Cow Hides Wanted.

Hides are in good demand and are bringing good price and it is worth while to handle them right. In skinning try not to cut or score the hide. Apportionment $6 for Next School Year.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 1.—At a meeting of the state board of education held today the board fixed the state scholastic apportionment at $6 for the years 1916-1917. In connection with this action the board made this statement.

"The state board of education fixed the apportionment last year at $8, but only $7 has been collected and paid and therefore to take care of the $1 deficiency brought over from last years apportionment this years apportionment had to be cut in like sum of $1. The rate last year should have been $7, and had it been so the state board of education would have been enabled to apportion an equal sum of $7 this year."

This means a total apportionment for the scholastic year of $7,678,706, based on a total of 1,132,800 scholastics in the states.

Orosco Killed

Pascual Orosco is dead. He was a great trouble maker in the "land of God and liberty," and was trying to do Texas. If there was a rebellion or a revolution in Mexico he was in it. He was arrested with General Huerta in El Paso, but he escaped as usual. Then he crossed to Mexico and scouted slyly and crossed back to work Texas.

He was leading a bunch of bandits, or robbers on the Rio Grande. He got his dues. Uncle Sam's boys shot him dead in a skirmish. He was a real dare-devil, and it required three shots to settle him. He is dead and the world is no worse off.

Joe Bailey recieved a great ovation at Houston. Also a most pressing invitation to visit Beaumont. And Nacogdoches "also ran." If Joe Bailey cant come to us cant we nevertheless go to him, sooner or later.

Rio Grande Mexicans

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 2.—United States troops today are trailing a band of Mexican raiders, who set fire to and partially destroyed a railroad trestle 14 miles north of Brownsville shortly before midnight. Special troop trains from Brownsville, Harlingen and San Benito were hurried to the scene about 2 o'clock this morning. Reports at 10 o'clock said the Mexicans had not been overtaken.

The trestle was fired shortly after the regular midnight passenger train had passed, indicating, officers believe, that the band had no desire to endanger the train or its passengers. It is believed this band was composed of Mexicans living on the Texas side of the Rio Grande, as that stream is at flood stage and the current is very swift, making it impossible to swim horses across.

Colonel R. L. Bullard, commanding the lower border patrol, was a passenger on the train which passed over the trestle just before it was burned.

Cavalrymen and infantry are being spread out rapidly from Fort Brown in an effort to surround the Mexicans who set fire to a railroad trestle 14 miles north of here after midnight this morning and who have been chased by cavalry since about 2 o'clock.

Fear of Sequel

It is feared that the Mexican renegades on the Rio Grande will seek revenge for the killing of Orozco by the U. S. soldiers and the Texas authorities. The big bend is alive with armed forces to defend the residents and ranches. Sheriff Edwards leads a posse. The Mexicans have several half organized bands of outlaws, ready for any deviltry. One of these clans is called "Colorados" or Reds.

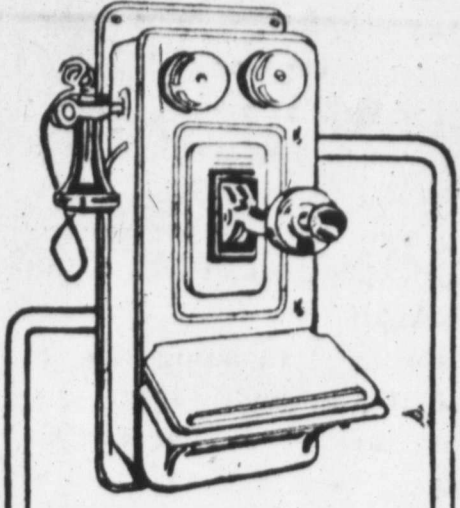

Great Britain's Credit

In big money circles of the world, and also in the United States, there is great excitement over the value of English money. This money has gone down amazingly and the damages resulting are incalculable. It affects commerce in many ways, and to an extent that is beyond the ordinary.

Which Goes First.

An editor wanted to write up the marriage of Mr. Clarence Lord and Miss Minnie Helper. He was up against it when he started to write a heading with the two names in the customary way connected with a hyphen and also as to which name goes first the lady or the gentleman. He first fixed it thus: Lord-Helper. That looked too much like Lord help her So he changed it to Helper-Lord, and this sounded worse. Then he lost his head, and it would not do to write what he said, or even to say what wrote-but it might be guessed thus: Oh,hello! Lord-mercy-I don't see how to help'er.

In Portsmouth England an effort has been made to educate people on the control of cancer, and it seems to be beneficial.

Sudan Grass Fine

The Sentinel gave out a lot of dope on Sudan grass early in the year. This was done because of evidences that came along through the papers from those who had tried it. One instance of testimony was from the lamented Judge Tom C. Davis, of Center. It was convincing. But people in Texas sometimes hardest to show than from Missouri. They said "On I'll wait till the other fellow tries it" They did not see that the other fellow had already tried it and made good.

George T. McNess, Superintendent of the State Experiment Station, has this year tested Sudan grass again. He mowed two tons of cured hay to the acre on four acres the first time and has just mowed it the second time this yield being as good as the first.

Yesterday Aug. 31, he mowed nine acres, five of which was sowed June 10. This five acre was fifty one days old from date planted. The yield on all nine acres is very encouraging.

Oscar Murphey has had the third mowing from his little crop and is sure of another mowing. His yield is better than expected.

W. T. Wilson is convinced from a big test that Sudan is here to save the farmer here.

Joe Clevenger thinks so. In short Sudan is a God send to our Section.

Hunting in Texas and the Federal Migratory Bird Regulations

Washington, D. C.—The approach of the hunting season makes it desirable to bring to the attention of sportsmen the fact that where State laws do not agree with the regulations under the Federal Migratory Bird Law the Federal regulations are paramount and should be observed. Under the Federal regulations it is unlawful at all times to hunt or kill robins, and it is unlawful at any time before September 1, 1918, to kill bandtailed pigeons, cranes, swans, curlew, and any of the small snipe or shorebirds.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my household work. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my household work, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give

Swain May Recover

The following press dispatch will interest old timers here, because they will remember that Hugh N. Swain killed C. W. Jones, of the insurance firm of Jones & Crouch here in the long ago. Jones had moved from here to Houston, and there had an office in the same building that Swain and his father did. Jones was supposed to have been a witness against the Swains in a business transaction. H. N. Swain was tried and acquitted. His wife shot him five times in the case referred to below.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 31.—Hugh N. Swain, 39 years old, Dallas lawyer, who was shot and seriously wounded late yesterday by his wife, at their home here, had good prospects of recovering, according to physicians today. Mrs. Swain, who claimed self-defense, was released on $750 bond shortly after the shooting.

Attorneys for Mrs. Swain said today the shooting was "a clear case of self-defense," details of which would be made clear at the preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Germany and the United States have come to an amicable and mutually satisfactory agreement. The German press praises Wilson and the Americans are delighted to sing his praises, all except Roosevelt who has not been heard from yet, but will be on the other side from Wilson, if possible.

A Forger Caught.

Late last Saturday evening a negro presented a check to W. G. Hillenkamp, bookkeeper for Tucker, Hayter & Co., who cashed it for $18 25, drawn in favor of Jim Wade and signed J. W. Christian. The check was drawn on the Stone Fort bank and when presented for payment Monday it was pronounced a rank forgery. Sheriff Spradley was notified and begun an investigation. The check had been issued by J. P. Clevenger for $2.00 in favor of Ed Johnson and was numbered 4513. Clevenger's check stub revealed the secret of the forgery and Ed Johnson was sought by the officers. He was found this morning and now numbers 16 in the county jail. The pursuit and search for the negro was participated in by several parties. Jim Christian brought him in.

City Council

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held at the city hall last night. All members were present except Aldermen Tucker and Marshall.

Business ran along in a deliberate manner from the start, and the session held on late.

The heaviest matter that came up was the negotiation for a street flusher. This means a big heavy water machine on wheels—wheels inside, too—There is one here now on trial, and it has not proved satisfactory. Mr. Childress, the agent for it, proposed to put another in its place, but no final agreement was made. It was decided to give this one another test Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock in the presence of the officers. But the signs of a deal were small.

W. T. Wilson appeared before the council with a proposition to buy a small corner of ground near his ware house lot at the depot. A temporary case was granted him, and a future deal was favored.

J. C. Harris presented a matter for O. E. Hubbard, and the council, after patient hearing, ordered release of Mr. Hubbard from further obligation in the matter which involved ownership of a piece of machinery.

Hal Tucker presented a request, or suggested the new, for more lights on Starr avenue. The suggestion was accepted.

There was a lot of other business attended to mostly of routine character, but essential to the run of the city government, all of which was carefully considered.
