Released On Bond.

Constable Luther Prince of Garrison brought in Wade Claybrook last night who furnished bond in the sum of $250 after reaching the city and was released.

Claybrook is the young man who cut Julius Shipp at Garrison yesterday afternoon. From the constable the reporter learned that Shipp was cut in four places, three of the wounds being inflicted in the unfortunate young man's arms and one in the side near the heart. The most serious injury was in the left arm, which was cut to the bone, and from which the loss of much blood was sustained.

So far as we can learn the trouble originated in a boyish quarrel.

The Iowa Separator

"GRAND PRIZE" winner at the Panama Exposition. The Superior Jury of awards at the Panama Exposition in final review and decision awarded the GRAND PRIZE to the IOWA Separator with the Curved Disc Bowl. Separators from all the world were exhibited but the IOWA was the winner. It was the only machine exhibited with a Sanitary Disc Cleaner.

There is a reason why the IOWA gained the "GRAND PRIZE." It was the best Separator and the Superior Jury on awards knew it.

We want you to see the IOWA in our store,—we want you to give it a thorough try-out. The winner of the GRAND PRIZE should be good enough for you if it is the best Separator in the world, and this is the honor that it holds.

District Court

The work of taking testimony in the Burkhalter case is proceeding very rapidly, and will possibly be concluded today. The prosecution rested awhile before noon and the defense has since been introducing witnesses.

Every inch of the ground is being closely contested by the counsel on each side, and much interest is being aroused in the trial.

Train Load of Soldiers Passed Through

A train bearing five coaches loaded with soldiers, a baggage car, four cars of stock and four cars of artillery passed through Nacogdoches this morning, returning to Meridian, Miss., from San Antonio where they had been for target practice. The train made the trip via Shreveport and Houston, and was in charge of Superintendent Roy Walker and Passenger Agent E. J. Anderson.

The train spent about one hour at the depot, and was witnessed by many people.

Barn Burned

The barn at the home of Mert Blackburn burned last night about nine o'clock.

The Fire Department made a prompt response to the alarm, and did good work in saving other property, but the fire had gained too much headway to save the burning building.

The property belonged to C. E. Richardson, and he estimates his loss at $150. Mr. Blackburn's loss is estimated at about $50.

Lunacy Trial

Mrs. Mattie Shannon of Maytown was tried in the county court this morning on a charge of insanity, and adjudged insane.

Mrs. Shannon has hitherto been confined in the asylum, from which she was discharged and seems to have suffered a relapse.

Constable Luther Prince of Garrison and her husband left over the T. & N. O. this afternoon with the lady for Terrell where she will be committed in the asylum for the insane.

Cotton Crop Estimate

Washington, Oct. 4.—A heavy decline in the condition of the growing cotton crop almost double the average decline of the last ten years, during September, has decreased the production prospects forecast earlier in the season by almost a million bales. The department of agriculture today estimated the crop at 10,950,000 equivalent 500 pound bales, which would be the smallest crop since 1909.

The condition of the cotton crop of the United States on Sept. 25, 60.8 per cent of a normal, compared with 69.2 per cent on Aug. 25th, 73.5 last year, 64.1 in 1912, and 68.3 per cent, the average of the past ten years on Sept. 25. That announcement was made at noon today by the crop reporting board of the United States department of agriculture, in its final condition report of the season.

The Sept. 25 condition indicates a yield of 168 pounds of lint per acre, which, applied to the planted acreage less the average abandonment—1.3 per cent—indicates a total of 10,956,000 equivalent 500-pound bales, compared with 16,135,000 bales ginned last year. Final results probably will be above or below the amount indicated, according as conditions after Sept. 25 are better or worse than average.

A Fish Story

Judge R. W. Hall of Amarillo, one of the big men of Texas, and a noted lawyer orator and wit, while spending a couple of days in the Stone Fort city this week, told of the sport he had been having fishing about Henderson and Nacogdoches, and eating bass and white perch until the mere mention of fresh fish made him feel weak at the stomach. In fact he said his utter satiety with fish for the time being, could be well illustrated with the old negro preacher's description of Jonah and the whale.

Uncle Ephraim, describing this Biblical occurrence to his congregation, said "Now you see in dose days dis man Jonah was a good man but sometime he was kinder trifling, like some of you brethern. And de Lord he commanded Jonah to go down to Ninnevah and preach de gospel and while Jonah intended to obey de Lord he didn't go right along and do so, but kinder loitered around and de Lord again told Jonah to hurry along and go down to Ninnevah and preach de gospel. Well now Jonah he got ready but des like some of you niggers he liked to go fishing, and so he stopped to go fishing wid a crowd what was going out in a boat, and while dey was out in dat boat dey got caught in a mighty storm and de balance of de crowd jes throwed Jonah overboard to keep de boat from sinking and you heard about how de whale come along and picked Jonah up and swallowed him, and kep him swallowed for three whole days and dea de whale he flinged Jonah up. Now when Jonah hit de dry land he was so sorry he had trifled wid de Lord's command and, so glad he had got out of dat whole dat he struck out for Ninnevah across de hills makin' double time, and as he was hurrying along he passed by aunt Mirandy's cabin and she lowed to him "Good morning Mr. Jonah, where are you goin' and what's your hurry?" And he lowed back dat he was going down to Ninnevah. She says to him, well wont you stop and and rest awhile, and he says, "No I'm in a mighty hurry. And again she says, "yes you must stop and eat dinner wid me, I've got fresh fish for dinner." And right dare Jonah he stopped and flung up and flung up and hurried away from dar begging aunt Mirandy to please never to mention fresh fish to him again.

In spite of the lack of outside aid the state department of health will continue to wage a campaign against the hookworm disease, although the work will not be done on so extensive a scale as when the Rockefeller funds were available. State Health Officer Collins is making every effort to obtain the cooperation of school superintendents and county health officials in those localities where the disease prevails. — Galveston Tribune.

Think Will Banish White Plague.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 25. Physicians who have spent years in the study of tuberculosis declared today at the closing session of the seventh annual meeting of the American Association of clinical research that the cure evolved by Dr. Jefferson D. Gibson of Denver, Colo., retiring president of the association, is one that in ten years ought to place tuberculosis among the relatively nontatal diseases.

Dr. Gibson mentioned the cure in his address opening the meeting on Thursday and described it in detail in a paper at today's session. It provides a cure by adding X-rays, ozone and static electricity to the climatic and dietetic treatment now common in tuberculosis hospitals. By this method, he claims the presence of the disease can not be detected in robust persons, even before the well known symptoms begin to form and cures can be effected in advanced cases in remarkably short time.

In his paper today Dr. Gibson said:

"It might seem that I have allowed my enthusiasm to run away with me in studying this cure, but I think a feeling of gratification at least is justified when I say that out of 757 cases thus far treated there have been only sixty-one deaths. I wish to state now with emphasis that the X-ray will finally bring about the emancipation of the human race from this dreadful scourge. In a few years when the method is better developed, it will be a disgrace for a physician to allow a case of tuberculosis of any kind to progress to an advanced stage because the X-rays even now find the incipient ten years even before the symptoms form."

Governor Leases Land

Dayton, Texas, Sept. 29.—Governor Ferguson has leased pasture land near Dayton in Liberty county, and is stocking it with fine cattle. Fred Stevens Jr. of Liberty has charge of the farm, and reports the grazing land in fine shape and the prospects excellent.

Cattle on Dayton prairie and in the Trinity river bottoms are in splendid condition. Capt. Ed Pruett and son shipped five carloads of cattle to market Monday night. They were shipped to the packing houses in Houston. All cattle shipped were in prime condition.

The Katy railroad, one of the great systems of the country has been thrown into the hands of a receiver. The embarrassing positions in which some of our best railroads find themselves bears out the contention of railroad men that the roads are compelled by law to operate under charges that do not permit of profitable operation. Of course bad management may be a factor, but the heas of railroad are practically unanimous in declaring that the charges for their service fixed by law are too low. If they are correct, the charges should be revised upward. — Beaumont Enterprise.

Fosters Forecasts.

Some years ago W. T. Foster of St. Joseph, Mo., began publishing long range weather forecasts. At first few people paid any attention to his prognostications, but eventually readers of papers in which they were published began to notice them, and later to watch, mostly through curiosity, to see how near Foster would come to the mark.

Either some surprising accurate guesses or some correct calculations were made, and it was not long before the Missouri man had a large following, who relied almost implicitly on his forecasts.

Foster has always maintained that if he had at his command the resources of the federal weather bureau he could do much better work. A few years ago the weather bureau officials were inclined to make sport of long range weather forecasts, but of late years the bureau has taken up the work itself to a certain extent and now makes forecasts for a week in advance.

Foster predicted the August hurricane, and on September 11 he published the following:

"We have been giving still more urgent warnings of the awfully destructive storms during the week centering on October 4. That immensely great disturbance will produce another very dangerous hurricane in the Caribbean sea and Gulf of Mexico, but it probably will not follow the path of the August hurricane. However, all should be prepared, even in the path of the August hurricane, as it is not possible to definitely locate the coming great hurricane."

A week later Foster's forecast contained the following: "We must repeat our fears of very dangerous storms during the week centering on October 4. They may not reach you, but you should take no risks."

These predictions concerning the first storm period of October were for the week centering on October 4—three days before that date and three days after, and when this is written the hurricane reported to have struck New Orleans, the wires leading out of that city being down.

These and many other predictions made by Foster which have been fulfilled lead one to the belief that he has something better than a system of guessing, for tropical storms are not so numerous that one may make a wild guess at dates on which they will strike.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

Mrs Ferguson Buried

Temple, Texas, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Fannie Ferguson, mother of the governor, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in Salado Cemetery, following a rief funeral attended by her four sons, her only daughter, her brother, and many friends of the family. Mrs. Ferguson was buried beside her late husband, Rev. James E. Ferguson, who died in 1876. The service was conducted by Rev. E. R. Patterson and "Dearest to the Heart of Her" was sung at the grave.

The four surviving sons are Governor Ferguson, Prof. A. M. Ferguson of Sherman, J. L. Ferguson of Hale Center and Alvah E. Ferguson of Salado. Mrs. Pope Morgan Harkel is the daughter and Captain J. T. Fitzpatrick of Waco is the brother.

On account of his mother's death, the governor did not open the Hill County Fair, designating C. C. McDonald to represent him.

Aw. Now, Come off

You tellers over the way can blow but Nacogdoches buys as much cotton and seed also, and pays as much for all such, as any town in East Texas. The professional cotton buyers are here with the money, and the merchants are here with the goods, and the scramble and competition are here. The way is so clear that none but the blind can fail to see. So, the other towns may vainly toot their horns louder, for he that tootheth not his own horn, in such cases, the same it shall not be tooted.

To Take Oral Testimony

Austin, Texas, Oct. 1.—Oral testimony is to be taken in the habeas corpus hearing scheduled for next Monday in the Court of Criminal Appeals of ex parte Dabney White of Tyler, which involves the constitutionality of the permanent warehouse law. It was learned today that 16 witnesses have been cited to appear in this case. This is rather unusual to offer testimony in such a procedure. Judge Ned Morris of Palestine, attorney for Mr. White, reached here today and is conferring with Judge C. M. Cureton, first assistant attorney general who is representing the warehouse commission.

One law firm in Texas has collected Eleven Thousand Dollars for legal services and advice to the Pison Commissioners, and still have an account for services unpaid amounting to $8,778.15. In the window of an up-to-date millinery shop a living model displayed for the admiring crowds that gathered on the sidewalk and in the street, the styles of hats and neck turs that will be worn this fall and winter. A large number of hats were shown and in the artistically decorated window the pretty woman who acted as the model wearing the new hats made a very charming picture. The people crowded so that it was hard to find a place before the window.

The Cherokee Sun has a big display ad or page in box car letters, about this, Saturday, Oct. 2, being agreed upon as Dollar Day, in Rusk, for the farmers. The spiel is that Rusk pays so much more for cotton and for seed than the adjoining counties, that farmers from these other counties are hauling these products to Rusk. Therefore the merchants there are so grateful that they have set apart this as Dollar Day, to cap the climax.

Marshall Court Disarms Crowd

Marshall, Texas, Sept. 29.—Clarence F. Hall, a principal in the Marshall Hotel tragedy on February 18 last, was placed on the stand here today in this case of Mrs. John Rogers vs. the Casualty and Fidelity Insurance Company, in a suit for recovery on a policy. During the session, while Mr. Hall was on the stand, S. P. Jones, counsel for the plaintiff, asked the judge to disarm the witness, after the witness had admitted that he was armed. The judge immediately adjourned court.

This afternoon, everyone entering the court was searched, and no one allowed to enter armed, with the exception of officers.

Hall, on his arrival in Marshall a few days ago, was given a deputation by Sheriff Sanders and allowed to carry a pistol, in view of the fact that he claimed his life had been threatened.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out" if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless, Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and see how you feel tomorrow.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Nacogdoches Walloped 'Em
The Nacogdoches Foot Ball boys took everything in sight in the game played with the Henderson boys at Timpson Saturday.

The score read six to nothing, and the only reason they didn't get the "nothing," too, is that this numeral is an unknown quantity of too doubtful value.

With the increasing acreage in peanuts, and the profitable crop it has proven to be, we should have a large peanut oil mill somewhere in East Texas with which to manufacture the raw product. Nacogdoches is an ideal place for the location of such an industry, and it could be cheaply and substantially added to the cotton seed oil mill.

Our Mr. Haltom is in receipt of a letter from O. E. Hubbard, a former citizen of this city but now of Clarksville, where he is president of the light company, in which he says he is getting along nicely, that his section is spending $400,000 on good roads, and that a big county fair will be pulled off at Clarksville at an early date. In conclusion he extends best wishes to all Nacogdoches friends.

The story is old, but the philosophy of it is ever new: "When the duck lays an egg she rises from the nest, shakes her feathers and waddles silently down to the pond again. When the hen lays an egg she sets up an uproaring cackle which lasts for ten minutes." The market calls for the hen egg, and the philosophy of it is that it is the best advertised.

In 1895 at this time of the year cotton was selling at 5c. And cotton seed was hauled out into the field as fertilizer or fed to cattle. That was twenty years ago in the good old times.

A Colorado Millionaire's Estate
Noticing in the San Augustine and Center papers that Judge S. W. Blount, of this city, had been in San Augustine and Shelby counties recently, assisting in taking testimony in the suit for the millions of W. S. Stratton, deceased, now pending in the courts of Colorado; the Sentinel man asked Judge Blount about the matter and the phase of the case, attracting local interest in the adjoining counties, and he states substantially as follows:

W. S. Stratton was a carpenter in Colorado Springs, Colorado, in 1873 and 1874, then became a mine prospector, and later discovered the rich Cripple Creek Gold field out of which he, in a few years, realized a fortune of ten million dollars, and died about 8 years ago, a bachelor, and willed his millions to the foundation of a charity, known as the Stratton Home, for the care of poor and afflicted people.

About 1907 a woman by the name of Mrs. Kenedy, living about Leadville Colorado, appears upon the scene, and claims that she was the widow of Stratton and as such entitled to one half the ten million dollars. That she was married to Stratton in San Augustine or Shelby County, Texas, in 1874, and that they went to Fort Worth and after a few weeks, Stratton deserted her and took what money she had, and disappeared toward Colorado, and she never heard of him again until shortly before his death; that in the mean time, she, in 1876, in Navarro County, Texas, without obtaining a divorce married a man named Kenedy, who died some years later.

This woman was a widow Poor, who lived in Tyler County in 1872, and who, in January 1874, was passing through San Augustine County, and met Stratton, a cowboy whom she married and proceeded to Fort Worth.

In 1909 this claimant made a contract in writing (which is recorded in Colorado) with R. L. Parker, of Center, who is now 86 years old, and who was clerk of Shelby County, in 1874; by which she gives to Judge Parker one fourth of her interest in the Stratton Estate (one fourth being about $1,250,000) to get up the evidence to show that she was married to Stratton.

Judge Parker testified last week that he personally remembered a stranger driving up to the court house door in Shelby County about January 1st 1874 and getting licence to marry; that the stranger gave his name as W. S. Stratton and the woman's name as Mrs. Poor. That the license was afterwards returned as executed by a Justice of the Peace named Loggins, in San Augustine County and the license and returns were of course destroyed when the court house was burned.

In his hunt for evidence Mr. Parker also found two men in San Augustine County who say they were present at the residence of old man John Henry, January 1st 1874, and witnessed a marriage of a man named Stratton to a woman named Poor, who were

Big Mill Burns
Lake Charles, La., Sept. 30 - The mill of the Peavy Byrnes Lumber Company, two miles from Kinder, was partly destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The blaze started in the engine house and raged for three hours, burning the power plant and half of the mill. The fire finally was placed under control by the fire-fighting force at numbering 300, and residents of Kinder. The loss is placed at $75,000, covered by insurance.

The above refers to the mill operated by A. J. Peavy, who is the chief owner and lives in Shreveport. He and his wife are known here, but are better known about Lutkin where they formerly resided.

The bench of Texas has sustained a distinct loss by the death of Hon. John Archer Read, judge of the Sixty-First judicial district.

He discharged the duties of his important trust with fidelity and efficiency and was enshrined in the affection of the bar.

He sought to do right; he searched for the very truth and justice of every case, and he had the unquestioning confidence of every man who practiced before him, because they knew he strove to attain the right and to administer justice.

O. M. GIBBS, Editor

A BUSINESS CHANGE

Mr. O. M. Gibbs, former editor of the Center Champion and for the past several years editor of the Garrison News, has purchased a half interest in the Sentinel business and assumed his duties as editor of the Sentinel Monday morning.

Mr. Gibbs is one of the best newspaper men in East Texas and in selling an interest in the business I believe I am forming a partnership that will prove of value not only to myself but to the town and county of Nacogdoches in a newspaper way at least. The new firm will make a great many improvements, one of which will be to add a Mergenthaler Linotype machine, which has already been purchased and will arrive within the next ten days, and will enable the paper to carry a larger amount of live news matters.

In this connection I want to thank our many friends and customers for their past patronage and friendly support and assure every one of you a proper appreciation is felt and will never be forgotten and if you will continue this support and encouragement I stand ready to guarantee that you will always have the very best that can be furnished in a newspaper and printing way.

Mr. Gibbs is a first class newspaper man and gentleman, clean morally and stands out for right on all occasions. All courtesies shown him will be more than appreciated by me personally.

Very Respectfully
Giles M. Haltom,
EDITORIAL CHANGE

Change in the ownership and management of the Sentinel has brought about a change of editors.

After serving thirteen months as editor I am succeeded by Mr. O. M. Gibbs. I vacate with the very kindest feelings and good wishes towards the paper and the public, and with sincere appreciation of many kind favors shown me.

J. E. Mayfield,
GRFETING.

It is with a feeling of grateful appreciation and optimism that I enter upon the duties and responsibilities as editor of the Daily and Weekly Sentinel.

Some fifteen or sixteen years ago I attended a meeting of the East Texas Press Association in this city at which time I was beneficiary of the true Southern hospitality for which the town is noted. At the same time I formed the acquaintance of the Haltom Brothers which ripened into loyal friendship, and in the past I have often felt that I would like to be associated with this office in the capacity to which I have been elected.

In assuming this position I am not unmindful of the responsibility it carries with it. A town of the proportions Nacogdoches has reached and a citizenship of the superior intelligence, refinement and patriotism for which Nacogdoches is noted, deserves newspaper representation that will be in keeping with the development along these lines, and I shall put forth the greatest effort of my life to serve you faithfully and well.

Until our machine, of which Mr. Haltom has told you, arrives we shall not undertake any material improvements in the paper for the reason that we could not assemble additional help for so short a time, but with the new facilities we will be in position to handle anything that comes our way as well as those things which we shall go after.

It will be our ambition to publish a live, local paper, devoting our energies to the entertainment of our readers with the current local events of the day. Editorially our chief ambition will be to exploit and promote the industrial development and civic attractiveness of the town and county, and we are friends to the schools, the churches and all institutions which have for their purpose the intellectual development and elevation of mankind.

Craving your indulgence until we can get our "bearings" and the new equipment, and soliciting your cooperation in the publication of a newspaper that will be representative of the life of the town and county, I am Yours truly,
O. M. Gibbs.

Col. W. J. Bryan, who has been making a visit to the state, spoke to a great audience on the "Lessons of the War" at Houston Sunday night. Possibly one of the greatest "lessons" of the conflict, in so far as the colonel is concerned, was the loss of a mighty good job.

The Timpson Times in its issue of Monday pays the new editor of the Sentinel a very pretty compliment, concluding with the remark that we can now "fuss" with Leroy G. Stump of the Port Arthur News as much as we please. We appreciate the compliment, and shall add to the privilege the duty of calling down the esteemed Times if it strays from the straight and narrow path.

The dispatches tell us that some coffin manufacturers of Tennessee have been arrested for shipping whiskey in coffins. A "coffin of whiskey" is a new measurement which would not appeal to the appetite of the superstitious—but there are others not so particular as to the receptacle or the means of transportation and what promised to be a flourishing "industry" has been thwarted with official interference.

We are informed that the East will have agents here to buy the entire crop of peanuts of East Texas and Louisiana. It is claimed that the peanuts of these sections contain 20 per cent more oil than the nuts east of the Mississippi river. The demand for the goober crop has been marvelous, and is destined to be more so. It is about the only product which can be converted into all the articles of a first-class menu. Soup, meat, bread, olive oil, milk, tea butter, hash, and many high sounding French articles are all made of the little Spanish peanut which grows all over East Texas. The hulls which until recently were considered useless are now worth eight dollars per ton, and are used for various kinds of varnishes for stoves, boilers, etc. —Col. Milner, in Rusk County News.

The new editor of the Sentinel appreciates beyond the ability of words to express the cordial welcome he has been receiving from the good people of Nacogdoches. The greetings of such noble people are as "apples of gold in pictures of silver"—and the pictures will be framed in the conscience of an inspiration that will make us put forth the greatest effort of our life to serve you in a manner that you will have no cause for regret, or feel that your confidence has been misplaced.

It happened right here in Nacogdoches, and is too rich to suppress. A large crowd of men from the same community were stopping at the same hotel, being attracted to the city by district court. In the crowd was a minister who was not in the enjoyment of good health, and carried in his grip a small bottle of whiskey which he used for "his stomach's sake" when not feeling well. His room mate discovered it, and catching the owner out of the room summoned the other boys in consultation as to what should be done. We are told that "in the multiplicity of counsel there is wisdom"—and sometimes the wisdom of such deliberation might seem cruel. The "boys" added a six shooter and a pack of cards to the contents of the grip and of course made it convenient to be around when the minister opened it, one of the bunch requesting something of him that would necessitate the opening of the grip.

"Once more the equinox has been passed. Mother earth, in her flight through space, has passed the point where the sun's rays divide day and night into equal parts. We have had long days and short nights through the heated season of summer, but as the winter solstice approaches days are shortening and nights are lengthening. He who summoned light into existence and called it day, then silently drew the curtains and called the darkness night, is not partial to night or to day. Day has its advantage of hours and night its season of triumphs, but when the journey has been completed each has had its share and there is equality once more. It is difficult sometimes to so believe, but perhaps the Creator is just as impartial in His gifts to men. Some appear to have a greater share of joy, some a triple measure of sorrow, but perhaps if all curtains were removed we would see an equal distribution of sunlight and shadows to the sons of men. And we know, when the journey is over, that all are equal in the great and perfect democracy of death." —Honey Grove Signal.

Bouquet on the Side

Now Gibbs is going to blush but the following letter coming from the pen of such a fellow as Rho Garrison is too good a recommendation to withhold from the old friends and patrons of the Sentinel, and we are putting this over the new editor:

Garrison, Texas,
Oct. 4, 1915

Dear Giles:

Garrison's loss is Nacogdoches' gain. Gibbs is a prince. He is a psychologist enough to understand the public pulse. He will not be a citizen of Nacogdoches long before his influence will be felt. We give him up with regrets, it is a sacrifice, but then, it is the small towns that must contribute to the needs of the larger ones. Here we produce the material—shape it, polish it, then send it along into a field of larger usefulness. Gibbs is my friend and I am glad that he is coming into his own, Nacogdoches is a fine old town, she deserves much—let her get right close up to Gibbs and he will lead her towards her true destiny.

Your friend,
Rho Garrison

East Texas Fair

We take the following report of the East Texas Fair, held at Timpson, from Monday's issue of the Timpson Times:

The seventh annual East Texas Fair passed into history Saturday night with a record-breaking attendance for the closing day. From an attendance standpoint the fair this year was all that could be hoped for, the attendance each day almost doubling that of the same days last year. The largest crowd that ever assembled in Timpson was here Saturday, and the number variously estimated from five to seven thousand. Paid admittance through the fair gates was approximately 2600. The three excursion trains were crowded to standing room, and the visitors seemed to enjoy the day very much while here.

The football game in the morning between Nacogdoches and Henderson proved to be a big drawing card, and a large crowd witnessed this interesting game. Nacogdoches won by a score of 6 to 0.

In the afternoon the athletic contest took place and was witnessed by a great crowd. The Center, Garrison and Timpson schools were represented in the contest and for over three hours the crowd was entertained by trained athletes. The three different schools had good representation and the contest was exciting to the end. At the close of the contest Center had won the largest number of points, thus winning the East Texas Fair loving cup for the second time. The score stood: Center 84; Timpson 70; Garrison 44. Amid loud cheering and jubilation the cup was presented to the winners a short while after the contest closed, and they proudly bore it with them on their return home. The three taking part in the contest showed careful training, and some feats accomplished by the boys would be hard to do by state champions. Twenty individual medals were distributed among the three teams, to the boys winning in the different entries. The Garrison school was not as well prepared for the contest as the other two; their school only opened a week ago, but Superintendent Day said he wanted to enter his boys just to help encourage East Texas Fair, if for no other reason. This makes the second time in succession Center has captured the loving cup and if she wins again next year the cup will become the property of the school.

Tennessee won the $100 prize offered for the best community or town exhibit, and they deserved the money because this progressive community had an exhibit worth while.

L. C. Thornton won the prize for having the individual farm exhibit. He deserves much credit for the interest he took in helping to make the fair a success, and his exhibit was one of the best advertisements for this section of the country we ever saw.

The directors are well pleased with the attendance this year, but with the 25c reduction, in gate fees, the fair association will hardly break even.

Tribute to Judge Middlebrook

To Vernon E. Middlebrook—Citizen, Lawyer, Jurist, Churchman:

It is with a sense of pride that we address you by the titles above and did time permit, we could elaborate on each and the laurel wreath would grow with each succeeding step and find its crown in the last named title, that of Churchman.

But it is as the retiring superintendent of our Sunday School that we address you now, and it is with trepidation and a sense of inefficiency that an endeavor to express our appreciation of your valued services.

We wish to thank you for your punctuality throughout all these years of your incumbency, for your faithfulness and for the untiring energy which you put forth in all things pertaining to the work of our church and especially the Sunday school. It has blossomed like a rose under your leadership and may its fragrance always cling to you in the form of a pleasant memory.

We assure you that it is with keen regret and a sense of personal loss that this relationship is severed.

This expression comes from the hearts and out of the love we bear you.

We bid you God speed and commit you to the care of Him who knoweth his own.

Kicked By Mule

J. Thomas Hall had the misfortune to get kicked by a mule colt this morning in which he received a very painful injury.

He walked up behind the mule, and in an effort to make him move out of the way slapped him, which the animal resented, and kicked Mr. Hall on the chin, cutting a gash that required several stitches to sew up and bruises that will take time and lotions to heal.

Building Activities in Texas

Ft. Worth, Tex. Oct. 5.—Approximately $65,000,000 will be expended for constructing new buildings and residences in Texas during the calendar year 1915, according to preliminary estimates compiled from reports furnished by the commercial organization, building contractors and architects through out the state.

In the nine largest cities alone more than $15,000,000 in building permits have already been issued this year and while the total value of the permits issued this year is not as great as far the same period of 1914, the actual number of buildings constructed in 1915 far exceeds the number buildings during the same period of 1914. In fact the total number of permits issued for buildings during the first eight months of 1915 exceeds the total number for the entire year of 1914.

An unprecedented era of home building is responsible for the condition. There are approximately 8,000 residences being erected in Texas at the present time and probably 16,000 residences have been completed already this year. It is reliably estimated that thirty per cent of the residence building in Texas at this time is brick, while the general average a few years ago was not more than ten per cent. Brick and other clay products have always held an important position in the construction of large buildings in Texas but more recently they have become to be extensively used in the building of ordinary residences or in that class of homes ranging in cost from $2,500 to $6,000.

In one Western Texas city practically all the residences are now being built are of clay product construction. Like all the larger cities many of the small towns report a heavy brick residence building and numerous farm-houses throughout the state are being erected from clay products.

In explaining this changing condition in our method of home building, a prominent Texas architect said:

"A revolution in building material is now in progress in Texas. This changing condition is made manifest in our residence construction. The home builder has learned that an ordinary residence can be constructed of brick as cheaply as it can be built of any other material and this fact more than anything else has caused an increase in brick residence building within our borders. Many a home builder has passed brick by because of a mistaken idea of cost, but during the next few years, when our people have become more familiar with the qualities and comparative cost of the different building materials, I anticipate a further increase in the use of brick in residence building which means many new and handsome homes in Texas.

During the past few years the amount of building permits issued in the nine largest cities have averaged around $25,000,000 per annum but at the present rate of construction this average will not be maintained throughout 1915. The total for this year will probably run around $20,000,000 for the nine cities.

We invite all our former students, their friends and those contemplating entering a business training school to visit our booth in the Exposition Building and see our splendid exhibit which has won first honors at these state fairs. Speed demonstrations in Stenography, exhibit of student's work in Bookkeeping, Business Training, Shorthand, Typewriting, Business Administration and Finance, Penmanship, Cotton Clipping and Telegraphy. A visit to our exhibit will show you why we have the largest school of the kind in America, when you are shown clearly why it is that we can make you a more practical and thorough stenographer in three and one-half months with the famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand or Stenotypewriting than other schools teaching other systems can in seven months, and why it is with our original copyrighted systems of Bookkeeping and Business Training in less time than other schools can give you a mere theoretical course in Bookkeeping, and why it is that our practical department of Telegraphy, the largest in the United States, with a loop of the Cotton Belt train wire, giving every message to our students that goes from Mt. Pleasant to Waco; every station blank and record book that is used by Western Union or Cotton Belt Railroad, turns out practical operators and station men; and that we place our graduates into good positions.

From present indications we will easily enroll 2000 students this year.

Suicide At Tenaha.

Judge G. S. Espy and Constable R. H. Garrett were called to Tenaha late yesterday afternoon to hold an inquest over the body of Rex Young. The verdict was that the young man came to death at his own hands. The victim of the sad tragedy is a son of Bob Young, living about three miles west of Tenaha. The young man had been in bad health some time and was slightly demented. The family kept close watch on him and tried to keep up with him day and night. He succeeded however, in alluding them, secured the shot gun from its accustomed place and with a single shot almost blew the top of his head off. After removing one of his shoes, he placed the gun against his head and with one of his toes pulled the trigger, sending his soul into eternity instantly. The shot aroused members of the family and they reached his side immediately after the awful crime had been committed. Judge Espy and Mr. Garrett made the trip in an automobile, and returned home last night.—Timpson Times.

W. R. McClain, the bus man, has placed an order for two closed carriages which he will use in transferring passengers as soon as they arrive.

IN STERLING LIVES A GIRL

Who Suffered As Many Girls Do—Tells How She Found Relief.

Sterling, Conn.—"I am a girl of 22 years and I used to faint away every month and was very weak. I was also bothered a lot with female weakness. I read your little book 'Wisdom for Women,' and I saw how others had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it, and it has made me feel like a new girl and I am now relieved of all these troubles. I hope all young girls will get relief as I have. I never felt better in my life."—Mrs. JOHN T. REAULT, Box 116, Sterling, Conn.

Massena, N. Y.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I highly recommend it. If anyone wants to write to me I will gladly tell her about my case. I was certainly in a bad condition as my blood was all turning to water. I had pimples on my face and a bad color, and for five years I had been troubled with suppression. The doctors called it 'Anemia and Exhaustion,' and said I was all run down, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me out all right."—Miss LAVISA MYRES, Box 74, Massena, N. Y.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.
Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. In Memoriam
I wish to thank my dear neighbors and friends for their loving kindness and tender care through my precious sweet baby's illness and death. I was ever ready to render their tender care toward the little sufferer.

Among the attendants were Dr. Deal and his loving wife who will ever be remembered. O, what grief it is to know we shall never look on our loved one's sweet face again on earth. Yet I have the blessed assurance that my sweet little Toljldell is a happy angel in heaven with his dear papa who went two years before him.

Though there is none of my little family left to mourn their loss, save myself, I hope my dear friends may sympathize with me. We have the blessed promise of God that we can live a life to meet our darlings in heaven.

Little Idell was a sweet child and every one who knew him loved him and he seemed to be weary and afraid he might do something that would not please. He would have been three years old the 7th of Sept. and weighed about forty pounds. Was strong and hearty, illness lasting three days at the time of his death. Though his suffering was such as to pierce anyone's heart.

Thanking you all many times and hoping I may be a help to you in some way, now or in the future.

I remain,
Mrs. Inez Stone.

The weather forecast of W. T. Foster printed three weeks ago predicted that a tropical storm during the week centering on October 4 would be more intense than that of August 16. Reports from east gulf coast say the storm of Wednesday night blew at a rate of 120 to 130 miles an hour. Mr. Foster is either a good guesser or he has a good system of forecast.—Ex

The advance of cotton prices during the last few days has added many millions to the resources of the south, and the movement still has an upward trend. As the greater part of the crop has not yet been marketed the increased price put an entirely different complexion on the industrial situation in the south from that which it held a few weeks ago.—Ex.

Jail Breaking at San Augustine
Six prisoners, the entire number confined in the county jail, made their escape Friday night. Partly by sawing and tampering in other ways with the lock they succeeded in opening the doors; just how is not known. Three were white and three colored prisoners. Creed Watkins, white, was captured between Milam and Sabine River and returned to the jail. Will Clay, Jr., colored, gave himself up Saturday morning, going no further than Frank Tuckers'. The others have not been captured.—San Augustine Tribune.

Notice
Owing to the continued increase of my surgical work in Nacogdoches Surgical Hospital, in the past three years, it has become necessary on my part, to have assistance in the management of the same. It became necessary either to turn the management over to some assistant, or matron, or neglect some of my surgical work. After careful consideration, I decided to sell the property, that I might be the better able to serve the public in a surgical way.

The man to whom I have sold, Dr. W. I. M. Smith of Nacogdoches, needs no introduction to the profession, or the public of East Texas. He has been with you many years is known as a man of sterling integrity, and professional attainments. My connection with the hospital, in the future, will be the same as it has in the past, other than that Dr. Smith will have full charge, and control of the management. It will be my aim in the future, as in the past to serve the profession, and the public, to the best of my ability. Signed: A. E. Sweatland, M. D.

In connection with the above, it becomes my privilege and pleasure after three years time has elapsed, to announce to the profession, and the public that I have purchased the former Nacogdoches Sanitarium, at present known, and operated by Dr. A. E. Sweatland and as the Nacogdoches Surgical Hospital.

Dr. Sweatland, under whose management the hospital has attained its present enviable reputation, will still remain professionally connected, and in hearty cooperation with the new management.

I will assure the profession the best and the most skillful assistance in their work, and the public my appreciation of their support.

This hospital, under my management, will be open to the profession in general from this date for their use in medicine, and surgery.

Governor Ferguson's Difference with President Battle of University

The San Antonio Light has a lengthy editorial on the row between Governor Ferguson and Dr. W. J. Battle president of the Texas State University, in which the issues are shown, and it appears that the Governor's position is correct, for two leading reasons, first that the platform demands of the election should be followed; second, that the policy thus advocated is sound and sensible for practical results.

The main or primary question is who shall direct the expenditures of the funds.

Dr. Battle curtly says he will do this to suit himself. He disregards, and resists the the Governor's authority in the matter.

Among other things the Light says,

The financial affairs of the university have been in a woefully unbusiness like condition. Its accounts have been kept in a haphazard manner, so that it has been well-nigh impossible to ascertain just what has become of the funds appropriated by the Legislature. Now that the governor and the legislators want to know what the university purposes to do with the funds, the authorities of the institution pay themselves no compliment by seeking to place an obstacle in the way.

Governor Ferguson has set out to accomplish constructive reform in the state's schools of higher learning. Judging by his record thus far, he will brook no interference. What might happen if the regents, at their meeting on October 22, should ignore the wishes of the governor and the Legislature, and approve the acting president's plan to spend the appropriation as he may see fit, is a matter in which the entire state would take the keenest interest. If the regents should stand by the governor, the problem would be simple.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Bryan On Wilson
Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 29.—William J. Bryan, in an address here last night, paid the following tribute to President Woodrow Wilson.

"Happy for our nation that we have in the White House at this time a president who believes in setting the old world a good example instead of following the bad example which the old world sets in this matter. What an unspeakable misfortune it would have been if, in such an hour as this, the nation had been under the leadership of a president inflamed by the false philosophy which has plunged Europe into the abyss of war."

The Murchison Case
The case of the State vs. Mrs. Murchison was called in the district court Thursday morning. The state was not ready for trial, and made formal application for a continuance. Much time was taken up in this way, and the result was that the case was set over to be called on Tuesday of the seventh week at 1:30 p. m. which will be Oct. 19.

This was caused by the absence of several witnesses. The court gave strict orders as to the requiring of attendance of witnesses. There was a large assemblage of people interested or connected with the case, who came but were disappointed.

A Pennsylvania hen has laid twenty-four dozen eggs in 380 days, which at the lowest market price, would bring $4.80. As the hen still has thirty-five days to go before completing her record for a year, she will doubtless produce as much as $5 worth of eggs for the year. A few dozen hens like that would work wonders in cutting down the cost of living.—Ex

TALK BY WIRELESS
TO HONOLULU, H. I.

A CONVERSATION TRANSMITTED
OVER DISTANCE OF FORTY-
SIX HUNDRED MILES.

SECOND SUCCESSFUL TEST

Came After Talk Without Aid of Wires From the Atlantic to the Pacific.

New York.—The human voice has bridged the North American continent and without the use of wires.
Intelligible sound has been projected through the ether and words spoken in an ordinary tone in New York have reached waiting ears at San Francisco.
Beyond all this the official announcement has been made that the distance between Washington and Honolulu, four thousand six hundred miles, has been annihilated by the wireless telephone as perfected by J. J. Carty, chief engineer for the American Telephone & Telegraph
company. Telephone communication between New York and any of the great capitals of Europe and even across the Pacific ocean from Seattle
to Tokio is now altogether possible, depending upon the installation of apparatus.

The same engineers to whom credit for this achievement in the art of communicating intelligence by electricity, has been accorded, at the same time have announced another wonderful discovery. In the experiment by which the voice was carried between New York and San Francisco, words passed by land wires between New York and Arlington, Va., and from there, as if projected from
the loose ends of the copper strands, were sent into the air to be wafted across the plains and valleys, the towering peaks of giant mountain ranges and the deserts, to be picked up again by the slender antennae of the wireless tower at Mare Island navy yard and carried to the waiting ear at a telephone receiver.

This strongly indicates the possibility by which people living inland may call friends who happen to be passengers on ships at sea, as voices are carried over present land lines to some central station along the coast, and there automatically passed into a radio transmitter and projected out over the ocean to a moving object and finally to the one who may be designated to receive the message sent by such wonderful ways.

Considerable Time.

Engineers of the American Telephone & Telegraph company have been engaged, during a considerable time, in perfecting the wireless telephone. To make possible the accomplishment recently recorded, it was necessary, it is stated, to apply radically new ideas to the generally accepted theories of wireless telegraphy. At first temporary towers at Montauk Point, L. I., and Wilmington, Del., served the purpose. Afterwards the government loaned its wireless towers at Arlington, near Washington, and at Mare Island, near San Francisco, to the work. Panama and points in Cuba were also brought into the experiment. The wireless station at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, was also equipped with necessary telephone apparatus. Obstacle after obstacle was finally overcome.

Seated in his office in New York,
President T. N. Vall of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, who authorized the experimental work spoke the first words to travel, part by wire and part by wireless, to San Francisco. He called J. J. Carty, under whose direction the work was done and who was waiting on the Pacific coast, to participate in the final test.

"Hello, Carty," the talk started.
"This is Mr. Vall."
Even Mr. Carty was surprised, so clearly and distinctly did the words reach him.
"This is fine," he exclaimed. "This is wonderful."

Army and Navy Take Part.

Representatives of the United States government, of the army and the navy, joined in the demonstration, talking across the continent without the use of wires. Words spoken in this way were repeated back by the transcontinental land telephone lines,
opened last January, and the proof was conclusive. Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who had loaned government equipment to the prosecution of the experiment, issued a formal statement, announcing the achievement and placing the government's stamp of appreciation upon the marvelous accomplishment.

Talked to Panama Aug. 27.

Vallejo, Cal.—Wireless telephone communication between Washington, D. C., and the Panama canal, a distance of 2,100 miles, was established Aug. 27, but public announcement was withheld until the greater goal—transcontinental communication—could be reached. This statement was made by Chief Engineer John J. Carty
after the conversation in the wireless tower at the Mare Island
navy yard with Theodore N. Vall, president, who was speaking from
New York.

Obituary

Again have our hearts been made sad by the silent and resistless hand of death, who on Sept. 22nd claimed a good and dutiful wife, a loving mother and kind friend.

Mrs. Ruth A. Skeeters was born in Limestone Co., Ala., where she grew to womanhood. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tindall and was loved by all who knew her. On July 30 1856,
she was married to Wesley
L. Skeeters, and came to Texas in the fall of 1859, located near the Angelina river in this county, where they resided for seven years. Moved to this community 1866, where she resided until her death.

"Aunt Rutha" as she was generally called was a most estimable character, kind and ever thoughtful for the comfort of those she loved. Her untiring devotion to her aged husband, who survives her,
and her love for her home and children, was something remarkable and well worthy
the name of "a Christian Mother." She was the mother of ten children, five of whom are left to mourn her sad death, namely W. T. and John Skeeters, Mrs. Alice
Nixon of Cushing, Mrs. Boyd
Haney of this place, and Mrs.
S. E. Compton of Billings, Okla., who for the past seven years has been her constant companion and help.

She was a member of the Missionary Baptist Church,
her membership being at Bethel Church at which Cemetery she was laid to rest.
A large number of relatives and friends paid their last respect and many were the beautiful floral offerings.

We tender our most sincere sympathy to the stricken husband and sons and daughters,
and may God sustain them
in their dark hours of bereavement. A Friend.

Judge Jas. I. Perkins of Rusk was an arrival to the city Monday afternoon, and will return home this afternoon.
Judge Perkins served this district wisely and well as district judge many years, and has many friends in this city who are always glad to see him.

Residence Burned

The home of Mrs. Loden, on North Fredonia street, together with nearly all her household effects, was destroyed by fire about 10:30 this morning.

Two alarms were turned in
at the same time, the other being from the Methodist patronage, at which the fire department made the first stop, and finding no fire, rushed on to the house that was destroyed, but arriving too late to save it. The department did good work, however,
soon extinguishing the flames burning in the remnants of the house and saving other nearby houses.

Fire Marshal Pat Murphey
went out to the scene of the fire this afternoon and made an inspection, finding as follows: That the fire was caused from soot burning in the chimney, the falling sparks igniting in the roof. That the loss was total, being covered by insurance in the sum of $800 on the building, $500
on the furniture, and $350 on the piano.

Mrs. Loden was at home at the time the fire broke out,
being in one of the rooms,
and as the fire broke out in the roof it gained great headway before she discovered it.

The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley, in the Trinity neighborhood, died Monday night and was buried Tuesday evening at the King Graveyard. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.
