EAST TEXAS TIMBER SURVEY TO BE MADE.

An A. & M. College Professor Will Endeavor to Determine Fire Damage.

College Station, Texas, Feb. 7.—In an effort to determine the value of standing timber, the injury caused by the annual timber fires and other valuable data on forestry conditions in East Texas, State Forester J. H. Foster, who is also professor of forestry at the A. & M. College, announces that a thorough-going survey of the forestry of that section will be made, beginning immediately. To assist him in the work, as well as the work of conducting an educational campaign in order that the destructive fires in East Texas may be reduced, Mr. Foster announces the appointment of G. W. Johnson as forestry agent.

Mr. Johnson was born and reared in East Texas, his home for many years having been located at Tenaha. For a number of years he taught school in that section of East Texas, and for the past four years has been in the joint employ of the A. and M. College and the United States Department of Agriculture as a county demonstration agent. He will assume his new duties at once.

"The State forestry department has two definite projects ahead of it," said Mr. Foster in

The Genuine Oliver

We do not have to tell any man who has ever used an OLIVER "just why" the OLD GENUINE is the best plow for him to use. But we do want to talk to you—if you happen to be one of the very few who have not yet "Followed in the Trail" of one of the Old Reliable Olivers.

The man who has used the GENUINE OLIVER knows that it will "turn the sticky, gummy spots" where many other plows would "choke." He knows that it will "scour" clean, run light, and handle easily. He is more than satisfied with his OLIVER. Are you satisfied with the plow you have been using? If not come to our store at once and get a GENUINE OLIVER. Give it a fair trial and then smile with the other OLIVER users.

It's a "cinch" and we guarantee that you'll be well pleased.

announcing the appointment of Mr. Johnson. "In the first place, we are expecting to make some valuable discoveries in our survey of East Texas forestry conditions. An estimate of the standing timber, the situation with regard to agricultural development and future use of lands; the injury caused by the annual burning of timber, second growth or problems or problems of re- production—these will be considered in the survey of thirty East Texas counties, which will begin immediately. Moreover, we are going to engage in an extensive educational campaign in fire protection. The loss by fire in East Texas is tremendous. We expect to receive the co-operation of teachers and men and women in public life in the spreading of instruction concerning the control and prevention of forest fires.

"This last work will be conducted in co-operation with the federal government under the terms of the Weeks act, which provides for federal co-operation by the appointment of patrols in States which maintain a department of forestry."

HIGHER RATES SUSPENDED

Washington, Feb. 7.—An order issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission today suspends until August 12 operation of a schedule of increases in class freight rates from Houston and other Texas Gulf port points to Shreveport.

The rates affected are involved in the so-called Shreveport rate case. Otherwise, the tariff would have gone into effect February 12.

Joe Cook of Garrison was in the city today.

TIMPSON BOASTS A NEW DEPOT.

The H. E. & W. T. has recently remodelled and rebuilt the depot at Timpson, report of which is contained in the following from yesterday's issue of the Timpson Times:

The H. E. & W. T. Ry. company put the finishing touches to the new depot recently and we must say that it is a very creditable structure, one that the entire citizenship should feel proud of. And we do not believe the new depot could be appreciated more—unless it was a brick building—but the railway company has been very liberal in taking pains to erect a depot that would be an ornament to the town as well as useful for the railroad. The building is not altogether new, but the whole structure has been remodeled, repainted, and an inspection of the building is a pleasure. The waiting rooms have been considerably enlarged, the one for white people is twice the size of the old room. The two waiting rooms are separated by the business office. The business office has been fitted up conveniently, a nice little lobby for the public opens in the south side of the depot, thus making it very handy for the public. Trainmen have a separate place to get their orders and the freight rooms have been enlarged. Everything considered, the depot is very pretty, and shows up as well as many brick depots in East Texas. Agent Morris takes great pleasure in showing visitors through the building, and he is very proud of his "new home."

Dr. J. S. Ansley of Montgomery county is visiting his brother in the city.

SHERMAN MINISTER DIES FROM WOUNDS.

Sherman, Texas, February 8.—Rev. H. M. Cagle, prominent Baptist minister of this city, shot on the public square here yesterday, by Mrs. Annie Faust, wife of the well-to-do farmer, died today without having regained consciousness. He sank into a stupor shortly after being wounded.

Mrs. Faust, at home under a $1000 bond pending the outcome of Mr. Cagle's condition, is expected now to be placed under a homicide charge.

Mrs. Faust gave as her reason for shooting the minister that he had "slandered" her, but has not gone into details.

Mr. Cagle was known throughout Texas as a doctrinal debater.

MORE PENALTIES FROM BREWERIES.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 7.—Additional remittances from breweries penalized by the state for violation of the antitrust laws were received by the attorney general's department today amounting to $40,272.34, from the Texas Brewing Company of Fort Worth, which paid $14,000; of Galveston Brewing Company, $25,500, in penalties, and $572.34 in department expenses. This brings the total amount received to $207,072.

Nacogdoches County ginned 12,555 bales of cotton. Angelina County did not gin that many. —Lufkin News.

The Sentinel has frequent inquiry as to whether or not the candidates are in. We have no way of knowing accurately, but we believe there are a few more who will bring up the rear later, and there may be a belated "spring crop."

A better system of conserving the products of the farm, a better system of marketing, and every idle acre of land in cultivation would do the work that would make old Nacogdoches county the greatest sub-division of the biggest state in the union. All these things are possible for intelligent effort. What will you do about it, fellows?

Attention of the readers of The Sentinel is called to an editorial taken from the Longview Times-Clarion, appearing elsewhere in today's paper. The Longview people have tried the improved method of having a dry kiln for sweet potatoes and enthusiastically endorse it, inviting their neighbors to come and see. Come on, fellows, and let's build one.

Petitioning Congressman Dies "change his views." Beaumont people have launched an embarrassing issue with their congressman. If he were to submit to the letter of the petition he would be a weakling for whom they will have no future respect, while if he fails they will feel that they have been misrepresented. He might compromise by withdrawing active opposition, and vote the wishes of his district instead of his own, but asking a man of Mr. Dies' calibre and nature to "change his views" forebodes a political storm.

The newspaper can only gather the facts and agitate those things which would be good for the industrial and commercial development of a town; the people engaged in the business must make the test. The business colleges send you bookkeepers and stenographers, the preachers counsel you about your spiritual interests, and the newspaper is the watchman on guard, ambitious to be of service in every good cause. This being true, don't treat its work too lightly, remembering that no man, institution or business enterprise ever attained any appreciable degree of greatness in the absence of newspaper publicity.

The Nacogdoches Sentinel is urging the establishment of a potato curing plant at that point. It is a good move and the Sentinel could not render a better service to its community than to induce the establishment of such an enterprise. Up here at Longview we have tried it and know the benefits accruing therefrom. Not long ago, Mr. J. B. Wells, of this city, brought to the Times-Clarion office a basket of potatoes that had been placed in the curing warehouse a year ago, and they were sweeter and more palatable than they were on the day that they were dug. There are now probably one hundred thousand bushels of sweet potatoes in Gregg county of last year's crop resting securely in the potato warehouses awaiting such time as a proper price may be offered for them. In the spring and summer those potatoes will bring the producers probably one dollar per bushel, and the money will come in at a time when dollars are scarce and most needed. Potato warehouses are great institutions, and if any of The Sentinel's constituents desire to investigate the potato warehouse proposition, we advise them to come up and see Mr. J. B. Wells or any other men who have made the potato curing and storing a success in this section. —Longview Times-Clarion.

The partial eclipse of the sun came on schedule time this morning and was viewed by many people with smoked glasses. Many wondered how its approach could be forecasted so accurately, and doubtless many of these same people would not have believed it possible had not similar events been witnessed before and their approach forecasted as in this instance. Some people do not believe the earth is round because they do not understand the philosophy of it.

The news comes from Beaumont that C. W. Howth, a prominent citizen of that city, is placing his announcement for congress against Hon. Martin Dies, Nacogdoches also has some good timber which may be heard from in the very near future, and instead of having a monopoly on the office the present indications are that Mr. Dies will have some opposition which will engage his very serious attention if he stands for re-election.

Hon. Edgar Thomason is being solicited by numerous friends to enter the race for legislature, and has about decided to throw his hat into the ring. He will leave this evening for a business visit to North Texas, and The Sentinel is authorized to say that upon his return his formal announcement will probably be forthcoming. Mr. Thomason is no stranger to the people of Nacogdoches county, having spent his whole life with them, and served them in different ways.

The Dallas News has taken notice of Congressman Dies' trouble with his Beaumont constituents in the "preparedness" issue, and reasons upon the matter in harmony with ideas previously expressed in this paper in the following editorial review: "Constituents of Mr. Dies at Beaumont and other points in the Second District have done something that is not surprising. They have, to-wit, petitioned Mr. Dies to desist in his course of opposition to the President. This is not the way the dispatch from Beaumont puts. The dispatch says that Mr. Dies has been asked to change his views. But there are several reasons for suspecting that this statement of the matter lacks precision. Mr. Dies' views are too firmly fixed to be changed on such short notice; besides, Mr. Dies' constituents would hardly care to bereave him in that way, if they could. They recognize that Mr. Dies is the sole proprietor of his own views. They assert a partnership only in the vote he casts in Congress. They are made apprehensive by Mr. Dies' speeches that he is about to exercise that vote in a way which will belie their sentiments and convictions; and so it is likely that what they ask of him is not that he shall change his views, but that he shall have some regard for the views of those without whose consent he could not sit in Congress. Incidentally, they might have reminded him of the exposed position of his district. What fine practice, for example, would the shooting up of Beaumont afford to a navy preparing for larger tasks up the Atlantic! We shall not speculate on the probable response of Mr. Dies. His constituents have spiked his oratorical gun. How he may vote is rather an inconsequential question."

AGRICULTURAL LEGISLATION.

There is a very important joint resolution now in committee. It is a resolution authorizing the President to appoint a National marketing commission. The measure provides further for the formations of county and State Chambers of agriculture, which shall elect National representatives to form a semi-official National chamber of agriculture. When this body has been finally organized it shall succeed the ad interim commission appointed by the President. This measure should pass with out opposition.

In every other branch of manufacture the production and the marketing of goods are carefully planned.

Only in the basic business of manufacturing farm stuffs do the manufacturers give all their efforts to production and let the marketing take care of itself in any old haphazard fashion.

That is one of the several causes of the very high cost of living.

If farm products were marketed as intelligently as steel products are, or as oil products are, the farms would pay better and the consumers would get food cheaper.

Co-operation in production and in selling and buying is the chief lesson learned by modern experience.

The old law that competition is the life of trade still finds a place in theoretical lectures on political economy and Democratic National legislation—and is very well suited to that mental environment. In real life it is as foolish as it is false.

Every other form of large wealth production—is organized wisely.

It is high time that the great and all-important industry of food production were organized. —New York American.

A petition urging Congressman Martin Dies to stand with President Wilson relative to his preparedness program and to "withdraw from your fight against the administration's policy," is being circulated in Beaumont, and is being liberally signed. The petition further states that the citizens of this district are in hearty favor of the president's policy, and while they believe Congressman Dies is conscientious in his stand, they implore him to change his views, "for we believe the president is right and you are wrong," says the petition. Congressman Dies has been waging rather bitter opposition to the policy, taking a leading part in the fight, and it remains to be seen what effect the petition will have with him. If he looks at the matter as having a great principle involved he could not conscientiously withdraw his opposition in any other manner than a tender of his resignation, while at the same time he is supposed to be a representative of the people of a certain district and they have an equal right to object when not being represented in accordance with their wishes and judgement.

With all this talk of preparedness in the matter of building a great navy and providing a large standing army at the expense, if necessary, of conscripting the youth of the country to six months service, one would think that some great, unseen calamity was about to swoop down upon us which would let loose the whole contagion of torment and open upon us a vein that would bleed our nation to death. Limited preparation is well and good, but we can't get away from the idea that politics and "big business" would be beneficiary in most of the preparation. Nacogdoches Sentinel. In one of his speeches this

EAST TEXAS LEAGUE IS TALKED ABOUT.

The sporting editor of The News is not in close enough touch with the local baseball fans to say just what will be undertaken along this line here at home during the coming season. It seems that over at Palestine, where the St. Louis Browns are to train this month, enthusiasm is keyed up rather high, and there is strong talk of the organization of an East Texas League, Lufkin to be one of the members of the proposed organization. The following has been given to the press under a Palestine date line: "It is the plan here to form an East Texas League composed of Palestine, Crockett, Rusk, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Longview, Marshall and probably Tyler, the season to begin in June and will be in the league, the fans here say, and they have been assured that Crockett and Lufkin will both come in. All of these towns already have good ball grounds, and buildings, and all of them will support a ball team. Plans are already under way to form this league and join organized baseball."—Lufkin News.

As we have had no sunshine today with which to reflect the shadow of a "ground-hog," or any other kind of hog, we hope the old settlers are right in the opinion that today is the real "ground-hog" day. We have no practical use for six weeks of bad weather.

"Dodson's Liver Tone" is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salfivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless, doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

OIL MILLS PREPARING FOR PEANUT CRUSHING.

"The attention of the cotton oil trade is being more and more directed to peanut production as a basis for the manufacturer of a very superior oil," said B. W. Couch of Fort Worth, president of the Texas Cotton Seed Crusher's association, "resulting in installing the machinery in a number of mills in preparation for the 1916 crush, and endeavoring to encourage the farmers to grow the crop commercially. We believe the farmers will have little difficulty in selling all the nuts they will grow this year.

"If the crusher can be assured of getting enough nuts to make the business of making the oil one worth while there is no doubt but that a large number of mills will be adapted to peanut oil production. The trade manufacturers handle cotton oil in car lots, the tank car usually containing 900 gallons of oil. On the basis a gallon of oil to the bushel of nuts, and thirty bushels of nuts to the acre, it will be seen that it will take the product of 300 acres to make a car of oil, and that whether the crop will be grown to an extent large enough for their purpose is a very reasonable and serious question to a crusher in connection with the cost of installing machinery and preparing for the crush. The oil mills of Texas take care of the seed output of 12,000,000 acres of cotton, on 2,000,000 tons of seed every year, less the amount kept for planting the next crop and that fed to livestock without being processed. An acre of cotton will give about one-fourth as much oil as an acre of peanuts, or 3,000,000 acres of land producing 90,000,000 bushels of nuts, would be required to equal the oil production possibilities of the present cotton acreage. Also, the value of peanuts in terms of pork dairy products and horse labor is so high that there is little possibility of the farmers to make a mistake in planting all the peanuts they like. The thing to do is for the farmers to make up their minds and notify the crusher in their neighborhood in sufficient numbers to justify him in going to the expense of changing his machinery to crush the nuts.

"The Texas Industrial congress has given us some very interesting figures showing that the peanut is a very profitable crop for the farmer at present prices. They inform us that the peanut can be grown over a wider area than cotton and at about 80 per cent of its cost. They estimate an average yield of Spanish nuts will be between thirty and forty bushels per acre, costing between $15 and $16 to produce, and that by selecting the seed and giving attention to cultural methods, sixty bushels per acre, at very little increased cost, may be easily produced. They say that the money value of peanuts, including the nuts and hay, not to be less than $30 to the farmer, which is about twice the cost of production, and that his showing of profits will be much better as he makes heavier yields.

"The congress has been holding contests in growing peanuts for two years and last year produced an average of 113 1/2 bushels of nuts per acre, with 180 bushels as the largest yield. This is a splendid lesson, as showing the possibilities of peanut production, since if they will not be equalled in the state average of ordinary peanut growing, they can at least be measurably approached by care and thought on the part of the growers.

"There is a great industry based on a great new field crop immediately before us if crushers can be assured of enough peanuts in time to make necessary preparations to crush, and if there can be enough difference in the price of the nuts and the oil to pay the cost of crushing and provide a reasonable profit in the business.

"There is a great area of land in Texas suitable for peanut growing and not suited to cotton. The two crops can, in my opinion, be grown without materially interfering with each other, especially since the machine-harvested peanut may be handled without getting in the way of cotton pickers for those farmers who grow both crops and offer no labor difficulty at all to the farmers whose land is not suited to cotton.

CONSTABLE BURROWS GETS HIS MAN.

From Friday's Daily: About six weeks ago some one shot into the depot at this place, and later, or about the same date, some one raised trouble with a train crew in the vicinity of Fitzee. From the best clues he could get, Constable Burrows spotted Howard Sharp, a young white man, as the guilty party, and has been on the lookout for him. A few days ago Mr. Newberry of the depot learned that Sharp had been arrested at Woodville, and would have to be turned loose for want of proof to hold him on any charge whereupon the constable went Woodville and took charge of the young man, bringing him back to this city and placing him in jail.

The Sentinel man yesterday Mr. Burrows exhibited a saw, a flashlight, about seventy-five keys, an automatic pistol, railroad guide, telephone instrument which is used for testing heart beats, and which burglars are said to use to test the click of a safe when trying to unlock it, and many other things which a burglar would have use for, which he says were taken from the young man when he was arrested.

The young man belongs to a good family whom he is causing much trouble in his waywardness if guilty. In fact, the trouble exists in either event, and friends of the family will sympathize with them.

GARRISON LOCALS.

From The News:

J. C. Shipp went to Nacogdoches Friday on business.

Prof. A. E. Day went to Nacogdoches Saturday on business.

Mart Griffin spent one day this week in Nacogdoches on business.

Oscar Floyd went to Nacogdoches and Lufkin this week on business.

J. W. Adams went to Nacogdoches one day this week on business.

The officers of Nacogdoches wired the Garrison officers last Friday to look out for a bad negro riding a freight train in that direction. Officers Vaught and Prince captured him when the train reached here and carried him to jail.

MR. W. E. BAXTER WITH THE DEAD.

From Friday's Daily: Mr. W. E. Baxter died at his home known as the Baxter House in this city last night after a lingering illness with pneumonia.

At the time of his death Mr. Baxter was fifty-five years, four months, and twenty-one days of age. He was born and reared in the Douglass community, coming to this city twenty-three years ago, since which time he has made his residence here continuously. He is survived by his widow, three sons and four daughters, and has two children dead.

Mr. Baxter was a member of the Masonic and Woodmen fraternities, in which orders he was a useful and honored member, and he was a good, honest, honorable, energetic citizen who worked for his living and lived up to the precepts of the golden rule, as a result of which he had many warm personal friends and was well-liked by all who knew him.

AN IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL.

From Saturday's Daily: The funeral service held over the remains of Mr. W. E. Baxter yesterday afternoon combined a most impressive event. Revs. Hotchkiss and Westbrook spoke words of feeling consolation, after which the Masonic fraternity took charge of the body and laid it to rest with the beautiful ritualistic service of the order.

A large crowd of sympathizing friends attended the service.

MRS. FRANK JONES WITH THE DEAD.

From Saturday's Daily: Mrs. Frank Jones died at the Nacogdoches Surgical Hospital at 6:00 o'clock this morning and her remains were shipped to Huntington this afternoon for interment.

Mrs. Jones was brought to the hospital for treatment from Lufkin some days ago, but the ravages of the malady with which she suffered had gained too much headway for good treatment and good nursing to relieve.

Mr. Jones and a party of other relatives accompanied the remains to Huntington.

The Jones family belong to the best citizenship of our neighborhood. Lufkin, and Nacogdoches people deeply sympathize with the survivors in the great grief that has been visited upon them.

FIRE AT TIMPSON.

The following report of a fire at Timpson is taken from Wednesday's issue of the Timpson Times:

The Masonic building located on South First street, was destroyed by fire last night. The blaze was first discovered about 7 o'clock, by parties who happened out of the building. They gave an alarm and soon a large number of citizens were on hand with buckets, and for a long time made a brave effort to extinguish the blaze. It is said by those first upon the scene that a fire caught from a stove in J. F. Tinkle's store. The bucket brigade succeeded in stopping the fire in the lower story where it first started, but not until the blaze had reached the ceiling, where it soon gained such headway that further efforts to save the building were useless. The crowd then withdrew only to see one of the city's prettiest two-story buildings go up in smoke.

The Mason's estimate their loss, building and all, at $4,500, with $3000 insurance. Mr. Tinkle, who occupied the second floor with a line of general merchandise estimates his loss at $4000 with $3000 insurance.

The Eastern Star has recently installed a new piano in their lodge rooms, and this too, was destroyed by the fire, but was protected by $250 insurance.

The loss falls rather heavily on the Masons but they will no doubt begin to plan the erection of another building as soon as possible.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

From Friday's Daily: Col. Louis J. Wortham, editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and representative of Tarrant county in the legislature, and Hon. Sam. H. Dixon, editor of the Semi-Weekly Farm News of Houston and representative of Harris county in the legislature, were visitors to the city this morning, coming to Nacogdoches to look after some business interests, and were kept pretty busy while here receiving the greetings of friends. They went out to the Wortham farm at Fitzee middle of the day, accompanied by Senator King and Giles M. Haltom, making the trip in Mr. King's car.

Col. Wortham has been strongly solicited to make the race for United States senator, and is a strong man in Texas politics who would arouse much interest if he were to enter the race.

BURGLARY ATTEMPTED METHODIST PARSONAGE.

From Monday's Daily: Last night while Bro. Hotchkiss and family were attending church some one evidently attempted to burglarize the parsonage, and as a result of the depredation a serious fire was narrowly averted.

When the family returned from church one room of the building was discovered to be full of smoke, and rushing to it they found the smoke issuing from a bureau drawer, in which some clothing was burning, and the flames had eaten their way almost through the bureau. Pursuing the investigation, the charred remains of matches were found scattered over the room, as well as a broken match in the drawer, and the supposition is that the intruder had struck matches in his search for valuables.

Among the charred matches, two were found in the hall leading to the room, lying by the side of a couple of trunks, and inside the room there were a number.

The family are positive that none of them had been in the room upon leaving, as it was a room they did not use much, and they are also positive that none of them had struck a match in or about the room.

Nothing was missing, and if it was the work of a burglar, he was evidently in search of jewelry.

ORGANIZING OIL CO.

Mr. A. G. Lestergett, the well known driller was in to see us this morning, and conversation with the Sentinel representative said that he was organizing an oil company at Huntington, and that he had a fine prospect at that place.

A geologist of reputation has recently investigated the indications in the proposed field at Huntington, and gives it as his opinion that a good oil field abounds in that vicinity, as a result of which the stock in the company is being readily taken and Mr. Lestergett hopes to get to work in actual drilling within a very short time.

Mr. Lestergett is a hard-working man, with an abiding faith that oil abides in this section of East Texas, and we hope he will be abundantly rewarded in his new venture.

Mrs. S. F. Baucom of Houston is visiting with relatives and friends in the city for a few days.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS.

About the month of November 1915, some hands were working the public road a mile or more south of town where it runs thru the lands of W. M. Cox along side of the railroad in what has long been known as the Mitchell old field, and they dug up two human skeletons. This was a great surprise, for no knowledge or tradition is known that points to these graves or skeletons. Mr. F. H. Hoya was born about six hundred yards east of there on the old Hoya family home in 1839, and as a small boy he played for many years over these bones. He can not throw any light upon the matter in any way except to say that this was an old field when he first remembers and it was then known as the old Bacey place, the old dwelling being near the site and in the vicinity of a very old cedar tree that is still standing on the hill side. If these bones could be inspected by competent anatomists, the age and sexes might be determined, and even their nationality, and possibly the approximate date of burial. Some pieces of pottery, or primitive crockery, were found with the bones. This would indicate that these people were of the age preceding white settlement in this vicinity.

There is a tradition, or possibly a vague history, that the first Spanish mission here was called "Our Lady of Guadalupe," and that it was located a mile or so below the town of Nacogdoches. Another similar tradition is that there was an early mission here called "Nuestra Senora del Pilar, del Nacogdoches," our lady of the Pilar of Nacogdoches, as if referring to the Nacogdoches Indians who lived here then, about the year 1700. The last member of this tribe of Indians was an old man called Voca Chula, meaning ugly mouth. He died about 1830.

In several other places, in and around this mysterious old town, human bones have been exhumed that are veiled in wondrous obscurity. Other instances of these finds have been reported from time to time, along the course of the La Nana creek a few miles lower down than these last were discovered. And they were usually found in grounds that appeared to have been cultivated in the long, long ago. Several instances of such discoveries in town are known, but these had more history. One was on the Cox corner where the Farmers and Merchants State Bank now stands. It was an early day church site and later was known as Peck's corner, and afterwards the Chevalier corner. Davy Crockett made a speech upon the front gallery, as the old-time porch was called, when on his way to his immortal fate in the Alamo. Another instance, similar in history to the last, was on the site where the present court house stands. An early Catholic church was located there, and burials were made in this church yard. One or both of these was probably the original Ybarbo church about the year 1800. Human bones were found in the big mound up near the college, but they were probably more modern. There was later a Spanish graveyard a few yards east of this.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

From Monday's Daily: Nacogdoches had two distinguished visitors yesterday in Mr. W. E. Douglass, general claim agent of the Sunset Central system, with headquarters at Houston, and Mr. C. Emmett, local claim agent with headquarters at Jacksonville.

Local Superintendent Greve took the gentlemen for a ride over the city, and they expressed ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

COMPROMISE BILL ON DEFENSE PLAN.

Washington, February 6.—Indications at this writing point to a compromise being effected at an early date between the small army and big army men in the house which will pave the way for the passage of a bill materially altering the organization of the land fighting forces. It will not be a bill carrying all of the recommendations set forth in what is known as the "administration program," neither will it respond entirely to the demands of Bryan and the pacifist forces.

A leader of the so-called anti-preparedness forces in the house told me he believed the military affairs committee would bring in a bill which will add some 50,000 men to the present standing army, will vote aid to the militia forces and the fortifications bill will be somewhat larger than in the past. The continental army scheme, he said would never be accepted by congress.

As for the Navy, he believes the two battleship program will be continued practically as in the past, but there will be a larger appropriation than usual for auxiliary supports, such as submarines and colliers. If his prophecy proves correct, it will be in line with the prediction made in these dispatches two months ago when the Sixty-fourth congress convened.

This same representative declared the country has misjudged most of the Southern democrats who have opposed the administration program. "Their aim has been chiefly to keep this country in this period of war and strife in the world from being stampeded into a career of militarism when no reason exists therefor. I for one am willing to vote every penny that may be asked for to strengthen the coast defenses if it can be shown where they are weak and likewise I am in favor of materially increasing the number of submarines with a range of 350 miles."

COUNTY COURT.

From Friday's Daily: County court held a session yesterday afternoon in the trial of a suit styled Zone Oil Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, vs. Troutman & Hunt of Appleby. Verdict was rendered in favor of the defendant.

A jury commission composed of Messrs. R. C. Monk, J. B. Lilly and G. H. King was organized, and these gentlemen went to work immediately selecting jurors for the next term of county court.

From Saturday's Daily: Several matters were disposed of in county court yesterday.

In the suit of Eli Westfall vs. a negro, appealed from the justice court of Garrison, the appeal was dismissed.

Motion for new trial in the Henry Banks case was overruled, and notice of appeal given.

Motion for new trial in the suit of A. C. Schattenberg vs. the H. E. & W. T. railroad was overruled.

The jury commission has turned in its list of jurors for the next term of court and has been discharged.

Today winds up the term of court.

NOT CURING THE INSANE.

Dr. Thomas W. Salmon of the Rockefeller Foundation says that he finds the method of handling the insane in Texas startling. He is to make a full report upon his investigations before the County Judge's Association at Waxahachie, Feb. 10-11. In the meantime, he outlines some of the defects, showing that insane are locked up with criminals, etc.

It is the belief of the Evening Journal that the State's short-coming in this regard is due less to inadequate expenditure than it is to unwise methods and unwise expenditure. The staffs of our State institutions for the insane are inadequate to treat the mentally sick; moreover, many of these mentally sick do not reach the State institutions until they have become incurable. Hence, these institutions appropriately are termed "asylums." They are asylums for the incurably insane, whereas, they ought first of all to be hospitals for the cure of the mentally sick. If they were such and the mentally sick were sent to them, without detention in jails, The Evening Journal ventures to assert that within a few years the cures would be such that the State and the counties combined would be supporting a smaller insane population than at present.

It costs a county about as much to support an insane person in jail as it would cost the State to support and treat him in a hospital. The combined cost to county and State for improper handling of an insane person is greater than would be the cost to the State if properly treating and supporting such person, for if there were proper treatment the State soon would be relieved of the burden in man cases.

The present method can not be defended upon the ground of economy.

Texas is spending a lot of money upon the insane, but spending it unwisely. Therefore we are traveling in a grewsome circle.—Dallas Evening Journal.

AS THE DAYS PASS.

No man can afford to lose his temper in these exciting times. It will do no good. Every fellow is only a mere wavelet on the sea of life, and if that wavelet should splutter into foam, that will soon go back to the sea, as if it never was. Nor should we let our sympathies snuffe and snort around and get all mixed up in the clamor of controversy. The best way is to wish and pray in silence that the right may prevail, unless we are called upon to wield a weapon in a close conflict.

One cannot help being interested, of course, and he may have his view and hold it strongly, but if it makes him mad and murderous, he should drop it, for it is then very likely to be the wrong view. Remember that whatever the subject of difference, whether of peace or war, or religion or politics, you may be quite sure you are on the right side, and the only thing left for you to do is to pray God far a sunny smile a happy heart and a clearer understanding of what is going on in the world. The real thing to do is to keep a stiff upper lip, that easily relaxes when things do not go as you wish them to go.—Ohio State Journal.

The Sentinel has an open letter from Hon. C. W. Howth of Beaumont announcing his candidacy for congress, reviewing his ideas of public questions and telling what he stands for. The letter will appear tomorrow, arriving too late for today.

BOND ISSUE TIED UP.

The Commissioners court of Trinity county has been estopped from a laudable undertaking by objecting tax payers as the following dispatch from Groveton of recent date indicates:

"In the district court here Judge Dean has granted an injunction restraining the commissioners court of this county from issuing $100,000 in warrants to be used in the construction of good roads and building bridges across the Trinity river. The injunction was applied for by certain tax payers of the county.

"The commissioners, it is understood, will appeal. Of the money, $30,000 was intended to be used to defray one-half the expense of building a bridge across the Trinity river which Trinity and Walker county proposed building."

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.

Nacogdoches had a distinguished visitor yesterday afternoon in the person of Dr. S. P. Brooks, candidate for United States Senator.

Dr. Brooks had been to Beaumont and Port Arthur, and stopped off here upon his return to renew acquaintance with old friends and incidentally make all the new ones he could. A number of friends called upon him at the Redland Hotel, after which he was shown over town by Hon. Moss Adams and met the people in his easy, happy manner, thanking them for any confidence they had manifested in him in the past and assuring them that he would appreciate their support in his present effort.

In discussing the outlook with reference to the race, Dr. Brooks appeared very optimistic, stating that he was meeting with fine encouragement from every quarter, and that his candidacy was gaining strength every day. He will visit Nacogdoches again later in the campaign, and address the voters on the issues of the day and his claims in the premises.

From Nacogdoches Dr. Brooks went out this morning for a little visit to Appleby and Garrison before leaving the county. He will formally open his campaign with a speech at Marshall on March 2nd, and will possibly jump to this city for the next speech, having been strongly solicited to do so by local friends.

The partial eclipse of the sun came on schedule time this morning and was viewed by many people with smoked glasses. Many wondered how its approach could be forecasted so accurately, and doubtless many of these same people would not have believed it possible had not similar events been witnessed before and their approach forecasted as in this instance. Some people do not believe the earth is round because they do not understand the philosophy of it.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

The great difficulty of the scientific mind is to comprehend the viewpoint of those who have not had similar training. The scientist can not impart the knowledge that he has gained because he does not understand how little the average person understands. We may know that the moon is round because we saw the round shadow on the sun. If the moon is round we may suppose that the earth is also round until we have better proof.—Temple Telegram.

The best "preparedness" that could engage the attention of Nacogdoches county people would be preparation to suitably handle and market the produce which is now handled and marketed in a slipshod, go-lucky any old way to get rid of it at any price it will bring. Like charity, it should begin at home.

RICH PRIZES FOR FARMERS.

Ten thousand dollars in gold is the challenge made by the Texas Industrial Congress to the counties of the State for best results in profitable production of field crops, livestock and gardens. Which county will make the best showing in 1916?

How to produce two bales of cotton on an acre that usually yields one-third to half a bale; how to grow 100 bushels of corn on a plot that ordinarily grows ten to twenty-five bushels; how to feed steers, baby beeves and hogs so as to make good money at it; how to save $50 to $100 a year in the family living expense by utilizing the back yard weed patches—these are the lessons of the congress, and for excellence in them it will pay prizes up to $200 in each of ten classes.

Beside the money prize to be earned and far more valuable, is to "know how" of doing these things, and it can only be learned by doing. The meaning of the prize offers of the congress can be stated in three words—"learn and earn."

There is no best section of the State. The prizes paid in the past five years prove that everywhere, from the Sabine to the Pecos and the Canadian to the Gulf, study and good work in growing the crops or garden and feeding the animal will produce notable results, far above the average, that point the way to success in life. Every boy and girl in every county, therefore, has equal opportunity.

The same acre and the same steer, baby beef, or hog entered in the county or local club may be entered in the congress contest, and may compete for its large cash prizes. Application blanks and instructions may be had by sending a postal card to the Texas Industrial Congress, Dallas.

Why not enter and measure one's work against some of the best work in the state? Success depends first on determination and then on study and staying with the job. Billy Minter, a frail 10 year-old lad of Austin, discouraged by his father and hampered by ill health, made up his mind to do his best with a garden, and although he knew nothing of gardening at the beginning, he set what is probably the record for the United States for vegetables produced in ordinary gardening.—Austin American.

AN APPRECIATIVE SUBSCRIBER.

The Sentinel is in receipt of a letter from J. M. Miles, who now lives at Colorado, Texas, in which he encloses a remittance for his subscription to the paper and expresses his appreciation. Among other things he says: "This is for the good, old Sentinel for the good news we get to read. We are lost when we miss a copy because it brings us news ahead of letters."

Further along in the letter Mr. Miles says that he and family enjoy good health in their new home, having not had a doctor's or drug bill to pay since he located at that place. He confesses to liking the people of good old Nacogdoches better, they seeming more like home-folks, and says that if that country was filled with Nacogdoches county people it would be far ahead of this country. Mr. Miles is also watching the announcement of candidates with considerable interest.

C. W. HOWTH MAKES HIS ANNOUNCEMENT.

Aspirant for Congressional Position Addresses Voters of Second District.

To the Voters of the Second Congressional District:

I have announced myself as a candidate to succeed Mr. Dies. Press of work at this time prohibits me from making an extended announcement of the things I shall stand for, but at a later time I hope to advise the people, through the columns of your paper, fully as to how I stand on all national issues in which they are interested. Suffice it to say that I am thoroughly in accord with the president's programme of preparedness, and if elected, I shall give him my support to put this country in a condition to protect itself. As our great president says, he is called upon to protect this country against war and at the same time protect the national honor, and being conversant with all the facts, he fears the time may come when he can not do both.

Therefore, he has asked the people to provide an increase in the regular army of about forty thousand men and seven hundred and fifty officers and to provide for four hundred thousand citizen volunteers to bind themselves to devote not exceeding two months time out of each year during a period of three years for military training and instruction in the use of modern implements of war; and also for an increase in the navy of 10 battleships, 6 battle cruisers, 50 destroyers, 15 fleet submarines, 85 coast submarines, 4 gun boats, 1 hospital ship, 2 fuel oil ships and 1 repair ship, to be scattered over a period of five years. It is not proposed to plunge the nation in debt for this small increase in the army and navy, but to distribute the burden throughout a period of years by raising the revenue in such a way that the burden will be slight and not be felt by even the rich, who will bear the greater part of it. Although we are the greatest and richest country in the world, our war rating is below that of Japan.

Mr. Dies, during his long service of more than seven years in congress, has been a disturbing element in the ranks of the democratic party; he is out of harmony with his party and out of joint with the time in which he lives. He is living in traditions of the past about which he talks so eloquently, but in my judgment our own times are quite as important as the times of our forebears; we have our problems to solve; we should not allow the bony hand of the dead past to reach out and govern the living. And when Mr. Dies, before even the details of the president's programme of preparedness is announced, takes occasion to visit New York and other points in a speaking tour against him, thereby seeking to divide the Democratic party at a time when the greatest crisis in our history is at hand, and during a presidential year when the Republicans, the Independents and the Bull-moosers are seeking to unhorse us, it is high time to say to Mr. Dies that he no longer represents the Democratic and patriotic sentiment of this Congressional District.

There is a pressing need for preparedness. The cost which seems to frighten Mr. Dies, as I shall show the voters of this district later, will be so trifling when distributed a hundred million people as not to be felt by anyone, and the failure to be prepared may result in great disaster.

There are other vital issues which I shall undertake to discuss at a later time. I am meeting with the utmost encouragement and enthusiastic support from all parts of the district, and feel absolutely sure that I shall succeed Mr. Dies.

Among other things that I am ambitious to do in congress is to study the alarming conditions of unrest, the ever-widening gulf between those who have and who have not, and to devise home legislation which may tend to mitigate this growing evil and menace.

I ask every voter in the district to search his conscience and his memory and see if he can find anything in all of Mr. Dies long record in congress as a reason why he should be retained. He has made a few flaming speeches, he has created dissensions, he has been at war with the administration, but as a quiet, thoughtful, earnest worker for the good of those he represents he has been found wanting.

Respectfully,
C. W. HOWTH.

PRAISES MANUAL TRAINING WORK.

I visited the Manual Training room at a work period, thinking I would get to see some work. My son had insisted on me coming to see this department.

Their work is all based on all kinds of wood work, in which they make different things of wood. They learn how to use tools, what tools to use, and how to keep them in order to use. They learn different grades of lumber, and different sizes, and it teaches them to do their own carpentering at home. They soon learn different sizes of nails to use. I can say for myself that I am glad Eugene kept on explaining the work to me until I let him take up manual training. I never gave it a thought until he explained the work to me. I let him take manual training this session. He is only fifteen years of age, and it would surprise anyone to know how he has learned to make different things. I think manual training is one of the greatest advantages that has been added to our school for boys. Everybody should have an opportunity to take manual training, for this work is used in all our homes. It teaches boys that such should be done. There are boys eighteen years old in our town who could not cut a pattern for a chicken coop. Who is to blame? Father says it is you, or you say you had never given this chance a thought. Now you have a chance to let your boy learn this work. It costs such a small amount that you would be surprised. Visit the manual training room at the high school and see for yourself an opportunity boys are missing, or see Mr. Carl Zimmerman, our manual training teacher. He has such an influence over boys that he is making a great success in this work. He also teaches other subjects in High School, and is one among Nacogdoches' leaders in different school work. As he is of so much service to our boys, let us learn for ourselves what use he is by giving our boys a chance to take manual training. Mr. Zimmerman says Eugene Johnson is one among the best manual training boys he has. Oh, my! You know that seems great to a mother or father to learn that his or her boy is among the greatest.

There are other boys who, if they had a chance, would be among the greatest. This is such an opportunity for the boy.

FOR DISTRICT CLERK.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce the candidacy of C. C. Watson for re-election to the office of District Clerk. Mr. Watson is one of the best known men in Nacogdoches county, having been raised in Nacogdoches county on the farm. He lived in the Shady Grove community on his farm until November 1912, when he assumed the duties of district clerk. He is a self-made man and has worked hard to qualify himself for usefulness. He is a married man with a large family that he is now educating.

As district clerk for the past three years, he has been faithful and diligent in the performance of his official duties, and has made everybody feel at home in the district clerk's office, where he is always attentive and courteous to everyone. He has the name of being a capable officer; has everything systematized—A place for everything, and everything in its place," is his motto.

For years and years the old court papers have accumulated in the office, and for the past thirteen months he has been engaged in classifying and filing them in their proper places. This has added much to the appearance of the office as well as to the convenience of citizens who have occasion to inspect these papers.

Everybody knows Claude Watson, and knows him to be a good, conscientious, public servant. The office will be in capable hands if the voters desire his further services.

He says that he has mastered the duties of the office and is in better position to render good service than ever before and solicits the support of the voters.

FOR DISTRICT CLERK.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Fred G. Westfall as a candidate for district clerk of Nacogdoches county, subject to the action of the democratic primaries.

Mr. Westfall is a son of Eli Westfall, a well known citizen of Garrison, and is a young man of sterling integrity and moral worth who is highly esteemed by those who know him. He is a graduate of Garrison High School, and has spent one year in the State University, and one of the great reasons for wanting this office is to enable him to finish school and prepare for life.

With his schooling in both the Garrison School and the University, together with his industry, and the application he has always employed in his undertakings, he is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office in a creditable manner, and if elected would make a good officer.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Mr. B. S. Shirley of Cushing as a candidate for the office of tax assessor of Nacogdoches county, subject to the action of the forthcoming democratic primaries.

Mr. Shirley is no stranger to the voters of Nacogdoches county, having made a most creditable race for this position in the last campaign. He has also taught school at different places over the county, and for many years was identified with the educational interests of the county. He is a good man, a good, progressive citizen in every way well qualified to discharge the duties of the position, and if elected would make the county a worthy public servant.

Hon. R. B. Walthall, editor of the Garison News and candidate for representative, spent yesterday afternoon in the city looking after some business interests and shaking hands with friends.

OBITUARY.

A sad occurrence has come to our community. The Death Angel visited our beloved T. H. Carnley's home and took from him his devoted wife on the 29th day of December, 1915, and the bereavement he was taken sick a few days later, his friends and children were called to his bedside, and every one stood by with weeping eyes and sad hearts to see the spirit take its flight unto God who gave it on the 2nd day of February, 1916, he, too, passing into the Great Beyond.

There were just five weeks between their deaths.
Mr. and Mrs. Carnley were both members of the Church of Christ at Swift. They were laid to rest in Swift Cemetery to await the resurrection morning. They leave a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, but to the children and brothers and sisters will say you must humbly bow to the mandate of Providence that so orders and shapes its ends that all things work together for good to those that love God, and I hope some day to understand all that appears to be severe and mysterious now. The loss of a mother is the loss of the truest and best friend; there is no such love as a mother's love. There are three children of you who feel this sentiment as you never felt it before. You can easily recall many little services undertaken in loving readiness for your good or pleasure; the willing hand to help, or the faithful warning of danger, or cheering words of inspiration to you. May God help each of you to imitate her virtues and honor her instruction by lives of usefulness and faithfulness, she who praised the Lord for His grace and salvation, and left an abiding testimony that Jesus can make a dying bed soft as the downy pillows are; while on His breast we lean our heads, and breathe our lives out sweetly there.

Children, you ought to so live that you could say for a short time, we bid farewell; soon we expect to take thy hand, and with thee sing redemptions joyful refrain in that happy meeting. We shall join the innumerable company, and the bonds of our union shall be broken no more.
Bless God for the cheering hope!

J. L. HARGIS.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends, who were so kind to during the illness of our father and mother, and who stood by us until their death.
We thank you very much.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS HAD GOOD MEETING.

Camp Raguet, Confederate veterans, had a good meeting in this city last Saturday, with about twenty members present.

The first matter to engage the attention of these grand old gentlemen was the election of delegates to the annual re-union to be held in Birmingham, Alabama in May, and the following delegates and alternates were elected:

Delegates—J. T. Watson and J. S. Doughtie.
Alternates—N. Pitts and G. W. Crawford.
This matter being disposed of, the next matter was the annual election of officers, which resulted as follows:
J. C. Fall, Commander.
John Burrows, First Lieutenant.
E. B. Lewis, Second Lieutenant.
M. V. Raugh, Third Lieutenant.
W. M. Easley, Fourth Lieutenant.

Jno. S. Doughtie, Adjutant.
W. M. Crossland, Quartermaster.
G. K. Clark, Commissary.
Dr. J. E. Mayfield, Surgeon.
Dr. W. P. Fears, Assistant Surgeon.
F. G. Briley, Chaplain.
Jno. C. Fall, Treasurer.
W. S. Denman, Sergeant Major.

I. N. Dill, Officer of Day.
J. T. Watson, Color Sergeant.
W. R. Baker, Videt.
N. Pitts, First Color Guard.
J. J. Shirley, Second Color Guard.
Miss Willie Denman, Sponsor.

The number of these grand old gentlemen is growing fewer with each roll call, some having crossed the Great Divide while others are too feeble to be in attendance upon the meetings, and the patriotic people should leave nothing undone that will contribute to their happiness in this the evening of their lives.

WEST END SCHOOLS WILL HAVE MEET.

The schools of the western part of the county will have an athletic and intellectual meet at Cushing February 11-12, and the event promises a most interesting occasion.

On Friday night a big debate will be had, followed with a Boys' Senior Declamation contest, in which representatives of the different schools will participate.

Saturday morning the juniors will entertain with different athletic events followed with athletic events by the seniors. At 4 p. m., a game of basket ball will be played by Nat vs. Libert. Saturday night the features will be a Boys' Junior Declamation, Girls' Senior Declamation, Girls' Junior Declamation, and a spelling Contest.

The program has been filled with interesting events for both days and evenings, and will doubtless be one of the most interesting events ever enjoyed in the progressive little city of Cushing.

NEW FLOOD WARNING.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 7.—Owing to rains in the lower Mississippi Valley within the last 48 hours, the local weather bureau today issued a new flood warning, increasing predicted high water stages in the Mississippi River. The bulletin stated that if the levees remain intact, water now in sight indicates that the 53.5 feet at Natchez by February 25 and stages of 42.5 at Baton Rouge and 21 to 21.5 at New Orleans, early in March, depending upon the winds.

State and federal engineers stated that several thousand men are at work enforcing levees from Vicksburg to the mouth of the Mississippi.

Speaking of the Weather

February and March bring weather conditions very trying to most people.

Colds, coughs, sore throat, tonsillitis, catarrh, bronchitis, pneumonia, are all prevalent.

These are all catarrhal conditions. All dependent upon the same cause, climatic changes. Sloppy weather underfoot. High winds, chilling blasts, changing from day to day. Thermometer dancing a jig. Barometer following suit.

All of the acute catarrhal conditions above referred to, call for

PE-RU-NA

They call loudly, too. If Peruna is neglected these catarrhal conditions are liable to become chronic. One bottle of Peruna used at the right time will save months, even years, of suffering and sickness.

TO YOUNG LADIES ONLY
Which Will You Do. Win Your Independence or Marry a Two-Bit Man.

You are at the cross roads of life. There are two paths open to you. One leads to your independence, the other to dependency. You are to choose, which of these roads you prefer to travel. One requires effort, the other indifference. To travel one, you must have real backbone and determination, the other, a string for a backbone, and indifference will do. Some girls say "The lion is in the way." "These girls like gumption, get-up-and-get, they reason that if so-and-so and such-and-such a thing had not happened they could have made a great success." The lion is in the way. Fear and indifference has entered into their daily life and robbed them of their vim and courage. It's our life work to train people to determine to get up and do things, develop their latent talents quicken their perception that they may lead a higher and more useful training in Bookkeeping, Business Methods, Shorthand, Stenography, Telegraphy, Business English, Business Law, Business Arithmetic, Spelling, Business Writing, Rapid Calculation, Money and Banking, Corporation Finance, Taxation and Public Finance, Private Secretaryship, Salesmanship, Advertising, Real Estate, Commercial History, Higher Accounting, Economics, Parliamentary Law and Managerialship, together with the use of the most modern office appliances, gets the lion out of the way, gives the girl her independence, places her where she can make an honorable living, in any city in the land; command the respect of the very best people. If in after life, she is left a widow she knows how to care for it. If on the other hand, she is left and has to support herself she can do so by accepting a good salaried position in some office.

MINISTER WAS SHOT BY ENRAGED WOMAN.

Sherman, Texas, Feb. 7.—Rev. J. M. Cagle, aged 40, a prominent Baptist minister of Sherman, was shot and probably fatally wounded, on the east side of the public square here this afternoon by Mrs. Annie Faust, who lives five miles east of Denison. The woman pulled a revolver from her handbag and fired five shots into the man's body. When arrested by a deputy sheriff a few minutes later, Mrs. Faust said the minister had insulted her, and that she had fired upon him to revenge the insult. Mrs. Faust came to town Monday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Morton Henry, supposed to be close friends or relatives, and who live in the same vicinity. They came to Sherman on a shopping trip, and the woman had just emerged from a local store when she encountered the minister, and the shooting commenced. If any words were passed between the two, they could not be learned, as none of the bystanders seemed to have heard them.

After Cagle fell in the street, wounded, he gasped: "Take me to my wife; I have but a few moments to live, and I do not want to die until I have talked with her." Mrs. Faust surrendered without argument to the officers who called for her.

THE EMMONS HOTEL

Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout.

It is now asserted with confidence that these painful effects due to uric acid in the system are entirely eradicated. A new remedy, called "Anurie," has been discovered by Doctor Pierce, which he finds is 37 times more potent than lithia, and is the cause of a drainage outward of the uric acid with which it comes in contact within the body. It will ward off backache, headache, and the darting pains and aches of rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia—of those diseases which are caused by too much uric acid, such as gout, sciatica, renal calculus. "Anurie" prolongs life because old people usually suffer from hardening and thickening of the walls of the arteries, due to the excess of uric acid in the blood and tissues.

Send Dr. Pierce, chief physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for large trial package, or obtain 50c. package now at druggists.

He was valedictorian of his graduating class, and he soon became one of the foremost citizens of our town. He helped make Appleby.

Beware Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

A TROUGH TRAIN
DALLAS TO N. O.

With New Train Freight Can Be Shipped or Received From Either Place Quicker.

Mr. H. J. Michsch, assistant superintendent of the T. & N. O. with headquarters at Houston, has been in the city a day or two looking after business of the line.

In company with the local Superintendent Greve, Mr. Michsch made the Sentinel office a pleasant call this morning, and from him we gathered information about the new freight train that has been put on over the T. & N. O. from New Orleans to Dallas, an enterprise that will be worth much to the commercial and industrial interests of this community, as well as other places along the line.

The new train will leave New Orleans at 8:30 p. m., arriving at Nacogdoches 7:20 a. m. of the second day, making the trip in one day and two nights. This train will also handle merchandise loaded at Beaumont at 5:00 p. m. the afternoon before it arrives here the next morning at 7:20. Freight loaded at Dallas will reach us next morning at 7:45.

As an illustration of the value this train will be had to Nacogdoches we have an experience already. Mr. W. U. Perkins ordered a cotton seed oil tank from New Orleans which he did not expect to receive under a week. The tank was loaded out of New Orleans on the afternoon of the 3rd and reached him this morning.

Mr. Michsch says that this train will be maintained at least six months in the try-out, and if it proves self-sustaining will be maintained permanently.

An effort is being made to get the E. & W. to put on a similar train out of Shreveport. We already have a fast freight train from Houston, and if we can now get similar service from the Louisiana metropolis, Nacogdoches will enjoy a very superior freight service which will be of incalculable value to the industrial and commercial interests of this city.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. HART-TOWNES.

The following report of the marriage of Frank Hart, a popular young barber of this city, to a popular young lady of Henderson, is taken from this week's issue of the Henderson Times:

"Mr. Frank Hart of Nacogdoches and Miss Jessie Townes of this city were united in marriage Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. J. H. Gaston, Rev. J. H. Woodward officiating. Both young people have many friends here who were not aware of their intentions but who extend congratulations and best wishes. The bride is a young lady with a sweet Christian character, lovable disposition and industrious. Mr. Hart spent some time here as a barber in the Henderson Shaving Parlor and during his stay, won the confidence and esteem of his acquaintance. He is now located in Nacogdoches where he enjoys a splendid position.

"Mr. and Mrs. Hart left on the afternoon train for their home, carrying with them the best wishes of their friends."

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Nacogdoches' evidence of their merit.

Mrs. E. Asfororia, N. Fredonia St., Nacogdoches, says: I had backaches and pains in my hips. My kidneys were irregular in action for a long time. Eugene Mucklerpy and others are loading out a car of sweet potatoes for Houston today.

This shipment is made in answer to recent inquiry received by Agent Greve who interested himself in informing producers that he had found a market for any surplus in the community, and if a good settlement is enjoyed, as it will be, the probabilities are that several more cars will be shipped out as we understand that there is quite a surplus lot in the community.

OBITUARY

In memory of Paralee, wife of Brother W. A. Skillern, who was born in Haywood county, Tennessee, March 28, 1838; professed faith in Christ in 1853; married to W. A. Skillern June 17, 1856, and to this union was born sixteen children, eight boys and eight girls, seven of whom preceded her to the great beyond.

Sister Skillern departed this life January 27, 1916. She was widely and favorably known, of confiding faith in Christ, a happy Christian. Sister Skillern united with the Congregational Methodist Church Dec. 1896, coming from the M. E. Church, South, and lived a truly devoted Christian life until the spirit departed, mortality returning to the God who gave it. Being surrounded with friends and loved ones, Sister Skillern expressed herself as being ready for the exchange, her way clear, and her hope well anchored in Christ. The writer served as pastor of her church thirteen years and can say she was a true friend to all that pertained to righteousness. I have lost a friend, the home a friend, and the church a friend, the community a friend, but our loss is Heaven's gain. Weep not, dear friends, for if you believe that Christ died and rose again, then that sleep in Christ will God will bring with him when the jewels are gathered for Heaven's garner.

Sleep, blessed sleep,
From which no one wakes to weep.

The Messrs. Smith have many warm friends in the city who were pleased with the opportunity to meet them again, and who regret that Raymond had to hurry back to San Francisco to resume his duties with the U. REMINISCENCES OF THE KU KLUX KLAN.

The following from Mrs. Dudley Jones, which appeared in yesterday's issue of the Houston Chronicle, will be of interest to the older settlers of the community as the family once lived here, and Mr. Jones was buried here:

From Hearne the following letter, addressed to the editor of the Chronicle, has been received:

I notice in your paper that the "Birth of a Nation" is to be played in Houston starting on the 5th. My husband, Dudley Jones, organized the second Ku Klux Klan in South Carolina, in Chester County. A klan hung a negro, captain of a state militia, an organization of negroes that had threatened to kill from the cradle up. A battle was fought within three miles of Chester and near my father's place, between klansmen and negroes, who were marching to attack Chester. Women lived in terror of their lives. South Carolina was put under military rule. Men were arrested and put in prison. My husband was informed by a faithful servant on the place that the soldiers had inquired of him whether Mr. Jones was a Ku Klux or not. The darkey told the soldiers that he thought not. In a few minutes after the darkey told Mr. Jones of this he ordered his buggy and drove 15 miles after night, took a train and landed in Arkadelphia, Ark. I was left alone that night with a nephew about fourteen years old. I went to my father's and stayed three weeks. As soon as I learned where Mr. Jones was I went to him—wrote him when I would leave home. He did not receive my letter. He wrote me he would meet me in Memphis. I did not receive his letter as I had left home before it arrived. He went to Memphis. We passed each other on the road. I was in the stage, he on a load of cotton. It was before the Iron Mountain was built to Texarkana. Mr. Jones is dead. I have his "cross of honor." I would like to see the play. Hays pardoned the Ku Klux. We made a visit to South Carolina three years afterward. My husband knew the traitor. The traitor caused an old gentleman, Captain Brown to be arrested. He had the by-laws of the clansmen in his home. He was in no way connected with the acts of the klan, though he had two sons in the order. My father and a brother-in-law belonged to the klan. The house is still standing where the klan met and organized, but has been remodelled. Respectfully,

Mrs. Dudley Jones
Hearne, Texas, Box 71.

JUDGMENT REVERSED PARSONS INSURANCE.

The Supreme Court today reversed the judgments of the Court of Civil Appeals and the District Court and remanded the case of Knights of Maccabees of the World vs. Mrs. Lena Parsons from Angelina, to be dismissed there at the plaintiffs cost. In granting the writ of error in this case the court concluded a case that has been of some interest because of the peculiar features involved.

According to the record in 1913, one George Frank Parsons was seen to go into a freight depot at Lufkin, Angelina county. Several minutes afterwards there was a terrific explosion apparently caused by some dynamite stored there. Portions of blood and bone were found in the ruins. Parsons was never seen afterward. Recently, however, Parsons was discovered in California and identified. In the meantime Mrs. Lena Parsons had secured a judgment in the lower court against the Knights of the Maccabees of the World on an insurance policy. The principal issue at the trial was whether Frank Parsons was in fact dead. Facts of the case developed that some boys shortly after the explosion, had carried some blood and bones, which they had secured from a slaughter pen or pasture near by into the ruins Austin American.

The following is one item of the court of civil appeals at Galveston yesterday: "Motion to Dismiss appeal submitted: Mrs. Lena Parsons vs. Mome Benefit Association of Angelina County et al, from Harris."—Lufkin News.

W. L. Cox, superintendent of the T. & N. O. at Jacksonville, had the misfortune to get his leg broken while boarding a train at Beaumont a day or two ago. Mr. Cox has relatives and friends in this city who will deeply sympathize with him in his misfortune.

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 252 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness. For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BANKER GETS FIVE YEARS IN PRISON.

District Court has been occupied most of this week in the trial of the Mt. Selman bank cases. In the case of E. A. Burns, cashier of said bank when it was closed some time ago, a plea of guilty was entered Thursday and a verdict of five years given by the jury. Burns is charged with altering the books of the bank, and we understand that he is to enter a plea of guilty in two cases and the remainder of the ten cases are to be dismissed.

Other parties charged with conspiracy to wreck said bank are under indictment, and we understand that Burns is to be used by the State as a witness in the other cases.—Rusk Press-Journal.

OIL EXCITEMENT AT CONCORD.

Reliable information comes to us that our neighbor community on the East, Concord, is experiencing some excitement over the prospects of oil development. Surveyors have been in that section for quite some time, mapping the country, and in their wake comes representatives of oil associations who desire to lease land in a given territory, which centers around the local gin plant. Leases are being taken on this land, with a promise of drilling for oil, and of course Concord people are getting interested and have sufficient provocation for same. Here's hoping the good people of Concord will strike a gusher that will "besmatter" Mt. Enterprise.—Mt Enterprise Herald.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

VOTES THE RELEASE OF THE PHILIPPINES.

Washington, February 2.—A definite policy contemplating Philippine independence within four years was approved by the senate today. Vice President Marshall casting the deciding vote in favor of the Clarke amendment to the Philippine bill directing the president to withdraw American sovereignty within a four-year period. The vote, which followed weeks of debate, was 41 to 41. An effort to recommit the bill was defeated and final senate action on the measure, which has not yet passed the house was deferred until tomorrow.

Administration senators, in supporting the Clarke amendment, maintained that some definite provision was necessary to square with the independence declaration in the Baltimore platform. President Wilson has made no public comment on the proposed amendment, but senators who had discussed it with him let it be known he was not opposed to it. Chairman Hitchcock of the Philippine committee opposed the amendment, and was supported by 11 democrats. Five republicans, Borah, Clapp, Kenyon, LaFollette and Works, voted for the amendment. Besides Senator Hitchcock, democrats who opposed it were Beckham, Lea of Tennessee, Lewis, Myers, O'Gorman, Phelan, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Saulsbury and Walsh.

PROMINENT CITIZEN OF RUSK DEAD.

The following notice of the death of a well known citizen of Rusk is taken from the Jacksonville Banner:

Mr. E. M. Priest died at his home in Rusk last Wednesday at the age of 75 years, and was buried yesterday morning. Deceased had been a citizen of Rusk since early youth, and was a son of Judge M. Priest, who served as district judge shortly after the ending of the Civil War. He had been an elder of the Presbyterian church for more than fifty years, and an Odd Fellow of perhaps forty years standing.

Mr. Priest is survived by his aged wife and three sons: Edgar Priest of Lubbock, F. M. and Dr. R. C. Priest of Rusk. Mrs. Priest is a sister of Joe G. Summers and Mrs. W. R. Allen, the latter of Jacksonville. Deceased was also a brother of Mrs. J. H. David of this city, and an uncle of Judge S. P. Wilson, formerly of this city. He has two brothers living—Albert and M. D. Priest.

Mr. Priest had been in failing health for several years, and his death was not unexpected. He had lived a long and useful life, and has now gone home to his reward.

THE CAVANAUGH CASE.

M. D. Cavanaugh was an employee of the Wells Fargo Express Company in this city at the time the H. E. & W. T. depot was wrecked by an explosion, and although in another building across the track from the one destroyed, the young man sustained injuries from which he has never recovered.

In the District Court of Angelina County Mr. Cavanaugh was awarded judgment against the railway Co. for personal injuries in the sum of $7,500. This case was appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals at Galveston and later affirmed. Later it was carried to the Supreme Court on a writ of error, and this week the application of the defendant railway company was refused by that tribunal.—Lufkin News.

DIES WILL NOT ALTER HIS VIEWS.

Washington, Feb. 4.—"If I believed the majority of the people of my district were for preparedness, I would resign my office as I will not support the program."

That is what Representative Martin Dies of Beaumont wired 225 of his leading fellow townsmen this morning, who in a long telegram called upon him to support the president's program. Mr. Dies is a leader of the anti-preparedness forces in the house.

THE COUNTY JUDGE OF SHELBY DEAD.

The Center papers announce the death of Judge Hoya B. Short county judge of Shelby county, which sad event occurred at the home of his father, Judge H. B. Short in Center, Tuesday.

Judge Short was twenty-nine years of age, and was one of the most promising young lawyers of East Texas. As county judge he has distinguished himself with brilliant service, and notwithstanding the fact that he was yet a young lawyer, he ranked with the leading legal lights of the country, and had he not been interrupted with illness in the prime of his career, he would doubtless have made a great record in life.

The remains of the distinguished young man were laid to rest in the cemetery at Center yesterday in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, many people from other places attending the service, and the family received many messages of sympathy, among the number being a message of feeling consolation from Governor Ferguson.

It is much easier to pick a quarrel than it is to get out of a fight.—Baltimore American.

G. D. Bennett, a painter and paper-hanger of Mansfield, La., is in the city prospecting. Mr. Bennett enjoyed a flourishing business in Mansfield during the boom, but says that there is not much building in that city since the oil excitement died down.

YES

We have Fertilizer for sale, and if you don't use it you may make very little cotton.

There is much said about reducing cotton acreage. This is what you should do, but while reducing the acreage be sure you don't reduce the production.

If you would compete with the world in growing cotton, you must make it cost less to produce. Make more per acre.

The only way to do this is to quit over-cropping.

Use Fertilizer

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE.

From Wednesday's Daily: Mr. T. T. Taylor and Mrs. Mollie Tipton were married at the court house yesterday afternoon, Judge Frank Huston officiating.

The couple hail from Shelby county where they have many friends with whom The Sentinel joins in congratulations and good wishes.

"Uncle" Jim Campbell, of the Appleby community, was in town today and while here met up with his boyhood chum, Constable J. L. Burrows. This is the first time these two men have met in quite a number of years and they were as proud to see each other as long lost brothers. Forty years ago these two men were rivals for the same girl, but they both "stuttered" and the other fellow beat them out of the girl, therefore they have been life-long friends and sympathizers.

RURAL CARRIERS WILL HAVE MEET.

The Sentinel is informed that the Rural mail carriers will have a meeting in Garrison on February 22.

Nacogdoches county has a goodly number of rural carriers, and when they come together they always have a most enjoyable convention, as well as gather much valuable information by swapping experiences with each other and discussing the service upon which they are engaged.

It is reported that Som W. Reid is very low at his home six miles north-east of town, where he has lived more than half a century on his father's headright survey of land. He is over 80 years old, and is a Confederate veteran. He has a son, George Reid, living in our town.

COLORED TEACHER DEAD.

Wm. A. Fearst, principal of the colored school for a number of years past, died at his home in Lufkin after a brief illness. In fact, he was teaching the day on which death followed at night, the cause of his death being a severe hemorrhage of the lungs.

He was a negro of the true Southern type, one who always recognized the superiority of the white race and never missed an opportunity to teach his pupils that all things good to be accomplished by them comes from their white friends. He was raised and educated in this county and will be missed by a great many, being liked by both the white and colored people, and his place as a teacher will be hard to fill. A FRIEND.
