TELEPHONE PEOPLE MET THE COUNCIL

As per previous agreement and announcement, a committee of officials of the Southwestern Telephone Company met with the city council in an open meeting held at the city hall last evening.

Mr. J. E. Famworth, vice-president of the company, and Mr. C. A. Gates, general manager, were the spokesmen for the telephone company, who went into a detailed discussion of the matter, reviewing the rebuilding of the telephone plant at this place, asserting that the old plant they took over was practically worthless to them and that they had charged off twenty thousand dollars which does not come into the estimate of figures which they use in computing expense of the business here, that Nacogdoches now has a first-class plant which will take care of the business for many years to come without further investment, etc., and that the company had lost something over three hundred dollars on the Nacogdoches enterprise in the past year. These statements led up to a general discussion in which inquiry was made as to whether or not any of the long distance business was included in this statement in which a loss was claimed, and the statement was made that twenty-five per cent of the long distance business was credited to the business and included in the state-

GEE WHIZ

Have you used one of these Spring Tooth Cultivators? Take one to your farm—use it six days—and you will say "Gee Whiz I don't see how I have done without you so long." We positively guarantee them to give satisfaction.

"Gee Whiz" Cultivators or Harrows come with seven spring teeth. All these teeth are removable and you can easily make it a 4, 5 or 6 tooth harrow. It is easy to adjust and can be made into a "V" shape, "A" shape, side harrow, or into most any other shape.

"Gee Whiz" is only one of the many labor saving tools that we want you to see. Come to our store when you are in town and see Miss Dixie Shawnee Jr., Mr. Bill, Red King, Southern Queen, Lucky Jim and all the other members of the Avery family. We are anxious for you to meet them for we know that you will be pleased with their appearance and we guarantee that what they do is alright.

Don't disappoint the AVERY'S. Come to see them when you are in town.

AUTOMOBILE VICTIM.

The information is gleaned from the Lufkin News that Cooper Chesnut, a well known young man of Lufkin, was seriously injured in an automobile accident last Saturday, his skull being fractured and receiving other injuries. Yesterday's papers contains the encouraging news that the young man is still alive and that there is now some hope for his recovery.

STORM AT LONGVIEW.

Longview, Texas, April 23.—This city and the country between here and Big Sandy was swept by a terrific winstorm this afternoon. Nearly twenty houses were blown from their foundations, many barns were demolished and reports from the country say livestock suffered. So far no lives have been reported lost.

ment. The speaker claimed this was a liberal allowance, so recognized by the commission and all expert auditors.

A discussion of the business of other towns was brought in by way of comparison, and when Longview was mentioned, where the company claimed some little profit was being realized, Mayor Matthews of this city produced a letter from Mayor Bodenheimer of the neighboring city in which the statement was made that the telephone company pays Longview an annual franchise tax of $500. This activity on the part of the mayor, at this juncture, rather confused the discussion with the speakers, who claimed ignorance of the knowledge of such a condition, and expressed the belief that there must be some mistake in the statement of the Longview mayor.

Hon. Beeman Strong, Judge Blount, Aldermen Gintz, McKinney and others propounded a number of questions, the major portion of which were answered in a lucid manner, and the discussion throughout was of a friendly nature in which the city council looked energetically and faithfully after the interests of the people of the city, and the representatives present looked faithfully to the interests of the telephone company.

An itemized statement of the disbursements of the telephone company, as exhibited at the meeting, was filed with the city council, and will be investigated by these gentlemen to determine whether or not each charge is a valid account and the whole a righteous claim for the raise in rates the company is now contemplating.

While the members of the city council, and the citizens present looked carefully to the interests of the people of the city in the discussion, and contended vigorously for every point in their favor, none were inclined to be arbitrary, and listened to the discussion of the telephone people with most respectful attention and consideration. If the council finds the figures and arguments submitted correct, we do not believe it is the sense of the council, or of the people of Nacogdoches, to interpose further objection. On the other hand, we commend the city council for the thorough investigation it has and is pursuing, offering the only means of absolute fairness to all concerned.

It is a fact, of which we should all feel proud, that Nacogdoches now has a very fine telephone system, and the telephones are entitled to the same consideration that would be accorded an investment of any other nature, and if it is necessary to give them this raise to make the investment self-sustaining, they are entitled to it. If, on the other hand, the statement is padded with artificial charges, the people served are entitled to the very thorough representation they are receiving through the council and their legal counsel.

Upon the further investigation the city council will likely issue a statement of their findings, and if we do not mistake the temper of the people, all will be satisfied with the verdict of these gentlemen in the matter.

TEXAS LIQUOR LAW OF '07 HELD INVALID.

Washington, April 25th—The Texas statute of 1907 imposing a tax of $5000 a year on each place handling liquor C. O. D. was held invalid today by the Supreme Court as an interference with interstate commerce. The decision, so announced by the supreme court in delivering its rose before the passage of the Webb-Kenyon law and did not involve it in any way.

The decision was announced in a suit brought by Abram Rosenberger, a Kansas City, Missouri, wholesale dealer, for damages against the Pacific Express Co. for failure to deliver at points in Texas liquor shipments over the company's lines by Rosenberger from Kansas City. The company sought to return the liquor to Rosenberger on the ground that after the receipt of the liquor, but before its delivery, the Texas statute went into effect. The Missouri supreme court decided the Texas statute was valid.

REMEMBERED DEPUTY WITH NICE WATCH

In token of his appreciation for the faithful and efficient service he has always rendered as an officer, and for his bearing as a moral, upright man, Sheriff Spradley this morning presented his chief deputy S. S. Myers, with a nice gold watch.

In a quiet, unassuming way, Mr. Myers is very energetic in the discharge of every duty incumbent upon him, and the token of appreciation from his superior in rank was worthily bestowed.

Rev. A. N. Nash came up from Polk county Sunday night for a visit to his family in the city.

O. M. GIBBS, Editor

The Sentinel has received from Congressman Dies a copy of the Year Book issued by the National government. It is a great book, full of statistical and other valuable information, making it a valuable addition to any library.

Every man who constructs a good sidewalk in front of his premises at this time is a benefactor, while he who fails retards progress that affects his own convenience and the value of his own property, as well as that of his neighbors. Come on, "fellers," and let's do our duty.

If you had a cross fence with a neighbor and had to do all the work in keeping it in repair, you would think he was a very selfish and undesirable citizen. If you build a good sidewalk in front of your premises and your neighbor refuses, the principle is the same.

Announcement is made by the retiring owner that Carl Thorn, who has been employed with the Garrison News the past several months, has purchased the Mt. Enterprise Herald, and will in the future devote his energies to the publication of that paper. Mr. Thorn is a good young newspaper man and will keep the Herald up to the standard of excellence it has maintained under Mr. Hays' administration.

The Sentinel editor is grateful to Mr. Ed. M. Weatherly of Garrison for another crate of his mineral water which came yesterday afternoon, unsolicited, and at a time when it was needed to avoid that "tired feeling" incidental to the season of spring weather. This water is a great specific for all kinds of stomach and liver trouble, and is another of the undeveloped resources that will help make East Texas famous one of these days.

People of Nacogdoches who fail or refuse to build good sidewalks in front of their premises will deny themselves and their neighbors the advantages of free mail delivery, as well as the convenience the improvement would afford them individually and the enhancement in the value of their property that would accrue therefrom. No one can afford to neglect this important matter longer, and we hope all will join heartily in a campaign of sidewalk building.

It is due Mr. Greer and others to state that nothing "exclusive" was intended in the meeting held a few days ago to determine the matter of having a short course this summer. Mr. Orms was at the hotel where a number of visitors gathered to pay him a social call, his time was nearly up in which he must depart from the city, and it was he that suggested that enough were present to start a work in which the whole community would agree and appreciate.

Farmers who expect to grow sweet potatoes for market should bear in mind that the only varieties in demand as a commercial proposition are Nancy Hall, Dooly Yams and Pumpkin Yams. If you haven't seed of this kind it will pay you to buy slips of the right variety. There is plenty of time to grow the variety for which there will be a demand. It would also be profitable to every farmer growing sweet potatoes to write the Department of Agriculture at Austin or College Station for bulletins on the subject, which will be furnished you free, the only expense being the postage you use in making the request. Statistics show that sixty per cent of the potato crop is wasted with bad methods of production and handling. This can be entirely overcome with the better methods and no increase of expense.

Following this good rain would be a mighty good time to build some sidewalk. Get busy, you lazy rascal.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found a communication from the pen of Capt. W. T. Wilson, discussing the sidewalk matter, to which we call attention. We would be pleased to have communications from others in this matter, either for or against the idea, as it is through discussion that we arrive at the merit of any proposition.

The Sentinel has been informed that there is some opposition to the double primary this year, and that an effort will possibly be made to have the committee do away with the second this time. No good democrat should object to abiding the will of the majority, which is the only way the integrity of any party can be maintained, and all good democrats will insist that there be no change.

This sidewalk proposition is a question of vital importance to Nacogdoches, Jacksonville, Lufkin and other neighboring towns will be quick to pick up the idea and go after free mail delivery. Let old Nacogdoches, first in history, and first in many other things of importance, be first in securing this great convenience and the prestige it will give to the town. Do your duty fellers.

It is a common remark that politics were never so quiet at this season of a campaign year. It is best for both the politicians and the country that this condition should obtain throughout the campaign. A decision made in cool deliberation is preferable any time to a sentimental overflow supported only by an artificial foundation, and it is a mighty good policy to scratch the man who tries to start something, remembering that his chief object in the race is to win the office.

Nacogdoches, the town so rich with historical lore, and noted for its chivalry and patriotism, good schools, good churches, and civic pride, can't afford to allow Jacksonville, its progressive neighbor up the T. & N. O., to lead in anything in which we have an even start. Listen at this from yesterday's issue of the Daily Progress of that city: "Some of our citizens have fixed up their sidewalks since the mayor told them that an inspector would visit Jacksonville to see if our town could secure free mail delivery. There are many more who should look after their sidewalks before they can be counted as first-class for a letter carrier to travel."

The United States sends word to Mexico that it will not withdraw its troops until Carranza effectively crushes Villa, or gives this nation an opportunity to do so. To have done otherwise would have brought the American nation into disrespect with both the other nations and people at home, and notwithstanding this new rule may lead to complications, the condition is inevitable. Every loyal American would prefer to preserve the honor of his nation, and at the same time those who are familiar with Mexican affairs realize that the duty is becoming imperative when the United States should restore peace and order to the stricken republic even though it should engage all factions in the conflict.

KILLOUGH PLEAS- WITH BELL COUNTY

G. T. Killough, recently appointed superintendent of the Temple-Belton experiment station, arrived in Temple yesterday and is getting lined up for his work. Mr. Killough has been assistant to Mr. McNess, superintendent of the Nacogdoches station, for two years, and is an A. & M. graduate. Mr. Short will get away about last of this month and from then until the permanent man is appointed, Mr. Killough will have charge of the station.

"I am carried away with the agricultural situation in the county," he said yesterday, "for I find an unusually progressive spirit prevailing here. The Moonlight school recently inaugurated at Midway is a grand institution and it will be continued. I feel that we can all do some big things here and it is gratifying to notice the progressive spirit that prevails. Unhappily in many places, this spirit has to be worked up, but since Bell county is recognized as the pioneer in scientific farming, I did not expect to find anything else."

Mr. Killough will put in the next few days in getting generally acquainted with the public and the plans already outlined by Mr. Short. The work of the station will go right on without a hitch. Temple Telegram.

FROM CAPT. WILSON.

Editor Daily Sentinel: I have read with much interest your several mentions of the effort to build sidewalks in Nacogdoches, thereby enabling us to get free mail delivery. From my understanding of the situation, this is all that we need to do to get this delivery.

Now I am convinced that the citizenship of Nacogdoches is too intelligent and too progressive to need anything in the line of argument to accomplish this purpose; that all we need address ourselves to ways and means of securing it.

I have been advised that a preliminary survey of the work is under way, that the city government is anxious to do its part, so it remains only for the citizens to come forward and do theirs. In this line I would suggest that some of our many able citizens through your paper come forward and give us a working plan.

Perhaps a sidewalk organization would be necessary. I therefore hope to see some one lead out and show us the way to accomplish this much desired purpose.

W. T. WILSON.

Poor Mexico! Stable government in that nation is impossible on account of ignorance, poverty, intrigue, treachery and a total lack of fidelity and patriotism. Anarchy, revolution, rapine and robbery cover the nation as the waters cover the sea. It will some day come to pass, just how, or when, no one can tell, when this nation will be forced to intervene in the name of humanity, and enforce order. Mexico is a combination, a mixture, of the worst blood of which history gives any account—a cross of the worst of Spain, when Spain was at its worst, with the Indian who hated government at his best. None of the other Latin races have so many of the turbulent elements as the Mexicans.—Col. Milner, in Rusy County News.

Sheriff Spradley of Nacogdoches is offering a $50 reward to one who will furnish proof as to who the mysterious prowler is in that city who is engaged in petty thefts. The sheriff is of the opinion that it is "local talent."—Lufkin News.

CALL FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS.

Dallas, Texas, March 30, 1916.

To the Democrats of Texas: Under and by virtue of the authority vested in me as chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee of the State of Texas and the laws of the State of Texas, and in accordance with resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Executive Committee at a meeting of said committee held in the city of Dallas on this date, a state democratic convention is hereby called, to meet in the city of San Antonio in Bexar county, Texas, on the 4th Tuesday in May, same being the 23rd day of May, 1916, for the purpose of electing 40 delegates to represent the Democratic Party of the State of Texas at the Democratic National Convention to be held in the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the 14th day of June, 1916, and to elect a member of the National Democratic Executive Committee from Texas and to nominate Electors at Large and from districts and to transact such other business as may properly and lawfully come before said convention.

The Democrats of the state will hold their primary conventions in the precincts of the various counties as the time, places and in the manner required by law, to send delegates to their respective county conventions. Such county conventions will be held in the manner and at the times and places required by law to send delegates to the state convention, hereby called to meet in the city of San Antonio, and the respective executive committee of the various counties of the state are hereby requested to take such action as may be necessary to conform to the law and to insure by proper safeguards the fair, full and complete expression of the democrats of their respective counties, and by appropriate and legal methods SEE THAT NONE BUT DEMOCRATS PARTICIPATE IN THEIR RESPECTIVE PRIMARIES.

Respectfully submitted,
PAUL WAPLES,
Chairman State Democratic Executive Committee.
CHAS. J. KIRK,
Secretary.

The man who usually fights good roads hardest—the farmer—is the one who will eventually receive the greatest good. A party in Nacogdoches County informed us that the good roads over there enabled him to get 22 miles of service per gallon of gasoline as compared to about an average of 12 to 14 in this county. If this be true for the auto, then it will also apply to the mule and his load of farm produce. Rusk County will soon have an opportunity to vote on good roads bonds, and we hope the farmers will consider these things carefully.—Mt. Enterprise Herald.

NOTICE.

Let each member of the Democrat Executive Committee of Nacogdoches County take notice that Saturday, May 6th, is the time set by law to hold the precinct convention for the purpose of nominating delegates to the County convention to be held in Nacogdoches on Tuesday May 9th. You will govern yourselves accordingly.

AUDLEY HARRIS
Chairman Democratic Executive Committee, Nacogdoches County.

Mr. Wright Dunn of this city went to Nacogdoches this morning; his visit being due to the fact that his sister, Mrs. J. D. Lee, was to undergo an operation at that place today at the hands of Drs. Gibson and Sweatland.—Lufkin News.

PARIS HEROINES.

Paris, Texas—Paris has its heroines. They are Miss Stella Isom, Miss Margaret Buford and Miss Katherine Rainey, operators for the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone Company. During the great fire of March 21 and 22 they were steadfast.

About the exchange all activity centered during the early hours of the conflagration. Communication was maintained with the city water plant. Aid was summoned from distant points. The whole country was kept informed.

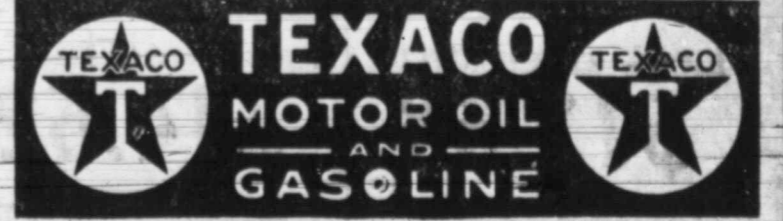

Under most strenuous conditions a large force during the early period of the fire but as one girl after another heard that her relatives and her home were in danger, the number of those at the switchboard diminished. Three, however, elected to stay at the exchange whence all others but the men had fled.

Wires melted under the hot blast of the infernal tidal wave. Lines gave out while they were talking over them. From all over the town came the cries of hysterical women and excited men; but these girls were unshaken. The extent of the calamity was apparent. Under their hands supplies were ordered for those who would soon be homeless. Every possible contingency was anticipated. Smoke filled the operating room. They choked and their eyes dimmed. The heat became noticeable. Still they remained, notifying all adjacent points that Paris was burning, calling for aid and giving information.

The fire was upon them. Out in the flame swept street they found their way. Stumbling, falling, groping with their hands on the hot walls they finally gained the open square. Soon they joined the men of the local telephone force and learned a temporary exchange was to be established by hanging instruments from a telephone pole.

Sitting on the curb stone they waited for the men to do their part, for an exchange to be established for them to work. After the lines had been connected they served their people while Paris burned. Miss Isom lost all her possessions but never faltered in the task to which she had assigned herself.

A Nacogdoches citizen who stood on the streets of Lufkin last evening made the remark that this city seemed to be in a prosperous condition and the people had plenty of life about them. He is anxious for a good road from that town to this one, and thinks some day we will have it. Surely a good highway is needed, not only in the case mentioned, but good roads are needed throughout this entire East Texas country.—Lufkin News.

TEXACO MOTOR OIL AND GASOLINE

A FILM of oil is a small thing, but one just that hinges the economy of your motor and a great deal of the pleasure in motoring.

The film which is maintained between the rings and cylinder walls when Texaco Motor Oil is used proves this:

- First:—It doesn't allow the mixture to leak through. All the "gas" is used to produce power.
- Second:—It checks wear by preventing metal-to-metal contact.
- Third:—It means no excess oil is sucked up into the combustion chamber.

When you use Texaco Motor Oil, you find that your spark plugs won't foul and that there is no heavy carbon deposit to get in the valve seats or to clog the exhaust.

You ride easier with less juggling of the throttle and with freedom from back fires and other annoyances.

Get some Texaco Motor Oil and at the same time, try Texaco Gasoline. This is the other partner of the Texaco Winning Combination.

THE FARMER AND HIS TIME.

At the good roads mass meeting in Henderson the other day a farmer made the best speech of the occasion. In that speech he emphasized the importance of the farmer's time. "What is the value of the farmer's time?" "And what must he take into consideration in estimating the value of his time?" This farmer was addressing himself to question of good roads. In order to arrive at the commercial value of a farmer's time, of course, we would be compelled to have a measure of the knowledge, judgment and the general ability of the farmer. We will for the sake of this argument place the earning capacity of the average farmer at $1000 per year. It is much greater than that in some cases, and less in others. Leaving out Sundays that would amount to more than $3 per day. This average farmer produces six bales of cotton and the average distance to the market is eight miles, requiring a day to make the trip, and three days to day would amount to $9. On good roads he would haul the entire crop with one load, thus saving $6, which would be more than the amount of his road tax on a bond issue large enough to produce $400,000 or enough money to build 125 miles of road.

But this farmer made his argument still stronger from the farmer's standpoint. He said that a proposition to levy a tax for public highways would impose the principal part of the burden upon the city property, thus taxing the cities to enhance rural values, and to magnify and dignify country life.—Col. Miller in Rusk County News.

Smokestacks and dinner pails make cities, civic pride beautify and adorn them, and the churches keep the people "good". We need the whole program, and have a share of each, lacking mostly in the amount of sidewalk.

The indications now are, based upon advices of a confidential nature, that Germany will yield to the demands of the United States, and that friendly relations between the two nations will be retained.

The "war" news in today's papers is not quite so sensational, the Irish people getting the big headline with a little revolutionary outbreak. And this reminds us that if the noble Irish people could win their freedom in the present European conflict, much of the horrors of the great war would be compensated.

Another good sidewalk letter will be found elsewhere in today's paper. The people of Nacogdoches are becoming aroused on the proposition, and in the discussion that is now being indulged let us hope that some concrete plan (and preferably "concrete" material) will be worked out by which we can line the old town with sidewalks and have our mail delivered at our homes.

Today would be a fine day in which to build sidewalk. It is too cool to go fishing, too wet to work in the garden, yet the right temperature for the physical exercise and the "season" in the ground is just right for this great civic improvement. It may be too late when you receive this notice to begin work, but don't let another day like it pass without something to your credit in this line.

WHY PRINCE ALBERT WINS.

Smokers so much appreciate the flavor and coolness and aroma of Prince Albert pipe and cigarette tobacco that they often marvel that this one brand could be so different from all others.

The answer to this question is to be found on the reverse side of every Prince Albert package, where you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 19107." This tells the whole story. Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and parch, which makes the tobacco so mighty agreeable and satisfying to men of every taste of every civilized nation on the globe.

Smokers should realize that this patented process cost three years' continuous work and study and a fortune in money to perfect. But the result has proven to be worth all that was expended upon it, because it has set free men who believed they never could enjoy a pipe or make in's of a cigarette.

Prince Albert makes it possible for every man to enjoy a pipe or to roll his own cigarettes. And, no matter how tender the tongue, Prince Albert cannot bite or parch. That is cut out by the patented process, leaving for the smoker only the joys of the fragrant tobacco.

It is a fact, that since Prince Albert "arrived," just about six years ago, it has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked a pipe before!

EASTER IN NACOGDOCHES.

Easter Sunday was appropriately celebrated at several of the churches with appropriate programs and sermons yesterday, winding up with a most brilliant service promoted by the Knights Templar Masons at the Baptist Church last night. At this service a beautiful program was rendered, and an able sermon was delivered by Rev. M. C. Johnson of the Main Street Presbyterian Church. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, in which a downpour of rain was threatened, a fairly good attendance was present, and all enjoyed the service.

A GREAT PASTOR- EVANGELIST COMING

Rev. Hardy L. Winburn, pastor of Walnut Street Baptist Church, of Louisville, Ky., will assist Pastor Westbrook of the Baptist Church in a series of revival meetings beginning next Sunday and continuing to May 14th. Brother Winburn is a preacher of great ability; a scholar, philosopher, theologian, evangelistic preacher, a friend of men, and a consecrated preacher with it all. He is pastor of our great churches in the south. He is a young man, not yet forty years of age, and is now serving his third congregation since finishing his schooling. For over 16 years he served the First Baptist Church at Arkadelphia as its pastor, which work he gave up to accept the pastorate of Walnut Street Baptist Church at Louisville. Arkadelphia is the location of Oachita College, the leading Baptist College of the state of Arkansas, and during Pastor Winburn's stay as pastor, he not only led in the building of a modern $60,000.00 church and left it free of debt, but also saw it grow to over 700 members.

Brother Winburn is an eloquent speaker, versatile, yet earnest. There will not be a dull moment in his sermons, and if you come to hear him once you will come again. He will arrive at 11:55 Tuesday May 2nd, and will deliver his first message that evening. We are hopeful that we may have a great congregation to greet him at this service, and heartily invite the general public to take advantage of this opportunity to hear one of our very ablest Baptist preachers. Pastor C. A. Westbrook will have charge of the services, until Brother Winburn's arrival. From Sunday on there will be two services daily; morning at 10:00 o'clock and evening at 8:00 o'clock.

We are desirous that all christian people of the town co-operate in the meeting, and hereby invite their co-operation. We will appreciate the help of the singers of the town in our chorus choir, as we want to make the music a feature of the meeting. We will use a new Kimball piano, through the courtesy of Mr. Council, the local agent, together with our church organ. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good." C. A. WESTBROOK, Pastor.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

From Wednesday's Daily: Mr. Stephen Blount, Jr., and Miss Bernice Trawick were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. J. Swift, Rev. Atwell officiating.

The wedding was a quiet, informal affair, being attended only by the immediate family and a few relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Blount left on night train for a visit to Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth, after which they will go on to Weinert, Texas, where they will make their future home, on the Blount ranch of which the junior Mr. Blount is in charge.

Mr. Blount is a son of Judge and Mrs. S. W. Blount, and his fair bride belongs to the well known Swift family, thus connecting two of our best and most prominent families. Nacogdoches has no more worthy young people, and the good wishes of a host of friends will attend the happy couple in their new western home.

We have these in many styles and you will find just what you are looking for in these.

These buggies have been sold in Nacogdoches county for a number of years and have always proved the best for money yet. We can fit you up for as little money as you would have paid before the advance, and give you a buggy that is guaranteed from the shafts on back. If you are at all interested in a buggy it will be to your advantage to see us, as it costs you nothing to look at our goods. We are going to look for you and will be glad to show you whether you are just ready to buy or not.

We are always glad to have you and show you our good.

train being ready to leave, the constable carried the negro into the office of the depot and left him with the attendant and left. As soon as the officer was out of sight the negro made a jump through the glass window to what he thought would be liberty, but by a happy coincidence, the night watchman had arrived on the outside and received the fugitive with a rather sudden but effective embrace, bringing him on to jail.

RETRIBUTION COMES.

Retribution often comes in a roundabout way, but it always comes to the transgressor of the moral law. This is illustrated forcibly just now in the condition of the starving thousands in Turkey.

The Turkish government has officially asked aid of Red Cross to save five hundred thousand of its helpless men, women and children from starvation. The Red Cross is responding to the appeal in spite of the fact that Turkey has murdered in the last two years a million Christians because of their religion.

It is largely because of the murder of these Christian Armenians that Turkey today is starving. The Armenians were the great farmers of the Turkish Empire. They were intelligent, energetic, thrifty agriculturists, and produced much of the grain and other foodstuffs that fed the Turkish people. But these inoffensive farmers were murdered, their fields devastated the homes burned, because the Turks hated them for their religion and coveted their possessions.

The result is that the food supply has been greatly lessened. Add to loss of the former supplies less Armenians little thought has been brought about by the war in Europe in which Turkey is taking part, and you have as a result actual starvation for hundreds of thousands of Turks. It is estimated that there are yet in Turkey a million Armenians most of whom are in as sad a plight as the starving Turks.

The brutal Turkish soldiers who murdered and plundered and burned the defenseless and helpless Armenians little thought that by these very acts they were bringing retribution in the form of starvation on themselves, but nevertheless time has proven that they were. Now, the only hope of sustaining the lives of tens of thousands of the followers of the Crescent is to make an appeal for bread to the hated followers of the Cross.

Retribution has come, but who can say that their dire want freely supplied by those they hate, may not result soon in a great awakening in Turkey to the truth that One greater than Mohamet is God's prophet.—Bonham News.

DR. VINSON IS CHOSEN UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Austin, Texas, April 25.—The board of regent of the University of Texas today unanimously elected Dr. Robert Ernest Vinson, for the last eight years president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Austin, permanent president of the University, effective July 1, next. Dr. Vinson is to succeed acting president of the University since the resignation on Dec. 15, 1914, of Dr. S. E. Mezes, who is now president of the College of the City of New York. Dr. Vinson was notified of his election by a committee of the board, consisting of David Harrell, George W. Littlefield and Dr. Battle, and he announced his acceptance.

A committee consisting of Dr. S. J. Jones, Dr. M. Faber and Alex Sanger was appointed to prepare resolutions relative to Dr. Battle's services as acting president and report at the June meeting of the board.

Miss Huda Chadwick and Miss Fannie McLain went to Garrison this afternoon to visit with friends for a few days.

Judge J. F. Perritte, A. A. Seale, Audley Harris and C. C. Watson visited Woden Saturday night and report a most enjoyable trip.

Mr. H. Fitch, who had the misfortune to get his leg so badly hurt in a fall some ten weeks ago, from which he has been laid up since, is able to get about, with the aid of crutches.

Prof. A. E. Day of Garrison was a hurried visitor to the city today, coming down to attend a board meeting and rushing back home. Prof. Day is very busy now with the windup of his term of school.

The many friends of Lonnie Stone, who has been so dangerously ill with typhoid fever, will be pleased to learn that he is much better, and hope is now entertained for his complete recovery.

Somebody got a water gourd being conveyed to Wade Walters Saturday afternoon, as a result of which the gentleman is famishing for a drink of water, refusing to drink from any other vessel while on duty in his shop.

B. R. Wagley, the man who has been doing some mighty good concrete work in this city lately, went up to Timpon this afternoon to figure on some contracts, but will return to this city in the course of two or three days and still be open for any work in his line the people of this city may wish.

A NICE TREAT.

The senior member of the Sentinel firm is very grateful to his friend, Mr. Jno. T. Lucas, the sage of Sacul, for a box of nice vegetables received by express Saturday afternoon, insuring a Sunday dinner such as only East Texans can have at this season of the year.

Mr. Lucas is one of the county's most substantial and progressive farmers, and we cherish his friendship, and the recollection of his thoughtfulness in this instance very dearly.

CARD OF THANKS.

We thank our friends at Nacogdoches for their many kindnesses during the illness of our son and brother, Charles Clay Carter, and for their words of comfort and floral offerings after his death.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

Among the has-beens in this county is the town of Lola, on the H. E. & W. T. rail road, six miles south of Nacogdoches. It was once the terminus of this rail road, and, at the same, it did the freighting of this entire county, besides much other business. It handled thousands of bales of cotton and trains of merchandise. Two of the leading business men of our town today were then located at Lola, namely, I. L. Sturdevant and J. P. Summers, as receiving and forwarding merchants.

They did not then ride in automobiles to town as they do now. When they came to town they usually started after a day's business was over and returned early enough in the morning to begin the next day's business. Their usual mode of travel was to "count ties," if they could not borrow a horse. They could not afford the expense of fare on Fred Harlacher's mail pac. In fact the schedule did not suit their purpose.

Lola was on the old Jake Lewis lands, at the Ike Lewis spring. John W. Lewis is the only descendant there now. When Lola went out Lanana came in, and cut a wide way through. But Lanana is now only a memory. Decoy and Press have drawn off the hoo-rah a mile or two nearer to town.

John Lewis was in town last week, and he spoke of his early life and career. He was born at Lola seventy years ago. He served in the Confederate army, was at the big battles of Mansfield and Pleasant Hill, La., April 8th and 9th, 1864, and also in the hottest battle of Jinkins Ferry, Ark., Saturday morning, April 30, 1864, just fifty-two years ago. He was wounded by a minnie ball, causing the loss of his left arm. He was in Company G, Eighth Texas Infantry, under Capt. A. I. Simpson and Col. Wm. Clark. There were 30 in Company G in this battle, and three of these were killed and eight wounded. Those killed were John Coleson, Reed Pike, and Ab. Poe; wounded, Lieutenant Bill Harris, Bill Arnold, George Tucker, Allen Tucker, Mit Tucker, Whig Rogers, John Lewis, Abe Coleson.

During the battle Capt. Simpson had a gun and got so far ahead of his men that Col. Clark called him to hold up. Clark was on his horse commanding his regiment, and seeing his old company so bravely charging the enemy, he took off his hat and waived it high and sang out loudly "Hoo-rah for Company G". This battle under Gen. Kirby Smith repulsed Gen. Steele's invasion of Arkansas, as did Gen. Dick Taylor's army repulse Bank's in Louisiana.

These old confederates are proud of this work and they are well worthy of their trophies. Their next national re-union will be held May 16, 17, 18 at Birmingham, Ala., and their last one will come too soon. Peace be unto them and let them have their reward.

FOR CONSTABLE.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce C. M. Sumblin as a candidate for Constable of Precinct No. 3, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries.

Mr. Sumblin was reared in the community in which he would serve in this capacity, and is therefore well known to the voters of the precinct. If elected he promises to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties incumbent upon him to the best of his skill and ability.

J. E. Grayson of Garrison was a visitor to the city today.

SHAKESPEARE CLASS.

Friday, April 21st was a memorable day for the present Shakespeare class of Nacogdoches and several of its ex-members and friends. A pleasurable excitement had been occasioned by an invitation to spend the day with Mrs. Ernest Simpson. It was the time for the regular meeting of the class, Good Friday, San Jacinto day, and lacked but two days of being the three hundredth day of Shakespeare's death. Nature did everything possible toward making a perfect day and the red hills and fresh green trees were more beautiful than we saw them as we sped over the Old King's Highway.

Upon our arrival at Rosewild we were received by Mrs. Simpson. When a merry hour had passed we found ourselves in the dining room seeking our places by matching the separated halves of clever verses, written by our hostess and descriptive of Shakespeare's women.

There were eighteen present. The class colors of green and white were in evidence here. The favors were appropriate to the Easter season.

Mr. Ford Simpson was the only gentleman present, adding to the salt, "Attic Salt."

The whole bright day passed "Swift as a shadow, short as any dream."

A very sweet remembrance remains with all this fortunate company.

A GUEST.

From Friday's Daily: Ben Tucker, who visited San Augustine with his good wife, Mrs. Allan Seale and daughter and Mr. Chas. Richardson yesterday, mention of which was made in yesterday's paper, gives a most interesting account of a hail storm which visited the Red Land City while he was there. The hail came in a gust similar to the passing of a windstorm, such great size that he could hardly realize their enormity after looking at them. In some of those he picked up one measuring seven and one-half inches one way and six and one-half inches the other. From this size the stones ranged on down to very small ones, but in just an instant the downpour covered the ground. Mr. Tucker says that he has read of such enormous hail stones but it was his first privilege to observe such a spectacle with his own eyes, and that if this had lasted as much as a minute it would have stripped the trees.

W. A. Berry, a substantial citizen and good farmer of the Linn Flat country, was a pleasant caller at the office this morning, dropping in to make settlement for his county paper. Mr. Berry says his community got a share of the good rain and some hail, but there was not enough of the latter to do any damage, while the rain was worth much to the growing crops.
