WOMAN DROWNS IN SIXTY-FOOT WELL

Tragedy Occurred in Northern End of County, and Suicide Verdict Was Rendered.

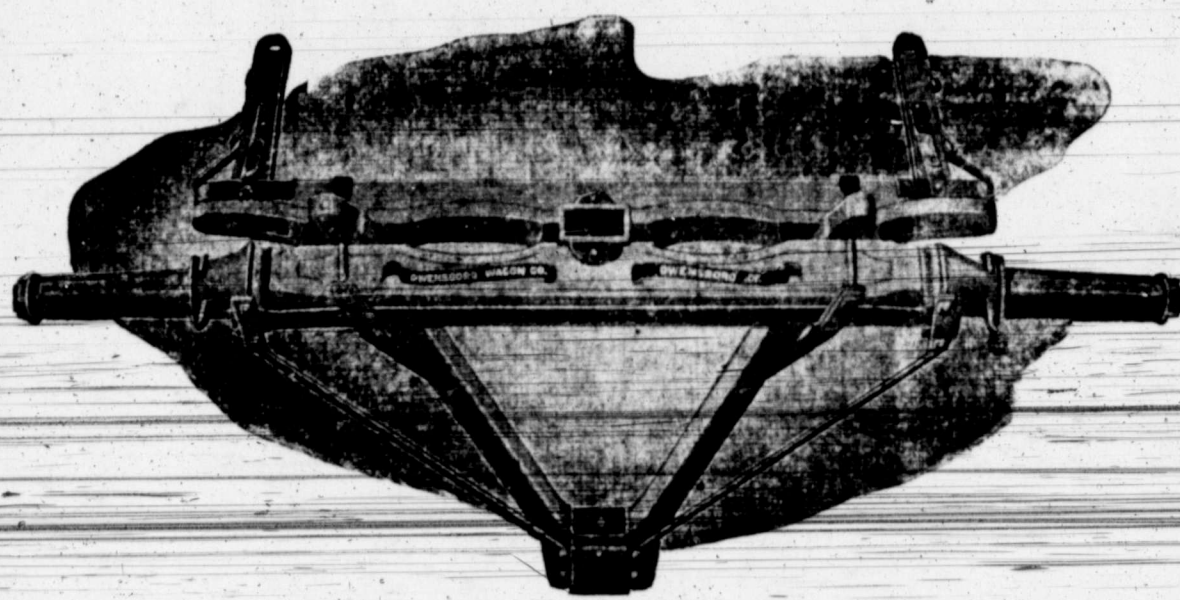

The Sentinel is in receipt of a letter from a friend in Garrison reporting that Mrs. Christie Arrington had drowned of been killed in the fall in a sixty-foot well at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Blackburn, on the Patterson plantation several miles south of Garrison this morning.

Esquire DeLoney and Deputy Sheriff Vaught went out and held an inquest, and a verdict of suicide was returned.

The correspondent says that there is a possibility that it might have been accidental but from the verdict we assume that conditions justified the idea of self-destruction.

VILLA NOT NEAR AMERICAN LINES

San Antonio Texas, Sept. 11.—Scouts of American army in Mexico have penetrated the Santa Clara Canyon in search of Francisco Villa's marauding band and have not found it there.

This was the substance of a message received today by General Funston from General Pershing. The expeditionary commander said from reports he had received he believed Villa was in the vicinity of San Andres, about 35 miles west of Chihuahua City.

General Pershing did not say so, but it is believed here that the American scouts must have been supported by at least a small force as the canyon is more than 50 miles south of El Valle and the southernmost American lines.

It is not thought an insignificant patrol would have taken a chance on encountering the Villa band without the assurance of adequate support.

This is the first indication in many weeks that General Pershing's men have been operating at any distance from their base. General Pershing reported that in the section traversed the natives professed not to have seen or heard of Villa.

BAND ORGANIZED.

There was a good attendance at the meeting called by the Band boys last night and a Brass Band of about twenty-five members was organized.

Those who are lining up with the organization are very enthusiastic in the purpose upon which they are engaging, and we can have hope that Nacogdoches will soon have a first-class band of its own.

Nothing will contribute more to the life of the town than a good band, and the boys should, and doubtless will, have every encouragement in the purposes of their organization.

HALTOM & GIBBS, Proprietors
G. M. HALTOM, Manager
O. M. GIBBS, Editor

The Port Arthur Record, which has hitherto been publishing three times a week, announces that beginning with next week it will merge into a daily issue. The Record is a mighty good paper, and in its new role will fill the bill of the demands upon it.

The dispatches announce that the town of Hallettsville, a place not as large and important as Nacogdoches, has secured free mail delivery. Give us some more sidewalks, folks, quick, or some town nearer home will soon be crowing over its leadership in securing the service.

Good authorities on the subject reason that the slump of about five dollars per bale in the price of cotton during the past few days is due solely to the great rush made upon the market. The same need for the staple exists, no new estimates have been made whereby a greater yield is predicted—it is a condition of advantages which has been used to the detriment of the farmer. With the proper co-operation in a more intelligent system of marketing the price could just as easily be run up to twenty cents per pound.

A correspondent elsewhere in today's paper calls attention to the filthy and most unsanitary habit many people have of spitting on the sidewalks, in stairways and other places, and his article is very timely. Nothing is more filthy and unattractive, which would be sufficient ground for complaint with all decent people, but a question of health with innocent people is involved, and as the correspondent suggests, some legal regulation should be made to restrain those who haven't sufficient pride and consideration for the rights of others to abstain from such unholly practice.

At a meeting of the Farmers Union presidents in Louisiana this week, twelve cents was fixed as the minimum price of cotton, and bankers and business men are solicited to co-operate in holding it up to that price. Of course, if it goes above, as is now, that is different and the interests need not trouble with any interference. Such agitation is untimely just now, but nothing better is to be expected of some of the leaders, the chief among whom felt called upon to wire President Wilson a protest for not including farmers with eight-hour legislation, and who is now engaging in a silly agitation of the matter.

It is easy to criticise one's neighbor who has gone wrong in morals, or made a failure in business, says an exchange, and so hard to give credit for the effect of the influences impelling him to disaster, over which he has no control, that our criticism of others is very often uncharitable. Men often say how good they would have been or what they would have accomplished had they been in the other man's place. They do not stop to ask why the fellow that was in the other shoes did not succeed. If they did they often find the man who went wrong, or failed, was entitled to great credit for standing up so bravely under forces and burdens that might easily have overthrown his accusers. Sometimes the man who fails is a greater hero than another who wins. If you cannot find anything good to say about your neighbor then for goodness sake keep quiet. Ex.

PASTEUR INSTITUTE NEGLECTS ITS DUTY

The Pasteur Institute is an institution supported and operated by the state for the treatment of hydrophobia. The purpose of the state in establishing this institution was to insure prompt treatment to every one exposed to or afflicted with this dread disease. The most important part of its service should be promptness by which those exposed to the malady may be treated in time to save the development that is sure to follow in a certain number of days in the absence of the treatment, but it seems that those who are employed in the work are getting "old" on the job, and have lost sight of the great responsibility that has been entrusted to their care.

Last Monday afternoon Messrs. Luther Swift and Guy Bolunt expressed the heads of a couple of dogs, which had been killed because of the belief that they were afflicted with hydrophobia, one of which bit several people as noted in this paper at the time, to the Institute for examination. At the same time a letter was addressed to the Institute calling attention to the shipment, and requesting a prompt examination and report.

Five days having elapsed, and no report having been received, the Institute was wired for a report yesterday morning, and about middle of the afternoon a telegram was received advising that the heads were received in bad condition and no report could be made, supplementing the report with the recommendation that the heads should have been packed in ice.

Mr. Swift informs The Sentinel that the heads were placed in buckets with ice around them, and the buckets packed in another layer of ice, in which condition the ice could not have possibly all melted in the time necessary to make the trip, and is of the opinion that no attention was given to the shipment until the telegraphic inquiry was made, five days after it had been started. Such neglect is criminal for the reason that human life is at stake. If the dogs were afflicted with hydrophobia, it is necessary that those exposed to the rabies should know it at the earliest possible moment so that their treatment can be arranged for. Mr. Swift informs The Sentinel that this is not the first time that people of this section have had trouble in getting prompt service with the Institute, and he and others of the community are righteously indignant, feeling that an investigation should be made as to who is responsible for such criminal neglect and reported to the proper authorities.

There is no room for those engaged in the service to employ arrogance or independence in the discharge of the duties committed to their care. The institution is supported by the taxpayers of the state, of which every section is a part, and if there is any one institution that should have better efficiency, and give prompter service than another it is this, but in the light of present experience Nacogdoches can not recommend it just now.

GLIMPSE OF HIS SOUL.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram pays President Woodrow Wilson the following beautiful tribute:

"We fancy that President Wilson was speaking from experience when, standing before the cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born, he said, 'there is a very holy and very terrible isolation for the conscience of every man who seeks to read the destiny in affairs for others as well as for himself, for a nation as well as for individuals.' We are inclined to believe it was Woodrow Wilson the President was thinking of chiefly, and that for a moment he bared his very soul to the gaze of his countrymen.

"That privacy no man can intrude upon," he declared. "That lonely search of the spirit for the right perhaps no man can assist."

No man who has occupied the White House since Lincoln has had to "read the destiny in affairs for others" so frequently and with respect to so many momentous questions as has Woodrow Wilson. No man since Lincoln has had to face so much criticism of his official acts as he has. Only two days before he had been face to face with a national calamity to the averting of which he was compelled to bring all his wisdom and all his courage. At the very moment he uttered the words recorded above, men were denouncing the manner in which he had met that crisis, and the man who aspires to succeed him was preparing to hurl at him bitter criticisms of his course. It was as if there came from his heart a cry in defense, a cry of soul-anguish at the loneliness of it all.

"We believe that Woodrow Wilson for the most part has come from his 'lonely searches of the spirit for the right' to decide wisely for the nation. We believe it is the conviction of most of the nation that this is so. We cannot conceive of the nation failing to recognize it, and we expect even his enemies, who are denouncing his every official act almost, will come to realize this before the presidential campaign is over.

"It is easy to talk about what one would do in his place, when one is not called upon to do anything. It is easy to make speeches to cheering thousands pointing out an apparently better course which should have been taken. This requires no soul agony, no loneliness of spirit and very little courage. No man can know what any decision of national import can mean unless he has been down the line himself!

"It might be well to bear this in mind in the future when we feel inclined to pass those easy, dogmatic judgments upon the acts of President Wilson which are so fashionable just now among men who have never had to decide anything more momentous than the margin of profit upon which they can run their business or the comparative amounts of their salaries and their expenditures. Let's keep in mind that we have a big man in the White House."

At a recent meeting of lawyers, in which some sixteen were present, The Sentinel man overheard one of them make the statement, which was substantiated by all present, that a lawyer seldom breaks an agreement with another member of the profession. Some went so far as to say that the ratio would not reach one in a hundred times. If the profession had nothing else to commend it, this great virtue would stand out as a shining example of the embodiment of sterling integrity, and is worthy of emulation by people in all professions and vocations. If the men in all lines would heed with sacred honor a "gentleman's agreement" with each other we would soon have a return of the good old times when a man took pride in making his word his bond, and suffered any sacrifice necessary to sacredly live up to his promise. Unfortunately too much of the reverse is the order of the day now.

ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE DEMOCRATS

In noting the closing hours of congress, the Houston Chronicle makes the following editorial review of the achievements of the present democratic administration, which are very timely:

"With the passage of the mammoth revenue bill congress practically completed its work."

"In many respects it has been a remarkable session of the American legislature, remarkable for the radical measures it adopted, remarkable for a blunder or two, remarkable for the successful manner in which it held in line by President Wilson."

"Children yet unborn will review what it did, and will see in its achievements the beginning of a new era in American history."

"Not only did it enact great defense bills, the most drastic and far-reaching of any in this nation's career, but it adopted a rural credit scheme, and authorized the collection of revenue by methods which verge on a new system of taxation by the federal government."

"The program was a logical one, and has been carried out from start to finish about as planned by the president. In this particular he has no rival in his capacity for handling congress, with the possible exception of James K. Polk. He began with very clear and pronounced ideas as to what he wanted, and in many instances secured ever more despite republican opposition and some disaffection in his own party."

"Years hence those of us who live will read with astonishment how he laid the foundation of a new army, put the navy on its feet, rehabilitated the merchant marine, established a system of farm-loan banks, and provided for the enormous expenses involved by bringing the federal government directly in contact with the pockets of the people, more especially the richer portions of the people."

"We shall read how he radically increased the income tax, how he established the inheritance tax, how he made pawnbrokers, shipbrokers, and customs house brokers pay a federal license."

"And most of the credit for all this will be given him, for on more than one occasion congress showed a disposition to balk, only to be checkmated, mastered and controlled by his acumen and statesmanship."

WHEN YOU ARE WEARY

When you are worn and weary, when your pathway seems strewn with mire and stones and thorns, sit down and rest awhile. Then, summon all your power of thought, lift the veil from your eyes, and with your unobstructed vision, calmly look around you.

Compare your toilsome lot with the generally supposed easy condition and good fortune of your smiling neighbor. Observe closely and weigh everything you see on scales whose weights are true.

Are your neighbor's burdens lighter than yours? Does it wind its way in the cool of green shade among fragrant flowers and beside still blue waters? It does not.

His is the common heritage of man.

He has learned the art of silent conquest.

He knows the value of a smile, the worth of a cheerful countenance and a kindly word.

with an unflinching courage. Slowly, steadily, step by step, he is climbing the hard long hills at whose summit await the gods who will take him by the hand and lead him to success—the same success that you are seeking.

At the hill tops, these gods are waiting for you! Climb, climb and meet them there—they will gladly welcome and bless you.—Tilburn Harwood Townsend.

CASH FOR FARM PRODUCTS.

The reduction of credit accounts this year and the general increase in cash buying will be strong stimulants to business in the Southwest when crops are put on the market. There will be many proud, independent farmers this year who will receive cash and deposit it to their credit at the bank instead of paying store bills contracted months before.

Those who have bought supplies on credit accounts for the most part have smaller accounts than usual, for the orchard, the garden, the truck patches, the milk, butter etc., have brought cash to help maintain the expenses of the home and farm.

There is satisfaction in being able to buy what one needs with cash and take advantage of discounts and competition. Those who have no store accounts to pay may use the income from crops and animals to buy comforts and conveniences that contribute to health and happiness. That a larger percent than ever before will be in a position to do this is a sure indication that we are making progress in farming and rural citizenship. Cash buying is thrift and "preparedness." It is a benefit to farmers, business men and the country in general.

As plans are being made for crops and livestock next year, there is little doubt that such safe and sane principles of farming and business methods will be arranged for and this leads us to hope that the credit system as formerly practiced in this country is near an end. Surely no one will return to it unless it is absolutely necessary.—Farm & Ranch.

President Ripley, the executive head of the great Santa Fe railroad system, has issued a statement in which he declares that his system will not accept the terms of the Adamson eight hour bill passed by congress to save the railroad strike until the matter could be thoroughly investigated and time given for adjustment.

Mr. Ripley and other leaders of the big business of the country could do worse. With a champion of the masses at the head of the country who considers the righteousness of measures rather than the special privileges of the law, big business is not so powerful in shaping policies and destinies of the country as it once was. Both big and little business is entitled to all legitimate protection, but neither is entitled to any special privilege at the expense of the plain people and the producers of the country, a fact that has been manifesting itself beautifully with the present democratic administration.

Progress follows on the heels of education, as the history of races testify. The health and strength of all people and nations are measured by the wealth and strength of their knowledge. If it be knowledge of the things that make for the advancement of the human race morally, mentally and physically, it follows as the night the day that the nation will be prosperous and strong in all the elements of genuine greatness.—Col Milner in Husk County News.

PATRIOTIC SERVICES.

It would be difficult to over-estimate the service which President Wilson has rendered to the nation by preventing the strike of railroad employees.

That the President is entitled to the bulk of the credit, even his most captious critics must admit.

It would be to say that by forcing congress to act with unprecedented promptness on the eight-hour law, President Wilson permanently settled the differences between the railroads and the 400,000 members of the four brotherhoods.

But it is within the facts to say that but for the enactment of this law, this country would be in the throes of an industrial revolution, the far-reaching consequences of which no man could forecast.

When President Wilson stepped in it seemed to those who had knowledge of the inside facts of the situation, that even the tremendous power and presidential office could not avert the calamity of a great railroad strike.

President Wilson brought to the crisis not only the power and prestige of his office, but that indomitable will to succeed which is perhaps the most marked characteristic of a personality richer in sterling elements than that of any President since Lincoln.

It was this same will to succeed backed by moral courage of a high order, that enabled President Wilson to vindicate international law and established the rights of neutral nations, in the submarine controversy with Germany, without going to war.

If the arguments for President Wilson's re-election began with his settlement of the submarine controversy and ended with his action which averted the railroad strike, with nothing in between, he ought to be assured of the support of every voter who puts patriotism above partisanship.

And yet those who know the President best, know that his action in neither of these crises was in the slightest degree based upon political expediency.

In one case he incurred the aggressive hostility of many German-Americans, who mistakenly allow love for their fatherland to kill their sense of justice.

In the other case, he has antagonized the powerful financial interests who own the railroads and who mistakenly allow their selfish interests to kill their sense of justice.

That man is a fool who under-estimates the political influence of these two groups, who, in their blindness of prejudice and greed, are determined to "get even" with Wilson.

The question to be decided at the November election is whether such influences are powerful enough to defeat a president who has had the temerity to enforce the rights of labor against capital.

We believe that Wilson is justified in awaiting the decision with calmness and confidence.

REFINED SUGAR DROPS 75 CENTS

San Francisco, Sept. 7.—The larger sugar refineries here announced yesterday that a drop of 75 cents per 100 pounds in refined sugar in connection with recent decrease in raw sugar quotations. It was said to be the most important change in refined sugar since European demands shot prices up to $7.85 per 100 pounds. Wednesday's drop left cane granulated at $6.45 a 100 pounds.

"Simply the result of supply and demand," explained one operator.

TEXAN IS LEADER OF UNION FARMERS

New Orleans, La., Sept. 6.—Henry N. Pope of Texas was elected president of the Association of State presidents of the Farmers' Co-Operative Unions of America, an organization of state farmers' unions presidents, which has just closed a three-day session in the city. There are 30 states organized in the union with a following of 6,000,000 farmers.

The association affirmed President Pope's stand in opposing the eight-hour law recently enacted by congress and passed resolutions approving his message sent President Wilson asking that the entire labor controversy be arbitrated.

An agricultural transportation commission was created for the purpose of studying the transportation problem from the standpoint of the farmer. The commission was instructed to appear before any tribunal having authority to deal with matters of transportation and to represent the farmer.

The keynote of the convention was co-operation. All agencies seeking to aid agriculture were invited to work through farm organizations. The principal work of the organization during the next year will be to improve present marketing methods through better storage and financial facilities and to otherwise promote the business side of farming.

An organized effort will be made to improve cultural methods to encourage scientific farming, diversification, increase and improve live stock production and combat crop pests and live stock diseases.

Mrs. M. A. Bridger, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 18-year-old girl."

U. S. TRADE WITH MEXICO BREAKS FORMER RECORDS

New York, Sept. 6.—Despite the unsettled condition in Mexico, trading between that country and the United States breaks all records in the fiscal year ended last June 30. A compilation issued here today showed that imports from Mexico were $97,676,544, against $77,612,691 in 1915 and $92,690,566 in 1914, the former high record year. Exports to Mexico amounted to $48,308,542, a gain of $14,000,000 over 1914.

Combining imports and exports, the total of 1916 was the largest in the history of the trade between the two countries the exact figures for the year being $145,985,089, compared with $131,927,266 in 1913, the former high record year for commerce both ways. The figures do not include metals.

SENATE RATIFIES TREATY.

Washington, Sept. 7.—A treaty providing for the purchase from Denmark of the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000, was ratified by the senate tonight. There was no roll call, and less than half-dozen senators, including Senators Norris, Jones and Clapp, voted against it.

Favorable action on the treaty at this session of congress had been strongly urged by the administration, practically because of the influence it might have upon the situation in Denmark; where, though the lower house of parliament has approved it, a fight is being made for ratification in the upper house.

WILSON EXPRESSES HOPE OF PERMANENT PEACE

Washington, Sept. 7.—President Wilson today sent to the joint American and Mexican commissioners in reply to their message sending him "most cordial greetings," the following telegram:

"May I not express to the American and Mexican joint commission my very warm appreciation of the telegram just received, my profound interest in the tasks of friendship and accommodation to which it is addressing itself and my confident hope and expectation that its deliberations will be crowned with a success which will long cement the friendship between the two nations?"

REVENUE STAMPS ARE ABOLISHED

Washington, September 9.—When the new general revenue bill became effective Saturday business men throughout the country were relieved of the stamp taxes which they have been paying since December 1, 1914; and which were to have continued until December 1, of this year.

The revenue bill repealed the emergency revenue bill stamp taxes and the internal revenue bureau has ruled that revenue stamps are not required after Saturday. The stamp taxes repealed include those paid on telegraph and telephone messages, parlor car seats and berth tickets, bonds debentures, certificates of indebtedness, certificates of stock, transfer bills of sale, promissory notes, conveyance, insurance policies, entry of goods, passage tickets, powers of attorney, protests, perfumery, cosmetics and chewing gum.

During the first seven months operation of the emergency revenue law these stamp taxes are recorded collectively and not under individual heads.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTION TO BUCKNER'S HOME

Nacogdoches people contributed $212.50 to the relief of Buckner's Orphan Home while the inmates were suffering an epidemic of typhoid fever. About $100 was sent by different parties, and Mr. Chas. Perkins circulated a subscription list to which he secured $112.50. In acknowledging receipt of the public contribution Mr. Perkins is in receipt of following letter from Father Buckner:

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 6, 1916. Chas. Perkins, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Dear Brother: In addition to $105.50 sent some time ago I now have the pleasure of thanking you for $11.00 found in your last letter. I note that this amount is from the citizens of Nacogdoches, and all have my sincere thanks. We have many financial problems involving the need of many thousands of dollars and friends of Nacogdoches are helping in a good way. May God bless you all. Gratefully.

I. & G. N. COLLISION FATAL FOR THREE

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 8.—An International and Great Northern work-train collided with a freight train near Lillian at noon today. The injured, said to number five, are being brought to hospitals here.

It was later reported from Lillian that three men were killed in the wreck, a white man and two negroes. The relief train was to arrive here at 2 o'clock. The name of the white man killed was R. W. Martin. His home was in San Antonio, where his wife is at present. The accident happened when the freight, southbound, struck the work train as it was backing out of a siding a few miles below Lillian.

B. F. Hartt, a well known citizen of Garrison has been in the city a day or two, and honored this office with a call this morning.

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

WILSON SHUCKS OFF DULL CARE

Shadow Lawn, Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 9.—President and Mrs. Wilson are now established at Shadow Lawn, which will be the executive headquarters of the nation and the mecca of pilgrim democrats for the next two months. The journey from Atlantic City was by automobile at an average speed of 40 miles an hour, and ended at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

From Spring Lake to Long Branch thousands of bathers left the surf to shout and wave greetings of welcome to the president's party. The genuineness of the unexpected reception appeared to greatly please the White House couple. They frequently returned the salutes and Mrs. Wilson's face beamed with smiles.

During the afternoon President Wilson motored over to Spring Lake to see his daughter, Mrs. McAdoo, who has been ill with typhoid fever. Tonight he attended the evening presentation of Irving Cobb's new play, "J. W. Blake."

Through Secretary Tumulty announcement was made that the president had decided to devote as much of the period between now and the election as the demands of the campaign will permit. The first speaking date is September 20 in St. Louis. Another speech at Baltimore on September 24, before the National Grain Dealers Association, will conclude the present program.

The president is known to have received advices that the democratic campaign is progressing in a manner most satisfactory to the national committee. The attack being made by Candidate Hughes on the Adamson eight-hour bill is expected to work more harm than good for the republican party. The president is understood to have received information that the labor element considers the criticisms of Mr. Hughes as antagonistic to their interests.

While here the president will work out a new plan for legislation which he will urge at the short session of congress to protect the holders of railroad securities from losses due to the eight-hour law.

The White House statement issued after the adjournment of congress on Friday is generally accepted as assurances to the railroad officials that the president intends to carry out his end of the bargain.

For the present, however, the president will rest, play golf and motor over roads of the nearby country.

During the next two months many house guests are expected by the Wilsons.

LONGVIEW POSTOFFICE ATTRACTIVE BUILDING

Longview, Texas, Sept. 7.—The final clearing away of debris around the postoffice grounds and building and leveling and grading of the grounds has been completed now and with the moving away of the tool house in the street, near the building, all obstructions are removed. The building and grounds present an attractive appearance and the furniture, fixtures and other equipment in the building all go to make the office pleasing and satisfactory.

WILSON ENCOURAGES THE SUFFRAGETTES

Atlantic City, Sept. 8.—Triumph for the woman suffrage cause "in a little while" was predicted by President Wilson here tonight in a speech before the annual convention of the National Woman's Suffrage convention.

"I have come here to fight with you," the president declared. Immediately, 4,000 women present stood and cheered. A few minutes later Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the association, with Mr. Wilson still present, declared, "We have waited long enough to get the vote. We want it now. I want it to come during your administration." Again the great audience of women stood and cheered, waving handkerchiefs.

Capt. Jno. S. Doughtie was among the Nacogdoches people who attended the Lufkin Home Coming Jubilee, and says that he never had a more enjoyable time in his life. The Captain went down in advance, and was with a party who went for a little outing down to Emporia. In reciting the different incidents of the trip he says that the party passed a house which is supposed to be "haunted," in which no human being has ever been able to stay all night since a murder was committed in the building a few years ago. A light will not burn in the building, and on one occasion when the sheriff of the county attempted to shoot at an approaching ghost his gun would not fire, neither would his flashlight do business. A reward of fifty dollars is offered for any one who will stay in the building all night, and Capt. Doughtie attempted to interest a friend in the matter while on the trip, to be informed that he (the friend) would not attempt it for all the money in Angelina county. At Lufkin the entertainment was all that could be craved, and there was not a dull moment in the visit.

A. A. King, a prominent farmer from the Woden country, was a pleasant caller at the office this morning. He says that his community is needing a rain pretty badly.

THE TRADES DAY.

If the Trades Day which a committee is now working on to promote for Nacogdoches, can be worked out in the way of a fair for one day, with prizes for different agricultural exhibits and livestock, supplemented with some good amusement, thus combining a little pleasure with business, and the old town will don her glad rags for one day, it can be made a great advertisement for the town by bringing the business people and the people from the rural districts in closer touch with each other.

For the individual day no big increase in business can be expected, but while the visitors are here they will learn as to how well Nacogdoches can supply their wants, the kind of treatment that is offered them as a market for their produce, and if we make a favorable impression in this line, which the city is prepared to do, they will come back again and again, and our enterprise will in this way be richly rewarded.

No town in East Texas is better prepared to take care of the trade of its territory than Nacogdoches. Many of our merchants have visited the Eastern markets in person where they have purchased large stocks of seasonable merchandise; our wholesale grocery and feed houses are likewise supplied; we have close competition in the cotton and seed markets; our oil mill wants all the peanuts that can be grown in this section, and every possible arrangement has been made to take care of a large trade for anything wanted from a paper of pins up. The next important matter is to tell and show the people of Nacogdoches county these things, and the battle is won.

There is another feature of equal importance in the social aspect. The people of the city of Nacogdoches have a feeling of very dear friendship and esteem for the people of the rural districts of the county. They have proven this at every opportunity, and the country people have likewise proven their friendship by giving to the town a patronage that has enabled it to grow to its present proportions.

With a recollection of all these happy conditions, and plans for mutual interest in the future, let's get together for the day in a happy re-union so replete in all its appointments that all participating will ever remember it as one of the pleasant events of their lives.

The republicans boast a majority of thirteen thousand in Maine. The superstitious of the "faith" would doubtless rather had twelve or some number other than "thirteen."

We now know that Brother Lively of the Lufkin News is getting over the "Home-Coming Jubilee" festivities had in his town last week. He is now writing eloquently about the crop conditions of Angelina County, with an occasional warning to his readers to "watch their step" for the arrival of new automobiles.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found a call from Jas. D. Greer requesting the citizens to meet with him tomorrow afternoon to decide whether or not we will have a Trades Day in Nacogdoches. The notice comes in too late for an extended editorial comment, but we hope there will be a ready response to the call. A number of towns have held these meetings with good profit, and Nacogdoches can do likewise. Every movement that brings more people to the city, increases the legitimate trade, and we should spare nothing that will extend our acquaintance and friendship to every section. Come out to the meeting and let's talk about it.

Very little cotton has been marketed in this section within the past few days, which is the best evidence that the farmers are adopting a more intelligent system of marketing. The big decline in prices suffered recently was caused solely by the rush of delivery upon the market, and the only intelligent way to get a reaction is through a rest.

The Sentinel voices the sentiment of the people of Nacogdoches when it extends greetings of welcome to the visiting teachers who are sojourning with us this week. No community appreciates the value of this noble profession more than the people of this community, and we always feel honored with any occasion that brings a representative crowd of the profession to us. May you stay with us be pleasant and profitable, and may you go away with the feeling of mutual friendship and esteem that we crave with you. Into your hands we commit the most sacred trust that is given to us, that of training our children for future citizenship and usefulness, and be it said to your credit that you never fail us with a return of efficient and faithful service. May we in turn give you that co-operation and sympathy that is so necessary in the great work upon which you are engaged, and may you understand that it is our great desire to do so, is the sincere wish of all.

"SPITTERS"

Why do people spit on the sidewalks, stairways, and in every hole and corner, when by a little trouble they could take a step or two and spit out in the street? Why do you do this? It is either that you are so filthy or that you do not use the presence of mind that you should, and think that people live part of the time on the sidewalks and stairways, going to and from their places of business, and the people that do business with them.

Now, I think that if you people are that filthy at home it is because you have no regard for your families and they have to clean up after you, but I can't believe that you are so nasty. Then take a second thought and take a step or two and spit where it will not be stirred up, and some innocent one possibly your dear ones, inhale some germ, say tuberculosis, that is so prevalent these days. Would you like to be the cause of sending some one to an untimely grave? No, you would not. Take a walk up and down the streets and see what a "mess" that you have helped to make, and use some common sense and don't do it again.

What we need is an ordinance making it a one dollar fine for the first offense, and five for the second, like they have in the larger cities and about one dose will do some of us that are so careless and unthoughtful.

A Citizen.

The Sentinel overlooked to note in yesterday's paper the visit to the city of Henry H. Sawyer of Woden. Mr. Sawyer has many friends in this city, whom he has served at every opportunity, and they are always glad to see him.

GOV. JAS. E. FERGUSON CONTRIBUTES TWO PIGS

Governor Jas. E. Ferguson is proving a friend of the East Texas Fair at Timpson as we gather from the following report, which is taken from yesterday's issue of the Timpson Times:

Governor James E. Ferguson is a friend to the East Texas Fair. He has demonstrated this fact more than once. Several months ago he promised the Secretary he would give two fine pigs as a premium for the eighth annual meet. In the premium list Governor Ferguson's premium is listed as No. 1. The boy under 18 years of age who has the best display of corn (20 ears) gets the thoroughbred pigs. Secretary Walker is in receipt of the following letter from Governor Ferguson, which conveys the fact that the pigs will be shipped in plenty of time for the opening of the fair Sept. 19:

"I am ordering my manager to ship you next Saturday, the 16th, the two pigs which I promised to give as a premium to the boy under eighteen years of age with the best exhibit of corn.

The doctor has advised me to refrain from all speaking until cold weather sets in, and for that reason I will not be able to be with you.

Please give my regards to all my friends. I am,

Yours truly,

Jas. E. FERGUSON,

Governor.

N. Y. UNIONS ARE ASKED TO STRIKE

New York, Sept. 11.—All the trade unions in the city, with 750,000 members, served by the Interborough Rapid Transit Company today were considering the appeal for sympathetic strikes made last night by the strikers. Response must be decided by a vote of the members and if it is expected to be several days before the result can be known. The strike on the surface lines has spread rapidly, although elevated and subway lines continued running today without apparent interruption.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declined to discuss the probability of a general strike, but union leaders asserted that if necessary 50,000 union men could be called out within six hours.

Traction officials attributed the falling off in service on the subways and elevated roads to the unprecedented increase in traffic caused by the stoppage of all the surface lines. Union leaders claimed, however, that the defection of heretofore loyal employees of the roads was responsible.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS CORDIALLY INVITED

San Augustine, Sept. 12, 1916. To the Confederate Veterans of Shelby, Nacogdoches and Angelina Counties:

John H. Brooks Camp of Confederate Veterans, assisted by the citizens of San Augustine county, will, on the 28th and 29th of September, 1916, in the city of San Augustine, entertain the Sabine River Camp of Confederate veterans.

It is the pleasure of said John H. Brooks Camp, and the citizens of San Augustine county, to extend to the Confederate veterans of the above counties an invitation to be with us on that occasion, and participate in said re-union.

Respectfully,

E. D. DAVIS,

NATIONAL GUARD LIFE AS IT IS

Since being out on recruiting service I have visited many of our Texas cities and towns, and have been surprised at the idea most of the young men of these different communities have of the U. S. Army and the National Guard; they are of the impression that it is work from daylight until dark with no liberties at all. This is a big mistake, and through the columns of your newspaper I shall try and give you a detailed account of the every-day life of a soldier.

The day begins with reveille or "get up" call at daylight, and half an hour later breakfast is served, at 7 a. m. Sitting up exercises are held, these being a series of movements to straighten the body and encourage deep breathing. At 8 o'clock drills of different kinds are held until ten o'clock, with rest periods every fifteen minutes. At 10:30 an instruction on the care of equipment, or health is given, then there is nothing else until three, except dinner. From 3 to 5 is drill period and then after supper a man is at liberty to go to town until ten. All kinds of healthful sports are encouraged, such as baseball, football, boxing, swimming and running, and each battalion has an athletic director. The best of food is served and if any man goes hungry it is his own fault, as there is always plenty. Clothes, equipment and medical attention are furnished free. The pay ranges from $15.00 a month up, and it is up to the man himself for promotion. No favoritism is shown and positions are awarded strictly on merit. Are there many young men employed in different places that have these advantages? If they think so let them sit down, check up and see. They will find that they have not. There is another impression that the National Guard is only for men who are out of work. This is another big mistake on the part of those that think so, for a study of the roster of this organization will show men from every business walk of life who responded to the call of the president, and are at present on the border. Nacogdoches has sent quite a few young men to swell this number, but more are needed, and any other information wanted will be cheerfully furnished by the members of the Recruiting Party, stationed at the Redland Hotel.

Private, Co. I, 3rd Tex. Inf.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

Fifty-five years ago today, which was Sept. 12, 1861, was the biggest day that Nacogdoches had ever experienced. It was the day that Raguet's Company, the first organized company that went into the Confederate army from this county, left. It was magnificently equipped and mounted, and it was composed of the pick of the best blood in the town and in the land. Of course, it created sensation, and it left amid shouts and flying colors; followed by many tear-dimmed eyes, and tender prayers continued for many months.

J. E. M.

Since writing a report of the doings of district court, Judge Guinn informs us that the "court has courted out" for the week, everything available having been disposed of. He will go home tonight or tomorrow spend several days with his family. Be it said to the credit of Nacogdoches county, that litigation and crime is on the decrease, and there is but little new business this time, and compromise is being reached on much of the old litigation.

WILL PROMOTE TRADES DAY FOR NACOGDOCHES

Whole Matter Was Turned Over to Jas. D. Greer and Committee He May Select.

A number of business men and citizens assembled at the City hall late yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing the matter of having a Trades Day in Nacogdoches at some day in the near future.

Talks were made by different citizens, practically all in favor of promoting the event provided that sufficient co-operation and financial support is in evidence, after which it was elected that whole matter be turned over to Jas. D. Greer and a committee of five, the committee to be chosen by him.

With characteristic energy, in which he never shirks anything, Mr. Greer accepted the responsibility and has been as busy as the proverbial crabber merchant today getting his committee and holding conferences in the matter of working out the preliminaries.

As soon as the committee works out and prepares a program, The Sentinel will gather a full report of what is proposed and other details connected with the enterprise.

THE TEXAS MILITIA IS COZILY AT HOME

Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 11.—Camp Alto Vista, the new home of the Texas Brigade, in the southern part of this city, is proving a great attraction for South Texas, thousands of people visiting the grounds each day to meet the boys of the Second and Third Texas Infantry regiments. No less than 10,000 people visited the camp Sunday and the crowd today was nearly as large.

All of the companies of the two regiments are now in camp with the exception of two machine gun troops that remain at Harlingen for a two weeks school of instruction, arriving here about September 20. With the arrival 3350 Texas militiamen will be in Camp at Ala Vista.

The Texans are immensely pleased with their new camp, which offers many of "the comforts of home," including wide shelled streets, electric lights, and telephones and drainage, while surf-bathing is offered but 300 feet from camp.

Brigade headquarters are located along the eastern front of the camp. There has been some delay in erecting the buildings for the brigade officers, due to the fact that for several days comparatively few trucks and wagons were available for moving the 80 cars of equipment from the depot tracks to the camp. By Wednesday it is anticipated that all of the buildings will have been erected.

A flagpole 70 feet high is being erected near the quarters of General John A. Hulen, the commander of the camp, and a big flag will be flung to the breezes within the next few days.

The regular order of drills was started this morning, after a delay of several days to allow the making of the camp. A 10-mile hike for each of the regiments each Friday morning and company hikes each morning are on the program.

CONGRESSMAN DIES HAS ARRIVED HOME

The information is gleaned from the Beaumont Enterprise that Congressman Martin Dies and wife are now at home, and to the sanitarium. His physical there.

Mr. Dies will open the East Texas fair at Timpson, and doubtless make a number of other speeches in the district during his vacation.

Keeping Yourself Well

DRIVING OUT CATARRH

If people know how the presence of catarrh is a constant menace, they would have none of it. It infests some part of the delicately adjusted body and makes it useless, thus throwing on the other organs more than their share of work. It affords a carefully prepared remedy for the germs of colds, grip, tuberculosis and pneumonia. It so disarranges Nature's delicate plans as to make possible asthma, hay fever and other respiratory disorders. It spreads until it becomes systemic, thus involving many organs and debilitating the entire system with serious results. Catarrh is easily neglected, and it rarely gets well of itself. It needs proper medicinal correction. For almost half a century many thousands have found help in Peruna, a reliable tonic with special efficacy in catarrhal conditions. The aim is to clean out waste matter, to dispel the catarrhal inflammation, and to tone up the whole system. Its users willingly testify that it has done all this and even more for catarrhal sufferers. What it has done is the best proof of what it will do. You may rely on Peruna.

In tablet form it is pleasant to take and easy to administer. Tablets are the ideal form of medicine. They have no harmful effects and do not irritate the stomach. The Peruna Co., Columbus, O.

PLOT AGAINST U. S. MAY BE BARED

New York, Sept. 11.—The finding of eight military maps of the Aleutian Islands, which form an extension of the Alaskan Peninsula, stolen from the United States coast guard service, among the possessions of Herbert Sauer, a Tombs prisoner, is considered an indication of an international plot.

The maps were discovered in a furnished room in Baltimore, recently occupied by Sauer, who is held in connection with the death of Mrs. Caroline Tiarks, who was found dead, bound and gagged in her apartment here last month.

Confronted with the stolen maps, admitted by federal authorities to be of military importance, and accused of being a German spy, Sauer refused to say how he came into possession of them and much other property the police declare was stolen from Lieutenant Scally of the coast guard service.

Sauer, the police say, admitted he was in the coast guard service, enlisting in Baltimore, and deserted.

Sauer was arrested a week ago in a semi-conscious condition lying in a Bronx doorway. He told a story of being robbed of $15,000 by two men who lured him into a taxicab. He afterwards admitted that his story was a lie.

WIFE IS INDICTED OTHERS ARE ACCUSED

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Lella Barger today was indicted by the county grand jury on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of her husband, George C. Barger, Monday last, as he was emerging from the plant of a Dallas candy and cracker company, where he was employed as assistant superintendent. In another count of the same indictment Bille Stewart and J. E. Burke, both of Dallas, are charged with conspiracy with Mrs. Barger to commit murder.

It was stated that habeas corpus proceedings probably would be started this afternoon with a view to having the trio released on bond.

Mrs. Barger was arrested immediately after the shooting which resulted in the death of her husband. She and her husband formerly lived at Chattanooga, Tennessee.

It is alleged that Stewart and Burke tried to induce Barger to leave Dallas several days ago.

Only a small crowd was present in the court room when the jury came in and before the verdict was read Judge Peck warned those in the room that there would be no demonstration. When the verdict was read Mrs. Foust warmly shook each juror by the hand and thanked him.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE DOWN TO BUSINESS

Hundred Teachers Present and an Interesting Meeting Has Been Launched.

From Monday's Daily.

At the time for organizing this morning something in the neighborhood of one hundred teachers of the county were present to participate in the meeting of the Nacogdoches County Teachers' Institute, which will be in session all this week.

The meeting was opened with a devotional service by Rev. E. L. Thompson, pastor of the Christian church of this city, in a manner in which he sustained his splendid reputation in such matters.

After the work of organization, which included announcement, enrollment, and some other features by local people, Hon. E. E. Davis of the Extension Department of the State University was introduced and he delivered a great address on matters of special interest to the profession, which was highly enjoyed by all present, and from which the teachers gained much inspiration in the noble work in which they are engaged.

The Institute will elect a reporter who will give a fuller account of the proceedings each day, and which will be an interesting department of the press of the city during the remainder of the week.

INSTITUTE NOTES.

From Tuesday's Daily

The institute was opened this morning with devotional exercises by Rev. C. A. Westbrook, who made a most interesting talk to the teachers on the subject of living Christian lives before the children over whom they preside.

The next number on the program was Mr. D. K. Cason, a well known business man of the city, who responded to the subject: "The Public School from a Business Man's Point of View." Mr. Cason made a most interesting talk in which he told of the opportunities that should be embraced by teachers to overcome much of the narrow prejudice that exists with the people and "peanut politicians" in matters of community interest, making a most interesting review of this subject in which he pictured many inequalities that are suffered in consequence.

Following this discussion the speaker urged more care and security in the expenditure of the sacred school fund, and he urged that the schools of today should give more attention to training their pupils how to spell, read and write better, giving it as his observation that many of the present high school graduates were sadly deficient in these important branches of their education. Continuing, Mr. Cason spoke in flattering terms of the many valuable free publications that are now being distributed by the Department of Education, and the value of the Short Courses and vocational work that is being done. Concluding, the speaker made a pretty appeal for richer hearts and brains, more valuable than gold and material wealth.

Mr. Cason was followed by the sectional meeting with good report of the numbers as arranged on the program, after which Prof. Blackwell of the Extension Department of the A. & M. College, made a great address on the subject of "Rural School as a Social Center."

The Institute feels very fortunate in having with it the following distinguished visitors who are giving such valuable assistance in the work: L. T. Cunningham, of the Department of Education; E. E. Davis, of the Extension Department of the University of Texas; Mr. Blackwell, of the Extension Department of the A. & M. College; Prof. S. C. Wilson, of the Sam Houston Normal Institute. These gentlemen will have numbers on the program and are bringing some new and valuable ideas to the teachers of Nacogdoches county, as well as added interest and enthusiasm to the work.

INSTITUTE NOTES.

From Wednesday's Daily

The feature of the afternoon yesterday was an address by Prof. L. T. Cunningham, of the Department of Education, who talked about the "Work of the Department of Education," "Compulsory Attendance Law," "The Million Dollar Appropriation," and "The House Joint Resolution Thirty."

The Institute was opened this morning with a beautiful devotional service by Rev. M. C. Johnson, pastor of the Main Street Presbyterian Church.

County Judge Jas. F. Perritte was introduced and made a most logical and eloquent address on the subject of good roads, in the course of which he pictured the many conveniences to be derived therefrom in bringing people closer together, couching his address in many pretty little illustrations that were very forceful. He was followed by Prof. Stripling, county superintendent, who outlined the plan for building a half-mile of model road from each school, for which a thousand dollars in prizes would be given, as previously noted in this paper. Dr. Musselman from Dallas, followed with a ringing endorsement of the plan, in the course of which he said that the plan was so good it would spread and become nationwide in its scope.

The Institute by vote unanimously endorsed the plan, and it is now up to the promoters to raise the prizes as contemplated and let the work be inaugurated.

An interesting sectional meeting followed the speaking as noted above, after which Dr. Musselman delivered a most interesting and logical address on the subject: "What the Country School of Tomorrow Will Do." In the course of his address, the speaker said he had visited 118 counties, speaking to sixteen thousand teachers, and that his observation is that the school business is the greatest creation of the brainy man. The High School is the university of democracy since only ten per cent ever attend college. As message bearers through the free publications, entertainments, etc., are arousing a school sentiment that is causing a spread of education, inculcating the motto: "What I come to know about, I want; what I come to want, I work for; and what I come to work for I get." Many other good points in the matter of supervision, consolidation, equipment, etc., were given.

Prof. E. E. Davis of the Extension Department of the University of Texas, addressed the colored normal, as did also Hon. Edgar Thomason, making eloquent, logical addresses which were well received by the colored teachers.

There are one hundred and fifty-one white teachers in attendance upon the white institute, and there is also a good attendance at the colored institute, all getting down to work with much interest and earnestness.

MARTIN DIES WILL REVIEW THE ACHIEVEMENTS

Beaumont, Texas, September 11.—Congressman Martin Dies and Mrs. Dies arrived here Sunday night from Washington and left this morning for their country home at Warren.

Beginning September 19 and with an address at Timpson, Congressman Dies will stump the second congressional district, his speeches to deal entirely with the accomplishments of the democratic administration.

Mr. Dies predicts the re-election of President Wilson and believes the democrats will continue to maintain their majority in congress.

"We have carried out every promise in the democratic platform," said Mr. Dies, "and more constructive legislation has been enacted during the past four years than at any other period in the history of the country." He particularly cited the rural credits law creating farm loan banks and the good roads legislation.

As to waterways Mr. Dies said he would continue his fight for waterway improvements until the largest vessel afloat could come directly to Beaumont and Orange.

Referring to the eight-hour law, Mr. Dies said he voted for it because he knew it was the only thing that could save this country from a terrible calamity.

WILSON GOES TO SISTER'S BEDSIDE

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 11.—Cancelling all engagements, President Wilson left here today to go to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. A. Howe, who is critically ill at her home in New London, Conn.

The president arose before 7 o'clock after a restless night. He appeared greatly concerned over his sister's illness.

15,000 GUARDSMEN ARE MUSTERED OUT

Washington, Sept. 7.—The 15,000 guardsmen coming from the border by the recent order of the war department were today ordered mustered out of the federal service. The guardsmen remaining on the border stay there for the present.

The war department official announcement was made in the following statement:

"The secretary of war directs that all the organizations of the National Guard in the federal service recently ordered from the border to their respective mobilization camps and returned to the normal status of National Guard troops, except in the case of the Fourteenth New York regiment, which is to be held in service at its mobilization camp pending the prevalence in that regiment of paratyphoid.

"As soon as it can be safely done, this regiment also will be mustered out. Similar precaution should be taken with any other organization returning from the border suffering from an infection or which is under suspicion of being infected."

The troops affected are three regiments from New York, two from New Jersey, one from Maryland, two from Illinois, two from Missouri, one from California, one from Oregon, one from Washington and one from Louisiana.

These units comprise in the aggregate about 15,000 National Guardsmen.

All organizations composed exclusively of students also were ordered mustered out of the federal service. The order, however, does not affect individual students enrolled as such in National Guard organizations.

CONGRESS WILL RAISE PENSIONS

Washington, Sept. 7.—A bill giving to widows of officers or enlisted men who served in the civil or Mexican war, and who have reached the age of 70 years pensions of $20 a month instead of the present $12 a month was passed today by the senate. It has already passed the house.

Widows of civil war soldiers dropped because of marriage to another person are restored to the roll by the bill.

The brief debate on the bill did not disclose the additional cost to the government.

T. E. Self of Libert was a pleasant caller at The Sentinel office Saturday afternoon.

ORGANIZATION ON NEW BASIS

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 7.—Organization of the National Guardsmen on the border into provisional divisions will have to be started on a new basis, it was said at Southern division headquarters today on receipt of news from Washington that the 15,000 guardsmen now returning to their state camps would be taken from federal service.

The First and Second Kansas regiments were on their way here today from Eagle Pass to replace the Second Illinois Infantry, recalled to Springfield, Illinois, in the provisional division at Fort Sam Houston. The Ohio and Kentucky Guardsmen, who have just arrived at El Paso, can be used at points west in the new plan of organization, but at stations along the Texas border, which lost New York, Missouri, Maryland and Louisiana regiments, fresh formations will have to be devised.

A Woman's Problem

How to Feel Well During Middle Life Told by Three Women Who Learned from Experience.

The Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Read these letters:

Philadelphia, Pa. "I started the Change of Life five years ago. I always had a headache and back-ache with bearing down pains and I would have light flashes very bad at times with dizzy spells and nervous feelings. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new person and am in better health and no more troubled with the aches and pains I had before I took your wonderful remedy. I recommend it to my friends for I cannot praise it enough." Mrs. MARGARET GRASSMAN, 759 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Beverly, Mass. "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for nervousness and dyspepsia, when I was going through the Change of Life. I found it very helpful and I have always spoken of it to other women who suffer as I did and have had them try it and they also have received good results from it." Mrs. GEORGE A. DENBAR, 17 Roundy St., Beverly, Mass.

Erie, Pa. "I was in poor health when the Change of Life started with me and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, or I think I should not have got over it as easy as I did. Even now if I do not feel good I take the Compound and it restores me in a short time. I will praise your remedies to every woman for it may help them as it has me." Mrs. E. KISSLING, 931 East 24th St., Erie, Pa.

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the L. E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Such letters are received and answered by women only and held in strict confidence.

TIMPSON BANK ROBBERS THREE VICTIMS OF GIVEN TWO YEARS OIL BLAZE DEAD

Timpson Times, Wednesday. John McQuaig was tried in the district court at Center this week for being connected with the attempted robbery of the Cotton Belt Bank in this city several months ago. The case went to the jury yesterday and a verdict was rendered this morning. He was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary.

An attempt to blow the safe in the Cotton Belt State Bank was made several months ago. Joe McCollum happened to be up town and heard the explosions that wrecked the vault and safe. He notified City Marshal Booth, who gave chase to the robbers and succeeded in wounding one of them; this one happened to be Mr. John McQuaig. For several days after he was wounded he made his headquarters in the loft of the North Side Baptist church. After his departure from this place officers found bandages and other things that indicated the robbers had been there. Among some of the paraphernalia left was a part of a shoe with a bullet hole through the toe part. Later McQuaig was caught at Lufkin, with a wounded foot; he was arrested and brought back to Timpson and the wound in his foot proved to be a bullet wound. He changed shoes at Lufkin, throwing away the other part of the shoe left in the church loft. It was found afterwards and when compared with the part here, it fit exactly. McQuaig was taken to jail at Center where he has remained ever since. If he has ever made a statement in regard to the matter no one has ever heard it, and no doubt he will serve his term in the pen in the same sullen manner that he has manifested while in jail.

Tex Wallace of Fort Worth is out under bond, charged with being implicated in the robbery. His case has been set for the February term of court.

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 8.—Three of the men burned in the gas explosion due to a leak in the pipe line of the Texas Company near Newark early yesterday morning are dead.

The dead are: Dan Jacobs of Newark. A. B. Frazier of Greenville. Willis Brown of Grand Prairie.

Others injured are: J. M. McKinnon of Newark, who will probably survive; E. H. Mayner of Dallas, slightly burned, and E. H. Mahan, the foreman, burned on face and hands, and whose injuries are not serious.

In their agony some of the injured men begged to be put to death as their burned bodies lay near the scene of the accident waiting for help to arrive from Fort Worth.

A FAREWELL RECEPTION TENDERED SENATOR KING

Banquet Spread; With Judge Ingraham Presiding, Lawyers Talked About Him.

From Thursday's Daily.

One of the most brilliant social functions of the season, and at the same time one of the most affecting, was had in the beautiful dining room of the Banita Hotel last evening when the bar of Nacogdoches spread a banquet in honor of one of their most prominent members, Senator S. M. King, on the eve of his departure to Beaumont where he goes to make his future home.

Many courses of tempting viands and condiments were served in the well-appointed manner for which this hostelry is noted, and around this festive board, with Judge Ingraham, the veteran member of the Bar, presiding, many eloquent toasts were delivered, prominent among which was the address of Judge Cavin with some good and wholesome advice to the young lawyer; Hon. Edgar Thompson expressing the appreciation of the Bar for the guest of the evening; Judge Perritte speaking in like vein; Hon. June C. Harris in a discussion of the honor of lawyers with each other in which they never break an agreement, and their fidelity to their clients; Hon. Moss Adams in a review of the life of his life-long friend from boyhood up; Prof. R. F. Davis closing with an eloquent address in admiration of the profession in general and many eloquent tributes to his friend, Steve King. The supper having been finished by this time, and the hour growing late, the toastmaster gave the guest of the evening opportunity to respond, and while eloquent on all occasions, the general public has never had an opportunity to hear Steve King make the beautiful little address with which he responded on this occasion.

Being deeply moved with the honor, love and friendship that had been bestowed upon him, his eloquence was couched in a pathos that was sublime. In taking his departure, he gave assurance that the festivities and manifestations of this night would ever remain fresh in his memory, and that while he was going into a new and untried field, for which he had to steel his nerve, this occasion gives him a new inspiration to fight the battles in a way that would be worthy of the confidence bestowed upon him by the best friends he ever had, and at the same time he would ever look back to old Nacogdoches as home. He expressed the hope that during the remainder of his service in the senate he would still be referred to as "the senator from Nacogdoches," in which he has gained so much satisfaction in the past, and that no matter what fate may be in store for him in the future, his loyalty for the old town would never wane, the change in localities being solely for business reasons.

Senator King is a native of Rusk county, but the larger portion of his boyhood was spent in the vicinity of Garrison. He came to Nacogdoches about sixteen years ago and "hung out his shingle," since which time he has enjoyed a gradual growth in practice and usefulness until he now ranks with the leading legal lights of East Texas. In the way of public service he has served his people as county attorney, in the state legislature, and is the present senator. As an officer his record is spotless in so far as the necessity of defense is concerned, crowned with a record of brilliant achievements that reflect credit on both he and the people who elected him.

And we would not close without recognizing an equal share of credit for Senator King's family. Judge Ingraham and others in speaking of the sterling worth of the guest of the evening did not overlook to pay tribute to the most estimable lady who had given her husband inspiration and help in his achievements, and express the hope that the same kind fate which would be with Senator King in the future might also attend Mrs. King and their bright, beautiful children, and that the family might enjoy every blessing which they so richly deserve, in their new home.

Senator King and family will take their departure over the southbound T. & N. O. for their new home in Beaumont this afternoon, and it is needless to say that many admiring friends will follow them to the station for a last good-bye and words of good cheer.

THE CONTRIBUTIONS.

A few days ago The Sentinel carried a story of some good road work being done by the people of the Appleby country on the road leading toward Nacogdoches, under the supervision of Dixon Greer. The Sentinel has since been furnished with a list of the contributors to the good work, which is as follows:

- D. L. Campbell ..... $12.00
- O. B. Slay ..... 10.00
- M. H. Clark ..... 15.00
- H. and E. Greer ..... $20.00
- M. P. Tims, (col.) ..... 12.00
- Ed. Tims (col.) ..... 12.00
- Dixon Greer ..... 15.00
- A. M. Evans ..... 15.00
- W. A. Hill ..... 6.00
- Lee Collins ..... 7.50
- Tom Blackshear ..... 4.00
- R. C. White ..... 6.00
- Mangham & Matthews ..... 10.00
- R. L. Cochran ..... 6.00
- W. J. Shepherd ..... 6.00
- Dr. Tindall ..... 12.00
- J. P. Barr ..... 4.00
- S. W. Day ..... 8.00
- O. W. Shepherd ..... 5.00
- G. W. Faulkner ..... 8.00
- Dr. Harrison ..... 6.00
- F. E. Bass ..... 6.00
- R. W. Tilery ..... 6.00

The citizens interested in the matter met Wednesday morning and unanimously agreed among themselves that if necessary they would double this good subscription, or put up whatever amount that may be needed to build a first-class road in the stretch layed out, which insures that the road will be built. Such patriotism is commendable in the highest degree, and the community with such people can not fail to grow and prosper.

The county is putting up a similar amount in this enterprise, as it will with the citizens of any other section of the county, and if the whole county was settled up with people of the Appleby push, the county would soon be belted with good roads. It is encouraging to note, however, that the good roads fever is spreading, and a number of other communities have made substantial improvement, while others have in contemplation early activity.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without

AN OLD GENTLEMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Mr. Amos Rogers, a pioneer citizen of the Douglass community who was about eighty-two years of age, died very suddenly yesterday afternoon while resting under the shade of a tree.

Mr. Rogers has always been a very active man, and on the day of his death was at work with his son, Bob, stacking some peanuts. Becoming a little fatigued, he proposed to his son that they sit down under the shade of a near-by tree for a little rest, and soon after sitting down he expired without any apparent struggle.

The old gentleman is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. He was a good man and a good citizen, and the family has a great host of friends who sympathize with them in their bereavement.

The trip was made through the country in an automobile, and after the examination Mr. Oden returned to Timpson, and is now under the care of Dr. T. E. Whiteside at the Whiteside sanitarium. His many friends are hopeful that he will have a speedy recovery and will again be restored to good health. Timpson Times.

You can generally blame your grouch on a lazy liver. Liver ills are back of coated tongue, bad breath, biliousness and muddy, sallow complexion. Insufficient flow of bile leaves impurities in the liver which poison the entire system. Po-Do-Lax is Nature's remedy. It stimulates the activity of the liver, increases the flow of bile, and by its laxative quality carries off the waste matter and clears the complexion. At your Druggist, 25c. d-w
