A GOOD FRIEND.

A good friend stands by you when in need. Nacogdoches people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mr. Wood endorsed Doan's over eleven years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

W. H. Wood, farmer, North st., Nacogdoches, says: "I was troubled by a constant, dull ache across the small of my back. The kidney secretions were scanty and too frequent in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly did me a lot of good." (Statement given April 7, 1905).

On June 4, 1915, Mr. Wood said: "I take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally as a preventive and I have little trouble from my kidneys."

BIG DAMAGE SUIT IS NOW SETTLED

Litigation Over Timber Land Located in East Texas Is Brought to Close.

The following, which is reprinted from the Houston Chronicle, will be read with interest by many here in Nacogdoches, as several parties here were directly interested in the affair:

"An agreed judgment for $175,000 has been entered in the Sixty-First District Court in a suit for $500,000 damages, involving the sale of 30,000 acres of East Texas timber land. A check for that amount has been received by the plaintiff, the Thompson & Ford Lumber Co. of Houston, from E. A. Frost and others of Shreveport, formerly stockholders in the Kelly Land & Lumber Co.

"In 1907, the Kelly Land & Lumber Co., now dissolved sold to the plaintiff 30,000 acres of timber land in Jefferson, Liberty and Hardin Counties. Subsequently the Houston Oil Company appeared in a suit in the United States court, claiming title to 13,000 acres of this land by virtue of a deed from the Kelly company's vendor. A decree was entered by Federal Judge Burns granting 10,000 acres and $80,000 damages for the cutting of timber. As a result of this loss, the Thompson & Ford Lumber Co. filed suit against Frost and others for selling the land on a faulty deed. It is this suit that has just been settled.

"Litigation over the large tract has aroused considerable interest in lumber circles, and the suit has been watched with keen interest.

"Counsel for the plaintiff were Townes & Vinson, Baker, Botts, Parker & Garwood, and Andrews, Streetman, Burns & Logue. For the defendant the counsel were W. H. Arnold of Texarkana, Steve Blount of Nacogdoches and E. J. Mantooth of Lufkin.

MARKET FOR SYRUP.

While at the State Fair meeting County Agricultural Agent, Jas. D. Greer of this county interested five demonstrators in helping him introduce East Texas ribbon cane syrup in the west and find a market for same.

Mr. Greer requests The Sentinel to give notice to the farmers who wish to participate in this new market to be very careful in the preparation of their syrup, straining very carefully and see that no yellow jackets and flies get into the product, by which means a reputation can be built up that will insure a permanent demand.

EAST TEXAS COUNTIES CARRY OFF PRIZES

Old East Texas is coming into its own as a farming country, and is going to make the world sit up and take notice.

Mr. Greer informs us that East Texas counties, in this immediate vicinity, carried off the grand prizes, for both corn and cotton, at the State Fair at Dallas. Mrs. J. A. Blow, a widow of Bullard, Smith county, was awarded the grand prize for the best ten ears of corn, and Bud Campbell of Appleby, this county, received the grand prize for the best individual ear. N. B. Davis of Canton secured the grand prize for the best exhibit of cotton. East Texas points likewise secured the prizes on peanuts and other crops, and altogether this section almost monopolized the prize list.

Such reports can not fail to draw the attention and arouse interest in this section with people from other sections of the country, and we may expect an influx of homeseekers in consequence at an early date.

CAMPBELL SCHOOL WILL HAVE MEETING

The Sentinel is requested to say that the Campbell School will have a good roads mass meeting Friday night, Nov. 3rd, to which the county board of trustees, and all others interested, are invited. Superintendent Day of Garrison will address the meeting.

This school has unanimously adopted the idea of building a half mile of good road, and at this meeting the details of the program for the work will be disposed of so that the work can be launched at once.

This is a commendable spirit of enterprise on the part of this good community, for which the teachers, student body and citizenship are to be congratulated.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

News has reached the city that a fire destroyed the barn of the man living at a little station on the E. & W. known as Davisville, some four miles this side of Lufkin, Sunday night.

The barn contained three head of horses, several head of cattle, several hogs, a wagon and harness, and between three hundred and four hundred bushels of corn all of which was a total loss.

The Sentinel has been unable to learn the name of the party or how the fire originated.

NACOGDOCHES FARMERS WANT COUNTY FAIR

County Agricultural Agent, Jas. D. Greer informs The Sentinel that the farmers of the county are becoming very much interested in having a county fair next fall and that he already has one hundred and forty club members who will grow exhibits for an enterprise of this kind. In the list are twenty good farmers, and they will begin immediately in the preparation of their lands so as to be ready next spring. If there are others who would like to engage in this enterprise, Mr. Greer would be glad to have their names.

The idea prevailing with Mr. Greer and those engaging in the enterprise with him is to have a two or four days fair in Nacogdoches, with everything free, after which the best exhibits will be carried to the State Fair at Dallas, and by so doing Nacogdoches county would receive most attractive advertising, while some of our farmers would no doubt carry off some of the prizes from that institution.

The matter will be discussed with different farmers over the county, after which Mr. Greer hopes to get a mass meeting of farmers and business men at some convenient time and work out the details of the enterprise.

SKULL WAS FRACTURED.

News has reached the city that Carroll Scott a well known citizen of the Woden country, suffered a fractured skull a few nights ago by a wagon, from which he had been thrown out, passing over his head.

A physician of the city has been attending him, and he is reported to be doing as well as could be hoped for under the circumstances.

COURT MARTIAL

San Antonio, Texas, Oct. 23. — Trials by summary court martial of soldiers of the Twelfth Division at Camp Wilson who were placed under military arrest yesterday on the charge of trespassing were begun today. Those found guilty are being fined or imprisoned. It was announced at division headquarters that of the number rounded up by the provost guard only sixty faced trial for trespassing.

In its upward flight, which at times has been sensational and altogether lovely, cotton reached a price of eighteen cents in Houston yesterday.

Seeing as how the "enemy" has been closing in on us here of late, we shall claim the right of arbitration before any further decided steps are taken. What was The Hague created for, pray tell, if not for this?—Lufkin News.

The "norther" has caused many of the inhabitants in this section much worry in the way of putting heaters in repair and providing wood, but we have the consolation that it has put the mosquitoes out of business for awhile which overbalances the trouble.

When we read Col. Roosevelt's speeches, which are supposed to be delivered in the interest of the candidacy of Judge Hughes for president, and in which he is "out of joint" with everything and everybody, and would declare war on the whole world, we are reminded of the quotation, "God save us from our friends." Give him rope; he is one of the best assets the democratic party has in the present campaign.

The hardware stores of the city enjoyed a rushing business in the sale of heaters and stove pipe this morning. It is a weakness of human nature, of which we are guilty, to put off that which we do not need today until tomorrow. When it rains it is too wet to cover the house, and when it is dry the new roof is not needed, is accredited with being Arkansas philosophy, and the principle runs through many other affairs of life.

Some wise head has now predicted that the war in Europe will be prolonged for another year. That is a wise prediction—that is, if it depends upon Germany throwing up her hands and quitting the game in that length of time. In other words, if the allies wish an early culmination of the war they will have to whip the German army first—and that is the one thing they have not done. This much to keep the record straight.—Lufkin News.

The best legal talent of the city is agreed on the interpretation of the law that the commissioners' court is not authorized to appropriate more than one thousand dollars per year to agricultural demonstration work. This being true, there is only two hundred dollars available for the domestic science work, about which there has been much discussion lately, the remaining eight hundred dollars having been appropriated to the work being done by Jas. D. Greer.

Does it ever seem to you that the court-houses are mainly for the benefit of the gang that hang round them? And there is always a clamor for more courts, coming mainly from the lawyers and judges. They say the judges can't keep up with the work of the courts, and that therefore, there must be more courts. This is especially true as to the higher courts. A little observation, however, as to the time the judge gets on the job in the morning and when they knock off work after lunch; and how long are their vacations, may cause another train of thought to run over you.—R. R. Claridge.

SAVE MONEY NOW.

While this year's cotton crop is short, it with the seed will doubtless bring the south a billion dollars—probably more, in fact, than any previous crop has brought us. Tobacco prices, too, are exceptionally high; wheat, corn, oats, and all kinds of livestock are bringing record prices. So, despite storms and floods that have meant disaster locally, the average southern farmer will find this fall to be in better condition financially than for many moons.

All this means that we have the opportunity of our lives to save some money—the golden opportunity to break away from the bondage of time prices, put some money in the bank, and get ourselves on a cash basis. For two or three years prices have not been very good; now that they are the highest in many years, foolish indeed is the man who does not put some money in the bank against the rainy days that are sure to come.

To the ambitious tenant farmer especially would be appeal to make use of this great opportunity. Home ownership should be the ideal of every tenant, and wise is the man who this fall, instead of wasting the profits from the year's work on senseless, extravagant luxuries, uses them to give himself a mighty boost toward economic freedom. Every year, as land values go higher and still higher, the tenant is going to find it increasingly difficult to become a land-owner and home owner. We know the temptation to spend is great, but the man with real grit, the man who means to do or die in his fight for a home for himself and his family, will pass them all by and put some money in the bank, into livestock, or into equipment that will help him to still further increase his capacity for earning.

Likewise the land owner who looks forward to a greater degree of economic freedom will not wastefully squander the profits from this year's crops. Comparatively few farmers have been able to avail themselves of the savings that come from paying cash. What would it be worth to us, for instance to buy for cash all fertilizers in car lots? What would it mean to us if we had enough ready cash to enable us to hold our cotton, cotton seed and other products until prices suit us? And aside from the great savings thus affected, the very fact that a man has money in the bank makes him a more upstanding, self-respecting citizen. If you doubt it, try it!

When the south becomes a land of thrift, it will become a land of wealth and plenty. The really great countries of the world are peopled by thrifty, hard-headed, sensible folks who are not ashamed to save, and a large part of the destitution and misery of this world are traceable to somebody's unwillingness to give up present pleasures for future prosperity. The boy and girl who fail to get the schooling that they should; the mother, broken by hard, unending toil; the foreclosed mortgage, the broken-up home—how often do these come from somebody's failure to save.

If we have not already done so, let us, now, learn the glorious lesson of thrift; let us join the bank line and be our own masters, rather than the bread line of dependent supplicants. Let's save some money.—Progressive Farmer.

THE FOOLS OF YESTERDAY.

Among the things owned by J. Pierpont Morgan when he died was a small pile of manuscripts and a diary written by Henry D. Thoreau, and never published. The appraisers of the Morgan estate valued them at $12,000. That is more money than poor Thoreau ever had in all his life. He could not have sold these manuscripts himself for enough to buy one meal. And yet it is conceded now that Thoreau was one of the few great writers this country has ever produced. His books, that he had to print himself because no publisher would touch them, now are regarded as classics and are used as such in public schools and universities.

Thoreau passed as a harmless crank in his native village of Concord, and when he built a little hut by Walden Pond and went to live there alone, they said he was "daffy." Now the literary world pilgrimages to that sacred spot.

A great many wise men have passed for fools. Folly often passes for wisdom, and wisdom often mistakes for folly in this queer world. Charlie Lamb was one of the wisest and wittiest of men, but he passed for a senseless punster. Oliver Goldsmith was called in his lifetime an "inspired idiot," and Walpole wrote of him as "poor soul that had sometimes parts, though never common sense." James Boswell passed for a fool, too. Macaulay wrote of him that he had a "perfect unconsciousness that he was making a fool of himself, to which it is impossible to find a parallel in the whole history of mankind." Richard Steele was another great writer who was classed as a fool.

We know now, and have known for many years, that the world judged all of those men by their glaring faults, rather than by their rare merits, and, as Hugh Walker has said in the Yale Review, the things in which men of this type surpassed their fellows were rare and precious; but just because of their rarity they were overlooked by the world in which they moved.—Kansas City Star.

"LOST IN LUFKIN."

"Lost in Lufkin!" A fellow suffered this frightful experience a few nights ago. We know it is true, because the Lufkin Daily News says so.

The gentleman resides at a station on the Eastern Texas railroad, and was returning from a visit to Houston. When the porter called out "Lufkin" he got off, and stepping upon pavement, which he observed with the glare of electric lights, he hurried back into the train and inquired of the conductor if he had not been carried through to Nacogdoches. The man with the punch and the train crew finally convinced him that it was really Lufkin, the town which made all these improvements in late years which made it so much resemble Nacogdoches, and succeeded in getting him to get out and look again. Upon second inspection he found a hotel man he formerly knew, and later found a corner drug store that he recognized, which contended him to try out the new town until daylight.

A Lufkin man recently had a similar experience in Nacogdoches, except that he was traveling in an automobile, and became so excited that he raised an alarm that frightened the neighbors in the vicinity in which he was lost and the city marshal was called over the phone to the scene. After being put back into his road he motored out with grateful appreciation and expressions of wonder that the old town could have grown so fast since his last visit that he would get entirely lost.

East Texas towns and East Texas country are both growing so fast that it is no longer safe for the old-timers to rely on knowledge of the places through visits in the past to pilot them today. They must now travel more and oftener if they would keep up with the changes.

BEST JOB IN THE WORLD.

Why not go to farming? The young men who are hesitating on the threshold of a vocation, undecided and uncommitted, might well consider seriously the possibilities of farming. The way does not hold out immediate ease and sudden wealth, but there is something in farming which gives the young man sterling traits of character and brawn to rise head and shoulders above the motley crowd.

Farming offers larger opportunities this year than ever. Cash wheat is selling at Fort Worth at $1.60 per bushel, which is higher than the level of the option markets in Kansas City and St. Louis. Cotton is bringing over 15 cents per pound everywhere, and there are more traders who believe it will go to 18 cents before the season is over than there are who believe it will go lower.

There are no strings tied to the system of marketing either. With our government more friendly than ever toward the producer, the incentive to go back to the farm, or stay on the farm, is stronger than ever before.

Then there is something of independence about the life of the farmer which builds individuality and executive ability, and which has trained men for some of the highest offices in the nation. A farm is a good place to rear children. With the improvements now being worked out to the advantage of the Texas rural school system, the educational facilities for children in the country will be more adequate. Away from the dirt, corruption and dissipation of congested city quarters is the proper place for a nursery where the men who must rule in finance, political life and professional activities tomorrow should be reared. Of course, there are boll weevils and green bugs, and drouths, and floods, and mortgages and such, but all things considered, farming strikes us as about the best job in the world—except editing a newspaper.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

TOO TRUE.

The Sentinel is a stickler for always giving first consideration to home in everything. Home products, home labor and home people should always have first consideration in everything if we have that community interest and community prosperity to which we are entitled. Yet many people will send away for those things they buy, and many will give employment to a stranger in preference to some boy or man at home who is equally, and often more worthy. It is a condition of this kind that inspired the following communication from a most capable and worthy young man received in this morning's mail:

"Boys, young men, those of you who have energy, ambition and a desire to be something more than a cigarette smoker and idler, leave Nacogdoches and cast your lot among strangers. The writer is an experienced man in the general merchandise business, one who never has been without employment but very little since he first began work fourteen years ago, however not working in the mercantile business all the time, but enough to fill such a place as he would make application for, and too, to the entire satisfaction of employer, had occasion to make application to three leading houses in Nacogdoches for places open for such a man, and failed to even get a fair consideration. Nothing short with reference to honesty, character and ability as far as they knew, but, boys, here is the consideration I received. My name is not Bill, but we will say Bill.

"Hello, Bill, yes, we have a place open, Bill. How old are you. Gee, I didn't know you were that old. Well we are going to hire a man, but we want a thoroughly experienced man—and they were off.

"Boys, I have spent what I have earned with these men for twenty years, and such is the consideration you will receive in your home town. I wish you could see some of their 'thoroughly experienced' help under a spy glass."

RULES OF SAFETY.

Following is a list of rules in the interest of safety which should be read in every public school, particularly those of the towns, and memorized by every student:

I must not cross a street without first stopping and looking both ways; if the street is clear for at least half a block, then I may go ahead and cross quickly.

I must not attempt to cross a street except at a crossing, for there is less danger there than at any point.

I must not play in the street, especially in one frequently used by motor cars and other vehicles.

I must not attempt to flee if I am caught in the middle of the street with vehicles coming from both directions, for if I stand still they will likely go around me without harm; if but one vehicle is approaching I should step to the side of the street until it has passed.

I must not forget to render aid to a younger child in crossing the street. I must not steal a ride on a motor car or other vehicle.

I must not throw a stone or other missile at any vehicle.

I must not use roller skates or coasters on the streets.

I must not touch any part of a motor car I see standing on the streets.

I must not become frightened and try to run home if my clothing catches on fire, for that will cause the blaze to burn stronger. I should lie down and roll over to smother the flames.

I must not start or take part in a panic when a fire starts at school. I should remain in my seat until I can walk out without danger of being crushed in the aisles.

I must not light a match if I find illuminating gas escaping in a room. I must find grown people and tell them.

I must not run my bicycle too close to a street car or motor car, or catch on either of them, or use a shotgun, slingshot or pea shooter within the city limits, or play near the railroad tracks or play shinny anywhere except on the public playground.

ANOTHER CITIZEN INQUIRES.

A CITIZEN COMPLAINS.

Editor Sentinel: Sometimes I get to studying, and when I do, I go to thinking. Sometimes I think right and sometimes I think wrong—and as I do not know of anyone else that thinks wrong, I, of course, am in a class by myself. Now I am not good in figures, but I noticed in The Sentinel of April 7th where our worthy mayor went to Dallas and made an arrangement with the Telephone officials that they would pay the city sixty dollars a year instead of the city paying a like amount to them, thus saving the city the sum of one hundred and twenty dollars a year. The Telephone company agreed not to raise their rates until the first of November. Now we have been notified that the rate will be increased on Nov. 1st fifty cents on each 'phone.

If the directory is correct, and I suppose it is, they have 1033 business and 567 residence phones, making a total of 670, which will give the company an increase of $325 per month, or $1,020.00 per year, less of course, the $120 saved by the city. Now as I said, I am not very good in figures, and I would like for someone to figure it out and show me where the mayor saved the people of Nacogdoches anything. I can't for the life of me. Of course, the city is better off, but what about the people who have phones? I notice also in the paper that the city council agreed to the increase.

Now, on November 1st I am going to make a farewell talk to my telephone something like this: "Old friend, you and I have been intimate friends since 1900. I have used you when I got ready. Some of the times you would serve me, and some of the times you wouldn't, but I have always been good to you and paid $1.50 each month to keep you with me. Even if you didn't work half the time. But everything else has gone up and I guess you will have to go up, too, so farewell old telephone, you are not worth any more to me today than you were yesterday, so good-bye. If you see E. C. Branch anywhere, tell him I want a cheap phone, one that is not worth more than $1.50 per month. I know he will send me one. He made good money while here at that rate, and can do so again, so good-bye."

Yours truly,
A CITIZEN.

FLOUR IS TOO HIGH.

At the National Association of Master Bakers, held in New York City a few nights ago, a resolution was adopted calling for an embargo on wheat exports from this country. The resolution addressed to the President of the United States, and calls for investigation into the wheat situation, with the end in view "feeding America first."

Reasons given for the embargo were that "all governments of the world have now taken control of wheat and other food supplies; that the United States crop is insufficient, and that in spite of the abnormal conditions millions of bushels of wheat are exported every week."

Since the meeting of this association referred to above, wheat has again advanced and is now about ten dollars per barrel. The News is not prepared to say just what the trouble is, whether there is a real scarcity of wheat on account of heavy exports or whether certain interests have inflated the prices in order to more quickly enrich themselves, but it is certain that there is something wrong somewhere.

This ten dollars a barrel flour won't do in this country, as sure as yuo live.—Lufkin News.

News has been received in the city to the effect that the telephone exchange at Carthage was burned last night. The connections have all been burned making it impossible to talk to the place, and it is impossible to learn the extent of the damage.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic, and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons that have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere. dw

B. F. Moore, a well known citizen of the county, residing at Chireno, was in the city today looking after some business interests.

When You Take Cold.

With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the dangerous diseases start with a common cold. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy, as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Obtainable everywhere. dw

Don't stay stuffed up! A quick blowing and snuffling. A dose of "Pope's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or throat. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and discharges the mucus that causes sneezing, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and general misery. "Pope's Cold Compound" is the quickest relief known and costs only 25 cents a bottle.

LITERARY SOCIETY FOR CEDAR BLUFF

On last Friday afternoon the pupils of Cedar Bluff School were told to lay aside their studies for the remainder of the day and assemble together. We couldn't imagine what was going to happen.

Some thought we were going to have cross spelling; others singing, while some didn't have the faintest idea of what we were going to do.

After singing our National Hymn Miss Lula Smith, our principal, told us to be seated. We all readily responded. Our curiosity was at last satisfied when she told that the object of our meeting was for the organization of a Literary Society. She spoke for a few minutes on "The Need of a Society."

Then Miss Bertha Coats, our assistant teacher, came forward and made an interesting talk on "The Benefits to Be Derived From Literary Societies."

All of the pupils seemed to be eager for an organization at once and expressed a willingness on their part to do any work assigned them. A motion was put before the school for an organization. It resulted in an unanimous vote in favor of it. Misses Bertha Coats was elected President, Maggie Seogin vice-president, Gracie Wright secretary and treasurer. A committee was appointed to prepare a program, and another to draw up a constitution. It was decided that a meeting be held semi-monthly.

CAME TO TOWN.

Jim Eddie Harrell and his neighbor, Walter Thomas, were in town last Saturday from Lilbert, which is in the north-east corner of the county about twenty miles from here. Mr. Harrell lived here quite a number of years. He is a descendant of an old family who lived near Chireno in the long ago, and Mr. Thomas is likewise a descendant of a pioneer family of the Lilbert neighborhood. His father was commissioner of his precinct, elected on the populist ticket in the days when the party was strong in this county. He was an eccentric character, but a most reliable, unsophisticated old sockdologer, and was known as Bud Thomas.

RETURN FROM DALLAS

County Agricultural Agent, Jas. D. Greer, in company with the Corn Club boys who won the scholarship to the Fair, have returned from Dallas and report a great trip.

The boys accompanying Mr. Greer were Bernice Shofner, son of Chas. Shofner of the Oak Ridge community; Earl King, son of Rufus King of Woden; Hobson Trawick, son of Chas. Trawick of Nat; Neal Fall, son of Judge Vale Fall of Chireno.

Bernice Shofner won the prize in judging dairy cattle, and Mr. Greer says the other boys all made fine records, as well as have a most enjoyable visit. Mr. Greer was chosen to judge the corn exhibits at the Fair, and was also a member of the committee which judged the hay, milo maize and feterita, which was quite a distinction for him. He says the exhibits at the Fair this year were the best he ever saw at that place before, and were indeed creditable.

A happy thought: Claude Callan of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram finds a "sermon in a stone" in the observation that "conscience could help still more if it would deliver as good lectures before as it does after."

Gainesville, Ga., R. R. No. 3. Mr. H. T. Strayhorn says: "For ten years I've been unable to sleep all night without getting up. Sometimes only a few minutes after going to bed I'd have to get up, and I tried everything I heard of for the trouble. Last year I tried Foley Kidney Pills and after taking one bottle I believe I am entirely cured and I sleep soundly all night."

TRAIN HELD UP NEAR RAYVILLE

This morning's Shreveport Times gives the following report of an attempted train robbery which occurred at Rayville, near Shreveport, yesterday afternoon:

Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific train No. 2, eastbound, which left Shreveport at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, was held up one-half mile east of Rayville Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock by five unmasked white men. The bandits fled into a thick wood beyond the plant of the Richland Parish Lumber Company before entering any of the coaches.

Two of the robbers were seen to board the train at Rayville and it is believed the other three got on at the same place. When the train was a few hundred yards from the station and still within the corporation limits of Rayville two of the men climbed over the engine tender and at the point of a revolver forced Engineer John Dyle to stop the train.

MISS LAURA BLOUNT.

The many friends of Miss Laura Blount, one of Nacogdoches' fairest daughters, will be delighted to learn that she has been honored with the selection as Duchess of Nacogdoches at the Texas Cotton Palace, at Waco, during the Queen's Ball on November 9th.

This is a distinctive honor conferred upon the young lady which she will graze with the beauty and talent that is characteristic of her, and reflect credit to both herself and the town she represents on this occasion.

MARRIAGE AT SHADY GROVE

The Sentinel is informed that Mr. Claiborn Weaver and Miss Ella Humphreys were married at Shady Grove community yesterday morning.

The happy couple belongs to good families of the county, and has a host of friends with whom The Sentinel joins in congratulations and good wishes.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life. If your work is tiring, if your nerves are excited, if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions. It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength. Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

ADVERTISING THAT HELPS.

Houston Post.

There is a fire insurance concern in Nacogdoches which has grasped the meaning of the term "helpful advertising." One of the things that militates against publicity in the minds of some people is that they regard all advertising as in the interest of the advertiser alone. The advertiser is responsible for this attitude on the part of the public, and he should at all times strive to prove that advertising is in the interest of the people as much as for the profit of the man whose name is attached to any particular ad.

The insurance agency which has attracted attention by the helpfulness of their advertising says in a recent announcement:

"The assured makes his fire insurance rates and not the companies or the State. The State makes a charge for physical condition. For example, if the roof of a dwelling is shingles it has a 15-cent charge, for flues from ceiling 25 cents more, for frame or iron-clad 15 cents additional, etc. If we construct a dwelling of brick with ground flues, metal tile or composition roof, we make the rate 55 cents less, and the State requires a charge of only 24 cents, one-half of key rate basis, or a total charge of 40 cents—$4.90 per $1000."

If the people all over Texas had these facts impressed upon them, they would soon see who loses by the placing of shingle roofs on houses, who loses by building flues from the ceiling and who loses by any one of the methods of construction which are not approved by the underwriters. It is the people themselves who are footing the bill. Their insurance rate is high because they make it so.

And advertising of this helpful kind will always be read and remembered by the people it is designed to reach. It is paying publicity of the right sort—and money spent for it will always return to the spender.

QUARANTINE ESTABLISHED

Dr. Deal, the city health officer, visited all the homes he could find or hear of infected with scarlet fever yesterday afternoon, and established quarantine which he will maintain until it is safe to raise it. If there are any others thus infected, he will greatly appreciate the information and promptly include them in the list.

This is the only effective means of stamping out the dangerous, dreaded disease before it becomes widespread, and the health officer should have co-operation from all the physicians and people in his effort in this great work of community interest.

A. D. Wall, a well known contractor of Seel, is in the city superintending the work on the addition to the Baxter House.

DELEGATES ADMIT DRASTIC MEANS

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 22.—Proof that Mexico is now under martial law and that men, women and children may be arrested and executed without trial or appeal was obtained yesterday by the American peace commissioners.

A copy of Carranza's decree abrogating all personal guarantees was discovered by the Americans and laid before their Mexican colleagues.

The Americans asked the Mexicans following questions: "Will not the innocent as well as the guilty be made to pay the death penalty if the rights of trial and appeal are annulled?"

"Although the excuse is made that the decree is simply to make possible the swift execution of justice in crimes against the state, are not virtually all offenses included in its provisions? "Therefore, does not this decree wipe out the constitutional rights of everybody whom the government may regard with disfavor?"

THE CAR SHORTAGE LOOKS VERY SERIOUS

Washington, Oct. 21.—Prediction of an even more acute freight car shortage "if the present prosperity continues and grain prices hold" was made by the interstate commerce commission today in a report on the car shortage in the Western grain belt.

The commission exonerated the railroads "for the present general shortage," declaring "the carriers are furnishing all the cars they can supply and are making every effort consistent with good operation to relieve the situation in the unprecedented demand."

Advent of colder weather with large coal shipments and the entrance into the market of the new corn, barley and oats crops, are expected to further complicate the situation.

The report is based on an investigation covering the two great "grain gateways," Omaha, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Iowa; North Platte, Grand Island, Havelock and Lincoln. Investigations were confined to "the two principal grain carriers," the Union Pacific and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy.

VICE-PRES. MARSHALL IS COMING TO LUFKIN

The information is gleaned from Saturday's issue of the Lufkin Daily News that "Lufkin has been chosen as a starting point for a series of lectures by Vice-President Marshall, to be given next June, under the auspices of the White and Myers Chataqua system of Kansas City."

It is rather far ahead to plan, but we guess we will have to go to Lufkin next June.

MALTON & GIBBS, Proprietors
G. M. HALTOM, Manager
O. M. GIBBS, Editor

About the seventh of November the colonel will discover another "River of Doubt," this time not so far away from home.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram observes: "About the best Candidate Hughes can expect is a suspended term, so to speak, in this day and time of suspended sentence and the sort."

An exchange wants to know why it is that a mother will believe the unreasonable story of her child, but would not entertain it a moment from her husband. We can't answer the question.

A recent dispatch from San Antonio recounts a divinity of Villa and his band in the vicinity of Chihuahua City, the outskirts of which city they have reached in their campaign of banditry, and the people of Chihuahua are panic-stricken in consequence.

That was a great step forward Jacksonville took Saturday when she elected a $250,000 bond issue for road improvement. Cherokee county has defeated several bond issues, but the people around Jacksonville were of a more progressive variety, and are going to build some good roads independently of the county.

If you think the war is costing you nothing just compare your grocery and dry goods bills you pay with those you paid before the war. This increase in price of many things is not the necessary result of the war, but extortioners have taken advantage of the opportunity to saddle their robberies on the war, which makes the war incidentally responsible for their rascality.—Ruston Leader.

We glean from a rather lengthy editorial on the subject that the H. E. & W. T. trains continue to stop in Lufkin in their daily pilgrimages, north and south. The contemporary does not know why they do so, or why the road was built through the place, and neither do we. The contemporary also notes that no arrangements are being made, so far as it knows, to take up the track or change the route, from which we assume that we will have to continue to pass through Lufkin every time we go to Houston, and people coming from Houston to this city will have to do likewise. There seems to be no way around it, and since it is an inevitable condition there is no use to kick about it, so here goes. Meet us at the train when we pass, Doc.

We notice that Longview paid seventeen cents for cotton yesterday. That is the best price we have heard of in East Texas.—Jacksonville Progress.

On the same day Nacogdoches was paying seventeen and a bit for cotton, forty-eight dollars a ton for cotton seed, and one dollar and thirty-five cents a bushel for peanuts. Bring your produce to Nacogdoches, people.

When Nacogdoches secures her new federal building, arrangements (?) for which have already been made, Lufkin citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity of looking the property over in order to be better prepared to suggest plans and specifications for the new federal building so soon to be erected in the city of Lufkin.—Lufkin Daily News.

Let a voice from the school of experience save you the trouble of making suggestions as to the "plans and specifications." The department has a perfectly "human" man up at Washington who is just like all other "human beings" who have their beings and move on two legs in the matter of taking advice and will fix it to suit himself.

In almost every affair of life one extreme follows another, and it is not unreasonable to expect that such a condition will obtain with the present wave of prosperity that is now going over this country. In anticipation of such a condition, let us hope that the people of all classes will use an intelligent degree of "preparedness" in the way of cleaning up old debts, and keep the pantry and larder full of those things that can be grown at home. With this policy rigidly employed, the country would be prepared for a reverse, should it come, and would not suffer bankruptcy in consequence, while with the other policy those caught in the meshes of the reverse would suffer a greater panic than if the good times had never visited them. This idea should be employed with the people in all affairs of life, and he who does not give heed will sooner or later get caught.

A person may be reached more often by praising the good qualities in him than by condemning vehemently the bad. In some cases, of course, it becomes necessary to condemn the bad in no uncertain terms. But the kinder and more gentle means should always be tried first.—Van Alstyne Leader.

It is very difficult to determine how men can best be reached. It depends very much on the temperament of the ones to be influenced as it depends also very much on the tact of the ones who try to reach them. Most men like to be praised, and it is one of the strongest incentives for men to be wholly good when they are praised for being partially good. Every man likes to be thought better than he is, and he will strive to keep men's good opinion. But some men are only puffed up by praise and filled with the deception that they have reached perfection. Instead of being spurred on to further efforts at betterment of themselves, they are made content with themselves. It is then that they need somebody with a good club of condemnation to bring them to a realization of what they are. Oftimes it is necessary to condemn evil in men to save other men from falling in the same evil.—Bonham News.

"WOODROW WILSON DAY."

Austin, Texas, Oct. 21.—Governor Ferguson today issued an address to the Democrats of Texas urging them to observe "Woodrow Wilson day," Saturday, Oct. 28.

"Let us, as members of a great party, rally around our great Democratic leader on this day and by our enthusiasm and with our purse, with our influences and with our prayers send a ray of comfort, a word of encouragement and voice of approval to those sterling Democrats who today fight in the political trenches of the doubtful States for the good of their party and the glory of their country," is the appeal made by Texas, Chief Executive.

MACCABEES ORGANIZE CAMP IN TEXAS

Today's session was devoted to preliminaries in connection with the launching of the great camp, officers of which will probably be chosen Wednesday.

LABOR ASKED TO VOTE FOR TAX

Austin, Texas, Oct. 24.—Organized labor in Texas is being urged to support the proposed constitutional amendment to be voted on next month authorizing school districts in Texas to levy a tax of not exceeding $1 on the $100 property valuation, and a tax of 50 cents for the maintenance of schools in a statement being sent out today by Labor Commissioner C. W. Woodman. Copies are being sent to all labor organizations in Texas urging them to vote for the amendment.

THE CARTHAGE FIRE.

Yesterday The Sentinel made a brief report to the effect that the telephone exchange at Carthage had been burned. A dispatch in yesterday's state papers reports a more serious fire, as follows:

Carthage, Texas, Oct. 23.—Fire originating in Harveley's grocery store here at 4:30 o'clock this morning burned through the business section for four hours, causing property loss estimated at $25,000, with about $10,000 of the loss insured. The following firms had total losses:

J. K. Harveley, stock, $5000, no insurance.
H. C. Holland, groceries, $4000, insurance $1500.
Dr. J. S. Neal, fixtures, $750, no insurance.
W. D. Seapaugh, confectionery, $2000, insurance $500.
Hawthorne Hardware Company, $10,000, insurance $6000 on building.

The Carthage Grocery Company, O. H. Butler (dry goods) and the First National Bank had some water and fire damage and the Southwestern Telephone Company lost toll lines and cable.

The fire originated on the south side of the public square. The Hawthorne Company occupied a two-story brick building owned by the Odd Fellows, and had $2000 insurance on their stock. The other buildings were of frame construction and were not insured.

COTTON AT HOUSTON.

The following report of some record-breaking prices for cotton is taken from yesterday's issue of the Houston Chronicle.

The best sale of cotton that has been made in America since 1872 was made by William Howard, manager of the cotton department of Gordon, Sewall & Co. Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Howard sold 605 bales at 19.40, an average of 500 pounds to the bale. The cotton was sold to Bushby & Co.

No sale in America has been made at those figures to date, but many think that price will look cheap within a few weeks.

PAN-AMERICANISM LESSON OF THE WAR

New York, Oct. 23.—The necessity of true pan-Americanism is the lesson that the war teaches to America, declared Bruno Citedini, the Argentina consul general in Petrograd, who is here on his way from the Russian capital to Buenos Aires.

"I am home again and I think of this entire hemisphere as my home, to preach pan-Americanism to urge all Americans to take heed and learn from Europe's terror," said Mr. Citedini. "This war has taught me what I hope it teaches all the nations on this side of the Atlantic, the necessity of true pan-Americanism. I believe the United States realizes the opportunity that pan-Americanism offers. I have the honor to be one of the Argentine commission who entertained Mr. McAdoo, the United States secretary of the treasury, when he was in my country, and I have absorbed some of his enthusiasm. "Europe has drifted so far back, morally and economically, that it will take her many generations to regain her stability."

CHATAUQUA WILL BE HERE NEXT SUMMER

Arrangements Are Being Completed For Five Day Assembly Under Big Top.

Nacogdoches is to be in style next June with an up-to-date high-class Chautauqu.

Jacksonville, Timpson and Lufkin have arranged for their Chautauqu, but the best town in East Texas waited for the White and Myers people before closing their arrangements.

The entertainments will last for five days, two performances daily under a great canvass tent pitched in some central location.

Perhaps the most generally known number for the week is the KILTIES BAND. This organization has played in every civilized country on earth, and in Boston. The scotch kilts, the bag pipes, the highland dancers, the marvelous instrumental and vocal solos are some of the striking features of the entertainment which a selected company of the world's greatest musical organization will give here next summer.

The orators will be such men as HON. ALF TAYLOR, famous brother of Fiddlin' Bob Taylor, is the most widely known and most warmly loved orator of Tennessee. MOT PEMBERTON the funny man, familiarly known as Missouri's second Twain, is perhaps the most promising of all the younger generation of American humorists. His "Reuben Abroad" is a scream.

H. V. ADAMS' masterly address on "Grapes of Gold" has won praise from a thousand enthusiastic communities. This is the man who plays a striking trick on his audience and uses it to prove the point of his lecture.

ERNEST J. POWELL makes, perhaps, the most striking talk, in his exposure of the methods employed by the mail order houses. He got Sears-Sawbuck worried on his last circuit and they sent an attorney and a stenographer to the tent to try to get hold of something in the lecture as a basis for a suit. Mr. Powell is a mighty factor in the new movement for TRADE AT NACOGDOCHES.

There will be fine music every day. CASTELLUCCIS' SERENADERS are six marvelous Italians who can play any instrument you hand them. THE SUNSET MALE QUARTET offers a varied program of excellencies. There will be vocal and instrumental solos, superior readings, and plenty of fun.

THE POTTER D-PEW TRIO entertains with splendid impersonations, child mimicry, and music extra-ordinary.

THE BERKELEY SEXTETT have just closed a tour of triumph through Missouri each of the girls is an accomplished musician and their program is as pleasing as it is varied.

There will be five big days. Ten splendid programs. Fourteen separate numbers. Season tickets will be sold for $2, making each number cost about 12 cents.

ADMITS BREMEN LOST.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Loss of the German submarine merchantman Bremen virtually was conceded today by ranking Tuetonic diplomats in position to be familiar with the movements of the vessel. The Bremen is now one month overdue.

It was admitted that German officials, not only in this country, but in Berlin, were without information as to the fate of the Bremen. All they know is that she set out for America from Bremerhaven and that she should have arrived at an American port soon after the middle of last month. It is regarded as doubtful that accurate information concerning the fate of the vessel will be available until after the close of the war, if then.

A JOKE.

A bystander at the so-called socialist speaking here last Saturday said, after listening for awhile, that he was reminded of the burlesque funeral that was exhibited at a late big tent show here. The procession was formed by ludicrous actors, headed by a grotesque imitation of a solemn minister carrying high a great open book into which he seemed stared. One by one the hindmost mourner dropped out of the procession, corpse and all, but the leader moped on until he had occasion to look back upon his followers, finding that they had all spirited away. In his great surprise and disgust he exclaimed in loud words that sounded like "oh, well!"

WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

IN BED MOST OF TIME

Her Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indianapolis, Indiana. — "My health was so poor and my constitution so run down that I could not work. I was thin, pale and weak, weighed but 100 pounds and was in bed most of the time. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and five months later I weighed 135 pounds. I do all the housework and washing for eleven and I can truthfully say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a godsend to me for I would have been in my grave today but for it. I would tell all women suffering as I was to try your valuable remedy." — Mrs. W. R. GREEN, 332 S. Addison Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

There is hardly a neighborhood in this country, wherein some woman has not found health by using this good old-fashioned root and herb remedy. If there is anything about which you would like special advice, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

IF

By RUDYARD KIPLING.

- If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
- If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, But make allowance for their doubting, too;
- If you can wait and not be tired by waiting, Or being lied about don't deal in lies, Or being hated don't give way to hating; And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.
- If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
- If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
- If you can meet with triumph and disaster And treat those two imposters just the same;
- If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
- Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken, And stoop and build 'em up with wornout tools;
- If you can make one heap of all your winnings, And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss, And lose, and start again at your beginnings— And never breathe a word about your loss;
- If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew To serve your turn long after they are gone, And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the will which says to them: "Hold on!"
- If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch,
- If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
- If all men count with you but none too much;
- If you can fill the unforgiving minute With sixty seconds' worth of distance run, Yours is the earth and everything that's in it, And—which is more—you'll be a man, my son!

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children every time. It can't salivate, so let them use anything afterwards.

TO FRIENDS OF EDUCATION.

Notwithstanding the fact that there is a general and widespread awakening of public interest in behalf of the new education amendment known as House Joint Resolution No. 30 to be voted on by the people on the seventh of November, much work yet remains to be done by the friends of the schools to insure its adoption at the polls. The aroused determination on the part of the country people of the state, however, to demand as good free school opportunities for their children as are now enjoyed by the children of the cities and towns, and the disposition on the part of the people of the cities and towns to help the country people secure such privilege for their children argue well for the amendment. The amendment proposes no tax of itself but extends the democratic principle of self-government by allowing the voters of any district to tax themselves not exceeding one dollar on the hundred dollars valuation of property for the support of their own schools and by allowing the voters of any county to determine by popular vote if all the property of the county shall be taxed not exceeding 50 cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property to support all the schools of the county.

The country schools have been handicapped, as compared with the city schools, for lack of money. I have never begrudged the city schools one cent of their money. On the other hand, one reason I am supporting this amendment is that it enlarges the opportunity of the cities to increase the support of their own schools. The fact remains, however, that if the country children ever come into their own in the matter of securing an adequate common school education we must have more money for the country schools. It is idle to say that a six months term of school with seven grades of work in a restricted course of study carried on in a ramshackle school house without libraries or laboratories, on a bleak and desolate school ground is adequate to country children's needs. The county tax provided for in this amendment will go a long way toward overcoming these defects.

Twenty-one states now provide for a county tax for the support of schools. The proposed amendment does not in any way interfere with the present State Ad Valorem Tax for schools, nor does it interfere with present methods of support of common and independent district schools but it does provide that a tax may be voted on all the property of the county for the support of all schools of the county, the proceeds of which will be apportioned to all schools of county on a per capita basis. This proposition is democratic, just and equitable and should receive the unanimous support of all friends of the schools.

Sincerely,
W. F. DOUGHTY,
State Superintendent.

MR. W. G. BARRON IS APPRECIATIVE

A day or two ago The Sentinel carried a story reporting the receipt by Mr. W. G. Barron of this city of a saddle, bridle and lariat from a friend in West Texas, with the supplemental information that he already possessed a pony of the right dimensions and assuming that he was now ready for "cow-boy" service.

In acknowledgement of his appreciation Mr. Barron has addressed the following beautiful letter to his friend:

Nacogdoches, Tex., 10-16-16.
Mr. W. E. Franklin.
Dear Sir and Friend—I have

GIVES MIDNIGHT ALARM

Farmer Stout was awakened from a sound sleep by the ringing of his telephone bell. The bars of his neighbor, three miles down the turnpike, had been broken into and a driving horse stolen. The horse-thieves were headed toward the Stout farm. Calling his hands he armed his forces, lined them upon the turnpike, captured the thieves and held them until the arrival of the Sheriff.

THE SOUTHWESTERN TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE CO. DALLAS, TEXAS

received the saddle, bridle, spurs and rope, for which I am very thankful.

I shall keep them as a token of your friendship and to remind me that should occasion demand it, I would use this saddle on an errand for your relief, the bridle to guide and the spurs to goad my steed to a hasty performance of what I would consider a pleasure and duty while with the rope I would bind more strongly the friendship which I hope will forever remain as firmly bound as that of the knights of old.

Your friend,
W. G. BARRON.

DANGER LURKS?

It has been brought to the attention of The Sentinel that there are several cases of scarlet fever in the city, and some scattered through the county, on some of which no quarantine regulations are being observed.

The writer is not competent to offer criticism, if criticism is due, on this condition, but to our mind untrained in such matters, it would seem that danger lurks with such an arrangement. People going out from such homes, if they do, are likely to scatter the infection through their clothes or be stricken down with it at an unguarded moment and thereby expose many innocent people with it.

People who have this trouble should be willing to abide by quarantine regulations out of community interest. Should the disease become widespread it would break up the schools, drive business away from the town, and cause much inconvenience and trouble before it could be finally checked and public confidence restored again.

We hope the physicians of the city will get together, and if any have failed to do so, make report as the law directs and let the health officer establish quarantine where needed and stamp out the trouble before it further spreads.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it

THE TROPICAL STORM.

Of the tropical storm, which has been threatened for several days, reached the Gulf-Coast states yesterday, and of the visitation today's Shreveport Times says:

The south was swept by a storm and rocked by an earthquake Wednesday. A hurricane drove across the middle gulf states, taking a toll of two lives and causing property and marine losses, while earth tremors drove frightened thousands from homes and offices in Alabama and Georgia, but did no material damage.

Pensacola and Mobile were the chief sufferers in the hurricane, one person was killed in each place and buildings unroofed, telephone and telegraph wires suffered damage and ships were sunk and beached.

At Pensacola the wind velocity reached a maximum of 115 miles with 110 miles at Mobile, but in neither city was anything like as great as that caused by the hurricane of last July.

Mobile city itself suffered little real damage, but shipping in the harbor did not fare so well, two small vessels being sunk and four beached.

Cleveland Hines, son of Rey. Geo. H. Hines living out a few miles from town, is leaving for Tyler where he will take a course in the Tyler Commercial College. Cleveland is a graduate of the Garrison High School, and a very fine young man who will make his mark in the world with a business education added to his literary training.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

ANOTHER CITIZEN COMPLAINS.

Nacogdoches, Oct. 20, 1916. Kind Citizen:

I read your piece in The Daily Sentinel last night, with great interest, that you wrote on your dear old telephone that had served you at least half the time since 1900, and now you say on the first of November you will bid the dear old friend adieu. I do wish I knew who you were. I would venture out in this cold wind, as thin as I am, to get to shake your hand. I hope you will have followers, lots more will see it as you do. I have paid $335 for the 'phone I have in my house, and like yours, it has served me a little more than half the time, but still I did not complain and forked up my $1.50 every month. Yes, E. C. Branch did make good money at $1.50, and while you are getting yours from him, suppose you send for half a car. Then we can all talk cheaper. Now, like you, Citizen, on Nov. 1 I will kiss the dear old 'phone goodbye, not for a few months, but till the June bugs come in January.

A CITIZEN ALSO.

J. M. Elders, a good farmer residing in the northern part of the county, was in the city today.

LONG STAPLE COTTON.

Mr. L. M. Huey, a well known cotton buyer of the city, bought three bales of long staple cotton from Warner Linthicum yesterday, for which he paid twenty-four cents a pound.

This is about six cents a pound more than the regular price for ordinary cotton, and as the long staple variety is as hardy, and makes as much to the acre as other varieties, it will at once be seen the loss farmers of this section are suffering in not raising the better variety.

AUTOMOBILE FIRE.

Last night about 8:00 o'clock while Dr. Deal, a well known physician of the city, was trying to start the engine on his car, an explosion of some kind occurred which caused the car to catch fire, and but for quick work of J. ## SOLDIERS GOT RELIEF FROM SORENESS

Boys on the Border Relieved Their Pains and Aches With Sloan's Liniment.

Once upon a time Norman Jones, served in the National Guard at El Paso, returned to camp after a strenuous 15 mile hike foot-sore and legweary. He had not been long in active service and his shoulders, back and limbs felt the after-effect of marching.

Remembering Sloan's Liniment Jones applied it to the sore spots and went to bed. He writes: "I arose the next morning feeling fine; in fact I had entirely forgotten about the hike and went out for a four-hour drill in the sun as spry as ever."

Private Jones passed the experience along, and many a boy on the border relieved the agony of sprains, strains, bruises, insect bites, cramped muscles, rheumatic twinges, etc., by the use of Sloan's Liniment.

Easily applied without rubbing. At all druggists, 25c., 50c., and $1.00.

HAD INTERESTING TRIP.

A recent issue of the Shreveport Caucasian contains the following report of an interesting trip made by Tom Buchanan of this city with a friend named Tom Rice of Shreveport:

"Mr. Tom Rice and his friend Mr. Tom Buchanan of Nacogdoches, Texas, returned last Tuesday from a glorious trip to New York and other big cities of the East. They went up especially to witness the World's Championship games, which they enjoyed immensely as they are both ardent baseball fans. On their way up to New York, they stopped off at St. Louis and saw Detroit and St. Louis play, and at St. Louis, they stopped off at Philadelphia, and had the pleasure of a game in which Grover Cleveland Alexander pitched, and incidentally won. They saw everything of interest in the city of Brotherly Love and reaching New York they were on the go all the time taking in the wonders of the greatest city in America. While there they had the pleasure of seeing Madame Pavlova the famous dancer and also "The Dolly Sisters," the famous twin stars of the New York stage now appearing on Broadway in "Bridal Night." They went up in the top of the Woolworth Building, and also "The Statue of Liberty," and saw many other wonders of the big city. Of course the baseball games were enjoyed most of all and they were just as enthusiastic as the most loyal rooter in New York. On their return home they stopped off at Washington, D. C., and visited all the principal places of interest there, their only regret was they didn't get a glimpse of Woodrow Wilson, the greatest man in dear old U. S. A., he happened to be out of the city on a speaking tour. The trip as a whole was greatly enjoyed by Messrs. Rice and Buchanan and was one that will linger in their memories."

Our friend, C. N. Brandon, received a record-breaking price for a bale of cotton in this city Saturday. The bale was a large one, weighing 683 pounds, for which he received 17 1/2c. He also received $49.50 for the seed, making the total $150.00. Not many years in the past this much would not have been realized for a whole crop.
