

BY BILL ELLIS

DO YOU REMEMBER ten years ago tomorrow?

If you think for a moment you probably will. To many, it may not seem possible that a full decade has passed since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, but it happened on November 22, 1963.

Of course, it was on a Friday ten years ago, rather than Thursday. A Black Friday as far as the state of Texas and city of Dallas were concerned. And the Kennedy assassination seemed to trigger a wave of violence directed against national figures that continued throughout the next few years.

WE'LL NEVER FORGET that Friday in November. It was truly one of the saddest days we've ever experienced, coupled with the chain reaction that resulted in the capture of Lee Harvey Oswald, and Oswald being killed by Jack Ruby two days later as he was being transferred by Dallas law officers.

It was an unbelievable sequence of events. We couldn't believe it was all taking place here in thoroughly civilized America, right here in our beloved home state.

But the thing that brought the starkness of the situation so vividly to Americans was that it practically happened right before their very eyes. Especially Ruby's shooting of Oswald, which happened on nationwide television.

LIKE MOST TEXANS, we were on our lunch hour at the time of the Kennedy assassination. Friday was our "slow day," having gotten the paper out for the week. Having neglected to shave that morning, we had gone to the bathroom for a mid-day shave when the first announcement came on television.

When they came on with the bulletin, and identified it from Dallas, we were fearful of what we would hear—sort of like an instant premonition—and our fears were soon confirmed.

The first announcement reported that President Kennedy had been shot during the parade, and that he had been taken to a Dallas hospital.

Like most Americans, we "breathed a silent prayer—"Oh, God, don't let him die. Not in Texas!"

But by then, the president most likely was already dead (1 p.m. officially). It was a very painful time for all Americans, and we all still bear the scars of that day ten years ago.

DOLPH MOTEN, former Blade publisher, and a group of men, were enroute to Austin, where the President had been scheduled to speak on Friday night.

But Lee Harvey Oswald had changed the course of history that noon hour in Dallas, shattering the beauty of Indian Summer in Texas, and spoiling what had started out to be a successful good-will mission by the president to our state.

We recall the tremendous "sinking feeling" we got when the news came across of Kennedy's death. It was akin to the feeling you get when you learn of the death of a loved one. Or perhaps when you hear that our country is at war....

We sincerely pray that our nation never has to experience such a traumatic event again. After ten years, the events of that week are still very vivid to us.

PAT READ, who is the prettiest chamber president we've ever had the privilege of working with, was showing us correspondence she has received regarding the groundbreaking ceremony held here Tuesday.

MAHON SPEAKS

Groundbreaking Fete Well Attended Here

A large crowd of dignitaries and local residents was on hand Tuesday morning for the official ground breaking ceremonies in the initial Running Water Draw Watershed Project dam construction at Bovina.

Originally scheduled for the construction site northwest of Bovina, the ceremony was moved to the Bovina Schools auditorium because of inclement weather.

Congressman George Mahon was principal speaker at the event. He was joined on the speaker's platform by A.L. Black of Friona, Parmer County Judge Archie Tarter, Leon Grissom of Bovina, chairman of the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District, and H.H. Calhoun of Plainview, one of the leaders in the 15-year effort to construct the series of floodwater retention dams.

The 10 a.m. program got under way with the Bovina High School Mustang Band, directed by Joe Blatchford, performing several numbers.

The invocation was given by Rev. Howard Marcom, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Bovina.

Black, who served as master of ceremonies, was a member of the local Soil and Water Conservation District's board of directors for over 20 years and a former state director. He is actively involved in Water, Inc., and a prominent Parmer County farmer-rancher. He introduced H.H. Calhoun who remarked that "...today is a red letter day for most of us after 12 long years of fighting for this project.

"Many of us here today remember when the project was first proposed at a meeting in Dimmitt in 1961," Calhoun recalled.

He said the project was proposed after a severe flood in Plainview in 1960. "Running Water Draw will be harnessed now and return to the beauty spot it was in earlier days," he said.

Black introduced Mahon, who was principal speaker on the occasion. Noting that he had first met Mahon some 20 years ago, Black described Mahon as "...not a politician, but a statesman. No one is more dedicated than George Mahon, and no one has the agriculture man at heart more than our congressman."

Mahon began his remarks with a salute to the Mustang Band as representative of the youth of America and noted that the American flag could not stand without the enthusiasm and strength of its youth.

"We are here today to salute what has been done and look forward to what will be done in the future on this project," he said.

Pointing out that it took the cooperation of farmers, county officials, state agencies and two states to bring the project to this stage, he said, "Important things don't come easily or quickly. It takes cooperation and patience."

BONDS REGAINS LEAD

Martinez, Smith Tie For Weekly Prize

Five upsets in a slate of 10 games on last week's edition of the Bovina Businesses Cotton Bowl Football Contest made for rough sledding for the majority of the contestants with only five persons picking seven or better winners.

Andy Martinez and Billy Smith emerged from the fray with eight winners out of the 10 games and were tied on the tiebreaker score to share first and second place money. Each will receive a check for $4.

Martinez, who finished in the money once before this year, missed the Arkansas-SMU tie and the Los Angeles win over San Francisco. He picked Bovina to win, 21-16, 15 points off the actual 26-6 score. Smith missed the tie game and the Oklahoma State win over Colorado and picked Bovina to win, 26-21, also 15 points off the actual score.

Taking third place and the $1 prize money was Vera Cox with seven winners. She topped two other contestants, Kyle Harris and Brenda Bush, by being only eight points off on the tiebreaker.

Mrs. Cox missed the tie game, the Olton upset over Dimmitt and the Roosevelt upset over Denver City. She picked Bovina to win, 18-6, only eight points off the score. Harris missed the Kress upset over Sudan, the tie game and the Oklahoma State win and picked Bovina to win, 24-14, 10 points off. Mrs. Bush missed the tie game, Roosevelt's win and the Rice upset over Texas A&M, and picked Bovina to win, 36-7, 11 points off.

Of the 115 contestants entering the 11th week of the contest, 14 had six right, 37 had five, 39 had four, 18 had three and two contestants had two correct guesses.

Contestants with six correct guesses were Dwight Cox, Richard Carson, Leon Grissom, Furne Harris, Lewis McDaniel, Ruth Newell of Muleshoe, Jim Noyes, Mike Read, Jennifer Reed, Lary Sides, Danny Stanberry, Debra Stanberry, Steven Stone and Blake Sudderth.

With only two weeks remaining in the 1973 contest, Tom Bonds pulled back into a one point lead. He picked five winners last week to bring his total in the contest to 79.

Mrs. Albert Johnson of Farwell, who was tied with Bonds the week before, had only four winners to drop one point behind with 78. Bill Moore is tied for second place with 78 points.

Only two points back with 77 are H.J. Charles and Lewis McDaniel.

Roberta Mager is the lone contestant with 76 points. Four points back with 75 are Tom Ware and Kenneth Whitecotton.

Seven contestants have 74 points. They are Reba Bonds, J.W. Harris, Monty Malcom of Tulia, Weldon Moody, Terry Newell of Muleshoe, H.W. Roberts and Mary Jane Wilson.

Still in the running with 73 points are Laura Bartlett, Hattie Burnett, Lynn Chitwood and Albert Johnson of Farwell.

With the regular season play concluding last week, high school playoff games will be featured on the contest along with college and professional football games for the final two weeks.

The contestant with the highest number of points at the end of the contest will be awarded two tickets to the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas on New Years Day and $50 expense money for the trip.

Water, Inc. Seeks Additional Members

Water, Inc., officials from throughout West Texas and Eastern New Mexico were in Lubbock Saturday for the launching of a month long drive for new members. Attending the session at the Red Raider Convention Center were Ellis Tatum and A.L. Black both of Friona.

Keynote speaker at the membership kickoff luncheon was John J. Kendrick, Brownfield banker and the first president of Water, Inc. Kendrick noted that the High Plains area has the capability of closing the gap between food, fiber and fuel needs and supplies, given adequate supplemental water. "We must tell the nation and the world about our capabilities," he said, "but our voice can only be as strong as our undergirding membership."

Water, Inc., activities center around obtaining supplemental water for the area.

"We are producing food, fiber and fuel now that are easing world shortages," Kendrick said. "With adequate supplemental water, not only will a decrease in production be prevented as our present water supplies dwindle, but we can, in fact, increase our production rates," he added.

Water, Inc., is a non-profit, membership-based organization and membership dues are income tax deductible as a business expense.

Acupuncture Not Paid By Medicare

"We are beginning to have inquiries about whether or not Medicare will pay for acupuncture treatment," Gerald Schlaeppli, social security Field Representative, stated today. "At the present time, Medicare reimbursement for acupuncture as an anesthetic, or as an analgesic, or for other therapeutic purposes may not be made. Although acupuncture has been used for thousands of years in China and for decades in parts of Europe, it is a new agent in the United States and little is known about its effectiveness. Even in those areas of the world where it has been widely used, its mechanism is not known.

"Three units of the National Institutes of Health have been designated to assess and identify specific opportunities and needs for research in connection with the use of acupuncture for surgical anesthesia and relief of chronic pain. Until the pending scientific assessment of the technique has been completed and its effectiveness established, there will be NO Medicare reimbursement for acupuncture," Schlaeppli emphasized.

Reflections From The Blade

TEN YEARS AGO—NOVEMBER 20, 1963

Rain Monday night interrupted what otherwise had been a beautiful fall for harvesting here. Amount of the moisture varied from three-tenths of an inch to an inch. Heaviest moisture reportedly fell west of town.

Bovina Mustang Band will have new uniforms about March 15 of next year.

An order for the uniforms was placed by a committee composed of representatives of school board and of Band Parents organization Sunday afternoon with Battle Harris of Canyon, representative of Fruhauf Uniforms of Wichita, Kan.

"Grandpa Goes to College" is title of the annual senior class play which will be presented Saturday evening.

Paul Jones and Pat Whitecotton remained tied in lead for grand prize in Bovina Business Cotton Bowl Football Contest. Prior to last week, they each had a total of 78 points. Picking six of 10 winners last week, they now have totals of 84 out of a possible 110 for a percentage of .763.

Opening shot of this year's basketball season was fired last night in Williford Gym here. Bovina Mustangs and Fillies divided a boys-girls twinbill with Adrian.

Gwen Christian has been named correspondent to Coed Magazine by its editor, Margaret Hauser.

SIX YEARS AGO—NOVEMBER 15, 1967

A new band and music director for Bovina Schools was named at a regular meeting of members of the school board Monday night.

He is James Andrews, a native of Vega, who will be graduated from West Texas State University at Canyon in January. He is expected to begin his duties here in mid-January.

Texas Education Agency has recommended that the Bovina Independent School District be continued as a fully accredited 12-grade school system.

Property owners in Bovina have been sent statements from the City Commission for their part of the new paving program here in the amount of $68,211.55.

Bovina Business Cotton Bowl Football could have been renamed "Family Circle" after entries were tabulated this weekend, with two families figuring in the news.

Laura Bartlett won the first place prize of $5 last week after picking 10 winners and missing the tiebreaker by 30 points. She edged out husband, Houston, who won second. Although not taking any prize money, the Bartlett's son, Barty, picked nine winners.

Scotty Rundell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Paine, participated in a four-act opera, "La Boheme," in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State University Thursday through Saturday.

Seagrave's high-flying Eagles indicated why they have been rated all season as the No. 1 Class A team in Texas Friday night as they battered Bovina Mustangs by a 52-0 count. The game, which ended regular season play for both teams, was at Seagraves.

Under tutelage of new basketball mentors this year, the Mustangs cage workouts began here Monday morning following the close of football season Friday night.

Truck Lusk begins duties this week as varsity basketball coach, while Bill Nitcholas takes over the girls varsity, "B" and freshman teams, as well as junior high boys.

Principals and superintendents have been invited to the buffet at 11:30 a.m. in the East Dining Hall on the Canyon campus.

SS Benefits To Be Increased In July

"Many people are asking questions about the high cost of living and how it affects their social security benefits," Gerald Schlaeppli, social security Field Representative, stated today.

"Based on the Consumer Price Index, the cost of living has increased 32.4 percent since 1967. This simply means that today it costs $1.32 for what $1 could have bought back in 1967.

"During this same period, social security benefits have increased about 71 percent. If a person drawing a social security benefit of $100 in 1967, today, after the several increases Congress has authorized, he would be receiving $171 per month now. "Recent amendments to the social security law now make it possible to increase the social security benefits automatically as the cost of living increases. The next increase, amounting to 5.9 percent, is now scheduled to go into effect in July, 1974.

(Congressional action could move this date up, but as the law now stands, next July would be the effective date.) Thereafter, the benefit rate would be refigured annually to reflect any further cost of living increases.

"Beneficiaries receiving social security benefits need take NO action in connection with these automatic increases," Schlaeppli emphasized.

SN Elodia Serna Stationed In Spain

RMSN Elodia Serna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luis Serna of Bovina, has been assigned to a permanent duty station at the Naval base in Rota, Spain.

SN Serna will be stationed in Spain for the next three years in the communications field.

She recently completed Naval basic training at Orlando, Fla., and Radian School at Bainbridge, Maryland, and has spent the last month in Bovina visiting her family.

A 1969 graduate of Bovina High School, SN Serna attended West Texas State University at Canyon for three and one-half years and was employed at the Bovina Schools tax office in the summers. She was one of the first Grace Paul Opportunity Plan students here.

Miss Serna enlisted March 22 of this year under the Navy's delayed entry program and began her basic training in May.

Her claim to fame in the Navy is that she is the shortest woman to ever enlist in the Navy at four feet, nine and one-fourth inches. Naval regulations set the minimum at 4-10, therefore special approval was required to enable Miss Serna to enlist. The old record, according to the recruiting office in Amarillo was four feet, nine and three-fourths inches.

While stationed in Spain, Miss Serna plans to visit her brother, Sgt. Luis Serna Jr., and his family. He is stationed in Germany.

Hereford To Host December Seminar

Plans have been announced for a Four-County Water Seminar in Hereford Dec. 4. Theme of the seminar is "Is the High Plains Worth Saving?" and speakers will include authorities in agricultural economics, legislation, Playa lake modification and re-charge and conservation practices.

The seminar gets underway with a luncheon in the Bull Barn and Hereford and area civic clubs have been invited to attend along with businessmen and agriculturalists from Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro and Oldham counties.

The Deaf Smith County Water Association is being joined by Water, Inc. County Units in each of the four counties in sponsorship of the seminar. Charles Hoover, Hereford, president of the Deaf Smith County Water Association, is planning chairman.

Although a study of the Mississippi River Import Plan, a proposal to bring water to the High Plains, was found to be economically unjustified when calculated under traditional standards for evaluating water resource development projects, Water, Inc. directors have called for a restudy based on new evaluation standards which become effective Oct. 25. The seminar will deal with import proposals and "conservation measures needed to stretch out available water supplies until such a time as an import projects is implemented," Hoover said.

Mrs. Bradshaw attended the events with her daughter.

Bulltown Bulletins...

Many dignitaries sent letters of regret that they could not attend, and almost without exception, the letters were addressed to "Mr. Pat Read."

Prior to the dedication, Pat said she was thinking about sending husband Robert up to the ceremony, and let him be "Pat Read, Chamber of Commerce president," and she would just stay at home and feed the horses.

But she didn't.

Books May Be Checked Out Of Local Libraries

In a neighboring town on business, or to visit the hospital, or attend a wedding? Check out a book!

Ten public libraries of the Texas Panhandle now recognize library cards or personal identification used by any of the others for checking out printed materials.

Included are libraries in Amarillo, Borger, Pampa, Canadian, Dumas, Friona, Hereford, Panhandle, Perryton and Spearman.

Six other member libraries of the Texas Panhandle Library System have not yet qualified for this reciprocal borrowing arrangement, which must be specifically approved by the governing body of each local library.

Set up as a pilot program by a Texas State Library grant of $750, the experiment under way is to determine the feasibility of opening up borrowing privileges of all libraries to users of all others in a sparsely populated area like the Panhandle.

Identification used by one library is accepted by all. Books should be returned if, at all possible to the lending library, otherwise may be returned to the borrower's local library. At present, non-book materials cannot be included.

Rules of the lending library are observed as to time period for checkout, fines, and any other restrictions.

Member libraries are reimbursed from the state fund based on the number of loans made per month. The fund pays other miscellaneous expenses, such as postage on books not returned directly. Beginning in April with the first two libraries to qualify, the number participating reached ten in October.

Small Things That Are Not So Small

A little boy, carrying a basket of candy and fruit, hurried to the passenger gate of a railway station as fast as his crutches would permit. As passengers rushed through the gate, a fast-moving business man accidentally hit the boy's basket, knocking its contents in every direction. He paused only long enough to severely scold the lad for being in his way. Another man, rushing through the depot, saw the boy's distress and immediately began picking up the scattered items. After returning them to the basket, he put a dollar bill in the boy's hand. He smiled at his young friend, patted him on the shoulder and said, "Better luck next time." Then he was on his way. He was stopped by the question the boy called after him, "Hey, mister, are you Jesus?" Turning, he smiled again and said, "No, I am only one of His followers."

How different our world would be if all of us would speak and act in such a way as to portray the character of Christ. Little, everyday courtesies, cost so little, and mean so much to those who are about us. A smile costs nothing, but makes richer both the giver and the receiver. It cannot be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen...and its value to everyone, even its owner, is increased when it is given away. In your daily rush, when you meet someone who is weary give them a lift, and give them a smile. For no one needs a smile so much as he who has not one to give.

Commissioners Set Fire Dept. Subsidy

Parmer County's responsibility in the rural fire call situation was the main topic on the agenda of the county commissioners meeting Monday night of last week at the court house in Farwell.

The commissioners, after considering several plans, approved a $2,500 yearly subsidy for each fire department in the county.

The decision was made following a lengthy discussion of the situation and is due to become effective on Jan. 1, 1974.

The meeting began before noon with Commissioner Tom Lewellen of Precinct One proposing that a flat rate of $750 to $1,000 be paid each fire department per year, plus $50 for each call outside the city limits.

Commissioner Charlie Jefferson of Precinct Two [Bovina] and Commissioner Raymond Treider Jr. of Precinct Four in Lazbuddie objected to that proposal. Jefferson countered with a proposed flat rate of $2,000 per year.

Parmer County Judge Archie Tarter suggested a $3,000 per year rate, stating that many of the rural calls were to grass fires and other minor calls that took only 15 to 30 minutes to control.

The commissioners agreed that all departments should be subsidized on an equal basis, pointing out that the smaller departments in the county would then be able to purchase new equipment.

Commissioner Treider also pointed out, that contrary to reports, the Lazbuddie fire truck was currently in operating condition and the fire department was composed of 20 men.

Lewellen reported that a number of men in Friona were interested in forming a Country

Mrs. Gerald R. Ford, wife of the Vice President designate:

"Three years will be fine, but no more. Of course, Jerry is the boss in the family."

Fire Department. That proposition was turned down by the commissioners.

Jefferson seconded Treider's motion to approve the $2,500 subsidy. Voting for the proposal was Jefferson, Treider and Commissioner Cecil Atchley of Precinct Three. Lewellen abstained.

The lengthy meeting concluded with routine business matters.

Groundbreaking--

"As someone once said, big things can be accomplished if no one is concerned with who gets the credit."

Mahon said the Catfish Draw project is an example of ideas people in this country need to concentrate on in this time. He said the purpose of the project was to conserve water, land, people and resources and to support the economy.

He commented that environmentalists, although meaning well, have hurt some programs in the United States and were responsible to a degree for the shortages the country faces today in fuels and water.

"We cannot, in the name of environment protection, return to the Stone Age. We must combine common sense with concern about the environment to work out the solution to our problems.

"What we are commemorating today is meeting the necessity of protecting our environment and conserving our resources. Generations yet unborn will reap the benefits of what has been launched here today," he concluded.

In explaining some of the technical details of the project, it was pointed out that the project is divided into two portions. The upper Running Water Draw Watershed Project takes in Curry County in New Mexico and Parmer County. Dams will be constructed near Clovis, Bovina and Lazbuddie. In the lower part of the project, dams will be constructed in Castro, Lamb, Hale and Swisher counties. Sites will be near Sunnyside, on the north draw just inside the Hale County line and near Edmondson. Only one or two easements are needed to complete the legal aspects of the entire project.

Tarter and Grissom each turned a shovel of Catfish Draw soil to conclude the ceremonies.

Representatives from television and radio stations and newspapers in Clovis, Amarillo, Lubbock, Dimmitt, Friona, Farwell and Bovina were present.

Herb Evans, district conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, released these statistics about the dam here: the drainage area will cover some 18,714 acres, the emergency spillway will be 400 feet wide, the dam will be 23 feet high and 3,900 feet long, surface area at top of principal spillway will be 130 acres, water storage will be 793 acre feet and cubic yards of earth fill will be 112,100.

Mahon was honored with a reception in Community Room of First State Bank of Bovina following the ceremonies. Mrs. Pat Read, president of the Bovina Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, presented Mahon a western hat on behalf of the chamber as a token of appreciation.

UPSET 'HORNS, 26-6

Ponies Shock Hart With TD Attack

Victory Good For 2nd Place

The game plan called for the Mustangs to defense Hart's shifty, speedy, high-scoring Jimmy Brown as if "....he was just another player," and the scheme worked for Roger Ezell's team.

A fired-up herd of Mustangs held Brown to 63 yards rushing and one touchdown via a 40-yard punt return while the offense controlled the ball for the major portion of the game, racking up 26 points on the board to upset the favored Longhorns, 26-6.

Although the District 3-A clash had no bearing on the championship title as it did in 1972, the win for Bovina was a sweet one. It was almost an exact reversal of last year's score, which was 25-8 for Hart, and surprisingly enough, pulled the Mustangs into a tie for second place in the district standings with the 'Horns.

The game, played at Mustang Field in a chilly southeast wind, opened with the Mustangs kicking off to Hart from the south goal. Putting the ball into play on their own 19, the 'Horns picked up a quick first down to the 28. Quarterback James McLain then unloaded a 31-yard pass to End Randy Finch to carry the 'Horns into Bovina territory at the 36. On the next play, the scoring drive fizzled when Guard Elbert Shelby recovered the first of five Hart fumbles on the line of scrimmage.

The two teams, playing mostly in the middle of the field, exchanged punts throughout the remainder of the quarter with Hart threatening to score on their third possession of the game when they drove to the Bovina 11 before losing the ball on downs.

On the first play of the second quarter, Brown fielded a Bovina punt on the Mustang 40, sidestepped a Mustang tackler to get to the sidelines and was gone for the first score in the game and what was to be the last points for the 'Horns. The extra point kick attempt by John Robledo failed and Hart had a 6-0 lead with 11:48 remaining in the half.

Once again, the Ponies failed to pick up a first down, punting to Hart's 38 where the 'Horns put the ball in play. A pass intended for End Barry George fell incomplete, Brown picked up six on a pitchout and then fumbled on the next play for a five yard loss with the Ponies taking over on their own 49.

Starting from good field position near the midfield stripe, Fullback Ray Martinez picked up two yards to the Hart 49 and Halfback Billy Shelby racked up the initial first down for Bovina with an 11 yard dash to the 38. Halfback Bryan Fillpot picked up 12 yards in two carries for another first down to the 26. Martinez and Shelby combined for another first down to the 15 where Quarterback Dennis Willard added three yards to the 12. Shelby found an opening in the right side of the line and took the ball in for the counter with 5:42 remaining on the clock. Martinez kicked the extra point to put the Ponies into a 7-6 lead.

The Longhorns still hadn't faded, however, and on the ensuing possession, drove to Bovina's 19 in 15 plays before another fumble with 55 seconds remaining on the clock killed the Hart drive. The Ponies ran the clock out and went to the dressing room at halftime with a slim one point lead.

Displaying more determination and second effort in the second half, the Ponies got on the scoreboard again in short order less than three minutes into the second half.

Shelby took the opening kickoff from deep in Mustang territory to the 41 and then added 33 yards on the next play to move the ball to Hart's 26. Fillpot picked up 14 yards to the 12. Willard added two, Fillpot three and Shelby three to take the Mustangs to the four with a fourth and two situation. Fillpot then crossed over the goal line only to have the score nullified by an offside penalty against the Ponies.

Facing a fourth and seven from the nine, Willard handed off to Shelby who spotted End Roy Hartzog all alone in the end zone to take the scoring toss. The kick by Martinez failed and Mustang fans breathed a little easier with the 13-6 lead.

The play which probably turned the game around for Bovina came on the kickoff. Guard Tony Serna hit the ball carrier head-on, causing a fumble which Back Ray Delgado covered on the Hart 46

MUSTANGS OF THE WEEK....Seven seniors who played their final football game in a Maroon uniform Friday night have been named players of the week by the Mustang coaching staff. They are, from left, Dannie McKay, Terry Sherrill, Tony Serna, Billy Shelby, Roy Hartzog, Chuck Gilbreath and Joe Delgado. All seven were starters throughout the year and were instrumental in the team's second place finish in District 3-A competition. McKay, Sherrill and Serna were linesmen, Shelby started at the halfback and middle linebacker positions. Hartzog and Gilbreath started at end positions on offense and in the secondary on defense and Delgado was the kick and punt return specialist and defensive back.

to put the offense back in business.

Taking advantage of the break, the Maroons scored five plays later with Fillpot going over the right side of the line from the two for the counter. Shelby was stopped short of the line on the extra point attempt and the Ponies led, 19-6, with 7:39 remaining in the quarter.

That particular drive was sparked by Fillpot's 21 yard run from the 43 to the 22. On the tackle, Hart picked up a personal foul to give the Ponies a first and 10 at the 11. Shelby picked up nine of that and Fillpot scored on the next play.

After forcing Hart to punt from a fourth and 14 on the Longhorns 17, the Ponies got on the scoreboard again with Fillpot going 11 yards around left end for the TD. Martinez kicked the extra point to give the Maroons a 20 point lead, 26-6, with two minutes remaining in the third quarter of play.

The Mustangs began the drive from their own 35 and scored nine plays later with Shelby picking up eight, Fillpot 26, Martinez five and Willard 17 in the drive.

On the kickoff, Ray Delgado nailed the runner on the 16 to put the 'Horns deep into their own territory. Elbert Shelby and Tackle Dannie McKay combined to stop Brown for a one yard gain. Hartzog then intercepted a McLain pass and a personal foul on Hart gave the Ponies the ball at the Hart 31.

Three plays later, Fillpot, displaying great second effort, rambled 20 yards to paydirt, only to have the touchdown nullified by offsetting penalties, clipping on Bovina and a personal foul on Hart. A 15-yard personal foul on Bovina on the following play moved the ball back to the 35 where the Mustangs were faced with a first and 25. A Willard pass was tipped in the air and Brown came down with the ball for Hart.

However, it was to no avail, as on the first play for the 'Horns, Cornerback Tommy DeLeon and Martinez combined to cause a fumble in the Hart backfield with Martinez recovering the ball on the 36.

The Mustangs again drove to the 11 in short order, but a Shelby pass fell incomplete on a fourth and seven try with Hart taking over on the 11.

Three plays netted the 'Horns only five yards, forcing a punt which sailed to the Bovina 35.

Once again, the Ponies drove to within five yards of the goal line only to be stopped one yard shy of a first down at the three with 17 seconds remaining in the contest.

Once again, for the fourth consecutive week, the Ponies displayed an almost awesome rushing attack, piling up 322 yards on the ground in 69 offensive plays while the defense held Hart to only 80 yards rushing in 47 offensive plays. The 'Horns picked up 63 yards through the airways with the Mustangs completing only one pass, a nine yard TD toss.

Fillpot and Shelby accounted for 238 of those yards with Fillpot picking up 112 yards in 21 carries for a 5-3 average and Shelby carrying the ball 21 times for 126 yards and a six yard average. Martinez added 58 yards in 14 carries for a 4.1 average and Willard picked up 25 yards in seven attempts for a 3.5 average.

Seven seniors played their final game for the Mustangs with each turning in outstanding performances. Seeing action for the last time in a Maroon uniform were Dannie McKay, Tony Serna, Billy Shelby, Chuck Gilbreath, Roy Hartzog, Joe Delgado and Terry Sherrill.

"We thought our kids played one of their better games Friday night," commented Ezell. "The coaching staff is extremely proud of this team for coming back after six straight losses to tie for second place in district," he said.

"Our defense kept after Hart, forcing those fumbles and our offense controlled the ball," Ezell pointed out.

Commenting that Brown, although contained by the Mustang defense, still managed to hurt the Ponies, Ezell said the turning point in the game, he thought, was scoring twice in less than two minutes in the third period.

Pheasant hunting has become a very popular time for many people locally, as well as many out-of-town visitors. People travel for several miles just to participate in this event each year.

All reports indicate that the birds are plentiful this year. This is evident in the fact that the birds are present in fields and along roadways throughout the county.
