NACOGDOCHES COUPLE AMONG THE DROWNED

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Spinks are listed among the drowned in Corpus Christi in the recent hurricane in that city. Mr. Spinks was raised in this county, and has many friends here who will be pained to learn of his untimely end.

Mr. Spinks was in government service and had been stationed at San Antonio for some time, and about three weeks ago was transferred to Corpus Christi, where he met his untimely end.

DAUGHTER OF APPELBY COUPLE DIES IN SANITARIUM HERE

Little Mary Alice Williams, one and one-half years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williams, died in the hospital in this city yesterday morning. The body was carried to Appley, where it was laid to rest yesterday afternoon, Rev. A. T. Garrard officiating.

The little daughter had not been in good health, and her call home might have been for the best, we mortals can not tell. While the fond parents are bereft with grief they no doubt have a new interest in the land over there, and will be inspired to so live that they may meet her in the land beyond the skies. The Sentinel joins the many friends of the family in extending consolation in their hour of grief.

LIFELONG FRIEND OF COL. ROOSEVELT IS DEAD

DEADWOOD, South Dakota, Sept. 23.—Seth Bullock, age 82, Black Hills pioneer and life-long personal friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, died today.

TRANSPORTATION CO ESTABLISHES STORE

Mr. W. E. Jones, special agent of the Industrial Transportation Co., who has been in the city several weeks in the interest of establishing one of the company's stores in this city, announces that the company has purchased the Fenley grocery store and stock. An inventory of the stock has been begun, and the consideration is said to be over $15,000. The purchase also includes the ware house used by Mr. Fenley.

Mr. J. C. Wilson, formerly connected with the Baxter Garage Company, and who is well known to Nacogdoches people, will be the manager of the new store. The store will probably not be closed for the inventory. New arrangements and improvements, together with more new stock will be an up-to-date first class grocery establishment.

Mr. Jones also says that negotiations are pending by which yet another store will be established in the city, and that he expects to establish several in other parts of the county. He will be here for a month or so yet. He says that many prominent Nacogdoches citizens have become stockholders in the company, which will insure the proper support.

The Industrial Transportation Company is chartered at Washington, D. C., by virtue of a special act of congress with the privilege of distributing foodstuffs at wholesale and retail. They deal from the farmer to the consumer for a profit of 10 percent plus the cost of handling. 85 or more cash retail stores have already been established in Louisiana and Texas, and they are rapidly establishing others. This plan has the endorsement of the state department of agriculture, and leading citizens. The plan eliminates many unnecessary costs in transfer, overhead expenses and profits, before farm products reach the consumer's table. Mr. Jones says that it will reduce the cost of living considerable in Nacogdoches, inasmuch as it does away with the profit of the middleman, which is in the neighborhood of 60 percent. He also says that they will pay the farmer higher prices for their products. The company has its own packing and canning plants also. The Nacogdoches stores will be supplied from the company's wholesale houses at Shreveport, Houston and Waco. No doubt the enterprise will enjoy a large success, and at the same time be an effective means in reducing the high cost of living.

MILLER-JONES

The Sentinel has overlooked to note sooner the marriage of Miss Lula Jones to Mr. Willis Miller, which event took place at the home of Rev. A. T. Garrard Sunday Sept. 14, Rev. Garrard officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. B. Jones, and is quite popular, as well as accomplished, and will doubtless make a fitting queen for the home over which she has been chosen by the young man to preside.

Mr. Miller is likewise well known and respected for his integrity. He is employed in this city. The happy young couple are making their home at the Baxter Hotel for the present. The Sentinel joins the friends of both parties in extending congratulations and good wishes for a future life of happiness and wedded bliss.

MRS. J. L. NEEDHAM DIES AT MINERAL WELLS HOME

Mrs. J. L. Needham died at her home in Mineral Wells this morning at 6:00 o'clock, according to a telegram to the Mahdeen Company of this city this morning. The body will be laid to rest in Mineral Wells, probably tomorrow.

Mrs. Needham has been ill for some time, but it was not thought by her friends here that she was in immediate danger, as she and children visited this city some several weeks ago. She was the wife of Mr. J. L. Needham, who it will be remembered died last November. The family were one time residents of Nacogdoches where Mr. Needham was interested in the Mahdeen Co., moving to Mineral Wells about five years ago. They have a host of friends in the city, who were shocked and deeply pained to learn of Mrs. Needham's untimely demise.

Two children survive, Miss Mary Jane, age 14, and Conrad, age 18.

Mrs. Needham was a good christian woman, a true mother, living her life in a good and beautiful manner, and it is this knowledge that will doubtless comfort the bereft children in their great loss. The Sentinel joins the many Nacogdoches friends of the family in extending sincere sympathy in their hour of great grief.

BUCHANAN-MIDDLEBROOK.

Mr. Tom Buchanan and Miss Frances Middlebrook were married at the Main Street Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock this morning, Rev. M. C. Johnson, pastor of the church, conducting the ceremony.

Mr. Buchanan is employed with the postoffice in this city, and served his country during the war. He is well known to Nacogdoches people as a man of honesty and integrity, who has a bright future before him, and will doubtless attain a mark in life.

Miss Middlebrook is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Judge and Mrs. V. E. Middlebrook. She is very popular with all who know her, being of a sweet friendly disposition, and to know her is to love her. She has been teaching music in Garrison the past two years, and has a host of friends in that city, who also join in the congratulations.

The Sentinel is unable to give an extended report of the wedding today, which will probably be carried tomorrow, but the church was befittingly decorated, and the ceremony was a beautiful one.

It was a beautiful and fitting union of lives, and The Sentinel joins the many friends of both parties in extending congratulations and wishes for a future life of love and prosperity.

DISTRICT COURT

The following cases were disposed of by the district court yesterday: Jas. Bride and Leon Powers, charged with theft of property over $50; Powers dismissed because he was under 17 years of age. Bride sentenced to 6 years in the penitentiary.

In the case of Jas. Bride and Leon Powers, charged with breaking in a garage and using a car, Powers dismissed on account of his age, and Bride acquitted.

In the case of Sanford Chatman, charged with burglary, sentenced to 5 years in the penitentiary with suspended sentence.

In the case of Buford Bradley, charged with assault, dismissed. Bradley had pled guilty in the county court and was fined $150.

In the case of Tom Greening and Otis Herrin, charged with burglary at Appley recently. Greening was given three years and Herrin two years in the penitentiary, with the suspended sentence.

The cases to come up this morning will be Leon Dove, charged with assault to murder. Chas. Pullen, assault to murder. Jim Luna, seduction.

An error was made in the name yesterday in the Means case, Bob Means instead of Carl, being charged.

FROM THE MAYOR.

Mayor Matthews asks The Sentinel to request the citizens to hand in their contributions to the relief of Corpus Christi storm sufferers today or tomorrow, either to him, or to the banks, as he wants to get them off tomorrow.

Langston Nelson has gone to Cewance, where he will attend school this term.

A WISE COURSE.

Attorney General Palmer in speaking to a Pennsylvania audience Saturday, makes what seems to The Sentinel a very wise suggestion. Mr. Palmer advises an absolute industrial armistice for six months, to permit the solution of economic problems arising out of the changes wrought by the war.

A plan of this kind would permit both labor and employers to get a chance to come to their senses. It would stabilize conditions, speed up production, lower the cost of living, and would in this manner remove the cause for so many strikes.

Labor might claim that it will be hard on them during the six months, but in the long run it will be very much better for them. Labor should be beginning to realize that the course they are pursuing is not bettering their condition, but is merely lowering the value of their money or raising the cost of living.

As the Attorney General says, the crying need now is for peace, industrial peace. This is the kind of peace that everyone wants, and that everyone needs. There must be some limit to the mounting cost of the necessities of life. Such a condition can never be as long as there are strikes and industrial unrest.

But whether labor can be made to see the logic in this course or not can not be determined, and of course the success of the plan depends upon the way labor receives it. Labor has been very radical recently, and in some instances has approached the confines of bolshevism. Still, however, there is some wisdom left at the heads of the various organizations, which may see the feasibility of the plan.

Germany announces that she will annul article 10 of their constitution, which provides for Austrian representation in German reichstag. Prior to the war Austria was run by Germany, and Austria had no representation. Now perhaps the Germans had become a little more democratic and were going to give Austria representation if the Allies hadn't interfered.

Capt. D'Annunzio, famous Italian poet-aviator, has been given 24 hours by the peace conference to evacuate Fiume. The Captain has been "soaring in the clouds" and he seems to have been "winged."

"High Cost of Living Due to Inferior Roads," proclaims a headline. In that case we have no more to say about it in Nacogdoches—that perhaps explains it all.

The woman suffragists of Texas will hold their Victory convention in San Antonio Oct. 9 to 11. We are glad that the victors don't have to have a peace treaty with the losers in this instance.

The recent storm will no doubt assist Galveston in getting the voters of the state to ratify the amendment permitting her to take further protective measures against the fury of the elements. This seems to be a worthy cause, and should be endorsed by the voters of the state.

It seems that the combined effort of the two papers of the city have had some effect in the matter of getting the school campus cleaned off. The work has been begun, and will probably be complete by the opening of the school Monday. It was a close shave, however, and the citizens have nothing to be proud of in the matter.

Furthermore if wooden shoes come into fashion it will be just our luck to get a pair with knot holes in them.—Snap Shots in Dallas News.

SMOKY DAYS.

The blue haze of pollen clouds gives a dreamy expression to the landscape; goldenrod and asters add the first touch of color to the modest shades earth has worn since harvest days. Presently the hardwoods will blaze forth in yellow and reds.

Song birds are mostly silent, feeding in flocks and discussing their departure for the south. Orchards and vines are laden. Spring seems long ago.

There will be chill rains in the next few days when the progress of the seasons will be suspended and nature will sit, unchanging, like old age, waiting in solemn happiness for winter.

The stars are not misty as they were in May, but keen against the purple vault of night.

Watercourses have run low. Summer cottages are blank and places of summer frolic are empty and still.

The best of out-door days are at hand, but only the elect are called to leave paved streets and behold creation in the mood of fulfillment.

Spring, the laughing damsel; summer, the smiling woman; and now autumn, the gentle mother.—Beaumont Journal.

Judge publishes the following from our neighbor the Polk County Enterprise, in the "Bad Breaks" column of a recent issue: SOMETHING GOOD—The engagement was opened Saturday afternoon by a LECTURE given by Dr. Herbert Yuill and a quartette of four young men.

A nation-wide strike of Baptist clergymen is being advocated by members of the national committee of the Northern Baptist Church. The movement among this particular profession is rather a little unique, but if there is any worker underpaid it is the minister. It is our opinion, however, that this won't materialize.

In the "20 Years Ago" column of the Houston Chronicle this morning, an item from Nacogdoches stated that the farmers of this section had held a meeting and agreed to hold their cotton until the 15th of October unless they got 7c a pound for it. Can you beat it.

The Nacogdoches Sentinel says from the present view of their school campus, the official game this year will be "hide and seek." Alto's school campus has been cleaned up, but can't say so much for the business portion of the town.—Alto Herald.

A STITCH IN TIME.

During the winter of 1917-18 innumerable millions of the earth's human inhabitants paid the price of the ravages of disease with their lives. The chill hand of death swept over the entire world, and Chinese coolie and American millionaire alike were grasped in the clutch; stalwart, athletic young men answered the call of the unknown, while the puny one was left behind. That great destroyer of life, of human hopes and of human happiness, whose hand would not be stayed by the science of medicine, whose phynomy could not be outlined by the greatest physicians of the day, the disease of influenza, has already made its appearance long in advance of the season in which it is supposed to thrive.

Physicians have vainly tried to analyze it, and have failed. Each forms a different theory about it, and about its cure. Medicine apparently does little good in treating it—except of course in keeping the body in some sort of shape to fight it. But the direct root of trouble has not been found.

100 or more graves were freshly dug in the Nacogdoches cemetery last year to receive the mortal clay of our citizens whose lives paid the toll demanded by the monster. Each recurrence of the disease demands a greater price than its predecessor. In uncounted instances where the disease did not kill, it left the sufferer with an organic disease, a cripple of some sort, or with a trouble that would go with him the balance of his days as a ghastly reminder of its terrible talons.

It is needless to give further statistics. All of us know what it did—all too many of us have a personal interest in a freshly dug grave. Suffice to say that it was a terrible thing. Over and over again more terrible than the war, because its victims were over and over again more numerous than the victims of the war. And we are to have the same disease to combat or succumb to this winter—it has already made its appearance.

When the United States went into war, it did not do so until it was prepared. It was nearly a year after the declaration of war before the first gun was fired by the American forces. Vast, stupendous armaments were built, the soldiers trained and equipped, the angles of the task studied, the master minds of the nation enlisted in aid; mighty organization after mighty organization was formed in which to combat the grisly monster of war. For a dollar a year men gave their services, for thirty dollars a month men gave their lives. No, not for the dollar or the thirty, but for humanity, for their loved ones. And yet a ten times more mighty monster invades the haunts of the human race, and we make not an iota of preparation, we scarcely raise a hand to ward off its attack. We allow the candle of life to be snuffed out in our own homes without hardly a single effort to stay its invasion.

The American nation responded gloriously during the war, because the nation and the world was in danger. But this time the American nation and the world is in greater danger. Nacogdoches was proud of her record during the war. She was proud of the gallant sons she sent across the sea, and she honored those boys that did not return. Will Nacogdoches be proud of her record in this other fight? What is Nacogdoches doing in preparation?

More misery and more suffering will be in evidence this winter than ever before. More cold is predicted, the cost of living is so high, fuel is scarce. Many, many of us will not live to tell the tale. It is time for us to wake up—to get move on, to realize that a great danger threatens us.

Yesterday a communication from the state health officer was published by the mayor of the city, asking that we begin to prepare. The mayor asked for suggestions. The Sentinel is going to offer some suggestions, and they are going to be along the lines offered in the communication.

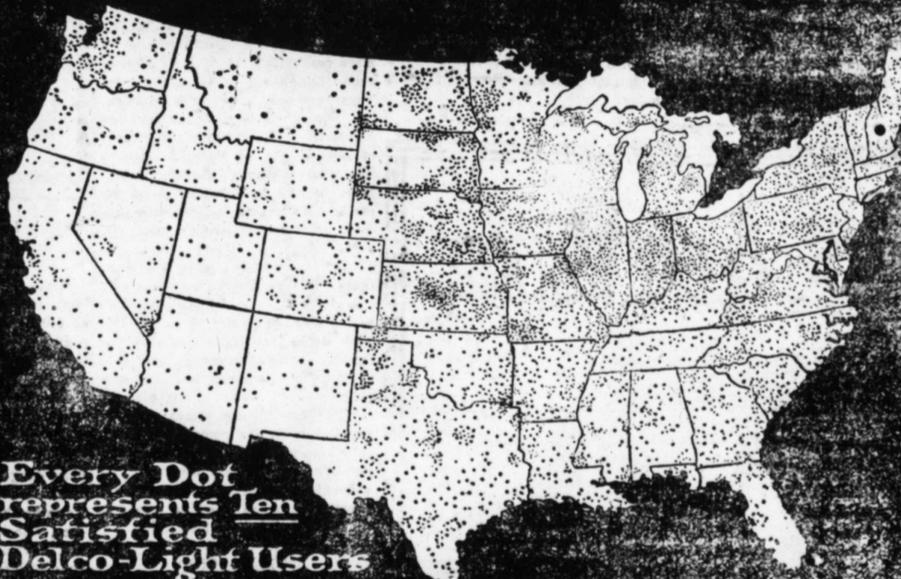

We suggest that Mayor Matthews appoint an executive committee, consisting of a president, a secretary and a treasurer of the entire association, which is to work in combatting the disease, and alleviating suffering caused by it. The second committee, and the most important of all, we think, should be the relief committee, whose duty it would be to see that all cases where the stricken ones are staggering under the burden of poverty are properly taken care of, see that medical attention, food and fuel are furnished them. This committee, we think, should consist of persons who will take a deep interest, who will work, and who are not afraid to answer the calls. A finance committee should be appointed to raise the necessary funds to handle the situation. A committee of volunteer workers, who should enroll the names of all physicians, nurses and others who can offer their services in an emergency, and see that the relief committee is supplied with all the are willing and fitted to do the required work, and not because of their popularity, or social or business standing. As a usual rule elections are influenced in this manner. If Judge Matthews does not desire to assume the full responsibility for appointment, he might name several others to assist him. Only those who will work should be appointed. There is no honor in the work—nothing except the glorious honor of service to your fellow man. Because a man is slightly rearranged so as to best fit the local needs in the matter. We sincerely trust that the organization be perfected, and not be allowed to lag. Calling a mass meeting and electing the officers will perhaps not be the best means in this connection. The officers and members should be selected because they the conditions are unsanitary. The town should be thoroughly cleaned up.

This is no small matter that we are going to have to contend with this winter, and we should not wait until the last moment until we get in action. It is one of the most serious things that civilization has had to face, and no one will dispute the fact. None of us can say that we are safe, that we won't take the disease, for no one is exempt. If then, it is so important, why should we not get busy and begin to prepare? The Sentinel is urging that the matter be given attention, and immediate attention, and it gives the above suggestions as a basis. They are not original, but as stated, are endorsed agencies required for its work.

An organization consisting of the above should be able to do all that could be done in Nacogdoches. The committee of volunteer workers might also look after the sanitary condition of the town, and should make personal recommendation where a leading citizen, or an influential one should not have any weight in the appointment, unless he is fitted and willing to do the work. We stress this point because it is the most important part in the whole work. The work should be done, and not dropped, and should be done in the most efficient, competent manner.

A stitch in time saves nine, and in this case it may be the means of saving your own life.

DELCO-LIGHT was designed and built by men who were raised in farm homes—who experienced the discomforts and inconveniences of farm life—and who set out deliberately years ago to develop an electric plant that would provide city advantages for rural communities.

They were the same men whose engineering talent had made DELCO Starting, Lighting and Ignition Equipment for automobiles the standard of the world—

They knew electricity—and they knew the needs and limitations of farm life—

They knew that an electric plant to give service in a farm home must be simple, so that it would not get out of order and require complicated repairs—

It must be easily operated and require little attention—

It must be very economical in operation—

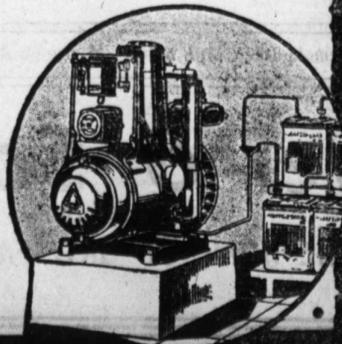

It must be built to stand hard usage and it must last indefinitely—

FROM STATE HEALTH OFFICER.

The following from the State Health Officer, is self-explanatory. I designated a clean-up day a few weeks ago, and only a few responded to the call? It is now up to the people of Nacogdoches. What do you suggest?

GEO. H. MATTHEWS, Mayor.

Last week I called your attention to the probability of a recurrence of influenza this fall and winter, stated that in the past the death rate grew larger with each recurrence. You were advised to get busy preparing yourselves and your town in anticipation of a recurrence. Since that time reports have reached this department of cases of influenza in 3 widely separated sections of the state.

While there are many things that have always acted as leading factors in promoting public health work, the dominating impulse should be the desire to prevent sickness, suffering and death, a love for one's fellow man and the desire to do everything possible to add to his comfort and welfare. Civic and personal pride follows closely as a factor promoting public health, for a desire to have the cleanest house and the cleanest town, should be the pride of every one.

I am now calling upon you to set aside one day this week as "Clean up and Organization Day." Do not step until you have organized your forces and given your town a thorough cleaning. After a thorough clean-up, let us have for our motto "No more trash littered back yards, streets or alleys. No more vacant lots overgrown with weeds and grass. No more pools of stagnant water."

I am asking that all health boards call a meeting this week and invite the school boards, the commercial clubs, the civic clubs, the parent teachers association, the physicians and nurses, and all other organizations interested in problems of health, be invited to participate and at this meeting organize forces, perfect plans for a present clean-up, and provide for follow up workers and emergency demands that may arise.

In anticipation of an epidemic of influenza or one of any other nature, organize your forces—enroll your workers and have everything ready to meet an emergency at a moment's notice.

If your numbers will permit I suggest that the following officers and committees be appointed, and charged with looking after that particular phase of the work:

A president, or superintendent of public health, with a secretary.

A committee to raise funds to meet the demands, present and future.

A committee of follow-up workers, or inspectors to see that everything is kept in proper shape after having been put in proper condition.

A committee on law enforcement, to see that all sanitary laws are enforced, and all offenders prosecuted.

A committee on public health education. This committee should be composed of physicians and nurses, who are willing to devote a short time at stated intervals, to giving instructions in public health rules, work and problems.

A relief committee whose duty it will be to see that all indigent cases are supplied with necessary medical attention, food and clothing during any epidemic.

A committee of volunteer workers. This committee should enroll the names of all physicians and nurses, trained and practical, who are willing to respond to requests of the relief committee and give free medical attention to indigents who are not wards of the city or county.

Where your numbers will not permit of organizing so many different committees you can combine duties and arrange so that all the above mentioned features will be taken care of by such a number of committees as you are able to organize.

That old cry of "the town is broke, we have no funds," can no longer be tolerated, especially since the work necessary entails no heavy expense, and promises so much in return.

Public opinion is the one influence that knows no restraint, that puts into practice that old adage "Where there is a will there is a way." It is now up to you to create that sentiment, and you can, and in the name of interest and humanity you should do it.

It is your duty to do so, and your towns will be healthier and more attractive by your having done so, and your consciences will be clear by having done your duty toward yourself and your fellow man.

G. W. GODDARD, M. D.
State Health Officer.

EDITOR'S NOTE—The Sentinel will have something further along this line, perhaps containing some suggestions, and plans for action in its editorial columns tomorrow. Be sure and read it.

BUCHANAN-MIDDLEBROOK NUP- TIALS.

The engagement between Thomas J. Buchanan and Frances Penelope Middlebrook was happily consummated Thursday morning at eleven o'clock when they were married at the Main Street Presbyterian church, Rev. M. C. Johnson officiating.

Mrs. Robert Lindsey was at the piano and Mrs. Will Perry of Min- eola, sang "Until." The church was simply, but beautifully decorated by loving hands. Mr. Bowden Cason served as best man. Mrs. Ernest Farmer, of Richmond, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Miss Mamie Middlebrook maid of honor. Both were dressed in pink georgette gowns with black picture hats and black pumps, making a beautiful picture. Mr. Will Pearson and Mr. Murph Drewry were the ushers.

Miss Fannie, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away at the altar, looked her prettiest and best in her going away suit of navy blue, with black hat and veil. After the ceremony they left on the eleven fifty-nine train, with all the heartfelt happiness for both that a loving town could wish for them. Tom and Fannie have both been "pet" of Nacogdoches always, and we will welcome them back, assured that the town will have two useful citizens.

M. G. HAZLE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT TODAY

Mr. M. G. Hazle was injured about 1 o'clock today, when a car being driven by Mr. Buchanan turned over out about Dr. Cambie's place on the west side of town.

It seems that the car skidded and turned over, throwing the occupants out, and Mr. Hazle received an injury in one of his hips. At the time this report was prepared it was not known whether his leg was fractured or not.

Mr. Buchanan, the driver, escaped uninjured. Mr. Hazle was carried to his home, where medical attention was immediately given.

MANY MARRIAGES

The records in the county clerk's office show that 349 marriage licenses have been granted in Nacogdoches county since last Dec. 2nd. 78 divorces have been granted by the District court in the same time, with probably a few more to be granted by this term of court.

From these records it will be seen that domestic infelicity is not in such a bad way as was thought from the large number of divorces granted by this term of court.

DISTRICT COURT.

In the case of J. P. Clevenger vs. the T. & N. O. Ry., on trial yesterday, the jury returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Clevenger, awarding him $250 damages. Mr. Clevenger charged that the railroad tore down and moved a house at Clevenger, be- longing to him.

In the case of Lem Dove, charged with aggravated assault, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and fined Dove $100.

The road bond transcript for the Nacogdoches county road bonds, has been approved by Dillon, Clay & Thompson, attorneys of New York, whose judgment was relied upon by the majority of the bidders for the Nacogdoches bonds. This firm specializes in this kind of work, and upon the county's inquiring for their opinion in the matter, stated that the transcript was o. k. The Sentinel will have further mention to make in this matter in the near future, as negotiations are pending, which seem to promise satisfactory results to the county in the matter.

See the big Nobs

The 'Nobby' is a big rough husky fellow. The tire they are all talking about.

A great road gripper—a sure enough non-skidder and non-slipper.

Makes easier riding and easier driving. More safety, more comfort—more mileage.

'Nobby' is a United States Tire, —which means none better. Just right for our roads.

Stiff? Sore?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint—often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, sallowness and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 400 E. 50th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache and urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and was so relieved that I highly recommend them to any one troubled in that way, as they are excellent." Sold by Strippling, Haselwood & Co.

WEEKLY SENTINEL

BALTIMORE & GIBBS, PUBLISHERS

Work six days and rest on the seventh and leave the weather out of the things to worry about.—Rusk County News.

Many are predicting hard times for the country. Still it may have one consolation—labor might not be so prone to call promiscuous strikes.

The Fat Man and the Wild Man of Borneo in a Maine carnival struck for more pay to meet the H. C. L., but the Living Skeleton seems to have found competition too keen, according to the Beaumont Journal.

A spool of cotton thread now costs fifteen cents in England. And with the cotton shortage on the way we suppose that a Britisher will have to pay out real money to have a button sewed on in the near future.

Now it is said that Austria is the cause of the outbreak of the war. We are inclined to the opinion that it would be a good idea to hold all of our enemies responsible—it will take them all to pay up for their deeds.

The Italian foreign minister has resigned. It has about gotten so in Europe that if somebody yells down with the foreign minister he either has to have a vote of confidence or resign. As yet this disease has not affected the United States senate.

An exchange says that the milk of human kindness is a good thing until it has curdled. And also like the lactical fluid, it does not take it long to get in that condition—unless it is kept in cold storage.

A Tennessee man is 135 years old and has one son 98 years of age and another son 5 years of age, which would make them 93 years apart, and the gentleman recently went up in an airplane. This is bravery, pure and undefiled.

We had an idea that it was coming, and it seems that it is about to materialize. The student body of the Texas Christian University at Fort Worth is about to strike. It is an infectious proposition, and we do not know where to look for it next.

The United States lost 118,492 men dead in the world war, and yet their memory is no incentive to a great country to wake up and settle down, and try to get the threads untangled again.

The death list on the Texas Gulf in the recent storm is mounting to very large proportions, and the property loss is appalling. And it is happy to note the spirit of the people in matter of relief work. It is only when a great public calamity is visited upon us that we learn the true heart of our citizens.

The airplane which is making exhibit flights at the Timpson fair is taking passengers up at the price of -15.00 a ride. Of course the modern airplane is a pretty safe proposition, but still there are a good many people in this section of the country who think that the price is paid by the wrong party—and at that is entirely too small.

It is announced that the Bailey democrats will soon launch a daily paper in Texas, and that Dallas or Houston will be selected as the location for the publication.—Lufkin News.

All of which brings to mind the fact that similar political papers have been established in the past and that not yet has one of them dominated either the political or the newspaper field.

The Salvation Army has proffered assistance in the relief of the storm sufferers on the Texas coast. The Salvation Army can be depended upon to do more than its share in any humanitarian work that comes to hand. This is one of the most splendid organizations in existence in America today, and when they call for funds in the near future to carry on their work on a much larger scale, it will behoove every Christian citizen to contribute liberally.

Some idea of the increase in travel may be found in the fact that one Nacogdoches hotel last night put in four extra beds, doubled up where possible, and if a close examination had been made might have found some sleeping in the sample room, and notwithstanding all this many were turned away. 49 people stopped at this particular hotel last night, which is the largest crowd the hotel has ever accommodated. All of the hotels are in the same congested condition.

MISS BLANTON SPEAKS HERE

Miss Annie Webb Blanton, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, addressed the citizens of Nacogdoches at the Methodist church in this city last evening at 8:30.

Rev. J. L. Massey, pastor of the church, expressed the delight of the church as well as the citizens in having her with us, stating that the church and the school were interdependent with the other.

Supt. of City Schools, R. F. Davis, in introducing Miss Blanton, said in part: The teachers need no further words from me. I have known all the state superintendents for the past quarter of a century personally, and as far back as I can remember, we have never had one that could make a speech. Let us see whether or not on this occasion we have one. We Miss Blanton said in part: Fellow teachers, ladies and gentlemen: I wish to express my pleasure in being able to visit Nacogdoches. We were to have had this pleasure in August. I always make it a practice never to accept an engagement that I am not sure I can fill, but illness forced me to cancel the former date.

I want to talk on the subject of present educational conditions, and discuss the principles which caused me to offer for State Superintendent. People have asked me how I could stand the strain in running for the office. I will put it up to you, how would you like to be going about the state making speeches, etc. But sometimes opportunity comes along, and the tide picks us up and carries us along with it and we must either sink or swim.

I want to try to do something for the country schools. I knew and felt that something ought to be done. I want specially to try to do something important for the grade teacher. Bad conditions are felt not only in the elementary schools, but in the higher schools, and each blame the other with the trouble.

My second purpose is the advancement of the cause of woman. There comes a time when every woman finds herself up against a solid wall—a solid wall of sex prejudice. Thus far she may climb, but no further—far she is a woman. Whoever performs successfully should receive remuneration, whether it be man or woman. I have been superintendent 8 months. Going back to my feelings at the time of announcing, and comparing them with now, I find that it was worth the sacrifice. There was an old man in a town 100 years of age, and he was very much of a curiosity. A stranger met him, and asked him if he thought he would live another hundred years. The old man replied that he didn't know, but he was a good deal stronger now than when he started his first hundred.

There has always been a struggle between two systems of education, the cultural and the practical. The first teaches to live the best life and enjoy living it. The practical teaches you how to make a living. Unless you are able to make a good living you will not be able to enjoy life. To live a good life and enjoy living, you must first be able to earn that living.

We must have the power of vision to realize the conditions, and the trend of our affairs. Two soldiers boarded a transport one night. The next morning they met on the deck, and one of them remarked to the other about the broad expanse of water. The other said, and just to think, we can see only what is on the top. The war has brought a realization of many of our defects. Examinations showed that one out of every ten in the state of Texas could neither read nor write. Twenty-five percent of our people have never gone beyond the fourth grade. And most of these are from the country.

It was said that the American soldier would prove a mollycoddle in the war, and that he would not be equal to the European soldier. But it was proved that he combined all the best fighting qualities of the various Europeans. And we went into the war with a spirit of idealism that was eager and willing to make the other nations forever safe. We do not find the returning soldiers like they were when they went away. They have gone through a life and death struggle, facing death. And they will not be satisfied with the old conditions. Are they going to find us satisfied? One night on the battlefield, one regiment got too far advanced in the German lines. The commanding general called the commander of the regiment, and told them they were too far advanced, and asked him to stop them. The commander replied, "How am I going to stop them when the whole German army could not do it."

And a good motto is to keep the brain fires burning. The young men in the training camp realized that they were getting what they wanted and needed, to bring success. We must make the school pupil realize that he is getting what he wants and needs for success in the battle of life. A large part of the difficulty of holding a child in school is in getting the right kind of a teacher. We can't get an excellent teacher out of the mediocre girl in school. There is almost a collapse in the teaching profession. We have a bureau trying to aid the teachers in finding positions. We have calls as to what the inventor got, the manufacturer was surprised, and replied that he got the ducks. That is what we have been getting in the teaching profession. We have been getting the ducks. Why are you trying to stir up feeling, you may ask. My observation has been better than yours, I see the conditions.

Twenty-five percent of the teachers last year were inexperienced. One of the most serious aspects of the profession is the loss of the men. Eight years ago 40 percent of the teachers were men. Now only 10 percent are men. Last year we forever lost to the profession 40 percent of the teachers. Two-thirds of them were among the best teachers we have. The amount of salary ought to be commensurate. No work is more severe than that of the teachers, unless it is the mothers. Neither's work is ever done. Many of the teachers die of nervous prostration, and kindred ills. The teacher has to burn the candle at both ends in order to make both ends meet.

Many of the teachers in our common schools are under 21 and their minds are immature, and they hold only 2nd grade certificates. If your child is sick you will not think about having a cheap doctor. Will we have a cheap teacher in building the minds and character of our children?

There is the question of where we are going to get the funds. The state stands well in its support, but Texas is far down in local support. The smaller towns can not vote more than a 50c tax. The larger cities can, under the constitutional provision. Why this difference? What can be done? There is nothing to do but change the constitution. The last session of the legislature passed a resolution to amend the state constitution so that the smaller towns could vote a larger tax, if they wanted to, to provide more funds for the teachers.

Last year the superintendents and principals held a meeting in Waco and agreed if the resolution was to be passed to select in every commun-

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit. Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs, but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation. Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

GENTRY BROTHERS SHOW BE HERE WEDNESDAY

Gentry Brothers Trained Animal Circus will exhibit in Nacogdoches on Wednesday, October 2. This will be the 32nd annual tour of this popular firm and many improvements have been made in their already excellent show. An entire wild animal circus has been added since its last appearance in this city, and a stirring new patriotic spectacle will also be seen here for the first time. The Gentry Brothers program has always given the best of satisfaction in this city. In fact, it would be almost impossible to devise a cleaner, more pleasing and interesting exhibition than the one given under the Gentry trade mark. The street parade this year is said to surpass all former efforts and to be larger and better than previous years.

ity progressive and conservative men to form a constitution committee to consider changes in the constitution. But we must not go about it in piecemeal fashion. A woman in a hotel came to the porter and asked for a glass of water. Directly she returned and asked for another glass. Prutty soon she came for another glass. The porter asked what she was doing with the water. She replied that she was sorry, but she was putting out a fire in her room. A man in a car asked the conductor if he could not go faster. He replied that he could go faster, but he had to stay with the car.

We haven't revised the constitution for about 50 years. I believe that it is a good thing to hold the constitutional conventions, composed of the right people.

But you say that a great many of our teachers are not worth what they are getting. I don't know, but fix the salary, and require the teacher to come up to it. Every teacher works hard to save a little money, and then goes to college and puts it right back in the work. As long as we pay the hod carrier $1000 a year, we should be able to do the right thing by the teachers. You teachers can help in this work by talking about it, and carrying the message everywhere, and going and working yourself. Another way is to make yourself a better teacher, and make yourself worth more, be so valuable that that can hardly do without you.

There are 200,000 one-teacher the least effective school. 6,000 of these are in Texas. This don't look well for progressive Texas. In comparison the country school gets $25 and the city school $120 for building and equipment. A country woman, whose son was on the football team of a college was asked what position played. She replied that she didn't know, but she thought he was a drawback. Some of us are drawbacks.

Talk to people and explain that they ought to have the same conditions in the country as in the city. The school that was good enough for you is not good enough for your child. You owed it to the child that you brought into the world to give him a fair opportunity. Nothing can help better than good roads. Good roads make for school consolidation. School consolidation can not be a success without the good roads. The schools will keep up with the good roads movement.

A farmer came down out of the mountainous backwoods region, onto a paved road, with his horse and wagon. On the side of the road was a sign which read "Speed Limit 15 Miles." Speaking to his horse he said "That is a pretty darn good gait, but we will do our best." We will have to do our best.

There is nothing that we would not have done for our soldiers. We found out the value of union and team work. Out among the hills and

(Continued From Page 2) prairies there is another army that merits your help. I ask that you join in a united effort to improve conditions.

I can't carry on my work as effectively by sitting down at a chair in Austin as I can by getting about over state and getting in touch with the conditions. Now we have had nine men state superintendents, but we have had only one woman. I ask that before you make up your minds as to which is the best to try as many women as you have men.

Miss Blanton addressed the teachers assembled in the institute here yesterday afternoon, in regard to matters of interest to the school work, and to the teachers, and it is said to have been fully as great an address as the one last night. A very good crowd was present, and all enjoyed the splendid address. Miss Blanton went to Garrison this morning, where she will address the citizens there at 10 o'clock.

ed devices that were worth thousands of dollars. The last time he went hunting, he conceived a device that brought the manufacturer fifty thousand dollars. When inquiry was made are delighted more than we can tell to have this representative in our midst. I wish it were possible for her to stand before every teacher in this state and deliver the message she did this afternoon. She is a general in the most important army in our state. I long for the day to come when the people will realize that the training of their children is the most sacred and the most important commission of human hands and minds. The body of school teachers, men and women, are engaged in the most stupendous task. After I heard her speech this afternoon I am satisfied that Texas is more fortunate than any other state. We are delighted to have this noble worker. I know she has a message for us. I am delighted to find a woman that will brave any difficulty in this matter. I know that after this long trip, after the speech here this afternoon, and the overheat, her voice may be out of tune. Yet she has enough, the like of which we have never heard. I am glad to introduce the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Miss Blanton.

SCHOOL OPENS IN NACOGDOCHES MONDAY

The juvenile population of the city of Nacogdoches were reminded today that vacation time was over by the ringing of the school bells. White and black, from tiny tot to children more advanced in years, alike responded to the call of the bell, announcing the beginning of their studies, which means so much in their life, and yet is so little understood and appreciated until after years.

The schools opened at 9:30 o'clock this morning. It is impossible to give the attendance at the various schools. Reports state, however, that it is extra large this year. The inclement weather, of course was a slight detriment in the matter of attendance. One factor in the matter of attendance this year is there will perhaps be a greater attendance of rural children, due to the fact that there is not much cotton to pick, as well as other farm work, which usually takes a good many pupils out of school at the opening and closing of the terms.

The students assembled in their various rooms at 9:30 o'clock, when the work of classifying them was taken up. The text books are furnished free by the state this year, the children being required to supply a cover to properly take care of them. The allotment of books for Nacogdoches has arrived, but it is believed that it will not meet the requirements. The teachers spent all day Sunday numbering and labelling the books, but the work was not finished, and consequently they will not be given to the students today. With the installation of this system, there is much extra work required of the teachers at the opening of the term, which, with the added difficulty of classifying the students, will prevent active work for several days.

An especially strong faculty for the high school has been secured this year, with Mr. Lynn B. Davis, principal, and Mr. T. H. Hunt, director of athletics. As stated in a recent report, Mr. Davis spent the summer in preparation for teaching vocational agriculture, which is a new department added to the school this year, having state aid in its maintenance. Mr. Hunt, as director of athletics, is well known to Nacogdoches people as a splendid coach. Mr. W. C. Ware, formally professor of science in the Rusk Academy, and other colleges, will have charge of the science department. Miss Ruby Fincher, who has won for herself a warm place in the hearts of Nacogdoches parents, has her old position as teacher of domestic science. Others in the faculty are Miss Cowling, Miss Ball, Miss Barham and Miss Provence.

Supt. Davis states that the prospects are fine for a brilliant school year. The only difficulty likely to be encountered will be in the matter of finances. But Mr. Davis is an optimist, and is not going to let that interfere with the present work.

There are five schools in Nacogdoches, as follows; Nacogdoches High school, Central Grammar School, North End Grammar school, West End Grammar school, and the colored school. The Sentinel published the personnel of the faculty several days ago, and will not take the space to do so at this place.

Probably something like 125 or more transfers to the Nacogdoches Independent School District have been made, for the purpose of placing pupils in the schools. Nacogdoches has always been proud of her schools, as they rank among the best in the state, and this year they will be better than ever. Nacogdoches may consider herself fortunate that they will be as good as they are this year, as it was a difficult matter for the trustees to secure as strong a faculty as they have, with the serious housing problem facing them.

June Rose, a young man employed out at the oil wells of the Carolina Oil Co., about eleven miles from town, suffered a broken leg yesterday afternoon. He was shifting a belt with a plang, when the plank got caught, and struck his leg, breaking it below the knee.

Cason, Monk & Co.'s ambulance went out, with a physician and brought him in to the local hospital, where the necessary medical attention was given.

NEW EXCLUSIVE JEWELRY ESTABLISHMENT FOR CITY

Mr. D. E. Hughes, who has been in the jewelry business in Nacogdoches for several years, is installing a new and complete line of fixtures and jewelry, at his place next to the Redland hotel.

The work will probably be completed today. The fixtures, consisting of show cases, etc., are of mahogany, and are very beautiful. The line consist of jewelry, ivory goods, silverware, and in fact everything to be found in an exclusive jewelry establishment. All lines are strictly new, and are of the best make.

Everything is being arranged for the most effective display, and the shop will be very beautiful when completed. Some idea of the store may be gained from the fact that it is an exact duplicate of the jewelry store in the Rice Hotel in Houston. Nacogdoches has long needed an exclusive jewelry establishment, and Mr. Hughes promises to meet the demand in full measure.

INSANE PASS THROUGH HERE ON WAY TO RUSK

Quite a little stir was evidenced in this city yesterday afternoon, when the 1:20 E. & W. train from Houston came in with a coach attached, containing about 50 insane people, who had been in the Houston jails, and were being taken to the Rusk asylum, which was just recently opened.

The train was something over an hour late, and the T. & N. O. train was forced to wait for it to pick up the car. Naturally a crowd assembled about the car when it came in. The lunatics equally divided between men and women. A large percent of the lunatics are insane just at times, and it is almost impossible to detect their mental defection.

One rather beautiful young woman engaged the crowd's attention by her remarks, asking them if it was hard to tell whether she was crazy or not. "It is rather puzzling isn't it?" she asked.

It is not known how many of these boarded the train at Lufkin, or whether this had any connection with the train being an hour late.

District Judge L. D. Guinn, whose home is in Rusk, states that the asylum there will accommodate about 900, some two or three hundred of which are already there, and that they are coming in at the rate of about 25 a day.

Herbine is the medicine that cures biliousness, malaria and constipation. The first dose makes you feel better, a few additional doses cures completely. Price 60c. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

$40,000 SHOW FOR NACOGDOCHES

The Sentinel obtains the information that Nacogdoches is to have a modern $40,000 picture theatre in the near future, which will rank with the largest of the state in size, equipment and all appointments.

The promoters are Messrs. Guy Blount and Luther Swift, and the show will be one of the chain to be operated in the Southwest by the United Amusement Co., whose charter was filed in Austin last Saturday. The capital stock of this company is to be increased from its present $250,000 to over a million.

The Nacogdoches theater will be located just behind the new Stone Fort National Bank building. A lobby and entrance will be constructed on each side of the Columbian Refining Company's gasoline filling station, entering into the building proper, just behind the station. The space to be covered by the building will extend from the opening back about as far as the E. M. Roberts Electrical Co.

Two representatives of the company were in the city recently in connection with the transaction, and it is said that the plans for the construction of the building are already in the hands of the architect. Messrs. Swift and Blount are both out of the city at the present time, and it could not be learned whether the deal has been finally closed, but it is presumed that if it has not it has progressed to the point of certainty.

Some 10 or 12 new theatres have been contracted for by this company joining their circuit. The theatres will be operated along the lines of the chain system of stores, which have proven so successful recently.

If the Nacogdoches theater is constructed along the plans outlined, it will be a most modern amusement house in all its appointments, with a large pipe organ, a system of ventilation giving a complete change of air every minute or so, steam heating system, balcony and boxes.

The United Amusement Company, with the motion picture exhibitors interested in the company, already own or control 70 theaters in the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi, representing an investment of considerably over $5,000,000.

Thus it will be seen that Nacogdoches will have a theater of the highest class, with the best features obtainable, operated by a company that does things on a large scale.

It will rank with the best places of amusement in the larger cities, and will be in line with the spirit of progressiveness evinced by Nacogdoches at the present time.

There are other features in process of incubation which promises other large institutions for the city, more about which will be said later.

WHY NOT?

Editor Sentinel:

While it may be usual for the editor of a newspaper to ask space in the columns of his contemporary I believe that you will agree with me that in this instance there is nothing improper in asking space for the following since your paper reaches a larger city circulation than that which I publish.

Up to the present time there has been no effort to raise a fund here for the relief of the people in the hurricane devastated sections of the state. Relief agencies have been organized in these places to which funds may be sent with the assurance that they will be properly expended and as a citizen who contributed to the fund raised by the Council of Defense about a year ago I suggest that the balance remaining on hand from the fund at that time be sent to the flood sufferers of the state now.

Several hundred dollars of the fund raised by the Council of Defense were retained by the local council for its work, but ending of the war removed any occasion for the use of this fund which is on deposit in one of the local banks. I believe that the citizenship which made this fund available would now like to see it go to the relief of the suffering about Corpus Christi. In several other instances funds have been subscribed by the public to take care of expenses in connection with securing or conducting affairs in the city from which there may be a few dollars left. If such be the case why not put these remnants together and add a little more by general subscription and let Nacogdoches send in a very decent subscription to help the thousands who are now destitute?

PE-RU-NA

Worth Its Weight in Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him:—

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and then some. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA."
(Signed) W. W. NORTHRUP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA. DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER. If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.

SWINDLED

A man by the name of Cook, representing himself to be an authorized salesman for the Overland Tire Co., of Newark, N. J., was in the city recently, and booked an order from E. M. Roberts & Co., of this city. The man showed the proper credentials, had an apparently good proposition, and the firm booked a large order. The man then explained that the company required a payment of half cash in advance, stating that by this means the company was enabled to offer the bargain. He was given a check for about $100.00.

Some time elapsed and the tires were not received, when the firm here wrote the company in inquiry, which elicited the reply that the man was not in their employ, and that he had also swindled others in this section. Efforts to effect his capture will be made.

JEWISH FESTIVAL OF NEW YEAR THURSDAY SEPT. 25

On Thursday, September 25, the festival of the New Year (Rosh Hashanah) will be observed by the Jews of the entire world. Like all the other Jewish holy days, the festival commences at sunset on the preceding day. Orthodox Jews observe two days, whereas Reform Jews keep only one day.

The festival of the New Year is one of the most important in the whole Jewish calendar. It is the first of a series of holidays lasting nearly a month. It is likewise the beginning of the Jewish year and one of its principal features is the blowing of the Shofar or ram's horn.

Apart from its joyful and festive nature, Rosh Hashanah is rich in moral import and significance. The fact that it is the beginning of the New Year lends it special sacredness. It is the time of higher resolves, the turning point of the year. It is the day which brings home to the Jew with great force the lessons that the time is short and the work is great, and that, as each year rolls quickly by, the task must be accomplished within a shorter period. The festival is a gentle reminder of the brevity of human existence, but it optimistically stresses the doctrine that man, far from being a plaything in the hands of fate, can realize in his life's work if he but takes advantage of the swiftly fleeting moments.

LUNCHEON FOR MISS PRICE.

One of the most charming social affairs given for Miss Mintie Price the coming bride, was the luncheon given Saturday by Misses Geneva and Jennie June Harris. The guests filed into the dining room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Louise Baker. Here a rose and green color motif was artistically carried out. The centerpiece was a kewpie bride on an altar. A Southern smile. Each guest found her plate by discovering which one of the very original verses was intended for her.

After a dainty four-course luncheon was served the bride's cake was brought in and cut. The dime fell to Miss Willie Blount, the thimble to Miss Jennie June Harris, the ring to Miss Ida Monk, and the button to Miss Eleanor Thomas. The hostess' gift to the bride was a pretty piece of lingerie.

These enjoying this lovely hospitality were Misses Mintie Price, Willie Blount, Gladys Hardeman, Eleanor Thomas, Ida Monk, Mary Price, Ruth Lee, Louise Baker and Mesdames Carl Monk and Ulric Wilson.

NACOGDOCHES MAN HEAVY LOSER IN CORPUS CHRISTI

Willie Hrisikopoulos, proprietor of the Olympia Candy Kitchen of this city, who with his nephew, Charles P. Hrisikopoulos, are proprietors of a similar institution in Corpus Christi, returned from that place the latter part of last week, where he had been to inspect the damage done to his property.

Mr. Hrisikopoulos says that their establishment in that city was entirely destroyed by the storm, and that their property loss sustained will be about $10,000. He confirmed the reports of the news dispatches in reference to the city's condition. There are no lights, no gas, and the water is unsanitary. A person going into the city is required to register several times. He says that many bodies were found so blackened with oil that they could not be identified. One body was buried just a few inches in the sand. He says that he never saw so many snakes in life, and that these dead reptiles lined the beach. Relief work is progressing satisfactorily. Mr. Hrisikopoulos is inclined to believe that it will take the city a long time to recover, and will probably never be the city that it was before the storm. The newspaper, he said, was just a small slip, or circular, the plant being entirely out of commission.

SHORT COTTON CROP

The following crop report from Nacogdoches was published in the Houston Post this morning:

Robert Blackwell, a planter, who from town, and makes from 50 to 100 bales of cotton yearly, states that he will not make over five bales of cotton on the same number of acres planted this year. In picking over a 16-acre cut on his best land, he gathered only 200 pounds. Looking at the stalks the crop looks good, but in picking nearly all of the bolls were found injured and yielded from one to two locks of cotton from each boll. But few bolls were found fully matured. The boll weevil did the work.

MARRIED AT COURT HOUSE.

There is nothing mysterious about the great popularity of the Oakland Sensible Six. It is just as well made, sound and capable car that appeals to the public because of its goodness. The fact that the Oakland is moderately priced receives only secondary consideration in many instances.

HOSPITAL NURSE PRAISES TANLAC

Gains Eleven Pounds and Is Feeling Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac did so much for me that I feel it my duty to tell others about this medicine," said C. M. Rhamey a professional nurse living at the Hotel George, on Sixth Street, San Francisco, Cal., recently. Mr. Rhamey has been nursing patients in the hospitals for the past eight years.

"Last February," he continued, "owing to an accident in which my leg was broken I was confined to my bed for several weeks. I lost my appetite and could hardly eat anything to nourish me, consequently I lost weight. I took several different kinds of tonics, hoping they would help build me up, but they did me no good.

"One morning I read a statement by a lady in Los Angeles who said she had gotten such wonderful benefits from taking Tanlac that I decided to try it myself. By the time I had finished half of my first bottle my appetite returned, and I felt hungry for the first time in weeks.

From then on I started right in to pick up and my appetite got better and better, and I slept better at night. I have already gained eleven pounds and am feeling just fine; even my doctor has remarked how much better I am looking. I would never allow my name to be used in connection with a medicine before, but I have had such excellent results from using Tanlac that I take great pleasure in recommending it to anyone needing a medicine to build up the system."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. and Swift Bros. & Smith.

"FAKE" ASPIRIN WAS TALCUM

Therefore Insist Upon Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Millions of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold by a Brooklyn manufacturer which later proved to be composed mainly of Talcum powder. "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" the true, genuine, American made and American owned Tablets are marked with the safety "Bayer Cross."

Ask for and then insist upon "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" and always buy them in the original Bayer package which contains proper directions and dosage.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer manufacturer of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR LADIES AND YOUNG MEN.

The demand for Telegraph operators was never so great as at the present time. The largest telegraph school in America—equipped with over a hundred sets of instruments, miniature train service, a train wire of a main line railroad, all telegraph and freight blanks and books of record; tickets, and in fact everything just as complete as found in the best equipped railroads offices, the best practical teachers to be obtained, thoroughly experienced in commercial and railway telegraphy, station and freight work—The Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, is unable to supply the demands of the railroads, Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies for operators.

Read the following letter from the Supt. of Telegraphy of one of the large railroad systems:

Tyler Commercial College, Gentlemen: If you will send us the high class students you have been sending, we can use all that you can send. Could use a large number at the present time if you have them. In this connection will say what students you have sent us have been very satisfactory, and have developed in some of the best telegraphers and agents we have. Trust that you will be able to send us more of your students at once and keep them coming as fast as they are capable. I had the pleasure on August 2nd to visit your great school, and made a personal investigation of the methods used by you in preparing students, telegraphers, and I find they meet with all requirements of my road, and I wish further to say you have the largest and most complete and thorough business college that I have ever seen.

—R. F. Frenzer, Supt. Telegraph Union Pacific R. R.
