BIG COMEDY EACH DAY

LET THIS BE THEIR MONUMENT

The suggestion of Ernest Poole, the writer, that instead of a monument to our soldiers buried in Belleau Wood a bagpipe be stationed there to sound taps each evening is bringing comments of approval from many persons who have heard of his proposal.

There is something appealing in the idea and it is to be hoped that it will not be allowed to drop unheeded. The mute stupidity of the average monument is only too evident to anyone who gives the matter a thought. We are not so keen about the monuments as the French, but there are plenty of them in this country and once put up they are usually forgotten save for the ceremonials of Memorial Day and the Fourth of July. A monument in Belleau Wood will be only one more monument. But the very thought that each evening the haunting notes of army taps sound over those white crosses brings at once a tug at the heart. What a faithful tribute! Every American who visits that sacred territory will come away with a keener sense of the heroism and duty to country which those graves represent. In no more poignant way will Frenchman and American alike be reminded that our nation has not forgotten our dead but watches over them still.

MILLIONS MADE HOMELESS BY TURKISH DECREE

Constantinople, Nov. 7.—All Christians in Anatolia will be compelled to leave the country in a short time, according to news received here Monday. Hamid Bey, the nationalist representative in Constantinople, though unable to confirm the report officially, said that everything pointed to its correctness.

Reports from Anatolian ports on the Black Sea say the Kemalists government has decided that all Greeks and Armenians will be given 30 days notice to leave the country, regardless of the fact that their families had been established there for centuries. Men between 18 and 45 will be kept in concentration camps but all others will be expelled. The news caused considerable of a stir in Constantinople and the allied high commissioners, including Rear Admiral Bristol, U. S. N., met to discuss the situation. All admitted that the question was too important for them to decide and it was referred to their governments.

It is estimated that the number of homeless people, if the nationalist plan is carried out, will be 1,800,000 who will have to depend upon foreign and especially American charity. Admiral Bristol asked Hamid Bey to call attention of the nationalist government to the serious consequences of this arbitrary measure.

The Kemalists government is keeping very strictly to the nationalist slogan of "Turkey for the Turks."

Rich Armenians and Greeks are not waiting for further hints but are leaving in large numbers and establishing themselves in Egypt, Italy and France while some are trying to go to the United States. The great majority, however, are poor traders able to make nothing more than a bare living. Their situation is pitiful because no country in Europe is willing to take them and they do not have sufficient means to enable them to cross the ocean.

County Judge Marshall was at the river Tuesday to meet the commissioners of Angelina county in an effort to straighten out a tangle which has arisen in connection with the engineering work on the county-line bridge. It seems the lack of a definite contract with Engineer Cox, who had charge of the work, is responsible for the trouble. Mr. Cox abandoned the work and asked Engineer Lamar Acker of this city to continue same. This Mr. Acker did, and submitted his estimates of cost, which the Angelina people appear to consider excessive and flatly refuse to pay their part, according to Judge Marshall. In the conference Tuesday it was decided to place the matter in the hands of State Engineer Fauntleroy, who will inspect the work and render an opinion. The amount due for repairs, etc., following the flood which wrecked the approaches was fixed by Mr. Acker at slightly more than $11,000, it was said. It is hoped to adjust the matter satisfactorily.

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE FEATURES ELECTION

New York, Nov. 8.—Democratic gains in the national elections continued to pile up steadily as the returns came in today.

In New Jersey Frelinghuysen was defeated by Edwards, democrat, who ran on a "wet" platform.

The republican senatorial candidates were running ahead in California, Connecticut, Delaware, Ohio and Wyoming.

Democratic senatorial candidates were leading in Indiana, Michigan, Missouri, North Dakota and Montana.

Republican senators were elected in Pennsylvania, Iowa, Nebraska and Wisconsin.

The democrats won in New York, Maryland, Rhode Island, Texas and West Virginia.

Victor Berger, socialist, was elected congressman from Wisconsin.

The Associated Press tabulation of the congressional vote this morning showed: Democrats, 178; Republicans 171.

Results in Texas.

Available figures indicate that Mayfield has won over Pedy for United States senator by a majority of three to one. It now seems a solid democratic congressional delegation will be returned except from the Fourteenth District. The entire democratic state ticket was overwhelmingly elected.

In Nacogdoches county the returns so far received give Mayfield a safe lead over Pedy for senator. All the democratic nominees for county and precinct offices were elected by the usual majorities.

Vote by Precincts

The following vote for senator has been reported from the precincts named. Several boxes are still unreported:

Nacogdoches South Box—Mayfield 161, Pedy 140.
Nacogdoches West Box—Mayfield 100, Pedy 110.
Nacogdoches East Box—Mayfield 210, Pedy 124.

Harmony—Mayfield 7, Pedy 11.
Alazan—Mayfield 6, Pedy 38.
Douglass—Mayfield 40, Pedy 8.
Eden—Mayfield 6, Pedy 22.
Cushing—Mayfield 127, Pedy 14.
Saul—Mayfield 34, Pedy 9.

Nat—Mayfield 35, Pedy 17.
Libert—Mayfield 14, Pedy 11.
Linn Flat—Mayfield 13, Pedy 34.
Caro—Mayfield 6, Pedy 12.
Garrison—Mayfield 122, Pedy 24.
Shady Grove—Mayfield 22, Pedy 38.

Martinsville—Mayfield 35, Pedy 15.
Melrose—Mayfield 62, Pedy 27.
Etoile—Mayfield 14, Pedy 28.
Chireno—Mayfield 77, Pedy 34.
Attoyac—Mayfield 31, Pedy 7.

The Situation at Noon

New York, Nov. 8.—The republican majority in the senate and house were sharply reduced, but the republican managers declared they would not be wiped out. At noon 25 states had complete returns. The vote for congress stood: Republicans 185, Democrats 187, socialist 1. The majority to control the house is 218.

Friends of Gaston, the opponent of Lodge, were asking a recount.

In Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Michigan and West Virginia democratic senators replaced republicans. Republicans will replace democrats in Nebraska and possibly Ohio.

A democratic victory in the Ninth Congressional District of Virginia, which had been republican for 22 years, placed Virginia with the other states sending solid democratic delegations to the house.

Mayfield's Big Majority

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 8.—A victory by more than 150,000 majority by Earle B. Mayfield for senator following one of the most bitterly contested political disputes in the history of Texas makes Mayfield, who is 41 years old, one of the younger members of the United States senate. The multitude of court proceedings was cleared up just the day before the election, when the Supreme Court ruled that his name should go on the ballots. He was attacked by opponents because of his alleged support by the Ku Klux Klan.

First Woman Legislator

Austin, Texas, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Edith Wilmons of Dallas, elected state representative, is the first woman to hold such a position in Texas, according to Secretary Staples, and is the second woman to hold an elective state office in this state, Superintendent of Schools Blanton being the first.

Writ of Error Filed
Austin, Texas, Nov. 8.—Application for a writ of error from the decision of the Dallas Court of Civil Appeals in the Groesbeck injunction suit, which was brought to keep Earle B. Mayfield's name off the ballot, was received by the Supreme Court today and was taken under advisement.

The Fight to Continue

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 8.—Efforts will be made to keep Earle B. Mayfield from taking his seat as senator, according to intimations by State Republican Chairman Creager, who said the republicans will not permit him to be seated. It was indicated that a further fight will charge that Mayfield's campaign expenditures exceeded the legal limit.

RUSK OIL PROSPECTS

Southern and Eastern Rusk county are getting more than their regular shares of the oil development that is coming to that county just now. There are two new rigs up in Pinehill, one for the Imboden Oil Company of Dallas and Henderson, and one for J. E. Coleman, Shreveport. The Imboden company is headed by Dr. Frank B. Imboden, who came from Indianapolis for the purpose of developing this property. He first knew of Pinehill and its oil prospects while doing geological work in West Virginia. Last spring he came down to the village, liked the prospect and went to work to run out the geology. It proved up to his liking and then he took his leases, about 5,000 acres. He will be started in a week.

J. E. Coleman, who has built the other derrick, was a driller on the old Pinehill well, and because the crew brought in oil, when the Sinclair did not want it, they all lost their jobs, so the story goes. Be that as it may, he got busy last summer, took on a bunch of acres, bought him a drilling outfit and will spud in soon. The Coleman rig is a mile from the Imboden.

Some of the major companies are taking on acreage down in the Calcedonia district, so it is reliably reported. The Texas has bought a bunch of leases, so the report goes, and the Magnolia is showing some activity in its big tract, that lies just north of the Sanders block.

MANY KINDS OF PAPER MONEY

It is doubtful if many people know how many kinds of paper money are in circulation in the United States. According to the American Banker, there are fifty-four, distributed as follows:

"Of ones, twos and one thousands there are five kinds; of fives, fifties and one hundreds, six kinds; of tens and twenties, seven kinds; of five hundreds, four kinds; of ten thousands, two; and of five thousands, one. "Naturally, this makes counterfeiting easier, and Treasury officials are discussing ways to reduce the variety. This should include printing all notes of the same denomination in the same color, with a distinct and different color for each denomination. No one then would have to scrutinize a bill to determine its value, and there would be no possibility of raising a note of a low denomination to a higher one."

COLLISION ON S. P.

New Orleans, Oct. 31.—A Southern Pacific Railroad passenger train, west-bound from New Orleans, crashed into the rear end of the Sells Floto Circus special train early today near Adeline, La., according to reports reaching here. Four persons were killed and five seriously injured. The fast passenger smashed a number of sleeping cars on the circus train, a number of the occupants of which were killed or injured while asleep.

BOX SUPPER AT CEDAR BLUFF

There will be a box supper at Cedar Bluff next Saturday night, the 11th inst., to which everybody is cordially invited. The proceeds will go toward purchased needed conveniences for the school. Come out and help in a good cause.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS PROBABLE

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Harding expects to issue a call Thursday or Friday for a special session of congress, it was announced today at the White House, which would convene November 20th. It was said that only an eleventh-hour change of mind would prevent Harding from issuing the call. Senate and house leaders have endorsed the plan, which is expected to enable congress to clean up the slate by the end of the regular session next March 4th. The merchant marine bill, the Dyer anti-lynching bill are the chief measures on the program.

TROUBLE IN TURKEY

Constantinople, Nov. 7.—Three additional classes of Turkish soldiers have been called to the colors. The British forces are retiring from Mosul, on the Tigris, in Northern Mesopotamia, according to reports from from Turkish Nationalist quarters, and the Kemalists are entering the evacuated area. Ali Kamal Bey, the editor of a Constantinople anti-Nationalist newspaper, has been arrested and condemned to death by the Turkish authorities here, the Allies have been informed. Allied representatives gave Rafet Pasha, the new civil governor of the city, 24 hours in which to release the editor.

An unconfirmed report said Ali Kemal had already been executed. The Allied high commissioners have asked their government for instructions with the view to a proclamation of martial law. They have decided to adopt a firmer attitude in resistance to the Kemalists' course, curbing their activities and counteracting the increasing infractions of the Mudania armistice conference.

NOTICE TO WITNESSES

All the witnesses that have been subpoenaed in any of the cases below, either for the state of the defense, are hereby notified to be in court on the 20th day of November, as there has been a special term of the district court called by Judge Guinn for the purpose of trying these cases. All defendants must be in court on that day, and if not here there will be forfeitures taken on their bonds.

The law says that witnesses cannot be subpoenaed but once by the sheriff:

REV. W. A. REVELS

The body of Rev. W. A. Revels is being shipped here today (Wednesday) from Wichita Falls, where he died Tuesday. Interment will be made at North Church at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. No particulars of Mr. Revels' death were obtainable.

HONORING THE MEMORY OF ROBERT E. LEE

From the Houston Chronicle.
Something more than fifty years ago there was built a chapel on the grounds of Washington-Lee University at Lexington, Va. It was not a fireproof structure, and is still not fireproof.

In an addition or annex in the rear of the stage there has rested for nearly forty years the matchless work of art, Valentine's recumbent statue of Robert E. Lee.

Those fully qualified to pass judgment on it have declared that it is not surpassed as a work of sculptural art by any statue of ancient or modern times.

In vaults in the basement of the building are the bodies of General Lee, Mrs. Lee and other members of the family.

Just across from the vaults is the office which General Lee occupied at the time of his death, and in which the office furniture and the files of papers have been left undisturbed through all the passing years.

There is not room in the building for the collection of Lee relics nor for the Lee collection of family portraits, and the building not being fireproof the recumbent statue might be destroyed by fire, which would be a calamity beyond description.

A movement is on foot to enlarge and beautify the chapel, preserve its priceless relics from fire, and add several rooms as a museum for Lee relics.

General G. W. Custis Lee, the eldest son of General Lee, committed to the trustees of the university full power to do anything which they deemed proper, and Dr. Bolling Lee of New York, the only grandson of General Lee, cordially approves the patriotic purpose.

It is estimated that the cost of the work will be $150,000, and that devoted guild, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, is giving its enthusiastic support to the movement.

Wherever that tireless band of devotees to the memories of what they cherish as a just and righteous cause leads no man or woman should hesitate to follow.

No monument, no temple, no mausoleum, no memorial structure can add one single cubit to the towering stature of the fame of Robert E. Lee.

On the 12th day of October, 1870, he passed into the Pantheon of the Immortals, but it is the duty of the people of the South to preserve and perpetuate every relic which is associated with his name, and to place beyond the possibility of loss or destruction the incomparable work of art which was fashioned by the hand of one who followed him in time of war.

The funds necessary to execute the commendable purpose should be speedily provided, and the Chronicle voices the hope that the people of Houston will do their part.

KILLED HER HUSBAND

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Pat Wallis, who shot and killed her husband this morning, said self-defense would be her plea. She said he tore nearly all her clothes off her before she shot him. The shooting occurred in an apartment where Mrs. Wallis, who is a nurse, was caring for a patient. They had been separated.

TEXAS F. W. C.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 7.—The annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs opened here this morning, after a board meeting yesterday. Mrs. W. W. Sims of Bryan, a pioneer Texas club woman, responded to the welcoming addresses. Reports from the different committees, departments and officers were heard and education and home economics will be discussed this afternoon.

PLAY AT FAULKNER

There will be a play at Faulkner School Saturday evening, November 18th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody is invited and we guarantee to keep you laughing throughout the evening. The proceeds will be used for the equipments of the school.

The situation is such, they have told Secretary Weeks, that the less said about it the better.

"FORGET-ME-NOT DAY"

The womanhood of America is to again take a prominent part in a very human cause, following in a magnificent manner the many other laudable movements which the women of the country have fostered and carried through to success. On Saturday, November 4th, National "Forget-Me-Not Day" is to be observed in every city and town in the United States is to take part in the day's splendid objective.

America's wounded and disabled veterans of the world war are to be benefited by the sale of little forget-me-nots, on November 4th, when a mighty army of the girls and women of the country will act as salespeople and distribute to the citizens the flowers.

In advance of "Forget-Me-Not Day," personal contributions to the fund will be sought, check and cash donations being canvassed by the local committee during the next few days. All remittances, either by check or cash donations to the Forget-Me-Not Day fund should be sent to the local chairman, Mrs. _____.

Business houses, stores and other establishments of the city are cordially invited to tender their contributions to the general fund with the assurance that such participation means an improvement in existing conditions, for the wounded and disabled men of the United States. The Disabled American Veterans of the World War which is the National organization of the crippled war veterans will administer the proceeds of the "Forget-Me-Not Day"; the organization in its activities by President Harding, The National Information Bureau, leading government and state officials, and numerous other authorities who have watched its progress with satisfaction. All wounded and disabled veterans of the World War, regardless of their affiliation or non-affiliation with veterans' organizations, will benefit by "Forget-Me-Not Day."—Ex.

ANOTHER DAUGHERTY DUD

That department of justice statement has lost billions of dollars through war contract frauds because the evidence has disappeared may be accurate or it may be a clumsy way for the department to construct an alibi or it may be a cowardly slap at the conduct of a great war which was singularly free from administrative scandal.

It seems strange indeed that with the department in control of this matter since March 4, 1921, it has not been able to expose and prosecute the frauds it now alleges were practiced. The country is familiar with the "smelling" committee organized by a republican congress to detect war scandals and utter failure to produce the goods. For that reason the people will not be impressed with this latest attempt to discredit the Wilson administration without again producing the goods.

For a long time the department of justice has been under the fire of some of its own partisans for tardiness and failure in trying to show up the war administration as graft-laden. It has concluded some settlements that were started before this department took over the work. It has laid certain evidence before grand juries and instituted some suits but from a republican standpoint the net result has been disappointing. So it seems appropriate that something be done to create an impression that the war job was wickedly performed. The device is not convincing. The department will have to do more than it has to convince the people that from the standpoint of honesty and efficiency, the American end of the World War was not the cleanest in the history of American wars.

SUNLESS HAY

From the Shreveport Journal.

The electrical household was first established in the city. Then it advanced into the country, giving the farmer telephones, light and power. Now it has eliminated the necessity of making hay while the sun shines.

A farmer in Sussex, England, does a most amazing number of things with the aid of electricity, but his hay-making is the most amazing of all. He describes it thus:

"I have just made hay in large stacks without the aid of the sun. The grass was stacked as soon as it was cut, that is, while it was quite green. A hollow space was left in the center of the stack which was connected to an electric sirocco fan, which blew air into the center of the stack and cooled it, utilizing the heat of one part to cure another part. The stack was only blown in this manner when it started to get too hot." The neighbors looked on, expecting a call from the fire brigade almost any minute. But all went well, and the hay is as sweet and dry as the best sun-made variety.

It is obvious that this method does away not only with the menace of bad weather, but with a large waste of time and energy. The new method of handling of the hay. The new method is not so picturesque as Maud Muller's, but it is an important gain to agriculture.

THE TARIFF AND SEWING MACHINES

We do not know how many homes in Nacogdoches are without sewing machines. They are practically in general use and are regarded as household necessities, particularly among those of poor or moderate circumstances. Everyone will be interested to know what the new tariff law does to them.

Until the passage of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law a few weeks ago sewing machines were on the free list. No tax was paid on them at the custom house. They were permitted to enter this country free. We make them as cheaply as they can be made anywhere. Under the Fordney-McCumber law a foreign sewing machine valued at less than $75 will pay a tariff tax of 15 percent and those valued at more than $75 will pay a tariff tax of 30 percent of their value. This will enable the American manufacturer to sell his sewing machine to an American woman at the price of the foreign machine plus the tariff tax.

There is little or no competition in the manufacture of sewing machines in this country. It is said that one American company makes 80 percent of all the sewing machines made in the world. Under the Payne-Aldrich tariff sewing machines were taxed 30 percent at the custom house and American manufacturers sold their machines much cheaper to the women of Europe and the Orient than they charged American women. This scandalous situation led the authors of the Underwood law to put them on the free list in 1913.

The Fordney-McCumber law virtually restores the Payne-Aldrich tax and will again permit the American manufacturer to sell cheaper abroad than at home. He will meet the competition of the world abroad and, protected by a tariff wall that shuts out foreign competition, will charge American women all the traffic will bear.

In 1921 when sewing machines were on the free list, our imports were only 9-10 of 1 percent of our total production. What reason existed for protecting the American manufacturer by a high tariff? The American company that makes practically all of our sewing machines declared dividends from 1913 to 1919, with no protective tariff at all, of from 7 to 16 percent on a valuation of $60,000,000, and in 1920 declared a stock dividend of 50 percent. It is important to remember that this stock dividend of $30,000,000 was paid to stockholders while sewing machines were still on the free list.

If this rich and successful company could declare dividends under free trade in sewing machines, what will its profits be under the Fordney-McCumber law? A tariff of this kind is not protection, but exploitation. It disregards entirely the rights of the consumer and clinches this great monopoly's stronghold on the American public.

Possibly in these matters it is to be found the reason why seats in the United States senate have been bought and paid for at a price causing a great scandal.

NOT BURNING CORN

The usual autumnal corn-burning canard has started the rounds of the press. Since it would take about $25 worth of corn to produce as much heat as a ton of soft coal, it is apparent that even in this year of high coal and reasonably priced corn there is not much danger than any great quantity of corn will be burned for fuel. It wouldn't pay. And anybody who has ever tried burning corn knows that it makes an exceedingly poor fuel. We know what we are talking about, because we were blizzard-bound for a few days in Minnesota one time, and tried to boil potatoes on a corn-fed kitchen range. When they begin to circulate the rumors about burning corn we refuse to become excited.—Farm Life.

Wives should be loved, but a man should use discretion in regard to whose wife it is.

In the old days, when a man wanted to do something daring, he went to a barber shop and read the pink papers.

PEACE AND PACIFISM

On the heels of a warning from Secretary of War Weeks that the country is slipping into the same state of unpreparedness and pacifism which existed before the war comes a demand from the Inter-Allied War Veterans that experts in suffering, those who bore the brunt of the fighting in Flanders, be given a place with experts in diplomacy and finance at international conferences. Their program is written on the face of every veteran qualified as an expert in suffering and back of it is the determination for peace that comes of facing death in a horrible orgy of destruction. It was expressed by the president of the association as "peace with justice."

This attitude need not alarm Secretary Weeks, his conservative staff or militant patriots, for it is a new and different brand of pacifism. No one is better prepared to defend their country than these men. They are not weak-kneed theorists, who submit to alien enemies or abjectly surrender the liberties which cost them so much. Indeed, the American Legion, which represents thousands of them, has gone on record for universal military training and at the last convention adopted a program for conscription of labor in war time.

Experts in suffering hate war with all the fierce passion that useless suffering stirs. They are determined to have peace, not peace under the might of great powers, but as the right of all nations. The vigor behind their demand is the best assurance that they preach a new kind of pacifism, and is proof that the world is forging ahead and in the right direction. Experts in suffering, trained to fight, will not stop, it is hoped, until the victory is consummated or their defeat memorialized in a lasting peace among nations.

THE HIGHWAY PROBLEM

Texas is confronted with a highway crisis which involves two questions of overshadowing importance to the welfare of the state.

These questions are:
1. Whether we are ever to have a genuine state system of highways at all, or whether we are going to continue our present patch-work system, causing great economic loss, and find ourselves ultimately outside the national system of highways which the other states will have built in the meantime in cooperation with the Federal government.

2. Whether Texas is to continue to receive Federal aid by conforming to the requirements of the Federal highway laws, or will we finally compel the Federal government to exclude us from Federal aid because of our unwillingness to conform to those laws and play our part in carrying out the national program.

No state in the union needs a highway system more than Texas. Our distances are so great and our railroad mileage so small compared with our area, that motor transportation is of much greater importance to us than to any other state in the Union.

And, in the same way, no state in the Union should more willingly conform to Federal laws in order to continue Federal aid than Texas. Texas has received a greater apportionment of Federal aid since 1917 than any other state in the union. Texas receives about five dollars in federal aid for every dollar which Texas pays in taxes that is appropriated for federal aid. The other four dollars comes from taxes paid by other states. That is because Texas has the greatest area and greatest mileage of roads.

The Federal government proposes to construct at least 12,000 miles of highways in Texas, in co-operation with the state, each paying half the cost, provided these highways are built in a connected system. But if we do not conform to the requirements of Federal law, we shall forfeit this Federal aid.

Certain changes in our laws are necessary. We must give the state government authority to build those roads which will form the state system. And we must provide the state with adequate revenue, collected from those who use the roads, to build and maintain this system.

The Texas Highway Association has been organized for the purpose of promoting this program. Texas must go forward and not backward in this matter of highways. But all progressive citizens and forward-looking institutions in the state must co-operate if this is to be accomplished.

If you want to help, join the Texas Highway Association at once, and have the business institution, civic organization or other body with which you are connected, subscribe for sustaining memberships.

THE TARIFF AND BLANKETS

New England mills manufacture an all-cotton blanket that has been in universal use for a long time. It is made of cheap cotton, imported from India. The cotton is woven into a coarse cloth which is then passed over rolls with needle-like teeth. This process tears up the surface of the cloth and gives it a soft finish.

By the Underwood law, recently repealed by the Fordney-McCumber act, these cotton blankets were subjected to a nominal tariff tax of 10 percent. Even at this low rate only a few of these blankets were entered at the custom house, and the government derived but little revenue therefrom.

The Fordney-McCumber law gives the Eastern manufacturers a tariff protection several times in excess of the old rate, thus destroying what little competition remained under Underwood law.

These blankets are made mostly by the Beacon Manufacturing Co., of Connecticut. Sanford & Kelly, members of the Boston Stock Exchange, who deal in the securities of this company, state that in the year 1920 the company charged off from its inventories an amount equal to its outstanding average capital for that year. Even when it showed a profit after deduction equal to the amount of its entire outstanding preferred capital. After charging off $1,000,000 from its liquid assets, it showed a surplus of net-quick assets amounting to $1,800,000, or 50 percent more than its combined preferred and common stock.

People who buy these cotton blankets, and that means all of us, want the manufacturer to prosper, but they naturally resent the prostitution of the principle of protection to serve the selfish ends of its beneficiaries.

OPTIMISM

There is an old Stoic proverb which says that it is not things that torment men, but the opinion men have of them. The fact is that there is an infinite variety of things in every person's life, far too many to be grasped at once, and he must choose what he will see. In the same situation or surroundings one man will be wholly cast down because of the black outlook, while another will be cheered greatly by its brightness. Obviously the difference lies not in the situation but in the point of view.

Pollyannaism has had its day, but now has fallen into ill repute, and rightly so. It is foolish to invent excuses to be cheerful, when no reason exists, and just as foolish to close one's eyes to the unpleasant side of things. It is another thing, however, to realize that there are both bad and good in the world, and that men are at liberty to choose either. When one is accented by a pessimistic individual who is sure that everything is approaching a canine destination, it is well to remember that he is blind to what good may exist.

Even were one so omniscient that he might count every bad and every good circumstance, he could not thus determine whether the result were good or bad. James Bryce has said, that in an election opinions are counted not weighed, and that while an expert's opinion may be worth those of a thousand ordinary men, it is counted only as one. In counting good and bad circumstances, one must remember that they must be weighed, not counted. One good circumstance may overbalance a thousand bad.

Lloyd George, who said some time ago that diplomacy was a game of checkers, knows now that he's been jumped.

Mr. Daugherty's protest against poking jokes at prohibition enforcement overlooks how comical some of it is.

Daugherty says Harding has given no consideration to a second term. It will be time enough after the November returns.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

About the year 1820 "Texas fever" was very prevalent in the United States. The people had it then, not the cattle as it is now understood. It was fatal and the usual epitaph was stuck up on the front door of the vacated dwelling in these words, "Gone to Texas." It was no respecter of persons. The rich immigrant sought an investment. The poor man wanted to get a start. The lawyer hoped to make a rise. The doctor wanted likewise, wise or unwise.

But they were all prompted by the spirit of venture or adventure. Some went by water, some by land, some on foot, none by rail. Probably the most frequented route was by boat to Natchitoches, La., and thence by chance to Nacogdoches, one hundred miles west, on the only so-called road to San Antonio, later called El Camino Real. When they crossed the Sabine river about half way between Natchitoches, La., and Nacogdoches, Texas, they considered that they were in Texas and they at once began to seek a stopping place. It was all wild woods. The forests were grand. The grass was luxuriant. Beautiful birds sang in the trees, flowers bloomed bright, wild fruits and wild game were abundant. It looked like paradise, and it was all free. Planters with means selected and improved big plantations. Farmers of scant means squatted where they pleased.

The very town of Nacogdoches then could hardly be called a town. It was more like a hunter's camp. No streets, few roads or pathways, large trees everywhere and houses were shacks.

There was a primitive road leading south from the front of the Old Stone Fort at the northeast corner of the present public square, down to the only wagon ford on the Banita. This was the road used to haul the stones for the Old Stone Fort, and it was the original road to the old Procella Crossing on the Angelina river ten miles south of town. There was an old fashioned ferry with a simple, flat boat, steered backward and forth by ropes and poles in hand. It afterwards became known as Goodwin's Ferry, and subsequently Owen's Ferry and Spradley's Ferry.

The first house on this road going south was on the high ground about 100 yards beyond the Banita. The next was about two miles further south, and was known as the Basesy old place. This was on the hill side about 100 yards beyond the Basesy branch. Later on there was a dwelling on the hill 400 yards west. This became the Mitchell place, and the names Mitchell branch, or Black Branch, and Mitchell lake, became known, from this Basesy place.

At first the old Spanish Bluff road also went out Southward by Dr. Campbell's to get around the big hill, as did this Procella road down the Lanana creek.

The new settlers or campers, chose homesites wherever they pleased, and preferably where water, wood and range were good. This was nearly anywhere and everywhere, even in the edge of town. One of the first settlers selected the lovely site above mentioned on the south bank of the Banita creek about where Dr. Pierce recently lived. He had a wife and two children, and a yoke of oxen, and little else except a home-made wagon. He could stand in his front yard and shoot all the squirrels, turkeys and deer he wanted, using a single barrel flint and steel shot gun, loaded to the muzzle with a ram rod. A cow bell and a stake rope fed his live stock. He didn't need to split rails and clear and fence a farm. The range supplied his needs. He had a pole ax, for his only tool. He cut poles for general use, a load of poles was thereby named. He had no fro to split boards, nor iron wedge to split rails, nor any gluts or maul. If he wanted such tools he might borrow them from a distant neighbor, who in turn might borrow his wagon and steers. Everybody had to borrow and loan such things.

The scenery where the primitive woods had not been cleared away or thinned out in and about the town of Nacogdoches, was supremely beautiful. This would be hard to describe in detail. The noted old Stone Fort was there in the glory of it. But living witnesses are scarce. Modern residents can hardly realize the beauties and charms of the lands in and around the primitive old town.

The environments and conditions of these times produced peculiar customs and tastes among the settlers. Hospitality and generosity was predominant. Everybody helped everybody. Saloons and six shooters were taken as a matter of course. It was expected that everybody would drink and carry deadly weapons. A man who would not drink or fight, on suitable occasions was somewhat underrated. Jim Bowie's name was an honor. He was game and convivial, but high toned. Such men would get on a spree which they called a high lonesome, and run over the town in defiance of officers. Street fights of various types were frequent, especially on occasions of public gatherings, such as election days, or political speakings. Drinking was part of the game. Some men would carry a chin on their shoulder and bluster over all streets, monopolizing the right all streets, monopolizing the right of way. Whiskey had not then been dignified with the name booze, nor had the name of prohibition become used or thought of, as it is now. Whiskey was called red eye and snake bite. Saloons by name were unheard of. They were called groceries, grogeries, doggeter or bars, and were regarded as places of amusement, social and convivial. The whiskey seller was as popular as any other gentleman.

Protestant preachers and churches were not yet plentiful, in fact they were not here. But the Catholics came first of all, and were followed by Episcopalians.

But peace, order and good will to men were the predominant purposes. Learning and culture, patriotism, morality and plausible pride ruled the general public. Indeed there were giants in those days, leaders among men of greatness. J.E.M.

MOTHER!

Move Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

J. M. POTTS

Mr. J. M. Potts of this city died at 7 o'clock Saturday night at his rooms at the West Banita apartments, aged 43 years, after an illness extending over a period of about seven weeks.

Deceased leaves a widow and two daughters, one of the latter being away at college and the other attending the Nacogdoches High School.

Interment was made at 4:30 Sunday afternoon in Oak Grove cemetery. Rev. E. G. Cooke of the Methodist church conducting the service.

The pallbearers were: Active—Mr. Wright, Louis Rulfs, Gene Carter, Earle Williams, Charles Bowers and Robert Monk.

Mourning—Messrs. J. T. Young, Honorary—T. J. Young and Messrs. McCulvey, Cunningham, Woody and Walton and Horace Ford.

A large concourse of citizens was in attendance upon the funeral, and there were many and very beautiful floral offerings.

All our people sympathize with the stricken family in their great sorrow. Arrangements were in charge of the Cason, Monk & Company undertaking department.

PEACE CONFERENCE

POSTPONED

London, Nov. 6.—The Peace Conference called for Lausanne, to convene on November 13th, has been postponed, possibly for a fortnight, it was announced today. The action is the result of the new situation created in Constantinople by the demand of Rafet Pasha that Allied military occupation of the city cease. It is stated in authoritative circles that in no circumstances will the British point of view regarding the presence of Allied troops in Constantinople be changed. The British intend to uphold the Mudania armistice agreement and remain in the neutral zone with their troops.

LYDA-GASTON

Of cordial interest to a wide circle of friends in the city was the marriage of Miss Mattie Eula Gaston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gaston of Nacogdoches, to Mr. E. F. Lyda, of Marion, N. C., which was solemnized on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church, with Rev. A. E. Booth officiating. Miss Ethel Pennan furnished the wedding music.

The only attendants were Miss Lola Wortham and Mr. J. A. Gaston, brother of the bride. The bride wore a brown traveling suit, with accessories in harmony, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lyda left for Nacogdoches, where they will spend a short while with the bride's parents before going to Greenville, S. C., where they will make their home.

The bride has been reared and educated in Nacogdoches and was the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gaston, at 1290 Pennsylvania avenue Mr. Lyda is the district manager of the Chicago Portrait Company.—Beaumont Enterprise, Sunday, 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyda came up in an automobile Saturday night and spent part of Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gaston, six miles out on the Melrose Road. They returned to Beaumont Sunday morning, thence on to Greenville, S. C., Sunday night, where they will make their home.

PLEA FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Belton, Nov. 3.—The officers of the Texas Centennial Movement make an earnest plea that a combined patriotic and religious service shall be held in commemoration of the Armistice of the Great World War. Wherever a sunrise prayer meeting or other service is not arranged it is pleaded that the following program shall be given some time during the day of November 10, 11 and 12 in some church, school or other public building under the auspices of some woman's or young people's society.

Doxology.
Invocation.
Processional—National, Texas and Christian Flag Bearers.
Salute to Flags.
Community Singing—Star Spangled Banner, Onward Christian Soldiers, America, We are Marching to Zion.
Scripture Lesson.
Thanksgiving for Peace—Ten Minute Talk.
Song—Keep thy Home Fires Burning.
The Peace Needs of Today—Ten Minute Talk.
Song—I Need Thee Every Hour.
A Nation's Peace From God—Ten Minute Talk.
Song—Come Thou Almighty King.
Benediction.

King Coal is certainly a merry old soul if he sees anything funny about coal if he sees anything funny in his present prices.

LONDON, EXPERIMENTING WITH RUBBER PAVEMENTS

London, Nov. 3.—Streets paved with gold were a fiction in the days of Dick Whittington, London's first Lord Mayor, but streets paved with rubber are distinct possibilities of the near future.

A test is being made in St. Martins Lane with rubber blocks instead of wood and asphalt, and although the former is far more expensive, it is hoped it will last 25 years as against 12 to 14 years for wood block paving.

FORTUNATE PIECE OF WORK

Mexico City, Nov. 2.—The spirit regarding the general pacification of Mexico appeared more optimistic in government circles today as the result of the execution of General Francisco Murguia, the rebel leader, by a firing squad yesterday. In Mexico City the execution of Murguia was regarded as the most fortunate piece of work performed by the government during the past year in the campaign to end rebellious movements. Friends of Pancho Villa denied that Villa had been wounded as reported. They said he was busy farming.

"Our Family Medicine"

"I WILL WRITE you in regard to Black-Draught liver medicine, as I have been using it more than 18 years," says a letter from Mr. S. F. Mintz, of R. F. D. 2, Leland, N. C. "I keep it in my home all the time, for it is mostly our family medicine. When we begin to feel feverish or sluggish, with trouble from the liver or stomach, we take a dose of Theford's Black-Draught and the trouble is soon over. I mostly buy a dollar package at a time, and it has saved me many a bill."

GRADE CROSSING ACCIDENTS

From the Texas Highway Bulletin.
Up until the present times the State Highway Department has secured the elimination of one hundred and sixty-five dangerous railroad crossings, thereby eliminating one hundred and sixty-five chances for the reckless automobile driver to get killed or injured. The state government should, in the interest of humanity, do all in its power to protect the reckless driver and speed maniac as well as to provide for the taking care of the lunatic, in view of the fact that this class of motorists seem to be incapable of taking care for themselves.

Upon investigation it was found that out of 12,000 persons killed on the highways of the country last year 7,000 were struck down at grade crossings. Just think, an average of twenty persons being killed every day during the year on account of grade crossings alone. This fact will certainly warrant action on the part of the lawmakers of this state and nation in an effort to eliminate from the highways entirely the dangerous railroad crossing.

In answer to an inquiry recently submitted to the Railroad Commission of Texas by the State Highway Department, regarding the elimination of railroad crossings, we were informed:

1. That there is no law in this state by means of which the railroad company can be compelled to bear a portion of the cost of eliminating railroad crossings over a public highway.

2. The law confers no power upon the Railroad Commission to declare a railroad crossing over a public highway a menace and dangerous to human life and to order that it be eliminated either by re-location or by means of an under pass or over pass.

3. That there is no power other than that which would accrue through condemnation proceedings in the courts to effect a railroad company to submit a highway crossing under existing railroad bridge or trestle in case the elimination of a dangerous grade crossing can be accomplished in this way.

The Railroad Commission, however, advises the State Highway Department that they appreciate the present day dangers incidental to railroad crossings over public highways and the necessity for their elimination and that they would be glad to join the State Highway Department in an appeal to the forthcoming Legislature for the passage of such law as will adequately care for the situation.

HONORING THE HEROES

The first state in the union to honor its soldier dead in fitting manner by erection of a monument upon a French battlefield is Missouri. The dedication ceremonies of the memorial are to take place at the village of Cheppy, where thrice the sons of Missouri went through the fires of the hell of war that the spirit of democracy might prevail.

A woman is the sculptor, but that was not known until the decision of the judges had been reached, for all the models in a contest were submitted anonymously. Nancy Coonsman Hahn has wrought well. Her monument shows a heroic figure of victory—not the victory of conquest, exalting, but the victory of peace, exalted.

Thus on Armistice Day does Missouri pay her tributes, lay her wreath upon the forgotten brow, and stand a moment in contemplation of the sacrifice of her soldiers and of all that sacrifice was meant.

It is high time that this state was similarly observing the memory of the heroism of our boys. They fought as nobly as any in the world, and it is with high pride that we remember St. Mihiel and the Argonne. Next year's Armistice Day will be an excellent occasion for the dedication of such a monument.

In the theater of war the play has never yet had that happy ending.

Texas Woman Says It's Worth Weight in Gold

"IT TAKES A WOMAN WHO HAS SUFFERED LIKE I HAVE TO APPRECIATE STELLA VITAE," DECLARES MRS. LONG.

Statement after statement is now being made concerning the remarkable results suffering women are receiving from Stella Vitae, the preparation that is being used so extensively in the treatment of "Female Diseases."

One of the latest of the thousands of letters received from happy women who have regained their health and strength through Stella Vitae, is from Mrs. R. B. Long, 4919 Ash Lane street, Dallas, Texas, who says:

"Stella Vitae is without a doubt the finest thing on earth for women who are suffering from 'Female Troubles,' and I wouldn't take a thousand dollars for the good it has done me.

"Any woman who is suffering like I was can understand how happy I feel now. Those terrible pains in my stomach, backache and headaches were almost enough to drive me distracted. Sometimes I would get so sick from them I would be right dizzy and have to go to bed. I was constipated nearly all the time, too, and so nervous that the least little thing would upset me so that I would go all to pieces.

"I don't know what would have become of me if it hadn't been for Stella Vitae, but that's all over now. I just feel fine all the time and never have an ache or a pain anywhere. I tell you, it takes a woman who has suffered like I have to appreciate good health and I will never forget that it was Stella Vitae that brought it back to me. It's worth its weight in gold."

Note—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and is sold on a positive guarantee to bring relief or money will be refunded.

NEXT DOSE CALOMEL MAY SALIVATE YOU

It is Mercury, Quicksilver, Sheeks Liver and Attacks Your Bones. Calomel salivation is horrible. It swells the tongue, loosens the teeth and starts rheumatism. There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, and it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Calomel is a dangerous drug, besides it may make you feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than treacherous calomel your money is waiting for you.

Striking New Red Cross Poster

Riveting the attention of the beholder on the fact that the American Red Cross is chartered by Congress as an official volunteer relief organization the dome of the Capitol at Washington, upon which is superimposed a large Red Cross, is the central figure of a new poster for the Annual Red Cross Roll Call. The poster, which has been pronounced one of the most striking of innumerable representations of the famous dome, is the work of Franklin Booth, a New York artist of wide renown. It will be displayed throughout the country during the Roll Call period, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, when the Red Cross membership for 1923 will be enrolled.

Junior Red Cross Praised for Work Influencing Peace

The advancing standard of the Junior Red Cross made two outstanding gains during the last year—one in the field of domestic activity, which is rapidly linking up the schools with the Junior program, the other a gain of a dozen countries in Europe pledged to organize Juniors on the lines of the American organization. For this accomplishment the American Juniors earned the hearty endorsement of the League of Red Cross Societies for its "creation of an international spirit of human solidarity among young people with a view to preparation of a new civilization for peace."

The forthcoming annual report of the American Red Cross for the year ended June 30, 1922, will show 24,528 schools enrolled, with a total of 4,483,845 pupils wearing the "I Serve" button of the American Junior Red Cross—the badge of unselfish service earned by each individual member through personal sacrifice.

In international school correspondence 736 classes and schools engaged in friendly communication with 823 schools in European countries, 90 schools in United States territories, 13 in South Africa and 10 in a miscellaneous list of foreign countries. The work in foreign fields in establishing playgrounds, school libraries, sewing and manual training classes, homes for war orphans, school reconstruction in devastated areas, encouraging community gardens and many other activities was financed through the National Children's Fund raised by the Juniors at a cost of $338,237.40. During the year $56,922.79 was contributed toward the fund, in which on July 1 there was a balance of $201,361.58.

Greatest Mother Summons Her Children

An allegorical concept of the Red Cross as a peace-time ideal is employed by the American Red Cross in a new and striking poster for its Annual Red Cross Roll Call. Spread out before the heroic size figure is the outline of the United States with a Red Cross superimposed upon it while around its borders are sketched scenes depicting the chief activities of the Red Cross today—service to disabled veterans of the World War, disaster relief and promotion of the public health. The poster is the work of Lawrence Wilbur, a New York artist and will be displayed throughout the country during the enrollment of the Red Cross membership for 1923.

ELIMINATION CONTESTS

Austin, Texas, Nov. 7.—Eliminations are now rapidly occurring in the University Interscholastic League football race. Reports reaching the League bureau Saturday night show that more than ten teams have dropped out of the running. Games arranged this week will see the number of teams cut to approximately twenty. The following are the results of the games in which the losers dropped out: Palestine 19 Nacogdoches 9, Brownsville 9 San Benito 0, Georgetown 17 Taylor 0, Belton 6 Granger 2, Atlanta 20 Texarkana 7, Austin 14 San Antonio (Brackenridge) 6, Beaumont 26 South Park 0, Denison 19 Bonham 0, Childress 27 McLean 6.

Contrasting with last week's results only one tie game occurred among the important contest: Amarillo 9 Pampa 9.

This week will see the following games played, each one being a vital part of the championship series: Abilene vs. San Angelo, Dallas Forest Avenue vs. Denison, Marlin vs. Milford, Del Rio vs. Eagle Pass, Temple vs. Giddings, Kennedy vs. Floresville, Brownsville vs. Corpus Christi.

The undefeated teams by sections follow:

- Section 1. Amarillo, Pampa.
- Section 2. Floydada, Plainview.
- Section 3. Abilene, Ranger, San Angelo, Stamford.
- Section 4. Fort Worth (North Side), Wichita Falls.

GO TO DISTRICT MEET OF EPWORTH LEAGUES

From the Lufkin News, 4th. A number of Epworth Leaguers were to have gone to an Epworth League Institute being held in Nacogdoches this afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon. On the program from Lufkin are: Dr. E. W. Solomon, Miss Catherine Cochran, and C. C. Crutchfield. Miss Oma Mayne is district secretary of this district which extends from Center on the west to Memphis on the east and from Carthage on the north to Livingston on the south.

The following names were given the Daily News this morning as comprising the delegation going from Lufkin: Misses Ava DuBose, Catharine Cochran, Oma Mayne, Kate Peavy and Mary Emma Binion and Mr. C. C. Crutchfield.

WORTH $298.00 PER DAY

Young people, you must make yourselves efficient and handle your earnings properly during your productive years if you are to escape the common lot of being dependent in old age.

The average educated man gets a salary of $2,000 a year. He works forty years, earning a total of $80,000, in a life time. The average day laborer gets $3.00 per day, three hundred days in the year, or $900 a year. In forty years he earns $36,000. The difference of $44,000 equals the financial value of an education. To acquire this earning capacity requires about five months time or one hundred and fifty days in the Tyler Commercial College. Divide one hundred and fifty days into $44,000, the value of an education, and you will find that each day spent in the Tyler Commercial College is worth $298 to you without considering the satisfaction and pleasure of living a much more successful life.

Life insurance companies have compiled the following astounding figures on one hundred average men at the age of sixty-five years, which is as follows: Thirty-five are dead; one rich, four wealthy, six are self-supporting, but compelled to work for a living; fifty-four, or over half of the number, are dependent on children, relatives or charity. If you could sit down and talk to any one of those fifty-four you would get earnest advice on "prepare and train."

What is the secret of success? Preparation and Training for Business. You don't expect to die young and surely you don't want to be in the class who are dependent in old age. Avoid it by getting the proper business training in youth. Fill in and mail for free catalogue. Get out of the poor pay class.

A LOYAL LEGION

Armistice Day has already indicated that it will fix itself with a permanence that will endure for many years at least, in the schedule of special events and notable dates in America. As the anniversary recurs each November for the coming years there will be tremendous importance attaching to it. One practical possibility is apparent in the celebration of Armistice Day. That possibility is personified by the veterans of the World War, the American Legion. Inevitably, logically, appropriately these men who were in the service of humanity wearing the American uniform, following the American flag, adding luster to the American name in the world struggle against war and for freedom and right, will be the prominent figures in the Armistice Day celebrations. The American Legion and Armistice Day will be inseparably united for the years to come—while there are considerable numbers of these men left in the land.

This suggests that the vital element in the future observance of the day will be the members of the American Legion in the respective communities. This organization of the men who were America's living contribution to the World War is a potential crystallization of American ideals, of the American spirit, of American principles. They know, those who have thought it out in circumstances which those who remained at home never have done so well, just what America—not the government, not the leaders, not the theorists, but America—meant when she served humanity in the World War. These men are, for the greater part, young men yet, men coming just to their maturity of judgment and full strength of activity with reference to public matters.

They will be the backbone of the citizenry of their several communities; their organization has a very definite purpose. It aims to accomplish immediate things for the men who served, to be sure, but its purposes are deeper and broader. They are the strong men, the alert men, alive men, the heroic men of the country. To their shoulders which have been tested in the bearing of war burdens will gradually shift the burden of the peace-time problems of their country. They will presently comprehend that they were called in an emergency to be trained for a special service and to do that service—well; and that in reality this was an incident not of ordinary course: That the real service in which they are to devote their lives and for which the special training was a hint, it is the duty of being "Americans" in the normal times of constructive peace.

There is hope that is confident in the possibilities in these men of the legion; there is faith in them by their people because they have had the experience which taught them—themselves—a firmer faith in the principles upon which America rests.

IS THIS A SIMILAR PLEDGE?

A White House statement says the administration will take steps to participate in the World Court created by the League of Nations. That, of course, is what former President Wilson urged and it is the logical thing for the United States to do.

But is the White House promise dependable? Prominent republicans during the 1920 campaign were assured by eminent members of their party, the Committee of Thirty-One including such men as Mr. Hughes, Mr. Hoover, Mr. Wickersham and others that if Mr. Harding were elected he would put this country into an association of nations. That assurance won many votes for Mr. Harding. But the promise has not been redeemed and the members of that committee cannot explain it.

Now here comes another promise with obvious intent to mollify the great exodus of republicans from their party on the eve of an election. This movement follows discontent and disgust for not only the domestic follies but the foreign follies of the administration. An assurance from the White House of administration repentance of its foreign policies might lure the wayward back home. But it's only a promise and a former promise was broken.

Persons who believe the United States should go into the World Court will believe it when they see it, not on the mere strength of an election eve promise.

Another matter that has never been explained is how the universe was assembled in the beginning without a board of control and a fact-finding commission.

Red Cross Gains Strength in All Foreign Fields

In insular possessions of the United States and in foreign lands the American Red Cross scored heavy gains during the last year, passing the previous membership high mark of 1918 by 4,261 and advancing the figure to 156,408. The Philippines take the lead, gaining nearly 100 per cent, now having 115,917 members. In Europe the 1921 Roll Call enrolled 11,125 with the Constantinople Chapter reporting 665, a gain of 33 members. China was 1,782 members, a gain of 596; the little Virgin Islands have 1,000, while the Dominican Republic with 2,927 advanced from its previous high mark by 1,423 new members. Haiti, organized in 1920, now has nearly 1,000 enrolled. Mexico reports 354, a gain of 327 in one year. The American Red Cross has spread its membership over some 70 foreign lands and its Junior membership outside of the United States is close to 700,000.

Red Cross Water First Aid Makes Life-Saving Gain

More than 325 Chapters engaged in life saving or water first aid last year with the result that the American Red Cross Life Saving Corps has set a new high mark for enrollment and the number of qualified life savers developed. The influence of "learn to swim week" in many localities is reducing the water fatalities through instruction and the wider dissemination of resuscitation methods demonstrated by the Red Cross representatives. Excellent work has been done in teaching a large part of the American population how to take care of itself in the water. Growing appreciation for this Red Cross Life-Saving Service is shown by the compulsory instruction adopted in many cities for members of the police and fire departments in the prone pressure method of resuscitation.

Help to Help Others

You can't "give until it hurts"—for giving an American dollar to join the American Red Cross helps you to help others who are hurt and who need relief.

Learning by experience does not benefit a man much if it is gained at a railroad crossing.

MISSOURI JUNIOR RED CROSSER GIVE CHILD SUNDAY CLOTHES

The Junior Red Cross members of Harrisonville, Mo., are very proud of the fact that they have enabled a little girl to go to Sunday School once more. The child had stayed at home for lack of proper clothes and the Juniors found it out and used some surplus funds which they had earned at a bazaar to purchase her the outfit.

This little girl now is the proud owner of a pink organdie dress, a pink ribbon, a blue gingham dress, hose and underwear. The gingham dress was made by one of the Juniors.

The children are enthusiastic over home work and tell the secretary that if ever she needs more help to "just whistle" and they will be right there.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD GIRL WINS RED CROSS LIFE SAVING CERTIFICATE

Ruth Elberfeld, 12 years old, daughter of "Kid" Elberfeld, manager of the Little Rock (Ark.) Baseball Club, has just received a certificate in the Red Cross Life Saving Course, which is usually issued only to adults. Ruth took the course in a class of girls, but her work was so far ahead of her age that she finally was put in the adult class. One of the extraordinary features in the course was the bringing in of a 160-pound man through the water for a distance of 50 yards, towing him and handling him in four different ways according to the requirements of the course.

IN THE SOUTHWESTERN DIVISION, AMERICAN RED CROSS, THE LAST YEAR—

521 chapters carried on active public service programs. 740 loans, aggregating $9,000, were made to ex-service men. Compensation claims of 47,344 former soldiers were adjusted. Many of these men also have been assisted in other ways. 8 Public Health Service hospitals and 11 Contract hospitals in the Division are manned by Red Cross medical social service workers. Nurses in the Southwestern Division—Have made 201,927 visits to cases, Have inspected 381,683 children, Have conducted 408 classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick. First Aid and Life Saving is being taught throughout the Division. There are 437,576 Junior Members of the Red Cross in this Division. $730,928.79 has been expended in disaster relief in the Southwestern Division. The Southwestern Division comprises the states of Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

OUR EDITOR SPEAKS

We love this town, there's nothing like it, however far and wide we hike it. We're glad we came, we gladly linger, and sling the type with skillful finger. Our feet and heart are over-size; with weal or woe we sympathize. We're tickled as that budding Beecher when church folks raise the local preacher. From Jimmy Smith's first wailing breath to when his eyes are closed in death, there's scarce a word or work or caper but interests the local paper. The member of the Ladies' Aid by whom the first-prize pie is made, we're good and glad to celebrate her, and if unwed, thus help to date her. Each doubting Thomas to convince, we give her recipe for mince and say our teeth have never sunk in a pie so pleasing as her pumpkin. When Minnie finds her latest pet as good as she will likely get, we print kind words about the wedding even though we fear they'll have hard sledding, felicitate the bride and groom, and hope to see the birth rate boom. We want the news; but want the rest. Send in the facts and keep them coming, we like them fresh and hot and humming. Send in the news, but search your heart; be sure it holds no poisoned dart. In all the world there is no cuss so mean as old anonymous. We go each night in peace to roost if we have done our daily boost; but nightmares come to fright and shock for every mean and measly knock.

Many a man is considerate—he does not worry his wife by telling her everything.

NOTORIOUS TRAIN ROBBER IS KILLED BY OFFICERS

Wittenburg, Mo., Nov. 3.—Jack Kennedy, veteran Missouri train robber, and Harvey Logan, a former railroad man, were shot and killed today by officers after they had robbed a mail car on a south-bound Frisco passenger train. They had stolen the mail and about 100 registered letters, which were recovered. Postoffice inspectors, Frisco special agents and deputy sheriffs were waiting near the scene of the robbery which was anticipated through the previous watching of Kennedy's movements. Kennedy had been representing himself as a quail hunter in this section for several weeks. Kennedy and his pal stopped the train, cut off the mail and express cars, ordered the engineer and fireman off, drove the two cars down the track and leaped from the train. They were shot while making for their automobile. Kennedy has a record of seven train robberies in three years. He served 12 years in the Missouri penitentiary for his latest robbery.

Suspect Held

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 3.—William T. Beboe, a former railroad worker, was arrested at West Memphis, Ark., and brought to Memphis today for questioning in connection with the Frisco robbery, in which Kennedy and Logan were killed. He was ordered held for the federal authorities. The robbery occurred near Station 76, in Missouri.

SULTAN LOSES JOB

London, Nov. 3.—A report that the Turkish Nationalist Assembly at Angora has passed a law suppressing the sultanate of Turkey and the law of succession to the throne is contained in a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from its Constantinople correspondent, who quotes dispatches from Angora. Such action would mean the sultan is deposed. In future, according to the dispatches, only a caliph in Turkey will be periodically elected. He will be without government prerogative, all power being in the hands of the national assembly.

A LESSON ON MALARIA

1. Question: What is malaria sometimes called?
Answer: It is often called: Chills and fever, malarial fever, bilious fever and congestive chills.

2. Question: What is the cause of malarial fever?
Answer: The presence of certain small germs in the blood.

3. Question: What is meant by germ?
Answer: Something that is alive and has the power to reproduce.

4. Question: How do malarial germs get into the blood of a person?
Answer: When certain kinds of mosquitoes bite persons that have malaria they take some of the malarial organisms into their stomachs. Then when they bite another person some of these organisms are injected into their blood.

5. Question: Is malaria acquired by eating improper food or drinking water?
Answer: No. In no other way than by the bite of an infected mosquito.

6. Question: Do all mosquitoes transmit malaria?
Answer: No. Only a few kinds.

7. Question: Where do these mosquitoes breed and thrive?
Answer: In still and sluggish water areas, also in tin cans, rain barrels and puddles with vegetation.

8. Question: How does malaria affect persons who have it?
Answer: Some people only feel dull languid and weak and irregularly sick, and others suffer severe illness and sometimes die.

9. Question: How can we protect ourselves against this disease?
Answer: (1) By destroying mosquitoes and mosquito breeding places. (2) By avoiding being bitten by a mosquito. (3) By thoroughly screening our houses and covering all standing water containers.

10. Question: How can we prevent mosquito breeding?
Answer: By filling shallow pools with dirt. 2 By cleaning tanks and stock ponds and stocking same with the right kind of fish. 3 By oiling other water areas. 4 By draining low places.

MAY RELEASE BOOZE SHIPS

Washington, Nov. 2.—Release of additional foreign vessels held by customs officials after seizure by the prohibition navy was forecast today at the treasury. Officials indicated that preliminary inquiry had failed in some pending cases to warrant further proceedings. All ships affected are understood to have been seized outside the three-mile limit.

MALARIA ERADICATION

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 3.—A movement to stamp out the mosquito in order to control the dengue fever and malaria in Texas will be begun at a conference to be held in Houston, on November 11. The conference has been called by the State Board of Health and local commercial organizations and county and city boards of health. The dengue fever and malaria have cost the state of Texas millions of dollars during the past year, according to figures submitted to the Texas Chamber of Commerce by the Texas State Board of Health. The death rate from neither of these diseases is high, yet hundreds of lives were lost during the past year, and a total of 4560 deaths in Texas due to malaria alone have been reported during the past twelve years. More than 400 persons are dying in Texas annually from malaria.

The economic loss is tremendous. Certain Texas counties which have been surveyed, show a record of more than 30,000 work-day losses annually due to malaria alone. This would mean the economic loss of fully $100,000 to such a county. Added to the annual scourge of malaria, the dengue fever appeared during the past season, striking hundreds of thousands of persons and causing the state millions of dollars of loss.

Among states of the South which have already begun warfare against the mosquito, the work of Alabama is noteworthy. In 1917, this state spent a total of $27,000 towards malaria control and the death rate per thousand for the state was twenty-three. During the four following years, the state spent, respectively, $41,000, $80,000, $163,000, $218,000 for malaria control, and the death rate per thousand from malaria dropped to sixteen in 1918, eleven in 1919, nine in 1920 and eight in 1921.

At the present time, the number of deaths in Texas due to malaria ranges between 400 and 500. Effective work is now being done in some East Texas counties. According to a wire received today by the Texas Chamber of Commerce, from the health officer at Jacksonville, a three-year campaign against the mosquito in that city has reduced the number of malaria cases ninety percent. A county campaign has been under way during the past year and will result in a reduction of about sixty percent in the number of cases in Cherokee county.

The general plan of campaign of the state-wide movement after the Houston conference will be through county and community units in co-operation with the state board of health.

The conference at Houston was called after the Texas Chamber of Commerce had received requests from commercial organizations, health officers and mayors of the following cities: Austin, Marshall, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Port Arthur, Rockdale, Hearne, Navasota, Hillsboro, Trinity, Temple, McAllen, Edinburg, Beaumont and Jacksonville. Telegrams endorsing the conference have also been transmitted to the Texas Chamber of Commerce through the State Board of Health from city officials at Fort Worth, Galveston, Waco, Bryan and other cities.

APPROVES DISMISSAL

Austin, Texas, Nov. 3.—The dismissal of Mike McNamara, deputy supervisor for the oil and gas division of the State Railroad Commission, was officially approved today when Commissioner Gilmore issued a statement sustaining the action. Earle B. Mayfield, a member of the commission, against whom McNamara testified at Corsicana, approved the action in a telegram to the commission yesterday. Chairman Allison Mayfield, however, filed a memorandum with the commission asking that McNamara be retained in his present position.

FATAL WRECK ON S. P.

Waco, Texas, Nov. 4.—A north-bound Southern Pacific train switched off the main line at Bremond early today and crashed into the rear of the Waco train standing on a siding. R. L. Willet of New York was killed and an unidentified man injured.

A Skilful Physician

When a Greek ruler ('way back in remote times) asked Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," what to take to be strong, he answered, "Take Nature's remedies—herbs!" Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would have pleased the great physician, for it is composed of herbs skilfully blended by competent chemists, and is one of the best tonics and blood purifiers.

DEAD IN PRIVATE CAR

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 2.—Thomas DeWitt Cuyler, a director of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and chairman of the Railroad Executives' Association, was found dead today in the private car of President Rea of the Pennsylvania in the Broad street station. Death was due to apoplexy. Cuyler was a lawyer, but most of his time was taken up with railroad and financial affairs. He came prominently before the country in the recent railroad strike by virtue of his position as chairman of the railway executives. He took a firm stand against some of the demands of the strikers, especially that relating to seniority. His age was 68 years. He was also a director of the Santa Fe system.

Parties holding stock in the Monkey-Grip Rubber Company (successors to the Motor Car Association of Fort Worth) are requested to see me before November 23d, as I leave on that date to attend a meeting of the company on the 24th. If you cannot attend this meeting, please leave me your proxy at the Commercial Guaranty State Bank. Dr. S. H. Robinson, Melrose, Texas. 2-37

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas County of Nacogdoches To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon W. C. Monroe and Monroe, partners, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return date hereof in some newspaper published in your county to appear at the next regular term of the county court of Nacogdoches county, to be held at the courthouse thereof in Nacogdoches on the 3d Monday in November, 1922, the same being the 20th day of November, 1922, then and there to answer to a petition filed in said court on the 5th day of July, 1921, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1629, wherein, A. J. Spradley is plaintiff and W. C. Monroe and Monroe are defendants. Said petition alleging that plaintiff is a resident of Nacogdoches county and defendants are persons who moved from place to place and have no fixed residence, and for cause of action, plaintiff represents that on or about the 1st day of June, A. D. 1921, at the special instance and request of the defendants, plaintiff sold defendants fifty thousand feet of hardwood timber for which defendants, and each of them, promised to and agreed to pay to plaintiff the sum of four dollars per thousand feet, due and payable as said timber was cut and shipped by the defendants. Plaintiff says that defendants were camped upon plaintiff's premises and cut said timber and sawed it into blocks and shipped over the Houston East and West Texas Railway Company's railroad, and while so camped on plaintiff's premises and so engaged in cutting said timber, defendants were using two horses which belonged to plaintiff and while using said horses negligently caused the death of both of them. That said horses were of the value of seventy-five dollars each and plaintiff says the defendants, and each of them, promised and agreed with plaintiff that they would pay him the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, the value of said horses. Plaintiff says that all of said indebtedness is due and though often requested, defendants have failed and refused and still refuse to pay plaintiff the sum of their indebtedness to him, which is the sum of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars, or any part thereof. Plaintiff says that he duly and regularly demanded of defendants the sum of said indebtedness more than thirty days prior to the filing of this suit and that he has employed attorneys to represent him and is entitled to a judgment for Twenty Dollars attorneys fees against defendants.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that citation issue to said defendants, and each of them, that upon a final hearing hereof, that he have judgment against said defendants, and each of them, for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars and for twenty dollar and fifty dollars the amount of his debt, and for twenty dollars attorneys fees, for cost of suit and for general and special relief. Herein fall not but have you before said court, on said first day of the next regular term thereof this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed same. Given under my hand and seal of said court in the town of Nacogdoches this the 12th day of October, A. D. 1922

(Seal) J. F. Ferritte, Clerk of the County Court of Nacogdoches, Texas. By Susie Massey, Deputy. W-19-26-2-9.

THE PATRIOTIC MERCHANTS OF NACOGDOCHES

With the approach of November 11th, which day causes the heart of every ex-soldier, sailor or marine to swell with pride for those surviving, and with a deep feeling of indebtedness and sincere gratitude for those who made the supreme sacrifice, The Baxter Duncan Post No. 86, American Legion, wishes to sincerely thank our merchants for their recognition and expression of their feeling as pure blooded Americans by unanimously agreeing to close up on the above date, and all Armistice Days to come.

The following is a list of those agreeably signing for the above purpose: Remembering our pledge of a few years ago to always close our stores on Armistice Day, November 11th, we will be closed on that day as agreed. We will have the assurance from the American Legion and the Boosters' Club that this will be advertised in all local papers.

Signed, Orton Furniture Store, Cox & Burrows, Greene & Muller, Miss Sweeney, Tucker, Hayter & Co., W. T. Lakey, Nacogdoches Battery Co., H. A. Loden, D. A. The following grocery stores have agreed to close their doors on Armistice Day, November 11th: Baxley & Barnett, Elmo Bright, Gatlin & Seale, McLain & Adams, J. G. Bailey, Branch & Patton, J. S. Jenkins, J. W. Tarrance, Slay Bros., O. A. Bright & Son, C. M. Bailey, Baxter Duncan Post No. 86, American Legion, Nacogdoches, Tex. R. N. Cason, Adj.

WODEN SCHOOL NEWS

November 1, this is the fourth week of the second month of our school. Everyone is doing their school work well and seem to be taking a great interest in everything that will help the up-building of our school.

We had a very interesting Halloween program Tuesday morning at chapel. The ghost drills and stories were the delight of the lower grades. Several of the students of this school attended the box supper at Oak Ridge Saturday night. They all report a pleasant time.

Mr. Archie Bass and Miss Alma Chisum, both of this community, were united in marriage Saturday night, October 28th. The bride is an old student of our school. We wish them a long and happy life.

We have our laboratory fitted up this year and intend to make our chemistry more interesting by making all the experiments that will be required. In this way our tenth grade will have no trouble in entering college next year.

There will be many improvements made in the Woden school this year. The people of this community are up and doing things and we expect soon to see the rewards of our efforts.

Mr. L. J. Chisum is going to Nacogdoches this afternoon as a representative of the Good Roads meeting.

Mr. R. M. Wedgeworth, superintendent of our school, went to the Dallas Fair Saturday.

Ray King and Tim Pike, after a long absence, are back in school. Several of our students are out of school, on account of helping with the syrup making.

One trouble with civilization is that it is not equipped with non-skid tires.

GOOD ROADS MEETING

A very interesting and enthusiastic good roads meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce office Thursday. The occasion was the meeting of the general citizens' committee named by the several communities in the county to assist the incoming court in planning a system of hard-surfaced roads to reach the people now without roads, and also to devise some plan of maintaining the hard-surfaced roads we now have.

This general committee was brought into existence by mass meetings in the several sections of the county, held October 17th. The first meeting of the committee was held on October 19, at which time it was agreed to meet again November 2.

Those present at Thursday's meeting were: From Appleby, A. B. Stoddard; from Garrison, Belton Latimer, R. B. Strickland; Alazan, J. N. Morgan, J. A. Tindal, W. J. Christopher; Eden, Andy Legg, Lem Harrison; Needmore, D. W. Redden; Cushing, L. N. Lyles; Douglass, B. K. King, Dr. Geo. P. Campbell; Chisum, T. J. Curl; Woden, L. J. Chisum; Etolie, Wylie Burnaman, G. F. Partin; Mahl, W. L. Lilly; Nacogdoches, A. T. Russell, M. S. Muckleroy, Carl Monk, S. W. Blount; Attoyac, N. G. Hargis; Swift, Delton Blanton, Joe Covington; Martinsville, Geo. Muckleroy, Ansel Fuller; Melrose, John D. Matthews.

The Good-Roads Committee of the Chamber of Commerce had prepared a large outline road map of the county, which was used as a basis of a study of the road requirements of the county. With this map as a basis of discussion, the entire day was spent in an effort to ascertain how the county could build a system of roads that would serve the greatest number of her citizens.

Belton Latimer, committeeman from Garrison, called attention to the fact that, with the exception of Cushing and Sacul, the towns of Nacogdoches county are fairly well served by our present hard-surfaced roads, and that any new system of roads would necessarily have to be so planned as to serve the rural communities. It was agreed that the principle laid down by Mr. Latimer was essentially correct and that it would serve as a guide to the entire committee.

The first section of the county to receive consideration was the Nat-Libert communities. The committee readily agreed that a hard-surfaced road should be built from a point on the Douglas road, one mile east of Douglass to Nat, and from Nat to Libert, a total of 8 miles of new road.

A study of the needs of the Alazan and Eden communities resulted in mapping the lower Douglas road to Legg's store, a distance of 14 miles. The Spanish Bluff road, it was agreed, should be built to Harmony schoolhouse, a distance of 6 miles.

A study of the needs of the northern portion of the county resulted in plans to build the Logansport road and cross the Carise, 6 miles and to build the old Garrison and Martinsville road, 15 miles. Also to build the Attoyac road from the intersection of the present highway one mile east of Melrose to Blackjack, and from Blackjack to a connection with the gravel road at Chisum, 9 1-2 miles. Also, it was agreed to build the Tyler road five miles from the city limits. The total mileage of new roads under this plan is 68 1-2.

In addition to this 68 1-2 miles of new construction, it is planned to complete the Cushing, Mt. Enterprise, Martinsville and Etolie roads, on which the county has already expended a little more than $300,000.

The committee is strongly of the opinion that the new roads to be built should be of a different type from our present gravel roads. By building the new roads only 16 feet wide, instead of 24 feet, and by following largely the natural contour of the land instead of cutting down hills, it is believed a much cheaper road can be built.

The meeting appointed H. L. McKnight, Judge A. T. Russell and Carl Monk as a committee to prepare a petition for a bond election for $1,000,000, to be spent as outlined above.

Under the ruling of the attorney general, when a petition for a road bond election recites the particular roads to be constructed, and when these same roads are also named in the court's order for the election, that the present and all future courts are bound by law to carry out the court's order by building the particular roads named and described in the petition and the court's order.

The general committee will meet again at the Chamber of Commerce office at 10 a. m., Thursday, November 9th, to study and pass on the petition prepared by Messrs. McKnight, Russell and Monk. In the meantime the committee will inspect each road to be built.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

SHIPS MUST SALUTE NEW TURKEY

Constantinople, Nov. 6.—The Turkish Nationalist government has handed a note to the Allied High Commissioners here to the effect that warships of all nations must ask it for authorization to pass the Straits of the Dardanelles, the Havas correspondent here has been informed. They must also salute the new government of Turkey.

WANT A CONSTITUTION

Manila, P. I., No. 2.—The Philippine senate today adopted unanimously a resolution asking the congress of the United States to authorize the Philippine legislature to call a constitutional convention to create a future independent republic in the Philippines and to determine what relation it should bear to the American government. The resolution was sent to the house of representatives.

MUST PAY DENGUE BENEFITS

Austin, Texas, Nov. 2.—Health benefit insurance companies in Texas that have refused benefits to individuals stricken with dengue fever today were notified that this disease is deportable and benefits are due from it, in a statement by State Health Officer Florence. Reports have been made that companies are refusing benefits on the ground that dengue is contagious, Florence said.

NO MARTIAL LAW

Austin, Texas, Nov. 2.—There is no probability that martial law will be declared at Marshall, the result of conditions in the open port law zone, it was declared at the adjutant general's department today. Adjutant General Barton went to Marshall last night at the suggestion of Governor Neff to make a personal investigation of the situation there.

MRS. WHITED PASSES AWAY

One of Shreveport's best known and most beloved women, Mrs. Kate Bowman Whited, wife of Frank T. Whited, has passed to the Great Beyond. Her death means the loss of a devoted wife and mother, a faithful religious worker, a true friend of humanity. Hers was a beautiful character, with influence and counsel for things that were worthy and helpful, and her going away deprives our community of one of its noblest citizens.

Among the friends of the family none perhaps is better qualified to speak of her Christian service than Dr. George S. Sexton, president of Centenary College, and formerly pastor of the First Methodist church, of which she was a devoted member. Dr. Sexton, voicing the sentiment of others fortunate enough to be among her friends and associates, paid this beautiful tribute:

"She was one of the noblest character I have ever known. As a devoted mother and a Christian character, she was beloved by a wide circle of relatives and friends. Her life was spent in active participation in deeds of kindness and charity. It was wonderful to see how her character and influence made her the center of a group of home people and friends. She unconsciously inspired love and friendship by her kindly spirit and loving disposition."

Mrs. Whited was devotedly interested in things that led to brighter, happier and more useful lives, and unhesitatingly performed many deeds of kindness and exerted many efforts in the direction of public welfare, and in the cause of her Heavenly Father. Her interest and influence were enlisted for numerous causes and individuals. Her life was a record of many accomplishments.

The above editorial in the Shreveport Journal of Sunday morning is a just and merited tribute to a noble woman. It was the privilege of many Nacogdoches people to know her. She was the mother of Mr. H. W. Whited of this city, who has the sympathy of all in his irreparable bereavement.

HYMENIAL

Lee Hensarling and Miss Oma Barrett of the Melrose community were married by Rev. S. D. Dollahite at his home in the city at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the presence of several friends of the contracting parties.

D. M. Hayes and Miss Era Turpin of Garrison were married at the county clerk's office at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by County Judge J. M. Marshall.

Willie Sharp and Miss Fronie Sanders of Chireno were married at the courthouse Wednesday by Judge Frank Huston.

Ernest, Jr., 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eddings, sustained a compound fracture of one of his arms when he was tripped by a playmate at school Thursday. One of the bones of the arm had been broken about three years ago at the same place as the recent break, and it is said the unfortunate lad may always have a stiff arm. We hope, however, that this is an error and that he may soon be entirely recovered.

Dr. Tucker of Nacogdoches was here yesterday visiting with his friend, Dr. Ellington, who is confined in the hospital here following an operation. Dr. Ellington is doing nicely. While here Dr. Tucker was called into consultation with local physicians, to see Mrs. Ross Hopkins, who is quite ill. Mrs. Hopkins is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. MRS. MARX SAYS IT PROVED A BLESSING

"Tanlac helped me out of a sick bed and built me up to better health than I have enjoyed in years," declared Mrs. M. Marx, 2212 Benton st., St. Louis, Mo.

"My stomach troubled me so much for two or three years I finally collapsed in a nervous breakdown. Gas would form in my stomach and bring on awful spells of heart palpitation, shortness of breath, headaches and dizzy spells. My back pained me, too, and I was so nervous and miserable I could not sleep.

"What four bottles of Tanlac did for me was a most pleasant surprise, for today I haven't a single trace of my old troubles. I will always bless the day I got this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

RED CROSS WINNING IN FIGHT FOR HEALTH

Better, Stronger Citizenry Now
Emerging Out of Work in United States.

The American Red Cross as an evangelist of better health has looked its problem square in the face. How it accepted the task revealed to it in the nation's physical condition as brought out during the World War, and conscientiously applied its activities to correction forms a vivid chapter in the forthcoming annual report. Historically and practically, nursing is a basic work for the Red Cross. In its public health nursing service, in instruction in home hygiene and care of the sick, nutrition classes, first aid and life saving courses and health centers, the American Red Cross is applying effectually the lessons learned during the war and making for a healthier, stronger and better nourished citizenry.

The task of the Red Cross Public Health nurse in the 1,240 nursing services now operating throughout the country instructing their communities in health essentials and disease prevention is demonstrating the possibilities of human betterment and the great benefits of enlightenment.

During the last year 313 new public health nursing services were established by Red Cross Chapters, and several hundred services so convincingly proved their effectiveness that they were taken over by public authorities. In order to promote this work $30,000 was allotted to provide women to prepare themselves for public nursing. The home visits made by the 1,240 nurses aggregated nearly 1,500,000 visits to schools numbered 140,000, and in six months 1,250,000 school children were inspected by these nurses and where defects were found advised examination by physicians. In rural communities this service has made a very marked advance and has won thousands of converts to approved methods of disease prevention.

In home hygiene and care of the sick instruction, which fits the student in methods of proper care where illness is not so serious as to require professional service, the Red Cross conducted 3,884 classes during the last year, enrolled 2,356 instructors, 93,448 students and issued 42,636 certificates.

On June 30, 1922, nutrition service embraced 1,199 classes, with a total of 27,523 children and 2,589 enrolled dietitians. Seventy-eight food selection classes graduated 733 who received Red Cross certificates. In general health activities Red Cross Chapters maintained 377 health centers, serving as many communities, provided 38,751 health lectures for large audiences everywhere, while clinics numbered over 10,000.

MRS. F. P. WHITED

Mrs. F. P. Whited, mother of our fellow-townsmen, H. W. Whited, died in Shreveport Friday after a lingering illness. It is said those who knew her best loved her most, and are genuinely grieved at her passing. The Sentinel joins in sympathy for the bereaved family.

The funeral was held and interment made in Shreveport Saturday.

Dr. J. H. Ellington of San Augustine is confined in a local hospital here on account of an operation. Dr. Ellington is well known in this county and until a year ago resided and practiced medicine at Patroon. He is doing nicely from the operation and will soon be able to return to his home—Center Champion, 1st.

In Ireland, they still point to the place where Sir Walter Raleigh planted the potatoes he brought with him from America. The venturesome knight was much impressed with the edible qualities of potatoes and touted them highly to his friends. But in spite of his efforts to popularize the spud, it was a half a century or more before it became an article of general consumption abroad.

Today, a new food product becomes nationally known almost overnight. Modern methods of distribution quickly place it in thousands of stores. Advertising tells the public about in newspapers. People try it, like it, and shortly it is in general use throughout the country.

By the same means American manufacturers—through advertising—are putting within your reach many of the boons of modern life. Without advertising, we would lack many of the comforts and conveniences that go to make life what it is in this year of grace.

Advertising keeps your information up-to-snuff on every article of human need, whether it be food, clothing, articles of household utility, necessities or luxuries

TRINITY SCHOOL NOTES

School is progressing nicely. We have a 105 percent enrollment and 93 percent attendance for the first month's report.

Fairview basket ball boys came over Friday afternoon and gave us a square deal in a game. The score was 16 to 18 in favor of Fairview, but we hope to have a different report soon.

The Trinity pupils met Friday afternoon and organized a literary club, "The Excelsior" decided to arrange chairman and Thomas Lovell secretary. A program committee was appointed and after some discussion, "The Excelsior" decided to arrange a newspaper of school and community interest to be read by the selected editor-in-chief semi-monthly.

At our box supper Saturday night the pupils and patrons as well as the teachers were glad to listen to an interesting talk by Mr. C. C. Denman, an ex-teacher of Trinity. Superintendent Exier M. Lewis followed Mr. Denman, giving several items of rural educational interest in Texas, especially those pertaining to Nacogdoches county. Among the many things she mentioned was the fact that no school will receive more than $20 state aid this year. So let's get busy and make Trinity worthy of all that is allowed any school. How about it?

After her address, Miss Lewis, assisted by Mr. Denman, auctioned off our 34 nicely prepared boxes which were presented by the ladies of the community. The boxes, the ugly man contest and most popular lady contest all totaled $76.08, which will be used for the general improvement of school equipment.

Watch for the announcements of "The Excelsior," something may happen at Trinity yet.

Who'd ye say? What'd ye say?
Why can't you guess?
Trinity? Trinity?
Yes! Yes! Yes!

Marguerite and Robert Wilson, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, are reported very ill of dengue. The Sentinel hopes these bright little people will soon be out again.

During the late futile effort to keep the Turk out of Europe it was strange no one thought of the Daugherty solution.

MT. MORIAH LOCALS

Health of this place isn't very good at this writing.

Mrs. Cates Muckleroy is a victim of the dengue fever.

Mr. Jim Dennis of Houston is visiting his father, Mr. M. B. Dennis.

We had real good success with our box supper Friday night. Our total receipts were $60.50.

Mrs. Laura Judd of Tyler is visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Adams.

Mr. Elmer Dennis is visiting his brother, John, at Hull, Texas.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chandler, an 8-pound girl.

Miss Theresa Mills of Libby won the cake at the box supper for being the prettiest girl.

Mr. Richard Stokes spent the weekend with his father, John Stokes, of Palestine.

Mr. Paul May of Shady Grove visited Mr. Richard Stoker Wednesday night.

Best wishes to the Sentinel and its many readers.

The City Council at its meeting Tuesday passed an ordinance taking the Stephen F. Austin Normal grounds, comprising 208 acres, into the city limits. This was requested by the board of regents some time ago, but action was delayed pending a proposition to incorporate other districts in the neighborhood of the normal grounds, which matter was not yet been settled.

NACOGDOCHES' LOSS

Rev. M. C. Johnson, who has been pastor of the Main Street Presbyterian church here for more than 10 years, has accepted a call from the Presbyterian church at Hillsboro and will move to that point in the near future if the call is approved by this Presbytery, which will hold a meeting at Jacksonville on November 11th.

Rev. Mr. Johnson is stated clerk and chairman of mission work in East Texas and the state of Louisiana in the Presbytery of Jefferson, which controls the church's affairs in this section, and is also an active Mason, being prelate of the Nacogdoches commandery, and past grand prelate of the state.

Expressions of regret at his departure are coming in from all the communities and towns where Dr. Johnson has been associated.

INVITATION TO GO TO 'DOCHES GIVEN

From the Lufkin News, 7th.

This morning the Rotary club of Nacogdoches telephoned an invitation to the Lufkin Lions club to meet with the 'Doches Rotarians in that city on the evening of Wednesday, November 15. The invitation was telephoned today to President C. N. Humason of the Lufkin club by Rotarian Tom Baker of Nacogdoches.

The hour set for the meeting of the two clubs in Nacogdoches is 7 o'clock in the evening. President Humason stated this morning that he felt sure the invitation would be accepted by the Lions club here and that the start should be made from Lufkin not later than 6 o'clock in the evening of that day.

The suggestion was made by Mr. Humason that the Lions meet at the chamber of commerce rooms preparatory to starting. In that way, all Lions could line up their cars and go in a body and all arrive in the neighbor city at the same hour. Tuesday, November 14 is the day the Lions meet in Lufkin, being just one day before the date set for the meeting in Nacogdoches.

WORLD'S WETTEST SPOT

Here's one of the wettest spots in the world. The annual rainfall record at the station of the United States Weather Bureau, located on the upper slopes of puu Kukui, Island of Maui, Hawaiian group, is 662 inches. The Puu Kukui gauge stands at an elevation of 5,000 feet. For many years the summit of Mount Waialeale, Kauai, has been accounted the wettest spot in the islands and one of the wettest in the world, but the new record of Puu Kukui defeats it.

Mr. Greer Orton and son, Greer, Jr., will leave Tuesday night for Houston, where the lad will be examined by experts for the determination of the nature of a malady which has puzzled our local physicians for several months. The Sentinel hopes that relief will come promptly and permanently.

Miss Iola Mae Kimball left at noon for Nacogdoches to be in attendance upon the Epworth League Institute there today and tomorrow.—Lufkin News, 4th.
