WITH THE SCHOOLS

TEACHERS' COLLEGE

The Dramatic Club
At the beginning of the school year of the S. F. A. S. T. C., a relatively large group of students assembled together to organize a Dramatic Club. The club voted for the name of Karle Wilson Baker Dramatic Club, in honor of Mrs. Baker of our city, and with her permission it shall hold that title. The membership was limited to 25 and the total was reached on November 15. Thus far the club has been engaged in the study of the drama and the work assigned for the remainder of the term is to help Miss Pritchett and Miss Mays with a Christmas program to be rendered at the end of the term.

The next term we expect to begin the study of plays and hope to stage one, probably more, also we expect them to be extra good as the material shows up excellently. Everyone seems most interested in the club and some have had experience in dramatic work. Watch the Dramatic Club!

HIGH SCHOOL

Senior Nite

To prove that the Senior Class of '24 is the peppiest yet, they indulged Friday night in the most enjoyable social event of the term, a wiener roast staged in Aqua Vitae Park. Most of the members and several of the faculty attended, and all pronounced a good time. Good eats were present galore, which is perhaps the main reason the event was so enjoyed.

After the roast all went to the picture show, then several went, after the show, to the home of Lella Wilson, where there was dancing and conversation.

The party broke up at 11:30 though several girls remained and staged a slumber party. The guests were universal in declaring they had a good time.

Glee Club

Under the direction of Miss Edna Matthews a high school Glee Club was organized last Tuesday. It's the first time the boys and girls have been organized together and with such capable leadership. We feel that after a little practice there will be something doing in a musical way. The following is a list of officers: Miss Edna Matthews, director; Mrs. Thomas, pianist; Carolyn Sturdevant, assistant pianist; Louise Blount, president; Otha Carter, secretary; Noel Pack, treasurer; Edgar McKinney, business manager.

Senior Play

As is always the custom of the Seniors, we are getting together material and principals for a play to be given some time in December, entitled "All of a Sudden Peggy." This play is full of pep from start to finish and will be as amusing and entertaining as any of the previous class plays. The following Seniors compose the line-up: Lois Fitch, Noel Pack, Lella Wilson, Vinita Hughes, Louise Blount, Edgar McKinney, Herbert Allan, Wilbur Fouts, Joseph Lockey, Albert Robinson and Felix Tucker.

The play is to be directed by Miss Hughes and Miss Stephens.

Foot Ball

Next Friday, Doches High School will play Henderson Hi at the ball park here. They promise a fast game. Don't miss it.

The bottom has fallen out of our shoe prices. We have quite a nice line of gentlemen's dress shoes. Some of them cost over five dollars, some of them cost over four dollars. We are going to let you take the pick out of dress shoes for three dollars and fifty cents, regardless of what they cost. We can sell you a pair of men's work shoes for one dollar and sixty-five cents and up. We still have a few pairs of those canvas slippers with leather soles and heels for only seventy-five cents. They are easily worth two dollars. Any pair of ladies' dress shoes in the house for two dollars and fifty cents. Some of them we sold for five dollars. Good solid leather every day shoes for ladies for two dollars and up. C. W. BUTT. 20-1dw1.

The successful contestants in the slogan trial for the Chevrolet car will receive a good price for the work. All school children are eligible. Read the advertisement. 22-1lw

STRONG STRING TIED TO PROPOSED GERMAN LOAN

Berlin, Nov. 20.—With regard to the reports of the impending conclusion of an Anglo-American loan to Germany, the Borsen Courier says today that negotiations are in progress between a well-known Berlin bank and a group of American, British and Dutch financiers for a credit to Germany of $1,400,000,000 gold marks. The granting of this credit, the newspaper says, is dependent upon the conditions that there be no change in the internal political situation in Germany and that the offer is only to be made to the Stresemann government.

WALTON IS OUSTED

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 20.—Governor J. C. Walton was removed from office by the state senate court of impeachment at 3:52 p. m. yesterday.

The verdict was unanimous. The conviction was on article 19, charging abuse of pardon and parole authority. Conviction on one count only was necessary for removal. The vote was 41 to 0.

WALTON WILL FIGHT

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 20.—A statement reiterating his determination to continue the fight was issued today by J. C. Walton, who was removed from office as governor last night by the senate court of impeachment. "Only rats leave a ship in distress," the deposed executive asserted. "A few have deserted me in this fight. The ship is not sinking; it is only a shadow they see in the water."

TEXTBOOK LITIGATION

Austin, Texas, Nov. 20.—Further effort by the American Book Company to compel the use of its textbooks in the public schools of Texas was made here today when E. F. Spith of Houston, attorney for the company, filed in the Supreme Court an application to present a motion for a writ of mandamus against Superintendent of Public Instruction Marrs. This step follows the recent action of the State Board of Education, which set aside $1,500,000 for purchase of text books ordered by Marrs to comply with the contract previously made with the American Book Company.

KILLED BY CAVE-IN

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 20.—Three men working on a sewage line were suffocated today. They were working 26 feet underground when the wall gave way, tons of earth falling upon them. The dead are James Casper, Stanley Bactovich and John Kanarek, all of Milwaukee.

ASKS SOLONS TO RECESS

Oklahoma City Okla., Nov. 20.—Announcement was made at the office of Governor M. E. Trapp today that the state legislature would be asked to recess at once until the second week in January.

WAITING FOR INSTRUCTIONS

Paris, Nov. 20.—The meeting of the Council of Ambassadors, called for this afternoon, will not be held, it was announced after Lord Crewe, the British ambassador, notified the secretariat that his government, owing to stress of business, was unable to communicate his instructions in time for today's meeting. The instructions are expected to arrive in time for the meeting tomorrow.

May Reach Agreement

London, Nov. 20.—British government officials considered today that all danger of disagreement with France on the question of the ex-crown prince and the resumption of inter-allied military control in Germany had passed. It was expected the Council of Ambassadors would reach a compromise unless unforeseen obstacles interposed at the last moment.

MAYOR FOUND DEAD

Yonkers, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Mayor Walter Taussig was found today in a garage behind his home, with a revolver near him, and was taken to a hospital, where he died from a bullet wound believed by the police to have been self-inflicted.

GERMAN BANKER DEAD

Berlin, Nov. 20.—Dr. Rudolph Havestein, president of the Reichsbank, is dead.

COOLIDGE WANTS LEGION'S LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Washington, Nov. 21.—At the request of President Coolidge, officials of the American Legion have sent to the White House a comprehensive statement outlining the organization's legislative program for the coming session of congress. The statement embodies the legislative proposals endorsed at its last national convention, including the bonus bill and the centralization of all Veterans legislation in a single committee in both senate and house.

MORE GRIEF FOR WALTON

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 21.—The application of J. C. Walton, deposed governor, for a restraining order to set aside the verdict of the senate impeachment court by which he was removed from office, was dismissed today by Judge J. M. Cotten in United States District Court here. Walton announced he would appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Expects Immediate Arrest

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 21.—J. C. Walton, deposed governor, appeared at the Oklahoma county courthouse at noon today and announced that he expected to be indicted by the county grand jury and intended to be ready to submit to immediate arrest. He said he did not know what the expected indictment would charge. County officials advised the former executive to return at 2 o'clock, when the grand jury is scheduled to report. All information obtained by the legislative committee which formed the basis for his impeachment was turned over to the grand jury recently.

CROCKETT LIONS ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Crockett Courier, 15th.
The Lions' Club, at its regular noon luncheon Wednesday, had as its guests H. L. McKnight of Nacogdoches and W. T. Bruton, H. (Jack) Driskell, Herman Rich and W. H. Collins of Lovelady. Mr. McKnight, who was formerly connected with the A. & M. College, is now secretary of the Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce. Being an authority on the subject of improved highways, he was called on for a talk on that subject and responded in a pleasing manner. His talk was perhaps the most impressive of the many that have been made before the club. He said so many good things that the Courier cannot even attempt an outline of them. Following the luncheon Mr. McKnight was met by a committee of citizens and some speaking dates arranged for points on the eastern end of the San Antonio road in Houston county. Appointments were made for Wednesday night, Thursday and Friday, and Mr. McKnight was accompanied by a delegation of citizens to fill the appointments.

The club is indebted to Miss Nell Beasley for piano music and to Miss Esther Mae Ellis for a humorous reading of her first visit to a baseball game.

DAMAGES ORPHANAGE

Damage to the extent of about $20,000 was inflicted on the Christian Home Orphanage at Council Bluffs, Iowa, by floods from excessive rains and cloudbursts in the nights of September 28 and 29. Every building at this great institution was damaged, the heating, lighting and power plants rendered useless for several days, and the storerooms in the basements of the buildings were flooded and thousands of dollars worth of supplies ruined. This is the worst catastrophe that has ever befallen this work, and comes as a serious blow to the institution which was already struggling to free itself from debt. This institution is non-sectarian, receives orphan and destitute children from all parts of the country and is supported entirely by the voluntary contributions of charitable people. It is appealing to the public for a Thanksgiving offering to help overcome the losses by the recent floods and to meet running expenses in the daily care of two hundred and fifty inmates. We have had calls from those in distress in foreign climes and have responded to them. Here is a good work right here at home that has met serious trouble and is now asking us for help. Let all send something at Thanksgiving and help put the home of those little children back on its feet. Address The Christian Home Orphanage, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

FREESTONE TO VOTE ON MILLION DOLLAR ROAD BOND

As an illustration of the influence of organized effort intelligently directed, the road bond issue now pending in Freestone county is typical. For some years now Freestone county has had the sorriest roads to be found in Texas—almost. The county seat of Freestone county is just an "inland" village without railroad communications. Fairfield, the county seat, is a quiet, quaint little village of probably 400 people. The town was larger before the civil war than it is today. The people are good, law-abiding and intelligent—but not progressive. Some outside influence is nearly always necessary to start enthusiasm and progress in such places. The Lone Star Trail Association, through its secretary, Mr. J. M. Hughes, held two meetings in Freestone county, one at Teague and one at Fairfield, and as a direct result of these meetings, the county will soon vote on a road bond issue of one million dollars which, if it carries, will be used in part to build a direct East-to-West highway across Freestone county. And this highway will be the Lone Star Trail. It will be a very important link in a highway long needed by our people—a direct highway to the West.

Organized effort intelligently directed will solve every problem confronting our people. It is the direct means of solving our highway problem. And the Lone Star Trail Association is just an organization of forward-looking citizens whose combined energies are intelligently directed. It merits and deserves the wholehearted support of our people. It certainly does.

TO CONSERVE CHILD HEALTH

Austin, Texas, Nov. 21.—Of the 107,000 persons killed in 1921 by tuberculosis in the United States, nearly 6,000 were children under five years of age. Tuberculosis is not hereditary and most authorities agree that few babies become infected in their first year. With proper food, plenty of fresh air, sunshine, intelligent health habits, proper exercise and sufficient sleep, persons who have been infected need not develop the disease.

To discover tuberculosis in time special nurses should be provided to visit schools and homes. They instruct mothers and immediately upon noting that a child is tuberculous or has any symptoms such as adenoids, tonsils, decayed teeth, poor posture, or is malnourished, they would have that child examined by a physician.

After such conditions have been discovered, it is necessary that the state and counties provide adequate facilities to care for them such as open-air schools, preventoria, or summer camps. The 33d legislature passed a law which makes it possible for every county in the state to have a county tuberculosis sanatorium.

The Texas Public Health Association, supported by the Christmas seals, is stressing the construction of county sanatoria as one phase of their anti-tuberculosis work.

TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION

Washington, Nov. 20.—An appropriation of more than $10,000,000 for the work of the prohibition bureau during the next fiscal year was said by prohibition officials today to have been included in the treasury estimates submitted to the director of the budget. The estimates include $1,250,000, an increase of $500,000 over last year's allotment, for the enforcement of the Harrison act, which is administered by the narcotic division of the prohibition unit.

IN HANDS OF JURY

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 21.—The jury which heard for five weeks the evidence in the case of Dr. Frederick Cook and thirteen others, charged with oil fraud promotion, began its deliberations this morning. There is no indication as to when a verdict may be expected.

GINNINGS TO NOVEMBER 14

Washington, Nov. 21.—Cotton ginned prior to November 14 totaled 8,368,683 running bales, compared with 8,869,978 bales to that date last year, the Census Bureau announced today. Texas ginned 3,701,196 bales.

KIDNAPED BOY FOUND DEAD

New York, Nov. 20.—The body of Irving Pickelny, four and a half years old, kidnaped from in front of his Grand street home on October 26, was found today in the cellar of a Suffolk street tenement house.

SCIENTISTS SOLVE SECRET OF BIRTH OF KANGAROO

Chicago, Nov. 20.—A kangaroo at birth weighs about eight or nine grains, is a trifle more than an inch long and not thicker than an ordinary lead pencil, according to George F. Morse, Jr., of the Chicago Zoological Society.

How the baby kangaroo was born was until recently a mystery to zoologists, Mr. Morse said, because, being a pouch animal, the actual birth was difficult to witness.

"One day I noticed that one of our kangaroos was acting strangely, so I got the head keeper to put it in a separate room used for the observation of animals," Mr. Morse declared. "We watched very closely for a long time and finally were rewarded by the appearance of a tiny thing not more than an inch long and not broader than a lead pencil. It was a perfectly formed kangaroo, with the exception of the hind legs, the matured kangaroo's powerful propeller. These developed as the baby animal grew. The front legs, however, were perfectly formed and were used by the baby to climb back into the mother's pouch where it remains for a period of seven months."

A GOOD ROADS ARGUMENT

We quote from the official organ of the Dairyman's League:

"A farmer of the famous Aroostock potato-growing section of Maine, has 160 acres devoted to potatoes, seven and one-half miles from market, producing 24,000 barrels of potatoes a year, and found it impossible to deliver the potatoes in season.

On account of the road bed between farm and railroad, one team of horses could only haul 20 barrels of potatoes at a trip. It would have taken 1,200 working days with one team—to haul a little more than three years—to haul the potato crop to market. It would take twenty teams and twenty drivers to do the work in season, which would cost more than $6,000.

"A motor truck was put to work, and based on the old price of 25 cents a barrel for hauling the potatoes by horses. This truck paid for itself the first season, hauling 24,000 barrels."

This is not an advertisement of the motor truck. Any motor truck would do it, provided it had the road and no motor truck could do it unless it had a good road over which to travel.

This is not an advertisement of potato farming. The same economy may be had with any produce, whether lettuce or grain, hay or onions, alfalfa or corn, or if there is a good road over which to haul it. No crop, no matter how profitable to raise, is as profitable to sell, if it has to be marketed over a poor road.

This is an advertisement of the need of good roads!

For if there had been too heavy a road grade, which cut down horse hauling to the point where the price was prohibitive, the motor truck, which could make it, could have made it at twice the speed or double the load and half the cost.

Mud stalls the horse. Grade cuts down his load. Mud stalls the truck. Grade cuts its speed. "Load" and "Speed", as used here, are both synonyms for "profit." Good roads, proper grades, quick, sure, heavy hauling at low cost. That's the answer to the farmers' need of some way to make his business pay better.

When the farmers of the United States unitedly say that they must have good roads everywhere, they will get them.

TO USE HELIUM GAS

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 21.—The army dirigible TC-3 left San Antonio early today for Fort Worth, where it will take on a new supply of helium gas and will return to San Antonio later in the week to participate in the aerial circus to be repeated at Kelly Field Sunday for the benefit of the army relief fund.

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 21.—The TC-3, the dirigible which left San Antonio this morning at 5:30 o'clock, reached Fort Worth at 11.

THIRTY-FIVE CENT COTTON

New York, Nov. 21.—December cotton crossed the 35 cent mark shortly after the opening of the market today, a new high record for the season and the highest price since 1920. It rose to 35.10 on heavy mill and commission house buying.

Can You Save $100?

If you are careful with your earnings, can you save $100 every year? Not such a great amount, is it? You could do it if you would try.

Well, here's what would happen to you if you started in at 20 years of age, depositing $100 every year at compound interest and leaving it alone. If you lived to be 70 years of age, your total at the bank would be over $30,000. Worth trying, isn't it?

EARLY CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

The slogan, "Do your Christmas shopping early," has been repeated so often that most persons do not take it as seriously as it deserves. Large numbers of them regard it as a plan of the merchants to sell goods out of season, rather than to be of service to the individual.

The people of this country are generous purchasers of gifts at the holiday period, and many of them are inclined to go to the limit of their financial inclination, and sometimes ability, in order to buy the right gifts which they desire for members of their families or for friends.

The argument for doing holiday buying early—even so early as the present, when prices on many useful articles are being marked much lower than they have been for some time—are just as sound as they were when the early buying proposal was first made. Many articles suitable for holiday gifts are being offered at lower prices now than they probably will be when the holiday spirit becomes infectious.

Nearly all merchants would much rather have the buying for holiday purposes cover a number of weeks than to crowd the business into the 10 days before Christmas. And there is reason to believe that adoption of the practice by many more persons would be found just as satisfactory to the buyer as to the seller.

Persons who are looking for bargains in staple articles for holiday gifts should not retain the idea that it is too soon to obtain bargains in the things they seek. Toys and other articles of a more strictly holiday character will be on display in due time, but the wise buyers will be found "looking around a bit" even before the merchants themselves feel strongly for pressing the injunction to "buy early."

ANSWER "HERE!"

The annual Red Cross roll call is now under way. Until Thanksgiving day effort will be directed to continuing every membership through 1924 and adding many new names to the almost universal list. It is to be hoped that response will be unanimous, for it is especially important that in its development into a great agency for mercy in peace the organization shall be unhampered. Only if the society is maintained with ample reserves and unimpaired facilities can it hold itself ready for those emergencies which come swiftly and without warning.

The task to which the Red Cross plans to devote itself is of importance to every citizen. It proposes not only to minister to suffering, but to prevent suffering. The field for this labor is vast. The education of the people at large in the fundamental principles of hygiene, the prevention of conditions from which epidemics of disease arise, the ceaseless research from which epochal discoveries come—these are some of the major works. Ambitious plans have been prepared; a start has been made; the work must go on.

Membership in the American Red Cross is the symbol of interested citizenship. So little is asked from each, so much has been given to all, that it is a privilege rather than a duty to participate in the service of love of "The Greatest Mother in the World."

THE WARNING HORN

Announcement is made of a new automobile horn which has "a rolling tone that gives warning yet does not rattle the nerves, but when emergency requires, descends to a tigrish roar."

Many persons, pedestrians and motorists alike, will see in this new hope for frazzled nerves. The type of horn now generally used is so harsh, raucous and strident that as automobile traffic increases, with consequent increase in the frequency of warning blasts, any downtown section or dangerous corner tends to become a "hellam."

Nobody has ever explained why it should be necessary to scare a person to death in order to convey a warning to him. Automobile horns may not drive sensitive people to sanitariums, but they are an important part of the growing volume of auditory offenses which multiply the patronage of such institutions. While solving other traffic problems, the experts, aided perhaps by musicians and neurologists, might pay a little attention to the quality of motor horns.—Ex.

A GREAT BEQUEST

Retaining only enough preferred stock to assure him an income for life, all the holdings of M. S. Hershey, multi-millionaire chocolate and candy manufacturer, amounting to $60,000,000, have been turned over to the Hershey Industrial School, at Hershey, Pa., the site of Mr. Hershey's old homestead. The huge trust fund makes the orphan school, with its present 120 inmates, second only to the Girard College of Philadelphia in wealth. Mr. Hershey started life as a candy maker for Huyler's, in New York, saved $150 and then started in business for himself. "I was born poor, and I realize the hardships of poor boys today," he said, speaking of his gift. "I am going to assist poor boys to learn trades and become self-supporting."

IF TEDDY CAME BACK.

An old phenomenon which has developed so unobtrusively in political outgivings lately that it has aroused no especial comment, but which is nevertheless remarkable when one considers its extent, is the tendency to cite the words and deeds of Theodore Roosevelt as a precedent today for one political course or another.

Not that Rooseveltian precedent is not customarily sound, or the weight given it excessive. Few men in the history of these times have shattered more old gods and supplanted them with precedents founded on ordinary sense. The oddity of the phenomenon grows from the fact that the Roosevelt tradition is being lugged in almost exclusively to support the case of someone, statesman or writer, who made a better business of heaping anathema on that gentleman when he was alive. It is almost invariably the reactionary, the ultra-conservative who fought Roosevelt tooth and nail during his life, who cites his policies and preachings to bolster up a present cause.

Apparently the name of Roosevelt is destined to immortality with those of Lincoln and Washington as a source of enduring political truth, a source available alike to friend and former foe. If T. R. came back he would derive great humor from knowing the uses to which his philosophies are being put today by old enemies. But, alas, it is not now possible for him to know how many staunch disciples he created when he died.

SPEED.

Speed is the most interesting thing to this generation. Now that an airman flies at a rate of more than four and a half miles a minute takes precedence as news over grave speeches by world statesmen, European revolution, banditry at home. But that speed by Brow and Williams is not of interest chiefly in and of itself, but because it holds out promise of something—in the not too distant future—that has saved half a hour a day for many millions.

Turn anywhere and the thing that most interests the multitude is speed. In every great American city, the topic of chief discussion is traffic, how to speed it up. If a new boulevard promises to save a few minutes a day for thousands, the multitude cries, "Build it." If a tunnel, a bridge, a subway promises to eliminate wasted hours, citizens demand that it be bored, built, digged.

It is not so long ago that we were content with an easier, wasteful way. When the typewriter made its advent many laughed. But the typewriter taught man the economy, the ease, the joy of speed. Quickly followed intensive use of wires and now wireless; the automobile and now the airplane; the street railway; the elevated; and now the subway.

After all, time is our most precious earthly possession. We are here such a little while.

LINCOLN—BARTENDER

Houston Post. Interest in the life of Lincoln increases instead of diminishes as time goes on. Different phases of his career are constantly being brought out.

Lately a student of Lincoln lore has been writing about the time that Lincoln operated a saloon. In reality, this is not a new discovery, though the fact has been pretty well obscured in recent years.

The revived account of Lincoln as a saloon keeper is reminder of the story of Lincoln's reply to Douglas in a joint debate during the course of which Douglas charged Lincoln with having been a dealer in liquor.

Lincoln did not deny the charge. He admitted that he had been forced to take a saloon in the settlement of a debt, and that he had found it necessary to operate the business for a time personally. "But while I was 'tendin' bar on the inside, my opponent was 'tendin' bar on the outside—my best customer," is the way the legend runs.

If France gets anything, of course those who condemn her methods will refuse to share in the dividends.

The drop in prices noted by Fisher's index indicates that there are more delicate instruments than the selsmograph.

Think of the effort indicated by words connected with the coal business. For example: Dig, load, haul, gouge.

CAPT. JIM TRUITT OF SHELBY IN MEMORIAM

By Henry C. Fuller

On the 23rd day of August, 1922, there passed to his eternal resting place at the home of his son, Henry Truitt, near the town of Tenaha, in Shelby county, Texas, Capt. Jim Truitt, one of the true noblemen of nature, a gentleman, a knight on whose escutcheon there was no record but that of honor, integrity and high public service. Not only should this man be remembered for the high excellence of his public service, but in the hearts of thousands of people who knew and loved him best, as he came and went his way from year to year in Shelby county, all will remember his impersonal and unselfish service in behalf of his fellow-man in private capacity, for it must be said of him, now that he is dead and gone from us, that if there was one thing in which Capt. Jim Truitt delighted more than another, it was in doing some kind deed, some helpful act for his friends.

The writer became acquainted with Captain Truitt 28 or 30 years ago, and through the years as they passed he enjoyed frequent correspondence with this good man, and on many occasions had the pleasure of meeting him and talking with him, and nobody, whether they knew Jim Truitt or did not know him, could meet and talk with him without loving him and admiring his sterling manhood. One incident in particular is outstanding in the mind of the writer. It was in one of the red-hot populist campaigns in Nacogdoches county that the democratic executive committee sent for Jim Truitt of Shelby county to come over and make three speeches, and the three places which were selected for him to deliver his campaign addresses in behalf of the democratic ticket were three of the strongest populist strongholds in Nacogdoches county—Swift, Black Jack or Attoyac as it was called, and Etouille, or Lowery's Mill. Capt. Truitt came and the writer accompanied him on his trip. At each place the address of the man from Shelby was masterful. The first night out was spent with Capt. Gus Stephens at Black Jack and the second night with Capt. Harris, who was a former Shelby county man and warm personal friend of Truitt and who lived at that time on the place he had bought from Mon Pleasant, near Cove Springs. The writer shall never forget that night, because of the fact that Truitt and Capt. Harris sat up all night and talked, not about politics, but about old times in Shelby county—the Moderator and Regulator days, and many other things which had been buried in forgetfulness for 25 years. The next day, on his way to Nacogdoches, Capt. Truitt stopped briefly at the home of Capt. Milt Mast, and the meeting between these old friends was worth going far to see. The writer is of course unable to measure the effect of the speaking of Capt. Jim Truitt in Nacogdoches county, in that far distant campaign, but he does know that the entire democratic ticket was elected that year.

Native of Shelby County

Jim Truitt was a native of Shelby county. He was born at the home of his grandfather, Sam Todd, four miles south of old Shelbyville, on the road that runs from Shelbyville to San Augustine, November 7, 1845. Had he lived till the present month and day he would have been 78 years old. His mother was a daughter of Sam Todd. The first husband of Mrs. Truitt was Joseph Goodberry, who was killed by a man named Jackson, and this killing is said to have precipitated the trouble which led to the organization of the Regulators and Moderators. Major Alfred M. Truitt, father of the subject of this sketch, was the leader of the Moderators, and immediately after the surrender of the armed forces to the Republic of Texas, in 1844, which occurred five miles south of Shelbyville, Major Truitt married Mrs. Goodberry. When the war between the United States and Mexico started a strange thing happened. Major Truitt organized a company of Moderators and went to the war. Not to be outdone in patriotism, M. T. Johnson, leader of the Regulators, got busy, organized a company of Regulators and led them to war. Both companies saw heroic service on the field of Beuna Vista, far from home, when it seemed that the Americans under General Taylor would all be killed by the overwhelming forces of Santa Anna, it is said that the two companies forgot their animosities of the past and fought side by side, thus in conflict for native land, healing wounds that had bled with the years.

Was Confederate Soldier

Capt. Jim Truitt was a faithful soldier of the Confederacy, serving four years and spending most of the time as special messenger and scout for the commanding general. After the war he was happily married to a fine young lady, Miss Bryan, but from whom he was divorced after three children had blessed this union. Two of these children still survive. Established Newspaper. In November, 1877, Capt. Jim Truitt and his brother, John Truitt, established the Laborers' Champion at Center. This paper is still being published as the Champion and is in its 46th year. Capt. Truitt was a member of the 17th legislature, and had intimate association with Governor Roberts, Governor Hogg and Charles Culbertson, who later became governor. He was a warm personal friend of Governor Hogg, and the writer still recalls that on a certain occasion during his second campaign for governor, while Governor Hogg was speaking at Nacogdoches, Capt. Truitt, who had come over from Shelby county to the speaking, came walking up and Hogg saw him. In the midst of his speech Hogg stopped, held out his hand and stepped across to the edge of the platform, calling Truitt and taking him by the hand as he came up. "Here is a man that money cannot buy," he said, shaking the hand of Truitt and helping him to the platform. He then went on with his address.

Capt. Truitt could have gone to congress, no doubt, but he retired from active politics at the end of his legislative career. When M. L. Brooks was elected to congress he selected Capt. Truitt as his private secretary and Truitt spent two years in Washington.

Hon. H. B. Short, from whom much of this information was obtained, and who knew Capt. Truitt better, perhaps, than any living man, said in a letter to the writer: "The point I want to make is that he was the most trusted adviser of both Roberts and Hogg, and while very unobtrusive, he was likely the most influential man in both legislatures of which he was a member. He was on the visiting committee of the penitentiary and also of asylums and schools, and his work in these lines was of great benefit to the state. He never went on junketing expeditions and never rode on a free pass. He never made a statement without knowing it was absolutely true, in consequence of which he never retracted one."

So the writer pens these final words to Jim Truitt, now asleep under the pines at Tenaha, as a weak tribute to his worth and nobility as a man. Shelby county has missed him and mourned his departure, and his influence for good will remain as long as the deeds and ideals of good men are honored by a grateful people.

LOOKED GUILTY

A country school board was visiting a school, and the principal was putting his pupils through their paces.

"Who signed Magna Charta, Robert?" he asked, turning to one boy.

"Please sir, 'twasn't me," whimpered the boy.

The teacher, in disgust, told him to take his seat; but an old, tobacco-chewing countryman on the board was not satisfied, so after a well-directed aim at the cuspidor, he said: "Call that boy back. I don't like his manner. I believe he did do it."—Marion Line.

FOR THE SUFFERING GERMAN CHILDREN.

Houston Post. According to E. A. Peden, chairman for Texas of the movement to raise $10,000,000 for the relief of the suffering children of Germany, the sum of $200,000 will be asked of citizens of Texas. Since the end of the Great War the people of the United States have been called upon frequently for relief, and it has been given with a generosity and sympathy greatly to their credit.

This last call is one quite as appealing to human sympathy as any to which response has been made. Whatever the war quarrel may have been, the people of the United States have never had any quarrel with the children of Germany, millions of whom are now in desperate need of food and clothing because of the economic and financial collapse which has overtaken Germany.

The Germans are an intelligent, industrious and thrifty people, and their present plight is due to the restriction placed upon them by some of the victor nations. They are denied the use of their resources and their productive capacity by external restraint upon them, with the result that millions of the people are unemployed and unable to procure necessary food for their families. There is no financial system there capable of relieving the situation by setting German industry and commerce free.

The German children, now suffering for food, have their wan faces turned toward the only land and the only people capable of succoring them, and the people of the United States can not turn their backs upon these little sufferers without violating their finest traditions of Christian generosity and humanity.

The fact that Mr. Peden heads the movement in Texas is a sufficient guaranty that the situation has not been overdrawn and that the emergency is one that calls for action.

VERSATILE CHINESE GIRL

Denton, Texas, Nov. 19.—Miss Mamie Wah, student in the College of Industrial Arts, converses with her mother in Chinese, her neighbors in Spanish and her school friends in English.

Miss Wah began waiting for her passports from Washington and Mexico City in September in order that she might cross the Rio Grande into Texas. She has been making her home in Mexico. Last week she entered the College of Industrial Arts as a freshman.

Miss Wah was born in Mexico, although her parents are Chinese. She found education under a Chinese instructor of exceedingly limited scope, so attended school at Eagle Pass, Texas, where she graduated from high school. Her home is in Piedras Negras, Coahuila, Mexico.

THE BIG DIFFERENCE AND WHERE DOES IT GO?

Most everyone will admit that $1.10 a month, $13.20 a year; 10 years $132.00; 20 years $264.00; 40 years $528.00 is cheap insurance for men and women from 16 to 50 years of age, and nowhere can you get it for such a small amount. Still if we had been collecting $1.10 a month, whether any deaths or not, after paying all death claims and expenses, 64 deaths in 14 years in the Mutual Benefit, we would now have on hand a surplus of $88,000.00, and for 6 years in the Brotherhood, a total of 24 deaths, we would have a surplus of $39,600.00, a total surplus in the two orders of $127,600.00, and could stop assessing until 127 members died before it would be necessary to begin assessing again. And remember, there have only been 68 deaths in the two orders and all death claims and all expenses have been paid. Is not this vast saving by the Dorsey Way worth something to the people of the county?

Talk about Life Insurance the Dorsey Way is head and shoulders above any other Life Insurance and grows more in favor of the insuring public and grows stronger and stronger as time goes by. Life is uncertain and death is sure. See Dorsey today. We have openings all along in Orders that are worth $1,000.00 the day you get it should you die.

SAYS AVERAGE RURAL PLACE OVER-CHURCHED

Speaker Says Young People are Not Reached by the Churches

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 10.—Asserting that the average rural community is "grossly over-churched," Dr. A. Taylor of Indianapolis, today suggested to the convention of the American Life Association, in session here, that residents of rural districts co-operate in religion for "the sake of a common service." Dr. Taylor is secretary of the Board of Temperance and Social Welfare, Church of Christ (Disciples).

"The average rural community is grossly over-churched," declared Dr. Taylor, "and cannot support three or four churches. Most of them are without a pastor, program or effective means to reach the young people."

"Christianity teaches brotherhood and co-operation. Every other rural institution seeks unity and cooperation. Schools are consolidating, co-operative organizations for marketing are well under way. Religion will not be denied the expression of its essential spirit of friendship and co-operation."

In suggesting that the rural churches "co-operate on the basis of community needs and for the sake of a common service," Dr. Taylor said:

"The co-operation will be on the basis of the things held in common. Full liberty will be allowed on all personal differences. All worship the same Father and follow the same Christ. Let each practice the ordinances and keep other items of faith as his conscience dictates, just as it is now done. It is quite as easy for neighbors to do that under one roof as under three or four."

JOHN RUPLE WRITES FROM WOODMAN SANITARIUM

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 10, 1923. R. F. D. No. 72, Box 311. Mr. J. O. Ray, Nacogdoches, Texas:

Dear Old Sovereign Woodman—It strikes me that you might like to hear from me direct. At this writing I don't see or feel much change in my condition, though I am well pleased and satisfied. The boys are still coming and we have already about 140. I am sending you a clipping so you can see what big things are ahead.

I am sleeping and eating up stairs on the third floor out on the porch. Have not even as much as seen downstairs since I came on August 23. Have not been to the east end of the building but only twice.

I am awful glad I had the pleasure of meeting our W. A. Frasier, and Dr. Cloyd. Dr. Cloyd said I was from the biggest camp in Texas.

Oh, man! We had some wampuscating last night, a sure big entertainment put on by the Circle and Woodchucks; music, dancing, hopping, skipping, jumping, specking flowers, pretty girls and all of the yellow dog put on; and last Sunday we had preaching at 3:30 and jazz singing at 4. So you see we boys are going some now.

I must close by asking you to write me a short letter when you get time.

Yours,
John D. Ruple.

PRIVATE GINNING FIGURES CAUSE COTTON PRICE JUMP

New Orleans, La., Nov. 16.—Private ginning figures of 8,360,000 bales as the output to November 14, indicating a crop of only 9,320,000 bales, are responsible for the wild rise in the price of cotton today. In the first few minutes of trading the active months rose from 59 to 75 points.

BOMB VICTIMS BURIED

Corpus Christi, Texas, Nov. 15.—The double funeral of J. A. Barnes, prominent real estate dealer, and his 12-year-old son, Jesse, killed yesterday when a bomb sent Barnes in a box labeled "magazines," wrecked his home, will be held today. Meanwhile officials at San Antonio, from where the search for a tall, crippled man, described to them by Juan Morales, a 14-year-old newsboy, arrested yesterday, as the person who gave him 25 cents to take the box to the express office. An arrest is expected soon. No motive for the killing could be supplied by members of the Barnes family.

FOUR KILLED IN SMASH

Newark, Ohio, Nov. 15.—Four Columbus men were killed today when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Pennsylvania passenger train at Frazeysburg, northeast of here. The dead are Henry Campbell, Oscar Norville, J. E. Turner and Harry Watson. The men were driving with curtains on the automobile and it is assumed they did not see the approaching train.

HELD IN CONTEMPT

Austin, Texas, Nov. 15.—A decision holding Attorney W. L. Hill of Houston and Henry Fox, president of the Houston National Bank, in contempt of court was handed down today by the supreme court, the result of garnishment proceedings in district court growing out of the prison notes case. Punishment was omitted because the defendants disclaimed any intention to violate the order of the court, but the acts were assessed against the bank. The other defendants were held not guilty of contempt.

O'RYAN IS RILED

Washington, Nov. 15.—Stirred by Charles R. Forbes' charges against committee counsel, John O'Ryan told he senate veterans committee today that he expected to prove convincingly the whole truth of Mortimer's charges that Forbes was one of a gang of conspirators who were tied together, cheek by jowl, to defraud the government. "I expect further to show," O'Ryan said, "that this criminal conduct was in consonance with his previous life record." This statement O'Ryan made immediately upon assumption of the hearing today. O'Ryan is the committee's general counsel.

$2,000,000 MORTGAGE ON CHURCH PROPERTY LIFTED

New York, Nov. 17.—A little deal in German marks was lugubriously described in Simpson Church, Brooklyn, Wednesday by a member of the board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in semiannual session.

When the mark began, in 1920, to display symptoms of the weakness which since has caused its collapse, the 600 pieces of property of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Germany were under mortgage for $2,000,000—about 8,000,000 marks par value.

"A dollar was then worth about 17 marks," said Bishop E. G. Richardson of Atlanta, Ga. "So, scenting a bargain, the board sent five of us over there and we cleaned up the $2,000,000 mortgages for $116,000 cash, American money.

"We thought we had been pretty wise. If we'd waited until today we could have paid off these mortgages for about 1-3,000th of a cent, more or less."

Bishop J. L. Nuelson of Zurich, whose area includes Germany, Switzerland and Russia, also related an incident.

"Just before I sailed to attend this conference," he said, "one of my churches gave a grand festival for the benefit of charity. Weeks were spent in preparation for it, and the festival was quite an affair. We took in 400,000,000 marks—about 3 cents."

CLOCK LOST ONE SECOND IN THREE YEARS' TIME

Cleveland, Ohio.—Cleveland possesses one of the most accurate clocks in the world.

In a series of international tests, the clock in the physics building at Case School of Applied Science has won its title. According to Dr. Dayton C. Miller, professor of physics in Case, the clock has lost one second in three years.

The clock is so delicate that it must be kept in a room in which the temperature and air pressure are unvarying. Dr. Miller is devoting much of his time to an attempt to correct the one second error.

FARM BUREAU MEMBERS TO GET BIG PAYMENT

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 19.—The Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association will distribute $4,207,702 to its members December 15th, the executive committee of the association decided here today. The distribution will be made on the basis of 150,000 bales of cotton handled by the association plus more than $1,000,000 owed the membership on the previous $70 a bale advance, which has not been drawn. The December payment will bring the total cash distribution to members in Texas up to more than $13,500,000, according to John Orr, president of the association.

COTTON PRICE ADVANCING

New York, Nov. 19.—Cotton made new high prices for the season today on renewed trade buying and rebuy by recent sellers, who evidently were influenced by the better European political news and a rally in foreign exchange. December cotton advanced to 34.75, May to 34.70 or 60 and 66 points above Saturday's closing quotations. Contracts for delivery next August sold up to 31.50 or 150 points above the closing price last week.

GUARD PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Havana, Nov. 16.—Reserve forces of the national police are being held in their precinct stations in readiness to guard the presidential palace and other public buildings here. The holding of the police is due to unconfirmed reports that bombs might be hurled against government buildings.

COTTON PRICES HIGHER

New York, Nov. 16.—December cotton sold at 34.00 on the opening call today, an advance of 70 points and a new high figure for the season.

BANDITS MAKE BIG HAUL

NACOGDOCHES GIRL IS MADE MEMBER GLEE CLUB

Waxahachie, Texas, Nov. 16.—Alice Gintz of Nacogdoches, who is attending Trinity University, has been made a member of the women's glee club there.

The club at present has a membership of twenty-four, four more than last year.

Mrs. L. T. Walling, who has directed the club for the past few years, is again the director, and Miss Dorothy McGee of Waxahachie is the accompanist.

Each year the club makes an extended tour over Texas, singing in various Presbyterian churches of the state. The itinerary of the tour this season has not been definitely decided upon.

Members of the Glee Club are:

First sopranos—Anna Davis, Waxahachie; Mattie Lee Hinton, Valley Mills; Clyde Kuykendall, Waxahachie; Flora Sowell, Forney; Lura Mae Riley, Wortham; Aline Hinton, Valley Mills.

Second sopranos—Dorothy Chambers, Waxahachie; Mary Smith, Mansfield; Mae Montgomery, Rotan; Mildred Carr, Anson; Alice Gintz, Nacogdoches; Ethel Whetstone, Santa Anna.

First altos—Willie Mae Whipple, Waxahachie; Marietta Dickey, Waxahachie; Ruth Ash, Athens; Clara Mae Duer, Dallas; Ruth Elizabeth Boyd, Athens; Sidna Rae Barron, Palmer.

Second altos—Marie Scott, Waxahachie; Elizabeth Forrest, Waxahachie; Annie Marie Rugel, San Marcos; Hattie Bell Evans, Waxahachie; Jennie Boone, Athens; and Lucille Walker, Blooming Grove.

DESPAIR OF AGREEMENT

Paris, Nov. 17.—A final effort to save the Entente from dislocation probably will be put over until Monday, as the British cabinet seemingly is not ready to give the final word to Lord Crewe, British ambassador here, as to its position on the application of further penalties upon Germany.

Efforts which will be made meanwhile to prevent a break are regarded in political circles here as despairing, the French and British governments being too far apart, it is thought, to make an agreement possible.

HIGHWAY CLUBS ARE ORGANIZED AT TEAGUE

Teague and Fairfield Take First Steps to Secure Transcontinental Highway

The Teague and Fairfield units of the Lone Star Trail Association have been finally completed and are now at work in this county. The Fairfield organization was perfected last week with F. E. Hill, Jr., president and W. A. Parker, secretary. The Teague organization was formed Monday afternoon at a meeting of citizens held at the city hall when John Riley was elected president; Wm. J. Stringer, vice president and Frank Folsom secretary. Vice President Stringer in the absence of President Riley, appointed a membership committee composed of Dave Alderman, L. R. Boyd and J. Wed Davis.

County Judge Roper and L. C. Kirgan of the Recorder represented Fairfield at the meeting, and Mexia was represented by Ben F. Stollenwerck, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; J. I. Riddle, president of the Lion's Club, Phil Carner and Jerry Cason. Mr. Stollenwerck, an experienced highway man, made a talk and presented Mexia's proposition to the meeting.

The Lone Star Trail, represented by J. M. Hughes, secretary-manager, is a national highway from Florida to California, and is said to be 500 miles shorter than the Spanish Trail. Organization has been perfected from its eastern terminus to Teague, and it is claimed that sixty percent of the highway to Florida is already constructed and is a standard, hard-surfaced road, while many of the existing links are in course of construction. It was also stated that no other highway in the south, with the exception of the Jefferson Highway, showed as great a percentage of hard-surfaced road already built.

The highway from Palestine through Fairfield, Teague, Mexia, Coolidge and Waco, will fill a long felt want for a direct communication between these two sections of the state. On account of the Trinity river bottoms between Anderson and Freestone counties, no direct dirt roads that are passable in winter have ever been attempted. There is no bridge across the Trinity for many miles in either direction, which has also been a drawback to this part of the state. Having neither dirt roads nor a railroad outlet, thousands of acres of fertile lands along the Trinity river in both counties have lain idle and uncultivated, and enormous quantities of hardwood timber cover these lands. There has been a movement on in this county to connect the two counties with a bridge across the river, and a high-class surfaced road, part of which to be concrete, from the Limestone county line to the Anderson county line. A bond issue will be necessary to carry out this program. Anderson county has already voted its bonds for this purpose.

There are many singular facts about the Lone Star Trail between St. Augustine, Fla., and Waco, Texas. It has two Mexias, but the one in Alabama is called "Mexia," as our oil field neighbor is still familiarly known to many of the old timers. The trail also crosses three Covington counties, and it passes through two Winnfields, though one of them is spelled with only one n.

The purpose of the Lone Star Trail Club, like that of the Association, is not to construct roads. But it is intended to create and keep alive the sentiment in favor of roads until the people of the counties to be benefited by the road realize the importance of it and formulate the necessary preliminaries for the construction of a system of roads. In this instance, the units thus formed are destined to keep the cause alive and to work on the job, never lessening their persistence until the Trail is complete from one boundary of the county to the other.

STORM IN PHILIPPINES

Manila, P. I., Nov. 19.—A typhoon from the Pacific ocean has swept over Luzon and Visayas Islands and rail and telegraph communication has been entirely suspended. Manila is partially under water as the result of the torrential downpour and boats are replacing motor cars on several streets. The storm also caused considerable damage to crops. The rainfall during the past 48 hours totaled more than 16 inches. The downpour was accompanied by a high windstorm. The storm had abated today.

LIQUOR PRESCRIPTIONS

Washington, Nov. 19.—More than 1,400,000 gallons of liquor were sold on physicians' prescriptions during the last fiscal year in 27 states, the District of Columbia, Porto Rico, and Hawaii, where such sales are permitted. Statistics compiled by the Prohibition Bureau from reports by retail druggists revealed that about 50,000 of the 150,000 physicians in the United States had prescribed liquor for medicinal use during that period.

TWO ANTELOPE HERDS ROAM JIM HOGG RANGE

Hebronville, Texas.—Jim Hogg county, perhaps, can claim the only remaining antelope to be found in Southwest Texas. One herd of 16 to 20 ranges near town on the Hellen and Yeager ranches, while the other herd, somewhat larger, is on the W. W. Jones, Wilbur Allen and Jones Weil ranches in the southern part of the county.

While protected by law and by the ranchmen, as far as the latter are able to protect them, yet occasionally some hunter kills one of them, as they are as gentle as range cattle and easily shot.

The advent of the farmer into this section also is interfering with these beautiful animals, and the time is not far distant when, like the buffalo, that once roamed over these prairies, they, too, will have passed.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE ARE AT PARTING OF THE WAYS

London, Nov. 16.—Indications are multiplying that England and France are approaching the parting of the ways on the question of how to deal with Germany. France's threatened penalties against Germany if Berlin does not recede from its position on the extradition of the former crown prince and the re-establishment of full allied military control in Germany are declared in governmental quarters here to be wholly unacceptable to England.

BREAK AVOIDED

Paris, Nov. 19.—The first delegate to leave for today's meeting of the Interallied Council of Ambassadors said no rupture between Great Britain and France had occurred. The ambassadors, it is stated, agreed provisionally on measures regarding the resumption of Allied military control in Germany. The ambassadors came out of the meeting room looking much relieved. They were reticent, but agreed a break had been avoided.

THE PRICE OF TURKEYS

A correspondent of the New York Times, writing for the turkey business in the United States, says the price of that noble bird will be higher this season. That is nothing new, but the reason for it is unique. The fowls will be costly, he says, because the flocks have been decimated by an epidemic of sore throat.

Many have been the alibis advanced for the prices that have made the tag on the turkey look like the down payment on a closed car. At times it was the agility and elusiveness of the grasshoppers, which head the tattering order of the turkey's foraging menu. This necessitated great mileage on the part of the pursuing turkeys, with subsequent large casualty lists. In other years there was too much rain, the young turkeys went to bed with wet feet and romped into attacks of pneumonia and died. About every reason has been advanced for high turkey prices, except the failure of the hemp crop in Guam.

Anyway, it's a different alibi this time. The flocks have been lessened by sore throat. Picture the cost of bandaging every night the throats of 63 turkeys with vinegar and red flannel. Or with cold salt pork, at current prices. Imagine the expense, in time and money, of making 927 turkeys gargle salt water three times a day. All this, fellow citizens, adds to the overhead. No wonder turkeys are high. But how charming it is to read a new and entirely different alibi once in a while.

GOING AFTER RECORDS OF OKLAHOMA KLAN

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 16.—Defense counsel in the impeachment trial of Governor J. C. Jewett, grand dragon of the Klan of Oklahoma, fails to produce them.

Jewett was instructed to appear before the court with all records of the Oklahoma organization, including the complete list of the membership of the realm. The subpoena had not been served this morning.

VOTE-SHIRKING EVIL

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16.—American citizens must be educated to accept fundamental national responsibilities if they are to continue in the enjoyment of their rights as individuals, declared General John J. Pershing in a statement issued here today through the American Legion. Statistics of the franchise, Pershing said, show that less than half of the eligible voters actually cast their ballots. The statement was issued as an appeal to observe American Education Week, November 18 to 24.

GOLDEN RULE DAY

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 19.—In keeping with the nations all over the world, the people of Texas will, on Sunday, December 2d, observe "International Golden Rule Sunday," according to Charles L. Sanger, State Chairman of the Near East Relief, under whose auspices the day is being celebrated in the United States.

District chairman for working out details covering the observance of all parts of the state have been named by Mr. Sanger and some of those who have accepted appointments follow: Mrs. D. J. White, Wichita Falls; Mrs. C. D. Reimer, Fort Worth; John Church, McKinney; Mrs. H. E. Hall, Sherman.

On this date, all persons who wish to make a practical application of the Golden Rule are requested to serve for one meal, preferably dinner, a plain menu consisting of the simpler foods, such as potato soup, rice and prunes, with condensed milk, bread and cocoa, or their equivalent in other foods. The difference between the cost of the usual Sunday dinner with its variety of vegetables, salads and desserts and the simple, less expensive orphanage menus is to be made as an offering for the purchase of food for the children in the Near East Orphanages, of whom there are approximately 60,000, it is said. The saving thus effected should be sent promptly to the state office of Near East Relief, 611 Slaughter Building, Dallas, in order that it may be transmitted without delay to the needy little ones.

An attractive booklet entitled, "Suggestions and Meditations for International Golden Rule Sunday," has been prepared and will be sent to anyone requesting same from the National Office of Near East Relief, 151 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The booklet contains, among other things, a fac-simile of the letter form President Coolidge giving hearty approval to the plan, latest maps of the Near East, pictures of the largest orphanage in the world at Alexandropol, facts of present conditions in Greece, Syria, Palestine and the Russian Caucasus, and a prayer or grace by both Dr. Henry Van Dyke and Cardinal O'Connell.

The plan has the approval of distinguished men and women all over the world, including President Coolidge, ex-President Wilson, Secretary Hughes, Secretary James A. Davis, Hon. Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey; Senator William H. King, ex-Governor Henry A. Allen, Dr. John R. Mott of the International Y. M. C. A., Bishop James Cannon, Jr., Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Dr. Francis B. Clark president of Christian Endeavor; Mrs. Percy V. Pennybaker, Mary E. Woolley, John J. Tigert, U. S. Commissioner of Education, and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt.

A large number of organizations throughout the land have endorsed the movement, including the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., the Church Peace Union and World Alliance, the World's Sunday School Association, Advisory Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church on Succor to the Near East, Missionary Education Movement, Student Volunteer Movement, International Rotary and Lions' Clubs, the Gileons, National Grange and the Boy Scouts of America.

GREEK OFFICERS SENTENCED

Athens, Nov. 15.—The court at Eleusis has sentenced to death Generals Leonardopoulos and Gargalides, and Majors Avrambos and Nicolareas, leaders of the recent revolutionary movement. Many other officers of high rank involved in the revolt were sentenced to imprisonment for life or for long terms.

THE AUTOMOBILE

Some say the automobile has "ruined" the country—and from a standpoint of the financial drain caused by their adoption and constant use by almost everybody, we share partially the view. However, the automobile has come to stay—and is never going to be less popular, nor less used than now. The only thing for the country to do is to adopt itself to the changed conditions. Likewise some say that the good roads have "ruined" the small towns. The small town business man, whether printer, merchant, banker or baker, who admits that he cannot hold his own with the fellows of the bigger towns save only when the people with whom he would naturally do business are handicapped with bad roads—the small town business man who admits that is admitting that he is not equal to his competitor. He admits that he is not as alert as the big town man and that he can't do as much for the trade.

DEMONSTRATION OF AVERY IMPLEMENTS

Splendid crowds are visiting the interesting and instructive agricultural implement display which is under way at the store of Cason, Monk & Company, sponsored by B. F. Avery & Son, of Louisville, Ky., one of the oldest implement manufacturers in the country.

During this show factory representatives are on hand to talk to farmers of the Nacogdoches territory and secure their ideas and recommendations concerning the efficiency of Avery goods, as it is the desire of this organization to offer implements to the farmers of this section which are best suited to their needs.

This exhibit will be one of a series which have been held throughout the state during the last several weeks and at every place they have been held members of the Avery dealer organization report a stimulation of sales and a general revival of interest in the problems which confront the farmer and which can be successfully met only with the most modern and up-to-date tools.

Cason, Monk & Company, Avery dealers, are introducing Messrs. O. L. Oldham, S. C. Oldham and Tom B. Owen, special factory representatives, who are on the ground for the main idea of talking to the leading farmers of the section who are especially invited to attend the exhibit from Avery headquarters. According to Messrs. Oldham and Owen it has long been an Avery policy to find out the immediate needs of a territory by getting suggestions from the farmers themselves. The tools are built with the field requirements uppermost in mind and the efficiency of the Avery line well demonstrates the soundness of this principle.

"It is not our idea," say these gentlemen, "to merely build implements for the purpose of selling them to the farmers, but to so scientifically construct our products that they will do the work required of them in such a way as to save the farmers money. We believe by the pursuit of this policy that we have gained many friends, particularly in this section, and of course it is our desire to broaden this acquaintance for a successful continuance of our business."

age of the opportunity to inspect the latest additions to the Avery line, chief among them being the Yellow Jack Middle Buster, which has created a sensation wherever it has been exhibited.

Mr. D. K. Cason states that terms never before offered by Cason, Monk & Company are being extended during this week only as a special inducement for business. These special terms will positively not be granted after this week.

KEEP THE STREETS CLEAN

The matter of keeping our streets reasonably free from trash, rubbish, dirt and dust is one that is engaging the attention of every citizen who believes in sanitation and who really wants our city to present a clean, attractive appearance at all times. But the problem of keeping the streets clean is one that requires co-operation on the part of all, and especially does it require the co-operation of all our business men. An illustration happened last Saturday morning when the trash from a certain store building was swept into the street that had been washed clean the previous night at an expense to the city of $24 for labor and water. And this particular store is not the only place where the streets are littered up with sweepings from the business houses.

So long as this practice prevails it matters little whether the city floods the streets or leaves them cluttered with rubbish. Obviously the city can not afford to spend $24 for the satisfaction of having clean streets from 12 o'clock midnight until the stores open the following morning. But this is exactly what is happening under present conditions.

What is the remedy? Simple enough! Let the sweepings from each store be placed in a box or receptacle where the trash man can dump it into his wagon, rather than have the sweeper roll it up into the gutter with his broom.

This plan requires nothing more expensive than a small box kept handy for such purposes, and then the willingness on the part of the sweeper to utilize it.

Let's try this method for one week! If for any reason it doesn't succeed we can try some other plan.

The attention of all school children is directed to the request of the Chevrolet Motor Company for a slogan for that car. Read the advertisement in this issue.

PARENTS' HOPE IS IN THE FUTURE OF THEIR CHILDREN

He would be an unnatural parent who did not wish to give his boy or girl the best educational advantages in his power; a very thoughtless parent who would send him to the first school that mailed you a catalogue and an unparadise parent who entered him into a school without first investigating its location, equipment, character of student body, faculty, system of discipline, and above all, the moral surroundings. Yours is the duty of investigation, comparison and ultimate decision. By comparison you will find the Tyler Commercial College the best as well as the most economical school to be found. Board, room and living expenses are from one-half to two-thirds cheaper in Tyler than in other places. The time required to complete the courses is less than half the time required in other schools. Therefore the savings in time and the cost of board should cause you to investigate thoroughly before deciding to send your boy or girl elsewhere.

Your boy or girl is the hope of your life. In him or her is centered your most cherished ambitions. His or her worth to you cannot be measured by dollars and cents but must be measured by the training received in the home and in the school.

The 208-page catalogue of the Tyler Commercial College will tell you of America's largest business training school, which has over 40,000 students from 39 different states and 7 foreign countries. It gives the endorsements of the best business men, ministers, lawyers and bankers. It gives the experience of many young people who came to them with limited means and who achieved success after a short time spent in this school.

We know you are interested. Ask them to furnish you proof. Their large illustrated catalogue is free. Fill out this coupon and mail to the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

McADOO VS. FORD

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 21.—Claiming better than a two to one victory in county proposal conventions over the sponsors of the statewide presidential convention in behalf of Henry Ford, the supporters of William G. McAdoo today began work on a state platform which they hope may be carried into the national arena by their candidate. Returns today from counties representing approximately three-fourths of the state's voting power gave the McAdoo forces 30,000 votes in the state convention against less than 10,000 for the Ford men, according to leaders in the two campaigns.

SPLENDID MEETING OF REBEKAHS

Lufkin News, 20th. The meeting of the Rebekah Lodge was well attended last night at the local lodge room, forty-eight members being present as well as eight visitors from the Nacogdoches order. A splendid entertainment was enjoyed by those present, a reading by Mrs. G. W. Gray, a song by little Glen Wilhight and an appropriate address by Judge Perritte of Nacogdoches, being the outstanding features of the gathering together of the members of this splendid organization in a meeting of good fellowship and cheer. A very much enjoyed menu of chicken salad, pickles, crackers, cake and coffee was served in a bounteous plenty.

A distressed father telephoned the county clerk's office Monday and requested the denial of a marriage license to his 13-year-old daughter, who had apparently determined upon a matrimonial venture. The applicants probably learned of the parental action, as they did not apply for the papers.

BISHOP HOYT McWHORTER DOBBS

Alabama Christian Advocate.

Alabama has a peculiar interest in Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs, because we think of him as our own bishop. A number of places are now claiming the honor of being the birthplace of Bishop Dobbs, but as a matter of fact he was born in an old log house near Antioch Church, Spring Garden, Alabama, November 16th, 1878, the son of Samuel Lewis and Lauray Clayton Dobbs. At the age of eleven years at Springville, Alabama, he was converted and joined the church. He was educated at Tuscaloosa High School, the Southern University at Greensboro, Alabama, and at Vanderbilt University. In 1913 Emory College conferred upon him the degree of D. D., while in 1914, the Southern Methodist University conferred upon him the same degree. In 1922 Birmingham Southern College conferred the degree of LL.D. upon him. Bishop Dobbs' first pastorate was at Mt. Vernon church, Birmingham. Afterwards he was pastor of the following churches: Fountain Heights, Birmingham; Highlands church, Birmingham; Central church, Kansas City; First church, Fort Worth; Dean Southern University 1916 to 1920; pastor of First Church, Anniston from 1920 to 1922. At the General Conference held at Hot Springs in 1922 he was elected Bishop of the Southern Methodist Church, and was at once assigned to duty in Brazil. Bishop Dobbs' life is one of great promise. He is already one of the greatest of our bishops, and he is still a young man. All Alabamians are proud to call him our Bishop.

The subject of the above sketch is well known in Texas, having been a frequent visitor and indefatigable worker for Methodism in this state. Bishop Dobbs' mother and the mother of Miss Hattie Bogan of Nacogdoches were twin sisters.

LOCAL GIN REPORT

There were 16,933 bales of cotton ginned in Nacogdoches county from the crop of 1923 prior to November 1, 1923, as compared with 13,536 bales 1922, as compared with 13,536 bales ginned prior to November 1st, 1922.

Sheriff Vaught and deputies made a liquor raid near Cushing Wednesday and arrested Dolph Hartless, who is alleged to be the operator, capturing a barrel of mash, some whiskey and part of the equipment. Hartless made a $500 bond for his appearance for preliminary trial before Judge Frank Hyton on Tuesday of next week, the 19th inst.

MRS. W. H. WRIGHT

Mrs. W. H. Wright, well known here, where she frequently visited her children residing in Nacogdoches, died at 7:15 Thursday night at her home in Henderson, aged 66 years.

Information of the sad event was conveyed in a message received by members of her family here, and Friday morning Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stripling and Miss Nan Wright left by auto for Henderson.

Mrs. Wright was a member of the Baptist church, and was deeply interested in religious work. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Sam Stripling and Miss Nan Wright of Nacogdoches; Misses Kathleen and Addie Wright and Mrs. Mary Gary of Henderson; Mrs. R. P. Johnson of Cushing, and Messrs. Gus Wright of Oklahoma and Hansel Wright of Breckenridge.

It was learned the funeral would take place at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Wright was highly esteemed by all who had met her when she visited here, and these extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

LUFKIN IS ASSURED FREE MAIL DELIVERY

Lufkin News, 16th. Free mail delivery for Lufkin is now assured. This assurance came from inspections made yesterday of both the delivery districts. Assistant Postmaster W. E. Menefee stated to the Lufkin Daily News that the report that was to be sent last night would carry the statement that Lufkin had complied in the matter of mail boxes and house numbering with a percentage of 98.

After the first inspection which was made yesterday morning, it was announced that a 95 percent compliance had been made in District No. 1 lying west of First street. But after making the inspection yesterday afternoon of district No. 2 lying east of First street, it was decided that the general average would reach 98 percent. An 85 percent average was required.

Free city mail delivery is scheduled to begin this city on Saturday, December 1. An examination for city carried, in which 18 persons took the tests, was held recently and Clarence Green, secretary of the local civic service examining board, stated that he thought the results of examination would be hurried up and the eligible list established. So it promises not to be long before uniformed city mail carriers will be coming to the doors of Lufkin homes, spreading the United States mail service like a web over a great portion of the city.

DISTRESSFUL ACCIDENT

Mrs. S. A. Pounds of Lufkin sustained a badly broken wrist about 1:30 Friday afternoon when she jumped from a blazing automobile at a point four miles out on the San Augustine road. She, in company with her mother, Mrs. L. L. Munsell, and sister, Mrs. Ellis Gaston, was returning from a business trip to San Augustine, and at point a short distance beyond where the accident occurred it was discovered that a feed pipe had become disconnected and the gasoline was rapidly leaking from the tank. Mrs. Pounds' efforts to connect up the pipe were unavailing, and she decided to make a quick run for Nacogdoches, hoping to reach here before all the gas had vanished. They had traveled but a little way when the gasoline became ignited and flared up, threatening the safety of the occupants of the car. Mrs. Pounds failed to jump clear and fell on her face, throwing out her hands to protect herself, with the result that the bones in her left wrist were badly shattered. The others escaped injury.

Mr. A. H. Goodson of the Redland Hotel came along in his car at this juncture, picked up the ladies and brought them to town, where Mrs. Pounds received surgical treatment. About 5 o'clock Mr. Pounds, who had been notified of the accident, arrived from Lufkin and returned to that city with his injured wife, whose misfortune is regretted by everyone.

Messrs. Gaston and Goodson started out to bring in the damaged car, but met some negroes having it in tow. The machine was considerably scorched.

ROTARY LUNCHEON

The Rotary club enjoyed a splendid program of its luncheon Wednesday. Giles Haltom was chairman of the committee which had the program in charge and the club consented to run over a few minutes from the allotted time in order that it might be completed.

John Mullins and George Oglesby, representatives of the Remington Arms Company, were guests of a member of the club. The Remington company is preparing to put a new cash register on the market and its plans were mentioned by Mr. Oglesby. Mr. Mullins, who lives in Houston, said his mother's people came to Nacogdoches in the early days and that she was born here about the year 1855. She was the daughter of Simmerman Sullivan.

The attendance of the club has improved very much with the cooler weather and shows a gain over the corresponding time last year. Guy Blount told of a visit to Longview club which maintains close to a 100 per cent attendance. Excellent programs, such as the one given yesterday, no doubt has had much to do with the increased attendance with the local club.

MOTHER!

Clean Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Hurry Mother! Even constipated, bilious, feverish, or sick, colic Babies and Children love to take genuine "California Fig Syrup." No other laxative regulates the tender little bowels so nicely. It sweetens the stomach and starts the liver and bowels without griping. Contains no narcotics or soothing drugs. Say "California" to your druggist and avoid counterfeits. Insist upon genuine "California Fig Syrup" which contains directions.

PRESIDING ELDER VISITS SAN AUGUSTINE

San Augustine Tribune, 15th. Rev. H. T. Perritte, presiding elder of this district of the M. E. Church spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the city visiting Rev. L. W. Nichols, local pastor of the Methodist church, and looking after some matters pertinent to the closing of the conference year.

Mr. Perritte says the finances of the district are in splendid shape and that everything looks good for the best report in the history of the district. He is of the opinion that the district will be changed in name from the Timpson District to that of the Nacogdoches District, at the coming conference.

The presiding elder's home has been moved to Nacogdoches for several months, which makes it more convenient for the entire district.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank this means of the Odd Fellows and the good people of Nacogdoches for their kindness extended to our husband and brother, Ben F. Williams, during his illness while at the Hotel Inn. We especially wish to thank Mr. J. P. Davidson and Mr. Strode for their thoughtfulness, also to Mr. James and Mr. Brantley of the Mahden factory and Mr. Jim Barker and Mr. Luke Moore of Chireno and the City Bakery boys. Mr. Williams joins us in our thanks.

Again we thank you. Mrs. Ben Williams, wife. E. L. Williams, brother.

TO OUR CITIZENS

You doubtless are aware that we have eight of the late war soldier boys peacefully sleeping in Oak Grove cemetery and that these boys command the recognition and respect of us, by reason of the deeds committed. Most of the families of those brave boys have erected a monument to the grave of their loved one, and it now behooves us, as citizens, to complete the job of beautifying the lot. The Baxter Duncan Post of the American Legion has no money with which to do the things, I feel, should be done; therefore, I am going to ask our citizens to contribute a little to a fund that we might finish the job in an imposing manner. It will cost about $300 to put a marble curb around this lot. To do this, my friends, is certainly little enough for us to pay for the great sacrifices these boys have made. I would urge that you give this question prompt and serious consideration and send your contribution to Mr. Herbert Shindler at the Commercial Guaranty State Bank. A list will be kept of the donors and if the fund is not raised, your money will be refunded.

I would appreciate your giving this matter your prompt attention. Holloway Muller.

Mr. and Mrs. St. John of Kansas have arrived to make this city their home. Their daughter, Miss St. John, is in charge of the home economics department of the State Teachers' College. They will occupy the Burk home as soon as the president's home is completed, when Dr. and Mrs. Birdwell will move from the Burk home. Mr. and Mrs. St. John were accompanied by their nephew, and they all express much delight at the southern climate, this being their first trip south. They made the trip here in their car and experienced little difficulty.

VIRGINIA SCHOOL DAMAGED Richmond, Va., Nov. 17.—Approximately $200,000 damage was done today to the main building at the Farmville State Female Normal School. None of the eight hundred students were injured.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

By J. E. Mayfield, M. D. The pioneers of Texas were of many types and many races, reflecting upon these events brings to memory the lines of Tennyson's: "For men may come and men may go, but I go on forever."

In some instances the pioneer became a man of great note, though occasionally he has been the reverse. In some instances a prominent man dropped out of sight forever. I have to be careful as to names, some might be trodden upon.

General Sam Houston was not so careful in his public speeches. On one occasion at Gonzales, he was speaking out doors, and he saw a man ride up and hitch his horse and walk up to a tree in the outer edge of the crowd of listeners, bearing a lot of papers. Leaning against the tree and listening quietly this man presently interrupted Houston by loudly asking him a question bearing upon Houston's political honor. Houston stopped speaking and deliberately pointed his finger at this man and said "The man who asked that question came from Arkansas last year. He left between two days and he pitched his books, papers and records into White river as he crossed to destroy this evidence. After this the man formally challenged Houston for a duel. Houston replied that he had twenty-nine challenges ahead and would attend to No. 30 in turn.

Houston was one of the pioneers who had a peculiar career. It was at one period generally understood that his home was at Nacogdoches. If he ever had a home in Texas, I am not so informed, unless the home where he died in Huntsville be so considered, and this home was probably his wife's home, and he lived with her there. But again he had any number of homes where his friends were glad to have him as a guest. It is also said that he did build a little home in San Augustine, while he was a widower, spending much of his time there. But he never lived in it. It was thought then that he had matrimony in view.

I have heretofore written up the town of Douglass as having had a big day, and an important career, though it is now regarded as a has-been. The proposed highway may revive it. But the location of the route may miss the original trail. It went north of the town near the old Perry homestead and crossed the creek a short distance above the present bridge, and at a point where the old Texas Indian village stood on Bradley King's homestead.

Yes, Douglass in 1855 had two fine two-story hotels. Clutes on the west side of the big public square and Johnson's on the east side, facing each other. It also had a two-story Masonic building, on the north side of this square. And it had quite a number of other buildings, for stores, work shops, grog shops, etc. And Douglass had a habit of electing county officers. The sheriff's office was filled several times in succession by Douglass men. One of these was John Payne, another was Bill Garrett, another was W. E. C. Mayfield. Jim Noble was district clerk. He resigned and moved to Kaufman, and was succeeded by Sheriff Mayfield. Looneyville had not appeared on the map, nor Nat. But Baxter was county commissioner, and Douglass was Precinct No. 2. The town was started about the year 1837. The big road had to turn south to take it in.

And as to the sheriffs from Douglass the custom has been handed down to modern days. W. H. Campbell came into line and T. G. Vaught, the present sheriff, descended from the Dr. Vaught family at Douglass of 1852. Dr. Vaught lived there and practiced medicine. He named his son after Tom Garrett, a most worthy farmer, whose valuable homestead was later owned by another worthy pioneer farmer of most respectable character.

Old Douglass produced other prominent county officials. In the legislature were W. H. Crossland, who was proud to be called "Honest Old Plow Handles"; V. E. Middlebrook, the school teacher; Jesse J. Watkins, a most excellent gentleman. And there were other men highly rated.

In those days Douglass enjoyed a full share of wild and woolly customs. Every man was allowed to carry a pistol, and to operate a saloon, then

"They Work While You Sleep." When you feel sick, dizzy, upset, when your head is dull or aching, or your stomach is sour or gassy, just take one or two pleasant "Cascarets" to relieve constipation and biliousness. called a procrey, and everybody was expected to enjoy a so-called glass of red-eye. The boys had to eat at the bar. Pistol duels with fatal results occurred frequently. A man who wouldn't fight "chaw terbacker," or drink was short of accomplishment. On one election day, just after a big treat, Sam White and Dick Blackburn fell out. Dick did not know that Sam was unarmed. So he ran his hand into his saddbags and drew his six-shooter. Sam defied him to shoot, and said he himself was unarmed. Dick extended his hand with his revolver towards some bystanders and said "somebody take my pistol." This was quickly done, and then followed a regular rough and tumble. Sheriff Dick Orton rushed up and placed his hands on them and said "Stop it, boys. That's enough. One of you come with me." It was all over now.

But education, morality and religion were not neglected in Douglass. There was a big log "meetin'" house, which served as a schoolhouse and other purposes. Big preachers and teachers held forth there. It stood near the graveyard about two hundred yards north of the business part of town, and was a very strong reminder of Gray's Elegy.

PROTECT YOUR LIFE AND HOME

For your consideration I will give you a few facts regarding the loss by fire during the year 1922 in the United States—$521,000,000 worth of property. We paid this loss. Forty lives lost each day. $1,000 worth of property burned every minute. One dwelling every four minutes. One farm building every seven minutes. Fifteen hotels every day. Five school houses every day. Five churches every day. Four warehouses every day. America's fire toll for the five-year period ending with 1920 was $1,672,722,677. Just think of what could have been done in a constructive way with this amount of money. It would have erected enough homes for half a million of people, built 16,727 school houses, would have graveled 18,000 miles of highway. America is fire's big playground and carelessness is the star performer in the game of wanton destruction. Let's call this star performer from the stage and supplant him with CAREFULNESS and begin at once to stamp out the flame fiend. "YOUR HABITS WILL LAOINSHRUDET" "YOUR HABITS WILL BE YOUR ANSWER." ALWAYS BE CAREFUL. The per capita fire loss for 1922 in the United States was $4.75, in Texas $3.60, in England 75 cents.

"SEE WHAT A GREAT FIRE A LITTLE BLAZE KINDLETH." Keep a lookout for the little blaze, and the things that produce it. Your co-operation in reducing our losses by fire is earnestly solicited.

L. I. MULLER, City Fire Marshal.

The syrup mills of the county are running now days, but from reports their runs will be short. A conservative estimate seems to place the crop at about half normal on the acreage and it is said the acreage is short on account of high water in the spring. Local dealers are paying $1.00 per gallon for what comes on the market and it is said that not much is being offered. Most of the farmers have some of their crop money left and are not rushing their syrup to market.

POULTRY DEPARTMENT OF THE TEACHERS' COLLEGE

Prof. J. H. Hinds, an expert in poultry husbandry, is in charge of the poultry department of the Stephen F. Austin Teachers' College and is eager to co-operate with our people in improving conditions in this section. His services are free and he invites those interested in poultry to consult him on any matters which concern that important activity.

Following are a few notes handed us for publication.

The Saturday class culled flocks belonging in Mr. E. L. Shumway and Mr. G. P. Parks. They found some good individuals on Mr. Shumway's farm. He had about 25 percent more cull, however, than were found in the Grimes flock.

Cross Breeding a Cardinal Sin Mr. Parks birds were found to be very poor individuals for egg production. This was largely due to the fact that five of the major breeds from both the American and Mediterranean classes, had been indiscriminately crossed. Except when the work is done by an expert breeder, it is bad business to cross breeds within the same class and it is inexcusable to mingle the blood of birds so widely different as the American class and the Mediterranean class. Even the best feeding will not make birds of such mixed breeding pay.

College Poultry Classes Cull Farm Flocks

The two classes in Poultry Husbandry at the Teachers' College have been actively engaged in field work for the past week. The flock of white leghorns owned by J. M. Grimes were culled by the class that meets for laboratory practice on Thursday. These birds were the best of the Mediterranean class that the college students have examined so far. The entire flock shows moderate capacity and about one-fourth of the birds show possibility of going into the 200 egg class. A special feed mixture was recommended to Mr. Grimes that carries about one part of protein to four parts of carbohydrates. His feed in the past was found to be too rich in carbohydrates and some of his birds were taking on too much flesh.

More Practical Work Wanted

At the present the College students desire some work with flock owners who want to cull their birds and introduce better feeding methods. The college has a large amount of home made lice remedies on hand. Farm flocks will be freed from insects, and culled free of charge. If the owners will buy the ingredients the students will also mix enough feed to carry the flock for thirty days. Telephone 611-J at any time to make engagements to have this work done.

GRATIFYING REPORT FROM "UNCLE BILLY" WOOD

Mrs. H. C. Arnold is in receipt of the following letter from the Scott & White Clinic, Temple, where her father, Mr. W. H. ("Uncle Billy") Wood recently underwent a surgical operation. It will be gratifying news to the gentleman's many friends here:

"We take pleasure in reporting to you concerning the progress of Mr. W. H. Wood. He has done exceptionally well since operation, the wound is healing very nicely, his temperature is practically normal, and we are allowing him to have liberal diet."

MRS. AMELIA MUCKLEROY

Mrs. Amelia Muckleroy, wife of Lafayette Muckleroy, died at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, November 15, at her home at Appleby, aged 80 years. Deceased had been ill for the past year and her death was not unexpected.

She is survived by her husband, Lafayette Muckleroy; one daughter, Mrs. Jim Blackshear of Appleby; and one son, Dave Muckleroy of Nacogdoches. Interment will be made in Bethel cemetery at 10 o'clock Friday morning, with services by Rev. Mr. McCreary of the Christian church. Cason, Monk & Company of this city conducted the funeral.

Late Wednesday night Dr. C. C. Pierce's radio set here was in touch with a far-away ship frozen in at Refuge Harbor, on the west coast of Greenland. This ship, the Bedouin, in charge of Captain Donald McMillan, is en route to the North Pole. The communication, though rather weak, was clearly audible here. If we had been on the job and printed this item a hundred years ago it is probable the hangman would have got busy with us for being in league with the devil.

GOOD BLOOD! GOOD LOOKS!

A good looking man or woman who can smile is a sure winner in business or in love. A good appetite means smiles and health; but how many enjoy their food! They suffer from liver trouble or indigestion and life becomes a burden. To feel well, the blood must be pure and rich; if it is impure, many ills are sure to follow. An old reliable medicine good for stomach and liver is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made of herbs and roots brought in by the Indians from their nearby Reservation. It has relieved thousands, and will help you.

Home-grown bananas probably heretofore unknown in this section, but Miss Eula Joplin of the Joplin college, whose home is near the town, brought in several on Tuesday, the product of her own orchard. They proved to be as palatable as the best of the imported fruit. She has 35 trees, which are from 8 to 10 feet high, and from which she has had 10 bunches containing from 10 to 20 bananas. Some of the trees are bearing, we understand, having yet reached that stage, but will begin to fruit in the near future. In winter comes Miss Joplin to the trees in a trench and covers them with earth, and in the spring she removes them in the proper manner. If they would be frozen to the ground they would be left exposed. Which prompts the question: Is there anything which Texas soil will not produce?

When building activities since January 1, 1923, have reached the total value of $15,940,867.

AUNT JEMIMA IS DEAD

Pancake season is coming, but in some households this fall the sizzling of griddle will bring memories tinged with sadness.

"Aunt Jemima" is dead. The aged negro woman, whose ability to make "flapjacks" was capitalized by millers, whose bandana-wreathed smile forms a mental picture for thousands of lovers of "a plate of wheats" and whose skill with the pancake-turner furnishing amusement for and drew the envy of those who have attended expositions and fairs ever since the Chicago world's fair of 1893, fell a victim to an automobile.

It was not until Deputy Coroner Joseph Gubbins held an inquest recently into the death of Mrs. Nancy Green, 4543 Indiana avenue, Chicago, killed in an automobile accident, that it became known that her death marks the passing of an interesting character who will be remembered by countless thousands. For Mrs. Nancy Green will live longest in memory as "Aunt Jemima".

"Aunt Jemima" was born in Montgomery county, Kentucky, in 1834, and went to Chicago as a nurse for the Walker family. She nursed and made pancakes for the late Circuit Judge Charles M. Walker, chief justice of the municipal court, and his brother, Dr. Samuel Walker, now a leading north side physician, when they were boys. They spread her fame among their boy chums, and before long "Aunt Jemima's pancakes" became a common phrase in Chicago where good things to eat were discussed.

A milling concern heard of her, searched her out, obtained her recipe and induced her to make pancakes at the world's fair. After that she went from one exposition to another demonstrating her skill. There was one, however, that she refused to attend—the Paris exposition. All inducements that could be made were put forward, but "Aunt Jemima" refused to budge.

"No, suh," she said. "They ain't no man gonna get me on th' watah. I was bo'n in this country an' I'm gonna die heah, an' not somewehah 'twixt heah an' somewehah else."

She was one of the first colored missionary workers and one of the organizers of the Olive Baptist church, now the largest colored church in the world, with a membership of over 9,000.

"Aunt Jemima" was killed while standing on the sidewalk under the elevated structure in East Forty-Sixth street, Chicago.—Pittsfield (Ill.) Republican.

WHAT A RELIEF

At last the great army of small taxpayers is coming into its own. Salaried men, receiving less than $5,000 a year, are numerous and the burden of their complaint against federal taxes has been great. Every year the small taxpayer has been compelled to fill out a six-page income tax blank and pay taxes greater than he thought he could afford. He has complained long and loud.

Good news comes from Washington. The income tax authorities are going to do something for the benefit of the man getting less than $5,000. Form 1040, on which he made his return, is to be cut from six pages to two, and many of the confusing complications are to be eliminated. Nothing is to be done for the man who pays more than $5,000. Income tax experts will still be at his service for the usual period.

As for the taxes themselves, the internal revenue departments reports no change. The two page return will cost as much as the six-page return of former years.

The French assert they live to a more advanced age than the American, and there is no question just now but what it seems longer.

Another thing that we can be thankful for, possibly, on the last Thursday of the month, is that we have survived another year of the armistice.

The jury in county court in the case of Ben Fussell, charged with carrying a pistol, was unable to agree. Warwick Ballard, charged with theft, was acquitted.

An iconoclast comes forward to say that the ostrich doesn't bury his head in the sand, after all. However, having plenty of sand available, he could if he wished to.

While Blasco Ibanez declares there is entirely too much liquor in Europe our rum runners seem to be attending to the situation as rapidly as possible.

An open fire in the evening is one of the most comfortable things on earth, provided the furnace is in good working order.

A recent compilation of major crimes in the United States and Great Britain again shows Britain hopelessly outclassed.

However, Mr. Coolidge is likely to land the silent vote.

SOCIALISTIC BUBBLE EXPLODES

With the admission publicly made by the Australian premier that national operation of ships has resulted in bankruptcy, another socialistic bubble is punctured.

Government operation of the Australian fleet has paid nothing into the public treasury, but has taken $30,000,000 out of the pockets of the Australian people.

Their big fleet was taken over during the war under rather favorable conditions, Australian ships operating free from all restrictions imposed on other shipping.

Socialists rejoiced that tonnage was short, markets plentiful, middlemen and selfish interests ditched and only the public welfare was to be considered.

The Prime Minister shows a loss in operation of $14,000,000 in two years, and gross cost of the fleet of $70,000,000 shrunken to $23,000,000.

A new shipping board is to take over the fleet at $23,000,000 and a great $11,000,000 dockyard at $2,000,000.

The taxpayers who lost a large sum in the venture are now asked to supply a further large sum to enable the government to continue in the business.

Socialism promises to improve the condition of the people, but the results in Australia as elsewhere only impoverish them.

A GOOD TIME AT TRAWICK

The box supper at Trawick school house Friday night was a most successful and enjoyable affair. Those who attended it expressed themselves as being delighted with this experience.

Prof. Neill, the principal of the school, made a short and interesting talk, expressing his appreciation to the patrons of the school for their splendid co-operation with him in the school work, after which N. T. Suggs, in his usual cheerful and capable way of doing things, acted as auctioneer for the sale of the boxes, the total from which aggregated $96.15, which was turned over to the trustees of the school and placed in the Cushing State Bank to be expended to the best interest of the school.

The prize for the most popular girl was awarded to Miss Allie B. Mitchell, with Miss Minnie Gibson a close second. The prize was a neatly trimmed box filled to its utmost capacity given by Mrs. Blanche Neill, a teacher in the school. Reporter.

PAST MASTER HONORED

Seventy-five members of Milam Lodge, No. 2, A. F. & A. M. met around the banquet board in the lodge room Tuesday evening to do honor to one of their members, Attorney Audley Harris, who leaves Thursday for Austin. Audley Harris, a native son of Nacogdoches, has filled every office in both the Milam Lodge, No. 2, in Nacogdoches Chapter No. 13, R. A. M., and is at present filling the office of Prelate in Nacogdoches Commandery, No. 55, Knights Templar. Preceding the banquet hour the E. A. degree was conferred with every station filled by a Past Master of Milam No. 2. Appropriate addresses were made by Phil Sanders, Judge F. P. Marshall, Judge A. T. Russell, H. L. McKnight, Judge V. E. Middlebrook, Rev. Walter Greep, W. S. Beeson of Nacogdoches and J. M. Hughes of Winnfield, La. Dr. T. J. Blackwell, W. M., acted as toastmaster.

This is a fitting honor to one of Nacogdoches' most worthy young men. In addition to his Masonic connection Mr. Harris served as county attorney and also as city attorney, in both of which important positions he gave a good account of himself.

The law office here of Harris & Harris was recently closed and the books and equipment shipped to Austin, where Attorney June C. Harris is serving as a member of the codifying commission and where they will re-establish themselves in the practice of law.

We regret to lose this most estimable family, but wish for them the utmost measure of success in their new home.

We note with pleasure that high-brows who wish to rewrite the Bible still give their unqualified approval to the solar system.

NOTICE TO OPERATORS OF AUTOMOBILES

Under and by virtue of the oath of office duly administered to me, and the direction of the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Nacogdoches, I shall endeavor to enforce the traffic laws of the City of Nacogdoches and the State of Texas within the City Limits of Nacogdoches, and this notice is published for the purpose of giving the people an opportunity to adjust themselves as well as their cars for the enforcement of the laws.

It is my purpose to begin this strict enforcement of the law on November 24th, 1923, and all operators of automobiles are requested, for their own benefit, to get their cars in shape to stand the test.

Among other things, the laws of the state require that the automobiles shall be equipped with two license numbers, one at the head end of the car and the other on the rear, and two lights on the head end of the car and one red light on the rear, and the law further prohibits the driving of an automobile faster than twelve miles an hour on the streets of Nacogdoches.

If you have no license numbers the County Tax Collector will provide you with them for a nominal sum; and if your lights are not in the proper condition, there are several places in town that repair them and sell new ones.

Further, when you are stopped and ordered to report to the City Hall on a designated date, do not argue with or abuse the officer as he is only attending to his duties and to act unreasonably is only going to aggravate matters. If you have any excuses to offer, tell them to the Judge at the proper time, as the officer has no time to listen to them.

The law was passed for the benefit of the majority and if a few are permitted to trample the law down it loses its purposes. Please consider it from the standpoint of the public and not yourself alone.

ASA H. MOORE, City Attorney.

Prosperity, says a Chicago newspaper, is a matter of psychology, in spite of which one of the toughest jobs on earth is doing business with a psychic dollar.

It is noticeable that no town ever came forward and claimed the distinction of being the home of the saxophone.

BEDS OF OTHER GENERATIONS

Those in Use Centuries Ago More Sumptuous, but Less Comfortable Than Couches of Today.

A drastic law of Nature requires that we spend nearly a third of our lives at insensible rest, and it is a normal consequence that we should have become connoisseurs of that piece of furniture which comforts or annoys sleep—our beds, remarks the Kansas City Star.

Hundreds of generations have been before our time, and all of these countless people slumbered as we do; not, however, upon box springs and hair mattresses. The ancients slept upon skins thrown upon the ground. Later, pallets of loose rushes, heather, or straw were considered a great improvement, until the Romans thought of using feathers, and the upper classes placed the cushions upon couches, which had been in use also among the Egyptians and later Greeks.

The beds of France of the Seventeenth century were sumptuous creations and played an important part in social affairs. It was the custom that a bride, on the day following her marriage, should retire to her bed and welcome the visitors who came to pay their respects. Again on the third day a lady of high rank would recline upon her couch and receive all the court. A widow of this period also kept to her bed for several days after the death of her husband, and friends offering sympathy called upon her there.

Queen Elizabeth held each day a morning consultation with her ministers while yet in bed.

MAKES FINE SYRUP
Lufkin News, 20th.

Jim Chamblee, who has the reputation of being one of the very best syrup makers in all of East Texas, was a welcome visitor at the News office this morning, leaving a can of the delectable product that has established for him this most enviable reputation, and which has flooded him with orders from all parts of the state, which he finds unable to fill on account of the short crop made. The orders received specifically stated that only syrup made by him was wanted, a compliment to his skill that is highly appreciated by this good farmer of the Ora community.

There comes a time when man must meet his Maker, and when its maker must meet a promissory note.

Americans, says a returned traveler, are not popular abroad. However, they are accepted—if they have money.

THE SOLDIER BONUS

Houston Chronicle.
It is evident that the country is to be troubled by the proposed soldier bonus movement, and it is just as evident that opposition to the proposed bonus bill is increasing.

Heretofore, the Chronicle has made its position clear on the question, and has not changed and does not propose to change its views.

No sum, however large, is too much to be expended to restore to health and efficiency, or promote the comfort of the men who were wounded or who were otherwise incapacitated by their service in the army. All that medical and surgical skill and tender nursing and up-to-date hospitals can do should be done at any cost for the former soldier who needs that kind of service.

To do less would be base ingratitude and rank injustice; but the case of the man who was not wounded or broken in health and who is not incapacitated no bonus should be given.

To do so would be to degrade patriotism by commercializing it. It would be a violation of all the ideals and traditions of the nation for generations. Then men who fought at their country's call did only that which was their duty. Their forbears had done this same thing and it may be that necessity may demand the same service of their posterity.

They were paid while in the service and the majority of them came back physically more fit to meet the duties of life than when they went. Many who did not go to the front likewise served, strove and suffered for the cause, but ask no pay.

The service man who came back physically fit is as capable as any other man of fighting the battle of life, and there are hundreds of thousands of such men who scorn the suggestion that they can be paid in money for offering their lives in behalf of liberty.

In the late election in Oklahoma an additional tax was voted for public free schools, but the heaviest vote cast against any measure was against the proposed bonus.

Neither Texas nor any other state can afford to set a precedent of assessing service to country by a sordid commercial standard.

In the skull of a prehistoric woman found in California, 10 of her teeth were worn down, indicating to some that she may have been a stenographer.

HOMES ON EASY PAYMENTS

LET'S PULL TOGETHER FOR GOOD

NO MATTER WHAT MAY BE YOUR RELIGION, YOUR POLITICS OR VOCATION, YOU WILL AGREE WITH US THAT THERE IS REALLY NO PRICE WHICH CAN BE PLACED UPON THE VALUE OF TRUE FRIENDSHIP.

You have known men who, on account of some peculiarity or personality, some unattractive twist of their make-up have but very few friends. Did you ever see much a man who was really happy? NOT AT ALL. More likely you will see a man who is morose, taciturn, and who acts as though he had a grudge against himself; AND IN FACT HE REALLY HAS.

It is the man who tries to live THE GOLDEN RULE WAY, the man who believes in THE LIVE AND LET LIVE POLICY, who has friends all about him, scores and hundreds of them. This kind of a man will pull with you in every good work. He is not constantly trying to throw cold water on the efforts of others. He is an optimist and a booster and a valuable citizen to any town.

Perhaps you have noticed that story without words entitled "PULL TOGETHER." It would be a fine picture to run on this page. "Two mules are grazing along, tied to opposite ends of a twelve foot rope. They come to two juicy hay doodles located about 20 feet apart. One wants to eat at one pile and the other on the other one. The rope is entirely too short to permit of this so they set into pulling, one against the other, until both are worn to a frazzle and nothing accomplished. THEN THEY DECIDE TO GET TOGETHER and as a result they stop bucking against each other, both walk over to the same doodle and all is well."

Lots of folks, with more than mule sense, are doing this same thing every day and some of them may be found right around us. And just let enough of a population follow these tactics and the result spells DISASTER. IT'S THE "PULL TOGETHER" SPIRIT THAT WINS.

One gentleman, whose ad is on this page said to the writer: "I make it a point to buy all I can in Nacogdoches but I know some here who buy nearly everything in other places, so what good is it for me to adhere to the BUY AT HOME PLAN if others do not?" He might as well have asked: "WHAT GOOD IS IT FOR ME TO LIVE A CLEAN, HONEST, LAW-ABIDING EXISTENCE WHEN SOME OTHERS HERE DO NOT?"

OF COURSE, you will find people here who are not loyal to their Home Town. Without giving it a thought they spend many dollars in other places. THESE ARE THE FOLKS WE WANT TO REACH THROUGH THESE EDITORIALS.

We are asking them this:

ISN'T IT WORTH SOMETHING TO YOU to spend your money with Nacogdoches merchants and institutions whose owners are citizens like yourself? Isn't it more satisfying to feel that when you hand over your cash for merchandise or service you are handing it to a friend, someone who has your welfare and interest at heart? Contrast this, if you will, with sending or spending your money in some other community, and you will instantly picture a cold-blooded business transaction with strangers WHO CARE NOT NOR CONCERN THEMSELVES ABOUT YOU OR YOUR WELFARE IN THE SLIGHTEST DEGREE. The dollar you have to spend is the only reason the glad hand is extended to you.

WE WANT YOU FOLKS TO THINK ABOUT THIS the very next time you are tempted to trade elsewhere. Every business man of every line represented on this page is at your service and, in most instances, is ready to do business with you as friend to friend and on a Golden Rule basis.

THINK HARD ON THESE THINGS. THINK WHAT IT WOULD MEAN IF WE ALL MADE AN HONEST RESOLUTION TO FOLLOW THIS TRADE AT HOME PLAN. A GOOD RESOLUTION NEVER HURT ANYONE. LET'S ALL PULL TOGETHER. DO YOUR BIT.

CO-OPERATION IS A GREAT THING.

Nervous Break-Down

MRS. ANNIE LANGE, of R. F. D. 1, Burlington, Tex., writes as follows regarding her experience with Cardui: "Some time ago I had a nervous break-down of some kind. . . I was very weak and so nervous. I had fainting spells and suffered a great deal, but more from the weak, tremble, no-account feeling than anything else. I knew I needed a tonic, and needed it badly. I began the use of Cardui to see if I couldn't get some strength, as I knew of other cases that had been helped by its use. I soon saw a great improvement, so I kept it up. I used seven bottles of Cardui, and can say the money was well spent, for I grew well and strong. Am now able to do all my housework and a great deal of work besides." If you are weak, run-down, nervous and suffer from the ailments peculiar to women, it is very likely that Cardui will help you, in the way it helped Mrs. Lange and has helped thousands of others, during the past 40 years. Ask for, and insist on, Cardui.

Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Nunelle of Diboll, were shopping and renewing old acquaintances in the city Friday.

C. R. Mast of Chireno was looking after business matters here Thursday.

Mr. John T. Lucas of Saco was transacting business in the city Thursday, and, as usual, received a warm welcome from his many friends here.

Mrs. N. P. Crider of Little Rock, Ark., formerly Miss Lea Peterson, is visiting Mr. C. Holtman and other relatives here.

Mrs. Fred Thornton of Waco, is accompanied by the baby, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. C. Snipps, in this city.

M. L. Shofner, traveling representative of the Beaumont Enterprise, arrived in the city Friday in the interest of his paper.

Miss Jeanette Ramsey, who is attending the Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches, spent Tuesday here, the guest of Miss Maude Mills.—Garrison News.

Frank Moore, advance agent for the Doug Morgan Shows, was in the city Friday to make arrangements for the appearance of this popular aggregation here early in December.

A fine boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Millard Moore at 10:30 Friday morning. Mother and babe are doing nicely. Millard will probably recover.

Mr. C. E. Richardson returned Friday night from Houston, where he had been to be present when his brother-in-law, Allan Seale, was operated upon for hernia. The operation was a complete success and the patient is making as good progress toward recovery as could be expected. The good-wishes of a host of Nacogdoches friends are with Mr. Seale, and all hope to see him "on his feet" again soon.

TEACHERS' COLLEGE

Blue Bonnet Literary Society. The regular session of the "Blue Bonnet" Literary Society was held November 15, 1923. There was full attendance with an addition of several new members.

The house was called to order by the president; the meeting was then thrown open for a business session. Miss Virginia Broadfoot was unanimously elected as critic for the remainder of the term. An interesting program was given.

No further business being necessary, we adjourned to meet in regular session the following Thursday, November 23, 1923.

HOME ECONOMICS CLASS INSPECT COOKING UTENSILS

Miss St. John, teacher of home economics in the state teachers college, took her large class to Cason, Monk & Company's Friday for an inspection of the various utensils used in the kitchen, cannery, etc. The display arranged for the occasion proved a revelation to some of the class, who had not previously been afforded an opportunity to see the modern equipment for the work for which they are preparing themselves. On the west side of the store there had been grouped on the counters and shelves the many things provided for the up-to-date kitchen, and the array proved interesting and educational in the fullest sense of the latter word. Vessels for all kinds of cookery, the making of jellies, marmalades and other fruit products, all provided for convenience and assuring the best results in the hands of those who have been taught their use and importance, were arranged for their inspection, and the advantages and uses of the various utensils, explained by Miss St. John, whose wide experience in home economics work peculiarly fit her for the task of instructing her pupils in this important accomplishment. The young ladies of the class and their teacher express their appreciation of the efforts of Mr. Tom Goolsby for the manner in which he exerted himself in grouping and displaying the various vessels submitted for inspection.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

Rev. Bonnie Grimes, pastor of the Baptist church, was elected president of the State Ministers and Laymen's Conference at Galveston last week. He presided over the recent meeting and will serve in this capacity until the next annual meeting. Some 500 ministers and laymen from every part of the state were present.

Monday morning about 2 o'clock an alarm was given and Mrs. Lang's boarding house was discovered to be in flames, the top ready to fall in. It is supposed the fire started from the cookstove in the kitchen. Everything was destroyed, all furniture and household goods. The house belonged to Mrs. Nannie Davis and was insured for $3,000. Mrs. Lang carried some insurance on her furniture and household goods, but not enough to replace them.—San Augustine Tribune, 15th.

BOYS' WORK GOES FORWARD WITH LEAPS AND BOUNDS

The city-wide boys' work, led by Dr. A. O. Browne, Captain J. C. Blake and others, is going forward in fine fashion. Three Boy Scout troops are already enrolled and The American Boys Commonwealth now numbers nearly a hundred.

The boys meet every Friday at 7 p. m. at the Main Street Presbyterian church and there is certainly "something doing" every minute of the time.

Last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock the army of the Commonwealth (the scouts) was called to the border where they met the enemy in a hand to hand conflict, finally taking Orton Hill in a most brilliant dash completely routing the enemy against heavy odds. There were few casualties on the American side.

Among other things the enemy's commissary was captured and the boys lost no time in getting on the inside of it.

A message in code reached the war department at 3 p. m. Saturday and troops were immediately rushed to the border. As we go to press we find all lines of communication cut and no information can be given out other than that our boys will fight for the right to the last ditch.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County—Greetings:

You are hereby commanded to summon Roxie Sims by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Nacogdoches county, to be held at the courthouse thereof, in Nacogdoches, on the 2d Monday in February, 1924, the same being the 11th day of February, 1924, then and there to answer a petition in said court on the 24th day of October, 1923, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1054, wherein Washington Sims is plaintiff and Roxie Sims is defendant, said petition alleging that plaintiff and defendant were married on or about the 15th day of December, 1916, and lived together as man and wife until the 1st day of March, 1917, when defendant abandoned plaintiff. Plaintiff asks a decree of divorce on the statutory grounds of three years' desertion by defendant.

Witness I. R. Prince, clerk of the district court of Nacogdoches county, Texas.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, in the county of Nacogdoches, this the 13th day of November, 1923.

I. R. PRINCE,

Clerk District Court of Nacogdoches County, Texas.

Issued this, the 13th day of November, 1923.

I. R. PRINCE,

Clerk District Court of Nacogdoches county, Texas.

Mr. G. W. Faulkner, a progressive farmer of the North Church community, brought to the Sentinel office Saturday a specimen of his crop of velvet beans, which should arouse the attention and emulation of all farmers of the county. This is one of the most prolific of our forage crops, and its virtues as a feed for cattle have been thoroughly demonstrated. It probably has no superior as an article of diet for stock, and its generous yield is another of its recommendations. The twig brought us by Mr. Faulkner contains a cluster of 23 well-developed pods, and one had been displaced. The length of the branch upon which these beans grew is exactly 12 inches.

NOTICE SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas, County of Nacogdoches

By virtue of an Order of Sale, issued out of the Honorable District Court of Nacogdoches County, Texas, issued by the clerk thereof on the 5th day of November, A. D. 1923, and judgment in cause No. 6210, wherein said judgment the Appleby State Bank recovered a judgment against J. B. Matlock for $805.44, besides interest and costs, with a foreclosure of the first lien on 140 acres of land, more or less, on the D. Cervantes grant, in said county, near the town of Linn Flat, and fully described in the deed of trust lien given by W. R. Brown in favor of A. D. Brewer, of record in Vol. 9 at pages 365 et seq. Deed of Trust Records of said County, and to which reference is made for all purposes, and known as the Brown place; and a second lien on the second tract described, subject to the judgment therein named.

And in said judgment W. U. Perkins recovered judgment against J. B. Matlock for $3,165.30, with 10 percent interest and costs, and a foreclosure of the first vendor's lien as against all parties to the suit to secure his judgment upon 151.44 acres of land about 10 miles east of the City of Nacogdoches, in said county, a part of the John Hall and B. M. Hall surveys near the town of Melrose, and known as the A. D. Brewer place, which is fully described in deed to J. B. Matlock from A. D. Brewer and wife, of record in Vol. 103 page 571, Deed Records of said county, and to which reference is made for all purposes. The proceeds from the sale of the 151.44 acres shall first satisfy W. U. Perkins judgment in full, and from the proceeds of the sale of the other tract the officer shall first satisfy judgment in favor of the Appleby State Bank, if insufficient, and if there is any surplus from the sale of the 151.44 acres tract after paying the judgment in full due W. U. Perkins, then enough of such surplus shall be applied to the judgment in favor of the Appleby State Bank, and after both judgments have been satisfied, any surplus shall be paid to the defendant, S. M. Adams, as a credit on the $1,405.40 due him by Matlock, who has a lien on both tracts subject to the liens and judgment in favor of W. U. Perkins and Appleby State Bank, as fully shown in the judgment and order of sale, to each of which reference is now made for all purposes; and both tracts of land have been levied upon as the property of J. B. Matlock as to the 151.44 acres and the other tract of W. R. Brown, to satisfy the two judgments first named and in the manner named, besides interest and costs, and the officer selling is directed to first sell the 151.44 acre tract and apply sufficient proceeds therefrom to satisfy W. U. Perkins' judgment in full; and, second, to sell the other tract from which proceeds judgment in full due the Appleby State Bank is to be paid in full, if the proceeds from the sale of the last tract is not sufficient to satisfy the Appleby State Bank judgment and if there is any surplus left after the payment of the judgment in favor of W. U. Perkins, then such surplus shall be applied first to the Appleby State Bank judgment, and if any remain to be paid to S. M. Adams.

Given under my hand this 6th day of November, A. D. 1923.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotabs."

The last triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines, thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no gripping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger. Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price 35 cents for the large family size; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

Building up is the hard part. It takes three generations to make a gentleman, and only one little chorus girl to break one.

CATCHING FISH WITH POISON

Natives of Borneo Have Peculiar Method of Levying Toll on the Finny Tribe.

Along the tributary streams of the Rejang river, in the independent state of Sarawak, on the island of Borneo, the native Sedowans and Dyaks have a unique method of taking fish, and one much superior to dynamiting. Near the mouth of a creek a barrier of lattice-work is erected. In this space is left an opening wide enough to permit the canoes to pass through. After the boats go up the stream a net is placed across the opening. From 20 to 30 canoes engage in fishing. When the point is reached where operations are to begin, two small dugouts, which have been towed, are emptied of their liquid contents. This muddy-looking concoction is tuba poison, from the plant coculus indicus. The poison is made by pounding the root to shreds and then mixing with water in certain proportions known to the fishermen. Quick results are obtained. In about five minutes stupefied fish begin coming to the surface gasping for breath. The numbers increase with every passing minute. Standing up in their canoes the natives spear the helpless fish with great rapidity. In half an hour the boats are generally filled to capacity. How potent the tuba poison is may be realized by the fact that within half an hour after a few gallons have been poured in a good-sized creek, fish a mile and a half downstream are brought to the surface in considerable numbers. Where the tuba poison method is good is that the poison does not kill the fish—only stupefies them temporarily. Thus all not taken for food soon are normal again.

HAS GOOD IDEA FOR DIARY

Man Finds Loose Leaf Eliminates Personal Historian's Worry and is Sure Chronicler.

Arthur Bjinks has at last found a satisfactory way of keeping a diary. More than once he had started off the new year with a nice fresh volume, determined to let not a single day go by without making some entry. And more than once March, April or May have found the diary abandoned and forgotten. Now Arthur is getting along fine with what he calls his "occasional diary," the New York Sun and Globe states.

He explains: "I found that what caused me to lose interest in other diaries was the feeling that however boring a day I might have put in, I felt compelled to make some sort of entry. No more do I use a dated printed diary. I write at the top of the page the date of any day which has seen events worth recording and make a note of them. There may be no entries between May 1 and 12 and June 8 on page 13. But that will be because nothing of interest or at least, worthy of note, has transpired between those dates.

"Thus I have a record of keen interest to myself that is not cluttered up with a lot of boring, uninteresting memoranda just because the space was there and had to be filled each night."

CIVIL WAR GAVE RED CROSS

How Frederickburg Inspired Clara Barton With Idea for the Famous Organization.

The Civil war had scarcely started when Clara Barton voluntarily abandoned her business of teaching school in a New Jersey town and enlisted as a nurse in the hospital of the Union army. From the outset she insisted upon doing duty at the front. She was especially interested in one of the regiments from New Jersey, and before the men in that command went into action she ministered to them in a way that won their gratitude. An incident which she never forgot occurred after the battle of Fredericksburg, say the records. Miss Barton received word that she was wanted at the Lincoln hospital. This is her own simple story of what occurred there:

"As I entered the ward 70 men saluted me, standing such as could, others rising feebly in their beds. Every man had left his blood upon the battlefield of Fredericksburg. My hand dressed every wound—many of them in the first terrible moments of agony."

That incident is said to have been the origin of the Red Cross, which was organized in 1882, and with which the name of Clara Barton is inseparably linked. She was the founder of the Red Cross and its first president.

Beecher a Horticulturist.

Henry Ward Beecher, the celebrated American clergyman and orator, at one time had considerable fame as an authority on matters bearing on that subject in the pioneer days of western horticulture. He was editor of the Western Farmer and Gardener, and a selection of his contributions were printed in 1859 as a book of nearly 450 pages, entitled "Plain and Pleasant Talk About Fruits, Flowers and Farming." A second edition was published in 1874—a book of nearly 600 pages, containing also articles written for the New York Ledger.

These papers have a higher literary value than is usual in horticultural writings, and are still entertaining and suggestive, says the Detroit News. They are said to have done much to spread the taste for country life and gardening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Latimer and Mrs. M. A. Mitchel land niece, Miss Lexa Stephens, who is attending the Stephen F. Austin Normal, motored over to Joaquin Sunday evening to visit Miss Stephens' sister, who was reported ill. Upon finding her sister able to resume her position teaching school, they returned Monday at noon.

Two handbags containing $500 worth of gloves were stolen in New York, all for the right hand, so the detectives are probably looking for a suspect with both arms off at the elbow.
