SCHOOL BOARD EXPLAINS CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ELECTION ON SATURDAY

To the Voters of the Ranger Independent School District:
You have possibly heard discussed the action of the Ranger school board in its proposal to discontinue the school at Merriman and transfer the students into town.

This action on the part of the school board brought forth a protest from the Merriman community and that protest is being voiced by them in an election to be held tomorrow in an effort to withdraw from the Ranger school district. We desire to set forth briefly the facts on which the action of the board was based. In the first place, the building of the Ranger city school program was inaugurated and put over when there was an average attendance in the Ranger schools of 2,900. The assessed valuations of the district was around 16 million dollars. Now our average attendance is 1,450; our assessed valuation is four millions. Thus our attendance has shrunk 37 per cent while values have shrunk 75 per cent. In other words, the instructional load has decreased 37 per cent and the ability to pay teachers has decreased twice that amount.

There has been very small reduction of bonds and bond interest and sinking funds. The bonded indebtedness now being $376,000, in addition to $10,000 floating indebtedness, which it cannot pay. Our property values for several years have decreased at the rate of one and a half million dollars a year.

The assessed values of the town have been reduced 33 per cent and have been paid in script largely and we are still not able to pay our obligations. The above facts give a view to maintaining an efficient school system, naturally the board continually is seeking a solution to its problem which indeed is the problem of the community which the board represents.

Two years ago it was found that owing to small attendance, the Tiffin school was costing for instruction per pupil $82, whereas the average cost per pupil in larger schools of the system was only a little less than a third of that amount. This resulted in the closing of Tiffin school, much to the regret of the community and the board. This year the records disclosed that the average attendance per teacher at Merriman was only one-half the average per teacher in the rest of the ward schools and therefore the cost per pupil and per teacher was double at Merriman.

In checking up it was found that on account of the light attendance at Cooper per teacher, that the Merriman pupils could be absorbed there without overloading and that better teaching advantages could be given there since each teacher at Merriman was required to teach three grades.

The necessity for curtailing was and is regretted on the part of the board. We appreciate the community spirit and pride of Merriman in seeking to maintain a school in their midst but the policy of the state department of education and everywhere is that of consolidation and efficiency must be the watchword in education. Otherwise we remain where we were 50 years ago at the expense of the educational opportunities of the youth of the land.

In addition to community loyalty Merriman is basing its contention on a boom-time contract made at the time of their consolidation with Ranger to the effect that a three-teacher school should be maintained at Merriman and that they should never be required to pay school taxes. The attorney general long ago ruled that a clause in the law consolidating the schools, exempting that community from payment of taxes was illegal and void, being against public policy.

The Ranger school operates a bus which affords the best of protection in all kinds of weather and delivers the children at the very door of a school equal to the best. In the light of the above facts and believing that a vote in favor of the withdrawal of Merriman will be the forerunner of long drawn out litigation which would mean the tying up of Ranger school funds and dire consequences to our school system, we ask that every citizen go to the polls tomorrow in the interest of the children of Ranger and register your disapproval of the withdrawal of Merriman.

RIO GRANDE IS AT FLOOD STAGE EARLY TODAY

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex., Sept. 8.—Rain-filled floodways of the lower Rio Grande Valley overflowed today as the river rose. The floodways filled by rains which followed the hurricane that swept the valley this week, were overflowing in widespread sections of the valley.

Levee workers tossed sandbags into weakened places. E. M. Card, Hidalgo county engineer, said the flood gave indication of being more severe than that of last year when damage approximated $5,000,000 with loss of life and property.

Water penetrated the floodways near Ojo de Agua and Granjeno. Residents of those two places evacuated, driving their stock before them. 250 flood refugees were added to the number cared for by the Red Cross.

Zapata was without telephone or telegraph communication. The Concho, a tributary, empties into the main stream near here and it was thought the two streams had overflowed their banks.

Above Roma the Rio Grande rose quickly. EDINBURGH, Sept. 8.—The gradually mounting death list of the hurricane area was announced by the Red Cross today as 26, after the discovery of a body at Brownsville and the death there from heart shock occasioned by the storm.

Breck All-Stars To Play Ranger Team Here Today

The Breckenridge All-Stars, who have defeated the Ranger All-Stars on three occasions, are to visit Ranger this afternoon for another game, which is to be called at the Young school diamond at 5:30 this afternoon.

Negotiations have been entered into to secure Frank Hicks, Breckenridge left hand pitcher, to hurl for the Ranger team because a good pitcher has never been developed in this section. With Hicks pitching for the Ranger team it is thought that the Ranger team will be able to put up a little better competition than has been shown in the last games.

The Times-Rotary game, which was scheduled for this afternoon, has been postponed until next week because of the All-Star game today.

COTTON CROP OF NATION IS BELOW NORMAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—A U. S. cotton crop of 12,111,000 bales is being estimated on conditions of September 1.

The department said acreage removed through the activities of the agricultural adjustment administration amounted to 10,396,000 acres which is 92,000 acres more than was anticipated on August 1, and which went far to reduce this year's crop under the 13,002,000 bales produced last year.

The census bureau reported 1,394,220 running bales of cotton had been ginned from the 1933 crop prior to Sept. 1, compared with 865,160 for the corresponding time in 1932.

Texas, estimated 1933 production was 3,815,000 as compared with 4,500,000 last year.

Rodeo Features Carbon Community Fair Program

W. R. Ussery, chairman of the livestock division of the Carbon fair states that there will be a trades day and rodeo at Carbon on Saturday, Sept. 16, in connection with the fair and livestock exhibit. The livestock will be judged at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and the rodeo will be held in the afternoon.

Mr. Ussery urges that you bring anything in the way of livestock that you have for exhibit. Ribbons will be awarded for prize stock. Cash prizes will be awarded for rodeo events, said Mr. Ussery, and he especially urges that you bring in the pitching horses and mules and have them ridden at the rodeo.

Romey Free Fall Fair a Success

The Romey free fall fair, the first of a series of one-day fairs being held throughout the county, was held Thursday and was a success in every detail. The attendance was good and the exhibits splendid.

Agricultural vocational teachers Jim Baird of Cisco and M. O. Hood of Rising Star, assisted by Lee Poe and Morgan Stanlee, judged the livestock, while County Agent Patterson judged the agricultural exhibits and Miss Ruth Ramey the exhibits entered by the women. The exhibits were shorter than usual on account of short crops but the quality was excellent.

White is charged with having taken a car belonging to Kenneth Falls of the Cross Roads community from the streets of Eastland during last month. He was apprehended at Kaufman and later taken to Dallas for an investigation concerning another matter.

CRUDE OIL IS RAISED AGAIN BY STANOLIND

TULSA, Sept. 8.—The Standard Crude Oil Purchasing Company today announced a 15-cent barrel increase in the price for crude oil.

The new posting raised the top price for 40-degree gravity to 97 cents for Oklahoma and Kansas. A top of 92 cents will be paid in Texas.

The advance, the third by this company in a few days, approached the Mid-Continent producers' dream of $1.

Other companies were expected to fall in line in this latest advance.

AUSTIN, Sept. 8.—Members of the Texas Railroad commission were in East Texas today with Harold Marshall, of the federal oil administration.

Their trip coincided with putting in new regulations in which Texas is given 75,200 barrels a day.

A state order issued to limit Texas production, reduces by 25 per cent the allowable formerly allocated to various fields and wells.

Coach S. J. Petty of the Eastland high school has been working steadily with a squad of 35 prospective football players since the first of September. With the six on the 1933 crop two additional players around which to build a team the coach is making splendid progress towards building a team for the coming season.

Assistant Coach J. O. Brothers has returned from his summer vacation and is now ably assisting Coach Petty with his work. Due to the fact that football shoes that were ordered more than two weeks ago have not yet come in, the coaches have not yet given the boys any really stiff football work, but have been utilizing the time in teaching the fundamentals of the game and in limbering up exercises.

SWANSON TO PAY FRIENDLY VISIT TONIGHT

Mexico Is First Country To Recognize New Revolutionary Government.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Secretary of State Hull announced today a coast guard cutter has been ordered to Antilla, Cuba, where Americans were reported in danger.

Hull simultaneously announced a policy of strict neutrality toward all political factions.

The secretary said the United States was interested in seeing the establishment of a strong government to maintain law and order.

Hull amplified American policy in an informal statement indicating naval officers now in Cuban waters have authority to protect American lives only and not American property.

The cruiser Indianapolis, bearing secretary of Navy Swanson, Hull said, will pay a courtesy call to Havana and then is expected to proceed to the Pacific coast. Ambassador Sumner Wells will go aboard the ship to confer with Swanson.

A week-end mobilization of naval officers and men has been ordered at Hampton Roads, Va. Thirty navy officers left Washington last night for possible service in Cuba.

President Roosevelt hoped that Cuba will be able to solve its own difficulties. Speaking before the conference on mobilization of human needs Mr. Roosevelt made his first public reference to the present situation in Cuba.

HAVANA, Sept. 8.—Cuba's revolutionary executive committee today formally reorganized the nation's military command, arranged to feed the hungry and declared the danger of United States intervention had been avoided.

HAVANA, Sept. 8.—Mexico has recognized the new revolutionary government of Cuba, the state department announced today. This would be the first recognition by any foreign power.

A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE WAY TO FREEDOM: Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.—John 8: 32.

NEW DEAL IS GIVEN LEGAL SANCTION

Those who have been looking sidewise at the principal acts of the administration's recovery program, fearful lest they find a revolutionary hue in them, ought to sit down and read the text of the decision by which Supreme Court Justice Daniel O'Donoghue of the District of Columbia upheld the constitutionality of the agricultural adjustment act.

Compressed into a few paragraphs, here is a ruling under which our whole form of society and our entire economic machine could be put upon a brand new basis.

If that statement seems strong, you have only to read the following quotation from Justice O'Donoghue's decision:

"The welfare of the people and the very existence of the government itself are in peril.

"The day has passed when absolute vested rights in contract or property are to be regarded as sacrosanct or above the law.

"Neither the necessities of life nor commodities affected with a public interest can any longer be left to ruthless competition for selfish greed for their production or distribution."

That decision, as a matter of fact, may become a great milestone in the never-ending conflict between human rights and property rights. Let it finally be upheld by the nation's highest tribunal and we shall have an entire new philosophy embedded in our legal structure.

Its implications are clear, upon a moment's reflection; nor does one have to ponder very long to discover that some every revolutionary things could be done under the doctrine therein set forth.

The statement that there are rights which transcend the rights of property and the rights of contract, followed as it is by the blunt declaration that the day of free competition in the production and distribution of "the necessities of life or commodities affected with a public interest," is about as far-reaching a dictum as the American courts have ever laid down.

In its influence upon subsequent legislation and upon the general direction of the stream of American life, this ruling may well be ranked as one of the most important in American legal history.

REVENUE AFTER ALL

Out of a long series of legal interpretations, finally it has been worked out that the state can distribute its beer tax stamps so that it will not lose a great amount of revenue when beer legally flows Sept. 15, and so that those dispensers who want to obey the law will not pay a penalty to those who don't.

State Treasurer Charley Lockhart has had the beer tax stamps printed. He is distributing them, and he has sent out the word there will be none of the excuse at first feared for evasion of the tax when beer dispensaries open up two weeks hence.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

"If advertising didn't pay there would be no advertising. If your advertising appropriation isn't bringing in the results that your competitor's appropriation is, there must be a reason.

"Newspaper advertising is primarily for the purpose of creating in the minds of those who read the desire to own your merchandise. Only a limited number of things can be sold by merely naming the articles and the price.

"Attention to copy for your newspaper space pays real dividends upon which you do not need to pay the Federal excise tax of 5 per centum.

"A good selling talk, plus good values, plus service will move goods from the shelves. The space you pay for in the newspapers is of little value unless your copy supplies the selling talk and you are ready to back it up with values and service.

"NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING DOES PAY AND THERE IS ADVERTISING BECAUSE OF THAT FACT."

THAT most cities have a few citizens who, on account of their originality, have a unique way of assisting in every worth while project for the home city.

Real boosting citizens don't whine. They get over the hard parts of the road by pushing forward.

These men never know when they are licked.

They don't go crazy when they win.

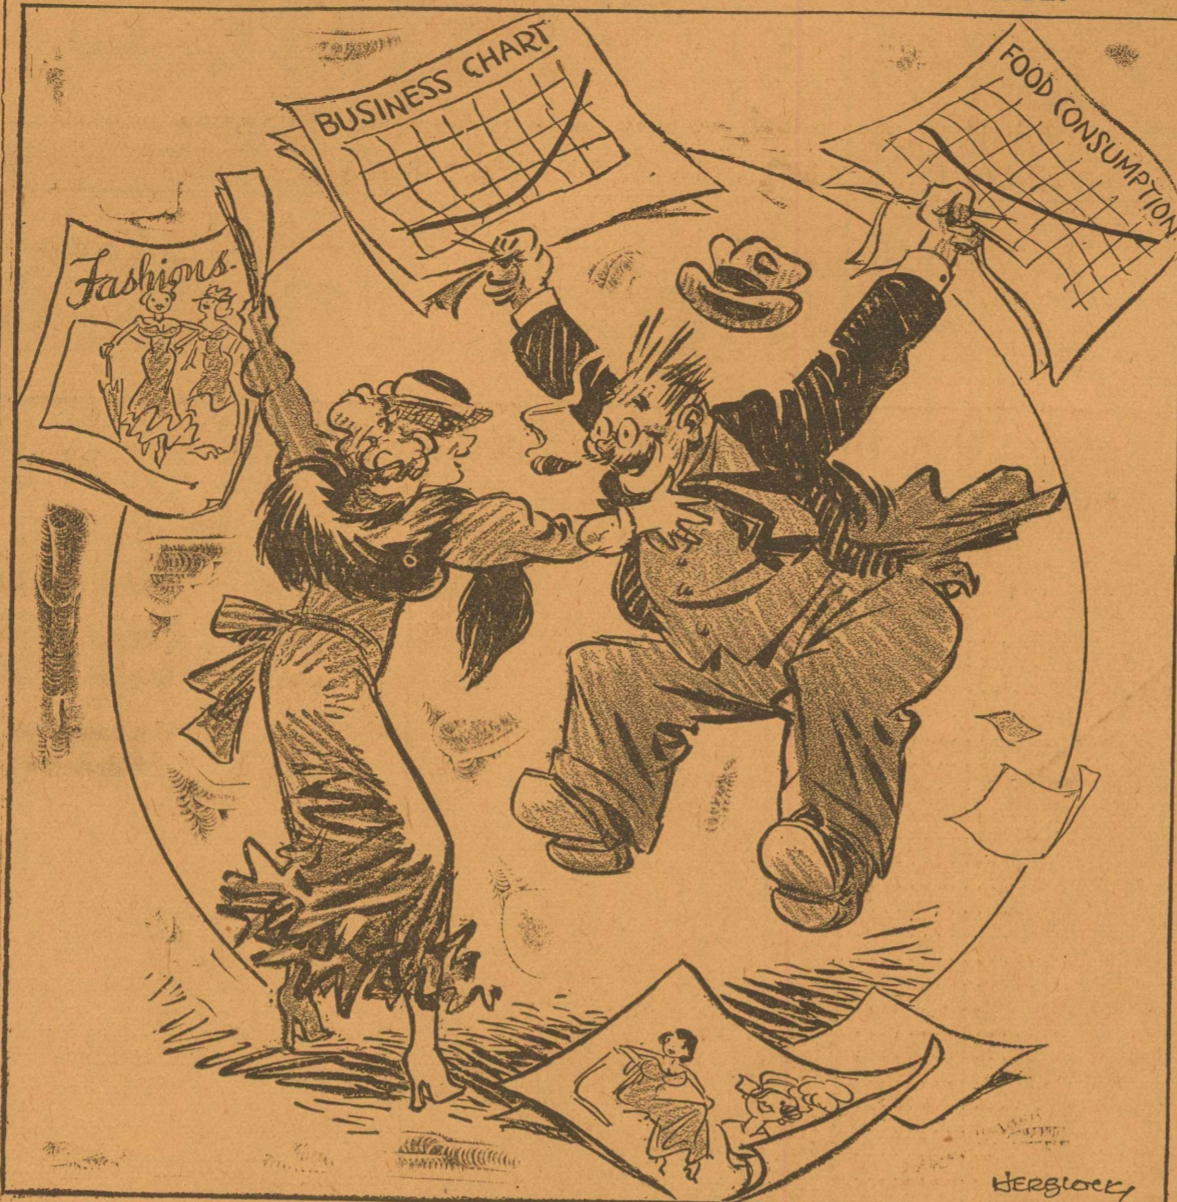

Win or lose, they don't sit down; they steam up, seize the next best thing and go after it.

This is the class of men who build cities.

This is the class of men that have made your city what it is today.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON. — Labor Day found industrialists attached to NRA rather sour over the way the federal strike mediation system is working out.

Labor seems to be able to play both ends of it against the middle. When labor's representatives here agreed to join in a "no strike" appeal, industry conceded support to creation of the National Labor Board with its plan for fair, secret elections to determine whom workers wanted to represent them in collective bargaining under the recovery act.

But as soon as one strike is settled a dozen more break out. There is no authority here to stop strikes, and often the strikers are able to say that they are only upholding the law in its provisions for recognition of representatives of their own choosing.

Secret elections, held under N. L. B. auspices, are fine for the unions. The Reading, Pa., textile workers voted 75 per cent for union representatives, placing 95 per cent of the workers in mills involved under union jurisdiction. Gerard Swope, Louis Kerstein and Walter Teagle—the board's industrialist members—now want to go slow on such elections.

Swope, head of General Electric, found an especially heavy cross to bear when demands came for an election in a section of the affiliated Westinghouse company. General Electric workers, reported organizing, may be next.

ROOSEVELT will soon be asked to pardon George Dale, mill-won national fame a few years ago in his fight against the Ku Klux Klan.

After years of fighting graft and hard-boiled officials, Dale defeated his political enemies and was elected mayor of Muncie. But last year he was arrested with other members of his administration and sentenced in federal court to 18 months in prison on a liquor law violation indictment. He is on bond pending appeal.

Dale and his friends charge a frame-up by bootleggers, gamblers and crooks whom the mayor had put out of business.

Churches Retain Their Positions in Prosperity Club

After two days without a report on the standing of the Ranger in the Prosperity Club Horn o' Gold campaign the Methodist church was found to still be in the lead with what in any other kind of a race or election would be a comfortable margin but which in this contest is just enough to be proud of and work hard to retain.

It was necessary to let Wednesday's papers come out without a county on the church contest due to lack of time on the part of the counters. It is the intent of the campaign and its sponsors that the standing be given as often as possible.

The count at 3 o'clock Friday is given below:

EXHIBITIONS WILL FEATURE FAIR TUESDAY

Several interesting demonstrations which should prove instructive as well have been planned for the Co-Workers community fair, which is to be held on the Hayden Neal place, Spring road, Tuesday, Sept. 12.

Among the most interesting should be the rope-making demonstration, when rope is to be made from regular binder twine. This rope is to be made from the twine costing but 8 cents a pound, whereas a rope of similar size and strength would cost 25 cents a pound. A home-made device for making the rope is to be used in the demonstration. The rope maker was built from timber taken from an old bridge that had been torn down.

The second demonstration of interest will be the cheese-making exhibit, which will show the visitors at the fair how surplus milk can be utilized in making cheese, both for home consumption and for profit.

Raw wool and mohair is also to be used in a spinning wheel demonstration which is to be put on by Mrs. Cole. The raw wool and mohair is to be spun at the fair, showing how it was done years ago and how it can still be spun to advantage by the growers. Hooked rugs, made of raw wool and mohair are also to be exhibited.

A chicken dressing and cutting demonstration is to be put on by Presley Neal, who attended the short course at A. & M. College this summer. He will show the best methods of dressing and cutting chickens as taught at the short course.

These demonstrations, together with several other of equal interest, should make the community fair well worth while to visitors, both from the city and rural sections, the sponsors of the fair believe, and preparations are being made to take care of a good crowd.

Boys and Girls World Club

An assembly play hour was participated in by the Boys and Girls World Club at the opening of their session Wednesday morning, in the lower assembly room of the Methodist church.

The recreational games were directed by Mrs. Fred Drago, and Miss Maurine Davenport, who assembled their divisions afterward in their own classroom, for their program work.

The Junior division under direction of Miss Davenport held a song period, numbers being "Look For the Beautiful," "Forward," and the Indian song, "Small Legs."

Miss Davenport had a discussion of the Indian Peace Pact, and followed this with vocational work in paints and their uses.

The children made new jigsaw puzzles and airplanes, the girls doing embroidery and plain sewing.

These articles will eventually be sent to the Indian mission school in Oklahoma.

The primary division heard an interesting talk on the Navajo Indian by their director, Mrs. Drago, a sketch of the reservation, history of their guardianship by the United States, and their past history.

Work was resumed on the scrap books, which are now nearing completion.

Several games followed their work, enjoyed by Johnnie Lou Murphy, Mary Nell Crowell, Louise Jones, Marie Hart, Betty Jo Newman, Frances Crowell, Virginia Ferguson, Marie Murphy, Billy Beale, Margaret Hipp, Betty Jones, Tom Davenport, Hubert Davis, Jo Bob Davenport, Ernest H. Jones Jr., Thomas Haley Jr.

The next meeting of the club will be held one week from tomorrow, Saturday, at 9:00 a. m. The directors announced this was temporary change, and that after September, the club will be held at 4:00 p. m. each Wednesday.

Attendance was good, and the children enjoyed their school session.

Entertains For House Guests

Mrs. James Horton entertained informally at her delightful home, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of her house guests, her mother, Mrs. James Jessup, and sister, Mrs. George R. Carothers, both of Topeka, Kansas, who arrived last Friday.

Three tables were arranged for auction and one for "42," dressed in black covers with matching card appointments.

The house was decorated with bouquets of periwinkles, and radio music added its charm to the informal affair.

High score favor in auction, a souvenir from the Century of Progress, a deck of cards from the Belgian village, was awarded Mrs. W. B. Pickens.

All favors for games and honors were from Century of Progress.

High score in "42" was awarded Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite, and the favor, a clothes brush with dog head handle, was very novel.

The cut-for-all, a black enamelled compact went to Mrs. J. E. Hickman.

Mrs. Jessup was presented a mother of pearl strand of beads, from the Hall of Religion, and Mrs. Carothers a manicure set in leather case.

Dainty refreshments were served of pineapple sherbert, chocolate cake and iced tea with lemon and mint to Meses. E. C. Satterwhite, T. J. Haley, William Jessup, W. B. Pickens, H. O. Satterwhite, W. Pretty Party For Children

Little four year old Dona Jane Carothers of Topeka, Kansas, who with her mother, is visiting Mrs. James Horton, was entertained with a delightful children's party at the Horton home, Wednesday afternoon by her aunt, Mrs. Horton, who led the little ones in many marching games, prior to the little program of individual talents, when the small misses sang, or danced or recited or did something according to their own ideas.

The result was a very charming entertainment, concluded with the hidden corn, candy game, the favor for having found the most, a novelty jumping rope, going to Frances Beskov.

Bright colored toy balloons were favors for the children, who were served jello with whipped cream topping and cake from a prettily arranged table around which the children were grouped for their "party."

Personnel, Ellen Mac Geue, Lois Larner, Betty Pickens, Aline Jones, Kathleen Collie, Frances Beskov, Mary Jo Collie, Julia Brown, Shirley Patterson and little honoree, Dona Jane Carothers.

Chevrolet Plans More Pay

In conformity with the expressed desire of President Roosevelt to increase compensation for all workers, H. J. Klingler, vice president and general sales manager of Chevrolet, announced today that he had recently submitted to approximately 10,000 dealers, throughout the United States, a plan that would make it possible to materially increase the earnings of more than 25,000 men who are now selling Chevrolet cars and trucks at retail.

While there is nothing compulsory about the plan Mr. Klingler announced that since its introduction he had already received letters and telegrams from nearly 2,000 dealers who have signified their desire to put the plan into operation immediately. Within a year it is confidently expected that every Chevrolet dealer in the country will have made it possible for his retail salesmen to make more money.

While definite and specific in its recommendations the plan is

A resident of Wichita County also was mentioned by the plotters.

Judge Carl Springer of Eastland is in receipt of a message from his brother, G. W. Springer, who lives at Harlingen, stating that he and his family came through the recent storm there unhurt but that their property was badly damaged and their loss heavy.

broad enough to meet the requirements of dealers regardless of their size. It is said by those who are familiar with the details that it will work just as successfully for the dealer who operates in a small town as for one located in New York or Chicago.

Under the provisions which Mr.

Klingler has recommended it is possible for any retail salesman to substantially increase his earnings through the sale of new cars, used cars, trucks and accessories. He also participates in house deals, something that in many instances has heretofore been denied to many salesman. A recommended bonus system further augments the salesman's earnings during the Fall and Winter seasons when sales usually fall below the spring and summer peaks. Thus the salesman who qualifies always has a reserve to draw upon when most needed.

One of the outstanding features that Mr. Klingler feels will especially appeal to the retail salesman is the fact that this plan provides a steady job for all competent men—at a rate of pay that compares favorably with that paid in other fields.

Dealers will also benefit because they can attract the highest calibre of salesman into their organization. Increased sales will make this volume possible. Loyalty, enthusiasm, and a feeling that the boss is playing fair has been found to be a pretty strong link in holding an organization together.

Boom Day News Writer Contrasts Ranger of Today With That of 1918

Editor's note: The following article is written by Jack Lloyd, a collector of fortune, a soldier of five wars, globe-trotter, adventurer, publisher, editor, reporter, and holder of the title of "the world's greatest boom-er."

Jack tells of the time he edited copy in Johannesburg, South Africa, during the rush to the fields on the Kimberly; again in Sidney, Australia; then he made the trek to Alaska, where he edited copy on the first paper established in the territory during the famous gold rush.

Texas has seen Jack in every boom of importance. He first invaded the state during the hectic days of Beaumont, when the Lucas gusher made history in the oil industry. Since that historical period Jack has "made" the following Texas booms: Ranger, Hogtown, Breckenridge, Mexia, Powell, Wink, Pecos, Midland, Odessa, McCombe, Del Rio, Borger, Pampa, Longview, Kilgore, Gladewater, Burkburnett, Wichita, Vernon, Luling, Laredo, Refugio, Amarillo, Conroe, Big Spring, Brownwood, and many other smaller fields.

Jack has gained quite a few friends among the nation's leaders, and many of them permit him to call them by first name, among the following being some of the "big shots," Harry F. Sinclair, Al Smith, Robert McCormick, Jimmie Cox, and several others.

During the Ranger boom Jack worked here two different times, having been brought into town by Bob Waggoner, then publisher of the Times, and now publisher of the Scripps paper in Fort Worth.

Although 65 years old, Jack is still very active, and he has made quite a number of additional friends during the last few years, while riding in freight trains, hitch-hiking, riding the blinds, etc., with the vast army of unemployed on the road, sending his large features into the big syndicates, and writing local articles for the papers visited.

As Jack called on the Times office Friday morning, he unraveled the following article as he saw Ranger in the boom, and as he sees Ranger today:

BY JACK LLOYD

Ranger, the next stop; everybody out for the oil city. That was the cry of the crew as the passengers on the T. & P. afternoon train began to get ready to embark from the train at the greatest boom town the entire has ever seen. In all the world—and I have been making booms for 45 years, there will never be another Ranger. It gained more publicity, more notoriety, than any other town ever known.

I had just come back from France. I was used to anything, but I had never expected to witness the scenes encountered in Ranger for the following weeks that I worked on the paper.

As I started to unload from the train as every other passenger did, I began to see the scenes of real activity, everything imaginable. Teams wading mud up to their stomachs, cursing drivers stuck in mud, cafes all crowded, a cot or bed at a premium; newsboys calling the latest editions; hawkers selling almost anything known. A post card seller crying. A rainy day in Ranger; two bits to cross the street on the sled; a chorus girl stuck in the middle of the street; dance hall girls galore; Mattie Felts and Texas Bud bidding for the dance trade; Bill Jensen's Gusher Cabaret; the Blue Goose; Harman's; Scott's Place; the ever lasting rush in the Ranger; Scott's and Matcalf's cafes; the ballyhoosers for the girl shows; speeling all day and most of the night; theatres all crowded; mud; mud everywhere; the long line to the general delivery window in the post office; the largest pool hall in the South; the professional gamblers; men about town; Rangers coming down the street two

One plant that's not working overtime these days is the famed Century Plant in The Bronx (N. Y.) Botanical Garden. Four weeks overdue on its scheduled blooming, the temperamental exhibit here is shown as it appeared tardily with 66 of its blossoms in bloom. It still had 534 to go!

in Campus Murders

scenes; thousands of field workers coming and going to and from towers; a mile long string of teams trying to get loaded at the railroad tracks; machinery weighing tons, getting unloaded at the depot from express cars. Stenographers, waitresses, dishwashers at a premium. A clown advertising the biggest meal in...

years ago everything was hey he money was the least thought thing of the day, labor was scarce newcomers mingled with the old heads to get next to the gaff. Y slept on cots in the old building south of the track, and by the time one made the journey from town to the office he had to crape a ton of dirt and mud from his shoes, the hon circulation was only around a 1,000 copies a day, but—the new stand and street sales—2,000 the Times—not counting extra we had extras almost every day for a while, always something sensational.

As long as I live I will never forget those days, as the old saying goes... "Them were the days."

I arrived in Ranger Thursday evening late—I was almost bewildered, modern hotels, office buildings, theatres, chain stores, paved streets and highways in every direction; very few unemployed on the streets, modern recreation and swimming pools, schools that would be a credit to cities many times larger; churches built for worship; clubs; civic organizations; the Times in a plant today big enough for a city of 60,000. Although there are many empty buildings, Ranger has progressed much better than I expected to find conditions, and, unlike many of the oil field towns of history, Ranger lacks quite a bit of being in the "tombstone" class.

ATTENTION

VOTERS OF RANGER INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT!

The entire School Board of the Ranger Independent School District is vigorously opposed to the separation of the Merriman School from said District.

Should dissolution be voted in tomorrow's election, litigation will in all probability follow which might result in tying up the entire funds of said District for an indefinite period of time, thereby crippling our entire school system.

Is it worth the risk of closing all of our schools in order to keep Merriman School open? The voters of our District must assume the responsibility in answering this question at tomorrow's election.

The Board opposes dissolution for the best interests of the school children of the entire district, as the Merriman children will be given ever better advantages than they now enjoy. To favor dissolution would be to invite consequences disastrous and unthinkable.

The School Board has no quarrel with the good people of Merriman, but feels that it has acted and is acting for the best interests of our School District as a whole, under present conditions. The Board expressed an inclination to maintain a one-teacher school at Merriman, but was informed Merriman would not be satisfied with anything less than a two-teacher school. Lack of finances makes it impossible for the Board to comply with such a demand.

You are therefore urged and requested to read the communication appearing elsewhere in this paper and to go to the polls tomorrow and VOTE AGAINST DISSOLUTION.

Board of Trustees of the Ranger Independent School District.

Gen. Hagood Is Transferred To Eighth Corps Area

By United Press
SAN ANTONIO.—San Antonio expects to like and be stimulated by the transfer of Major General Johnson Hagood, recently transferred from command of the seventh army corps area to command of the eighth corps area headquarters here.

The outspoken general is a favorite with his army associates, and several of the personnel here served with him in other posts.

General Hagood has gained national fame as a soldier of liberal opinions and fearlessness in expression of his convictions. Although not, his friends say, a seeker of publicity for his own sake, he does believe it does the army good. For that reason he has not hesitated to air criticisms of the army's organization when he believed they were on the constructive side.

Recently before a congressional committee he declared the present organization of the army was heavy with its multitudinous divisions which he believes would break down under the pressure of war. He advocated its reorganization into a few major branches.

He caused a major sensation when he declared that any intelligent American youth could be equipped for trench warfare in 30 days of training, provided the century-old "squads right" school of drill was eliminated.

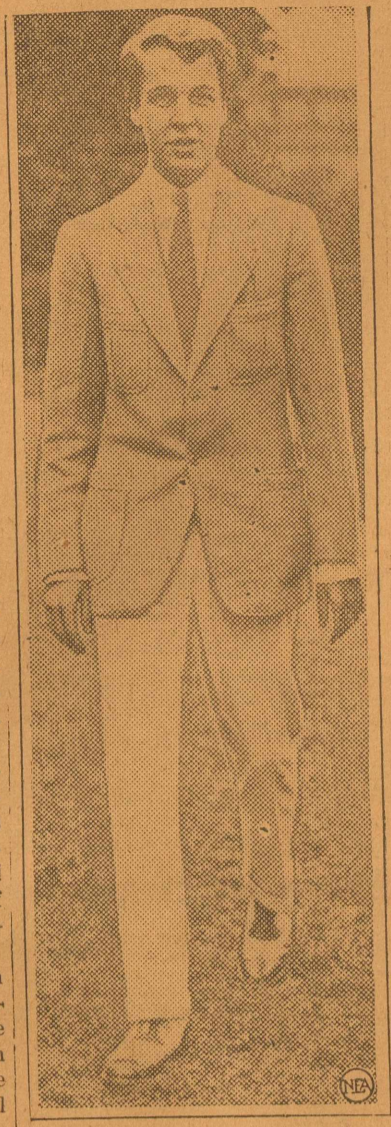

In another attack on red tape in the war department the critical general asserted army machinery was so complicated "that an archangel from heaven couldn't operate it."

His criticisms have not always confined themselves to the army. When congress was solemnly debating whether or not to limit the alcoholic content of beer to 2.75 per cent the general exploded. Such a beverage, he declared, would be mere "bellywash."

At Omaha, Neb., where General Hagood has been in command of the seventh army corps area, he won the esteem of the community. His transfer becomes effective Oct. 1.

General Hagood was one of the youngest brigadier generals ever appointed, his associates here recalled, and is believed to be the youngest major general ever in Orangeburg, S. C., where he held West Point and was transferred to artillery.

Vanderbilt, Jr. Soon to Be 21

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, above, shown here in a recent photo, will come of age Sept. 22 and into control of millions. His father, who died when the Lusitania sank, left him $2,500,000 of the fortune his family amassed in real estate and railroads and he'll share with his younger brother about $15,000,000 more.

He was assistant to the chief of coast artillery when the World War broke out. He went to France to command the seventh regiment, C. A. C. General John J. Pershing appointed him to organize the Service of Supply, of which he was made chief of staff. After the war he was with the Army of Occupation as commander of the 66th Field Artillery Brigade. He received the Distinguished Service Order of the Service of Supply and he also holds the Legion of Honor and the same rank in the Order of the Crown.

Dallas Air Field Director to Quit Post on Oct. 1

By United Press
DALLAS.—Preston Sneed, the man who made Love Field here the nonpareil among airports which it is today, will retire as director of the port Oct. 1 because the city can't afford to maintain his office any longer.

In 1929 when Sneed took charge of the airport, the city had just a little money as now to spend on flying fields and the like. But Sneed had a knack of getting cash when there wasn't any and of borrowing, "swiping," getting by hook or crook what he needed to develop the boggy, uneven plot of ground which civic leaders hailed as an "all-weather airport, one of the finest in the land."

Love Field then probably was one of the worst airports "in the land." Sneed decided to make it a model which other cities would copy. He asked the city fathers for money but got none. He became a "chiseler," a pest to heads of the various city and county departments. But he got what he wanted. He borrowed equipment, labor and materials. He made the erstwhile rectangle of hog wallows and hummocks into a smooth, dry, firm place for airplanes to land and take off.

An innovation introduced by Sneed has since been widely copied although at first the idea was considered dubiously by department of commerce officials. Instead of blanketing the field with light at night, he arranged his batteries of flood lights so they streamed down the runways which criss-crossed the field. Thus in any weather, whatever the wind conditions, a pilot can spot the particular runway he wants to land on with a minimum of difficulty and confusion.

Government officials now urge other cities to adopt Sneed's lighting system, which will be installed at Fort Worth soon.

Sneed's traffic system at the airport a model of simplicity, has reduced crashes at Love Field below the average at other ports.

His most recent work at the field was a beautification campaign in which hundreds of shrubs, trees and flowers were planted. Again he had no money to work with, but he got the shrubs and the necessary landscaping service from persons whom he inspired to give their talent and money to the project.

That Sneed has succeeded in his ambition to make Love Field the A. T. A. rating for super-airports, held by only five other flying fields in the country.

He succeeded in Omaha by Major General Frank A. McCoy, commander of the first cavalry division at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Ben Bernie, the "Old Maestro" and Sophie Tucker Broadcast From Pabst Blue Ribbon Casino at World's Fair

The above photograph shows the old maestro, Ben Bernie on his regular Tuesday evening program with his guest star, Miss Sophie Tucker, the last of the red hot mamas.

This photograph was taken while the broadcast was in progress and shows the manner in which Miss Tucker and the old maestro face the microphone.

The Pabst Blue Ribbon program in the near future will feature another guest star of Miss Tucker's calibre and, throughout the coming winter, will continue to present programs of outstanding excellence.

After a Momentous Rowboat Parley

The spectacle of two statesmen holding a momentous conference in a rowboat was afforded hundreds of bathers at Riccione Beach, Italy, when Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria rowed out to where Premier Mussolini was swimming to discuss, it is reported, a central European pact. This was the scene as the little Chancellor (holding coat and hat) and Il Duce (in bathing suit) returned to the beach.

"Constipation caused me to have a tired, worn-out feeling and a dull headache," writes Mrs. J. W. Alverston, of Danville, Va. Game Today
Ranger All-Stars vs. Breckenridge All-Stars. (Rotary Times game postponed until next week.)
Saturday, Lone Star vs. Prairie.

The Elks and Barbers played one of the best games of the current Twilight league season Thursday afternoon when the Elks came out victorious at the end of six complete innings, the score at that time being 5 to 3.

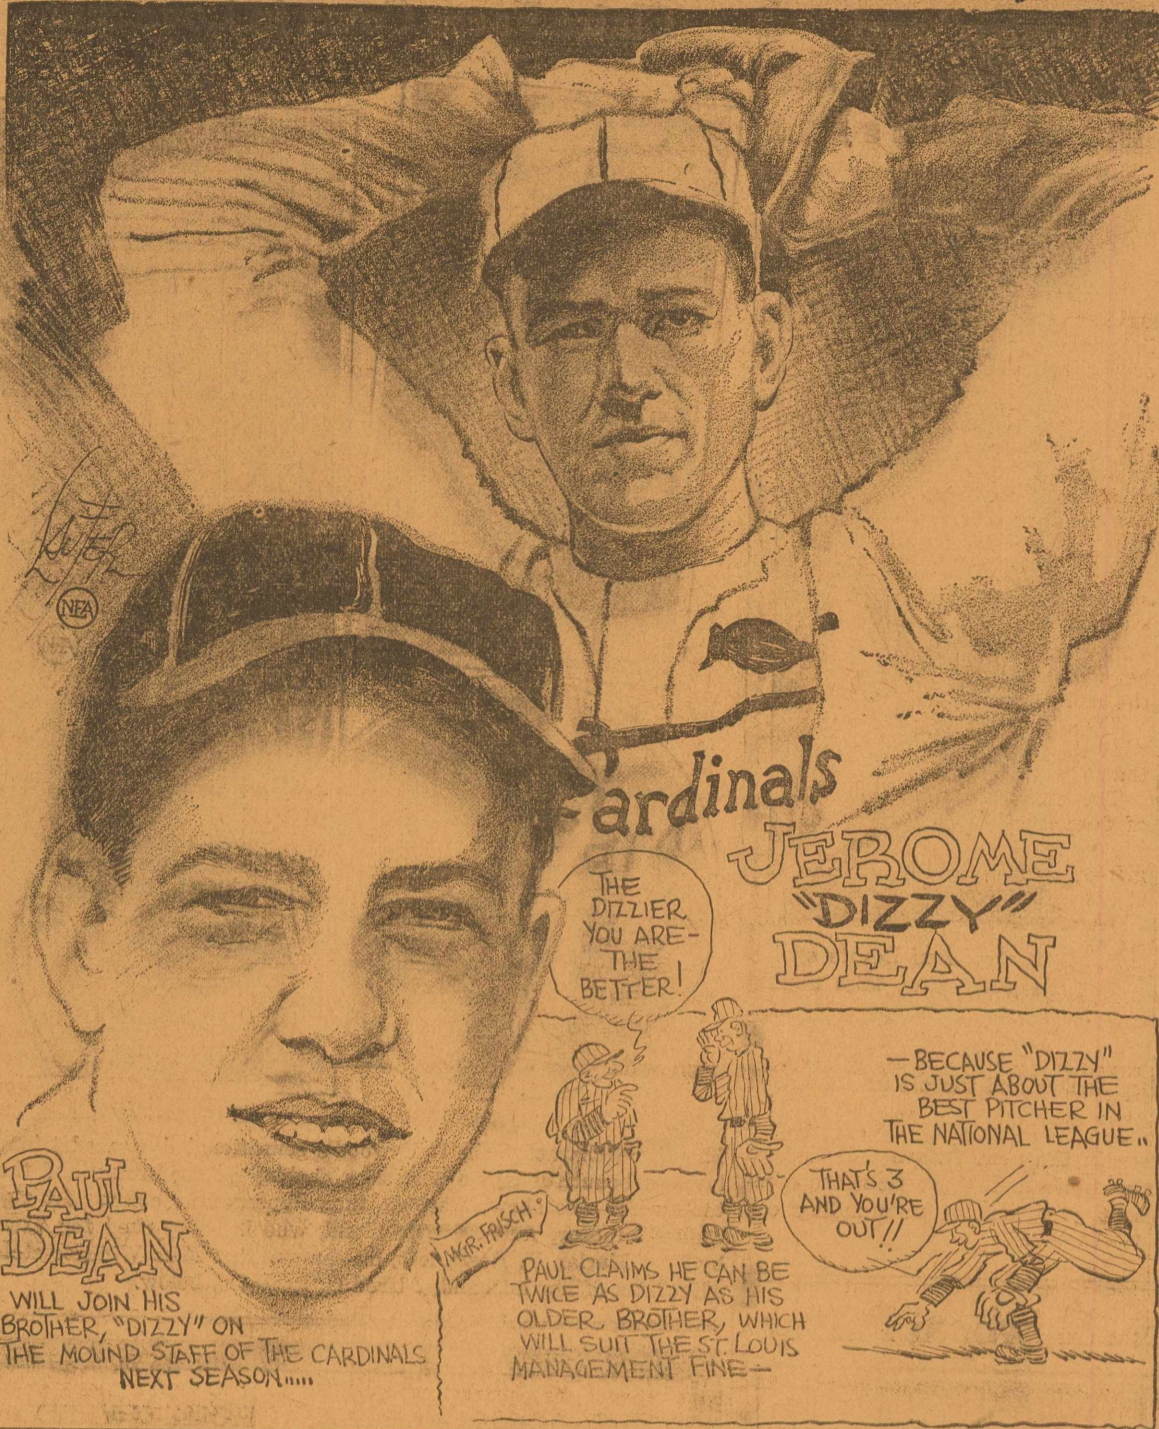

Good playing on both teams featured the entire game and only once did anything resembling a rally show up. That was in the third inning when the Elks scored four runs on three hits, a walk and an error. In the fifth they scored their other tally, being held scoreless in the other innings. Only 11 hits were made off Bob Love, while the Barbers were getting but nine off the slants of Rip Galloway.

A freak double play in the sixth was made by the Barbers. Sloan came to bat with McLister on first base and no one out. He hit a hard line drive to third base, which Doyle deflected, but could not catch. The ball went into the hands of Wolf, left shortstop, who caught it for the first out. McLister had taken a lead off first and was doubled out before he could return to the bag.

WASHINGTON.—Judging by the sticky pronouncements issued from time to time by the "Congress and since his husband's... junket through a dozen Western States the gentleman is making a valiant bid for retention of that august board.

Here is a sample of the molasses candy he has been peddling: "During the period of unsatisfactory business conditions, broadcasters suffered financially, but, generally speaking, a very high standard of programs has been maintained." And then he tosses this beautiful bonbon: "From my personal observations and contacts with listeners, I believe that the public generally greatly appreciated this fact." Brother La-fount is believed to have made those "personal observations" either in the radio control rooms or through a periscope from a submarine somewhere in the Pacific. Come, on F. D., don't keep him in suspense much longer. His supply of molasses is almost all oozed out.

A broadcasters' trade publication issued in this city, which acts as the unofficial mouthpiece of the big radio boys has attacked Allen Raymond, former foreign correspondent of the New York Times for writing in Al Smith's New Outlook a series of articles in which he said that the so-called "American Plan" (i. e., private monopoly and private profit management of radio) is doomed. Mr. Raymond accused the Radio Commission of whitewashing commercialized radio in its report on the Couzens-Dill resolution calling for impartial facts. No more one-sided report was ever returned to the Senate by a government commission than the report based on a questionnaire sent out by the commission in response to the Senate's request for information. It was a hardy piece of impertinence in the closing days of the Hoover administration. Anyone in a position to know the facts agrees with Raymond, except the trade publications which rely for financial support on the advertising of the radio boys.

Mr. Raymond, a competent writer and a painstaking investigator says that Congress, in response to nation-wide protests against cheap advertising programs, is going to clean up radio by taking it out of the hands of the purely commercial broadcasters. It will be a "pushover" in the next session. Make no mistakes.

American broadcasters have been lifting their voices to high heaven against Armstrong Perry of the National Committee on Education by Radio, internationally known publicist, who upset the apple-cart of the radio monopolists at the North and Central American Radio Conference held in July in Mexico City. The conference was called for the purpose of reallocating the 96 available broadcasting channels. When these channels were first distributed, the radio boys gobbled up the lion's share of the 79 channels allocated to the United States. Canada received only twelve, and Mexico and Cuba, none. Why the private commercial interests in control of radio in the United States should expect to continue their stranglehold of the ether has not been explained. Canada Mexico and Cuba have demanded a fair division of the channels. The American delegation at Mexico City was packed by representatives of the American monopoly who were prepared to resist to the utmost any honest proposal for such a division. Observers were barred from the sessions, which were as secret as a board meeting of J. P. Morgan & Co.

Mr. Perry told the Canadian, Mexican and Cuban delegates that he American broadcasters had no thought of giving up any channels. By the time he got through explaining, the Canadians, Mexicans and Cubans were in a belligerent mood. Mexico demanded a minimum of twelve clear channels—not an unreasonable demand—and he would not be budged from that position. The result was that after a month the conference went on the rocks.

Denouncing Mr. Perry for his fair statement of the situation one of the radio trade journals bursts forth in this editorial lingo: "The American delegation went to Mexico City with specific instructions. It was appointed by the President of the United States. For Perry, an American citizen, to do things which might work against the objectives of an official delegation from his own country, seems wrong, to say the least. A committee of Congress might well inquire into his activities at Mexico City.

Mr. Perry would like nothing better than a Congressional investigation of his activities. The spokesman of the broadcasters seems to imply that Congress would undertake to censure a freeborn American for exercising one of his constitutional rights—which shows what a distorted view the apologists for the broadcasters have taken of the whole question.

Congress would naturally inquire what were the "objectives" of the packed delegation. As for the delegation's having been "appointed by the President of the United States," it was only nominally "official." It went to Mexico City to hamstring Canada, Mexico and Cuba, and the general opinion of observers here is that Perry did what ought to be done in advising the other delegations not to barter away their rights for a mess of radio pottage.

Now the big radio boys are proposing that the agreements they want—one in particular being to get Mexico to agree not to license stations whose broadcasts interfere with the American broadcasts—shall be obtained through an exchange of diplomatic notes. "They would like to have our State Department champion their commercial greediness to maintain control of 79 out of all the 96 available channels. Which is on the face of it, a perfectly absurd proposal. In past years the State Department has been used as a catspaw for other private American commercial interests in Latin America and the Roosevelt administration doesn't intend to make that mistake.

Wherefore, that hope goes a-glimmering. Spokesmen for the American broadcasters speak of the big radio boys having their "day in court" and are acting on the assumption that licensees have a vested interest in their licenses. If these wise owls will read the Radio Act of 1927, they will see that whenever an applicant is granted a license to operate a radio station he must sign a waiver which forever precludes his setting up such.

Let's see—wasn't there a fellow named John Garner or some who was elected vice president something?

High School Teams Begin Practice For 1933 Grid Season

AUSTIN.—High school football teams in Texas set out this month for interscholastic league honors along a different route created by the adoption of a re-districting plan. Number of districts in the league has been increased from 27 to 31, according to Roy Bedichek, chief of the league bureau. District winners will meet in regional contests for eliminations. Entries for the state meet will be determined by the regional games. Re-districting was dictated by the depression. Under the new plan, teams will not travel so far to play their schedule. Traveling expenses as well as the amount of school time devoted to inter-school contests are thus reduced. The league also has adopted a rule to prevent barring from fall competition those pupils whose schools closed early on account of financial difficulties. The new regulation supercedes the "preeding semester rule" which has thinned the ranks of schoolboy athletes annually.

For the LOVE of EVE by Lucy Walling

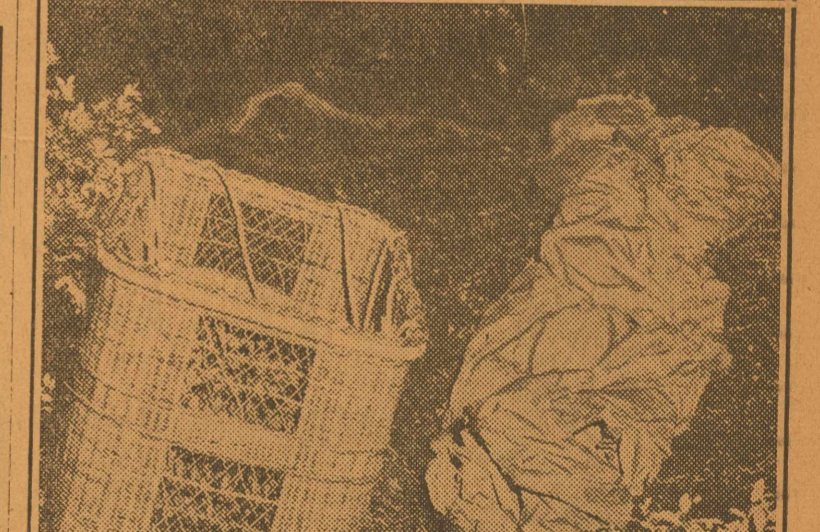

BEGIN HERE TODAY
EVE BARNESS, pretty assistant to EARLE BARNES, advertising manager of Bixby's department store, marries DICK RADER, a construction superintendent temporarily working in Lake City. Dick wants Eve to give up working but she refuses. SAM HOLTERIDGE, an advertising man employed by another store, becomes infatuated with ARLENE SMITH, stenographer at Bixby's, but she fancies herself in love with GEORGE BLISS. Handsome THERON REECE has been forcing unwelcome attentions on Eve. Unknown to Dick, Eve has been playing the stock market; money borrowed from her mother, MONA ALLEN, copy writer, dislikes Eve and tries to make trouble for her. When an error costing the store $2,000, appears in an advertisement Mona is really responsible but the blame falls on Eve. DOROTHY McELHINNEY, pretty school teacher who lives on the floor above Eve and Dick, meets them one evening on the porch. Eve thinks the other girl is trying to play up to Dick and becomes angry. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXIX AFTER that first evening when Miss McElhinney joined Eve and Dick on the porch she reappeared every time they sat out of doors. "My name is Dorothy," she confided one evening, "but I wish you'd call me Dottie."

Taft Kin Exhibits Marks of Kidnaper

Winner of the 1932 James Gordon Bennett international balloon race, Lieutenant Commander T. G. W. Settle, rested his bid for this year's title when he brought the Navy balloon he was piloting to a safe landing at Bradford, Conn., after a 750 mile flight from Chicago. Simmons U. Will Have Small Squad But a Good Team

ABILENE, Sept. 8.—Under the direction of Coach Leslie Cranfill and line-coach Charles Anderson, the Simmons University Cowboys will open training here on Monday, September 1, for a busy season of eleven games, which includes four of the strongest teams in the Southwest. Twenty-three men, the smallest squad in recent years, will furnish the material from which Coach Cranfill will attempt to build a winning combination. To balance this lack of reserve, the Cowboy mentor is depending heavily on the eleven letter men, ten of whom are playing their fourth year of college football. Letter men who will report are: Jimmy Neely, G. L. Huestis, and Odell Weiners, ends; Carr Spraberry, J. B. Neely and Jake Bentley, guards; Lloyd Cope, center; Will Edwin Routh, quarterback; Eugene McCollum and Guy Freighton, halfbacks; Carl Pee, fullback. Members of the 1932 squad returning are: William Ramsey and Orville McLeod, tackles; Lavelle Armstrong and Clyde Patterson, guards; Bernard Seed, center; Johnny Hill, Deedie Thompson and Ira Ribble, backs. Four junior college graduates will join the Cowboy forces. They are: Rhome of Weatherford and Nockaster of Cameron Aggies, tackles; Milby of Victoria, back; and Jordan of Mississippi, center. The Cowboys will open with a game on September 23. They will play Baylor, F. C. U., Texas Tech, West Texas A. and M., College of Mines, and five Texas Conference schools.

"Heroes For Sale" Said to Afford Best Role For Barthelmess

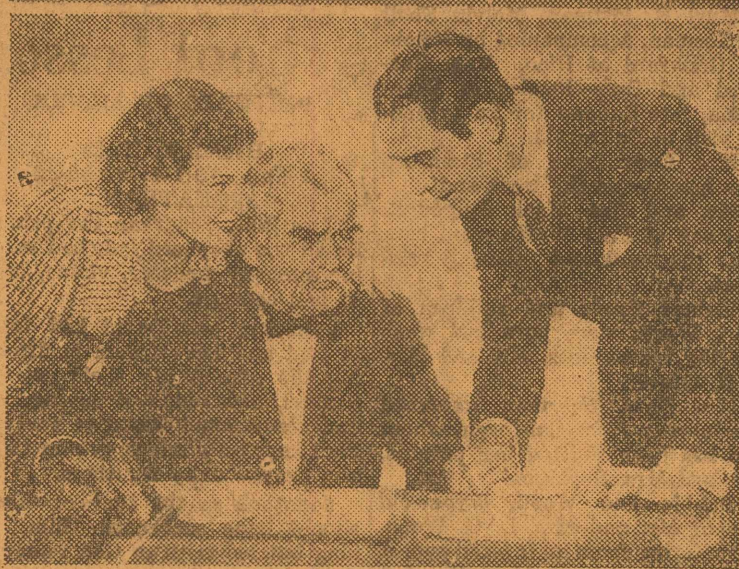

The picture that is rated as the finest Richard Barthelmess characterization of the past few years is due today at the Arcadia Theatre. It is the First National production, "Heroes for Sale," a story of war, romance and depression.

While telling an entertaining story, the picture also graphically details a man's struggle through the post-war period of the World War in which Barthelmess is severely wounded, carrying his afflictions with him into the life he resumes at home. The veteran's ups and downs in his attempts at rehabilitation, the callous indifference of employers and civic officials to his plight, and the problems that have faced the unemployed man during the present time all form an integral part of this vivid, realistic story which paints things as they are.

The element of romance mingles with tragedy and comedy in life-like proportions. The important role of the girl was assigned to beautiful Loretta Young, who has distinguished herself in films during the past two years to the extent of becoming a top-notch figure in screenland.

Another novel characterization is given to Aline MacMahon, whose versatility and ability are demonstrated in the varied roles she essays in each succeeding picture. "Heroes for Sale" gives her an entirely different and novel role to play.

STARS OF NEW PICTURE

Elizabeth Young has the feminine lead, Richard Bennett is the aged financial power, and Ricardo Cortez is cast as up-and-coming Wall Street speculator in Paramount's "Big Executive," which makes its local bow Saturday at the Arcadia theatre.

California, or any other state. The web of fee schedules was spun by the Texas legislature.

It required that students residing in Texas pay a registration fee of $25 per semester. Out-of-state students will pay fees equivalent to the amount charged students from Texas by similar schools in the respective home states of such students.

The rule applies also to students from Alaska, Canada, Cuba, Hawaiian Islands, Mexico and the Philippine Islands. Students from any other country will pay a registration and tuition fee of $100 per semester.

Chudej Breaks With Fergusons

AUSTIN.—F. W. Chudej, for eight years business agent for James E. Ferguson, has resigned as president of the Ferguson Forum, treasurer of the Quality Stock Farms, and all other connections with Mr. Ferguson, he announced here.

He severed his connections with Mr. Ferguson Aug. 19, after failing to be considered for appointment on the state board of control.

He has just sent a bitter telegram of "heartly congratulations" to his successful rival for the post, Henry C. Meyer of Rockdale, in which he protested the Germans, "Dutchmen" had secured two major appointments from the Fergusons, while the Czechs, who supported Mrs. Ferguson "one hundred thousand strong, like a stone wall," had been given no recognition. His telegram said the German voters had "quit the Fergusons 30 per cent," in the last election.

"But I can take it on the chin like a man, so accept hearty congratulations, I am a straight administration man," his telegram said. The message referred to the appointment of C. C. Krueger of Bellville on the criminal appeals court commission, and Meyer's appointment, and said both men had not supported the Fergusons consistently the past six years.

Mr. Chudej announced that Tom Foster and others had revived the old Texas Beer association, of which former Sen. Q. U. Watson was director for years. Mr. Chudej has gone to work as district organizer for this association, he said. The organization maintains a cooperative service for brewers and beer distributors, including a lobbying organization at Austin "during all sessions of the legislature," and local attorneys in the various districts.

Mr. Chudej had the strong support of several Texas senators for the board of control appointment. Both he and Roy I. Tennant, former member who had expected a new appointment on it, have intimated in private conversations that the senate may have prolonged debate on confirming the board appointment, not for personal reasons against Mr. Meyer but because of conflicting claims for the appointment.

Last week Mr. Ferguson's title appeared as "manager and editor" in the masthead of the Ferguson Forum, but no reference was made to the naming of a successor to Mr. Chudej as president.

In Mrs. Ferguson's first administration, Mr. Chudej was appointed a member of the state board of education, as a recognition to the arge element of Czech citizenship in Texas.

"NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS"

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited letter:

"Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the good it has done me that I feel I must write and tell you of it.

"For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated now for seven weeks."—Mrs. Louise Johnson, 1433 Forest Street, Denver, Colorado.

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further promote regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the wastes.

Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines—often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

BIG KID SHOW BOOKED FOR COLUMBIA SATURDAY

One of the best kid shows of the year has been booked at the Columbia theatre for tomorrow, Saturday, according to information given out this morning by B. E. Garner, manager of the house. A Zane Grey story, "Man of the Forest," featuring Randolph Scott, will be the feature and a new serial, "Rex, the Devil Horse" will be started. In addition to these subjects a comedy with "Our Gang," called "A Lad and a Lamp" will be shown.

In order that all the kiddies in the town can come down and see this excellent children's show the Columbia is having a special kiddies matinee from 1 to 3 p. m. at which time kiddies under 12 years of age will be admitted for 5 cents provided they present the Columbia theatre advertisement found elsewhere in this paper at the box office when they go in. The coupon is good until 3 p. m. only and will not be honored after this hour, Garner stated.
