New York Giants Win Second of Series Games

with BILL MAYES

We haven't fgiured out yet whether teams from other Class A districts are wanting to play Oil Belt teams this year because they have it figured out, as has Blondy Cross, that the Oil Belt is slipping and they will have an easy time of it, or because they thing the Oil Belt is something of a supreme test against which they will find the stiffest kind of competition.

Anyway there are no less than 11 games scheduled for this season between teams of the Oil Belt and Class A teams of other districts, not counting the bi-district game, which will be played between the winner of this and some other section.

Games already played include Mineral Wells at Breckenridge, The administration's reported

ABSENTEE CONTROL

Departure of Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier for Chile this week completed the absentee control of the national democratic party in Texas.

National Committeeman Jed C. Adams had taken a federal job months before, and offered his resignation. The resignation was declined.

Mrs. Sevier tendered her resignation, and it was not

Thus, the national democratic party in Texas is being run from the New York office of James A. Farley, the vest-pocket office of Mr. Adams as he migrates over the nation at public expense, and from the resplendent diplomatic society of the capital of Chile.

The same situation has been followed on down the line. State Committeeman John L. Brunner of Taylor landed a postmastership and wanted to resign, but the Farley Girl Breaks Arm In example was followed.

It is an unhealthy and unsatisfactory situation. Party machinery should be responsible to democrats in the state, rather than controlled by the subterfuges of a no-matterhow-genial national chairman.

As a practical way to rectify this situation, present congressmen and United States senators might make a concerted demand that party control in Texas be turned over to people themselves in Texas. If this were turned down, those 23 officials could, it appears, organize a new democratic party machinery, make it responsive and accountable to the people of Texas, and force its recognition in place of the absentee landlord system that is so sure to disrupt the party in this state.

nection with the construction of a southern branch of his father's mills, Bob speaks to Jean but, thinking he is starting a firtation, she rebuffs him. He loses sight of her at the station but tells a friend, DUKE TURNER, that he is determined to find her.

Joan's father, dead, was a member of an aristocratic family and MRS. WARING longs for her daughters to enjoy the social position rightfully theirs. PAT, who is 18 and has a job as a typist, loves pleasure and pretty clothes and plans to escape the privations and monotony of her mother's life through a rich marriage.

Joan sees Bob in a tea room but he does not see her. Through MOLLY DAVIS, a society girl, Joan sings at a Junior League benefit entertainment which Bob attends. After the program he is waiting for Joan when his path is barred by BARBARA COURT-NEY, whom he had known in New York. Because of this brief encounter he loses Joan again. Resinol Helped My Skin in 3 Days

When I decided to try Resinol Soap and Ointment, my com-plexion was a sight from pimples and blackheads. I had a horrid, muddy looking skin and when I used powder it looked even worse. After three days use of the Resinol Ointment and Resi-nol Soap, I could see an improvement. Now all my friends tell me how well my skin looks." (Signed)—Mrs. M. N.* *Name on Request. St. Louis, Mo.
