TOWN TALK

NEWS * NOTES * BRIEFS

TOMMY WARFORD, the golfer, reports that his duties as a lawyer with the Texas Highway Departments' district office at Brownwood keep him so occupied that he doesn't get to practice much. And the tournament season will be coming along before long.

Tommy, a 1966 graduate of the University of Texas law school, took over the legal job at the Brownwood highway office when Saul Pullman of Eastland resigned to go on active military duty. Tommy lives at home in Ranger and commutes to his work.

We'll bet that you'll be seeing him listed in the championship flight of area tournaments this spring and summer.

HOMEMAKERS in Ranger are preparing for more beautiful living as they wage remodeling campaigns. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wilkinson have purchased a home at 431 Walnut, given a complete "face lifting" to the entire house and are now comfortably settled. Mrs. Bess Brinneman, 902 Spring Rd. is now ready to enjoy the fruit of weeks of labor in the complete interior redecoration of her home. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Weaver, 317 Pine St., are again able to "eat at home" and enjoy the beauty of new carpets and other additions to their already attractive home.

WELCOME GUEST of The Times staff on Thursday was Mrs. Jimmy Jones, former resident who now resides in Cleburne. Enroute to Abilene for a visit with relatives, she stopped to pay her subscription to the paper, the medium through which she keeps up with news of Ranger.

HERE'S AN interesting item from The Cross Plains Review:

You may or may not like chicken fighting but in more than half the world, including several American states, it's a legalized sport. Through the Orient, and the Philippines in particular, it's a major source of taxation.

It may be surprising to learn that some of the world's fighting cocks are born and trained in Cross Plains. Mike Ratliff, who is engaged in that business here, together with his professional football playing brother, proved it last week in Phoenix, Ariz. Their birds, flown to the Grand Canyon State for world championship events, won 14 of 17 encounters. Cross Plains - raised cocks were bought and are now being booked by sportsmen from as far away as Honolulu and Manila.

Raising fighting cocks is as much a business as breeding Hereford cattle or blooded Appaloosas and possibly a great deal more profitable. The right kind of roosters sell for as much as $1,000.

Rangers Compete in National Event

The Ranger Junior College basketball team will depart for Hutchinson, Kans., Sunday afternoon carrying with them hopes that have been three years maturing.

They'll be looking for the National Junior College title in the Sunflower State.

The Rangers, under the guidance of Coach Rob Butler, survived the season, which appeared most formidable at the beginning, with a near perfect 28-2 record. The two blemishes are a result of the second meeting with two fine junior college teams. The first loss of the season was a 75-74 thriller at Lawton, Okla., to Cameron Junior College. Next it was in an overtime affair with Dallas Baptist. Dallas won that one in the last five minutes. The losses proved to be insignificant however, both in team performance and national ratings. The Rangers bounced back, winning the conference and regional championships and will carry the number four ranking to the national tournament.

Cobb, the leading scorer and rebounder for the Rangers has been named to the all-tournament team and elected the tournament's most valuable player during the recent region V playoffs.

The Rangers will meet Vincennes, Indiana, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. for their first game of the tournament. Ranger and area fans will be with the Rangers in spirit and "not-a-small" delegation will be in the stands in Kansas to cheer on the Ranger Jr. College team.

Dr. Hodges Is Rotary Speaker

Dr. Dick Hodges showed slides and explained water pollution in this area during the meeting of Ranger Rotary Club on Wednesday.

One visitor, Mr. Riffle of West Va., was a guest of his son, Dr. Paul Riffle.

On Wednesday, March 15, Rotarians and Lions will meet jointly and will be entertained by the famous Rubinoﬀ and his violin.

10 Lions Given Recognition

Ten members of Ranger Lions Club were presented pins and certificates in recognition of 10 to 35 years unselfish community service during the club's regular meeting Thursday in the Paramount Club Room.

Lion J. A. Bates received a 35-year pin while Lloyd Bruce, Joe Dennis and Floyd Killingsworth each received 30-year pins.

Getting 20 year pins were F. P. Brashier Jr., Lester Crossley and Dr. W. P. Watkins.

Glyn Gilliam and James Clark were given 10-year pins. James Boggus will receive a 10-year pin.

Harold Turnipseed, program chairman, introduced "The Group," a musical ensemble composed of local high school boys, who entertained the members with a selection of "high-stepping" numbers.

RUBINOFF AND VIOLIN ARE HERE WEDNESDAY FOR SPECIAL CONCERT

In show business or the musical profession, it is legend that "the show must go on" regardless of anything else. Each year, Rubinoﬀ and his violin travel thousands of miles to meet scheduled appearances in concert. Rubinoﬀ is appearing here in Ranger on March 15 at RJC Auditorium. Sometimes meeting schedules is almost an impossibility. Unusual experiences are incurred and even humorous situations develop. Seeing the genial, relaxed violinist on the stage and seeming to enjoy himself as much as his audiences enjoy him, it is difficult to realize the adventurous situations which develop in traveling.

Once on The Tamiami Trail down the west coast of Florida, Rubinoﬀ and his party left late at night for Miami not realizing the superstition of the Indians for staying inside at night caused all the gasoline stations to close soon after dusk. With every station closed and the tank registering empty, it began to look as if the night would be spent in the car and just wait for morning. Just at that minute, a darkened station loomed up on the side of the road. Two huge dogs barked so furiously that it didn't look safe to get out of the car. Rubinoﬀ did the next best thing - he yelled at the top of his voice "This is Rubinoﬀ - we're out of gas!" A light appeared and the reluctant owner finally came out. Only after Rubinoﬀ showed him his violin and proved his identification, did he proceed to fill the tank. And so once again the schedule was kept with no delay.

Blow-outs, blizzards, road detours, cancellation of plane flights due to weather, sudden floods making impassable obstructions, fogs, sand storms, icy roads, have all been encountered by Rubinoﬀ on his touring of the nation. But luck seems to always be in his favor. So far not one engagement has been missed and it is a rarity for him to be fifteen minutes late even on his early morning arrivals for his favorite hobby of appearing in "free" school assemblies in every city he visits. He has hitchhiked with good Samaritans of the road, been pulled out of snow banks, landed blind in a sand storm in an army plane and countless other experiences, but — THE SHOW DID GO ON!

Some of America's largest cities have turned out record-breaking audiences to welcome Rubinoﬀ, world-famous radio and concert artist, and his famous $100,000 Stradivarius violin. One record-breaking audience, thrilled by Rubinoﬀ and his violin, was in Chicago's famous Grant Park more than 150,000 gathered to hear him play. However, this great crowd responded one year later 225,000 strong, at which time the great artist was presented with a bejeweled medal inscribed "Presented to RUBINOFF AND HIS VIOLIN by the Chicago Federation of Musicians." The presentation was made in appreciation for services rendered in Grant Park.

HOMEMAKERS' HINTS

By JANET MEYERS
Home Demonstration Agent

Eastland County Home Demonstration Council met recently. During the business session, plans for a spring trip to the Chandor Gardens in Weatherford were discussed. All the county home demonstration club women are looking forward to visiting the gardens which were created by Douglas Chandor in 1936. Many who have seen the Chandor Gardens say it is one of the beauty spots of the United States.

Making final arrangements for the trip includes a committee composed of Mrs. Joe Bond, Olden; Mrs. D. F. Eaves, Gorman; Mrs. Jack Lusk, Cisco; Mrs. Scott Bailey, Cisco; and Mrs. C. H. Stevens, Cisco.

Many of the new homes being built today are of the split level type. Although the popular split-level house has many advantages, there are some disadvantages that should be studied.

Since the distance between the levels is only six to eight steps, the space is more easily accessible than in a two-story house with the same total space, but more steps. Even the few steps between the levels in a split-level may be considered a disadvantage, especially for elderly or handicapped people.

The various areas for sleeping, living, and working are clearly defined and separated in the split-level house which allows for more privacy and quiet for family members. One big advantage is that the split-level house requires less space on the lot than a one-story house of the same total space, leaving more area of the lot for outdoor living.

Since the split-level was originally designed for a sloping lot, the exterior appearance is not always pleasing when the house is on flat land. The split-level plan can not always be used for a small house because many of the lines will be short and choppy, creating an unsatisfying design.

The split-level plan possesses some of the economical construction features of a two story plan, such as less roof and foundation construction, but it may also present problems in connecting the staggered levels. Because there are many variables involved in a valid comparison, it is difficult to say whether the split-level is more economical than other types of houses.

Potatoes may be an overlooked choice for the reducing diet. A medium-sized potato, boiled or baked, contains about 100 calories. This is about the same number of calories as in a large apple, orange, or half a grapefruit.

Make a sour cream dessert topping by blending together one cup of cultured sour cream, two teaspoons grated orange peel, and two teaspoons sugar. Serve on squares of cake.

CAST WORKING HARD ON EASTER PAGEANT

Persons participating in the Kendrick Easter Pageant this year have only two weeks to practice their roles before this annual Easter event.

Some ten additional scenes have been added to this year presentation. The life of Moses through the Ten Commandments will be the first scenes, followed by the birth of Jesus through the resurrection.

Script for the pageant was taken word for word from the Bible. The presentation will be made Sunday, March 26, beginning at 3:30 a. m. in the Kendrick Amphitheater between Eastland and Cisco.

Gospel quartets and choirs from over the state will be featured in a two hour musical program preceding the pageant.

There is no admission fee and free parking will be available for 10,000 cars.

CJC Nurses Graduation In Cisco Tuesday Night

The fourth class of Cisco Branch of Cisco Junior College School of Vocational Nursing will have graduation exercises Tuesday, March 14, at 7:30 p. m. in the East Cisco Baptist Church.

Leland Willis, president of the college will give the welcome address and Dr. M. F. Wallach, a Cisco physician, will give the principal address.

Two songs, "Evening Song to God" and "Now the Day is Over", will be sung by the college choir.

Awarding the graduation certificates will be the affiliating hospitals' administrators. Veneta Mitchell, nursing instructor, will present each graduate with a graduation pin.

Graduates and affiliating hospitals as follows: Graham Hospital, Cisco, Kay Boyd, Sybil Boyd, Lucille Evans and Ann Dunn; Eastland Memorial Hospital, Kathryn Brown, Earlene Burge, Norma Dunn, Ozona Harper and Toldie Taylor; Ranger General Hospital, Evelyn Clark; and Blackwell Hospital, Gorman, Lavelle Hallmark, Mary Jane Sain, Ethel Sutton and Jo Ann White.

The public is invited to attend.

Drilling Begins On Wildcat Oil Test South Cisco

Drilling began last Tuesday on the H. L. Neeb, Abilene, No. 1 Eberhart, a wildcat oil test 15 miles south of Cisco. Plans called for the hole to go the Ellenburger lime at about 4,000 feet. The test is located just north of the Union Center Grocery near Highway 183.

Drill site was given as 1,400 feet from the south and 1,900 feet from the east lines of Subdivision 7, John F. Sapp Survey 34. Neeb has a 327-acre lease in the well area, it was understood.

Elsewhere in Eastland County, George L. Buckle Co., Montahans, has located their No. 4 Eppler as a 3,000 foot cable tool test three miles southwest of Desdemona. Location was in the A. Smelzer Survey, A-431.

WHAT IN THE WORLD IS THE RADIAL TIRE?

(No. 2 in a series)

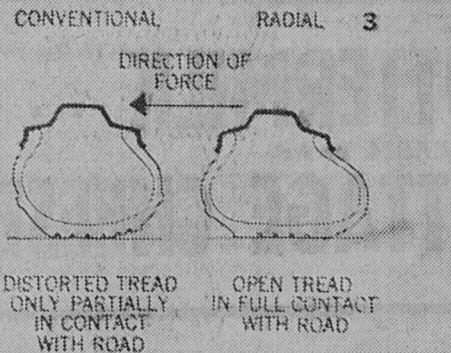

Performance studies show that steering, road-holding, and cornering are noticeably improved with radial tires. —from an article in the March issue of "Better Homes and Gardens."

What happens to conventional and radial tires when cornering or rounding a curve? The conventional tire, with its more rigid sidewall, has a tendency to put the stress on the tread and cause further distortion. At the same time, centrifugal force pulls the inside tread edge off the road and results in less tread rubber gripping the surface. The radial tire with its more flexible sidewall bends easily in the direction of the force while the best holds all the tread firmly on the road. There is very little tread distortion and full traction and skid resistance is maintained throughout the curve, provided speed is not excessive. As further evidence of their superior traction capability, radial tires are as effective in snow as snow tires in most instances.

All cars handle better, steer more responsively, and corner better with radials.

The ideal way to go about the switchover to radials is to buy a set of five radials of the size that corresponds to the conventional tire size specified for your particular make and model car. Recommended pressure (usually two pounds more than specified for conventional tires) should be strictly maintained even though the tires seem too soft.

What does all this mean to you? It means a safer tire at less cost per mile. The radial tire will outperform the conventional tire in just about every area: faster stops, more accurate cornering, and more responsive steering. Radials cost from 25 to 40 percent more than conventional tires, but tread life is longer by 60 to 70 percent or more than that of conventional tires.

Without doubt radial tires are the tires of tomorrow. You'll be seeing radials as standard equipment on most new cars.

County Livestock Show

Plans are all completed for the 1967 Eastland Co. Livestock Show to be held at the county livestock show barn in Eastland next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, according to Sam Kimmell, president of the Eastland County Livestock Raisers Association. The association is the sponsor of the livestock show. Directors of the association plan and conduct the annual livestock show for the benefit of the 4-H and FFA youth and the livestock industry of Eastland County. Everyone is invited to become a member of the association by paying the annual dues of $1 per person.

The number of entries of livestock will be an increase over last year's entries, reported H. L. Ferguson, general superintendent of the show. The show is open to all 4-H and FFA members of Eastland County who attend a public school in Eastland County. They must have fed, fitted, and cared for the animal under the supervision of a vocational agriculture teacher, county agent or assistant county agent.

Entries are limited to two animals of any one kind per exhibitor in both breeding and fate divisions except for FFA Chapters and 4-H Clubs.

There will be an open Angora Goat and open Breeding Beef Cattle show. Adult and junior exhibitors in Eastland County and adjoining counties are eligible to show livestock in the open show. Exhibitors in the open show will compete for ribbons only.

All livestock are to be on the show grounds and properly entered in their respective places by 10 p. m. March 16. Judging of the livestock will be done on March 17 and 18. The auction and presentation of special awards will be held at the Eastland Livestock Auction barn at 7 p. m. Saturday, March 18. No exhibitor may sell more than one lamb, one steer and one barrow at the premium price.

A drawing will be held for a dressed beef at the livestock show auction Saturday night. A name will be drawn from the membership of the Raisers Association.

The public is invited to attend all activities of the Eastland County Livestock Show.
