CENSUS LAWSUIT OUTCOME COULD AFFECT LOCAL FUNDING

Local people are among those interested in the outcome of a Census Lawsuit filed by Texas State Attorney General Dan Morales.

In the lawsuit, filed last week, Morales seeks to recover $600 million in Federal Aid for Texas.

The suit claims Texas is being unfairly deprived of aid by policymakers in Washington. The problem to be addressed by the Court will include the Census Bureau's own estimate of an undercount.

The agency says the 1990 Census probably missed 5.3 million people, representing 4.8 of all blacks, 5.2 percent of Hispanics, and 1.7 percent of whites.

The census form was pretty vague about the definition of 'white'. Everyone with fair skin was placed in this category, regardless of ethnic background. Hispanics and persons with an Asian background had an opportunity for more racial classification.

When the undercount is figured into all the basic sharing formulas for government spending, it appears to take away funding for cities and minorities.

But in our form of government the Census is the ultimate formula on which all the questions of sharing are based. So if the Court decides in favor of the State Attorney General, some 'trickle down' of additional government funding is expected for Eastland County.

On the total 1990 population count of over 18,000 we would at least gain around 300 people,' says County Judge Scott Bailey.

He also notes that additional government funding would probably be adjusted on the racial percentages in the county.

He said the Senior Citizens Programs would stand to benefit from a Census adjustment, and several other agencies might also.

BENEFIT DANCE IN CISCO SEPTEMBER 13

A Benefit Dance for travel expenses for Brandy Weeks and his Band will be held Friday night, September 13, at the Laguna Hotel Corral Room, 400 Conrad Hilton Avenue, in Cisco.

The dance will begin at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10:30 p.m. Admission is $3 for each person.

Music for the dance will be furnished by the Texas Rhythm Band, featuring the Weeks Champion Fiddlers. Funds raised will be used to cover expenses for Brandy and his musical group. They are scheduled to play in a State Talent Contest at Sea World in San Antonio September 21.

In early August Brandy, age 11, won first in a regional talent contest sponsored by KEAN Station in Abilene. This gave him the right to compete on state level in San Antonio.

He will take the same musicians who accompanied him in Abilene to Sea World: Jeff Wells of Merkel, bass guitar, Bob Haas of Cisco, drums, and Raymond Hart of Ranger, guitar.

There will be a concession stand at the Cisco Dance, with sandwiches, homemade pies, and other good things to eat. Soft drinks will be available, but no alcoholic beverages will be allowed.

People of all ages are invited to come out to the Dance. Facilities will also be provided for those who wish to sit and listen to the music.

LELA LLOYD PRIZEWINNER IN JOHNSON COUNTY WRITER'S CONTEST

Lela Latch Lloyd, Cisco author, was notified recently that she won Second Place in the Humorous Article category of the 1991 Johnson County Creative Writer's Contest.

Her winning article was titled "Without Benefit of Clergy", and described an amusing incident which happened in Cisco shortly after World War II.

The Johnson County Contest began in June, and had a number of entries from across the State. It had 11 categories in all.

Mrs. Lloyd was unable to attend the Awards Ceremony for the Contest winners, but was sent a cash prize and certificate.

FORMER CISCOAN FOUND IN MISSISSIPPI FOREST

The body of Brenda Kay Collins, 33, was found after a three-day search in Desoto National Forest in Mississippi. Authorities were still searching for a motive in the death. She was the daughter of Travis and Nancy Chapman who live near Putnam.

She was a member of the U.S. Air Force and taught electronics at Keesler AFB in Biloxi.

Police had interviewed her estranged husband, William "Bill" Collins of Biloxi in connection with the case but early Thursday he committed suicide, according to Gulfport Detective Ed Twomey.

"Everything pointed to him but interviews of people connected to the case are still being conducted," the detective said. The couple had filed for divorce. He was also a technical sergeant at Keesler AFB.

Police believe Collins disappeared from the trailer park where she lived about 3 a.m. Sunday when two neighbors heard loud banging noises.

Neighbors called police after finding her son, Jared, 3, playing alone in the front yard. The child was able to help direct the investigation, according to Detective Twomey, "by verbalizing what he saw."

Brenda Kay Chapman Collins was born in Cisco and graduated from Putnam High School in 1974. She worked in Abilene and Big Spring before enlisting in the Air Force.

POINTS TO PONDER

By: Bill Reed

Dove season came in, if you will pardon the pun, with a bang. It reminded me of a story I once read. A hunter wounded a bird causing it to fall to the ground. As he picked it up the bird said, "If you will turn me loose, I will tell you three truths that will make you both wise and successful."

Impressed, the hunter allowed the bird to go in exchange for the wisdom. "First," said the bird, "don't believe everything you hear. Second, don't try to do something beyond your capabilities. Not only will you fail but people will ridicule you. Third, when you make a mistake, forget it instead of tormenting yourself about it."

The hunter turned the bird loose. As it flew up into the tree the bird said, "You are a foolish man. You made a mistake letting me go. For inside my body I have a valuable jewel that would have made you rich."

Angry with himself the hunter climbed into the tree trying to get the bird. As he climbed higher the bird flew higher. In desperation the hunter lunged for the bird and fell from the tree breaking his leg.

"You are indeed a foolish person," said the bird. "I gave you three wise truths, yet in a few minutes after receiving them, you completely failed to follow them."

"I told you to believe everything you heard. I made the statement that I had a valuable jewel in my body. There is absolutely no reason to believe that. Second, I told you not to try something beyond your limitations, yet you try to climb a tree to catch me which was impossible. Third I warned you not to worry about something you could not change. Yet after turning me loose you tried to change everything by taking me prisoner again."

There were some valuable insights in that story that has helped me. I don't believe everything I hear. Second I try to be myself. Most of us are limited in what we can do. It is not bad to be a one talent person if you use that talent as best you can. And last I try not to worry about something I cannot change. Many emotional and physical problems come from worrying over something that we can do nothing about.

There are many things in our life we can change and should. Don Quixote in the play 'Man from La Mancha' said, 'Madness is to see life as is and not as it should be.' Take your family to church and learn how to make life as it can be.

CJC BIBLE CHAIR TO OFFER FREE COURSE ON "PRISON EPISTLES"

The Biblical Studies Center at Cisco Junior College will offer a ten-week, non-credit evening Bible course on "The Prison Epistles" beginning on Tuesday evening, September 10, according to an announcement by Jim Yates, minister of the Cisco Church of Christ.

The class will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. each Tuesday, and will be open to anyone wishing to participate, at no charge. The sessions will be informal, and there will be no tests, special requirements, or assignments, it was pointed out. Lee Lewis, Youth and Educational Minister for the Cisco church, stated, "The lessons will be helpful to any person wishing to gain a deeper knowledge of the letters written by the Apostle Paul while a prisoner of the Romans. Anyone in the vicinity of Cisco is welcome."

Instructor for the course will be Dr. David Wallace, an Assistant Professor of Bible from Abilene Christian University and a well-known gospel minister of the Central and West Texas areas. He has served as pulpit minister for Churches of Christ in Waco, Cleburne, and Midland. He has a Bachelor's degree from ACU, a Master's from Texas Christian University, and he is a Ph.D. candidate at Baylor University.

In announcing the special class, Mr. Yates said, "We are extremely pleased to have Dr. David Wallace coming to conduct this course for the Cisco Junior College Biblical Studies Center. He is widely known as a very knowledgeable and interesting Bible teacher as well as gospel minister."

"These free night classes held at the CJC Bible Chair each semester provide a unique opportunity for persons in our area to study under university professors but at no cost whatsoever. Similar courses at Abilene Christian, Hardin-Simmons, Howard Payne, or McMurry would cost several hundred dollars in tuition."

The CJC Bible Chair is under the direction of the elders of the Cisco Church of Christ, and is supported by other Churches of Christ in the Big Country area. It is maintained for the spiritual benefit of students of Cisco Junior College and all of the people in the area served by CJC.

More information about the course or other Bible Chair activities may be obtained by contacting Mr. Lewis at the CJC Bible Chair, 442-1535, or by calling Mr. Yates at the Cisco Church of Christ office, 442-1450.

Eastland County Bass Club

The Eastland County Bass Club had its first meeting of the new year and voted in several changes for the next fishing year. One of these changes was to raise the membership dues to cover all family members up to 18 years old to be eligible for all honors in the ECBC. This membership payment will also include a one year subscription to Honey Hole Magazine. Another change was to start up a special big bass jackpot started by the club. This pot will have an optional fee of $3 at the monthly club tournaments and anyone catching a fish over 5.99 pounds in our club tournaments could come away with some big money before the year is out. Basically, all of the other rules stayed the same.

The next interclub tournament will be held Saturday, Sept. 14. All interested anglers will meet at Double Vision Restaurant in Eastland for the drawing of the lake to be fished. This drawing will take place at 6 a.m.

The ECBC sponsored weekly jackpots have been moved to Sunday afternoon starting on Sept. 22.

Fishing hours will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Headquarters will be at Chock-O-Block at Lake Leon and anglers are reminded that they have to pay before they fish.

Dates for the club's Mini-Classic have been set and the lakes chosen. Anglers who qualified will be notified by mail about this event.

All area anglers are reminded that the ECBC's 16th Annual Open Tournament will be coming to Lake Leon on Sunday, Sept. 15. This year promises to be bigger and better than previous years due to the help of our sponsors. Entry fee will be $35 with an optional big bass pot and all money is guaranteed. We will also have a Junior Division again with no entry fee for the juniors as long as they fish with a paid adult.

Anyone wanting more information about the ECBC can call Gary Horton at 647-3888 or Butch Willingham at 442-3142. Prospective members can join at anytime during the year and take advantage of the reduced price on the Honey Hole subscription.

Second Showing Of 'Robin Hood' At Majestic Theatre

"Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves" is showing for the second weekend at the Majestic in Eastland. The movie may be seen at 7:30 nightly through Monday, Sept. 9. Admission is $3 at the box office, with the picture rated PG-13.

This film, starring Kevin Costner, is described by local people who saw it last weekend as "A first class movie in every way." The acting is outstanding, and the costumes and settings are historically accurate. Much of the filming was done in English forests near where Sherwood Forest once stood.

Costner, and athletic individual, does riding and fighting scenes without a double. He says the hardest scene in the movie was his fight with "Little John," much of which took place in cold rushing water.

All who like history, adventure or the Robin Hood legend will enjoy this picture.

Nutrition Program

The doctor said that you would need a little help in getting back on your feet after your fall. Then you developed the flu. So you were too ill to really take care of yourself. Yet, you wanted to remain in your home. What should you do?

You might be eligible for home health benefits, and Medicare will help you pay for it, providing you meet each of these specific criteria:

1. Need skilled intermittent nursing care, physical therapy or speech therapy.

2. Be homebound, that is confined to home. It does not mean you cannot leave the home, but must have assistance to do so.

3. Be under the care of a doctor who both prescribes and sets up a treatment plan outlining the services to be delivered.

We suggest you contact one of the local home health care agencies to see if you are eligible. If you need more information call 442-2263.

In the meantime, let's give some preventative care to our needs in nutrition. Why not come to the Senior Center each Monday, Wednesday or Friday. Call 442-1557 or 629-1382 for reservations.

Eastland Memorial Hospital To Sponsor Cancer Unit Sept. 9

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of every ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime during her lifetime. Every year over 37,000 women die as a result of breast cancer.

According to a spokesman from the Regional Breast Care Center at Women's & Children's Hospital in Odessa, Texas "The death rate from breast cancer could be drastically reduced if women would have mammograms done before a problem exists." By using modern state of the art x-ray equipment breast cancers can be found when they are about the size of a grain of rice and well before the cancer can be felt. A woman who is diagnosed with breast cancer at this early stage has a 90%-97% survival rate. However, a woman who is not diagnosed until a lump can be felt has approximately a 50% survival rate in five years.

In an effort to find cancers at the earliest possible stage and prevent unnecessary deaths, a Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be made available to local women on Monday, Sept. 9.

The Mobile Unit will be parked at Eastland Memorial Hospital, 304 South Daugherty, Eastland. Appointments may be made by calling 629-2601.

For more information you may call the Regional Breast Care Center at Women's & Children's Hospital at (915) 334-8888/561-9999.

A MODERN TEXAS CLASSIC

"The sea has an almost mystical, magnetic appeal for me and a cleansing effect that goes all the way to the soul. And so I always go back because I feel drawn to see it again and to feel its power and the great serenity to be drawn from it and the place where you go to see it, to be near it . . . that right time and place. For me, anyway, South Padre Island so often seems to have been that time and place."

The state of Texas has a long tradition of producing great natural history narratives: John Graves Goodbye To A River, and Roy Bedichek's Adventures With A Texas Naturalist immediately spring to mind as two superior examples. To this distinguished list can now be added SOUTH PADRE: The Island and Its People by Bob St. John (Taylor Publishing Company, September 15, 1991; $17.91).

and out-of-state travelers. It also has a colorful history and people that Bob St. John captures in this book: a series of conversational sketches about the people — past and present — who make up Padre Island. From the famous tales of lost treasure and the early American Indian, Spanish, and pirate inhabitants to the fascinating and offbeat citizens who live there now, Bob St. John captures in lyrical and evocative prose the flavor and spirit that make South Padre both unique and beloved to Texans everywhere.

About the Author: Bob St. John has been the front page columnist for the Metro Page of the Dallas Morning News for the past decade. He has authored ten previous books, ranging from Landed, his insider's look at the Dallas Cowboy's former head coach (a national bestseller), to On Down the Road, a sociological look at the rodeo cowboy, praised as 'the best thing written thus far on the subject.' A graduate of North Texas State University in Denton, Texas, St. John was recently honored by his alma mater as a distinguished alumnus, along with another pretty good Texas writer — Larry McMurtry. He spend much of his time at his house in the woods surrounding Lake Cypress Springs in northeast Texas and at South Padre Island.

WE HEADQUARTERED at Williamsburg, but to put our historic tour in perspective, we really need to start with Jamestown Settlement, only six miles away on the James River. If asked, would you have said first settlers were at Plymouth Rock? Maybe!

Jamestown, established as a business venture in 1607, it was England's first permanent colony in the New World, and preceded the Mass. colony by years, and was second only to the colony that disappeared in North Carolina. So Jamestown is where it began; Yorktown is where we won it; Williamsburg is where we began putting it together as a nation; Ft. Sumpter is where it began falling apart; and Appomattox is where we began healing.

"RE-CREATION": We need to discuss that a bit, because most of what one sees today certainly is the re-creation of how it was, how it looked, etc., based on the best archaeological and historical information, as well as documents, diaries and other information. So as you stand on the pier at Jamestown where the rebuilt ships are exhibited, you realize that "this was the place," but there was no pier, and these are not in fact the ships. They are the best reproductions that man today can provide. (Many years ago, a tour guide at Gettysburg Battlefield, said, "Nothing's changed except the foliage." Well, maybe. Most of the interpreters today are very honest; they recognize that souvenir hunters and others took away most if not all of the furnishings, relics and artifacts from the historical sites. Much is in museums around the world, and some has been returned to the original sites. We are more protective now than we once were of the historical significance of such places.

Jamestown Settlement, VA., is a blend of indoor gallery exhibits and outdoor living history, telling how the English inhabitants and the native Americans might have lived during that period. You can study the English colonization efforts, the Powhatan Indian history, and the colony's first 100 years when it served as capital of Virginia. In the living section, there are Indian villages, forts and full-size "replicas" of the small ships that brought the settlers: The Susan Constant, Godspeed and Discovery.

The 1607 expedition was sponsored by the Virginia Co. of London, a group of investors who hoped to make a profit from the New World's wealth. In the early years, thousands sickened or died from the warm climate, inadequate food, and Indian sieges. But with strict military leadership and the continued arrival of new settlers, the colony survived. All of the money-making crops and endeavors failed until the settlers discovered the "golden weed" -- tobacco -- and the profits began rolling in, bringing a better life for the pioneers and more settlers, and pushing the poor Indians further from their traditional homes.

Tobacco (and then tourists) is still the major crop of the state, and produces great profit for the raisers, processors and the tax collectors.

It took the "gentlemen" settlers from December, 1606 to April, '07 to get to the Virginia shore, and work began in May on the settlement. Capt. John Smith took the leadership in '08 and established a "no work, no food" policy, but returned to England in '09 due to injuries. A starving time followed and the few remaining settlers were just about to abandon the effort and return when fresh supplies and more colonists arrived, and then in '13 they hit it big with tobacco and we were off and running. The first representative form of government was established in Jamestown in 1619, and it was the center of Virginia's political and social life until 1699 when the seat of government was moved to Williamsburg. (To Be Continued.)

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
GunGrabbers never let up on their dishonest propaganda. They frequently indicate that law officers are in favor of their plans to deny us or second amendment rights. The fact is that a great many people in law enforcement honestly state that they cannot provide protection in many cases and private gun ownership can deter some crime.

In two places where citizens were ordered to have a gun or show why they refused to, the crime rate dropped quickly and noticeably. If in fact guns were a cause of violent crime, then let the gun grabbers show the figures that prove a "make my day" law produced a soaring crime rate. They simply cannot.

Where do they have the strictest gun laws in the U.S.? How about New York and Washington, D.C.? Now guess whose violent crime rates are among the nations highest? Though it seems impossible to prove that restrictive gun laws contribute to violent crime, it seems obvious that crime figures do show that restrictive gun laws fail miserably in their intent to deter crime.

I consider anyone who poses a threat to my constitutional rights as any enemy of freedom. An enemy of the nation, and certainly not a person who has anything in common with me or desiring my friendship or trade.

Like it or not, the lines are being drawn that will separate those who want America free as it once was and those who want governmental controls in every facet of our lives.

Gun controls have been a vital part of every totalitarian government.

At least, folks against guns has honestly stated their ultimate objective, "Total elimination of private gun ownership by the turn of the century."

Will the Year 2000 see only the political elite granted permits to hunt as in the days when Robin Hood was outlawed because he dared kill a deer belonging to the nobility? It will be so if F.A.G. manages to deceive enough people. Remember, that couple in the Cisco murder-suicide, did not die by presently targeted assault rifle nor hand gun but shot gun. Hunters take notice! The grabbers have their sights set on you, not just the criminal, unless their gun laws succeed in criminalizing you. Read their letter again and carefully this time and understand their final aim. Unlike many gun control advocates, these people come right out with it, no lies, no hypocritical deceptions, just "no guns."

If they passed their collection box my way, my contribution would have to come from the hardware store nuts.

A slide program and speech to church or school? I had as soon expose impressionable, idealistic minds to outright communist brain laundering. Furthermore, any school that invites them in should be required to permit the opposition the same opportunity to present their case.

Sincerely,
M.B. Gilbert

Crime Stoppers Holds Special Called Meeting

The Eastland County Crime Stoppers held a special called meeting on Wednesday, September 4, 1991. The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m. by Chairman Rena Kirk. Members present were Bill and Anita Walton, Terry Edwards, Voy Wilks and Coordinator Terry Simmons. Two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams of Gorman, were also present.

Mrs. Kirk stated that the necessity of the called meeting was to discuss the conflict between the festivals to be held on September 28. One festival will be the Gorman Peanut Festival and the second will be the Roaring Ranger Days. Mrs. Kirk stated that with the limited equipment and manpower, that Crime Stoppers could not be at both. It was discussed and decided that since the 'Legends of the West', who serve as Crime Stoppers Marshals during the festivals, were all from Gorman, that the jail would be set up in Gorman. Crime Stoppers decided that the jail would be a float in the Gorman Parade and then would be set up as a booth immediately following.

The members also decided to enter a vehicle in the Ranger Parade representing Crime Stoppers. Joe Williams, also known as 'Longarm' with the 'Legends of the West', stated that the group would perform a couple of gunfights around 1:30 p.m. in Ranger.

Crime Stoppers members were very disappointed that the two festivals had been scheduled on the same day since booths at the festivals are Crime Stoppers basic fund raising projects. It is hoped that there will not be the same conflict in 1992.

Also, Crime Stoppers will have the jail as a float and booth in the Eastland Festival on September 21.

Members discussed the 'pre-selling' of the warrants and committee members will begin immediately.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 7:45 p.m.

Q. How can I acquire a more feminine manner?
A. There are several areas to watch:

1. The hands - avoid stiff brusque movements. Do not use them firmly to assert yourself. NEVER pound on a table to put over a point. Shake hands gently but with enough firmness to convey friendship.
2. The walk - Avoid a heavy gait or long steps. Keep head back over spine, chest and chin high, walking lightly.

This study of the EARP family deals primarily with the descendants of WILLIAM EARP and his wife, PRISCILLA NICHOLS EARP of Maryland, through two of their sons, Philip and Josiah. William and three of his sons, Josiah, Philip and Erasmus all served in the American Revolution. Philip the great-grandfather of WYATT EARP, moved from Maryland to Virginia, thence to North Carolina. His son Walter moved through Tennessee to Kentucky and then to Monmouth, Illinois. ATTALA COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI, PIONEERS by Betty Couch Wiltshire.

Attala County, Mississippi, was established in 1834 from territory ceded by the Choctaw Indians in 1830. The county lines are the same today as originally laid out. The author has attempted to collect sources of information on the early pioneers of Attala County during the period 1834 through 1865. Due to a courthouse fire on July 29, 1858, most of the early county records were destroyed, making it difficult for today's researchers. Included in this volume are tax lists for 1835, 1838, 1843, 1847; newspaper notices found on microfilm at the Mississippi State Archives in Jackson, Mississippi, listing marriages, deaths, divorces, court cases, business transactions, public auctions, sheriff's sales, crime reports, electoral nominations, new business announcements, advertisements, delinquent taxpayers, and letters being held at the post office. Also included are probate and deed records from 1835-1859 available at the Attala County Courthouse in Kosciusko; an 1850 Slave Schedule taken from United States census records; a descriptive register giving physical attributes and other information on men living in Attala County in 1864 and 1865; and genealogies of families living in Attala County in 1860 or earlier compiled from census records, county records, cemetery records, state military records, and death certificates.

This volume is a welcome addition for researchers of the time period in this area of Mississippi. #W348, Paperback, 1991 c220 pp., index, $18.00. Order by Title and book #: Heritage Books, Inc.; 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place; Suite 300, Dept. P/P; Bowie, Maryland 20716. S&H $3 per order. Maryland residents add appropriate taxes.

FALL WORKSHOP ANNOUNCEMENT: The Mid-Cities Genealogical Society is planning the annual Fall Workshop on Saturday, Oct. 5, 1991 at the First Baptist Church of Hurst, 1801 N. Norwood. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m., and the program begins at 9:00 until 4:00 p.m. Cost is $20 before Sept. 27th.

Kokomo News

By Zelda Jordan

I hope that everyone had a very holiday weekend to end the summer activities, and now it is on to the fall season.

Glenn and I spent the weekend in Abilene and went out to the Super Chili Bowl cook-off at Buffalo Gap, a benefit for the Ben Richey's Boys Ranch, and got to enjoy a chili lunch before the rain downpour came and rove us back to the car, dripping wet, and very muddy. That red clay mud really stuck to our shoes. Our granddaughter, Sheri Miles, joined us for the visit to Buffalo Gap on Saturday and then again on Sunday to tour the Historic Buffalo Gap Village. This was a very interesting tour. Sheri's $22 at the door, lunch included. For information, call Terri O'Neill, (817) 267-8023, or Sherlene Baab, 283-3422.

WANDA O. DILLARD; 5878 Indian Springs; Livingston, TX 77351: In recording the history of the BAKER Family from Alabama to Texas, I found a record at the court house, Stephenville, of the death of William Joseph BAKER, 11, 16, 1943, buried in Wayside Cemetery, Nimrod, TX, Eastland County. I would very much like to get in touch with any of his descendants, and/or obtain a copy of his obituary. Joseph wrote many letters to relatives in Caldwell, Galveston and other Texas counties during the year 1923 concerning "THE BAKER ESTATE". Photocopies of any of the replies to those letters would be of great interest, and much appreciated. Joseph's father was J.W. BAKER of Georgia; mother was Lucinda WATSON of Alabama.

TDA Protects Consumers Against False Pricing

Every time consumers pump gasoline, weigh produce on a supermarket scale or stand in a grocery check-out line, they take for granted that they won't be overcharged for their purchase. And most of the time they're right. But fuel pumps, scales and bar code scanners do malfunction, and deception, while not the rule, does occur in the marketplace. In these cases, the Texas Department of Agriculture steps in to protect consumers and, when necessary, items sold by weight, volume, length or count in supermarkets and other retail outlets all over Texas - everything from packaged meat and soap powder to garden hose and thread. A typical supermarket stocks about 35,000 items, all of them subject to unannounced, random inspections. Items are removed from packaging and checked for accuracy in the store. If they don't fall within federally established limits of tolerance, they are removed from the shelves. Fines may be levied.

Last summer TDA fined 12 companies $18,250 for selling short-weight packages of animal feed and feed supplements in bags that were marked 50 pounds but were one to five pounds underweight. Other bulk items like fertilizer and seed are subject to similar inspections.

We're also taking a hard look at the computerized bar code scanners at grocery and department store check-out counters. Overcharging customers brings a violation notice and fines of $100 to $2,000, which stores have 20 days to dispute. Out of 121 stores we inspected last year, 37 were not in compliance and 36 received administrative fines.

One of TDA's most important consumer services involves fuel pumps. Between January and April 1991, inspectors checked 33,592 pumps, ensuring that buyers actually get the amount of gas they pay for. Between August and the end of the year, inspectors will be diligently inspecting 100 percent of the 131,000 pumps in the state, a goal we aim to meet annually. To determine accuracy, inspectors pump five gallons into an exact five-gallon can. A rectangular blue seal showing the TDA logo and the month and year of inspection tells consumers that the device has been inspected. Inspectors also check all

Tips For Shopping With Children

What to do to help children behave without spanking, hitting, or yelling at them while you shop....Here are a few guidelines that can help you and your children have a pleasant time while shopping:

Discuss with your child appropriate behavior that is expected of him/her while shopping. For example, tell the child that running in the store is unacceptable.

You can even discuss with your child what suggestions he/she would have if you were to misbehave.

Try not to shop on a day when you have had a bad day or when you are so tired you could drop, because when you feel badly, patience while shopping with children can be strained. Also make sure the children are rested and are not hungry.

Develop some "sign language" at home with child - signals which mean "Stop", "Come here", "Be careful". Use them in public.

AT THE STORE:

* Make shopping fun for yourself as well as the child. Relax. Try to forget other concerns and focus in on really enjoying this experience with your child.

* Picture yourself shopping where you had absolutely no interest in the merchandise (hardware, etc.). Sounds pretty boring, doesn't it? Your child is most likely not always interested in where you want to shop. Therefore, you need to help him/her make it through the places where he/she has no interest.

* Promise to look with him/her where he/she wants to look and show an interest in what he/she wants to see.

* Play games. Tell him/her to count how many people are wearing something red, or how many babies he/she sees, or if someone is wearing a hat.

* Count how many steps it takes to get from one end of an aisle to the other end.

* Discuss the pictures on packages - have the child explain what he/she sees; name the colors in the picture; count how many letter a's, etc., he/she sees.

* Play "I see something" at the checkout register and have the child guess what you see.

* Reward good behavior. Promise to play a game with or read to the child when you get home. (AND KEEP YOUR PROMISE.)

* Enjoy your child.

IF ALL ELSE FAILS:

If your child gets out of control or embarrasses you, stop, pick him/her up (or take him/her by the hand), and take him/her out of the store, or to the restroom (to a private place), talk to him/her quietly, eye-ball to eye-ball, and tell him/her that his/her behavior is totally inappropriate. Wait for him/her to calm down no matter how long it takes.

Then ask him/her if he/she is ready to try again. If he/she doesn't calm down, take him/her home. Explain to him/her the reason why you had to come home. If the shopping can't wait, find a sitter and leave him/her there while you return.

Cisco Junior Rodeo Winners Announced

The Cisco Ag Booster Club would like to thank everyone that donated or helped with the Cisco Junior Rodeo. It was a huge success. Ag Boosters work all year for the youth of Cisco.

The proceeds from the Cisco Junior Rodeo and other activities go to the kids. Money raised helps buy animals for students in FFA and 4-H. These youngsters feed animals all year and then at the County show, sell their market animals. The money raised is what is used to buy animals. Many businesses in Cisco and the area donate materials and cash to help out the kids.

Ag Boosters extends a big thank you to: Tim Barton Construction, Hollis Williams Construction, Tommy Lee Plumbing, Ted's & Rex's One Stop, Taylor's Convenience Store, Herman's

Auto Supply, Hull's Citgo Station, Cotton's Studio, Hargrave Insurance, First National Bank, Pierce Motor Company, Sonic Drive-In, The Custom Cowboy, Tolar's Automotive, Country Classic Hair Center, White Elephant Restaurant, Southwest Enterprises, Cisco Pump, S&M Supply, State Farm Insurance, Carolyn's Florist, Jim Caldwell Motors, Ingram Motors, Fullen Motor Co., Eastland Farm & Ranch, Bobby and Joyce Boyd, Jackie Gentry, Bill Starr, Alfred Green, Tammy Douglas, John Bailey, Robert Gorr, Doug White, Cisco Ambulance Service and Bruce Smith.

We would also like to thank you, Michael Rabb. Michael is in the 8th grade at Cisco Junior High. He spent three long and hot days working at the arena, and during the rodeo, he barely took time to eat.

He helped in every event that was held during the rodeo without being asked. We know his parents, Eddie and Tianey Rabb, are very proud of such a responsible and hardworking young man. Incidentally, Michael has worked at every fundraiser Ag Boosters has had. Thank you, Michael, for your help.

BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

CALL 629-2601 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography
Established by the American Cancer Society.

I. 35-40 years of age -
One baseline mammogram.

II. 40-50 years of age -
A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.

III. 50 years of age and over -
An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.

IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals.
These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

A Service of Transamerican Diagnostic Services
(Providing Mammography Services for over 5 years)

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $50.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa,
Mastercard and American Ex-

LOCKING UP TEXAS' VIOLENT OFFENDERS

Texans are fed up with the spectacle of violent criminals being released from prison after serving only a fraction of their sentence. They are frustrated and angry with the revolving doors in our prison system.

And they should be. Because the first responsibility of any government is to insure the safety of its citizens.

On August 25, 1991, however, Texas' state government took a historic step toward fulfilling its fundamental responsibility to the people of this state. The Legislature passed a criminal justice package on that date which I am honored to sign into law.

For the first time—not just in Texas, but in the nation—we have enacted legislation that will keep violent criminals locked up and will attack the root cause of crime: addiction to drugs and alcohol.

It is impossible to overstate the importance of this legislation. No longer will Texas be ranked 50th in the nation when it comes to dealing with crime. Senator Ted Lyon said it best when he noted that, in the future, other states will follow "the Texas plan" as they try to come to grips with their own crime problems.

This "Texas plan" works by simply addressing what law enforcement officers have always known, but politicians have been reluctant to acknowledge. And that is this basic formula that continues to drive our crime rates upward:

Addicts commit crimes.
Addicts go to prison.
Addicts come out of prison.

Addicts commit crimes again.

It is this vicious cycle that must be halted. Since it is an addiction to drugs and alcohol that is at the core of many of our crime problems, it is this addiction that we must combat.

And this legislation does that.

At least 15 new prison facilities will be constructed under this legislation (House Bill 93) which is designed to allow our prisons to hold an additional 25,300 inmates. These new facilities will be built in the next two years to four years.

Almost half of the new cells (12,000) will be utilized to deal with those prisoners who have drug and alcohol addictions. That's four times as many as the next closest state in the country—and a thousand times more than had previously existed in Texas.

But new prisons and treating addictions aren't the only aspects to this legislation. H.B. 93 will also get the state out of court, keep violent offenders locked up for longer periods of time, clear the backlog of state prisoners currently being held in county jails and make Texas communities safer.

It does this in several ways. The legislation:

—Establishes 13,300 maximum security beds, ensuring that the worst criminals will remain incarcerated as long as possible.

—Creates a "substance abuse felony punishment" and provides space for 12,000 inmates punished under this provision.

—Settles the Harris County and Nueces County lawsuits (which included 13 counties) against the state and provides a mechanism to reimburse counties for keeping state prisoners—thus reducing the tax load on local taxpayers.

—Expands the use of private prisons from 2,000 to 4,000 beds.

—Adopts the recommendation of Comptroller John Sharp to facilitate the release of elderly and seriously ill prisoners who are no longer a threat to our safety.

Our focus must be on reserving maximum security beds for violent offenders. When we work together—state, county and local officials, along with law enforcement officers and judges—I am confident that we will be able to achieve this goal.

With the adoption of this progressive legislative package, I believe this government has taken a big step toward fulfilling its responsibility to the people of Texas.

But this is only the first step. We must continue to work together on both the local and statewide level to keep our communities safe.

SCHOOL STUDENTS 'IN' DRUGS, CRIMINALS 'OUT'

It was time to stop talking and start acting on the two things which can make or break the future of Texas—a good school system and a war on crime that will honestly accomplish something.

In the end, the Texas Legislature rose to the occasion on both. The proof came when the doors of our schools opened as scheduled and the prison system went to work on the most aggressive anti-crime, anti-drug plan in this nation.

I think many parents and children off on summer vacation didn't really realize how much in doubt this school year was in light of the Supreme Court rulings and the state's financial bind.

But the Legislature cleared the way for opening the schools by pouring $1.9 billion in new money into the local districts, a 15 percent increase in state support, bringing total state school spending to $14 billion for the next two years.

That money will be spread among local districts on a much more fair formula than ever before, and that was the point of the Supreme Court ruling.

Unfortunately, even that much new money will not stop school property taxes from increasing in many local districts this fall.

I regret that. Property taxes are too high now. But the Legislature did not have the will to undertake serious tax reform that would lower property taxes.

The new crime plan includes $150 million for counties with overcrowded jails. It provides that if Texans approve a bond issue in November, we will build 25,000 more prison cells and for the first time ever put 12,000 criminals in intensive drug and alcohol abuse treatment programs.

This program makes Texas No. 1 in the nation in going after the root causes of crime as 85 percent of the inmates in prison have addictions and commit crimes to feed their habits.

Education and crime were expensive items and it was not easy to bring them about when many other vital services competed for money and attention.

The Legislature accomplished the task only by passing a $2.8 billion tax bill, plus banking on a lottery and adopting spending cuts and efficiencies recommended in Comptroller Sharp's audit reports.

I have said that I am not proud of that tax bill, but there was no other choice if we were to keep the schools open, along with the prisons, highways, hospitals and life-saving human services.

But even with that tax bill, state spending over the next two years economy of Texas will grow and I'm proud of that.

The tax bill does have one bright spot. The corporate franchise tax was modernized for the first time in 84 years. The rate was lowered tremendously on capital investment in Texas and that is an incentive for job creation in new plants and business expansion.

Further, 125,000 small businesses will be completely removed from the tax rolls.

As in all legislative sessions, partisan and special interests reared their heads and those same interests no doubt in the months ahead will try to misrepresent and misinterpret what was accomplished and how it was done.

But I trust Texans to look with fairness, common sense and honesty on the overall final result and know that the vital missions were served.

GOVERNOR PROGRAM CLAIMS TEXAS PTA MEMBERSHIP ENROLLMENT MONTH

Gov. Ann W. Richards recently proclaimed September 1991 to be Texas PTA Membership Enrollment Month.

In a proclamation presented to the Texas PTA, Gov. Richards stated, "The organization keeps parents and teachers, as well as other concerned parties, informed about issues facing children today, legislation affecting children, matters concerning parenting in the 1990's, and much more. PTA is an excellent and accessible avenue to citizen involvement in education."

With more than 850,000 members in Texas and more than 7 million members nationwide, PTA is composed of parents, nonparents, teachers, students, superintendents, principals, administrators, grandparents, businesspeople, community leaders, and others who care about the education and welfare of children and young people.

"We invite anyone who cares about children to join the Texas PTA as a partner with us in working for stronger families, an improved education climate, and safer communities," said Shirley Igo, Texas PTA president. "There are many ways for parents as well as interested citizens who have no children in school to participate in PTA and have a positive impact on the lives of our young people."

The largest child advocacy organization in the nation, PTA is committed to uniting the efforts of educators and the general public to secure the greatest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education for ALL children and youths.

For information on becoming a member of PTA, citizens should contact their local PTA unit or the Texas PTA state office at 512/476-6769.

Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

WASHINGTON—A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Researchers in Europe found that an ingredient in the aptly named product Food Source One actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption of calories.

While the development of Food Source One, a project of National Dietary Research, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the formula which has since been improved with other nutrients.

GRAMM SAYS SOVIET AID TO CUBA MUST END

The U.S.S.R.'s aid to Cuba must end if the faltering Soviet Union is to recover economically or achieve a full relationship with the United States, says U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm.

Gramm also stressed the need for freedom in the Baltic republics.

"Now that the coup has been crushed in the Soviet Union, a tremendous opportunity exists to impress upon the Soviet government the need to institute the drastic reforms that are necessary to lift Soviet society out of economic chaos," he said.

"The United States can take the lead, as it did in rallying world opposition to the coup leaders, by making it clear to the Soviet government that all aid to Cuba must end," the senator said.

"I strongly believe that any future assistance to the Soviet Union, including most favored nation trading status, should be conditioned on the cessation of all aid to Fidel Castro," he said.

Continued Soviet aid to the Castro dictatorship in simply unacceptable behavior by any standard of democracy, he said.

"The time has also come for the Baltic republics of Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia, which were illegally annexed by Stalin 50 years ago, to be given the right of self-determination," Gramm said.

The gym floor has even been granted NEW LIFE as well as the drive and parking areas!

Three weeks of this year have passed as we have had our first homework assignments, daily tests and even major tests. The volleyball girls have played four games while the football boys have scrimmaged twice. Each class has met to elect its new slate of officers, and you should be reading about all the school news involving our 266 students in the Ranger Times and County-Round-Up throughout this school year.

Students. I expect this year to be busy with the pursuing of a positive attitude, winning spirit, and an intent to actively participate in your learning. I have already observed some of you reaching beyond your abilities to stretch your possibilities and extend your thinking so that you can be an active participant in decisions which affect YOU. Developing good judgement gives you independence in making good decisions.

Parents, I hope to meet you as you continue to invest your love, interest and support in your child. Best wishes to you as parent your students through this year. Please know I am available to encourage and advise you and your child.

Teachers and all staff, within this brief time, you have proved your interest in and dedication to the students time and time again in your willingness to go the extra mile if it allows the students/school to benefit. Many of you have removed the "I" in order to make the "WE." Your reward will come as this attitude transfers to our students.

Here's looking forward and reaching upward!

Principal, Ranger Middle/High School.

"SEE YOU AT THE FLAG POLE"

More than 60,000 Texas young people and up to 2 million across the nation will join in the largest simultaneous youth prayer meeting in history during "See You at the Pole," Sept. 11 at 7 a.m., said Chuck Flowers, youth associate in the Texas Baptist Evangelism Division.

"See You at the Pole," which was launched by Texas Baptists last year, drew more than 45,000 high school and junior high school students to pray around the flagpoles at about 1,000 Texas schools at 7 a.m.

Christian students from different churches and denominations saw they weren't alone in making a stand for Christ on their campuses, said Flowers.

Afterward, students at many schools began meeting weekly for prayer and Bible study.

This year, the simultaneous prayer meeting to call upon God's intervention in the lives of each person in the school has spread across the nation to thousands of campuses.

"The school campus in one of the great mission fields of our nation," said Flowers. "Meeting on the campus to pray is a symbol of our confidence that God will work in the lives of students, if Christians boldly agree with His desire to have all come to know Him."

"Students are encouraged to pray for their teachers and other leaders and for God to intervene in student problems such as drug and alcohol abuse, sexual immorality, depression, suicidal tendencies and satanic cult influences."

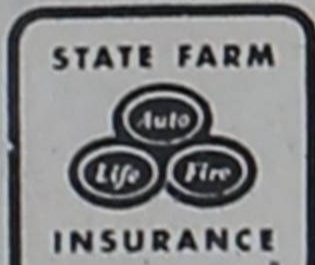

To avoid potential conflicts, it is essential that "See You at the Poles" prayer meetings be student-led, said Flowers.

"The purpose is not to make a militant stand against organizations that oppose any Christian influence on campus. We want these prayer gatherings to focus on the real purpose, and that is prayer."

Adults are encouraged to pray for the students, perhaps organizing their own prayer groups to meet near the school campus or around the flagpole at a court house or city hall at the same time as the students.

Youth leaders are urged to call 1-800-880-0789 to report the participation at schools in their area, Flowers said.

Information on the legal rights of students on campus, suggestions for preparing for "See You at the Pole" and ideas for follow-up are available from the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Youth Evangelism, c/o Chuck Flowers, 333 N. Washington, Dallas, TX 75246-1798.
