THE RANGER GARDEN CLUB

The Ranger Garden Club met Thursday in the home of Linda Plumley October 10 with Delores Britt Presiding. Thelma Powell gave the opening Prayer. Routine business was conducted with Roll Call, Treasurers Report and Minutes of the previous meeting and accepted. Louise Britt gave a talk on butterflies as this is the season for the monarch butterfly to go South. Emphasis was on them, since they lay their eggs in the milkweed plant to hatch. We need to conserve milkweeds for them. The butterfly is used as a symbol of the Resurrection. Lists of the flowers that furnish food butterflies was passed out so that they can be included in those we grow. Many of us have been growing most of these flowers, not knowing their usefulness.

Since this was the month for Halloween observance many of the members came masked, age is forgotten during this season. Pictures were those present to enjoy the home with its Halloween Decorations, including the Devil's Pitchfork, were Sue Allsup, Louise Britt, Delores Britt, Lorraine Feltmann, Ruby Halbert, Iris Hummel, Mary Mosley, Marie MaHaffey, Joellen Hodge, Geneva Ishman, Madjory Lanb, Thelma Powell, Eva Poynor, Lois Raley, Mary Stie, Maxell Townsend, Vinetta Young, Doris Smith, Mildred Black and Hostess, Linda Plumley, Vinetta Young and Delores Britt.

GAYLA EVENING AT THE MAJESTIC

GALA EVENING AT THE MAJESTIC - Members of the area Press were treated to a preview of this Texas Premiere last Tuesday night. The Majestic glowed inside and out. (Photo courtesy Roy Lee Smith)

Members of the Press and other special friends of the Majestic enjoyed a special showing of 'Looney Tunes Hall of Fame' at the Theatre on Tuesday, Oct. 8.

This preview of the Texas Premiere of the cartoon classic was hosted by the Eastland Fine Arts Association and Theatre Manager Ed Allcorn and his staff.

Prior to the showing of 'Looney Tunes' a reception was held in the Mezzanine of the Theatre, and then a catered barbecue dinner by Oscar's Restaurant backstage. The peach cobbler was baked by Velma Dalton.

Afterwards the crowd went by the concession stand for popcorn and refreshments, and up to the balcony to see the lively vintage film.

Press representatives were present from The Breckenridge American, Abilene Reporter News, Eastland County Newspapers, The Cisco News and KEAS Radio. A number of officers and other members of the Fine Arts Association were also present. All admired the colorful decorations in the Theatre, which included bouquets of red and blue balloons, and silver streamers on red tablecloths.

The refreshment table in the mezzanine was set with crystal punch bowl, a bouquet flanked by iridescent foil, and stuffed cartoon characters.

The long dining tables backstage also had paper cutouts of Bugs Bunny and other animals in the film. Ann Folsom arranged these decorations, assisted by Kay Meeks.

Ed Allcorn spoke at the dinner, welcoming visitors and thanking various people for their help in the project. He said the cartoons in the movie were originally produced by Warner Bros., but were now owned by Kit Parker Films of Monterey, California.

While Looney Tunes Hall of Fame will receive national publicity and exhibition in November, Allcorn said he wanted to give the regional audience the first chance to see this film at their home Theatre.

All the film (unedited) arrived on Tuesday, Allcorn told the crowd. He said that Gary Hardin of Carbon worked for hours putting it together.

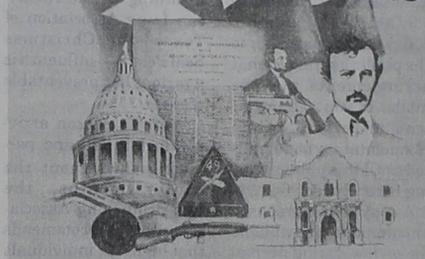

When the group went up to the balcony they were able to see what an excellent job Gary Hardin had done. The pictures came on smoothly - Daffy Duck, Bugs Bunny, Porky Pig - and all the other favorites bright and clear. There were about a dozen episodes and 80 minutes of viewing. And the art decor setting of the Majestic was a great background for the vintage pictures.

As the crowd stepped out into the cool night there was still a feeling of being back somewhere in time. No wonder someone remarked: "They ought to have more of these Premieres here!"

"Unsolved Texas Mysteries" Contains 'Old Rip' Story

Unsolved TEXAS MYSTERIES

WALLACE O. CHARITON
CHARLIE ECKHARDT KEVIN R. YOUNG

This colorful jacket of the new book "Unsolved Texas Mysteries" leads to some interesting reading. Authors are Wallace O. Chariton, Charlie Eckhardt and Kevin R. Young. The cover design and paintings are by Alan McCuller. This book is for sale at the Eastland Telegram.

by Viola Payne

Every time I decide that all that can be written about Texas history has already been written - along comes some new book with fresh ideas and material.

The latest one is called "Unsolved Texas Mysteries," and the title draws you right into some new and classic Texas stories. This title was actually inspired by the NBC television series "Unsolved Mysteries," whose crew filmed the Marfa Lights.

Published by Wordware Publishing Co. of Plano, in 1991, this book is a hardback edition with a glossy cover and numerous photographs. The book has three authors: Wallace O. Chariton, Charlie Eckhardt and Kevin Young. All are historians researchers and writers, which makes the book a mix of these things.

Much credit is given in the book to individuals who helped with materials and research. The chapter titled "Old Rip - Fact or Fiction?" will be of much interest to the people of Eastland County.

Yes, this symbol of Eastland County tenacity is brought into scrutiny. Many local residents will find some controversial material here! But "Old Rip" is listed as "one of the best" of the 14 mysteries discussed in the book.

The author thanks "the people of Eastland County for answering my questions one hot day. My special thanks to Roy Lee Smith for taking time out to discuss the most famous Horned Toad in history, and to James Dabney for sharing his views."

The first story in the book - and one listed as the "Best Mystery in Texas" - is about the Marfa Lights.

These lights were described by NBC "Unsolved Mysteries" host Robert Stack as "ghostly gold." Others have said they were "luminous, ever changing" or "pastel."

These lights have been observed in the Big Bend area numerous times, and they are not man-made. But what are they?

Other mysteries deal with almost every subject, and range across time from early Texas explorations to the saga of Billie Sol Estes. There is a chapter on the Kennedy assassination, and one on the death of Henry Marshall. There are scary ghost stories and a rather wordy chapter about enormous amounts of guns buried at an old army base north of Paris, Texas.

The authors say "Unsolved Texas Mysteries" was written for entertainment - not for serious history. But they have provided an excellent list of sources that document their work.

They say that one important purpose of their book is to encourage people who have more light on the mysteries in the volume to come forward and tell what they know.

Perhaps the authors have accomplished still another thing. For reading this book will make citizens more aware of local history and some of the stories that are passed down through generations.

You can purchase "Unsolved Texas Mysteries" at the Eastland Telegram for $16.95, plus tax. This book would make a fine gift for anyone interested in Texas lore.

Retraction From The Eastland County Newspapers

In the Oct. 13 issue of the Eastland County Newspapers there was an incorrect statement in the announcement of campaign workers for Jeanie Sadowski, candidate for U.S. Congress, 17th District. It was stated that her campaign Treasurer is "Jim Haas, owner of the H & R Block Company in Eastland." Mr. Haas has the franchise for H & R Block in Breckenridge, not Eastland. Marshall Gorman has the franchise in Eastland, and is not connected with the Sadowski Campaign.

The Newspapers regret the error and any problems it may have caused.

REYE'S SYNDROME ALERT

Know The Symptoms

Reye's Syndrome is a very serious disease that you should know about. Some people develop Reye's Syndrome as they are getting over a viral illness like the flu or chicken pox. Reye's Syndrome usually affects people from infancy through young adulthood; however, no age group is immune. It can develop 3 to 5 days after the onset of chicken pox, upper respiratory infection, or other fever-causing illnesses. It affects the liver and brain, is non-contagious, and is often misdiagnosed as encephalitis, meningitis, diabetes, poisoning, drug overdose or sudden infant death.

Typically, Reye's occurs when someone is recovering from a viral illness and begins to feel better. A person's life can depend on early diagnosis. Watch for these symptoms, usually occurring in this order:

* Relentless or continuous vomiting

* Listlessness (loss of pep and energy with little interest in their environment)

* Drowsiness (excessive sleepiness)

* Personality change (such as irritability, slurred speech, sensitivity to touch)

* Disorientation or confusion (unable to identify whereabouts, family members or answer questions)

* Combativeness (striking out at those trying to help)

* Delirium, convulsions or loss of consciousness

Reye's Syndrome should be suspected in anyone who vomits repeatedly. Phone your doctor immediately if these symptoms develop. Voice your concern about Reye's Syndrome. If your physician is unavailable, take the person to an Emergency Room promptly. Two liver function tests (SGOT, SGPT) can be done to determine the possibility of Reye's Syndrome. There is a 90% chance of recovery when the syndrome is treated in its earliest stages by physicians and nurses experienced in the treatment of Reye's.

Studies have shown that using aspirin or aspirin-containing medications to treat the symptoms of viral illnesses increases the chance of developing Reye's Syndrome. If you or a member of your family have a flu-like illness, do not use aspirin or aspirin-containing medications. In fact, you should consult your physician before you take any drugs to treat the flu or chicken pox, particularly aspirin or anti-nausea medicines. Anti-nausea medicines may mask the symptoms of Reye's Syndrome.

The National Reye's Syndrome Foundation (NRSF), the U.S. Surgeon General, the Food and Drug Administration, and the Centers for Disease Control recommend that aspirin and combination products containing aspirin not be taken by anyone under 19 years of age during fever-causing illnesses.

Aspirin is a part of the salicylate family of medicines. Another name for aspirin is acetylsalicylate; some drug labels may use the words acetylsalicylate, acetylsalicylic acid, salicylic acid or salicylate instead of the word aspirin. Currently, there is no conclusive data as to whether other forms of salicylate are associated with the development of Reye's Syndrome. Until further research has answered this question, the NRSF recommends that products containing any of these substances should not be taken during episodes of viral infections.

The NRSF is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization with affiliates located in 45 states. The NRSF has pioneered the movement to disseminate knowledge about the disease in an effort to aid in early diagnosis and also provides funds for research into the causes, cure, care, treatment and prevention of Reye's Syndrome.

INFLUENZA IS PREVENTABLE

More Than 12,000 Texans Died From Flu, Pneumonia Last Year

Do these symptoms sound familiar? Sore throat, coughing, fever, weakness, loss of appetite, aching of the head, arms and legs.

They describe influenza, a contagious respiratory disease which, combined with pneumonia, ranks as the sixth leading cause of death in the United States. In Texas last year, more than 12,000 people died from flu and pneumonia. But, according to the American Lung Association of Texas—the Christmas Seal People—influenza is a serious but preventable disease.

With flu season arriving in late fall and persisting throughout the winter months, the American Lung Association of Texas recommends that high risk individuals consult their physician or local health department about getting immunized preferably between October 15 through November 15. This allows sufficient time for antibodies in the body to build up before the peak of the winter flu season.

"Anyone can get the flu," said Gary Harris, M.D., chairman of the American Lung Association of Texas. "This is especially true during an epidemic year when the disease is widespread throughout the community."

At greatest risk from severe effects of the flu are the following groups: adults and children with chronic disorders of the heart and lungs, including children with asthma; residents of nursing homes or other chronic care facilities; and otherwise healthy people who are 65 or older. Physicians, nurses, and other personnel who have contact with high risk patients, and providers of home care to high risk persons such as visiting nurses, as well as all household members, including children also need to be vaccinated because they can transmit influenza to high risk persons.

Other groups who should consider immunization are: the general population—anyone who wishes to reduce the chance of acquiring influenza infection; persons infected with HIV, and foreign travelers.

To be protected, the American Lung Association awards and Raffle drawing will take place at 4:00 p.m.

An appropriate end to a busy day will be the ever popular street dance featuring Crosswind from 8:00 to midnight.

For information on participating in any of the events listed, call the Chamber of Commerce office, 854-2003.

tion of Texas and the Texas Department of Health recommend that high risk individuals get their flu shot now. "Influenza kills each year, despite the fact that it is a preventable disease," said Harris.

"With the availability of effective vaccines, the number of deaths caused by the flu can be substantially decreased." Vaccinations may be obtained by calling your physician or local health department.

For further information about influenza, call the American Lung Association of Texas at 1-800-252-LUNG.

The American Lung Association of Texas flu and pneumonia prevention campaign is just one of many activities supported by donations to Christmas Seals.

IMPORTANT FLU FACTS:

1. Flu or influenza is a major illness with potential life-threatening complications. More than 12,000 Texans died from flu and pneumonia in 1989-90. Each year, many older persons, or persons with major illnesses, simply do not recover from influenza.

2. Flu is highly contagious. In 1990, 314,372 cases of flu were reported in Texas. What's more, you are most contagious (most likely to give it to others) before you even know you are sick.

3. The flu shot does not make your other medicines stop working nor does it make your current illnesses worse.

4. Flu vaccine is safe and effective. The vaccine does not include active flu viruses, so it cannot cause influenza.

5. The Texas Department of Health, the American Lung Association of Texas and most doctors strongly recommend that you get a flu shot if you are 65 years or older, or if you have chronic lung disease.

October 15 - November 15 is the best time to get your flu shot.

Contact your physician on your local public health department. Do it TODAY. Influenza may be more serious than you think.

TDA OFFERS BROCHURE AND VIDEO ON FIGHTING FIRE ANTS

Many Texans rank fire ants as their number one pest problem. To help residents combat the ants now found in more than half of the state's counties, the Texas Department of Agriculture is offering a new brochure and video giving tips on the latest ways to control the insects safely.

"Fire Ants cause millions of dollars in damage each year to crops and electrical equipment," Agriculture Commissioner Rick Perry said. "What's more, the insects also present health concerns that can sometimes be life threatening, which is why we are continually looking for ways to manage these pests."

"Our new material provides the latest information and tips available to keep mounds to a minimum," Perry said.

"So far, researchers have not found a way to wipe out the stinging pests, but mounds can be controlled," he said.

The new TDA brochure and video offers ways to spend just a few minutes each spring to control ants for several months or even up to a year.

Killing or neutralizing the queen is the key to controlling fire ant colonies, according to the TDA brochure and video. Spreading bait uniformly over an infested area causes foraging ants to take bait back to queens and their colonies. This method also calls for just a pound to a pound-and-a-half of bait per acre, which minimizes the amount of pesticides used.

To ensure the baits—such as Fire Ant Ender, Amdro and Logic—work, the ground must be dry and the ground temperature should be between 70 to 95 degrees Fahrenheit. A bit of peanut butter, tuna fish or cheese placed outside for 15 to 20 minutes can tell you if it's the right time to put out bait. If the food is covered with ants, this means they are out foraging. The best time to treat is in early spring before new queens establish colonies.

"The key to long-term control of fire ants lies in finding an effective, environmentally sensitive control," Perry said.

"Research is being done through our Texas Fire Ant Advisory Board, to eliminate dependence on yearly bait applications," Perry said.

The most effective program will involve using a combination of pathogens, parasites and maybe even predators for a long-term fire ant solution, he said.

The brochure is free. The video costs $12.50. For a copy of the brochure or video contact the TDA office nearest you or write to the Plant Quality Program, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

ENERGY AWARENESS -- OUR FUTURE DEPENDS ON IT

America's future depends on the wise use of energy. Texans are encouraged to learn the importance of using the nation's energy resources more efficiently during National Energy Awareness Month. The theme for this year's Energy Awareness Month is "Building a Strategy for America's Future."

Events in the Persian Gulf earlier this year prompted fears that the United States might be cut off from a major supply of oil. This heavy reliance of foreign oil can be reduced with a solid strategy of conservation.

The primary tool in America's conservation strategy is education. Each year during Energy Awareness Month, government organizations, schools and businesses from across the country sponsor energy-related events designed to teach people about conservation of fossil fuels as well as sources of renewable energy. Individuals are courage to implement energy conservation measures in the home, car, school or workplace.

The Texas Energy Extension Service supports the national efforts by providing Energy Awareness Month information packets and ideas for promotional events to schools, chambers of commerce, utility and energy organizations, and libraries.

EES field offices provide speakers and audio/visual materials on energy efficiency, energy resources and alternate energy for interested schools or organizations. Also, a wide array of energy publications are available free of charge to any individual who would like to learn more about energy.

For more information on how to sponsor an event, design activities for an organization, or order energy-related materials, contact the Texas Energy Extension Service at 1-800-643-SAVE.

Energy awareness is the foundation for a smart national strategy of energy conservation that will keep America running well into the future.

RECORD PEANUT CROP EXPECTED

U.S. peanut production for 1991 is forecast at a record high 5.02 billion pounds, 39 percent more than last year. The previous record was 4.41 billion pounds set in 1984, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's latest crop production report.

The harvested area, estimated at 1.96 million acres, is 9 percent above last year. Yields are expected to average 2,558 pounds per harvested acre, up 567 pounds from 1990.

Texas farmers expect to harvest 310,000 acres of peanuts and produce a 604,500,000 pound peanut crop this year. Crop yields are expected to average 1950 pounds per acre. The 1991 production compares with 534,650,000 pounds of peanuts produced in 1990 and 484,700,000 pounds in 1989. "All eligible producers may obtain loans on their 1991-crop peanuts," Jerry Harris, Chairman of the Texas State ASC Committee, said.

RJC NEWS BRIEFS

"And The Band Played On"

Continuing with weekly articles highlighting the talented members of Ranger Junior College Marching Band; let's present four students from the surrounding area:

*Jennifer Sanders, a 1991 graduate of DeLeon High School, is the daughter of Wayne and Clara Sanders. Jennifer was a twirler and drum major while in high school. Her personal aspirations include graduating from RJC with an associate degree in Accounting and continuing with her education at Tarleton. She is a member of the woodwind section and plays the clarinet.

*Sharon Coan is the daughter of Gaylon and Debbie Fleming and is a 1991 graduate of DeLeon High School. She participated in Jazz Band, FHA, FFA, Annual Staff, and was a twirler while in high school. Jennifer is a member of the woodwind section and plays alto sax.

*Denise Wilcoxson, a 1991 graduate of DeLeon High School, is the daughter of Jessie Wilcoxson. Denise played basketball, was a member of the Flag Corps, Flag Corps Captain and Annual Staff while in high school. She also received academic and athletics awards. She is also a member of the woodwind section and plays the flute.

*Nora Nevarez, a 1991 graduate of Graham High School is the daughter of Nick and Carmen Nevarez. She participated in basketball and track and was elected to All District Band in high school. She is a member of the brass section and plays the trombone.

These four students are just a small portion of the tremendous talent afforded by RJC through its band program. The band is under the direction of Mr. Bob Johnson.

In keeping with providing a multitude of musical talent at the Ranger Junior College campus, Mr. Johnson is presenting a Marching Contest this weekend for High School bands.

This time, each year, high school bands across the district begin gearing up for UIL District competition.

Starting at 1:20 p.m. Saturday, October 12, Everman High School band will begin competition. At 2:20 p.m., Merkel High School band will compete. Due to a conflict with other UIL activities, other area bands had to cancel, because of large numbers in their band not being able to participate.

Weekly Report From Senator Bob Glasgow Constitutional Amendments

Completing this series on the Constitutional amendments that will appear on the November 5th ballot, this week I will explain amendments 11 through 13.

I hope the analyses I have provided of the proposed Constitutional amendments as published in this newspaper have provided you some insight as to what each of the amendments would mean. I believe an informed voting public will always make the right choices. I urge you to take the time to vote on these amendments. Texas needs to hear your voice.

PROPOSITION NUMBER 11: "Permitting the Texas Legislature to authorize the State to operate lotteries and to enter into a contract with one or more legal entities that will operate lotteries on behalf of the State."

This amendment would allow the State to operate a lottery. The Constitution currently prohibits lotteries and "gift enterprises" in Texas. This proposed amendment would change the prohibition to allow the State to operate a lottery by general law provisions.

During a Special Session of the recent 72nd Legislature, House Bill 54 was adopted in the event this proposition passes. H.B. 54 establishes a lottery to be administered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, contingent upon this Constitutional amendment's approval. Proceeds from the sale of lottery tickets would be used to pay prizes, expenses, and ticket sales agent commissions. The remainder of the money, estimated to be $460 million in 1993, would go to the State's general revenue fund. Estimates are that in five years, the lottery would generate about $635 million in net gains to the State.

Arguments for: A lottery would generate significant revenue gains for Texas government. At a time of tight budgets, revenue generated by the lottery would ease any future tax increases or new taxes, such as expansion of the sales tax or raising the sales tax rate.

The lottery would be self-supporting and not require any tax dollars for operation. Participation in the lottery is voluntary and would provide legal entertainment for those who enjoy games of chance. Legal gambling discourages organized criminal gambling by reducing its profit margins.

The lottery will help the Texas economy. Lottery sales agents may well hire more people than are currently on their payrolls. Lottery winners will spend their winnings on goods and services they otherwise would not buy. Texans who currently play lotteries outside Texas will play the Texas lottery, and some players from other states can be expected to spend some of their lottery dollars in Texas.

Arguments against: Revenue gained by the lottery is a relatively small part of the State's budget needs, and would not prevent any future tax increases. Lottery gains in other State's have proven to be unstable, and are generally declining. Once the novelty of the lottery is over, players lose interest and revenue drops off.

The lottery is a highly regressive method of funding government, in that studies have shown that low-income and middle-income people buy a large majority of all lottery tickets. A lottery attracts players with the hope of a better way of life, but in reality the odds against winning are astronomical. Lotteries are an inefficient way to raise revenue in that less than half the money paid for a lottery ticket goes to the State.

Money spent on lottery tickets is money that could be spent on food, housing, clothes or other needs. This could result in reduced sales by merchants and less sales tax to the State.

PROPOSITION NUMBER 12: "Increasing the percentage of Texas water development bonds previously authorized by Texas voters that may be issued for economically distressed areas."

This amendment would increase 20 to 50 per cent ($100 million to $250 million) the percentage of Texas Water Development Bond money that could be used to provide water and wastewater facilities in economically distressed areas of the State.

The previous $100 million was obligated to provide water and wastewater facilities for 50,000 people who live in the "colonias," communities which are situated in south Texas along the border with Mexico. It is estimated that 150,000 additional people are still in need of basic services. This amendment would provide the additional money from a water bond package that was approved by the voters in 1989.

Arguments for: These services can be provided without increasing the State's bonded indebtedness or detracting from projects elsewhere in the State. Providing clean water for the "colonias" will solve major health problems in those affected areas.

Residents of these economically depressed areas have tried to solve their own problems, but lack the tax base needed to support repayment of local bonds issued by a municipal authority, and need a way to raise their living conditions to a basic level. Residents who receive financial assistance are required to repay the loans, and have an excellent track record of doing so.

Arguments against: Colonias are a local problem that should be handled with local resources at the county or city level. Improved conditions in the "colonias" will result in their growth and increased demands for services by those who can't afford to pay for them. Those who receive financial assistance may not be able to repay their loans, thus forcing the use of State funds to make up the difference.

PROPOSITION NUMBER 13: "Providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds not to exceed $300 million to continue existing programs to provide educational loans to students, with repayments of student loans applied toward retirement of the bonds."

The purpose of this bond program is to provide the Hinson-Hazlewood College Student Loan Program additional money in order to make loans to Texas students who are in need of financial assistance in order to pay for their college education. The amendment would allow the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board to issue up to $300 million in additional bonds to be used to provide student loans. Between 1986 and 1990, the annual volume of loans under the program increased from $12 million to almost $80 million. The additional money is necessary in order for the program to have money to loan. Without additional funds, the loan program will not have funds for student loans by March of 1992.

Arguments for: The bonds would be repaid by those who borrow the money. The Hinson-Hazlewood loan program has a six per cent default rate, as compared to a national 16 per cent failure rate. All defaults are covered by interest earnings or by a Federal insurance program. The program's track record has been outstanding.

As college costs increase, and Federal financial aid decreases, the State should continue its student loan program. The economic development of the State is enhanced by a well-educated public. The Hinson-Hazlewood loan program provides students low-interest loans that promote college attendance and ultimately contribute to the State's economy.

Arguments against: Many private and Federal loan programs are available for students who want to attend college. The issuance of more bonds will only further strain the credit of the State.

CAN YOU SEE MY HEARING AIDS?

"Frankly, I'm past caring about whether anyone sees them or not.

I DO care about the way my family and friends rave about the 'new' me!

They say I'm actually FUN to be around again, now that carrying on a conversation with me is no longer a tooth-pulling ordeal.

I like myself better too. I feel so much more CONFIDENT in social situations! I owe it all to my new hearing aids. So, why should I worry about who sees them, and who doesn't?"

Fishing Outdoors

by Terry Wilson

It was this outdoorsman distinct pleasure to be invited to visit with 5 kindergartens and 1 third grade class at the Siebert Elementary last week. A big thanks to the Eastland Independent School District, Mrs. Allmond, Mrs. Boone, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Billy, plus my employer Enserch Processing for allowing me time out to talk to these fine groups of future outdoor persons. Our programs was a very simple run over types of bait, tackle and some places to fish. But the big crowd pleaser was a 4 pound plus live large-mouth bass. The shrieks and giggles were great and some eyes did get wide when these youngsters touched and got close to "Bob the Bass." This luncheon was furnished by my number one fishing partner in about 10 cast. He also caught and released a number of 2 pound and smaller fish. A huge thanks to the birthday boy, Howard Wilson, my dad.

Events such as this cannot be done often enough. Whether it be fishing, hunting or just plain being outdoors. The future is yours and mine to shape. Please get involved with today's youth. Thanks again to everyone who made this possible especially the youngsters.

Texas who buy a taxable boat or motor must pay a 6.25 percent sales or use tax. This new law went into affect October 1.

Part of House Bill 11, passed during the second special session of the Texas Legislature, imposes the sales tax on all sales of taxable boats and motors. Also, new residents who bring a boat registered in another state to Texas must pay $15.00 for the boat and $15.00 for the motor.

A taxable boat is a boat other than a canoe, kayak, rowboat, raft, punt or other vessel designed to be propelled by a paddle, oar or pole. A taxable motor is an outboard motor with an internal combustion engine.

The bill was passed to create more money for the state. Jim Ramsey, assistant revenue branch manager at Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept., said estimates from the state comptroller's office indicate that this bill will raise about $600,000 over the next biennium for the state's General Revenue Fund.

The taxes may be paid to the TPWD or the County tax assessor collector. If they're not paid within 20 working days of the date of sale or the date of entrance into the state, 5 percent of the tax due will be assessed as a pen-

Record Peanut Crop Expected

U.S. peanut production for 1991 is forecast at a record high 5.02 billion pounds, 39 percent more than last year. The previous record was 4.41 billion pounds set in 1984, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's latest crop production report.

The harvested area, estimated at 1.96 million acres, is 9 percent above last year. Yields are expected to average 2,558 pounds per harvested acre, up 567 pounds from 1990.

Texas farmers expect to harvest 310,000 acres of peanuts and produce a 604,500,000 pound peanut crop this year. Crop yields are expected to average 1950 pounds per acre. The 1991 production compares with 534,650,000 pounds of peanuts produced in 1990 and 484,700,000 pounds in 1989. "All eligible producers may obtain loans on their 1991-crop peanuts," Jerry Harris, Chairman of the Texas State ASC Committee, said.

Price support loans will be available for warehouse-stored peanuts, and farm-stored additional peanuts, from harvest time through January 31, 1992. Loans on farm-stored quota peanuts will be available through March 31, 1991, he said.

Quota peanuts are those peanuts within the farm's poundage quota that are mandated for domestic edible use, or retained for use on the farm. Additional peanuts are peanuts that are placed under loan at the price support rate for additional peanuts, or are marketed through an approved contract for exporting or crushing. "Generally, additional peanuts are peanuts that are produced in excess of a farm's poundage quota," the ASCS official explained.

Eastland County Bass Club

HORTON WINS AT HUBBARD CREEK

The Eastland County Bass Club monthly club tournament was held on Hubbard Creek, Sunday, October 13, with 10 club members attending. At the 4 p.m. weigh-in, Gary Horton was declared the winner with three fish weighing a total of 10 lbs. In second place with three fish weighing 7 lbs. was Melvin Crabtree. In third place with two fish weighing 5.77 lbs. was James Mayes. James also had the big bass of the tournament a nice 4.30 lbs. fish that was caught on a spinner-bait. All anglers reported catching a lot of small fish.

The Guys and Dolls Tournament held on Lake Proctor, Saturday, October 12 was a fun filled day enjoyed by the ten couples who attended. We had a very nice day weather wise but the fish didn't cooperate very well. The anglers decided to have a jackpot and an optional big bass pot with only one winner. Al Senterfitt was the overall winner with four fish weighing a total of 7.96 lbs. which included the big bass of the day that weighed 2.69 lbs. Everyone reported catching by flipping a jig. Anglers took a break for lunch at which time we gave out our awards from last year's fishing. The trophy for anglers of the year was presented to Al Senterfitt.

Area anglers are reminded that the E.C.B.C. sponsored by weekly jackpot has been postponed until Sunday, October 27, due to our club activities next week. Our next jackpot will be at Chock-O-Block on Lake Leon with fishing hours from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Entry fees have to be paid before fishing. One other reminder about the jackpots as well as club tournament is that fish to be weighed in are to be brought to the scales in a bag with water on them. This is to insure that the fish can be released back into the lake alive.

The E.C.B.C. Mini-Class will be held Oct. 19-20. The top 16 anglers who qualified have been notified by letters as to whether they are boaters or non-boaters. These anglers will meet at Double Vision Restaurant in Eastland for the drawing of the lake to be fished and the drawing of partners. We will have 8 boaters and 8 non-boaters who will participate. This drawing will take place at 6 a.m. Boaters who can't attend are asked to call Gary Horton at 647-3888 so other arrangements can be made.

Cottonwood Musical To Be October 18

The Cottonwood Quilting Club is having their monthly Country and Western Musical on Oct. 18, 1991 at the Cottonwood Community Center in Cottonwood.

The musical will start at 6:30 p.m. with Smokey Callaway as the emcee. All Country and Western musicians are invited to attend. For more information call 817-725-6263.

'Living With Cancer' Conference To Be In Eastland October 26

The Anderson Network - an organization of current and former patients of U.T.M.D. Anderson Cancer Center of Houston - is hosting a day long conference for patients of the North Central Texas region. All cancer survivors, their family members and friends are invited and encouraged to register and attend. You need not be an Anderson patient - we want to reach out to all as we all share the same concerns, issues and questions.

The day's agenda will include sessions on cancer in men, cancer in women, cancer prevention and awareness, patient/doctor communication, nutrition, coping techniques and much more.

It promises to be a full day of information, sharing and understanding. Presenters will be Anderson staff, local doctors and patients.

The conference is open to all who have been touched by cancer in some way - whether as a patient or family member or friend of a patient. We sincerely hope you will make plans to attend.

Here are the facts:
Place: 1st Baptist Church, 405 So. Seaman, Eastland.

Day/Time: Saturday, Oct. 26, 1991, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. (Registration from 8:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.)

Fee: Only $10 per person. (This covers the entire day, including lunch and breaks) A limited Ambitious Dr. Benjamin Stone (Michael J. Fox) meets and falls in love with an unconventional girl named Lou, played by Julie Warner in the film 'Doc Hollywood'.

office. 'Doc Hollywood' is rated PG-13.

No, Fox, is not named 'Hollywood' in the picture! His name is Dr. Ben Stone, and he is a cocky, ambitious young doctor who is headed across the country to a high-dollar plastic surgery practice in Beverly Hills.

But a car accident strands him in the small town of Grady, South Carolina, principally known as the Squash Capital of the south. But who can complain too much, when your ambulance driver turns out to be Julie Warner - cast as an unconventional local resident named Lou.

The citizens of Grady have squash by the bushel, and enough down-home hospitality to delight any tourist passing through. What they don't have are enough doctors. So through legal and auto-mechanical circumstances, Dr. Stone and his Porsche are forced to become residents of the town for a brief but memorable period of time.

That was one thing the ambitious young doctor hadn't planned on. But that was only the beginning of unexpected events. For he certainly hadn't planned to fall in love with Lou!

Filmed on location in Florida, this romance-comedy provides good entertainment. It was Director Michael Caton-Jones' interest in the story that attracted Michael J. Fox, whom the Director approached for the title role.

'I got this exciting impression of a Director looking at America with a fresh and different eye,' says Fox.

The story is about traditional values and a sense of community - different from the legacy of the 1980's, which suggested that it wasn't enough to be part of the community. You had to be at the top of it,' Fox says.

A bonus for the film is that it has a lot of music - a few familiar tunes, and others by contemporary composers. Carter Burwell is in charge of the music.

Pharmacy Topics
By Bob Mueller

Someday scientists may be able to spot signs of cancer in ordinary urine tests. So far, researchers at Johns Hopkins University, using molecular diagnostics, have been able to spot mutated genes linked with bladder cancer in cells naturally shed in urine.

Patients with life-threatening asthma can be helped with large doses of triamcinolone, say researchers at Albert Einstein College of Medicine-Montefiore Medical Center, Bronx, New York. The drug is given over three days and the effect lasts six to nine months.

New CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) technique is getting good results, say doctors at Seton Hall University School of Graduate Medicine. Pressure is applied to the upper abdomen (in addition to standard CRP) to move arterial blood back toward the heart.

Powerful drug against migraine and cluster headaches - dihydroergotamine - once only available by injection, is now being formulated as a nasal spray. Clinical trials will conclude soon.

When new medications become available, we'll have them here for you at Wal-Mart Pharmacy, Hwy. 80 East, Eastland, 629-3347 - where you can find everything your baby needs. When your doctor prescribes the best, we do the rest.

Help For Low Income Medicare Beneficiaries

Do you know someone like Margaret Jones? (I'm not using her real name to protect her privacy.) She's in her late 70's now and lives alone; her husband died some time ago. Although she owns her home, she has little savings left. Fortunately, Mrs. Jones gets a Social Security check of about $450 a month and has Medicare.

Of course, on $450 a month, paying the 29.90 monthly premium for Medicare medical insurance is not easy. Mrs. Jones also worries that if she has to go to the hospital, the $628 Medicare hospital insurance deductible will wipe out her remaining savings.

Perhaps you know someone in the same circumstances as Mrs. Jones. It might even be you. Well, the good news is that there is a program to help people like Mrs. Jones with out-of-pocket Medicare expenses. It's called the "Qualified Medicare Beneficiary" program, or "QMB".

The QMB program helps low-income Medicare beneficiaries by paying their Medicare premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance. The program is run by the States, in Texas it's the Department of Human Services, and the federal Health Care Financing Administration. It is up to the State to decide if you are eligible for help from the program.

Like Mrs. Jones, you might qualify for help from the QMB program if you have Medicare coverage and your income and your "resources"—things you own—are limited. Here in Texas your resources can't be more than $4000 for one person, or $6000 for a family of two. But some things—such as the home you live in—don't count. Your car may not count either.

To qualify for the program, your income also must be limited. In general, if you don't work, your income from things like Social Security and other unearned income must be less than $552 a month for one person, or $740 or less for a family of two. If you work, you can qualify even if your income is somewhat higher.

Remember, only the people at Texas Department of Human Services can decide if you're eligible for QMB help. If you think you might be eligible, or you want to find out more about the program, contact them at your county Department of Human Services office.

The QMB program is for those who don't qualify for Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Those who meet the income and resource limits for SSI, will need to apply with the Social Security Administration. For more information about SSI, call our toll-free number 1-800-772-1213 or call the Abilene office at 915-698-1360.

BULLDOGS STILL WINLESS

The captains for Friday's game were; Tim Pitts, Jeff Rutledge, and Tim Abila. Ranger received the opening kickoff and returned it to the 22 yard line. Then De Leon was penalized and the ball was moved to the 32 yard line. Jeff Rutledge was injured with 8:34 left in the first quarter. De Leon then scored their first of many with 4:26 left in the first. Then Ranger's own George Bixler recovered a fumble. De Leon scored not once, but four more times in the half.

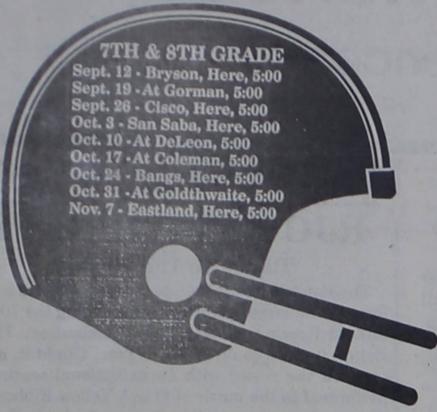

De Leon scored again with 4:44 left in the third. David Jackson was hurt on the same play. Ruben Galindo was also injured, but it came later in the game. Then the Bulldogs got the ball moving and Tim Abila marched the ball up the field. The Bulldogs put the ball within six inches of the goal line, but were unable to score. De Leon scored their last touchdown, with 4:45 left in the game. The final score was 52 - 0. Better Luck against Coleman.

J.V. BULLDOGS LOSE ANOTHER ONE

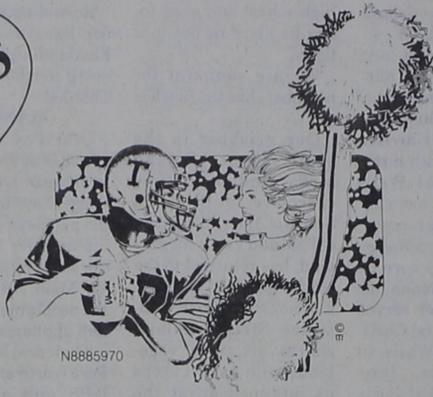

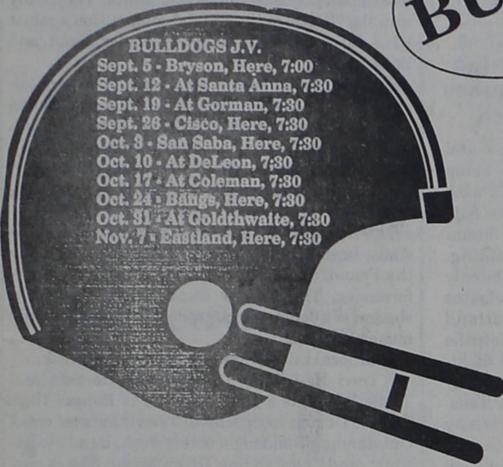

The captains for Thursday's game against De Leon were: Carl Barker and John David Johnson. The Bulldogs received the opening kickoff, and Aaron Pattenaude returned the ball to the 36 yard line. After a few more plays the ball was turned over. Then Shawn Reed intercepted the ball and returned it 23 yards past the line of scrimmage. Upon the return he injured his ankle to end the game for him. Todd Hatten threw a great pass to John David Johnson for the Bulldogs only score of the game. The Bearcats scored a two point safety to end the first half. De Leon scored three touchdowns in the third quarter, and one in the fourth quarter. Better luck this week against Coleman.
