PRISON PROPOSAL City To Extend Lines To Site, Charge For Services

The estimated $600,000.00 proposed by the City of Ranger to assist with the establishment of a state prison here would help provide for the extension o utility lines to the site, but not provi sions for the utilities.

A Ranger official stated that there had been some misunderstand. ing that perhaps the city was going to furnish utilities for the prison when Ranger is selected for a site. "Quite the contrary," the official said, 'Ranger will benefit greatly from the sale of servicesincluding water, sewerage and sanitation services to the prison."

The proposal only provides for the extension of existing lines to the site, the spokesman said.

MORAN NEWS TxDOT Provides Grant Programs

Grant programs to provide vehicles for the transportation of the elderly and disabled and to provide transportation for the general public are two percent. functions of the Texas Department of Transportation (TXDOT) not widely known to most Texans. TxDOT has been designated to administer these programs in Texas on behalf of the Federal Transportation Administration.

Brownwood District Engineer Wes Heald said that the program to help purchase vans for the elderly and disabled has been operational in this area since 1976, with 17 vans currently in service. "These vehicles are operated for the benefit of the people by organizations such as the May Senior Citizens and the New Horizons Ranch of Goldthwaite," Heald said.

This grant program for the elderly and disabled is funded under the Federal Transit Act of 1964. Grants are available to private nonprofit organizations for the purchase of vehicles to transport elderly and/or disabled persons. Twenty percent of the cost of the vehicle is paid by the private nonprofit organization. The Federal share of the program is the remaining 80

Tamara Swan, public transportation coordinator of the Brownwood District of TxDOT, said the first purchase was two vans in 1976 for the Brown County Association for Retarded Citizens. The association currently operates these same vans plus two mini-busses. Since that time, the following purchases have been made: two vans by the Brownwood Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons for use by the Camp Bowie Senior Citizen Center; two vans for Bethphage Community Services, which operates two residential group homes in Brownwood; a station wagon and seven vans for the New Horizons Ranch in Goldthwaite; and a van for the May Senior citizens Center.

As an example of how these vehicles are utilized, the May Senior Citizens van, purchased in 1985, is used to transport senior citizens from their homes in the May area to the center. The van enables ing to Brownwood to collect noon meals at the mother center in the Camp Bowie area, and return to the May center. Diana Gilbert, site manager, drives the 12-passenger van about 125 miles three times a week to coincide with the days the center is open and to transport a client to the Janie Clements Center. The van is used on field trips to other towns or for dining out. Once a year a bluebonnet tour is made The second public transportation program, which is for the general use of all citizens, is to provide rural area residents access to transportation for health care, education, shopping, employment, and recreation. "This program provides transportation for all, not just the elderly and disabled,' all 24 highway districts note stands of blooming flowers and, via computer, share the information with other TxDOT offices. Wildflower seekers can call TxDOT's toll-free travel information hotline (800/452-9292), department headquarters in Austin, one of the 11 Texas Travel Information Centers, or the nearest district office for directions to the best places to see flowers.

The program is one way the department tries to make driving a more pleasant experience for Texas travelers. Through vegetation management, landscaping, and propagation of native plants, TxDOT experts cooperate with nature to prevent erosion, minimize "highway hypnosis," and keep Texas highways some of the most beautiful in the

MEDICAL RESEARCH SUPPORTS CHIROPRACTIC

The British Medical Journal reports that Chiropractic treatment of low back pain, which affects 75 million Americans, is superior to the standard regimen administered by medical doctors.

The study, published in the summer of 1990, indicated that chiropractic manipulation can relieve severe back pain quicker and at lower cost than medical treatment. Chiropractic patients experienced less pain and disability and missed fewer days work.

At Barry Chiropractic Clinic we are committed to not only getting you free of back paid but treating those conditions which cause your pain. No symptom can be more depressing than persistent back pain. Don't delay treatment when help is readily available.

Reception Planned Usserys Moving To Oregon

notable citizens-I.W. and Rozelle Ussery. The Usserys are moving to Albany, Oregon in April. There will be a Farewell Reception for the Usserys in the Fellowship room of the First United Methodist Church, 204 Mulberry, Eastland on Sunday, March 29 from 2-4 p.m. The Suzannah Wesley Class, Martha Dorcas Class and the Friendship Sunday School Classes will be hostesses for the event.

All who would like to wish the Usserys well are invited to attend.

The Usserys speak of the move with mixed feelings, for they have strong ties to Eastland County. They spent their early years here, and moved back in 1978.

The career of I.W. (Weldon) Ussery has spanned a number of years and continents. He has served as a teacher, engineer and consultanthe speaks eight languages and has tremendous knowledge of international affairs.

In Eastland the Usserys have been active in Church and Community affairs. I.W. Ussery has taught a Sunday School class at the First United Methodist Church since he came here. "We have moved 34 times during our married life and this is the hardest one," Mrs. Ussery remarks. "But we do feel it is time to go." Amongother considerations the move to Oregon will give the Usserys a chance to live near some of their grandchildren. Their daughter Suzette Boydston, her husband John and their two children will be close by. Others of the Ussery family reside in Washington, D.C. and in New Jersey. They are: Mary and Steve Cline and two children, and William J. and Carol Ussery and four children. Besides eight grandchildren, the Usserys have three great-grandchildren.

Eastland is losing two assigned to duty in the Middle East as Project Engineer.

> In 1964 Ussery was joined by his wife and youngest daughter in Teheran, Iran, where he served as area Representative for Brown and Root. Early in his service in the Middle East, Ussery became involved in a labor uprising in Abu Dhabi. For singlehandedly putting it down, he was recommended to her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, for the honor of Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Later, during his residence in Teheran, Ussery was appointed to the Board of Governors of Damavand College for Women. He was elected to the Board of Trustees of Teheran American School in 1964. He served in that capacity (four years as President) until the graduation of his daughter from the school in 1970. Many other honors came to Ussery during his years in Iran. Probably due to his close friendship with the ruler of Abu Dhabi, he was appointed Honorary Colonel of the

after a spring rain, as citizens by the thousands sign up in groups with the Texas Department of Transportation to help rid Texas highways of unsightly litter.

Eight thousand of these signs have been erected statewide for 4000 volunteer groups who have adopted 8200 miles of highway. In the ninecounty Brownwood District of TxDOT, 85 groups have adopted 191 miles, which includes Eastland County, with 11 groups adopting 25 miles.

Adopt-a-Highway offers volunteer groups the chance to sign up to actively support the department's anti-litter

During the 1980's Mr. Ussery wrote a number of articles for the Eastland County Newspapers, in which he gave vivid details of live in Iran. Hopefully he will continue to share this knowledge through writing and personal contact.

programs. Local groups "adopt" two-mile (or more) sections of highway which they agree to clean at least four times per year. At per." each end of the two-mile section the department installs a big blue sign crediting the adopting organization. Adopt-a-Highway groups include families, churches, civic and youth groups, businesses, and clubs of all kinds. "One of our greatest concerns is the amount of litter collected on our highway system," said Brownwood District Engineer Wes Heald. "And one of the most frustrating things that I have faced since becoming district engineer is the total disregard some people have for highway beauty. From time to time we observe where people have purposely dumped household garbage for our crews to dispose of."

He emphasized that Adopt-a-Highway groups have made a big difference. "They not only keep the wildflowers from being covered by trash, but they are helping change attitudes about littering. People notice, and once they've seen trash or have participated themselves, they will think twice before throwing out even a gum wrap-

Highway Adopters Saving Big Dollars

It appears that the majority of littering is due to loose trash blowing out of trailers and pickup trucks, Heald noted. "When you drive down the road and see large sacks and other big pieces of litter, you know they must have come from the bed of a pickup."

He observed that many of the old landfill sites have been closed due to environmental regulations, and this has caused an increase in the number of discarded tires and other things on the rightof-way that were formerly hauled to the dump site. Cost of picking up litter statewide for fiscal year 1990-91 was $13,127,756. In Eastland County during this period, the cost was $27,789. "This is money that could be used to improve the highway system," he said. Five years ago the cost for picking up litter in the Brownwood District was $271,000. During this past fiscal year, the cost amounted to $149,304, registering a reduction of $121,696. Heald credits the 'Don't Mess with Texas' campaign and the Adopt-a-Highway program for the reduction. "Our hats are off to the volunteers. We appreciate them very much, and ask that they 'spread the word," he said.

Tina White, coordinator for the Brownwood District, said that Adopta-Highway groups who make a difference in Eastland County are Cisco Post 10782 V.F.W., Eastland 4-H Club, Eastland FFA, Eastland Kiwanis Club, George P. Fee Foundation, Mangum Baptist Youth Group, Peanut Corporation, Ranger Lions Club, Ranger Masonic Lodge and OES 738, Rising Star FHA, and Student Government Association.

The Adopt-a-Highway program began in Texas in 1985, the brainchild of Billy Black, public affairs officer for the Tyler District. It quickly spread statewide, and has been so successful that today 47 states from Wyoming to New York have initiated similar programs.

Any group in Eastland County wishing to adopt a highway or find out more about the program, is encouraged to call Tammy Weiser of the TxDOT Eastland County maintenance section at telephone 629-3845.

I.W. Ussery was born southeast of Carbon and attended schools there. He attended John Tarleton College in 1929-30, and later in the summers while he taught school.

He was High school principal at Scranton in 1931-33, and principal of Cottonwood Common School for two years after that.

He married Rozelle Pippin of Cisco, February 14,1935. Rozelle came from a pioneer Eastland County family who had settled west of Cisco.

In 1936 the Usservs moved to Odessa, where I.W. was employed by American Manufacturing Company, Broderick and Calvert and Gulf Refining company until 1947.

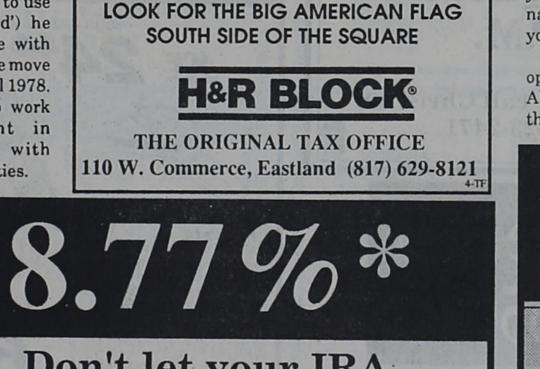

But probably one of the events that touched I.W. Ussery the most during his years in Iran was a request for him to deliver the official Eulogy after the death of President Lyndon Baines Johnson in 1975. He wrote this piece and presented it to a large crowd of Americans and Iranians who had gathered in the city. (His Eulogy is reprinted elsewhere in this paper.)

Returning to the United States in 1975, Ussery was assigned to represent Brown and Root as Consultant to the Minority Assistance Program of the Houston Regional Minority Purchasing Council

Upon his retirement in 1976 (he preferred to use the term 'recycled') he continued to serve with the council until the move to Eastland in April 1978. He continued to work

We need to remember we own this country

Editor's note: Dallas businessman H. Ross Perot has said he will run for president if he is put on the ballot as an independent candidate in each of the 50 states. Last week, he talked about what's wrong with America, and how Americans can regain control of their government, in a speech to the National Press Club in Washington. Following are excerpts from the speech:

We own this country. It belongs to us. That's the central theme of everything I have to say today. At this point in time, it is absolutely irresponsible for both the White House and Congress not to be linking arms, working together night and day to fix the economic problems.

Unfortunately, this city has become a town filled with sound bites, shell games, handlers, media stuntmen who posture, create images, talk, shoot off Roman candles but don't ever accomplish anything. We need deeds, not words, in this city.

Let's look at where we are. The debts piled up in 1992, just this one year, will exceed the total expenditure of the federal government for the first 155 years of our country's existence. The interest on the national debt just this year exceeds the cost of fighting and winning World War II.

The total national debt was only $1 trillion in 1980, when President Reagan took office. It is now $4 trillion. Maybe it was voodoo economics. Whatever it was, we are now in deep voodoo.

In 1992, we're going to go in for another $400 billion. Let's think about some radical things and balance the budget this year.

Let's just shut down the Defense Department. You can't get $400 billion. Let's just shut down the public schools nationwide. Sorry, that won't get me $400 billion.

What if we just seized all the Social Security money coming in this year and used that to balance the budget? That would just about do it.

Let's just go over and take it away from business. Let's confiscate the Fortune 500 companies' profits. Doesn't give us nearly what we need. But we've solved the problem - we're all blue collar now, right?

(ED. NOTE: This article appeared in the Sunday Dallas Morning News. It speaks volumes.)

increasing our taxes by $166 billion, they increased federal spending by $304 billion. I'm not too smart, but I can figure out that we spent more than we took in. As far as I'm concerned, we were conned. And who conned us? The people who were working for us, our elected officials.

We were told at the tax and budget summit that the five-year deficit would be $92 billion. Now we're told it'll be a trillion dollars. That's just a $900 billion mistake. The chief financial officer of a publicowned corporation would be sent to prison if he kept books like our government.

We cannot continue to tolerate this. Every citizen works five months a year just paying taxes. Forty-two percent of his income goes to taxes.

spending created Utopia here in the United States.

Take a hard look at Utopia. We're the largest debtor nation on earth; we're the most violent, crime-ridden nation in the industrialized world.

including colleges, yet we rank at the bottom of the witnessed a drug deal, and 75 percent have witnessed an arrest.

Is this an alabaster city, gleaming, undimmed by human tears?

Obviously, throwing money at problems has not created Utopia, and yet we continue to do it. Today, we have a government in gridlock. Nothing happens unless Congress and the White House work together constructively for the benefit of the people.

That's the way our founders planned it. I feel as owners of this country, if we're going anywhere, you've got to send them a message: You work for us, we don't work for you. Under the Constitution, you are our servants. Grow up! Work as a team! Serve the people, solve the problem, and move Let's look for the good news. Well, surely all this on to the next one. Build a better country and stop throwing away money we don't have.

I love the message coming from both parties. It's, "Can we buy your votes with your money this year?"

We need fundamental, long-term solutions to We spend over $400 billion a year on education, these problems, and at this point, we are running around in Washington with a hypodermic needle have to fix it. You cannot just go vote in November. You're going to have to get in the ring, stay in the ring and act like you own this country.

We've got to stop deficit spending immediately. We've got to replace Gramm-Rudman with a real bill that cuts out all tricks, loopholes and improper accounting procedures.

You've got to take away Congress' right to raise taxes. So, that means a constitutional amendment. Now, if they need more money, just put it on a ballot and let the owners of the country sign off.

Step 1 is stop the bleeding; step 2 is make sure you don't just tax and spend, tax and spend.

It they want a raise, put it on the ballot. You own this country.

Give the president the line-item veto to get rid of pork barrel and waste.

Finally, Congress absolutely must not exempt itself from the law it imposes on us.

Require all members of Congress and the president to turn in excess funds from each campaign.

If I could have just one wish before I turn out the lights, this is it: Former federal officials, elected, appointed and career service officials, cannot serve as lobbyists for domestic interest for five years after they leave office. They cannot lobby for foreign countries, companies or individuals for 10 years, and there are criminal penalties if you do.

Why do we have elections on Tuesday? Let's have elections on Saturday and Sunday. Why can't we leave the polls open two days?

No exit polls. It's a criminal offense if anybody prints exit polls; and no data from East Coast polling booths until the last booth closes in Hawaii.

Now, we're getting things a little bit straightened out. This is kind of basic simple stuff. Make adequate television time available for all candidates so the incumbent doesn't have an advantage.

Get rid of all the freebies. You've got the free hair cuts, the big gymnasiums. Why don't these boys join a health club? It's hard times. We're talking all this fancy stuff; free prescription drugs, parking places and so on.

Get rid of the 1.200 airplanes worth $2 billion that are used to fly our servants around like royalty. Keep an airplane for the president, if you want to, but downsize it to a Gulf stream. The Cold War is OK, Ross, give us the bad news. How much are we going to have to raise personal income taxes to balance the budget this year? Watch my lips. You're going to have to double them.

Now, that's how big $400 billion is. I'm not talking about the $4 trillion.

The tax and budget summit in 1990 is a study in White House arrogance. We were told if we agreed to the $166 billion in new taxes, the 1991 deficit would be $63 billion. The following April, (they) said. "Oops! It's going to be $318 billion." That's a $255 billion mistake. That would get you fired in the most soft-headed company in corporate America. Now, nobody told the voters that while they were achievement.

We spend more than anybody else on health care, and yet we rank behind 15 nations in life expectancy and 22 other nations in infant mortality.

We have 5 percent of the world's population, 50 percent of the world's cocaine use . . . two-thirds of the world's lawyers, and the average fellow on the street can't afford one to go to court. Strange. Young lawyers out of law school make more than judges.

You've got the murder capital of the United States here. Fifth and sixth graders in the city, 31 percent of them have witnessed a shooting, 45 per-industrialized world in terms of academic loaded with Novocaine, trying to give everybody quick, temporary pain relief just to get past the election. This is the best analogy I can give you: An old racehorse has a good record. It's got bad knees, but we've got to get one more race out of him. We shoot him up. He runs the race, and that's his last race, because we wrecked his knees.

Now, folks in Congress and the White House, in my judgment, are not villains on this whole economic situation. They just don't know what to do.

You say, all right, Ross, which one of the presidential candidates can fix this. Solomon can't fix cent have witnessed a mugging, 67 percent have this - the wisest man that ever lived. Because we Systems.

over. Now, slash the White House staff, the Cabinet staffs, congressional staffs. In summary, we own this country. Government should come from us.

In plain Texas talk, it's time to take out the trash and clean out the barn, or it's going to be too late. We've got a choice.

We can wait until the clock stops ticking, and it'll take us two decades to fix it, or we can move now It's our choice.

Public Urged To Attend Hearing

Ranger City officials note that people all across Eastland County have given tremendous support to Ranger's effort to obtain a Texas Department of Criminal Justice facility.

Now more help from this area is needed, and it could make a crucial difference.

All are urged to attend the Public Hearing on the Ranger site proposal scheduled for Monday, March 30,1992 at 7 p.m. in the Ranger I.S.D. cafeteria.

The size of the crowd and the opinions presented could have an effect on whether a prison is located here.

Persons in favor of a prison and any against it will have equal time. But due to time limitations it is suggested that persons with similar viewpoints coordinate their presentations before the meeting. A representative of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice will attend and report citizen input to the Board of Criminal Justice. Whole-hearted support and good reasons why the Ranger location should be chosen are bound to make positive impressions.

So come out and be a part of the Public hearing at Ranger I.S.D. March 30th!

Surgery For Back Pain

A new type of surgery for degenerative disk disease may offer hope to millions of people who suffer from low back pain. The new procedure is less painful than the current type of surgery and decreases hospital time for the patient, said Dr. David S. Baskin, a neurosurgeon at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

In the new procedure, a small incision is made in the back to expose the affected area. An operating microscope is aligned to magnify the area, enabling the physician to accurately pinpoint and remove the deteriorated fragment that causes back pain.
