Range Program Discussed By County Agent

4-H Club Banquet Postponed; Date Set for March 7; Rammel Speaks

The 4-H Club banquet to have been held at the Lions Club luncheon Tuesday, has been postponed until March 7. County Agent Atchison, in explaining the situation gave as a reason for postponement "circumstances over which he had no control."

In lieu of the program to have been put on by the 4-H Club boys, Mr. Atchison told of the 1939 range program. As a number of Lions Club members are ranchmen interested in the better development of range conditions, Mr. Atchison's remarks were timely.

"With the exception of a few minor changes the 1939 Range Program will be the same as the program carried on last year," Mr. Atchison said, in opening his remarks.

"The range building allowance for each ranch will be the same as in 1938 except in cases where the county committee feels it necessary to make adjustments. This year the administration of the program will be more the responsibility of the county committee than it has been heretofore."

"The application submitted from this county for an experimental range program in which some additional practices especially adapted to this section could be added was not approved. However, a provision has been made in the 1939 program so that additional practices not included in the program that are recommended by the county committee and approved by the state committee can be carried out. This, however, can only be done by operators who are practicing deferred grazing."

"In practicing deferred grazing by withholding 25 per cent of the range land on the ranch from grazing for a period of 150 days the ranch operator can draw 40 per cent of his range building allowance. If there are some additional practices which he wishes to carry out but which are not included in the range program and provided they are approved by the county committee and state committee he can draw an additional 20 per cent of his range building allowance by carrying out these additional practices either on the deferred area or any other part of his ranch as recommended by the county committee. If grazing is deferred on less than 25 per cent of the range land a proportionate payment will be made."

"The dirt work is practically the same as last year, drawing the same payments, except in the case of spreader terraces which draw a payment of 50c per 100 linear feet and earthen tanks which draw a payment of 15c per cubic yard of material moved not in excess of 5000 cubic yards, and 10c per cubic yard of material moved in excess of 500 cubic yards for each tank."

"The drilling of wells will be included in the 1939 program. This practice was withdrawn at the first of the year but has been put back in the program and if not abused it will remain a part of the program as it is recognized that it is essential to have a ranch adequately watered in order to utilize it to the best advantage."

"Since dirt tanks as a rule do not furnish permanent water in this particular territory and are not generally advisable, wells are a very important practice to be followed in many instances. The classifications and payments for the eradication of range destroying plants such as pear, mesquite, cedar and lechuguilla will be the same as last year."

The question of caring for underprivileged school children was discussed. The matter was turned over to the welfare committee, of which Jodie Trainer is chairman.

A sum of ten dollars was voted by the club to be applied to hospital expense of an aged man who is said to be suffering from pneumonia. Other matters of welfare work were discussed.

Following a talk by W. L. Rammel of Beaumont, who presented phase of work being carried on by the Old Spanish Trail Association, Vice-president Dameron, in charge

Tax Collections Above Average Says Collector

Poll Taxes Paid to Date Nearly Equal Those of Last Year; No Elections, Either

Ninety-one per cent of tax money due to the state, county and school district has been collected to date, according to a statement from Mrs. L. E. Johnson, deputy in the office of B. W. Hutcherson, sheriff-assessor-collector.

Sutton county has a property rendition of $4,951,445. Total taxes amount to $91,493.02, divided as follows: State, $23,195.65; County, $33,206.70; Independent School District, $33,689.83; School District No. 5, $1,432.84.

Poll taxes are reported heavier this year than in 1937, both years being what are termed off years regarding elections.

Poll taxes, which do not include "overs" and "unders" recorded this year amounted to 606. In 1937, an off-year, the number recorded was only 524. Last year—election year—the total was 866.

Utility Manager Issues Warning As Kite-Flying Time Nears

The approach of kite-flying days has prompted the West Texas Utilities Company to invite youngsters hereabouts to notify the local office in order to prevent possible accidents resulting from entangled kite strings in electric line wires.

"We remember when we used to fly kites," said W. R. Parsons, local manager for the company, "and we're willing to do the work when it comes to rescuing a kite from light and power poles or lines."

He urged that boys notify the local office in event their kites become entangled so that an experienced pole-climber can help get it down.

"The safest thing," he said, "is not to fly kites near the lines due to the danger of contact with current. We are anxious to prevent possible tragedy from interfering with the fun of flying a kite."

He urged parents to co-operate by insisting that dry, clean string always be used for kites and kitesails instead of damp string or wire which, he said, "is dangerous practice."

Mid-Night Blaze Causes $3,000 Loss

Saturday night of last week fire destroyed the barn and blacksmith shop on the Aldwell Bros. ranch southwest of town.

The blaze was discovered about 11 o'clock, but had made such headway that nothing could be done to save anything.

Besides the loss of the barn building, valued at $1,500, and the shop and windmill tools, eight saddles, 350 bales of hay and a ton of cake went up in smoke.

According to L. E. Johnson, manager of the ranch property, the owners had a carload of cake and 200 sacks of feed in town ready to be transported to the ranch, which would have been stored in the barn and consumed if the fire had occurred a night later.

The loss, which has been placed at $3,000, might have been more, Mr. Johnson said, had it not been for the aid given by the Sonora Volunteer Fire Co. The boys saved an adjoining building.

Sutton County Wildlife Committee Meeting Saturday

Regional Game Manager Here for Purpose of Instruction; Organization Soon

Between twenty and twenty-five Sutton county ranchmen held a meeting Saturday afternoon in the director's room of the First National Bank for the purpose of receiving instruction in organizing a local Wildlife unit.

Earl Sanders, regional game manager of Texas, Region 8, with headquarters in Kerrville, was present at the meeting and discussed matters pertaining to a local organization.

Mr. Sanders spoke at length on the habits of wild bird life; the requirements pertaining to each of the different species of bird; its natural habitat, and what was considered necessary to simulate the birds natural surroundings.

"The preservation of wildlife is not a small undertaking," Mr. Sanders said. "It is something worth while, and from a commercial standpoint forms one of the greatest income producing sources a county can have."

To prove a statement of this kind Mr. Sanders pointed out the county of Gillespie as being one where the income from its wildlife was second largest to any other.

The leading game counties were ranked as follows: Mason, Gillespie, Kerr and Comal, giving Mason as the leading county for deer.

Mr. Sanders stated that the hunting and fishing industry was second only to oil. Based on statistics compiled in 1937, he said that eleven million out-of-state sportsmen visited Texas, and that they spent 440 million dollars in the state.

Numerous questions pertaining to wildlife were asked the visitor, who seemed never at loss for a satisfactory answer.

Many of the questions were of the "where, what, when" variety and concerned methods of organizing, financial expenditures, how to secure game for restocking Sutton range lands, etc.

In respect to handling finances of the local unit, Mr. Sanders recommended that expenditures be made in such manner as to benefit the greatest number of citizens, and all such expenditures be made without outside influences or interferences.

It was announced by Joe M. Vander Stucken, chairman of the local unit that Wildlife Week was to be observed March 19 to 25, and at that time a meeting would be held for the final action on the Sutton county organization. Election of officers will be had during the meeting. At present the body is only temporarily organized. W. J. (Bill) Fields is acting secretary-treasurer.

Sonoran Observes 74th Anniversary

A. J. Owens, one of the Sonora pioneer, observed his seventy-fourth birthday anniversary, Tuesday. Mr. Owens is a well known citizen of Sutton county, and can give many interesting facts concerning early life in and about Sonora, and the county.

In recalling his former days as an active cattleman, Mr. Owens relates his whereabouts when he became 21 years of age—which was fifty-three years ago. Owens says that he was camped about three miles this side of Beaver Lake, at the mouth of Buckler Draw, with a large herd of cattle which he and several other men had rounded up from the wild herds which roamed the country at the time.

This, and many other tales of the Indians which inhabited the country during his early life, are all favorites which Mr. Owens enjoys talking over with old friends.

Fire Damages Home Wednesday

The roof of Mrs. J. A. Parker's home was damaged by fire Wednesday, when it caught from a stove in one of the rooms. The home is situated adjacent to the OST Tourist camp. Mrs. Parker says she is very grateful for the prompt and efficient services rendered by the Sonora Volunteer Fire Company.

SCHOOL CITIZENSHIP

If you wish to be thought well of in your school, be loyal to your school by: doing your work as well as you can, supporting every varied activity even if you must earn your money doing so, doing nothing which can harm your school's reputation, refusing to spread evil, while checking false reports.

Be courteous: refer to teachers and administrators as Miss or Mr., thank those who do you a favor, ask the pardon of those whom you inconvenience or interrupt, give precedence to girls no older people, hold the door open for others, never enter an office or speak to a person who is busy until invited to do so, remove your hat or cap on entering the building.

Be considerate: make no unnecessary administrators as Miss or Mr., ling, or walking heavily, Keep moving instead of blocking passages by stopping to talk, do not wrestle or push one another, make no unnecessary work for janitors by throwing paper or other discarded material in any place other than paper receptacles, do not mark on walls or mar any part of the building or equipment, remember that this school is loaned us by the citizens of Sonora and we owe it to the coming students to hand it on to them as fine as we found it.

Be respectful: the Golden Rule is a good guide—others will act and think of you as you act toward them, it is recommended that each pupil review his own school conduct by comparing it with the suggestions offered in the above list of good practices.

THESPIAN CLUB

Monday the Thespian Club met in regular session. The roll was called and as there was no new or old business to be brought up the program began. C. T. Driskell gave a very good talk on television, after which Margaret Schwiening gave a review of the show "Idiots Delight" from a magazine article. The club discussed their opinions of who would win the Academy Award in pictures this year and which show would win first place for the best picture of the year. Bette Davis and Spencer Tracy seem to be favorites in the club. The next meeting of the club will be in March.

THE JUNIORS 'HIKE' AGAIN

On Wednesday of last week the Juniors participated in a weiner roast. Most of the group walked (while the 'pikers rode) out to the Junction Park. I guess that the most of us were "half pikers," if there is such a thing, for we rode back.

Now that we're out there, let's see what's happening. There's the fire and a table loaded with eats—the good kind that tends to test track boy's will-power. Oh, yes! there's a case of soda-pop and no bottle opener—but never mind that. Just get out of the way of those boys. Especially James D. who has just "washed" his hands in the mustard and is trying to dry them on the first person he meets. This all ended up in an old fashioned mustard fight—won by the girls. Other activities included: a little 'scrap' with Miss Milstead (no judges or referee); the reading of one of Louise's pet notes; an embracing moment for Marjorie; and I believe Sam's car key disappeared.

We had lots of fun all right, but we didn't forget to take 'time out' to eat and—drink (nothing stronger than a soft drink).

Those enjoying the event were: Miss Edmonson, Miss Milstead, Miss Duncan, Mr. Jones and the members of the Junior Class.

Mrs. Velma Shurley Entertains for Seniors

Mrs. Velma Shurley entertained the Senior Class Friday evening in her home with an informal party, honoring her daughter Margaret Fay.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Shurley and Margaret Fay and directed to the entertainment rooms up stairs where many different games arranged for the seniors' pleasure.

At the end of a very enjoyable evening refreshments of strawberry shortcake and hot chocolate were served to Messers F. T. Jones, P. C. Lightfoot, E. C. Caraway, and L. W. Elliott; Mesdames Tom Sandherr, W. D. Martin, and L. W. Elliott; Misses Edmonson and Marjorie Davis; and last but not least the Senior Class of '38-'39, and their sponsor Miss Milstead.

WHO'S WHO IN THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Patricia Ruth Gilmore is the Sonora High School's All-American girl, no doubt. She's a great athlete and fancy free, although a certain Jr. boy's bracelet may be found on Patsy's arm, it can't be serious. Pat isn't a beauty, nor a Mae West where the figure is concerned, but that doesn't matter to a "swell gal" like Pat. She has one of the best personalities anyone could possibly have, and if she's your friend, she's truly your friend, for she's no one's enemy. Here's to you Pat we are proud to call you a Sophomore.

Hail! to Hollis Bricker, one of our football heroes. Hollis has no "one and only," he likes all the girls, and they certainly like him. He's a blond, in fact he's tall, light and handsome. We're really proud to have a swell guy like Hollis in our class. Who wouldn't be?

She's blonde, she's short, she's cute, she's Doris Meckel. Doris is a grand trouper and helps our class swing along. She gives parties like no one else can, she's always obliging with her car, and she's got a voice, "what a mo' voice." Doris can sing classical very well, but just wait until she swings it. Give her a song like "Alexander's Rag-time Band," and she can put "Alice Faye" to shame. She's known as one more good dancer, and piano player. Right now, she has interest in the Jr. class. High ho and good luck, Doris. She's also one of the smartest girls we've ever known. And boy she too is a Sophomore.

Well every class should have a Harold if not they don't know what they're missing. "Mr. President, we salute you!" Harold Briscoe is tall, thin, and quite pleasing to the eye. Here's a tip girls, his fancy is free right now. Harold is the shiek of our class. He's well liked by all who know him, and he has a keen sense of humor. Harold has plenty of what it takes, and it takes just what he has. Here's 20 to 1 Harold makes a success of his life. And the Sophomores still march on.

Mary Jo Rape is one of the smartest members of our class. She didn't start out with us, but she joined us in the sixth grade, and we hope she shall remain with us the rest of our high school days. Mary Jo is tall, has dark hair, blue eyes, and is slim. She has a small mouth, turned up nose, and freckles. She's very neat, and attractive, and above all she has a grand personality. She is a very active member of our class, and we look to Mary Jo for her opinion. When some one needs help with their school work they always know to turn to Mary Jo for help. Her interest lies in the Jr. class, and Mertzon. Mary Jo is a friend to everyone and an enemy to none. She's a good sport and can always take it. The only fault to be found if it could be called a fault is her temper. In fact she's very temperamental, nevertheless, we take our hats off to Mary Jo Rape as being a swell person.

J. R. Hudson is the new Sophomore boy from San Antonio. We're proud to have such a grand fellow as J. R. in our class. Let's everyone help make J. R. feel at home, and one of us. He's a football player, and a pretty big guy. He may come in handy next fall. Anyway we hope we can boast of him as a Broncho next year. J. R., we sincerely hope you stay with us, and don't go back to San Antonio like you once said you might, after school is out. These are just a few of the Sophomores, the best class in school. Conceited? No, just stating facts.

DEBATE CONTEST

The Sonora debate team met the Iraan team in Ozona Saturday for a practice debate. The Sonora boys debated on the affirmative side and the girls were on the negative. Since it was only a practice debate and there were no judges, it was not decided who won. However, the Sonora team felt that the practice was worth their while.

The team plans to go to Austin Saturday to hear the university and college teams debate.

TYPING CONTEST

The Sonora typing team went to Ozona Wednesday afternoon of last week for a practice contest. On the Sonora team were Wirt Ellis Stephenson, Margaret Fay Smith, and Grace Thomas. The purpose of the contest was to rid the typists of some of their nervousness and give them confidence. Although they lost to the Ozona team, this purpose was gained. In spite of the unfamiliar circumstances, they placed second, fourth, and sixth. Wednesday, Ozona returned the visit.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

This week Mr. Flathers had charge of the assembly program. Four of his pupils debated on this year's Interscholastic League question, Resolved: "That a Uniform Sales Tax should be Adopted in Texas". It is a vital question to our state now because Texas has several bills before the Legislature proposing some sales taxes. Governor W. Lee O'Daniel himself is in favor of the sales tax.

Myron Morris and Nelson Stubblefield had the affirmative and Margaret Sandherr and Doris Meckel had the negative. The boys won. The judges were Mr. Lightfoot, Miss Duncan, and Miss Milstead.

SONORA OUTLAWS DEFEAT JUNCTION

Last Wednesday, the Sonora "Outlaws, Outcasts," or maybe you would call them the independents, defeated the Junction independents 32-22 in a fast basketball (No holds barred) game. Archer and Caffey turned in a nice game at guards, while Crowe and Flathers occupied a small part of the court very well. Caraway played a nice game at center. For Sonora, Caraway was high-point man with twelve points, or you might say sixteen, if you counted the four assisted in making for Junction.

VOLLEY BALL

The Sonora Volley ball girls went to Eldorado, Wednesday, February 15. They played five practice games and lost all of them. Wednesday must have been an "off-day" for the girls. They played terribly and even Jamie's "pep talks" didn't seem to help. The girls were very good sports about losing the games.

(Ozona)

Our volley girls will go to Ozona, Thursday 23, to play a practice game. The girls have always defeated Ozona, but the Ozona girls are improving fast. Sonora girls have improved a little, but girls, you had better watch your step, accidents just will happen. This has proved to be true with the Sonora girls.

By SUNSHINE MATTHEWS
Santa Anna, Burkett, Talpa, Buffalo, Novice, and Coleman FFA Chapter feeders will compete at the Coleman County Livestock Show on Thursday, Feb. 23rd. Elgin Eckert, Mason county Hereford breeder, has been asked to serve as calf judge.

M. J. Benefield, secretary of the Brady Chamber of Commerce, has received eight entries from the Pitchfork Ranch at Spur for the first annual colt show to be held at Brady on March 1. There were better than 50 entries listed the first of the week and officials expected the number to reach 75 by show time. Dick Waring of San Angelo is to judge the show, which will be held in conjunction with the annual county livestock show.

Lee Jameson, Coke county ranchman, purchased eight head of registered yearling bulls from J. C. Dibrell & Sons of Coleman. The bulls are Prince Domino breeding. The Dibrells have announced that because of the success of their private sales this year they will not hold their annual auction.

When it's difficult to keep a straight face—J. D. Farmer solemnly requested the waitress at a coffee shop to bring him a left handed coffee cup. Just as solemnly, the waitress, to whom it must have been an old gag, picked up his cup, turned her back, reversed the cup, put it down—and business went on as usual.

Jamie Brook of Brady has delivered to Joe Straus of San Antonio the ten head of registered heifer yearlings sold recently at $260 each. The yearlings are to form the foundation for a registered herd for Straus, who is now in the Hereford business. Mr. Brook and John Thompson, student auctioneer, were in El Paso early in the week for the livestock show.

Zack Jones of the D. T. Jones & Son breeding farm north of San Angelo is conditioning a flock of sheep for show at Fort Worth and San Angelo livestock shows.

Walton Kothmann of Menard sold 270 mutton goats, yearlings, two's, and three's, to Adolf Stieler of Comfort at $3.25 around. He also sold 255 mixed kids to Jack Canning & Wimberly at Eden. Amos Womble received three loads of lambs from Kothmann in the past few days at 7½ cents a pound.

Mason county will be represented at the San Angelo Fat Stock Show with 17 to 20 calves and 25 lambs. The Mason boys will take 17 calves and the 25 lambs to the Fort Worth show and Oliver Grote, Mason 4-H Club feeder, will enter a carload of steers in the Fort Worth show.

Walker White has purchased 11 two-year-old registered Hereford bulls from I. B. Cauble, Big Spring breeder, and put them on his Mason county ranch.

Mason county Hereford breeders whose calves were fed by 4-H Club boys and exhibited in the county livestock show included Elwood Kothmann, John Eckert, Emil Hoerster, M. E. Grote, Howard

Smith, Mrs. John Schuessler, Elgin and K. M. Eckert, Frank Jordan, Fitzsimons Land & Cattle Company and Dan and Milton Jordan. Lambs shown were purchased from various ranchmen over the county except for 20 head which were selected from the flock of Ed Willoughby at Eldorado.

From Points West in Wool—
The A. Z. Jones Lake county, California 1937 and 1938 wool clips, comprising some 50,000 pounds of 12 months wool, sold to Adams & Leland for 22½ cents for the 1937 wool and 25 cents for the 1938 wool, both f. o. b. shipping point.

Reports at Phoenix, Ariz., early this month were that a Boston firm had contracted around 150,000 pounds of new wool at 21 cents. The price a year ago was 18 cents. Jerrie W. Lee, secretary of the Arizona Wool Growers' Association, said 200,000 sheep would be shorn in the Salt River Valley by the middle of April.

Otho O'Leary is in Corning, Calif., where he will make his home as wool buyer in California and Oregon for Adams & Leland, Inc. His brother, Chris, who was in Texas several years ago and who visited in San Angelo during the National Wool Growers' Convention, is the Adams & Leland buyer in Arizona and Nevada.

Mark Burke, Pacific Wool Growers, says that indications are that there will be only about 50 per cent of the sheep shorn in the Imperial Valley of California this spring as compared with last year. Estimates of growers and lamb buyers say that there will be less than 30,000 spring lambs in the Valley this year. Pasture in the Valley is about one-half the 1938 cost. Some sheepmen are paying 20 cents per head per month for grazing feeder lambs and 35 cents for breeding ewes and suckling lambs.

Four leaders of Arizona's citrus industry were in the Rio Grande Valley the past week finding out how much grapefruit and juice is likely to be marketed from that area this season and investigating other aspects of the situation. They are L. W. Otto, manager of the Arizona Citrus Exchange, W. W. Pickrell, director of the Mesa Citrus Growers and Melvin Jacobus of the Bartlett Heard Company.

Among the early claimants to dates for summer rodeos and celebrations are the directors of the Edwards County Fair Association, who step forward to set aside June 15, 16, and 17 for the annual three days of hospitality in the Hill Country.

The directors met at Rocksprings recently to name committees and start the wheels to moving for the race meet and rodeo. Purses and premiums will be guaranteed, as heretofore, officials say, and there will be the usual free barbecue daily.

Being in what the directors term a "unique position," with money in the bank, improvements are being planned for the show and the program will be enlarged. F. A. Moody is president of the fair association and C. H. Gilmer is secretary. Complete programs are to be issued at an early date.

Roger Gillis of Del Rio has received from T. C. Bacon of Twin Falls, Ida., 200 Panama ewes, yearlings, bred to lamb in March. The ewes are believed to be the first purebred Panama ewes to be brought into Texas. Both Gillis and J. C. Cunningham of Fort Stockton have used Panama rams previously. The Panama, a breed established by James Laidlaw of Idaho, has as its base cross the Lincoln and the Rambouillet. The Gillis ewes will shear three-eighths wool.

ROGER HARRIS

Denton, Tex. —When Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, musical director of the opera "Cynthia Parker" which has its premiere performance at the North Texas State Teachers College February 21, chose the male lead for the production, he selected Roger Harris, a graduate student in music at the Teachers College.

The role is that of Quannah, war chief of the Comanches, and half-blood son of Cynthia Ann Parker, the heroine of the opera. But Dr. Bain didn't realize that he was choosing a part-Indian for the role. Harris, through his mother, has some Cherokee blood. He was born in the "Redlands" of Oklahoma of which he sings in the opera. His mother taught in the Indian reservations before Oklahoma was a state.

Harris, a graduate of Southern Methodist University School of Music, has appeared in numerous S. M. U. productions and has done radio and other professional work.

Austin—(Special)—Flash! Here is more hot news!

Now that Governor O'Daniel has signed the bill to allow the Board of Control to borrow $900,000 for the pensions fund, Acting Director Jack Little and his right-hand bower, one Claudios Hodges, so-called personnel director and employment manager of the Old Age Assistance set-up, are rejoicing. They assume their jobs are cinched because they believe they now will be able to put on the rolls many borderline cases that have been cut off for some months and thus they will win favor with many members of the Legislature by putting on old folks suggested by some of the members. Little and Hodges and others in the set-up are still worrying about a letter they are alleged to have sent out on July 15, 1937, to district supervisors giving instructions to employes to contact members of the House and Senate to see whom said members wished to put back on the pension rolls. "Acting Director" Little now is signing papers as "Director" Little, in spite of a recent statement given out by Chairman Claude Teer of the Board of Control that Little is "only acting director."

One of the biggest laughs of the week in the House was created during Abe May's presentation and explanation of the Governor's proposed transaction tax. Representative May had just explained that farmers' produce was exempt from the transactions tax.

Someone asked: "Does that mean livestock?" Representative Mays: "Yes." Questioner: "It says agricultural and horticultural products, Abe." Mays: "Ain't horticulture livestock?"

In spite of the fact that old age pensions is the first order of business for this session, the fight between the railroads and interior compresses on the one hand and the trucking interest on the other hand gets hotter day by day. A crowded senate floor and galleries on last Tuesday night heard spokesmen against the proposed increase in the truck load limit bills. Different from the hearing one week before when truckers spoke their "pieces," this crowd was mixed, many of the truck folk mingling with the railroad boys. On Tuesday afternoon of this week the truckers will have their day in the House.

The railroad interests are fighting with their backs to the wall, realizing that a modern age and its modern methods of transportation are against them. The trucking interests are organized as never before—the old Manufacturers & Merchants association and the old Common Carriers Motor Freight Association having joined forces this time with the Texas Motor Transportation Association, thus joining, together, farmers, merchants, livestock haulers and everyone who operate a truck in any way against the railroad lines. This time, it is admitted by those who know that the increased load limit laws will pass—the only question being how much of an increase will be authorized. Great stacks of post-cards being received by members from railroad districts show such a similarity that even those members know they are inspired, and have no hesitancy, in many instances, of saying they may yet vote with the majority for the increased load limit, in spite of such mail, while railroads point out towns will lose out if the railroads lose, scores of other small towns point to recent expansion because of truck lines which run through them. The great throng of filling station operators everywhere are strong for the trucks and are fighting to help them.

Talking about freak legislation—there is a chiropody bill which, if passed (and it won't), would not allow a retail shoe store to sell arch supports nor would it let drug stores sell corn cures! The barbers in the small towns still will be able to get their hair-cuts for 30 cents or less, if and when the bill becomes a law.

Flash! Howard English of Austin suggests this latest piece of gossip! Governor O'Daniel, honored guest at a banquet of 300 Legionnaires and reserve officers for a National Defense program, one night last week, proved a veritable "Ferdinand the Bull" in a china shop when he declared "I don't believe in going anywhere to fight anybody's war but, if they come over here, let them have it." Now, did the Governor mean it that way or did he? The rest of his talk dwelt on blue bonnet fields and daisies. D'you get it? (Aftrethought—we still believe Governor O'Daniel will sign the R. O. T. C. bill for the university when it gets to his desk as his son, Pat, is strong for such a unit and is a student out there.)

The past week witnessed another precedent broken. For the first time in Texas history, the "dirt farmers" were invited by the chairman of the House agricultural committee, Bailey Ragsdale of Crockett, to hold a "congress" in the state capitol while the legislature was in session. And, in resolutions, they said they appreciated the attention thus given them. They also indorsed practically the entire program for agriculture now being considered.

Governor O'Daniel's proposed merger of five departments into the department of agriculture will meet much opposition from some sources. His proposal included a board of twenty one directors who would select the commissioner of agriculture instead of letting him be elected by the people. This is a stumbling block which is not likely to get by both houses. Too, the game, fish and oyster department is not going to take calmly to the idea of being merged with the agriculture department! Many letters already are pouring in from sportsmen opposing this idea.

With many East Texas senators sore at O'Daniel because of the appointments of J. C. Hunter of Abilene as highway commissioner, the air is filled with talk. Some want to call the senate the "black-hole of Calcutta" while others say it is another step toward impeachment of the governor. The result is likely to be a compromise after the dust blows over.

One of the most popular places to gather these days in Austin is the "Federal Cafe & Bakery" on Congress Avenue. Why the free advertising? Two reasons—one is the cuisine is excellent; but the big reason is O. P. Lockhart, owner and manager. O. P. is district committeeman for the party and an original O'Daniel supporter who is one of the friendliest personalities about Austin. Scores go to him daily, seeking information or ways to get to the governor. Lockhart has become a power in politics overnight and it has not spoiled his disposition. All of the boys know him and discuss with him many matters of policy. He is fast becoming one of the few men to whom you can talk confidentially about many matters coming before the legislature.

Chairman Wendell Mayes of Brownwood of the State Parks Board, in Austin one day this week, declared himself as pleased with the fact that a new paved highway is being completed from Brownwood to the Lake Brownwood state park, 24 miles out. This state park is the mecca for fishermen and the completion of this road will be good news to them, says Mayes. This is one of the thirty six state parks for which the Board is seeking funds for maintenance during the coming biennium. With the C. C. C. camps being depleted, the state will have to take care of its parks and it takes money to do that, points out Mayes.

The Santa Fe System carloadings for the week ending February 18, 1939, were 17,961 cars as compared with 18,170 cars for the same week in 1938. Received from connections were 4,975 cars as compared with 4,304 cars during the same period in 1938. Total cars mover were 22,936 as compared with 22,474 cars in the same week in 1938. The Santa Fe handled a total of 22,433 cars during the preceding week of this year.

HEALTH

Austin, Feb. 23.—"Pneumonia is a seasonal disease in that its incidence and mortality are much increased during wet, cold weather," according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer. Last week 234 cases of pneumonia were reported to the State Health Department. The disease is most prevalent and serious in urban centers where contact with people is most frequent. Pneumonia is always dangerous but it is especially so to persons in a run-down condition. This accounts for the number of cases following illness from some other disease.

The germs that cause pneumonia are spread by careless coughers, sneezers, spitters and objects they thus infect. The first symptoms are usually a severe chill and fever, a very sick feeling, loss of appetite, rapid breathing and a heavy sensation in the chest. Sometimes coughing brings up blood from the inflamed lungs. Any of these symptoms should be the signal for going to bed at once and sending for your family doctor.

The rules and prevention of other respiratory diseases apply to pneumonia. These rules should become personal habits and not put on or off at times of prevalence or absence of disease. Persons should avoid careless coughers and sneezers even if it means rudeness. Wash your hands thoroughly before each meal. Keep your hands, pencils, money and such objects away from your mouth and nose. Get plenty of fresh air day and night. Exercise and eat in moderation and wear clothing suitable for the weather.

Pneumonia ranks second as a cause of death in Texas. In 1938 5,492 persons died of this disease. It should be remembered that contagious and infectious diseases cannot be decreased or eliminated without the co-operation of the people and this means the people who are sick with contagious and infectious diseases should be isolated and visited as little as possible by relatives and friends.

NYA

Austin, Feb. 23.—All young people participating in the National Youth Administration program must execute affidavits of citizenship if their employment is to be continued after March 5, 1939. J. C. Kellam, State Youth Director, has announced.

This step is being taken in conformity with a recent act of Congress which requires among other things the execution of citizenship affidavit forms by approximately 30,000 NYA student aid and work project employees in Texas and NYA administrative and supervisory personnel. The official forms will be mailed to participating schools and colleges from the State NYA office in Austin and delivered to NYA project employees through the NYA district offices.

"We hope that NYA workers will not be required to pay notary fees in executing these affidavits," Mr. Kellam said. "Any notary public, county judge, district judge, county clerk, justice of the peace, or the judge of any court of record, is authorized to administer the oath."

The affidavit forms for all schools, colleges, and universities participating in the NYA Student Aid program must be attached to the time reports sent in for the first payroll period ending on or after March 5. ## BE FAIR to your Doctor

Be fair to your physician. He is limited by natural laws, actions and reactions, and is not a performer of miracles.

When you take your ills to him in their early stages you enable him to do more for you than is the case when you go to him with similar trouble in an advanced stage.

Don't blame him if he can't quickly head off or control a trouble which you have long known to exist, but which you have held from him until you knew that medical attention was a necessity.

You can always make it safer for yourself and easier for your physician when you seek his advice as soon as trouble is known to exist.

WINGS OVER TEXAS

By LOIS CAMERON CHESLEY

Once a farmer, so the story goes, lost three rows of corn because it grew next to a fence row sodded with blue grass. The blue grass produced swarms of grasshoppers. Perhaps his tongue was in his cheek as he built some nesting boxes one winter, for he was skeptical about turning over the problem to the birds.

But when spring came, up went twenty-one boxes along the forty rods by the fence row. The results point a moral familiar to many farmers. The boxes were occupied by six families of wrens, four families of bluebirds, and by three colonies of martins. In the fall the farmer gathered twenty-three bushels of corn from the three rows next to the fence which before yielded none.

There are more species and subspecies of birds in Texas than in any other state in the union. The number is unofficially over seven hundred. Estimates place the annual value of song and insectivorous birds to Texas agriculture at $40,000,000. Other wildlife resources contribute correspondingly.

If a super attack from an enemy could sweep across a continent wiping out its entire population with poison gas, the aggressor would hold in his hand a country that would crumble to the touch. The land would be useless in producing food. For birds and all other wildlife would be ravaged, and without them agriculture would be unthinkable.

Nature strikes back swiftly. Her adjustments in this case to such a barren order of things would be more at man's expense. By the time the surviving remnant of the good earth would build back its strength to a shadow of former usefulness, the despoiled soil, vegetation, water and air could drive the desperate conquerors back from whence they came.

Birds and animals are as much a part of our natural resources as is land, oil, coal, gold or silver. Statisticians can estimate our wildlife's tangible value in numbers that impress, even in the New Deal age of large figures. But the intangible value of our wildlife also strikes close to the problems of everyday living. We cannot estimate the part such an abundant background plays in its role of enriching man spiritually in his economic struggle.

Farming is not a prosaic occupation when one glimpses the patterns woven through its background; patterns that dovetail, balance and complete each other.

Hawks work by day and owls by night to check rodents. Insects work both for, and against, man's interests; some are parasites living off other insects.

Different birds patrol a preferred part of the insect world. But if one insect becomes overabundant, a bird not ordinarily eating it includes this insect in its diet until the numbers are reduced to the customary level; then the bird returns to its former diet.

Birds also keep weeds in check, yet they do not exterminate them. Some weeds, like some insects, are desirable in moderate quantities. In Texas, the broomweed is perhaps the quail's most important cover plant, while doveweed, Johnson grass, snow-on-the-mountain and ragweed are among its important food sources.

To take a page from Darwin's chanted on the "Struggle For Existence," he points out that only one certain humble-bee fertilizes the red clover in England. But he states: "the number of humble-bees in any district depends in a great measure upon the number of field-mice, which destroy their combs and nests—the number of mice is largely dependent on the number of cats. Hence it is quite credible that the presence of a feline animal in large numbers might determine the frequency of certain flowers in that district."

So the changing kaleidoscope of nature goes: birds, weeds, insects; mice, cat, beee and clover. But there is always a definite pattern of interdependence. Tracing it out is engrossing from state to finish.

A neighbor was leaving by the side door one fall evening when she remarked on a busy little bird working in the once-blooming gladiola bed. He was pecking and gulping down food as if he had been on starvation diet, but all the while he kept an alert watch. I got the field glasses and in the dusk made out the striped head and buffy breast of the Lincoln's sparrow.

This particular bird may have been half starved after flight from his summer home in the Northern United States and Canada. But the Lincoln's sparrow always eats as if a bogey man is just around the corner, and that only extreme caution can foil him. This semi-Milque-toast manner caused one observer to dub him "Bird-afraid-of-his-shadow."

Several days later I watched one emerge from his bath near the back steps. He shook and preened his feathers with a bit of confidence, but hurried away pell-mell at a slight tap on the window pane.

Wings Over Texas never sees this sparrow darting mouse-like back to the hedge, creeping from underbrush and slipping away through weeds without recalling the hours of observing, checking and re-checking that went into identifying him. Looking back now, I wonder how I thought the Lincoln's sparrow could be anything but that. But there was a time when he seemed to be almost any one of ten different species.

Surely every bird observer has such a page as this in his notebook:

His quiet coloring, conical bill and fondness for seed at the feeding shelf placed him clearly in the sparrow family. But there were pages and pages of sparrows. Before long his identity was narrowed down, satisfactorily I thought, to the genus of song sparrows, and preferably the sub-species of Lincoln's sparrow. But at times there were strong doubts, and for days, motionless, I breathed windowpane while he fed on the shelf just outside. I scanned every feather lest I miss some significant marking. I re-read descriptions until I knew them by heart.

"Upper part dark brown and olive. . ." So are many other sparrows. . . "Dark brown streaked with brown, black and buff. . . breast and sides finely streaked with black. . ." Common sparrow markings. And no-where in any of the books a mention of the bird's frequent habit of ruffling this crown upon alighting. No mention either of the sunburst of stripes radiating from his bill like an Indian headdress, a striking effect when one looks the bird directly in the face.

"Broad cream-puff breast-band and wash on sides. . ." To this day the term "band" seems misleading. On none of the dozen or two Baylor and Witte museum skins I examined was the buff wash definite enough at the parallel edges to be called a band.

One day when I was almost sure of the bird, yet wanted a close view to settle some minor point, I saw him fly to the shelf outside the dining room window. I dropped to my knees and edged carefully across the room keeping the head down out of sight. Just before I began the slow motion raising of the head to the window pane level, I glanced into the adjoining room. A household helper, new on the job, was riveted to the floor, gazing at me in bewilderment. Since then Wings Over Texas always explains right off about being pixilated, so that a helper will know what to expect.

Do not ask why it is not enough to know that a bird is some kind of warbler. It just isn't. Every observer has a healthy list of doubts, and uneasy rest his head until each species is ferreted out. But until the species is clinched beyond every shadow of a doubt, the sincere bird student makes all doubting Thomases seem like pikers.

I gradually grew more sure of the identification until there was little doubt. Then one day when I was looking at skins in the Baylor Museum I opened a drawer with a generous sprinkling of these birds in it, and thought, "Surely those are Lincoln's sparrows." I looked at the tags and felt a final wave of relief when I saw that they were.

San Angelo Fat Stock Show

Arrangements are now being made for the big parade which will open the San Angelo Fat Stock Show and Rodeo on Friday, March 3, and entries for the colorful procession will be accepted at any time, Dallas Wales, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce fat stock show committee, announced Saturday.

Persons wanting to ride in the parade should get in touch with a member of the parade committee as soon as possible, Wales urged. This committee includes Al Harris, chairman, and Al Brady, Joe Funk and O. R. Harvey.

The parade will start sharply at 11 o'clock on the morning of March third from the old Santa Fe depot, Wales said. Everyone participating must be at the depot by 10 o'clock, he said, so that they can be assigned places and the procession gotten under way on time.

"We have an agreement with the rodeo contestants whereby every one of them will ride in the parade," Wales said. "In addition we would like to have as many entries of horseback riders, chuck wagons, ox teams, goat teams, etc., as possible." To prevent any accidents, no children under 16 years of age will be permitted to ride in the parade unless accompanied by their fathers.

Participants in the parade must make arrangements for their own animals. "The committee has no animals available for riders," Wales said, "unless they would like to tackle 'Hells Angels' or one of the other broncs we have on hand for the rodeo contestants to play with."

FLOOD CONTROL WORK OF BEAVER VALUABLE

Colleg Station, Texas, Feb. 20.—Arthur H. Cook, graduate student, department of wild game, A. and M. College of Texas, assisted by Paul V. Jones, graduate assistant, and B. C. Taylor, working under a permit from the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, recently captured four live beavers in Kimble county and liberated them on the college farm here at the A.

and M. College.

The beaver was formerly found widely over central, southern and eastern Texas, but has been nearly exterminated in the state. In the few western counties in which trapping was allowed, beaver pelts last season brought $3 to $7 apiece.

The economic value of the beaver in western states has been estimated by qualified naturalists to be about $300 each, because of its work in flood control on the headwaters of streams. In view of the success of Wisconsin, Michigan, New York and Pennsylvania in beaver restoration, the prospects appear bright for the return of this animal to its former haunts in south and east Texas.

Mr. Cook's work is being conducted under the supervision of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, the American Wildlife Institute, the Biological Survey, and the A. and M. College of Texas.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
 County of Sutton

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Mrs. Thelma Briscoe, county treasurer of Sutton county, who being by me duly sworn, upon oath, says that the within and foregoing report is true and correct.

MRS. THELMA BRISCOE, County Treasurer.
 Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 16th day of February 1939
 (SEAL) J. D. LOWREY,
 Clerk, County Court, Sutton County, Texas.

(Water Valley)
 Girls, all games aren't for practice. Saturday, 25th, the Sonora girls will know in a few days, what team they play against. The girls went last year and found that there were some fine teams up that way. The girls plan to have a big day and come home happy.

Elementary Assembly Program
 Last week's assembly program in the elementary school was in charge of sixth grade. Various numbers were presented. First the grade school band, under the direction of Mr. Chase, played several pieces, after which the following musical numbers were given by sixth grade pupils.
 Song: "I Love to Whistle"—sung by Flora Jean Hildreth.
 Piano Duet: "Tulip Time"—by Bernie Dawn Gibbs and Francis Atchison.
 Tap Dance: by Marjory Ann Dameron.
 The last part of the program consisted of pantomines by Jimmie Langford, Claude Thomas Driskell, and Clayton White, who are speech arts students from high school.

Department is necessary to an education and parents will be wise and accomplish much by supporting the school faculty and trustees in endeavoring to control the manners and habits of pupils as school, on the streets and at home.

J. O. Logan recently purchased 1500 mixed sheep, tops, from Lee Bros., of Stonewall county at $2.40. He has been absent several months from Angelo and his old friends are glad to see him back.

Geo. J. Trainer is a candidate for commissioner and justice of peace in precinct No. 3 and wants the votes of the people in that precinct. George Trainer is well known to the people of his district and if elected will fill the duties of the office to the best of his ability.

The four-in-hand mail coach with Tom Savell, J. W. Collins, Ralph Colvin, Coy Drennan, Clint Sharp, Jim Morris, Austin Rountree, John Adams and Victor Owens on board went to the Felton Cave Sunday, where the boys spent the day hunting and exploring the cave.

Mrs. E. E. Sawyer, of the Ft. Terret ranch, was in Sonora this week. Mr. Sawyer is probably the largest owner of sheep in Sutton county.

CEDAR HILL SCHOOL

All of us came to school Tuesday with our noses looking like strawberries. We decided it was the coldest day we have had this winter, even Arnold said it was cold, and that is very unusual.

Last Friday Beverly La Vack was in a car wreck, but we are so glad she wasn't injured. The wreck occurred at the intersection of the Camp Allison road and the highway as she and her mother were going home from school.

Mr. Earl Adams also had an accident. He cut his leg rather seriously with an ax. The students all hope he will soon be better. School was turned out at 3 o'clock Monday because Mrs. Adams had to go to Junction on business. To make up the time we had short recesses and noon periods Monday and Tuesday.

We had a holiday Wednesday in memory of George Washington as it was his birthday.

Several of the boys attended the fat stock show at Junction. We missed Margaret Adams this week. She has been sick in bed.

Monday morning Mrs. Adams said, "Poor Raymond is sick again" but Tuesday morning he came looking hale and hearty dressed out in new hat and shoes—"The cat was out of the bag," he had just been to town.

Next week we have six weeks tests. Milton thinks we will all forget how to smile for a few days.

Margaret Adams was chosen the best girl citizen for last week, and Raymond Shroyer was chosen the best boy citizen.
