Patricia (Harris) Ray Donates A Kidney

Patricia Ray, daughter of Dorothy Harris of Bovina and the late Joe Harris, has given a gift to a friend that few of us would ever be able to match: a replacement kidney.

While working in Human Resources at Ping Golf in Phoenix, Patricia became a mentor for an employee. In the process, they became good friends. After a couple of years, the woman confided that she had a serious health problem.

The woman told Patricia that she had been on the kidney transplant waiting list for 15 years. A search for a donor identified four potential matches, but all were disqualified during their preliminary health screenings.

Patricia offered to be tested for compatibility, but her friend said she didn't want her to do it. As the friend's health worsened, Patricia encouraged the woman to at least consider Patricia as a candidate.

"I want to make a difference in the world. I want to leave it better than I found it," Patricia said.

Patricia's screening match was so perfect that they moved on to test tissue compatibility. Their similarities were remarkable.

But plans for the transplant were put on hold when Ping changed insurance companies.

By the time the insurance issues were squared away, Patricia had moved to Yuma to work at YRMC.

Finally, they set a date for the transplant - July 9 at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Phoenix.

Patricia was hospitalized for four days. She tried to recruit staff from Good Samaritan without leaving her bed.

"You ought to come check us out," she recalled telling the nurses.

After discharge, Patricia's son took care of her while she continued to recover at her home in Phoenix.

"I had a lot of people looking after me. The support has been phenomenal," Patricia said.

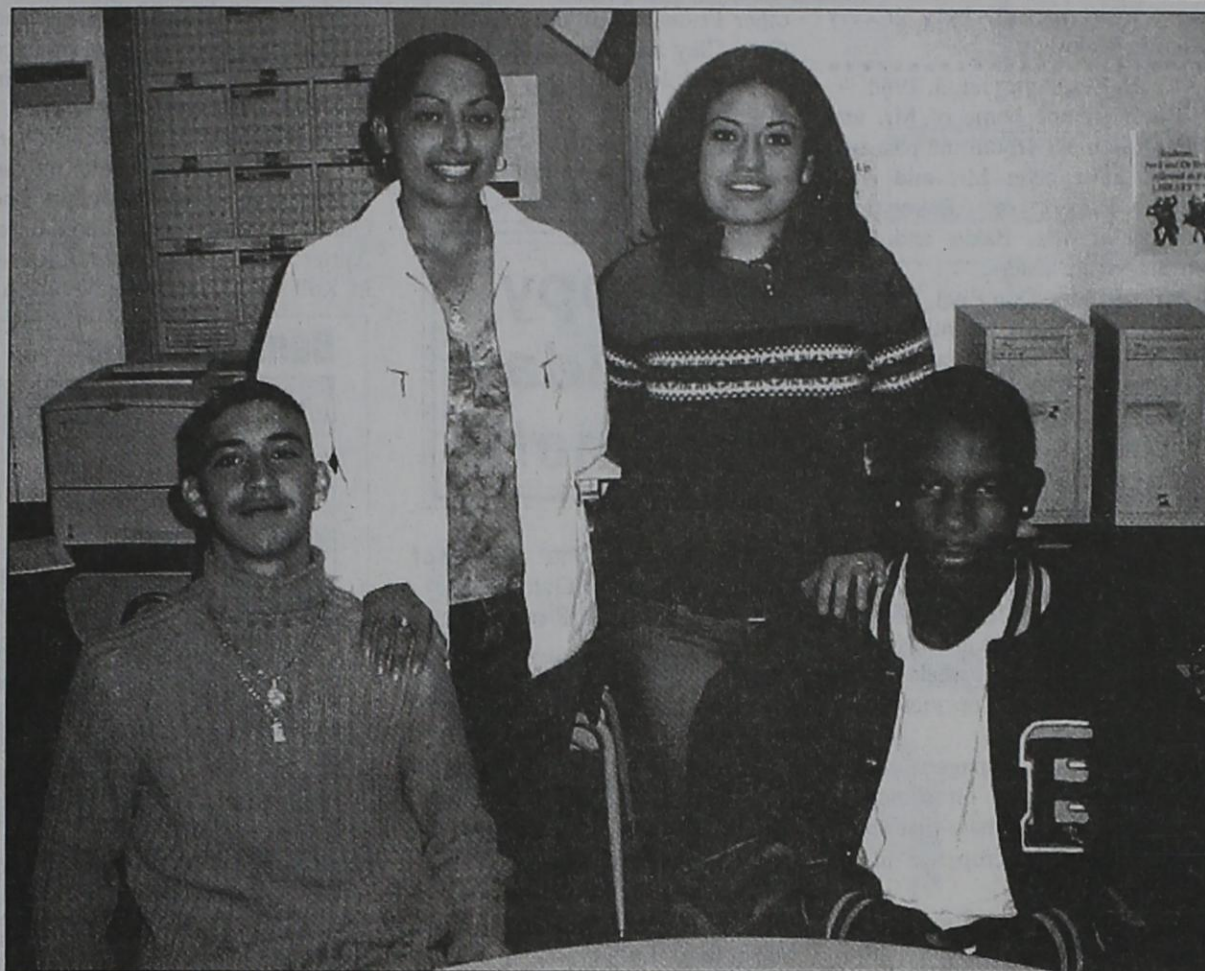

Patricia returned to work two weeks after the surgery. When YRMC nurses learned about her donation, they made sure Patricia was taking care of herself.

"Being here at the hospital really had made a difference. Here, patient care is paramount," Patricia added.

Patricia said her friend is doing very well.

"We talk every day. She said, 'I'm taking good care of your gift'."

Wied Wins Two In A Row: 3 Earn Tie-Breaker Bonus

Week 5 was a great week for the contestants and a not so good week for the newspaper bank account.

In addition to paying the top three cash prizes, a total of $50, we shelled out another $75 to three contestants in our tie-breaker bonus category.

The tie-breaker score for Week 5 was Florida 24, Kentucky 21. Frances Johnson & Virginia Steele of Bovina and Harley Merritt of Friona each picked the exact score as their tie-breaker guess. Neither of them were in the running for the weekly winner's prize money but it doesn't matter. They each earned the $25 bonus which goes to any contestant that picks the exact tie-breaker score.

The other bonus category, $25 to any contestant that picks all 18 games correct, has yet to be claimed. No doubt someone will win it too in the eight remaining weeks of the contest.

Congratulations to Frances, Virginia and Harley for their money winning lucky guesses. The checks are in the mail.

For the second week in a row, Bobby Wied of Friona won the $25 first prize. He was one of three players to have 16 correct games, but he was only 8 points off on his tie-breaker.

Jayson Blouch of Catoosa, Oklahoma, who is Myrtle Melton's grandson, claimed the $15 second prize with 16 correct and 13 off on the tie-breaker. Martin Brito of Bovina was the other player at 16 correct. He had to settle for the $10 third prize with 14 points off on the tie-breaker.

There are five ways to win weekly cash in the football contest this year. Be one of the top three scores, pick the tie-breaker score exactly, or pick all 18 games correct. The overall point winner will earn $200 as a grand prize while the runnerup will take home $100.

It is all for fun and cash prizes and all made possible by our football contest sponsors. Thanks to them and to you. Good luck and good pickin'.

Mustangs Surprised By Lubbock Christian 34-28

The Bovina Mustangs were on a roll going into their Friday game at Lubbock Christian. After an initial loss to Texico, the Mustangs had managed three victories and a 3-1 record.

But LCHS jumped out to an early 14-0 lead in the first quarter and led Bovina 21-7 at the half after a 70-yard punt return for a second quarter TD.

The highlight of the Mustang second half was a 52-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Casas to Claude Tamez. Scores by Raymond Chisom and Matthew Villarreal were not enough to catch up as LCHS 13 second half points to best the Mustangs 34-28.

Senior workhorse Jonathan

Chisom led the Mustangs again with 143 yards rushing on 23 carries. Jonathan has 853 yards in 102 carries for the year. He has 8 touchdowns and an 8.4 yard average.

At LCHS, Jeff Casas was 5 out of 7 passes complete for 202 yards but suffered two interceptions. Alfredo Martinez had two receptions for 125 yards. Raymond Chisom added 71 yards rushing on 11 carries.

Friday, October 3, the Bovina Mustangs meet the Amarillo Tascosa JV at Mustang Field as the school celebrates homecoming. The game is at 7:30 p.m. Homecoming activities will begin at 7 p.m.

Friona PD Drug Dog Disappears

The Friona police department drug dog, Lusi, disappeared Friday night, September 26. The dog was kept in the backyard of his handler, Officer Chris Keith. Keith discovered Lusi missing from the backyard and kennel during his Friday night patrol.

Police do not think Lusi ran away since she is a trained dog and loyal to her handler. They believe someone stole the dog and are offering a $100 reward for its safe return.

Lusi is a full-blood German Shepherd, has a tattoo on the inside of her ear and is wearing a chain collar. If you have any information on Lusi's whereabouts, please contact the Friona Police Department at 806-250-2711.

From The Desk Of The City Manager

BY ERNEST TERRY

The next Bovina City Council meeting will be Tuesday, 7 October 2003, at 7:00 PM in the Bovina EMS Building. All of the council meetings are open to the public; however the Council is inviting citizens of Bovina to attend this one to discuss a couple of issues. We have invited Caprock, to discuss problems with dust, and Atmos Energy, to discuss the proposed increase to natural gas rates.

Caprock has declined to attend. The management of Caprock does invite anyone to visit with them, on site, to ask questions, discuss the matter, and to see what they are doing about the dust issue. The Council will listen to any concerns brought up by Bovina citizens.

Atmos Energy has agreed to attend and to bring people who can answer questions and concerns from the public and the Council. From my view point, it appears that Atmos Energy is asking for a 7.32% increase in their revenue to offset their losses in bad debt and fuel cost increases. To do that, one of the increases will be an increase in the basic customer service rate, $7.40 per month to $11.40 per month. That is an increase of 35%. There will, also, be an increase in the Commodity Charge (the charge for actual fuel used by the customer), $0.88 per Ccf to $0.965 per Ccf. That is an increase of 9%. Being simple minded sometimes, alright, most of the time, I compared that to my gas bill where I live. The proposed rate increase would be a $7.47 per month increase on my bill, a 15% increase. Then there is the formula for the Gas Cost Adjustment (GCA). The formula is:

$$GCA = (G/S + CF) \times TF$$

G = the expected cost of gas
S = is the expected sales billing units
CF = a correction factor charge
TF = tax factor

Bottom line, I do not have the answers; come to the meeting and ask questions of the Atmos Energy people. The meeting will be at 7 PM in the EMS Building in Bovina on Tuesday, 7 October 2003.

Four former leading citizens of Bovina have confessed to nabbing a jailhouse in Friona and sitting it in front of the Bovina bank Friday with a bale of cotton sitting on top. Friday about 10 a.m., the prank was reaching the serious stage, when Friona policeman Ben Moorman insisted that the jail be returned or charges would be filed. So, the four, Cecil Osborne, Lee Kimbrough, Grady Sorley and Jack Jeter, returned the jail to Friona.

7/8 Braves Win/Lose At Dalhart

Dalhart 42, Friona 6 was the not very close score as the 7th grade Braves battled Dalhart. The lone Friona touchdown was scored on a 74-yard run by Raul Licero. Raul had 97 total yards rushing.

Justin Echevarria completed 3 passes for 27 yards to 3 different receivers. Defensive standouts were Justin Dominguez, Alex Dunnam, David Aragon, Gerardo Garza and Joey Mendoza.

The 8th grade Braves managed a 12-6 overtime win over Dalhart. Scoring twice was a Sawyer Reed to Eric North pass combination. The boys hooked up on touchdown completions of 30 and 14 yards.

Other offensive standouts pointed out by coaches were Jesus Tafoya, Dillon Welch and Ryan Geris. Welch recovered a fumble on defense also.

Trent Hudson, Jacob Gonzales, Gustavo Padilla, Omar Hernandez, John Torres, Gerald Padilla and Eric Hansard were also lauded for their efforts in the victory.

Late Rally: Jayvees Top Dalhart, 27-20

The Friona Chieftain Junior Varsity put together a scoring drive in the game's waning minutes to topple the Dalhart JV, 27-20 for their third win of the season.

With the team tied, 20-all, the young Chieftains drove 50 yards and scored with less than a minute to play, to pull out the win.

Juan Reyes scored on a 26-yard run, and teammate Ruben Chico ran in from four yards out in the first quarter, with Hector Sanchez running a two-pointer to give Friona an early 14-0 lead.

But visiting Dalhart scored 20 unanswered points to take a 20-14 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Fernando Moreno ran 65 yards for the TD that tied the game at 20-all, and with less than a minute on the clock, Moreno ran 10 yards, and Javier Sanchez kicked the PAT for the win: 27-20.

"This was a good team effort. The kids did a great job in the fourth quarter, holding Dalhart down and having two good drives," said Coach Rex Cumpston.

Friona held the edge in first downs, 15-13, and their late drive gave the Chieftains the lead in rushing yards, 187-157. Dalhart held a slight lead in passing yards, 128-102, but Friona led in total yards, 289-285, which showed how close the game was.

Tough Day

THE WEATHER was great but the football was not as the Chiefs were Dalhart's homecoming opponents. Top, Coaches Cumpton, Fair & Towner watch the action while head coach Bob Ferguson talks it over with quarterback Brock Field. Left, Field was pressured all day by the Dalhart defense.

Chiefs Draw Goose-egg At Dalhart Homecoming

By BILL ELLIS

The Chieftains may have been considerably too nice to the Dalhart Wolves at the Dallam County seat last Saturday, at the home team's Homecoming Game.

It was a nice sun-drenched Saturday with a good crowd on hand.

But when the final buzzer sounded, Friona had absorbed a 50-0 drubbing from the Wolves, who had everything going their way, including the officials' calls in a few instances.

Take for example Friona's fifth play of the final quarter, when Chieftain quarterback Brock Field lofted a nice spiral to split end David Davila, who caught the ball over his shoulder and was off to the races.

A nice pass, a nice catch and run, and it should have broken the "zero" on Friona's side of the scoreboard, but with the Chieftains and their fans celebrating, an official stood holding up his handkerchief.

The call was offensive pass interference.

But no one on the south sidelines and south grandstands saw any illegal contact on Davila's part: just catch the ball and run.

Being behind 50 points, it wasn't going to spur the Chieftains to a come-from-behind win, but it would have gone a long way toward making the long trip back home for the team and its fans a little more bearable.

Let's see, now...the last time Dalhart dropped Friona from its schedule, Friona picked up Guymon, Oklahoma in place of the Wolves. Maybe that would be a good idea again.

The Wolves were still throwing passes on their last possession, as if a 50-point lead wasn't big enough.

Luckily for the Chieftain fans, their defense caused Dalhart to cough up the ball, and Friona recovered inside their own 20.

Dalhart's team had a big weight advantage over the Chieftains, a situation which began to take its toll on the Friona team as time went along.

"We just didn't play well at all. We have some good players, but we need to work on our confidence," said Coach Bob Ferguson.

He added that it might be a good time to have the open date, prior to the start of district play.

The loss margin was the highest for a Friona team since they fell to Littlefield by 68-20 in 1993.

It was the largest win margin in the Dalhart series since the Wolves posted a 61-0 win in 1962.

It was also the first time the Chieftains failed to score in a game since Floydada blanked them, 23-0 in 1993, which is more than 100 games.

YOUR EYES

ENCOURAGE CHILDREN TO WEAR THEIR GLASSES

Does your child require eyeglasses for specific situations in the classroom such as seeing the board, or for vision correction during the entire school day? Now that school is back in session, you may want to ask your children if they are actually wearing their glasses or instead leave them in the desk or backpack.

Some children do not want to wear their eyeglasses. They may not like the way they look. Or, they may be afraid of being teased or not being able to play sports. Other youths may actually forget to put their glasses on because they are too busy with schoolwork or do not realize the reasons for wearing them.

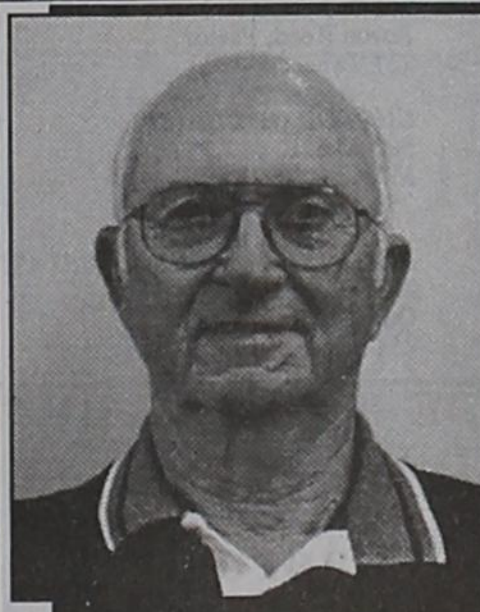

If your child does not wear his or her glasses, reinforce how important they are. Also talk to your children about their personal unease. You may relieve their concerns and encourage them to use the glasses when required. Your eye-care specialist will have other suggestions on how to persuade children to wear glasses.

LET THE "SON" SHINE

Think about this....

What if God would not hear us today because we would not listen to Him?

What if God took the Bible away tomorrow because we would not read it today?

What if God couldn't take the time to bless us today because we couldn't take time to thank Him yesterday?

Paul said, "today is the day of salvation." (II Cor. 6:2)

Have a great week! (TLT)

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE JUDGES OF ISRAEL

BEFORE THE ADVENT OF KINGS THE LEADERS AMONG THE ISRAELITES WERE JUDGES. THESE WERE THE HEROES WHO GUIDED AND GUARDED THE PEOPLE FROM THEIR MANY ENEMIES. THERE WAS OTHNIEL OF JUDAH, DELIVERER OF ISRAEL FROM THE MESOPOTAMIANS, AND EHUD, WHO EXPELLED THE MOABITES AND AMMONITES, AND BARAK, WHO LED NAPHTALI AND ZEBULON TO VICTORY AGAINST THE CANAANITES. ALL TOLD THERE WERE TWELVE OF THEM. THE PERIOD OF THE JUDGES HAS BEEN CALLED ISRAEL'S IRON AGE. IT WAS, TO SAY THE LEAST, A CRUEL AND BLOODY ERA. IN FACT, IT CAN BE SURMISED THAT A STATE OF ANARCHY EXISTED WHEN ONE REALIZES THAT MOST OF THE TALES OF THESE JUDGES WERE PREFACED BY THE STATEMENT, "IN THOSE DAYS THERE WAS NO KING IN ISRAEL, BUT EVERY MAN DID WHAT WAS RIGHT IN HIS OWN EYES." ALSO, THESE JUDGES DID NOT FORM AN UNBROKEN SUCCESSION OF RULERS, BUT APPEARED SPORADICALLY. THEY WERE OFTEN LOCAL HEROES WHOSE COURAGEOUS DEEDS SPREAD BY WORD OF MOUTH ONLY IN THEIR LOCAL DISTRICTS. FOR INSTANCE, SHAMGAR, DESTROYER OF SIX HUNDRED PHILISTINES, WAS NOT KNOWN THROUGHOUT ALL THE TRIBES ALTHOUGH HE HAS BEEN RATED A SAVIOR OF ALL ISRAEL.

Cotton Market Weekly

A Service Provided by Plains Cotton Cooperative Association

Cotton futures on the New York Cotton Exchange touched five-year highs on Wednesday before closing lower on Thursday due, in part, to producer selling and a weak export report from USDA.

The weekly sales and export report released by USDA reinforced the view of most traders that the price rise to 33-month highs last week would stifle export demand. In the week ended Sept. 18, net upland sales of U.S. cotton totaled 45,600 bales, 61 percent lower than the previous week and a 44 percent decrease from the four-week average. Mexico was a major buyer for the fourth consecutive reporting period, raising the country's total commitments for the marketing year to 1.1 million bales.

Additionally, the week's export shipment figure showed a significant decline as only 74,000 bales were shipped. The total was a 51 percent decline from the prior week and 43 percent lower than the four-week average. Primary destinations included Mexico, Japan and Canada.

Interest diminished on the spot cotton scene as well. Online sales by Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas producers in the five trading days ended Sept. 25 totaled 1,601 bales, compared to 4,123 bales the previous week. Prices received by producers selling their cotton online ranged from 48.26 to 57.10 cents per pound versus the previous week's 46.03 to 54.81 cents per pound range.

In other news, traders are anticipating weaker domestic consumption figures to be released on Sept. 26 when the National Cotton Council (NCC) releases its August U.S. mill use numbers. The data usually is released on Thursdays, but was put back one day because of the delay in the release of the U.S. Census Bureau's figures as government offices in Washington, D.C., were closed two days last week due to adverse weather caused by Hurricane Isabel.

With the deterioration of the domestic textile situation, traders' usage projections range from just under 6.0 million to 6.2 million bales. In August, the NCC pegged domestic mill use at 7.05 million bales, a figure considered to be a seasonal aberration, compared with 6.64 million bales in June. Although the market is expecting weaker figures, traders said it would be interesting to see how the market reacts now that the upside momentum in prices has waned.

Meanwhile, cool, misty weather was reported in parts of the Memphis Territory this week, following light to moderate precipitation over the weekend, according to one news source. Farmers in south-central counties were picking well after dark early in the week in an effort to net as much cotton as possible off the stalk before the rain arrived. Ginning has gained momentum, and many gin plants are working around the clock. The retrieval of modules from fields will be slowed because of muddy soils; however, most gins already have a backlog of seed cotton on their yards and will continue operating without interruption.

The inclement weather now is moving into the Southeast, and misty conditions are being reported from Alabama to North Carolina. Water still is standing in many North Carolina and Virginia fields in the aftermath of Hurricane Isabel, which moved through late last week. Early assessments suggest a loss of at least 50,000 bales, and additional precipitation will only exacerbate conditions.

USDA reported a slight improvement in the U.S. cotton crop for the week ended Sept. 21. Overall, 49 percent of the crop was ranked in good to excellent condition, unchanged from a week earlier. However, plant health advanced in nine of the 14 primary cotton growing states and dropped in only four states. Fifty-nine percent of the crop was reported to have open bolls, against a 75 percent five-year average, and only 10 percent of the crop had been harvested versus the 15 percent average.

PCCA Reports Net Margins At 50th Annual Meeting

Plains Cotton Cooperative Association (PCCA) today reported total net margins of $7.6 million at fiscal-year-end June 30, 2003, during the 50th Annual Stockholders Meeting of the Lubbock-based, farmer-owned cooperative. The margins were double the previous fiscal year's financial performance.

PCCA also announced the distribution of $15.2 million in cash payments to its members from fiscal 2003 operations. The payments consisted of approximately $5.1 million in cash dividends to marketing, warehouse, pool and textile division patrons, $5 million in stock retirements and approximately $5.1 million in retirement of per-unit capital retains.

The year-end results and cash distribution were facilitated by an improved denim market for the cooperative's textile division, record-setting performance by its warehouse divisions and good volume for its marketing division, according to management reports delivered during the annual meeting.

"We showed increases in profitability, increased working capital and increased patrons' equities," said PCCA President and CEO Van May. "We had a tremendous turnaround this year in our textile division and posted an overall net margin of more than $14 million while most of the industry struggled," May said. "Our warehouse operation in Altus, Oklahoma, enjoyed the second best financial performance in its 40-year history, and our warehouse at Sweetwater, Texas, broke its profit record by more than half a million dollars. Meanwhile, our marketing division posted another profitable year for the 14th time in 15 years." May also reviewed the effect of a sudden decline in cotton prices, during a two-month period, on the cooperative's West Texas/Oklahoma marketing pool.

"The market knocked the props out from under us in April and May and caused our West Texas/Oklahoma pool to have the first overadvance in our history," May explained. "We found a plan that allowed us to handle that overadvance in a way that created no carryover and no impact on future pools," he continued. The meeting also included a review of PCCA's past 50 years.

"Our ancestors who settled this land brought a pioneering spirit out here, and it is incumbent upon us to keep that alive," May said. "They didn't stop at the Cumberland Mountains, and they didn't stop at the Mississippi River. They pushed on in search of something new and better, and that is what we must do as well. We owe it to them and to you, our members," May concluded.

PCCA members during the Annual Meeting re-elected the following directors to three-year terms on the cooperative's board: Eddie Smith, District 4; Charles Macha, District 5; and Jackie Mull, District 6. The members also elected Lexie Fennell to fill the vacant board position for District 3.

Texas Redistricting Battle Heads To Conference Committee

LUBBOCK, September 26, 2003 By Roger Haldenby
The 3rd special session of the 78th Texas Legislature, called to redraw congressional districts, continues in Austin.

The history of the past few days shows a wide difference between House Bill 3 as approved by the House on September 17, and Substitute House Bill 3 as amended by the Senate passed on September 25. The House refused to concur in the Senate amendments and so the issue now is referred to a House/Senate conference committee.

The Senate Conferees appointed are: Senator Staples, (Chair) and Senators Duncan, Hinojosa, Lindsay and Nelson.

The House Conferees appointed are: Representative King, (Chair) and Representatives Crabb, Hamric, Grusendorf and Wilson.

The conference committee is expected to meet sometime the week starting September 29.

The latest maps, along with a map of the existing congressional districts can be viewed on PCG's website at: <http://www.plainscotton.org>, click on "Latest Congressional Redistricting" or go direct to the page at: <http://www.plainscotton.org/rkh/redistrict.html>.

PCG is interested in preserving the representation of rural Texas in Congress. The organization does not want West Texas to lose a representative in Congress and does not want to see an erosion of influence of our congressmen who represent the interests of agriculture and petroleum.

At PCG's most recent quarterly board meeting held July 16 in Lubbock, the board voted unanimously AGAINST any plans for revising of Congressional districts at this time.

PCG & Monsanto Discuss Technology Issues

LUBBOCK, September 26, 2003 By Shawn Wade
Representatives from St. Louis-based Monsanto Company sat down with members of Plains Cotton Growers this week to talk issues and to develop ideas for adding even more value to the customer loyalty programs currently offered to Monsanto customers.

The meeting, which has become almost a yearly ritual, provides PCG the opportunity to discuss evolving Monsanto programs and products with the decision-makers responsible for their development and implementation.

Issues discussed with the Monsanto contingent included: technology pricing strategies, specifically the concept of switching to a regional pricing structure; discussion of proposed changes to current Monsanto crop destruct and replant programs; and, also discussion about the development of new programs Monsanto hopes will provide additional value and encourage growers to utilize Monsanto branded products.

Throughout the discussion the main points put forth by the PCG contingent were that the programs needed to be easily understood and allow Monsanto's investment to stand on its own, without the added confusion of how other companies participation in the programs is manifest.

Monsanto officials noted that one of the most popular programs with growers has been the Replant program through which growers were reimbursed a portion of their seed costs on crops destroyed early in the season.

The 2004 Monsanto Replant program will look considerably different, but maintain Monsanto's financial contribution at the same level of $17 per bag.

Monsanto's 2004 changes are being prompted by the seed industries pending switch from marketing seed in 50 pound bags to selling seed based on the total number of seed per bag.

Monsanto officials note that one of the benefits to growers that come from the change is a clearer picture of seed and technology costs.

Beef Checkoff Rolls Out New Cut in Texas

The beef checkoff program in August introduced Texans to its newest value cut - the Beef Shoulder Tender Roast - during the annual Restaurant Week in Dallas. And by early September, this new beef cut already is vying for a permanent place on menus.

"It's rare that something tastes better than it costs," Chef James Neel, owner and operator of the Dallas restaurants Trumontana and Bistro Latino, said. "But that describes the Shoulder Tender."

Neel already has placed the new cut on the menus of both of his restaurants.

Value cuts are a new generation of beef products that were developed by beef producers through the $1 per head checkoff program. Value cuts are unique in that they have innovative qualities that can help restaurants and retailers sell more beef products.

The Flat Iron, a checkoff-developed value cut from the top blade, took off last year. It now is available in several Texas restaurants as well as some retail stores. Beef producers hope the Shoulder Tender Roast emulates the Flat Iron's success. The Shoulder Tender Roast is a single-muscle beef cut that is 95 percent to 98 percent lean.

The new cut is ideal for preparing as a roast or cutting into medallions of beef for broiling or stir-frying.

The Texas Beef Council recently introduced the Beef Shoulder Tender Roast to eight Dallas-Fort Worth chefs who were participating in the DFW Restaurant Week August 12-18. The event sponsored in part by KRLD NewsRadio and TBC, drew thousands of area consumers to Dallas-Fort Worth restaurants to taste new menu ideas.

"My customers loved it," Neel said. "Even other chefs who visited the restaurant loved it. We've kept it on our menu. At Trumontana, we will use it on our lunch menu for a sandwich and in a salad. At our other Dallas restaurant, Bistro Latino, we will butterfly it and turn it into churrasco (a grilled beef cut made famous in Argentina)."

Neel said the Beef Shoulder Tender Roast will be a hit for the beef industry. Checkoff-funded research has created a cut "with great beef flavor, with no waste and with little labor required to prepare it," he said.

Vending Machine Contracts Put Money Ahead of Kids Health

Agriculture Commissioner Susan Combs today revealed the results of public information requests she made to school districts statewide on vending machine contracts during a news conference at the Texas Medical Association.

"Based on the response to our survey, it is estimated that vending machine contracts generate about $54 million a year in revenue for Texas schools," Combs said. "Very large school districts (100,000 plus students) are earning an estimated $2.7 million a year; large school districts (40,000-100,000 students) are earning almost $1 million a year; medium school districts (20,000-40,000) are earning an average of $500,000 a year; school districts with between 5,000-20,000 students are earning $150,000 a year; and small school districts are earning about $25,000 a year."

"In contrast, it is estimated that because students are choosing colas and snacks over cafeteria meals, school food services are losing an estimated $60 million in potential sales each year," Combs said. "The actual deficit faced by Texas school district food services was $23.7 million for 2001 with an average federal meal reimbursement loss of $3.25 per student per day each time a student chooses vending machine snacks or other non-cafeteria foods."

"Clearly, it's time for school districts to re-examine their dependence on these types of contracts and the shortsightedness of choosing fat profits over healthy kids," Combs said. "Schools have plenty of healthy alternative snacks to provide to children and to raise money with including yogurt, apple sauces, vegetable and fruit cups, bagels and cream cheese, cereal bars, fruit rolls, fruit juice, milk, bottled waters and sports drinks," Combs said.

"Texas Department of Agriculture's new Food and Nutrition Division is teaming up with school districts, school food service directors, parents and physicians to help school districts develop healthier food choices for Texas public school children," Combs said.

"One in five children in our nation or about 10 million kids are now classified as obese—a number that has doubled over the last two decades," Combs said. "Unfortunately, Texas is worse off than most states. This is a problem that is evident in Austin. A recent Austin Independent School District study found 37 percent of second graders overweight and 25 percent obese. Based on this data, by the time Austin students reach second grade their obesity rates may be nearly double the national average (25 percent vs. 13 percent)."

Texas Commission of Health Eduardo Sanchez said, "We estimate that overweight-obesity in Texas adults costs at least $9 billion a year, including $6 billion in direct health care expenses. It's clear that the physical health of Texas will determine its fiscal health."

Dr. Bohn Allen, Texas Medical Association President-Elect said, "There is a crisis of obesity in our society, but the real tragedy is the poor health permeating our schools. There are many culprits, such as eating habits and a lack of exercise, which have contributed to this preventable epidemic plaguing our children. The rule change being announced today is a definite step in the right direction."

Executive Director of Texas PTA, Craig Tounget said, "With obesity and Type 2 diabetes rates skyrocketing among Texas children, parents across the state are thrilled that the food choices available to their children in public schools are going to be healthier."

"Since the U.S. Department of Agriculture moved its Child Nutrition Programs in July from the Texas Education Agency to TDA, several new actions have been taken to address the obesity problem in schools," Combs said.

"TDA has strengthened nutritional guidelines on competitive foods, which are foods that are not served in the cafeteria line," Combs said. "On August 1, TDA amended a policy on certain snacks—known as foods of minimal nutritional value—that will be allowed at elementary and middle schools. This policy prohibits access to sodas, certain candies, and chewing gum throughout the day to elementary schoolchildren. In middle schools, schoolchildren will not have access to these items during meal periods. Also, only 12-ounce sodas will be allowed in middle schools with existing soda contracts exempted from this policy. Previously, the sale of foods of minimal nutritional value was only prohibited during meal periods for all grade levels."

"TDA is here to work in partnership with schools, parents and doctors to enhance our children's nutritional choices during their average seven-hour school day," Combs said. "This is a team effort that will require all of us including parents, school officials and food service directors, doctors and students putting our heads together to prevent a major health care crisis in the next 10 to 20 years. The health of our children is just too important."

Cornyn To Host Weekly Coffees In Washington Office

U.S. Senator John Cornyn announced that he will host weekly coffee meetings for constituents beginning on Tuesday, September 23. The gatherings are an opportunity for Texans to meet Senator Cornyn and share their thoughts and concerns with him. It will also be possible to have a photograph taken with the senator.

"Washington is a long way from Texas and it's absolutely critical that I be able to visit with constituents as often as possible, not only back home, but here in our Washington office as well," Cornyn said. "I hope as many Texans as possible will take advantage of this opportunity to let me hear from them so that I can better represent them here in Washington."

The coffee meetings are open to all Texans and will be scheduled for each Tuesday morning while the Senate is in session. The meetings will be held at 9:00 a.m. ET in 625 Hart Senate Building, Washington, DC 20510.

Anyone interested in attending one of the coffees is requested to RSVP two weeks in advance with Molly Simpson in Senator Cornyn's Washington office by telephone: 202-224-2934 or by fax: 202-228-2856.

This & That

For the record, this newspaper does not publish anonymous letters to the editor. If you send a letter to the paper and it is anonymous, it goes in the trash. Too bad because some of them are pretty good, but if you spend a lot of time composing a letter and expressing an opinion and are not willing to take credit for it, it goes in the trash, not in the newspaper.

Hope that is clear. We also reserve the right to publish or not publish a letter even if it is signed. So if you want your 15 minutes of fame you have to sign your name.

Two of the first guys I became acquainted with after moving to Friona over eight years ago were Ralph Shirley and Ruben Taylor.

I lived around the alley from Ralph and Stella and my daughter Megan, who was five at the time, slipped through the alley to visit them.

I probably first met them at a fire or auto accident which I covered for the newspaper. Together they had over 100 years of service with the Friona Fire Department. Both men served as fire chief, Ralph for 30 years and Ruben 3 or 4 and then a long time as assistant chief.

Even after they grew older and "retired" they still chased the fires and wrecks as long as their health would allow it.

Most folks around here that have attended a credit union annual meeting or a VFW chicken dinner or a meal at the senior citizens Friendship House, has eaten food cooked by Ralph and Ruben.

They smoked a mean brisket and loved to cook. And eat too. For many years Ralph was the local gas company manager and Ruben was a welder. I remember Ruben showing me with pride a smoker he made from an old stove.

Several years ago, I met with Ralph and Ruben at Ralph's house and talked mainly about their many experiences fighting fires and going to fire conventions and cooking and all the other adventures they shared. I ended up writing a column about the two men and their friendship.

Ralph died Sunday, September 14. Ruben died Monday, September 29. Some would say the two old friends are together again, cooking up tall tales and smoking briskets in eternity.

Like many others, I am better off for having known Ralph and Ruben. I am grateful for having had the opportunity. Fondest sympathies from all of us to Stella and Ollie Pearl and the families.

Whether you are a pheasant hunter or not, you have to like this story.

An article on the front page of the September 25 Muleshoe Journal began with this sentence: "Tom Purcell was found guilty again of illegally cleaning a pheasant last December in Bailey County."

It was his third guilty sentence on the same charge of illegally cleaning one bird. Tom was found guilty the first time, appealed the verdict twice, lost both times and said he plans to appeal again.

Tom obviously ain't happy since the Muleshoe paper also ran a picture of him outside the Muleshoe courthouse holding a sign that said, "Muleshoe's judicial system=very Tulia-like."

The first time he pled guilty in a JP court and was fined $350. He appealed the fine and asked for a jury trial. In front of a different JP, a six-person jury took five minutes to find him guilty. This time he was fined $500 plus $35 court costs.

Not satisfied, Tom appealed again to the Bailey County Court and posted a $1000 bond. It took that jury less than 20 minutes to find him guilty again. The judge set the fine as $500 plus $185 in costs.

Not one to be discouraged, Tom the pheasant plucker, said he is weighing his options for another appeal. The article said that while he was seeking justice he was sending email insults to the newspaper, Texas Parks & Wildlife game wardens, and some of the JPs and judges.

The case began December 14, 2002, when game wardens checked out a pheasant hunting party in northeast Bailey County.

One of the game wardens checked a bucket of cleaned birds in ice water and found one pheasant with no plumage and both legs had been removed.

Apparently in the world of pheasant hunting this is a no-no. Since it is illegal to kill hens the law says hunters have to leave some plumage or one leg so wardens can tell if it is a male pheasant.

Here is the good part. When the warden asked the hunters who the legless bird belonged to they gave up old Tom Purcell faster than you can say "hen." They called Tom on his cell phone and lured him back to the ice bucket to take the heat.

Tom became so belligerent, according to reports, that the warden told him to shut up if he ever wanted to hunt in Bailey County again.

They gave him a citation and his first trial was in March. Tom tried to call the landowner as a witness. The wardens testified in the second trial. They said Tom had called them

Letters To The Editor

Ron,

I too had about five occasions to use Jerry Morris, as I had tried the Chief and nearly all the police officers.

I had given up hope of getting any help and decided to go to the city commissioners. I went to the new City Manager and explained my problem. She said maybe we could handle this without city dads.

I was introduced to Jerry Morris at Town and Country eating dinner. By the time he had eaten, he said this would be done, and proper.

One officer had told me he couldn't write a ticket, as it would just be torn up. Also, said he could not help me and he left.

In one week, all these problems were handled by Jerry and a lot of improvement was made.

I have not met anyone that didn't like this man. Friona definitely needs him. Help reinstate this man and you will see a big difference in attitude in Friona.

If anyone needs to know more about this please contact me for there is a lot more to tell, but due to time and space this has to be cut short.

Thanks for listening. Please go and sign the petition to reinstate Jerry Morris.

Thanks,
John Allen, Jr.

Ron,

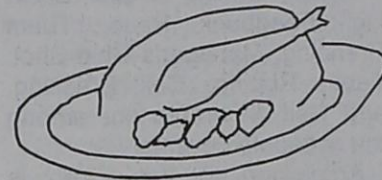

Would you put a big "THANK YOU" in the paper to the 130 teachers and students that volunteered over 200 man-hours at the Friona Pioneer Museum in preparation for the Museum's Open House.

Anyone who thinks volunteerism and community service are a bygone era in Friona, need only to look at this example for a change of heart.

I would also like to pass on a "BIG THANKS" to Wendy Carthel and her crew of volunteers for the great work on all the displays. The open house at the Museum was a large success with over 90 registered visitors during Maize Days.

I would encourage everyone to stop by and view a little piece of history during the Museum's regular hours on Saturday mornings.

Sincerely,
Bruce Fleming
President
Friona Pioneer Museum

St. Mary's Annual Carnival October 18

Students and parents at St. Mary's School in Amarillo are gearing up once again for their 77th annual carnival, one of the school's biggest fund-raisers of the year.

Some features of the carnival include game booths with prizes, horse rides, a popular barrel train ride, a toy walk, a sweet shop, a giant slide and some new additions. "We are adding a 24 foot rock climbing wall this year," said carnival publicist Christy Fox. "It is three sided to accommodate three climbers at a time. We have also become famous for our wonderful Mexican Café," added Fox. "This year's menu includes beef enchiladas, beef or bean burritos, gorditas, chicken fajitas, tortilla soup, rice and refried beans."

To some carnival goers, the highlight of the evening is the announcement of the raffle winners, silent auction winners and the live auction of class projects. The raffle includes cash prizes up to $20,000. Items up for bid at our silent auction include Dallas Cowboy tickets and parents can bid on class projects

St. Mary's School is a non-profit organization. The money raised each year at Carnival goes right back into the school to meet the needs of the students.

This year's Carnival is Saturday, October 18 from 12:00 noon until 8:00 p.m. There will be a fun run/walk kicking off at 8:00 a.m. The fun run includes a one-mile and a 5K event and costs $10 in advance or $15 the day of the race. All events take place at St. Mary's School campus, 1200 S. Washington in Amarillo.

For further information contact Christy Fox at (806) 358-6498.

SBA Spanish Online Course

The U.S. Small Business Administration is offering an interactive online course for Spanish speaking entrepreneurs on its Spanish language Website, www.negocios.gov.

The 9-session interactive course - titled "My Own Business" - was developed by My Own Business, Inc., a nonprofit firm founded in 1992 by a successful entrepreneur to develop and provide educational materials on entrepreneurship. The courses cover such topics as writing a business plan, marketing and e-commerce, and are offered through a joint effort between the SBA and My Own Business, Inc., to provide a free, comprehensive online entrepreneurship course for small business owners and aspiring entrepreneurs.

"We are very happy to provide this valuable educational tool on our Spanish language Website," said SBA administrator Hector V. Barreto. "These courses help a prospective entrepreneur walk through the initial steps as they are getting ready to start their business. By taking the time to prepare themselves with training like this, entrepreneurs can better ensure the success of their businesses in the long term."

The SBA established its Spanish language Website a year ago. The site contains information about SBA programs and services and provides a wide range of useful information for entrepreneurs. Since its inception, the Website has logged almost three million hits with the number of visitors steadily growing.

Playa Exhibit Opens At Deaf Smith Museum

A unique exhibit, which illustrates the importance of playa lakes to the High Plains region, opens Sunday, October 5, 2003 at the Deaf Smith County Museum, 400 Sampson Street, Hereford. An opening reception on that date will be from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. Jim Steiert, author of the book, Playas...Jewels Of The Plains, will give a short presentation. The exhibit can be viewed through November 26, 2003. The Museum is open Monday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Playas...Jewels of the Plains is a traveling exhibit project of the Northwest Texas Museum Association. The Amarillo Area Foundation, the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation, the Meadows Foundation, and the Playa Lakes Joint Venture have provided major funding. It opened at the Amarillo Botanical Gardens in January 2003, and it will visit 18 museums in five states during its three-year tour.

"Playas...Jewels of the Plains features 20 separate panels," says Dr. P. Katz, "which present information on the function of playa lakes, as well as history, geology, biology, ecology, and art. Display boxes attached to the panels include games, models, artifacts, and maps. As they walk, visitors will listen to playa sounds."

Playa lakes are depressions on the landscape that are generally round and small, averaging less than 30 acres. They have clay-lined basins and fill with water periodically, mostly from precipitation. Playa lakes are formed through a combination of natural processes most involving wind and water. The region's climate and geology encourages their growth. Occasional rains loosen the ground in small depressions. Strong winds pick up the loose soil from the dry playa basin. Over time, wind scours the playa surface, making it deeper and larger. Katz notes that playa lakes are not to be confused with sinkholes or salt lakes. "Playas have gently sloping sides," he says. "Sinkholes are also small, but they have an irregular shape and steep sides. Salt lakes are large, shallow, and have uneven shorelines."

About 96 percent of the world's playas are found on the High Plains, and there are more than 20,000 in northwestern Texas alone. Playa lakes also occur in eastern New Mexico, southeastern Colorado, western Nebraska, southwestern Kansas, and western Oklahoma.

Playas go through wet/dry cycles resulting in a highly diverse plant community. These plants produce large quantities of nutritious seeds essential for waterfowl and other birds which migrate and winter in the region. Playa lakes may be the most important wetland habitat type for birds in the High Plains region. More than 200 bird species are known to use playas during the breeding, wintering or migrating seasons.

"Playas have been a magnet for animals and their human hunters throughout prehistoric and into historic times," says Katz. "The first settlers, and then the region's first towns, focused on them."

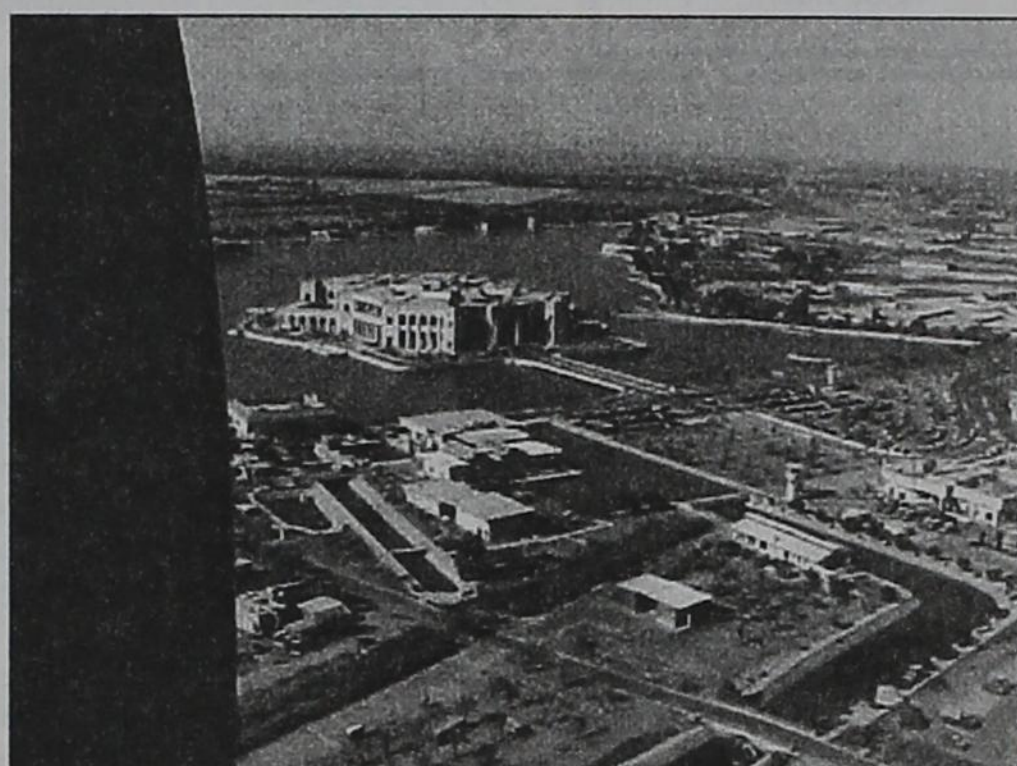

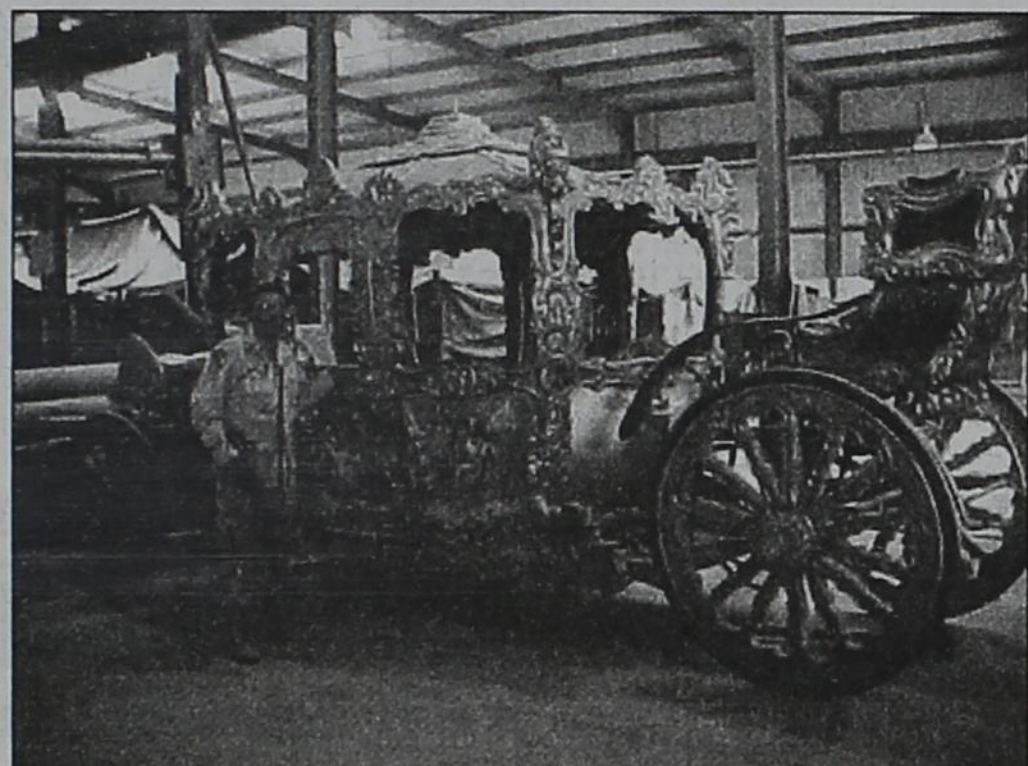

"In the Playa Lakes Region, they are nearly the only way the Ogallala Aquifer is recharged. The Ogallala is the High Plains' major source for groundwater and is the largest groundwater system in North America."

Pioneer Heritage Museum-To quote one director on the museum board last week: "Angels descended on the Pioneer Heritage Museum today..."and thanks to a group of 130 Friona High School students, a great deal of work was done in order to help prepare for the Open House held September 20th. There was also quite a nice turnout for the event.

If you would like to be a part of helping to preserve Friona and Parmer County history, please consider joining the auxiliary organization. Dues are just $10 per family annually.

Memorial donations and honorariums are also welcome. The Glen Stevick children: Janet, Ronnie, James and Karen have recently purchased a window in loving memory of their parents and sister: Glen, Ruth and Sally Stevick. There are a few lower windows left for purchase at $300 each. This is a very nice, lasting way to remember a special friend or loved one. Please contact Mary Johnston at 250-2578 or Darla Bracken at 250-3200 if you are interested or need more information.

Panhandle-Plains Museum Hosts 100th Anniversary of Buick

Beginning October 3, 2003, The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon, will open the second phase of Let the Good Times Roll, celebrating the 100th Anniversary of Buick. Taking a popular approach, Let the Good Times Roll will showcase a 1911 Buick Runabout, 1927 Seven-Passenger Buick Sedan and a 1953 Buick Skylark. Other vintage automobiles in the exhibit will include a 1910 Hupmobile, 1942 Chrysler Woody, 1930 Bantam, 1953 Olds Fiesta and a 1955 Cadillac DeVille. The 100th anniversary of the Harley-Davidson motorcycle will be highlighted with motorcycles dating from 1936 through 1963.

By examining the automobile and its place in American history Let the Good Times Roll allows visitors to make personal connections to significant events in American transportation history.

"Let the Good Times Roll" features an early car dealership, a picnic scene, a reconstructed motor court, a diner and a re-created drive-in movie theater. Another area of the exhibit will highlight Route 66, the "Mother Road" that ran from Chicago to Los Angeles, and some of the roadside icons that appeared to entertain and attract tourists. The exhibit features the "real" Harley-Earl and his contribution to automobile design, especially the Buick.

This phase of the exhibit will close April 18, 2004. Phase III of Let the Good Times Roll will open in May 2004.

BITS AND PIECES

By TONY BAPTISTE
Police Chief
Friona Police Department

It is encouraging to see Friona rally behind one of its policemen. I am speaking about the support for Jerry Morris I have witnessed as I speak to the citizens in town.

On my first day as Interim Police Chief, I spoke with Jerry for about three hours. Jerry seemed to harbor no ill feeling to anyone in city government for the situation in which he found himself and realized they were giving him as much support as they could.

Everyone in this great country is innocent until proven guilty, except those in law enforcement. Due to the immense power we are given in taking away someone's freedom, police have to behave in a way to take away all suggestion of misbehavior.

Fairly or unfairly, Jerry Morris was charged with Class A Misdemeanor of Assault by the Parmer County Attorney's office. Once an officer is charged with criminal activity, he can no longer act or be effective as a law enforcement officer until he is cleared of that charge.

For someone to say that since Jerry was a good policeman he should be re-instated, before he is cleared, is sending out the message that if a Friona policeman is charged with a misdemeanor (i.e. DWI, possession of marijuana, theft, or domestic violence), the policeman doesn't have to worry because the city government protects its officers, above and beyond the rights of some of the people those officers are sworn to protect. Lt. Jerry Morris understands this fact.

I do think starting a defense fund for Jerry is a great idea, and will show the citizens of Friona's support for him more clearly than criticizing the city government who could have just washed their hands of the entire affair and terminated him.

Questioning who in their right mind would want to work for the city of Friona does great injustice to the officers and dispatchers of this police department, who are working long hours to make up for the temporary shortage here. The officers and dispatchers that are sticking with your police department are not staying because they can't get another job. They are staying because they like Friona and I have found them to be highly motivated, well trained, and very professional.

In my short time as Interim Police Chief, I have found the same qualities in the city officials. The city officials have the safety and well being of all its citizens to consider when making their decisions.

I don't think it would hurt Jerry if we all said a prayer that justice be served and this entire affair is over as soon as possible.

Parmer County Sheriff's Report

September 25, 2003, Raul Valdez, 23, of Carlsbad, New Mexico was arrested by the Sheriff's Office and charged with possession of marijuana. Pending county court.

September 29, 2003, Lisa Velasquez, 34, of Farwell, was arrested by the Farwell Police Department on a Potter County warrant. Pending transport.
