TWENTY-SEVENTH WEEK

Washington Letter

BY O. C. FISHER

PRESIDENT TRUMAN

With the flags yet at half-mast during a period of mourning proclaimed by him, President Truman began last week by addressing a receptive and sympathetic Congress. Everyone knew he had some difficult shoes to fill and, in his effort to carry on, it was evident he had a lot of good will and help.

The new President gets to his desk a little past eight each morning and puts in a full day. In social life he is quite a story teller. He does a right good job playing the piano and would be as much at home in a cow camp as he is among Ambassadors and Cabinet members.

One man described him well by saying: "Truman is just a plain American".

INDEPENDENCE DAY

April 21 is always a big day in Texas. It marks the date General Sam Houston led a handful of dauntless Texans into a surprise attack that has been described as one of the seven most important battles in the world's history.

We usually think of men like Houston as great heroes and give but little heed to the human side of their lives. The man who became President of the Republic of Texas had been through the political mills long before he set foot on Texas soil. He had figured in at least one historic personal combat while serving in Congress from Tennessee. That service lasted two terms, from 1824 to 1827.

A recent fracas on the floor of the House set the historians scurrying to the books for similar combats of the past.

They dug deep and brought out the story of Sam Houston and the sound licking he gave Congressman William Stanbery of Ohio one time.

It came up this way: During a debate in Congress, Stanbery stated that the Secretary of War had fraudulently given Houston a contract for Indian rations, and the statement got into the newspapers.

Houston wrote Stanbery a letter and asked him if he was correctly quoted. Stanbery made an evasive answer, which infuriated the Tennesseean. Houston threatened that "He would right the wrong wherever it was given, even were it in the court of heaven".

A day or so later, which happened to be on April 1, Houston met Stanbery in the dark on Pennsylvania Avenue and asked him his identity, which was admitted. "Then," said the future hero of San Jacinto, "you are the d--- rascal", and struck Stanbery with his cane. The latter staggered, lost his hat, while the aggressor followed up, striking him further.

As the victim sought to go, Houston followed up with more blows, and finally Stanbery lay motionless on the ground. At one point Stanbery tried to use his pistol, but it wouldn't discharge and was wrested from his hand.

The injured man appealed to the House to hold Houston in contempt. Action was taken and the aggressor was reprimanded by the Speaker, "and then discharged from the custody of the sergeant-at-arms".

But court action also followed. Houston must have given the man a bad licking, because the records show he was fined $500, which was a lot of money in those days.

General Houston was born near Lexington, Virginia, and died at Huntsville, Texas, July 23, 1863. Aside from his service in Congress from Tennessee, the General later served as President of Texas from 1836 to 1838, and again from 1841 to 1844.

When Texas entered the Union, Houston became one of its United States Senators and served from 1846 to 1859, when he quit to become Governor of Texas. He was deposed as Governor, because he refused to take the oath of allegiance to the Confederate States.

Evidently the beating Stanbery got wasn't permanent. He lived to be 84, outliving Houston by nearly a decade.

Miss Nettie Adair Reiley of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dantes Reiley, is receiving treatment in a San Angelo hospital this week.

$44,713 Allocated County For 6 ACA Practices

Recently the 1945 State Budget for providing assistance to farmers and ranchers for performing conservation practices was increased from $13,386,000 to $19,545,000. As a result of this increase, Sutton County has been allocated $44,713.00 for six special practices which are as follows: (1) construction of standard terraces, (4) constructing or enlarging drainage ditches, (6) construction of earthen dams or reservoirs, (8) drilling or digging wells, (21) control of destructive plants on non-crop pasture and range land (eradication practices), (23) mowing established pastures.

With the prior written approval of the County ACA Committee, these six special practices may be carried out to the extent of five times the limited allowance computed for each individual ranch; however the prior approval must be kept within the county budget. The limited allowance may be used to carry out any of the applicable practices other than the six designated practices if the rancher so desires.

For further information on these practices, Miss Dessie Parsons, local AAA administrative officer, should be contacted.

Sgt. Brasher Is Posthumously Awarded Medal

LT. RICHARDSON ALSO RECEIVES PURPLE HEART

Mrs. J. H. Brasher has received the Purple Heart Medal, awarded posthumously to her son, Staff Sergeant Joseph H. Brasher, Jr., who was killed in aerial action over the island of Ceram on last January 1.

Lieutenant O. L. Richardson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Richardson of Sonora, has written his parents that he has been awarded the Purple Heart Medal for three wounds received in action in France with the Seventh Army on February 15. Presentation of the medal was made on March 27, at the Army hospital in England where he is still receiving treatment.

At the time Mrs. Brasher received the medal, she also received a memorial message of appreciation from the late President Roosevelt, and a Citation of Honor from General H. H. Arnold, Commanding General of the Army Air Forces. The Citation of Honor read as follows:

"Citation of Honor, United States Army Air Forces, Staff Sergeant Joseph H. Brasher, Jr., who gave his life in the performance of his duty, January 1, 1945. He lived to bear his country's arms. He died to save its honor. He was a soldier . . . and he knew a soldier's duty. His sacrifice will help to keep aglow the flaming torch that lights our lives . . . that millions yet unborn may know the priceless joy of liberty. And we who pay him homage, and revere his memory, in solemn pride rededicate ourselves to a complete fulfillment of the task for which he so gallantly has placed his life upon the altar of man's freedom."

Sgt. Brasher, who had served 12 months in the Pacific theater, had been awarded the Air Medal and four Oak Leaf Clusters.

G. H. Hall, president, appointed Emmett Askins, Joe Berger and Arthur Carroll as the new program committee for May.

Announcement was made that the Right Reverend Everett H. Jones, Bishop of the West Texas Diocese of the Episcopal Church, will be guest speaker at the club meeting next Tuesday.

Captain E. B. Tipton, Jr., was the only guest of the club this week.

Good Response Given To Clothing Drive

Excellent response has been made by Sutton Countians to the United National Clothing Collection, according to Mrs. Alvis Johnson, county chairman, and Lee Patrick, Lions Club chairman. Although the amount is not near the 20,000 pound quota set for the county, the quality of what has been turned in, on the whole, has been excellent.

Although a city-wide canvass was made for clothing on Saturday, April 21, so as to allow a week to pack and sort the clothing, Mrs. Johnson said that donations will be accepted up to and through Monday, April 30, official closing date of the drive. If possible, donations made this week should be taken to the school cafeteria, which is open each afternoon from 3:00 to 6:30 o'clock. Those who cannot take their donations to the school, however, may leave them down town in the business houses, where they will be picked up on Monday.

Mrs. Johnson and representatives from the town's civic and religious organizations met on Monday, April 23, to make plans for sorting and packing the clothing and have met every afternoon this week at the school cafeteria for that purpose. Anyone who can volunteer to help with that work is urged to meet with Mrs. Johnson and her committee any afternoon from now through Monday.

The clothing turned in to date has not yet been weighed, but figures on the total amount will probably be announced next week. It is hoped that the contributions will total the 20,000-pound quota, or more, when the drive closes. The county quota was figured on a basis of 5 pounds of clothing per capita.

Mrs. Johnson announced that, as so many citizens still have donations to make, another canvass will be made this Saturday morning. All clothing that has not been turned in by that time may be left in front of the homes and will be picked up by Boy Scouts.

Piano Students To Present Recital Saturday

Mrs. S. M. Loeffler and Mrs. O. L. Richardson have announced that their piano pupils are to be presented in recital Saturday night at the First Methodist Church at 8:15 o'clock, and that the public is invited to attend the affair.

Pupils of Mrs. Richardson to appear on the program are Lindell Sue Allen, Mary Tommy Camp, Connie June Crumley, Darcy Carroll, Cynthia Ann Hall, Nancy Bryan Hunt, Rose Alice Turney, Briara Schwieng, Mary Jane Queen, Robert Harold Guest and Charles Lee Cusenbary.

Mrs. Loeffler's pupils who will take part are Billy Frank Turney, Turney Friess, Betsy Ross, Betty Sue Allen, Norris Loeffler, Janie Kiser, Wayne Ogden, Nina Smith, Jimmy Cusenbary and Peggy Anne Willman.

Mrs. Loeffler also presented some of her beginning pupils at the Elliott School Auditorium last Wednesday in a recital. Those on the program were Cecilia Martinez, Martha Sosa, Eloisa Mendez, Nora Castillo, Emma Morreal, Dora Virgin, Eda Urias, Emma Castillo, Deana Lopez and Adolph Flores, Jr.

E. J. WHITES TO LEAVE NEXT MONTH FOR N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. White and two small daughters, who have made their home here where Mr. White is connected with the Stanolind Oil Company since last September, are leaving on May 25, for New York City where Mr. White will enter Columbia University.

White, who is an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, has been active in Boy Scout work since coming here, and has served as Scoutmaster since last November.

City Pound To Open April 30

At the repeated requests of Sonora citizens, the city officials have passed an ordinance requiring that all livestock kept in town be confined to the owner's premises or some place where it cannot run loose in the city limits. During this week J. C. Berry, who has been employed to keep the city pound, will pick up all stray livestock and return it to the owners.

At the beginning of next week, Monday, April 30, all stray livestock will be taken to the city pound, and the owners will be required to pay a fine to get it out.

Several years ago a city ordinance was passed to prohibit the keeping of livestock in the city limits. After the beginning of the war, however, these laws were relaxed because of meat and milk shortages. The law was changed, however, with the conditions that all stock kept in town would be fenced in. Since advantage has been taken of the relaxing of the rules, it has become necessary to open a city pound.

56 Ranchers Sign For REA Service Here

OTHERS INTERESTED ASKED TO SIGN NOW

Fifty-six Sutton County ranchmen have completed application to receive rural electrification service, if such a project is approved for the county, and seven others have designated their desire to receive the service but have not sent their applications in or have not completed them. John Eaton, who is working with the Sutton County ranchers and with E. C. Hill, president of the Eldorado cooperative, said this week that those who have not mailed their applications in should do so at once, as no survey or estimate can be made until all applications are in.

Eaton said that a few ranchers have refused to sign the applications, and that a few others have promised to do so but as yet have not. Also, others have not been contacted and, if they are interested, they should call Eaton at once.

Under present plans, service for Sutton County ranches will be received from the Eldorado and Junction cooperative rural electrification projects, with ranches in the northern and western parts of the county tying on to Eldorado and those in the eastern and southern parts connecting with the Junction project. Construction has already been started on both projects, and poles are being put up as far west as Roosevelt by the Junction cooperative.

Eaton reported that he has met with a group of 10 ranchers from the Juno area of the county and that they are most eager to have the line, if accepted for Sutton County, run that far south. To increase possibility of their getting the line down there, several have already said that they would pledge a guaranteed minimum of $30 per each monthly payments for the next five years on the cost of the project.

The names of several ranches in the eastern part of the county do not appear on the Sutton list of applicants, as they have already signed up with the Junction cooperative. Those who have completed their applications, except those signed at Junction, are as follows: Lea Allison, William Allison, S. H. Allison, George A. Allison (four ranches), James M. Baggett, B. H. Cusenbary, Dan Cauthorn, Mack Cauthorn, John Cauthorn, B. B. Dunbar (2 ranches), Mrs. N. B. Davis (2 ranches), W. L. Davis, Sim Glasscock, Mrs. Belle Glasscock, B. M. Halbert, Jr., G. P. Hill, C. T. Jones, Jr., L. E. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Lula Karnes, Chester Kenley, Mrs. Stella Keene, D. L. Locklin, Joe F. Logan, Ben Mittel, E. C. Mayfield, Moore & Neill, W. B. McMillan, W. L. Miers, E. E. Sawyer Co. (2 ranches), R. V. Sewell, Fred Simmons, Arthur Simmons and Edgar Shurley.

Also M. G. Shurley, Theo Savell, Albert Schulz, Miers Savell, Alfred Schwieng, Dee Word, Miss Nettie Word, Whitehead & Bloodworth, Mrs. Luella O'Leary, Hillary Phillips, Bryan Hunt (2 ranches), R.

Weaver Baker To Be Speaker At Graduation

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES TO BE ON MAY 13

Program plans for baccalaureate and graduation exercises of the Sonora schools are this week near completion, according to Superintendent E. D. Stringer, and Weaver H. Baker, Chairman of the State Board of Control, has accepted the invitation to be guest speaker at the Sonora High School graduation exercises on Friday night, May 18.

Stringer said that the names of the valedictorian and salutatorian in the high school and elementary school probably will be announced next week.

Baccalaureate exercises for the Sonora High School graduating class will be held Sunday morning, 11 o'clock, May 13, and the Rev. J. E. Eldridge will deliver the sermon.

Commencement exercises for the Sonora Elementary School will be held on Thursday night, May 17, and musical numbers for this program and for the high school graduation will be furnished by the Choral Club under the direction of Mrs. Karl Moore.

The Reverend Carol Meyer has been asked to address the two graduating classes of the L. W. Elliott School, which will hold their commencement exercises together on Wednesday night, May 16. Musical numbers will be furnished by the students, and Mrs. S. M. Loeffler will play piano accompaniments. Two students will receive high school diplomas and eleven eighth grade students will graduate into high school.

Valedictorian of the Elliott High School will be Juanita Virgin, and Gertrude Baltazar will be salutatorian. Valedictorian of the eighth grade will be Emma Castillo.

The junior class of the Sonora High School will entertain the graduates on Friday night, April 27, with a banquet in the basement of the Baptist Church. Miss Nellie Ruth Polley home economics teacher, is in charge of the arrangements.

Report cards for all schools will be given out Friday afternoon, 1 o'clock, on May 18.

DOROTHY LYND HELD BY MICH. PAROLE BOARD

Dorothy Lynd, the 17-year-old girl who robbed the W. J. Fields, Jr., home last February 28, while employed there, is being held by the State Board of Parole of Michigan, according to word received this week by Sheriff Leo E. Brown from a Child Welfare Work employee in Michigan.

The girl is being held in Charlottee, Michigan, pending the receipt of a reply from Judge Alvis Johnson here. Judge Johnson has advised that the complaint here be withdrawn, so that the Michigan Board of Parole can return her to the Girls' Training School at Adrian, Michigan, from which institution she was on parole.

A list of articles taken by the girl is being sent to authorities in Michigan, in order that those still in her possession may be recovered. Things missed from the Fields home at the time she left here included $300 to $400 worth of clothing, luggage and jewelry.

Miss Doris Keene, who is employed by a Dallas banking firm, spent last week-end here visiting her mother, Mrs. Stella Keene.

A. Halbert (3 ranches) and Mrs. G. C. Hines.

The seven whose applications have not been turned in, or whose applications are being held as incomplete, are as follows: C. E. Stites, G. H. Davis, J. A. Ward, Jr., Dr. E. M. DeBerry, Aldwell Brothers, V. J. Glasscock and Mrs. Charlie Hull. These are urged to contact Eaton at the earliest time possible, so those for the entire county may be sent in.

Eaton said this week, "Some have told me that they would like to have the service, but they have not signed up because they feel it is a pretty remote possibility. If they want it, though, they had better get their names in the pot, or they will just get left out."

Program For Ranchers' Day Is Completed

E Bond Sales Reach $52,000

E Bond sales at the middle of this week totaled $52,000, according to announcement made by local War Finance Chairman, George H. Neill, who continued to urge that citizens make their purchases of the E Bonds on the Seventh War Loan quota as soon as possible.

The entire E Bond quota is $115,000, and the War Finance Committee is trying to have almost all of that amount sold by May 14, at which time the overall quota figure will be received.

LT. TROY WHITE NOW RECOVERING FROM PNEUMONIA IN WASH.

FORT GEO. WRIGHT, Wash.—A victim of pneumonia while stationed at the Portland Army Air Base, Lt. Troy C. White is now at the AAF convalescent hospital, Fort George Wright, Spokane, Washington.

At Fort George Wright, one of several convalescent hospitals of the AAF Personnel Distribution Command, Lt. White will receive individual treatment. Besides necessary medical attention his program will include physical reconditioning and craft and shop work. Experience has shown that this treatment received at convalescent hospitals greatly shortens the time required for an air man to again attain the highest of overall fitness.

Lt. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy White, former Sonorans, now of Victorville, Calif. His wife is the former Janne Coilsen, Athens, Texas.

EPISCOPAL BISHOP TO HOLD SERVICES HERE TUES., MAY 1

Sgt. Gervis R. Dickerson, Pelly, is safely back with American forces in Germany, the central character in a story that pales the most lurid fiction.

He and three buddies, captured by the Germans, were "framed" when guards planted a pistol in Dickerson's bed roll and propaganda papers in the others. For 93 days they were under sentence of death, expecting execution daily.

All four were taken to Hannover and sentenced after a perfunctory trial in which they were "represented" by counsel with whom they were unable to talk.

They were held near Brunswick in solitary confinement and denied all packages and books and even watched the Germans setting posts in the prison yard for the execution which never came off.

One day the Germans went away, leaving the Americans locked in their cells. Two days later, Dickerson and his friends heard the most welcome sound of their lives, the gruff voice of an American soldier, saying:

"I guess we'd better shoot the damn locks off."

More good news of much the same kind came last week: that American forces had returned 81 Texas soldiers from slow death in a German prison camp captured near Badorb. The camp held 3,400 Americans, all of whom were given food and medical aid and will be returned to their homes as soon as possible.

As the number of Texas service men in the overseas combat theaters increases, so grows another kind of army which supports those fighting men--an army which fights their fatigue and sense of peril with quips and laughter and song.

USO-Camp Shows, one agency of the National War Fund to which Texans will be asked to again contribute through their county war chests in October, now has 198 units with 1,007 entertainers in the combat zones. Deep in Germany, in Italy, the Philippines, the CBI theater and the Pacific areas, these entertainers are bringing blessed relief from the grimness of war to the men almost within sound of the guns and to those who lie wounded in the base

by
BOYCE HOUSE

Give me the individual who can always see the bright side of things. Like old Granny Metcalf, who would say, "I ain't got but two teeth; but, thank the good Lord, they hit."

Or like old Uncle Ned, who never got downhearted, not even that time when the train cut off one of his legs. He remarked, "Thank goodness, it was the one with the rheumatism in it."

But some folks' brand of optimism has a pessimistic effect. Like old Mrs. Spraggins. When the harvesting crew would sit down for dinner the first noon, and before anybody had had time to take a bite, she'd look over the table and say, "Well, I believe we'll have enough left for supper."

Did you know that "loud speakers" were invented many centuries ago? Because of the huge crowds that attended the ancient Greek tragedies, the actors wore high-heeled shoes to make them appear taller and used masks with a mouthpiece somewhat like a megaphone.

A challenging statement made by William E. Gladstone, the great Christian leader and statesman of England:

"In almost every one, if not in every one, of the greatest political controversies of the last 50 years--whether they affected the franchise, whether they affected commerce, whether they affected religion, whether they affected the bad and abominable institution of hospitals.

With the famed 36th (Texas) division approaching its 300th day of service in the battle line, Texans continue to gather individual honors, both with the division and elsewhere. In the long list of decorations for valor given Lone Star men recently, a few include: Award of the Silver Star to Lt. Leslie G. Swartout, Austin; the DFC to S/Sgt. Israel R. Phillips, Corpus Christi, and Bronze Stars to Sgt. Jerry Sinkule, West; Sgt. Sam Glover, Kempner; Sgt. Nelson K. Lanam, Tyler. Capt. Joe H. Tableman, Cisco; Sgt. L. B. Harlow, Anna; and Cpl. James E. Nelson, Jr., Telephone.

Compulsory Military Training

BETTY JEAN RANKHORN

One of the most timely and most widely discussed subjects of our nation is Universal Military Training. Since all post-war developments will affect the youth of today, we should be greatly concerned with this vital problem. Military training cannot be made universal unless it is made compulsory; therefore, I think this plan is one of the best shown for preparing our nation for an unknown future.

The need for universal military training is quite evident from our past experiences. If war ever strikes our country again, science has made it possible for it to strike our own coasts, not some remote island possession. If we do not adopt the training program, the enemy will find us in our previous state, with no trained fighters, no military strategists, and no physically fit men.

Of course there comes the idea that we will have no more wars because of the peace plan. Did you know that a trained fighting unit is the main factor in the peace program? If our new plan is similar to Wilson's all allied nations will collaborate to keep down aggressor nations. What can do this except an army?

Then, too, the United States needs to stress such issues as public health, cooperation and patriotism. This can be done in no better way than through compulsory military training. Luke was right when he said, "A strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are at peace."

The plan for conducting this training is simple, effective, and convenient. As soon as a boy finishes high school or becomes eighteen, he would be inducted into whichever branch of service he prefers for a one-year period. The inductees would receive three months' basic training, six months of specialized work, and three months of maneuvers. In the specialized course the boys would be privileged to pursue the type of work they choose. This training, coming at the age of eighteen, would not disrupt the college education, and on the other hand, it would give unexcelled vocational training, together with physical and military training, to those who would not enter college.

The main objective of this program is to build a body of civilian fighters in case of an emergency. However, there are some by-products of this compulsory training program which will benefit the individual and the nation as a whole. A few of these optional things learned would be personal and public health, respect for authority, a better knowledge of our country, disregard of class distinction, leadership, and group living.

Contrary to popular belief, universal military training is not for the purpose of making hardened war lords of our boys. It is for making them strong, capable citizens of a peaceful nation; so let us take a proper attitude toward it. We need to get its purpose in our minds and give our Congress power to put through its issues.

LOMAX and TRAINER

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Judge, remember that place up in the mountains where we went trout fishing last year?"

"I sure do, George. We had a great time up there, didn't we?"

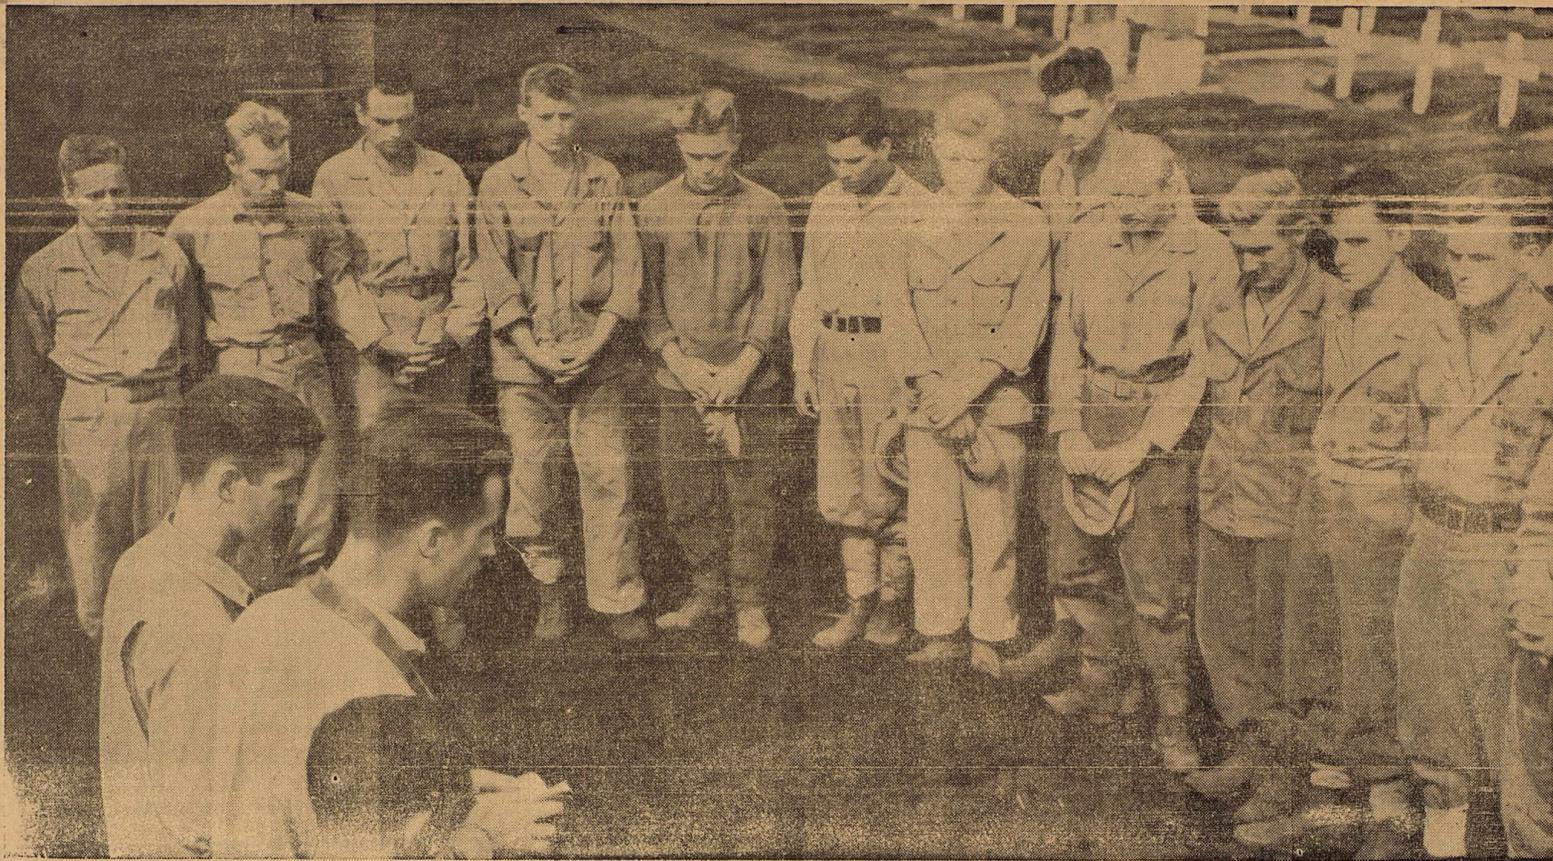

"I'll never forget it. But this will interest you, Judge. I heard just yesterday that the revenue men raided a big still right near there. Guess that's where all that high-priced moonshine we heard about has been coming from."

"Wouldn't be a bit surprised. I saw in the paper the other day where the Government has raided thousands of such stills during the past year."

"Sounds sort of reminiscent, doesn't it, Judge?"

"Exactly and it's not hard to figure out. As soon as the distillers stopped making whiskey and devoted their entire facilities to the production of industrial alcohol for the Government... the racketeers muscled in again."

"I hate to think of how that might have spread, Judge, if the Government hadn't found it possible, without interfering with our war effort in any way, to permit a short resumption of legal whiskey production recently."

Today, and every day...far from home
 American boys are still giving their lives for you..you can help to save many of them

The job is a long way from over yet. The toughest part for our fighting men may be just beginning. Surely the easiest part of the whole war effort is lending money. Have you done your share? The more and better equipment they have, the fewer lives will be lost.

War in the Pacific will probably be the costliest in history. Distances are vast; supplies and equipment must travel thousands of miles in huge quantities, to many places. One battleship costs 108 million dollars. One B-29 to bomb Tokyo costs $600,000. Even one torpedo to sink a Jap ship costs $12,000.

Your dollars are needed now more than ever. Japan is fighting on fanatically for only one reason--they think our homefront is soft and will quit. They know they can't win, but they expect us to lose. Let's give them America's answer--in the SEVENTH WAR LOAN!

THIS TAKES GOOD MANAGEMENT!

It's a neat feat to navigate a windy corner with a pile of packages and keep skirts down to a modest level.

We're facing a somewhat similar problem during these stormy war years—carrying bigger power loads, higher costs, heavier taxes—and still keeping prices at low pre-war levels.

We're rather proud that electricity hasn't been rationed and hasn't gone up, like so many household necessities. In fact, the average family actually gets about twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 15 years ago.

This takes good management, too.

Sgt. Justin Odom writes from the Northwestern Pacific:

"I guess by now you have received my note that I was alright. At the time I wrote it I was aboard ship coming up here, but I couldn't tell you. I can't tell you where I am as yet, but you have probably read about it by now in the papers or heard about it over the radio. It is not so bad here, we have a few air raids once in a while, but nothing much. The only thing bad about the place is the bugs and mosquitos. The people here are a low class of Japs. They live very primitively. Their homes are poorly constructed. They have some pretty nice looking children, but they are not very clean. They are very small built and go bare-footed all time; even some of the old women that look to be about eighty years old go around over rocks and everything much faster than I could with shoes on. I have a Jap dress-maker's book which is the prize of my collection. Of course, you are going to have to learn Japanese before you can get any benefit out of it.

"I got a couple of letters from you aboard ship, but the last one was dated March 9, so I guess when we get some mail up here I will hear from you again. Oh, yes, I met a fellow aboard ship that was in the Marines that was born at Sonora, W. D. Smith, who is a grandson of Mr. Will Perry's. He started to school there then moved to Uvalde. He said that he was going to write to Mrs. Perry, so maybe she already knows about it.

I have not seen him since we came off of the ship, but he is around here some where.

"I hope to be home soon, but I don't know when they will let me go. I lost eleven pounds the month I was aboard ship, but I think that I have gained it back since I got off that rocking boat. That darn thing rocked so much that I thought I would be thrown out of it several times. I guess I just was not meant to be a sailor."

From a later letter:
"I just thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know where I am. They lifted the censorship regulations last night so that we might be able to give the name of the place. We are on Okinawa Shina Nancei Shoto, Ryukyu Islands. It is about 300 miles from Japan. Pretty close, eh? I just wish it had been Japan.

"We did not get much sleep last night. The darn J-apes kept coming over strafing and bombing, then about the time we would get back to bed, here they would come again. Finally I got tired of getting up and down so much that the last few times they came, I just stayed in my bunk. They knocked down a few this morning and last night. They knocked down quite a few the first few days we were here.

"We came on the island on the

fourth; D-day was the first. Boy, it sure was a mess, raining and cold as the devil. The longitude of this place is about equal with that of Houston, so you can imagine how cold it was after spending about a year around the equator. I guess I will live through it; hope so, anyway. We had mail yesterday, but I did not get any from home.

"We just got word that we were shelled by Jap artillery fire last night; of course I couldn't verify the statement, because I was pretty scared part of the time. I was standing right outside of our tent and a piece of shrapnel came whizzing by, and I made one leap and was in my foxhole when several other pieces came by. One time I came out of my tent in my underwear, and no shoes or socks on. After it was all over, it was kinda funny. Of course you had to have a great sense of humor.

I went down to the village just below Yontan Field, where we are stationed, to take some pictures and some souvenirs. I would try to take pictures of little J-apes kids, and they would run like the dickens. Some of the grown girls did not mind, but some of them would get very mad. They think if you take their picture you take their soul away. One of the kids was carrying a kid on her back, the one on the back larger than the one carrying it. They sure start them out very young. Also their horses and cattle are very small. Some of the fellows got horses, but they are so small that they can walk right over them.

"While I was down in the village, I found a little Jap lamp. It sure came in handy, as we have no lighting system. It is very cute.

"They grow rice, sugar cane, and many other vegetables here, but they won't let us eat them because they are fertilized with human manure. They have very large tombs for burial places. They won't let us rool around those places, because they are very sacred, and it really makes the J-apes mad. Also, this whole rock, which we have taken, is undermined with tunnels. Some of them are three and four miles long. They won't ever get all the Japs out of them.

"It has been quite awhile since we have heard any news from Germany, but they should be just about to finish up over there. It shouldn't take many more weeks to secure this place.

"I have to close now. Write soon."

Sgt. Francis W. Stubblefield writes from the Canal Zone:

"I have been a little slow in getting your letter answered, but I hope you have not been worried about me. I have been getting along fine as usual. Have been working some, helping out around here and there, and it helps to take up the time. I don't know when I'll get a job, but have gotten to the point where I'm not going to worry about it. If they can't find anything for me to do, I'll just take it easy. It is over two months since I got back, and all I have done is odd jobs. The Captain said the other day he guessed he would have to send me back to the States as surplus. I told him it would be alright with me. Of course he was joking. There are clerks' jobs open here, but they only call for a corporal's rating, and they can't put me in. It gets pretty tiresome not knowing what you are going to do from one day to the next. I think we will get things straightened out soon though.

"I guess you heard about the recent Panama political situation. Nothing much to it except that we could not go to town for about a week.

"I had a long letter from Nelson, dated March 26. He had gotten the first bunch of the pictures I sent him that I made at home. I guess they are about the first ones he has had in a long time, and he wrote page-after page about them. I gather from his letter that things are pretty quiet with them at present. He sent this piece of German money, and I want you to put it away for me. He said that it is worthless now, except for a souvenir.

"We have a couple of tennis courts just finished out back of the barracks, and I try to get out there for a little exercise and sun each afternoon.

"I am going to have to quit now, as they are going to turn the lights out. Write soon."

Lt. Harold Saunders writes from Shaw Field, Sumter, South Carolina:

"Forgive me for not writing you before now, but I have been rather busy getting settled. I am now based at Shaw Field, and I will send you some pictures of the place in a week or two. It is a beautiful place and the post is really nice. We have a swell officers' club, swimming pool and tennis courts, and we are within walking distance of the flight line. I like the way it is consolidated, because Andrews Field was so spread out all over creation. The Andrews Field Army Air Base only had a little more than seven sections in it, nice base, but it was really spread out. We have a nice, large flying field here, and I think that we are going to get in a lot more flying time than we could at Andrews. I am very well satisfied with the whole set-up.

"There is very little social life here, except when they have dances at the officers' club. There is a reception and dance here this Saturday for all the incoming officers and student officers, with an entertainment by the Women's Clubs Sunday afternoon at the swimming pool. I guess we will get off to a flying start.

"We have a bunch of new boys and will start out with a new class. I guess that I will start flying about Wednesday or Thursday, as we won't fly the first few days with them.

"I am working on a model P-47 now and having plenty of trouble, it being the first one that I ever built. It is a scale model with about 30 inches wing-span. After I get it built, I am going to build one in plastic.

"I have to stop for now, as I have some work to do."

Pfc. Charlie Taliaferro writes from Northern Italy:

"I wonder how you are by this time. Fine, I hope. I am still alive and alright. I received a letter from you some time ago, but I haven't gotten to write anyone much lately, but I thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know I had not forgotten you.

"I have been on the move the past few days, and have not had time much for anything. I guess things are fine at home by this time. You should have lots of little lambs and some little colts.

"Things are looking better every day. Maybe I will get to see you again some day soon. As the little boy said, we are about to make them 'don't' the hard way.

"I will say 'so long' for now as I am out of space. Write when you have time."

Black Market Versus Brighter Meals

I guess our town doesn't like rationing any better than other folks. But when a fellow went from door to door the other day, peddling butter, cheese, and bacon without points, he didn't find a single taker.

Ed Carey's missus, Sarah, summed it up. "I'd just be ashamed to have that butter on my table," Sarah says. "I'd a heap rather have my family and guests put up with what I can serve honestly, than give 'em a treat from the Black Market."

These days, most people are agreed that a simple menu of unrationed foods and substitutes is a badge of honor... no apologies required!

And from where I sit, housewives can brighten limited meals with cheerful table decorations, sparkling cider or tangy ice-cold beer, or side dishes of home-made preserves and fruits and nuts. Those little touches can be mighty helpful to the appetite.

March Is Basis For April, May Slaughter Quota

COLLEGE STATION, April 26—The maximum slaughter percentages in effect during February and March for good and choice grades of cattle and calves will be used by slaughterers in determining the proportion of the two top grades they may slaughter in April and May. This information is contained in an announcement by the Office of Price Administration received by the A. and M. College Extension Service. The action amends order one under maximum price regulation 574, and became effective March 28, 1945.

According to the announcement, present zone percentages will be continued as follows:

Zone A (75 per cent) -- That part of Texas which is south of the 32nd parallel and west of the 103rd meridian. Roughly this approximates the block of trans-Pecos counties from a line drawn through Winkler, Ward, Pecos and Brewster Counties.

Zone C (50 per cent) -- All of Texas excepting that part which is included in Zone A.

The OPA explains that the fairly high permissible slaughter percentages for good and choice grades have been continued for the next two months, because many of the cattle going to stockyards will be from feed lots. The lower grades of range-fed stock are not expected to move to slaughterers in volume until later in the season.

Parents Urged To Help Stop Child Diseases

AUSTIN—Asking the cooperation of all Texas parents in a campaign to stamp out preventable diseases and insure the highest possible health levels among the children of this State, Dr. Geo. W. Cox today expressed his deep appreciation of the President's proclamation May 1 as Child Health Day.

Urging state-wide cooperation in this campaign for child health promotion, Dr. Cox, State Health Officer, said today, "There is no more important phase of national health than that of child health, and the tragic annual death rate from diphtheria and smallpox is indeed hard to understand when we remember that science has long since produced a successful and safe immunization against both these diseases."

Dr. Cox pointed out the vital importance of child health to the total strength of our nation, and urged all Texans to exert every effort to conserve and protect child health, not only through the application of positive health measures, but also by reducing the incidence of the more devastating childhood illnesses.

"Young children who are taught personal hygiene, who live in clean homes, whose diets are carefully supervised and whose young bodies have been made immune to the ravages of such diseases as diphtheria, smallpox, and typhoid fever stand an excellent chance of growing into strong, healthy, useful citizens," Dr. Cox said. "It is these boys and girls whose strength and health we are safeguarding by the observance of Child Health Day, who will be the leaders of that victorious and peaceful era which we are fighting to bring about today."

Mrs. Maysie Brown returned last week from a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. Hillman Brown, who are stationed at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls.

A & M Official Appointed To FCA Board

HOUSTON — Director I. P. Trotter of the Texas A. & M. Extension Service has been appointed to fill the unexpired term of E. J. Kyle on the board of directors of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston, according to announcement by General Agent Jack Shelton.

Dr. Trotter was named by Farm Credit Governor I. W. Duggan in Kansas City following the resignation of Dean Kyle when he was appointed United States Ambassador to Guatemala. The Dean has been a director on the Farm Credit board for the past 10 years and his current term would have expired at the end of 1947.

As a member of the board of the Farm Credit Administration in Texas, Dr. Trotter is also a member of the board of directors of its four agricultural financing institutions - the Federal Land Bank of Houston, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, the Production Credit Corporation of Houston and the Houston Bank for Cooperatives. Nation's Number One Oil Producer

From more than 8,000 wells in Texas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Mississippi and Florida Humble is producing 138,000,000 barrels of crude oil annually, more than any other company in the United States.

Large reserves built up over many years by outstanding work in exploration, drilling, efficient production and conservation have enabled Humble to produce one-fourth of the nation's increased oil needs for war since 1941.

This significant FIRST in crude oil production is one of four outstanding war accomplishments of the Humble organization. The 14,000 Humble men and women have become

FIRST to produce a billion gallons of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline at one refinery

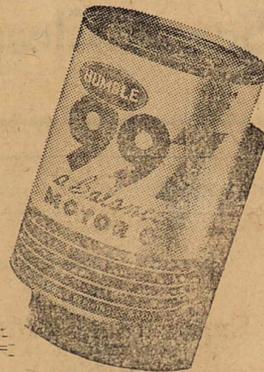

FIRST in production of synthetic toluene for TNT

FIRST in volume of oil transported by pipe line

From the same combination of resources, know-how and teamwork that has made these accomplishments possible come top quality Humble products for your car.

Texas Number One Motor Oil

Humble 997, gives you a perfect balance of all the desirable qualities in a motor oil, none over-emphasized, none sacrificed. Look for 997 at your favorite Humble station or dealer. It guarantees you the instant and complete lubrication your car needs to keep serving you for the duration.

It was not a speed or endurance test, but the practicability, that pleased Mr. Ford. He did not have a mishap on the trip and crossed the Llanos and Guadalupe so many times without letting the engine go dead or having to be pulled out that the auto is now a real practical pleasure to him.

Gardening for Victory

Soon travelers will be seeing plots of beets, beans, tomatoes, corn and other needed vegetables "coming along" on both sides of our tracks.

For once again Santa Fe has made its right-of-way available to its employees for Victory Gardens.

We are also offering $2720.00 in War Bonds to our best Victory Gardeners as an added incentive toward helping "Food Fight for Freedom."

Located as we are "Along the Route to Tokyo," Santa Fe people throughout our 13,093 miles of track can "feel" this war. They are working full hours to move along the never-ending loads of guns, tanks, men and munitions.

Perhaps that's another reason why they're not only working harder on their railroad jobs, but are pretty fine War Bond buyers and Victory Gardeners as well.

It's Santa Fe all the way for the U.S.A.

USO Shows Are "Medicine" For Ill Veterans

AUSTIN, April 25—Some of the most potent doctors in this war don't know the first thing about medicine or surgery, but they get the job done, if you take it from the wounded veterans and the administrators in the big Army hospitals of Texas.

Those drugless "doctors" are the actors and entertainers of the USO Hospital circuit. Approximately 50 show units, in addition to a number of big-name entertainers, have made the rounds thus far. More have been and will continue to be booked for future shows.

USO Hospital Shows are financed, just as are USO Camp Shows and the USO clubs, by the National War Fund to which Texans contribute through their county war chests.

"These entertainers have done a wonderful job in our institution", says Brig. Gen. James A. Beatha, commanding general of McCloskey General Hospital at Temple. "They have done wonders for our wounded."

One of the major problems of army hospital authorities and doctors is to keep the wounded men from boredom and from thinking too much of their troubles. Model-making, drawing, work that men can handle from their beds or wheel chairs, are all encouraged to that end. But the surest-fire gloom-killer is the USO hospital show, Army authorities report.

Top flight entertainment, planned specifically for the wounded men, is presented. Each unit spends three or four days at each hospital. Shows are presented in the auditorium for ambulatory patients, and in the wards at the very bedside of the more seriously wounded. When acts call for it, a piano is moved from ward to ward.

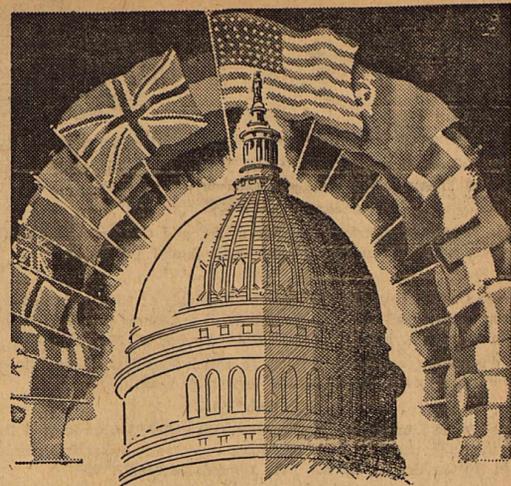

The same traditions of trouping prevail among the actors as on the old legitimate stage. On one occasion a company reached McCloskey Hospital after 48 hours of bus-travel with no stop for sleep. The actors were haggard and exhausted as they alighted. Yet, an hour later they put on a first class, peppy show for the men, with absolutely no hint of their fatigue.

Among the celebrities who have visited the army hospitals in Texas are Jose Iturbi, Paul Muni, Ginny Simms, Frank McHugh, Trudy Marshall, Spring Byington, Lynne Carver, Paul Draper and Larry Adler.

Texas last year led all big-quota states in contributing to the National War Fund, which finances USO and 21 other war-related agencies. The 1945 drive for funds will open on October 1, with active war chest groups organized in all Texas counties.

Mrs. Wes Granger was in San Angelo on business Wednesday.

So Proudly we hail---

We hail our flag . . . the Stars and Stripes . . . as it flies high with the other United Nations' flags in world battles. We will see to it that our flag, and those of our Allies, will go on waving high over battles to come until final victory. We will see to it that the post-war world maintains the freedom, democracy, progress and unity which our flag and all these flags, symbolize!

We hail our own special flag for the particular brand of democracy for which it stands. It is democracy built upon the sound principles of flexibility, unity, progress and human freedom.

THE WAR BONDS THAT YOU BUY DURING THE SEVENTH WAR LOAN DRIVE ARE A TRIBUTE TO YOUR FAITH IN THAT FLAG AND TO THE BRAVE MEN WHO ARE DEFENDING IT WITH THEIR LIVES.
