Unsung Heroes in TB Fight

Behind all the knowledge gained about tuberculosis and how to fight this disease which kills 40,000 Americans a year is research of one kind or another. Basic to all medical research is the laboratory work of technicians such as these. The voluntary tuberculosis associations affiliated with the National Tuberculosis Association are now aiding 35 research studies and will donate at least one percent of the proceeds of their 1951 Christmas Seal Sale to medical and social research.

Local Defense Bonds Sales Total $20,000

Sutton County's sales totaled $20,191.25 during the first U. S. Defense Bond drive, Nathan Adams of Dallas, state chairman, informed George H. Neill, local county chairman. The drive was held from Sept. 3 through Nov. 13.

Final sales figures showed that Series E bonds accounted for $17,231.25 and Series F and G for $2,960.00 of this county's total. Sales of $27,778,453.25 in Texas during the drive were almost 50 per cent more than normal, Adams said.

"Normally sales for this period would have been about $18,000.00 or $19,000,000," he said. "and the fact that sales were so much higher is definite proof that the people of Texas are responding, as they always do, to the country's need in national emergencies."

The sales total for the state included $22,459,665.25 in Series E bonds and $5,318,788 in Series F and G. There were no state or county quotas, the goal being the "largest possible" volume of sales. Adams expressed appreciation to the thousands of citizens who served as volunteers in the drive, but urged that they continue their efforts.

"The need for buying Defense Bonds still exists," he said. "With our country engaged in a gigantic preparedness program, these bonds form an important economic link in our defense."

Castilleja Motion For New Trial Being Studied

Testimony was given Thursday in 112th District Court, Judge Garland Casebier, Ft. Stockton, presiding, at a hearing on a motion for a new trial for Ben Castilleja, Sonora shearing captain, who was assessed 50 years in prison for the murder of Miguel Gonzales.

The defense was represented by Clayton Bray and Alfonso F. Montemayor, San Antonio.

Although the Judge Casebier's first inclination was to deny the motion, he decided Thursday evening to take the motion and its supporting evidence under further advisement. His decision will be announced in court here sometime next week.

The defense's motion was based mainly on the uncovering of new evidence in the form of an eye witness, Roberto Herrera, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Herrera. The boy testified that he saw the shooting.

Roberto is a third grade student at the L. W. Elliott School.

The defense also presented several other witnesses whose testimony will not be published until after the court has announced its decision.

THIS TASTES GOOD IN TEXAS

Cream Turkey On Festive Rice
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup milk
1 egg yolk
2 cups cooked turkey, diced
2 tablespoons butter-margarine
4 cups cooked rice
1 cup cooked green peas
3 tablespoons diced pimiento

Preparing the fluffy rice: Put 1 cup of rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups of cold water in a two quart saucepan. Cover with a tight fitting lid. Bring to a vigorous boil. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and steam for 14 minutes or until all the water is absorbed, leaving the separate rice grains. This makes a very firm rice grain. (If you prefer more tender rice grains, add 1-3 cup more water and increase the slow cooking time 4 or 5 minutes.)

Remove the lid, permit the rice to steam dry to the desired consistency and the grains will be separate and fluffy. Never stir rice; lift gently with a fork.

Method: Empty the can of soup into a saucepan. Add the milk. Beat in the egg yolk, add the turkey and heat, stirring constantly. Serve over a mound of the Festive Rice mixture.

LITTLE THINGS about the Stars
TELEVISION - RADIO - HOLLYWOOD

By GEORGE LILLEY

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Perhaps television's biggest dramatic program to date—so big it takes three separate production crews to keep it going—is on view Friday nights on CBS-TV. This one, "Playhouse of Stars," has inaugurated a new idea in TV programming—signing its star talent exclusively. Helen Hayes, Walter Hampden, John Payne, Ronald Reagan, Rosalind Russell and

Margaret Sullivan Helen Hayes Rosalind Russell

Margaret Sullivan will make two to six appearances while being seen on no other live TV show.

The three production crews are used to combat the elaborate preparations and detail of big-time television programming. Operating separately, complete with individual producer-directors, the three rotate, each coming in with a show every three weeks. Heading up "Playhouse of Stars" as executive producer is Felix Jackson, a former top-flight Hollywood man. Jackson wrote the hit screen plays, "Mad About Music" and "Destry Rides Again" and produced numerous films for Universal Pictures.

COMING ON CAVALCADE

"The Cavalcade of America," one of radio's oldest (17 years) and most honored programs (Peabody Award), lists a number of interesting shows on its coming schedule. Among them: An all-star cast in "The Path of Praise," story of the growth of the Thanksgiving custom; "The Giant Who Stepped Over the Mountain," John Sevier's struggle to gain Tennessee statehood, scheduling William Holden; "The Sitting Duck," naval story tentatively starring Tyrone Power, and, for the seventh consecutive year, the Christmas program by the 116-voice Du Pont choir. Dealing with Americans and American developments, "Cavalcade" is heard Tuesday nights on NBC.

THREE 'S's' OF SONG

Three "S's" of the popular singing world combine for one of radio's more pleasant quarter-hours (Monday thru Friday nights, CBS), the "Jack Smith-Dinah Shore-Ginny Simms Show." Ginny appears with Jack on Mondays and Fridays, Dinah the other three nights. Dinah and Jack attribute a portion of their success to similar accidents. Dinah appeared to sing better after suffering a broken nose early in her career. Jack's singing improved right along with broken noses—five of them, all in volley ball games. Ginny has had no nose trouble but is superstitious. She wore for a long time, when singing, a rabbit's foot tucked in the top of her stocking—a gift from Judy Garland.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Time to settle...

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?
Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $.34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

How's THIS for a kettle of fish?

NO doubt about it—a road failure can cost you plenty of "fish." Not only in time lost to what could have been profitable hauling, but in expensive repairs as well—repairs that could have been avoided.

That's where we come in.

If you bring your equipment to us at regular intervals, our mechanics will catch the little things that go wrong with trucks before they become a major breakdown.

In so doing, you're being thrifty three ways. You (1) cut down the possibility of costly repairs, (2) get better performance with less "down time" and (3) get more years of service from the trucks you now own.

Make sense to you? Come on in—the service is fine!

Get more 'run' for your money!

YOUR HEALTH

"At this time of the year health officers and practicing physicians always expect an increase in the common cold," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Office, reminds residents of Texas. "Although good personal hygiene-adequate sleep, weather is partly responsible for suitable clothing, moderate exercise and good nutrition-may help the individual to develop resistance to infections, colds frequently develop in spite of all normal precautions. The seasonal rise in colds and other respiratory diseases during the fall and winter months certainly suggests that the shift to cooler their prevalence. "The unhappy victim of a cold should make every effort to prevent spreading the infection to others. He can help by covering coughs and sneezes with a disposable paper handkerchief, by staying out of crowds and avoiding close contact with others-especially invalids, young children and old people. Evidence indicates that colds are readily transmitted from person to person.

"For his own sake the patient should rest as much as possible in order to help his body fight the cold. If there is any fever it is advisable to go to bed and stay there. There is some question as to the effectiveness of the large quantities of water and fruit juices generally recommended in the past, but they can do no harm and may help to some extent.

"If a cold persists for several days the patient should by all means consult his family physician, especially if there is an accompanying fever. Although, as is generally known, there is no specific cure for the common cold the doctor can prescribe medicines that will afford safe relief. Consulting the physician is strongly advised, also, because a number of communicable diseases have early symptoms similar to those of the cold and only a doctor can decide whether the patient has a simple cold or some more serious disease."

Christian Training of 400 Boys and Girls to be Feature on Methodist Home Radio Program

This group of boys from the Methodist Home, Waco, Texas, will be heard on the Home's regular Sunday morning broadcast December 2. They are shown singing one of their favorite hymns, "Halleluiah."

Christian training for 400 boys and girls at the Methodist Home, Waco, Texas, will be portrayed in the Home's regular Sunday morning radio broadcast at 8:15 December 2. The life story of one of the Home's boys who chose the Methodist ministry for his life's work will be told. The young man whose life has been dedicated to the ministry was salutatorian for his high school graduating class, president of the National Honor Society in his school's chapter and a winner of a national oratorical contest. He is now attending university.

Appropriate music will be furnished by the Methodist Home Choir and a speciality number will be offered by a group of boys whose picture is shown above. Radio stations in Texas and New Mexico who are cooperating in broadcasting the programs are: WFAA, Dallas; WOAI, San Antonio; KPRC, Houston; KRIS, Corpus Christi; KRGV, Weslaco; KGGM, Amarillo; KROD, El Paso; KGGM, Albuquerque; KFYO, Lubbock; KFDM, Beaumont; KPRO, Longview; KVAL, Brownsville; KERB, Kermit; KTVC, Austin; and KBST, Big Spring.

GRAND CHAMPION STEER WORTH PLENTY TO WINNER

Perhaps the most widely coveted award of the boys' show of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth is the boys' grand champion steer which then has an opportunity to become the grand champion steer of the exposition in competition with the breed winners in the open steer show, declares President-Manager W. R. Watt.

Frequently during the history of the Fort Worth show the grand champion steer of the entire exposition has been shown by a boy and, in addition to the premiums, he has reaped a rich harvest when his steer was sold in the auction of champions.

Premiums in the boys' steer show amount to $3,187. Of this amount, $620 is offered by the this as the amount of work and attention to bring one steer to the proper condition to have a chance to win against the keen competition requires a great deal of time.

A boy must have owned the steer prior to Sept. 1, 1951, and must have taken care of the steer from Sept. 1 to opening day of the Stock Show, Jan. 25. The show runs through Feb. 3

To be eligible, a boy must be 10 and under 21, prior to Dec. 31.

The feeding of the animal and keeping of records of this must be done under the supervision of a county agent (or staff member of Extension Service) or vocational agriculture teacher, and to qualify for showing a steer, the boy must get certification from one of these officials.

An entry must be shown by the boy (except when he has more than one entry in one class or can not be present). The parents are not allowed to assist the boy in the show ring nor can the county agent or vocational agriculture teacher, though these officials are permitted to assist the boys in getting the steers lined up but must then leave the ring.

Steers must have been born between Sept. 1, 1950 and Sept. 1, 1951. They are divided in three classes based on weight; over 925 pounds; 825 to 925 pounds; and under 825 pounds. The animals can be purebred, grade or crossbred. In each breed the winners of the three weight groups compete for the championship and reserve championship.

Then the winners of Herefords, Shorthorns and Angus will be matched and the winner is the boys' grand champion steer.

The next step is to place the boys' Hereford champion beside the open show Hereford champion to select the best steer of this breed; similarly with the Shorthorns and Angus. Thus, three steers emerge as the best in their respective breeds and then, from these three, the grand champion steer of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show is selected, with gold and glory as the reward for the exhibitor! And this exhibitor might be a Future Farmer or 4-H Club boy - hence the interest that follows each step of the steer competition in the boys' show.

Double Surprise for a lot of folks

EVERY time we publish the price of a Buick, it seems to surprise a lot of people, because they come in and tell us so.

They just can't believe that so little money buys such a lot of car—but it's true.

And that brings us to the second surprise—which is how much power and performance—how much comfort and room—what a long list of standout engineering features you get for the price.

Take power. You'll find that no other car at the price of the Buick SPECIAL pictured here delivers the horsepower you get from its high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine.

Take comfort. The best thing to do is try the depth of its seats—their width—and the headroom you get in this Buick SPECIAL, and judge for yourself.

Take the ride. This Buick has big soft coil springs on every wheel, plus the solid firmness of a torque-tube keel—and the way this combination smoothes the bumps is something that's hard to match in cars costing a thousand dollars more.

Take the way it steers. Buick engineers have given this light-handling beauty a special "front-end geometry" that almost does the steering for you—even brings the front wheels back to a straight line when you come out of a turn.

And you can add to all this Dynaflo Drive*—that puts magic smoothness into every mile you drive—and practically repays its extra cost by the way it protects the whole driving mechanism, and by the dollars it adds to trade-in value.

So if you have been hoping, some day, to own a Buick—what's holding you back? If you can afford any new car—better see us now.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

IT'S A FIREBALL ENGINE

It gives you a lot to be thankful for

Let's suppose that this is you. The car you're riding in, as you can see, is a Buick. But what you can't see is the satisfaction which being behind that wheel brings to every day in the year. Take the feel of it -- the way it goes into action when you nudge the gas treadle. Quick. Eager. Willing. No effort at all. You just swoop up to the miles per hour you want. That's because there's a high-powered, high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine under the hood that makes every drop of gas do extra duty. And it's because there's a Dynaflo Drive,* feeding that power back to the rear wheels as smoothly as cream flows from a pitcher. Take the way it sits the road. Balanced. Poised. Sure-footed. Snug. That's because of a long list of things that Buick engineers have done to its ride—including a torque-tube keel that keeps rear wheels tracking true—and soft coil springs that individually cushion each wheel. Take the way it steers. Easy. Light. Firm. On a straightaway—or coming out of a curve—it seems to know what you want it to do. That's because of something the engineers call "front-end geometry"—and because 60 steel balls roll in their own little race track to ease each turn of the wheel. Take its room, its comfort, its smart good looks—and its price. Any way you size it up, here's a car to make you thankful for your good judgment in picking it, against the field. All that is needed to complete this picture is you at the wheel of a flesh-and-blood Buick—out on the road for a sample of what we've been talking about.

That's easy to arrange. Just give us a call, and we'll do the rest.

The successful man is one who finds out what is the matter with his business before his competitors do.

The best things of life are not the things we get, but the things we become.

The great successes have always been people who are willing to be different.

We meet men every day who are successful only because they stuck to one idea long enough to prove it.

No man is a success who can't recommend his way of living to his son.

The things that count most in success are available to every man—honour, dependability, punctuality, reliability and loyalty.

The Scribes thought they had Jesus cornered. So He told them this parable: "Why do you see the speck in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye." Luke 6:42.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn is the subject of a full-length article in the November 24th issue of The Saturday Evening Post. The story says this Texas veteran is the country's pre-eminent expert on how to pass laws and placate politicians.

Speaker Rayburn Featured In Post Article

The office of Speaker of the House has grown in prestige during Sam Rayburn's tenure, it is pointed out in the current (November 24th) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

A full-length article on the venerable Texan cites the fact that Congress has raised the Speaker's salary and changed the presidential succession law so that he would become Chief Executive in the event of the death of both the President and the Vice-President.

In "They're Just Crazy About Sam," author Paul F. Healy finds that Rayburn himself has added to this prestige by becoming a strong Speaker and he has held the post over nine years, longer than anyone else in U. S. history.

Few men have dealt so closely with a cross section of human nature in the raw, Healy says. He has managed to move adroitly through a series of national crises with two Presidents of contrasting temperament and background, and simultaneously ride herd on 434 usually hot and bothered colleagues, each from a different part of the country and each a full-blown personality in his or her own right.

The story says one of the secrets of his success is that he goes beyond his duties as presiding officer of the House, leader of his party in the House and highest adviser to the President on legislative matters to function as a combination father-confessor, counselor and Dutch uncle to members on both sides of the aisle.

Rayburn likes Congressmen. He figures he has served with nearly 3,000 of them during his 39 years in Washington and has tried to know intimately as many as possible. Evidence that they also like him is reflected in the statement of Representatives Abraham Multer, a New York Democrat, that to the new members of Congress Rayburn has been "more than a leader, "he has been our guardian angel."

Both Republican and Democratic members are said to seek him out continually for advice on their personal problems. Even wives of congressmen have gone to the 69-year-old Speaker, who is a bachelor, for tips on how to handle their prima-donna husbands.

At the same time, Rayburn is reported to receive more proposals of marriage by mail than any other bachelor in Washington.

Healy also says that this holder of the second most powerful political post in the Government is the country's pre-eminent expert on how to pass laws and placate politicians.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Glasscock had as their guests over the Thanksgiving holidays her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Schwarz, her sisters, Mrs. Julius Gombert and Mrs. Johnny Uecker, and families, and her brother, Hilmer Schwarz and Mrs. Schwarz, all of Boerne.

Let them not have died in vain...

ON ARMISTICE DAY, 1951, let us resolve that every day will be a day of remembering the men who died for us in Korea. And the lesson they gave their lives to teach us: peace is for the strong.

We must make it clear to all men of all nations that no possible gain can come from aggressive action. That we have built and are maintaining a superior strength. And that we stand ready to use that strength whenever our rights or freedom are imperiled.

We must build for our war dead a monument of strength which shall be, in turn, a monument of peace for our generation and those to come.

There is a job for peace that you can do. It's this. Back up our defense forces, and help keep America economically strong, by buying United States Defense Bonds. Buy them regularly—through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Start today!

Peace is for the strong...buy U.S. Defense Bonds regularly!
